ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

State of Arkansas }
County of Pulaski } ss

Little Rock Annual Conference, Charter and Articles of Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America

ARTICLE I

That J. W. Jackson, L. C. Hodges, W. McIntosh, W. B. Harris, A. Gray. J. S. Nelson, D. H. E. Harris, N. Darby, J. G. Webb, Charley Charles, Mrs. H. M. Nasymth, Mrs. A. C. Freeman and others, with such other persons as may be from time to time appointed to succeed them, are hereby created and constituted a body politic and corporate under the name and title of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America, within and of the State of Arkansas, and they and their successors such as shall be duly elected members of said corporation, shall remain and be a body corporate. with power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, to hold purchase and convey, as well as mortgage or hypothecate property, real, personal and mixed in any sum. To receive grants, bequests, devises, and annuities, to be held in trust for said Association. To have and use a common seal and to alter the same at pleasure. To make and alter from time to time such laws and by-laws as they may deem necessary for the government of said Association and its officers, not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of the United States for religious and educational purposes. Diffusing the blessings of Christainity, Benevolence, Fraternalism, to all men,

ARTICLE II

There shall be a Board of Trustees, not less than three nor more than eighteen, to be elected by ballot, at the First Session of the Conference after the granting of this Charter. One-third to be electd for one year, one-third for two years, and one-third for three years, and thereafter one-third each year for a term of three years. Trustees shall consist of both ministers and layman. In all cases of dissatisfaction among the Trustees, the matter may be taken to the Annual Conference for final decision. The Secretary of the Board shall report all business transacted by the Board to the Annual Conference at each session of the Annual Conference. In all special meetings a majority shall be a quorum to do business and a majority shall control.

ARTICLE III

The officers shall be a President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary. These shall be chosen from the whole number of Trustees by the Board. They shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. A member will be dispualified for neglect or refusal to perform the duty of his office, and for malfeasance in office.

ARTICLE IV

This Society shall be subject to the provisions of the Discipline, laws, usages and ministerial appointments of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, as from time to time may be authorized and declared by the General Conference of said church and the Little Rock Conference. That the secular affairs of said corporation shall be managed and controlled according to the provisions of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. All property shall be deeded to the Society in its corporate name.

Serials

ARTICLE V

Let all deeds under which the church acquires property, whether designated for church or parsonage purposes or other uses be made to the Trustees, naming them and their successors in office, in trust for the use and benefit of the ministry and membership of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America subject to the Discipline, laws, usages and ministerial appointments of said church, from time to time. authorized and declared, and if sold the proceeds shall be disposed of and used in accordance with the provisons of said Discipline.

ARTICLE VI

In all conveyances let the forms required by law be strictly observed, and that the Trustee to said premises and houses shall [at all times permit such ministers belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church as shall from time to time be duly authorized by the General conference of our Church or by said Annual Conference to preach and expound the word of God, to execute the Discipline and administer Sacraments therein according to the true meaning and purposes of our deed of settlement.

ARTICLE VII

Whenever for any cause local church property is not used or is vacated for the time being, said property shall be deeded to the Annual Conference Board of Trustees to be held in trust for the said congregation or it may be disposed of as the Conference Board may direct with the approval of the Annual Conference.

ARTICLE VIII

The members of the Annual Conference or any number of them may unite themselves into a preachers' benevolent aid society for the purpose of defraying the expenses of members in their funerals and sickness. Any Christain minister and the wife of any minister may become members, but to maintain his membeship he must retain his license to preach

ARTICLE IX

The Secretary of the Annual Conference Board of Trustees shall keep his office in Little Rock, Ark., as directed by the Board of Trustees, and there transact the business of the society during the interval of the Annual Conference, the Conference Board shall control property that has been abandoned and all property of every kind that shall or may be held for the Little Rock Annual Conference in trust by said Board of Trustees. But in all causes of dispute, the matter may be taken to the Annual Conference for final settlement, except the Conference Aid Society shall be governed by such members as shall, from time to time, pay their membership dues.

The Bishop shall be ex-officio member of the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, each local society shall have a board of trustees as now provided by the Discipline of the Methodist Church by act of the General Conference of 1912, who shall control their property in the name of said local society as may be, from time to time, declared by said Discipline

The Annual Conference reserves the right to alter, change or amend these articles of association at any regular session of said Annual Conference by a two-third vote one years' notice having been previously given by resolution passed by a majority of its members published in its minutes.

To the Honorable Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas:

We, the undersigned Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, herewith request the granting of the above Charter and ask for a certificate as by law required.

J, W. JACKSON
L. G. HODGES,
Wm. McINTOSH,
And others.

Daily Proceedings

The 49th Annual Session of the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was called to order Wednesday morning, December 1, 1926, in the Laffety Memorial Church, in the city of Batesville, Arkansas, with Bishop Matthew W. Clair, presiding. The Bishop was at his best in the very excellent devotional services in which all were uplifted. After which the Communion was administered, and all were edified. After roll call the following officers were elected: B. F. Neal, Secretary; J. C. Brower, Treasurer; S. McDonald, Statistician. The following committees were appointed: See list. The bar of the conference was fixed to include the seats on both sides of the pulpit and two seats back in front.
