POINT OF PRIVILEGE: Rev. Marty CashBurless asked for a point of person privilege. Her statement follows: "I was delegated by the Alumni of the Candler School of Theology to present to you and the Annual Conference a gift of $132 for the Central Conferences Pensions Initiative. These monies are the result of great fiscal management by our BST alum host, the Rev. Pam Estes, who returned $50 to us from the annual luncheon costs. The additional funds are the result of an impromptu offering in response to the proposal to "pay it forward"… literally, to our brothers and sisters of the cloth in the Central Conference. I am also instructed to challenge other seminary alums to step up and do their part."
The Bishop accepted the donation and assured the Conference that the Duke alumni would respond to the challenge.

REQUEST FOR A DECISION OF LAW:
In order to have his request recorded within the Minutes of the Annual Conference, Rodney Steele, with Bishop Crutchfield's permission, repeated a request for a ruling of Law that he had made during the Clergy Session on Monday afternoon.
The wording of the Rodney Steele request for a ruling of law follows:

Bishop Crutchfield:
Whereas I and many others, including Jeanne Larson Williams, have been the beneficiaries of "Service Loans" from Annual Conference Boards of Ordained Ministry, and
Whereas the Service Loan funds are from the Ministerial Education Fund money, and Whereas the MEF money is a General Church apportionment, and Whereas the Annual Conference serves as a custodian of those funds, and
Whereas Paragraph 816.1 a, b of the 2008 Book of Discipline provide for repayment of these loans through service in "the connection in appointments approved by the bishop." [para. 816.1.a]
I request a ruling of law from you, the bishop of the Arkansas Annual Conference.
I ask, Does paragraph 816.1.a of the 2008 Book of Discipline, which states that service loans made from Ministerial Education Fund monies may be considered repaid if the recipients serve five years in the "connection," take precedence over the policy of an Annual Conference requiring service for repayment in a/their specific episcopal area?"

The Bishop explained that the rules allow for a ruling within 30 days. He will issue a ruling within that time period and it will be published in the Arkansas United Methodist.

RESOLUTIONS:

Whereas the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in 2008 approved a resolution on "Health Care for All in the United States", which "advocates for a comprehensive health care delivery system that includes access for all, quality care, and effective management of costs" (Book of Resolutions 2008, Resolution 3201, and"

The Resolution PASSED, 311 to 205

MOTION: Rodney Steele offered an amendment to the Resolution he had previously submitted requesting a day of witness within the Annual Conference schedule. The amended motion now reads:

We move to request the Annual Conference Planning Committee schedule a witness of service and a witness of worship for 2012 Annual Conference to be performed throughout the hosting and surrounding area in coordination with area United Methodist Churches and area agencies.
Rationale:

- The mission of our denomination is to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. While we may not be able to travel to far corners of the earth, we can be the hands and feet of transformation in our local communities and in the community we will share in Hot Springs during Annual Conference 2011.
- Rethinking church calls us to step outside the walls to share our love of God through acts of mercy and service. Annual Conference presents the ideal time to impact the community of Hot Springs through a day of service.
- John Wesley took the church to where the people were and to places where no one else would go. Over 1,000 of us gather for Annual Conference, yet a majority of residents in the host towns and cities don't know we're here. What would Hot Springs look like if we were to follow John Wesley's example? We invite you to imagine the positive impact that 1,000 volunteers can make in an afternoon and evening of hands on witnessing compared to our reporting to one another.
- We know from research that youth and young adults are hungry to make a difference in their communities. This opportunity could give youth and young adults a chance "do" their faith in a meaningful, public witness.
- We would not be the first annual conference to do this. One annual conference has already shared their planning tools and other instruments to making this effort a success. We can benefit from their successes and lessons learned. Many in our conference have offered to help with the planning and implementation of this idea. Some of their names appear on this motion.
- Opportunities for volunteer in mission work, service work and worship can be coordinated through the host committee as well as area agencies and churches.
  Examples of opportunities for service are building wheel-chair ramps, knitting prayer shawls, visiting prisons, neighborhood or park clean-up, serving meals, visiting the elderly, building a Habitat House, and inviting guests to attend that evening's worship services.
  Examples of possibilities for helping with worship services are inviting, welcoming, ushering, musical volunteers, preaching and witnessing, and attending.
- Not only do we provide a witness throughout the hosting area but we also get to know and learn from one another. Those who were once strangers can become friends.
- Having it as part of Annual Conference instead of before or after saves time and money of the participants and helps communicate that doing ministry is at the heart of us all.
- We often talk about trying to recover the spirit of being a movement again and doing ministry differently in order to achieve different results. This is an opportunity to attempt both while helping make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Episcopal address highlights first day of Annual Conference

Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield's episcopal address focused on the Imagine Ministry process now underway in the Arkansas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

We are in a radically changing time that is both new and dangerous. We chave been programmed by patterns of behavior from the past. We must change. More than corporate change, there must be deep, personal change for we are in a culture we know not. Because of the great change now occurring, we must find new ways to communicate the timeless Gospel and to find new ways to live out the Gospel in our lives.

The United Methodist Church in Arkansas will either choose life or experience slow death. We will examine the landscape we face and be transformed by it. There has to be, and there will be, a transformation in the way we do church in Arkansas.

We cannot make disciples for the transformation of the world without change. God is doing a new thing. Something damatic is happening. We need to decide how we will respond. That is the whole purpose for Imagine Ministry.

We are in need of personal and corporate deep change. The Conference has been in a time a discernment and discussion. We have found that we must let go of the past. We must deal with our hopes and fears and confusion. We must let go of the past.

The Conference is open to new forms of ministry. We have just implemented intentional transitional ministry through trained interim pastors. Connected in Christ continues to train clergy and laity to work tegether developing ministry in local churches. Most importantly, we are blessed to have laity and clergy who refuse to be part of a dying church.

Now is the time for the hard work.

We can stay as we are and slowly die or we can embrace deep change and live. The challenge is the same as that given by God to the children of Israel in the wilderness, "choose life that you may live."

Eighteen ministers to enter into Full Connection

Eighteen persons were asked the "historic questions" as part of their entrance into Full Connection with the Arkansas Annual Conference. One will be ordained Deacon, two will have their orders recognized, and 15 will be ordained Elder.

Mary Jane Cole is the Deacon candidate.

Ministerial orders of Herschel Lee Richardson, Jr. and Ulysses C. Washington will be recognized.

Elder condidates are Andrea Elaine Allen, Claire Melissa Caldwell, James W. Choate, Phillip Troy Conrad, Jr., Matthew I. Daniels, Stephen Patrick Dickinson, Joshua M. Ditmer, Regina Eadie Gideon, Mark Kelly Norman, Robert Daniel Partlow, Brock Patterson, Reginald Russell, Jason Eric Suftin, William Zackary Underwood, and James F. Wainscott.

Their election into Full Connection and approval for ordination was voted on Monday afternoon at the regular Clergy Session.

Patty Soward was elected as an associate member.

Zeke Allen, Ben Crismon, Glenn Hicks, Mark Massey, Jimmy Mosby, Heather Spencer, and Alex Workman were elected as Probationary Elders.

Imagine Ministry report

Rev. Dr. Gil Rendle, consultant with the Arkansas Annual Conference Imagine Ministry, delivered and address to the Conference Monday afternoon.

The Church is in the midst of a change that is historic. It has been postulated that very 500 years the Church discards the old and changes radically to meet the present age. 500 years ago was the Protestant Reformation. 1000 years ago was the East/West schism.

People now see themselves as individuals, not a part of a group. People now attend church, but have no desire to join. Our churches are built around people for whom a question has a single answer. We are now in a culture where the questions are the same, but the answers are different for different people. In other words, church is built around the concept of truth, but we are living in a postmodern world that does not accept universal truth. We can ask several the same question, such as, "Why do you attend church?" and you now get a divergence of answers.

We have been searching for years for the answer to our problem of irrelevance and an aging, declining membership. For something to be considered to be a problem, there must be an answer available. If there are no answers, ther are no problems, but only a description of conditions. We should stop thinking that the conditions we face are problems.

Ministers spend too much time trying to make people happy. If everyone is happy, no one will want to do anything. Whatever they do will make them unhappy. Our job is not to make people happy, it is to make disciples. Disciples are not satisfied with the way things are; disciples want to do something.

Ministry is not using the bricks from one prison to build another without losing any prisoners. When something new is built, people will leave.

We tend to measure everything by what we don't have--not enough money, not enough people, not enough time. We have to leave the shortage mentality. The answer is not to go to an abundance mentality, but to sufficiency. Abundance implies more, always more. Always wanting more is not the answer. We want to step into an understanding of enough.

If we can't measure our production, we often don't know what our product is. That is a big problem with non-profits. When we don't know/can't measure our output, we'll measure our input. (How much time and money we put into it.) What we put into a project is irrelevant. The end result is what we are going for.

What can we do? We can hunker down and do nothing, work harder, or ask other questions.

We know more about who we were than who we are. We need to know who we are. That is why we have been holding the Imagine Ministry listening sessions. We have identified 50 areas where we are strong. We will do well if we learn who we are and take our strengths with us. Once we learn who we are and identifiy our strengths, we can find out what God wants us to do next.

The Imagine Ministry process that we are in the midst of, is not unique to Arkansas. At least 10 other annual conferences are going through this same sort of examination. Dr. Rendle is also involved in consultation with several other Protestant denominations in North America as well as the Roman Catholic Church and Reform Judaism.

The conversation process will continue for at least another year before the Imagine Ministry team reports back to Annual Conference.

NEWS BRIEFS

Zola Staggs, lay member of Searcy First UMC, was presented the seventh annual Defender of the Faith Award by the Confessing Movement of Arkansas at its annual breakfast. Bishop Ntambo and Rev. Rob Renfroe, pastor of Woodlands UMC in Houston, were speakers.

Six resolutions were presented to the Conference to be voted on Tuesday afternoon. Four were printed in the Pre-Conference Journal. Numbers 5 and 6 were in the packet received at Conference. Resolution #5 is in support of universal healthcare; Resolution #6 recommends the Judicial Council to reconsider its 2005 decision that pastors have the responsibility to determine the fitness of persons to accept the vows of membership. The Board of Church and Society recommends acceptance of Resolution #5.

The ministries of 12 endorsed and certified chaplains were recognized as part of the Ordained Ministry report.

Five clergy completed the Course of Study this year: C. Daniel Brand, Mildred Bryant, LaNita Daniels, Mark Donald, and James Harris.

Evening worship focuses on changing lives through mission

Bishop Nkulu Ntanda Ntambo of the Congo, our Conference preacher, observed that we do not have power without prayer. We must also be in unity for God to great things through us. Jesus' followers at and after Pentecost were in one place and in one accord and were found at the Temple at the time of prayer.

People of faith are able to look hopefully to the future. They know the future is bright in Christ.

Poverty is a dark blot on our future. One reason for poverty is selfishness. There are plenty of greedy people who do not care about the poor.

The Wesleys and The United Methodist Church have always fought poverty. John Wesley was an early opponent of slavery. Many of the leaders of the Congo and neighboring countries have come from The United Methodist Church. The church has provided for good food, for clean water, and for education.

Lay address imagines the future

You have been engaged in a conversation of imagination at your local church and that you entered into this exercise with energy and sincerity.

Some of the information we received was troubling and not the things we wanted to hear. Many of us asked ourselves and each other, "How did this happen?" "What have we done?" "What have we not done?" "What can we do?" This didn't happen overnight and we are not going to fix it overnight, but we are getting started.

We have spent an inordinate amount of time trying to find the magic bullet. We have been looking for the beacon to show our way out of the wilderness.

It is time to intentionally allow ourselves to be led by the Holy Spirit to a place that we know not, a place we have never been, a place where we can effectively share the good news of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world.

Change is not new for the Church. Throughout our history, we have constantly been faced with a world that was rapidly changing. Within Christianity, there have been some of us who believed we must stick with the things we have always done. We have adopted the mantra made famous by a cigarette commercial many years ago "We would rather fight than switch." Others are ready to throw out everything and start all over.

Our history is a Wesleyan culture which pushed relentlessly to spread the gospel despite the twists and turns required to adapt. What drove John Wesley was an all-consuming passion and relentless pursuit "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Fewer people are coming to The United Methodist Church so we must go to today's mine pits, today's street corners, use the language of today and use the tools of our age to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ. Some of us want to cling to Jesus and what we have known in the past. Mary Magaline had to let go of what she knew from the past and prepare for a new time of transition.

The Holy Spirit is going before us and will guide us into new pathways of truth if we listen, receive, and act. God isn't through with us yet!

We must develop the culture of listening and we must prepare our hearts to listen and to be attentive to the whispering of the Holy Spirit as He speaks to us individually and collectively through the voice of the Imagine Ministries Team. We must prepare our souls for the seeds of truth given to us by the Holy Spirit.

The Imagine Ministries team does not have the answers but has been charged to collect as much information as possible to shape and reimagine The United Methodist Church of Arkansas.

Appointments become official

The 2010 Arkansas Annual Conference concluded early Wednesday afternoon with a "Celebrate of an Appointment" worship service. The service included the reading of the new appointments of clergy serving within the Annual Conference.

Clergy and laity together accepted the ministries of each other and promised to work together to make disciples for Jesus Chrsit or the transformation of the world.

After the names of newly appointed clergy were read in each district, all those serving and representing that district were asked, "Will all of you by God's grace do all in your power to faithfully live and share the ministry of Chrst in your local church or ministry?" All those already serving or representing churches that re not getting a new minister in that district were asked, "Will you include these person newly appointed in our connected ministry?"

With the reading, the appointments became fixed for the Conference year.

The gathered Conference sang the traditional, "A Charge to Keep I Have" upon departing.

Resolutions & motions

Motion to hold a Conference Church of the Year Awards banquet unless the previous Annual Conference votes not to do it--Referred to Conference Planning Team.

Resolution #5: "To affirm the support of The United Methodist Church for universal access to health care"--Passed as amended.

Resoltion #6: "Requesting the Judical Council reconsider Decision 1032 on its own merit"--Passed 311-205.

Motion about witness of service and worship at 2012 Annual Conference--Passed.

Moving coming up

Moving date is later than usual this year and it is on a different day of the week. Moving day is Tuesday, June 29, 2010. Another change this year is that pastors will recieve June salary and expense checks from the church they were ministering to in June. That is, ministers who will be moving in June will recieve June compensation checks before they move.

Next Annual Conference will be convened in Hot Springs June 5-8, 2011.

Future Conferences will meet in Fort Smith June 10-13, 2012, and Little Rock June 9-12, 2013.

Monitoring report

Sunday's worship modeled intentional diversity in leadership of the service. Monday evening's worship not only modeled diversity of persons involved, but also inclusive and balanced the language in hymns.

Those in Monday's laity session worked to hear the voices of young adults. The clergy executive session received approximately 26 persons into new ministerial relationship within our conference--23% women; 77% men; 15% racial/ethnic minority; 85% white/Anglo.

Reports Imagine Ministry breakout sessions were mixed with some groups lacking young adult voices, while others reported criticism of young adult voice. Some minority voices were not shared, while others were received well.

Reports received

Nominations, Youth, Equitable Compensation, and Hunger Task Force reports were received.

Trustees reported that Moreland UMC was discontinued and the proberty was deeded to the NC District. The report was received.

Finance & Administration report in the Pre-Conference was ammended. It was noted that pastors' moving expenses are increasing based on direction by the 2008 Annual Conference. The budget will increase 5.6%. Rules had to be suspended or the budget would have had to have been $500,000 more.

Freddie Nixon, at right, presents Helen Emerson of St. James United Methodist Church in Pine Bluff at the United Methodist Women's luncheon at Annual Conference. From left, Billy Reeder, Becky Jackson and Emory and Jason Molitor present a $6,000 check to "Mama Bishop" Nshimba Nkulu and Bishop Nkulu Ntanda Ntambo of the Democratic Republic of Congo for the Bobby Jackson Memorial Wesley Foundation at ISP College in Kamina, Congo. The students at Arkansas Tech University's Wesley Foundation and members of Lovers Lane United Methodist Church in Dallas raised the money in honor of the late Bobby Jackson, a worship leader at ATU's Wesley Foundation and Becky Jackson's brother.

Phil Hathcock, at the time Central District superintendent; Maxine Allen, Wesley Foundation campus minister at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock; Becky Falkowski and Liz Russell, both of Little Rock First United Methodist Church, share some laughs at a reception for those who contributed to the Congo Initiative.

Bishop Nkulu Ntanda Ntambo of the North Katanga Annual Conference in the Democratic Republic of Congo addresses those gathered at a reception for United Methodists who've given to the Arkansas Conference's Congo Initiative. standing beside the bishop is Bibi Mwamba, one of two recent graduates of Philander Smith College who came on scholarship from Congo.

Carolyn Howard of Gardner United Methodist Church in Hot Springs stands with her paintings she created as part of the church's "Painting with a Purpose Ministry." As part of the ministry, church members will reflect on a Bible verse and then paint the image it brings to their mind. Proceeds from the sale of paintings and cards with the images benefits the church's food pantry.

Episcopal Address, June 7, 2010

2010 Arkansas Annual Conference

Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield

I want to share with you a grainy, gritty image of the past. The Times, They Are A' Changing – Bob Dylan singing

As a child of the 60's I listened to the nasal twang, the harmonica and guitar of Bob Dylan, and I've always liked this song. It fit the spirit of the age, and unlike many of the songs and ballads and words of protest and prophesy out of the 60's, it is still relevant. We are in rapidly changing times. The old verities shift. It is a different world. To say it is a new and dangerous world is to state the obvious.

As we focus on the theme of "Imagine Ministry," there is a metaphor/Biblical Text that serves as a background for the Episcopal Address today. You know it well. It is the story of Moses leading the children of Israel into the desert across the Red Sea and into the Wilderness of Sinai. They were in the wilderness for a long, long time. On more than one occasion they would murmur and complain that Moses led them into the wilderness to die. They would prefer slavery in Egypt to the unknown and uncomfortable world of the wilderness. They would prefer the "fleshpots" of Egypt and the bread of Egyptian ovens to the uncertainty of manna from an unknown source.

Like the old story of the lion who escaped from the local zoo, only to be found pacing back and forth in front of a five foot fence, a fence it could have easily jumped. So, also the children of Israel. The lion was programmed into its patterns of behavior from the past. To pass through the wilderness, the Israelites would have to change their perspective and way of thinking and acting. It would call for more than a corporate change – it would require deep personal transformation.

We share the wilderness experience of the Children of Israel. The Church, the United Methodist Church and our Church in Arkansas are in a land we know not, a culture that is rapidly changing, a world for which we in the church were not prepared to engage, nor for which most of us were trained. Our patterns of behavior no longer resonate.

This wilderness experience is a time of great change. While the Gospel truths to which we strongly hold are the same yesterday, today and tomorrow, the way in which we communicate the Gospel, the ways in which we live out the gospel, the manner of personalizing our own gospel experience must change or it will fall on deaf ears. The ways in which we "do" church, "are" church -- the ways in which we articulate the Gospel must learn from our new and strange environment. Like God's challenge to Moses and the Israelites to choose life or death, we will either choose life giving deep change or we will experience slow death. Someone has said that for the kind of deep change we envision, we need the "courage to walk naked into a land of uncertainty." Where we find ourselves in this story is not so much about the way out of the wilderness, but about how we pay attention to the landscape of the wilderness and how we are reformed and renewed by what we encounter.

In late 2008 and early 2009, discussion began to pop up across the annual conference about our future and how to face it. All the discussions, though varied in both depth and detail, acknowledged that we need to experience a transformation in the way we do church in Arkansas. We can no longer do as we have done in the past if we are to reverse the decline of vitality and the loss of energy and passion in our church. Our purpose, "To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world," will become a laudable, but laughable tag line if we do not experience deep change in the life of our conference.

The Imagine Ministry Team was formed, but not to fix all our problems or tell us how to do solutions. Rather we have secured an insightful consultant. (You will hear from Gil Rendle later today.) We have been intent on gathering information, raising questions and creating the context for conversation that recognizes that God is doing a new thing in our midst, something dramatic is happening – as it did at Sinai; and we now need to decide how we will respond. As we move forward, the change of which I speak is not about rearranging the office chairs in the conference office or reducing the shared ministry giving. On our journey I suspect the conference will deal with structural and financial issues, but the real issue before us is not structure, and it is certainly not money. The issues are much more profound and fundamental. It is how we will view and deal with the wilderness/world in which we live and through which we are moving. It is how we confront our fears and hopes and opportunities. It is about our attitudes, our understanding of who we are – clergy and laity. Will we be bound by the past or use it as a spring board into the future. Will we pace back and forth in front of a fence or will we jump over it into a new life. It is about personal and corporate deep change that is both risky and transforming.

Through four regional meetings involving over 1600 clergy and laity the Imagine Ministry Team has invited all the local churches of our conference into a conversation and a time of discernment and discussion. We have shared data, some of which is very stark and not very pleasant. The first step into the future is to look at the hard facts of the present and the past. The second step is to let go of the past in order to embrace a positive future. To that end, we have commissioned a staff and structure assessment to analyze what we are doing now. Local churches have been invited into the conversation around three critical questions the results of which you will return today. In a few minutes Susan Ledbetter will invite you into a conversation about the central values and strengths of our conference in an annual conference-wide discernment process.

It is interesting that as we have moved through this year, as we have held the regional meetings, as we have had local churches doing their homework, we have heard the voices of both hope and fear, of cynicism and expectation. Others have simply refused to join the conversation. Groups have coalesced, conversations have transpired. Some say, "Go for it." While others say, "Cut the budget and go back to business as usual. It is exactly what you would expect to hear in the wilderness. In essence, there are folks who are saying, "Let us go back to Egypt, at least we will die in comfort." While others say, "Let us take the risk, ask the hard questions about who we are and who we can yet become, let us go up and take the promised land. We are able!"

What really excites me in all this, are the signs of hope. Churches have written to me with excitement about the conversations in their administrative councils. Individuals have spoken of hope restored. One young pastor wrote: I really thought the Imagine Ministry meeting would be one more silly waste of money and an institutional "hoop" to have to go attend and jump through. I thought it was ridiculous that you required us to be there; but, I stand corrected. I just wanted to say that I thought the presentation was very well done. I was thoroughly intrigued by it….I am very impressed by the conversation that you have started….It seems there is an inherent skepticism in my mind for authority unless that particular authority is proven to be worth respecting. I suppose my generation has just seen such a break down in "authorities" in our lifetime and in history that we are scared to blindly put our trust in someone or something…I smiled when I left the meeting last Sunday." I am excited not so much by the kind words, but by the underlying hope that we can, and indeed, must cross all the artificial boundaries that separate us if we are to navigate the wilderness.

And new forms of ministry are beginning to bloom. For example, we are just beginning to utilize a new style of ministry in special situations - Transitional Intentional Interim Ministry. Mt. View Church had been served long and well for 18 years by Rev. Steve Johnson. The church was not in crisis. He was to be appointed to First United Methodist Church, Hope, Arkansas at the first of the year. It would be an opportunity for the cabinet to facilitate a transitional intentional ministry that would bring a pastor, Dr. Ed Matthews, with specialized training to a church for a designated period of time as the congregation made the challenging transition from an 18 year pastorate to a new pastor. It would be an opportunity to work through the grief and to re-examine who and what the church was all about. Listen for a few moments as Missy Irvin speaks of their experience.

<Ed Matthews and video>

The wilderness is not a stable place. It is filled with all kinds of questions, some already asked, others yet to be articulated. But if we are to cope with it and continue the journey through it, deep change will be required of us.

What excites me is that there is a very real and palpable movement toward the realization that deep change is possible. For me, and this is very personal, I think this involves finding our value before God and in the Kingdom of God as related not to size of congregation or building, or salary, or conference position, but in the satisfaction that we are part of a team that is bringing people to Christ. It is not about my status, it is about our effectiveness. It is about leaving the comfortable fleshpots of Egypt and our self-absorbed attitudes behind. Frankly, some will resist. Others will wait for someone to tell them what to do, then complain they don't want to do it. There will be the cynics and nay-sayers. There will be those who are in deep denial about the need for any change. But we are realizing that there is no silver bullet that will immediately fix all our problems, whatever the problems are. There is a dawning realization that we need to forget about what we know and discover what we need. There is an awakening that the most important issue before us is not the cost of the pension program and our health insurance, but whether or not we will once again become a movement through which the breath of the Holy Spirit will blow.

We are beginning to understand that we can reinvent ourselves, and transform our church and rise to the future God is offering.

The Arkansas Annual Conference has advantages. We have a high percentage of full member clergy under the age of 35. We are the envy of conferences all across the church because of the "Connected In Christ" process. We are blessed with an effective training process for new church development pastors. But most importantly, we have clergy and laity that refuse to be part of a dying church.

The hard work is just beginning. But this is our time. We were born for this hour, for this day, for this week, for this year. God has given into our hands the gift of a precious opportunity. The choice is ours. God said, "I place before you life and death." We can stay as we are and slowly die. We can embrace the risk of deep change and live.

Choose life!

Laity Address

Arkansas Annual Conference

Asa Whitaker, Lay Leader

I hope everyone of you has had the opportunity to engage in a conversation of imagination at your local church and that you entered into this exercise with energy and sincerity.

Some of the information we received was troubling and not the things we wanted to hear. Many of us asked ourselves and each other, "How did this happen?', "What have we done?", What have we not done?", What can we do?" . My friends, this didn't happen overnight and I don't believe we are not going to fix it overnight, but we are getting started.

You have heard our Bishop refer to this time as a time in the wilderness. I resonate with his analogy because it explains how I feel about this experience we are going through. In my private time I am sometimes overcome with a sense of sadness coupled with frustration and yes even a little anger if the truth be told. I have a sense of for longing that overcomes my soul as I wrestle with this wilderness experience. It has been said that organizations don't change, people do but collectively we are the church of Jesus Christ in this place and as individuals have been given the mantle to lead. When we as the people called United Methodist change, the church will change. I believe it is a time of transition for our Church.

I am afraid we have spent an inordinate amount of time trying to find the magic bullet. We have been looking for the beacon to show our way out of the wilderness.
I don't think that will happen. I believe it is time to intentionally allow ourselves to be led by the Holy Spirit to a place that we know not, a place we have never been, yes a place where we can effectively share the good news of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world.

Change is not a new thing for the church. Throughout our history we have constantly been faced with a world that was rapidly changing. Within Christianity there have been some of us who believed we must stick with the things we have always done. We have adopted the mantra made famous by a cigarette commercial many years ago "We would rather fight than switch." Others are ready to throw out everything and start all over.

Do we cling to the old or do we adopt a new pathway? Which is the right way to go? How do we discover the new path? It has been said that those who do not know our history are destined to repeat it but what do we repeat and what do we let go. But what is our past? Is it a set of do's and don'ts prescribed by John Wesley? A type of worship? a group of songs we sing? small group meetings? or…and the list goes on. I believe our history is a Wesleyan culture which pushed relentlessly to spread the gospel despite the twist and turns required to adapt. John Wesley wanted to preach in the pulpits of the Anglican church but they wouldn't let him so he chose to preach on the street corner and in the mine pits. He couldn't preach in his home church so he stood on his father's grave out in the graveyard. Folks wouldn't come to where John Wesley was so he went to them. He even stooped so low as to use the common language of the people and sing hymns to the tunes sung in the pubs. Why did he do that? What drove him to worship in such an unorthodox way. It was an all consuming passion and relentless pursuit of the mission of the church "To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

It sounds all too familiar to me. According to our numbers fewer and fewer people are coming to the United Methodist Church so we must go to today's mine pits, today's street corners, use the language of today and use the tools of our age to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ. Some of us are like Mary Magdalene when she saw Christ following his resurrection. She wanted to cling to Jesus and what she had known in the past and he said no for he had not yet ascended. She had to let go of what she knew from the past and prepare for a new time of transition.

One of the most remarkable things about being a Christian is the way God speaks to me when I am struggling with an issue. For days on end I have thought and prayed about what I could say to you in this Laity Address. What words of encouragement, what words of persuasion from my own personal wilderness that might encourage and give hope. On Sunday morning a week ago, Lynette and I attended worship. Nothing unusual about that. It was not an ordinary Sunday. We had a lay member of our congregation speaking for us and it happened to be my turn to serve as liturgist. As is my practice, I read the scripture text prior to the service and lo and behold it was John 16: 12-15. And there it was. A beacon of light had pierced the dark canopy of my wilderness. God had done it for me again. In this scripture, Jesus was speaking to his disciples during his last days and trying to prepare them for the transition that was to come. He said" I have much more to say to you but you cannot bear it. But the Spirit will come and guide you into all truth. He will take what is mine and make it known to you." Things were about to be different for the disciples. Can you imagine the murmurings among the disciples. Christ had risen from the dead just as he promised but what are we going to do? How are we to carry on? How will we know what to do? There was a huge unknown with doubts, fears, and uncertainties facing them and it reminded me so clearly of our time now. We feel the transition upon us. There are doubts, fears, and uncertainties facing our church today as we search for a path ahead. It was clear to me that Jesus was saying the Spirit would guide them into new truths, new pathways of truth for the days ahead. He was saying it to his disciples then and I hear him saying it clearly to us today. The Holy Spirit is going before us and will guide us into new pathways of truth if we listen, receive, and act. Friends, I believe that is as true today as it was the day he spoke the words. God isn't through with us yet!.

I don't think God is going to hit us over the head with the proverbial 2 x 4 although it did seem that way when we heard the statistics. We must develop the culture of listening and we must prepare our hearts to listen and be attentive to the whispering of the Holy Spirit as he speaks to us individually and collectively through the voice of the Imagine Ministries Team.. Many of you have planted a garden of vegetables or flowers. But before you planted the seeds, you first prepared the soil where the seeds were to be sown. Many of you in this room are farmers and you know all too well the necessity and benefits of preparing the soil. How then can we deny the need for preparing the soul for the seeds of truth given to us by the Holy Spirit. Our hearts have hardened by disappointment and failure of the past but there is hope. God isn't through with us yet. A hard crust has formed from the frustration of little or no success but success will come. God isn't through with us yet! Our fields have become unattended and abandoned because we have come to believe "what's the use?" If your fields are abandoned and there is a hard crust I challenge you to get out the breaking plow, dig deep, turn the soil over, and prepare for the seeds of truth which Jesus has promised through the Holy Spirit. But where do we start? What do we know? What does Jesus expect of us?

