PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION

Ft. Smith, Ark., Jan. 26, 1916.

The Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened in its Thirty-eighth Annual Session in Mallilieu Methodist Episcopal Church, January 26th, 1916, at 9:30 o'clock, Bishop Frank M. Bristol presiding. After the administration of the Lord's Supper, Rev. B. J. Griffin led in a fervent prayer. The conference roll was then called by Rev. L. G. Hodges, the former Secretary, and seventy-two responded.

The sixteenth question, "Who have died?" was asked. The names of Revs. W. H. Morris and T. B. Barnes being announced, the Conference stood with bowed heads while the Bishop led in a very feeling prayer.

The Conference then entered into the business of organizing with the following results: Secretary, S. J. Saxton; Assistants, J. W. Jackson, M. F. Strong and C. W. Sampson; Statistician, J. W. Terrell; Assistants, P. H. Myers, S. McDonald, P. W. Webb, W. H. Simpson and J. H. Hynes; Treasurer, H. P. Coulter; Assistants, J. L. Bryan, H. Bright, J. H. Hatchett and G. A. Hall.

The Conference bar was fixed beginning from the inside of the second window from the rear. The time for meeting and adjourning was fixed for 8:30 and 12 o'clock respectively, the first half hour to be devoted to devotions.

At this juncture, Prof. R. B. Hays, of Philander Smith College, was introduced, and with well-chosen and thoughtful words, he presented to the Bishop on behalf of the faculty and students of Philander Smith College, a gavel made by one of the students from an oak on the college campus. In response, the Bishop emphasized the fact that each tap of the gavel represented liberty, law and learning.

The transfer of Rev. A. P. Shaw from the Washington Conference was announced by the Bishop.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, The Little Rock Conference convenes at a season of the year when it works a harship both on those who entertain the Conference and the constitutents of the Conference, and

Whereas, At this season of the year, the people being farmers, have spent all of their money, and therefore renders it difficult to collect all of our Benevolences, and

Whereas, We believe that if the time for the setting of the Conference was changed, there would be an increase in the Benevolences,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Little Rock Conference ask the Board of Bishops to change the time of holding our Conference from January to December.

Respectfully submitted,

S. McDONALD.

Whereas, It is currently reported that J. H. Beckwith and John Watson, former Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference, have, without authority and right, sold property belonging to said Conference, worth from $600 to $1,000,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Trustees of the Conference is hereby empowered to look into the matter at once and take such steps to recover the property or its equivalent, as are necessary, that the Conference may not lose; and that said Trustees report to the next Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

W. McINTOSH,
J. W. JACKSON,
L. G. HODGES,
N. DARBY,

Whereas, The Little Rock Annual Conference has been lately incorporated under the laws of Arkansas, and

Whereas, the said Conference has real estate under its charge to the amount of $159,315 or more,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Conference Board of Trustees be empowered to secure, through the District Superintendents and Pastors, the location of said property and enter the same in a book, the book to be the property of the Conference.

L. G. HODGES.

Whereas, The Little Rock Conference hails with delight the coming of Bishop Frank M. Bristol among us, and

Whereas, his addresses and sermon, his fair and impartial ruling have inspired us to higher ideals of Christian living,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we do hereby ask his return to hold our next Annual Conference.

Be It Further Resolved, That we extend to him our profound thanks for his services with us, and that we do now show our appreciation for the same by a rising vote.

Respectfully submitted,
S. McDONALD.

Whereas, There has come to the different Conferences of our Methodism, a great improvement in the conversion of souls, in a closer fellowship of pastors and members, in a better understanding of our laws, and a higher reverence for our General Superintendents on account of the closer supervision by our Bishops, and

Whereas, We believe that our work, both in church and education in Arkansas and in areas immediately surrounding this State will be greatly improved by closer Episcopal supervision, and

Whereas, Our Conference school, Philander Smith College, standing as it does, in the esteem of the church, in order to best come fully into its own, to grasp the opportunities to improve the youth of this and neighboring States, needs the endorsements of immediate Episcopal supervision, and

Whereas, We believe these results will be obtained by having a Bishop of our church residing in this area,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members of the Little Rock Annual Conference do hereby petition the coming General Conference to establish an Episcopal residence at Little Rock, Arkansas.

Respectfully submitted,
C. A. TAYLOR,
J. H. GREER.

"Ingrates are those who are not thankful for kindness shown or for service rendered them."

Whereas, Many kindnesses have been shown and many services have been rendered to the members of the Ministerial and Lay Conferences by the officials and newspapers of the city of Ft. Smith, the pastors and members of sister churches, and by the pastor, officials and members of Mallilieu Methodist Episcopal church, and

Whereas, It is contrary to the doctrine and practice of our church to be ungrateful, for we believe in and try by the help of the Holy Spirit to practice the Golden Rule,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members of the Little Rock Conference, by these resolutions, express our appreciation for the splendid entertainment given us by all of the organizations above mentioned, and that we pray that the hand of the every protecting Father will be with them and carry them safely through all the calamities of life, for God doeth all things well.

