And, Whereas, the goal of this great objective is only attained in the development of the highest Christian character by the training of the heart, head and hand, through literary, professional, biblical and industrial institutions, and, whereas, these institutions are to be strategical centers the best educational system comprising collegiate faculties and curriculum; And, Whereas, more than a score of these institutions are located within the bounds of our twenty colored Conferences. These institutions are annually sending forth their products into all parts of the country to assist in the work of fitting humanity for service in the great arena of life; And, Whereas, our own Philander Smith College and Adline Smith Home have been not less active in adding their quotas in this much needed work among our people. Therefore, be it Resolved that we, the Ministers and members of the Little Rock Conference, renew our pledge as never before to stand by these great light houses of the world so as to make them more ample and fit to do the work so vitally and imperatively necessary to meet the demands of the hour and new day in leadership and service in the work of God. Be it further Resolved that we resume our efforts to make sure the endowment movement of our beloved Philander Smith College, thus carrying out the idea of the Church through the university senate, therefore enabling our own Philander Smith College to hold her place so well won and merited amidst the constellation of colleges and universities now being fostered by the church.
