Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield

Bishop Hope Morgan Ward of Mississippi and Bishop Charles Crutchfield of Arkansas lead worshippers through the Great Thanksgiving in preparation for Holy Communion.

Bishop Hope Morgan Ward of Mississippi preaches during a Service of Commemoration and Holy Communion, the opening worship at the 2011 Arkansas Annual Conference.

Bishop Charles Crutchfield spends a moment with Caleb Ditmer, whose mother, Danyelle, looks on in the background. When Danyelle and others being ordained during the 2011 Annual Conference were called forward for recognition, Caleb accompanied his mother to the stage.

The 2011-2012 cabinet of the Arkansas Conference. Front row, from left: Kurt Boggan, superintendent of the Northeast District; Dede Roberts, superintendent of the Central and North Central Districts; Bishop Charles Crutchfield; Charles Settle, superintendent of the North District; and Mackey Yokem, superintendent of the Northwest and West Districts. Back row, from left: C.E. McAdoo, superintendent of the Southwest District; Phil Hathcock, director of connectional ministries and assistant to the Bishop; Mike Morey, superintendent of the South Central district; and Dennis Spence, superintendent of the Southeast District.

Asa Whitaker, Conference lay leader, delivers the Laity Address on Tuesday, June 7. He invited listeners to see the church as a gumball machine: "You have to put something in to get something out."

Newly ordained members of the Arkansas Conference

The Arkansas Conference received the Revs. James Eddie Harris, left, and Mark Hightower Donald into associate membership during the June 7 service of commissioning and ordination.

The Rev. Wayne Clark and his daughter, Natalie. Natalie Clark followed in her father's footsteps by delivering the 2011 report of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM), 31 years after her father delivered the CCYM report at the 1980 Annual Conference.

The Revs. John Miles and Jim Polk greet each other before the Annual Conference session begins.

Nathan Kilbourne offers the Annual Conference morning devotional on Tuesday, June 7.

April Cotton, a student at Philander Smith College, presents a thank-you to Bishop Charles Crutchfield for the Conference's full payment of its Black College Fund apportionment for 2010, as the Rev. Phil Hathcock joins attendees in celebrating that achievement.

The Rev. Ramiro Lizcano offers a prayer in Spanish to prepare the members of Conference for the next ballot in the election process for General Conference lay and clergy delegates.

The Rev. Mark Lasater provides an introduction as staff and interns of Ozark Mission Project (OMP) take the stage to highlight the ministry's 25th anniversary year. Following the report, interns presented Bishop Crutchfield with an OMP cap and t-shirt.

The Rev. Mark Norman and Natasha Murray-Norman celebrate following Natasha's commissioning as a provisional elder in the Arkansas Conference.

Governor Mays, a Church and Community Worker with the General Board of Global Ministries, greets the Conference. Mays currently serves as mission interpreter in residence for the South Central Jurisdiction, and is based in Lake Village, Ark.

The Rev. David Hanshaw, right, on behalf of First UMC Clarksville presents a check for $800 to Chaplain Walter "Bubba" Smith. The money will be used for purchasing Strength for Service devotional books for U.S. troops.

Military chaplain the Rev. Walter "Bubba" Smith salutes Bishop Crutchfield during the Ordained Ministry report. Smith left just two days after Annual Conference to begin a six-month deployment as Area Command Chaplain in the Middle East.

Imagine Ministry team member the Rev. Susan Ledbetter speaks on the Imagine Ministry proposals that came before the Conference. The proposals passed and implementation will begin as soon as Bishop Crutchfield names the transition team.

Jim Argue, a member of the Imagine Ministry team, presents information on the proposals to be voted on by the Annual Conference. All Imagine Ministry proposals were approved.

...REACHING FORWARD TO WHAT LIES AHEAD...
PHILIPPIANS 3:13

Charles Donaldson, a lay member of the Imagine Ministry team, presents information on Monday afternoon related to the proposals, which were approved the following day.

The Rev. Mackey Yokem, a member of the Imagine Ministry team, presents information on the proposals to be voted on by the Annual Conference. All Imagine Ministry proposals were approved.

The Rev. Jimmy Mosby adds paper to a recycling bin placed in Summit Arena by the youth members of Annual Conference.

The Rev. John Miles II gives Bishop Charles Crutchfield his bid for a bowl of candy to benefit the Congo Well Initiative. The Bishop's impromptu auction, begun while waiting for ballot results for the Jurisdictional Conference delegation, raised more than $1,728 for the cause, including $1,100 from First UMC Maumelle and $250 given by clergy spouses in honor of Karen Crutchfield.

Artist and United Methodist layperson Winston Taylor donated his time and resources to create "Woman at the Well," a four-foot bas-relief clay sculpture, during the 2011 Annual Conference session. As Taylor sculpted, attendees bid on the sculpture in a silent auction, the proceeds of which benefitted the Congo Well Initiative. The winning bid of $3,000 came from Nadine and Bob Miller, who purchased the sculpture for First UMC Fort Smith.

The Rev. Aline McCracken, right, prays with Nancy and the Rev. Daryl Hines as Bishop Crutchfield closes his episcopal address with a time of directed prayer.

Madison Schallhorn, incoming president of the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries, speaks during discussion of the Imagine Ministry proposals. Schallhorn and Natalie Clark, at left, stated that youth of the Conference want to be involved in Imagine Ministry's implementation.

Sandra Mitchell, left, of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, and Lynn McClure of the Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women, give a monitoring announcement on the levels of racial/ethnic and gender inclusiveness in Annual Conference proceedings.

Laity Dinner

Rachel Barnett of the General Board of Global Ministries speaks about ministries supported by individual and congregational gifts made through The Advance. Barnett also recognized Ann Ashcraft, the Arkansas Conference secretary of Global Ministries, for her work on behalf of mission efforts.

Karen Crutchfield, center, visits with husbands of clergywomen during the Monday morning gathering of clergy spouses.

B. Boards, Councils & Commissions

TABLE OF CONTENTS IS FOUND ON PAGES 4 AND 5.

Members of the Arkansas Annual Conference:

After much discussion, and following advice from Bishop Charles Crutchfield, the Committee decided to ask every person currently serving on a committee, commission or board to hold that position for one more year due to the impending vote of the Conference on the Imagine Ministry proposal and how it would impact the number of committees and the make-up of those committees. Communication was sent to all of the various heads of committees about this and requested information of anyone who might be unwilling or unable to continue another year. This will also put the Arkansas Conference back in synch with the quadrennial year, as we have been off by one year since our merger into one conference. Therefore, this report reflects only those changes made due to someone asking to be replaced.

The Arkansas Conference Committee on Nominations presents to the Annual Conference the Nominations Report for 2011. With prayer and diligence, the Committee has worked to insure that this report will be as complete and accurate as possible. On behalf of myself and the Committee, we would like to express appreciation to all those who have accepted and are willing to serve in whatever capacity indicated. We would like to thank Reverend Phil Hathcock, Director of Conference Ministries, and Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield for all their help and advice. Corrections to contact information may be sent to the Secretary of the Committee, LaDonna Busby, 717 Sidney Street, Batesville 72501 or e-mailed to her at northdistrictds@yahoo.com

Respectfully submitted,
Jerry Eubanks, Chairperson

"Your lives be blessed by reading the stories of the people and preachers who founded Methodism in Arkansas. You will be proud of their efforts toward education, health care, ministry, and missions - foreign & local. Read how Arkansas Methodist people tackled the issues of their day. These stories will warm your heart."

We are what we are because of who they were.

Watch for the opening of the NEW AR UMC MUSEUM this fall

for newly ordained Deacons, Elders and Associate Members, Place: Ballroom D, Hot Springs Convention Center
Reception coordinated..... Libby Gray

This reception is sponsored by Hendrix College. Through the Office of the Chaplain and the Hendrix Miller Center, the College takes great pride in helping a multitude of students discern their vocation, especially those who feel called into ministry. The College is pleased to help the conference meet their goal of having more young people enter the ordained ministry. A number of Hendrix students attend seminary directly following their graduation from the college to prepare for ministry in the United Methodist church.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 6, 2011, GENERAL SESSION

LAY ORIENTATION SESSION: The Lay Orientation, led by Asa Whitaker, Conference Lay Leader was held in Summit Arena, Hot Springs Convention Center, beginning at 8:30 am, Monday, June 6, 2011.

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION: An executive session of the clergy was held in Ballroom D in the Hot Springs Convention Center, beginning at 8:30 am, Monday, June 6, 2011. The report of the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Arkansas Conference, dated June 6, 2011, was approved as corrected. (See Business of the Annual Conference report in section D of this Journal.)

CALL TO ORDER: The morning session was called to order by Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield at 10:15 a.m.

OPENING HYMN AND PRAYER: Sean Pollock led the singing of "How Great Thou Art/How Great Is Our God". Blake Langston offered the opening prayer in song.

CONSENT CALENDAR ITEMS: The consent calendar reports as listed in the Pre-Conference Journal were laid on the table to come before the Conference on Wednesday morning. There were no requests to remove items from the calendar.

ITEMS REQUIRED TO LAY ON THE TABLE OVERNIGHT: Sponsored and unsponsored petitions and resolutions and changes in our structure will lay on the table overnight. Bob Crossman noted the resolution in the Pre-Conference Journal, one resolution which was distributed in the packets and three additional resolutions not in the packets, and the report of Review and Research. A change was made to resolution #5 to correct a printing error.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE: Bob Crossman, Conference Secretary, led the Conference through the Rules of Order.

BAR OF THE CONFERENCE

The Bar of the Conference shall be the main floor of Summit Arena. Members desiring to have voice and vote must be seated within the bar. Color-coded identification ribbons will be given to all voting delegates and shall be worn at all times as an indication of voting privileges.

If the chairs on the main floor of the conference meeting area are full, and additional voting members still desire seating, the chair may designate the seats in the back of the room, opposite the stage, to also be within the bar of the conference.

Visitors, spouses and guests are welcome to sit in the lower bleachers to the left and right of the conference session. If space allows, you will be given the privilege of sitting within the Bar of the Conference on the main floor, but without vote or voice.

AGENDA

The Agenda for the Arkansas Annual Conference meeting June 5-8, 2011, will be the agenda printed in this Pre-Conference Journal, with the provision that it may be adjusted as the need arises.

THE OFFICIAL ROLL

The Official Role will be taken from the registration cards. This information will be used to record names, addresses, and attendance for this session of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

GENERAL PROCESS

Anyone desiring the floor of the Conference shall be within the Bar of the Conference and upon recognition by the Chair, shall move to a microphone stating name, local church or area of responsibility.

All motions, resolutions, reports, or amendments not already submitted shall be submitted in duplicate to the Conference Secretaryís desk before the time of presentation. All motions and resolutions made on the floor of Annual Conference shall be legibly written and signed on forms supplied by the Conference Secretary and shall be in the hands of the Secretary and Presiding Officer before any action or vote can be taken by the Conference.

DEBATE

Debate on each motion or resolution shall be limited to three two-minute speeches for the motion or resolution and three two-minute speeches against the same (excluding persons rising for points of order, amendments, or final summations.)

RESOLUTIONS

Non-sponsored resolutions or petitions, as well as those sponsored by any regular board or standing committee or task force of the Conference, may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal with the approval of the Vision Team.

All resolutions not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be distributed in writing to the delegates and lay on the table for 24 hours before being brought back for debate and decision.

All resolutions that call for a change in the structure or standing rules, must be submitted to a review by the Committee on Review and Research which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have financial implications must be submitted to a review by the Council on Finance and Administration which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have Social Principle implications, must be submitted to a review by the Board of Church and Society which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

The procedure for resolutions is set by our Standing Rules.

From our structure, 8.c., page 469 and 470 of the 2010 Journal"

RESOLUTION FOOTNOTES

All resolutions, sponsored or non-sponsored, shall contain footnotes that clarify the source of any facts, quotes, or generalizations made within the proposed resolution. These footnotes shall include enough information to allow the Conference some level of confidence that the content of the proposed resolution is accurate and reliable. These footnotes shall also include enough information to allow the content of the proposed resolution to be double checked for accuracy. All resolutions not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be accompanied by a rationale.

PRE-CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS

Non-sponsored resolutions or petitions, as well as those sponsored by any regular board or standing committee or task force of the Conference, may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal with the approval of the Vision Team.

FLOOR RESOLUTIONS

Any resolution or petition not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be signed by at least two members of the Annual conference, and distributed in writing to the delegates and lay on the table for twenty-four hours before being debated and acted upon. Such items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

CONCURRENCE / NON-CONCURRENCE

All resolutions that call for a change in the structure or standing rules, must be submitted to a review by the Committee on Review and Research which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have financial implications must be submitted to a review by the Council on Finance and Administration which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have Social Principle implications, must be submitted to a review by the Board of Church and Society which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

CONSENT CALENDAR

Reports and other items for which no changes are anticipated are placed in the Consent Calendar section of this Pre-Conference Journal. An item so placed may be removed from the Consent Calendar by a petition which has been signed by five voting members of this Conference, and given to the Conference Secretary before 8:00 am on the first day of Annual Conference business. It may be removed only for the purpose of amending or altering the report. The item or report that has been removed from the Consent Calendar will then be worked into the agenda on the last day of the Conference.

HANDOUTS

All items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

JOURNAL

All reports, budgets, addresses and data for the publication in the Conference Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary not later than the close of the Annual Conference session. All material to be published in the Journal, which does not meet this deadline, shall be excluded unless specific permission for delay is granted by the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to edit all reports for printing in the Journal. Addresses delivered to the Conference, except for the Episcopal Address and the Conference Lay Leaderís Address, shall not be printed in the Journal unless clear instruction to do so is given by the Annual Conference to the Conference Secretary.

ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER

The Annual Conference sessions shall be governed by the Standing Rules (printed in the Pre-Conference Journal); otherwise, Roberts Rules of Order, all of which shall comply with the 2008 Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

TO MAKE A MOTION, TO OBTAIN THE FLOOR

- Send a written copy of your motion to the Conference Secretary through a Floor Teller. A form is provided at the secretary tables.
- Raise your hand. (Holding your Pre-Conference Journal high will help your hand to be seen.)
- When recognized by the Bishop, go the nearest microphone.
- Tell us your name, church, and position for the record.
- Make your motion and wait for the Bishop to recognize that your motion has been seconded.
- Briefly, explain the rationale for your motion.
- Follow the Bishopís directions during any discussion or debate.
- Make sure the Secretary receives a copy of any changes or amendments to your motion.
- At the end of the day you are welcome to proof read the notes of the Minutes Editor to confirm that your motion is accurately recorded

RULES FOR CASTING GENERAL OR JURISDICTIONAL BALLOTS

This Conference will elect six clergy and six laity to be General Conference Delegates; and an additional six clergy and six laity to be Jurisdictional Conference Delegates; and, an additional three clergy and three laity to serve as reserve Jurisdictional Delegates. The Jurisdictional Delegates will serve as reserves to General Conference.

Voting Rights:

Ballots for Lay Delegates may only be cast by the lay members.

Ballots for Clergy Delegates may only be cast by clergy who meet the criteria outlined in ¶35 of the Book of Discipline. In your registration packet you will find a document entitled, "Who is eligible to VOTE to elect CLERGY delegates to General or Jurisdictional Conference?" That document lists by name, the names of the 600 clergy who have voting rights. This document is also posted on the conference web site.

1. Each clergy eligible for election has been preassigned a number. This number will facilitate the use of computers to electronically read the ballots. In your registration packet you will find a document entitled, "Who is eligible for ELECTION as a CLERGY delegate to General or Jurisdictional Conference?" This document is also posted on the conference web site.

   Each lay member who has submitted a profile, and indicated an interest in being elected as a delegate, has been preassigned a number. This number will facilitate the use of computers to electronically read the ballots. In your registration packet you will find a document entitled, "Who has submitted a profile, indicating their desire to serve as a delegate to General or Jurisdictional Conference." This document is also posted on the conference web site.
2. Each eligible voting member of the Conference will be given a bundle of ballots at registration. All voting members should keep ballots with them during all business sessions. To vote, you must be in the room, and within the Bar of the Conference. Should a Lay Member leave the floor at any time, his/her name tag (the ribbon is color coded and used by the tellers to indicate that he/she is entitled to vote) and his/her blank ballots should be given to the Alternate Member from his/her charge. If ballots are lost, replacements may be secured at the hospitality/late registration table in the lobby.

3. The Chair will specify, as each ballot is announced, how many are to be elected on the particular ballot. For example on Ballot #1, the instructions to the lay members will be: "Ballot #1 for lay delegates to General Conference is open. Vote for exactly (6) persons. Laity vote for laity only." As persons are elected, the numbers will change accordingly and will be announced by the chair.
4. To be elected, a clergy or lay person must receive at least one more than half (approximately 51%) of the effective ballots cast. When the tellers have electronically counted both the lay and clergy ballots, the report of these ballots shall become the Order of the Day. The report of that ballot will be displayed on an overhead screen during the process of the next ballot. (For example, the results of the first ballot will be on the screen while the second ballot is being conducted, etc.) Effective with the report of the third ballot, only those receiving ten or more votes shall be reported to the Conference. Following the report of each ballot, the Chair shall lead the Conference in prayer. Casting of the next ballot shall immediately be the Order of the Day.

5. To prepare a proper ballot:

- Check which election - General or Jurisdiction in the space provided.
- Enter ballot number in the space provided.
- Mark through the nomineeís number on the ballot with #2 pencil.
- If your lay candidate has not been assigned a number you may enter a "write-in" vote on the ballot card.
- Be sure to mark the box if you are making a "write-in" vote.

The ballot will be declared VOID if:

- The ballot is attempted on a slip other than an official ballot slip.
- The ballot mixes lay and clergy names.
  Lay may vote for lay only; clergy may vote for clergy only.
- The ballot slip does not have the exact number of names.
  For example, if the Chair says "vote for three" and the ballot slip in question had either two names or four names, that ballot is void.
- Concerning laity "write-in" votes - if the writing and spelling is such that two tellers cannot agree as to the name intended.
  On write-in ballots, please print the first and last names so there is no question who you are intending to vote for.
- The ballot is folded.
- Voting for a person already elected.
- Marking a number that has not been assigned to anyone.
- Listing a "write-in" name for someone who has been assigned a number.
- Using a writing instrument other than a #2 lead pencil, dark blue or black.
- Marking next to a number rather than through it.
- Marking with an "x" instead of entirely marking through the number

CONGO WATER WELLS CHECK PRESENTATION: The Arkansas Conference has made a commitment to provide 10 water wells in the Congo to provide safe, clean drinking water. United Methodist Women units in Sugar Hill UMC, Texarkana, Ashdown/Richmond, and Fairview, Texarkana, worked together to raise funds for wells. In a short time they raised $8,000 by holding fund-raising events including lunches, a Ladies Day Out, and an annual Country Store event. The group presented the funds to the Bishop, who expressed his appreciation. In addition, the Ashdown/Richmond UMW presented a check for $210 for Imagine No Malaria.

WINGS OF THE MORNING: Phil Hathcock reported on follow-up to the motion made in 2010 to support this program of air transport for the people of the Congo to medical help and other emergency needs. The goal is to replace the plane used with a larger, more fuel efficient plane. David Moseley, First UMC, West Memphis, presented $1,500 raised through the church's yearly 30 Pieces of Silver Lenten offering. Martha Taylor announced a gift of $10,000 from the Conference in honor of those churches and groups who participated in the Sharing Together in Christ's Name program offered by the Conference. These two gifts are a beginning for fulfilling the promise made in 2010.

MONITORING ANNOUNCEMENT: Sandra Mitchell of the Commission on Religion and Race, and Lynn McClure, chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, announced that they will be monitoring the business sessions and worship services of the annual conference for inclusiveness and participation by gender, ethnicity, clergy, and lay status.

IMAGINE MINISTRY: Gil Rendle addressed the Conference on the Imagine Ministry proposal, saying that it is time to talk to the church In a new way, not the way "we have always done it".
Susan Ledbetter from the Imagine Ministry Team addressed the Conference on the resolutions to be considered. She described Motion 1, to adopt the Mission and Vision statements and the Core Measurements. Mackey Yokem described Motion 2, to move to five districts by the 2012 Annual Conference. Motion 3, which would simplify the organizational structure following the Book of Discipline, the Vision and Mission statements and the four Core Measures, was described by Kathy Conley. Don Riggin described Motion 4, to establish a team, as appointed by the Bishop for the transition for the new organization and a budget not to exceed that for 2011. These four motions are tied to each other. The floor was opened for conversation on the proposals. Dr. Charles Donaldson offered prayer before the conversations began.

David R. Hawkins, Grace UMC, Conway read the following statement to the Conference:
"[The] phases of a plan do not comprise rigid instructions, they are merely guideposts. A sound battle plan does not comprise rigid instructions, they are merely guideposts. A sound battle plan provides flexibility in both space and time to meet the constantly changing factors of the battle problem in such a way as to achieve the final goal of the commander. Rigidity inevitably defeats itself, and the analysts who point to a changed detail as evidence of a plan's weakness are completely unaware of the characteristics of the battlefield." (Eisenhower, Dwight D. Crusade in Europe. Garden City, NY: Doubleday and Co., Inc., 1948, p. 256)

Following a closing statement, Yokem moved passage of all four motions. The motions will lay on the table overnight.

Harris Moore 27; Nicki Spencer 22; Charles Long 21; Brenda Norwood 18; Jimmie Boyd 15.

Clergy Ballot: 278 ballots were cast; 259 ballots were valid; 130 needed for election. There were three elections: Ronnie Miller-Yow with 166 votes, Mackey Yokem with 139 votes, Susan Ledbetter with 132 votes. Those receiving 10 or more votes were: C. E. McAdoo 104; John Miles II 90; Michael Roberts 66; Tony Holifield 48; David Bush 35; Roy Smith 33; Pam Estes 30; Maxine Allen 22; Wesley Hilliard 21; Aubrietta Jones 20; Kurt Boggan 19; Andrew Thompson 19; Carness

Vaughn 18; Bryan Diffee 14.

Ballot #8: General Ballot #8 for clergy and lay was taken. Each Clergy and Lay were to vote for 1 candidate only. Ramiro Lizcano offered prayer in Spanish prior to the casting of the ballot.

GROUP INSURANCE: Dennis Spence brought the report (see REPORTS). He said that any rate increase for the coming year will be determined later this year and will depend upon several factors including payouts and participation rates as well as overall health care increases. Spence proposed that the Bishop appoint a Task Force to study retiree health insurance coverage in other conferences and bring a report to the Annual Conference session in 2012. Spence moved adoption of the report.

MOTION: Donna Alberts, (Clergy, NE District, Corning) presented the following motion:
"I move that an additional monthly premium be developed for couples without children equal to two times the single rate. At the current rate this would be $1,300, instead of $ 1,458."
Rationale: "Currently couples without children are required to pay the family rate, while a single participant with children pays a reduced rate. I was prepared to propose this change last year, but after conversation with the chairman of the insurance committee, I was assured they would look into this possibility. However, instead they did nothing about this inequity of premiums and raised the premiums on everyone by an average of over 12%. This in itself was an injustice when we consider that fact that the total plan cost for 2010 went down by 19%. It is time we stand together on this issue. If we can no longer afford to be self-insured, we need to look at being insured through the Board of Pension and Health Benefits as many other conferences are. I understand they do have a different rate for couples without children."
After three speeches for and three against were heard, the question was called.
THE ALBERTS MOTION FAILED.

THE MAIN MOTION PASSED.

PENSIONS: Todd Burris brought the report (see REPORTS). Burris gave an overview of the Pension payments by the Conference. The report contains a motion to increase the pension payments for past service record from $566 per service year to $ 577. Speeches for and against the motion and questions and comments were heard. Burris moved adoption of the report. The report was approved.

COKESBURY: Yvonne Armstrong brought greetings from the UM Publishing House. She lifted up several books available at the bookstore and Bishop Crutchfield shared his selections for this Annual Conference.

BALLOT REPORT: The results of General Ballot # 8 were reported.

Lay Ballot: 413 Ballots were cast; 400 ballots were valid; 201 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. Those receiving 10 or more votes were: Karen Millar 148; Deborah Bell 121; Todd Burris 29; Jay Clark 24; Brian Swain 26; Brandon Bates 10.

Clergy Ballot: 276 Ballot were cast; 262 ballots were valid; 132 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. Those receiving 10 or more votes were: John Miles II 66; C. E. McAdoo 63; Michael Roberts 43; Roy Smith 15; David Bush 12; Maxine Allen 10.

Ballot # 9: General Ballot #9 for Clergy and Lay was taken. Clergy and Lay were to vote for one candidate only. Edna Morgan gave the prayer before the votes were cast.

CELEBRATING COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES:

METHODIST FAMILY HEALTH: Clefton Vaughn gave the report from the 102 year old institution.

OZARK MISSION PROJECT: Mark Lassiter gave the report on the 25th anniversary of OMP. An invitation was extended to attend the 25th anniversary celebration in October. The Bishop was presented with an OMP T-shirt.

BREAK: A standing stretch break was declared.

IMAGINE MINISTRY: The four motions introduce yesterday were before the conference.

MOTION: Mark Massey, moved that we vote on all 4 motions at one time. The Massey motion was disallowed by the Bishop.

IMAGINE MINISTRY MOTION #1: The Arkansas Annual Conference adopts the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measurements as presented by the Imagine Ministry Team.

MOTION: David Moore, moved that the vote be taken by secret ballot. Motion was seconded. Would require 2/3 majority of the house. The motion FAILED.

MOTION: Pam Estes moved to suspend the rules to allow us to accept the four motions as a single item. Seconded. This is a non- debatable motion. A 2/3 majority was required for passage. A standing count was taken by the tellers. The results of the standing vote count were 666 votes cast, 444 required to pass by a 2/3 majority; 408 for; 258 against. The motion FAILED.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY: Why was the first motion disallowed and the second allowed? Bishop's answer was that the second was to suspend the rules and the first was not

POINT OF CLARIFICATION: John Miles II asked if the Imagine Ministry motions before us are related to the proposed apportionment formula? Answer: There is no connection. The proposed apportionment formula comes from CF&A, not from the Imagine Ministry Team.

The question was called on Imagine Ministry Motion #1.

The main motion was before the house. The motion PASSED.

IMAGINE MINISTRY MOTION #2: The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference session of 2012, is redistricted into five districts, being served by five District Superintendents (Pursuant to the instruction of ¶ 415.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline)

RESOLUTION: David Hanshaw (Clergy, Clarksville UMC) offered a Resolution:

> "Whereas the church needs to be as "green" as possible, and whereas we need to be responsible stewards of our resources of time, energy and finances, and Whereas all churches need and deserve "face time" with District Superintendents and Conference Staff, Be it resolved that we will diligently seek to set up a conference wide video conferencing system. Be it further resolved that finances will be made available to smaller churches that may not be able to "buy into" such a system.

This was accepted as friendly amendment by the Imagine Ministry Team.
Speeches for and against motion #2 were given and questions of clarification asked.

MOTION: It was moved and seconded to suspend the rules to allow further debate beyond the 3 speeches for and 3 speeches against. This motion to suspend the rules requires 2/3 majority. The motion to suspend the rules failed.

The Question was called.
Imagine Ministry Motion #2 PASSED.

Imagine Ministry Motion #3: The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference Session of 2012, will simplify its organizational structure following the mandates of the Book of Discipline and the missional direction of the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measures.
The motion was Seconded.
The question was called.
The Imagine Ministry Motion #3 PASSED.

Imagine Ministry Motion #4: A team will be appointed by the Arkansas Conference Bishop to arrange for the orderly transition to the new conference and district organization, which will provide a budget proposal for conference staffing. This budget will take effect January 1, 2012, and will not exceed the amount budgeted for conference staffing for 2011.
The motion was seconded.
The question was called.
Imagine Ministry Motion #4 PASSED.

CALLED SESSION: The Bishop announced that a special called session of the Annual Conference will be held October 29, 2012, at the Hot Springs Convention Center.

Zion Cemetery Association conditioned on the Association being incorporated or being a legal entity capable of owning real property in Arkansas; the Grantee removing or causing to be removed all UM symbols and marks; and the Grantee paying all costs associated with the conveyance.

#2 The Board voted to recommend conveyance of the real property previously used as the Cato UMC in the Central District to the Cato Cemetery Association, an incorporated entity, conditioned on the Grantee removing or causing to be removed all UM symbols and marks and the Grantee paying all costs associated with the conveyance.

#3 The Board voted to recommend conveyance of the real property previously used as the Evansville UMC to the Evansville Community Church conditioned on the ECC being incorporated or being a legal entity capable of owning real property in Arkansas; the Grantee removing or causing to be removed all UM symbols and marks; and the Grantee paying all costs associated with the conveyance.

#4 The Board voted to approve a rental lease between Little Rock's First UMC and the Museum of the Arkansas Conference Historical Society.

The report of the Conference Trustees PASSED.

REPORT OF THE HUNGER TASK FORCE: Steve Copley gave the report (see REPORTS).

RECOGNITION OF LOCAL PASTORS: Bishop Crutchfield stated that the Arkansas Conference has more Local Pastors than any other Conference. He asked those Local Pastors in attendance to stand. They received applause from the Conference.

RECOGNITION OF LAY SPEAKERS: The Bishop asked the Lay Speakers to stand. They were recognized with applause. Sam Teague, director of the Course of Study School at Hendrix College, reported that there are 85 students currently enrolled in the course. It takes 10 years to complete the full course.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Clefton Vaughan perfected the report (see REPORTS). Vaughan gave the report from the study of apportionments as requested by the 2010 Annual Conference. He moved the acceptance of the changes in the apportionment formula.

MOTION: Cheryl Baker (Clergy, Leslie, Marshall) moved to restore the current formula for 2011 with CFA bringing a simplified formula to the 2012 session.
The motion was seconded and speeches were heard for and against the amendment.
The Question was called. Vaughn gave final remarks on the proposal
The Baker Motion PASSED

Clefton Vaughan reported that CFA is recommending that the list of approved solicitations be continued as printed in the 2010 Journal.

Clefton Vaughn asked that the total of the budget be approved and that the details be presented at the Special session in October. The total will not change, only the individual lines.

The entire CFA report was moved for acceptance.

MOTION: Bennie Harmon moved to amend that the salaries for District Superintendents be set at 120% of the conference average for elders under full appointment. The motion was Seconded.

MOTION TO REFER: Charles Murry moved to refer the subject of the Harmon motion to the Special session in October.
The Murry motion PASSED.

The full CFA report as amended PASSED.

BALLOT REPORT: The results of Jurisdictional Ballot # 13 were reported.

Harris Moore 38; Nicki Spencer 36; Madison Schallhorn 32; Jimmie Boyd 28; Charles Long 23; Harold Hughes 22; Doni Martin 18; Kim Witte 17; Andrew Fleming 11.

Clergy Ballot: 253 ballots were cast; 223 ballots were valid; 112 votes were needed for election, There were two elections, C.E. McAdoo 147, Michael Roberts 134. Those receiving 10 or more votes were Roy Smith 89; Aubrietta Jones 89; Kurt Boggan 81; David Bush 76; Wesley Hilliard 74; Tony Holifield 70; Andrew Thompson 68; Pam Estes 67; Maxine Allen 65; Carness Vaughn 48; Stephen Coburn 31; Bryan Difee 30; Pat Bodenhamer 21; Carl PAlmer 20; John Mark McDonald 20; Cheryl Baker 12.

MOTION: Steve Wingo moved to suspend the rules to allow the top 7 persons on the next Clergy ballot be accepted as the Jurisdictional delegates and alternates, in the order of the number of votes received.
A suspension of the rules requires 2/3 majority to pass.
A question arose on the Disciplinary implications of this rule suspension.

While research was being done on the Discipline, the Bishop put a bowl of candy from his table up for auction, the proceeds to go to Congo Water Wells. The winning bid was $500. Other items were then offered for auction and donations were made.

With no reference yet found in the Discipline, the Bishop asked that the next ballot be taken as usual and the motion be revisited following the results of that ballot.

Ballot #14: Jurisdictional Ballot #14 for Clergy and Lay was taken. Clergy were to vote for four candidates and Lay for two. Jim Moseley offered prayer before the ballot was taken.

SPECIAL SESSION: Bishop Crutchfield announced that the Called Session of the Conference, following the passage of Imagine Ministries, will be October 29, 2011, at Hot Springs Convention Center. This will be a one day meeting.

ADOPTION OF CONSENT CALENDAR ITEMS: As no items had been removed from the calendar, Conference Secretary, Bob Crossman moved acceptance of the Consent Calendar; seconded. The Calendar was ACCEPTED.

COVERING MOTION: Bob Crossman: "I move that we receive all the reports that have been properly before this session of the Annual Conference. I further move that the Extended Cabinet and 36 officers of the conference be empowered to perfect and edit the reports and minutes of this conference session."
In the interest of saving paper, the proof copies of the Journal will not be printed this year. Instead the Journal will be available on-line for those so empowered to read and correct before the final version is printed in limited edition and made available on CD and the web-site.
The motion was seconded. The Motion PASSED.

WHERE SHALL THE 2011 ANNUAL CONFERENCE BE HELD?

The 2011 called session will be at Hot Springs, Saturday, Oct. 29, 2011.
The 2012 session will be at Fort Smith, Sunday to Wednesday, June 10-13, 2012
The 2013 session will be at Little Rock, Sunday to Wednesday, June 9-12, 2013
The 2014 session will be at Rogers, Friday to Sunday afternoon June 20 - 22, 2014
The 2015 session will be at Hot Springs, Friday to Sunday afternoon, June 12-14, 2015
The Conference Session Planning Committee is looking for additional convention center sites across Arkansas to host our future annual conference sessions.
{The Conference Session Planning Committee sets the location; the Bishop sets the date.}

CHANGE TO FRIDAY-SUNDAY SCHEDULE: The Conference Secretary gave the rationale of the Conference Session Planning Committee for the move to Friday - Sunday Conference sessions beginning in 2014: to hopefully increase the attendance of laity and part-time local pastors who would typically only have to take one day off of work instead of three; and hopefully this would allow younger lay members to be elected by local churches.
There were no objections from the floor.

WHEN SHALL MOVING DAY BE?
Bishop Crutchfield announced that moving day shall be Tuesday, June 21, 2011. (Date set by the cabinet.) Clergy who are to move following appointment changes at the Annual Conference shall receive the June compensation from the charge they are leaving; thus the conference appointive year and pay period shall be July 1 through June 30.

FIRST SUNDAY TO PREACH:
The first Sunday to preach in a new appointment is June 26, 2011.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Crossman made various announcements. Raymond Dorman will be 100 and is preparing to preach the Sunday after. Charles White, St. James UMC in Fayetteville was not able to attend this session of the Annual Conference because of a bad back.

BALLOT REPORT: The results of Jurisdictional Ballot # 14 were reported.

MOTION: Jim Argue moved to suspend the rules to elect the persons with the next three highest vote totals from Lay ballot #14 as the Jurisdictional alternates. The motion was seconded.
The motion was divided into two parts, the first of which was to suspend the rules.
The motion would require 2/3 majority to pass.
The motion to suspend PASSED.

MOTION: Todd Burris moved that one more ballot be taken and the persons receiving the top three vote totals be the delegates with this total reported after the end of the Conference Session.
Asa Whitaker offered an amendment to report the results before the session ended.
This was accepted by Burris as a friendly amendment.
The Burris motion FAILED.

MOTION: Jim Argue then moved to accept the persons with the top three vote totals as the alternate delegates. The motion PASSED.
This completed the Lay elections.

Rebekah Miles reported that she had consulted Dean Lawrence at Perkins, member of the Judicial Council, who said that there was no rule in the Discipline against naming the top vote totals in order as the remaining delegates and alternates as moved by Wingo.

MOTION: Pam Estes moved that the next Clergy ballot be for 6 persons, with the top three vote totals being the remaining delegates and the next three the alternates.

The Bishop asked the body if one more ballot would be taken in the normal way before considering the Estes motion. By general consensus the body agreed with the Bishop.

Ballot #15: Ballot #15 for Clergy Jurisdictional Delegates was taken, voting for 3 delegates. Beth Waldrup offered prayer before the ballot.

BREAK: The Bishop dismissed the conference for a 5 minute break to allow persons to sit with their pastor for the Celebration of Appointment.

A CELEBRATION OF AN APPOINTMENT AND BEING IN MINISTRY TOGETHER: The Bishop read the Appointment changes for the 2011-12 Conference year. The reading was followed by the traditional singing of "A Charge to Keep I Have."

BALLOT REPORT: The results of Jurisdictional ballot # 15 were reported.

35 SAINTS REMEMBERED

Sunday evening Annual Conference honored the saints who have recently gone on to be with the Lord. The clergy and spouses joined the Church triumphant in the past year.

As each name was read, a candle was lit, a chime was sounded, and friends and family were encouraged to stand.

Deep spiritual change needed

Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield's episcopal address focused on the need for the Conference to be willing to take risks instead of staying comfortable and doing what we have been doing. We have been undergoing the Imagine Ministry process for two years and the IM team is bringin to the Conference proposals to change our structure and to change spritually to meet the challenges we face as a Church today and the challenges will will face in the coming generations.

Both clergy and lay members must be equipped and held responsible for acheiving the mission of the Church, that of making disciples for Jesus Christ.

The changes that are needed are not superficial but deep. Deep change is never easy, but is required. The change is not primarily structural, but rather, profound spiritual transformation is required.

We must now prayerfully seek divine guidance.

We will be acting to decide the future of The United Methodist Chruch in Arkansas and even globally.

When a British team attempted to climb to the summit of Mt. Everest 93 years ago, they were closely watched by expedition members far down the mountain until they were 800 feet from the summit when clouds obscured they view. The team was not seen again, but "When last seen, they were still climbing." We do not know if we will succeed in reaching our goal, but we want people in the future to be able to look back on the 2011 Annual Conference and say, "When last seen, they were still climbing."

The bishop then led the Conference in several minutes of directed prayer.

Thirty-one ministers granted retirement

Late Monday morning, a Service of Worship Recognizing the 2011 Clergy Retirees was held.

Four clergy persons retired between Annual Conference sessions and 27 were granted retired status at Monday's Clergy Session. They have a combined 712 years of service. Five, all Part-time Local Pastors, faced mandatory retirement. Clergy must be retired by the 72nd birthday. Several will continue under appointment while retired.

Fifteen of the retirees are Elders (FE), three are Associate Member (AM) Deacons, two are Full-Member Deacons (FD), four are Full-time Local Pastors (FTLP), and seven are Part-time Local Pastors.

Eash retiree received a certificate of retirement from the bishop's office, a plaque of recognition and appreciation from the Board of Ordained Ministry, a United Methodist Clergy pin, and a chance to speak to the Conference for three short minutes. A few were able to stay within the time limit.

General Conference ballots

There will be six clergy and six lay delegates elected to General Conference, six clergy and six lay Jurisdictional Conference delegates, and four clergy and four lay delegates as reserve delegates.

Four ballots were taken and two clergy and two lay delegates to General Conference delegates were elected on Monday. The fourth ballot was taken at the end of the business day. More ballots than normal were ruled invalid for various reasons. The ballot number of a person's election is noted.

Imagine Ministry Team report

We are operating under an unsustainable economic model and we have lost our cultural relevance--we no longer know how to talk to people who are not members of the church.

For 40 years, every measure of money in The UMC is up--giving, spending, and debt. For 40 years, every measure of people is down--baptisms, professions of faith, attendance, membership, youth, and children. We require more and more money from fewer and fewer people. We cannot keep doing things the way we have been doing them.

How will we do church today and how will we make the church ready for tomorrow? What are you willing to do/give up for your grandchildren? Are you willing to learn different music?

This is not just a structural change. Part of the Imagine Ministry proposal includes orgainizational restructuring, but it allows us to makes changes for spiritual leadership. We will make more structural changes in the future. We talk to the world in which our grandparents lived. Can we talk to the world in which our grandchildren live? These are the best next steps while we continue to learn.

The IM Team presented the four motions that will be voted on Tuesday. The motions are found on pages 17-18 of the 2011 IM Report to the Arkansas Annual Conference.

The motions propose to adopt new vision and ministry statements, reduce districts from nine to five, simplify the district and conference structure around mission and the statements of Motion 1, and for the bishop to appoint a team to transition and propose a new budget what will not increase the staffing expense from 2011.

The proposals are a result of conversations around the conference and last year's responses by congregations. Laity and clergy will be trained, empowered, and held accountable for making disciples for Jesus Christ. The DS will become a primarily a missional strategist. Much of current job of the DS will be handled by others, particlarly several non-salaried Traveling Elders and Congregational Coaches per district. There will be centers for technology and clergy and laity development. More resources will be available for the mission of the local church.

Explanations of the proposal may be found in the IM Report.

Each motion requires the previous motion to pass to be able to be implemented.

Eleven coming into Full Membership

The Clergy Session elected eleven into full connection Monday. They will be ordained Tuesday--two as Deacons and nine as Elders. Additionally, two will be received into Associate Membership and six commissioned into Provisional Membership.

NEWS BRIEFS

Dr. Ralph Shull, lay member of Pulaski Heights UMC, was presented the Defender of the Faith Award by the Confessing Movement of Arkansas at its annual breakfast. The Rev. Dr. Chris Bounds, Professor of Theology at Indiana Wesleyan University and a member of the Arkansas Annual Conference, was the speaker.

Five resolutions will be voted on Tuesday afternoon. One was printed in the Pre-Conference Journal. Number 2 was in the packet received at Conference and the others were passed out Monday morning.

Resolution #1, A Resolution to Serve the Poorest Communities of the Arkansas Annual Conference, was tabled last year. It requested that full-time clergy appointed to the poorest communities in Arkansas receive special conpensation from the Conference.

Resolution #2, General Conference to Meet in Places that Oppose Capital Punishment, requests (1) that if the General Conference must meet in a location that does not have a position calling for the end of capital punishment, a statement be made for the reasons of the selection; (2) notify sites selected for General Conference that do not oppose capital punishment that The UMC has a policy not to meet in such locations; and (3) General Conference call on official and unofficial UMC bodies to meet in places that oppose capital punishment if those locations are available.

Resolution #3, Care and Protection of God's Creation Near Gas Extraction Sites, wants Congress to repeal the law exempting fracking from the Clean Water Act.

Resolution #4, Remove Conflicting Language on Sexuality, in Paragraph 161F of the Social Principles, requests removal of the word "heterosexual" before the word "marriage;" and removal of the sentence, "The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching."

Resolution #5, End Ineligibility for Service for Homosexual Clergy, wants to delete language in the Disciple that 'self-avowed practicing homosexuals" are not to serve as UM clergy.

The state has experienced massive flooding in addition to multiple tornadoes and other storms. As always, United Methodists have been at the center of the relief effort. Disaster Relief Coordinators and other disaster-relief workers were recognized.

Checks were presented to purchase a ministry airplane in North Katanga Conference in the Congo. The old plane is too small and relies on expensive and frequently unavailable aviation fuel. The newer plane is larger and runs on less expensive and readily available jet fuel.

Imagine Ministry passes

After some significant discussion early, all four motions presented by the Imagine Ministry Team passed easily and without amendment.

Motion #1: The Arkansas Annual Conference adopts the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measurements as presented by the Imagine Ministry Team.

Vision: Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate holy living, justice, and love of neighbor.

Mission: To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

Core Measures: (1) Rooting all we do in our understanding of Scripture, and personal and social holiness (the foundational principles of United Methodism), so that we revitalize our connection and our ministry instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.

(2) Establishing the mission field as the primary place for our attention and resources in stead of directing most of our attention and resources to the institutional needs of congregations and clergy.

(3) Equipping laity and clergy for shared outcomes of transformation with excellence instead of directing resources toward congregational preservation and satisfaction of current members.

(4) Organizing our ministry around the unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic contexts in the identified mission fields instead of treating every church, district, and conference structure the same.

Motion #2: The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference session of 2012, is redistricted into five districts, being served by five District Superintendents.

Motion #3: The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference session of 2012, will simplify its organizational structure following the mandates of The Book of Discipline and the missional direction of the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measures.

Motion #4: A team will be appointed by the Arkansas Conference Bishop to arrange for the orderly transition to the new conference and district organization, which will provide a budget proposal for conference staffing. This budget will take effect January 1, 2012, and will not exceed the amount budgeted for conference staffing for 2011.

A motion to vote on the four motions and any amendments by secret ballot failed. A motion to suspend the rules and consider all four motions together (so that there could be further motions to deny amendments and have a secret ballot) failed.

There was discussion on the first two motions, especially on the second, but none on the third and fourth.

NEWS BRIEFS

Clarksville FUMC presented $8,000 for Strength for Service devotionals for military personnel. There is no longer much need for phone cards.

The Conference is committed to supporting Imagine No Malaria with $10,000.

Board of Pensions reports a slight increase to retirees. The conference budget will increase $250,000 for pensions and $250,000 for retirees' insurance. There were many comments about the cost of insurance, pensions, and the failure of many churches to pay their pension apportionment line.

Ordained Ministry

The AAC has more Local Pastors than any other US conference. Because we have so many, we are increasing the educational requirements for Local Pastors serving our state. Specifics are in the Pre-Conference Journal.

Distance Learning at UM seminaries and at Asbury will be limited to 2/3 of the degree. Up to 1/3 may be taken by distance at other seminaries.

Rev. Bubba Smith will be assigned to Iraq as USAF Area Command Chaplain.

Insurance Committee report

The committee examined premiums businesses and other conferences pay especially relating to retiree insurance. AAC pays a higher percentage of retiree premiums than other conferences examined. The bishop will appoint a task force to bring to the 2012 Conference a new polity for retiree insurance.

A motion to reduce premiums for clergy without children to the same rate as two singles without children failed.

New apportionment formula rejected

A proposed change in the apportionment formula was amended so that another proposed formula will be brought to the 2012 Conference. It is to be a simpler formula.

A resolution from last year, "To Serve the Poorest Communities," referred to BOM and CFA, resulted in a proposed new apportionment formula from CFA. A task force studied our current formula and that of other conferences and recommended a new formula to CFA.

The proposed formula was not to raise apportionments, but to be more equitable to the churches. The new formula would have returned the Conference to a formula used several years ago.

Currently apportionments are based exclusively on operating and program expenses. Clergy pensions and general church and Jurisdictional apportionments are a percentage of those ordinary expenses; the Conference budget was 9.4% of those expenses. Income, assets, new construction, loan payments, direct benevolences, and apportionments paid are part of either apportionment formula. The new formula would have considered worship attendance as well as those ordinary expenses.

Smaller churches would have been affected more than others. Churches without full-time pastors would have seen the largest increases in apportionments.

A motion to set DS salaries at no more than 120% of the average full-time Elder salary was referred to the Called Session.

NEWS BRIEFS

Structure changes proposed by Review & Research were all approved.

All of the graduates of Lydia Patterson Institute for the previous three years have gone to college. A student can attend LPI for $3200 per year. Bishop Crutchfield suggested that we fund several scholarships.

Bishop Crutchfield auctioned off the dish of candy that sat on his table for $500 for Congo Water Wells.

Bob & Nadine Miller's bid of $3000 won the artwork Winston Taylor made during Conference. The proceeds will go to Congo Wells.

Trustees disposed of properties that had housed the now-closed Mt. Zion UMC (SE), Caddo UMC, (C), and Evansville UMC.

Variety of resolutions considered

F. Reports and Budgets

Episcopal Address, June 6, 2011

2011 Arkansas Annual Conference

Bishop Charles N. Crutchfield

It was thought to be impossible to climb. When asked why he was trying to climb Mt. Everest, the great British climber, Sir George Leigh-Mallory said, "Because it's there." This was really his gracious way of saying, "Dummy, if you have to ask you will never understand the answer." Dressed in wool Norfolk jackets, felt hats, hobnailed boots, and with no oxygen – decidedly unsporting, old chap – Mallory and his companion Sandy Irving started toward the summit of Everest on June 8, 1924, almost 93 years ago to the day. Another team member far below, watching their progress through a telescope, saw them climbing upward about 800 yards below the summit. As he watched, the clouds and mists swirled in, a snow squall hit the summit of Everest and visual contact was lost. Later, as it became apparent the two climbers had been lost on the mountain the one who had been watching as they disappeared into the swirling snow pronounced a fitting epitaph: "When last seen, they were still climbing."

The romantic in me wants to believe they made those last 800 yards to the summit of Mt. Everest before being lost on the mountain. I know two things: Leigh-Mallory and Irving did not look at each other on the morning of the climb and say, "You know, I think we'd better not go." I also know that against all odds, against hostile weather, against deficiency of equipment, against lack of oxygen, when last seen they were still climbing.

This "mountaineering moment" reminds me of St. Paul, writing these words of undiminished joy and confidence from a prison cell: Read: Philippians 3:12-16. St. Paul reminds us the Christian life is one of continuing struggle upward, a process that requires "straining forward," toward a "prize" that "lies ahead." St. Paul is quite clear that he has not yet achieved all there is to be attained. It lies before him. Yet he is confident. Sounds a bit like Mr. Wesley speaking of "going on" to perfection. When last seen, the saints of our faith were still climbing. Name them, Mother Teresa in a Calcutta slum, Dietrich Bonhoeffer in a Nazi prison, Moses in the Sinai wilderness, Martin Luther King, Jr. preaching about going to the mountain top, Joshua on the borders of the Promised Land. They all knew those called by God must step beyond the past with all its comfort and the present with all its tangling excuses to embrace the future. In the name of God, they were the apostles of risk. They knew the future was not about them. It was, and always is, about God's call and God's Kingdom.

This annual conference session will be a watershed moment for us. We know that we currently live in an unsustainable environment. We cannot go on like we have been living as a church. Not just structurally or financially, but, even more important, spiritually.

Oh, we will argue about the structural changes proposed by the Imagine Ministry Team. There will be those who think the proposals are too aggressive, others that they are not aggressive enough. There will be the parsing of words and phrases. Certainly, the vision being cast is not always fully formed. It is a work in progress. It is a climbing, a movement toward a future only dimly seen, but I am convinced it is a movement towards God's future.

My calling is to challenge us to grasp firmly the nettles of a risking future. Am I uncomfortable, anxious, a bit fearful, yes.

But what I fear is not the rejection of something I hope for, but the unwillingness to risk our comfort for the future to which God is calling us. So, I find new resolve in the words of St. Paul who reminds us that life in Christ is a progress toward a goal – a process, not an achievement. Beyond my doubts and fears and concern for my self-interest, I am hopeful. I am convinced that the risks and challenges we face can be met and overcome. I am convinced the deep change we must embrace will be unsettling but finally fruitful. First, the soil must be disturbed before the seed can be planted and the sprout take root.

There are challenges. They are large. Our culture is replete with controversy, misrepresentation, manipulation, politics before principle, winners and losers. We've got "teaparty-ers," and "birthers," "Blue dogs," and "Yellow dogs," "Reagan Republicans" and "Kennedy Democrats." We've got blue states, red states, purple states and confused states. In this type of cultural milieu, the church can easily get caught up in the hypnotic spell of partisanship. The election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference is not a political exercise. It is a time of spiritual discernment and holy responsibility. What is God calling us to do?

Our greatest challenge today is spiritual. We know change is coming. Will we, in the midst of the whirlwind, trust God, trust our church, and trust one another? Will we take the journey into an unsettled future armed with prayer and the conviction that the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, of Paul and Peter and Andrew, of Augustine, and Aquinas and Luther and Wesley and Asbury goes with us? Will we find renewed strength and the capacity to continue on the journey armed with the experience of God's unrelenting grace? Will we live out our shared love for and faith in each other and in Jesus? Will we be a movement once again, claiming the power of the Holy Spirit?
I believe the answer is, "Yes!" It is in our DNA as Wesleyan Christians. The wilderness journey is no stranger to us. We know that at the end of the day the words of the prophet echo across the centuries, "The battle is not yours, but God's."

The mission is the focus – making disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world. The mission is not about how comfortable we are, it is about how faithful and fruitful we are. The mission is about rooting all we do in our understanding of Scripture and our grace-filled Wesleyan emphasis on personal and social holiness. It is about local congregations identifying the local and world-wide mission fields which God, not tradition, not the past, not the latest social trend, is calling that congregation and its pastoral leadership to address. The mission is about taking a courageous step beyond the walls of our church to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The mission calls the annual conference and local churches and individuals to be equipped and held accountable for making disciples and transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our shared ministry in the United Methodist Church is about the about the Kingdom of God. None of this is easy. Deep change is never easy. But, the change we face and embrace will be transforming.

The Imagine Ministry proposals are pointing in the direction of a profound spiritual shift in the life of our conference. When we began this process almost two years ago, we began with an apostolate of prayer, a time of seeking God and listening to God. Along the way, a Bible study based on Acts, 2, 6, 10, and 15 was made available as an opportunity of focusing on a biblical way of doing church in a different manner. I trust all of you have had the opportunity to use this wonderful spiritual resource. Earlier this conference year you were invited into a time of fasting and prayer as an act of preparation for this annual conference. I know some of you have taken that invitation seriously. And now as we come to the time of Holy Conferencing, it is time to again prayerfully seek the presence and guidance of God.
This annual conference is selecting delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. We will be addressing the business of the conference and we will be considering the Imagine Ministry proposals. The future direction of the United Methodist Church, the focus of our annual conference, and the commissioning and ordination of the next generation of Church leaders is before us. This is a pivot point in our journey. We are 800 yards from the summit. We all desire to move upward, strain forward, toward the prize of our high calling in Jesus Christ.

My prayer is that when this moment is recalled, it will be said of us "When last seen, they were still climbing." We stand in need of prayer and of the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit. This is a critical time for us spiritually. To this end and in preparation for all the decisions that must be made by our conference in the next three days, I invite you now to enter a season of directed prayer.