When I was a young lad my Dad would give me tasks around our house that not only were useful but rich learning experiences. One day in early spring he decided that I should break ground on our garden spot with a turning plow. I had plowed before but this was the first time I would make the first pass across the field. His instructions to me were, "Son, see that cedar tree across the field?" Keep your eye on it and drive straight toward it." Don't take your eyes off of it, don't look back or side to side, keep your eyes on that cedar tree. At that time in my life that instruction didn't seem like such a big deal. But he was pretty emphatic and I had learned a long time ago that it paid to do what he told me to do. Of course, you know the rest of the story, the initial furrow was straight and the rest of the plowing followed suit. Friends, as we plow we have a 'cedar" tree to focus on. A direction stated first by Christ as recorded in the 28th chapter of Matthew and repeated as the mission of the United

When we keep our eye on that goal, that mission, everything else will fall into place. It is not without its trials and tribulations. Even when we know what we want to do it is often so difficult to get it done.

There is an Aesop fable about a father and son were journeying to market to sell a donkey. The threesome walk side by side until a girl questions the intelligence of the boy and the man for not riding on the donkey's back.

The man lifts the boy onto the donkey's back and they continue on their way. But after a while some men chastise the boy for "making his poor father walk"

On his father's command, the boy dismounts and the father climbs on the donkey's back. As they trudge through the heat and dust, a woman accosts the man for "making his little boy walk."

With his father's help, the boy climbs on the donkey's back with his father. Further down the road a whole crowd shouts at them for overburdening the donkey. Using a rope and a pole, the boy and the man carry the donkey. As they pass over a bridge, the boy's hand slips and the donkey falls into the water and drowns.

Having been swayed by misdirection, both the man and boy are left with no donkey to take to market.

Even when our mission is clear, it is so very easy to get diverted.

I began our time together reminding us of the work under way by the Imagine Ministries team. They do not have the answers but have been charged to collect as much information as possible to shape and reimagine the United Methodist Church of Arkansas. Their task is not easy neither is it a task that can be done in isolation. We have been asked for our input in the past and we have added to that process here at annual conference. We have so many tools at our disposal. In his taped presentation for the Imagine Ministries Team Bishop Crutchfield lovingly caressed his hand held device and referred to his Blackberry, not as ingredient for cobbler pies, but a means of communicating around the world. Many of us too have had to learn that twitter is not the sound of a bird, and facebook is not a photo album. Yes many things are new but the story of salvation through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the same today, as yesterday, and tomorrow. Jesus proclaimed it from the seashore, Peter proclaimed it to the gentiles, the circuit riders proclaimed it from the country side. In spite of our wilderness, the least, the last, and the lost are waiting to hear it from us. Lead us Lord, lead us in thy righteousness, make thy way plain before our face. Amen and Amen

Celebrating Professions of Faith

The Book of Discipline clearly states that the purpose of the United Methodist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. According to the records submitted by all the pastors in the Arkansas Conference, the following 330 churches received at least one person by profession of faith during the calendar year of 2009.

The fact that your congregation witnessed professions of faith last year, is a testimony to your faithfulness to the Great Commission's commandment to "go and make disciples of all nations." Matthew 28:19

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21

May God continue to bless your ministry of making new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our 2009 Confirmation Classes

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church recognizes your congregation as being one of 151 congregations that held a Confirmation Class during 2009.

Confirmation refers to the decision a person makes to respond to God's grace with intentional commitment, publicly reaffirming his or her baptismal vows before the congregation. Most confirmands are youth between the ages of eleven and fourteen, who have been nurtured in the church since their baptism as an infant or young child. Most churches offer a deliberate time of preparation before this service. During confirmation class, confirmands learn about the meaning of Christian faith; the history and teachings and The United Methodist Church; and an explanation of the baptismal and membership vows they will be professing.

Confirmation is a person's first public affirmation of the faith of the church as being his or her own faith. In other words, the confirmand is taking responsibility for living as a member of the body of Christ and for fulfilling God's purposes.

The Arkansas Conference

VISION:
A church alive in the grace of God, offering Christ, transforming lives and the World through the power of the Holy Spirit.

MISSION:
The mission of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through local congregations and mission fields of the Conference.

GOALS:
To provide resources to help develop vital local congregations and mission fields in which persons can enter and develop a life of discipleship.

- To continue to build vital congregations which are moving from:
  -hospitality to radical hospitality
  -worship to passionate worship
  -faith development to intentional faith development
  -mission and service to risk-taking mission and service
- To have vital congregations and mission fields throughout the state developing a place where persons are being baptized in the faith, making professions of faith and developing church which are growing in membership and worship attendance.

To offer resources and connectional ministry opportunities to equip local churches to be more faithful and effective in making disciples and transforming the world.

- To identify and develop a new generation of lay and clergy leaders to lead churches and our shared ministries beyond the local church.
- To create and nurture connections among churches which seek to enhance local ministries; to provide opportunities for mission beyond the local church; accountability and financial support for connectional ministries.

o address the strategic needs of the conference including:

1. Starting new places for new people (congregations, second campuses And new worship services.)
2. Identify and develop a new generation of lay and clergy leaders
3. Modeling and serving as a catalyst for ministries which transform the world by:
   a. seeing to eliminate poverty
   b. seeking health, healing and wholeness
   c. seeking justice for all God's people

The key measures for accountability are:

1. Number of baptisms
2. Number of persons making professions of faith
3. Worship attendance
4. Membership
5. Apportionments paid
6. Number of volunteers involved in hands-on ministry

CORE VALUES AND BELIEFS

1. We believe The Arkansas Conference is a manifestation of one, holy, catholic apostolic church with many congregations serving as mission fields throughout the state. "There is one body and one spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all." Ephesians 4:4
2. We believe that the proper relationship with our Lord and with one another is described by the words of the Great Commandment. Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." Matthew 22:36-40
3. We believe that our mission and task as the church is to live out Christ's Great Commission: Jesus said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have Commanded you; and low I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28-18-20
4. We believe the strength and vitality of The United Methodist Church of Arkansas Depends on a shift from an inward focus on ourselves to an outward focus of ministry to the least, the last and the lost. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Luke 18-19
5. We honor the blessing of God's grace in our past, Christ's spirit in our present, and the Holy Spirit's promise in our future. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."
6. We believe we are to be good caretakers of the resources, both human and financial that have been entrusted to us. "Think of us this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries and stewards of God's mysteries. Moreover, it is required if stewards that they be found trustworthy." I Corinthians 4:1-2

  D. The Annual Conference will determine the amount apportioned for the Ministerial Support section, upon recommendation of the Conference Council of Finance and Administration (Par. 613, Book of Discipline). Each local church's apportionment for the Ministerial Support section will be determined by their share of the conference total spent for "financial considerations".

M. The following is to be adopted as the guide for the care and investment of all Conference Funds: (¶612.7 the 2008 Book of Discipline).

1. The Conference Treasurer is charged with the responsibility for managing all Conference Funds. It is the purpose of this investment policy to establish parameters within which the monies of the Conference will be managed.
2. The objective of the investment of Conference monies is to provide:

a) Preservation of capital.

c) Maximization of income – while simultaneously insuring preservation of capital and liquidity.
d) Compliance with the Social Principles and the Discipline of the UMC.

5. This policy is intended to be flexible in its application in order to meet changing economic conditions. Investments made for longer than 90 days may be made after the approval of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. While income desirable, the primary emphasis is to be on the maintenance of adequate funds and the avoidance of speculative investments

Clefton Vaughan – President
Jim Polk – Vice-President
Mary Susan Hilliard – Secretary

In response to the resolution regarding pastor's moving expense passed by the 2008 Annual Conference, the council recognizes that the amount paid per move is to low and needs to be increased. However, since so many boards and committees were asked to reduce their 2010 budget we feel that implementing these increases in the current budget would require an additional $65,000 in funding. That additional budget amount would be difficult and insensitive to add to the 2010 requests. Therefore we recommend the following plan.

2012 $800 per move plus $1.00 per mile
2013 $1000 per move plus $1.00 per mile

SECTION XI: VACATION

It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is' vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out, we recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1. Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1-June 30).

a) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).

b) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).

c) Those having served full time in the United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).

2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.
3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor shall time away for other events which the appointee is expected to attend, such as Annual Conference, or other conference, district or general church events.
4. All full-time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part- time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
5. The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
6. In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full-time service, including student pastors and part-time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.
7. Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
8. The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
9. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Respectfully Submitted,
Biff Averitt, Chair
Rose Kuonen, Secretary

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON GROUP INSURANCE

The purpose of the Conference Committee on Group Insurance is to administer a Comprehensive Health Insurance Program, selected by the Annual Conference, for active and retired clergy of the Annual Conference, along with full-time lay employees of local churches. All of the actions taken by the Committee are subject to review and revision by the Annual Conference.

At the regular session of the former North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences on June 5, 1995 the Conference approved the Insurance Committee's recommendation to merge our Conference Group Plan for both Active, Retired and Medicare supplement participants to form our own Group Self-funded Insurance program with Spradley & Coker of Little Rock as our Plan Administrator. The Self-funded Group Plan was effective August 1, 1995. On March 1, 1997 the third party Administrator was changed to Corporate Benefit Solutions, Inc. (CBS) and effective January 1, 2003 their name changed to CoreSource-Little Rock.

Since the forming of a Conference Group Health Plan on June 5, 1995 the former North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences administered the plan jointly. Adjustments to the plan were made by the two Committees meeting jointly, every year. INPLIED consent by both Committees was used to tweak" the plan each year. The Plan benefit adjustments were done based on claim paid history and were done only to hold down exorbitant premium cost increases. Because no record can be found giving "express/implied" consent to the Committee, the Annual Conference gives consent to Arkansas Conference Committee on Group Insurance to make adjustments to the Conference Group Health Plan. ALL SUCH ADJUSTMENTS ARE ALWAYS SUBJECT TO REVIEW AND REVISION BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Realizing that it is necessary, in a self-funded group health insurance plan, to maintain a reserve in case of catastrophic claims upon our plan, it shall be the policy of the Committee on Group Insurance, to maintain a Reserve balance of approximately one year's annual gross premium and administration costs. Any excess over and above the one year Reserve will be distributed back to The Annual Conference Self-funded Group Health Plan in the form of maintained, adjusted premiums or enhanced benefits. Any Reserve overage may "only" be used for the benefit of its Participants in The Group Health Insurance Plan. A Reserve held only by the former North Arkansas Conference used exclusively to pay the salary and expenses of the Administrative Secretary, or Conference Benefit Officer and related expenses of operating The Committee. All other expenses shall be paid only with the express consent of The Arkansas Annual Conference.

The cost of health care is a troublesome issue for our conference. To do nothing is to risk our ability to deliver benefits in the future. At the last annual conference, we reported that we might bring to this year's conference a motion to create an "appointment rate premium" for all full time clergy under regular appointment. We have done the research and feel that this is a doable endeavor. However, we were not convinced the timing is right to gather the support needed to make the change this year. In the meantime, the committee is taking several pro-active measures to increase the health of our clergy families and slow down the increasing costs of our health care program.

- offer the best benefits to pastors and their families
- help our pastors and their families to optimize their health
- contain healthcare costs

The membership of the Insurance Committee shall be composed of a chairperson, six clergy at large, and six laity at large, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Additional members are a cabinet representative, the chair of the Board of Pensions, the chair of the Board on Professional Ministry, the Conference Treasurer, all with vote. The Committee may employ an administrative secretary.

1. All Full, Associate, and Probationary Members, all Full-Time Local Pastors of the Conference under regular Arkansas appointment and their dependents (except students serving in or those employed by other conferences or agencies that have compulsory programs, members under special appointment outside the Conference, or retired military personnel serving in the Conference), and all full-time employees of the Conference shall participate in the Health Benefits Program of the Arkansas Conference.
   A. The Program is open for full-time lay staff (working at least 30 hrs. per week), Probationers, Student Local Pastors, Full Deacons, Diaconal Ministers, and Full Members serving less than full-time appointment or employment. This is optional for the eligible participant and the participant must make the necessary arrangements to enroll and will be responsible for the total premium.
   B. A participant must enroll in writing with the Office of Insurance and Pensions within 30 days after the eligibility date. The eligibility date is the date of first appointment (business date of Annual Conference) or date of employment.
   C. All retired clergy, spouses, surviving spouses, eligible dependent children and surviving eligible dependent children of retired clergy who are the responsibility of The Arkansas Conference and have been participating in the Program on the date of retirement shall be eligible to continue participation. Retired participants and their spouses who have attained age 65 must have Medicare parts A and B at the participant's own expense. The group medical plan will coordinate benefits with Medicare whether or not the participant or their spouse is actually receiving benefits. Conference Group Medical Participants who are retired are asked NOT TO ENROLL IN MEDICARE PART D. Your Conference prescription drug benefit acting as a Medicare Subsidy will remain the same coverage which you had in your Active years.
   D Clergy on Incapacity Leave receiving CPP Disability benefits who become eligible for Medicare Disability after July 1, 2009 will be required to enroll in Medicare parts A & B at your own cost. The Arkansas Board of Pensions will provide the full cost of your premium while you are receiving CPP Disability. CoreSource will remain the Primary carrier but without Stop-Loss so that Medicare pays a portion.

E. The Conference Benefit Officer in the Treasurer's office will check with the District Superintendent concerning a pastor applying for enrollment for the first time. The eligibility of any full-time lay employee of a church will be checked with the lead pastor, and payment of premiums agreed upon before enrollment.

F. In order to be in compliance with the new federal law (HIPPA), we will hold a thirty (30) day OPEN ENROLLMENT period during September of each year, to be effective OCTOBER 1ST. Open enrollment will be for all eligible persons who have not enrolled in a timely fashion. We may impose an eighteen (18) month pre-existing conditions limitation.

The responsibility of determining the source of funding for the health insurance benefit program for retired clergy and their dependents shall be the responsibility of the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions. Employee compensation, benefit package, and office expenses for Conference Benefit Officers is to be shared equally with the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions.

All vesting and eligibility questions regarding retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses will be under the purview of the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions.

Upon union, churches will pay 100% of the cost of health insurance premiums for Active Clergy.

All reserve money in all Insurance Committee's accounts will come together as one account under the new Arkansas Conference Insurance Committee.

All of the above was adopted by the Special Called Joint Session of both Conferences on November 23, 2002.

All previously adopted procedures of the two Insurance Committees that are not in conflict with the above will continue to be used by the Insurance Committee to administer the program

For example: the following procedure will continue to be used in conjunction with collecting premiums;

1. The insurance premiums are billed quarterly to the lead church. The premium is due 30 days from the statement date shown on the invoice sent from the Treasurer's office. All participants are responsible for seeing that the total premium due is sent to: The Arkansas Conference, P.O. Box 2941, Little Rock, AR 72203 no later that the due date.
2. The committee shall use the following measures when premiums are not received on time:

MEDICAL SCHEDULE OF BENEFITS FOR RETIRED PARTICIPANTS

When Retired Employees or their Dependents become eligible under Medicare, all of the following will happen:

- Medicare pays benefits first.
- All health benefits then in effect for that person stop and are replaced with a new benefit to complement Medicare. The new benefit is a Major Medical Benefit.
- Eligible Charges incurred prior to a person becoming eligible under Medicare in the Calendar Year in which the person becomes eligible under Medicare may be used to satisfy the Cash Deductible under the new Major Medical Benefit for that Calendar Year.
- Payment for any day of confinement or any treatment, services, or supplies given after the date the person becomes eligible under Medicare is made only under the new Major Medical Benefit.
- This new Major Medical Benefit is only for persons eligible under Medicare. It does not apply to any participant unless that participant becomes eligible under Medicare.

The Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees pays Eligible Charges that are more than the amounts payable for the same expenses under both of the following:

- Medicare Parts A and B.
- Any plan of basic medical benefits sponsored by the Employer for persons eligible under Medicare.

Each participant must satisfy a Cash Deductible of $250 each Calendar Year before any payment is made. The Cash Deductible is the amount of Eligible Charges you must first pay each year for each participant.

If a participant:

- Incurs Eligible Charges during October, November, or December; and
- Uses these Eligible Charges to satisfy the Cash Deductible,

They will also be counted toward that participant's Cash Deductible for the following year.

If two (2) or more family members are hurt in the same accident, only one (1) Cash Deductible will have to be paid for all expenses incurred by the family due to that accident each year.

Then the benefit pays the following percentage of Eligible Charges:

- 50% for Bereavement Counseling.
- 80% of the UCR amount for PPO Providers and 70% of the UCR amount for Non-PPO Providers.

The Eligible Charges payable under this Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees are the same Eligible Charges payable under Medicare with the exception of Prescription Drug charges.

If the provider has agreed to limit charges for services and supplies to the charges allowed by Medicare (participation physicians), this Plan determines the amount of Eligible Charges based on the amount of charges allowed by Medicare.

If the provider has not agreed to limit charges for services and supplies to the charges allowed by Medicare (non-participating physician), this Plan determines the amount of Eligible Charges based on the lesser of the following:

- The Reasonable Charges.
- The amount of the Limiting Charges as defined by Medicare.

OUT-OF-POCKET FEATURE

The Out-of-Pocket Feature does not apply to charges incurred because of cost containment penalties, nor charges incurred due to reduction of UCR nor prescription drug card copays nor Inpatient Hospital Confinement Deductibles. The aforementioned charges will never be paid at 100%, even after the Out-of-Pocket Maximum has been reached.

The amount of Eligible Charges, including the Cash Deductible that you pay, are counted toward the In-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum or the Out-of-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum, as applicable. The In-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum is $2,500 and the Out-of-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum is $2,500; please note these are separate and do not contribute toward each other. When the Out-of-Pocket Maximum for In-Network is reached for any one person in a Calendar Year, In-Network Eligible Charges, other than those shown above, are payable at 100% for that same person for the rest of that year. When the Out-of-Pocket Maximum for Out-of-Network is reached for any one person in a Calendar Year, Out-of-Network Eligible Charges, other than those shown above, are payable at 100% for that same person for the rest of that year.

MAXIMUM BENEFIT

The Maximum Benefit payable for each participant is $1,000,000. This Maximum applies to each participant's lifetime.

The maximum will include any amount paid under the Employer's Comprehensive Medical Benefit for persons eligible under Medicare in effect prior to the Effective Date.

EXCLUSIONS

The exclusions shown in the "Exclusions" section of this Plan Document also apply to this Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees and includes ineligible charges under Medicare with the exception of Prescription Drug charges.

9. ¶1506.18 of the 2004 Book of Discipline establishes pension and benefit contributions as the responsibility of the salary-paying unit to the participant. The General Board of Pensions recommends that each local church and other salary-paying units realize that they may be held legally liable for any defaults in paying the pension apportionment in full.
10. Listing of special appointments:
The official record of annuity claim is kept by the General Board of Pension. To see the list of special appointments, see the appointments in section E of this Journal.
11. Notice of claims for pension credit shall be made in writing to the Conference Benefits Officer, POB 2941- Little Rock, AR 72203.

    c) The "premium gift" is calculated in the following manner and may be reduced or discontinued based on available finances and a vote of the annual conference;
    For years of service 1-20 years X 4% and 1% thereafter to the cap stated above. Clergy with 40 years of service must be age 65 (spouse also age 65) before 100% is provided.

    e) The health insurance premium of an under-age Surviving Spouse will be paid for 5 years and there-after will be based on the formula paid for retired Clergy service year credit. After the 5 year payment, the Surviving Spouse is required to request monetary assistance in writing if needed.

f) When a surviving spouse of a retired clergy person remarries that surviving spouse will be responsible for 100% of the insurance premium.

g) Spouses and dependent children, under the age of 65, of a clergy person who dies while active will have their health insurance premiums paid by the Annual Conference for 5 years following the death of the clergy. i) Eligible dependents of a retired minister who are not currently enrolled in the Arkansas United Methodist Health Insurance plan may, if eligible, enroll in this plan with preexisting conditions waived provided:
   1) The dependent(s) have been covered by an employer-sponsored group insurance plan for a minimum of one consecutive year; and
   2) Enrollment is made within 30 days of termination of the employer-sponsored group insurance plan.
   3) The participant is responsible for the premium.

17. Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Arkansas Conference

The Arkansas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the current year or years by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or it's predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

18. A Retired Minister's Day is Recommended Each Year: Recommended to be the Third Sunday of May each year. The purpose of this day is to recognize the service of the retired servants and their families, and to involve the local churches in the recognition of the needs, both present and future, of The Arkansas Conference Pension Fund. If a retired minister does not reside within the bounds of a charge, but a member of a retired minister's family does, they shall be invited to participate in the service (or observance); otherwise, recognition of these servants, and their service, should be observed appropriately. "Appropriately" should be determined by the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee of each local church. This committee shall have the responsibility of locating these people and relate the service of these persons to the local church and our Annual Conference. The Conference Board of Pensions will be responsible for providing promotional ideas and some materials (i.e., total years of service, percentage of retired ministers serving churches while in their retired status, etc.) when requested.
19. We recommend that a monthly pre-82 grant in the amount of $359.00 be paid to Rev. Lloyd Smith beginning July 1, 2009 ending at the time of death.
20. We recommend that, ¶1506.3 (2), 2008 Book of Discipline, be enforced.

Arkansas Annual Conference Funding Plan
For the Clergy Retirement Security Program
As of January 2010

The 2010 Past Service rate (PSR) of $566.00. The Conference Average Compensation (CAC) $64,726. The conference intends to maintain the PSR as a percentage of CAC to the minimum allowable. We anticipate future Conference average compensation increase rates to be approximately 2% per year.

Based upon calculations provided by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (GBOPHB), the pre-82 service liability for the Arkansas Conference with a PSR of $566.00 is $-0- as of January 1, 2008 for 2010. The Arkansas Conference Plan funds held by GBOPHB were valued at $4,971,328 as of 01/01/2010. Funds held locally equal $350,000. Unpaid apportionments estimated at loss in income of 10% (-450,000). Estimated income & revenue is $9,906,328.

After expenses totaling $6,007,927 the difference between total liability and assets represents the Arkansas Conference Pension benefit obligations is $3,898,401. Income & revenue comes from three sources;

1. Apportionment dollars received.
2. Conference assets plus interest on deposit at the GBOPHB. 3. CPP premium liability holiday. The amount of money to be paid on 12/31/10 for PSR obligations is estimated to be $1,410,007 and $2,645,530 CRSP-DB.

There is also an estimated $455,297 contribution due (for the first time) as unfunded MPP liability in 2011.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

MISSION STATEMENT:
The Mission of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to enable local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership.

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION BASE SUPPORT:

Recognizing the extreme financial condition of many of our churches, The Commission on Equitable Compensation is recommending a 10% decrease in its budget for 2010-2011 conference year. The reduction in funds requested will not affect the support of the present commitments.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the 2011Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule remain at the 2009 level. The Guidelines having been established and proving to be effective will remain the same as printed in this report.

	Full Connection	Probationary Associate Member	Local Pastor
Minimum Base Comp.	$ 32,800	$ 31,700	$ 30,500

1. A parsonage or a housing allowance shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.
2. Associate Pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid.
3. Retired Pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation Aid. See ¶ 359.6, 2008 Book of Discipline.
4. Each church receiving Minimum Base Compensation Support shall provide the amount(s) received from the Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan.

II. KEY CHARGE PROGRAM FOR BASE COMPENSATION SUPPORT:

The Key Charge Program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons.

Key Charges are related to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by a contractual agreement. The contract is negotiated by the Chair of the Commission, the District Superintendent, and representatives of the charge. The persons, or their successors, shall be the trustees of the contract, having verified it with their signatures. The contract shall include:

(a) the initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,
(b) the duration of the contract (normally 5 years or less), and
(c) the signatures of the persons negotiating the contract. The nature of the contract is such that the amount of Compensation Support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the Charge increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the contract period. After the contract has expired, no further Compensation Support will be granted to the charge. Under the Key Charge arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

III. MISSIONAL LOCAL CHURCH COMPENSATION SUPPORT:

We recommend that the Arkansas Conference undergird its mission by providing a Missional Local Church Compensation Support Program. This program is intended to help provide capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support without mission aid. In each case, the level of base compensation support shall be negotiated by the Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the District Superintendent in consultation with the pastor and officials of the charge.

Priority shall be given to charges that show potential for growth, for increased effectiveness in ministry and for advance towards self-support. Consequently, when a charge has received Missional Local Church Support for four years, the Commission will assess the charge's growth during the period before continued funding is approved. Considerations will include:

1. Membership.
2. Worship attendance.
3. Percentage of apportionments paid.
4. The charge's share of the pastor's compensation.
5. The charge's stewardship ("total amount paid" divided by worship attendance).

If a charge declines in more than two of these categories over the four-year period, Missional Local Church Support shall be reduced by ten percent the following year, and it shall be reduced by one third over each of the succeeding three years. The District Superintendent may appear before the Commission to request an exception to this process.

IV. EQUITABLE COMPENSATION AGREEMENT:

When Equitable Compensation support has been granted to a church / charge, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the District Superintendent, Pastor, and leaders of the church / charge before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the Commission.

V. ADDITIONAL PRIORITIES:

A. The Commission shall maintain adequate reserves to fund needs which may emerge.

B. Each charge receiving Equitable Compensation in any of the above categories is expected to pay its Conference Apportionments in full. If the charge is unable to accomplish this, they shall submit a written plan of action approved by their District Superintendent, detailing the steps to be taken in order to achieve this goal.

C. All Commission on Equitable Compensation funding relates to pastoral support. Funding for program cost or other compensation is not allowed.

D. Equitable compensation funds are paid directly to the church / charge and shall be paid to the pastor as a supplement to funds budgeted by the church / charge.

RESOLUTION #1

RESOLUTION ON CARE OF THE ENVIRONMENT

Whereas a number of local churches in Arkansas have become concerned about the impact their facilities have on the environment and

Whereas our scriptural understanding is that we are called to be stewards of God's creation and

Whereas " The Social Principles of the United Methodist Church" (Para 160) call for us to be concerned about how our lifestyles affect the environment,

Be it therefore resolved that we call on the churches of the Arkansas Annual Conference to:

1- Evaluate the environmental impact of its facilities

2- Determine its carbon footprint

3- Work toward institutional sustainability practices that will reduce each carbon footprint

Rev. Steve Copley, JFON
Doni Martin, Chair, AR Conf BOCS

RESOLUTION #2

RESOLUTION ON HOSPITALITY

Whereas the writer of Hebrews challenges the church to love one another and to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels unaware (Hebrews 13:1-2)and

Whereas throughout scripture and the history of the church, there has been great concern shown for those who are strangers in our midst and

Whereas it is our responsibility as the church to invite those who are strangers to share in the ministry of Jesus Christ (Social Principles Para 163 F),

Be it therefore resolved that the churches and the people of the Arkansas Annual Conference open the doors of the church to those who are strangers, immigrants from many nations and show hospitality to them all, embracing them as members of the family of God (Social Principles Para 162 H)

This resolution in no way intends to undermine the rule of law or subvert constitutional principles which govern the legal process of immigration. All persons are welcome in the family of God and in the United Methodist Church. Nevertheless, we also acknowledge the right and responsibility of nations to develop fair immigration policy and to protect their national sovereignty.

RESOLUTION #5
TO AFFIRM THE SUPPORT OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH FOR UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE

Whereas, the United Methodist Church in 1992 passed a resolution in support of Universal Access to Health Care; and

Whereas, in 2000, the United Methodist Church, reaffirmed the need for passage of a health care plan that provided comprehensive benefits to everyone, including preventive services, health promotion, primary and acute care, mental-health care, and extended care; and

Whereas the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church affirm that "creating the personal, environmental, and social conditions in which health can thrive is a joint responsibility – public and private" (Discipline of the UMC, 2008, ¶ 162v); and

Whereas the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in 2008 approved a resolution on "Health Care for All in the United States", which "advocates for a comprehensive health care delivery system that includes access for all, quality care, and effective management of costs" (Book of Resolutions 2008, Resolution 3201; and

Whereas, with the enactment of legislation our country has moved closer to this goal of providing health care benefits for all;

Now therefore, be it resolved, that the United Methodist Church 2010 Annual Conference of Arkansas hereby reaffirms the position of the Church in support of universal health care for all.

RESOLUTION #6
REQUESTING THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL RECONSIDER DECISION 1032
ON ITS OWN MOTION

The Arkansas Conference Petitions the Judicial Council of The United Methodist Church, pursuant to Judicial Council Rule of Practice VIII A, to reconsider Judicial Council Decision 1032 as follows:

The Judicial Council Rules of Practice Provide that, "whenever a decision of the Judicial Council is shown clearly to be in error, or in order to prevent a manifest injustice resulting from the interpretation of a Judicial Council decision, the Judicial Council on its own motion... may, by a majority vote, reconsider any ruling or action taken by it." [Judicial Council Rules of Practice VIII.A.]

On October 25, 2005, in Decision 1032, the Judicial Council upheld denial by a pastor of membership in The United Methodist Church based on the prospective member's homosexual status.

Decision 1032 "compromises the historic understanding that the Church is open to all. The Judicial Council cannot interpret something that is not stated in the Discipline. Nothing in the Discipline gives pastors discretion to exclude persons presenting themselves for membership in the Church. (See ¶4 and ¶13[9])" [Henry-Crowe Dissent from JCD 1032, 10/29/2005]

"I find nothing in the Discipline or in the whole of our jurisprudence that suggests that this issue has ever been addressed. The Discipline is silent on the issue... It is the equivalent of ideological legerdemain for the Judicial Council to declare 'discretion' where there is none and to grant pastors 'responsible pastoral judgement' where the General Conference has not done so." [Gray Dissent from JCD 1032, 11/8/05]

"The majority's decision [in 1032] now condones the denial of the fellowship of the church to persons in need of its ministry and guidance who are homosexual. The decision eviscerates our statement that God's grace is available to all and reduces it to an empty platitude. More tragically, the same Judicial Council charged with giving effect to the intent of the enactments of the General Conference has turned a cold and rejecting ear to its plea that families and churches not reject lesbian and gay members and friends." [Gray Dissent from JCD 1032, 11/8/05, citing ¶161(g), now §161(f)]

Decision 1032 now even more clearly contradicts Paragraph 225 of the 2008 Book of Discipline, in which the General Conference strengthened the already permissive open invitation to membership in The United Methodist Church. [See, Gray Dissent from JCD 1032, 11/8/05, "The permissive language contained in paragraphs 214 through 225 in an invitation to persons who seek membership."]

