Stokes and joined the Little Rock Conference in 1887 and lived a faithful servant for Christ and his cause. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. Peace to his ashes.

Reverend E. Washington, who joined the Little Rock Conference in 1911. He stood as a good soldier for Jesus Christ until he fell safely in the arms of the Master, January 31, 1923. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. Blessed are they who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

Reverend S. J. Johnson, who joined the Little Rock Conference in 1894 under Bishop Bowman in Hot Springs, Ark. and unfortunately lost his sight a few years later, and was placed on the retired roll where he remained until the time of his death. Well done, Servant of God, the Battle is fought and the Victory is won and thou are crowned at last.

Reverend J. T. Hawkins, who became a member of the Little Rock Conference in 1892 and served heroically until he retired. He departed this life, July 4, 1923. He came to his death unknown to his family and friends, being found dead at Brinkley, Ark. near the coal shaft. His wife and many friends have our heart-felt sympathy. A wife and several children mourn him.

Reverend C. A. Taylor, honored and beloved of the Little Rock Conference, who stood among the oldest members of said annual conference, and shall ever live in our memories in the song "Does Jesus Care." He took the retired relation in 1917. He was born May 4, 1856 and departed this life March 7, 1923. He leaves a devoted wife, one brother, four children and two grandchildren to mourn his loss. Go on Brother, we shall see you again at the resurrection morn.

Reverend Nathaniel Smith, who departed this life after having been assigned by Bishop Clair to Canfield charge. He made one trip to his work and thence to his Dermont. He fought a good fight and finished his course and received the glorious crown which the Lord had in store for him. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn him.

Whereas the board of Bishops has tended us the services of Bishop Homer C. Stuntz D. D. L. L. D. whose Episcole residence is in Omaha, Neb., and whereas Bishop Stuntz having had such broad experiences in travel and labor both in the home and in Foreign fields, thus expounding and vitalizing his heart in the dye of brotherly love, and whereas the said Homer C. Stuntz having come to us this the second time is accompanied by his beloved better half Mrs. Homer C. Stuntz, who together with him has helped to intensify his interest and service with us, and whereas their labor among us as president of this the forty-sixth session of the Little Rock Conference and their addresses, sermons and sermonettes have been froth with the spirit of love, brotherly love, love made to glow by their distinct picturesque portrayal of the life and spirit of Jesus Christ;

Therefore be it resolved that we the members and friends of the Little Rock Conference tender them a standing vote of thanks accompanied by the rhataque salute.

Mr. chairman, I move the adoption of this report.

D. H. E. Harris
P. W. Webb, Committee

Whereas the Little Rock Conference, during the forty-sixth Annual session in the city of Little Rock, has been graced with the presence of many noted chairmen and chairwomen whose presence and addresses have electrified and inspired us all. And whereas the personnel of said chairmen and women are as follows: Dr. R. J. Wade, Bert E. Smith, E. M. Conover, Stephen B. Campbell, F. M. Butler, J. N. C. Coggins, L. H. King, Mrs. Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, Mrs. Hilda M. Nasnyth, Mrs. G. T. Saxton, V. E. Gates and others. And whereas the influence of their personality, the captivating effects of their addresses and the constraining radience of the reflected effulgence of the life of Christ will be long remembered by all of us who heard and came in contact with these men and women of God:

Therefore be it resolved that a rising vote of thanks be tended them for their presence and service among us.

D. H. E. Harris
P. W. Webb, Committee

Whereas the Rev. J. C. Brower, the pastor of Wesly M. E. Church Little Rock, Ark., as host of the forty-sixth Annual session of the Little Rock Annual Conference has proven himself a masterly genious, a diplomatic brother beloved and a worthly sane and safe leader as pastor, having broken all previous records as much for said church, in its history, and that done in such brief time as less than a 12 month pastorate: And whereas the church and membership through the various official departments being so uniquely championed by efficient leadership with their willing ready choir of followers has been untiring in their zeal to serve; And whereas the cordial words of welcome has been so splendidly demonstrated in the ample hospitality accordedall all in attendance here both in homes and cafeterias where it has been ours to share the comforts, pleasantries and delicacies that were unsparingly laid bare to us. And whereas the music to which we have been charmed in listening to surpasses the lyric singing of Israeland challeges the choir once heard singing in mid air the re-echo of whose matchless Song of the ages is soon to be heard more clearly distinct and far reaching on the earth.

And whereas the combined service of our beloved P. S. College and Adline Home with our most esteemmie president Dr. J. M. Cox and Matron Mrs. H. M. Nashyth with their studentsfaces have been all a unit with this good pastor. The Key man, of the accasion together with church in making this the record breaking session of the Little Rock Conference.

Therefore be it resolved that a rising vote of thanks accompanied with the chatauque salute be accorded this host.

D. H. E. Harris
P. W. Webb, Committee

And whereas the combined services of the secretary, Rev. B. F. Neal, and the clerical force with their untiring efforts and efficiant cooperation, have assisted largely in making this conference such a monstrous success.

Therefore be it resolved that a rising vote of thanks accompanied by the chatauqua salute be accorded the secretary, and said clerical force.
