TEMPERANCE CAUSE.

Whereas, The temperance cause is calling attention to county, state and United States, and, indeed, the world; and,

Whereas, This cause recently became a recognized organization of our church and needs our attention, talent, time and money; and,

Whereas, Intemperance is injurious to every good cause;

Therefore be it resolved, We organize in our Conference a living movement against this demon—

First. By requiring the District Secretary to see that a Temperance Society is organized in each church in his District and that a District Organization is formed.

Resolved further, That at sometime during the year we hold a state meeting.

A. B. RAY,
C. W. WHITEHEAD.

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, submit to you the following report:

Whereas, the Board of Foreign Missions is one of the greatest auxiliaries of the church in making the gospel of the Son of God known to all the nations of the world; and,

Whereas, India, China, Korea, Africa and the whole heathen world stands with open doors with outstretched hands toward America with pitiful cries begging to know about our Christ and the knowledge of His truth; and,

Whereas, The war among the people in our foreign field gives us greater opportunity for teaching and showing the spirit of Christ; and,

Whereas, They are looking to America for light, freedom and truth and an opportunity comes to us as never before to make Christ known to the world; and,

Whereas, Our great church leads in the work of moral and spiritual uplift of all nations, and the greater burden of responsibility becomes ours:

Therefore be it resolved, That we, the members of the Little Rock Conference, double our efforts and push the cause as never before.

M. F. STRONG,
C. W. WHITEHEAD,
R. B. FAGAN,
M. B. A. CAIN.

COMMITTEE ON STATE OF CHURCH.

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church is world-wide in its scope, deep and profound in its spiritual co-operation and effective in its work; and,

Whereas, She is a gospel messenger of the Son of God, inspiring and uplifting every nationality under the sun, diffusing light and life of mental, moral and spiritual purity among all people; and,

Whereas, Her auxiliaries and institutions of learning are prepared to solve many of the moral and social questions of today, and everywhere acknowledging the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood; and,

Whereas, The state of the Church is good—better today than ever before; better understood because of its attitude toward all races for the peculiar stand it takes to set forth a higher standard for the people at large;

Therefore be it resolved, That the Little Rock Annual Conference bend every effort to establish and maintain her claim on every hill top and every valley.

Respectfully, Your Committee,
F. J. JACOBS,
W. B. HARRIS,
M. McCROSKY,
G. W. WEIR.

We rejoice to see the evangelic fire already kindled. We, as ministers of the great Methodist Church, will go forth to continue the well-begun work of saving souls. We pray God's blessings upon the effort put forth to evangelize the world for Christ in our day and generation, and that the world may be made better by our having lived in it.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY

The Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been in the very forefront of the efforts of the philanthropic people to educate the Negro. Its long history of forty-eight years, during which results have been marvelous, is an assurance that the future will be even more so.

The institution among us, viz: Philander Smith College, has been one of those doing most effective work. The graduates have made good wherever they have gone.

The study body of the present year is as promising of large results as at any time in the history of the school.

There is, however, great need of completing Webb Hall, of making repairs within and without upon the main building, of improving the sanitary conditions so as to hold our own and do the work expected of us. Therefore be it Resolved, First, That we agree to raise this year $3,000 for Philander-Smith College as a part of the general Jubilee movement to raise funds for new buildings, repairs, etc.

Second, That the District Superintendents are hereby instructed to apportion this sum among the Districts and Charges to be raised this year and reported under Conference Educational collection.

Third, It is understood the $3,000 agreed upon is independent of the regular Freedmen's Aid General Fund.

Fourth, That the first effort to raise our apportionment upon the $3,000 will be made the fifth Sunday in May and that there shall be a conference wide celebration as Philander-Smith College Day and use the program, The Sower, issued by the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Signed,

B. J. LEWIS, Chairman.
J. C. ADAMS, Secretary.
J. R. WILSON.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The General Conference of 1912 requested the Church to celebrate during this quadrennium the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of Methodism in America by raising Five Millions of Dollars for permanent investments of Annual Conferences and the Permanent Fund of the Board of Conference Claimants, for the support of retired ministers and other conference claimants; and the bishops, the peerless leaders of our Methodism, at their semi-annual meeting in Washington last October, made an appeal and address to the church, calling upon all Methodism to set aside the year 1915 for the purpose of raising these Five Millions of Dollars and so meeting what the convention of Methodist men in Indianapolis declared to be the supreme claim of the retired minister to a "comfortable support." Therefore Be It

Resolved, That we unite with the other Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this great movement for the better support of Conference claimants by raising an Endowment Fund of Two Thousand Dollars for the claimants of our own conference.

Resolved, That a commission to be known as the Commission on Permanent Endowment be appointed by the cabinet at this session of our Annual Conference to be composed of the District Superintendent, one pastor and one layman from each district, which commission shall have full charge of raising this Endowment Fund, set the time for beginning the canvas and shall determine the ways and means of raising the same.

Resolved, That we believe the time has come when the law of the discipline should be observed and that this Conference apportion to the pastoral charges a sufficient sum for the support of Conference claimants so that each claimant shall receive the full and equitable amount established by the Discipline. We urge the careful observance of the law of the church relating to the raising of funds for claimants as a part of the budget for ministerial support and of properly pro-rating the same.

J. M. COX, Chairman.

ber 26, 1880. Died January 8, 1915. Father entered the Little Rock Conference in 1905. He went to St. Louis but returned home in 1914 and remained until death claimed him November 17. His mother preceded him eight years ago. He died with faith in the God he served.

Pasadena, Cal., November 26, 1914.

Death invaded our ranks and removed from us our Dear Brother, the Rev. W. R. R. Duncan, one of the leading members of the Little Rock Conference. He was born in South Carolina January 26, 1857, died November 26, 1914, in full triumph of saving grace. He was a wise leader, a strong preacher and a Christian gentleman. Thirty-eight years of his life was spent in the church. Brother Duncan presided over every district within the bounds of the Little Rock Conference, and pastored some of the leading charges. His health failed him and he went West to seek a better place and now we can say with this assurance he rests from his labor. Servant of God well done.