I invite you to create a triad of prayer partners, three is a good Trinitarian number, and engage quietly in shared prayer. I will provide the direction. Now find your partners, and let us first be in silence as we prepare to pray. There will be a brief musical interlude, then I will suggest the direction for your prayer. After the direction is suggested, please share softly in prayer with your triad. Let us pray:

DIRECTED PRAYER FOLLOWS:

-- For those who have suffered in the natural disasters, tornados, flooding, tsunamis, and for those who are responders;
-- For the ministry of the church in the midst of disaster;
-- For extravagant generosity in attitude and action;
-- For the leaders of our nation and world to find avenues to peace, freedom and justice for all people;
-- For chaplains in the military, in hospitals and homes and prisons and elsewhere who bring the light of the love of Jesus into places of despair and hopelessness;
-- For the strength to rise above petty attitudes and personal agendas;
-- For wisdom and discernment as we elect delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference;
-- For a hopeful spirit and a contrite heart;
-- For a life of courageous faith and deep commitment that does not fear the journey of discipleship, or the future to which God is calling us.

Our Gracious God, we pray that the Holy Spirit might be evident in all we do or say at our annual conference and in the life of our churches. We pray that our lives may so radiate the warmth and passion of your love for us that we will have the confidence and courage to be agents of transformation in our homes, our churches and our communities. Give to us serenity of heart and mind. Endow us with confidence and hope. Enable us to say "yes" to the guidance and direction of your Holy Spirit.

By the power of that same Spirit, prepare us for this day and every tomorrow. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Laity Address

Arkansas Annual Conference

June 7, 2011

Asa Whitaker, Lay Leader

This year has been one of anticipation for us. We commissioned the Imagine Ministry Team to go forth and prepare for as a plan or strategy for advancing the cause of Christ in Arkansas through the United Methodist Church. Many of you attended regional meetings, listening, sometimes participating sometimes contributing to the molding and shaping of the document brought to us for approval.

It would have been very naive of me to assume that I would like every point of the plan. But it offers next steps and I believe it is time to take some definitive action to move forward. Some time ago I saw a piece that reminded me of our current position in the Arkansas Conference.

The story goes something like this*: A man fell in a hole, so deep that he couldn't get out. He struggled for hours but finally fell exhausted to the bottom of the hole. As he laid there a man appeared and told him he should meditate until he reached Narvana and his troubles would end. Although exhausted he meditated for hours and hours until a second man appeared and told him that he really wasn't in a hole that it was just his imagination and the hole was not real. So the man continued to suffer in his imaginary hole. Then a third man appeared and suggested he spend his time doing good deeds, a fourth visitor suggested he pray 5 times a day to the east. In his weakened state the man tried to comply but collapsed exhausted. Another man appeared and asked if he wanted to be free and threw down a rope. The visitor lowered himself down and brought the man out, free from his suffering.*

Friends, I believe it is time we wrap a rope around our waist, climb down in the hole, and bring our great church up to the surface and the light of a new day.

For our time together today, I abandoned the usual powerpoint slides and chose to bring a visual prop to the stage to serve as an illustration. It is a gum ball machine. I want you, lay and clergy alike, to look at the gum balls inside the machine as the opportunities of a revitalized church as described by the Imagine Ministries Team and the vision of your own heart. I must confess, I still resonate with the vision of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas as a church alive in the grace of God with a mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ so that is what I see here.

So here I stand, holding a globe of brightly colored gum balls, each representing great things resulting from a church which is revitalized. I see yellow balls that might be new disciples of Jesus Christ, I see red balls that might be our ministry to the sick and infirmed, I see green balls that might be aid to the homeless and financially challenged, white balls that might be the lonely and afraid. How exciting it is to think of all that opportunity just a scant few millimeters away.

All and all the machine is very attractive. We can take a rag and shine the globe, place the machine in a prominent place and trust that any moment now the machine will give us a gumball. Then we wait. We wait for the gumball machine to give us a gumball in just the same way we wait for the church to produce some of those results that we can see so clearly in our vision. It is confusing, we have done so much to prepare the machine, we keep up its appearance and still, the machine just sits there. Something is wrong. Any child will tell you quickly why we don't get a gumball. You have to put something in before you can get anything out. Somehow I feel most of us have heard of this concept before, you know inputs-processes-outputs. Without input, there is no output. Just like the man in the hole. We can sit in front of the machine and chant for days and nothing is going to happen until we get up and do something……. and sometimes that isn't easy..

Many of you can remember when a penny would be all it took to free a gumball from its globe. Somehow that coin denomination became a nickel and then a quarter. My granddaughter Emma is an aficionado of gumball machines. I think she believes they were placed there just for her entertainment so it is not uncommon to hear "Granddaddy, do you have a quarter?' Being a soft touch she will usually have me digging for quarters fairly quickly. A few days ago she went through this routine only to return and ask again for a quarter. I responded that I had already given her one to which she replied, "Granddaddy, it takes two."

In preparing for this presentation it became apparent to me that providing input to these processes is getting a little more difficult that it used to be. When most of us were young it took just a little bit of effort to get folks to come to church. After all in most communities, it was the decent thing to do and it was homogeneous culture, most every body thought the same way. But then the society norm began to change. Those of us who were church people discovered more and more people were staying away and we discovered there were many who saw no relevance in the church as we knew it. The price of a gumball had gone up and our communities were filled with people who had moved in to work in the new plant or open a new business. We are no longer a homogenous community by any stretch of the imagination and walls have built up all around us.

We are having great challenges is meeting the needs of those diverse communities because of the walls of tradition, the walls of ethnicity, and the walls of economic status, just to name a few. These walls tend to contain us, to keep us from going into all the world to make Disciples of Jesus Christ. They also keep the least, the last, and the lost from our doors because the walls are so formidable. I spend most of my days constructing walls of wood and stone to provide space and shelter to structures I am asked to build. Their placement and arrangement bring about order to a structure and the occupants find comfort and purpose in their shelter. For those on the outside, those same walls present formidable barriers to entry and many do not dare to try to enter.

I would like to tell you about a young woman who heard about a church service on Sunday Morning which was held in the church gym. Because of the wall of economic status it took all the courage she could muster but she came to the service and was immediately received and found a place of welcome. She was soon joined by her son and they became regular attendees. In all the time I knew her, she never went past the door to the gym. Her son went to Iraq and through her public testimony she witnessed how important her church was to her as she struggled with his departure and tour of duty. Although she held this love for her congregation, she never to my knowledge entered the main sanctuary. Such is the strength of the walls that separate us.

At 2:00 pm, on June 12, 1987, President Ronald Reagan stood at Brandenburg Gate near the Berlin Wall and challenged Mikhail Gorbachev with the most famous four words of his presidency "….if you seek prosperity for the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, if you seek liberalization, ……. Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall!

If I might I would like to paraphrase President Reagan's words. ……if you seek prosperity for the United Methodist Church , if you seek revitalization of the church as we know it, Mr and Mrs. United Methodist, tear down those walls.

My friends, our vision is clear and it is ripe with opportunities. The future is uncertain but the opportunity to move is before us. In his address to us yesterday, the Bishop told us of being uncomfortable, anxious, and a bit fearful. "But," he said," what I fear is not the rejection of something I want but the unwillingness to risk our comfort for the future to which God is calling us." Friends, how do we respond? Are we willing to risk our comfort?

We have no guarantees. We may fail. But my friends if we fall down seven times we will get up eight times. I am told the African impala can jump to a height of over 10 feet and cover a distance of greater than 30 feet. Yet these magnificent creatures can be kept in an enclosure in any zoo with a 3-foot wall. These animals will not jump if they cannot see where their feet will fall.

Faith is the ability to trust what we cannot see. With faith we are freed from the flimsy enclosures of life that only fear allows to entrap us. Don't be afraid to ask God for great things. Don't be surprised when He calls you to do things you don't think you can do. And don't be alarmed when you can't see the end results. "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen".

When you can't see the end - keep working! When clouds hide the summit and the snow storms are blowing in – keep climbing. By faith it shall be yours. The call is clear, the stakes are too high to do nothing. Laity I beseech you dig into your inner being and pull out a quarter for the gumball machine. Inject yourself into this process. Just like the conference, the future is unclear but becoming part of the process is the right thing to do.

When you feed the gumball machine and turn the crank you never know the color of the gumball you will receive. Maybe the opportunity to be a witness to someone through kind words and helpful hands, or the opportunity to bring hope to the sick, or comfort to the poor. Regardless of the color, the result will taste sweet on the lips and you will be blessed. For God is in it.

Celebrating Professions of Faith

The Book of Discipline clearly states that the purpose of the United Methodist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. According to the records submitted by all the pastors in the Arkansas Conference, the following 324 churches received at least one person by profession of faith during the calendar year of 2010.

The fact that your congregation witnessed professions of faith last year, is a testimony to your faithfulness to the Great Commission's commandment to "go and make disciples of all nations." Matthew 28:19

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21

May God continue to bless your ministry of making new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our 2010 Growing Churches

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church recognizes your congregation as being one of 231 congregations reporting growth in worship attendance during 2010.

"I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.' Psalm 122: 1
"Hear me, Lord, when I call to you! Be merciful and answer me! When you said, "Come worship me," I answered, "I will come, Lord." Psalm 27:7-8
"Worship the Lord, all the earth! Honor him, all peoples of the world!" Psalm 33: 8
"As a deer longs for a stream of cool water, so I long for you, O God. I thirst for you, the living God. When can I go and worship in your presence? " Psalm 42: 1-2
"I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.'" Psalm 122:1
"Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing. Know that the Lord is God! It is he who made us, and we are his people." Psalm 100: 2-3
"How happy are the people who worship you with songs, who live in the light of your kindness! Psalm 89: 15

"I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.' "
Psalm 122: 1

"Hear me, Lord, when I call to you! Be merciful and answer me!
When you said, "Come worship me," I answered, "I will come, Lord."
Psalm 27:7-8

"Worship the Lord, all the earth! Honor him, all peoples of the world!"
Psalm 33: 8

"As a deer longs for a stream of cool water, so I long for you, O God.
I thirst for you, the living God. When can I go and worship in your presence?"
Psalm 42: 1-2

"I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.'"
Psalm 122:1

"Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing.
Know that the Lord is God! It is he who made us, and we are his people."
Psalm 100: 2-3

"How happy are the people who worship you with songs, who live in the light of your kindness!"
Psalm 89: 15

Certificate of Recognition

On behalf of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, your congregation is duly recognized as one of the 562 out of 693 congregations that gave at least 100% of all connectional funds requested in 2010.

"Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion for God loves a cheerful giver." II Corinthians 9: 6-7

Our 2010 Confirmation Classes

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church recognizes your congregation as being one of 169 congregations that held a Confirmation Class during 2010.

Confirmation refers to the decision a person makes to respond to God's grace with intentional commitment, publicly reaffirming his or her baptismal vows before the congregation. Most confirmands are youth between the ages of eleven and fourteen, who have been nurtured in the church since their baptism as an infant or young child. Most churches offer a deliberate time of preparation before this service. During confirmation class, confirmands learn about the meaning of Christian faith; the history and teachings and The United Methodist Church; and an explanation of the baptismal and membership vows they will be professing. Confirmation is a person's first public affirmation of the faith of the church as being his or her own faith. In other words, the confirmand is taking responsibility for living as a member of the body of Christ and for fulfilling God's purposes.

The Arkansas Conference

PREAMBLE

"The Church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the conduct of worship and the due administration of his Word and Sacraments, the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline, the edification of believers, and the conversion of the world. All of every age and station stand in need of the means of grace which it alone supplies." (United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 106)

The mission field is the place of ministry. It is where the word of Christ needs to be heard and demonstrated to transform lives. Understanding the mission field will be one of the challenges of our conference and denomination as we live into our new world. Most important is for us to realize that the mission field will not be the institutional needs of our conference or our congregations and will not be the satisfaction of the people already active in the conference or charges. Each church will need to clearly define its mission field which may be at any one of three levels:

- Within the congregation as people's lives are deepened to become active disciples of Christ.
- Within the community as we invite people to know and respond to the presence of Christ in their lives.
- In the global community as these transformed lives transform the world.

VISION

Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate holy living, justice, and love of neighbor.

The implications of this vision statement:

- The desired outcome of making disciples of Jesus Christ in Arkansas mission fields is to impact local communities and make more disciples.
- The fruit of discipleship is to be experienced in mission fields, as well as in personal lives.
- Disciples transform communities by pursuing personal and social holiness and attending to the ordinances of God (The General Rules), practicing sharing their faith stories, and personally inviting others to know Christ.
- Disciples of Jesus Christ combat injustice as the particular geographic, economic, racial, social, and gender issues of our communities are addressed. Disciples must focus on the realization of the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven.
- Truly loving neighbors and giving to others who have needs is the way a disciple mirrors Christ's action and love. For this all disciples should be held accountable.

MISSION

To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

The implications of this mission statement:

- A mission statement declares who and whose we are. Methodists are disciples of Jesus Christ, growing in discipleship, who accept the urgent responsibility to make a difference for Christ in the world.
- Transformation is the work of God. Disciples participate in God's action by seeking to make an impact in the lives of those around them, in their community and in the world, to aid in that transformation.

CORE MEASURES

Touchstones from which work will begin and serve as references for ongoing evaluation.

We shall embrace deep change that empowers us to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by:

- Rooting all we do in our understanding of Scripture, and personal and social holiness (the foundational principles of United Methodism), so that we revitalize our connection and our ministry instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
- Establishing the mission field as the primary place for our attention and resources instead of directing most of our attention and resources to the institutional needs of congregations and clergy.
- Equipping laity and clergy for shared outcomes of transformation with excellence instead of directing resources toward congregational preservation and satisfaction of current members.
- Organizing our ministry around the unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic contexts in the identified mission fields instead of treating every church, district, and conference structure the same.

Arkansas Conference Priorities

These are the places we will give our attention for long term deep change.

Purpose and Identity

To do church differently and make disciples of Jesus Christ by covenanting to become Acts 2 disciple-making congregations which are Spirit-led, Spirit-filled and fruit-producing:

- Focus all activity on Christ (1 Corinthians 12:27). The congregation is organized to make and engage disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world (Matthew 28:18-20);
- Call, equip, and release disciples to pursue their passion and use their gifts to glorify God (Ephesians 4:11-13);
- Call, equip, send and support leaders to lead disciples (Mark 1:17);
- Lead disciples to meet the spiritual, social and physical needs of those in the community and world; and produce Acts 2 fruit (John 15:8, 16 and Acts 2:41-47).

Acts 2 Congregations

By doing church differently, we anticipate bearing fruit for the Kingdom of God demonstrated in Acts 2:41-47:

- Acts 2:47 – Experience an increase in professions or reaffirmations of faith into the faith community.
- Acts 2:41 - Increase worship attendance.
- Acts 2:44-45 - Mission engagement to address poverty and community development through ministries of mercy and justice.
- Ensure a majority of the worshiping congregation is participating in ministry initiatives outside of weekly worship.
- Support mission financially through locally identified community and world mission projects and fulfill 100% of shared ministry giving.
- Acts 2:43 - Demonstrate signs of God's power and wonder; ministry results that are more than human ability and are clearly God's movement through the congregation.

Connection

In order to do church differently the Annual Conference will be realigned, strengthening the resources and relationships with local congregations. Each local congregation is expected to change by embracing the vision and mission of the Annual Conference as we follow The United Methodist Way.

Training and Equipping

In order to do church differently, clergy and laity will be evaluated, trained, and equipped to be accountable for anticipated fruits of Acts 2 congregations.

These are the places to begin our immediate work.

I. Revitalized Mission Emphasis

- Give priority attention to the mission field of the geography surrounding local congregations in The Arkansas Annual Conference as the place to make disciples.
- Create new avenues for telling mission stories and communicating the need for increased involvement and opportunity for local and worldwide mission engagement.
- Enhance the mission communication network to demonstrate the value of the United Methodist connection.
- Focus on the local mission field, where there is the greatest opportunity to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, though United Methodists will not neglect nor forget that the world is our parish.

I. Apportionments and Askings

A. In accordance with ¶614.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline

1. World Service and Conference Benevolences: We recommend that the General Conference apportionment of $1,334,362.00 for World Service be accepted and that an amount of $2,878,263.00 be apportioned for conference Benevolences for 2012 for a total apportionment of $4,212,625.00. Further, we recommend that the monies received for World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed on a basis of 31.68% for World Service and 68.32% for Conference Benevolences
2. The Ministerial Support fund: We recommend that the General Conference apportionments included in the Ministerial Support fund be distributed on the basis of 5.53% to the Ministerial Education Fund and 5.08% to the Episcopal fund

B. Other Ministries: We recommend that the Annual Conference accept in full the askings below and they be apportioned to the local churches.

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE
COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION
2012 BUDGET REQUEST

I. Apportionments and Askings

A. In accordance with ¶614.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline

1. World Service and Conference Benevolences: We recommend that the General Conference apportionment of $1,334,362.00 for World Service be accepted and that an amount of $2,878,263.00 be apportioned for conference Benevolences for 2012 for a total apportionment of $4,212,625.00. Further, we recommend that the monies received for World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed on a basis of 31.68% for World Service and 68.32% for Conference Benevolences
2. The Ministerial Support fund: We recommend that the General Conference apportionments included in the Ministerial Support fund be distributed on the basis of 5.53% to the Ministerial Education Fund and 5.08% to the Episcopal fund

B. Other Ministries: We recommend that the Annual Conference accept in full the askings below and they be apportioned to the local churches.

C. Approved Solicitations -- We recommend that the Conference grant permission to solicit funds, not to encroach on any conference policy, to the following:

1. Board of Trustees of Mount Eagle Christian Center.
2. Board of Trustees of Camp Tanako, Inc.
3. Camp Aldersgate, Inc.
4. United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas
5. The Wesley Foundations to raise additional funds through the "Friends of Wesley" program (under the guidelines already approved by the Conference Board of Higher Education).
6. Methodist Family Health (formerly U.M. Children's Home) - Additionally, the second and third Sundays in December be designated for the receiving of the Children's Home Annual Christmas Offering.
7. Catch the Vision
8. Hendrix College
9. Philander Smith College
10. Commission on Archives and History for an "Endowment for Archives and History" Fund
11. Mount Sequoyah
12. Volunteers in Mission
13. That the district camps (Shoal Creek, Bear Creek, Wayland Springs) be allowed to raise funds in any district in which the district has given its permission
14. Childcare Liaison Project
15. Emmaus Communities of Arkansas
16. Tucker Maximum Security Prison Chapel Fund
17. Connected in Christ
18. Methodist Village Nursing Home of Arkansas

C. Advance Specials - We recommend General and Conference Advance Specials to local churches for firsthand relationships with mission projects and involvement in mission.

D. Special Days (with offerings)

1. Peace with Justice – Second Sunday after Pentecost
2. Native American Ministries Sunday – Second Sunday after Easter
3. Human Relations Day – During Epiphany on the Sunday before the observance of Martin Luther King's birthday
4. One Great Hour of Sharing – Fourth Sunday in Lent
5. World Communion Sunday – First Sunday in October
6. United Methodist Student Day – Sunday after Thanksgiving
7. Golden Cross Sunday – First Sunday in May

8. Hunger Awareness Sunday - Last Sunday in June

II. Apportionment Formula:
   A. There shall be two apportioned categories for the annual conference:
      1. Ministries Beyond the Local Church (which includes World Service and Conference Benevolences, Administration categories, and all other apportioned items),
      2. Ministerial Support (including Pension and Benefit, District Superintendents, Ministerial Education, Equitable Compensation, Episcopal Fund and Episcopal Residence).
   B. A simplified apportionment formula will be developed to be presented to Annual Conference in June 2012. The CFA will use the four (4) Core Measures found on page 15 of the Imagine Ministry Report to guide their considerations, paying particular attention to Core Measures 1 and 4. Presentation of the new formula will include a clear explanation of how said formula "... is rooted... in our understandings of Scripture, and in personal and social holiness, so that we revitalize our connection and ministry, "and how it addresses unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic contexts of our mission fields." ~~Calculations for apportionments shall be based on the following statistics:~~
      1. ~~25%~~ ~~Average Weekly Worship Attendance~~
      2. ~~75% Financial Considerations~~
         a) ~~Health insurance paid to conference~~
         b) ~~Pastor's salary~~
         c) ~~Associate's salaries~~
         d) ~~Utilities and allowances~~
         e) ~~Accountable reimbursements paid to pastors~~
         f) ~~Other cash allowances~~
         g) ~~Diaconal/Deacon Ministry compensation~~
         h) ~~Other staff compensation~~
         i) ~~Current program expenses~~
         j) ~~Current operating expenses.~~
   C. The amount of money apportioned by the Annual Conference for Ministries Beyond the Local Church would be determined by a 10% tithe of the "financial considerations" spent by the churches of the annual conference. Changes in this total apportionment figure may not be accepted or approved, although the Annual Conference may adjust and re-prioritize funds within the total as desired. (Section C To be reviewed at called session Oct. 29, 2011)
   D. The Annual Conference will determine the amount apportioned for the Ministerial Support section, upon recommendation of the Conference Council of Finance and Administration (Par. 613, Book of Discipline). Each local church's apportionment for the Ministerial Support section will be determined by their share of the conference total spent for "financial considerations".

III. District Superintendents
   A. Salary will be no more than $108,226.00. (Referred to called session Oct. 29, 2011)
   B. This figure shall include salary, utilities and appurtenances, and travel expenses
      1. We recommend that business travel by the District Superintendents shall be reimbursed at the maximum IRS allowable rate. This will be funded by the District Superintendents vouchered travel expense fund of $120,000 for room, board and travel expense.
      2. We recommend that $151,800 be used to pay the District Superintendents Health Insurance premiums for 2012
      3. We recommend that $5,500 be used to pay the districts' annual MissionBase software support fees

IV. Pastor's Moving Expense - Pastor's Moving Expense (intended to pay for housing relocation) - conditions of eligibility are as follows:
   A. The following persons shall be eligible
      1. Full Time Pastors

2. Student local pastors after first appointment
3. District Superintendents
4. Persons in conference connectional positions
5. Retiring pastors
6. Persons on disability leave
7. Seminarian from place of residence to parsonage at first appointment
8. Any other person recommended by the Board of Ordained ministry
9. Only one moving expense paid per pastor per year

B. The following amounts shall be paid:
1. ~~$600~~ $800 per pastor
2. $1.00 per mile, measured from parsonage to parsonage
3. Persons moving into or out of the Conference shall measure the mileage from the Conference boundary to the parsonage, except any seminarian returning for first appointment.
4. Monies shall be paid by the Conference Treasurer upon presentation of a voucher of mileage signed by the sending District Superintendent
5. The sending District Superintendent shall not submit a voucher for moving expenses unless the parsonage is left clean and meets the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Chairperson.
6. $1,000 additional moving expenses for Seminarians receiving their first appointment in the annual conference.
7. On recommendation from the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration may disburse funds for pastors transitioning out of the ministry.

V. Other Recommendations

A. When any Conference staff personnel travels at the request of a Conference agency for other than normal representative or liaisoning purposes, the expenses of such travel shall be borne by the requesting agency.

B. Reimbursement for Conference Travel shall be:
1. 50% of the IRS Standard Mileage Rate for all volunteers
2. 100% of the IRS Standard Mileage Rate for all conference employees

C. Retired and disabled ministers may be paid $40 per diem for days they attend Annual Conference with a maximum of $160.00 per household.

D. The Conference may direct the Conference Treasurer to withhold dispersal of funds to any agency, institution, or organization until the Council on Finance and Administration has received the most recent audit of a Public Accountant or Certified Public Accountant from the agency or institution or organization and that audit has been found satisfactory by the Audit Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration.

E. ¶815.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline states that an annual conference may only make direct gifts to historically black colleges after the Black College Fund apportionment is paid in full. Therefore the conference shall pay the Black College Fund at 100%. Any shortfall in the black college fund will be funded from the Philander Smith apportionment line.

F. ~~The Stabilization Fund is the budgeted amount used to cover annual funding shortfalls in the Conference Benevolence Fund and the Conference Administration Fund. The balance of the Stabilization Fund shall be transferred to the Conference Reserve fund at year-end.~~ The Stabilization Fund is used by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration to cover annual funding shortfalls in receipts to pay compensation for District Superintendents, employees of the Office of Finance and Management, and employees of the Conference Director of Ministries office. Any balances in the Stabilization Fund shall be transferred to the Conference Reserve Fund at year-end.

G. The Conference Reserve Fund is not a budgeted item. This is used to maintain operating cash flow for the conference.

H. If the Conference Reserve Fund exceeds 5% of the Annual Conference Budget, then The Council on Finance and Administration's Executive Committee shall have the authority to disburse those funds with first priority given to paying the Conference's General and Jurisdictional Apportionments.

I. All interest earnings on Conference monies shall be credited to the Conference Reserve Fund.

J. The Conference acknowledges the need for maintaining monies to be used as needed for the stabilization of the accounts of New Church Development Fund, General & Jurisdictional Conference Delegate Expense Fund, District Superintendents Funds, and the Equitable Compensation Support Fund.

K. That balances remaining in the Conference Benevolence Fund and the Conference Administration Fund at year-end shall be transferred to the conference reserve fund. ~~or funded from, the Stabilization Fund~~.

L. The Conference provides fidelity bonding insurance in compliance with ¶ 618 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

M. The following is to be adopted as the guide for the care and investment of all Conference Funds: (¶612.7 the 2008 Book of Discipline).

1. The Conference Treasurer is charged with the responsibility for managing all Conference Funds. It is the purpose of this investment policy to establish parameters within which the monies of the Conference will be managed.
2. The objective of the investment of Conference monies is to provide:
   a) Preservation of capital.
   b) Liquidity – to meet anticipated and unanticipated future needs.
   c) Maximization of income – while simultaneously insuring preservation of capital and liquidity.
   d) Compliance with the Social Principles and the Discipline of the UMC.
3. To accomplish this objective:
   a) Funds should be deposited in AR institutions in good standing. ~~a fully insured status: i.e., AA or better state and national banks, CD/Savings and Loan and Bank FDIC insured.~~
   b) Securities:
      (1) Direct obligation of United States Government Treasury Bills and Notes
      (2) FDIC insured Certificate of Deposits, Time Deposits, interest-bearing accounts
4. Funds should be deposited on a short-term basis, generally 60 or 90 days, but up to six months when all objectives can be satisfied.
5. This policy is intended to be flexible in its application in order to meet changing economic conditions. Investments made for longer than 90 days may be made after the approval of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. While income desirable, the primary emphasis is to be on the maintenance of adequate funds and the avoidance of speculative investments
6. This policy may be amended to meet changing conditions and to fulfill the needs of the Annual Conference

N. The Conference gives the Conference Council on Finance and Administration the authority to fund extraordinary needs relating to the life and ministry of the Arkansas Conference. These needs shall be funded from available unrestricted funds. ~~and stabilization funds~~. This authority shall not be used to replace or circumvent normal funding procedures of the Arkansas Conference.

O. When the Annual Conference adopts a program or ministry that is not within the existing Conference structure, the Conference shall specify lines of amenability and accountability so as to provide for budgeting, evaluation and audit.

VI. Administrative Concerns:

A. All funding requests shall be presented to the appropriate board or agency of the Conference for recommendation before presentation to the Council on Finance and Administration. All persons authorized to vouch for funds shall be identified by agencies and approved by the Vision Team prior to the dispensing of funds.

B. The final time for receiving conference apportionments shall be close of business on Wednesday after the first Sunday in January.

C. Each charge shall declare all ministerial support. The report shall include remuneration for compensation travel, utility expense, insurance, Social Security, and all additional compensation paid to the pastor or on behalf of the pastor.

D. When any agency's total budgeted funds have been expended; no further expenditures will be authorized without C.F. & A. approval.

E. All benevolent and connectional funds shall be sent to the Office of Finance and Management, P.O. Box 5072, Pine Bluff, AR 61611, except for the following, which shall be sent as designated:
   1. UM Children's Home Christmas offering and special gifts to the UM Children's Home, P.O. Box 4848, Little Rock, AR 72214.
   2. All insurance premiums shall be sent according to the instructions from the Committee on Group Insurance to Mona Williams, PO Box 9477, Pine Bluff, AR 61611.

Clefton Vaughan – President
Jim Polk – Vice-President
Mary Susan Hilliard – Secretary

In response too the resolution regarding pastor's moving expense passed by the 2008 Annual Conference, the council recognizes that the amount paid per move is to low and needs to be increased. However, since so many boards and committees were asked to reduce their 2010 budget we feel that implementing these increases in the current budget would require an additional $65,000 in funding. That additional budget amount would be difficult and insensitive to add to the 2010 requests. Therefore we recommend the following plan.

~~2011 $600 per move plus $1.00 per mile~~
2012 $800 per move plus $1.00 per mile
2013 $1000 per move plus $1.00 per mile

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY
2011 ARKANSAS CONFERENCE POLICY STATEMENT
(3/18/2011)

SECTION I: BOARD OPERATION

A. The Arkansas Conference Board of Ordained Ministry proposes to work within the framework of the current Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

B. The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, hereafter referred to as the Board or the CBOM, is responsible for the process whereby persons enter into ministry. The process covers candidacy, licensing, ordination, membership and transfers. In addition to the process whereby persons enter into ministry the Board also is charged with persons who are seeking professional certification, paraprofessionals, and consecrated Diaconal Ministers as well as being charged with exiting, retirement and the gathering and publishing of memoirs.

C. The Board officers are: Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer, Executive Registrar, Executive Assistant Registrar, and the chairs of the three divisions; Elders, Deacons, Districts and Local Pastors. Other officers and sub-committees shall be appointed by the chairperson as needed.

D. The Executive Committee consists of the Board Officers and the following: Chair of the Order of Elders, Chair of the Order of Deacons, Chair of the Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors, Chair of the Committee on Conference Relations, Chair of Ministerial Assessment, and a Cabinet representative.

E. The Board is divided into classes on an even year cycle and the elected tenure is an 8-year term. Nominations to classes and vacancies are made by the Bishop after consultation with the Chair of the Board. Nominations are then approved by the Annual Conference.

F. The Board shall meet at least once in the fall and twice in the spring, and on call of the Chairperson.

G. Each district Committee on Ordained Ministry (dCOM) Chairperson (or a representative selected by the dCOM) shall serve on the CBOM as an Ex-Officio member with vote.

H. The Board's source of income shall be:

1. A designated amount from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration for administrative costs.
2. Twenty-five percent of the amount remitted by local church to the Ministerial Educational Funds.
3. Gifts, bequests, interest on notes, and repayments of loans.

I. The Board's policy statement shall be reviewed annually and revised as needed and presented to the Annual Conference for approval.

SECTION II: CANDIDACY

A. The Inquiring Candidate (¶ 311) contacts the pastor of his or her local church, or another elder or deacon, or the district superintendent. The Candidate reads The Christian as Minister, (recommended, but optional) and with a guide, the candidate participates in the Ministry Inquiry Process (recommended, but optional).

- The guide can be any committed Christian.

B. The Enrolled Candidate (¶311)

- The person applying for entry into candidacy must have been a member of the United Methodist Church or a baptized participant in an authorized United Methodist ministry setting for at least one year and feel called to licensed or ordained ministry. The candidate is to contact his or her pastor, another United Methodist clergy, or the District Superintendent in the relevant area of United Methodist ministry to inquire about the process of candidacy.
- The applicant sends a letter to the District Superintendent describing his or her sense of the call of God for ministry, and requesting to be assigned a candidacy mentor.
- The candidate is assigned a Candidacy Mentor by the dCOM and DS.
- The candidate applies for the Candidacy Guidebook, available from GBHEM website, http://public.gbhem.org/candidacy/default.aspx.

- Working with the Mentor, the candidate completes the appropriate sections in "Fulfilling God's Call: Guidelines for Candidacy," and writes a statement reflecting his or her call to ministry and responses to Wesley's Questions in ¶310. A copy of the written statement is sent to the DS for the dCOM file.
- The candidate sends a letter to the home church pastor and PPRC/SPRC or body specified by the dCOM, requesting an interview and recommendation toward licensed or ordained ministry. A copy of the written call statement should be attached to the letter.
- The PPRC/SPRC or body specified by the dCOM interviews the candidate regarding the written call statement and Wesley's Questions (¶310), and reports its recommendation on Form AR 010, (Ministerial Candidate Recommendation Form). Copies of the recommendation are filed with the pastor and District Superintendent, and submitted to the Charge Conference session.
- Prior to coming before the Charge Conference, the candidate must have graduated from an accredited high school or have the certificate of equivalency (GED).
- The candidate is encouraged to pursue his or her undergraduate education, and to pursue seminary education in one of the United Methodist seminaries.
- Upon approval by Charge Conference or the body specified by the dCOM, which requires a written ballot of two-thirds vote of those members present, the candidate shall file Form 104, Declaration of Candidacy, with copies going to the District Superintendent and the dCOM Registrar.
- The candidate receives from the District Superintendent a "Declared Candidate Packet" containing:
  1. Candidacy Mentor's Request for Psychological Assessment Packet (Form AR2004)
  2. Personal Data Inventory (PDI-Form AR051)
  3. Psychological Assessment Release Form (Form AR052)
  4. Background Check Release Form (Form AR053)
  5. Medical Report Form (Form AR054)
- It is recommended that the candidate and mentor come to the district office to fill out the various forms. The candidate completes the Background Check Release Form, the PDI, the Psychological Assessment Release Form and the front side of the Medical Exam Form. The mentor completes Form AR055, Mentor's Request for Assessment Packet. The candidate will submit $50 payable to the Arkansas Conference, for the candidate packet. The District Office will send this check to the secretary of the Board of Ordained Ministry for processing.
- Copies of the PDI and the Release forms are placed in the candidate's dCOM file and sent to the Conference Chair of Ministerial Assessment.
- Mentor sends form AR055 and a copy of the PDI to the Ministerial Assessment Specialist.
- The candidate keeps the Medical Exam Form (Form AR054) to be taken to doctor for the medical exam report.
- The candidate makes appointment with doctor, and undergoes medical exam. The doctor completes the medical report on Side Two of Form AR054. Copies of the completed report go to the Chair of the Ministerial Assessment and to the dCOM Registrar for the dCOM file. (The CBOM can help with some out-of-pocket expenses up to $50.)
- The mentor receives the Psychological Assessment Packet, proctors the filling out of the materials by the candidate, and returns the completed materials to the Ministerial Assessment Specialist (MAS). (If materials are not returned within 6 weeks of receipt, the candidate must pay the $250 ministerial assessment cost.)
- The MAS schedules and conducts a personal interview with the candidate. Copies of the MAS Report go to candidate and to the Conference Chair of Ministerial Assessment.
- The Conference Chair of Ministerial Assessment sends copies of the psychological assessment report and the background checks reports to the DS for the candidate's file.
- In preparation for meeting with the dCOM, the candidate will consult with the mentor to submit the following written information, in addition to the material in ¶311.1.d and the statement of call to ordained or licensed ministry:
  - the most formative experience of his/her Christian life

- God's call to licensed or ordained ministry and the role of the church in his/her call
- his/her beliefs as a Christian
- his/her gifts for ministry
- his/her present understanding of his/her call to ministry as an elder, a deacon, or a licensed minister
- his/her support system

• Mentor completes the Candidacy Mentor's Discernment Report. The candidate reviews and signs the report, and a copy is sent to the DS for the candidate's file. The Discernment Report should reach the DS no later than six (6) weeks before the dCOM meets to consider the candidate for certification.

C. The Certified Candidate:

• The candidate, with mentor present, is interviewed by the dCOM to consider certification of candidacy. IMPORTANT: The dCOM should not certify the candidacy unless the required items in the declared candidate's packet are in the candidate's file. Action to certify should NOT be taken in anticipation" of later receiving such required documents as assessment reports, medical exams, background checks, etc.

• The dCOM vote to approve certification should be by written ballot and with a three/fourths majority.

• When certification is approved, the mentor logs onto the online system and completes Form 113. Copies are printed and sent to:
1. Office of Ordained Ministry, UMC Center, Little Rock, 800 Daisy Bates Drive, Little Rock, AR 72202-3770.
2. District Superintendent
3. Candidate, and
4. Mentor

• After the dCOM approval as a certified candidate, the candidate is eligible to be recommended by the DS to attend the Local Pastor's Licensing School and upon successfully completing Licensing School may be licensed as a local pastor and assigned a clergy mentor (¶ 314). If the candidate is licensed as a local pastor (full-time or part-time), refer to the Local Pastors Section.

• A certified candidate, after meeting undergraduate requirements, may attend seminary, and is eligible to apply for financial aid from MEF funds. See the Financial Aid Section.

• Certified candidacy requires annual renewal. Renewal of certification by the dCOM is done after receiving an annual mentor's report, recommendation of the charge conference, an educational progress report (transcript), and after having interviewed the candidate. Copies of the Action Report go to the CBOM Candidacy Registrar and to the dCOM file.

SECTION III: THE LOCAL PASTOR
¶ 314-319 2008 Discipline
Becoming a Local Pastor

• Candidacy Route:
- Candidate completes the candidacy process and receives dCOM approval as a certified candidate
- District Superintendent recommends candidate for entrance into Licensing School.
- Candidate registers, attends and completes Licensing School.
- The dCOM approves candidate for the License for Pastoral Ministry. The license becomes effective upon appointment.

• Transfer Route:
A minister seeking transfer from another denomination is expected to serve a two-year period as a local pastor under the credentials from another denomination prior to applying for transfer into conference membership. The minister should complete Licensing School prior to being appointed. (See Transfers Section.) In cases where examination of credentials and educational record may so indicate, the Conference Board may recommend that the transferring minister be received as a local pastor.

• Readmission Route

A UM minister applying for readmission to conference membership is expected to serve for a two-year period as a local pastor while in process toward readmission.

Local Pastor Education Requirements:

Full-Time Local Pastors (FL)

- Enroll in the Basic Five-Year Course of Study, and complete four courses per year.
- COS registrations are to be approved and signed by the Conference Local Pastor Registrar and must be postmarked no less than 14 days prior to the registration deadline printed on the registration form. The full-time local pastor is expected to complete the Basic COS in 8 years or less.
- Or the full-time local pastor may be enrolled "part-time" in a seminary program. If enrolled in seminary, the local pastor is eligible to apply for financial aid from MEF funds. See the Financial Aid Section.

Part-Time Local Pastors (PL):

- Enroll in the Basic Five-Year Course of Study, and complete two courses per year. COS registrations are to be approved and signed by the Conference Local Pastor Registrar and must be postmarked no less than 14 days prior to the registration deadline printed on the registration form. The part-time local pastor is expected to complete the Basic COS in 12 years or less.
- Or, the local pastor may be enrolled as a full-time student in a college or seminary program to meet educational requirements. If enrolled in seminary, the local pastor is eligible to apply for financial aid from MEF funds. See the Financial Aid Section.

The Local Pastor - Continuing:

- Upon being approved by the dCOM for licensing, the candidate is assigned a clergy mentor.
- The mentor submits annually a Mentor's Discernment Report, filed with the dCOM Registrar prior to the local pastor's annual dCOM interview.
- The local pastor submits annually a school transcript (from college, seminary, or COS), filed with the dCOM Registrar prior to the local pastor's annual dCOM interview.
- The local pastor is interviewed annually by the dCOM to evaluate educational progress and ministerial performance, and action is taken on renewal of the License for Pastoral Ministry.

The Local Pastor - Completing Five-Year Course of Study:

- Upon completing the Five-Year Basic Course of Study, and, beginning in 2011, United Methodist History, Polity and Doctrine, the local pastor may be eligible to apply for Associate Membership. See the Associate Membership Section.
- The local pastor may choose to continue in the local pastor relationship following completion of COS, and, beginning in 2011, United Methodist History, Polity and Doctrine. If so, annual educational transcripts are no longer required. Otherwise, the local pastor continues in the normal relationship with the dCOM.

The Local Pastor - In Seminary:

- Upon completing one-half of the requirements (45 hours) toward the MDiv. Degree, the local pastor may be eligible to apply for Provisional Membership. See the Provisional Membership Section.

SECTION IV: ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

¶ 321, 2008 Discipline

Requirements:

- The applicant for associate membership must have completed the Five-Year Basic Course of Study, United Methodist History, Polity and Doctrine, 40 years of age, and at least 60 hours of undergraduate credit from an approved college.
- Must have at least four (4) years of experience as a full-time local pastor. (In some situations, if the local pastor has at least 2 years of full-time pastoral experience, the CBOM may evaluate extended part-time service as equivalent to the additional required full-time experience.)
- Must indicate willingness to be appointed to full-time service and to accept appointment as an itinerate minister.

Applying for Associate Membership:

- The applicant for associate membership consults with the DS, obtains and completes Form 105,

Application for Clergy Relationship to the Annual Conference, submits the completed form to the DS, and a copy to the Conference Registrar by October 1.

- The dCOM interviews the applicant as a candidate for associate membership, considering educational and documentary requirements, pastoral experience and effectiveness, and forms a recommendation to the Conference Board. A copy of the dCOM Action Report is forwarded to the Conference Registrar, and the applicant's Form 105 and dCOM Action Report, along with the DS's letter of recommendation, are placed in the applicant's dCOM file.
- The applicant's completed file is delivered to the Office of Ordained Ministry at the UM Center in Little Rock, by arriving no later than November 1.
- The Conference Registrar communicates with the applicant about the written assignments to be prepared in advance of the CBOM interview, and about the date and time for appearing before the CBOM (normally a CBOM Retreat in late February or early March).
- The applicant is interviewed by the Conference Board, and a recommendation is approved, to be presented to the Clergy Session of the annual conference.

Associate Membership-Provisions:

- The associate member is granted an enduring License for Pastoral Ministry. The license does not require annual renewal, and remains active whether or not the associate member is under appointment, including during retirement.
- As an associate member of the annual conference, the minister no longer reports to the dCOM, but is amenable to the Clergy Session through the CBOM.
- The associate member is an itinerant minister, having committed to accepting appointment as assigned by the presiding bishop.
- Associate membership, like full connection membership, is a terminal relationship in the annual conference. Associate members desiring to change relationship to an ordination track as a provisional elder or deacon must first obtain approval from the CBOM before taking other steps in the application process. (See Provisional Membership.)

SECTION V: PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP
¶ 324, 2008 Discipline
Eligibility & Requirements: ¶ 324

- A candidate applying for provisional membership must have been a certified candidate for at least one year. (See ¶ 324.1).
- Normally a candidate applying for provisional membership must have completed a bachelor's degree from an approved college or university. For possible exceptions, see ¶ 324.3 of the Discipline.
- Applicants must complete at least one half of their educational requirements for ordained ministry before becoming eligible to apply for provisional membership (¶ 324.4).
- Associate members and local pastors who have reached 40 years of age, have recognized gifts for ministry and leadership, have completed the 5-year Basic Course of Study and wish to apply for provisional membership shall first obtain the approval of the CBOM before taking other steps in the application process. Applying for Provisional Membership: ¶ 324
- To make application for provisional membership, the candidate completes Form 105, Application for Clergy Relationship, and sends copies to the District Superintendent and to the Conference Registrar by October 1.
- The dCOM recommendation is reported on Form AR020, District Committee Action Report Form. A copy of the report is sent to the Conference Registrar. The original Action Report and the District Superintendent's letter of recommendation are placed in the candidate's file, and the completed dCOM file is delivered to the Office of Ordained Ministry at the UM Center in Little Rock by November 1.
- The Conference Registrar corresponds with the candidate regarding written work to be prepared. The completed written assignments are to be submitted by January 31 to:
  Office of Ordained Ministry, UM Center
  800 Daisy Bates Drive

Little Rock, AR 72202-3770

- The candidate is interviewed by the CBOM, and if approved, is recommended to the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference for provisional membership.

Educational Requirements

Applicants must complete four required courses in addition to those required by the 2008 United Methodist Book of Discipline, Paragraph 324.4:

- a course in basic pastoral care
- a course in Wesleyan theology beyond United Methodist, History, and Doctrine
- a course in preaching for those anticipating ordination as an elder or a course in worship beyond the required course for those anticipating ordination as a deacon
- a course in church administration

These four courses must be completed for seminarians seeking ordination who have matriculated beginning in the fall of 2010.

- All courses taken in seminary must have a "C" or better grade to be acceptable beginning September, 2011.
- Distance Learning is approved for 2/3 of work beginning in January, 2011 for all UM seminaries and Asbury. Anyone entering a seminary degree program who is seeking ordination from January, 2011 and onward will not be allowed to take Distance Learning courses except for the 13 United Methodist seminaries and Asbury. Persons in non United Methodist seminaries prior to January, 2011 can complete no more than 1/3 Distance Learning.
- When all graduate educational requirements have been completed, including the requirements of United Methodist History, Doctrine and Polity and the four additionally required courses, the provisional member participates in the Provisional Residency Program. Two years of the residency program must be effectively completed in the same appointment. During the second year of the residency program, the provisional member may apply for ordination and membership in full connection. When the provisional member is applying for full connection, the District Superintendent's letter recommending the minister for orders and full connection is to be sent to the Office of Ordained Ministry at the UM Center in Little Rock by January 31.

SECTION VI: MINISTERIAL TRANSFERS

¶ 347, 2008 Discipline

Eligibility Requirements:

- All ministers serving in Arkansas under approved credentials from another denomination shall complete the Arkansas Licensing School.
- Ministers seeking to serve and / or transfer into United Methodist ministry shall complete the Declared Candidate Packet normally required of UM candidates, including:
  - Personal Data Inventory (PDI)
  - Psychological Assessment
  - Medical Exam
  - Background checks
- Ministers seeking transfer into United Methodist ministry from another denomination should not join a local United Methodist church, but should arrange to have the CBOM evaluate their credentials and educational record to determine if they are eligible for transfer into provisional membership with recognition of orders, or should be received as a local pastor.
- Ministers seeking transfer from another denomination shall serve under appointment (credentials approved) for a minimum of two years before applying for transfer into provisional membership.
- Ministers seeking transfer into conference membership shall complete the United Methodist courses History, Doctrine, and Polity before being received into provisional membership. (See Enrollment Form)

Applying for Transfer as a Provisional Member:

- The minister seeking transfer into provisional membership from another denomination shall apply to the dCOM, using Form 105, requesting a recommendation for provisional membership.

- The dCOM interviews the minister and acts on the recommendation. When the dCOM has approved the recommendation toward provisional membership, the applicant's Form 105, the dCOM Action Report, and a letter of recommendation from the District Superintendent are placed in the recommended person's dCOM file, and a copy of the dCOM Action Report is forwarded to the Conference Registrar.
- The transferring minister's completed dCOM file is delivered to the Office of Ordained Ministry at the UM Center in Little Rock and should reach the Office by November 1.
- The minister applying for transfer will be interviewed by the CBOM, with the normal written assignments involving the Disciplinary Questions in ¶324.9 and the Autobiographical/Call Statement (¶324.13). The CBOM will determine if the minister is recommended to be received into provisional membership or as a local pastor.
- Ministers received by transfer into provisional membership will participate in the Provisional Residency Program, before becoming eligible to apply for full connection. (See the Provisional Membership Section.)

SECTION VII: FINANCIAL AID

A. Local Pastor's Licensing School

The Board shall provide all but $325 for expenses for room and board for each student attending the Arkansas Conference Licensing School. Books are provided. All funds are subject to successfully completing and passing all the classes. Some funds may be available for students attending other schools outside of our conference boundaries. Approval for these funds must come from the Dean of the Arkansas Conference License School prior to going.

B. Course of Study

1. Financial Assistance is based on need and the availability of funds; fifty percent of tuition, normal fees, room and board for full or part-time students in the basic Course of Study.
2. 100% reimbursement of tuition for courses taken in the Arkansas Course of Study School available for part-time local pastors.
3. 50% reimbursement of tuition for those who successfully complete correspondence courses (not to exceed 4 courses).
4. The Board provides assistance only once for each of the 20 courses required in the Basic Course of Study Program.

C. Seminary Financial Aid

Basic Seminary Degree Program

1. Service Loans for Seminary Tuition:

Through the Ministerial Education Fund Apportionment (MEF) the CBOM is able to provide low-interest loans to certified candidates who are attending senate approved seminaries.

The Arkansas Annual Conference retains one fourth of the monies paid for the MEF apportionment for this fund. This is the only source of funds for Service Loans, and disbursements cannot exceed income in any fiscal year.

Students who apply will sign a promissory note. Loans will be forgiven for service one year per year (two semesters) of aid. In other words, a student who borrows from the fund for six semesters would complete his/her obligation through three years of service under appointment by a Bishop of the United Methodist 2010-2011 academic year the following policy will be followed for disbursing funds.

Eligibility:

1. Certified Candidate for ordination
2. Attending a Senate approved seminary
3. Is not a recipient of a full scholarship grant from the United Methodist Foundation

Application Procedure:

Applications can be downloaded from arumc.org or obtained from a District Superintendent. Please follow directions carefully. Applications and all supporting documentation for the fall semester must be received by September 15 for the fall semester and February 1 for the spring semester. Deadline for application for summer tuition is July 15th. Applications are not considered complete without an official transcript from the student's seminary. Applications completed after the deadline will not be processed. All applications will be processed by the Secretary of the CBOM.

Reimbursement Policy:

Funds will be budgeted equally for the fall and spring semesters. The rate of reimbursement will be determined once applications have been received and total requests have been calculated. At this time the amount of loans will not exceed 40% of tuition per semester unless there is a surplus in the fall semester. It will be at the discretion of the seminarian registrar to disburse any surplus funds at an equal percentage for all semester applicants. Students at University Senate approved seminaries can receive a maximum of $5,000 per year in loans. Students attending United Methodist seminaries can receive a maximum of $7,000 per year in loans. Students will not receive funds to repeat a failed course. Incomplete courses must be completed before funds are disbursed. (Please note that application must still be made prior to the deadline.)

2. Grants for United Methodist History, Doctrine, and Polity Courses shall not exceed 50% of the tuition cost.
3. Graduate Theological Studies – Persons who have completed the basic course of study may desire to become provisional members by the alternate route (see ¶324.6). They must complete the 32 hours of graduate theological studies, but only if approved by the CBOM prior to enrollment. Up to 50% of tuition not to exceed $5,000 annually will be provided. Deacon candidates on the professional certification route toward ordination (see ¶324.5) will also receive up to 50% of tuition not to exceed $5,000 annually.
4. Arkansas United Methodist Seminary Scholarship – Any certified candidate–is eligible to apply through his/her D.S. for the full-expense scholarship from the funds held in the United Methodist Foundation. This student must be accepted in a United Methodist Seminary as a full-time student. Applications are due March 1. An interview-selection team shall make the determination of the awarding of this scholarship. Two years of service per year of scholarship received is expected in the Arkansas Conference.
5. Seminary students returning to Arkansas for interview with the Board may receive up to 50% of actual cost of transportation.

Section VIII: CONTINUING EDUCATION

A. Clergy Continuing Education – Rights and Obligations:

1. Continuing formation and spiritual growth involves both the intentional effort to learn something new, as well as a periodical revisiting of an already accomplished learning with the intention to refresh it, improve it, or rethink its validity.
2. Continuing formation and spiritual growth often involve supervised or leader-directed activities. It can include self-directed activities.
3. Continuing Formation and Spiritual Growth [¶ 351]
   a. Clergy member's continuing formation and spiritual growth program should allow for leaves of at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the minister's vacations.
   b. Clergy members who have held full-time appointments for at least five years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold a pastoral appointment. Such a leave shall be with the approval of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the church council, and the District Superintendent.
   c. All clergy under full-time appointment must complete at least one (1) continuing education unit (ten hours of instruction) per year. These CEU's may be fulfilled by CEU's, CME's, CCE's, or other approved programs. Exceptions include persons in resident probationary status or those enrolled in Course of Study. All CEU's are to be reported to the District Superintendent at charge conference.
4. Sabbatical Leave: All issues concerning sabbatical leave will follow the guidelines of ¶ 352.

B. Clergy Continuing Education – Policy for grants from the CBOM:

1. All clergy under full-time appointment with charge conference compensation of less than $50,000 may receive grants from the CBOM of up to $200 annually as funds are available. This amount shall include only projected expenses for tuition, books, fees, room and board. Travel cannot be included as a projected expense.
2. No financial aid is available for Minister's Week at any seminary.
3. The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry Guidelines for granting Continuing Education Units (CEU's) from The Society for the Advancement of Continuing Education for Ministry (SACEM) will be used by groups seeking to have events certified by the Conference Continuing Education Chairperson. (See GBHEM's website, http://www.gbhem.org/continued.html.)

C. Diaconal Continuing Education:

1. Diaconal ministers may receive continuing education grants from the CBOM of up to $200 annually as funds are available. This amount shall include only projected expenses for tuition, books, fees, room, and board. Travel cannot be included as a projected expense.

D. Professional Certification Studies:

1. Applications may be made for up to $200/year as funds are available to help pay for specialized certification courses. This amount shall include only projected expenses for tuition, books, fees, room, and board. Travel cannot be included as a projected expense.

E. Applications for granting continuing education credit for an event shall be sent to the Chair of Continuing Education. Applications shall then be forwarded to the CBOM Treasurer.

SECTION IX: EXIT,
READMISSION TO CONFERENCE RELATIONSHIP

A. There shall be a Committee on Conference Relations to oversee requests for changes in conference relationship.

1. Any request for a change in conference relationship must be made in writing to the CBOM, and will be reviewed by the Committee on Conference Relationship.
2. The Committee will report its recommendations to the full Conference Board.