Decision 1032 has been shown clearly to be in error in that it is still true that no provision of the Book of Discipline authorizes or directs denial of membership as permitted by Decision 1032, and because the General Conference increased the permissive invitation to membership by revising ¶225 to state that "A member in good standing in any Christian denomination who has been baptized and who desires to unite with The United Methodist Church shall [emphasis added] be received as either a baptized or a professing member."

Manifest injustice has and will continue to result from interpretation and application of Decision 1032 to deny persons membership in The United Methodist Church.

The Arkansas Annual Conference therefore requests that the Judicial Council on its own motion and pursuant to its standing Rules of Practice (VIII.A) reconsider Decision 1032, issue a new Decision finding that Decision 1032 is null and void, and direct that any prospective members denied membership in The United Methodist Church as a result of Decision 1032 be granted admission.

ADVOCATE FOR THE POOR

The United Methodist Church has as one of its' quadrennial emphasis that each conference will have an advocate with the poor. I was appointed to the position at the 2009 Annual Conference. It is an exciting challenge that I look forward to serving.

One of the major goals for the next four months is to produce a document of the various ways churches in our conference are responding to the poor. Then, a document would be produced and distributed in CD form to all the churches so that they may be encouraged to be in ministry with the poor. Also, I hope to create an Advent devotional guide at the end of the year with mediations about the church's teaching on the poor.

At the conference level, it is being proposed that we have money to assist in starting new ministries with the poor. Recently, the OASIS shelter in northwest Arkansas was given an Emerging Ministry grant from the Conference office to assist with a cottage industry training event.

The past six months, I have been engaged in the following activities:

- Health Care-have advocated for health care reform and written an article for The Arkansas United Methodist newspaper.
- Tax Policy-co-authored an article (with Rev. Pat Bodenhamer of Arkansas Advocates for Children and Families) in the Arkansas United Methodist newspaper, on Ethics Daily.com and on the Faith in Public Life website. I will be part of a DVD that Baptist Ethics is producing on the impact of tax systems on the low-income that will be aired by ABC in October.
- Immigration-worked on immigration comprehensive reform which affects many low-income immigrants. I am Chair of the Arkansas Friendship Coalition and serve on the United Methodist Church Rapid Response Team on Immigration at the General Church level.
- I was appointed to the Legislative Task Force on Poverty that is meeting this year.
- I continue to Chair the Board of Directors of The Benefit Bank of Arkansas, which assists low-income individuals with applying for their benefits and EITC.
- I am the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Arkansas Energy Network. We are trying to create a state-wide fuel fund that will assist low-income people with utility assistance.
- Chair the Arkansas Conference Hunger Task Force.
- I work on the homeless issue and serve on the Arkansas Homeless Coalition and am their Legislative Chair; serve on the SOAR Network and as Chair of their Resource Development Committee.
- I also serve as a consultant to the Conference Board of Church and Society and Board of Global Ministries. I am also available to serve as a resource to any other groups or committees within the conference.

This is an exciting time to be a United Methodist as we show the love of Jesus Christ to people who are often left on the sidelines of our world. I am very honored to serve in this capacity.

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY COMMISSION

The Archives and History Commission endeavors to assist in preserving the history of individual churches in order to honor the pastors and laity who built and nurtured these congregations through their prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. Remembering and honoring the past work of our fellow Methodists helps us as we move forward in creating and maintaining congregations where following Jesus Christ remains the focus.

This year the Commission was the recipient of a generous grant in the amount of $40,000 from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. The grant was given in honor of Archivist Mauzel Beal for her many years of service and dedication to the mission of preserving the history of churches throughout the Arkansas Conference. Funds provided by the gift will allow for the purchase of new fire, water and crush-proof cabinets to store precious documents and photographs. Much needed updates to computer equipment will also be possible along with the addition of more bookshelves and an expanded are to review research materials. With these additional resources, the archives will have the capacity to store historical documents for another 15 years.

The resources made possible by the grant will aid the archivists in assisting people who contact the archives seeking information about relatives and churches. This past year, Mauzel and fellow Archivist Marcia Crossman assisted in responding to approximately 200 requests for information from individuals in Arkansas and throughout the United States. The Commission is planning four workshops to be held in each of the four congressional districts to demonstrate how to prepare a church history and maintain historical church documents. It is the Commission's desire that a workshop be held in areas that are convenient to all parts of the state. The current plan is to hold two workshops in the fall of 2010 and two in the spring of 2011. More information about the sites and agendas for the workshops will be provided at a later date.

The Winfred D. Polk Archives is located in the Bailey Library on the campus of Hendrix College, 1600 Washington Avenue, Conway, Arkansas 72032. The e-mail address is arkmethodist@hendrix.edu and the telephone number is 501-450-1370.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) is the conference committee that advocates work with other churches and faiths to build better trust, to cooperate with each other in various projects, and to build better communication with peoples of all faiths. We encourage dialogue with all persons. We support our membership in and financial support of the Arkansas Interfaith Conference. This year we will continue our work in the following three areas:

AWARENESS: We will distribute "Guidelines for Interfaith Dialogue" in the registration packets of the 2010 Arkansas Annual Conference.

RECOGNITION: We will continue the tradition of honoring an individual and a church or community based organization whose work demonstrates effective Christian and/or interfaith unity.

DIALOGUE: We will encourage the study of MAKE US ONE WITH CHRIST (study guide of the report of the bilateral dialogue between the Episcopal Church and the United Methodist Church); and CONFESSING OUR FAITH TOGETHER (relationship between The United Methodist Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America). We will continue to encourage churches to hold events to promote the development of Christian and other interfaith dialogue within the community.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

Through advocacy, education, support, determining actions consistent with the Social Principles, monitoring legislation and social issues and other actions, the BOCS continues to encourage UM Christians to become involved at the local, state, federal and international levels.

The BOCS provided seven grants with the Conference portion of the Peace With Justice Sunday offering to projects such as providing funds for the Shepherd's Center Adventures in Learning in Beebe, Age to Age mentoring at Arkansas Tech Wesley Foundation, Conway Cradle Care, Pioneer Club of Hamburg UMC, Madres Y Ninos at DeWitt First UMC, Charter for Racial Justice Program at Mission UMC and Think Justice: Empowering African American Males led by Ronnie Miller Yow. In accordance with a mandate from the 2003 Annual Conference that a Hunger Task Force be named and remain active until there is no more hunger in Arkansas, the Hunger Task Force continues to be one of the main areas of support from BOCS. Their projects have included providing small grants to community food pantries, assisting individuals to apply for food stamps and providing educational opportunities to learn how to address hunger in Arkansas.

Members of the BOCS and other interested individuals have made themselves available to make presentations through the BOCS Speakers Bureau. Some topics for which speakers are available include poverty issues; the environment; immigration reform; AIDS, TB and malaria eradication; ways to teach and share the Social Principles; the death penalty and death row causes; disability rights and issues concerning education. Through the efforts of Rev David Freeman and others a project called "Three Cures for One Kingdom" is being promoted to address the elimination of AIDS, TB and malaria.

Dissemination of the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church remains an emphasis. This was accomplished through participation in the 2009 Annual Conference Mission Luncheon and the BOCS display at Annual Conference, School of Christian Mission and the Annual UMW meeting in Russellville. The displays also provide information and materials for individuals and local churches that address what UMs can do to promote social holiness that was taught and lived by John Wesley.

BOCS also supported the ecumenical Arkansas Hunger Coalition, which attempts to alleviate immediate needs as well as long term causes of hunger; distribution and use of the Companion Litany to the Social Creed and in cooperation with JFON, we participated in distributing and mailing postcards to Congress encouraging action on comprehensive immigration reform.

CONFERENCE MINISTRY TEAM REPORT

From Roy Smith, Conference Director of Ministries

I have counted it an honor and privilege to work with our team of competent professional in our Conference Ministry office. Their competence is led by their commitment to The United Methodist Church and our common mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I will be appointed as a local church pastor. I am grateful for the opportunity to have served The United Methodist Church in Arkansas for the past five years in this unique way.

This year has been a year of transition in our office. The focus has been and remains as making disciples, transforming the world and equipping local churches to be faithful in their mission of making disciples.

At Annual Conference 2009 Reverend Maxine Allen moved from a full-time position to a part-time position in our office which she does along with her work as campus minister at the Wesley Foundation at UALR. Reverend Allen is doing excellent work serving as minister if Ethnic Local Church Concerns and shepherding "Crossing the Jordan" initiative. Also in October, 2009, Reverend Cecilia Kelly went on incapacity leave. We pray for improvement in her health. There is no plan at this time to replace this position. The Vision Team and Personnel Committee will work with the new Conference Director of Ministries in light of the budget cuts that were made in 2010 to determine any future staff positions.

We are deeply grateful for laity and clergy who have stepped forward to help us in ministry of mission as well as ministry with children and families. We continue to seek to create networks of shared ministry and learning as an important part of our work with congregations.

We want to help your church. We are ready to come to your church regardless of the size of your church or your location in the state, we will come to you. As always, our visits and assistance does not cost your congregation any money. The connectional giving of our Conference through apportionments makes it possible for us to serve you.

Please do not hesitate to call me or any of our staff at

We continue to work to "live into" this Vision for the Conference. One high profile project for 2010 is "Sharing Together in Christ's Name". This is a comprehensive stewardship education program being conducted as a partnership with the Conference Ministry office and funded through a generous grant from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. The following is an overview of the plan. Details and implementation will be shared during the 2010 Annual Conference session.

— "Sharing Together in Christ's Name" —
Arkansas Conference Connectional Giving Campaign

What is our campaign goal?

To create a new wave of joy in giving among United Methodists in the Arkansas Conference through the development and execution of a multimedia communication campaign that explores how connectional giving transforms the world.

Why is the campaign needed?

- To encourage local church clergy and laity to regain a real sense of God's abundance, rather than operate with an attitude of scarcity.
- To serve as a reminder of the Biblical, spiritual and theological principles that are part of the United Methodist tradition of shared ministry.
- To bring a new or renewed understanding of Jesus' statement "Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact will do greater works than these…" (John 14:12)

Is the primary purpose of increase apportionment payout?

The objective of the campaign is to increase the understanding and awareness of the good that giving accomplishes. Increased giving could result but is not the primary purpose of the campaign.

What are the major components of the campaign?

- Multimedia clips and graphics for worship, small groups, web sites
- Print materials for distribution to local church members
- Bible study for adults, youth and children
- Sermon starters and offertory introductions
- Clergy and laity curriculum (Local Pastors School, School of Mission)
- Brief public ad campaign for print, radio and web
- Social network media (Facebook) presence
- Recognition of Sharing Ministry churches at 2011 Annual Conference

How will local churches benefit?

- Educational and promotional materials from this campaign can help local churches reinvigorate the spirit of giving with their congregations.
- The campaign will demonstrate the heartfelt rewards of connectional giving to both local clergy and laity.
- Recognition of local churches that choose to participate in the program can build pride among church members.

How will the campaign success be evaluated?

- Pre-and post-campaign surveys will be conducted.
- Commitment and use of materials by local churches.

From the work we did with local churches last year, here are some of the highlights we are pleased to share with you.

Roy Smith
Director of Connectional Ministries

CONFERENCE MINISTER OF NEW CHURCH STARTS AND CONGREGATIONAL ADVANCEMENT

On the Conference Ministry Team there are two parts to my job description: starting new churches, and helping our existing churches to advance to the next level.

— Starting New Churches —

Just six years into this initiative, Bishop Crutchfield has appointed pastors to start 19 new churches and second campuses: Journey UMC in Fort Smith, Mt. Olive UMC in Van Buren, Christ UMC in Cabot, Living Water UMC of Centerton, Grace UMC in East End, Vietnamese UMC in Fort Smith, Crosspoint UMC in Conway, Woodlands UMC in Fort Smith, Pontiac UMC in Springdale, Christ Way UMC in Jonesboro, North Fort Smith Hispanic Mission, Argenta UMC in North Little Rock, Waltrek UMC in Waltrek Arkansas, FaithSpring UMC in Ferndale, River of Life UMC in West Memphis, Riverside UMC in Siloam Springs, Canvas Community UMC in downtown Little Rock, Vietnamese UMC in Van Buren, and Wesley@Wesley UMC in Russellville.

We began this new process for starting new churches and second campuses in 2004. Although our most recent congregations are still quite young, it is beginning to appear that this new model is going to develop stronger and larger congregations than the old model of church planting – reaching more people, more younger people and more diverse people in Jesus' name. In these nineteen new faith communities we are already witnessing:

549 professions of faith
351 baptisms
44 re-affirmations of faith
862 members
2 of these new churches have chartered already, and
3 are already paying their apportionments in full.

We face three challenges:

1) to increase the financial support for this new church strategic initiative so we can offer greater resources to our planting pastors in their first few months in the mission field;

2) to increase the "missionary church planting heart" of our laity and clergy to reach the unchurched and the pre-Christian in our own neighborhoods; and

3) to continue to improve our process for selecting new church pastors, appointing them to communities where they have a natural affinity for the unique nature of that mission field, and supporting the planting pastors & families after their appointment.

As this church-planting process improves in these early years of this new initiative, we should expect that future new church starts will be even more "fruitful" in making new disciples of Jesus Christ.

— Congregational Advancement —

Most of this "congregational transformation" ministry has been moved under the banner of Connected in Christ. However the Conference Ministry Team continues to work in all nine of our districts with churches who are ready to move to the next level.

This spring, I had the privilege of organizing and hosting the third gathering of the Small Church Leadership Institute, with participants from eight Annual Conferences. I am grateful to Jim Argue and the Arkansas UM Foundation for their generous grant to fund the Small Church Leadership Institute. The next two small church retreats will be mid-November of 2010 and mid-March of 2011.

I have had the opportunity to conduct several local church, sub-district and district workshops in the past year on the following topics:

- Does Your Church Have a 2020 Vision for the Year 2020?,
- Have You Thought of Sponsoring a New Church Across Town?
- Have You Thought of Being a New Church Start Pastor?
- Wholistic Stewardship: Commitment To Christ 2020
- Our New Membership Vow: Witness (Why, How & Effective Methods)
- 58 Ways to Increase Worship Attendance Without Changing Pastors
- Before You Begin a Major Construction Project.

DEMOGRAPHICS AND CHURCH STRATEGIC PLANNING

Last May we contracted with MissionInsite as our source for Demographics. This program is different from the Claritas program because every leader in each local church as access to the information, not just the administrator. We are in the process of training district administrators and Connected in Christ coaches to answer questions and guide individuals through the process of registering, compiling reports and interpreting the data contained in the reports. We have over 100 registered users and more are registering almost daily. This is a great program with numerous tools that if used properly will impact the local church dramatically. We look forward to expanding this program along with the areas of congregational development and strategic planning.

MISSIONS AND ETHNIC MINISTRIES

In June 2009, my appointment changed to a quarter time appointment on the Arkansas Conference Staff and three-quarter time Director of the Wesley Foundation at UALR. This removed most of my committee assignments leaving me supporting the following Conference Committees: Ethnic Local Church Concerns, Hispanic Ministries, Native American Ministries and Religion and Race.

Much of my staff work has centered on assisting these groups in the implementation of the various national plans (Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century [SBC21], Hispanic Ministries National Plan, the Native American Ministries National Plan) and the Conference Strategic Plan. Each of these committees has worked to their capacity to provide support to local congregations, identify new persons for ministry and with Religion and Race the very important work of monitoring across the Conference for Racial Inclusiveness. You will find each of the committee reports listed in the journal under their respective reporting category.

The Crossing Jordan Movement is breathing new life and activity in the historically African American Churches across the Conference. Since November 2008, led by a core planning team, the African Americans within The United Methodist Church in Arkansas have seen spiritual growth, energy, and renewed vision. This collaboration of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century, Ethnic Local Church Committee, Religion and Race, and Black Methodists for Church Renewal is working to develop a new Comprehensive Plan for the Ethnic Church in Arkansas. Working together will yield a better product in which all groups affiliated with Black Churches can become stakeholders in the Arkansas Annual Conference. God is at work in the ethnic churches in Arkansas.

Crossing Jordan 2009/2010 Goals

- Continue to work with ethnic churches regarding the following:
- Re-Think Church
- Three Simple Rules
- Living the United Methodist Way
- Four Focuses of the General Church
- And implementing the Five Practices of a Fruitful Congregation
- Support the work of the Imagining Ministry Teams through completion of gathering of local congregational profiles

The core planning group began with the question: how do we determine the suggested goals of the group might be achieved over the remainder of this quadrennium. Comments taken from November 8, 2008 evaluations and team input resulted in the following goals:

a. Assist Black congregations in their understanding of the Four Focuses
b. Determine how individual congregations can be a part of and respond to the General Church initiatives through local needs assessments and implementation.
c. Create a congregation of "calling" so that youth and young adults witness both lay and clergy ministry as viable in their context.
d. Identify and nurture African American clergy in their first appointment or in determined key situations by providing travel stipends for strategic events
e. Provide a format whereby African American leaders in the General Church can interact with a primarily small membership rural constituency who believes that the Church does not care about them and considers their ministry irrelevant (alter perceptions)
f. f. Assist the Conference in creating a new Comprehensive Plan for the African American church in Arkansas which includes linkages to SBC21 and the General Church Four Focuses.

SBC21 is an initiative adopted by the General Conference to enhance historically African American churches and is designed to building stronger and more relevant ministries by providing professional development and training resources for ministry and lay leaders.

February 4, 2009 – Cluster Planning Meeting, Conference Office

March 3, 2009 – Cluster Meeting: Re-Think Church, final planning for March event

March 14, 2009 - The second "Crossing Jordan Movement" event was held using the scripture focus of Joshua 1: 2b – 6, 2 with the theme: What's Blocking You? Again, Bishop May provided a stirring plenary inviting congregations and pastors to look at the roadblocks and begin to eliminate those using scripture, reflection, preaching, and works of charity/mercy. Each participant was asked to have read Rueben Job's book, Three Simple Rules.

During the separate sessions for laity and clergy information was shared on how to complete the SBC21 Congregational/Community Profile. The Congregational/Community Profile will be used as the primary tool to produce a new comprehensive plan. The planning team laid out for the group some ideas about how to involve all of the churches in the planning and hosting of future events by:

- Rotating host sites to regional quarterly events
- Targeting specific topics in the quarterly events
- Presenting a schedule through 2010 which enable churches in each quadrant of the state to be provided with resources
- Invited local and regional feed-back for future events

MINISTRY WITH YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

Imagine Ministry . . . without youth! I personally can't even wrap my mind around that concept. Yet I know that many of our local churches in the Arkansas Conference do not have youth ministries. Reasons being: 1) Persons between the ages of 12 – 17 are nowhere to be found; 2) There is no one to lead the youth who are there; 3) The church where their friends go is doing a much better job of meeting their spiritual needs.

What does this say to us about the future of our UM churches? Without youth our local churches are doomed. But before we roll over and give up the ghost let's look at the process of how youth ministry comes to be. One way is to begin with Young Adult couples who have children that become youth (better known as "grow-your-own youth group from the ground up"). Another way is to minister to the youth who are in the church regardless of number (NOTE: no matter what you may have heard or what anyone thinks, quality outranks quantity every time). Finally, we have to remember that youth ministry is church ministry. This means we don't hire a youth minister or get a volunteer to work with the youth and say to him/her, "glad you're on board, now go do your thing." It means we work hard to support the Youth Minister, hired or volunteer, by our involvement in whatever way we can to help make stronger disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

As I travel the conference the one thing I hear most from Youth Ministers is "I need help." If this is the case in your local church here are three things you need to do ASAP:

1. Find out what the needs are;
2. Offer your gifts and services OR offer to find someone who's gifts and services meet the needs of the youth program;
3. Pray that others may also see the need and step up to "share the ministry".

We made a covenant when we joined the United Methodist Church to uphold it with our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service and our witness. We also take a vow at a baby's baptism that "With God's help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround these persons with a community of love and forgiveness, that they may grow in their service to others. We will pray for them, that they may be true disciples who walk in the way that leads to life."

Imagine Ministry . . . with youth and watch what a difference it will make in your church. The exciting thing is that you don't have to do this alone. There is help. I am your apportionment dollars at work and I am available to come to your church. You are paying me . . . so get your money's worth. Call 501.324.8008 or toll-free, 877.646.1816.

Blessings, Rod Hocott
Arkansas Conference Minister for Youth and Young Adults

VOLUNTEER IN MISSIONS COORDINATOR

This has been another great year for VIM. We have had teams in many different countries such as Costa Rica, Mexico, Haiti, Peru, Belize, Tanzania, Kenya and Chile building houses, churches, teaching Bible school and giving medical care.

We have had over 150 people attend VIM training events and at least 100 people attending the Disaster Training events. Every district now has a trained district coordinator and the conference has four UMCOR certified trainers.

This Ole Church: ministry is offering a mission experience right here at home. We have eight churches signed up to receive teams.

Our teams are still going to the Gulf coast for hurricane response.

Shiprock, New Mexico, has been a great mission site working with the Navaho Indians. Reverend Bubba Smith has scheduled to lead our first team to Haiti this summer. We expect many more Arkansas Conference VIM teams will be going to Haiti in the very near future.

Don Weeks, Volunteers in Mission

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

The communications staff of the Arkansas Conference continued to work toward strengthening the connection through information sharing, collaboration with institutional affiliates and technological improvements.

Arkansas United Methodist

Last July, the conference-supported Arkansas United Methodist introduced its new design and began printing monthly with the United Methodist Reporter.

According to the Arkansas Conference treasury office, the reduced printing schedule of 16 issues per year saves the conference about $1,000 a month. At the same time, the Arkansas United Methodist devotes more space to conference and local church coverage while the Reporter carries national and international news.

The Arkansas United Methodist also has enhanced its paper quality allowing for better photo quality since printing with the Reporter.

The Arkansas Conference newspaper also has welcomed two new voices among its regular columnists. The Rev. Deena Marie Hamilton, pastor of McCabe Chapel UMC in North Little Rock, shares her insights as a clergy member in Generation X. Mary Faith "Zoe" Miles, the daughter and granddaughter of Arkansas United Methodist pastors, is a rising college senior and writes about what she and other members of Generation Y seek in congregational life.

Stories about local church ministries are also gaining attention in the global church. In 2009 and early 2010, the Reporter has published seven stories about Arkansas ministries that originally appeared in the conference newspaper. Likewise, the United Methodist News Service — the denomination's wire service based in Nashville, Tenn. — has picked up nine stories from the Arkansas United Methodist.

Website and Digital Productions

The conference website is hosted by Kite Web Consulting at a significant cost-savings from previous years. The on-line registration module has allowed virtually paperless registration for many conference events. Over 2,200 event registrations were processed on-line in 2009 with registration fees totaling more than $72,000.

In 2009, the conference website was visited over 70,000 times with close to 25,000 unique visitors. Thirty-two percent of those visits were first-time visits by someone who had never visited the conference website before. Over 25% of the traffic to the website came through search engines such as Google, Yahoo or Bing.

Live web streaming was introduced at 2009 Annual Conference as was the first-ever digital Journal of the Arkansas Conference. A benevolence DVD and calendar were produced in Fall 2009.

Web conferencing usage by conference boards and committees increased throughout 2009 as the economic savings it provides and the ease of use became better known. A web conference – or virtual meeting - can be conducted free of charge for any conference board or committee, with significant savings on travel mileage, hotels, meals, and time. To learn how your board or committee can utilize this conference-supported technology, contact Martha Taylor, mtaylor@arumc.org or 501.324.8005.

Communications staff members were involved in the production of numerous videos including promotional work for Holy Healthy UMC, Volunteers in Mission, and ASU Wesley Foundation.

Grants

Conference Communications was awarded a $125,000 grant by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas to produce materials for an initiative entitled "Sharing Together in Christ's Name," which will be distributed to local churches following the 2010 Annual Conference. The initiative seeks to tell the stories of the conference and lives that have been transformed through shared giving. Bible studies for adults, youth and children, worship videos, graphics, bulletin inserts, sermon starters and offering moments are some of the components of the initiative. Churches utilizing the materials in 2010-11 will be recognized as Sharing Together churches at the 2011 Annual Conference.

An Impact Community grant of $25,000 was awarded by United Methodist Communications and Methodist Family Health for "Get Up & Give," a one-day event held April 11. Local churches and community members in the Central and North Central Districts were invited to collect needed items for the children and families served by Methodist Family Health. Hands-on service projects at the children's home and behavioral hospital and a closing celebration were part of the day's activities.

Impact Community grants help offset costs for producing and purchasing media to promote community events by conferences, districts or local churches. Any district or cluster of three local churches can apply for an Impact Community grant. To learn how, contact Martha Taylor, Director of Communications at mtaylor@arumc.org or 501.324.8005.

Communications Support

Communications provided support for many conference missions and ministries including Imagine Ministry, Connected in Christ, Addiction Treatment and Transition Support Ministry, Holy Healthy UMC, Ingathering, Healing Place Ministries, Child Care Liaison Project, Veritas, Junior & Senior High Assemblies, Confirmation Day with the Bishop, School of Christian Mission, Vital Signs, and crisis communications for local churches. The staff also led statewide local church and national trainings for web ministry and Rethink Church.

Arkansas has been selected as the host for the national Religion Communicators Council annual meeting in 2011 and the conference staff will be hosts for that event.

CHILD CARE LIAISON PROJECT

The Child Care Liaison Project was established in January 2007. The Liaison identified weekday child care programs in our Arkansas United Methodist Churches and through providing information and resources about child care rules and regulations minimum violations were significantly reduced and work towards quality accreditation significantly increased. The Project produced two posters, one about leading activities for children and youth in the church in general, and one about licensed child care. All churches in AR can use the general poster and all licensed child care in Arkansas can use the licensing poster. The project also produced a nearly 300 page reference guide regarding weekday child care ministries which includes how to open a care program, how to structure, assessing facilities, risk management, staffing, guidance, discipline, resources, and more. The project has also represented faith based child care at meetings throughout the state and has partnered with Helen Walton Children's Education Center to create pre-service training and provides web-based testing. The Project has been host to several Arkansas Out of School Network web conferences supporting activities for school age children and youth from kindergarten through 12 grade. The Liaison is available to meet with child care directors and various church boards to help establish new programs, revitalize existing programs, and provide technical assistance or general information about child care or the work of the project.

CONNECTED IN CHRIST

Connected In Christ began several years ago as part of a re-focusing effort to fulfill the mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Motivated by this mission, we have held numerous clergy retreats, lay-clergy team-training seminars, and coaching sessions with congregational teams. Over 200 pastors and their congregations have been involved in the comprehensive two year process that constitutes the core of CIC.

In the past year, we started Group 13 of the core process with 18 participants. We also started a partnership with the Board of Ordained Ministry to hold retreats for those pursuing ordination. Over 50 attended the first retreat of this new process. In addition, we partnered with the Cabinet and Conference Ministry Team to hold retreats and seminars centered around the United Methodist Way Initiative, and to hold a Pastoral Start Up Retreat for pastors moving to a new appointment. Through these partnerships, we have been able to expand our impact and deal with some specific identified needs within our larger connection.

In measuring impact, our best source continues to be the stories we hear. From our pastors we have learned that they feel more connected, more supported, and better equipped for ministry as a result of their involvement in CIC. Likewise, leadership teams in congregations continue to give praise for the leadership insights they receive through the team training seminars. They report that they are more focused on the mission of the church, more hopeful about the future, and better equipped to lead for faithful and fruitful ministry. From District Superintendents and CIC coaches, we learn that CIC congregations are more focused on creating an environment that encourages growth. CIC is regularly lifted up as a catalyst for helping congregations focus more directly on our primary mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

In CIC, we do not see ourselves as just another continuing education program. We see ourselves as a resource for the fulfillment of this larger mission. Our unique role is to facilitate the connections needed for faithful and fruitful ministry. These connections include connecting pastors together in covenant community, connecting clergy and laity together into leadership teams, and to connecting congregations to a coach for insights, encouragement, and accountability. Through these connections great things happens.

John Crawford, our Director of Lay Leadership, and I count it as a great blessing to be in partnership with so for this important work. We truly believe that the best is yet to come. If you would like to learn more about CIC, please let us know.

Grace and Peace, Michael Roberts

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

We continue to see evidence of Bishop Crutchfield's leadership in our conference and how he connects us to the general church. Under his leadership, the Imagine Team continues it's work to identify areas where the conference can improve its ministries.

The committee met with Bishop Crutchfield to hear and respond to his ministry plan for the next year.. The committee is pleased to fully support Bishop Crutchfield's plan for leading our conference to effectively make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Emphasis on the United Methodist Way is drawing focus on our past and providing vision for our future.

The Episcopal residence is in excellent condition. The Episcopal residence sub-committee has met with Bishop and Mrs. Crutchfield to verify the effectiveness of the previous repairs and at this writing no significant work remains.

Grace and Peace,
Asa Whitaker, Chair, Episcopacy Committee

The conference provided leadership development opportunities for 35 participants in the Arkansas Conference and youth from all five jurisdictions of the United Methodist Church participated in the event. Throughout the event youth and young adults were vital components of the design and planning. Encouraging youth to explore ways they could be of service in their local congregations. Collaborative support for the event included; Central District, Arkansas Conference, Theressa Hoover UMC, Wesley Chapel UMC, First Church Sweet Home, St. Paul Maumelle, Hunter and Pulaski Heights United Methodist Churches.

FOCUS TEAM

"He has told you, O mortal, what is good: and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God". Micah 6:8

The work of the Focus Team is to cast a spotlight on ministries of justice, inclusiveness and collective accountability. The Focus Team is comprised of the following committees and commissions an under the leadership of the noted chairpersons:

•Commission on Religion & Race – Sandra Mitchell
•Commission on Status & Role of Women – Lynn McClure •Committee o Disability Concerns – Roger Barker
•Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns – Melvin Moss
•Committee on Hispanic Ministries – Ramiro Lizcano

•Committee on Native American Ministries – J. H. Moore
•Small Membership Churches – Judy Hall

The words written in Micah 6:8 are torch lights that undergird much of the planning and implementation of the work carried out through these committees. Native American Ministries has expanded their ministry plans to include emerging concerns as well as historical Native American issues. Religion and Race continues to partner in ministry concerns of inclusiveness and accountability with Status and Role of Women.