S. McDONALD.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Committee on Temperance.

Whereas, The Temperance Cause is gaining in influence each day, not only in our country, but throughout the world, and

W. B. SMITH,
G. W. WEIR,
DAVID HALL,
J. W. WILLIAMSON,
WM. HANNA.

Board of Education.

Whereas, The Board of Education is one of the great benevolent causes of our church, and is that force which promotes the educational interests of our church, and

Whereas, This Board in its extensive scope is doing important and effective work among us in helping worthy young men and women to educate themselves,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members of the Little Rock Conference pledge ourselves to co-operate with the Board and push with our might its interests.

D. W. NELSON,
C. H. HOWELL,
P. W. WEBB,
L. C. DAWKINS,

Bible Cause.

Whereas, The American Bible Society is so zealously distributing the Bible throughout the world,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to support this cause in every possible way, and that we confer with our agents and invite them into our charges to assist in this work.

G. W. THOMPSON,
M. D. GYLES,
J. T. HAWKINS,
J. H. GREER,
J. S. STOKES.

Home Mission and Church Extension.

Whereas, The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension needs an increase in collections from every charge in the Little Rock Conference, and

Whereas, This can be accomplished only by concerted action on the part of pastors and membership,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That each pastor is hereby requested to earnestly solicit increased assistance from every member in his charge and thereby raise the full amount that may be asked.

Respectfully submitted,

A. S. MILLER,
H. BRIGHT,
S. J. SAXTON,
G. A. HALL,
J. M. COX.

Southwestern and Periodicals.

Whereas, The Southwestern Christian Advocate is doing so much good in moulding public sentiment for the church and humanity generally, and

Whereas, The various periodicals of the entire church are rendering such valuable services in their respective fields.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That each pastor is hereby requested to send in at least ten (10) subscribers to the Southwestern before the setting of the General Conference.

Be It Further Resolved, That each pastor see to it that only our own literature is used in our churches and Sunday Schools.

WM. SPEED,
E. M. ALEXANDER,
R. B. HENRY,
M. C. McCROSKEY.

State of Church.

We have noted with interest and delight the many activities of our great church during the year and feel that we do not exaggerate when we state that never before in her history was she in better condition than today. Her temporal affairs in all departments show progress; her missionaries report large ingatherings into the kingdom; her Bishops and general officers are all men of large spiritual vision, and revival fires are continually burning on her altar. While we have slight uneasiness when we note the over-zealous hankering of some of our leaders after the Union of Methodism, even at the expense of some of those broad principles and ideals that have been the motive power of our unparalelled progress, we feel certain that this matter will be adjusted by the guidance of the Holy Spirit and not by mere zeal for size and numbers, for the greatness of a church is determined not by might, nor by temporal power, nor by numbers, but by its nearness to the perfect manifestation and practice of the Spirit of the Lord of Hosts. Our church within the bounds of the Little Rock Conference is making some progress. In the providence of Almighty God and by His grace, we are marching on through difficulties to triumph. Pray for our abundant success.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. SHAW,
F. J. JACOBS,
G. W. WEIR,
J. R. WILSON,
W. B. HARRIS,
H. BRIGHT.

We rejoice to see the evangelistic fire already kindled. As becometh members of the great Methodist Episcopal church, we will go forth to continue the well-begun work of saving souls for the kingdom of our God. We pray God's blessings upon the effort being put forth to evangelize the world for Christ in our day and generation, and that the world may be made better by our having lived in it.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Freedman's Aid Committee.

We rejoice that this has been the most prosperous quadranium of the Freedman's Aid Society. Our schools sustain such an important relation to the uplift of the race that it is highly encouraging to know that the church has more liberally supported them during this quadranium than ever before. Our own Philander Smith College is now in better condition than ever before and therefore more deserving of our Conference support.

Inasmuch as our Conference last year agreed to raise $3,000 independent of the Freedman's Aid general fund, and

Whereas, $544.00 of this amount has been raised,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we authorized the District Superintendents to apportion the balance, $2,500, to the Districts this year, and by the Superintendents to the various charges; said amount to be raised and reported for Philander Smith College under Conference Educational Collection. Let it be expressly understood that this amount is independent of the general fund for the Freedman's Aid Society.

Be It Further Resolved, That President J. M. Cox has our continued confidence and support, and that we will make every effort to keep in the institution a large student body.

Respectfully submitted,

M. F. STRONG,
S. M. CAIN,
B. F. NEAL,
J. H. HENRY,
J. M. COX.