B. Exiting:

1. Whenever, and for whatever reason, a person related to the Annual Conference with a ministerial relationship leaves that relationship; the exiting shall be reviewed by the Committee on Conference Relations and approved by the CBOM per requirements of the Discipline.
2. The Secretary of the CBOM shall record in the Board minutes the stated reason(s) for the exiting. The Registrar of the respective division shall enter into the person's record the stated reason(s) for his/her exiting. Additional statements shall be recorded from the Cabinet and the person who has exited.

C. Readmission to Conference Relationship:

1. All requests for readmission to the Arkansas Annual Conference for an appointment shall be presented to the CBOM at least ninety days prior to the beginning session of the Annual Conference, unless stated otherwise in the Discipline.
2. The Board shall review all files and statements kept by the Board Secretary and Registrar of the respective division at the time of exiting.
3. All persons requesting readmission to a Conference relationship are required to submit to a Declared Candidate Packet as prescribed in Section II B. The cost of this evaluation shall be borne by the person seeking readmission. A person returning from a Leave of Absence, Family Leave, or Maternity/Paternity Leave may have this requirement waived by the Chairperson and Registrar of the respective division of CBOM.
4. A person seeking readmission after having received discontinuance from Provisional Membership, Honorable Location, Administrative Location, or who surrendered the Ministerial Office shall serve a minimum of two years as a Local Pastor. During the second year a person may reapply for Conference relationship and/or credentials previously held.

SECTION X: CLERGY COVENANT FUND

A. The Clergy Covenant Fund provides for financial assistance to clergy persons and their families. A gift of $1,500 will be given to the surviving spouse of a clergy person who dies while serving under appointment or while on incapacity leave. Such requests will be initiated by the District Superintendent of the district where the deceased person was under appointment. Financial assistance of up to $750 is available to clergy and/or their family for financial needs which arise from personal or family crisis. Requests for these funds will be made by a District Superintendent to the Chair of the CBOM, and must be approved by the CBOM Executive Committee.

B. Funds will be provided by means of an offering received during the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference. Clergy will also be given an opportunity each November to make a special Thanksgiving contribution to the Fund. Memorials and special gifts may be made to the Fund at any time. Gifts may be sent any time to: United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, Clergy Covenant Fund, 5300 Evergreen, Little Rock, AR 72207.

SECTION XI: VACATION

It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is' vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out, we recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1. Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1-June 30).
   a) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).
   b) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).
   c) Those having served full time in the United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).
2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.
3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor shall time away for other events which the appointee is expected to attend, such as Annual Conference, or other conference, district or general church events.
4. All full-time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part- time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
5. The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
6. In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full-time service, including student pastors and part-time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.
7. Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
8. The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
9. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Respectfully Submitted,
Biff Averitt, Chair and Rose Kuonen, Secretary

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON GROUP INSURANCE

The purpose of the Conference Committee on Group Insurance is to administer a Comprehensive Health Insurance Program, selected by the Annual Conference, for active and retired clergy of the Annual Conference, along with full-time lay employees of local churches. All of the actions taken by the Committee are subject to review and revision by the Annual Conference.

At the regular session of the former North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences on June 5, 1995 the Conference approved the Insurance Committee's recommendation to merge our Conference Group Plan for both Active, Retired and Medicare supplement participants to form our own Group Self-funded Insurance program with Spradley & Coker of Little Rock as our Plan Administrator. The Self-funded Group Plan was effective August 1, 1995. On March 1, 1997 the third party Administrator was changed to Corporate Benefit Solutions, Inc. (CBS) and effective January 1, 2003 their name changed to CoreSource-Little Rock.

Since the forming of a Conference Group Health Plan on June 5, 1995 the former North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences administered the plan jointly. Adjustments to the plan were made by the two Committees meeting jointly, every year. INPLIED consent by both Committees was used to tweak" the plan each year. The Plan benefit adjustments were done based on claim paid history and were done only to hold down exorbitant premium cost increases. Because no record can be found giving "express/implied" consent to the Committee, the Annual Conference gives consent to Arkansas Conference Committee on Group Insurance to make adjustments to the Conference Group Health Plan. ALL SUCH ADJUSTMENTS ARE ALWAYS SUBJECT TO REVIEW AND REVISION BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Realizing that it is necessary, in a self-funded group health insurance plan, to maintain a reserve in case of catastrophic claims upon our plan, it shall be the policy of the Committee on Group Insurance, to maintain a Reserve balance of approximately one year's annual gross premium and administration costs. Any excess over and above the one year Reserve will be distributed back to The Annual Conference Self-funded Group Health Plan in the form of maintained, adjusted premiums or enhanced benefits. Any Reserve overage may "only" be used for the benefit of its Participants in The Group Health Insurance Plan. A Reserve held only by the former North Arkansas Conference used exclusively to pay the salary and expenses of the Administrative Secretary, or Conference Benefit Officer and related expenses of operating The Committee. All other expenses shall be paid only with the express consent of The Arkansas Annual Conference.

The cost of health care is a troublesome issue for our conference. To do nothing is to risk our ability to deliver benefits in the future. At the last annual conference, we reported that we might bring to this year's conference a motion to create an "appointment rate premium" for all full time clergy under regular appointment. We have done the research and feel that this is a doable endeavor. However, we were not convinced the timing is right to gather the support needed to make the change this year. In the meantime, the committee is taking several pro-active measures to increase the health of our clergy families and slow down the increasing costs of our health care program.

We seek to:

- offer the best benefits to pastors and their families
- help our pastors and their families to optimize their health
- contain healthcare costs

The membership of the Insurance Committee shall be composed of a chairperson, six clergy at large, and six laity at large, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Additional members are a cabinet representative, the chair of the Board of Pensions, the chair of the Board on Professional Ministry, the Conference Treasurer, all with vote. The Committee may employ an administrative secretary.

1. All Full, Associate, and Probationary Members, all Full-Time Local Pastors of the Conference under regular Arkansas appointment and their dependents (except students serving in or those employed by other conferences or agencies that have compulsory programs, members under special appointment outside the Conference, or retired military personnel serving in the Conference), and all full-time employees of the Conference shall participate in the Health Benefits Program of the Arkansas Conference.

A. The Program is open for full-time lay staff (working at least 30 hrs. per week), Probationers, Student Local Pastors, Full Deacons, Diaconal Ministers, and Full Members serving less than full-time appointment or employment. This is optional for the eligible participant and the participant must make the necessary arrangements to enroll and will be responsible for the total premium.

B. A participant must enroll in writing with the Office of Insurance and Pensions within 30 days after the eligibility date. The eligibility date is the date of first appointment (business date of Annual Conference) or date of employment.

C. All retired clergy, spouses, surviving spouses, eligible dependent children and surviving eligible dependent children of retired clergy who are the responsibility of The Arkansas Conference and have been participating in the Program on the date of retirement shall be eligible to continue participation. Retired participants and their spouses who have attained age 65 must have Medicare parts A and B at the participant's own expense. The group medical plan will coordinate benefits with Medicare whether or not the participant or their spouse is actually receiving benefits. Conference Group Medical Participants who are retired are asked NOT TO ENROLL IN MEDICARE PART D. Your Conference prescription drug benefit acting as a Medicare Subsidy will remain the same coverage which you had in your Active years.

D Clergy on Incapacity Leave receiving CPP Disability benefits who become eligible for Medicare Disability after July 1, 2009 will be required to enroll in Medicare parts A & B at your own cost. The Arkansas Board of Pensions will provide the full cost of your premium while you are receiving CPP Disability. CoreSource will remain the Primary carrier but without Stop-Loss so that Medicare pays a portion.

E. The Conference Benefit Officer in the Treasurer's office will check with the District Superintendent concerning a pastor applying for enrollment for the first time. The eligibility of any full-time lay employee of a church will be checked with the lead pastor, and payment of premiums agreed upon before enrollment.

F. In order to be in compliance with the new federal law (HIPPA), we will hold a thirty (30) day OPEN ENROLLMENT period during September of each year, to be effective OCTOBER 1ST. Open enrollment will be for all eligible persons who have not enrolled in a timely fashion. We may impose an eighteen (18) month pre-existing conditions limitation.

The responsibility of determining the source of funding for the health insurance benefit program for retired clergy and their dependents shall be the responsibility of the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions. Employee compensation, benefit package, and office expenses for Conference Benefit Officers is to be shared equally with the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions.

All vesting and eligibility questions regarding retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses will be under the purview of the Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions.

Upon union, churches will pay 100% of the cost of health insurance premiums for Active Clergy.

All reserve money in all Insurance Committee's accounts will come together as one account under the new Arkansas Conference Insurance Committee.

All of the above was adopted by the Special Called Joint Session of both Conferences on November 23, 2002.

All previously adopted procedures of the two Insurance Committees that are not in conflict with the above will continue to be used by the Insurance Committee to administer the program

For example: the following procedure will continue to be used in conjunction with collecting premiums;

1. The insurance premiums are billed quarterly to the lead church. The premium is due 30 days from the statement date shown on the invoice sent from the Treasurer's office. All participants are responsible for seeing that the total premium due is sent to: The Arkansas Conference, P.O. Box 3611 Little Rock, AR 72203 no later that the due date.

2. The committee shall use the following measures when premiums are not received on time:
   A. A second notice will be sent to the Church 14 days after the due date. A copy of the second notice will be sent to the applicable District Superintendent. The church may be billed a late charge of $20.00 after this second notice is sent.
   B. A third notice will be sent to the Church and Cabinet Representative 7 days after the second notice with a possible termination date clearly stated.
   C. After the third notice has been sent, and no response has been made, the participant may be terminated from the plan and the Cabinet Representative notified. [Note: No participant will ever be terminated from the plan until personal contact has been made from the Insurance Committee.] Premiums must be received before the termination date and not just post marked. Premiums received after termination will be returned to the church.
   D. If coverage is terminated, you and your dependents cannot re-enroll until open-enrollment, or to be effective October first.
3. Participants in the Insurance Plan whose appointment/employment is terminated may be granted an Extension of coverage (COBRA) for up to eighteen months provided:

The participant makes a written request to CoreSource, Inc. – Little Rock POB 8215-Little Rock, Ar. 72221

The participant is responsible for payment of the total COBRA premium direct to CoreSource, Little Rock.

MEDICAL BENEFITS FOR RETIRED PARTICIPANTS:

MEDICAL SCHEDULE OF BENEFITS FOR RETIRED PARTICIPANTS

When Retired Employees or their Dependents become eligible under Medicare, all of the following will happen:

- Medicare pays benefits first.
- All health benefits then in effect for that person stop and are replaced with a new benefit to complement Medicare. The new benefit is a Major Medical Benefit.
- Eligible Charges incurred prior to a person becoming eligible under Medicare in the Calendar Year in which the person becomes eligible under Medicare may be used to satisfy the Cash Deductible under the new Major Medical Benefit for that Calendar Year.
- Payment for any day of confinement or any treatment, services, or supplies given after the date the person becomes eligible under Medicare is made only under the new Major Medical Benefit.
- This new Major Medical Benefit is only for persons eligible under Medicare. It does not apply to any participant unless that participant becomes eligible under Medicare.

The Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees pays Eligible Charges that are more than the amounts payable for the same expenses under both of the following:

- Medicare Parts A and B.
- Any plan of basic medical benefits sponsored by the Employer for persons eligible under Medicare.

Each participant must satisfy a Cash Deductible of $250 each Calendar Year before any payment is made. The Cash Deductible is the amount of Eligible Charges you must first pay each year for each participant.

If a participant:

- Incurs Eligible Charges during October, November, or December; and
- Uses these Eligible Charges to satisfy the Cash Deductible,

They will also be counted toward that participant's Cash Deductible for the following year.

If two (2) or more family members are hurt in the same accident, only one (1) Cash Deductible will have to be paid for all expenses incurred by the family due to that accident each year.

Then the benefit pays the following percentage of Eligible Charges:

- 50% for Bereavement Counseling.
- 80% of the UCR amount for PPO Providers and 70% of the UCR amount for Non-PPO Providers.

The Eligible Charges payable under this Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees are the same Eligible Charges payable under Medicare with the exception of Prescription Drug charges.

If the provider has agreed to limit charges for services and supplies to the charges allowed by Medicare (participation physicians), this Plan determines the amount of Eligible Charges based on the amount of charges allowed by Medicare.

If the provider has not agreed to limit charges for services and supplies to the charges allowed by Medicare (non-participating physician), this Plan determines the amount of Eligible Charges based on the lesser of the following:

- The Reasonable Charges.
- The amount of the Limiting Charges as defined by Medicare.

OUT-OF-POCKET FEATURE

The Out-of-Pocket Feature does not apply to charges incurred because of cost containment penalties, nor charges incurred due to reduction of UCR nor prescription drug card copays nor Inpatient Hospital Confinement Deductibles. The aforementioned charges will never be paid at 100%, even after the Out-of-Pocket Maximum has been reached.

The amount of Eligible Charges, including the Cash Deductible that you pay, are counted toward the In-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum or the Out-of-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum, as applicable. The In-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum is $2,500 and the Out-of-Network Out-of-Pocket Maximum is $2,500; please note these are separate and do not contribute toward each other. When the Out-of-Pocket Maximum for In-Network is reached for any one person in a Calendar Year, In-Network Eligible Charges, other than those shown above, are payable at 100% for that same person for the rest of that year. When the Out-of-Pocket Maximum for Out-of-Network is reached for any one person in a Calendar Year, Out-of-Network Eligible Charges, other than those shown above, are payable at 100% for that same person for the rest of that year.

MAXIMUM BENEFIT

The Maximum Benefit payable per Calendar Year for each participant is $1,000,000.

The maximum will include any amount paid under the Employer's Comprehensive Medical Benefit for persons eligible under Medicare in effect prior to the Effective Date.

EXCLUSIONS

The exclusions shown in the "Exclusions" section of this Plan Document also apply to this Major Medical Benefit for Retired Employees and includes ineligible charges under Medicare with the exception of Prescription Drug charges.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
Effective April 14, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Introduction-

In order provide insurance coverage and/or health plan administrative services, we must obtain and maintain Protected Health Information (PHI). This privacy notice describes the types of information that are collected and your rights regarding how that information can be used.

PHI is individually identifiable health information that is created or received by your provider, your health plan or insurer, a data clearinghouse, a health authority, employer, school or university. PHI can be maintained or transmitted in any form or medium. It relates to the past, present or future:

- Condition of your physical or mental health,
- Health care provided to you; or
- Payment for the health care provided to you.

PHI does not include summary health information or information that has been de-identified according to the standards for de-identification provided for in the HIPAA Privacy Rule.

Permitted/Required Use and Disclosure of Your PHI for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations-

Your PHI will be used and disclosed for the purpose of routine treatment, payment and health care operations.

Examples of routine treatment, payment and health care operations include, but are not limited to:

- Payment for treatment of your health condition(s);
- Enrollment into the health plan;
- Eligibility for coverage and plan benefits;
- Claims administration;
- Payment of claims:
- Premium billing;
- Underwriting;
- Business planning and development,
- Actuarial pricing, studies and review;
- Complaint review; and
- Regulatory review and legal compliance.

Use and Disclosure for Treatment-

Your PHI may be used by, and disclosed to, health care providers including, but not limited to, doctors, nurses, laboratory technicians, medical students and other health care personnel involved in your treatment.

Use and Disclosure for Payment-

Your PHI may be used by, and disclosed to, individuals involved in the collection of your premium and the payment of your benefits. The use and disclosure also includes verification of participation in the plan, eligibility for plan benefits and premium adjustments due to changes in health status and/or individual demographics. Your PHI may be shared with persons involved in utilization review, including pre-certification, pre-authorization, and concurrent and retrospective review, to assist in reimbursement of health care claims or other claims payment or collection procedures.

Use and Disclosure for Health Care Operations-

Your PHI If may be used and disclosed for plan operation purposes including, but not limited to: underwriting; premium rating; submitting claims; placing a contract for reinsurance of risk relating to claims for health care, including stop-loss and excess loss insurance; quality review assessments; audits, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs; business management and planning; the sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation of a covered entity; and legal or administrative services. In addition, your PHI may be used and disclosed for case management, and care coordination, contacting of health care providers and patients with information about treatment, drug and disease management alternatives and other related functions that do not include treatment.

We may share this information with its business associates for purposes of utilization reviews, appropriateness of care reviews, peer review for resolution of grievances, consultation with outside health care providers, consultants and attorneys. We require our business associates to sign an agreement specifying their compliance with our privacy policies.

We have developed privacy policies and procedures in order to ensure the privacy of your PHI. These policies and procedures are based on appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards necessary to maintain confidentiality. Access to your PHI is limited to those individuals that have a legitimate business need for that information. This protection extends to the use of your PHI by our business associates.

Required Other Permitted Uses and Disclosures of PHI-

We may release your personal information to your employer for worker's compensation purposes or for automobile insurance claims. We will only use or disclose the minimum amount necessary to perform these other functions.

Disclosures may be made to:

- The health plan sponsor for payment or other claim purposes, such as coordination of benefits;
- Organ donation and tissue transplant entities, if you are an organ or tissue donor;
- The military if you are a member of the armed services;
- Worker's compensation carriers; and
- Correctional institutions, if you are an inmate.

We, or one of our approved business associates, may use or disclose your PHI in order to provide you with the following information:

- Prescription drug alternatives;
- Treatment alternatives;
- Other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you;
- Public health agencies;
- Law enforcement personnel in response to legal requirements;
- Coroners, medical examiners, funeral directors;
- Legal representative in response to a court order or other legal proceeding; and
- National security and intelligence agencies as authorized by law.

Other Uses and Disclosures of PHI-

Uses and disclosures of PHI for purposes other than treatment, payment or health care operations will be made only with your written authorization. If you provide us authorization to use or disclose your PHI, you may revoke that authorization, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose information following the specific purpose contained in the authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures already made with your authorization, and that we are required to retain any records we may have containing your PHI. If you revoke your authorization for payment or health care operations, you may jeopardize the administration of the benefits under your health plan.

Your Individual Rights With Respect to PHI-

Upon written request, you have the right to:

- Request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your PHI. We are not required to agree to a requested restriction.
- Receive confidential communication of PHI.

- Access our records containing descriptions of your PHI.
- Request an amendment to your PHI. We are not required to agree to a requested amendment.
- Receive an accounting of unauthorized disclosures made regarding PHI

Unless specifically requested otherwise, we will communicate PHI in connection with treatment, payment or health care operations, with any person covered under the plan. Should any covered person want a restriction on such disclosure of PHI, they must request such restriction in writing. Although we are not required to agree to a requested restriction, we will consider all factors explained in the request.

Except for uses and disclosures associated with Treatment, Payment, or Health Care Operations, we do not use or disclose PHI when specifically protected by more stringent state law. Examples of more stringent state laws include those protecting HIV status, results of genetic testing, and indications of domestic abuse. We will follow state privacy laws that are more stringent than this federal law.

If you have chosen to receive this privacy notice electronically, you may also receive a paper copy from us upon your request.

Our Duties Regarding the Use and Disclosure of Your PHI-

We are committed to maintaining your privacy and are required:

- By law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI;
- To abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices currently in effect.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this privacy notice, and have such change be effective for all PHI that is maintained. Notification of a revised privacy notice will be provided through one of the following:

- U.S. Postal Service;
- Revised Plan Document;
- Internet E-mail. Up to date privacy notices will be maintained on our Web Site.

How to File a Complaint Regarding the Use and Disclosure of Your PHI-

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be in writing. Please be assured that you may not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

You may contact our representative at the following: Mona Williams, CBO-HIPAA Compliance Department-Arkansas United Methodist Conference Employee Group Plan, P.O. Box 3611, Little Rock, AR. 72203-mwilliams@arumc.org

Oklahoma	$62,968	Oklahoma Indian Missionary	$34,765
Southwest Texas	$62,349	Texas	$73,816
*both DAC & CAC include housing

All eligible clergy must be enrolled in the pension program CRSP. Eligible clergy include all clergy members, local pastors appointed within the AC; those who have been previously approved by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for service as full-time, part-time or student pastors, or a clergy person of another denomination who is under Episcopal appointment in the Conference, if they are not participating in a pension program of the denomination to which they belong.

Enrollment is the responsibility of the participant. You must enroll self in writing no later than 30 days from the eligibility date. Enrollment forms must be sent to Conference Benefits Officer, Mona Williams, at the Office of Finance and Administration, P.O.B. 2941 Little Rock, AR 72203-2941

The Board of Pensions recommends that:

1. PSR- Past Service Rate for 2010 is $566.00 and will be $577.00 for 2011.
2. The MPP Plan ended December 31, 2006. Money on account is subject to market performance. The AC participates in the new retirement plan- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) the death & disability plan (full-time only are eligible for CPP). CRSP is made up of 2 components, a defined benefit and defined contribution.
   a. The calculations under CRSP are;
      1. Monthly DB Retirement Benefit Calculation is 1.25% X Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) X Years of Credited Service after 12/31/2006 ÷ 12.
      2. The DC contribution is 3% of your actual plan compensation (includes housing).
   b. That the contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) be 3% up to 200% of the DAC.
   c. That current service be paid by apportionment by the churches of the conference.
   d. That we include any ministers in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) who are eligible for special arrangement feature as determined by the AC annual Adoption Agreement.
3. That the surviving spouses continue to receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.
4. Allowance grants and local expenses of the Board of Pensions is paid by the Conference Treasurer, subject to the approval of the Conference Board of Pensions and the 2008 Book of Discipline. Employee compensation, benefit package, and office expenses for Conference Benefit Officers is to be shared equally with the Arkansas Committee on Insurance.
5. The institution, board or organization paying the salary of a minister on special appointment without annuity claim on the conference shall make provision for the pension of such person. Attention is called to ¶1506.3a (3), 2008 Book of Discipline, regarding eligibility to participate in CRSP and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP).In order to provide adequately for the pension program (current and past funding) the churches shall pay as apportioned for 2011 an amount totaling $4053,836.
   Health insurance premiums for retirees shall be apportioned for 2011 in the amount of $1,345,878 and $1,680,000 for 2012.
6. There shall be apportioned to each agency and institution served by a ministerial member under special appointment with annuity claim on the conference an amount equal to 16.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC).
7. We remind all pastors and local churches of ¶639.4 in the 2008 Book of Discipline, which sets forth the requirement that payments on the pension and benefit program of the conference be in exact proportion to payments made on the salary or salaries of the ordained minister or clergy serving it. ¶638.4 requires the local church treasurer and/or pastor to adjust the cash salary and payment to be in the same proportion as the amount paid to the pension and benefit program of the conference. ¶638.4d adds that it shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.
8. ¶638.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults of the churches of the conference in paying the pension and benefit apportionment in full. The board is further required to render annually to each church that is in default a statement of the amounts in default for that and preceding years. According to our Conference Treasurer, in 2010 the following churches were in default by the following amounts:

2011 Benefits Amounts for the Comprehensive Protection Plan

The 2011 Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) is $61,716.

The following information generally describes the benefit amounts payable under the terms and conditions of the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) to eligible participants and their beneficiaries. For more information about the terms of CPP, please see the CPP Summary Plan Description available at www.gbophb.org/TheWell/Root/CPP/3097.pdf. Although all efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of this document, in the event of a discrepancy between this document and the CPP Plan Document, the plan document always governs.

Active Participant Death Benefits—Payable upon the death of an eligible active participant in 2011:

- $50,000 payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of $12,343.20 (20% of the DAC), less the annuity benefit payable from the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) and other Church-related sources
- Annual surviving child benefit of $6,171.60 (10% of the DAC) payable in 12 monthly installments[1]
- Annual surviving child educational benefit of up to $12,343.20 (20% of the DAC) payable in equal installments[2]

Retired Participant Death Benefits—Payable upon the death of a retired participant in 2011:

- $18,514.80 (30% of the DAC) payable in one lump sum
- Annual surviving child benefit of $6,171.60 (10% of the DAC) payable in 12 monthly installments[1]
- Annual surviving child educational benefit of up to $12,343.20 (20% of the DAC) payable in equal installments[2]

Spouse Death Benefit—Payable upon the death of a spouse of an active or retired participant in 2011:

- $12,343.20 (20% of the DAC) payable in one lump sum

Surviving Spouse Death Benefit—Payable upon the death of a surviving spouse of a deceased active or retired participant in 2011:

- $9,257.40 (15% of the DAC) payable in one lump sum

Child Death Benefit[3]—Payable upon the death of a child of an active or retired participant in 2011:

- $6,171.60 (10% of the DAC) payable in one lump sum

Disability Benefits

The disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation for the plan year in which the first payment is effective, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act[4].

Eligible participants receiving CPP disability benefits may also receive retirement plan contributions. A contribution equal to 3% of compensation (as defined by CRSP) will be credited, in monthly installments, to the participant's CRSP defined contribution account.

Notes:

1 Ages 17 and younger. Benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18.

2 Ages 18 through 24 and attending school full-time. Half of the annual benefit may be paid if the child is attending a secondary school. If the child enters a post-secondary institution of higher learning prior to age 18, the post-secondary educational benefit may become effective at that time.

3 Ages 18 and younger, ages 19 and older if dependent upon the participant or upon the surviving spouse of the participant due to a behavioral or physical disability that existed prior to age 19, or ages 24 and younger and receiving a surviving child benefit

4 Other reductions may apply as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

15. Clergy on Incapacity Leave receiving CPP Disability benefits who become eligible for Medicare Disability ~~after July 1, 2009~~ will be required to enroll in Medicare parts A & B at your own cost. The Arkansas Board of Pensions will provide the full cost of your premium while you are receiving CPP Disability. CoreSource will remain the Primary carrier but without Stop Loss so that Medicare pays a portion.
16. We recommend that all retired ministers, widows, and dependent children who are the responsibility of the Annual Conference and were enrolled 2 years immediately prior to retirement are covered by the Conference Health Insurance program. Clergy and or Spouses who enroll after the deadline are ineligible to receive the following benefit and will responsible for paying the entire premium.

    The Annual Conference will pay health care cost of retirees and surviving spouses, starting the first day of the month in which pension annuity begins under the following guidelines:

    a) Retired Clergy, Spouses, Surviving Spouses and Ministers on Disability at the time of Unification shall continue to receive benefits under the plan in effect for their respective Annual Conferences.
    b. Effective July1, 2006 - Retirees and/or their spouses under age 65 will have payments made on their behalf for Conference Medical Insurance premiums based on years of service up to the Medicare Supplement Rate Example: Clergy age 62 with 30 years of service (and spouse age 59) would receive up to $590.00 toward $1458.00 monthly premium and would be responsible for $868.00 monthly. Conference payments will start when Clergy becomes annuitant.
    c) The "premium gift" is calculated in the following manner and may be reduced or discontinued based on available finances and a vote of the annual conference;

    For years of service 1-20 years X 4% and 1% thereafter to the cap stated above. Clergy with 40 years of service must be age 65 (spouse also age 65) before 100% is provided.

Monthly Premium rates;	~~2010~~	2011
Clergy- early age retiree/ single coverage	~~$537~~	$ 650
Clergy-early age retiree/ Spouse under age 65	~~$1,361~~	$1,458
Clergy- early age retiree/ Spouse full age 65	~~$1,241~~	$1,303

Clergy- full age 65 retiree / single coverage	~~$281~~	$ 295
Clergy- full age retiree/ Spouse under age 65	~~$1,241~~	$1,303
Clergy- family both over full age 65	~~$562~~	$ 590

NOTE: Participant's portion is based on current premiums and may vary yearly with rate increases and annual changes in Board of Pension policy.

f) Retired individuals, eligible for Medicare, shall personally pay Medicare premiums.

g) The health insurance premium of an under-age Surviving Spouse will be paid for 5 years and there-after will be based on the formula paid for retired Clergy service year credit. After the 5 year payment, the Surviving Spouse is required to request monetary assistance in writing if needed.

h) When a surviving spouse of a retired clergy person remarries that surviving spouse will be responsible for 100% of the insurance premium.

i) Spouses and dependent children, under the age of 65, of a clergy person who dies while active will have their health insurance premiums paid by the Annual Conference for 5 years following the death of the clergy. In the event of extenuating circumstances, an extension of payments may be requested by the surviving spouse. Each case will be reviewed annually. When the unmarried surviving spouse reaches 65, the guidelines above go into effect.

j) If a retired minister marries ~~after June 1, 1995~~, the new spouse will be eligible for coverage under the Health Insurance Plan. The total premium will be his/her responsibility.

k) Eligible dependents of a retired minister who are not currently enrolled in the Arkansas United Methodist Health Insurance plan may, if eligible, enroll in this plan with preexisting conditions waived provided:

1) The dependent(s) have been covered by an employer-sponsored group insurance plan for a minimum of one consecutive year; and

2) Enrollment is made within 30 days of termination of the employer-sponsored group insurance plan.

3) The participant is responsible for the premium.

17. Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled

Clergypersons of the Arkansas Conference

The Arkansas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the current year or years by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or it's predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

18. A Retired Minister's Day is Recommended Each Year: Recommended to be the Third Sunday of May each year. The purpose of this day is to recognize the service of the retired servants and their families, and to involve the local churches in the recognition of the needs, both present and future, of The Arkansas Conference Pension Fund. If a retired minister does not reside within the bounds of a charge, but a member of a retired minister's family does, they shall be invited to participate in the service (or observance); otherwise, recognition of these servants, and their service, should be observed appropriately. "Appropriately" should be determined by the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee of each local church. This committee shall have the responsibility of locating these people and relate the service of these persons to the local church and our Annual Conference. The Conference Board of Pensions will be responsible for providing promotional ideas and some materials (i.e., total years of service, percentage of retired ministers serving churches while in their retired status, etc.) when requested.
19. We recommend that a monthly pre-82 grant in the amount of $359.00 be paid to Rev. Lloyd Smith beginning July 1, 2009 ending at the time of death.
20. We recommend that, ¶1506.3 (2), 2008 Book of Discipline, be enforced.
21. Participants in our pension programs should notify the Conference Benefit Officer, Mona Williams, at the Office of Finance and Administration, ~~PO Box 2941~~ POB 3611 Little Rock, AR 72203 Phone 501-324-8003, Fax 501-324-8043 when:
    a. A death in the immediate family occurs;
    b. Any change in address or income occurs;
    c. A change of beneficiary is desired;
    d. Information relative to pension matters is needed
    e. To enroll in our pensions program and/or health insurance;
    f. Request for retirement is made to the bishop, cabinet, and board of ordained ministry;
    g. You have a question of annuity credit for past service.

Arkansas Annual Conference Funding Plan
For the Clergy Retirement Security Program
As of January 2011

The 2011 Past Service rate (PSR) of $577.00 is .88% of the CAC. We anticipate future PSR increases to be approximately 2% per year.

Based upon calculations provided by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (GBOPHB), the pre-82 service liability for the Arkansas Conference with a PSR of $577.00 is $1,403,834. The Arkansas Conference Plan funds held by GBOPHB were valued at $4,457,173 as of 01/01/2011. Funds held locally equal $820,693. Unpaid apportionments estimated at loss in income of 10% (-450,000). Estimated income & revenue is $11,177,840.

After expenses totaling $6,007,927 the difference between total liability and assets represents the Arkansas Conference Pension benefit obligations is $5,169,913. Income & revenue comes from three sources;

1. Apportionment dollars received.
2. Conference assets plus interest on deposit at the GBOPHB.
3. CPP premium liability holiday.

The amount of money to be paid on 12/31/10 for PSR obligations is estimated to be $1,410,007 and $2,645,530 CRSP-DB.

*There is also an estimated $455,297 contribution due (for the first time) as unfunded MPP liability in 2011.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Mission of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to enable local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership.

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION BASE SUPPORT:

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the 2012 Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule remain at the 2011 level. The Guidelines having been established and proving to be effective will remain the same as printed in this report.

	Full Connection	Probationary Associate Member	Local Pastor
Minimum Base Comp.	$ 32,800	$ 31,700	$ 30,500

1. A parsonage or a housing allowance shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.
2. Associate Pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid.
3. Retired pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation Aid. See ¶ 359.6, 2008 Book of Discipline.
4. Each church receiving Minimum Base Compensation Support shall provide the amount(s) received from the Arkansas Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan. Each church receiving compensation shall report to the commission each year by August 30. The report form is available on the Arkansas Conference Website at arumc.org and from each district superintendent. Completed forms are to be sent to Rev. Brad Elrod, ECC Registar, by August 30 each year. Please note that each category will have a different report form.

II. KEY CHARGE PROGRAM FOR BASE COMPENSATION SUPPORT:

The Key Charge Program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons. Key Charges are related to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by a contractual agreement. The contract is negotiated by the chair of the commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge. The persons, or their successors, shall be the trustees of the contract, having verified it with their signatures.

The contract shall include:

(a) The initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,

(b) The duration of the contract (normally 5 years or less), and
(c) The signatures of the persons negotiating the contract.

The nature of the contract is such that the amount of compensation support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the local charge increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the contract period. After the contract has expired, no further compensation support will be granted to the charge. Under the Key Charge arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

III. MISSIONAL LOCAL CHURCH COMPENSATION SUPPORT:

We recommend that the Arkansas Conference undergird its mission by providing a Missional Local Church Compensation Support Program. This program is intended to help provide capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support without mission aid. In each case, the level of base compensation support shall be negotiated by the Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent in consultation with the pastor and officials of the charge. Priority shall be given to charges that show potential for growth, for increased effectiveness in ministry and for advance towards self-support. Consequently, when a charge has received Missional Local Church Support for four years, the commission will assess the charge's growth during the period before continued funding is approved. Considerations will include:

1. Membership.
2. Worship attendance.
3. Percentage of apportionments paid.
4. The charge's share of the pastor's compensation.
5. The charge's stewardship ("total amount paid" divided by worship attendance).

If a charge declines in more than two of these categories over the four-year period, Missional Local Church Support shall be reduced by ten percent the following year, and it shall be reduced by one third over each of the succeeding three years. The district superintendent may appear before the Commission to request an exception to this process.

IV. EQUITABLE COMPENSATION AGREEMENT:

When equitable compensation support has been granted to a church/charge, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the district superintendent, pastor, and leaders of the church/charge before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the Commission on Equitable Compensation. No funds shall be disbursed until the agreement is signed and returned to the district superintendent. These forms are available on the Arkansas Conference web site at arumc.org

V. ANNUAL REPORT

The church/charge receiving financial support shall submit an annual report. The report form is available from the district superintendent or the Arkansas Conference web site at arumc.org. Included in this report is the explanation of how these funds have aided the local church/charge. This report shall be submitted by August 30 of each year to Rev. Brad Elrod, ECC Registar,

VI. ADDITIONAL PRIORITIES:

A. The Commission shall maintain adequate reserves to fund needs which may emerge.
B. Each charge receiving equitable compensation in any of the above categories is expected to pay its conference apportionments in full. If the charge is unable to accomplish this, they shall submit a written plan of action approved by their district superintendent, detailing the steps to be taken in order to achieve this goal.
C. All Commission on Equitable Compensation funding relates to pastoral support only. Using funds for any other purpose, such as program cost or other compensation violates the agreement.
D. Equitable compensation funds are paid directly to the church/charge and shall be paid to the pastor as a supplement to funds budgeted by the church/charge.

IMAGINE MINISTRY REPORT

{Conference Secretary Note: This report was posted on the Conference Web Site, distributed in booklet form at regional meetings in March and April, and was mailed to all the clergy and lay delegates of Annual Conference.}

March 11, 2011
Dear Friends:

How do we live out the Christian faith in a dynamic, changing world? We are all aware that if we keep on doing as we have always done, we will continue to experience decline. Any evaluation of our statistics will show we desperately need to be more nimble, more responsive, more pro-active in meeting the challenge of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world in the 21st Century.

The challenge before us is to move into a future we do not see clearly, toward a goal that seems always just beyond our vision and grasp. Truth #1: the world around us is changing so rapidly, our goals will always be moving targets. Truth #2: strategic planning can no longer declare "If you do steps one through ten, you will have achieved your goals." Truth #3: we may never be finished with the journey. Truth #4: a change in heart and attitude is as important as a change in structure or goals.

I am convinced that the changes we are proposing will enable us to move quickly and effectively into the future God has prepared for us. I am equally convinced that it will be an uncomfortable, sometimes messy, but an absolutely necessary trip for us to take. There will be some who disagree with these initial proposals. Some will say, "The proposals are far too much." Others will say, "They are too timid." Some will say "Let us think and study for another year or two." Others will say, "What took you so long?"

I say, "Let us begin."

Faithfully,
Charles N. Crutchfield

Scripture Foundation

The writer of Acts tells the early Christian community of faith the history of the great works of God centered in Christ. The Bible study, A New Way To Do Church was written and based on Acts 2 as a prelude to a series of regional meeting to preview the recommendations that will be made to the Annual Conference 2011. As the Annual Conference anticipates a new day for Arkansas United Methodism, we return to scriptural roots to set the context for renewal.

In the course of our journey, the Imagine Ministry Team has been anchored by an understanding of the church and the possibilities of our faith that are demonstrated by the Spirit-driven power of the early Christian movement. We believe that the story of the early church found in Acts is in reality a road map that will inspire, inform, instruct, and strengthen us on our shared journey of faith in the Arkansas Annual Conference.

As the opportunities and challenges that transformation brings are faced, we can do so without becoming lost only if the journey stays anchored in Scripture.
The following Scripture verses, the teaching of Jesus and the whole of Scripture set the context for renewal.

– The Imagine Ministry Team

• Acts 2:1-4, 41-47: The story of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit was given to the church, and a description of the early Christian community.

- Acts 6: 1-7: The early Church divides the labor of the church between the apostles, who do the ministry of the Word, and the table stewards, who distribute food to the widows. Thus everyone's needs are met, and the church continues to thrive.
- I Corinthians 12:4-31a: The Church is like a body with many parts, each one important and each one performing its special function.
- Romans 12:1-8: As living sacrifices to God, disciples are conformed not to the world, but to God's will, exhibiting different gifts given by the grace of Christ.
- Acts 10:1-11:18: Peter has a vision from God about the inclusion of things formerly considered unclean. Then he ministers in the home of Cornelius, and the Holy Spirit comes upon the Gentiles.
- Acts 15:1-35: The early Church disagrees over the inclusion of Gentile believers without them first becoming Jews. The Jerusalem Council decides to require only minimal respect of the tradition, thus opening the doors of the Christian community.
- Matthew 28:19-20: The risen Christ gives the Great Commission to the disciples, sending them to make disciples of all nations, baptizing and teaching in the name of Jesus.

Letter from the Imagine Ministry Team

The Imagine Ministry Team was created by Bishop Charles Crutchfield as a response to the Episcopal Address at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Conference. The Imagine Ministry Team has tried to prayerfully discern God's vision for the Arkansas Conference.

This journey has been a walk in the wilderness and an awesome responsibility. In gathering input and information from congregations, individuals, and 2010 conference breakout groups, it became apparent that this is a rare opportunity for the conference to start from the ground up and build a focused system of mission and ministry for this time and place in history.

It is with joyful humility that the Imagine Ministry Team offers conference members a summary of our progress to date. It is the Imagine Ministry Team's intention during Phase One to put into place the beginnings of a system which will be faithful to our mission and primary task as an annual conference.

This report proposes a supportive, transitional structure, which will move the Arkansas Conference ahead while work continues asking the questions which must inform changes. It is the plan to develop a conference ministry system whose DNA includes the Wesleyan practice of Holy Conferencing and a "big picture" evaluation of the mission, vision, values, strategies, and resource alignment.

The idea is in the future to adopt the method of adaptive learning the Imagine Ministry Team has used in an ongoing and regular basis for assessment. In essence, the plan will develop a system of ministry that will never be completely finished but can readily respond to the needs of the mission field around us.

The members of the Imagine Ministry team are:

Bishop Charles Crutchfield

Jim Argue, Jr.	Don Riggin
Kathy Conley	Charles Donaldson
Susan Ledbetter	Kurt Boggan, Project Manager
Edna Morgan	Mackey Yokem, Covener
Bud Reeves	Gil Rendle, Consultant

We express a special thanks to the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas for its funding and support over the past two years.

Summary of Statistics

The Imagine Ministry Team, assembled by Bishop Charles Crutchfield of the Arkansas Conference, has been studying the United Methodist Church in our state, researching our present and past, asking questions about who we are as the United Methodist Church of Arkansas. Underlying our study is the question: What do we need to learn about ourselves and what do we need to do differently in the future?

An analysis of the cumulative statistics from all the churches of the Annual Conference was compiled from the year 2004 and compared to 2008. These numbers and comparisons have given us sobering information about a changing world and the inevitable change of the church. Our numbers are dwindling, and our congregations are aging. Fewer people in church mean smaller ministries reaching fewer new people, resulting in the inevitable decline and eventual demise of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas. The statistics clearly illuminate the reality that the United Methodist Church in Arkansas will be an entirely different church in the not-too-distant future.

In some key areas of measurements of effectiveness for ministry, here is what we have learned about ourselves:

	2004	2008	2010
Number of Local Churches	722	697	693
Membership	138,987	137,980	135,670
Worship Attendance	56,513	54,774	53,918

In 2008:

- 360 churches, or 52% of all the churches in the conference, averaged fewer than 34 in worship attendance
- 564 churches, or 81% of all the churches in the conference, averaged 99 or fewer in workshop attendance
- 28 churches averaged more than 400 in worship attendance

Professions of Faith	2,131	2,032	2,364

In 2008:

- 238 churches, or 34%, had one or more professions of faith
- 459 churches, or 66%, had no professions of faith

Baptism	1,938	1,684	1,757

In 2008:

- 397 churches, or 57%, did not have a baptism

Apportionments Paid	95%	90%	89%

Fifty years ago, the average age of Methodists paralleled the population of the United States. Today the average age of an American is 36. The average United Methodist is 57 years old

Our society consists of five generations. Growing churches may include all generations, but must include the youngest three. If the local congregation has only the oldest two generations in age represented in its attendance — age 63 and up — then in twenty years, the congregation will struggle to exist.

These statistics are descriptive of our condition and give us information about ourselves as a connectional church across the state of Arkansas.

Reflections from the Imagine Ministry Team

Past, Present, Future

Imagining a different future for the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church is an intentional effort to redirect our focus, streamline ministries and generate mission field work that will effectively grow the Kingdom of God and develop disciples of Jesus Christ who are passionate citizens of the Kingdom. We should be bold enough to recognize the Holy Spirit moving us in new directions that will revitalize our churches and give us a new purpose in an ever-changing world.

Since 1966, our Annual Conference, along with other conferences and judicatories across this nation, has been marching through a unique wilderness journey. Our time in the wilderness has taken us down many familiar paths hoping for a promising future. We are indebted to many faithful leaders who have guided us over these 55 years. Steps forward in recent years include conference initiatives such as Connected in Christ and New Church Starts which have aided our journey, but which cannot get us through the rocky wilderness alone.

There are many lessons to be learned from this wilderness journey. But despite our best efforts, prayers and pursuit of God's guiding Spirit, we have lost members and have grown out of touch with the communities surrounding our congregations. Some rural communities are experiencing economic decline while some areas of the state are growing rapidly. Most areas of the state are shifting demographically. As the Arkansas population continues to grow our churches continue to be smaller and reach fewer new people. Changes are happening, while the church has stayed the same. Presently we find ourselves over-burdened by bureaucracy, lacking accessibility, woefully behind the technology curve and are the opposite of nimble. Most importantly, our recent statistics reveal significant loss in membership and worship attendance and dismal reports regarding the number of professions of faith and baptisms.

When a system, such as an Annual Conference, no longer knows what its purpose is, what it produces or how it needs to change, it keeps on doing what it always does. That's history. The future God is calling us to awaits us. The present time of deep change in the wilderness has become our purpose.

Wilderness Training

The purpose of a wilderness journey is biblically demonstrated in the way God moved the Israelites out of slavery and into a long wilderness training of spiritual development through obedience and trust and transformative change. There is a Promise at the end. By being faithful to listening to God lead us in the wilderness, we will be equipped to adapt to new environments. Facing what is foreign and even dangerous will move us past our anxiety. Trusting God will show us the way means that even if we stumble on the path, we will just be moving forward faster. Being willing to leave our baggage (what we currently do that produces no fruit) along the roadway will lighten the load for walking to the place of God's promise. Unlike some of the Israelites in the wilderness, we must remain positive toward the possibilities, avoid cynicism and idolizing our history or the status quo.

We must engage in deep change and do the work of walking in the wilderness, because Jesus Christ never envisioned his followers to be sedentary or silos of comfort. Jesus Christ never asked his followers to protect their own interests or plant themselves in favored positions. Rather, Jesus asked his followers to "go" and "make"; "teach" and "baptize." Jesus cited no formula or fixed location; no top-down decision making. A willingness to walk among the people, a vision of a common destination, and a pure love of God are bread for the journey for sojourners in the wilderness.

Discerning Directions

As Dr. Gil Rendle states in his book, Journey in the Wilderness, finding our way in the wilderness and carving new pathways is not congruent with following old rules, relying on conformity, or expecting every church to be treated equally. We cannot imagine that all of the wandering Israelites were eager and ready to get up and walk in the wilderness every day. We, too, will not all rise to the occasion. It will not be easy to agree on our direction because we will try to protect our self-interests. The process of surrendering to deep change and turning to the hope of a new way of doing church will require sacrifice and commitment, not just from conference leaders, but from all clergy and all congregations in the local setting. Discerning our direction in the wilderness will be a process of deep prayer, study of God's word, and intense self-reflection. Three questions to aid in this process, for individuals and congregations, are:

1. Who are we?
2. Who is our neighbor?
3. What has God called us to do?

These questions ask us each to discern our identity, purpose, and our ministry context. The answers combine to address the question of real ministry: What difference are we called to make for Jesus Christ in this world? Because we will share in the glory of God in the Kingdom of God, we should all commit to share in the journey to get there.

Where to Begin

The Imagine Ministry team set out to generate a big picture of who we are as Arkansas United Methodists and what are we doing to fulfill our purpose. The team has worked through the following information gathering processes to begin adaptive work:

- Began dialogue with 1,600 attendees at meetings in 2010 and in 2011.
- Received 370 reports from local congregations and 1,100 on-line web surveys answering three questions about the need for deep change.
- Conducted breakout sessions at Annual Conference 2010 for appreciative inquiry and to identify common values.
- Conducted multiple small group focus meetings across the state.
- Studied other annual conferences in similar processes.
- Assessed the structure and decision making processes of the Arkansas Conference.
- Listened to individuals and congregations.
- Engaged in prayer, study of scripture, holy conferencing.

From the responses and values shared in this time of information gathering, the Imagine Ministry team has discerned core measures that will help the Arkansas Conference adapt to engaging in ministry in new ways. Now the Imagine Ministry team turns to the people of the Arkansas Conference to face into the harder work and challenges that are before us. These beginning points are all that are needed for the start of the wilderness journey. From here, through personal reflection and individual and corporate sacrifice and commitment, we are free to be creative, and explore new avenues of ministry that will help us live into our purpose, identity, and specific contexts for ministry. Our wilderness journey is an exploration, an adventure, and we should be excited to see where the Holy Spirit takes us.

A Guide to the Imagine Ministry Strategy and Proposals

The Imagine Ministry Report is a different kind of "strategic plan" than the Arkansas Conference or other conferences have looked at in the past. It will not be complete with all the steps and costs already worked out, because in a time of deep change we can easily understand the unsustainable nature of our present ways, and we can discern the places in which we must make initial commitments and changes that will begin our path toward a vital and viable presence in our Arkansas mission field. However, in such a new and fast-changing time, we cannot be sure how and where we should end up and what we will yet be challenged to do. We will have to learn along the way.

For that reason, you will not be asked to approve recommendations that reach farther beyond what we are able to see and understand so far.

However, the Imagine Ministry Team has worked long and intentionally to understand the kind of changes that needed to be made and where we can begin. It is a deep belief that this report and recommendations begin the Conference journey in the right direction.

In this guide to the report you will read what the Imagine Ministry Team learned and what we are recommending. Before reading the full report the team wants to be as clear as possible in identifying the "why's" of the changes that are proposed. What follows are the critical proposals of the report that the team wants to highlight, along with some explanation to help understand why these changes are being proposed.

1. There is a new preamble, vision statement, mission statement, and core measures:
    - The United Methodist Church and the Arkansas Conference already have mission statements that have not been violated nor discounted by offering new statements. However, we have redefined our Imagine Ministry work with preamble, vision and mission statements in an effort to keep ourselves accountable to revitalize our church by an intentional connection to the mission field. At some point the conference may need to return to current statements or develop a new focus. But for this moment, these statements have guided the work of the Imagine Ministry Team and it is proposed that they guide the work of the conference over the next years.

- The "Core Measures" are the touchstones by which the work is measured. By touchstones, the team is proposing that present and future decisions and changes in priorities, resources, structure and staff be guided and "measured" by whether they are an expression of and faithful to these touchstones.
- The preamble, vision statement, and mission statement represent a deep and significant shift of focus to the mission field instead of simply on congregations and clergy. We are called to make disciples, not to manage an institution.
- "You get what you measure," so measures should be intentionally missional (purpose and intent) as well as institutional (dollars, people, and activities). When measures cannot be quantifiable in numbers, they have to be describable so that there can at least be a conversation about whether we are moving toward the measures. It is this kind of descriptive measure by which decisions and progress can be measured.

2. There are recommendations on the way an annual conference is structured:
   - The local churches and their leaders, the annual conference structure, and conference resources are the tools by which the ministry of our United Methodist Church is accomplished. It is a spiritual task to put our people, organizational structure and dollars to best use.
   - The work of ministry, of making disciples, is done by the local church. The changes recommended by the Imagine Ministry Team are offered in an effort to move attention and resources closer to the local church and its leaders.
   - Simplifying, downsizing, and redirecting structure and resources are done in a dual effort of supporting local ministry and preparing the conference and the churches for new and younger generations.
3. There are proposed district changes – The IM report will recommend moving from nine to five districts:
   - Fewer districts will reduce the duplication of offices, structure, and staff at a time when the rest of the culture has learned how to deal with distance and communication in a new way.
   - Moving from nine to five districts will require District Superintendents, local churches, clergy, and the conference to invent new ways to be in covenantal and missional connection. A smaller, streamlined structure to connect us will allow us to be more agile and leaner (a requirement of all organizations today), and to direct fewer resources to structure and staff.
   - Fewer districts will also force everyone (bishop, district superintendents, clergy, laity, and congregations) to be both inventive and intentional in knowing one another and being missionally (not just institutionally) connected.
   - Facing up to the challenge to be inventive and intentional about our connection in new ways may not be comfortable or wanted by those already in the conference but it will prepare the conference and churches for the next generations of people who already live in such a world and who want their world to include The United Methodist Church.
   - Fewer districts and the process of realignment of districts allow redevelopment of each new district around unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic contexts instead of treating every district the same.
4. There are proposed changes to the role of the district superintendent:
   - Currently there is no one responsible and accountable for developing regional strategies of mission that are geographically and demographically sensitive and appropriate. The annual conference develops statewide priorities and global connections. The local church and local extension ministries develop local strategies appropriate to their own mission field. With the district resources of multiple congregations, and local extension ministries, and with access to conference and national resources the district superintendent is the appropriate role and conference staff person to develop regional (district) missional strategies and work plans.

- By reducing the primary role of the district superintendent to missional strategist and deployment specialist, the district superintendent is to be freed up to do the most important work of this position – understanding the district mission field and the congregations in order to make the most appropriate appointments based on the gifts and effectiveness of clergy.
- With larger districts and a smaller but clearer role, a good bit of the work of district ministry will be shared collaboratively with congregations, clergy, congregational coaches and circuit elders (see pages 27-28). This pushes the real work of mission and ministry closer to the mission field and the local congregation, where it belongs.

5. There are new roles created - Congregational Coaches and Circuit Elders:
   - These are new roles for people who are already working in the field. These are not intended to be conference or district staff positions, but will either be volunteer or stipend positions. The expenses incurred by people doing this work will, of course, be provided.
   - Sharing of work across congregations and among leaders to be done by people in these new roles is a desired form of covenantal connection that reflects our Wesleyan heritage. "Lone Ranger" leaders and congregations limit themselves in ideas and opportunities, as well as isolate themselves spiritually without a larger prayer and accountability community.
   - While these new roles can initially be perceived as drawing leaders away from primary responsibilities in their own congregations, the Imagine Ministry Team is convinced that, well executed, these new roles will actually enhance and support the local leadership of the Coaches and Circuit Elders by offering wider experience, continued training, and missional colleagues.
   - Training for the new roles will be offered. Supervision of the new roles will be provided by the district superintendent as a part of the deployment work of that position.
   - The Imagine Ministry Team believes that working connectionally and relationally through Coaches and Circuit Elders will encourage the building of a missional connection of leaders and congregations to replace older habits of enforcing institutional conformity through rules and regulations.
6. There is a proposed new district structure:
   - The structure of each new district is to be simplified in an effort not to duplicate work that can be done at the conference level.
   - Each district should be staffed and resourced in a way appropriate to the unique geography and demographics of the region covered by the district. A high value will be made to appreciate corporate memories of churches and staff of former districts.
   - The role of the District Administrative Assistant is to be enhanced to care for administrative, managerial, and communication responsibilities that are no longer appropriate to the role of the district superintendent and should not distract local congregational leaders.
7. There is a new Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence:
   - Leadership development is recognized widely as a primary lever for effectiveness in ministry. The conference and denomination have been more invested in clergy leadership development. However, the Imagine Ministry Team recognizes the critical need for lay leadership development and for shared clergy-lay leadership in local congregations. The Imagine Ministry Team proposes that responsibility for both clergy and lay leadership development initially (and perhaps continually) be housed in the same center as the center learns how to do this work better.
   - The Imagine Ministry Team proposes that this center be staffed by the bishop's office and resourced through the conference budget.
   - The Connected in Christ initiative is to be a foundational part of this new center because of its effectiveness as a valuable resource to the leaders and congregations of the conference.