The "Crossing the Jordan" movement sponsored under the leadership of ELCC is continuing to witness increased excitement from the event and is working to respond to emerging mission opportunities to local churches. Planning and implementation of ministry objectives will be the centerpiece of Hispanic Ministries. Both ELCC and Hispanic Ministries continue their much needed support of higher education goals through scholarships.

The Focus Team will be looking at ways to utilize our team connections to undergird, support, engage and expand our ministry work through cooperative efforts.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

The mission of the Board of Global Ministries is to make disciples of Jesus Christ by equipping each local church for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God. Our goals are to:

- Create and nurture relationships and cooperation among the local and district ministries
- Provide encouragement, coordination, and support for ministries in districts for making disciples for Jesus Christ
- Ensure the alignment of total resources of the Conference to its mission
- Equip laity for effective leadership in every congregation
- Develop and strengthen ethnic ministries, including ethnic local churches and concerns
- Revitalize local churches and start new churches
- Strengthen small membership churches
- Provide for advocacy and monitoring functions to ensure that the church is consistent with the mission

Throughout the Conference District Secretaries have:

- Promoted Ingathering. The response to Ingathering this year was wonderful! Churches have been involved with housing and feeding during the times of disaster. Several churches are involved in opening a non-denominational free clinic at Newport First United Methodist Church and a local hospital has offered to do lab work free of charge! Newport First has served as a district drop-off place for health kits in response to the Haiti earthquake. 800 kits were taken to Rice Depot for shipment to the UMCOR Depot in Louisiana. Despite the current economic situation, some churches are breaking their Ingathering giving records!
- Supported Habitat for Humanity. The West District finished and dedicated its Habitat for Humanity house and is getting matching funds to start another house.
- Justice for Our Neighbors announced that a client of the Dover Clinic is the first of their clients to become a U.S. citizen!
- The Train the Trainer session for Emergency response teams was held at Mt. Sequoyah last year and will be held in each district under UMCOR regulations.
- Church and Community Workers in Arkansas now have a page on the conference web site: www.arumc.org/Ministries/Missions/Churchandcommunityworkers.
- UMCOR reported that over 1,200 people from 42 churches in Arkansas volunteered in 11 countries including Uganda, Kenya, Mexico, Costa Rica, and Guatemala.

The success of the Board of Global Ministries is to be determined by whether more persons are becoming disciples, growing deeper in faith and discipleship, and living out their ministry for Christ as God's witnesses in the world.

As we continue to encourage local congregations of the Arkansas Conference, the Board of Global Ministries will continue to engage in activities that foster growth in Christian faith, Mission education, outreach and social issues awareness, and the increasing of human and financial resources for programs and projects throughout the United States, as well as, around the world.

Our goals as leaders in "Mission" will continue to make disciples and to strengthen, develop and renew congregations.

HOLY HEALTHY TASK FORCE

As leaders within The United Methodist Church, we are constantly faced with choices that either enhance or detract from the overall health and well-being of our churches, our families and ourselves. When we are not healthy in body, mind, and spirit, we are less than what God intended us to be, and less enabled to do the work to which God has called us.

Only four years ago the Arkansas conference established the Seventh Vision Initiative for health: "To emphasize the importance of self care for the clergy, staff and laity and to facilitate intentional health ministries for body, mind, and spirit in and through our churches."

The role of the Health Ministry Task Force is to provide the tools for churches and pastors that will facilitate the implementation of this vision initiative.

---What has the Health Ministry Task Force accomplished during the last year?---

- Raised over $10,000.00 from private sources to fund Holy Healthy Task Force initiatives
- Trained 19 parish nurses to begin health ministries in our local churches
- Established the Virgin Health Miles up-loadable pedometer walking program for pastors and staff
- Promoted an awareness of the important relationship between health and faith
- Helped our churches consider health in the context of faith as part of missions and activities
- Enabled our churches to organize resources around the issues of faith and health
- Continued the Holy Healthy Awards and Annual Conference Fun Run

— What direction is the Holy Healthy Task Force headed? —

The Health Ministry Task Force is involved in planning or supporting a number of exciting initiatives including:

- Continuing the Parish Nurse Training for our churches – a long run goal is to have resource persons in each district
- Exploring the creation of networks of United Methodist Health Professionals
- Exploring SPRC education in terms of supporting, encouraging, and promoting the health of the pastor and creating a supportive environment within the church
- Expanding the use of up-loadable pedometers among our pastors and staff
- Developing a network of United Methodist churches with ideas and programs that support health and healthy lifestyles with a sharing of "Best Practices"
- Improving the accessibility and content of the web site
- Continuing to create annual events that support the Seventh Vision Initiative such as the Annual Conference Booth, Annual Conference Fun Run, Holy Healthy Awards and health awareness

We see a future where the importance of the relationship between health and faith becomes a greater part of the consciousness of our churches. As this evolves, persons with creative ideas and a passion for health and faith will rise to the surface to help us be the church God intends for us to be.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

"In the college community, students are almost forced to interact and connect with other people, cultures and ideas they might not have otherwise come to know. Is there any better time, place and situation for discipleship to occur?" The director of the UA-Fayetteville Wesley Foundation wrote those words in an article for the UM Portal website.

Discipleship. That's why United Methodist campus ministries are there.

United Methodists need to be reminded regularly that the Wesley Foundations on our state college and university campuses are a mission of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church. As the Wesley director at UA-Monticello put it. "All Wesley Foundations are the presence of the United Methodist Church on a college campus." And all WF campus ministries reach out to students through special events and weekly programs, looking for "…teachable moments to help young adults make small choices that instill Christ-like patterns of behavior." That's how the WF director at Arkansas State University described what happens in his WF ministry.

For the Henderson/Ouachita Wesley Foundation director, it's all about "…working to make disciples of Christ by providing a place for community and exploring of faith." The director of the UA-Monticello WF reminds us that "We as United Methodist should never forget that the 'Methodist movement' of John Wesley began as campus ministry. This is who we are."

Our Wesley Foundation ministries are often the source of future pastors, missionaries and seminarians, as well as future lay leaders of our church. At all Wesley Foundations one finds students who have answered the call to full time positions in the church. But future lawyers, engineers, doctors, writers, politicians and artists also are involved in our campus ministries, and they, as one director put it, will "create the very culture that the church will be living in" in the future.

While not every person goes on to Ordination in the United Methodist Church, campus ministry explores a variety of full time ministry expressions. Every believer is encouraged to understand themselves as being called into not only their vocational careers but also their lives as followers of Christ in the Church.

All campus ministries work hard in mission each year, seeking to follow Christ's example in word and in action. Student leaders lead small groups and weekly worship, work with community organizations, are connect with and explore a variety of full time ministry expressions from Music Ministry to Children, Youth and Older Adults.

UALR is re-building its student base and is working vigorously to attempt to find freshmen and sophomore students living in UALR residence halls to participate in programming, regular Wednesday lunch, and local/national mission initiatives.

All Wesley Foundations provide students a place to come where they are safe, can find friends, and can explore their faith.

Our Arkansas Conference Wesley Foundations went to Peru, Mexico, Tennessee, and OMP; set up student-led Small Group offerings; studied the Book of Romans and other books of the Bible; offered a Woman's Accountability Group, a Woman's Prayer Group, and a Men's Small Group; carried out leadership training retreats; worked in missions in downtown Little Rock; took a bicycle Tour de Faith and did mission work from Cincinnati to Canton, Ohio; provided summer camp for Delta high school students; worked with local churches in worship, soup kitchens, youth rallies, food pantries, and clothing distribution points; tutored at-risk children in the community to help them break out of the cycle of poverty and neglect they find themselves in at no fault of their own; visited nursing homes; connected with International students; and built a house.

One issue that needs to be addressed is the condition of most of the Wesley Foundation facilities around the state. When heavy snow collapsed the roof at one Wesley, it's hard to say the disaster was a good thing. But it was. Insurance covered most of the repairs and local churches kicked to help not only repair the damage to the roof but also to update 1950's wiring and plumbing and to bring the facility up to current local building codes. One of our Wesley campus ministries does not have indoor plumbing! How serious is that? Its students use a port-a-potty outside the back door! Facility short comings at other campuses need to be addressed.

The Wesley Foundations will continue to train a new generation of leaders and focus on showing genuine care for others, personal responsibility, and patience. They also will encourage better self-care and overall health through spiritual disciplines, both modeled and taught. They will improve the quality of the fund-raising tools in use now, while support of local congregations for special needs will continue. To do this, they will re-connect with local churches upon which they depend for a large part of their budgets.

Campus ministry will continue to be the most important element of recruiting and preparing young people for church-related vocations and avocations.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Carvell, Chair

HISPANIC MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

1. What is your group doing to make disciples of Jesus Christ forthetransformation of the world?

The Hispanic Ministries Committee (hereafter HMC) understands disciple-making as the core task of Christendom, as reflected by Jesus' words in the Gospel of Matthew: "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19, NIV). HMC has been charged by the Arkansas Conference to reach one of the "nations" Jesus so loved – Hispanics living amongst us – and it is this task that HMC has held as the standard for every decision made, every grant given, and every ministry endorsed by the Committee.

HMC believes that life-long disciples of Jesus Christ are made when whole lives are transformed: when physical and social needs are met alongside spiritual ones. HMC also believes that the Hispanic community of Arkansas, which has more than doubled in the last 10 years, has unique needs that distinguish it from other Arkansan populations, and that these needs of language and cultural disparity and socio-economic position must be met before true Christian discipleship can be fostered. It is from this belief that HMC has strategically chosen to invest in programs that demonstrate a holistic approach to Hispanic Ministry. HMC actively encourages and supports Hispanic and Spanish-language churches and missional bodies. Through grants, HMC supports various programs that provide English as a Second Language courses; medical and dental care; food pantries; clothing closets; after-school programs; summer camps for impoverished children; legal assistance for immigrants; and education and support for pastors and laity who wish to minister among Hispanics. Most importantly, all of these HMC-sponsored ministries have at heart a desire to reach Hispanics where they are and help them grow into disciples and disciple-makers of Jesus Christ.

HMC does not simply disperse grant money, however; the Committee is also directly engaged in ministry. HMC is working under grant money provided by the National Hispanic Plan to establish a Lay Speaking Course in Spanish and to bring Modular Training to the Arkansas Conference. The Basic Lay Speaking Course will help equip local Hispanics to be more active and confident discipling members of their congregations. The Modular Training will better prepare persons (both Hispanic and non-Hispanic, clergy and lay) for the unique requirements of ministry among Hispanics. We consider both initiatives essential in our endeavor to make (Hispanic) disciples of Jesus Christ, for well-trained leaders are indispensable to the multiplication of the faithful.

2. Share a description of the work of your ministry in 2009.

In 2009, the current membership of HMC learned of grant money available through the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries. HMC worked to reapply for the roughly $36,000 of un-dispersed funds for which it still qualified. This money is contingent on two things: an active ministry plan (described below, #3) and matching funds from the Annual Conference. HMC received the grant of $16,381 each for years 2010 and 2011, and hopes that the Conference will continue to provide matching funds so that the planned ministry can continue.

HMC also supported local ministries through the dispersal of grant money. HMC has supported the following ministries in 2009:

A. New Church Start, Fort Smith. An Hispanic, Spanish-speaking pastor is starting a Spanish-language church in Fort Smith. He receives New Church Start funds through the Arkansas Annual Conference, support from his District and local sponsor church, and is beginning to become more self-sufficient through the support of his parishioners. HMC provides funds for Spanish-language materials (Bibles, literature, etc) and helps purchase food and supplies for the various social ministries that his church sponsors. HMC also gives him scholarship funds as he completes his Course of Study.

B. Mi Casa, Pine Bluff. Mi Casa is a thriving Hispanic Mission of the Lakeside UMC Church. The Mission is working hard to develop a thriving community of faith even as it serves the very real physical and social needs of the area Hispanics. Mi Casa offers a Spanish-language worship service and Bible Studies (including Confirmation Class), and encourages its members to participate in the English-language parent church. This year, Mi Casa has held a baptism and wedding. Mi Casa helps meet the financial needs of area Hispanics through helping with utilities, groceries, gas, and medical expenses, while also providing translating services.

C. Justice For Our Neighbors (JFON). JFON provides legal council and advocacy on immigration and other issues central to the lives of many Hispanics. These services are usually free of charge and therefore require quite a bit of financial support, which HMC is happy to help provide.

D. Oak Forest UMC. The Pastor of Oak Forest UMC is active in reaching out to the Hispanic community around the church. This church hosts a JFON clinic, as well as medical and dental clinics, free meals, computer classes (in Spanish), ESL, and Spanish-language worship services. HMC helps the church purchase property for a dental clinic, which is being renovated to start operation in March 2010.

E. Lower Delta Community Outreach. The Hamburg UMC Church hosts a Church and Community Worker who is appointed to Arkansas. This worker is engaged in outreach to the Hispanic and other ethnic communities of the area through after-school and Summer Camp programs for school-aged children. The work with the children helps integrate the various ethnic communities into a diverse whole, and helps lead the children and their families into a community of faith. HMC helps with program funding as the need arises.

F. Betel. Betel is an Hispanic congregation located in Northwest AR that is currently meeting the spiritual needs of about 80 – 100 congregants. HMC has helped fund an after-school safe-haven for area children through providing a safe and secure play area, and is a parent-church for the new church start Midland Heights Hispanic Mission.

G. Scholarships. HMC currently provides a small scholarship for a graduate of the Lydia Patterson Institute to attend Hendrix College. It is the hope that this student (and others who may qualify for this scholarship) will one day become active and vital leaders of Hispanic congregations within the Arkansas Conference.

What are your strategic missional goals for 2010?

HMC is excited to work with the grant money provided by the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries to provide greater opportunities for Spanish-language leadership development within the Arkansas Conference. Besides continuing to support the ministries described in #2, HMC is working to raise up and train leaders qualified to meet the unique ministry needs of the Hispanic/Latino community. We need to develop leaders at all levels: Lay Speakers, Commissioned Missioners, and Ordained Pastors. HMC has a three-fold plan to address the leadership training needs in all three areas:

A. Lay Speaker Training. Vibrant Hispanic communities exist throughout Arkansas. There are already members of these communities who are taking on leadership roles within the church, but who lack the formal training (and the confidence that is thus acquired) necessary to help form their communities into communities of faith and worship. With the goal of raising up well-equipped lay leaders in mind, HMC is dedicating a large portion of its resources in the coming years to developing and conducting bi-lingual Lay Speaker Training throughout the Arkansas Conference. Because the majority of prospective students in these classes are likely to come from low-income communities, HMC will provide scholarships and transportation costs for those who would benefit from them.

B. Module Training. We need Lay Speakers from local Hispanic/Latino communities trained to minister "at home" in both Spanish and English. But we also need persons, be they Hispanic or non-Hispanic, who are trained to handle the unique challenges that ministry amongst Hispanics/Latinos brings. HMC wants Commissioned Missioners who are dedicated to forming vibrant communities of faith throughout the Hispanic communities of Arkansas. These are persons who could provide administrative and organizational support and serve as a resource to Lay Leaders and Church Elders alike. Module Training Levels I – III provides such commissioned persons, but is not currently available in the Arkansas Conference. The cost, time, and travel distance required to attend Modular Training in other Conferences are prohibitive to many would-be Arkansan students. The Hispanic Committee has therefore decided to coordinate with the National Hispanic Plan to bring Module Training to the Arkansas Conference and to make it widely available to those who feel called to Hispanic ministry through scholarships and travel assistance.

C. Scholarships. Although Lay Speakers and Missioners must play a vital role in the future of Hispanic/Latino ministry, they are still no substitute for full-time clergy. A vital community of faith is a worshipping community; an ordained Methodist Elder can be invaluable in helping such communities reach their full potential. It is impractical for the Arkansas Conference to found a seminary, but we can financially assist those who feel a calling toward full-time ministry among Hispanics/Latinos as they attend undergraduate school, seminary, or complete a Course of Study. HMC is currently sponsoring two such students and is available to provide scholarships for others who hope to enter into ordained ministry, hopefully among Hispanics within our conference.

How many persons are involved in your various ministry programs?

The various ministry programs that HMC sponsors are busily working to make disciples of Jesus Christ. Through a combination of social outreach initiatives, after-school programs, and worship and discipling courses, the grant money HMC dispersed has ministered to hundreds of Hispanics across the Conference. The The New Church Start in Fort Smith currently has a worshipping congregation of about 30 adults, 10 adolescents, and 30 children. The church is in active ministry to its community, and has had several baptisms within the last year, with several more scheduled for the months to come. Mi Casa has a worshipping congregation of about 30, an after-school program that tutors 10 – 15 students, and reaches many more through its various social services. Betel regularly worships 90 – 100 and serves as a parent/sponsor church for potential Hispanic congregations. Oak Forest UMC provides medical and dental care to about 40 people bi-weekly, meals to about 35 people every week, and clothing to hundreds of people every year, the majority of whom are Hispanic. Lower Delta Community Outreach regularly serves about 50 children in an after-school program, about a quarter of which are Hispanic. JFON's various branches provide legal assistance to as many Hispanics as possible. It is the hope of HMC that, through the National Plan Grant money and matching funds from the Arkansas Conference, the programs and initiatives it sponsors in 2010 will reach even more Hispanics and help them to become disciples and disciple-makers of Jesus Christ.

HUNGER TASK FORCE, CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Hunger Task Force is involved in the following activities:

A. EDUCATION: We are completing a book about the various hunger ministries churches are involved in the conference. We are part of an Interfaith Hunger Task Force to involve the entire faith community in hunger eradication.

B. ADVOCACY: We continue to encourage members of churches to send letters relating to hunger issues to elected officials. We are developing the Bread for the World Offering of Letters in the state.

C. RELIEF: We continue to encourage churches to give money for the Change for Change program on the Hunger Awareness Sunday (the last Sunday of June). We continue to give Change for Change grants.

INTENTIONAL INTERIM MINISTRY
PROGRAM STRUCTURE

A. Settings for possible Intentional Interim Ministers

1. Short term (generally 3 - 6 months, up to a year) as in:
   a) Health issues of appointed pastor
   b) Ministerial transitions; i.e. retirements, transfers, appointments to connectional ministries, such as Superintendency.
   c) Sabbaticals of up to six months in length.
2. Long term (generally one to three years) as in:
   a) Death of a pastor
   b) Ending of appointment of a beloved or long-tenured pastor
   c) Traumatic departure of a pastor
   d) Unhealthy or conflicted congregation
   e) Other factors that contribute to a disruption in congregational life.

These can be situations when the "right" successor is not presently available and a trained IIM is needed as an "intentional" interim. It is a far cry from "Pulpit Supply" to just keep the doors open, but to analyze the hurts and needs and to move to new congregational health and to pave the way for the new pastor, returning the local church to a vital ministry in the community.

B. Criteria for Selection of Candidates for Intentional Interim Ministers

1. Recommended by a District Superintendent in consultation with Cabinet.
2. Interviewed by District Superintendent and Annual Conference Coordinator of IIM.
3. Qualified by the Intentional Growth Center (or denominationally recognized institution) - see "training" in C-2 below
4. Careful review of gifted passion for such a special calling and understanding.
5. Assigned by the Cabinet
   a) Only after certification training and interviewed and recommended by the pastor's District Superintendent and the Annual Conference Coordinator of IIM.
   b) Other training as may be identified and required.

C. Intentionality Components. (-"intentional" is a key word in the IIM plan)

1. Planned Ministry
   a) The local congregation's Pastor-Staff Parish Relations Committee with the D.S. delineates needs, challenges, and opportunities, and these are established as goals for the IIM, formulated into a "covenant" / contract for the IIM plan of that local congregation.
   b) These "goals" are shared with the Cabinet whose task it is to match specific skills and experiences of a trained IIM in the "IIM Pool" required to meet each set of established goals - matched to the size, history, current ministries, etc. of the particular congregation.
   c) The agreed-upon IIM is assigned and the IIM develops a Leadership Team within the local congregation.
   d) The announcement in writing defining the IIM will be made available to the congregation by the D.S. at the beginning of the interim period.
   e) IIM will have the commitment of D.S. to be available for consultation.
   f) IIM will have access to complete information regarding life and history of the local congregation.
   g) The Conference Coordinator of IIM will serve as a resource/facilitator in the process as requested.
2. Training the Intentional Interim Minister (IIM)
   a) Will be trained in skill-sets required by Cabinet and the denomination.
   b) Will have a history of serving variety of local congregations, knowledge and commitment of United Methodist history, doctrine and structures, and be experienced in its systems and resources.

c) Must have the ability to analyze the local church, its history and systems, and to identify its strengths and witnesses.
d) Should be skilled in conflict management and resolution.
e) Will be sensitive to identifying the inevitable triangulations and the skills to avoid them.
f) Will be skilled in working with anxious congregations, prepared for dealing with staged of grief, suppressed anger/resentments and organizational depression. (see brief outline of standards for training below)

3. Compensation
   a) Covenant for compensation of the IIM will be agreed upon and signed at initial meeting of SPRC, along with the financial package as negotiated by D.S. and Conference Coordinator of IIM. (see "Financial Component" below)
   b) Short term IIMs shall be compensated at a level no less than Conference Equitable Compensation.
   c) Long term IIMs shall be compensated at level of local congregation's pastoral compensation or as negotiated, but not less than Conference Equitable Compensation.
      (1) If salary is below Conference Average, the Conference will provide the funding difference.
      (2) Benefits provided clergy under appointment in Arkansas Conference shall be provided to the long-term IIM.
   d) Housing will be considered as part of the compensation package, negotiated and included in the written, signed covenant.
4. Support
   a) The D.S. and Conference Coordinator of IIM will maintain regular contact and carefully monitor relationships with the local congregation - they will assist the IIM in obtaining needed resources or personnel for specific functions and leadership.
   b) The D.S. and Coordinator will assist in introducing the IIM to the District, the local community and neighboring pastors;
   c) The IIM will develop a network within the Annual Conference, including self-care support.
   d) There will be structured time for the IIM to have spiritual retreat and renewal.
5. Accountability - the IIM will...
   a) Make periodic and final written reports for Leadership Team, SPRC, the D.S. and the Conference Coordinator of IIM.
   b) Be evaluated in appropriate way by supervisors and local leadership.
6. Connections
   a) The IIM must be able to reconnect/strengthen the local congregation to the greater connectional system of the United Methodist Church.
   b) The IIM must model support for the connection by participating in District and Annual Conference events.
   c) The IIM should be familiar with Special Sunday offerings, the mission outreach ministries of the Annual Conference and the United Methodist Church, complete with the Disciplinary requirement for the local church.
7. Ethical Integrity - the IIM must...
   a) Never be available to be appointed as the "next pastor" of the local church he/she is serving as IIM.
   b) Be in observance of all pastoral boundaries with utmost commitment and scrupulousness.
   c) Be able to self-differentiate ones self in conflicted, angry settings; - they should have a support system for consultation and encouragement as the IIM "lives into and with" the interim situation.
   d) Never, never be critical of members or the church situation, even with clergy peers (might be repeated to the "wrong" parties)

e) Must be able to love the people and at the appropriate time exit without return.
f) If requested, might assist in pastoral transition to the "next" pastor.

D. Characteristics of an Interim

1. Contractual ... the IIM...
   a) Functions through an agreed beginning and ending time frame. (- can be a tenure from a few months to three years in duration)
   b) Functions within defined boundaries for their interim ministry.
   c) Is accountable to D.S. and Cabinet.
2. Duties - Priorities and Limitations (-to be established in written covenant)
   a) Preaching should be first priority; - administration second (bringing God's healing through preaching and leadership)
   b) Leadership-participation-attendance is expected for administrative planning and meetings and regular functions of the church - yet attention to time-intensive or preparation-intensive (teaching, leading studies, etc) possibly should not be expected.
   c) Lay teams or other staff should provide some of the pastoral care (e.g. hospital, shut-in, nursing home visitation, support groups, community service, etc.) (The individual IIM should be afforded some flexibility to participate in his/her "favorite ministry.")
3. Bold - the IIM should/must...
   a) Always speak the truth (in love) among the congregation and the leaders.
   b) Always have the freedom to identify problems within the congregation and enable a process for resolving the problem/conflict.
   c) Sometimes must work quickly and directly, even assertively (but always kindly and diplomatically)
4. Called to a Special, Unique Ministry; the IIM must...
   a) Be able to display a depth of understanding for IIM.
   b) Love the congregation yet be prepared to depart as tenure terminates.
   c) Have the capacity to enter into intense, emotional ministries as such will process and address many expressions of frustration, hurt, or anger.
   d) Be able to focus on the critical work at hand that must be accomplished, even under stress and difficult time constraints.
   e) Always be enabling the congregation to celebrate their past and move forward with excited anticipation of a bright, hopeful future with the next pastor.

E. Skills for IIM Ministry

1. Biblical foundation
   a) Preaching is to be clearly biblical (Use of the Lectionary will provide appropriate lessons, thereby protecting the IIM from choosing only favorite lessons and/or preaching re-cycled sermons, or being accused of "using the Bible to preach his/her opinions.")
   b) Let the Biblical story provide the focus and grounding for anxious, frustrated, angry persons in the congregation.
   c) The Word of God can/will bring healing, power and possibility into every situation and will define the predicament/situation as holy.
2. Pastoral Tending
   a) The first obligation of the IIM is to bring healing through preaching and leadership.
   b) But the obligation of listening is a close second; - listening for the congregational story and to the individual stories; - to be a good pastor.
   c) In the event former pastor left the appointment for unpleasant and/or unexpected reasons the membership needs to be assured they are not to blame for that pastor's problems, reassured that God is still with them.
3. Analytical skills; - the IIM must be able to...
   a) Assess the health and needs of the congregation.
   b) Offer leadership skills that enable the congregation to celebrate their past and move forward toward their future with hope, eagerly anticipating their next pastor.

4. Flexible leadership style
   a) No two churches are alike.
   b) Techniques and resources must be particularly engaged for each individual congregation.

— FUTURE DIRECTIONS —

A. Continue to develop and coordinate inter-Annual Conference Boards, Agencies, and task forces that should have ownership in the IIM plan - coordinating support, supervision and evaluations.
B. Continue to determine the need and the scope of the IIM plan.
   1. Cabinet to work to determine number of congregations to benefit from IIM assignment each year.
   2) Cabinet continue to identify, recruit and train clergy candidates for "IIM Pool."
      a) Identify those best qualified to serve short-term assignments.
      b) Identify those best qualified to serve long-term assignments.
C. Expand efforts to educate local congregations as to merits/hopes of IIM assignments.
   1. Celebrate/recognize successful IIM situations at Annual Conference Sessions - with promotional displays of pickup literature and posters available.
   2. Tell/celebrate the IIM stories as told through the Arkansas Methodist publication.
   3. Promote, share reports and have displays at District meetings/gatherings - use those in IIM assignments as guests to tell story at District meetings; - pick-up literature, posters to take back and display in local church.
D. Arkansas Annual Conference develop relations with other sister Conferences, sharing experiences and resources for IIM efforts.

— FINANCIAL COMPONENT —

While the first step in any new proposed ministry is to complete a needs-assessment and then develop a strong case for it, how it will be funded is an essential part of the plan. Yet, at this juncture in the developing plan, funding is yet to be identified.

It is felt that endorsement of a well-envisioned IIM plan by the Annual Conference is the first step. Currently other studies are underway in the Annual Conference to evaluate the annual budget of the Conference, apportionments, staffing, etc. Such a study holds the possibilities of some current Conference budget line items being reduced and thus becoming available for the IIM plan. These is reason to believe there are individual United Methodists in the Arkansas Annual Conference that possibly would be interested and capable of giving to an endowment fund restricted for the IIM plan.

Most would agree that the funding of the IIM plan must not be funded solely by individual gifts, as the Conference must have "bought in" with a financial commitment. Plus, if individual donors were approached to give, their first question rightly would be to inquire about the ownership/buy-in by the body of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

This line of thinking comes out perceiving that it is best to first pursue from the Annual Conference the endorsement of the IIM plan, as outlined here in this proposal, even without clear-cut funding commitments, but with the contingency that the present study of the Annual Conference finances continue, with the possibility there might be re-directed funding available there in the near future, thus opening the door to approach individual donors for gifts to a designated fund.

A Brief Outline of Standards for IIM Training Seminars

The "Intentional Growth Center" at Lake Junaluska is the only UMC trainer of IIM Specialists that is recognized by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. There are annual seminar offerings at Mt. Sequoyah for the South Central Jurisdiction. In the past five years, IGC has conducted some 25 seminars, preparing over 300 United Methodist pastors for this ministry.

EACH SEMINAR IS A THREE-PHASE EVENT:

- Phase I is a 4-day residential event (usually in the Fall) lifting up the concept of Interim ministry and introducing tools and techniques. It is 32 classroom hours introducing the IIM concept, its history, sharing understandings of systems theory, conflict management strategies, boundaries-of-ministry understandings and other process tasks of the Interim practitioner.

- Phase II is six-months of mentored work back home in the participant's appointment where these tools and techniques are practiced, with minimum requirements of two one-page case studies of "leadership for change incidents" written up and submitted. An estimated 40 hours will be required for Phase II.
- Phase III is a second 3-day residential 20 classroom hour experience the following Spring, reviewing and sharing case studies as a means of deepening the learnings of Phase I and II, with additional emphasis on Spirituality. There is a limited introduction of new materials.
- (Continuing Education Credit - CEU - is given for this 92 hours of training.)

BOARD OF LAITY

District Lay Leaders as well as the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries make up the membership of the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity. The work of the Board is done primarily through individual District Lay Leaders working with their respective District Superintendents and meets only as necessary to plan ministry and to respond to the defined needs of lay ministry within the conference.

The overarching goal of the Board of Laity is to enable laity across the conference to be more effective in making disciples of Jesus Christ.

In 2010, conference laity leadership will continue to partner with the Cabinet and clergy leadership to educate, promote, and reaffirm The Methodist Way through training events for laity leadership in each district or region. Our first state wide event was held on February 13, 2010 as a Laity Convocation. Our goal was to begin the process of enabling and facilitating laity to develop a new understanding of what it means to be a United Methodist, to fully embrace the mission of the church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world and to partner with clergy in this undertaking. Over 100 laity attended.

It is imperative that we foster mutual ministry of clergy and lay at every level of the church structure. We seek to develop pathways of developing partnerships and mutual ministry with the Cabinet, the District Leadership Teams, and pastors in the local church. Through the local church lay leader, we seek to foster an awareness of the role of laity in ministry to encourage clergy and laity alike to be proactive in developing effective ministry relationships.

Major emphasis continues to be given to the following four areas during 2009.

- Improve communications to all churches
- Acknowledge laity as partners in ministry with clergy and help that come about as a reality.
- Educate and train laity about the United Methodist Church, it's beliefs, it's organization, and it's mission
- Commit to equip clergy and laity for leadership roles through training and mentoring

The Board will continue to sponsor and promote a conference wide training event for laity and clergy. Vital Signs 2009 was held in April of 2009 with approximately 300 people attending. The event is scheduled for the third Saturday in April of each year through 2015 as a means of promoting continuous learning.

Conference Lay Leader

MISSION PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The full Committee on Mission Personnel met in November to interview and recommend an applicant for deaconess relationship to the General Board of Global Ministries. She subsequently spent a week in New York for interviews and one of the classes required before commissioning. This spring she will learn whether she has been accepted into the deaconess program. Currently there is one commissioned deaconess in Arkansas. Kandi Mount is a lay chaplain with Mercy Health Systems in Rogers.

Under Arkansas Conference Strategic Initiative #5, the Committee on Mission Personnel encourages district superintendents to consider their needs for lay missioners to work with the poor in their districts with the expenses being shared by the districts and the conference. The conference budget for 2010 allows for two lay missioners: Cathy Larson continues as lay missioner at the Open Door ministry at the Shorewood Hills United Methodist Church. Belinda Johnson works with the Haven Outreach and Community Development Project in Hot Springs. Both of these missions are in South Central District.

The Conference Church and Community Workers Advisory Committee met twice in 2009. These meetings are helpful in sharing the work and needs of the CCWs. A new CCW page on the conference web site was established: www. arumc.org/ministries/mission/church and community workers. The three church and community workers in Arkansas are: Evelyn Banks-Shackelford of Marianna Larger Parish; Steve Copley of Justice for Our Neighbors; and Allyne Solomon of the Lower Delta Parish Community Outreach Ministry.

While a few new covenant relationships between individual churches and missionaries have been established in Arkansas during the past year, more are needed for salary support. Covenant relationships are rewarding for those in the churches involved as well as the missionaries.

After a slowdown in commissioning new missionaries due to economic conditions, GBGM commissioned a number of missionaries last fall. The Committee on Mission Personnel will continue to mentor and assist with the application process anyone interested in missionary work with GBGM. We welcome inquiries about opportunities which may exist in the future.

Mary Lou Martin, Chair
Committee on Mission Personnel

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

{Conference Secretary Note: No report was submitted this year.}

NEW CHURCH STARTS

1. What is group doing to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?
   We are starting new United Methodist Churches in Arkansas, who will give birth to more new UMCs in Arkansas, all designed to make more disciples, more younger disciples, and more diverse disciples of Jesus Christ. In the past 60 months, we have started 19 new United Methodist Churches and secomd campuses in Arkansas.
2. Share a description of the work of your ministry in 2009?
   In 2009, the Bishop appointed seven pastors to start seven new United Methodist Churches in Arkansas.
   These 2009 new church appointments are a part of a new strategic initiative began in 2003 - an initiative to start 30 new churches and 25 second campuses by 2013 in response to the changing demographics of Arkansas.

How are we doing?

- Since 2005, we have attempted 21 new church starts (29% of them in non-anglo contexts). Among these 21 recent attempts, 90% have survived.
- In 2005 we attempted 4 new church starts – all of them have survived. These four new churches have an accumulative worship attendance of 718, have witnessed 378 professions of faith, 308 baptisms, 26 re-affirmations of faith, and 465 members. Two of these churches have chartered already, and three of these churches are already paying their apportionments in full.
- In 2006 the cabinet attempted two new strategies to transform established congregations into new churches. These attempt were not successful. However, both of these congregations are continuing, but not as "new" churches.
- Between 2007 and 2009, the Bishop appointed 15 pastors to start additional new churches. These congregations, although they are quite young, are already giving evidence that they will be good investments for the Kingdom and the Annual Conference. These "baby" new faith communities already have an accumulative worship attendance of 1,330, have witnessed 171 professions of faith, 43 baptisms, 18 re-affirmations of faith, and 397 members. Four of these starts are so new they have not begun every-Sunday worship yet.

- If we look back ten years, we have 26 congregations in Arkansas that are less than 10 years old:
  27% of them in non-anglo contexts.
  an accumulated total of 941 professions of faith, 754 baptisms,
  total worship attendance of 3,497, and apportionments paid totaling $1,118,500.
- If we look back to 1968 (the year the United Methodist Church was formed) we have 54 congregations that are less than 40 years old. These 54 new churches have yielded "good fruit" for the Kingdom and for the Annual Conference.

What kind of "good fruit" has church planting produced in the past 40 years?

- Worship Attendance — these 54 new churches average about 185 in worship attendance, totaling over 9,969 in worship. This is no small number. These new churches only represent 7% of our congregations, yet they account for 18% of our total conference-wide worship attendance.
- Professions of Faith – in 2008, these 54 new churches received 17% of all the professions of faith in the entire Annual Conference. Over the life of these new churches, they have witnessed 7,620 professions of faith.
- Baptisms – our new churches witness adult baptisms far more frequently than our established churches do.
- Financial – these new churches pay their apportionments! In 2006 they paid out at 99.3%, paying $1,656,228 in apportionments. In 2007, all but four paid at 100%, totaling $1,611,314 in apportionments– more than 15% of all apportionments received in 2007. In 2008, all but five paid out at 100%, totaling $1,787,598 – more than 15% of all apportionments received. Over the past ten years alone, these 54 "new" churches have paid $12,005,894 in apportionments.
- In summary (measuring the benchmarks of Professions of Faith, Baptisms, Worship Attendance, and Apportionments Paid) these 54 new churches, while only representing 7% of our congregations, are yielding 15% to 18% of the good fruit in our Annual Conference.
- Starting new churches is a good investment for the Kingdom and for the Annual Conference.

So... We're doing just fine?

- No, we're not doing just fine.
- We are currently starting 3 to 5 new churches a year – but that is not enough. Lyle Shaller, (author and highly respected national authority on United Methodist church demographics) proposes that an annual conference our size needs to start 7 churches each year (1%) to offset those churches that disbanded or "move into the terminally ill stage of their institutional life." He also proposes that if our goal was for "substantial growth," our conference should be starting between 14 and 21 (2 to 3%) new churches each year.
- Our current $300,000 apportionment yields about $250,000 - enough to start about one church a year. With the generous support of District funds, "Mother" churches and Catch the Vision offerings, we have been able to start 3 to 5 churches each year.
- We are currently offering "shoestring assistance" for initial pastor's salary, facility rental, marketing, or securing initial part-time nursery, children's or music staff. We can do better than that.
- To support these growing new congregations, we need to be able to offer a $25,000 grant to hire initial music and nursery staff the first year, and up to $100,000 grants when the church is ready to purchase land, and up to a $100,000 grant when they are ready to break ground.
- We would continue to seek increased support from the various Districts, "Mother" churches, and the Catch the Vision annual offering.
- Additional funding, through apportionments, Catch the Vision, and endowment gifts would enable us to start three to five additional new churches each year, and begin to move closer to Lyle Shaller's suggested levels.

3. What are your strategic missional goals for 2010?

- Continue a close working relationship with the nine District Superintendents
- Serve on the Extended Cabinet, as and "Consultant to the Appointive Cabinet for New Church Starts."
- Discern/finalize possible new church appointments to begin this year - Forrest City is prime
- Discern/finalize new pastors for that appointment from among New Church Leadership Institute graduates
- Prepare report for the February appointive cabinet retreat
- Offer greater levels of coaching support for our existing 19 new church starts
- Recruit a pool of pastors for this year's New Church Leadership Institute (we have eleven enrolled already)
- Finalize details and host several major events this year: 2 NCLI retreats; and Basic Training Boot Camp for Planters
- Begin plans for all of the above to repeat next year
- Raise "serious" money through Catch the Vision, grants and endowment gifts

4. How many persons are involved in your various ministry programs?

- We have about 50 graduates of the New Church Leadership Institute. Twenty of these pastors are currently planting new churches in Arkansas, and several more have the potential to plant new congregations in the future.
- Twenty Annual Conferences have sent us an additional 450 pastors who have attended our training.
- We have 19 new congregations that are less than 5 years old.
  - 26% of them are in non-anglo contexts
  - 2,018 in average worship attendance
  - 549 professions of faith
  - 351 baptisms
  - 44 re-affirmations of faith
  - 862 members
  - 2 of these new churches have already chartered
  - 3 are already paying their apportionments in full
- We have 26 new congregations that are less than 10 years old.
  - 27% of them are in non-anglo contexts
  - witnessed a total of 941 professions of faith,
  - witnessed an accumulated total of 754 baptisms,
  - total worship attendance of 3,497, and
  - accumulated apportionments paid $1,118,500.
- We have 54 congregations that are less than 40 years old.
  - 18% of them are in non-anglo contexts
  - 9,969 in worship attendance (18% of the conference total)
  - 7,620 professions of faith
  - in 2008, all but five paid out at 100%, totaling $1,787,598 (more than 15% of all apportionments received)
  - since 1999 alone, these 54 "new" churches have paid $12,005,894 in apportionments.

Reports from our Newest New Church Starts- revised February 2010

- April 2004, Rev. Barry Morton was appointed to start Mt. Olive UMC, a 2nd campus of Van Buren's Heritage UMC. As of August 1, 2009 Mt Olive transitioned from a "2nd campus" to a "new church start," and on January 3, 2010, Mt Olive chartered as a new church in the Arkansas United Methodist Conference. Since then, Mt. Olive has already taken in over 60 new members. Our process can be summed up in Belong, Believe, Become, which is radical hospitality, radical discipleship, and radical generosity. This year, we are putting significant emphasis on radically discipling every individual at Mt Olive. Another consideration for this year is our facilities.

Thus far in 2010, our average attendance has been 222, up from our average 2009 worship attendance of 205, and our one room sanctuary has reached capacity with multiple worship services. We are actively pursuing all possible options so as not to hinder this growth surge. We ask you to join with us in prayer as we continue to seek God's leading for Mt. Olive UMC.

- November 2004 Rev. Rob Williams was appointed to start Journey UMC, a daughter church of St. Paul UMC. Journey UMC is averaging 217 in the morning, and about another 100 in the evenings - reaching about 250 different people on a typical Sunday. They have just started Celebrate Recovery, and have new people within the church stepping up to leadership. Ricky Huggins was appointed pastor in July 2009, when Rob Williams was appointed to start a new church in Siloam Springs, AR. The Journey UMC Constituting Conference was held September 16, 2008, and elected the first slate of official officers. Journey UMC has witnessed 336 professions of faith, 308 baptisms, and is paying apportionments in full. Total number of members 197.
- June 2005, Rev. Jeff Warrick & Rev. Aubrietta Jones were appointed to start Christ UMC, a daughter of Cabot UMC. Weekly Worship was launched in September 10th of 2006. Over the past three and a half years we have seen many families experience the transforming power of God at work through this young congregation. We are seeing people come to faith for the first time and many others who are coming back to faith after a long time away from church . Through Christ church people have taken great strides in both their faith and practice as they seek to grow as followers of Christ Jesus. Cabot's population is in constant turnover due to the inflow and out flow of young military couples who typically serve less than two to three years in any location. This has been both a challenge and a blessing. While this may make it more difficult to grow this young congregation, the congregation prides itself in knowing that, as sad as we are to watch members of our family of faith transfer out to new assignments, we know that they take the passion and love they have experienced at Christ Church and share them with congregations around the world. With such a transitional population we constantly see families leaving the area, but God seems to continually bless us with new families being added to keep our attendance steady at around 80+ people each week. One of the exciting steps we are taking is to hire part-time staff for the areas of, children and music. We pray that this will help to increase the effectiveness of reaching new people through these ministry areas. Christ Church has many challenges to face as it strives to be a vital and self-supporting congregation, but we are confident that God will bring to fruition this great work he has begun! This year we are looking for a semi permanent facility for us to move into in order to provide a 7 day a week presence for the community. As of September 2009, Christ UMC has witnessed a total of 24 professions of faith, 26 re-affirmations of faith (we reserve reaffirmations for people who are "de-churched" for a few years or more) and 17 baptisms. With our transfers, this brings our total membership to 82.
- Living Waters UMC grew from a "Mother/Daughter" new church model in January of 2006. A seed team of 35 individuals from First UMC Bentonville began meeting together and tithing in the downtown American Legion Hall, and within a few months that group tripled in size. In October of 2006 we had our first official worship service with over 250 people in attendance. In January of 2007 our founding pastor was deployed as a Navy Chaplain serving the Marines in Iraq, and we emerged from that experience stronger and more committed to the life of the church. In November of 2007 we celebrated his return, and continued our growth until December of 2008 when we discerned that God was moving us to adopt and merge with dying United Methodist congregation in Centerton Arkansas. Extensive renovations were done to the old church, and the blending of the two congregations proceeded when Centerton UMC voted to disband that winter. In our short time we have witnessed over 20 adult baptisms, 22 professions of faith, numerous life transformations and rededications, 186 members, and we completed our first Habitat for Humanity House at a cost of $65,000. For 2010 we are establishing a food pantry/clothing closet called H20, "Help-to-Others."
- January 2007, Rev. Jeff Jones was appointed to start Grace UMC in East End, a second campus of Sardis UMC. As of October 2009, Grace averages 85 in worship and has witnessed 10 professions of faith in Jesus Christ and 8 baptisms. Membership at Grace stands at 55."
- March 2007, Rev. Thang was appointed to the Vietnamese mission church, a sister church of Fort Smith's St. Paul UMC. In October of 2008 Rev. Thang moved to Van Buren to start a Vietnamese. In June of 2009 Rev. Terry Gallamore was appointed to the Vietnamese Mission Church. In September we called a constituting conference and formed the first Vietnamese UMC in Arkansas history. In the same month we voted to buy land and build a Church. In November we purchased land and paid it off. Our capital campaign is achieving its objective and we hope to start building in the summer of 2010. We started with 50 members and have added 3 members, 2 by profession of faith, one by transfer. Our newest member had just moved here from Vietnam. We have had 1 baptism and 2 marriages. We have a home Bible study and monthly outreach to prospective new members. We have also set up a mission ministry to Vietnam.

- June 2007, Rev. Tammy Garrison was appointed to start Crosspoint UMC, a daughter church of Salem UMC and Grace UMC of Conway. Crosspoint launched worship in the fall of 2008. Crosspoint has rented and renovated a store front location at the major intersection of Salem Road and Dave Ward Drive in south Conway. Crosspoint UMC has witnessed 10 baptisms, 1 profession of faith, 7 re-affirmations of faith and currently has 28 members, now averaging 38 in worship. Since launching weekly worship, we have doubled the size of our children's ministry.
- June 2007, Rev. Ben Anderson was appointed to start Woodlands UMC, as daughter new church of Fort Smith's St. Paul UMC. Woodlands began worship at the Elks Lodge, moving to a new location on Rogers Avenue in June of 2009, with 309 attending the initial worship service. Woodlands United Methodist Church chartered on August 17, 2008. We brought in 56 members in 2009, and currently have 164 members. "We have witnessed 15 baptisms, and have received 25 by profession of faith, 11 by re-affirmation, and 106 by transfer. We moved to a new location last summer. Our first service was on June 21st. We went over 200 in attendance for the first time on January 17, 2010. We raised over $2,000 for UMCOR for Haiti relief. We are excited about what this year will bring.
- June 2007, Rev. Mike Felder was appointed to start Pontiac UMC, a second campus of Springdale's First UMC. Pontiac UMC, meeting at the Pontiac Coffee House on Wednesday evenings at 6:30. We are making plans to begin a second worship service in a few weeks. As of September of 2009, Pontiac UMC has witnessed an accumulative total of 5 baptisms, 8 professions of faith, and currently has 54 members, with average worship attendance of 160.
- October 2007, Rev. Hershel Richardson was appointed to start Christ Way UMC to reach a multi-ethnic population in Jonesboro. Christ Way UMC met in an elementary school for the first nine months, moving to a new location in June of 2009. As of September of 2009, Christ Way UMC has witnessed an average worship attendance of 73 on Sundays.
- March, 2008, Rev. Mario Garcia was appointed to start the North Fort Smith Hispanic Mission. In late 2008, Rev. Garcia returned to South America. Rev. Julio Ibarra was appointed pastor of the congregation sharing facilities with the Midland Heights UMC. Rev. Ibarra has been rebuilding the congregation, experiencing growth in worship as they reach the mission field surrounding the Midland Heights facilities. Worship is at noon on Sundays, Sunday School for children at 12:45pm, and a prayer meeting is held every Wednesday at 6pm. Saturday is for evangelism: distributing evangelistic flyers in the community and inviting relatives and friends to attend worship on Sunday. As of January first, there are four small groups/cell groups meeting in homes. Accumulative total number of baptisms 5. Accumulative number of Professions of Faith 45. Total number of in the church family: 25 adults, 7 teenagers, and 25 children for a total of 57.
- July, 2008, Rev. Will Choate was appointed to start Argenta UMC, a second campus of First UMC in North Little Rock. Argenta UMC is worshipping in downtown North Little Rock at the Starving Artist Cafe, launching weekly worship in the spring of 2009. "We have really connected with those considered emerging adults (18-30). The overwhelming majority of our 57 average worship attendance would fall in the emerging demographic. In 2009, we witnessed 2 professions of faith and 4 infant baptisms."
- October, 2009, Rev. Nguyen Thang was appointed to start Vietnamese UMC Mission in Van Buren. The new Vietnamese UMC. Sunday School weekly attendance 12 people. Launching worship in March of 2009, the Waltreak UMC is averaging 40 on Sundays, and is developing children's and youth ministries. The original Waltreak UMC closed several years ago, leaving an empty building behind. The new congregation has renovated the old building, and is reaching new people with the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ. "We have only been holding worship for twelve months, and have not invited 'official membership' yet. However, fifty-five people in our valley now consider Waltreak UMC as their church home." On Father's Day four men professed their faith and were baptized. Accumulated totals – Professions of Faith – 13 Baptisms – 13.

OUTDOOR MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

Our committee continues to work with our two conference facilities and three district camps to provide opportunities for worship, study, meditation, recreation, fellowship, and personal retreat in settings that uniquely afford participants an experience of God through the great outdoors. We use all of the resources we have to provide children, youth, and adults at every stage of spiritual formation a pathway to deeper discipleship. The personal witness of laity and clergy alike affirms that a call to deeper discipleship as well as to full-time Christian service has often occurred on hillsides, by the lakeside, and through mountain top experiences. These can happen best when we intentionally seek to encounter God in a remote setting, far away from the routines and relationships that characterize our daily lives. To that end our vision, mission, and goals for the year remain as follows: Our Vision is to be "A ministry where God's people are afforded the windows, doors and pathways to experience more fully God's love, mercy and grace through a broad range of outdoor settings and activities."

Our Mission is "to provide opportunities to make disciples for Jesus Christ by offering a means for their growth and development through a wide variety of facilities and programs."

Goal 1 – Increase people participating in outdoor ministries

Goal 2— Involvement by pastors and church leadership

Goal 3 – Improve quality of facilities and programming

This year two of our members attended the National Camp Executives Retreat at Canyon Camp in Oklahoma, an event which provided opportunities for training and networking. Representatives from each of our facilities were also registered for the South Central Jurisdictional event, but unfortunately the event was cancelled. We will use the funding set aside for that event to bring one of the keynote speakers from that event to our conference later this year. Also, we are already preparing to take a team from our annual conference to the national event at Lake Junaluska in January 2011.

This year we are also partnering with our Conference Council on Family Ministries to sponsor a family camp at each of our facilities. Ultimately, our vision is that these will be scheduled for the same weekend at all sites, with a common curriculum and leadership that are jointly trained. The initial planning for these events will be at the family camp sponsored by Camp Tanako in April.

Finally, we are beginning conversations to consider ways that our committee and facilities might aid the conference and its local churches to address the four areas of focus: 1) Combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally; 2) engaging in ministry with the poor; 3) creating new places for new people and revitalizing existing congregations; 4) developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world.

PARISH AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

1. Our committee has continued to develop new ministries to make Disciples for Christ in 2009 through the programs listed here.
   a. We funded fifteen churches through the Church Revitalization Fund with $70,500. This funding represents new ministries developed and /or physical improvements to make disciples for Jesus Christ. However, we are more than a bank. We not only consider building improvements, but also program ministries that will lead in making disciples for Jesus Christ. How do the building improvements or ministries you intend to develop allow you to meet our Strategic Missional goal? We ask this question of each application submitted. I refer you to the hand out of the Arkansas Conference Revitalization Fund for 2009. We have two scheduled meetings a year - in March and October. We have called meetings and phone conferences when needed. The March 2010 meeting has been moved to April 24th as referred to under #2.

   In addition, from the amount for administration in our budget, we were able to take Gary Tobar, one of our new African American church pastors, to the School of Congregational Development in Evanston, Illinois. He was on the new African American pastor's track and it proved to be very helpful. He is our new pastor of River of Life UMC in West Memphis. But, my administration line item is not large enough to do more. Without help from Roy Smith, this wouldn't have happened. Therefore, we request funds be moved from the Revitalization line item to Administration. Both line items seek the same ends when all is said and done. For 2010, I request an additional $4,950 to be moved from the line item from church revitalization to administration for the purpose of training in evangelism, church growth, and church transformation. By doing so, the budget of this committee will increase and we will still have enough funds to do both. We will further consult the Conference Director of Ministry on this matter and the amount of extra funding if possible.

b. The Church Awards process is being retooled and reimagined at this time. We anticipate that we will begin having the Church Awards Banquet again starting in 2011.

c. Catch the Vision helped to fund several new church starts. We are excited about these new works and Dr. Bob Crossman in leading the way. To begin with, the Bishop is empowered to designate and request funding for new church starts as a missional priority in consultation with the Chairperson of Parish and Community Development. Upon consultation with the Chairperson, CTV funds will be released.

Church starts and related concerns funded are as listed below:

* Canvas Community UMC $2,000 and future funding in 2010/Little Rock
* Second UMC/Siloam Springs $20,000
* Wesley UMC/Russellville $20,000
* Faith Springs UMC/West Little Rock $20,000
* River of Life/Jonesboro $75,000
* Vietnamese Church/Fort Smith $50,000
* Christ Way/Jonesboro $18,000

The funds remaining in CTV are based upon 2009 figures ending with a market value of $89,477.55.

We created a new video narrated by Bishop Crutchfield. We wrote present donors on a regular basis to let them know what was taking place in CTV; present donors gave more due to these mail outs. It was also a combination "thank you" letter for their support. Dr. Bob Crossman and the committee spent much time in developing new material for CTV. We felt we needed to go back to the pledge program of one pledge per twenty in attendance for 2010. We started CTV Sunday years ago with this method. So far, the responses have been very positive. The pledge system gives the local church and individuals something to shoot for. CTV Sunday was January 31st, 2010. Our conference treasurer will give us an update in another week or so. We will have an initial response figure. We will continue to update as funds continue to come in. We will receive regular updates from him concerning the total funds received and this will be reported at an appropriate time.

d. The Conference also has a loan fund which serves to supply loans for churches if they qualify. The market value of the Loan Fund is $213,875.39. This value includes the loan amount to be paid. Loans are made for large improvements and purchases which require a loan. As of now, all loan payments are current.

2. In 2010, we will continue the programs we administer with additions that will help us serve our churches even better as our strategic missional goals.

a. We have extended the time given District Superintendents and churches in the Church Revitalization Grant process. This will allow for more preparation time. The date of grant approval has been extended from the end of March to April 24th. Also, some churches have problems filling out the forms and giving all information necessary. We contact churches if there are any issues not addressed in the application. But, often we still fail to get the information we need. Some churches do not have the experience with some of this information. The District Superintendents can assist in this process by helping these churches with audit concerns when needed, in addition to the help they give now. For example, this may even be accomplished by having churches with financial experience help as assigned by the District Superintendent of the applying church.

Also, with the help of some of our District Superintendents, we created a new application form. The form is clearer and simpler for the local church to fill out and is presented in the hand-out.

We have increased our efforts to advertise the process through whatever means possible. District Superintendents have already received the material needed. An article will appear in the Arkansas Methodist in early March concerning the process and information needed to apply. The new form is posted on the Conference web page as well.

Thus, we will continue with these efforts and other means in 2010 to help churches that have not filled out forms properly, etc., to receive a grant if qualified for full or partial funding.

b. We created more material for the CTV Campaign for 2010. We included more personal testimonies from persons in our new church starts. We returned to process of the Pledge of Shares for each church to follow. A share is one share per every twenty in attendance. We feel this gives a tangible goal to reach. As mentioned before, the response to this approach has been well received thus far. We will continue to expand the ways and methods we use to direct the program. One goal we seek to reach is a personal testimony in each District from a member of the committee or a testimony from a person in a new church. We will pursue this possibility and its feasibility as a missional goal for 2010.

The Director of New Church Starts (Dr. Bob Crossman) has been vital in making CTV a success. His creativity and ideas have given our program further possibilities. Therefore, our guidelines state, "the Parish and Community Development Committee will be involved in the evaluation and progression of a new work." We will seek ways our committee can be involved in the process of interviews/meetings with these churches through the direction of the Director of New Church Starts.

Also, we will be writing a grant request along with our Director of New Church Starts to help in our efforts. We will be requesting grant funds from the General Board of Church and Society through Kelvin Sauls, the director.

c. The Church Awards process is being retooled and reimagined at this time. We anticipate that we will begin having the Church Awards Banquet again starting in 2011.

d. Most churches are not aware of the Conference Loan Fund and we will seek to be more informative of this fund in 2010.

e. The Director of New Church Starts and the committee will continue to investigate the areas where Church Revitalization Funds can be used to help new church starts begin the process of developing new ministries, etc., which are needed past CTV funding. The use of these funds is in keeping with revitalization priorities and the intent of this fund in the first place. CTV gives the seed money to start new works. We must help to develop ministries for these starts. Otherwise, there would be no need to start a new work which offers new alternatives if there are no funds to establish said ministries.

In short, we must have something to give the new work the ministries to attract and make new disciples for Jesus Christ. CTV funds can go just so far based on the limited funds we have for new church starts. Such funding is considered by Parish and Community Development Committee as a wise use of revitalization funding when funds are available.

f. We shall endeavor to develop additional goals and programs for which the Parish and Community Development Committee is assigned in the Book of Discipline (paragraph 633, number 5, pages 416-419).

3. We have many involved in the work of our committee. We have a representative on Equitable Compensation and Committee of Global Ministries, in addition to our relationship to the Sending Team. The Director of Ministries of the Annual Conference has given direction to the work of our committee. The Director of New Church Starts is involved in almost every aspect of CTV. His consultation has been valuable in helping the committee to reach and implement its work. We work directly with numerous churches and laity in the grant, loan, church awards, and CTV process. Thus, we are involved directly with the local church in a myriad of ways, in addition to the ways afore mentioned.

However, the ultimate decision, identification, and funding request for a new church start rests upon the authority of the office of Bishop of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

C. Criteria for an Emerging Congregation:

l. Missions and Ministry shall be a focus from the beginning of each congregation. The purpose of a United Methodist Church is to be held forth by each pastor so as to present the Gospel in the community.

2. A strong community of faith, fellowship or koinonia, will be an aim to provide strength and support to each person in the Body of Christ.

3. Stewardship in all its aspects (time, talents, finances) will be taught so as to enrich the goals above as well as to financially undergird the fledgling congregations.

4. While the pastor is critical in the formation of a new church, the people need to help provide a setting conducive to the high morale of the pastor.

5. The first full year after the church is constituted they shall be given the same Apportionment responsibilities as other churches, in accordance with the C.F. & A. formula.

II. FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR NEW CONGREGATIONS:

Support for the new congregations can come from several sources such as: the congregation itself, district mission funds, district "special" funds/apportionment, interested individuals or groups in the community; Equitable Compensation Commission (key charge arrangement), and Catch the Vision funds. These new and relocated congregations, particularly the new ones, will need this assistance for clergy salary and housing and utilities support, first meeting facilities, site purchase, program, outreach ministries, advertising, signs, leadership training.

A. First meeting facilities can include arenas, theaters, community building, other religious group buildings, public buildings (schools, auditoriums). We do not recommend or endorse the use of trailers. It is important to have a focal point for identity during the beginning for the new congregation, but deliberate, long-range plans need to be made to avoid premature, debilitating indebtedness.

B. Salary, utilities and housing for the pastor will be needed until such time as the new congregation can become self-sufficient. A five year declining rate of support from district, Equitable Salaries, or other funds, is anticipated, however, each church will be urged to make stewardship education among its primary goals to shorten the time whenever possible.

C. Site selection and purchase can come at any time prior to, or after the organization of the church; unless there are unusual circumstances, five acres will be considered the minimum goal for a new congregation. Once the property is identified through the combined efforts of the Bishop, Cabinet, District Board of Church Location and Building, and the Parish and Community Development Committee, the purchase will be pursued in accordance with the Book of Discipline.

D. Outreach and programs of nurture should begin with the advent of the new church, even before there is a sizeable number of members and constituents. A recommended goal for the congregation's budget is seen as one-fourth salary, one-fourth mission/outreach (including initiating apportionments), one-fourth program (including advertising) and one-fourth debt retirement.

E. The First Phase in the building program will be crucial to the continued growth and nurture of the new congregation, therefore, a premature program is to be avoided. The General Board School of Congregational Development recommends that a building committee not be appointed until regular worship attendance reaches 125, and also not plan for the construction to be completed until attendance averages at least 200. This first phase needs to be constructed within the bounds of a reasonably manageable debt for the membership (national statistics indicate the need to be at a $60,000 self-generated budget with 1/3 for debt retirement as the minimum requirement). Catch the Vision funds are seen as one way to help avoid indebtedness which might severely limit the focus and capabilities of those members and future members.