- The function of New Church Starts is also to be a part of this new center.
- The Imagine Ministry Team holds no assumptions about where the office of the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence is to be housed at its inception or in the future. Location as well as staff should be appropriate to its developing work.

8. There will be a new Center for Technology:
   - The Center for Technology is a new part of the structure of the conference. The critical role of technology grew in importance as the Imagine Ministry Team did its work. The development of the technological capacity of the conference is necessary to support:
   - Reconfiguring districts over larger geographic areas;
   - Training and resources provided more widely and more effectively with fewer staff and fewer committees;
   - Learning to work wisely at lower expense by reducing travel and meeting costs both in terms of time and dollars;
   - The development of more effective communications;
   - The building of connectional networks of leaders (in particular, see the Networks for Personal and Social Holiness below).
   - The Imagine Ministry Team proposes a new Center for Technology to enable the conference and churches to welcome and include younger generations of people who already live in a highly technological world. One of the reasons that Methodism does not seem relevant to the lives of many in younger generations is because the church is not connected to or accessible by the technological world in which they live. It is imperative to make room for the next generations of United Methodists.
   - The Imagine Ministry Team proposes that this center be staffed by the bishop's office and resourced through the conference budget.
   - Advancing technological capacity will require additional up-front funding. There will also be periodic costs for updating technology. Nonetheless, the Imagine Ministry Team does not believe that developing a new standard of technological proficiency represents continued large capital investment.
9. There will be two new networks - The Network for Personal Holiness and the Network for Social Holiness:
   - In the original work of the Imagine Ministry Team these two new functions were initially identified as the Center for Personal Holiness and the Center for Social Holiness. However, it was perceived that this communicated more conference structure, offices, staff and dollars. The language of network is more appropriate to carry a conviction that these are to be a less structured connection of passionate people who are learning together, teaching others, resourcing congregations, and experimenting in new ways.
   - This ordering of these proposals is to be understood in terms of the historic poles of Wesleyan theology and identity – personal and social holiness – that make up the unique practical theology of United Methodists as a people.
   - The Arkansas Annual Conference already has passionate people who care deeply about issues of great importance. However, much of their time, energy and resources are exhausted by committee meetings and institutional behavior. In today's technological world, people can be connected, encouraged and set free in new ways at lower cost by developing networks to connect them.
   - The Imagine Ministry Team envisions each of these two networks to be initially connected to the office of the Director of Connectional Ministries as participants learn to build and use these networks for missional purpose.
   - The Imagine Ministry Team does not propose that offices be established or staff be engaged to develop these networks. However, it will be both fair and appropriate to offer stipends to individuals who are asked to take primary leadership in developing and convening these networks.

- Moving away from the old committee structure by which individuals currently pursue their passions of ministry and provide for the needs of the mission field:
  - moves groups away from institutional mechanisms of committee meetings and conference requirements and toward learning and experimenting with ministry at the appropriate local church level.
  - connects people (without having to be elected or appointed to a committee) who want to be engaged in an issue of personal or social holiness.
- While personal and social holiness have not recently been a way in which the United Methodist denomination has structured its work, these two central parts of our Wesleyan heritage are our unique gift to mainline Christianity. It is appropriate to order the interest, passion, and resources of our church around these parts of our identity. The Imagine Ministry Team, along with many others, believes that helping ourselves and others to live out personal and social holiness is what the mission field most wants and most needs from the United Methodist Church.
- Learning how to live the disciplines of personal holiness and social holiness is at the very center of both being and making disciples.

10. There will be a reduced and streamlined conference center designed to provide services to local congregations and clergy as well as to continue the missional alignment of our resources.

- There will be a Leadership Table that will be both inclusive and representative of the conference. This will be a major coordinating body of all conference committees and all voices represented at the table. It will be inclusive in nature, collaborative in style, efficient, accessible, and accountable - a discernment and visioning entity.
- There will be a new Executive Team of the Conference to work directly with the bishop to make on-going administrative decisions and aid communication to support the alignment of efforts between Centers, Networks, and Conference.

11. The Imagine Ministry Team will continue under the direction of the bishop.

- The Imagine Ministry Team is not currently and will not be a decision making group but will hold the new work of the conference to the new vision, mission, core measures and priorities. It will continue the conversations needed to help the conference shape its future work. It will develop measurable outcomes. It will serve at the pleasure of the bishop.
- The Imagine Ministry Team will increasingly invite new people and additional short-term teams to study and make recommendations about specific areas of the future of the ministries of the conference.
- Recommendations from the Imagine Ministry Team and its short-term teams will be directed to the Bishop or to those bodies with the appropriate decision making responsibility of the conference.

12. The number of conference committees will be greatly reduced in number.

- The committees that will continue are either required by the Book of Discipline or central to the alignment of the work of the Annual Conference.
- The Annual Conference will learn to work with networks of people with energy and passion around shared issues and with short-term teams with specific tasks.
- The shift in organization from committees to networks and short-term teams mirrors what local churches are increasingly learning to be appropriate to the way participants now engage in the work and ministry of the church.
- The shift, though requiring new learning, will make local churches and our annual conference more hospitable and inclusive of new generations who no longer seek to structure their efforts using committees.
- The shift will allow the conference to redirect budget to more direct local ministry rather than to support travel, meetings, and reporting.

- It is the intent that the various areas of ministry once managed by committees will thrive by learning to network those people most concerned with particular areas of ministry. Local churches have recognized for some time that structuring specific areas of ministry as committees has the effect of silo-ing the effort within the committee that is then not embraced by the full congregation. Committee work tends to become the responsibility only of the committee.

Conclusion:

The work of the Imagine Ministry Team has been both slow and deliberate with a constant eye for local ministry. The following report is offered prayerfully and with hope for the church. Prayerfully consider the report and join the conversation.

IMAGINE MINISTRY TEAM EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In June, 2009, Bishop Charles Crutchfield established the Imagine Ministry Team for "study, reflection, visioning and imagining what the United Methodist Church in Arkansas and its ministry can be and should be in the coming years." This assignment has required significant research and discovery by the team. These discoveries came from reading, discussion, interviewing individuals and other annual conferences, focus groups, and surveying over an eighteen month period. There has been an extensive statistical history of the Annual Conference since our merger. In addition, over this period of time, approximately 3,800 responses have contributed to the Imagine Ministry conversation. Countless others have shared in small group discussion in local congregations across the conference.

Statistical Review

The review of the recent past shows that, while Arkansas' population has grown, and some areas of the state have increased significantly, the Arkansas Annual Conference and its congregations are getting smaller. The rate of decline has accelerated over the last five years. Additionally, United Methodist congregations are aging, averaging over twenty years older than the general population.

What we learned

Like the United Methodist denomination, the Arkansas Annual Conference is struggling with two primary issues: financial sustainability (in terms of providing resources for local church ministry) and relevancy. The ability to communicate with our culture has been lost, and it is increasingly difficult to attract younger people, ethnic minorities, and diverse groups within Arkansas communities.

Conclusions

1) The United Methodist Church in Arkansas must recapture its sense of urgency to evangelize those living in our communities.
2) The mission field in and around local churches must be the primary focus of ministry.
3) Leadership for both clergy and lay leaders must be improved to a level of excellence.
4) Clergy and lay leaders must be held accountable for outcomes of transformation.
5) The Annual Conference must be more responsive to local congregations.

Therefore, the Imagine Ministry Team recommends these proposals to bring about deep change needed in the Arkansas Annual Conference:

Proposals

- Deep prayer for the spiritual empowerment of leaders, churches, and members.
- A new statement of vision, mission, and core measurements that will form the practical foundation of renewal.
- Changes in district structure, moving from 9 to 5 districts.
- New, more functional role of the District Superintendent.
- Additional congregational support from Congregational Coaches and Circuit Elders.
- Reduction of District and Conference Committee structure.
- Two new Centers to focus on Clergy and Laity Excellence and Technology.
- Two new networks to focus on Personal Holiness and Social Holiness.

Key Recommendations:
Vision, Mission, Core Measures and Priorities

PREAMBLE

"The Church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the conduct of worship and the due administration of his Word and Sacraments, the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline, the edification of believers, and the conversion of the world. All of every age and station stand in need of the means of grace which it alone supplies." (United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 106)

The mission field is the place of ministry. It is where the word of Christ needs to be heard and demonstrated to transform lives. Understanding the mission field will be one of the challenges of our conference and denomination as we live into our new world. Most important is for us to realize that the mission field will not be the institutional needs of our conference or our congregations and will not be the satisfaction of the people already active in the conference or charges. Each church will need to clearly define its mission field which may be at any one of three levels:

- Within the congregation as people's lives are deepened to become active disciples of Christ.
- Within the community as we invite people to know and respond to the presence of Christ in their lives.
- In the global community as these transformed lives transform the world.

VISION

Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate holy living, justice, and love of neighbor.

The implications of this vision statement:

- The desired outcome of making disciples of Jesus Christ in Arkansas mission fields is to impact local communities and make more disciples.
- The fruit of discipleship is to be experienced in mission fields, as well as in personal lives.
- Disciples transform communities by pursuing personal and social holiness and attending to the ordinances of God (The General Rules), practicing sharing their faith stories, and personally inviting others to know Christ.
- Disciples of Jesus Christ combat injustice as the particular geographic, economic, racial, social, and gender issues of our communities are addressed. Disciples must focus on the realization of the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven.
- Truly loving neighbors and giving to others who have needs is the way a disciple mirrors Christ's action and love. For this all disciples should be held accountable.

MISSION

To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

The implications of this mission statement:

- A mission statement declares who and whose we are. Methodists are disciples of Jesus Christ, growing in discipleship, who accept the urgent responsibility to make a difference for Christ in the world.
- Transformation is the work of God. Disciples participate in God's action by seeking to make an impact in the lives of those around them, in their community and in the world, to aid in that transformation.

CORE MEASURES

Touchstones from which work will begin and serve as references for ongoing evaluation.

We shall embrace deep change that empowers us to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by:

- Rooting all we do in our understanding of Scripture, and personal and social holiness (the foundational principles of United Methodism), so that we revitalize our connection and our ministry instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
- Establishing the mission field as the primary place for our attention and resources instead of directing most of our attention and resources to the institutional needs of congregations and clergy.

- Equipping laity and clergy for shared outcomes of transformation with excellence instead of directing resources toward congregational preservation and satisfaction of current members.
- Organizing our ministry around the unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic contexts in the identified mission fields instead of treating every church, district, and conference structure the same.

Arkansas Conference Priorities

These are the places we will give our attention for long term deep change.

Purpose and Identity

To do church differently and make disciples of Jesus Christ by covenanting to become Acts 2 disciple-making congregations which are Spirit-led, Spirit-filled and fruit-producing:

- Focus all activity on Christ (1 Corinthians 12:27). The congregation is organized to make and engage disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world (Matthew 28:18-20);
- Call, equip, and release disciples to pursue their passion and use their gifts to glorify God (Ephesians 4:11-13);
- Call, equip, send and support leaders to lead disciples (Mark 1:17);
- Lead disciples to meet the spiritual, social and physical needs of those in the community and world; and produce Acts 2 fruit (John 15:8, 16 and Acts 2:41-47).

Acts 2 Congregations

By doing church differently, we anticipate bearing fruit for the Kingdom of God demonstrated in Acts 2:41-47:

- Acts 2:47 – Experience an increase in professions or reaffirmations of faith into the faith community.
- Acts 2:41 - Increase worship attendance.
- Acts 2:44-45 - Mission engagement to address poverty and community development through ministries of mercy and justice.
- Ensure a majority of the worshiping congregation is participating in ministry initiatives outside of weekly worship.
- Support mission financially through locally identified community and world mission projects and fulfill 100% of shared ministry giving.
- Acts 2:43 - Demonstrate signs of God's power and wonder; ministry results that are more than human ability and are clearly God's movement through the congregation.

Connection

In order to do church differently the Annual Conference will be realigned, strengthening the resources and relationships with local congregations. Each local congregation is expected to change by embracing the vision and mission of the Annual Conference as we follow The United Methodist Way.

Training and Equipping

In order to do church differently, clergy and laity will be evaluated, trained, and equipped to be accountable for anticipated fruits of Acts 2 congregations.

These are the places to begin our immediate work.

I. Revitalized Mission Emphasis

- Give priority attention to the mission field of the geography surrounding local congregations in The Arkansas Annual Conference as the place to make disciples.
- Create new avenues for telling mission stories and communicating the need for increased involvement and opportunity for local and worldwide mission engagement.
- Enhance the mission communication network to demonstrate the value of the United Methodist connection.
- Focus on the local mission field, where there is the greatest opportunity to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, though United Methodists will not neglect nor forget that the world is our parish.

II. Laity and Clergy Development and Accountability

- Expect leaders, both clergy and lay, to develop practices of a disciplined Christian life, which will include accountability for acts of personal holiness and social justice.
- Appoint ministers to specific mission fields based upon their effectiveness and skill. Effectiveness training and evaluation will be focused on integrity of heart and life, wholeness of relationships, and competency in ministry in a given context.
- Develop a laity effectiveness and accountability process centered on personal holiness and social justice (the foundational principles of United Methodism).
- Develop a process for recruiting effective young clergy.
- Develop a process for recruiting and training young lay leaders.

III. Strategic Church Alignment

- Invite congregations into strategic categories for ministry and mission in which congregations will be encouraged to be held accountable for their missional goals.
- Design a complete assessment regarding contextual mission field, demographics, and congregational potential for each congregation to utilize.
- Create an assessment tool and process for each congregation and ministry setting to discern desired outcomes consistent with each congregational setting and strategic category.

IV. Conference Structural Changes

- Re-shape current district and conference organization to accomplish purpose and priorities.
- Change the role of the District Superintendent from a manager to become a chief missional strategist and deployment officer.
- Establish a support system of district staffing and congregational and clergy coaches to achieve shared outcomes.
- Support the work and ministry of ethnic congregations and pursue diversity in all local churches.
- Re-examine the purpose and strategies for new church starts.

V. Maximize the use of technology in redefining the mission, purpose, and structure.

- Endeavor to become the most technologically advanced conference in American Methodism.
- Incorporate a broader use of technology to share our story of faith, reinforce the shared mission, improve communications, and support clergy and lay effectiveness.

Motions for the consideration of the 2011 Session of the Annual Conference from the Imagine Ministry Team:

Motion One:

The Arkansas Annual Conference adopts the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measurements as presented by the Imagine Ministry Team.

Rationale:

1. This redefines the work of the local church and the Annual Conference to keep Arkansas United Methodists accountable in the effort to revitalize congregations and communities with an intentional connection to the mission field.
2. The "Core Measures" are the "touchstones" by which the work is measured. By "touchstone" the team is proposing that present and future decisions and changes in priorities, resources, structure and staff be guided by whether these are an expression of and faithful to these touchstones.

Motion Two:

The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference session of 2012, is redistricted into five districts, being served by five District Superintendents. (Pursuant to the instructions of ¶415.4 of the 2008 Book of Discipline)

Rationale:

1. This will redirect financial resources to the local mission field.

2. This will increase the connectional relationship to the local church by providing trained Circuit Elders and Congregational Coaches. The District Superintendent will become the chief missional strategist for the district and deployment officer for the clergy. These new relationships will enhance the ministries of local congregations to their unique mission field. The Appointive Cabinet will appoint Circuit Elders to mission field locations. The District Superintendent will supervise circuit elders and congregational coaches.
3. A called session of the Annual Conference will be scheduled for the fall of 2011 for the purpose of addressing the district alignment and budget cost.

Motion Three:
The Arkansas Annual Conference, by the Annual Conference session of 2012, will simplify its organizational structure following the mandates of the Book of Discipline and the missional direction of the Vision and Mission Statements and the four Core Measures.

Rationale:

1. The simplified organizational structure will redirect the resources of people, time and dollars to the mission field and local congregations rather than to committee meetings, and organizational maintenance.
2. The simplified organizational structure will align our conference with new generations that operate through networks and short-term teams and smaller decision-making bodies.
3. At this time we believe the beginning simplified structure will include the Extended Cabinet, Leadership Table, Executive Team and the Imagine Ministry Team as directed by the Bishop.

Motion Four:
A team will be appointed by the Arkansas Conference Bishop to arrange for the orderly transition to the new conference and district organization, which will provide a budget proposal for conference staffing. This budget will take effect January 1, 2012, and will not exceed the amount budgeted for conference staffing for 2011.

Arkansas Annual Conference - Clergy Effectiveness Assessment
Definition and Explanation of Clergy Effectiveness

-The Beginning of a Conversation-

Out of a shared commitment to enhancing clergy effectiveness in local churches throughout the Arkansas Annual Conference, the Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry offer the following definition and explanation of our understanding of clergy effectiveness. All references are to paragraphs in the 2008 Book of Discipline.

Clergy effectiveness encompasses all aspects of a clergyperson's life and can be demonstrated by integrity of heart and life, wholeness in building and maintaining relationships, and competence in skills necessary for ministry. Determining clergy effectiveness is an art, not a science. Any evaluation should be a process including conversations between the clergyperson, the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee (P/SPRC), and the District Superintendent. There should be sensitivity to differences in personality, health and family issues, and the characteristics of the ministry context. At the same time, there are parameters of lifestyle and performance of ministerial duties, which are necessary for effective ministry. To these standards all clergy must be accountable.

I. Integrity of Heart and Life (¶304.2)

Effective clergy will:

- Demonstrate personal faith in Jesus Christ and live in such a manner that the love of God is incarnate in their daily activities.
- Follow spiritual disciplines, such as prayer, Bible study, Sabbath rest, spiritual retreat, periodic sabbatical, fasting, and participation in the sacramental life of the church, which are necessary for personal spiritual formation.
- Live balanced lives which demonstrate an appropriate work ethic regarding time and attention spent in work for the congregation or agency where appointed, as well as appropriate time for family and recreation and intellectual growth.

- Make lifestyle choices that lead to physical and emotional health.
- Be honest and forthright in all verbal and written communication.
- Demonstrate the highest integrity in financial matters both within and outside congregational or agency life.
- Be self-reflective regarding all aspects of spiritual formation, ministry, and personal life.
- Uphold the theological integrity of the church.

II. Wholeness of Relationships

Clergy within the United Methodist Church exercise their ministry within covenant relationships with God, other ordained clergy, members of the congregation or agency to which they are appointed, spouse, family, and friends (¶303.3; ¶328). Effective clergy demonstrate skills necessary to create and maintain healthy and nurturing relationships in all aspects of life. Effective clergy will:

- Exercise leadership in such a way that ministry is the work of the entire congregation and gifts for ministry among the laity are recognized, nurtured, and affirmed (¶303.4; ¶328).
- Conduct ministry in cooperative and supportive relationship with other staff persons.
- Meet regularly with P/SPRC and participate openly and honestly with P/SPRC in the process of evaluation (¶334.2b, c).
- In appointments to extension ministry, engage in appropriate supervisory sessions with those to whom he or she is accountable (¶343.1).
- Hold themselves accountable to a group of peers for growth in discipleship and the exercise of ministry. It is expected that this group will meet regularly and will deal with issues relevant to spiritual formation and growth in ministry.
- Demonstrate communication skills that include effective listening and authentic relating.
- Respond appropriately when either praise or criticism is offered.
- Seek out needed help when any relationship is strained or broken.
- Set appropriate ethical boundaries in all relationships so that issues of sexual misconduct or harassment are never in question and appropriate sensitivity to cultural diversity is demonstrated. In singleness, keep dating relationships from becoming a detriment to ministry and uphold the covenant of celibacy. In marriage, exercise fidelity within the marriage covenant and give appropriate attention to nurturing their families.
- Avoid pastoral interference in the ministry settings of other clergy.
- Grow and adjust to change while maintaining balance.
- Show openness to and work well with people of diverse backgrounds.
- Live responsibly within their income and communicate any changes in church compensation to the District Superintendent.
- Exercise ministry under appropriate supervision of the United Methodist Church through the office of the Bishop and District Superintendent.

III. Competence in Skills Necessary for Ministry

Effective clergy demonstrate gifts for ministry that allow them to oversee the total ministry of the local church (¶340):

- Making disciples of Jesus Christ.
- Guiding, supporting, training, and partnering with laity for ministry in the world.
- Proclaiming the Word of God through preaching and teaching.
- Giving leadership in implementing God's vision and purpose for the congregation.
- Offering pastoral care in times of illness, crisis, or death.
- Providing priestly leadership in planning and leading worship and administering the sacraments.
- Providing prophetic leadership that calls the congregation to evangelistic mission beyond its walls and to justice in society.
- Providing professional leadership in areas of time management, supervision and management of staff and volunteers, and financial oversight.
- Supporting the vision and goals of the annual conference.

- Developing growth in stewardship as a spiritual discipline within the congregation.
- Using modern technology to enhance aspects of church programming and congregational life.
- Intentionally developing a plan for continuing education/spiritual formation that is approved by both the P/SPRC and the District Superintendent.

Arkansas Annual Conference – Lay Effectiveness
Definition and Explanation of Effective Lay Leadership
-The Beginning of a Conversation-

Servant leadership is not an option. It is a mandate.

The Arkansas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church is committed to enhancing effective lay leadership in all local churches. The following understanding of effective lay leadership is provided to assist all church leaders.

Lay Effectiveness

Christian ministry is the expression of the mind and mission of Christ by a community of Christians that demonstrates a common life of gratitude and devotion, witness and service, celebration and discipleship. All Christians are called through their baptisms to the ministry of servanthood in the world to the glory of God for human fulfillment. The forms of this ministry are diverse in locale, in interest and in denominational accent, yet always catholic in spirit and outreach. 2008 Book of Discipline, ¶125

Lay Leadership

The United Methodist tradition has recognized that laypersons as well as ordained persons are gifted and called by God to lead the Church. The servant leadership of these persons is essential to the mission and ministry of congregations. They help to form Christian disciples in covenant community with the local congregation through spiritual formation and guidance for Christian living in the world. 2008 Book of Discipline, ¶133

The privilege of servant leadership in the Church is the call to share in the preparation of congregations and the whole Church for the mission of God in the world. The obligation of servant leadership is the forming of Christian disciples in the covenant community of the congregation. This involves discerning and nurturing the spiritual relationships with God that is the privilege of all servant ministers. It also involves instructing and guiding Christian disciples in their witness to Jesus Christ in the world through acts of worship, devotion, compassion and justice under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. John Wesley described this as "watching over one another in love." 2008 Book of Discipline, ¶137

Effective Lay Leaders will:

- Be faithful to God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.
- Demonstrate their Christian faith by honoring the membership vows of The United Methodist Church by supporting it with their:
  - Prayers
  - Presence
  - Gifts
  - Service
  - Witness
- Practice a commitment to the church's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ through:
  - Taking an active role in growing local churches;
  - Nurturing church members and non members;
  - Fulfilling the mission of the United Methodist Church at the local level and the world;
- Be accountable for leading the church and greater community through:
  - Effective communication;
  - Partnering with clergy in kingdom building;
  - Creating an environment of love that is tolerant of divergent expressions of beliefs;
  - Monitoring the Five Practices of a faithful congregation:
    + Radical Hospitality

+ Passionate Worship
+ Intentional Faith Development
+ Risk-Taking Mission and Service
+ Extravagant Generosity.

- Demonstrate integrity of heart and life, wholeness in building and maintaining relationships and competence and skills necessary for ministry.

Office of the District Superintendent
Model for Ministry and Standards of Effectiveness

Background

The Office of District Superintendent is created by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and has an honored tradition in Methodist history. The office was developed to support clergy and churches in a time when transportation, communication and community structures were very different. This historic role of the District Superintendent had evolved to focus substantial time on business management rather than on directly supporting churches and clergy. This document intends to modify the role of the District Superintendent to reflect changes in responsibilities, duties and commitments of time as articulated by research and conclusions of the Imagine Ministry Team.

Leadership Qualities and Characteristics

- A healthy relationship with God: understands, knows and celebrates the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ to bring healing and wholeness, forgiveness and reconciliation, plus justice and peace to the lives of individuals, congregations, and their respective communities.
- A maturing spirituality: maintains a disciplined spiritual life, desires to be a lifelong learner, maintains healthy boundaries and is accountability for one's work and actions.
- Integrity: external behavior is aligned with internal Christian beliefs and healthy relationship with God.
- A caring heart: a servant leader who cultivates the gifts of the Spirit and empowers others to claim their call.
- Flexible: implements changes in personal job description and work patterns, the work of staff as the needs of the local churches, districts and/or conference change.

Skills and Competencies

- Visioning and implementation skills: the ability to identify and articulate the vision plus the assessment and administrative skills to make the vision become reality.
- Proclamation skills: possesses and articulates a working knowledge of biblical faith; demonstrates the ability to communicate and apply the gospel of Jesus Christ in culturally relevant ways to the diverse population groups of the Arkansas Annual Conference.
- Relational skills: willingness to listen, develop working teams, equip persons for ministry and manage conflict in way that lead to healthy resolution.
- Self Care Skills: creates the time management skills that lead to a healthy balance between work, relationship, and self-care responsibilities.
- Demonstrated administrative, management, and supervisory skills, especially in relating positively to diverse persons, cultures, languages and socio-economic groups.

Primary Focus of the Position

The District Superintendent serves the Annual Conference as an extension of the office and function of the Episcopal leader of the conference. (¶ 417)

- The purpose of superintending for the District Superintendent, along with the Bishop, is to equip the Church, its congregations, laity, and clergy, in its disciple-making ministry. (¶ 401) While the District Superintendent is appointed with general responsibility for the conference, that person has particular responsibility for ordering the life of the appointed district. (¶ 419)
- Along with the Bishop and the Assistant to the Bishop, District Superintendents will serve as part of the Bishop's Cabinet, seeking to serve the conference in articulating and developing the district strategy for mission, in concert with the conference mission and vision.

- The District Superintendent will lead congregations, laity, and clergy within the district to be Spirit-led, accountable, faithful, and fruitful. Disciple-making systems developed in the life of the district will be guided by the conference's core-values: radical hospitality, passionate worship, faith-forming relationships, risk-taking ministry and service, extravagant generosity, connectional ministry and fervent prayer and study of Scripture.
- The District Superintendent will implement the following conference priorities:
  1. Transformation and growth of existing congregations through enhanced disciple-making systems
  2. Starting new faith communities
  3. Strengthening connectional ministry

Style of Leadership

- These persons will need to be leaders who are able to facilitate consensus and integrate it into a living tradition, to be open to the prophetic word, to be skilled in team-building, and to be effective in negotiation. The style of leadership should rise out of nurtured and cultivated spiritual disciplines and patterns of holiness, for the Spirit is given to the community and its members to the extent that they participate. (¶ 402)
- It is expected that the District Superintendent shall be committed to the high ideal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world to the glory of God.
- It is expected that the District Superintendents, as with all members of the Cabinet, will work together in collaborative, holistic processes for the good of the whole.

Primary Task

- Direct district leadership to articulate and implement a missional strategy for the congregations, institutions and communities of the geographic area. This missional strategy shall embody the conference mission and vision in a manner that addresses the unique needs and potentialities of that district.

Desired Outcomes

I. Create a culture of expectation that disciple-making systems will flourish.
   - In partnership with the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership and the Cabinet, the District Superintendent will prioritize and guide the initiation and development of new faith communities.
   - In partnership with the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership the District Superintendent will guide congregations to embrace and implement systems for congregational development, growing toward becoming transformational communities of faith.
   - In partnership with the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership, the District Superintendent will guide the District Leadership Team in exploring and implementing ministries, which address the unique needs of ethnic minorities within the bounds of the appointed district.
   - In partnership with the Director of Connectional Ministries, the District Superintendent will guide local campus ministries and other institutions toward ministries designed to fulfill the call of changing lives and reshaping futures for Jesus Christ.
   - In partnership with the Cabinet and the District Leadership Team, the District Superintendent will lead congregations and pastors to hold one another accountable as a covenant community for our measures of fruitfulness.
   - In partnership with the Cabinet, the District Superintendent will attend to strategic deployment and development of competent leadership for the betterment of the Church. That is, in making appointments special priority shall be given to the needs and potentialities of the local congregation as the congregation relates to the mission field.

II. Create a culture of expectation that lay and clergy leaders will grow in effectiveness and strive toward excellence.
   - In partnership with the Center for Clergy Excellence, specific priority will be given by District Superintendents for the recruitment of younger, diverse and gifted pastors.

- In partnership with the Center for Clergy Excellence and the Board of Ordained Ministry, the District Superintendent shall manage an orderly candidacy process.
- Develop systems for coaching, mentoring, and teaching clergy.
- In partnership with the Assistant to the Bishop, experienced superintendents shall support newly appointed District Superintendents through coaching, encouragement and mentoring.
- District Superintendents shall interface with the ongoing work of Center Directors under the leadership of the Assistant to the Bishop, who shall facilitate the flow of information and requests between Superintendents and Center Directors.
- In partnership with the Center for Clergy Excellence and the Cabinet, the District Superintendent shall develop and communicate an appointment process that supports conference key drivers, Spirit-led, Excellence, Fruitfulness, Accountability.
- In partnership with the Center for Congregational Excellence, the District Superintendent shall develop systems for training and equipping laity for leadership.
- Expand people's capabilities through coaching.
- Encourage clergy to embrace continuing education as a lifelong pursuit.

III. Create a culture of expectation that theological foundations for ministry will be evident and affirmed.

- The District Superintendent should model and encourage spiritual formation through the practice of personal prayer, Bible study, communal worship, service, and frequent participation in the sacraments of baptism and Holy Communion. (¶ 420)
- The District Superintendent should develop systems for learning, growth, and the strengthening of covenantal relationships among clergy within the district (¶ 420.3), and shall encourage continuing education by precept and example.
- The District Superintendent shall give pastoral support and care to clergy and their families by traveling through the district, preaching, visiting, and maintaining the connectional order of the Discipline. (¶ 420.1)
- The District Superintendent shall support the Assistant to the Bishop in identifying and offering signs and symbols of pastoral care on behalf of the Bishop and Cabinet.

Systems Results

I. Systemic Changes:

- The Districts of the Annual Conference will become more connectional and tend less toward being independent "fiefdoms."
- Conference leadership will move from a culture of bureaucracy to a culture of Kingdombuilding, problem solving, risk-taking and possibility-shaping.
- Conference priorities will encourage a climate of Kingdom-building rather than maintenance and repair.
- Conference members will shift from a hierarchical view of the District Superintendent to a posture where pastors and churches work with, not for, the District Superintendent.
- Progress will be realized toward the ideal of open itinerancy.
- Systems within the conference and districts will reflect the priorities of the Conference and expressed in evidences of fruitfulness.
- Systems within the conference and districts will align with the mission and vision of the Conference.

II. Signs of Fruitfulness:

- Membership within congregations will take steps toward reflecting the demographics of the districts.
- Districts will meet conference goals as set forth in evidences of fruitfulness.
- Incoming elders will be younger, more diverse, and manifest gifts for ministry.
- New faith communities will be established in every district across the conference.

Supervision and Accountability

- The District Superintendent will be directly responsible to the Bishop of the Arkansas Annual Conference. In the absence of the Bishop, the District Superintendent will address Episcopal matters to the Assistant to the Bishop.

- He/she will serve as a member of the Cabinet and participate with collegiality as a peer in that accountability group.
- He/she will supervise clergy persons within the bounds of the appointed district.
- He/she will supervise the circuit elders and congregational coaches.

Role of the Circuit Elder

To assist local congregations in achieving the standards of vitality, a supervised system of Circuit Elders will be established by the conference. Training and support for the circuit elder will be supplied by the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership. In the Wesleyan tradition of circuit riders, a Circuit Elder will be assigned to each local congregation in the Annual Conference in an effort to assist in fulfilling the vision, mission, and core measures embraced by the Annual Conference. A Circuit Elder must be an ordained elder. Selection, assignment and supervision of the circuit elders will be provided by the Appointive Cabinet of the Annual Conference.

Responsibilities of the Circuit Elder
- Work in peer-to-peer relationships of clergy and local congregations, focusing on the ministry goals in the mission field.
- Support smaller congregations, preside over Special/Charge Conference Sessions, and provide leadership with administrative matters required by the Conference or the Discipline.
- Perform other administrative functions as assigned by the District Superintendent.
- Teach, preach, and help in interpreting the Conference expectation and hope for vitality.
- Assist in interpreting the district's plan of ministry.

Role of the Congregational Coach

To assist the local congregation in achieving the standards of vitality, a supervised system of congregational coaches will be established by the conference. Congregational coaches may be either clergy or laity. Training and support for the congregational coach will be supplied by the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership. A congregational coach will be assigned to each local church in the Annual Conference that chooses to pursue the vision, mission, and core measures embraced by the Annual Conference. Selection, assignment and supervision of the Congregational Coach will be provided by the Appointive Cabinet of the Annual Conference.

Responsibilities of the Congregational Coach
- Move pastors and laity from information recipients and conduits to agents of disciple formation.
- Convene regularly and methodically with pastors and lay leaders in Methodist class meeting-style groups to build congeniality, connection, and spiritual support.
- Act as resources to support clergy and encourage laity in shifting their focus toward the vision and mission of the United Methodist movement.
- Foster collaborative relationships with pastors and encourage them to take solid steps for realizing goals of ministry and growth.
- Empower laity through coaching and training and ask that they be accountable for the fruit of their church's ministry making progress toward meeting established goals and expectations.
- Walk alongside pastors and laity, listening to them and guiding them in their own learning and action.
- Support the District Superintendent through meeting with leadership groups from churches for visioning and planning, minor conflict mediation, and interpreting the conference expectation and hopes for Kingdom growth.

A New Conference Organization

Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership

This center will be proposed to be established in June 2012 within the Arkansas Annual Conference to foster an environment that continuously leads clergy and congregations of the conference toward excellence in leadership development.

In clergy work, the center empowers clergy with resources and skills to equip congregations for making disciples for the transformation of the world. The center's purpose is to lead clergy to be accountable, effective, Spirit-led, faithful and fruitful. The center's four primary tasks include affirming the giftedness of each clergy; equipping clergy with resources for professional development; recruiting gifted candidates for ministry; and providing resources for clergy to develop lay leadership in congregations.

In laity work, this center will connect and equip congregations and new church start leaders with tools and resources for congregational revitalization, transformation, and vitality in communities they serve. The center will specifically work to provide training, intentional accountability and excellence in leadership development that will enable the local church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Center for Technology

In June 2012, a Center for Technology will begin its work of assisting the congregations and centers of the Arkansas Conference to communicate the story of their identity, purpose and mission. The center will work in training, equipping and resourcing clergy and congregations with networking and online learning.

- The Arkansas Conference must learn to speak to and live in an increasingly technological world.
- Younger generations coming to the United Methodist Church want a church that is able to communicate with and engage the rest of the world in which they live.
- Technology holds the promise of long-term economic savings even though short-term expenses may be incurred.
- Technology can offer access to information, training and resources that were once offered by direct staff leadership.
- Technology can offer deeper forms of participation in a connectional system.
- Technology can provide a connection and relationship through networking leaders and congregations instead of forming connections and relationships through the structure of the annual conference.

Network for Personal Holiness

John Wesley and the early Methodists were particularly concerned about inviting people to experience God's grace and to grow in their knowledge and love of God through disciplined Christian living. They placed primary emphasis on Christian living, on putting faith and love into action. This emphasis on what Wesley referred to as "practical divinity" has continued to be a hallmark of United Methodism today.

Wesley used the terms "personal holiness" and "social holiness" to describe our inward growth in the love of God and neighbor, which in turn leads to outward works of love.

The Network for Personal Holiness will have a director who will work with the local churches and individuals of the annual conference in the area of spiritual formation. The network will foster places in the lives of Christians where individuals can reach for deeper spiritual growth, whether clergy or lay, whether leader or participant. The work of this network will focus on: academic teaching, spiritual guidance, liturgical experience, small group depth encounter and sharing, and silent reflection. The nurturing of body, mind, and spirit will be open to all those who hunger for deep spiritual experiences, both lay and clergy persons.

Network for Social Holiness

To love God is to love our neighbor. The Arkansas Annual Conference will create a network for Social Holiness. The word "holiness" refers to loving God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength, and loving our neighbor as ourselves. Human beings were created in God's likeness to serve and glorify God in holiness of life. Holiness reflects the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Network for Social Holiness is to equip effective leaders who can be thoughtful and committed to help change the world in service to others. The network will work to form leaders who can themselves instill hope, connect the great story found in the Gospel message to the stories of God's people, speak in a very clear language, and make a winsome case for the urgency of helping work as stewards of God's whole creation for reconciliation and transformation.

John Wesley taught us that loving God means loving our neighbors in this "world parish" that is ours. We can multiply the good we do through our collaboration and common focus on ministry with the poor, working to reduce and eliminate diseases, network and organize shalom zones and community development.

Imagine Ministry Team

The Imagine Ministry Team will develop measurable outcomes for the Arkansas Conference in keeping with the direction laid out by the Annual Conference and which are faithful to the Book of Discipline. The Imagine Ministry Team will create a culture of accountability towards those outcomes.

The Imagine Ministry Team is not currently and will not be a decision-making group, but will hold the new work of the conference to the new vision, mission, core measures, and priorities. It will continue the conversations needed to help the conference shape its future work. It will serve at the pleasure of the Bishop.

Recommendations from the Imagine Ministry Team and its short-term teams will be directed to the Bishop or to those bodies with the appropriate decision-making responsibility of the conference. Teams or task forces operating within the centers and networks will be established by the Bishop, Imagine Ministry Team or executive directors of a center. Centers, teams, and project groups must define their intended outcomes and provide time lines for accomplishing their stated outcomes.

Leadership Table

The Leadership Table structure and organization is intended to make sure that all voices are represented around the table and are heard in the conversation about the mission and ministry of the church. The group is inclusive in nature and collaborative in style, and while being efficient in the stewardship of resources it is transparent, accessible, and accountable in all relationships. The Leadership Table enables the flow of information and communication. It is a coordination body.

Extended Cabinet

The Extended Cabinet will meet at the discretion of the Bishop.

Executive Team

There will be a new Executive Team of the Conference to work directly with the Bishop to make on-going administrative decisions and aid communication to support the alignment of efforts between centers, networks, and conference.

Committees and Agencies of Arkansas Conference

Current committees and agencies not required by the Book of Discipline or named in this plan will cease to exist in June 2012, upon adoption of this conference structure proposal. The functions/ministries which were the responsibility of the current committees and are required by the Book of Discipline as well as the connectional relationships with the general boards and agencies, will be the responsibility of the Imagine Ministry Team, Leadership Team and the two centers. While we move from a "representative model" to an "accountability and outcome model," it is our desire to honor both the purpose and function of current committees and agencies while clarifying ideal outcomes and see that those are cared for in a new Center structure. In addition to the Leadership Team, Imagine Ministry Team, Executive Team and Extended Cabinet, and the two centers or networks, it is proposed that the following existing leadership groups/committees be continued in relation to one of the centers:

Committees of Conference:

- Leadership Table
- Imagine Ministry Task Force
- Executive Team
- Outdoor Ministries (Non-disciplinary)
- Annual Conference Planning Committee
- Committee on Review Structure
- Conference Personnel Committee (Non-disciplinary)

Timeline

June 2011

- Adoption of Imagine Ministry proposal as a starting point for the new work of the Arkansas Annual Conference

June 2011 – June 2012

- Implement the new work as adopted by the 2011 annual conference session. Hold a special called session of the Annual Conference if necessary.
- Adjust the structure as necessary to achieve desired results.
- Begin district deployment of resources to empower local churches to respond to the mission field.

- Bishop will appoint task forces to study and make recommendations to the Arkansas Annual Conference on the following:
  - Ministry with young adults, campus ministries and camping
  - Strategies for ministries to ethnic minority mission fields
  - Age level ministries for reaching new people
  - Report from Board of Pensions and Group Insurance
  - Task force on redistricting and budgets for conference staff presented at a special called session of the annual conference
  - Creation and transition of centers to start the new work within the conference

June 2012 – June 2013

- Continue implementation of new work and adjust where necessary. Offer specialized training to the places of greatest potential. Resourcing continues and is adjusted for regional needs.

2014

- Begin the process of evaluating the results of the current plan. Design a strategy to listen to our churches and their needs. Develop the appropriate guiding adaptive questions to be considered as we look ahead.

2015

- Prepare the next quadrennial plan and theme. Propose the plan to this year's Annual Conference for adoption. Plan should include a review and adjustment of our structure as needed.

Questions and Answers

What does this mean for my local church?

The conference exists for the local church, and not the local church for the conference. Have you heard that before? Yes. How is this different? Because we are providing a road map for deep transformational change that says the conference mission is more focused on the local church and less on institutional maintenance. There will be more coaching, communication and partnering opportunities.

Will I have conference resources to help my local church?

Yes. More resources will be at the district and local church level. However, we want to emphasize there is one call to ministry. It is the call we receive at baptism. This understanding of ministry that is the fundamental vocation of all Christians, and not simply clergy – is the basic assumption upon which our conference is built. We are partners in ministry! A strong clergy and laity team will emerge through the centers as we partner in ministry.

The focus of the district superintendents' time will be as mission strategist, supervising clergy, circuit elders, and congregational coaches. A high value of the Arkansas Conference is the connectional relationship that we share as the United Methodist family, that horizontal relationship will be more visible in circuit elders and congregational coaches throughout the counties of Arkansas.

Why does there have to be any change at all?

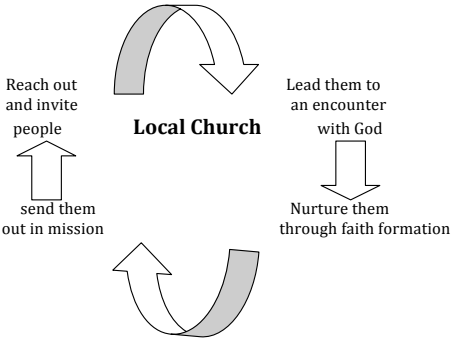

Our current model is not sustainable. The rigid nature of our current structure and budgeting system prevents the moves and shifts needed to meet changing ministry scenarios. As fixed costs continue to rise, the conference has tried to keep apportionments at a reasonable level necessarily leading to reducing ministry and programming expenses. Re-districting and reorganizing the Conference office will increase the effectiveness of ministry.

What is the mission of the local church?

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church defines the mission of the local church this way: "The mission of the church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Local churches provide the most significant arena through which disciple making occurs." ¶260

The primary task, or process of disciple-making in the local church, can be modeled as a continuing cycle into which people come (or we go to them), they encounter God, are nurtured in their faith and transformed, and then are sent back into the world to live out their faith. John Wesley understood that all persons should continue to grow more Christ-like as their discipleship deepened. This is one model of how the local churches can be about the disciple-making process and how it repeats itself throughout the lives of those under the church's nurture.

What is the mission of the Annual Conference?

The mission or purpose of an annual conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God. ¶601, 2008 Book of Discipline

In the equipping of its churches, the primary task of an annual conference is to:

- Train and deploy quality transformational clergy and lay leadership to lead the disciple-making process in its local churches.
- Resource our local churches with effective tool and best practices for effective disciple-making in the 21st century, and the re-formation of the church.
- Provide a covenantal connection for mission and ministry beyond the local church.

This "vision" is intended to point to the results we will see (our outcomes) when the annual conference system is aligned and faithful in its mission and primary task. More than the vision statement alone, the core measures define what we deem important in order to be faithful and fruitful.

The vision will need to be re-evaluated, perhaps each quadrennium by an ongoing process of evaluating our outcomes, practices, processes, and needs, and by continuing to develop strategies that will evolve as the exponential change we are encountering drives us forward. The adaptive question would next be, "What will we need to do now to bring about an effective annual conference system to produce the desired outcome of our work?"

The mission of the annual conference is quite different and should not be confused with the mission of the local church. The local church makes disciples; the annual conference equips and empowers the local church to make disciples.

How much will this reduce the conference budget?

The new work is not a cost-cutting proposal. It is a way of redirecting our resources to accomplish the outcomes our local churches and conference desire to make disciples. At this time we do not know what the redirected resources will be.

What about children, youth, ethnic, camping, and campus ministries?

These ministries are of high value to our conference and local churches. See page 34 for ongoing conversations in the future.

Glossary

Annual Conference

A regional, organizational unit of the United Methodist Church and the yearly business meeting of that unit, both presided over by a bishop. The business session is composed of equal numbers of clergy and laity. At least one layperson from each pastoral charge is a member. There are 63 annual conferences in the United States and 59 outside the U.S. in Africa, Europe, and the Philippines. The conference is a time to review ministry, adopt policy and resolutions, and strengthen spiritual life.

Connection

The principle, basic to The United Methodist Church, that all leaders and congregations are connected in a global network of loyalties and commitments that support and broaden local concerns.

Disciple

A disciple is a person who is experiencing in faith and action a life being transformed in Jesus Christ.

Core Measures and Touchstones

The "Core Measures" are the touchstones by which the work is measured. By touchstone the team is proposing that present and future decisions and changes in priorities, resources, structure and staff be guided and "measured" by whether they are an expression of and faithful to these touchstones.

The Four Foci or Areas of Focus

The Four Areas of Focus, adopted by General Conference in 2008, express the vision and yearnings of the people of The United Methodist Church. Over this quadrennium, the church will seek to focus the work of making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world around these areas of ministry:

- Combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally.
- Engaging in ministry with the poor.
- Creating new places for new people and revitalizing existing congregations.
- Developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world.

Local Church

A congregation of persons who have joined together as Christians and as United Methodists to carry forward the message of Christ and to witness to and serve the world. It is the fellowship of persons who have professed their belief in Christ, have been baptized and have taken the vows of membership of The United Methodist Church. Congregations are organized and chartered by Annual Conferences.

Mission Field

The mission field is both the people in the congregation who are being nurtured and equipped as disciples and the people in the community around the congregations that have not experienced or been introduced to Jesus Christ. The mission field also includes our global outreach through the United Methodist Church and other agencies. Understanding the mission field will be one of the challenges of the Arkansas Conference and United Methodism as we live into this new world. Most important is for us to realize the mission field will not be the institutional needs of our conference or our congregations, and will not focus on the satisfaction of the people already active in our conference or charges. Each church will need to clearly define its mission field, which may be at any one of three levels:

- Within the congregation as we deepen people's lives as active Disciples of Christ.
- Within the community as we invite people to know and respond to the presence of Christ in their lives.
- In the global community as our transformed lives transform the world.

Quadrennium

The official four-year period beginning January 1 following each General Conference, during which The United Methodist Church implements General Conference legislation. The next General Conference will be April 24 – May 4, 2012.

The United Methodist Way

A convocation was held, Nov. 16, 2007 at Lake Junaluska, N.C. The occasion was the first joint meeting in almost 40 years of the United Methodist bishops and their cabinets. Three Simple Rules: A Wesleyan Way of Living, a book by Bishop Rueben Job, was one of the convocation's guides.

In the book's preface, the retired bishop writes that in the fast-paced and complex world of the 21st century, people of faith are ready for a more faithful way of living and discipleship. Methodism founder John Wesley articulated how to live faithfully and then practiced and taught those principles. Rueben Job offers an updated version of Wesley's General Rules for today: "Do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God." These simple but challenging rules offer a distinctively Wesleyan blueprint for living as faithful disciples. "And now it is up to us to see if we will take it, teach it and practice it until it becomes our natural way of living — a way of living that will mark our life together and our lives as individual Christians," Bishop Job said.

Throughout the convocation, the bishops emphasized a commitment to teaching the rules of United Methodist living in order that people and congregations may be strengthened and grow in faith. The convocation brought together district superintendents and others charged with leading their annual (regional) conferences to develop clarity around the church's purpose, mission and identity and to prepare to lead the church in new ways. For the Rev. David Muwaya of Uganda, East Africa, the United Methodist way "means working together as (a) global church, building relationships with churches within our own conference and with churches elsewhere, bringing together people to share our history and to determine where we move from here."

The Rev. Linda Wiberg, director of connectional giving for the California-Nevada Annual Conference, said living the United Methodist way means getting in touch with the Wesleyan spirit and the movement that John Wesley and his brother, Charles, helped to create. "It is about intentionality and personal piety and social holiness," she said. "They are in partnership with one another and give us a whole Gospel to proclaim."

A Closing thought from the Imagine Ministry Team

"Without a new vision, the future does not look bright. When I was a child, Methodism in the U.S. was at one of its historic high points as a percent of population. Today the United Methodist presence in the U.S. is back where it was around 1820. At present rates, we will before long be back at the percentage at the time of the Christmas Conference.

"It does not have to be that way. Indeed, it is in times of hardship that new visions often emerge. It was in a time of despair that Nehemiah and his people united to rebuild the wall. It was after hundreds of years of suffering that Habakkuk sought and received the vision of the just shall live by faith. It was in the midst of lifedenying realities that Jesus proclaimed the vision that all night have abundant life.

"Would it not be wonderful if, at some future General Conference, a bishop delivering the Episcopal Address might make the following statement and immediately all heads nod in instant recognition of its truth?

"As I think back on United Methodism in recent times, the only fitting description is in the words written years ago to the church in Thyatira. 'I know all your ways, your love and faithfulness, your good service and your fortitude; and of late you have done even better than at first' (Rev. 2:19, NEB)."

- Dr. Lovett Weems

RESOLUTIONS

[These resolutions and any resolutions distributed at registration are not official resolutions of the Annual Conference until after they have been voted on at the Conference Session.]

From our structure, 8.c., page 469 and 470 of the 2010 Journal RESOLUTION FOOTNOTES

All resolutions, sponsored or non-sponsored, shall contain footnotes that clarify the source of any facts, quotes, or generalizations made within the proposed resolution. These footnotes shall included enough information to allow the conference some level of confidence that the content of the proposed resolution is accurate and reliable. These footnote shall also include enough information to allow the content of the proposed resolution to be double checked for accuracy. All resolutions not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be accompanied by a rationale.

PRE-CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS

Non-sponsored resolutions or petitions, as well as those sponsored by any regular board or standing committee or task force of the Conference, may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal with the approval of the Vision Team. Non-sponsored resolutions must be signed by at least ten voting members of the Annual Conference before they may be considered by the Vision Team for publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.

FLOOR RESOLUTIONS

Any resolution or petition not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be signed by at least ten voting members of the Annual Conference, and distributed in writing to the delegates and lay on the table for twenty-four hours before being debated and acted upon. Such items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

CONCURRENCE / NON-CONCURRENCE

All resolutions that call for a change in the structure or standing rules, must be submitted to a review by the Committee on Review and Research which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have financial implications, must be submitted to a review by the Council on Finance and Administration which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have Social Principle implications, must be submitted to a review by the Board of Church and Society which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

2010 RESOLUTION
RESOLUTION #1

NOTE: This resolution, in 2010, was referred to the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Council of Finance and Administration for study, and to be brought back to the 2011 conference session.

NOTE: In 2010, the CFA recommended non-concurrence. Rationale: This is concern is already addressed and funded through the minimum salary and equitale compensation programs.

The Board of Ordained Ministry recommends non-concurrence since this concern is already addressed and funded through our MEF scholarship forgiveness program.

RESOLUTION #3

"CARE AND PROTECTION OF GOD'S CREATION NEAR GAS EXTRACTION SITES"

Resolved, that the 2011 Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church endorse the following resolution:

New Resolution

General Church Budget Implications: None

Global Implications: No

WHEREAS, "All creation is the Lord's, and we are responsible for the ways we use and abuse it. Water, air, soil, minerals, energy resources, plants, animal life, and space are to be valued and conserved because they are God's creation and not solely because they are useful to human beings. God has granted us stewardship of creation. We should meet these stewardship duties through acts of loving care and respect. Economic, political, social, and technological developments have increased our human numbers, and lengthened and enriched our lives. However, these developments have led to… misuse and overconsumption of natural and nonrenewable resources, particularly by industrialized societies. This continued course of action jeopardizes the natural heritage that God has entrusted to all generations." (United Methodist Book of Discipline ¶160); and

WHEREAS, as demand for energy resources increases, the search continues for new, cheap means of extracting natural resources without adequate regard for the harm being caused to God's creation and to the people who live near extracting sites; and

WHEREAS, hydraulic fracturing (also known as "fracking") is a means of extracting natural gas where chemicals, sand, and water are injected to break apart shale thus releasing the natural gas in the process; and

WHEREAS, the fracking process has resulted in contamination of ground water with chemicals and methane gas from the operation of the wells to extract the natural gas;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Arkansas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church urges the U.S. Congress to repeal the 2005 federal law that exempted hydraulic fracturing from accountability to the Clean Water Act; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the annual conference secretary correspond with the Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality and that the body of the correspondence contain the quote from ¶160 of the Book of Discipline and the following:

> "As United Methodists meeting in its Annual Conference in 2011, we are concerned about the impact the fracking process is having on our environment and wish to express our support to the department to seek additional rules and regulations and develop public policy and law to protect God's creation in our state to preserve the environment near the extraction sites and protect the water resources of our state from potential contamination from the fracking process."

ADVOCATE FOR THE POOR

The United Methodist Church has as one of its' quadrennial emphasis that each conference will have an advocate with the poor. I was appointed at the 2009 Annual Conference.

By September of this year, we will produce a document of the various ways churches in our conference are responding to the issue of poverty. This will be distributed in CD form to all the churches in the conference so that they may be encouraged to be in ministry with the poor. Also, I will produce an Advent devotional guide in December 2011 with meditations about the church's teaching on the poor.

We have a small amount of money in the conference budget to assist congregations and individuals in starting new ministries with the poor.