III. CATCH THE VISION FUNDS:

A. Monies collected from the Catch the Vision Annual Calls will provide support to eligible projects for the following purposes:

l. Site purchase for a present or future development.

2. Assistance for start-up and first meeting facilities.

3. Assistance in the first phases of the building program.

4. Assistance for new faith communities growing out of existing congregations as extension campus ministries.

B. New Congregations/Churches formed by Relocation or Merger. Relocating churches and new congregations formed by merger will be eligible for funds under the following criteria:

l. A relocation church is one that develops at the initiative of the Bishop, District Superintendent/Cabinet, District Board of Church Location and Building, with the advice and consultation of the Parish and Community Development Committee. It shall be defined as an existing group becoming a new church, with a new name, in a new area, having participated in training about what it means to be a new church.

2. New churches resulting from a merger of two or more congregations will be eligible under the same process as for relocation.

C. Limits on Catch the Vision Funding:

The following shall be the limits of time and dollars for new congregations:

1. A church shall be considered new for five years from the date of the appointment of the pastor. An extension of up to two years may be granted for special circumstances after an in-depth review.

2. A maximum of $350,000 will be allowed to any one situation, covering all items as noted in III. A. Actual funding will be determined by the needs of the project and the availability of funds.

3. Projects eligible for funding within the above limit must have been approved as a qualifying project by the Parish and Community Development Committee prior to the beginning of the project.

D. Application for Catch the Vision Funds.

1. Send a letter of request, including the signature of the District Superintendent and others as needed for the specific request to: Bob Burnham at 870-735-1805 at 215 N. Missouri, West Memphis 72301.

2. Requests for Catch the Vision funds will be considered at the time of the request in consulation with the Chairperson of Parish and Community Development to receive funds administered by the United Methodist Foundation if funds are available.

3. Consultation with the Chairperson of Parish and Community Development is essential for the funds to be released upon recommendation of the Bishop. The Director of New Church Starts will communicate such on behalf of the Bishop. The Bishop has the authority to set a missional priority such as a new work leading to the development of a new faith community and through consultation with the chairpersonof Parish and Community Development, the release of funds to achieve those ends. All request must comply with this process. A plan and description of this new work will be on file with the Chairperson of the committee. The committee shall be involved in the progression and continued evaluation of the new work through and with the Director of New Church Starts. The committee will request and receive reports of the disposition of Catch the Vision Funds on a regular basis held in trust with the United Methodists Foundation.

E. Priorities for Catch the Vision Funds:

1. A New Work
2. A Merger of two or more congregations forming a new congregation.
3. A Relocation as defined above.
4. A new ministry endeavor in an existing congregation to make new disciples for Jesus Christ.

All applications must be accompanied with a written ministry plan that outlines the priority actions of the church in reaching out to make disciples and how the monies will be used to aid these actions.

RELIGION AND RACE COMMITTEE

CCORR is making Disciples of Christ by providing ongoing capacity building and financial support to young adults to participate in leadership training and planning opportunities. CCORR has provided mentorship and support for the following events in 2008:

In February 2010 young adults who were first time attendees at BMCR in 2009 were recruited by the General Board of Global Ministries to facilitate workshops for Just Us Youth attending the 43rd Annual meeting. Financial assistance for transportation was provided. This was in collaboration with ELCC which provided support for the registration. The meeting will be held March. 23-27, 2010 in Jacksonville, FL. In addition to the youth facilitating Sandra Mitchell will conduct a workshop addressing how Youth and Young Adults can relate to Conference Commissions on Religion and Race.

Members of CORR are participating in the ongoing in the planning, implementation activities and evaluation of Crossing Jordan. Members have traveled to targeted sites providing listening sessions and capacity building activities for local churches and pastors.

Conference Commission on Religion and Race is moving from maintenance to mission by ensuring that the persons nominated to serve are notified and willing to serve. An orientation is planned for new members and existing ones. The goals and objectives are identified and input is requested on ways to accomplish the planned activities.

An ongoing goal is to develop responsive committee representation on CCORR to be effective in coordinating with the Annual Conference boards and agencies as they seek to develop programs and policies of racial inclusiveness. This is being done to provide support and interaction with various advocacy initiatives for racial and social justice and monitoring opportunities.

Joint monitoring activities with COSROW at the 2009 annual conference in Rogers, AR

Four members (Sandra Mitchell, Larry Marineau, Glenn Busby and J. Harris Moore, board member) of the team attended a retreat/conference sponsored by the GCORR. New members received training in the areas of advocacy and monitoring. Members had an opportunity to network with board members, staff and other leaders from across the country. Meetings were held with each jurisdiction. As a result of the SCJ breakout it was agreed upon for a follow up SCJ meeting (2nd annual) The chairperson was a member of the design team for the meeting to be held in September 2009. Rev. Shirley Souder represented AR at this meeting in Oklahoma, City at Quayle UMC.

Arkansas has agreed to host the 3rd annual SCJ meeting in the fall. The date of this event is schedule for September 16 – 18, 2010 at Philander Smith Kendall Center. This will require the collaboration of several committees and conference staff.

Support of the Religious Emphasis week events has been an ongoing activity providing support for the leadership and planning being done by young adults

CORR goal is to provide a channel of resources and referrals to racial and ethnic groups/individuals as they seek to develop programs of empowerment, leadership trainings and ministry for their communities.

Coordinate presence of Conference Commission representation at Annual Conference by providing information for a display table, soliciting monitors for committees and plenary sessions, distribute materials at meetings that emphasize inclusiveness counts, and the role of CORR etc.

Address the issue of reporting of the joint monitoring activities with COSROW at the 2010 annual conference in Hot Springs, AR. Contact will be made to Bob Crossman about scheduling slots at the conference for daily reporting of monitoring results.

The following meetings have been identified as monitoring opportunities. Recruitment of persons to participate in these monitoring activities is a challenge due to scheduling conflicts and work schedules. There were two volunteers that participated in the monitoring ministry of the Imagine Ministry Meeting on March 07, 2010 at Pulaski Heights UMC.

March 7 Imagine Ministry Meeting
April 7 CFA Meeting
April 9 Imagine Ministry Team Meeting,
April 17 Vital Signs, Lakewood UMC
April 24 Parish and Community Development Committee Meeting
June 6-9 Annual Conference
Sept. 18 Vision Team Meeting

There are seventeen representatives on this committee. A total of 48% of the membership are involved Participation with the local churches and committee representation has been a minimal. Increasing the involvement of persons is important and focusing on young adults is the key to sustainability and implementation of the goals.

SMALL CHURCH COMMISSION

The commission met in March at Mt. Sequoyah while attending the Jurisdictional Small Church Leadership Institute there. We identified some of the issues for small churches in our Conference and a plan for addressing those issues. For 2009 we decided to set up a networking system for small churches via the internet and to send as many people as possible to the Small Church Leadership Institute. Over 20 scholarships were provided. We also began to speak to small church laity, pastors, Superintendents and Conference Staff about small churches. Input was given to help us enhance worship and that was heard and is the focus of the November 2010 SCLI. We participated in the Connected In Christ workshops provided for small churches. We are also looking ahead and finding ways to strenghen our Commission with more small church members who will find relevant ways to enhance churches in their area and across the Conference. We also are aware of the need to recruit and retain pastors that are trained to serve small church congregations, to help with the administrative structure that is relevant for small churches and to find ways to make disciples of Jesus Christ in and through small churches. We beleive small church to be vital and a place that we might live out our conference mission as churches alive in the grace of God offering Christ, transforming lives, and changing our world through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Respectfully Submitted, Judy Hall, Commission Chair

SPIRITUAL FORMATION COMMITTEE

The Conference Committee on Spiritual Formation is responsible for the promotion and development of the spiritual life for clergy and lay persons of all ages by conducting seminars and training events (private and corporate prayer, Bible study, and spiritual growth opportunities) and encouraging the use of resources for spiritual formation. In Romans 8:29 the Apostle Paul describes what God is up to in the world in terms of persons being "conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be firstborn within a large family." Spiritual formation is the process of being conformed to the image of Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our committee continues to design and conduct retreats for clergy and laity in our conference to promote and facilitate the development of the spiritual life. We believe that spiritual formation of both clergy and laity is vital for the overall health of mind, body, and spirit and the care of souls as well as for spiritual renewal in the Church. Lack of attention to these matters has been identified as a major cause of clergy attrition, malpractice, and burnout. Healthy, well-functioning ministers (both clergy and lay) contribute to healthy, well-functioning congregations.

At the 2009 Annual Conference the Committee on Spiritual Formation sponsored the creation of a special room set aside for prayer and spirituality. The room featured visual, auditory, and tactile ways of experiencing prayer as well as a labyrinth walk, morning teaching sessions, and other activities. The Prayer and Spirituality room provided an oasis where conference attendees could withdraw for long or short periods of prayer and reflection and for learning.

Our fall spiritual formation retreat was held October 18-20 at Mount Eagle. The format for the retreat was based on the book The Sacred Way: Spiritual Practices for Everyday Life by Tony Jones. The fall retreat will once be held in October and jointly sponsored by Mount Eagle Christian Center.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Buchanan, chair

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH, COUNCIL ON

The Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries (ACCYM) has had an incredible year in youth ministries. The ACCYM strives to provide youth opportunities for strengthening youth ministries in the local churches and districts, developing personal faith and commitment to the Christian gospel through experiences, experiencing bonds of Christian fellowship with youth and adults, participating in service, outreach, and study activities, fostering Christian leadership in all levels of the church, and promoting options for ministry, both lay and ordained. Through events and service, the council has done all of this the past year.

The ACCYM is composed of five youth representatives from each of the nine districts in the Arkansas Conference. We annually elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, chaplain, Youth Service Fund (YSF) chairperson, and two Jurisdictional Youth Team (JYT) representatives to make up the executive council. This year, the council has also decided to appoint a Youth Empowerment Advocate (YEA) to enforce the importance of youth opinion on the council. Other members of the council include the DCYM president, three representatives from the DCYM, and one YSF representative from each district. The adults include a Conference Coordinator as well as each District Coordinator and any appointed at large adults. The ACCYM meets once every two months. The members are divided into five taskforces to plan our yearly events. Our events consist of Refuge, Veritas, Choir Tour, Junior High Assembly, and Senior High Assembly.

Refuge, an event for junior high youth, was held in November at Camp Wyldewood in Searcy. Refuge was a huge success this year, with around 150 youth registered. The council had decided that this Refuge would be the biggest factor in deciding whether or not to keep the event since there hadn't been a lot of interest in it in the past. After the event, however, there was a unanimous decision to keep the event alive.

Veritas, the largest event put on the ACCYM, registered just over 1000 participants this year. The weekend was once again held at the Hot Springs Convention Center. This year's Veritas has run more smoothly than any other Veritas in years. We continued to offer a variety of workshops on Saturday ranging from Yoga, to Tae-Kwon-Do, to Science vs. Religion. We also had a lot of great feedback on our big worship time consisting of a band and speaker.

Choir Tour is unlike any other event offered by the ACCYM. This is the only event where the youth take the Word to the people, rather than everyone coming to one location to hear the Word. Fifty youth in grades nine through 12 gather at a church once a month in the spring to practice, then travel to six different churches across the state to perform.

Junior and Senior High Assemblies will be held at Hendrix College in Conway the fourth week of July. Both events this year will be four days, where in the past Senior High Assembly was five days. The moderate size of these events allows youth to come closer to one another and be involved in a more intimate worship setting through a larger worship service with a band and speaker, and then within small groups.

The Youth Service Fund event, YSF's largest fund raiser, is usually held in July following the Big Dam Bridge Walk, sponsored by Methodist Family Health. Although YSF raises money at every event the council puts on, this single event, typically held at Wild River Country, brings in the majority of their money.

The Youth Service Fund is an organization that begins at local churches and expands all the way to the Jurisdictional level. Thirty percent of the money raised by the Arkansas Conference YSF goes to the General Board of Discipleship Youth Division for global YSF grants. A maximum of thirty percent of the money granted is used for in-state purposes. Another thirty percent is used for out-of-state grants. The remaining ten percent of money raised is used for purchasing capital and other expenses. YSF grants largely benefit churches in the Arkansas Conference as preference is given to projects within the connectional system. YSF monies are raised at DCYM, CCYM, and YSF events.

Another event the council is interested in bringing back this year is Youth Tour. In the past, Youth Tour has gone to New York City or Washington D.C. This year, however, we are planning on visiting London to study our Wesleyan roots.

The Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries is such a life changing organization. I, personally, have no idea where I would be today without the council and the events it puts on. Each specific event has impacted my life in a way I never could have imagined, and I am so grateful that I was able to be a part of it all. My relationship with Christ wouldn't be nearly as strong as it is at this point in my life without the people I have been exposed to through the council and these events. It has been my greatest honor to serve the youth of Arkansas this past year. I would like to say thank you to the church and all those involved who have given me the opportunity to serve.

Mary Gillett
Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries Chairperson

YOUTH REPORT 2010 - Verbal Report Given at Hot Springs

Hi, my name is Taylor Skinner and I am the vice president of the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries for the 2009-2010 year. I will be presenting this report because our president, Mary Gillett, is at college orientation. I really have enjoyed my time this week here as a delegate. I believe I also speak for all of the youth delegates here when I tell you we appreciate that our voice is heard.

The ACCYM is a youth led youth ministry group of the Arkansas Conference. We strive to provide events where kids from all over Arkansas can come together and worship God in a comfortable and fun environment. The ACCYM is a group that is building leaders for the future. The council, or as we like to call ourselves, the CCYMers are a group of youth chosen from each of the Arkansas district. The ACCYM is composed of an executive council, five event task forces, and a Youth Service Fund task force. The executive task force consists of a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, two Jurisdictional Youth team representatives, chaplain, a YSF chairperson, and the most recent position, a YEA (Youth Empowerment Advocate). All members of the council are divided into task forces by the incoming executive council. Each of the five task forces plan events sponsored by the ACCYM.

The Youth service Fund, or YSF, is an organization that begins at the jurisdictional level and continues all the way to the local church. The purpose of YSF is to teach youth how to begin being good stewards of our resources at an early age. YSF raises money that is returned to the conference in the form of grants. This year YS gave over $7000 (seven thousand dollars) in grants. These grants send youth groups on mission trips locally and out of state that they would probably not get to do otherwise.

As a council, we strive to strengthen youth ministries in the local churches and districts through various means. Half of the money raised by YSF goes to in-state mission projects that involve a substantial number of youth. Districts and local churches, both, benefit from this money. Also, we hope the youth take what they learn at events back to their churches.

The main purpose of our council is to plan events for the youth of Arkansas. Every year we organize six events. At the beginning of this year our executive council put together a vision that defines a clear, individual purpose for each of the events we plan. We decided that the purpose of Refuge, a Jr. High weekend camp, is to provide an opportunity for spiritual growth. This year Refuge was held at Camp Wildwood and was a huge success, with a record attendance of over 150 participants.

The purpose of Veritas, usually held in late February or early March for all youth in grades 7th through 12th, is discipleship training and teaching through workshops. This year it was held here at the Hot Springs Convention Center with one of the biggest groups ever, with over 1000 in attendance.

The purpose of Choir Tour is evangelism. It is a unique event that takes the message to the people rather than the people gathering for the message. It is for Sr. High and it is going to be June 21st through the 27th. We will be visiting Timothy UMC in Camden on Monday, St. Paul UMC in Fort Smith on Tuesday, Harrison FUMC on Wednesday and Bethel Baptist in Owasso, Oklahoma on Thursday. We get to have a fun day in Branson on Friday, and then continue our tour on Saturday at Paragould FUMC, and we will have our final performance at Conway FUMC on Sunday. We invite you and your congregation to join us at a performance near you.

Jr. and Sr. High Assembly are quickly approaching in the next few weeks. The purpose of the Assemblies is to provide fellowship through small groups. Jr. High Assembly is going to be July 11th through 14th at Hendrix College in Conway. This year's theme is Vrooom with guest speaker Reverend Andrea Allen and the Kyle Cantrell Band. Sr. High Assembly is going to be July 14th through 17th also at Hendrix College. The theme is the Simple Life, with guest speaker Omar Al-Rikabi and the Kyle Cantrell Band. The forms for both Assemblies are in your packets and are available through the conference website. Please make sure to give the information to all of your youth so they can be involved with these two great events this summer.

YSF puts on the Wild River Country Lock-In which will be August 6th. Each year Methodist Family Health puts on the Walk for Children at the Big Dam Bridge. It will also be August 6th, right before the Wild River Country Lock-In. For more information you can visit the ACCYM website.

Finally, as most of you know, in the past we have visited the Washington D.C. and New York areas during the Thanksgiving holiday as part of Youth Tour. This year we are offering something a little different. We will be going to London on a Wesleyan Heritage Tour. If you are interested or want more information, please contact Jay Clark at Pulaski Heights UMC.

Our Executive Council is also in the process of dreaming the next big event for our Conference Youth. We hope to begin a conference wide youth mission trip within the next two years.

Service, outreach and study activities are provided through events and the Youth Service Fund. Every year, youth perform mission work at Junior and Senior High Assemblies. And then YSF sends groups on mission trips through grants. Youth on Choir Tour reach out to others through music and verse, and Methodist youth presence on a college campus every year for the Assemblies is powerful. Small groups at the various events offer study activities, a time for youth to read and discuss God's word together.

CCYM has become a huge part of my life. I have never really had much of a youth group because I live in a very small town and go to a really small school. I was elected to the Southeast District Council by my church, Clarendon FUMC. I fell in love with the events and the people I would meet. The worship was different than any I had ever experienced. I met some of my best friends that I probably would have never known. I would not be the person I am today without it. It gave me an outing and a place where I could be myself and I never had to worry what people thought of me. When I was elected to the CCYM council two years ago I was ecstatic. CCYM is very much like the district council, except on a much larger level. I learned leadership skills and information about Methodism that would not have been possible without it. I have had so much fun planning events and interacting with youth from all over Arkansas. These councils have made me who I am. Don't get me wrong. It's not always just fun, even though most of the time it is; there is still work involved and time that is taken up. On weekends that I can't hang out with my friends from home, they always say, "Oh, you must have some ABDCYM thing going on?" and usually it is but it's definitely not just some "AB-CDYM" thing. It is who I am and what keeps me going in the right direction on my path with Jesus Christ.

In closing, this year we had a brand new CCYM Conference Coordinator, Michelle Moore. Even though it was her first year, she did a wonderful job and we could not have gotten through the year without her. We had a really great year and all of the new and returning members are looking forward to next year. We really encourage every church to get involved with their district councils and conference events because it is definitely an amazing thing. For any more information you can visit our website www.accym.org or contact Michelle Moore, or talk to any of our youth representatives. Thank you!

VISION TEAM REPORT

The Conference Vision Team works with all of its constituents, committees and boards to enable local churches to more faithfully and fruitfully fulfill their mission to help make disciples of Jesus Christ. The vision of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas is to "be a Church alive in the grace of God, offering Christ, transforming our lives through the power of the Holy Spirit."

The Vision Team's work is seen in the fruitful and faithful ministries of the 700 Churches in Arkansas. The Vision Team also seeks to promote Ministry opportunities through which individual churches and persons can accomplish more for God together than we could alone.

The connectional work of the Vision Team ranges from starting new congregations to training new leaders for local churches to securing bed nets for children in Africa to prevent malaria, to helping in disaster recovery after tornadoes struck in Arkansas.

At Annual Conference the following Ministry Plan for the Arkansas Conference was adopted"

MISSION: The mission of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through local congregations and mission fields of the Conference.

GOALS:

To provide resources to help develop vital local congregations and mission fields in which persons can enter and develop a life of discipleship.

- To continue to build vital congregations which are moving from:
  -hospitality to radical hospitality
  -worship to passionate worship
  -faith development to intentional faith development

c. seeking justice for all God's people

The key measures for accountability are:

1. Number of baptisms
2. Number of persons making professions of faith
3. Worship attendance
4. Membership
5. Apportionments paid
6. Number of volunteers involved in hands-on ministry

CORE VALUES AND BELIEFS

1. We believe The Arkansas Conference is a manifestation of one, holy, catholic apostolic church with many congregations serving as mission fields throughout the state. "There is one body and one spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all." Ephesians 4:4
2. We believe that the proper relationship with our Lord and with one another is described by the words of the Great Commandment. Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." Matthew 22:36-40
3. We believe that our mission and task as the church is to live out Christ's Great Commission: Jesus said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have Commanded you; and low I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28-18-20
4. We believe the strength and vitality of The United Methodist Church of Arkansas Depends on a shift from an inward focus on ourselves to an outward focus of ministry to the least, the last and the lost. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Luke 18-19
5. We honor the blessing of God's grace in our past, Christ's spirit in our present, and the Holy Spirit's promise in our future. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."
6. We believe we are to be good caretakers of the resources, both human and financial that have been entrusted to us. "Think of us this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries and stewards of God's mysteries. Moreover, it is required if stewards that they be found trustworthy." I Corinthians 4:1-2

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

"Africa University Thriving in Zimbabwe"

Africa University has many stories to tell – to the nations of Africa, and the world.

During Zimbabwe's economic and political struggles of recent years, United Methodist-related Africa University continued to educate leaders for all of Africa. For a time in 2009, it was the only institution of higher education in Zimbabwe open for classes. We celebrated our 3,000th graduate with the 2009 graduating class.

In the 2009-2010 academic year, our 1,100 students represented 28 African countries. We have a substantial waiting list of students eager to attend on campus or through our emerging distance-learning curriculum.

For all of this, we thank God for the prayers and support of United Methodists. In 2009, annual conferences contributed more than $2 million to the apportioned Africa University Fund. That represents 86 percent of the $2.5 million goal set by the 2008 General Conference.

United Methodists' support for Africa University creates opportunities for Africans to help Africans. Our graduates are living out the United Methodist vision for the Four Areas of Focus:

Leadership: The Rev. Tolbert Thomas Jallah Jr. is a prime example. A graduate of AU's Institute of Peace, Leadership and Governance, the former advisor to Liberian President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf is now Secretary General of the Fellowship of Christian Councils of Churches in West Africa.

Global Health: Bigi Ruhigita, a nurse from the Democratic Republic of Congo, earned her master's degree in public health at AU. She returned to Congo to work in a 50-bed clinic she and her siblings founded in honor of their father.

Ministry with the Poor: Isaiah Njimbu, a 2006 graduate, returned to Lubumbashi, DRC, to find many children orphaned because their parents died of AIDS. In response, Njimbu started the Child Action Initiative, a nongovernment organization. Today, this ministry still thrives.

Church Growth: The Rev. Daniel Mhone was instrumental in establishing 28 local churches in the newly established Malawi (Africa) Missionary Conference. He credits Africa University for increasing his capacity as a pastor.

In December 2009, we joyfully celebrated the inauguration of Bishop David Kekumba Yemba and professor Fanuel Tagwira as the university's third chancellor and vice chancellor.

Democratic Republic of Congo President Joseph Kabila praised the university's dedication to Africa at our annual seminar commemorating former United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Every annual conference is vital to the success of the dream that has become Africa University. Your support educates leaders in theology, agriculture, social sciences, health sciences, and peace and justice.

Grace and peace, Jim Salley

ALDERSGATE CAMP

Enriching the lives of children and youth who have medical or physical conditions or developmental delays and their families, as well as senior adults, through educational and recreational opportunities in an out-of-doors camp environment.

I recently read a Bible verse that all too well explained the history of Camp Aldersgate and where we are now. "So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. The man who plants and the man who waters have purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor. For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should be careful how he builds. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ."
1 Corinthians 7 – 11

This verse is so very meaningful for Camp Aldersgate when more than 60 years ago, the United Methodist men and women set out, under God's will, to build the foundation of Camp Aldersgate. Over the years, this foundation has been built upon, but those building on its foundation have never lost sight of being God's workers. This is so easy to remember when we see our campers with disabilities experience flying through the air on our ropes course or swimming for the first time; when our young volunteers leave the Camp knowing that they were able to make a significant difference in a life of another; or when our senior adults hold hands around the same table, smiling together, laughing together as one, no matter how different they are from one another. These experiences are of a greater power.

Overall 2009 was an extremely positive year for Camp Aldersgate. One significant occurrence was the celebration of our 10,000th camper during the Summer Med Camps program. It is hard to imagine that this program began in 1971 with the foresight of Dr. Kelsy Caplinger and twelve campers with asthma! While not unscathed, we did survive some of the economic hardships so many other organizations faced. The Camp did face a significant decrease in foundation grants and corporate giving; however, I am very proud to say that our funding from the United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Church was up! Individual giving continues to be a strong lifeline for the Camp as well. New this year, Camp launched its first ever Vacation Bible School curriculum that was an incredible success. We received many heartwarming and thoughtful letters from VBS students and participants – we will certainly make that available again in 2010. We also began a new fundraising endeavor that will also become an annual event – Petit Jean Hams and Gift Box sales! This took place during the Christmas season and was a great fit for the Camp. One reason this was able to be such a success was due to the Camp's updated website, new to 2009. Camp Aldersgate's website is www.campaldersgate.net. It provides great information regarding the Camp's history, programs and events. Applications for volunteers, counselors and other job opportunities can also be downloaded directly from our new website. While this is still a bit of a work in progress, it is certainly nice to have!

In 2009, Camp Aldersgate served 550 participants from 107 cities and 56 counties throughout Arkansas, as well as six other states. 1,019 volunteers contributed an amazing 34,083 hours of service to the Camp. Camp Aldersgate's programs include:

Summer Med Camps are 6 weekly residential sessions that are provided for children and youth, ages 6 to 18. Camps provided include Muscular Dystrophy Camp, Spina Bifida Camp, Diabetes Youth Camp, Asthma Camp, Kidney Camp, Arthritis Camp, Cardiac Camp, Cancer Camp, and a Bleeding Disorders Camp.

Kota Camps provide an opportunity for children and youth of all abilities to come together and experience the benefits that a traditional camp can offer. "Kota" means friend in the language of the Quapaw Native American tribe indigenous to Arkansas. The sessions are open to all children, ages 6 to 18, with medical conditions, physical disabilities, and developmental delays and their non-disabled friends or siblings. All campers participate together in activities such as nature hikes, archery, music, fishing, an adventure/challenge ropes course, canoeing, scuba, swimming, and arts and crafts. Through fun and friendship, campers develop a better understanding and awareness of each other.

Weekend Respite Camps have been offered for more than 25 years. The Respite program offers year-round breaks for families who have children ages 6 to 18 with physical, mental, and developmental disabilities. Campers are given complete care while being allowed to explore their individual boundaries. During this time, parents are able to run errands, have time alone, or spend a well-deserved weekend with their other children.

Seniors Day Out has been in service since the early 1970s. This program offers fun and fellowship, as well as the opportunity for senior adults to enjoy an environment that encourages activity and friendship. Participants meet together weekly to enjoy meals, educational activities, exercise, guest speakers, Bible study, singing, arts and crafts, board games, fishing derbies, holiday and birthday parties, and the opportunity to interact with one another.

The Youth Volunteer Counselor program at Camp Aldersgate is an important part of our camping programs. For most individuals, the opportunity to be a volunteer counselor is a rewarding and educational experience, and for some, volunteering is a stepping-stone to future counselor and staff positions. Each summer approximately 120 youth volunteers are selected. The minimum age to be a volunteer is 14, and these volunteers usually provide one to three weeks of service. Each volunteer is there to encourage and assist campers in activities, and provide energy and enthusiasm throughout the week.

Camp Aldersgate's 2009 operating budget was $1,109,207. The United Methodist Church makes up approximately 15% of the Camp's funding. We are blessed to have financial support and help from the United Methodist Church. We thank you for your confidence in us and we will continue to build upon this strong foundation. We look forward to a very exciting year ahead.

Thank you,
Sarah C. Wacaster, Executive Director

CAMP TANAKO

{Conference Secretary Note: Camp Tanako submitted proposed changes to their Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. These proposals were printed in the 2010 Pre Conference Journal. However, the Tanako Chair of the Board withdrew these two items and they were never brought to the Annual Conference for a vote.}

Since 1948, Camp Tanako has been the place that many people around the world call "home." A vital part of the United Methodist ministry in the state of Arkansas and beyond, it is a constant reminder to those who visit it in person, or in memory, of God's grandeur, of a feeling of peace, and of good times with good friends. So many of today's church leaders can point to a time at camp that created the desire to be a part of God's work.

Many young people were able to feel that same stirring this summer at Tanako. The number of campers attending a summer-time camp held steady, despite a threat from the rough economic times. A Counselor-In-Training program was added this year to help young people develop and utilize their leadership skills among younger campers. We rely on our past campers to help show new campers not only what "camp" is about, but how God is at work in their lives and how He can be in theirs.

Numerous groups, including Methodist, non-Methodist, and civic organizations, utilized Camp Tanako's Conference and Retreat facilities, allowing Camp Tanako to experience nearly 8,500 camper days.

Camp Tanako greatly appreciates the continued cooperation and support from the organizations, churches, and campers that call Tanako "home."

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia

Guided by our mission to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world, Candler School of Theology continues to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ by developing leaders called by God to serve in Christian ministry. Our distinctive commitment to both inspiring minds and empowering ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of nine graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Georgia, Candler offers students a learning laboratory that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

To ensure that our students are prepared for leadership in an increasingly global context, Candler has placed a new emphasis on internationalizing the curriculum. In 2009, we established the Office of International Initiatives, led by Dr. David Jenkins, and received several grants related to international engagement. Through one of these, Candler partnered with International Relief and Development, Inc. to send seven student interns to Mozambique, Indonesia, and the Republic of Georgia in the summer of 2009. Other grants are assisting Candler in initiating a national conversation on best practices for internationalizing theological education. In spring semester of 2010, Dr. Wesley de Souza, Arthur J. Moore associate professor in the practice of evangelism, team-taught a distance education class in real time with a professor and students at a seminary in Sao Paolo, Brazil, the first collaboration of its kind at Candler. The March 2010 visit of Roman Catholic Cardinal Walter Kasper, president of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity, ushered in a yearlong special emphasis on internationalization at Candler.

A hallmark of the Candler MDiv experience, the Contextual Education program continues to shape our students' pastoral identities by interweaving service at ministry sites and churches with academic reflection in the classroom. In any given week, Candler deploys more than 250 ConEd students throughout the region to minister to people in congregations, hospitals, and social service agencies. Last year, Candler's ConEd students provided 1/3 of the service hours responsible for Emory University winning the U.S. government's Presidential Award for General Community Service, the highest federal award a college or university can receive for its commitment to community engagement.

Candler's Teaching Parish Program, directed by Dr. Alice Rogers, continues to expand into more conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, providing United Methodist students with the opportunity to serve churches throughout their seminary education, earn academic credit for pastoral experience, and complete their MDiv degree in three years. Through the Course of Study regional school at Candler and our five extension schools in the Southeast, we oversaw the educational process of 918 people this past year.

Candler has faced the recent economic challenges with bold initiatives to advance our mission. Although our operating budget essentially will remain flat next year, we are increasing our investment in financial aid each year. Candler's total financial aid commitment in 2009-10 was $4.7 million. Eighty-six percent of eligible students received Candler-based financial aid, with the average award covering 76 percent of tuition. More than $2.6 million was provided to 191 United Methodist students. We also established Candler Advantage, a program designed to pay rising third-year MDiv students for summer internships in congregations so they can concentrate fully on honing their pastoral skills. In March, we hosted our second annual Leadership Candler event, an all-expenses-paid discernment experience that draws together top prospective MDiv students to explore the richness of life and study at Candler. Last year, 75 percent of the participants in Leadership Candler joined us as students in the fall. Finally, Candler has raised more than half of our $60 million capital campaign goal.

During 2009-10, Candler celebrates the 25th anniversary of the Sherman Scholarship Fund. Established by Frank and Helen Sherman of Jacksonville, Florida, the Sherman program has provided financial assistance to 868 students preparing for pastoral ministry in United Methodist churches.

Candler's student body continues to attract younger and more diverse people. Our enrollment stands at 499, with 391 seeking the Master of Divinity, 62 the Master of Theological Studies, 25 the Master of Theology, 14 the Doctor of Theology, and 7 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The total student population is 23% US ethnic minority, 11% international, and 50% women. More than 50 denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist. The median age of our entering class of MDiv students is 26, with 57% of total enrollment under thirty.

Our faculty members continually demonstrate their dedication to the church through preaching and teaching engagements, scholarship, and service in local parishes as leaders in their congregations. This year we welcome two new faculty: Dr. Greg Ellison, assistant professor of pastoral care and counseling, who joined us in fall 2009, and a fellow United Methodist, the Rev. Dr. Arun Jones, who joins us in fall 2010 as the Hankey Chair in World Evangelism. Candler also has produced A Thrill of Hope, a church resource DVD for Advent that offers a fresh take on the Christmas story, uniting art, scripture, and commentary by members of Candler's faculty. Watch a preview on our website, www.candler.emory.edu.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its vital relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you undergird this essential ministry in the life of our denomination.

HENDRIX

HENDRIX COLLEGE REPORT

— Charles Wesley, 1763

More than one hundred and thirty years ago, the people called Methodists in Arkansas had a vision for an institution of higher education. They envisioned not just any institution of higher education, but one of quality and virtue. The dream was for an institution that would not only change the lives of its students, but also through those students, change the lives of so many more. This institution would be known as Hendrix College. During the history of Methodism, more than 1,200 Methodist colleges were established. Today, there are less than 125 United Methodist institutions of higher education in the United States, and Hendrix College is proud to be one of them.

In fact, the University Senate of the General Board of Higher Education completed its ten-year review of the college in 2009. The University Senate is the accreditation body of the United Methodist Church. Not only was Hendrix College approved for another ten years, but also, the approval was given without qualification. The report noted that "Hendrix College has one of the best developed programs of religious life among United Methodist-related colleges and universities." The report also stated that "Hendrix College has a rich history in the United Methodist tradition and proudly proclaims its relationship to The United Methodist Church. Its literature, other publications, and web site all prominently state the College's church relationship."

Recognized widely as one of the best small colleges in the country, Hendrix continues to commit to excellence and changing lives. The College expresses its appreciation to the Arkansas Conference for the support it gives to the programs and mission of this institution.

One of the most exciting changes this year was the move of the religious life center to the new Student Life and Technology building. The new space is in a high traffic area and, in addition to new office space, the suite includes a conference room, a resource room, religious life organization space, and a large gathering area. Nearby, there is a public kitchen that is used at least once a week for programming. The space is heavily used to accommodate the more than 20 weekly religious programs on campus. On most evenings, the conference room and the resource room are reserved for meetings, Bible studies, or worship.

We are proud of the ways in which Hendrix can partner with the Arkansas Annual Conference, and believe that the college can be particularly beneficial in assisting the conference in its initiative "to identify, enlist, and retain gifted young pastors who are passionate about making disciples of Christ." Particularly through the collaborative work of the Office of the Chaplain and the Hendrix-Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling, the College has been able to provide programs that will help the Conference meet the goal: "by 2013, twenty-five young people per year from Arkansas will be entering seminary intending a vocation in professional ministry including music, education, etc., and that by 2013, sixty percent of new pastors will be trained in United Methodist seminaries." Since 2004, thirty Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary and an additional four will enroll this fall. Seventy percent of these are at United Methodist seminaries. We anticipate thirty students will enter seminary in a four-year period that includes this year's graduating class and the past three graduating classes.

The Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling is in its second year, and the College continues to seek additional gifts to permanently endow the program to ensure that its programs continue to benefit the next generation of lay and clergy leadership for the United Methodist Church.

A focus of the Miller Center is to cultivate the discernment of a call to ordained ministry, which occurs several ways for our college students. "Exploring Ministry Together or "E.M.T." continues to host ten to fifteen students each week during the academic year to discuss different aspects of ministry. The group meets with special guests such as Rev. Steve Copley, Rev. David Deere, Rev. Will Choate, and Rev. Tony Campolo, and focuses on themes such as spiritual autobiographies or the sacraments of the church. It is clear that this group functions more as peer support than as a gathering to gain information about the nuts and bolts of ministry. Providing space for this peer discernment to occur is helping these gifted, bright students feel supported as they continue the path to a vocation in ministry.

Our continued work with pre-seminarians includes one or two group visits to United Methodist seminaries and stipends for students to make individual visits. We currently average ten to fifteen students each academic year who take advantage of this opportunity. It is clear from student evaluations that seminary visits allow Hendrix students to "experience student life and get a feel of the campus." In addition to sending students to visit seminaries, the college has offered its space to sponsor a Seminar Day Fair. All United Methodist Seminaries, as well as Asbury and Memphis Theological, were invited to attend and bring display booths. Ten seminaries were represented and more than 20 students attended the event during the fall 2009 semester.

Surrounding these core programs that directly nurture students' exploration of call to Christian ministry is a wealth of programs that encourage students to explore and express their faith commitments. Campus ministry offers a variety of religious life programs. Currently, six registered student religious clubs and organizations are devoted to issues related to religious faith and spiritual formation. Through these student clubs, the Office of the Chaplain, and the Hendrix-Miller Center, more than twenty weekly religious life activities, including Bible studies, Covenant Discipleship groups, fellowship groups, and denominational meetings are offered. In addition to these programs, a weekly communion service and evening chapel service are planned, organized, and led by students, under the direction of the Chaplain. The religious life council has sponsored films, forums, and social gatherings with more than 100 students attending each of the events.

The UMYF Leadership Scholars continues to be a strong program, and Hendrix is especially proud of the forty students who currently receive this award. Many of them will return to their home churches during the year to share their experiences. These students participate in leadership development and spiritual formation programs during their four years at Hendrix. In addition, the UMYF Leadership Scholars assist in leading fellowship teams that travel from campus to local churches to lead worship services. Since 1996, student fellowship teams have visited more than 400 United Methodist Churches in all nine districts of Arkansas. Alumni of the UMYF scholar's program can be found pastoring churches, assisting with youth programs and Christian education, and providing leadership in worship and on church boards.

Mission trips continue to call students away from their current contexts to engage with people both in and out of the United States. Through these travel and service experiences, students develop a greater understanding of their gifts, their purpose, and the United Methodist Church's role in responding to the needs of the world. Nearly forty students were selected from an application pool of more than 100 students to take part in the 2010 spring and summer mission trips. Our trips this year include work with First United Methodist Church in Dumas in the Arkansas Delta; in outreach to the homeless and food insecure in San Diego, California; in construction work with the Methodist Church in Bolivia; and in working with the Jewish community around the events of the Holocaust in Poland.

The programmatic opportunity to think about one's life as a call is striking a chord with a broad spectrum of Hendrix students. A program that has seen significant growth in participation is the weekly Tuesday Talks. This program, started nine years ago, brings in a faculty, staff, or alumni member each week to answer the question, "What is my calling and how do I know?" During Tuesday Talks students hear faculty, staff, and alumni speak about how they have integrated their academic endeavors, ethical principles, trials, joys, and faith journeys into a discovery of vocation.

Hendrix College remains committed to ensuring that all qualified students have access to a Hendrix education, regardless of their family financial circumstances. The amount of money needed to fund scholarships and financial aid for our students continues to increase each year. This year Hendrix is providing more than $23.9 million in student scholarships and financial aid. This represents approximately thirty percent of our total budget. Our budget for student financial assistance has doubled in the past four years, in response to the growing need of students and their families for assistance with financing a college education.

United Methodist students at Hendrix receive more than $3 million dollars in financial aid from the College. Of this group of students, almost $320,000 in financial aid is given to dependents of United Methodist clergy, Certified Candidates for ordination for the United Methodist Church, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship Leadership Scholars. All of the apportioned dollars from the conference go into the scholarship fund. The college believes it is being good stewards of the churches' money by investing the money in scholarships for United Methodist students. Additionally, more than $300,000 from the operating budget supports the religious life programs and chaplain staff. These students are tomorrow's leaders in business, industry, the professions, public service, the arts, and the church.

The relationship between the people called Methodist and higher education was established by John Wesley. Hendrix College cherishes its relationship with the United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Wesley's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity and spiritual formation, knowledge and vital piety. We are grateful for the many ways in which United Methodist Churches of Arkansas support Hendrix, including your apportionment gifts that go directly to students to provide financial assistance that ensure access to our strong academic program, the Miller Center, a wide range of religious life and spiritual formation opportunities, and the UMYF Leadership Scholars Program. Thank you for your continuing support of Hendrix.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is my pleasure to bring this report to the Bishop and members of your annual conference. I extend to you my deepest appreciation for your support and prayers throughout the years. Lydia Patterson Institute is an institution that touches lives daily and all students whose lives have been changed carry every United Methodist from this conference in a very special place in their hearts. Please receive a warm greeting and word of gratitude from them as well as our faculty and staff.

Like everyone else, this past year has been a real challenge to us. Lydia Patterson is affected by the economic conditions on both sides of the border. On the one hand, the U. S. economy has created a loss of giving potential for our supporters. On the other hand, large numbers of parents have lost their jobs due to the crumbling Mexican economy. Many of our parents were employed in the American manufacturing plants that have had to, either relocate, or close their doors. This current school year, we saw a small drop in our enrollment. Parents are having a very hard time sending their kids to school. We gave out 20% more scholarships to our current students as well as helped as many as possible enroll for the first time. We are very grateful to all our friends and churches of the UMC who are in touch with the challenges that we face and have stepped up to help with one or more scholarships. Without your help, we could not possibly do our work and live to tell all the success stories that come out of this generous gift.

As if poverty and a bad economy were not enough, our students live a much more fearful threat every day; the violence on the streets. You hear it on the news daily. Juarez, Mexico, is the deadliest city in the world at the moment. Ten to 15 deaths occur daily, and our students must live through it. They still have to walk on those deadly streets on their way to school. One student said that once she walked over the bridge and into the U. S., she felt that she could breathe again. CNN, on a news report to the nation named Lydia Patterson Institute a haven to the students who needed refuge from a world of violence. This same report also mentioned the interesting fact that Lydia Patterson was established as a refuge to displaced immigrants fleeing from a Mexican revolution. Almost 100 years, later LPI brings hope and a safe place for students running from the streets of violence. You can still excess this report if you go to CNN.com.

In the midst of all, Lydia Patterson is a bright and shiny beacon in the life of the church. Sixty-seven students graduated last year, and 65 are in college today. Once more, the UMC has stepped up to continue our ministry. Twenty-four colleges and universities are providing scholarships for our students so that they can continue their education and escape the threats previously mentioned. Southwestern University called the life of one of our students, "A Cinderella Story". When you take students from a life of very little or no resources and send them to college where they excel, these are story book stories. Saul Bueno is a student at Southwestern University who will graduate in the spring with double majors and a plan to earn a master's degree. Fernando Rivera, on the other hand, is a student at Oklahoma City University planning to go to seminary and to prepare for the ordained ministry. Twenty-three students are serving churches throughout the country while they attend college.

The student lay ministry program is growing. We have 37 in this program being trained to lead churches, youth groups, develop Hispanic ministries, etc. Eight of these students will travel to Germany, in July, to represent the South Central Jurisdiction in the Global Young Peoples Convocation. They are working tremendously hard to raise the funds to make this possible.

I have no doubt that God blesses those who do His work. Lydia Patterson is blessed with the love, support and prayers of all our friends of this conference and the jurisdiction. I invite you to come home to El Paso and experience the greatness of our ministry. I extend a special invitation to you to come on a mission trip or a work team and be blessed as well. Thank you, again, for being there for us.

Respectfully,
Socorro Brito de Anda, President

METHODIST FAMILY HEALTH

A management company of United Methodist Children's Home, Inc., and Arkansas Center for Addiction Research and Education Services (C.A.R.E.S.), and Methodist Behavioral Hospital, Inc., and Kaleidoscope Grief Center, and Methodist Family Health Foundation, Inc.

Who We Are

Established in 1899 as the Arkansas United Methodist Orphanage, Methodist Family Health has expanded its services over the past 110 years to meet the changing needs of at-risk youth in our society. Today, Methodist Family Health (MFH) provides a wide range of behavioral and mental health care services for children and youth with serious behavioral or emotional problems caused by autism, ADHD, drug and alcohol addiction, abuse, neglect or mental illness. MFH's services range from hospitalization to therapeutic foster care and treatment homes to day treatment programs and outpatient counseling.

In all its programs, Methodist Family Health uses the Teaching-Family Model, a well-researched treatment approach that works for troubled children. The Teaching-Family Model uses "teaching-parents" to help children in treatment develop appropriate social and behavioral skills. The adults working with the children use positive, non-punitive interactions to encourage behavior change. Not only has the Teaching-Family Model helped our clients achieve positive outcomes, but national studies also show that the model helps young people with even the most difficult problems or behaviors improve the quality of their lives and make contributions to society.

Who We Serve

Methodist Family Health is committed to serving families throughout the state with programs located in more than 20 Arkansas cities and towns. In total, more than 2,700 individual clients are served each year through all of Methodist Family Health's residential and outpatient programs. These programs include:

New Programs/Activities

Since last year's Conference, four new extensions of the MFH Ministry have been added:
- Kaleidoscope Grief Center, Arkansas' only grief center serving children and their families, became a part of Methodist Family Health in January 2009. The Center provides individual grief counseling, peer support grief groups, grief camps and fun activities for children and their families who have lost loved ones.
- Methodist Counseling Clinic in Heber Springs opened for business on April 1, 2009. The clinic is run by Dwight Decker, a Licensed Professional Counselor for 12 years and pastor for 32 years. The clinic serves clients from ages 5-18.
- Methodist Counseling Clinic in Batesville opened on August 19, 2009. The clinic serves clients from 6 years to adult. The clinic's Program Director is Matthew Frederick, a Licensed Certified Social Worker. Matthew has been a child welfare social worker since 1992 and a therapist since 1997. The clinic works with the Arkansas Sheriff's Youth Ranch.
- The Magale Therapeutic Day Treatment School in Magnolia opened for business the first week in January 2010. The school provides intensive academic and mental health services to up 30 children in grades K-12 whose emotional and academic problems make it impossible for them to attend public schools. The school's Director, Joslyn Harney, holds a lifetime teaching certificate, is a certified Mental Health Paraprofessional, and has 20 years experience providing direct care for youth who are highly at risk and who have severe emotional disturbances.

Also in early 2010, Methodist Family Health, in partnership with the Arkansas Conference, was approved for an Impact Community Grant from United Methodist Communications in Nashville – only the third of its kind nationwide! The grant was used to market a new event called Get Up and Give. The event, which took place on April 11, was a day of giving to the clients served by Methodist Family Health and a day of service for Methodists in the Central and North Central Districts.

"Many of our children arrive with nothing more than the clothes on their back," said Ashley Coldiron, Executive Director of the MFH Foundation. "They depend on us to provide them with the basic necessities, and Get Up and Give was an opportunity for us to collect the items most needed by these children."

Each day the more than 10,000 Associates and almost 2,000 physicians actively live out the mission and vision of Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare:

Mission:

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare in partnership with its medical staffs, will collaborate with patients and their families to be the leader in providing high quality, cost effective patient- and family-centered care. Services will be provided in a manner, which supports the health ministries and Social Principles of The United Methodist Church to benefit the communities we serve.

Vision:

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare is a faith-based healthcare system that, in partnership with its physicians, will be nationally recognized for delivering outstanding care to each patient achieved through collaboration with patients and their families.

For over 90 years, Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare has been an active ministry partner with the Arkansas, Memphis and Mississippi Conferences reaching out to the Mid-South community to make a difference in the health status of the Mid-South. Methodist Le Bonheur has been a community and world leader in innovative Patient and Family Centered Care, Medical Research, Medical Education and Training, Environmental Programs and Community Outreach.

During 2009, over 450,000 times Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare responded to the medical needs of the people of our community through our In-Patient and Out-Patient medical interventions. We performed over 34, 000 surgeries, provided care to over 4,700 new babies, made over 42,000 home visits and performed over 240 liver, kidney and pancreas transplants.

This past year we have partnered with the Arkansas, Memphis and Mississippi Annual Conferences in expanding their health ministry programs. We sponsored the 5K Fun Run/Walk in both Arkansas and Mississippi. In partnership with the Church Health Center, we are working with an initial cohort of clergy from the Memphis Conference to implement the faith, health & life: An Invitation to Leadership program in the Memphis Conference. We were the sponsor along with the Arkansas Conference Health Ministries Task Force to implement the HolyHealthyUMC Healthy Congregation Recognition Program in the Arkansas Conference that recognized the health ministries in local congregation in the Arkansas Conference. We are working with the Mississippi Annual Conference to implement a similar program in the Mississippi Conference. Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare continued our tradition of providing Health Fair Screenings at each Annual Conference gathering. We continue to work with each Annual Conference's health ministries programs to positively impact the health of their clergy and the lives of the parishioners in their congregations. In response to the H1N1 Flu Pandemic, we provided resources on the Seasonal and H1N1 flu to over 800 congregations throughout the three conferences.

During 2009, the Health & Welfare Ministries Board of Directors Committee was restructured and renamed. The new Faith & Health Board Committee has an expanded number of Board of Directors Committee Members and also Community Representative Committee members. The new structure allows for more direct connection to the Mid-South faith community.

Last year began a time of significant expansion and growth for Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare. In the fall of 2009, a special ground breaking occurred to signal the building the first Hospice Residence in the Mid-South with completion expected during 2010.

Construction continued through 2009 at our Germantown Hospital culminating with the opening in February 2010 of the new Women's and Children's Pavilion. The Pavilion is part of a $121 million project that added 218,000 square feet to the Germantown Hospital. This was the largest construction project in the history of Germantown, Tennessee. The expansion includes 100 additional licensed beds, a 600-space parking facility and numerous renovations within the current hospital.

A new 12-story patient tower for Le Bonheur Children Medical Center is under construction. The $327 million patient tower will be 613,000 square feet and will bring the campus size to nearly 1 million square feet. The new 12-story tower will feature natural light in all patient rooms and areas and minimal use of carpets and other finishes. The new patient tower's Consecration Service will be held on June 14, 2010.

Families of Le Bonheur patients will have convenient lodging available in the FedExFamilyHouse, which will be built on Poplar, across the street from the new patient tower. It will open in late 2010. FedEx Family House will offer restful lodgings & green building features. Le Bonheur's FedExFamilyHouse will be a state-of-the-art housing facility for patient families, offering comfortable amenities in an environmentally friendly building. The house will have 24 suites, dining facilities, recreational spaces, a small business center and several other family-friendly amenities.

Construction is scheduled to being in 2010 on the physical plant for the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health located on the first floor of the Tower Wing at University Hospital. Included will be an Innovation Studio, a new Family Care Center, Patient and Family Resource Center, Media Room and a Chapel.

All of the current construction projects are being built to meet LEED [Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design] guidelines. In addition, each Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare Associate is committed to making a difference through our leadership in environmental programs. We have implemented and/or expanded our recycling programs including aluminum cans, cardboard, plastic bottles and toner and printer cartridges. We are partnering with Crosslinks International to recycle medical equipment and supplies. We have collected over 1,000 used cell phones for recycling and or for distribution to local community agencies.

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare has responded to the devastating earthquake in Haiti in numerous ways. A medical team from Le Bonheur Children's Medical Center was asked by the Federal Government to provide specialized care by spending two weeks in Haiti. Individual Methodist Le Bonheur Associates contributed over $10,000 directly to UMCOR to assist the victims of the earthquake. We collected needed medical supplies and food that was shipped to Haiti.

MOUNT EAGLE CHRISTIAN CENTER

"Providing Christian hospitality and opportunities for holy listening"

As Mount Eagle provides sacred space for use by individuals, local churches and annual conference related groups, we become a partner in ministry. Holy listening leads to decision making, action, and transformation of lives.

Almost 3200 people, a total of 181 groups, chose Mount Eagle for their time away in 2009 and participated in our Caring for Creation program while here.

Our new events included a retreat for youth and young adults, "Finding Our Common Ground: Sharing Stories & Listening for God." Young clergy led times of storytelling and worship where everyone shared where God is calling us in life. The event was free to participants and helped identify and encourage persons exploring a call to ordained ministry. The Lay Speakers School co-sponsored with the North and North Central Districts provided training for approximately 45 lay speakers; the 2 week Local Pastor License School had 24 students, 23 of whom went on to serve local churches in the 2009-2010 conference year. Now in its fifth year, the fall Spiritual Formation Retreat is a unique setting where laity and clergy participate equally in a four day event modeled after the Upper Room's Academy for Spiritual Formation. This retreat is a partnership with Mount Eagle and the Conference Committee on Spiritual Formation.

A sampling of the ecumenical programs in 2009 -- a faith-based retreat for women survivors of cancer and a partnership with Arkansas Baptist College and the Little Rock Police Dept. that brought almost 30 young men for a 3-day retreat during July. Our Adventist friends chose Mount Eagle for the fourth year in a row for their Mid-West Deaf Camp.

As we move into 2010, some exciting things are on the horizon.

1. Mount Eagle will host the Perkins Certification in Spiritual Direction in partnership with Perkins School of Theology and the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. This is a two year program for laity and clergy where Perkins faculty will teach the same 6 classes at Mount Eagle that are being offered on campus. Through a generous donation from the United Methodist Foundation, faculty expenses will be covered and scholarships for participants will be made available. Trained spiritual directors will become an additional resource for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, help reduce clergy burnout, and be spiritual friends to any who seek their counsel. The first course will be taught in late October, 2010.

2. The first Arkansas Conference Parish Nurse training took place March 10-13 through a partnership with the Holy Healthy UMC task force with the Rev. Janice Sudbrink, RN, as the classroom instructor and the Rev. Lu Harding as worship leader. Eighteen registered nurses from all around the state, representing churches large and small, took part in the event.
3. Mount Eagle has committed to continue to expand the Care of Creation program giving local church participants a chance to practice green habits and find ways to implement programs at home. (Camps and retreat centers were identified by the 2008 General Conference as ideal partners in helping United Methodists to become more aware of their carbon foot print.)
4. Mount Eagle will continue to expand our mission field in the community around us. In the past few years we have become known as a place that cares about our neighbors, is a community partner, and a witness to the love of Christ. One example is that we provided housing for linemen from South Texas for 3 weeks after the ice storm (rearranging our scheduled groups and programs) and hot showers and water for neighbors who had no electricity and no water during that time. Since the ice storm produced more firewood from downed trees than we could use, families who could really use the wood have been identified and it continues to be delivered to their homes by volunteers and Mount Eagle staff.

We are ever amazed and always thankful that God provides the people, resources, and circumstances for Mount Eagle to help make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world! Thank you to our number one partner, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, for providing prayers and continued support of our vital ministries.

With great appreciation,
Lynn Baker, Richard Lancaster, Robert E. Dennis,
Officers of the Board
Lu Harding, Director, Mount Eagle

MOUNT SEQUOYAH
Conference and Retreat Center

We asked a group of pastors from across the Jurisdiction who were attending a February training event at Mount Sequoyah: "How can we best write a report that will motivate you to read it"? Their reply: "use humor", "nothing", and tell us more of the "GREAT MINISTRY GOING ON AT THE MOUNTAIN."

- Your entire campus has wireless access; a $50k challenge grant from the SCJ Mission Council was matched to completely resurface the roadbeds across the campus; $200,000 was invested through new endowment for Mount Sequoyah; hundreds of volunteers assist each year to continue to upgrade facilities and beautify the grounds.
- Small Church Leadership Institute is equipping clergy, laity, and conference staff to lead their small church congregation into the future. National known presenters.
- Addictions Response by the Church: gives church staff and care-ministries resources to address the effects of addiction on families, congregational support relationships for intervention, treatment, transitional living and recovery

- The Eremos Retreat for Methodist Pastors. Rate of $30 per night, per room, for a well deserved personal retreat, or a family, get-away at Mount Sequoyah.
- New Church Leadership Institute training pastors with knowledge and skills for new church starts across the nation and in other countries
- Interim Ministers Training a three-phase program to educate and train ministers with general skills for serving churches as an interim minister.
- Caring for Creation an annual, national faith-based environmental and sustainability conference, with nationally recognized presenters, for faith-based environmental initiatives
- UM Course of Study annual training and study to educate and spiritually form those entering the United Methodist ministry and those who serve UM congregations.

Just to name a few of the many events and ministries occurring each year - "MORE GREAT THINGS"

- A budget balanced for 2009 during in a very difficult economic year for all of us.
- Just fewer than 12,000 individuals came to Mount Sequoyah. All 15 annual conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction, and several other conferences across the nation, sent laity and clergy for discipleship trainings and meetings; personal reflection and renewal.
- Twenty two buildings were repaired and 3600 cubic yards of fallen timber removed following the ice storm in early 2009.
- New to Mount Sequoyah: guided personal spiritual retreat, spiritual healing and direction with an ordained clergy and spiritual director.
- New programs and training initiatives are in development which will impact the future of our Church and will continue to place Mount Sequoyah as a vital and focused ministry for developing Methodist congregations in witness and in discipleship for Jesus Christ.

Watch our website www.mountsequoyah.org Link to our FACEBOOK; or even better, place a phone call, 1-800-760-8126 to ask questions and let us know where to send you a NEWSLETTER or bulletin EMAIL Keep informed of the many dynamic training initiatives for leadership development and faithful discipleship.

Wesley Foundations from Magnolia, Jonesboro, Russellville, Conway, and Henderson partnered with Ozark Mission Project in early January. Sixty-five college students and adults traveled to New Orleans to work on homes ravaged by Hurricane Katrina. Work teams spent a week weatherizing homes and completing home improvements such as laying floors and tile for families whose home was devastated. Hope and renewal were shared with our friends and neighbors in Louisiana.

The mission of Ozark Mission Project is Transforming Lives through Worship, Fellowship, and Hands-on-Mission. OMP continues to invite first time youth groups to join us by reserving 10% of our space for new church participants. We also offer scholarships. SMU. PERKINS
SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

On September 11, 2009, students, professors, administrators, alumni/ae, friends, benefactors, and special guests of Perkins School of Theology gathered on the campus of Southern Methodist University to dedicate the new Elizabeth Perkins Prothro Hall, and to celebrate the completion of renovations to Selecman Hall and Kirby Hall. After almost a century of service, decades of dreaming, and years of noble work, Perkins had accomplished one of the boldest undertakings in its history.

The process of building and renovation has been an overwhelming experience of grace, brought to expression through an immeasurable generosity on the part of those who shared in both the vision and its accomplishment. Beginning in 1911 with the creation by Methodist leaders in the South of two new institutions of higher learning—SMU and Emory—those who have been committed to this school and its mission to serve the church have continued steadfastly to ensure the fulfillment of that purpose. This latest endeavor has been no different.

So many have invested so much in this enormous undertaking that it is impossible to name them all. I would certainly express my deep gratitude to the Arkansas Annual Conference, and the South Central Jurisdiction as a whole, from which have come strong, steady, supportive participation at so many levels—from finances to prayers, from inviting young adults to consider ordained ministry to partnering with us in training and preparation of those students for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

The Perkins and Prothro families have brought a vision forward across the better part of a century, a vision for the role they could play in shaping society by helping education transform the world. Their legacy exists in physical facilities and philanthropic financial support throughout Southern Methodist University, and certainly at Perkins, but extends much further still. People with great resources and generous hearts give wonderful gifts. But people with vision see beyond what their resources can do, beyond what their generosity can accomplish, beyond what their noblest actions can achieve, to the larger purposes beneath and beyond all of these efforts. The Perkins and Prothro families have possessed such vision, and shared it amply with Perkins. In so doing, they have opened new horizons for the church by establishing a legacy of the sort that leads not backward, but forward, into a new future of theological education.

Highland Park United Methodist Church, led by their senior minister Mark Craig, has contributed more to the success of this venture than anyone could ever imagine receiving from a neighbor. The Texas Methodist Foundation and its president, Tom Locke, have been munificent in their support. Paul and Joanne White of Louisiana were among the earliest donors to this project, and for their generosity we are deeply grateful. Myriad other congregations, institutions, families, and individuals have partnered in this effort, making gifts of all sizes to further the mission of Perkins through these renovation and expansion projects. A series of plaques in the new Prothro Hall names more than 800 entities as having contributed funds—and the list continues to grow.

Members of the faculty and staff at Perkins provided invaluable wisdom, discernment, and guidance throughout this process. In the midst of great disruption, certain persons gave exceptional leadership to keep us on an even keel. Among them were Tracy Anne Allred, director of Student Services; Janelle Hampton, building manager and registrar; Todd Rasberry, director of Development; Roberta Cox, director of Public Affairs; and Jim McMillin, the associate director of Bridwell Library, and chair of our Construction Committee.