This past year, I have been engaged in the following activities:

- Immigration-worked on comprehensive immigration reform which affects many low- income immigrants. I am the Chair of the Arkansas Friendship Coalition and serve on the United Methodist Church Rapid Response Team on Immigration at the General Church level.
- I served on the Legislative Task Force on Poverty which reported back to the 2011 General Assembly.
- Chair the Arkansas Conference Hunger Task Force.
- I am the Chair of the Arkansas Energy Network. We have a state-wide fuel fund that will assist low-income people with utility assistance.
- I also serve as a consultant to the Conference Board of Church and Society and Board of Global Ministries. I am available to serve as a resource to any other groups or committees within the conference.
- I work on the homeless issue and serve on the Arkansas Homeless Coalition and am their Legislative Chair.

This is an exciting time to be a United Methodist as we show the love of Jesus Christ to people who are often left on the sidelines of our world.

ARKANSAS JUSTICE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

Arkansas Justice For Our Neighbors shares the national JFON mission, which is to provide: a) high quality legal services; b) education; and, c) advocacy. This past year we have welcomed two new staff members: Ms. Julie Larson, Regional Attorney and Rev. Melissa Thomas, Assistant Director.

LEGAL SERVICES: Julie Larson serves three clinics located at Monticello First United Methodist Church, Dover United Methodist Church and Oak Forest United Methodist Church.

EDUCATION: We are currently working on projects that deal with immigration reform and wage theft.

ADVOCACY: As Director, I serve as the Refugee and Immigration Coordinator for the Conference. We are working with Catholic Charities to assist with settling refugees who are re-settled in Arkansas.

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY COMMISSION

The Archives and History Commission endeavors to assist in preserving the history of individual churches in order to honor the pastors and laity who built and nurtured these congregations through their prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. Remembering and honoring the past work of our fellow Methodists helps us as we move forward in creating and maintaining congregations where following Jesus Christ remains the focus.

This past year the Commission has been focusing on two areas. The first involves consolidating the efforts of the Winfred D. Polk Archives performed by the two conference archivists on the Hendrix campus in the Bailey Library with those of the related but not affiliated United Methodist Historical Society of Arkansas and its sister organization, The United Methodist Historic Museum. The second focus has been securing a new permanent home for the United Methodist Museum.

With the blessing of Bishop Crutchfield and the counsel of Rev. Phil Hathcock, the Commission has outlined a structure that incorporates the Historical Society and the Museum into the Commission framework where the nine district and four at-large representatives of the Commission are expanded to include two additional members from both the Society and the Museum, totaling a board of seventeen members. This would allow a more coordinated and cohesive involvement regarding the preservation and celebration of our Conference's heritage.

Additionally, due to the concentrated efforts of Commission members and the benevolent cooperation of the leaders of First UMC - Little Rock, the Commission is proud to announce the new home of the United Methodist Museum of Arkansas coming to the ground floor of First UMC - Little Rock in the near future.

The Winfred D. Polk Archives is located in the Bailey Library on the campus of Hendrix College, 1600 Washington Avenue, Conway, Arkansas 72032. The e-mail address is arkmethodist@hendrix.edu and the telephone number is 501-450-1370.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) is the conference committee that advocates work with others churches and faiths to build better trust, to cooperate with each other in various projects, and to build better communication with peoples of all faiths. We encourage dialogue with all persons. We support our membership in and financial support of the Arkansas Interfaith Conference. This year continue to encourage:

AWARENESS: In listening and informing ourselves of the issues that face interfaith dialogue.

RECOGNITION: We continue the tradition of honoring an individual and a church or community organization at the Arkansas Annual Conference whose work demonstrates effective Christian and/or interfaith unity.

DIALOGUE: We will encourage the study of MAKE US ONE WITH CHRIST (study guide of the report of the bilateral dialogue between the Episcopal Church and the United Methodist Church); and CONFESSING OUR FAITH TOGETHER (relationship between The United Methodist Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America). As always, we continue to encourage churches to hold events to promote the development of Christian and other Interfaith dialogue within the community.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

During the past year the Arkansas Board of Church and Society has continued to attempt to participate in advocacy and mission from global to local concerns.

Planning is well under way for the Imagine Ministry Summit to be held September 17, 2011. The meeting, which include workshops, will be held in Little Rock with the final location yet to be determined. Our own Bishop Crutchfield and Bishop Jonathon Keaton of the Michigan Area Annual Conference will highlight the program, which will address actions possible on the local level for advocacy in areas such as immigration, environmental justice, inclusiveness and economic justice to name a few. This Summit is one outcome of the Imagine Justice Coalition between the BMCR and MFSA which was announced at the 2010 Annual Conference. In partnership with BOCS, an Imagine Justice Summit steering committee is finalizing plans. Save the date!

During the 2010 Arkansas Annual Conference, BOCS announced the awarding of eight grants with the Conference portion of the Peace With Justice Sunday offering to the following projects: Dixon Manor Trailer Park Playground, Primrose UMC; Clark County Charitable Health Services, Arkadelphia FUMC; Nothing in Return, food for the summer; Pioneer Club After school program, Hamburg FUMC; Parents and Student Supplies Plus, McCabe Chapel UMC; Conway Cradle Care Scholarship Program; Refugee Resettlement, Arkansas JFON; and Gleaning Project, Arkansas Conference Hunger Task Force.

The Hunger Task force continues to provide small grants to community food pantries, to assist individuals in applying for food stamps and to provide educational materials and opportunities to learn how to address hunger in Arkansas. This task force continues to remain active in accordance with a mandate from the 2003 Arkansas Annual Conference that a Hunger Task Force be named and remain active until there is no more hunger in Arkansas. The Arkansas BOCS is also a member and supporter of the Arkansas Hunger Coalition, which attempts to alleviate immediate needs as well as remove the root causes of hunger.

The BOCS Speakers Bureau has provided individuals to make presentations concerning poverty issues, the environment, immigration reform, AIDS, TB and malaria eradication, ways to teach and share the Social Principles, the death penalty and death row causes, disability rights, climate change and Peace With Justice. "Three Cures for One Kingdom" was developed to address the elimination of AIDS, TB and malaria, three health issues that have world-wide consequences and whose attempted elimination was mandated by the 2008 General Conference.

Dissemination of the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church has continued through the BOCS display at Annual Conference, School of Christian Mission and the Annual UMW meeting. The booklets have also been distributed during Speakers Bureau presentations. BOCS displays also provided information and materials for individuals and local churches that address what UMs can do to promote both ministries of mercy and advocacy.

BOCS was one of a number of ecumenical sponsors for the Day at the Legislature during the 2011 Arkansas State Legislative Session. Important justice issues were presented to the participants, followed by advocacy in the Capitol.

The BOCS would like to encourage United Methodists to actively participate in advocacy. One of the ways to do this is to be in contact with our state and federal legislators. Contact www.arkleg.state.ar.us to find information on how to be in touch with the state senators and representatives from your area. On the federal level you may contact Sen Mark Pryor, 202.224.3353; Sen John Boozman, 202.224.4843; Rep Rick Crawford, 202.225.4076, 1st Dist; RepTim Griffin, 202.225.2506, 2nd Dist; Rep Steve Womack, 202.225.3772, 3rd Dist; Rep Mike Ross, 202.225.4301, 4th Dist.

CONFERENCE MINISTRY TEAM REPORT

From Phil Hathcock,
Director of Connectional Ministries and Assistant to the Bishop

The first part of my job title is something of a misnomer. I "direct" very seldom; more often I coordinate, network, resource, and facilitate. My charge is to align the resources of the Annual Conference – structure, staff, and finances – with the mission of the Conference and to enhance the teamwork of the Conference staff. Often, this means seeking collaborative and collegial approaches to ministry opportunities, avoiding the temptation to work in isolated "silos." My role as a member of the Appointive Cabinet offers the opportunity to enhance the cooperation between the Cabinet and the staff.

The variety of my work is stimulating, from researching a Disciplinary question, to finding funding for a network of children's ministers, to assisting with a grant which will fund a new ministry, to working with colleagues from other Conferences to purchase a new aircraft for a mission in the Congo.

When do you call me? In short, when you don't know whom to call! I may not know the answer to your question, but it's my goal to help you find the answer.

Phil Hathcock

CONFERENCE MINISTER OF NEW CHURCH STARTS AND CONGREGATIONAL ADVANCEMENT

On the Conference Ministry Team there are two parts to my job description: starting new churches, and helping our existing churches to advance to the next level.

If I can help or support your congregation in any of the following ways, please do not hesitate to call:

- Discerning a call to be a new church planting pastor
- Should our local church become multi-site, sponsoring an extension campus across town or in the next town?
- Knowledge and skills to successfully start new faith communities
- 68 Ways to Increase Worship Attendance - without a change of pastors
- How can we more effectively witness and invite others to church?
- Are you thinking of a major remodeling or construction project?
- Commitment to Christ 2020: a wholistic stewardship program

In the area of new church starts this past year we have provided multiple on-site strategy review sessions at each of new churches; monthly coaching relationships with our newest planting pastors; provided major financial support during the first thirty-six to forty-eight months for our new church starts; held two four day retreats for pastors discerning a call to start a new church; held a two day retreat for Senior Pastors starting second campus ministries; held a three day retreat for first time planting pastors; held a three day Boot Camp 2.0 Tune Up for new churches; held a three day retreat to improve the way we interview and assess our potential planting pastors; updated our three/five year plan for future new church sites; and supported the annual Catch the Vision offering to provide financial resources for starting more new churches in Arkansas.

In the area of congregational advancement this past year, we have worked with Horizons Stewardship's to bring Don Underwood, Steve Sallee, and Mike Slaughter to meet with the Senior Pastors of our largest churches; distributed "50 Ways to Welcome a New Senior or Associate Pastor;" sponsored two Small Church Leadership Institutes designed to provide the knowledge and skills for leading small attendance churches; sponsored a conference wide "Renewing the County Seat Church" two day event; and sponsored a "Starting A Second Campus" event at Benton.

During the year I held several local church and district workshops on "68 Ways to Increase Worship Attendance," "Commitment to Christ 2020 - a wholistic discipleship program," "Before You Build: for churches considering major remodeling or construction projects," and "Our New Membership Vow: Witness - effective ways to witness and invite others to worship."

If I can help your ministry move up to the next level, do not hesitate to call.

DEMOGRAPHICS AND CHURCH STRATEGIC PLANNING

MissionInsite continues to be the centerpiece of our missional strategic planning tools for the Arkansas Annual Conference. This resource has so many informational pieces that can help churches of all sizes develop a strategic plan for ministry to the mission field in which that church is located. Congregant Plotting is a great tool available to map current members and can be used to follow up on guests, create small groups and re-establish connections with inactive church members. Mosiac Demographic Profile tells who the neighbors are within the mission field of a selected geography. These are two of many great tools within the MissionInsite Website. We are approaching 250 registered users and with the renewed emphasis of missional ministry we know this number will continue to grow.

We continue to be available to help your church in the area of strategic planning. We are available to come to your church and meet with your team or committee in your efforts to plan for your missional future.

MISSIONS AND ETHNIC MINISTRIES

The Arkansas Conference Minister of Ethnic Ministries is a quarter time appointment on the Arkansas Conference Staff (my appointment includes a three-quarter time appointment as Director of the Wesley Foundation at UALR). In this position I support the following Conference Committees / Commissions: Ethnic Local Church Concerns, Hispanic Ministries, Native American Ministries, Commission on Religion and Race as well as serving as the staff liaison to The Crossing Jordan Movement Team. The Crossing Jordan Movement is a collaboration among Arkansas Conference Committee on Religion and Race, Ethnic Local Church Committee, Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (SBC21), and Black Methodists for Church Renewal through which a new Comprehensive Plan for Ethnic Congregations will be presented in the 2012 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

My work has centered on assisting these groups in the implementation of the various national plans (Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century [SBC21], Hispanic Ministries National Plan, the Native American Ministries National Plan) and the current Conference Strategic Plans (Little Rock and North Arkansas adopted in 1988). Each of these committees has worked to their capacity to provide support to local congregations, identify new persons for ministry; and with the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, the very important work of monitoring across the Conference for Racial Inclusiveness. You will find each of the committee reports listed in the journal under their respective reporting category.

The Crossing Jordan Movement is breathing new life and activity in the historically African American Churches across the Conference. Since November 2008, led by a core planning team, the African Americans within The United Methodist Church in Arkansas has seen new church starts, spiritual growth, energy, and renewed vision. This collaboration of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century, Ethnic Local Church Committee, Religion and Race, and Black Methodists for Church Renewal is working to develop a new Comprehensive Plan for the Ethnic Church in Arkansas. Working together will yield a better product in which all groups affiliated with Black Churches can become stakeholders in the Arkansas Annual Conference. God is at work in the ethnic churches in Arkansas.

The Crossing Jordan Goals include:

- Continuing to work with ethnic churches regarding the following:
- Re-Think Church
- Three Simple Rules
- Living the United Methodist Way
- Four Focuses of the General Church
- Implementing the Five Practices of a Fruitful Congregation
- Support the work of the Imagining Ministry Teams through completion of gathering of local congregational profiles
- Rotating host sites to regional quarterly events
- Targeting specific topics in the quarterly events
- Presenting a schedule through 2012 that enables churches in each quadrant of the state to be provided with external / general church resources
- Invited local and regional feed-back for future events

God is at work in the committees and ethnic churches of Arkansas bringing about a new awareness and understanding that the church is not a building, but the church is a people!

CONFERENCE YOUTH MINISTER'S REPORT:

There are so many good things happening in youth ministry throughout our conference. The realization that youth ministry is legitimate ministry and that youth ministers are called to that ministry is finally taking hold even in our smallest churches where youth are visible. Whether it is local or global missions, Bible studies or programming for spiritual growth, local churches are helping youth become stronger disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our support of these women and men who work with youth will ever be more important as we begin to look to the future and blaze trails for a new generation of young people to take the reins of church leadership. These leadership skills do not happen by osmosis. Youth Ministers, whether full-time, part-time or volunteer also need help with resources, training, recruitment, and family involvement as they work diligently to bring God's word to life for youth, both inside and outside the local church. That is why the Conference Minister for Youth and Young Adult office was created. I am an e-mail, phone call or drive away from being of service to all local churches in the conference. In other words, I am your staff person and I'm waiting for you to give me something to do.

Blessings,
Rod Hocott,
Minister for Youth and Young Adults

VOLUNTEER IN MISSIONS COORDINATOR

Disasters have been the main focus for VIM this year. Rev. Bubba Smith with his vast knowledge of Haiti was asked to join the first VIM fact finding and planning team to enter Haiti right after the earthquake. He has made three trips to Haiti this year, the last he took a team of future team leaders from the Arkansas Conference for a one week mission. Now these team leaders will be forming teams to go to Haiti.

We had three teams that went to Nashville, Tenn. to help with the flood clean-up.

Our chicken house in Kenya is now operational , John Boster from Heritage UMC in Van Buren just returned and reported that it is only a matter of a short time before we will be able to start giving a flock of chicks to the families in need.

Our District Disaster Response Coordinators have done a great job with the disaster training, with over 165 volunteers taking the training.

And we have also had great turn-outs for the VIM team leader training.

Pulaski Heights UMC continues to take a Medical Team to Guatemala each year, led by Gwen Eford the Chairperson of the Committee on Volunteers in Mission.

Ruthanne Murphy and Jim Garrett of St, James UMC leads a group of volunteers that feed the homeless on Mondays at the Under the Bridge Ministry (Broadway Bridge Little Rock) they will feed 65 to 70 people each night.

Don Weeks,
Minister of Volunteers in Mission

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

The communications staff of the Arkansas Conference continues to support local churches and conference initiatives through communications and technology. Amy Forbus joined the team in August 2010 as editor of the Arkansas United Methodist. Her knowledge of Arkansas United Methodism and excellent writing continue to strengthen the link between local churches and the general church. Amy continues to look for ways to tell the stories of the Conference.

The communications team in the past year has provided support of the following events, groups and initiatives: Youth Assemblies, School of Christian Mission, Volunteer in Mission and Disaster Response trainings, Communications trainings, Welcoming and Inviting trainings, History & Archives, Sharing Together in Christ's Name initiative, Imagine Ministry and the Imagine Ministry Bible Study "A New Way To Do Church," Vital Signs, Veritas, Annual Conference 2010, and many other events and activities. Through web communications, more than 200 events were publicized, disaster response updates provided, and online donations routed to those most in need.

At Annual Conference 2011, we will announce the availability of close to $50,000 in communications and technology grants and a free web hosting service for local churches. We would like to encourage use of our free web conference technologies and on-line survey tool, provided to any board or committee at no charge. We will continue to provide training and support for all local churches, boards, and other institutions in the Annual Conference through online and face-to-face channels.

The communications team is comprised of Communications Coordinator Patrick Shownes (pshownes@arumc.org), AUM Editor Amy Forbus (aforbus@arumc.org) and Director Martha Taylor (mtaylor@ arumc.org). Please call or e-mail us regarding workshops, communications or technology questions, or events of interest to those in the conference or the wider church.

Grace and Peace,
Martha Taylor, Director of Communications

CHILD CARE LIAISON PROJECT

The Child Care Liaison Project has at its heart the concern for providing safe environments for children while in our churches.

Primarily, the Liaison Project is a vehicle by which our church child care programs are able to connect to state-wide child care systems. This helps our programs stay current with changing rules and in step with available opportunities. Such connection helps our centers improve and maintain operations reducing violations of state law and improving achievement of quality certification. All licensed care programs should be working to achieve state Better Beginnings Certification, consistent with our Social Principles and affirmed by our Bishop.

Pastors, Trustees, and Child Care Boards at churches with weekday care offering, licensed or not licensed, should be reading and following the "Guide to Child Care Ministries" produced by this Project in 2009. One of the most important chapters beyond those on risk, rules, structure and curriculum, is chapter 15. This chapter guides churches to review the purpose of the program, in depth, and have various parties of the church answer some hard questions about finances, commitment, and addressing issues. Additionally, because one of the hardest things to verify by those not directly involved in day to day operation of the program is whether or not the program is abiding by the necessary rules, there is an easy to use checklist in chapter 15 to help ask the right questions and know the right answers. The guide is available for free, request one at www.arumc.org by following the Ministries Tab to The Child Care Liaison Project page.

The Project efforts extend to safe care of children on church premises. The fact is, many safe sanctuary rules created by churches are either more concerned with the protection of adult leaders than actual safety of the children, or are too lengthy to be fully known, or are simply not followed 100% of the time. The Liaison Project produced a poster, "Caring for Children and Youth" which was disseminated at Annual Conference in 2009. The items on the poster are all listed as suggestions and recommendations and represent the very essentials to keeping children and youth safe. The poster makes a great training checklist for all staff, Sunday School, VBS and other volunteers. The poster should be in every room in your church so no one forgets the basics. Remember, when your policy is more strict than the poster suggestions, follow the most strict policy; if the suggestion isn't covered on your policy or is more strict, consider following the suggestion. Posters are available for free at www.arumc.org.

The Project currently relies on volunteer efforts. Funding for project efforts is provided by The Sending Team and The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. Those wishing to help guide the future endeavors of the project should contact Meredith O'Hara at meredithoharaarumc@sbcglobal.net (501) 231-2299. Weekday Child Care leaders (full time, preschool, after school, and Mother's Day Out) should be receiving email updates from our google group, if your care program is not receiving these messages, contact Meredith and also check your spam filters.

Respectfully submitted,
Meredith O'Hara, Child Care Liaison

CONNECTED IN CHRIST

Connected In Christ began several years ago as part of a re-focusing effort to fulfill the mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Motivated by this mission, we have held numerous clergy retreats, lay-clergy team-training seminars, and coaching sessions with congregational teams.

In the past year, we started Group 14 of the core process with 20 participants. We also continued our partnership with the Board of Ordained Ministry to hold retreats for those pursuing ordination. In addition, we partnered with the Cabinet and Conference Ministry Team to hold seminars centered around the United Methodist Way Initiative, and to hold a Pastoral Start Up Retreat for pastors moving to a new appointment. We have partnered with the Southwest District for a district wide emphasis to benefit all churches, including smaller membership churches. Through these partnerships, we have been able to expand our impact and deal with some identified needs within our larger connection.

In measuring impact, our best source continues to be the stories we hear. From our pastors we have learned that they feel more connected, more supported, and better equipped for ministry as a result of their involvement in CIC. Likewise, leadership teams in congregations continue to give praise for the leadership insights they receive through the team training seminars. They report that they are more focused on the mission of the church, more hopeful about the future, and better equipped to lead for faithful and fruitful ministry. CIC is regularly lifted up as a catalyst for helping congregations focus more directly on our primary mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Impact can also be measured with signs of statistical growth. 60% of all CIC congregations have shown consecutive years of worship attendance growth. This compares to 25% of all congregations. 88% of congregations with a full-time pastor that have shown this growth pattern have been in CIC. 93% of CIC congregations reported an increase in Professions of Faith. These congregations account of almost 80% of all professions of faith. There are some wonderful signs of life among us.

In CIC, we do not see ourselves as just another continuing education program. We see ourselves as a resource for the fulfillment of this larger mission. Our unique role is to facilitate the connections needed for faithful and fruitful ministry. These connections include connecting pastors together in covenant community, connecting clergy and laity together into leadership teams, and to connecting congregations to a coach for insights, encouragement, and accountability. Through these connections great things happens.

John Crawford, our Director of Lay Leadership, and I count it as a great blessing to be in partnership with so for this important work. We truly believe that the best is yet to come. If you would like to learn more about CIC, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,
Michael Roberts, Executive Director of CIC

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

We continue to see evidence of Bishop Crutchfield's leadership in our conference and how he connects us to the general church. Under his leadership, the Imagine Team continues it's work by developing a recommended path forward where they believe the conference can improve its ministries.

The Chair of the committee met with Bishop Crutchfield to hear and respond to his ministry plan for the next year. He continues to lead with conviction and passion the work of the Imagine Ministry team. Bishop Crutchfield's ministry plan not only provides for a continuation of that ministry but includes planning for the inevitable transition of a new Bishop arriving in Arkansas in 2012.

The Episcopal residence is in excellent condition. An informal review of the Episcopal residence with Bishop and Mrs. Crutchfield supported the adequacy of the previous repairs. Some minor issues will be addressed this summer at a time convenient for the Episcopal family.

Grace and Peace,
Asa Whitaker, Chair, Episcopacy Committee

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

PURPOSE:

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has and will continue collaborating with existing structures of the Annual Conference in order to implement, evaluate and update the Annual Conference as it relates to its to ethnic Comprehensive Plans, Districts and the local churches of The Arkansas

Conference, in training and implementation of matters related to local ethnic churches. (2007 Journal, p. 428)

In 2010, the committee on Ethic Local Church Concerns supported and funded a number of initiatives that both enhanced opportunities to make disciples of Jesus Christ and respond to the strategic initiatives of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas. ELCC funded (24) students pursuing the completion of ether under graduate or graduate school. ELCC also funded and supported a number of leadership and out reach opportunities within the Arkansas Conference including; missional efforts by Oak Forest United Methodist Church, Philander Smith College, Lighthouse After-School Mentoring/ Fordyce FUMC, Breakfree Youth Zone/ Hamburg FUMC, Marianna Larger Parish and Hamburg FUMC and the "Crossing Jordan" initiative

In 2011, the committee on Ethic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) will continue to support events and programs that encourage participation in mission and ministry for The United Methodist Church in Arkansas for person of color as they relate to the mission and strategic initiatives of the Arkansas Conference by:

a. Supporting leadership and outreach development opportunities.
b. Acting as a collaborative agency in the conference supporting the design and implementation of "Crossing Jordan Movement" and related regional events.
c. Support/provide resource development training opportunities (grant writing, congregational mapping).
d. Support/provide training for community development leadership (recruit train and develop black leaders).
e. Support/provide training for children, youth and young adult workshop retreats.Support/ provide training implementing the Five Practices of Fruitful Church congregations (passionate worship).

The Arkansas Conference Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns (ELCC) revised goals and funding allocations for 2011 to include pending recommendations as they relate to the "Imagine Ministry" initiative. The following goals and funding allocations were adopted for 2011 (o/% increase over 2011).

The revised budget/goal and objectives for 2011 will assist (ELCC) in its continues effort to address the mission and strategic initiatives of the Arkansas Conference by:

a. Acting as collaborative agency in the Conference supporting the design and implementation of "Crossing Jordan Movement" and related regional events ($5,000).
b. Supporting students of color as they matriculate through undergraduate and graduate institutions of higher education via scholarships ($12,000).
c. Encouraging youth and young adult leadership development through the provision of Arkansas scholarships for the National BMCR Harambee Youth Leadership Conference which will be held at Philander Smith College in July 20-24, 2011 (5 per 6 district = $5,000.

   The South Central Jurisdiction, Black Methodist for Church Renewal will host the 2011 Youth Harambee event. The event will include praise and worship, workshops, Bible study, and various expressions including art, drama, music and dance. There will also be presentations from general agency staff and specific United Methodist benevolence such as the Black College Fund, Africa University; a community service component, with demonstration and action plans on a specific mission emphasis. The age group will be 13 to 18 years old, with more than 500 students and 80 presenters, volunteers and staff participants in this annual event.

   The 2011 Arkansas Conference Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns will focus on three of the 2008 General Conference four focus areas:

   1) New Places for New People and Renewing Existing Congregations.
   2) Engaging in Ministry with the Poor.
   3) Stamping out Killer Diseases of Poverty by improving health globally.

d. Encouraging leadership development by funding participation in congregational and national programs ($10,000).
e. Encouraging local congregations to enhance and develop community outreach programs ($10,000).

Total ELCC 2010 Approved Budget - $42,000.

The Arkansas Conference Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns also adopted the following funding allocations for the 2011 (0% increase over 2010). The following 2011 budget will assist the (ELCC) in continuing to address the mission and strategic initiatives of the Arkansas Conference by:

a. Acting as the lead agency in the Conference supporting the design and implementation of "Crossing Jordan" and related regional events ($5,000).
b. Supporting students of color as they matriculate through undergraduate and graduate institutions of higher education via scholarships ($12,000).
c. Encouraging youth and young adult leadership development through the provision of scholarships for a statewide conference based on the National Harambee model ($5,000)..
d. Encouraging leadership development by funding participation in congregational and national programs ($10,000).
e. Encouraging local congregations to enhance and develop community outreach programs ($10,000).

Total ELCC 2011 Proposed Budget - $42,000.

ELCC will continue to be reflective, committed and passionate in its effort to address/meet the concerns of the Ethnic Local Church, the strategic initiatives of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas and fulfilling the greater mission of spreading the good news of the gospel, making disciples of Jesus Christ thought out the world.

FOCUS TEAM

How can we be more effective? How can we maximize the resources that are provided to our Team through the connectional support of the Arkansas Conference? These two questions are guides that the Focus Team uses in implementing the work and fulfilling the purpose assigned to us by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

Our committees and commissions have worked to partner with entities such as the Small Membership Institute in order to offer leadership development opportunities to small membership churches. We have engaged in joint support of ministry opportunities to provide a visible model of connectional support. We've attempted to move from an individual committee or commission focus to a focus of shared mission concerns. Partnering with local congregations and other conference entities pushes us to seek avenues that have a long view as well as a broader view of mission. The result is that we can be busy as well as being effective in our mission efforts.

The purpose of the Focus Team is to assist congregations, districts and the Annual Conference in developing ministries to engage and help celebrate the diversity of Methodism and to ensure that all voices are heard and responded to through the committees and commissions that comprise our team.

We've developed and engaged in ministries that provide worship experiences, leadership development, support of local church ministry projects, community outreach, seminar and conference experiences that provide learning about the connectional system and information regarding resource availability. We fulfill our conference mandate through the work of the following committees and commissions:

*Small Membership Church Committee
*Commission on Religion & Race
* Commission on Status & Role of Women
*Committee on Hispanic Ministries
*Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns
*Committee on Native American Ministries
*Committee on Disability Concerns

GLOBAL MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

The Board of Global Ministries is in a period of evaluating and developing a new work plan for the future. Our goal is to utilize our District BOGM Secretaries as resource persons in each district to help our local churches develop mission goals and strengthen mission outreach. We have found that many churches have a clear understanding of missions, but we have also found that all our local churches need a "hub" to gain new insights, share creative ideas, and learn from one another. The goal for BOGM is to become that "hub" of information. The BOGM will be holding training sessions for members and each district BOGM secretary will be encouraged to work with District Superintendents and District Leadership Teams. Please find ways to connect with your district BOGM secretary (this is different from your District Administrative Assistant) tell him/her what your church is doing and how can the BOGM help you reach out and share God's love.

Who is my District BOGM Secretary "hub"?

Central: Loma Speck • North: Linda Bundy
North Central: Michael Topham • Northeast: Sherry Hensley
Northwest: Donna Huie • South Central: Lavon Post Southeast: Ellen McNulty • Southwest: Wanda Sullivan
West: Jackie Gregory

Below is listed the Ingathering totals for the past six years. Find your district, how is it doing compared to the other districts? Is it lower because maybe your district churches didn't fill out the paperwork? Is it lower because maybe your district churches haven't been told about the wonderful ministry of Ingathering? Did your district have a great year? Maybe you can share with other churches what you do to collect kits or money for Ingathering. We are currently looking at how we do Ingathering in Arkansas. Got an idea? Talk to your District BOGM Secretary! Here is a challenge for districts- Increase your Ingathering Totals by 10%. So, which district will take home the gold next year? HOLY HEALTHY TASK FORCE

As pastors and laity of the United Methodist Church, we are constantly faced with choices that either enhance or detract from the overall health of our churches, our families or ourselves. When we are not healthy in mind, body, or spirit, we are less than what God intended us to be, and less enabled to do the work to which God has called us.

The role of the Holy Healthy Task Force is to provide the tools for churches and pastors that will facilitate the improvement of health for our congregations, staff, and clergy.

The holy Healthy Task Force is involved in planning or supporting a number of new initiatives including:

- Continuing the Parish Nurse Training for our churches
- Promoting SPRC education in terms of supporting, encouraging, and promoting the health of the pastors and creating a supportive environment within the church

We see a future where the importance of the relationship between health and faith becomes a greater part of the consciousness of our churches. As this evolves, persons with creative ideas and a passion for health and faith will rise to the surface to help us become the church God intends for us to be

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Wesley Foundations continue to be the most important element of campus ministry in the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church. In addition to providing spiritual guidance to students on campuses state-wide, the Wesley programs on Arkansas campuses of higher education continue to be fertile ground for young men and women who want to enter into clergy roles in the church as well as a significant training arena for young adults in future positions of lay leadership in the church.

For example, the University of Central Arkansas Wesley's weekly "Into the Light" weekday worship service has been led by students in the praise band and has provided student training in leading the worship service, prayer, and sharing in Table fellowship. UCA Wesley Director Rev. John Palmer sees the campus ministry "…as the living example of 'connectional' ministries within our Annual Conference." UCA Wesley students are involved in numerous hands-on mission experiences, including a two-week mission to Peru. The UCA Wesley feeds lunch to more than 100 students and administrators each week.

A Wesley Scholarship program, called 210 by 2010, is supported through a special giving program at Southern Arkansas University. United Methodist students receive scholarships in exchange for providing leadership through the SAU Wesley. There are five current Wesley Scholars. SAU Wesley provides opportunities for worship, discipleship growth, Christian fellowship, and ministry. The SAU Wesley has good support from churches in the Southwest District and leadership from an active Board of Directors, according to its director, the Rev. Mark Lasater.

UA-Monticello Wesley is involved in weekly local mission work. Over the past year the Wesley has built ramps for the elderly, painted, helped remodel a soup kitchen, mended fences for elderly, and more. Currently, UAM Wesley has two candidates for ministry and the possibility of two more soon.

The Wesley directed by the Rev. Jessica Durand serves both the Henderson State and Ouachita Baptist University campuses. Their small group ministry focuses on local service, weekly fellowship time, Bible study, and off-site mission programs which attract ethnic minorities, international students (including some Muslims), and non-traditional students (mostly older women balancing job, children, and school). Several non-Methodist HSU/OBU students are exploring becoming United Methodists, and for several attendees who claim no home church, Wesley at HSU/OBU is it for them right now. Campus ministry is in a unique position to reach such young men and women. Students aren't pushing so much for deeper spiritual growth as for more hands-on mission opportunities. Sounds like the start of spiritual growth to me!!

UA-Fayetteville Wesley describes itself as "…a place where a student's college experience and education can include a community where the gospel of Christ, the ideas of the Kingdom, the practices of prayer and Communion, and the call to abide in Christ are shared and practiced." The Rev. Omar Al-Rikabi, UAF Director, says students at Wesley are involved in mission work at the Fayetteville Senior Center, weekly worship, Bible study and small group sessions, and in developing student leaders who help create and lead different areas of ministry.

Arkansas Tech University Wesley Foundation challenges students to be -- and stay committed – in faith, in witness, and in mission. Weekly ATUWF worship attracts more than 250 students, and missions continue to be a strong emphasis at ATU Wesley through its ministries for the community's at-risk children and youth; college students mentor 76 children from the community one-on-one. They also go to Russellville nursing homes for one-on-one contact with residents who are without local family. Globally, ATU continues its commitment to support a director's salary at $1,500 per year at the Bobby Jackson Memorial Wesley Foundation in the village of Kamina in the Congo.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock faces problems that many of the other Wesleys face, including a leaking roof. In addition to special fund-raisers, the Rev. Maxine Allen reports that she is calling upon local board members to become much more involved in the financial aspects of the campus ministry. That's true also at the Arkansas State University Wesley Foundation campus ministry, where a long-planned facility renovation languishes because it cannot be funded.

One of the chief problems for campus ministry in the Arkansas Conference continues to be funding … not only day-to-day operational funding but also funding of special one-time projects when disasters inevitably occur. Fund-raising is a huge part of the campus minister's job description. The constituencies of campus ministry program are unlike the congregations of local church in that campus ministries do not have a stable membership list capable of supporting campus ministry programs to win, disciple, and serve. Campus ministry constituents have little, if any, disposable income and, in fact, often depend upon special weekly meal programs at all of the campus ministry locations for some physical sustenance each week. So, campus ministries call upon their board members for financial support, create special relationships with churches in their areas for planned or second mile giving from those churches, plan fund-raising events, and use other approaches to round out the budgets that support campus ministry programs and supplement the support that comes from the Annual Conference that covers about 40 percent of the cost of each campus ministry program.

In 2012, the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry will attempt to put together a more cohesive plan of where campus ministry is headed overall and communicate that to the Conference. We think that will help to strengthen the campus ministry program of the Arkansas Conference and will help United Methodists across the state to better understand the role campus ministry plays in cultivating clergy and lay leaders in the church. For a number of years now, we have had a collection of campus ministries that all work very hard, but largely independently. In the coming year, we will try to formulate a broad, overall plan to strengthen the position of campus ministry in the Arkansas Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Carvell
Chair, Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

HISPANIC MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

In 2010, the Hispanic Ministries Committee supported various ministries and initiatives within the Conference, focusing on two main areas: Leadership Development and Program Support. The Hispanic Committee intends to continue sponsorship of these initiatives over the next several years.

Leadership Development. Arkansas has a rapidly growing Hispanic/Latino population, but currently lacks a centralized and cohesive structure to raise up and train leaders qualified to meet the unique ministry needs of the Hispanic/Latino community. We need to develop leaders at all levels: Lay Speakers, Commissioned Missioners, and Ordained Pastors. The Hispanic Ministries Committee has a three-fold plan to address the leadership training needs in all three areas:

1. Lay Speaker Training. Vibrant Hispanic communities exist throughout Arkansas. There are already members of these communities who are taking on leadership roles within the church, but who lack the formal training (and the confidence that is thus acquired) necessary to help form their communities into communities of faith and worship. With the goal of raising up well-equipped lay leaders in mind, the Hispanic Ministries Committee is dedicating a large portion of its resources in the coming years to developing and conducting bi-lingual Lay Speaker Training throughout the Arkansas Annual Conference. Because the majority of prospective students in these classes are likely to come from low-income communities, we will provide scholarships and transportation costs for those who would benefit from them..
2. Modular Training. We need Lay Speakers from local Hispanic/Latino communities trained to minister "at home" in both Spanish and English. But we also need persons, be they Hispanic or non-Hispanic, who are trained to handle the unique challenges that ministry amongst Hispanics/Latinos brings. The Hispanic Ministries Committee wants Commissioned Missioners who are dedicated to forming vibrant communities of faith throughout the Hispanic communities of Arkansas. These are persons who could provide administrative and organizational support and serve as a resource to Lay Leaders and church elders alike. Modular Training Levels I – III provides such commissioned persons, but is not currently available in the Arkansas Conference. The cost, time, and travel distance required to attend Modular Training in other Annual Conferences are prohibitive to many would-be Arkansan students. The Hispanic Committee has therefore decided to coordinate with the National Hispanic Plan to bring Modular Training to the Arkansas Conference and to make it widely available to those who feel called to Hispanic ministry through scholarships and travel assistance.

In the summer of 2010, the Hispanic Committee hosted a Module I Training in North West Arkansas. The class was bilingual, with about 20 students in attendance. It was quite successful: several of the students returned to their home congregations and became more actively involved in Hispanic ministry and outreach. Most have indicated an interest in taking the next level(s) of the Course. The Hispanic Committee plans to host four Module Courses in 2011: Module I and II in the spring in Central Arkansas and Module I and II in the Fall in North West Arkansas.

3. Scholarships. Although Lay Speakers and Missioners must play a vital role in the future of Hispanic/Latino ministry, they are still no substitute for full-time clergy. A vital community of faith is a worshipping community; an ordained Methodist Elder can be invaluable in helping such communities reach their full potential. It is impractical for the Arkansas Conference to found a seminary, but we can financially assist those who feel a calling toward full-time ministry among Hispanics/Latinos as they attend undergraduate school, seminary, or complete a Course of Study. The Hispanic Ministries Committee is currently sponsoring two such students and is available to provide scholarships for others who hope to enter into ordained ministry, hopefully among Hispanics within our conference.

Program Support. The Hispanic Ministries Committee is also committed to providing support for the Hispanic ministries that exist throughout the Conference. Much of this support is given through grants; each ministry must apply yearly and provide a detailed review of all work done with grant money. The Hispanic Committee also provides salary support for some local ministries; this support is contingent on the ability of the ministry to raise support from local sources within a specified period of time.

1. New Church Start, Fort Smith. An Hispanic, Spanish-speaking pastor has started a Spanish-language church in Fort Smith, AR. He receives New Church Start funds through the Arkansas Conference, support from his District and local sponsor church, and is beginning to become more self-sufficient through the support of his parishioners. The Hispanic Committee provides funds for Spanish-language materials (Bibles, literature, etc) and helps purchase food and supplies for the various social ministries that his church sponsors. The Hispanic Committee also supplements his salary and gives him scholarship funds as he completes his Course of Study (this falls under Leadership Development – Scholarships, see above).
2. Mi Casa, Pine Bluff. Mi Casa is a thriving Hispanic Mission of the Lakeside UMC Church. The Mission is working hard to develop a thriving community of faith even as it serves the very real physical and social needs of the area Hispanics. Mi Casa offers a Spanish-language worship service and Bible Studies, and encourages its members to participate in the English-language parent church. Mi Casa helps meet the financial needs of area Hispanics through helping with utilities, groceries, gas, and medical expenses, while also providing translating services. The Hispanic Committee helps fund these important ministries, and gives salary support for staff.
3. Justice For Our Neighbors (JFON). JFON provides legal counsel and advocacy on immigration and other issues central to the lives of many Hispanics. These services are usually free of charge and therefore require quite a bit of financial support. The Hispanic Committee supports the various JFON centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference and provides salary support to the Church and Community Worker who is the JFON coordinator.

4. Oak Forest UMC. The Pastor of Oak Forest UMC is active in reaching out to the Hispanic community around the church. This church hosts a JFON clinic, as well as medical and dental clinics, free meals, computer classes (in Spanish), ESL, and Spanish-language worship services. The Hispanic Committee helps the church with program funding and supports specific initiatives (ie the purchase of a home/lot adjacent to the church that could permanently house the dental clinic).
5. Lower Delta Community Outreach. The Hamburg UMC Church hosts another Church and Community Worker who is appointed to Arkansas. This worker is engaged in outreach to the Hispanic and other ethnic communities of the area through after-school and Summer Camp programs for school-aged children. The work with the children helps integrate the various ethnic communities into a diverse whole, and helps lead the children and their families into a community of faith. The Hispanic Committee helps with program funding as the need arises.
6. Other Social Outreach Programs and Hispanic Missions. The Hispanic Committee trusts that the Holy Spirit will work amongst the Hispanics of the Arkansas Conference in the coming years. Through the leadership training that the Hispanic Committee is developing, it is the Committee's hope that new and vibrant Hispanic ministries will arise where now the need is all that is evident. The Committee will support these new missions through prayer, training, and grant money when available. In 2010, the Hispanic Committee dispersed funds to several worthy and/or emergent Hispanic ministries across the Arkansas Conference, including the Break-Free Youth Center, Betel UMC, and Casa de Dios.

HUNGER TASK FORCE, CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Hunger Task Force organizes its' work in three areas:

*Education-We are working the next two years focusing on community gardens. We will have a community garden training event at Mt. Eagle the weekend of Sept. 9-10, 2011.

*Advocacy-We work closely with Bread for the World in our advocacy efforts.

*Relief-Our Change for Change offerings will be for those who are developing community gardens. We also encourage congregations to take the CFA approved Change for Change offering the last Sunday of June.

LAITY - BOARD OF LAITY

District Lay Leaders as well as the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries make up the membership of the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity. The work of the Board is done primarily through individual District Lay Leaders working with their respective District Superintendents and meets only as necessary to plan ministry and to respond to the defined needs of lay ministry within the conference.

The over-arching goal of the Board of Laity is to enable laity across the conference to be more effective in making disciples of Jesus Christ.

In 2011, conference laity leadership will continue to partner with the Cabinet and clergy leadership to educate, promote, and reaffirm the need for "Deep Change" within our conference if we are to be more effective in making Disciples of Jesus Christ.

The Board will continue to sponsor and promote a conference wide training events for laity and clergy. Vital Signs 2010 was held in April of 2010 with approximately 280 people attending. The event is scheduled for the third Saturday in April of each year through 2015 as a means of promoting continuous learning. In order to show a visible sign of support for Deep Change, Vital Signs 2011 will feature the work of the Imagine Ministries Team and provide a venue for lay and clergy alike to discuss the issue of change and how it might effect our mutual ministry

It is imperative that we foster mutual ministry of clergy and lay at every level of the church structure. We seek to develop pathways of developing partnerships and mutual ministry with the Cabinet, the District Leadership Teams, and pastors in the local church. Through the local church lay leader, we seek to foster an awareness of the role of laity in ministry to encourage clergy and laity alike to be proactive in developing effective ministry relationships.

The Board of Laity will support the goals and emphasis as determined by the conference response to the Imagine Ministries Report.

MISSION PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

In 2010 the full Committee on Mission Personnel conducted its business by email since there were no new applicants from Arkansas Conference for General Board of Global Ministries missionary positions. The committee approved the continuation of Cathy Larson as lay missioner at the Open Door ministry at the Shorewood Hills United Methodist Church. Support for this position is shared by the conference and South Central District. Applications for lay missioners for 2012 may be sent to the Committee on Mission Personnel by district superintendents for work with the poor in their districts.

Colleen Caldwell, a member of Christ Church in Cabot, was accepted into the deaconess program, has completed the required class work, and was commissioned a deaconess in April 2011. Her mission service is with Crossroad House in Cabot. This faith-based organization works to prevent teenage pregnancy through education and provides a residential facility for pregnant teenagers. Kandi Mount, also a commissioned deaconess, is a lay chaplain with Mercy Health Systems in Rogers.

The Conference Church and Community Workers Advisory Committee met twice in 2010. The three church and community workers serving Arkansas Conference are: Evelyn Banks-Shackelford of Marianna Larger Parish; Steve Copley of Justice for Our Neighbors; and Allyne Solomon of the Lower Delta Parish Community Outreach Ministry. (See CCW page on the conference web site: www. arumc. org/church_community_workers.php.)

Two additional missionaries located in Arkansas in 2010: Church and Community Worker Governor Mays, who once served in southeast Arkansas, now serves as South Central Jurisdiction Mission Interpreter. He resides in Lake Village. US-2 Lauren Woods works with the Hamburg First United Methodist Church youth program.

Churches are urged to participate in covenant relationships with individual missionaries to assist with salary support. Covenant relationships are rewarding for those in the churches involved as well as the missionaries.

The General Board of Global Ministries anticipates being able to continue commissioning a number of new missionaries in the foreseeable future. They welcome applications from those who feel called to this ministry. The Committee on Mission Personnel is available to assist applicants through this process.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY COMMITTEE

Like John Wesley stated, "we must offer them Christ."

The Native American Committee of this conference is always offering Christ to those we share our ministry with. The committee will continue to implement the strategic initiatives, mission and vision of the Annual Conference. We will continue to develop evangelism resources based on the Native American experience in the U.S. Support Native American person who are serving Native American ministries and communities across the U. S. Assist with the Native American Lay Speaking school. We as a committee will not stop telling our story until 70 per cent of our churches are participating in Native American Ministry Sunday each year. In 2010 over 100 local congregations made contribution to our Native American ministry bring in around $8, 592.92 dollars.

In November of 2010, Rev. Anita Phillips, Director of the Native American Comprehensive Plan did a training workshop for the committee focusing on the new requirement from the Committee on Native American Ministry for this quadrennium. The direction the NACP /CoNAM and other NA organization within our church will focus how to make Native American disciples within our church. Rev. Phillips stated, "Our country, our churches need the Native American witness to bring about the possibility of having a fully realized Kingdom."

Our major focus for the new Conference Year is to bring in Native American leaders to teach us more about what we can do within the Arkansas Area to share this ministry with its members. We will continue to add to our list of Arkansas Methodists who has Native American heritage. Hope that this focus will bring other Conference Boards and Agencies together for cross training of it ministries. Several articles has been in the Arkansas Methodist centered around the impact our Arkansas Methodist churches had on the Trail of Tears that removed the Native American from the East to Oklahoma serving as way stations along the route.

We will implement the goals outlined in the Native American Comprehensive Plan for 2009-2012 focusing on six areas, 1. Leadership development; 2. Church growth; 3. Ministry with the poor; 4. Global health; 5. Disciplinary mandates and 6. Other essential ministries. We will be asking local churches as well as districts to host informational sessions on Native Americans heritage in their local area. Funds will be made available for these events through matching grants.

NEW CHURCH STARTS

— Starting New Churches —

Just six years into this initiative, Bishop Crutchfield has appointed pastors to start 19 new churches and second campuses: Journey UMC in Fort Smith, Mt. Olive UMC in Van Buren, Christ UMC in Cabot, Living Water/Centerton UMC of Centerton, Grace UMC in East End, Vietnamese UMC in Fort Smith, Crosspoint UMC in Conway, Woodlands UMC in Fort Smith, Pontiac UMC in Springdale, Christ Way UMC in Jonesboro, North Fort Smith Hispanic Mission, Argenta UMC in North Little Rock, Waltreak UMC in Waltreak Arkansas, FaithSpring UMC in Ferndale, Riverside UMC in Siloam Springs, Canvas Community UMC in downtown Little Rock, Vietnamese UMC in Van Buren, Wesley@Wesley UMC in Russellville; and Victory UMC in Forrest City.

Since 2005, we have attempted 23 new church starts. Among these 23 recent attempts, 82% have survived.

Ninety-five Arkansas pastors have attended the New Church Leadership Institute. Twenty of these pastors are currently planting new churches in Arkansas, and several more have the potential to plant new congregations in the future. Twenty Annual Conferences have sent us an additional 513 pastors who have attended our training.

We began this new process for starting new churches and second campuses in 2004. Although our most recent congregations are still quite young, it is beginning to appear that this new model is going to develop stronger and larger congregations than the old model of church planting – reaching more people, more younger people and more diverse people in Jesus' name.

- We have 19 congregations who are less than 5 years old:
  - 26% are in non-anglo contexts
  - 1,886 average worship attendance
  - 839 professions of faith
  - 503 baptisms
  - 118 re-affirmations of faith
  - 1,443 members
  - 6 of these new churches have chartered already, and are paying their apportionments in full.
- We have 25 new congregations that are less than 10 years old.
  - 28% are in non-anglo contexts
  - witnessed a total of 1,207 professions of faith,
  - witnessed an accumulated total of over 800 baptisms,

- total worship attendance of 2,752, and
- accumulated apportionments paid over 1.2 million dollars

- If we look back to 1968 (the year the United Methodist Church was formed) we have 53 congregations less than 42 years old.
  - 18% are in non-anglo contexts
  - 9,210 in worship attendance (17% of the conference total)
  - 8,222 professions of faith
  - in 2010, all but nine paid out at 100%, totaling $1,707,080 (more than 14% of all apportionments received)
  - since 1999, these 53 "new" churches have paid $13,712,974 in apportionments.

These 53 new churches have yielded "good fruit" for the Kingdom and for the Annual Conference.

What kind of "good fruit" has church planting produced for the Kingdom and for the Arkansas Conference in the past 40 years?

- Worship Attendance — these 53 new churches average about 175 in worship attendance, totaling over 9,210 in worship. This is no small number. These new churches only represent 7% of our congregations, yet they account for 17% of our total conference-wide worship attendance.
- Professions of Faith – in 2010, these 53 new churches received 24% of all the professions of faith in the entire Annual Conference. Over the life of these new churches, they have witnessed 8,222 professions of faith.
- Baptisms – our new churches witness adult baptisms far more frequently than our established churches do.
- Financial – these new churches pay their apportionments! In 2006 they paid out at 99.3%, paying $1,656,228 in apportionments. In 2007, all but four paid at 100%, totaling $1,611,314 in apportionments– more than 15% of all apportionments received in 2007. In 2008, all but five paid out at 100%, totaling $1,787,598 – more than 15% of all apportionments received. 2010, all but nine paid out at 100%, totaling $1,707,080 - more than 14% of all apportionments received. Since 1999 these fifty-four "new" churches have paid over $13,712,974 in apportionments.
- In summary (measuring the benchmarks of Professions of Faith, Baptisms, Worship Attendance, and Apportionments Paid) these 53 new churches, while only representing 7% of our congregations, are yielding about 17% of the good fruit in our Annual Conference.
- Starting new churches is a good investment for the Kingdom and for the Annual Conference.

So, we are doing great? Well, yes... but:

- We are currently starting about three new churches a year – but that is not enough. Lyle Shaller, (author and highly respected national authority on United Methodist church demographics) proposes that an annual conference our size needs to start 7 churches each year (1%) to offset those churches that disbanded or "move into the terminally ill stage of their institutional life." He also proposes that if our goal was for "substantial growth," our conference should be starting between 14 and 21 (2 to 3%) new churches each year.
- Our current $300,000 apportionment yields about $250,000 - enough to start about one church a year. With the generous support of District funds, "Mother" churches and Catch the Vision offerings, we have been able to start 2 to 3 churches each year.
- We are currently offering "shoestring assistance" for initial pastor's salary, facility rental, marketing, or securing initial part-time nursery, children's or music staff. We can do better than that.
- To support these growing new congregations, we need to be able to offer a $25,000 grant to hire initial music and nursery staff the first year, and up to $100,000 grants when the church is ready to purchase land, and up to a $100,000 grant when they are ready to break ground.
- We would continue to seek increased support from the various Districts, "Mother" churches, and the Catch the Vision annual offering.
- Additional funding, through apportionments, Catch the Vision, and endowment gifts would enable us to start three to five additional new churches each year, and begin to move closer to Lyle Shaller's suggested levels.

Strategic missional goals for 2011:

- Continue a close working relationship with the nine District Superintendents
- Serve on the Extended Cabinet, as and "Consultant to the Appointive Cabinet for New Church Starts."
- Discern/finalize possible new church appointments for the next three to five years.
- Discern/finalize new pastors for that appointment from among New Church Leadership Institute graduates
- Prepare report for the February appointive cabinet retreat
- Offer greater levels of coaching support for our existing 19 new church starts
- Recruit a pool of pastors for this year's New Church Leadership Institute.
- Finalize details and host several major events this year: two New Church Leadership Institute retreats, Basic Training Boot Camp for Planters; Boot Camp 2.0 for Church Planters in Year Two Thru Five; and Taking Planter Assessments to the Next Level.
- Begin plans for all of the above to repeat next year
- Raise "serious" money through Catch the Vision, grants and endowment gifts.

We face three challenges:

1) to increase the financial support for this new church strategic initiative so we can offer greater resources to our planting pastors in their first few months in the mission field;

2) to increase the "missionary church planting heart" of our laity and clergy to reach the unchurched and the pre-Christian in our own neighborhoods resulting in more "mother churches" birthing new churches and multi-site faith communities; and

3) to continue to improve our process for selecting new church pastors, appointing them to communities where they have a natural affinity for the unique nature of that mission field, and supporting the planting pastors & families after their appointment.

As this church-planting process improves in these early years of this new initiative, we should expect that future new church starts will be even more "fruitful" in making new disciples of Jesus Christ.

The new church report summaries above, do not fully measure the lives that have be changed, the souls that have been saved, the forgiveness that has been received, the marriages that have been strengthened, and the new disciples that have been made. There are countless ways these communities are being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Thank you for supporting the birth of these new faith communities with your prayers, service and financial gifts!

ORDER OF ELDERS

The Order of Elders of the Arkansas Conference convened at Camp Tanako, in Hot Springs, Arkansas on September 13-15, 2010, where we officially adopted the statement below on September 14, 2010 as our Covenant of the Order of Elders.

Covenant of the Order of Elders in the Arkansas Conference
Of the United Methodist Church
Remembering Our Ordination and Being Thankful

An elder is called to share in the ministry of Christ and of the whole church through the ministries of Word, Sacrament, Order, and Service. Elders are ordained to lead the people of God in mission; to seek justice, peace, and freedom for all people; and to take a responsible place in the government of the church; to preach and teach the Word of God; to faithfully administer the sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion; to lead the people of God in worship and prayer; to lead persons to faith in Jesus Christ; to exercise pastoral supervision; to order the life of the congregation; to counsel the troubled and declare the forgiveness of sin. These are the duties of an elder.

As a means of living into this calling and for the sake of the church's mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, we have promised to participate in the Order of Elders to sustain and build each other up in prayer, study, worship, and service and to go where we are sent.

AS MEMBERS OF THIS ORDER WE COVENANT TOGETHER TO…

1. Embrace our baptismal and membership vows of prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness (remembering that our membership is within the Arkansas Annual Conference), and follow: the discipline and teaching of the church and the general rules of the church [1) Do no harm, 2) Do good and 3) Attend to the ordinances of God].
2. Pray for one another and agree to be supportive of one another's ministries by acts of restraint (doing no harm: avoiding such acts that tear down another's ministry) and acts of intention (doing good: praying for one another, offering encouragement and support, and sharing through acts of love).
3. Participate in the Annual Conference, in the Order of Elders, and in regular small group gatherings with other elders for mutual encouragement and accountability.
4. Practice disciplined and communal spiritual growth through the means of grace: prayer, searching the scriptures, fasting, worship with Holy Communion, holy conferencing, and acts of mercy and service.
5. Inquire of our colleagues about their physical, emotional, and spiritual health and encourage one another in the practice of the means of grace.

We, the elders of the Arkansas Conference, covenant with each other to a life of mutuality, collegiality and accountability where we watch over one another in love. By living into this covenant and by following this Rule of Life, we will grow in our calling as representatives of Christ's Church through the ministries of Word, Sacrament, Order and Service.

OUTDOOR MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

This year, we have continued to work with our two conference facilities and three district camps to realize the following vision, mission, and goals:

Our Vision is to be "A ministry where God's people are afforded the windows, doors and pathways to experience more fully God's love, mercy and grace through a broad range of outdoor settings and activities."

Our Mission is "to provide opportunities to make disciples for Jesus Christ by offering a means for their growth and development through a wide variety of facilities and programs."

Goal 1 – Increase people participating in outdoor ministries
Goal 2— Involvement by pastors and church leadership
Goal 3 – Improve quality of facilities and programming

We are working toward offering a "Family Camp" at each of our sites. Two camps will be held this spring; two others will be scheduled later this year.

We have also begun exploring creative collaboration with local churches and other ministries to address the four areas of focus. We believe that our settings can help individuals, groups, congregations, and our conference in ministries:

- Combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally
- Engaging in ministry with the poor
- Creating new places for new people and revitalizing existing congregations
- Developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world

In January, we sent representatives from our committee and conference to a national gathering and training event at Lake Junaluska Retreat Center in North Carolina. "For Such a Time as This" joined us with 400 camp/retreat ministry friends and colleagues to celebrate the wonder of God and the deep meaning of our shared Christian ministry. This event is the premier training, spiritual growth, and networking conference offered by The United Methodist Church for leaders of camp and retreat ministries. The keynote sessions as well as the workshops that we attended are helping us learn and implement emerging trends in camp and retreat ministries. As camping and retreat ministries continue to be more specialized, providing training for our leaders is imperative. Indeed, we hope to use connections we made during this gathering to bring training to administrators, board members, and volunteers in our conference later this fall.

In turn we will continue to use all of our resources to provide children, youth, and adults at every stage of spiritual formation a pathway to deeper discipleship. The personal witness of laity and clergy alike affirms that a call to deeper discipleship as well as to full-time Christian service has often occurred on hillsides, by the lakeside, and through mountaintop experiences. These can happen best when we intentionally seek to encounter God in a remote setting, far away from the routines and relationships that characterize our daily lives.

Respectfully submitted,
David Fleming, chair

PARISH AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Our committee has continued to develop new ministries to make Disciples for Christ through the programs listed here.

— Church Revitalization Program —

The Church Revitalization Program of the Arkansas Conference exists to undergird and lend conference support to projects in existing churches to improve or expand their ministries to better serve their parish area. Church Revitalization grants are available to local churches for building and renovation projects, and for the creation of innovative programs of ministry, staff expansion and/or other needs for the express purpose of creating new vision and vitality within the local church. Grants will be provided on a 1 to 3 matching basis up to a maximum of $5,000, with the local church providing 75% of the total cost, for building and renovation projects. Grants will be provided up to a maximum of $5,000 for programs of ministry and staff expansion.

Applications for a grant from the Church Revitalization Fund are to be sent to the Conference Secretary of Church Revitalization: Bill Wisener, 870-367-5334 (office); 870-367-7341 (fax); 870-723-0952 (cell). His address is: Bill Wisener, c/o Simmons First Bank, 473 Highway 425 North, Monticello, AR 71655. Application must be in the hands of the Secretary of Church Revitalization by February 15 or September 15 each year and will only be considered at our Spring and Fall meeting.

— Grant Requirements —

A church receiving a grant shall have a period of financial stewardship cultivation during each year assistance is given. A church receiving a grant shall be expected to pay its apportionments for the total program of the United Methodist Church. It is highly recommended that an architect be employed for building and remodeling projects. In most cases the services of an architect shall be regarded as essential. An architect is available for consultation, without charge, through the General Board of Global Ministries, to give assistance to churches which have been approved for a General Board or Conference Board grant or loan. Applicants for grants for program or staff needs must demonstrate how the program or position will be continued and funded beyond the term of the grant. Careful attention and guidance will be given to ensure that adequate and responsible provisions are made by the local church using a grant for the creation of a staff position.

— Applications for Grants —

All applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the Parish and Community Development Committee and shall provide in full the requested supportive information including the approval and recommendation of the Pastor and District Superintendent. An application for a grant to build a new building, obtain land for a church site, expand an existing building, or provide major renovation of a building shall be accompanied by a letter or minutes from the District Committee on Church Location and Building showing approval and support.

Jonesboro Saint Paul	$3,000

— Arkansas Conference Loan Fund —

Low interest loans are available to local churches who are seeking to improve or expand their facilities to better serve their parish area. A church receiving a loan from the Conference Loan Fund shall have a period of financial stewardship cultivation during each year assistance is given and is expected to pay its apportionments for the total program of the United Methodist Church. Loans are considered based on the following guidelines.

1. Loans shall be payable one-half upon approval of the Parish and Community Development (P&CD) Committee. The remaining one-half shall be paid upon certification by the Pastor and the District Superintendent that the project has been completed. All payments will be made to the local church through the District Superintendent. It shall be used only for the specific project as approved by the P&CD Committee and the District Board of Church Building and Location.
2. An application requires the approval of the District Board of Church Location and Building (¶1414-1416 in the Discipline).
3. An application requires a promissory note signed by the trustees of the church.
4. There shall be insurance on any property financed with Conference Loan Fund.
5. The guidelines established in the Discipline ¶1431, 1432 and 1435 and the guidelines for loans in this Conference Journal shall be followed.
6. There shall be no prepayment penalties.
7. The interest rate shall be set by the P$CD Committee.
8. The minimum repayment of the loan shall be $1,000 for principal plus interest annually. The term of the loan shall not exceed (15) years. Loan repayment shall be made on a monthly schedule.
9. The Secretary of the Conference Loan Fund shall advise the Director of the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas when payment is to be made to the church.

— Applications for Loans —

All applications for loans shall be submitted on forms provided by the Parish and Community Development Committee and shall provide in full the requested information including the approval and recommendation of the Pastor and District Superintendent. An application for a loan to build a new building, obtain land from a church site, expand an existing building, or provide major renovation of a building shall be accompanied by a letter or minutes for the District Committee on Church Location and Building showing approval and support. Application for loans from the Conference Loan Fund are to be made through the Conference Loan Secretary: Bill Wisener, 870-367-5334 (office); 870-367-7341 (fax); 870-723-0952 (cell). His address is: Bill Wisener, c/o Simmons First Bank, 473 Highway 425 North, Monticello, AR 71655.

Applications for loans from the Conference Loan Fund may be made at anytime. However, they must be in the hands of the Conference Loan Secretary by February 15 or September 15 of each year, and will only be considered at that time. Inquiries for further information about the services and assistance of the Parish and Community Development Committee may be directed to the Chairperson of the Committee: Bob Burnham, phone 870-735-1805.

— Action on Applications for Grants or Loans —

The Parish and Community Development Committee will act on application for grants during the month of March of each year. Factors entering into the consideration of applications shall include the evident need for the project, the extension of Christian Ministry the project will make possible, the population and area to be reached, the degree to which other churches are serving the area under consideration, the evaluation of the proposed project by the District Superintendent, the Bishop, Cabinet, and district agencies, as well as the results of research by the Church Revitalization Program. The level of local church's participation and effort are also significant factors. Full approval and authorization of grants from the Church Revitalization Fund and loans from the Conference Loan Fund shall be lodged in the Parish and Community Development Committee.

— Disbursements of Grants or Loans —

In general, disbursements of a grant may be made to a project when the Pastor and the District Superintendent certify by letter to the Secretary of Church Revitalization that the funds, thus made available, will when combined with other available funds, make possible the completion of the project. Disbursement of a loan may be made when all requested forms are in the hands of the Conference Loan Secretary. As money becomes available in the appropriate fund, a disbursement check shall then be mailed to the District Superintendent for delivery to the project. Approved Grants must be requested within two years of the approval date.

— NEW CONGREGATION DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM —

The Parish and Community Development Committee, is charged with "encouraging and supporting the development of new and established congregations", (¶731.5e) and the Catch the Vision Fund is the process whereby meaningful contributions can be made in starting new churches and to the proposed relocation of existing congregations when justified.

I. NEW CONGREGATIONS:

A. Goal: It shall be a goal of the Arkansas Conference to start three new congregation a year within the conference as the need arises and the resources are available which is in harmony with Strategic Initiative #1.

B. New Congregations may be started in a variety of ways, including (but not limited to):

1. an existing congregation initiating a mission outreach, mother/daughter, second campus, and/or similar new starts for the purpose of developing a new congregation.
2. an existing congregation initiating an extension Sunday School in another location;
3. a pastor may be appointed to a given area for the purpose of establishing a congregation;
4. a pastor may be appointed to a piece of property already owned to start a new church;
5. The District Board of Church Location and Building identifies an area or community of significant growth for a new or relocated congregation and one of the above may take place;
6. Bishop, Cabinet, and or the Director of New Church Starts may identify an area or community as a target for a new church start. However, the ultimate decision, identification, and funding request for a new church start rests upon the authority of the office of Bishop of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

C. Criteria for an Emerging Congregation:

1. Missions and Ministry shall be a focus from the beginning of each congregation. The purpose of a United Methodist Church is to be held forth by each pastor so as to present the Gospel in the community.
2. A strong community of faith, fellowship or koinonia, will be an aim to provide strength and support to each person in the Body of Christ.
3. Stewardship in all its aspects (time, talents, finances) will be taught so as to enrich the goals above as well as to financially undergird the fledgling congregations.
4. While the pastor is critical in the formation of a new church, the people need to help provide a setting conducive to the high morale of the pastor.
5. The first full year after the church is constituted they shall be given the same Apportionment responsibilities as other churches, in accordance with the C.F. & A. formula.

II. FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR NEW CONGREGATIONS:

Support for the new congregations can come from several sources such as: the congregation itself, district mission funds, district "special" funds/apportionment, interested individuals or groups in the community; Equitable Compensation Commission (key charge arrangement), and Catch the Vision funds. These new and relocated congregations, particularly the new ones, will need this assistance for clergy salary and housing and utilities support, first meeting facilities, site purchase, program, outreach ministries, advertising, signs, leadership training.

A. First meeting facilities can include arenas, theaters, community building, other religious group buildings, public buildings (schools, auditoriums). We do not recommend or endorse the use of trailers. It is important to have a focal point for identity during the beginning for the new congregation, but deliberate, long-range plans need to be made to avoid premature, debilitating indebtedness.

B. Salary, utilities and housing for the pastor will be needed until such time as the new congregation can become self-sufficient. A five year declining rate of support from district, Equitable Salaries, or other funds, is anticipated, however, each church will be urged to make stewardship education among its primary goals to shorten the time whenever possible.

C. Site selection and purchase can come at any time prior to, or after the organization of the church; unless there are unusual circumstances, five acres will be considered the minimum goal for a new congregation. Once the property is identified through the combined efforts of the Bishop, Cabinet, District Board of Church Location and Building, and the Parish and Community Development Committee, the purchase will be pursued in accordance with the Book of Discipline.

D. Outreach and programs of nurture should begin with the advent of the new church, even before there is a sizeable number of members and constituents. A recommended goal for the congregation's budget is seen as one-fourth salary, one-fourth mission/outreach (including initiating apportionments), one-fourth program (including advertising) and one-fourth debt retirement.

E. The First Phase in the building program will be crucial to the continued growth and nurture of the new congregation, therefore, a premature program is to be avoided. The General Board School of Congregational Development recommends that a building committee not be appointed until regular worship attendance reaches 125, and also not plan for the construction to be completed until attendance averages at least 200. This first phase needs to be constructed within the bounds of a reasonably manageable debt for the membership (national statistics indicate the need to be at a $60,000 self-generated budget with 1/3 for debt retirement as the minimum requirement). Catch the Vision funds are seen as one way to help avoid indebtedness which might severely limit the focus and capabilities of those members and future members.

III. CATCH THE VISION FUNDS:

A. Monies collected from the Catch the Vision Annual Calls will provide support to eligible projects for the following purposes:

1. Site purchase for a present or future development.

2. Assistance for start-up and first meeting facilities.
3. Assistance in the first phases of the building program.
4. Assistance for new faith communities growing out of existing congregations as extension campus ministries.

B. New Congregations/Churches formed by Relocation or Merger. Relocating churches and new congregations formed by merger will be eligible for funds under the following criteria:
   1. A relocation church is one that develops at the initiative of the Bishop, District Superintendent/Cabinet, District Board of Church Location and Building, with the advice and consultation of the Parish and Community Development Committee. It shall be defined as an existing group becoming a new church, with a new name, in a new area, having participated in training about what it means to be a new church.
   2. New churches resulting from a merger of two or more congregations will be eligible under the same process as for relocation.

C. Limits on Catch the Vision Funding:
   The following shall be the limits of time and dollars for new congregations:
   1. A church shall be considered new for five years from the date of the appointment of the pastor. An extension of up to two years may be granted for special circumstances after an in-depth review.
   2. A maximum of $350,000 will be allowed to any one situation, covering all items as noted in III. A. Actual funding will be determined by the needs of the project and the availability of funds.
   3. Projects eligible for funding within the above limit must have been approved as a qualifying project by the Parish and Community Development Committee prior to the beginning of the project.

D. Application for Catch the Vision Funds.
   1. Send a letter of request, including the signature of the District Superintendent and others as needed for the specific request to: Bob Burnham at 870-735-1805 at 215 N. Missouri, West Memphis 72301.
   2. Requests for Catch the Vision funds will be considered at the time of the request in consutation with the Chairperson of Parish and Community Development to receive funds administered by the United Methodist Foundation if funds are available.
   3. Consultation with the Chairperson of Parish and Community Development is essential for the funds to be released upon recommendation of the Bishop. The Director of New Church Starts will communicate such on behalf of the Bishop. The Bishop has the authority to set a missional priority such as a new work leading to the development of a new faith community and through consultation with the chairperson of Parish and Community Development, the release of funds to achieve those ends. All request must comply with this process. A plan and description of this new work will be on file with the Chairperson of the committee. The committee shall be involved in the progression and continued evaluation of the new work through and with the Director of New Church Starts. The committee will request and receive reports of the disposition of Catch the Vision Funds on a regular basis held in trust with the United Methodists Foundation.

E. Priorities for Catch the Vision Funds:
   1. A New Work
   2. A Merger of two or more congregations forming a new congregation.
   3. A Relocation as defined above.
   4. A new ministry endeavor in an existing congregation to make new disciples for Jesus Christ.

All applications must be accompanied with a written ministry plan that outlines the priority actions of the church in reaching out to make disciples and how the monies will be used to aid these actions.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION COMMITTEE

The Conference Committee on Spiritual Formation is responsible for the promotion and development of the spiritual life for clergy and lay persons of all ages by conducting seminars and training events (private and corporate prayer, Bible study, and spiritual growth opportunities) and encouraging the use of resources for spiritual formation. In Romans 8:29 the Apostle Paul describes what God is up to in the world in terms of persons being "conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be firstborn within a large family." Spiritual formation is the process of being conformed to the image of Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our committee continues to design and conduct retreats for clergy and laity in our conference to promote and facilitate the development of the spiritual life. We believe that spiritual formation of both clergy and laity is vital for the overall health of mind, body, and spirit and the care of souls as well as for spiritual renewal in the Church. Many peer reviewed published studies have identified lack of attentivness to matters of spiritual formation as a major cause of clergy attrition, malpractice, and burnout. Healthy, well-functioning ministers (both clergy and lay) contribute to healthy, well-functioning congregations.

The spiritual formation committee continues to sponsor a special room at annual conference that is set aside for prayer and spirituality. The room features visual, auditory, and tactile ways of experiencing prayer as well as morning teaching sessions and other activities. The Prayer and Spirituality room provides an oasis where conference attendees can withdraw for long or short periods of prayer and reflection and for learning.

Our annual fall spiritual formation retreat was rescheduled for March 27-30 at Mount Eagle. The format for the retreat was a Lenten study of the cross of Christ as formative image for the Christian spiritual life. The annual retreat is jointly sponsored by your conference committee on spiritual formation and the Mount Eagle Christian Center.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Buchanan, chair

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH, COUNCIL ON

Hi, my name is Natalie Clark and I am the president of the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries for the 20010-2011 year. I really have enjoyed my time this week here as a delegate. I believe I also speak for all of the youth delegates here when I tell you we appreciate that our voice is heard.

The ACCYM is a youth led youth ministry group of the Arkansas Conference. We strive to provide events where kids from all over Arkansas can come together and worship God in a comfortable and fun environment. The ACCYM is a group that is building leaders for the future. The council or as we like to call ourselves, the CCYMers are a group of youth chosen from each of the Arkansas districts. The ACCYM is composed of an executive council, five event taskforces, and a Youth Service Fund task force. The executive taskforce consists of a chair person, vice-chairperson, secretary, two Jurisdictional Youth Team representatives, chaplain, a YSF chairperson, and the most recent position, a YEA (youth empowerment advocate.) All members of the council are divided into task forces by the incoming executive council. The five taskforces plan events sponsored by the ACCYM.

The Youth Service Fund, or YSF, is an organization that begins at the jurisdictional level and continues all the way to the local church. The purpose of YSF is to teach youth how to begin being good stewards of our resources at an early age. YSF raises money that is returned to the conference in the form of grants. These grants send youth groups on mission trips locally and out of state that they would probably not get to do otherwise.

As a council, we strive to strengthen youth ministries in the local churches and districts through various means. Half of the money raised by YSF goes to in state mission projects that involve a substantial number of youth. Districts and local churches, both, benefit from this money. Also, we hope the youth take what they learn at events back to their churches.

The main purpose of our council is to plan events for the youth of Arkansas. Every year we organize 6 events. At the beginning of this year our executive council put together a vision that defines a clear, individual purpose for each of the events we plan. We decided that the purpose of Refuge, a Jr. High weekend camp, is to provide an opportunity for spiritual growth. This year Refuge was held at Camp Ozark and was a huge success, with a record attendance of over 200 participants.

The purpose of Veritas, usually held in late February or early March is for all youth in grades 7th through 12th, is discipleship training and teaching through workshops. This year it was held here at the Hot Springs Convention Center with one of the biggest groups ever with over 1230 in attendance.

The purpose of Choir Tour is evangelism. It is a unique event that takes the message to the people rather than the people gathering for the message. It is for Sr. High and is going to be June 27th through July 3rd. We will be visiting St. Paul UMC in El Dorado, Monticello FUMC, Forrest City FUMC, Blytheville FUMC, Lakeside UMC in Pine Bluff and Beebe FUMC. We invite you and your congregation to join us at a performance near you.

Jr. and Sr. High Assembly are quickly approaching in the next few weeks. The purpose of Assemblies is to provide fellowship through small groups. Jr. High Assembly is going to be July 20th through the 23rd At College of the Ozarks in Clarkesville. This year's theme is Accepted with guest speaker Mark Norman, and Wayne Kerr as a Worship leader. Sr. High Assembly is going to be July 23rd through the 27th also at College of the Ozarks. The theme is Here Comes the Son with guest speaker reverend Will Choate and Wayne Kerr will be leading worship. The forms for both Assemblies are in your packets and are available through the conference website. Please make sure to give the information to all of your youth so they can be involved with these two great events this summer.

YSF puts on the Wild River Country Lock-In which will be August 5th. Each year Methodist Family Health puts on the Walk for children at the Big Dam Bridge. It will also be August 5th, right before the Wild River Country Lock-In. For more information you can visit the ACCYM website.

Our executive council is also in the process of dreaming the next big event for our Conference Youth. We have the idea of a Conference Mission week in the summer of 2012. The purpose of this mission trip will be to provide youth with an affordable mission experience while repairing local United Methodist Churches and Properties. We have created a new task force to plan this event for the next year.

Service, outreach, and study activities are provided through events and the Youth Service Fund. Every year, youth perform mission work at Junior and Senior High Assemblies. And then YSF sends groups on mission trips through grants. Youth on Choir Tour reach out to others through music and verse, and Methodist youth presence on a college campus every year for the Assemblies is powerful. Small groups at the various events offer study activities, a time for youth to read and discuss God's word together.

The Methodist Church has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. It wasn't until I was in middle school and junior high, however, that I began to get really involved with district and conference events. I started out as a representative at the district level, but the next year I became a representative of CCYM. Being a part of CCYM has been one of my fondest memories. Not only is it a great way to be a part of something that plans such amazing events to touch the Methodist youth, but it has placed me so much closer to Christ. I am able to see Christ in new ways through CCYM and its events, and I am able to be in an environment of wonderful and open-minded people always willing to talk. I've made incredible life-long friends on CCYM throughout the state and some of my favorite memories have been at CCYM events, meetings, or just with friends I've met through CCYM. Of course CCYM isn't always fun and games. It's a lot of planning, hard work, and a LOT of time. But it's been time well spent. I know that the time I have spent on CCYM has made me a better person, and I am so grateful to have that opportunity.

Of course, we have help from our amazing Adults on CCYM and also our Conference Coordinator Michelle Moore. CCYM would most definitely NOT be the same (and definitely not as organized) without Michelle. We are really blessed to have such wonderful guidance from all of our adults. We had a really great year and all of the new and returning members are looking forward to next year. We really encourage every church to get involved with their district councils and conference events because it is definitely an amazing thing. Along with the Imagine Ministry program, CCYM is aimed at the building up of the Methodist church, however CCYM works through all of the youth events that we plan each year. It is so important to support and continue to support CCYM and our efforts to provide outreach to the United Methodist Youth in Arkansas. For any more information you can visit our website www.accym.org or contact Michelle Moore or talk to any of our youth representatives.

VISION TEAM REPORT

The Conference Vision Team works with its constituents, committees and boards to enable local churches to more faithfully and fruitfully fulfill their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The vision of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas is to be: " a Church alive in the grace of God, offering Christ, transforming our lives through the power of the Holy Spirit."

The Vision Team's work is seen when congregations and individuals work together as the Body of Christ.

The connectional work of the Vision Team ranges from drilling water wells in the Congo to gathering confirmands for a day with the Bishop to providing support to congregations seeking to use new technology to reach new people. Our ministries reach from a tornado-tossed community in Northwest Arkansas to an earthquake-ravaged village in Haiti.

We continue to affirm the Conference Ministry Plan:

VISION:

A church alive in the grace of God, offering Christ, transforming lives and the World through the power of the Holy Spirit.

MISSION:

The mission of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through local congregations and mission fields of the Conference.

GOALS:

To provide resources to help develop vital local congregations and mission fields in which persons can enter and develop a life of discipleship.

- To continue to build vital congregations which are moving from:
  - hospitality to radical hospitality
  - worship to passionate worship
  - faith development to intentional faith development
  - mission and service to risk-taking mission and service
- To have vital congregations and mission fields throughout the state developing a place where persons are being baptized in the faith, making professions of faith and developing church which are growing in membership and worship attendance.
  To offer resources and connectional ministry opportunities to equip local churches to be more faithful and effective in making disciples and transforming the world.
- To identify and develop a new generation of lay and clergy leaders to lead churches and our shared ministries beyond the local church.
- To create and nurture connections among churches which seek to enhance local ministries; to provide opportunities for mission beyond the local church; accountability and financial support for connectional ministries.

To address the strategic needs of the conference including:

1. Starting new places for new people (congregations, second campuses And new worship services.)
2. Identify and develop a new generation of lay and clergy leaders
3. Modeling and serving as a catalyst for ministries which transform the world by:
   a. seeing to eliminate poverty
   b. seeking health, healing and wholeness
   c. seeking justice for all God's people

The key measures for accountability are:

1. Number of baptisms
2. Number of persons making professions of faith
3. Worship attendance
4. Membership
5. Apportionments paid
6. Number of volunteers involved in hands-on ministry

CORE VALUES AND BELIEFS

1. We believe The Arkansas Conference is a manifestation of one, holy, catholic apostolic church with many congregations serving as mission fields throughout the state. "There is one body and one spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all." Ephesians 4:4
2. We believe that the proper relationship with our Lord and with one another is described by the words of the Great Commandment. Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." Matthew 22:36-40
3. We believe that our mission and task as the church is to live out Christ's Great Commission: Jesus said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have Commanded you; and low I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28-18-20
4. We believe the strength and vitality of The United Methodist Church of Arkansas Depends on a shift from an inward focus on ourselves to an outward focus of ministry to the least, the last and the lost. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Luke 18-19

5. We honor the blessing of God's grace in our past, Christ's spirit in our present, and the Holy Spirit's promise in our future. "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life."
6. We believe we are to be good caretakers of the resources, both human and financial that have been entrusted to us. "Think of us this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries and stewards of God's mysteries. Moreover, it is required if stewards that they be found trustworthy." I Corinthians 4:1-2

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

"Africa University Thriving in Zimbabwe"
Africa University: Serving God. All the Time. Everywhere.

Support from United Methodists around the world has enabled Africa University to strongly emerge from Zimbabwe's recent economic and political crises.

"As we have endured Zimbabwe's national crisis, we have, indeed discovered not only what we are, but reinforced whose we are," says Dr. Fanuel Tagwira, vice chancellor. "We are preparing Africa's newest generation of leaders while proclaiming our faith and allegiance to Jesus Christ."

The University is preparing to celebrate its 20th anniversary of ministry and service to Africa in 2012.

The University offers its thanks to the 21 annual conferences that met 100 percent of their apportionments for the Africa University Fund. In 2010, United Methodists contributed nearly $2.2 million to the Africa University Fund. That represents more than 86 percent of the $2.5 million goal. The Fund supports general operating costs, such as faculty and staff salaries and upkeep of facilities.

While meeting apportionments is important, second mile giving to the University's endowment for student scholarships is vital. Our students have a great need for scholarship support.

Africa University graduated 349 students in June 2010, and opened the 2010-2011 school year with 1,200 students representing 25 African countries. Since opening in 1992, more than 3,500 students have earned bachelor and master's degrees. Africa University prepares leaders in theology, agriculture, business and social sciences, health sciences, and peace and justice.

Africa University's curriculum and support of the surrounding community reflects our biblical commitment to service and our Wesleyan heritage. Our graduates are prepared to serve Africa in ways that reflect the church's four areas of focus, ministering to the poor, combating diseases of poverty, creating and revitalizing congregations, and developing principled Christian leaders.

The 2010 graduating class included 39 recipients of the University's inaugural Master's Degree in intellectual property. They represented 15 African countries. Africa University is the first university in sub-Saharan Africa to offer this degree. It stresses the value of protecting intellectual property for the people of Africa. It is one more example of the ethos of the University – preparing leaders who remain in Africa to serve Africa.

Another important aspect of the University is our commitment to gender diversity. Our student body is nearly evenly divided between females and males. That is a significant development in Africa – a positive sign for the expanding role of women across the continent.

Another positive sign is the commitment of African United Methodists to take an even more active role in supporting the University. African bishops broke ground in the 2010-2011 academic year on a new housing facility for staff – funded by annual conferences in Africa. This housing unit is expected to be ready for the opening of the 2011-2012 academic year in September.

Africa University is preparing to add additional cyber campuses. Student applications far outstrip our ability to educate students on our Old Mutare campus. That is why we are adding more locations to our on-line cyber courses. Our first virtual campus is located in Maputo, Mozambique. As we broaden our service to all of Africa, we are planning virtual campuses in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Liberia, Côte d'Ivoire and Sierra Leone. A key to the success of these cyber campuses will be our new, expanded ability to reach the world through the Internet. We recently finished connecting with a new high speed, fiber optic cable system that links Zimbabwe with the world.

All of this is happening through the prayers and financial support of United Methodists around the world. Encourage your church to meet its Africa University Fund shared ministry obligation this year. Your support is part of The United Methodist Church's response to God's call to serve Africa. Your support helps to prepare Africa's next generation of leaders. They will spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ, improve health care and living conditions, expand business and commerce, and educate another generation of leaders in this rapidly changing region of the world.

Grace and peace,
James H. Salley
Associate Vice-Chancellor for Institutional Advancement
Africa University

CAMP ALDERSGATE

ALDERSGATE CAMP
www.campaldersgate.net

Often the Camp staff will travel around the state to speak to different churches, Sunday school classes and UMW groups. As we attend these meetings, I am reminded just how much work we have to do to further deepen the knowledge of Camp Aldersgate's relationship within the membership of the Church and the United Methodist Women. We rely heavily on these relationships and are certainly thankful for each United Methodist Church member!

Did you know Camp Aldersgate's grounds are owned by the Women's Division of the United Methodist Church? Did you know that the Camp leases the property from the Women's Division? Did you know that Camp Aldersgate receives approximately 15% of its income from United Methodist Church sources, including the United Methodist Women and the Arkansas Conference?

Well, if you don't already know, Camp Aldersgate's origins lie with a group of United Methodist Women who were looking for a place where persons of different races and backgrounds could come together peacefully to meet and work together on church and community projects. These courageous women purchased the Windy Willow Turkey Farm property with a grant of $25,000 from the Women's Division of the General Board of Global Ministries in New York. In the summer of 1947, Camp Aldersgate was formally dedicated.

The Camp held its first programs in a renovated farmhouse and turkey brooder houses. A one-lane dirt road led to the camp, which was located four and one-half miles outside the city limits of Little Rock. As one of the first integrated facilities in the United States, the Camp's role in race relations led to challenges for the board, staff and participants. Gunshots were fired into camp, board members and staff received threatening phone calls and the dam at the lake was dynamited. However, the leadership of the camp persevered in the midst of these challenges.

While we have evolved programmatically since those early days in the 50s and 60s, the core of what truly defines Camp Aldersgate has stayed the same -- meeting community needs, bringing people who are different from one and other, simply being inclusive.

Today, the mission of Camp Aldersgate is to enrich the lives of children and youth who have medical or physical conditions or developmental delays and their families, as well as senior adults, through educational and recreational opportunities in an out-of-doors camp environment. Year-round social service programming allows Camp Aldersgate to provide a healthy future for children with disabilities and medical conditions, senior adults and volunteers. Camp Aldersgate provides summer Med Camps, Kota Camps, Weekend Respite Camps, a Seniors Day Out, and unique programming for youth volunteers.

In 2010, Camp Aldersgate served 529 participants from 110 cities and 56 counties throughout Arkansas, as well as five other states. 1,053 volunteers contributed an amazing 33,223 hours of service to the Camp. Camp Aldersgate's programs include:

Summer Med Camps are 6 weekly residential sessions that are provided for children and youth, ages 6 to 18. Camps provided include Muscular Dystrophy Camp, Spina Bifida Camp, Diabetes Youth Camp, Asthma Camp, Kidney Camp, Arthritis Camp, Cardiac Camp, Cancer Camp, and a Bleeding Disorders Camp.

Kota Camps provide an opportunity for children and youth of all abilities to come together and experience the benefits that a traditional camp can offer. "Kota" means friend in the language of the Quapaw Native American tribe indigenous to Arkansas. The two week-long sessions and two weekend sessions are open to all children, ages 6 to 18, with medical conditions, physical disabilities, and developmental delays and their non-disabled friends or siblings. All campers participate together in activities such as nature hikes, archery, music, fishing, an adventure/challenge ropes course, canoeing, scuba, swimming, and arts and crafts. Through fun and friendship, campers develop a better understanding and awareness of each other.

Weekend Respite Camps have been offered for more than 25 years. The Respite program offers year-round breaks for families who have children ages 6 to 18 with physical, mental, and developmental disabilities. Campers are given complete care while being allowed to explore their individual boundaries. During this time, parents are able to run errands, have time alone, or spend a well-deserved weekend with their other children.

Seniors Day Out has been in service since the early 1970s. This program offers fun and fellowship, as well as the opportunity for senior adults to enjoy an environment that encourages activity and friendship. Participants meet together weekly to enjoy meals, educational activities, exercise, guest speakers,

Bible study, singing, arts and crafts, board games, fishing derbies, holiday and birthday parties, and the opportunity to interact with one another.

The Youth Volunteer Counselor program at Camp Aldersgate is an important part of our camping programs. For most individuals, the opportunity to be a volunteer counselor is a rewarding and educational experience, and for some, volunteering is a stepping-stone to future counselor and staff positions. Each summer approximately 140 youth volunteers are selected. The minimum age to be a volunteer is 14, and these volunteers usually provide one to three weeks of service. Each volunteer is there to encourage and assist campers in activities, and provide energy and enthusiasm throughout the week.

Camp Aldersgate operates all of these programs with 16 year-round staff members and a budget just over $1.1 million. We are proud of the programs the Camp offers and very proud of the number of dear friends and donors we have in support of this great place. We haven't stopped growing and we sure haven't stopped needing support from the United Methodist Church.

Thank you,
Sarah C. Wacaster, Executive Director

CAMP TANAKO
4301 Highway 290, Hot Springs, AR 71913-8799
(501) 262-2600 www.tanako.org

Camp Tanako experienced both great sorrow and joy during 2010. The loss of Terry Everitt was felt throughout the camping community and by Tanako alumni around the world. His 34 years of ministry shaped Tanako into the place that it is today. Becky Campbell, a long-time camper and staff member, was appointed Director. Another former camper, Diane Drilling Wright, was hired as Program Director. Tanako has always been proud of its camper alumni who become leaders in their communities and churches; now we are able to see campers becoming staff, directors, and even board members.

As Tanako works to "make disciples of Jesus Christ," we had nearly 8,300 camper days. Even though many secular camps may feel the stress of economic times, Tanako has found that people are turning toward their faith for strength and guidance. Summer programs continue to interest children and youth. Tanako is also developing programs throughout the year and even during the week, to meet the demands of a growing home-school population.

Our connections with the Order of Elders, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Family Health, and Walk to Emmaus continue to be strong. Tanako also hosts retreats for civic groups and other denominations. This year, we also worked to make a stronger presence throughout the state, visiting several churches, Wesley campus ministries, and Arkansas Conference events.

Progress is being made toward the goal of building Tanako's ministry to better serve the Arkansas Conference, and new board members have been elected. The members, who will begin to serve July 1, 2010 are: Allen Bedell, Hot Springs; Kim Carter, Hot Springs; Russell Hull, Beebe; John Martin, Brinkley; Mike Meeks, Arkadelphia; Elaine Poynter, Jonesboro; Karen Reeves, Hot Springs; Roy Smith, Russellville; Chris Walthall, Hot Springs.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our distinctive commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Georgia, Candler offers students a learning laboratory that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 469, with 358 seeking the Master of Divinity, 67 the Master of Theological Studies, 16 the Master of Theology, 14 the Doctor of Theology, and 14 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The total student population is 25% US ethnic minority, 9% international, and 52% women. Forty-six denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist. The median age of our entering class of MDiv students is 26, with 57% of total enrollment under thirty.

To ensure that our students are prepared for leadership in an increasingly global context, Candler continues its emphasis on internationalizing the curriculum. This fall, Rev. Dr. Beauty Maenzanise, dean of the theology faculty at Africa University in Zimbabwe, joined us as the 2010-11 McDonald Chair in the Study of Jesus and Culture, and the Rev. Dr. Margot Kaessmann, former head of the 14 million-member Protestant church in Germany, joined us for a semester as visiting Theologian-in-Residence. This year, Candler has academic exchange partnerships with theology schools across five continents and nine countries, including many related to The United Methodist Church. In addition to our ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, Candler once again partnered with International Relief and Development, Inc., to send eight student interns as far as Cambodia and as near as Gulfport, Miss., to address a broad range of issues, including democracy and governance, HIV/AIDS, child poverty and mortality, and community development. Travel seminars in 2010-2011 include the Middle East Travel Seminar in May-June and World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars to the Philippines, India, and Colombia.

A hallmark of the Candler MDiv experience, the two-year Contextual Education program shapes our students' pastoral identities by interweaving service at ministry sites and churches with academic analysis in the classroom and spiritual reflection in pastor-led small groups. In any given week, Candler deploys more than 250 ConEd students throughout the region to minister to people in congregations, hospitals, and social service agencies. This year, we will expand Candler Advantage, a program designed to pay rising third-year MDiv students for summer internships in congregations so they can concentrate fully on honing their pastoral skills beyond the first two years of ConEd.

Candler's Lifelong Learning events strengthen the church by providing opportunities for clergy and lay leaders to learn more about the practice of ministry. Fall Conference 2010 focused on conflict transformation; the spring event featured poet, author, and funeral director Tom Lynch along with Candler's own Tom Long, addressing "The Good Funeral." The 2011 Fall Conference highlights "The Art of Preaching in the 21st Century," with a chance to learn from some of the most respected names in preaching.

In addition to our Lifelong Learning events, Candler oversees the educational process of more than 900 people each year through the Course of Study regional school and our five extension schools in the Southeast.

Despite today's challenging economic climate, Candler remains committed to making theological education financially possible for our students. Although our operating budget essentially remained flat this year, we increased our total financial aid investment to over $5 million. Eighty-three percent of eligible students received Candler-based financial aid, with the average award covering 76 percent of tuition. In March, we hosted our third annual Leadership Candler event, an all-expenses-paid discernment experience that draws together top prospective MDiv students to explore the richness of life and study at Candler as they are considered for 30 top scholarships. In addition, Candler won a grant from the Carpenter Foundation to offer financial management training to our students. The grant also sponsored the public lecture series, "Simple Enough?" to explore the relationship between financial and spiritual well-being. Featured speakers were popular United Methodist pastors and authors Adam Hamilton and Paul Escamilla.

Our esteemed faculty continues to distinguish itself at the highest levels. Dr. Luke Johnson won the prestigious Grawemeyer award in religion, Dr. Carol Newsom received a Luce grant from the Association of Theological Schools, and Dr. Jacob Wright received a medal of honor from the Collège de France in Paris. In addition to their achievements in scholarship and teaching, faculty members continually demonstrate their dedication to the church through preaching and teaching engagements and service in parishes both local and across the country and world.

We celebrate the outstanding achievements of two of our United Methodist faculty as they retire this year: Dr. Russ Richey and Dr. Brooks Holifield. Both are highly regarded for their extraordinary work in their areas of expertise—the history of Methodism and American Christianity, respectively—and for their service to our denomination, both at the local and national levels.

Candler draws considerable vitality and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you strengthen this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person in Atlanta or online at www.candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DREW UNIVERSITY
36 Madison Avenue, Madison, NJ 07940

My predecessor, Dean Maxine Beach, has said me that Drew University Theological School is "a special place'" on more than one occasion. Since coming to Drew, I have begun to see how right she is. It is a welcoming, hospitable, and caring community. We do not pretend to be a perfect community but we strive hard to welcome all who come through our doors and care for the shalom, the well-being, of each individual and as well as the Common Good.

Drew is "a special place" because of the many ways we seek to equip and empower leaders for Christian ministry through the numerous programs we offer:

- M.Div., S.T.M., M.A., M.A.Min., D.Min., and Ph D.;
- Continuing Education opportunities for pastors and lay people;
- Internships through Communities of Shalom in Shalom zones world wide
- Partnership for Religious Education in Prisons program in a local men's prison and women's prison, where Drew students and inmates study and learn together;
- Certification in Spiritual Formation and Camp and Retreat;
- Cross-Cultural Courses in India, Turkey, El Salvador, Mexico, Taize, and Ghana;
- United Methodist Liaison and Deacon Liaison to assist students in their discernment.

In my first weeks, I have begun to visit churches and alumni in the vicinity. I believe very strongly that we can only do theological education with communities, both communities of faith and other kinds of communities that our alumni serve. In many ways, we owe a debt to our churches and other agencies that work with us to train and form our students for leadership.

We take pride in having a faculty that is perhaps one of the most diverse in theological education with an almost equal number of women and men. Our student body is equally diverse. We take seriously our United Methodist identity. Drew is well positioned to be a leading progressive United Methodist seminary. I welcome ongoing dialogue as we work together to shape a vision in equipping the saints for ministry. Together we can make Christian disciples that transform the world.

HENDRIX

HENDRIX COLLEGE REPORT

"The place God calls you to is where your deepest gladness meets the world's deep hunger"
– Frederick Buechner

Hendrix College believes that everyone has a calling. The College works closely with students, faculty, and staff in a variety of settings to help discern where their passions and gifts can be used to do God's work in the world.

For more than 130 years, the College has proudly carried out the vision of the early founders who worked to build an institution of higher learning with high academic standards for young people. Throughout the history of Methodism, more than 1,200 Methodist colleges were established. Today, there are less than 125 United Methodist institutions of higher education in the United States. Hendrix College is proud to be one of them.

Widely recognized as one of the leading liberal arts colleges in the country, Hendrix continues to commit to the pursuit of excellence and changing lives. The College expresses its appreciation to the Arkansas Conference for the support it gives to the programs and mission of this institution.

We are proud of the ways in which Hendrix can partner with the Arkansas Annual Conference, and we believe that the College can be particularly beneficial in assisting the conference in its initiative "to identify, enlist, and retain gifted young pastors who are passionate about making disciples of Christ." Particularly through the collaborative work of the Office of the Chaplain and the Hendrix-Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling, the College has been able to provide programs that will help the Conference meet the goal: "by 2013, 25 young people per year from Arkansas will be entering seminary intending a vocation in professional ministry including music, education, etc., and that by 2013, 60 percent of new pastors will be trained in United Methodist seminaries." Since Hendrix received a grant from the Lilly Endowment in 2002, 32 Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary. Fifty percent of these are at United Methodist seminaries. We anticipate 24 students will enter seminary in a four-year period. That figure includes this year's graduating class and the next three graduating classes.

The Hendrix-Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling is in its third year, and Hendrix continues to seek additional gifts to permanently endow this critical initiative so that its programs continue to benefit the next generation of lay and clergy leadership for the United Methodist Church.

A focus of the Miller Center is to cultivate the discernment of a call to ordained ministry, which occurs several ways for our college students. "Exploring Ministry Together or "E.M.T." continues to host 10 to 15 students each week during the academic year to discuss different aspects of ministry. The group has met with special guests, including Rev. Jeanne Burton and Rev. Mary Jane Cole, and focused on themes such as spiritual autobiographies or the sacraments of the church. It is clear that this group functions more as peer support than as a gathering to gain information about the nuts and bolts of ministry. The group held a fall retreat that focused on spiritual gifts. Providing space for this peer discernment to occur is helping these gifted, bright students feel supported as they continue the path to a vocation in ministry.

Our continued work with pre-seminarians includes one or two group visits to United Methodist seminaries and stipends for students to make individual visits. We currently average 10 students per year who visit seminaries. This year's organized trip was to Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Chicago, Illinois. It is clear from student evaluations that seminary visits allow Hendrix students to "experience student life and get a feel of the campus." In addition to sending students to visit seminaries, the College invites seminary representatives to campus to recruit students. This year, the seminary fair will take place on November 3.

Beyond these core programs that nurture students' exploration of their calling to Christian ministry is a wealth of programs that encourage students to explore and express their faith commitments. Campus ministry offers a variety of religious life programs. Currently, six registered student religious clubs and organizations are devoted to issues related to religious faith and spiritual formation. Through these student clubs, the Office of the Chaplain and the Hendrix-Miller Center, more than 20 weekly religious life activities, including Bible studies, fellowship groups, and denominational meetings, are offered. In addition to these programs, weekly communion and evening chapel services are planned, organized, and led by students, under the direction of the Chaplain. The Religious Life Council has sponsored films, forums, and social gatherings, with more than 100 students attending each of the events.

The United Methodist Youth Fellowship Leadership Scholars continues to be a strong program. Hendrix is especially proud of the 40 students who currently receive this award. Many of them will return to their home churches during the year to share their experiences. These students participate in leadership development and spiritual formation programs during their four years at Hendrix. In addition, the UMYF Leadership Scholars assist in leading fellowship teams that travel from campus to local churches to lead worship services. Since 1996, student fellowship teams have visited more than 400 United Methodist Churches in all nine districts of Arkansas. Alumni of the UMYF scholar's program can be found pastoring churches, assisting with youth programs and Christian education, and providing leadership in worship and on church boards.

Mission trips continue to call students away from their current contexts to engage with people both in and out of the United States. Through these travel and service experiences, students develop a greater understanding of their gifts, their purpose, and the United Methodist Church's role in responding to the needs of the world. Forty students were selected from an application pool of more than 120 students to take part in the 2011 winter and summer mission trips to New Orleans, Birmingham, Cuba, and South Africa.

The opportunity to think about one's life as a calling is striking a chord with a broad spectrum of Hendrix students. A program that has seen significant growth in participation is the weekly Tuesday Talks. This program began nine years ago, and brings in a faculty, staff, or alumni member each week to answer the question, "What is my calling and how do I know?" During Tuesday Talks students hear faculty, staff, and alumni speak about how they have integrated their academic endeavors, ethical principles, trials, joys, and faith journeys into a discovery of vocation.

To further strengthen the United Methodist Church, the College is committed also to the continuing education for clergy and lay leaders. Speakers this year included Jeannette Walls (Willson Lecture); Kevin Roose (Steel Hendrix Awards Banquet speaker); Gail O'Day (John and Marjem Gill Preaching Workshop), and David Coleman (Marriage and Family Conference).

Hendrix College remains committed to ensuring that all qualified students have access to a Hendrix education, regardless of their family's financial circumstances. The amount of money needed to fund scholarships and financial aid for our students continues to increase each year. This year, Hendrix is providing more than $27.6 million in student scholarships and financial aid. This represents approximately 30 percent of our total budget. Our budget for student financial assistance has doubled in the past four years, in response to the growing need of students and their families for assistance with financing a college education.

United Methodist students at Hendrix receive more than $3 million dollars in financial aid from the College. Of these students, almost $287,000 in financial aid is given to dependents of United Methodist clergy, Certified Candidates for ordination for the United Methodist Church, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship Leadership Scholars. All of the apportioned dollars from the conference go into the scholarship fund. The college believes it is being good stewards of the churches' money by investing the money in scholarships for United Methodist students. These students are tomorrow's leaders in business, industry, the professions, public service, the arts, and the church. Additionally, more than $300,000 from the operating budget supports the religious life programs and chaplain staff.

The relationship between Methodists and higher education was established by John Wesley. Hendrix College cherishes its relationship with the United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Wesley's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity and spiritual formation, knowledge and vital piety. We are grateful for the many ways in which United Methodist Churches of Arkansas support Hendrix, including your apportionment gifts that go directly to students to provide financial assistance that ensure access to our strong academic program, the Miller Center, a wide range of religious life and spiritual formation opportunities, and the UMYF Leadership Scholars Program. Thank you for your continuing support of Hendrix.

J. Timothy Cloyd, Ph.D.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

It is my privilege to submit this report to you and to bring greetings and a word of appreciation for the support, prayers, and commitment to the ministry of Lydia Patterson Institute.

Life on the border becomes more difficult by the moment. The life of Lydia Patterson has become more than a place where students receive a strong education and leaders are formed. Today, Lydia Patterson is also a safe haven for students crossing the border looking for safety from the violence and unrest that plagues the city of Juarez, Mexico.

Although we have been able to maintain our enrollment in the past two years, we have seen a decline from the past years. The reason is obvious. Parents have lost their jobs; consequently, we have had to provide more scholarships than ever before. Parents who might have had a small business or a taco stand or a modest way of making a living have had to close down due to the threats of the mob that they either pay them or pay with their lives. People, women and children, are being murdered daily. Over 4,000 lives were lost last year as the result of the violence and many more went unreported.

Students at Lydia Patterson have been directly affected. Many have lost parents or other members of their families. We have buried several former students and comforted many victims of kidnappings.

In 1913, Lydia Patterson opened its doors for the first time to minister to the young children of families crossing the border and fleeing from a revolution in Mexico. Families were looking for a safe place for their children and escaping the unrest in our neighboring country. Mrs. Lydia Patterson recognized the need for ministry to these displaced children and began her work in this impoverished neighborhood in El Paso. Almost 100 years later, Lydia Patterson is, again, serving as a refuge to young children escaping the threat of violence and bloodshed that they are exposed to daily. Many of our students make a two hour trip from their homes to Lydia Patterson daily by riding two or more buses from their homes to downtown Juarez. They then cross the international bridge on foot and walk the eight blocks to Lydia Patterson. One student, when asked about her sentiments as she made this daily trip, stated that she was in fear. She prayed and said that when she set foot on the American side, she could breathe easily again. Another student, as he was being interviewed by a local TV channel for a special on the work of Lydia Patterson, talked about his fears as well. He talked about the emptiness during the holidays as they mourned the loss of family members who had lost their lives to the violence. He also stated that he prayed a lot and then smiled and said that he still had hopes.

In the midst of all, Lydia Patterson is more committed than ever to bringing hope to its students. It continues to equip the students with that which can remove them from such a hostile environment…a good education. The spiritual life on our campus strengthens their hope for a future free of threats and injustice. Through our Student Lay Ministry Program, we continue to form leaders for the church. Students are serving in internships in local United Methodist Churches throughout the country. Students are graduating from seminary and others are making their way to a life in ministry. In spite of all the challenges, in the last two years, 100% of our graduating seniors have gone on to college. Lydia Patterson Institute, its administrators, faculty and staff, strongly believe that the fate of its students lies in the heart of our ministry.

I invite you to visit our new web page and learn about how you are already a part of this ministry by virtue of your relationship to your church, conference, and the jurisdiction. I encourage you to visit our campus in El Paso and personally experience the life of ministry with direct interaction with our students. We welcome work teams, mission groups, agency meetings, and personal visits. In as much as Juarez, Mexico, is a very dangerous city today, by national standards, El Paso is the safest city of its size to live in. We hope to see you here soon, and please keep our students in your daily prayers.

Respecfully,
Socorro Brito de Anda, President

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) is an ecumenical graduate school of religion that provides theological education for 300+ students each semester, representing close to 30 denominations. The seminary is accredited by SACS and ATS and is approved by the University Senate to prepare ordained leaders for the United Methodist Church. In any given semester, total enrollment includes 35-40% Methodist students, by far the largest denominational percentage.

In addition to the seminary's core curriculum, many courses are offered specifically for Methodist students, including:

- United Methodist History and Doctrine
- United Methodist Polity
- The Development of Wesleyan Thought
- Wesley and the Poor
- John Wesley and His Age
- Readings in John Wesley
- Wesleyan Spiritual Theology

MTS offers these and all of our courses to auditors, which is a convenient and relevant way for United Methodist clergy to earn CEUs.

Of the full-time teaching faculty of 15, two are United Methodist: Dr. Virginia Lee, Associate Professor of Christian Education, and Dr. Lee Ramsey, Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics. We are pleased to announce that Rev. Andrew C. Thompson will join the faculty in August 2011 as Assistant Professor of Historical Theology and Wesleyan Studies. Rev. Thompson graduated from Hendrix College in Conway, AR, and received his Master of Divinity from Vanderbilt Divinity School. Most recently, Thompson has been a Ministry Coordinator of the Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation and is a contributing columnist for the United Methodist Reporter. His "Gen-X Rising" column appears bi-weekly and has won the Award of Excellence from the Associated Church Press. Thompson is also the editor of the forthcoming, Generation Rising: A Future with Hope for the United Methodist Church, to be published in April of 2011 by Abingdon Press.

United Methodist adjunct faculty include Dr. Paul Blankenship, Professor Emeritus of Methodist Studies, Dr. Jonathan Jeffords, Dr. Herbert Lester, Dr. Ron McDonald, Dr. Scott Morris, Dr. Stephen Shapard, Dr. Fred Smith and Dr. Billy Vaughan.

Rev. Emily Matheny, pastor of Highland Heights UMC in the Memphis-Asbury district, serves on the MTS Board of Trustees, along with Rev. Tom Bell, recently retired District Superintendent of the North Alabama Conference. United Methodist laypersons include Harvey Ferguson from the Mississippi Conference and Nancy Vernon from the Arkansas Conference. Thus, each Annual Conference served by MTS has a representative on the Board of Trustees.

Jesus taught us the importance of a solid foundation for any building. Here at MTS, we are building faith and skills for ministry in the men and women God is calling to serve the church. It is my prayer and my commitment that we build on the solid foundation of the gospel, staying grounded in tradition and open to the Spirit. We are grateful for your partnership and support in this essential work.