With building construction and renovation completed, we are now poised to pursue with even greater focus certain strategic goals that are central to our work in the future. These goals are part of the University's larger objectives related to a $750 million capital campaign launched in September 2008 in anticipation of the centennial of the school's founding in 1911. SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign includes further enhancing the academic quality and reputation of the school through faculty endowments and other means; fostering an open, collaborative, diverse community, beginning with the further development of the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions; strengthening scholarly research and creative achievement; enhancing student development and quality of life; and broadening global perspectives through continuing development of the center for Global Theological Education.

On a personal note, I continue to serve on our denomination's Judicial Council, and regard this role as both a high honor and profound responsibility. I also continue to serve as liaison between the Church and the University.

The building endeavors of the last several years and strategic goals of the present and future all serve to fulfill a singular missional purpose from which we cannot and will not waver: to prepare women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry. For your partnership in that mission through this historic season at Perkins, and in the many ways your partnership promises to support these future goals as we work together toward their fulfillment, we are grateful.

Grace and Peace,

William B. Lawrence, Dean
Professor of American Church History

PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE

Philander Smith College continues moving in a direction where social justice is a critical aspect of this experience. As the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church indicates, social justice has been a part of this denomination since the beginning. And so our mission statement, "to graduate academically accomplished students, grounded as advocates for social justice, determined to change the world for the better" is a very public affirmation of the values of the United Methodist Church.

One major step this year was to develop a social justice advisory board. In October, we were able to bring a number of very high profile leaders to campus who will help us develop our program. They represented higher education institutions such as Georgetown University and Brandeis University, as well as major non-profit organizations including the Children's Defense Fund, the Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation, the Schott Foundation, and the American College Personnel Association. The team spent a day engaging our faculty and staff in conversation about the next steps for the college. Our major goal over the next year is to hire our first director of the Center for Social Justice to build our program.

In the meantime, we continue to provide opportunities to engage our community in justice issues. At our opening convocation this year, our speaker was Father Michael Pfleger. At the program, we awarded our first Ozell Sutton Medal of Justice. Dr. Sutton is an alumnus of the college who spent most of his career with the U. S. Justice Department in civil rights. We gave the award to Nigel Haskett, the young man shot two years ago while working at McDonald's when he intervened in a domestic dispute to come to the aid of the woman being beaten. This was the first major recognition given to Mr. Haskett for his act of bravery.

Many of our faculty and staff joined in with our new students in reading Dr. Robert Michael Franklin's "Crisis in the Village." Dr. Franklin, president of Morehouse College in Atlanta, came to campus to speak on how we can improve the anchor institutions in African American communities- the church, the family, and schools.

In the fall, we reached an enrollment of 668, which was a 13% increase from the previous fall. More importantly, this year marked the 5th consecutive year where the average high school GPA and ACT score of our entering class improved, and was third consecutive year of increased growth in the number of freshmen attending. Even though we added 19 new beds by renovating a barracks on campus, we found ourselves needing to house 15 students for most of the year at the La Quinta Inn several blocks away.

We completed our campus master plan, and in February held a groundbreaking ceremony for our new 60 bed suite style residence hall. This will be the first of four such buildings, with plans to build a new student center and dining hall as well. With our steady growth of traditionally aged students, and greater increase from students outside of the state, improving our campus facilities is a high priority.

Even with more students, and stronger students academically, we continue to attract students with genuine financial need. We therefore continue to seek your support for students who really need financial assistance, not simply students coming to make the college look better in rankings and reports. The support of the Arkansas Conference has been great in helping us finance the education of our students, with 75% of the Pell grant eligible, meaning they come from families that earn less than $40,000 a year. We continue to seek individuals, families, corporations, foundations and churches for our Renaissance 100 program, which provides full and partial scholarships for students for four years. We hope that you will join the growing number of people nationwide who are participating in this initiative.

Our nationally recognized lecture series, Bless the Mic, is still the talk of the town. In fact, our series has inspired a number of HBCUs in particular to start their own. We are proud of this fact. Over the past year, we have had the likes of Republican Chair Michael Steele, anti-racism activist Tim Wise, actress Gabrielle Union, and Washington Post finance expert Michelle Singletary. We are on track to break a record for attendance per event, averaging over 500. Already for next year we have scheduled Dr. Michael Eric Dyson, Anya Kamenetz (author, Generation Debt), and CNN Republican strategist Leslie Sanchez. Please feel free to attend any of the events on campus.

In fact, the College continues to gain national recognition in a variety of ways. In the December issue of Spirit magazine of Southwest Airlines which featured a special report on Little Rock, Philander Smith College was discussed, including a photo from one of our opening convocations. During the second week of March, President Kimbrough served as a guest blogger for the New York Times about historically Black colleges and universities. Finally, the Chronicle of Higher Education, the largest paper in all of higher education, covered the college in an extensive article.

The college continues to work closely with Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. Record numbers of students are joining the church and are active in the congregation. Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, who also serves as the college chaplain, continues to involve the students in meaningful ways. For instance, a busload of students spent spring break on a Civil Rights Immersion trip, traveling to Memphis, Birmingham, Montgomery and Atlanta.

Our religious emphasis week was highlighted with visits by United Methodist Bishop Violet Fisher, AME Bishop Vashti Murphy McKenzie, Dr. Abraham Smith, and Pastor E. Dewy Smith. The week was concluded with a living legends banquet that honored Bishop Kenneth Hicks, Annie Abrams, Rev. O. C. Jones, Dr. Raphael Lewis, and Chinelo Bivens. Our banquet was the largest in the three year history of this event, with over 200 in attendance.

Philander Smith College continues to be one of the most progressive college campuses in the nation, and our development of the social justice emphasis will help us to produce men and women who will live out the principles of the United Methodist Church.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

www.spst.edu

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, a free-standing seminary campus in Kansas City and a university partnership seminary on the campus of Oklahoma City University.

This academic year, 284 students from 41 states and 5 continents were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City. Forty-one students were enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Saint Paul at Oklahoma City University. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 290 students from 18 annual conferences.

Over 400 students and alums, current and emeritus faculty, and friends of the seminary gathered in September to celebrate the seminary's 50th Anniversary in Kansas City. The festivities were a time to celebrate the seminary's tradition and history, reunite in friendship, look toward the seminary's future, and share the seminary's story with the larger Kansas City Community.

The Order of St. Luke constructed a meditative labyrinth on the Kansas City Campus naming it in honor of Dr. Susan Sonnenday Vogel '82 DMin. Susan Sonnenday Vogel is the first woman Doctor of Ministry graduate of Saint Paul and served in a number of roles including Associate Dean for Spiritual & Professional Formation during her 33 year tenure.

Two Doctor of Ministry tracks were established. The Doctor of Ministry track in Children and Poverty will begin June 2010 and a track in Global Health and Wholeness is slated for January 2011. Both tracks relate directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops initiatives (the "Four Foci") for the Church.

It was the second year for Laity School of Theology. Each Laity School Saturday Session was taught by Saint Paul faculty and presented in an accessible manner for persons with a variety of educational backgrounds. Participants could attend one session or all six. Topics included worship, Bible, ethics, church history, and theology. Laity School was offered in Kansas City, Missouri and various churches in Nebraska, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

It was the sixth year for the Saint Paul youTheology program. Lilly Endowment, Inc. renewed a grant for the program developed for Midwest youth to continue to explore their faith through worship, service, study, travel, and a mentoring relationship. The youTheology program culminates with a nine day Pan Methodist Pilgrimage to the East Coast where youTheologians see historic locations fundamental to the roots of Methodism.

Dr. L. Shannon Jung was installed into the Franklin and Louise Cole Chair for Town and Country Ministries in the fall. The chair was a celebration for the seminary and rural ministry. There was special recognition for the team of laity and clergy that worked for several years to establish the fully funded Town and Country Chair.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

As SMU approaches the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the University continues to rise in national prominence. The past year has been marked by exciting developments. Highlights follow:

- SMU's total fall 2009 enrollment was 10,891, including 6,228 undergraduates, 3,544 graduate students and 1,119 professional (theology and law) students. The ethnic minority enrollment makes up 21 percent of the student body. The average SAT score of the first-year class has risen nearly 100 points in the past 10 years.
- SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign was launched in September 2008. Gifts during the campaign's two-year quiet phase and first public year have exceeded $416 million toward a goal of $750 million. The campaign seeks endowment for student quality, faculty and academic excellence, and the campus experience. To date, the campaign has provided funds for 193 new endowed scholarships; 16 new endowed academic positions; 11 new endowed institutes, centers and other academic programs; support for two schools and one academic department; and 12 new or renovated facilities.
- The new Caruth Hall for the Lyle School of Engineering will open this spring. The school recently announced its new Hunter and Stephanie Hunt Institute for Engineering and Humanity, to address conditions of the global poor. A building to house the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development is under construction and scheduled to open in August. New year-round housing at SMU-in-Taos allowed the addition of fall semester classes in 2009 at the New Mexico campus, which has offered summer courses since 1973.

- Among several outstanding appointments, the Rev. Stephen Rankin, Ph.D. was named SMU's new chaplain and minister to the University. He came to SMU from Southwestern College in Kansas, where he was campus minister and professor of Religious Studies. Rankin is a clergy member of the Kansas West Annual Conference.
- David Meltzer, professor and chair of Anthropology in SMU's Dedman College, was elected a member of the prestigious National Academy of Sciences. Several students have won Fulbright, Truman and other national fellowships.
- Alan C. Lowe was named director of the George W. Bush Presidential Library, to be located at SMU. He previously was executive director of the Howard H. Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville. James K. Glassman, undersecretary of state for Public Diplomacy and Public Affairs in 2008, was named executive director of the George W. Bush Institute, to be part of the Bush Presidential Center, which is expected to open in 2013.
- The Bush Presidential Library is already making an impact at SMU. Political science and journalism professors have invited former President Bush to speak to their classes, groups of scholarship students have visited the temporary archives, and former First Lady Laura Bush has hosted an exchange between Iraqi women and SMU faculty.

News of Perkins School of Theology

- Perkins School of Theology began a significant new chapter in September 2009 when it dedicated the new Elizabeth Perkins Prothro Hall and renovated Kirby Hall and Selecman Hall. The Perkins and Prothro families and their foundations provided the lead gift for the new building, continuing the tradition of Joe J. and Lois Perkins, for whom the school was named in 1945.
- C. Michael Hawn, professor of Church Music and director of the Master of Sacred Music Program at Perkins School of Theology, was honored as The United Methodist Church's 2008-09 University Scholar/Teacher of the Year.
- Pastors from Latin America traveled to Perkins last summer for theological and ministerial training through Theology Beyond Borders. Perkins is one of three United Methodist schools of theology offering the Course of Study School in Spanish. Pastors from Columbia, Argentina and Costa Rica received training supported by a new grant from The United Methodist Church's General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
- Joerg Rieger was appointed to the newly endowed Wendland-Cook Professorship in Constructive Theology. A clergy member of the North Texas Annual Conference, Rieger has taught at Perkins for 15 years. The professorship was established by Barbara and Erroll Wendland and the Joe and Louise Cook Foundation. The Wendlands are from Temple, Texas, and Mrs. Wendland is a member of the Perkins Executive Board.

News of SMU Wesley Foundation

- Under the leadership of the Rev. Andy Roberts, a clergy member of the North Georgia Annual Conference, the SMU Wesley Foundation is one of the most active ministries on campus. "The Well," a weekly worship service in Perkins Chapel, features music, teaching, prayer and Holy Communion. Small group Bible studies, the heart of the SMU Wesley Foundation, foster fellowship and spiritual growth.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage and maintains a particularly close relationship with Highland Park United Methodist Church and its senior minister, the Rev. Mark Craig. I enjoy serving as guest preacher at that church each fall. We ask your continued prayers and support as SMU moves forward in the coming year.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

In the past year, the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas has increased grant-making activity to fulfill unmet needs and exploit opportunities for ministry in the Arkansas Conference.

Grants to seminary students as a part of the UMFA Seminary Scholarship Fund are providing educational support to seven students who currently attend United Methodist seminaries and have made a commitment to return to the Conference as local pastors. Seven local pastors already serving in the Conference were past beneficiaries of this scholarship and one is working on her PhD. This initiative offers the potential of strengthening every local United Methodist church in the state.

UMFA made a grant to the Arkansas Conference for the Sharing Together in Christ's Name communications initiative. The grant helps the Conference celebrate the ways United Methodists transform the world for Christ through connectional giving with Bible studies and multi-media communications push. Even in these dark economic days, United Methodists have many reasons to be proud of their church.

Mount Eagle Retreat Center, a United Methodist facility in Stone County near Clinton, received a grant from the Foundation to allow clergy and lay members to obtain Certification in Spiritual Direction in a partnership with Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. Mount Eagle is the first off-campus location for the two- year program led by the Perkins Office of Spiritual Formation.

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas also made a grant to the Arkansas Conference United Methodist Church Winfred D. Polk Archives located in Bailey Library at Hendrix College in Conway. The grant that was used to purchase filing cabinets and other furnishings honors the many years of service of Archivist Mauzel Beal.

The Foundation continues its support of the Conference Child Care Liaison Project. In 2009 a grant was made to publish a comprehensive Guide to Child Care Ministries that included what every Arkansas United Methodist Church needs to know about reaching out to the children and families of their communities via child care ministries.

Vice President of Development Janet Marshall was a guest at last summer's School of Christian Mission at Hendrix College. The school has received a grant from the United Methodist Foundation for many years.

Another grant recipient was the Arkansas Conference Spouses Retreat in April at Mount Eagle. Theme for the retreat was "From Heart and head to Hands" and it centered on helping attendees identify their personal mission and concrete ways to accomplish that mission.

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas had a strong financial year with market value of assets at $93 million, up 7.5% from the December, 2008 numbers. The Foundation's growth investment pool, which includes stock investments, was up 21.17 percent in 2009 and fixed income fund was up 12.37 percent. The actively-managed investment pools kept pace with benchmark returns for 2009, and returns were achieved with far less risk exposure that the benchmarks.

Still the among the largest United Methodist Foundations in the country, the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas retains an active independent investment consultant, offers four investment pools, and employs five professional money managers to direct the assets of approximately 550 accounts.

The Foundation remains focused on its mission of developing and wisely managing permanent charitable funds to support United Methodist ministry in Arkansas. Countless church members have used the Foundation as a tool in their stewardship and expressed their love for their church in a perpetual way. We are blessed by their generosity, and honored to be in their service.

first a story from the Archivists . . .

The "Story of Marlie"

One hundred and twenty six years from now a young woman, named Marlie, will become a student of Hendrix College. All of the family, for years, had gone to college at Hendrix. She really did not know why. Others in the family would say, "I don't know why we go to college at Hendrix—that's just the way it is." In the fall of her first year, Marlie learned she could find information about her ggreatgrandfather and ggreatgrandmother in a very old building on the campus of Hendrix College. It was a place where students no longer go into because it is all offices. Marlie decided to walk up the brick walkway, to step in the old building and to look around. She climbed up the stairs to the second floor in the old building. It was said that at one time the building was a beautiful place to study—called a library. Many years ago it was home for things like books and computers. It was a place where students could go and use a thing called a "laptop."

Marlie had seen several books because there were some at the Education Center, but never a "laptop." What was that? Our Marlie walked up the big stairway and around the hallway. She spotted a sign that read the "United Methodist Archives." This must be the place, she thought. There were a lot of things around the room that looked old and there were many books on the shelves — more than she had ever seen in one place. A person was in the archives working. The archivist stopped her work and said, "Welcome, this is the United Methodist Archives. Can I help you?" Marlie told the archivist that she had been told information about her ancestors might be stored here. She really wanted the information but also wondered how much it would cost. She could not buy very much; like most Hendrix students, her pockets were empty. Marlie became elated when the archivist told her there would be no charge for any information or any assistance she might want. The archivist told Marlie that this place is a ministry of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church where very valuable information is kept. After a short wait the archivist told Marlie she had found a lot of information about her gggrandparents and others in her family, too. Would she like this information also?

Christmas break finally came. Everyone had a wonderful meal. It was time to exchange presents. Marlie had made duplicates of all the information from the archives so that everyone in the family could have a copy of the information she found in the archives at Hendrix. When the family realized what the copies were they stopped their visiting—totally stopped and could not take their eyes off the papers Marlie had given to them. For the entire Christmas Day the whole family only wanted to look at the images of their ancestors. They were all trying to decide if any of them looked like the people in the pictures. Some did. That Christmas Day the only thing Marlie's family wanted to do was read to each other the stories about their ancestors. Marlie's gift was one that would never grow old, only more valuable. To find information on the family ancestors was the best present Marlie could have given to her family. To find stories of their ancestors was the best gift of all! DNA from the past was then in the present.

By the way, you probably already know what the family's name is. Each of the people present for Christmas dinner had the same last name. Take a guess what Marlie's last name is. The family's last name is the same as yours!

Pastors, please don't let your "Marlie" be disappointed that in your file there is only a list of Service Records. Churches—will you have pictures and a written history when your "Marlie" is responsible for the 200th anniversary celebration of your church? Your archivists, Mauzel Beal and Marcia Crossman will gladly give you guidance on what you can do to gather your history. Pastor's files and church files are now being kept in water, fire, and crush-proof file safes. Read on about the generous gift from the AR Methodist Foundation that makes the safe-keeping of these items possible for future families and U.M. Churches.

Jim Argue, President

The Commission on Archives and History of The Arkansas Conference says

to JIM ARGUE and to The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas for a GRANT of $40,000 in HONOR of Archivist MAUZEL BEAL for 20 years of service to RENOVATE the Conference ARCHIVES

Hendrix College, Bailey Library, Conway, AR

U.M. Foundation President Jim Argue with Arkansas Conference Archivist Mauzel Beal at her SURPRISE RECEPTION Honoring her Service as Archivist

In January of 2010 the U.M. Foundation of Arkansas presented the Arkansas Conference Archives a grant of $40,000 to completely refurbish the Archives in the Bailey Library at Hendrix College in honor of Mauzel Beal and her soon to be 20 years of service as Archivist. A surprise reception was held in her honor, with about 50 friends and family attending. President Jim Argue of the U.M. Foundation presented the surprise grant to Mrs. Beal who had no idea yet of the wonderful new renovation that was soon to be.

In 1991 the Winfred D. Polk family of Corning, Arkansas, had given a generous gift of $100,000 for space in the new Hendrix College Bailey Library to establish a permanent location for an Archives to house the history of Arkansas Methodism. Hendrix made available, from the old library, equipment such as file cabinets, bookcases, a desk, chairs and 2 work tables.

Before the Renovation

By 2009 the bookcases from the old library began to sway. Books were behind other books and books were on top of the bookcases and on top of the file cabinets. Computer equipment only allowed the Arkansas U.M. Newspaper Index to be backed up on obsolete zip drives. The Commission on Archives and History had originally planned to spend over half of its Conference allowance for four years to purchase one fire and water proof file cabinet each year. With a cost of over $2,000 and each weighing over 600 lbs. empty, four cabinets would at least give greater protection to local church's and pastor's personal files.

Archives layout in 2010 before the renovation

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas became aware of this great need for helping the United Methodist Archives to continue its ministry to the Arkansas United Methodist Conference. A great deal of research and planning had been done to determine what it would cost to update the Archives. The very generous grant of $40,000 from the Foundation is insuring that there will be a safe and adequate space for continuing the preservation and storage of records, photos, rare books, and one of a kind materials from all of the people, pastors, and churches that make up our church's blended history. News of receiving this grant of $40,000 to honor Mauzel Beal's work and to continue to honor the memory of Winfred Polk was truly God's grace looking upon the work of the Methodist people in Arkansas.

The Renovation

Many people were involved in planning for the new equipment and improvements in the Archives. Archivist Marcia Crossman and her husband Rev. Bob Crossman led this project. Conway's Grace UMC member Bill Arnold and co-worker Ernest Miller presented a new floor plan with 8 file safes on one narrow wall, with cabinets on top of them, and bookshelves running down both long walls, which would double the bookcase space. Later Bill and Earnest donated their time to install the shelves. A local Conway business owner, Larry Malpica, a member of Conway

Eight fire, water, crushproof file safes

First U.M.C., assisted the Commission in obtaining the fire safes at near cost. A matching table could be purchased to cover the large flat files making a nice work table beside the copier on the other short wall. We would then-have a large space in the middle of the room for two work tables that can expand to 94" each, with six new chairs making space for research and preservation, work and for meetings.

New Bookcases down one side of the research room

Arnold suggested dividing the space into a research room and a separate office. The small room of the Archives could then become an office with two desks and two computers, one for each archivist, with two matching cabinets allowing more storage space. All of the furnishings are constructed of beautiful oak.

Two heavy oak tables each open up to 94"

Previously the two archivists had shared one desk used to hold a computer and with little storage.

Each Archivist now has a desk and new computer. Decorative bookcases in the office hold more storage.

Bookcases now on each side work of workroom

The Near Future

There is a huge amount of space on the Conference website that will soon enable anyone linked to the internet to find material that's in the Archives in the comfort of their own homes. The new high speed scanner purchased by the Foundation will allow the archivists to place researchable material and books on the Conference web site: www.arumc.org <http://www.arumc.org>. The Archivists will copy books, pictures, and valuable documents. Among these papers are Rev. Vernon Paysinger's Index of Clergy Appointments and Memories of Pastors with records through 1990, the three early Arkansas Methodist history books, along with annual conference minutes, appointments and memoirs from 1991 to present. Patrick Shownes in the Conference Communications Office served as computer equipment planner, and did the installation. The grant of $40,000 has given him the opportunity to be involved in working on an index to the archives that can be accessed by any home computer.

It is always the hope of the Commission on Archives and History that clergy, churches and individuals would give to the Archives any material that might be valuable. Here are some examples of some treasures we have received: in 2009, the father of Jane Dennis (former editor of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper) donated to the Archives a set spanning 21 years of the Arkansas Methodist paper in her mother's memory. For the first time we had a complete set of the newspaper going back to 1896. A backup of printed copies of most of the newspapers is now in the Philander Smith College Archives. We received from the Reverends Bob and Betty Robertson a first edition copy of the Minutes of the Methodist Conferences held in 1773-1813. Last year the U.M.C. at Lincoln (Washington Co.) gave the Archives a huge amount of Journals from the former Little Rock Conference—many from the 1800's and some that the Archives did not have. It is a mystery to be solved of how so many years of Journals from one conference came to the Archives from another conference. There have been rare letters, a bound copy of the 1899 Methodist newspaper, pictures, Methodist history books, DVDs and pictures of churches celebrating their centennials.

So, the Commission on Archives and History of our conference says,

"Thank you, AR U.M. Foundation from the bottom of our hearts for the generous grant of $40,000. It honors a person very dedicated to preserving, storing, and making available the memories and history of the mission and ministry of all the people blended together today to make up the new Arkansas Conference".

We are grateful to be able to honor Mrs. Mauzel Matthews Beal, our Conference Archivist. Since her retirement from being a part of her husband Jim Beal's active ministry in the conference, she has given to the United Methodist people of Arkansas a rare resource as someone "who might know who and how we can find this out."

"Thank you Mauzel, We hope that God will give you many years to serve."

Report submitted by Marcia Swain Crossman (in honor of my co-worker).

Thanks to the AR U.M. Foundation for a very generous grant, the Archives will soon be adding information to the Conference web site that will enable you to find your church's pastors and their memoirs right on your home computer. arumc.org

Reverend Vernon Paysinger developed an index on Methodist clergy that spans the late 1890s to 1990. He indexed all known Methodist pastors which links them to each appointment and to each one's memoirs.

Of the four Arkansas Methodist history books, you will find the earliest three histories on the Conference web site. These books were written by the Reverends Horace Jewell-1892, James Anderson-1936, and Walter Vernon-1976. Nancy Britton's excellent and newest book on Arkansas Methodism-2000 is available for just $10.00.

Other items you can find include an updated index of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper articles where you can sort for interested topics, people, or churches. You might want to visit the Archives to see these or the Archivists will copy them and mail them to you. Here are ways you may reach the Archivists:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis of Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1(b), these financial statements were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and its revenues, expenses and changes in net assets for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1(b).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2009 and 2008

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization
The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) is a service organization for the United Methodist Churches throughout the State of Arkansas. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping local churches for missions and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the congregation, all to the glory of God. The Conference receives apportionments from churches located in the State of Arkansas and distributes the apportionments in accordance with the approved budget set by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(b) Basis of Accounting
The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and cash equivalents and local church apportionments in-transit, and the only liabilities that are recognized are apportioned and other funds payable and prepaid apportionments. The modified cash basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because purchases of property and equipment are expensed as they are paid for rather than recorded as an asset and depreciated over their estimated useful lives and long-term debt is not recorded. Non-cash transactions are not recorded in the financial statements, therefore non-cash donations are not recorded as revenue when received.

Local church apportionments in-transit represent amounts that churches are budgeted to pay and apportioned and other funds payable include amounts the Conference is budgeted to pay according to the budget approved by the churches at the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents
The Conference considers all deposits with financial institutions, as well as highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

At times during the year ended December 31, 2009, cash and cash equivalents balances exceeded the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and were not collateralized. In the event of an institutional failure, the excess over FDIC insurance may not be recoverable. At December 31, 2009, the Conference's total bank balance maintained at multiple financial institutions was approximately $1,511,000 of which approximately $1,028,000 was not insured or collateralized.

The Conference is party to a contract with the financial institution in which the Conference maintains its operating account whereby all funds on deposit at that financial institution are transferred on a daily basis into a sweep investment account. The balance in this account is included in the cash and cash equivalent balance in the statements of assets, liabilities, and net assets.

(d) Cash Receipts
The Conference's cash receipts are restricted to fulfilling the purpose for which the donor remitted the funds. The Conference's goal is to distribute the funds received for the ultimate benefit of the third party donee in a timely and efficient manner.

The Conference classifies funds based on their funding source. The financial statements contain two types of funds: apportioned and other. Apportioned funds are budgeted by and allocated to the individual churches by the Arkansas Annual Conference. Other funds are obtained through the collection efforts of the committees established to oversee the individual funds. The Conference maintains and disburses these funds as requested by the committees.

(e) Income Taxes
The Conference is a non-profit organization exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation. Accordingly, there is no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Conference adopted the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which is now codified in FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes. The adoption of that guidance did not have any impact on the Conference's financial statements since the Conference has no material uncertain tax positions.

(f) Functional Expenses
The Conference considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administrative and fundraising for financial statement presentation.

(g) Reclassifications
Certain amounts presented in the Conference's 2008 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2009 presentation.

NOTE 2: HEALTH INSURANCE TRUST

The Conference is the Plan Administrator of the Arkansas United Methodist Conferences Employee Benefit Plan (the Plan) which covers eligible employees of the Conference and churches located within the State of Arkansas. The Director of Ministries shall serve as ex-officio without vote. The Committee shall reflect racial, ethnic and gender diversity. They shall be elected by the conference for terms of four years.

Nominations for membership on the Conference Nominating Committee shall be received from the District Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. POLICY STATEMENTS

PARSONAGE STANDARDS

{Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004}

Philosophy For Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum.

The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2004 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e

The 2004 Book of Discipline also states that, "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶ 2532.4

The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

These Guidelines are for use in maintaining, remodeling, building, or buying a parsonage.

Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms: There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower
3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.
4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with a storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to insure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.
10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.

11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
    a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
    b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling systems shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to soundness of heat/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as to maximum /minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.
12. Insurance: The church is responsible for payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty per cent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain additional coverage to insure the pastor's family furnishings and belongings.
13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide 'adequate housing' shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required Items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential Items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.
14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility
    (a) The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, If anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.
    (b) The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative In improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.
    (c) All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See Philosophy for Parsonage Standards, last sentence, p.1, above.)
15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities
    The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who has pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out, including residual tobacco smoke and any odors from pets.
16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.

17. Mutual Responsibility Covenant: It is recommended that the Trustees and/or the Pastor Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original from any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.
18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient... weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.
19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.
20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one for each floor including the basement.

Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:

21. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately, are adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.
22. All Substandard Parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later that January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the cabinet.
23. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor Parish Relations Committee In the implementation these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at large members elected to three year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.
24. When there is a Pastoral Change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.
25. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/ purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.
26. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and, chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committees. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.
27. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.

28. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommend: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

A SUGGESTED CHURCH/PASTOR PARSONAGE COVENANT

Church Responsibilities:

While other church officers and bodies have a role in the provision, inspection, and maintenance of the parsonage the local church Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility to insure the parsonage meets or exceeds the standards set by the Annual Conference and the local church. The Church Trustees will maintain the physical structure and keep it in good repair. This includes all exterior treatments such as paint, shingles, and siding; the basic interior structure of the home including carpet and other floor coverings, interior decorating, and drapes or curtains. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all equipment such as furnace, water heater, light fixtures, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer, and lawn mower. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all furnishings provided by the church including maintenance and timely replacement.

Clergy Responsibilities:

The pastor will properly care for the property, keeping it clean and attractive both inside and out. The Pastor will be responsible for light bulbs, furnace filters, lawn mowing and snow removal; for effecting minor repairs such as, but not limited to, tacking or nailing of molding or door tops that may loosen up, and repairing or replacing items damaged by pets, personal guests, or the pastor and his/her family. [This would be signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Pastor, and other appropriate local church officers.]

Respectfully submitted, Regina Haralson, Secretary and Ronald B. Clark, President

POLICY STATEMENT ON MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

{Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004, and revised June 14, 2005}

I. Statement of Policy

The _____United Methodist church affirms the 2008 Book of Resolutions #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church as incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2008 Book of Discipline (¶ 161.E) all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his/her capacity as a minister.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission. The _____ United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

II. Procedures

A. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person.

You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease.

If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation.

If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy).

If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

B. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship.

If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting.

If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

C. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventative action.

According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

VACATION POLICY FOR APPOINTED PERSONNEL

{Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 12, 2006}

It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is "vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out, we recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1) Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (June 1-May31).

a) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).

b) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).

c) Those having served full time in the United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).

2) Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.

3) Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conference, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.

4) Full time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)

5) The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.

6) In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full time service, including student pastors and part time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.

7) Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.

8) The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.

9) The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

STANDARDS FOR CAMPING AND RETREAT CENTERS

{The following motion was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference}

We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the "Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers" adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee.

We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.