METHODIST FAMILY HEALTH
A management company of United Methodist Children's Home, Inc., and Arkansas Center for Addiction Research and Education Services (C.A.R.E.S.), and Methodist Behavioral Hospital, Inc., and Kaleidoscope Grief Center, and Methodist Family Health Foundation, Inc.

Who We Are

Established in 1899 as the Arkansas United Methodist Orphanage, Methodist Family Health has expanded its services over the years to meet the changing needs of at-risk youth in our society. Today, Methodist Family Health (MFH) provides a wide range of behavioral and mental health care services for children and youth with serious behavioral or emotional problems caused by autism, ADHD, drug and alcohol addiction, abuse, neglect or mental illness. MFH's services range from hospitalization to therapeutic foster care and treatment homes to day treatment programs and outpatient counseling.

In all its programs, Methodist Family Health uses the Teaching-Family Model, a well-researched treatment approach that works for troubled children. The Teaching-Family Model uses "teaching-parents" to help children in treatment develop appropriate social and behavioral skills. The adults working with the children use positive, non-punitive interactions to encourage behavior change. Not only has the Teaching-Family Model helped our clients achieve positive outcomes, but national studies also show that the model helps young people with even the most difficult problems or behaviors improve the quality of their lives and make contributions to society.

Who We Serve

Methodist Family Health is committed to serving families throughout the state with programs located in nearly 30 Arkansas cities and towns. In total, more than 2,700 individual clients are served each year through all of Methodist Family Health's acute, residential and outpatient programs. These programs include:

- Methodist Behavioral Hospital in Maumelle
- Residential Treatment Centers in Little Rock and Bono
- Therapeutic Group Homes in Fayetteville, Heber Springs, Helena-West Helena, Little Rock, Magnolia, Mulberry and Searcy
- Therapeutic Day Treatment Schools in Little Rock and Magnolia.
- Therapeutic Foster Homes in Bella Vista, Booneville, De Queen, Doddridge, Fayetteville, Fulton, Gentry, Gillham, Lowell, Mineral Springs, Rogers, Siloam Springs, Springdale and West Fork
- Emergency Shelters in Little Rock and Magnolia
- Arkansas CARES (a treatment program for addicted mothers and their young children) in Little Rock
- Methodist Counseling Clinics in Batesville, Fayetteville, Heber Springs, Jonesboro, Little Rock, Magnolia and Mt. Ida.
- School-Based Counseling in Harrisburg, Hazen, Jonesboro, Nettleton, Success Academy (Craighead County) and Vilonia
- Kaleidoscope Grief Center for children and families in Little Rock

Accreditations/Affiliations

All Methodist Family Health treatment programs are accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations. Methodist Family Health maintains professional affiliations with the Arkansas Department of Human Services, Baptist Health School of Nursing, University of Central Arkansas School of Nursing, University of Arkansas Criminal Justice Institute, the University of Arkansas Medical Science, the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, Arkansas Sheriff's Youth Ranch and Arkansas Children's Hospital.

New Programs/Activities

Since last year's Conference, two big changes have occurred within the MFH Ministry:

- Our Therapeutic Group Home for girls in northwest Arkansas moved from Springdale to the Arkansas Sheriffs' Youth Ranch campus in Mulberry. The arrangement is part of an alliance announced in November 2010 between MFH and the Ranch. "The alliance provides us with access to some of the Ranch's facilities and treatment environments that we feel are good for kids and compliment our program," says MFH CEO Andy Altom. All of MFH's Group Homes serve up to eight youth ages 12-18.
- Methodist Counseling Clinic–Trish House opened in Mt. Ida in February 2011. The facility was a former domestic violence shelter named for Patricia Young, a woman who was murdered by her husband in 2001. "Many churches, organizations and individuals donated their time, money and effort to open Trish House," says Phyllis Selph, Patricia Young's sister. "We were blessed to help many families in the last few years, but we realized that if the house was going to be used to its full potential, it would need to be taken over by a larger entity. Methodist Family Health agreed to take our little house and make it a counseling center, and we feel Trish would be pleased."

- We held our 2nd Annual Get Up & Give Collection throughout Lent. This year, we asked United Methodist Churches, UMWs and Youth Groups statewide to consider collecting necessity items needed by the Methodist Children's Home and our many other programs in the state. We asked them to drop off their collected items during the week following Easter, or they could bring them to a celebration event at our Little Rock Counseling Clinic on Sunday, May 1. The event included refreshments, praise bands and tours of the clinic.

Upcoming Events

- Walk for Children and Families: Methodist Family Health's 5th Annual Walk for Children and Families will be on Friday, August 5. This is a great event benefiting the children and families served by MFH. Registration begins at 6 p.m. on the North Little Rock side of the Big Dam Bridge at Cook's Landing. The Walk begins at 7 p.m. There will be live music, free ice cream, pizza and walking for a great cause. Cost is $20 per individual or $50 for a family. Contact Maggie Beeler at mbeeler@methodistfamily.org or (501) 661-0720, ext. 7299 for more information.
- Kaleidoscope Kids Auction: The 13th Annual Kaleidoscope Kids Auction will take place at 6:30 p.m., Sept 16, at the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church in Little Rock. All proceeds will benefit Kaleidoscope Grief Center, a program within the Methodist Family Health Continuum of Care, as well as Methodist Counseling Clinics statewide. METHODIST LE BONHEUR HEALTHCARE

Memphis, Tennessee

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare strives each day to provide outstanding Patient and Family Centered Care to the people who live in the Mid-South and those who come to Memphis from all over the world seeking compassionate and caring medical care. Each day the more than 10,000 Associates and almost 2,000 physicians actively live out the mission and vision of Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare:

Mission:

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare in partnership with its medical staffs, will collaborate with patients and their families to be the leader in providing high quality, cost effective patient- and family-centered care. Services will be provided in a manner, which supports the health ministries and Social Principles of The United Methodist Church to benefit the communities we serve.

Vision:

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare is a faith-based healthcare system that, in partnership with its physicians, will be nationally recognized for delivering outstanding care to each patient achieved through collaboration with patients and their families.

Values:

Service. Quality. Integrity. Teamwork.

This year's report from Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare will focus on recently completed construction projects and ongoing and future construction projects that will position MLH to provide quality, compassionate and cutting edge medical care the people of the Mid-South and those who come seeking help from outside the Mid-South area. MLH is not only committed to providing great inpatient and outpatients who come to us, but also, working with area community individuals, organizations and congregations, MLH is committed to improving the overall health of the Mid-South. Our recent, current and future construction projects will enable us to provide excellent patient care. Additionally, the facilities will enhance our community education, prevention outreach programs, research into health disparities and the development of unique community programs.

Center of Excellence in Faith & Health

The future of healthcare is under construction in Memphis. It is evident through the glass doors of the new Center of Excellence in Faith and Health at Methodist University Hospital. The big news in not some new machine in the hospital, but hundreds of new relationships all over the community Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare serves, most remarkably with more than 300 congregations who share the mission of health and healing.

The Memphis model of healthcare rests on trusted community relationships and on generous support from donors who are moved to share the vision. Dr. Ralph and Barbara Hamilton provided the initial $1 million for the Center. Additional donors contributed more than $1.5 million to complete the funding of the construction and renovation. The Center is an interfaith, collaborative center of research, innovation and training. Working with partners both locally and globally, the Center has a multi-tiered approach including: identifying and linking local community faith resources; providing support and resources to clergy; enhancing the patient experience within the walls of the hospital; and collaborative research with international experts on faith and health – all with the goal of improving the wellbeing of the patient before, during and after the hospital experience.

The Center of Excellence in Faith and Health is located in 16,000-square feet of newly renovated space and contains a Family Care Center, a Resource Room with printed materials and internet access, a Consultation Room for families and physicians and a Quiet Room where family members can rest day or night. The Kemmons Wilson Family Foundation Innovation Studio and the Media Commons, two state-of-the-art areas for training and teleconferencing is designed both for use by MLH staff and physicians. The Center includes a Family and Community Education Conference Room and Library and individual consultation rooms.

However, the initiatives of the Center reach far beyond the walls of the hospital:

- Building on the strength of the some 2,000 plus congregations in the Greater Memphis area, the Congregational Health Network has covenant relationships with more than 300 congregations. MLH has navigators in place at each of its four adult hospitals and trained lay liaisons at each congregation to monitor congregation members' health and provide guidance.
- A religious health asset mapping project is well under way to improve the health of the overall Memphis area community. This arduous process involves community members identifying all existing points of access or information for healthcare in the community.
- With a strong clergy health focus, the Center has the goal of becoming the premier clergy leadership center in the world and will also foster expanded relationships with seminary partners locally and nationally.
- International partnerships with faith-based health leaders are vital to the Center's research. Partners in the U.S., Africa, Switzerland, Norway, India and other countries will convene at the Center to develop practices related to integrated health, disease management and spiritual care.

Methodist Le Bonheur Germantown Hospital's Women's and Children's Pavilion

The new Women's and Children's Pavilion at Methodist Le Bonheur Germantown Hospital opened with a Consecration Service and ribbon cutting ceremony on February 12, 2010.

The $121 million project broke ground in May 2008. The construction project added 100 beds and more than 600 parking spaces with a new parking deck to the MLH Germantown Hospital campus.

One component of the new Pavilion is the specially designed neonatal intensive care unit that provides 24 hour private rooms where parents can remain with their newborn throughout their baby's hospital stay. The Pavilion also offers spacious labor and delivery rooms designed with the family in mind and equipped for the ultimate in privacy, infant safety and comfort. Newborns are encouraged to room-in with mom, allowing the family to become comfortable taking care of their new baby.

Additionally, a special Women's Boutique provides a wide selection of women's health garments and support products for women of all ages.

The Pavilion is one of only a handful of hospitals nationwide to receive Gold level certification from the LEED system, designated by the U.S. Green Building Council.

Le Bonheur Children's Hospital

More than 500 Le Bonheur Children's Hospital employees, United Methodist Clergy and other local religious leaders gathered on June 14, 2010 to join in the Consecration Worship Service of the new Le Bonheur Children's Hospital, a part of the Methodist Healthcare Family of healthcare facilities. The service reflected Le Bonheur's belief that faith plays a vital role in the healing process. Religious leaders including Bishop Crutchfield, Arkansas Area, and Bishop Ward, Mississippi Area, blessed the new hospital and prayed for the generations of children who will receive care in the new facility.

The new $340-million, 12 floor, 610,000 square foot hospital, the largest children's hospital in Tennessee, began caring for the children of the Mid-South in December following several months of training and preparation by the Le Bonheur Associates and Physicians. The 255-bed hospital nearly doubled Le Bonheur's current space for patient care, research and teaching. Featuring the latest advancements in technology and comforts for families, the hospital is designed to provide each child and family with exceptional care. The new Le Bonheur will allow the hospital to continue to be a resource for families throughout the Mid-South and beyond, to recruit and retain top talent from around the country, and expand pediatric medicine for decades to come.

More than $103 million of the $340 million construction costs were donated by the Memphis and Mid-South community through individuals, corporations and foundations, making it the largest fundraising campaign in the city's history. Gifts from 4,970 individuals, foundations, congregations, organizations and corporations ensure that Le Bonheur will care for generations of children.

The hospital is the fifth sustainable children's hospital in the nation that is certified as LEED. Some of the green features include a modular energy plant, recycled construction materials, drip irrigation, natural light, motion sensors and energy efficient blubs.

Incorporated into the facility are special features to enhance the lives of the children, families, staff and physicians including:

- Every room big enough for families to sleep over with their children
- A rest and renewal "sunroom" outside of the surgery bays
- Technology infrastructure designed to handle the latest medical advances over the next 20 years
- A movie theater where kids, families and staff can go to watch movies and relax
- One of the best art collections of any public building in Memphis
- A large Patient Resource Center for parents and friends
- Diversionary settings for inpatient children, outpatients and siblings including a reading room and play areas

Every year Le Bonheur treats over 130,000 children from across the country and throughout the world. Le Bonheur is home to one of the nation's 10 busiest pediatric emergency departments and hosts one of the largest pediatric surgical brain tumor programs.

Methodist Hospice Residence

Construction is under way on a six acre sight in Southeast Memphis where the Methodist Hospice Residence will open during the Summer of 2011. The $9 million, 30-bed, free standing hospice residence will focus on making the journey at the end of life the best experience for the patient, whether an adult or a child, and their family.

As well as providing the specialized care that people require who are facing end-of-life, the residence will be a home where patients can spend their days with dignity and grace. It will be a sacred place dedicated to making the final journey one of peace, discovery and comfort. The Methodist Hospice Residence will be built to look like and feel like a home. It will provide all the comforts one finds at home. Patients can request a late night snack from the kitchen, and families can bring a special snack or meal their loved one may be craving. Patients can bring items from their home, such as a bedspread or family photos, to help transform the room in the residence into a place that feels like their own. Family pets will be able to come to the residence for a visit. All of the 30 private rooms will be centered around a beautifully landscaped courtyard – where patients, families and staff can enjoy the outdoors.

The Methodist Hospice Residence will provide acute care for those who require symptom and pain management as well as short-term residential beds for those who cannot be cared for in their homes. The residence will include office space to accommodate interdisciplinary teams of physicians, nurses, health aides, chaplains, social workers, volunteers and support staff. The residence will serve as a community asset, offering educational rooms, a library and a bereavement center open to all adults and children throughout the region.

Funding for this special, sacred place came from physicians, MLH staff, private donors, individuals, organizations and the Assisi Foundation of Memphis.

As a part of MLH's pledge to be good stewards of our natural resources, the building is being constructed as a LEED certified building.

Comprehensive Sickle Cell Center of Memphis

Passionate health care leaders, fundraisers and concerned citizens in the Mid-South launched in 2010 a campaign to raise $5 million to create the Comprehensive Sickle Center of Memphis. Once completed, the Sickle Center will be the only comprehensive inpatient center in the Mid-South area.

The Comprehensive Sickle Cell Center's design is based upon delivering the most advanced clinical treatment, on-site research for treatment advances and ultimately a cure, and full psychological and spiritual support for its patients. This all-inclusive care model will include:

- 24-Hour Emergency and Infusion Unit providing pain crisis management, transfusion and intravenous infusion support
- Prevention Outpatient Clinic providing preventive health maintenance specific to sickle cell disease including patient education, genetic counseling, social work services and psychosocial support.

The Comprehensive Sickle Cell Center of Memphis is a collaborative effort by MLH, the University of Tennessee Health Science Center and other healthcare organizations throughout the Memphis community. The center's outpatient clinic and dedicated in-patient unit will be housed at Methodist University Hospital's campus. The outpatient clinic will provide preventive health maintenance specific to sickle cell disease in a primary care setting. The goal of primary care and the Sickle Cell outpatient clinic is to keep people healthy and treat problems related Sickle Cell early. This is critically important for those with Sickle Cell which can escalate rapidly if left untreated.

Olive Branch, Mississippi Hospital

The Mississippi Department of Health granted a Certificate of Need to MLH to build a 100 bed hospital in Olive Branch, Mississippi during 2010. Design planning has begun on the new facility with final plans expected during 2011. Construction is expected to begin in late 2011 with completion in 2013. The new hospital will join other MLH facilities that include an adult minor medical center, pediatric urgent care center, a sleep center and an imaging center. The new hospital will expand MLH's in-patient services into Northern Mississippi to meet the needs of the rapidly growing area of North Mississippi

Recognition, Awards and Honors

- U.S. News and World Report magazine's Best Hospital 2010-2011 edition named Methodist Hospitals of Memphis as one of the top hospitals in the nation for orthopedic care.
- MLB Germantown's Women's and Children's Pavilion won Best Green Building and an Award for Excellence in Architectural Design from McGraw Hill Construction's South Central Construction

Magazine's Best of 2010 competition

- MLH was again been named among the Top 100 Integrated Healthcare Networks in the country, according to SDI, the nation's premier rating system. Hospitals making the Top 100 list meet critical success factors and demonstrated the ability to operate in these eight areas: integration, integrated technology, contractual capabilities, outpatient utilization, financial stability, services and access, hospital utilization and physician participation.
- The new Women's and Children's Pavilion at MLB Germantown Hospital is the first hospital in the Southeast to receive LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) and joins a small handful of hospitals nationally with this distinguished designation.
- Named to Modern Healthcare's "Top 100 Best Places to Work in Healthcare" list for 2009 – one of only three Tennessee organizations to make the list.
- The Methodist University Hospital Transplant Institute recently achieved Center of Excellence status from all major insurers, including Blue Cross Blue Shield's Blue Distinction Centers for Transplant which signifies that the program meets stringent clinical criteria in balance with growing transplant volume.
- All four of our qualifying acute-care hospitals became accredited Certified Chest Pain Centers by the Society of Chest Pain Centers. Methodist University Hospital also received The Gold Seal of Approval from the Joint Commission as a Certified AMI Program (Acute Myocardial Infarction – heart attack).
- Methodist Healthcare was recognized for five awards by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services Hospital Quality Incentive Demonstration Project.

We continue to seek ways of partnering with the Arkansas, Memphis and Mississippi Annual Conferences to impact and improve the overall health and well-being of the people of the Mid-South and beyond. We appreciate the support and prayers of our three founding conferences and look forward to your continued support and prayers. We are honored to be a part of the healing ministry of the Arkansas, Memphis and Mississippi Conferences.

MOUNT EAGLE CHRISTIAN CENTER

"Providing Christian hospitality and opportunities for holy listening"

As Mount Eagle provides sacred space for use by individuals, local churches and annual conference related groups, we become a partner in ministry. Holy listening leads to decision making, action, and transformation of lives.

Retreats for groups of one to seventy persons are happening here every weekend throughout the year and many times during the week. In spite of weather related challenges, (snow, ice, and tornadoes) in 2010, we saw many new faces and kept our numbers around 3000. Thanks to web technology, our facilities were sought out by persons from far outside the state of Arkansas. Confirmation retreats were held for churches of all different sizes. Family groups that included Sunday School classes and intergenerational family gatherings, Wesley Foundation students and youth groups, men's groups and women's groups all came to be renewed and to enjoy Christian fellowship at Mount Eagle.

Since last annual conference some exciting things have happened.

1. In partnership with Perkins School of Theology and the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, Mount Eagle hosted the first two of six sessions for Certification in Spiritual Direction. This two-year program for laity and clergy, taught by Perkins faculty, offers the same classes at Mount Eagle as those on campus in Dallas. Through a generous donation from the United Methodist Foundation, the cost has been greatly reduced and the savings passed along to 20 students enrolled in the program. Trained spiritual directors will soon become an additional resource for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, helping reduce clergy burnout, and being spiritual friends to any who seek their counsel.
2. Mount Eagle continued to expand the Care of Creation program, giving our guests an opportunity to practice green habits and find ways to implement programs at home. (Camps and retreat centers were identified by the 2008 General Conference as ideal partners in helping United Methodists to become more aware of their carbon footprint.) As part of this effort, we have completed year two of an organic garden. Although the hot summer of 2010 limited the amount of produce, several families were recipients of fresh produce from Mount Eagle added to the items given out at a local food pantry. In September 2011 we will partner with the Arkansas Hunger Task Force to host a weekend learning experience and encourage local churches to start some type of community garden program.
3. In the past few years we have become known as a place that cares about our neighbors, is a community partner, and a witness to the love of Christ. With help from Rev. Steven Copley and the Arkansas office of Justice for Our Neighbors, we celebrated the receipt of a permanent green card for one of our elderly neighbors. This followed an eight-year effort to help her get legal status. Friends from United Methodist churches all over the state who came to Mount Eagle for retreat became involved in this effort to welcome the stranger in our midst.
4. An invitation was issued to all Arkansas Conference congregations, who are part of New Church starts, to come to Mount Eagle for an overnight retreat without charge. The Rev. Will Choate was the first to accept, and in late August Beal Lodge was filled with young adults from Argenta UMC.

We are ever amazed and always thankful that God provides the people, resources, and circumstances for Mount Eagle to help make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world! Thank you once again to our number one partner, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, for providing prayers and continued support of our vital ministries.

With great appreciation,
Lynn R. Baker, Richard Lancaster, Robert E. Dennis,
Officers of the Board
Lu Harding, Director, Mount Eagle

Ozark Mission Project, an agency of the Arkansas United Methodist Conference, is celebrating 25 years of providing life changing, hands-on mission and ministry opportunities for middle school, high school, college age students, and adults around Arkansas. Since 1986, campers have been venturing out of their comfort zone to all areas of Arkansas and beyond to experience a unique way to practice our call to serve those in need by offering assistance to elderly and disadvantaged with home repairs and Christian hospitality through visitation, food, devotions, and prayer.

To celebrate our past and anticipate our promising future, OMP will celebrate our 25th anniversary at Lakewood United Methodist Church in North Little Rock. We will host a day of mission, fellowship and worship on October 29, 2011 for youth, adults, alumni and families. This day of celebration will be free of charge to participants. Whether you've been to OMP once or ten times, whether it was 20 years ago or this is your first summer, or whether you, your family or youth group just want to see what OMP is all about, we invite you to celebrate and worship with us. To see event details and memorabilia, volunteer and donation opportunities and stories from our past, as well as what is unfolding this summer, please visit our website: www.ozarkmissionproject.org.

Based on average estimates of the past 25 years, over 15,000 Ozark Mission Project campers have served 5,500 families in need. OMP's energetic campers have completed 6,800 projects and OMP has provided $675,000 of free materials for our Neighbors (those we serve). However, more importantly, our youth, our neighbors and our volunteers were touched by God's presence. He is still making a difference in our lives, as well as illuminating a path for OMP year after year. With more than 1,000 people working to make our current OMP summer possible, we are told we are by far the largest single Arkansas Methodist camping program ministering to preteen, teenagers and college students.

Over the years, OMP's 270 camps have reached all corners of the state by holding camps at the following sites: Bear Creek, Bradley, Canfield, Cold Springs, Mount Eagle, Pathway, Peniel, Preston Hunt, Rudy, Shoal Creek, Silver Hill, Tanako, Wayland Springs, and Wolf Creek. Since 1999, OMP has been blessed to have been hosted by the following Methodist churches over the years: FUMC Cabot, FUMC Camden, Central UMC (Fayetteville), FUMC Conway, Cornerstone UMC (Jonesboro), FUMC El Dorado, Goddard UMC (Fort Smith), Grand Ave UMC (Hot Springs), FUMC Hamburg, Heritage UMC (Van Buren), FUMC Hot Springs, FUMC Jacksonville, Lakewood UMC (North Little Rock), FUMC Little Rock, FUMC Magnolia, SAU Wesley, FUMC Star City, FUMC Texarkana, FUMC West Memphis.

Since 2007, OMP has taken over 170 college students from Wesley Foundations at University of Central Arkansas, University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, Henderson State University, Ouachita Baptist University, Arkansas State University at Jonesboro, Southern Arkansas University, Arkansas Tech University, as well as Centenary College in Louisiana to Rio Bravo, Mexico and post-Katrina New Orleans, Louisiana.

As a body of Christ, we know our work is never done. As we look forward to a hopeful future, please join us as we celebrate 25 incredible years of encouraging and empowering youth and adults to seek those in need.

SMU | PERKINS
SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY
DEAN'S REPORT

A. Major Accomplishments

Perkins School of Theology is a "community devoted to theological study and to teaching in the service of the church of Jesus Christ … to prepare women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry" (Perkins Catalog).

A vital affirmation of our mission occurred in 2010, when the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) renewed our accreditation for another 10 years.

B. Opportunities, Plans and Challenges

1. Faculty. We are committed to enhancing diversity.
   - At the rank of associate professor, we have achieved gender equity, with exactly the same number of women as men ranked as tenured associate professors;
   - Among our tenured professors, approximately one-third are identified as ethnic minority or non-white – which means that, in ethnicity, the faculty is leading the diversification of the school even more rapidly than the student body.
2. Facilities. New construction and extensive renovations have made Perkins' facilities fully accessible and LEED certified. With sufficient pledges on hand to cover construction and renovation costs, the critical task of collecting the dollars pledged continues.
3. Formative Scholarship. Approximately one-third of all SMU doctoral degrees in spring 2010 went to students from the Graduate Program in Religious Studies. The GPRS, a cooperative program of Perkins and SMU's Dedman College, has long been the highest rated Ph.D. program at SMU.

A strategic goal is to secure permanent endowments to support adequate GPRS student stipends.

Other events of note in the GPRS:

- Perkins is now a charter member of the Hispanic Theological Initiative Consortium.
- The GPRS welcomed its first doctoral candidate funded through a Luce grant to the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions.

4. Finances. In 2010 through 2012, each unit of SMU must absorb significant budget reductions. The first of those three years included a cut of about 2.2%. We expect similar cuts in each of the next two years, resulting in total reductions of about 6.7%.
5. Enrollment. Recent ATS data indicate that total enrollment for the M. Div. degree has declined by about five percent. Nevertheless, in the fall of 2010 we recruited an entering master's class 27% larger than the one in 2009. Additionally, counting persons enrolled in our Singapore cohort, we have 15 new D.Min. students this year. We will need the commitment of our friends and partners to the ongoing task of recruiting outstanding students.

C. Conclusion

While challenges remain, the state of our school is strong. We are deeply appreciative of our partners throughout the connection who continue to support and strengthen us in our mission.

William B. Lawrence

PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE

Philander Smith College continues to openly embrace our United Methodist heritage. As the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church indicate, social justice has been a part of this denomination since the beginning. Our dynamic mission statement, "to graduate academically accomplished students, grounded as advocates for social justice, determined to change the world for the better" is a proud affirmation that we are a Methodist-related institution that is not ashamed of our mission, and we are working actively to educate the next generation of Christian leaders.

We began the social justice emphasis in 2007. Now in its 4th year, we have been able to make dramatic leaps with our program. During the summer of 2010, we were awarded a $1.2 million grant from the Kresge Foundation in Troy, Michigan. $900,000 is to be used to launch our social justice initiative by provide a director, program coordinator, and support staff, as well as programmatic funding. The program funds will assist with student experiences, as well as faculty development. During March of 2011 we interviewed candidates to assume the director position and will have our inaugural director on board by July of 2011.

The last $300,000 of the grant was a challenge grant that will be used as a part of an endowment for the social justice initiative. We had until December of 2012 to meet the challenge, but we successfully met that challenge in approximately six months. This is an encouraging sign that our alumni and friends believe in the social justice mission of the college. We have now begun engaging additional foundations for support.

A key part of the development of this initiative will be a physical center for social justice that will be part of a new campus center. In February, we hired a local architectural firm to begin the design of the center. Our goal is to have a new campus center in the next 2 years. We will definitely need support from all of our friends in providing funding for this facility.

Our social justice awareness programming continues to expand. We opened our academic year with Rev. Bernice King, daughter of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., with a theme of love. We essentially have developed four pillars of our social justice initiative: faith, conscience, courage, and love. Each year, our convocation preacher takes one of the themes and develops it so that we have a mantra for that year. We presented our second Ozell Sutton Medal of Justice award to Dr. Marybeth Gasman, professor of higher education at the University of Pennsylvania, for her advocacy work on behalf of minority-serving institutions.

Our students continue to engage in justice work. One of our seniors was tragically killed in the fall by a drunk driver. This event provided an opportunity for students to bring awareness on campus and with elected officials regarding drunk driving. In the fall, ten of our students participated in the Community Developers National Training Event in Scottsdale, Arizona to address immigration issues. This event was co-sponsored with the General Board of Global Ministries.

During spring break, a group of about 40 students went on a civil rights tour sponsored by the Office of Religious Life and our chaplain, Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, that led them through Jackson, Tennessee, Selma, Alabama, and Charleston, South Carolina. They had an opportunity to meet with religious and community leaders throughout the trip. Finally, in March, our Black Male Initiative hosted a dining in the dark experience so that students would have a greater appreciation for members of our society who are blind. One of our new students, John Kimbrough, who is blind, played a major role in organizing this event.

In February, we held another phenomenal Religious Emphasis Week. Pastor Rudy Rasmus of St. John's Downtown United Methodist Church in Houston, Texas, was one of our featured presenters. St. John's is a leader in the denomination in reaching out to all people from all walks of life, and he shared his story and the story of the church with our students. Dorinda Clark-Cole of the legendary Clark Sisters, and Pastor E. Dewey Smith from Decatur, Georgia were two of the guest preachers for the week. The annual living legends banquet this year honored a number of outstanding individuals, including student Francennett Herrera (who is a member of Wesley Chapel UMC, but has worked as an intern with First UMC and Hoover UMC), as well as Rev. Vic Nixon, immediate past senior pastor of Pulaski Heights UMC.

We continue to enjoy a tremendous relationship with Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. Over the past six years, a greater number of students not only attend services there, but are now actively involved in the life of the congregation. A number of students now serve in leadership capacities in this church. This relationship continues to serve as a model for our denomination as to how a local congregation can minister to a college, especially one affiliated with the United Methodist Church.

Our chaplain, Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, serves as president of BMCR. His leadership has allowed our students to gain a number of experiences working with the broader United Methodist Church. In March, a group of students were able to attend the annual BMCR meeting in New Orleans.

In the fall, our enrollment reached 696, which was a 4% increase over the previous fall. A report issued in the summer of 2010 indicated that out of 103 HBCUs, Philander Smith ranked 7th nationally in terms of average SAT of entering students. We maintained the same quality of students in terms of average ACT and GPA, and expanded the geographic diversity of our student body with one student from Zimbabwe, and three students from Alaska. We opened a new, 60 bed suite style residence hall that was completely full. The new hall has individual bedrooms, with two people sharing a bath, and the fifth person in the suite has a bathroom in the room. Despite adding 60 beds, we housed 10 students in the La Quinta hotel during the fall semester. Our second new residence hall, which will have 55 new beds, will be open for Fall 2011.

Even with more students, and stronger students academically, we continue to attract students with genuine financial need. We therefore continue to seek your support for students who really need financial assistance, not simply students coming to make the college look better in rankings and reports. The support of the Arkansas Conference has been great in helping us finance the education of our students, with 75% of the Pell grant eligible, meaning they come from families that earn less than $40,000 a year. We continue to seek individuals, families, corporations, foundations and churches for our Renaissance 100 program, which provides full and partial scholarships for students for four years. We hope that you will join the growing number of people nationwide who are participating in this initiative.

The College continues to garner national recognition for our innovative programming and our student body. Dr. Karl Reid, Vice President for Academic Services with the United Negro College Fund, wrote an article in the fall of 2010 highlighting Philander Smith College as one of 5 institutions that have best practices for educating African American men. Others on that short list included MIT and Morehouse College.

We were also selected by the UNCF to participate in a program with the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) "to craft a meaningful inclusion and diversity initiative at select historically black colleges and universities." This group is developing an initiative to address issues impacting lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered students, and we will be working to develop a position paper. Look forward to hearing more from this work. In addition, we were mentioned in a March, 2011 Chronicle of Higher Education story regarding the climate for LGBT students. We were the only HBCU interviewed for the story.

We have continued to bring a diverse array of speakers to campus throughout the year. To focus on social justice issues, we hosted Nicole Paultre-Bell, who advocates against police brutality after her fiancé was killed when police fired 50 times at his car the morning of their wedding. At 24 years of age, she was a great role model for our students. In an effort to address issues regarding relationships and sexuality, particularly the national data which indicate a disproportionate impact on African Americans, we hosted a week of lectures featuring medical and relationship experts to help our students make better choices. This sexual responsibility week, dubbed "Sex Week" for short, received major national attention from NPR as well as Diverse Issues in Higher Education. I penned an editorial that was published nationally to justify why HBCUs and the church must have these conversations.

Our Bless the Mic lecture series continues to draw amazing crowds to campus. This year we have hosted the likes of Dr. Michael Eric Dyson, Real Housewife NeNe Leakes, author Anya Kamenetz, Republican strategist Leslie Sanchez, rapper Common, CNN contributor Steve Perry, medical and diet expert Dr. Ian Smith, and media personality Jacque Reid. Kamenetz's book, "Generation Debt," was the required fall reading for our freshman colloquium classes, as she focused on the impact of the national debt and our overall attitude about finances will impact this generation severely.

Philander Smith College continues to be one of the most progressive college campuses in the nation, and our development of the social justice emphasis will help us to produce men and women who will live out the principles of the United Methodist Church.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SECRETARIES
(PAUMCS)

PAUMCS is a national organization organized through the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) and GCFA has the authority and responsibility "to provide guidance and consultation for continuing education of church secretaries, including establishment of training and certification programs, and to provide assistance to the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries." /The Book of Discipline/, paragraph 807.19.

The district and some of the conference office secretaries held a retreat at Mount Eagle Christian Center on October 10, 2006 and voted unanimously to become affiliated with the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries (PAUMCS). On November 9, the four secretaries who were members of the National PAUMCS elected officers and named the group the Arkansas Chapter of PAUMCS. These four members became the executive committee and founding members of the Arkansas Chapter of PAUMCS. The four members were Libby Gray, Karen Branton, Connie Thomas, Cindy Parker and Fonda Kirkman.

Our mission in the Arkansas Chapter is to provide a supportive base for the unity and fellowship of its members, in order to provide individual growth, professional development, continuing education, spiritual enrichment and to promote the United Methodist Connection. Members will serve as an advocate for the professional and spiritual concerns of secretaries and administrative support staff.

The first annual chapter meeting was held on April 27, 2007 at Vital Signs. We have continued to have a training session each year and sent national members to be certified as a United Methodist Church secretary. It is our desire to send one secretary and/or support staff person to be certified each year and encourage attendance at the national annual conference held in the spring.

If you would like to become a part of this organization, please feel free to email lgray@arumc.org or call 501.324.8028 for information.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
Kansas City Campus
5123 East Truman Road, Kansas City, MO 64127
Oklahoma City University
2501 North Blackwelder, Oklahoma City, OK 73106
www.spst.edu

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, a free-standing seminary campus in Kansas City and a university partnership seminary on the campus of Oklahoma City University.

During the 2010-2011 academic year, 214 students from 26 annual conferences, 24 denominations and 7 countries were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City. Fifty-four students were enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at Saint Paul at Oklahoma City University. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 311 students from 22 annual conferences. Classes took place in Kansas City, Missouri, and for the first time two courses were offered in Springfield, Missouri. Course of Study classes will begin on the Saint Paul at Oklahoma City University campus in the fall of 2011.

Saint Paul School of Theology at Oklahoma City University will celebrate its first commencement convocation in 2011. The first graduating class of Master of Divinity students will be hooded in a special ceremony in August on te Oklahoma City University campus. Each graduate will have completed 90 hours of study.

Sixteen South Korean students graduated in May from the Korean Doctor of Ministry Track in Wesleyan Spirituality and Congregational Renewal. The international program included teaching by Methodist professors from the United States and South Korea. Class sessions took place in the U.S., England, and South Korea. A second Korean DMin track began in January 2011.

A Doctor of Ministry cohort track focusing on Revitalizing Congregations is slated to begin January 2012. It will focus on biblical preaching, vibrant and meaningful worship, visionary leadership, diverse communities, social justice, and contextual ministry. The DMin track relates directly to the United Methodist Council of Bishops initiatives (the "Four Foci") for the Church.

The Saint Paul youTheology program expanded to include youth from the Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, Texas. It will start a new pod in Nebraska in 2011. YouTheology is funded primarily by Lilly Endowment, Inc. for youth to continue to explore their faith and calling through worship, service, study, travel, and a mentoring relationship.

It was the third year for Laity School of Theology. Each Laity School Saturday Session was taught by seminary faculty and presented in an accessible manner. Lay attendees came from diverse ecumenical and educational backgrounds. Topics included worship, Bible, ethics, church history, and theology. Laity School was offered in Missouri and Oklahoma.

The seminary restructured its continuing education lectures to become Community Reads. Students, faculty, staff and outside guests were encouraged to read topical books such as No Rising Tide by Joerg Rieger and Pedagogy of the Bible: An Analysis and a Proposal by Dr. Dale Martin. Community Reads cultivated early discussion and provoked deeper questioning during author lectures.

Saint Paul at OCU held its second LEAD seminar on the Oklahoma City University campus. The seminar covered topics to improve and strengthen ministerial leadership. The seminars are a collaborative educational project of the Oklahoma Area of the United Methodist Church, Oklahoma City University, and Saint Paul.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The Nineteenth Session of the South Central Jurisdiction will begin on Wednesday evening July 18, 2012 in Oklahoma City, OK. The conference will actually span the 17th through the 21st, with committee meetings on the 17th and 18th, and the opening worship and memorial service the evening of the 18th at St. Luke's UMC in Oklahoma City. Delegates and alternates are expected . . . visitors are welcome.

There will be 256 delegates, plus alternates. The number of delegates will be 40 fewer than in 2008, due to additional Annual Conferences in the Central or international conferences. That means it will take 154 votes, if all delegates are present and voting, and all ballots are valid, to elect a new bishop.

The Conference will be held near the Bricktown area of Oklahoma City, a great place for family fun. Also it will provide ample eating venues for delegates and friends.

The Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference and the Oklahoma Conference, co-hosts of the Conference, along with Bishop Robert Hayes, Jr., resident bishop, invite you to be in Oklahoma City in July of 2012.

We thank you for your continued support of Lydia Patterson Institute, Mt. Sequoyah Assembly, the Wesley Foundation at SMU, and the Jurisdictional Administrative Office.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY
PRESIDENT'S REPORT

As SMU celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915, the University continues to rise in national prominence. Highlights of the past year follow:

- SMU's total fall 2010 enrollment was 10,938, including 6,192 undergraduates, 3,372 graduate students and 1,374 professional (theology and law) students. The ethnic minority enrollment makes up 22.6 percent of the student body.
- SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, launched in 2008, is the largest fund-raising effort in the University's history, with a goal of $750 million. Gifts to date have exceeded $464 million, providing funds for 211 new scholarships; 17 new endowed academic positions; 12 new institutes, centers and other academic initiatives; support for two schools and one academic department; and 13 new or renovated facilities.
- SMU's Dallas campus has grown to 90 buildings and 230 acres. In 2010 SMU dedicated the new Caruth Hall in the Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering and the Annette Caldwell Simmons Hall, home of the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development. Construction has begun on the George W. Bush Presidential Center, consisting of a library, museum and independent institute. The Center is expected to open in early 2013.
- The new Hunter and Stephanie Hunt Institute for Engineering and Humanity in Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering pairs technological innovation with business collaboration to improve conditions for the global poor.
- The Embrey Human Rights Program is one of the fastest growing programs at SMU, with 179 students working toward a human rights minor. An important component of the program is travel to worldwide sites of major human rights abuses.

News of Perkins School of Theology

- SMU's Graduate Program in Religious Studies is ranked in the top 10 of doctoral programs in theology and religion in North America.
- Enrollment of students seeking Master's degrees in Perkins is up in 2010-11, with the entering class 27 percent larger than the previous year.
- Perkins celebrated the 50th anniversary of its Master of Sacred Music program in 2010 with alumni gathering on campus from across the country and beyond.
- Through a new Doctor of Ministry program in cooperation with Trinity Theological Seminary in Singapore, Perkins faculty will teach in Singapore and students from that region will study at Perkins.
- The Church's General Board of Higher Education awarded a grant to Perkins to expand its theological training for Latin American pastors in the Methodist tradition.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage. We ask your continued prayers and support as the University moves forward in the coming year.

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

In the past six years I've served as Chairman of the Board of the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas at a time of transition, a time when we moved steadily to a new, higher level of operations. Today we are a fully staffed, technologically savvy institution that strengthens local church ministries, offers a myriad of vehicles through which committed United Methodists can remember their church in estate planning, and supports the United Methodist connection.

We now manage more than $100 million in funds for United Methodist churches and individuals who have set up endowment funds to benefit their local churches or other Church ministries. Hitting that 100 million mark was a signal to me and the other members of the Board that because our base is larger and we handle more funds, we had to be responsive organizationally and with our overall approach and management.

With the guidance of Foundation President and CEO Jim Argue, Jr., we have added additional professional staff in the financial and administrative departments of UMFA. At the same time we beefed up capabilities for development and marketing through contracts with outside service providers. Careful succession planning for long-time employees Linda Orell and Bill Webster meant that we were able to celebrate their retirement this fall without losing responsiveness and institutional memory.

In the process, we've added some new dimensions to our money management. We now have a blended investment pool option in addition to the growth and income pools, which substantially enhances our service to those who hold UMFA funds. We also recently added online statements to fund holders to get them information quicker and help the environment at the same time.

Essential for much of our transition is an energized role of committee work. Board Committees are operating in both functionally and with authority to improve the Foundation. A Board as large as ours cannot poll the whole group for every decision, so the committee structure is necessary to make good decisions. The most active committees include the Grants Committee, Personnel Committee, Investment Committee, and a newly activated Executive Committee.

Through the generosity of a generation of faithful donors, the United Methodist Foundation has acquired a substantial owned endowment that allows us to make significant contributions to ministries in the Arkansas Conference. For example, grants from UMFA funded the Imagine Ministry Task Force, made possible the Sharing Together in Christ's Name curriculums and awareness campaign and helped establish a Spiritual Direction partnership between Perkins Theological Seminary and Mount Eagle Retreat Center.

The generosity of United Methodists who have used United Methodist Foundation funds as a way to continue giving to their church past their lifetimes has made possible a greatly expanded grant program. It also allowed us to complete a $3.5 million commitment to the Seminary Scholarship Fund that allows nine seminary students to attend United Methodist Seminaries each year.

We are able to fund a wide range of ministries today and we believe that the impact of the Foundation on United Methodist ministries in Arkansas will only increase in the future. When the unparalleled giving of the Greatest Generation is completed, I believe that Baby Boomers, my generation, will step up and match the generosity of our parents. Since there are more of us, the future of the Foundation is bright indeed.

In the past six years, we have dramatically increased our grant making capability, become more responsive in client service and have enhanced awareness of what UMFA can do to help churches and individuals. The Foundation is in a position to make a more material difference in the future.

As with any service opportunity, being Chairman of the UMFA Board has benefited me as the server much more than the institution I serve. I've seen many rewards from this opportunity to serve, and I am thrilled to have been a part of the work of the Foundation.

Dewitt H. Smith, Chairman of the Board

G. DISTRICT REPORTS

The Book of Discipline ¶606.3
Annual Report of the District Superintendents

The 2011-2012 Cabinet

CENTRAL DISTRICT

The Reverend Dede Roberts, District Superintendent

United Methodists in the Central District are committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We are passionate about meeting the needs of the least, the lost and the last. We are wandering in communities that have changed without us, yet we are reaching out and interacting with our mission fields in new and exciting ways.

Eleven churches reported a growth in worship attendance in 2010. Congregations reported making disciples even when worship attendance did not increase. In 2010 the Central District celebrated 263 baptisms and 329 professions of faith. In total there were 23,905 United Methodist Christians in Pulaski County at the close of 2010.

Twenty-six churches paid apportionments in full last year. Primarily churches worshiping from 300-500 struggled the most. In the competitive environment of Pulaski County, these churches are on the cusp of being "large churches" and are attempting to staff and program toward growth; however, the transition is difficult and the economy has forced decreases in pastoral and staff compensation, programming, and new initiatives. All of these churches express a desire to work back to 100% payout over a three to five year period, because they believe in shared ministries.

About one third of the churches in the district used "Sharing Together in Christ's Name." For some, the study and discussions energized a new sense of stewardship. At Asbury UMC, the study led to a renewed commitment on the part of clergy and lay leadership to participate in shared ministries. The congregation took a hard look at budget, made deep cuts in compensation for clergy and staff (20%), planned fund raisers, and this year paid 89% of their shared ministry asking (apportionments). They are committed to moving to 100%. Their enthusiasm is to be commended.

The work of the Imagine Ministry team has created a buzz across the district. Congregations are discussing change with both anxiety and anticipation. Since most of the churches and pastors of the Central District have participated in Connected in Christ, the language of change, strategic planning and clergy/lay team ministry is not new. What the churches anticipate is how the whole conference will be impacted by change, and what role the local churches will have in leading deep change. They know "everything must change" and look forward to the transformation even in the midst of anxiety over how such deep change will impact their lives.

In 2011, the district will engage in two assessment studies. First in southwest Little Rock where we have untold resources for ministry in congregations, buildings and commitment to neighborhoods yet have struggled to make disciples as those neighborhoods' demographics change racially and socioeconomically. In the next five years, southwest Little Rock will approach racial equity in population with one third being Caucasian, one third African American, and one third Hispanic. This is both a challenge and an opportunity for United Methodists.

The second study will be in West Little Rock where the population continues to grow but will level off in the next decade. We have several churches in west Little Rock which have plateaued in attendance or are in slow decline. Some of these are in that 300-500 category of churches which seem to have been hit hardest by the recession. FaithSpring is our new congregation meeting in Ferndale at the 4-H Center with 250+ in worship. This congregation will charter in 2011. They are already paying apportionments (though not officially assigned to do so) and are not receiving conference funding. The district must engage in a serious study of this area of our mission field and agree on a strategic plan of evangelism for making disciples.

In 2011 the district will also focus on our ministries with the poor. The churches of the district are committed and faithful in reaching out to the least, the last and the lost. Another of our new church starts is Canvas Community in downtown Little Rock. This congregation has an intentional ministry with the homeless and has provided cooling stations in the summer and warming stations in the winter. Their efforts are generously supported by the churches in our district. An inventory of ministries with the poor is being initiated by Rev. Steve Copley as we suspect we are doing far more than we realize or even imagined. Of course we can do more, and not only meet to immediate needs but begin to attack some of the root causes of poverty in our midst.

The Central District is committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We aspire to lead the Annual Conference in professions of faith, increases in worship attendance and faithfulness to shared ministries. We also believe we have the resources in our churches to reach out and make a real difference for the poor in our midst. We are committed to making our best days our "next" days.

NORTH DISTRICT

The Reverend Charles Settle, Superintendent

FROM JULY 1, 2010 TO JUNE 4, 2011:

1. In spite of the downturn in the economy, the churches of the North District responded generously to the Ingathering and were able to pay over 94% of District and Conference Ministries beyond the Local Church.
2. Most congregations, if not all, were generous in their local missions and outreach to others.
3. Two churches are closing.
4. There are a number of congregations very active in the Connected in Christ process, as well as, the Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations focus.
5. Many of the Churches were involved in the "Sharing Together in Christ's Name" and the IM Bible studies provided through the Conference by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas.
6. The District United Methodist Women continue to be strong and active.
7. Lay Speaking Courses are being offered regularly.

IN THE 2011-2012 CONFERENCE YEAR, THE NORTH DISTRICT WILL –

1. Respond positively to the directives of the Arkansas Annual Conference.
2. Continue to order the life and ministry of our connectional system.
3. Encourage each congregation to define and minister to their Mission Field.
4. Assist those who wish to be in active ministry by offering opportunities for training.
5. Encourage clergy and congregations to grow in scriptural love and holiness.
6. Continue to proclaim the Gospel for the purpose of making disciples and transforming the world through the transformed lives of those disciples and congregations (Social Holiness).

NORTH CENTRAL DISTRICT

The Reverend Rodney Steele, Superintendent

The North Central District begins its third year of implementing the Five Fruitful Practices of Effective Congregations. Our district conference is primarily a time of training where each of the five practices are taught along with other needed skills such as financial accountability, staff parish relations committees, youth and children ministries and evangelism. Involvement at our district conferences has grown each year since we began this emphasis.

Attendance also increased at our annual clergy retreat at Mt. Eagle Retreat Center where this year Bishop Crutchfield shared his understanding of the Call to Action report. He also shared updates regarding the work of the Council of Bishops as well as the General Agencies since the publication of the report. The retreat is a great time of sharing friendship among the clergy as well as a time of spiritual renewal.

Cluster Charge Conferences became a time of spiritual revival as members of congregations were asked to describe a time when they felt the love of Jesus and/or fell in love with Jesus. This time of sharing helped us to grow closer together, modeled witnessing and re focused our attention upon our primary mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Many pastors replicated the time of sharing in their local congregations.

Our District Council on Youth Ministries for the first time ever had a leadership training retreat at Mount Eagle for 25 of our youth. Our disaster response team was active in the recovery work at Vilonia following a series of storms and tornadoes and in Des Arc, Hazen and DeValls Bluff following the recent flooding. Our mission committee is planning a Volunteer in Mission trip to be similar to one taken last year to New Orleans.

Our apportionment payout increased from 83% in 2009 to 87.5% in 2010. Increases also occurred in church membership; children, youth and young adult enrollment in small group ministries; Mission teams sent out to do mission work and the number of person served by community ministries for outreach, justice and mercy.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT

The Reverend Dr. Kurt Boggan Superintendent

In 2011-2012, the Northeast District will order the life and ministry of the connectional life in the following ways:

- To define the Mission Field of each congregation within the district.
- SPRC will be trained to articulate the Mission Field.
- A district Ministry Plan of the Mission Field will be developed that is aligned with the local churches and conference goals.
- To develop platforms of ministry within the district on children, youth, adult and senior adult ministries.
- The district will develop a Small Membership Academy to enable and equip those interested in fruitful and faithful ministries to grow in reaching out to their Mission Field.
- To identify and recruit young people interested in ordained ministry.
- To address poverty and food insecurity in the delta and world.
- Identify and develop clusters of churches to work in county relationships of connectional ministries.

NORTHWEST DISTRICT

The Reverend Dr. Mackey Yokem Superintendent

District Plan of Ministry

Pastoral/Congregational Inventory

Overview

The Northwest District finds itself in a moment of extreme opportunity. Anticipating significant growth in the next four years (2015) the District Leadership Team is beginning to define both opportunity and challenge as they attempt to lead the congregations of our district into "making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world". As a way of preparing for our future we have embarked on a two-fold emphasis within our corporate life: first to discover again the purpose and identity of our congregations and second, adopting innovative and creative ways to introduce the transforming truth of the Gospel into our neighborhoods and congregations.

The first issue has provided a provocative process that has been met with both resistance and excitement. Resistance has appeared because many individual United Methodists and congregations have never been challenged to define "who we are and why we gather as a congregation". Invited to participate in a series of district events that encouraged them to state the obvious and learn from discoveries, surprising learnings have taken place. There has been some resistance. This resistance is a conversation starter and hopefully will develop positive learnings over the coming years.

The second issue has become a discussion of accountability. As congregations become aware of the increasing populations of their surrounding neighborhoods compared to their decline or slow growth, many observations and questions have developed about transformational ministry. "If we desire to proclaim the gospel for the purpose of making disciples and transforming lives, why aren't we showing trends other than getting older and less in number?" This second issue is so closely connected to the first that they cannot be considered separate from one another. This reality is now before the congregations of our district for prayer and discernment.

What are the distinct demographic realities of the district?

General Observations

The Northwest District, if predictions come true, will grow to a population of 641,320 by 2015. This population will be younger than the state average with a higher percentage of single people and a higher level of education. The growth will be along the highway corridors of Interstate 540 and Highway 412. Places to watch will be Bella Vista, Springdale and the smaller communities to the west of Rogers.

Expected Impact Factor

If we use the standard formula for the Expected Impact Factor, that number should be 22,446. This figure compares to a 2010 number of 7,200.

Specific Areas for Growth

A quick review of the MissionInsite information shows distinctive trends and missional opportunities. Significant growth is predicted all across the Northwest District. Certain areas will experience increases of ethnic demographics. As we observe the general trends, the following strategies and plans will be developed to address our opportunities:

1) Congregations will be revitalized, embracing a passion to reach out
2) New "micro-communities" will be established in certain demographics
3) The second campus concept and Community Mission will be initiated

The Hispanic population of the Northwest District is growing and there will be four pockets with significant numbers. Shown in blue, these four areas are Siloam Springs, Fayetteville, Springdale/Rogers and Berryville/Green Forest. There are established congregations in each of these areas with desire to begin ministries to the Hispanic community.

To assist in establishing Hispanic communities, the following strategies will be developed:

1) Congregations with large numbers of Hispanics, the District will be assisted with learning the language. A Rosetta Stone class will begin this spring to teach the language of the people. By 2013, congregations in the following communities will be asked to have a pastor or church staff person able to speak Spanish: Green Forest, Berryville, Eureka Springs, Springdale 1st, Central in Rogers, Siloam Springs 1st.

2) A Hispanic campus from Springdale 1st will be established targeting the Hispanic population in Springdale north to Rogers.
3) Micro-communities will be established in Decatur, Huntsville, Siloam Springs, Rogers.

The Pacific Islander – Asian population runs through the center part of the District. This represents a large number of Marshallese. Currently, we do not know what to do in ministry to this group however we are beginning to discover our connections. The translator for the Springdale School System is a member of FUMC, Springdale. We are able to determine where and when the largest gathering of the Marshallese occurs. There are two congregations that have made a commitment to study how they might participate in a ministry to this part of our community.

What are the long-term goals of the district?

To encourage and assist congregations to become Acts 2 Congregations:

We anticipate bearing fruit for the Kingdom of God demonstrated in Acts 2:41-47:

- Acts 2:47 – Experience an increase in professions or reaffirmations of faith into the faith community.
- Acts 2:41 - Increase worship attendance.
- Acts 2: 44-45 - Mission engagement to address poverty and community development Through ministries of mercy, justice and development.
- Ensure a majority of the worshiping congregation is participating in ministry initiatives outside of weekly worship.
- Financially support mission through locally identified community and world mission projects and fulfill 100% of shared ministry giving.

Acts 2:43 - Demonstrate signs of God's power and wonder; Ministry results that are more than human ability and are clearly God's movement through the congregation.

Many local church ministry programs

Needs and Concerns

Continuing feelings of institutional distrust
Continuing concern about apportionments and its oft-reported effect on local ministries Lack of understanding of the method of apportionments
Lack of understanding about the use of apportionments (Benevolence Guide has been helpful.)
Lack of understanding the need for commitment, responsibility and accountability
Outreach ministries of all types need to be improved and expanded
Continuing concerns about the future of small membership churches
Continuing concerns about current children's and youth ministries

Opportunities

Emphasize Lay Leader and laity ministry opportunities and responsibilities
Identify and encourage the use of laity and clergy training programs
Train church leaders about available ministry resources
Encourage church leaders to learn about and use the resources available at ARUMC and UMC websites
Continue to encourage the teaching and application of "The Three Simple Rules"
Continue to teach and integrate the "Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations"
Encourage local church participation in the Connected in Christ church revitalization ministry
Encourage local church use of the Sharing Together In Christ's Name study materials
Utilize current information and training resources for Volunteers In Mission ministries
Develop methods to share information about effective ministry programs
Develop and lead seminars and workshops on ministry programs
Develop or improve children and youth programs in local churches
Encourage development of multi-year ministry plans in each local church
Encourage churches to consider different styles, times and locations of worship
Share information about effective laity visitation programs
Develop visitation training for clergy and laity
Place more resource links on the district web page
Consider geographical hubs for district training purposes
Utilize current technology for ministry, training and administration purposes

The South Central District Leadership Team will assist the local churches with the many issues and concerns as we all pursue the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Respectfully submitted,
Reverend William O. "Bud" Reeves
Chairperson, South Central District Leadership Team
Reverend Chester Jones, District Superintendent – South Central District
Jim Kimzey, Lay Leader – South Central District

SOUTHEAST DISTRICT

The Reverend Dennis Spence Superintendent

A few reality check observations:

1. The slow yet steady decline of the economy and the population of this district over the last twenty years show few signs of improvement. In 2010 a lumber mill closed in Fordyce, the Pine Bluff Arsenal is closing its operations, and the Gillette community closed its high school.
2. In 2006 we had 106 churches. No churches have closed yet, but two did merge in 2008 in Pine Bluff, leaving 105 churches. However, several churches are one or two deaths away from closing. One church is down to its last member, and would already be closed, except for the other churches on the charge.
3. The rising cost of healthcare will soon cause a few full time charges near the minimum compensation amount to either go part-time or need to add an extra church on the charge.
4. A number of churches built facilities during the peak of their growth, building them even larger in anticipation of continued growth. Today only a remnant of the congregation remains to worship in the now uncomfortably empty sanctuary. That same remnant must provide the maintenance and repairs on the aging building. What once was a tremendous asset is now sometimes seen as a liability.
5. Each generation lives out of a different culture. The perceived worship expectation of an "active member":
    a. 1st Generation (Ages 75-100): Every Sunday unless you are sick!
    b. 2nd Generation (Ages 56-74): Three times a month unless you go to see the grandkids.
    c. 3rd Generation (Ages 37-55): Twice a month unless there is an out of town game.
    d. 4th Generation (Ages 18-36): Once a month if you can do it between texting.
    e. A church could actually be reaching more people and yet see their weekly average in worship go down!
    f. If giving is tied to worship attendance, what do the generational differences mean for funding ministry?
6. Gil Rendle suggests a typical church or charge needs to average 125 in worship in order to afford a full time pastor, pay the bills, meet the apportionment, repair the building, and have money left over for ministry. Of the 65 charges in the district:
    a. 33 pay for a full time pastor. Of those 33:
        i. 11 charges meet or exceed the 125 needed in worship attendance to be full time. The highest is 340, lowest 127, the average is 185 and the median is 173.
        ii. Another 6 average between 100 and 124. The average is 108 and the median is 105.
        iii. The remaining 16 full-time charges have between 56 and 93. The average is 74 and the median is 80.
7. The two Wesley Foundations are maintaining vital ministries to students at Monticello and Pine Bluff. One is integrated with a single church (St. James in Pine Bluff) and one is closely connected to a significant number of small to medium size churches in the area. I doubt that either would be as successful using the model of the other. Food for thought!

Some Good News!

1. Some churches are really taking the five practices of fruitful congregations seriously!
2. A number of churches embraced the "Sharing Together in Christ's Name" stewardship material!
3. A few churches already attract people that reflect more of the mission field than the existing membership.
4. Bear Creek Camp is positioning itself and promoting itself as a Base Camp for VIM groups and Ozark Mission Project groups to be in ministry to one of the most impoverished areas in the conference!
5. The ministry of our two church and community workers are making a lasting difference, especially in reaching out to the poor and hungry.
6. God is still here and God Is not done with this district!

SOUTHWEST DISTRICT

The Reverend Dr. C.E. McAdoo, Superintendent

As part of who we can be to further the gospel and lift up Christ: Connected In Christ shall be our total District program thrust for the next three years. It is our hope and prayer that in three years every church in the District will have participated in some aspect of C.I.C., The United Methodist Way, The Brinkman and The Ministry Planning. As I write this, Dr. Roberts and John Crawford are in conversation about places, dates, time and a coaching formula for the remainder of 2011 & 2012. We seek this path of ministry with C.I.C. directly aiding us in: strengthening worship, attendance, Professions of Faith, more small groups, mission outreach at home and outside our communities, financial stewardship (money) and community partnership and gatherings.

Let me take this opportunity to really stretch us in our thinking and actions regarding empty pews. For the next three quarters, through special programs, combined services, welcoming activities and throw-back days – your name it – but at least once a quarter, we fill every pew in our worship area. Then in 2012, we want to have our pews filled every other month, and in 2013 we want a full house once a month. I pray there are some of our churches who have their pews full right now on a regular basis. We give God the praise!

The discerning and deciding aspects of ministry are like politics; these are local issues. Local churches know better than I, what is going on around their Mission Field. This is where the Imagine Ministry aspect comes into being. The whole concept of Imagine Ministry is to be a force in the local church Mission Field. Only the local church minister & clergy can discern what the Mission Field is, and how to reach it. The church may never see the direct result of what is being done in your particular Mission Field, but don't be deterred. I, as well as other pastors and laity, could tell story after story of someone or some family who was touched because the church chose to go out into the Mission Field. So whatever process you are using to discern: long-range planning group, Vision Committee, Church Council, three- five or ten-year plan, you name it, just use it to discern where God is calling your church to be in ministry!

WEST DISTRICT
The Reverend Mike Morey, Superintendent

Summary of 2010:
Professions of Faith:

The West District has been making Disciples of Jesus Christ in congregations both large and small. Large churches of Heritage and Clarksville received 59 and 21 Professions of Faith. Smaller congregations also were blessed with new Disciples by Professions of Faith: Alma (12), Cecil (11), Midland Heights (37), Paris (15) and Waldron (15).

Average attendance increases:

Congregations grew in the number of people reached in average attendance. Leading the District by percentage increase among small churches were: Grenades Chapel (62%), Spadra (50%), Branch (50%), Waveland (50%), and Vesta (41%). In the mid to large churches were: Midland Heights (46%), Charleston (13%), Alma (11%), and Woodlands (12%)

New Churches Chartered:

Two new churches moved from Mission Churches to Chartered Churches: Mt. Olive UMC Van Buren and Waltreak UMC.

Training for clergy and laity:

The District hosted two Living the United Methodist Way events, Annual Leadership Academy, and lay speakers training. We also have to largest District Methodist History Society we know of, and have an annual presentation. Last year's presentation was on the African American Methodist in the River Valley. This year we are celebrating the Vietnamese and Hispanic impact on Methodism in the West District.

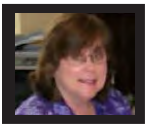

The District continues to struggle to meet our Shared Giving to the Annual Conference. We plan to improve our effort and ask the Annual Conference's forgiveness and patience.

2011 Plans:

The Leadership Team has been working on a Technology Workshop and ongoing training events. Areas of focus will be: Technology for worship planning, Connecting with people (website, social network, ect), and giving and stewardship.

We will be sharing a District Superintendent with the Northwest District and are readying ourselves to do ministry as a District in a new way. Like other Districts, we are living in some uncertainty about the future, and eagerly waiting for the Annual Conference to take action (one way or another) on the Imagine Ministry proposals. At the same time, it is clear that there must be "deep change" in the way we live into our future and focus on making Disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

DELPHA L. "JACK" CAMERON

Delpha L. "Jack" Cameron, 85, of Horseshoe Bend, Arkansas, and spouse of Rev. Nancy Cameron, died December 23, 2010, at Crownpoint Health and Rehab Center following a lengthy illness. Born September 24, 1925, in Guthrie Center, Iowa, Jack was a graduate of Johnstown High School in Johnstown, Colorado, Colorado State College of Education with a degree in music education and Northwestern University with a M.A. During World War II, he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and was stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, Texas, where he met Joanne Arnold whom he married on May 14, 1946, in Wichita Falls.

Following his discharge from the Army Air Corps, Jack began a teaching career that was to span over 40 years of directing bands and supervising music and fine arts programs in Donnelson, Iowa; Sorden Music Company in Ottumwa, Iowa; Ottumwa Public Schools; Minot Public Schools; as well School District 1 of the Missoula County Schools. He was a skilled French Horn player, and his love of music permeated his life and touched both the young and the not so young.

Retirement to Arkansas in 1987 was short lived as he remained active in music, playing in the Northeast Arkansas Community Band, directing the Cherokee Village Community Chorus and more recently the Horseshoe Blenders until ill health forced his retirement. He directed church choirs in Iowa, North Dakota, Montana, and Arkansas and was a Minister of Music for the United Methodist Church.

Jack was preceded in death by his wife Joanne, parents Delpha & Luverne Cameron, and his sister Jean Haskell. He is survived by his loving wife and partner, Nancy; sons Jeff (Lisa) Cameron of Ft. Worth, Texas; Jon (Joan) Cameron of Valley City, North Dakota; Jack Lee (Jean) Cameron of Chicago, Illinois; A.J. (Kathy) Haskell of Lolo, Montana; and seven grandchildren.

His memorial service was held December 29, 2010 at the Horseshoe Bend United Methodist Church with Rev. Nancy Cameron and Rev. Kay Wiggins officiating. Burial will be at a later date in Ottumwa, Iowa.

REVEREND DR. JAMES T. "JIM" CLEMONS

The Rev. Dr. James T. (Jim) Clemons, 81, passed away on January 14, 2011. He died at the scene after being accidentally struck by a morning commuter train in Gaithersburg, Maryland. Born October 17, 1929, to Mildred and Russell Clemons, he was raised in Wynne, Arkansas. He received his undergraduate degree at Hendrix College in 1951; his Divinity degree from SMU Perkins School of Theology in 1954, and a Ph.D. from Duke University in 1963. He was an ordained Elder in the Arkansas Conference.

Jim was preceded in death by his wife of 47 years, Barbara Pettingill Clemons. He is survived by a daughter, the Rev. Margaret E. Clemons of Severn, Maryland, a son J. Thomas Clemons of Port Clinton, Ohio, a daughter-in-law, Karen Yassky Clemons and grandchildren Rebecca Perkins, Benjamin Clemons and Jonathan Clemons.

He served churches in Texas and Arkansas, on staff at Hendrix College, as chaplain and associate professor at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, and for twenty-eight years taught biblical studies at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington D.C. Upon his retirement from Wesley in 1995, he was named Professor Emeritus of New Testament and continued to teach there occasionally. In addition he continued his ministry into his 81st year by serving Severn UMC in Severn, Maryland, as the youth minister for middle and senior high school students. Jim was respected as a ground-breaking leader in suicide prevention, a topic he researched extensively for more than a quarter-century. He founded the Organization for Attempters and Survivors of Suicide in Interfaith Services (OASSIS) whose mission was to raise awareness in all faiths of the problem of suicide.

Hendrix College awarded Clemons an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree, named him their 2005 Humanitarian of the Year and in 2009 honored him with the Mary and Ira Brumley Award for Religious Education for the college's Marshall T. Steel Center for the Study of Religion and Philosophy—the same year in which he received a Medal of Commendation from the U.S. Public Health Service. Those who knew Clemons can testify that he lived a full life with both passion and compassion; as activist and author; teacher and mentor; minister and counselor; loving friend, husband, father and grandfather; and, as he believed about everyone, a child of God.

Celebrations of Life services have been held at Severn UMC and Asbury Methodist Village. Additional services were to be held in Washington D.C. and at Hendrix College.

At his request, his body was donated for medical training and research upon his death.

"Jesus said unto her, 'I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he life, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." John 11: 25-26

PHYLLIS J. COLEMAN

Phyllis J. Coleman, spouse of Rev. Hawk Coleman, died at age 50 in Conway on August 5, 2010. She was born October 16, 1959, in Conway, to Allie Dean Johnston Yarborough and the late Vaden Yarborough. Phyllis graduated from the University of Central Arkansas, and then obtained her Master's degree from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She was a music teacher at Conway Human Development Center for several years, then served as an administrator in Pediatric Anesthesiology at Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock. She was a member of both Springfield and Mallettown United Methodist churches. She was a talented song leader and enjoyed playing the flute. Phyllis enjoyed the company of several cats and was the ultimate grandmother.

She is survived by her husband of 10 years, the Rev. Hawk Coleman; sons Chris Coleman of Springfield, Missouri, and David Coleman and his wife Jodi of Quitman; mother Allie Yarborough of Conway; brothers Duane Yarborough and his wife, Roseanne, and Gary Yarborough and his wife Terry of Conway; grandchildren Courtney, Austin, Jayden and hunter Coleman and McKinley and Colton Shaw; and longtime family friend David Lamberson.

A memorial service was held on August 16, 2010, at Grace United Methodist Church in Conway. Officiating were Rev. Jim Lenderman, Rev. David Hawkins, and Rev. Greg Comer.

REVEREND WILLIAM P. "BILL" CONNELL

Rev. William P. "Bill" Connell, 81, of Bella Vista, died on Wednesday, August 18, 2010, at his home. He was born March 27, 1929, in Trinity, Texas, to the Rev. Richard E. and Bertha Victoria Martin Connell. He graduated from Paragould High School, received his B.A. degree from Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, and his Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. He married Joyce Spencer on June 29, 1952, in Dalhart, Texas.

While in seminary he worked as an associate at St. John's Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas. He received his license to preach in the Methodist Church in 1948. He was ordained elder in the North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church in 1954. His appointments in Arkansas included Bay Circuit; Clinton; Waldron; St. Paul-Ft. Smith; Huntington Avenue-Jonesboro; First UMC-Harrison; Central UMC-Rogers; First UMC-Paragould; Fayetteville District Superintendent; First UMC-West Memphis; and First UMC-Clarksville. He retired in 1991 and moved to Bella Vista, Arkansas, after 40 years of service in the United Methodist Church. He served on various boards and committees of the UMC, including TRAFCO (Television, Radio and Film Commission), Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Pension, Lydia Patterson Institute, and the Advisory Committee for the Clergy Economic Conference. He participated in the 150th anniversary of the founding of the North Arkansas Conference and attended the 14th World Methodist Conference as an alternate delegate. He was a trustee of Hendrix College from 1991 to 1997. Bill will be remembered for his bubbling personality, wonderful sense of humor, and his love for family, friends, and his congregations.

KATE ADELINE EMBRY HOOVER

Kate Adeline Embry Hoover, surviving spouse of Rev. Oliver Wendell Hoover, lived in the Fountain Lake Community in Garland County, and passed away November 1, 2010, in Hot Springs. She was the oldest of four children of Ida Hilton and Elijah Thomas Embry, born at Board Camp, AR, on December 9, 1909. She was born in the front parlor of her grandmother's home, the same room in which her mother was born.

She graduated valedictorian of Mena High School in 1924 and having taken a "Normal" course, began teaching school in the small community of Highland near Cherry Hill.

Kate worked at the Red River Arsenal during and after World War II, working with early computer records. At the age of 45 she became a mother, a preacher's wife and a Methodist. She married Rev. Wendell Hoover in 1955. Becoming a mother at that age was no easy task and becoming a minister's wife was a challenge as well. Using one of her favorite sayings, she simply "backed her ears and plowed the row."

She is survived by daughters Gail Burton of Jacksonville, North Carolina, and Deborah Kilden of Chicago, Illinois; a son, Howard Hoover of the Fountain Lake community; grandchildren Kelly Kott, Karen Burton, Christopher Kilden and Leia Kilden; eight great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; five nephews; two cousins; and her faithful companion Cody, her lap dog.

A memorial service officiated by the Rev. Fred Hunter was held at Oaklawn United Methodist Church in Hot Springs on November 5, 2010. A private family interment was held at Mena.

"Servant of God, well done; rest from thy lov'd employ.
The battle's fought, the victory's won; and thou art crowned at last."

I. ROLL IN HEAVEN

Containing a roll of deceased clergy members of the Conference.

This Historical Section is provided by the Archives & History Committee of the Arkansas Conference.
Additions or corrections of this section may be sent to UM Archives at:
Marcia Crossman, 810 Scherman Oaks Circle, Conway, AR 72034

The complete "Roll in Heaven" was last printed in the 2008 Arkansas Conference Journal.
It is a combination of records from the former conferences that have served our Arkansas Churches:
Arkansas, Little Rock, North Arkansas, Southwest, Quachita, and White River Conferences.
The Members of the Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church are marked (MP).

In the performance of duty and in the service of Christ, the great Captain of our Salvation, they lived, and one by one they finished their work and entered into that rest that remaineth to the people of God.

Churches of the Southwest District

These photographs were taken by Yvonne Nipper, Administrative Assistant of the SW District office. The other districts are invited to gather their church photos to be highlighted in future Journals. {The churches of the West District were printed on pages 387 to 400 in the 2007 Journal}

INTRODUCTION

by Yvonne Nipper

This album contains a photograph of 114 churches within the Southwest District; encompassing 14 counties, of that number 105 are active United Methodist Churches, plus the SAU Wesley Foundation. There are an additional eight churches photographed, which are either closed, merged or no longer standing.

This "project" began as merely compiling a photographic record of all our churches, but quickly became a journey of honor, respect and appreciation for the generation of saints who through their physical and financial sacrifices, made it possible for our current generation to continue to worship in beautiful, stable and holy surroundings. Some of these churches stand as a silent witness to the grace and mercy of our Lord for 100 years and some for as much as 150 years.

Some of the churches were in areas of which I was unfamiliar, so thanks to two very generous and special friends: Reverend Don Nicholson and his spouse, Jean Nicholson who said, "Leave the driving to us" (during the $4.00 per gal. days!). As a result, I photographed, they drove and we shared a great adventure that began in December, 2008 and was completed in August, 2009.

Many of the churches and communities we saw represent the best of the best. One thing that most churches have in common is the intense pride they display in their churches and communities. Immaculately manicured lawns and well maintained facilities speak volumes of the love and honor they extend to their places of worship. It's possible to stand quietly beside one of these lovely churches on a sunny afternoon and "see" back through the ages as a great "cloud of witnesses" cared for the churches, cemeteries, and prepared to serve "dinner on the ground." Thanks to those gentle souls, we can truly say, "How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord."

Antoine UMC, Pike County
organized 1895

Asbury UMC, Magnolia, Columbia County
Organized 1880
as Jackson Street Methodist Protestant Church

Churches of the Southwest District

Ashdown UMC, Little River County
organized 1854

Avery's Chapel UMC, Hempstead County

Avery's Chapel (McCaskill) organized in 1855, the church was given the land and money for construction by the Rev. Alexander Avery, an itinerate Methodist pastor. The church itself was built by an African-American carpenter known as Uncle Jim Walker, who lived in the Bunker Hill School District on Ozan Creek. The building was remodeled in the mid-1960's but still retains much of the original structure. (from Two Centuries of Methodism in Arkansas, by Nancy Britton)

Bradley UMC, Lafayette County

Bruce Memorial UMC
Blevins, Hempstead County

Bruce Memorial UMC

Organized in 1878 as Marvin Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the church was originally located on the Duckett farm south of Blevins. The frame building was moved to Blevins in 1906, replaced by another frame building, and the name changed to Blevins Methodist. The church was destroyed by fire in 1950 and rebuilt in brick. The church is now named Bruce Memorial UMC. Early families in the church included the Bruce and Bittick families.

Churches of the Southwest District

Centennial UMC, Union County

Center Point UMC, Howard County

The Center Point UMC, Nashville, was organized in 1837 as Propps Chapel. John C. Kolbe and Sam Allen were early pastors. In 1854 the church moved from beside the Center Point Cemetery to its present location. Salem Church merged with Center Point in 1923. After the church house was destroyed by a tornado in 1967, the present building was erected. Early families in the church included the Boyd, Cannon, Graves, Clardy, Henry, Rolbert, Hayes, Propps, Walker, Carr, Messer, Turrentine, Keaster, Russey, and Latimer families. (from Two Centuries of Methodism in Arkansas, by Nancy Britton) organized 1855 as Bethel Methodist Church

Fairview UMC, Camden, Ouachita County organized 1927 as a merger of Old Union, McMahan's Chapel and Wilson's Chapel

Fairview UMC, Texarkana, Miller County

The Fairview UMC was begun in 1871 as part of a Union Church with Baptists. The church was located in the Spring Lake Park area on the Texas side of Texarkana.

In 1890 this membership transferred to the Fairview Mission at the present location at 16th and Laurel Streets. 1888 is recognized as the date of Fairview's beginnings because it was that year that Rev. G.C. Hardy held a very successful meeting near the church's present location. He bought a plot of ground, and by 1890 a church called Fairview Mission had been built. Early families in the church included the Moore, Watts, Benge, Fisher, Parsons, Carpenter and House families.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis of Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1(b), these financial statements were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and its revenues, expenses and changes in net assets for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1(b).

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) is a service organization for the United Methodist Churches throughout the State of Arkansas. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping local churches for missions and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the congregation, all to the glory of God. The Conference receives apportionments from churches located in the State of Arkansas and distributes the apportionments in accordance with the approved budget set by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and cash equivalents and local church apportionments in-transit, and the only liabilities that are recognized are apportioned and other funds payable and prepaid apportionments. The modified cash basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because purchases of property and equipment are expensed as they are paid for rather than recorded as an asset and depreciated over their estimated useful lives and long-term debt is not recorded. Non-cash transactions are not recorded in the financial statements, therefore non-cash donations are not recorded as revenue when received.

Local church apportionments in-transit represent amounts that churches are budgeted to pay and apportioned and other funds payable include amounts the Conference is budgeted to pay according to the budget approved by the churches at the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all deposits with financial institutions, as well as highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

At times during the year ended December 31, 2010, cash and cash equivalents balances exceeded the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and were not collateralized. In the event of an institutional failure, the excess over FDIC insurance may not be recoverable. At December 31, 2010, the Conference's total bank balance maintained at multiple financial institutions was $2,786,961 of which $2,303,035 was not insured or collateralized.

The Conference is party to a contract with the financial institution in which the Conference maintains its operating account whereby all funds on deposit at that financial institution are transferred on a daily basis into a sweep investment account. The balance in this account is included in cash and cash equivalents.

(d) Cash Receipts

The Conference's cash receipts are restricted to fulfilling the purpose for which the donor remitted the funds. The Conference's goal is to distribute the funds received for the ultimate benefit of the third party donee in a timely and efficient manner.

The Conference classifies funds based on their funding source. The financial statements contain two types of funds: apportioned and other. Apportioned funds are budgeted by and allocated to the individual churches by the Arkansas Annual Conference. Other funds are obtained through the collection efforts of the committees established to oversee the individual funds. The Conference maintains and disburses these funds as requested by the committees.

(e) Income Taxes

The Conference is a non-profit organization exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not a private foundation. Accordingly, there is no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Conference adopted the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, which is now codified in FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes. The adoption of that guidance did not have any impact on the Conference's financial statements since the Conference has no material uncertain tax positions.

(f) Functional Expenses
The Conference considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administrative and fundraising for financial statement presentation.

NOTE 2: HEALTH INSURANCE TRUST

The Conference is the Plan Administrator of the Arkansas United Methodist Conferences Employee Benefit Plan (the Plan) which covers eligible employees of the Conference and churches located within the State of Arkansas. The funds included in the Plan are restricted for the payment of health insurance claims for participants. During the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, activity in the Plan included approximately $7,163,000 and $8,224,000 in receipts and approximately $8,026,000 and $7,897,000 in disbursements, respectively, which are not included in these financial statements.

NOTE 3: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PENSION PLANS

Eligible Conference and participating church employees are covered under one of two defined contribution pension plans as follows:

a. Ministerial employees – Eligible ministerial employees are covered under a defined contribution pension whereby the participant contributes 3% of compensation and the church or Conference contributes 10% to 12% of the participant's annual contribution base (compensation) based on the Conference average compensation as calculated by the General Board of Pensions.

b. Lay personnel – Eligible lay employees are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes at least 3% and the Conference contributes 12% of the participant's annual contribution base (compensation).

Both plans are multi-employer plans by which all contributed assets of participating employers and employees are commingled and are not segregated by employer.

Total contributions to both plans for Conference staff were approximately $82,000 and $83,000 for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

NOTE 4: OPERATING LEASE

The Conference leases office space from a related party under a noncancelable operating lease agreement. Approximate required minimum lease payments are as follows:

2011	$ 69,800
2012	69,800
2013	58,200
	$ 197,800

Total rent expense was approximately $70,000 for the each of the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009.

NOTE 5: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 20, 2011, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.

THE ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

MISSION:

The mission of the Arkansas Conference is: "Make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping each local church for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God." (¶ 601)

MISSION GOALS: The mission goals of the Arkansas Conference are:

- Envision ministries necessary to live out the mission of the church in and through the Annual Conference.
- Create and nurture relationships and cooperation among the local, district, Annual Conference, and general church ministries.
- Provide encouragement, coordination, and support for ministries in districts and congregations for making disciples for Jesus Christ.
- Ensure the alignment of total resources of the Annual Conference to its mission
- Provide effective pastoral/diaconal/certified leaders in every congregation
- Equip laity for effective leadership in every congregation
- Develop and strengthen ethnic ministries, including ethnic local churches and concerns
- Revitalize local churches and start new churches
- Strengthen small membership churches
- Provide for advocacy and monitoring functions to ensure that the church is consistent with the mission and its stated values

ACCOUNTABILITY: The success of the Annual Conference is to be determined by whether more persons are becoming disciples, growing deeper in faith and discipleship, and living out their ministry for Christ as God's witnesses in the world.

LAUNCHING FOR MINISTRY:

1. The Conference Director of Ministries is responsible to assure that all teams meet and organize as soon as possible following each session of Annual Conference.
2. The teams (Vision, Leadership Formation, Discipleship, Sending, Focus, and Administrative Services) are to organize with a Team leader, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, and a Spiritual Guide, selected by the Team.

   It is the responsibility of the Team leader to lead the team in fulfilling its responsibilities by:
   - Communicating with members of the team to ensure appropriate linkage between their area of responsibility and the Vision Team
   - Providing the initiative and leadership for the team in planning, establishing goals and objectives, and evaluating progress to ensure alignment with the conference vision.
   - Preparing and submitting a budget for the collective ministries of the team members.
   - Reviewing and assigning responsibility for the implementation of actions taken by the team
   - Serving as a contributing member of the Conference Vision Team

   It is the responsibility of the Spiritual Guide to promote the vision of new life in Christ within the team by:
   - Celebrating the presence of God through the practice of a devotional focus
   - Nurturing one another through sharing experiencing of God's love and goodness
   - Encouraging one another in ministry responsibilities
   - Developing resources that foster a spirit of community
3. The Conference Director of Ministries or a designee will be assigned to resource each ministry team. (Vision, Leadership Formation, Discipleship, Sending, Focus, and Administrative Services).
4. Cabinet Representatives required by the structure on specific conference boards, commissions, committees, councils, task groups and ministry teams will be named by the Dean of the Cabinet in consultation with the Bishop and Cabinet.
5. Each Conference board, commission, committee, council, task group and ministry team annually shall clarify its purpose and how it will further the Conference mission and mission goals. They will not be bound by tradition and their members will be encouraged to continually seek new ways to meet the spiritual needs of all persons by the most effective means possible

6. Each Conference board, commission, committee, council, task group and ministry team annually shall set objectives for each year and must evaluate what has been accomplished during the previous year. Email, fax, and phone calls will be used in place of meetings as often as possible to cut down on travel time and expense.
7. All Conference ministries are accountable to the Conference Vision Team and the Annual Conference and must organize according to the structure of the Annual Conference.

VISION TEAM

PURPOSE

The Conference Vision Team shall:

- Be visionary in leading the Conference to follow the call of Jesus and to make disciples for Jesus Christ
- Align resources, structure, and ministries of the Conference in support of the Conference vision, mission and goals
- Be stewards of the Conference vision.
- Oversee implementation of Conference goals
- Develop and maintain a process for establishing and submitting a proposed budget for the Annual Conference to the Council on Finance and Administration
- Develop measures of performance and evaluate the effectiveness of the Ministry Teams in fulfilling their vision, mission, and goals
- Appoint Task Forces as needed

STRUCTURE

The membership of the Conference Vision Team will consist of the Bishop who will serve as Team leader and Spiritual Guide and the following members:

- District Superintendent (1)

PROCESS

The Administrative Services Team shall meet a minimum of one time each year to ensure alignment with the vision and mission of the conference and the current strategies developed by the Vision Team. An annual budget will be prepared and submitted to the Vision Team to ensure necessary funds are available to support the work of the team and its member units.

——†——

COORDINATED MINISTRIES

PURPOSE

Each coordinated ministry functions as a separate unit to provide ministry designed by and for the segment of membership and community for which it is organized.

STRUCTURE

The chair/president of each of the units of United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women and CALM (Conference Age-Level Ministries: Council on Children's Ministries, Council on Youth Ministries, Council on Young Adult Ministries, Council on Adult Ministries, Council on Older Adult Ministries, Council on Single Adult Ministries, and Council on Families Ministries) within Coordinated Ministries is a member of the Vision Team.

The CALM Chair shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference, and who shall serve as an ex-officio member without vote of each of the member units

PROCESS

Coordinated Ministries will not function as a team. All units and councils will fulfill their duties and responsibilities as separate units. All units and councils shall meet a minimum of two times each year to assess the present state of their ministry, address needs as identified by local churches, districts, and the Vision team, and develop plans to close the gaps. Vision, mission, and objectives will be the framework by which ministry will be planned, implemented and evaluated. Special attention will be given to ensuring alignment with the vision and mission of the conference and the current strategies developed by the Vision Team. An annual budget will be prepared and submitted to the Vision Team to ensure necessary funds are available to support the work of the unit or council.

——†——

STANDING COMMITTEES

PURPOSE

Standing committees of the conference perform specific functions on a continuous basis.

STRUCTURE

Current Standing Committees include:

- Committee on Investigation
- Joint Committee on Incapacity
- Administrative Review Committee

PROCESS

Standing committees do not function as a team. Each committee will perform their responsibilities separately in alignment with their charge and accountability.

—— †——

BOARD OF LAITY ¶631

PURPOSE

To coordinate an effective ministry of the laity in the Arkansas Conference by:

- Promoting and serving as a resource to the ministry of the laity;
- Facilitating and encouraging collaboration and communication among the various task forces into which the ministry of the laity is organized; and
- Studying the needs and opportunities for lay ministry and engaging in strategic planning to meet those needs and to enable laity to become full partners in ministry.
- Providing organization, direction, and support for the development of local church leaders.

STRUCTURE

The conference lay leader shall be the chair of the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity and shall be an ex-officio member of all task forces organized within the Board.

The membership of the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity shall be as follows:

A. Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries
B. The district lay leaders
C. The chairpersons, team leaders or coordinators of such other lay ministry task forces which may be created by the conference or which may be created from time to time by the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity to meet short-term needs in the area of lay ministry.

PROCESS

Except as prohibited by The Book of Discipline, the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity shall operate in a manner which enables it to achieve its purpose.

—— †——

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER ¶607.9

PURPOSE

The conference lay leader is the elected leader of conference laity. The lay leader will have responsibility for fostering awareness of the role of the laity in achieving the mission of the Church and for enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision-making processes of the Annual Conference, district, and local church.

STRUCTURE

The lay leader shall be a member of the Annual Conference, the vision team, the conference nominating committee, the conference committee on episcopacy, and the Annual Conference session planning committee; and may be designated by virtue of office to membership on any conference agency by the Annual Conference. The conference lay leader shall be the chairperson of the conference board of laity and shall relate to the organized lay groups in the conference and support their work and help them coordinate their activities.

The conference lay leader shall be nominated by the conference nominating committee and elected by the Annual Conference and may serve no more than two consecutive quadrenniums.

—— †——

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON LAY SPEAKING MINISTRIES ¶631.6

PURPOSE

To provide a structure for the effective recruitment, training and deployment of those involved in lay speaking ministries within the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church. This committee will be known as the "Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries."

There shall be a District Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries in each of the districts of the Arkansas Conference.

STRUCTURE

The Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries is to be structured as follows:

- There shall be a Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries, which will relate to the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity and the General Board of Discipleship as paragraph 1115 and others that might apply.
- The purpose of the Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries is to set criteria and guidelines for District Committees on Lay Speaking Ministries, to develop lay leadership through lay speaking courses and approve courses developed by District Committees, and to organize conference-wide lay speaking events.

- The Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries will consist of the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, the District Directors of Lay Speaking Ministries and the Conference Lay Leader.
- There will be a Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. This position will be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and will be elected at the Annual Conference. The Conference Director will chair the Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries. Other officers will be elected by the committee as the committee deems necessary. The Conference Director will serve as a member of the Arkansas Conference Board of Laity.
- The Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries shall be responsible for assuring the proper training, credentialing and deployment of persons involved in the lay speaking ministry programs of the conference.

PROCESS

The conference and district committees may elect other officers and establish sub-committees as they deem necessary to carry out their responsibilities and functions. Task forces may be appointed, as needed, by the chairpersons of the committees, using the Conference Nominating Committee Nominee Pool as a resource. The conference and district committees will take a proactive role to seek and obtain input from a broad spectrum of laity across the state and request their active participation in the design and implementation of these vital ministries of the United Methodist Church.

——†——

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY ¶ 635

PURPOSE

The board shall organize in such manner as to care for its responsibilities, including the needs of certified persons, diaconal ministers, local pastors, deacons, and elders. The organization of the board shall include a committee to fulfill the governance responsibilities for diaconal ministers and those in process of becoming diaconal ministers (see The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶¶ 301–317 and 734) and shall provide for certification in specialized ministry careers under the guidelines of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (see ¶ 1421). The board may include in its organization a division of deacons and a division of elders.

STRUCTURE

Membership shall consist of the following:

- At least six ordained elders and deacons in full connection, and when possible, at least two associate members or local pastors who have completed the course of study shall be included as members of the Board with voice but no vote.
- At least one-fifth laypersons, which may include diaconal ministers, and may (at its discretion) elect further lay members, up to one-third of the membership of the board.
- Membership shall include women and ethnic persons, at least one ordained clergyperson in the retired relationship, at least one ordained clergyperson in extension ministry, and two district superintendents named by the Bishop to represent the cabinet. Two-thirds of members who are elders shall be graduates of seminaries listed by the University Senate.

Members shall be nominated by the Bishop after consultation with the Chairperson of the Board, the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Cabinet.

The Board shall organize by electing from its membership a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, treasurer, executive registrar, memoirs secretary, and division chairs. Other officers shall be appointed by the chairperson.

The Executive Committee shall be elected according to the 2000 Discipline.

The board is divided into classes that may serve a maximum of three consecutive four-year terms. The Executive Committee is responsible for reporting expired terms to the Bishop who shall consult with the Board Chairperson and the Cabinet in making nominations to the Annual Conference (¶635.1.a).

PROCESS

The Board shall meet at least once in the fall and twice in the spring and on call of the Chairperson.

District Committee on Ordained Ministry Chairs or Registrars, as determined by the committee, shall be ex-officio members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. In addition, the Board shall have a representative on each District Committee on Ordained Ministry (¶ 635.1.f) In consultation with the District Superintendent, the Chairperson shall appoint a member to serve on each District Committee.

The Board's sources of income shall be:

- A designated amount from the conference Council on Administration for administrative costs.
- Twenty-five percent of the amount remitted by local churches to the Ministerial Education Fund.
- Gifts, bequests, interest on notes, and repayment of loans.

The Board's policy statement shall be reviewed annually and revised as needed by a committee appointed by the Chairperson of the Board.

Policy statements of the Board shall be presented to the Annual Conference for approval or amendment, provided that all policies shall be in accordance with the current Discipline.

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry shall establish a committee to plan and conduct the Annual Conference on Leadership.

PURPOSE

Under the leadership of the Bishop, the cabinet provides superintending leadership in and through the Annual Conference. The cabinet is charged with the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the conference in regular consultation and cooperation with other councils and service agencies of the conference and is expected to speak to and for the conference on these matters. Working with the Bishop, the appointive cabinet facilitates and administers the appointive process. The extended cabinet considers matters relating to coordination, implementation, or administration of the conference program, and other matters.

STRUCTURE

~~The membership for the appointive cabinet is:~~

- ~~The Bishop~~
- ~~One superintendent from each of the districts~~
- ~~New Church start consultant - Conference Minister of New Church Starts~~

~~The membership for the Extended cabinet is:~~

- ~~The Bishop~~
- ~~One superintendent from each of the districts~~
- ~~Conference Lay Leader~~
- ~~Conference Director of Ministries~~
- ~~Conference Treasurer~~
- ~~Executive Director, Connected in Christ~~
- ~~Conference Minister of New Church Starts and Congregational Advancement~~

The membership of the Appointive and Extended Cabinets shall be determined by the presiding Bishop to address the missional needs of the Annual Conference.

—— †——

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY ¶ 637

PURPOSE

The functions of the conference committee on episcopacy shall be to:

- Support the bishop of the area in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church
- Be available to the bishop for counsel
- Assist in the determination of the Episcopal needs of the area
- Keep the bishop advised concerning conditions within the area as they affect relationships between the bishop and the people
- Interpret to the people of the area and to conference agencies the nature and function of the Episcopal office
- Engage in annual consultation and appraisal of the balance of the bishop's relationship and responsibilities
- Report needs for episcopal leadership to the jurisdictional committee on episcopacy

STRUCTURE

The members shall consist of three laywomen, three laymen, three clergy, and three at-large members. These persons shall be nominated by the conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Three additional members shall be appointed by the Bishop.

Five members shall be clergy.

One of the lay members shall be the Conference Lay Leader. One of the lay members shall be a member of the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee. One of the clergy members shall be a member of the Jurisdictional Episcopacy Committee.

PROCESS

The committee shall meet at least annually. It shall be convened by the Bishop and shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and a secretary. The Bishop and / or chairperson are authorized to call additional meetings.

——†——

CONFERENCE NOMINATING COMMITTEE: ¶ 610.5

PURPOSE

Except as otherwise indicated by the Discipline or the Standing Rules of the Arkansas Conference, the Conference Nominating Committee shall identify and nominate all members and chairpersons of the Annual Conference boards, teams, commissions and committees, the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference Secretary, and the Conference Statistician.

STRUCTURE

Membership shall include one clergy and one lay member from each district and two cabinet representatives. The following shall serve as ex-officio members with vote: The Bishop, Conference Lay Leader, President of the Conference UMYF, and Chairperson (or representative) of the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns. The Director of Ministries shall serve as ex-officio without vote. The Committee shall reflect racial, ethnic and gender diversity. They shall be elected by the conference for terms of four years.

Nominations shall be received from each District Nominating Committee. This process ensures that members of the Conference Nominating Committee will be persons who know the people residing in the districts throughout the state who have the gifts, graces and passions for ministries. Nominations for membership on the Conference Nominating Committee shall be received from the District Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Additional nominations may come from the floor. Elected members may serve a maximum of four consecutive years as long as they continue to live within the bounds of the district. This residency requirement ensures that each district is represented on this committee by persons who personally know the lay and clergy members of that district. If an elected member moves out of the district mid-year, they will continue serving on this committee until their successor is elected at the next conference session.

Persons completing their elected term are ineligible to serve on the Nominating Committee until the passage of at least four years.

Any vacancy occurring between sessions of the Annual Conference shall be filled for the remainder of the term at the succeeding session of the Annual Conference in the same manner as described above.

The committee shall organize, by electing from within its membership, a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a secretary, and such other officers as it may deem necessary.

The Conference Nominating Committee elected at the 2003 session shall be elected as follows: one-fourth shall be elected for a term of one year, one-fourth for a term of two years, one-fourth for a term of three years, and one-fourth for a term of four years, and shall serve until their successors have been elected. The interim Conference Nominating Committee shall designate the term slots to each district.

PROCESS

All nominees shall be consulted regarding their nomination. The right to nominate from the floor of the Annual Conference session shall not be abridged.

"In the nomination and election of the membership of councils, boards, and agencies of the Annual Conference, special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen, youth (¶256.3), young adults, older adults, persons from churches with small memberships, persons with disabilities, and racial and ethnic persons, in keeping with policies for general Church agencies. It is further recommended that the membership of such agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry, include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, who are professing members of local churches." (¶610.5) Attention shall also be given to geographical representation.

Because districts have a unique knowledge of clergy and local church lay leadership, the district representatives to this committee shall meet with their district superintendent early in the annual nomination process to develop a pool of district personnel who might serve in the various openings on conference committees and boards.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION ¶ 630.2

PURPOSE

To develop and promote a conference program of Christian education for the whole life span, to lead, assist, and support congregations and districts in developing systems for educational and small-group ministries that give children, youth, young adults, adults, older adults, and families knowledge of and experience in the Christian faith and the spiritual disciplines as motivation for Christian service in the Church, the community, and the world.

STRUCTURE

Membership shall include a chairperson and one lay and one clergy representative from each of the state's five geographic regions (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest, Central) nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. The Committee may elect other officers and establish sub-committees as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities and functions. Task Forces may be appointed, as needed, using the Conference Nominating Committee Nominee Pool as a resource.

—— † ——

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM ¶ 630.3

PURPOSE

The Committee on Evangelism is responsible to plan and promote an effective, comprehensive ministry of evangelism for people of all ages and to create an understanding of, interest in, and commitment to evangelism throughout the conference. In addition the committee is to provide for the training of clergy and laity in leadership in ministries of evangelism and to give emphasis to the promotion of evangelism in the districts and local churches.

STRUCTURE

Membership shall include a chairperson and one lay and one clergy representative from each of the state's five geographic regions (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest, Central) nominated by the Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. The Committee may elect other officers and establish sub-committees as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities and functions. Task Forces may be appointed, as needed, using the Conference Nominating Committee Nominee Pool as a resource.

—— † ——

COMMITTEE ON WORSHIP ¶ 630.4

PURPOSE

The Committee on Worship is responsible for the concerns of worship for people of all ages by fostering the use of resources for worship, developing seminars and training events in the area of worship and assisting districts and local churches in developing the skills of those serving as worship leaders. The Committee on Worship also shall be responsible for planning the devotional and worship services for the sessions of the Annual Conference, and in consultation with the board of Ordained Ministry will provide for the Annual Conference Ordination and Memorial Worship Services.

The Conference Council on Single Adult Ministries will strengthen the single adult ministries in the local churches and districts across the conference by developing single adult ministries planned for and by single adults.

- Identify the needs and concerns of single adults
- Assess the status of ministries by, with, and for single adults in The United Methodist Church
- Disseminate pertinent data on issues, models, and programs

STRUCTURE

The membership of the Conference Council on Single Adult Ministries shall include a Coordinator of Single Adult Ministries, one representative from each of the state's five geographic regions (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest, Central), and three at-large members. The Coordinator and members shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. The Coordinator shall serve on the CALM (Conference Aged-Level Ministries) with vote, and may attend Vision Team meetings without vote.

PROCESS

The ministry will include single adults (never married, divorced, widowed) from whatever age would be applicable. There is a strong possibility that within this structure two groups might need to be formed. One group might consist of those aged 21 to 35 years of age and the second might consist of those over age 36. These age brackets might change depending upon the single adults in an area and the needs of that particular area.

The committee may elect other officers and establish sub-committees as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities and functions. Task forces may be appointed, as needed, by the chairperson of the committee using the Conference Nominating Committee Nominee Pool as a resource. The committee will take a proactive role to seek and obtain input from single adults throughout the conference concerning needs, issues, and concerns. Utilizing this information, the committee will implement single adult ministries at the conference, district, charge, and local church level. This process would also include expanding single adult ministries already in place in a church into the district level. It is also possible that a single adult ministry would be formed within a county area, especially when it is a large county with several smaller churches and low population.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FAMILY MINISTRIES ¶ 1120.3

PURPOSE

The Council on Family Ministries will assist congregations in developing comprehensive ministries with families. The Council will assist families in the following areas: spiritual formation and development, marital growth ministries, parenting, human sexuality, care giving, and issues affecting the quality of family life.

- Identifying the needs and concerns of families and of congregations
- Assessing the status of ministries with families in The United Methodist Church
- Collecting and disseminating pertinent data on issues, models, and programs to strengthen the quality of family life
- Providing liaison services to ecumenical and interdenominational agencies in the area of family life

STRUCTURE

The membership of the Conference Council on Family Ministries shall include a Coordinator of Family Ministries, one representative from each of the state's five geographic regions (Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest, Central), and three at-large members. The Coordinator and members shall be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. The Coordinator shall serve on the CALM (Conference Aged-Level Ministries) with vote, and may attend Vision Team meetings without vote.

PROCESS

The plan will include: biblical exploration and study, as well as theological and experiential understandings of family life and the evolving patterns of family living. Ministries with families will focus on persons rather than structures. The Council will provide an arena for information sharing, collaborative planning, and/or cooperative programming in alignment with the purpose and responsibilities of representative participants. The Council members will serve as advocates for ministries with families in all boards and agencies.

All shall be nominated by the District Superintendent in consultation with the District Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. A chairperson and a secretary shall be elected annually at the first meeting following Annual Conference. In a geographically large district an additional board may be elected.

PROCESS

The Board of Church Location and Building will meet on call of the district superintendent and shall make a written report to the District Conference.

—— † ——

DISTRICT COMMITTEE ON LAY SPEAKING MINISTRIES ¶ 662

PURPOSE

The District Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries is to plan and supervise a program of lay speaking ministries within the district and provide basic and advanced training for lay speakers at the local church and district level as recommended by the General Board of Discipleship, or as approved by the Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries.

STRUCTURE

The District Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries is chaired by the District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries who may serve as a member of the District Leadership Team. In addition to the director, membership of the committee will include the district lay leader, an instructor of lay speaking courses, and the district superintendent. Others may be added as needed to assure a successful district lay-speaking program. The chairperson shall be nominated by the District Nominating Committee and elected at the District Conference.

PROCESS

The District Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries shall relate to the Annual Conference through the Conference Committee on Lay Speaking Ministries. The committee will decide who will be recognized as certified lay speakers, help match lay speakers with service opportunities, and support and affirm lay speakers as they serve. The District Committee will plan advanced courses for lay speaking that will enable certified lay speakers to maintain that recognition. The District Committee will report to the pastor and charge conference of each certified lay speaker the courses that have been satisfactorily completed by the certified lay speaker.

—— † ——

DISTRICT COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENCY ¶ 668

DISTRICT COMMITTEE ON ORDAINED MINISTRY ¶ 665

PURPOSE

The District Committee on Ordained Ministry shall fulfill all the responsibilities of The Discipline and shall be amenable to the Annual Conference through the Board of Ordained ministry.

STRUCTURE

The District Committee on Ordained Ministry shall be composed of the district superintendent (who may serve as executive secretary), a representative of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (who may serve as chairperson), and at least six other clergy in full connection in the district, including women and ethnic clergy whenever possible. One elder who has taken the course of study and deacons in full connection shall be included when possible. At least three lay members of district churches shall be members with vote, except on matters prohibited by ¶ 33, Article II in the Constitution. The members of the committee shall be nominated by the district superintendent in consultation with the chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry and approved by the Annual Conference.

PROCESS

The committee shall elect its officers at the first meeting following the Annual Conference when the members are elected.

—— † ——

STANDING RULES OF THE ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP:

The voting membership of the Annual Conference shall be composed of clergy and laity in equal number.

2. CLERGY MEMBERS {¶ 602, 32, Discipline}:

The clergy membership of an Annual Conference shall consist of deacons and elders in full connection, probationary members, associate members, affiliate members and local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge.

VOTING RIGHTS OF CLERGY:

a. Deacons and Elders in Full Connection {active & retired}: may vote on all matters except the election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference. ¶602.1.a; 334.1; 329.2

b. Probationary, Associate, Affiliate, Full-time Local Pastors, and Part-time Local Pastors: may vote on all matters except Constitutional amendments, election of General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates, and matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy. ¶602.1b,c,d

c. Student Local Pastors, Retired Local Pastors: privilege of the floor without vote. ¶316.6, 320.6

d. Clergy from other Annual Conferences or Methodist related denominations under conference appointment : privilege of the floor without vote. ¶346

e. Clergy from other denominations under conference appointment: if credentials are at least equal to those of UM elders, may vote on all matters except Constitutional amendments, election of General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates, and matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy ¶346.3

3. LAY MEMBERS {¶602.4 - 602.10}:

The lay membership of the Annual Conference shall consist of a lay member elected by each charge, diaconal ministers, deaconesses, the conference presidents of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, the chair of the Annual Conference college student organization, one student from each Wesley Foundation, one student from Hendrix College Campus Ministries, one student from Philander Smith Campus Ministries, one young person between the ages of twelve and seventeen and one young person between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district to be selected by the District

Leadership team or District Nominating Committee in consultation with the District Superintendent. Each charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment (including deacons in full connection for whom this is their primary appointment) shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members under appointment.

The lay members of the Annual Conference shall participate in all deliberations and vote upon all measures except on the granting or validation of license, ordination, reception into full conference membership, or any question concerning the character and official conduct of ordained ministers, except those who are lay members of the board of ordained ministry. Lay members shall serve on all committees except those on ministerial relations and for the trial of clergy.

When at any time a lay member is excused by the Annual Conference from further attendance during the session, the alternate lay member, if present, shall be seated. The lay member or the alternate shall be the lay member of the Annual Conference, and it shall be the duty of the lay member to report to the local church on actions of the Annual Conference.

4. EQUALIZING LAY AND CLERGY MEMBERSHIP

If the lay membership should number less than the clergy members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and clergy membership of the Annual Conference according to the following formula:

a. Lay Delegates and Alternate Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

b. Lay Conference Team Leaders, Lay Chairpersons of Conference Boards, Committees, and Commissions as elected by the Annual Conference. When the following positions are held by laity: conference treasurer, conference statistician, conference secretary, and conference ministry staff.

c. When additional lay members are required to equalize representation an equal number of "at large" delegates from each district shall be selected. The Conference Secretary will notify each District Superintendent of the number of persons, if any, to be named encouraging them to use the following formula with top priority to be given to Number 1, etc.:

- Ethnic minority and small membership churches.
- Elected chairpersons of conference boards and agencies not included above.
- Officers of the Conference Board of Laity.
- Conference officers of UM Women, UM Men, and Conference Council on
- Youth Ministries residing within the bounds of a district.
- Elected lay persons to general and jurisdictional conference boards and agencies.
- District presidents of UM Women, UM Men, and UM Youth Fellowship.
- Lay members of conference boards and agencies.
- One additional youth from each district.

Upon their selection, the District Superintendent shall notify these persons in writing of their delegate status at least 60 days prior to the Annual Conference.

d. The names and addresses of lay members of the Annual Conference elected by the Charge Conferences, as well as any District lay members selected by the District, shall be compiled by the District Superintendents and sent to the Conference Secretary at least 60 days prior to the opening day of the Annual Conference session.

5. BOARD SERVICE:

a. Elective membership on any specific board, agency, committee of the Annual Conference may not exceed two consecutive quadrenniums, excepting ex-officio membership unless otherwise prescribed by the Book of Discipline of the UMC. After eight consecutive years on any specific board, agency, committee of the Annual Conference, no person may return to the same body until the passage of four years, excepting ex-officio membership. Membership begins upon election with the date noted in the Conference Journal.

b. No person shall be elected by the Annual Conference to serve on more than one Council, Board, Committee, Commission, Agency, etc. at any one time. This does not affect ex-officio positions. The following are EXEMPT from this rule: Conference Nominating Committee, Episcopacy Committee, Annual Conference Planning Committee, Committee on Review and Research, Committee on Investigation, Joint Committee on Incapacity, and Administrative Review Committee.

c. No person shall serve as an elected trustee of more than one UM related institution of the Arkansas Area at a time. No one who by virtue of his or her office would be an ex-officio trustee shall serve as an elected trustee of the same agency. The following institutions are subject to this rule: UM Children's Home; UM Foundation of AR; Methodist Health Systems; Hendrix College; Philander Smith College; Camp Tanako; and Mt. Eagle Christian Center.

d. "In the nomination and election of the membership of councils, boards, and agencies of the Annual Conference, special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergywomen, youth (¶256.3), young adults, older adults, persons from churches with small memberships, persons with disabilities, and racial and ethnic persons, in keeping with policies for general Church agencies. It is further recommended that the membership of such agencies, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry, include one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen, who are professing members of local churches." {¶610.5}

Special attention shall also be given to geographical representation.

Nominees to conference and district offices will be asked to examine themselves in relation to whether their local church has met their apportionments and how that relates to their office responsibilities.

e. Members of general agencies shall serve as ex-officio members of the corresponding Annual Conference agency or its equivalent structure. If this results in a person being a member of more than one Annual Conference agency in violation of either Annual Conference policy or another provision of the Book of Discipline, the person shall choose the Annual Conference agency on which to serve.

f. "No member or employee of any conference agency and no employee, trustee, or director of any agency or institution participating in the funds of any conference budget shall be eligible for voting membership on the Council on Finance and Administration." {¶611.2}

g. Each agency of the Annual Conference will keep records of member attendance and participation. Each year, prior to the nominating process, the chair of each agency shall forward a record of member participation to the chair of the Conference Nominating Committee. Following review of this information, the Conference Nominating Committee shall have the authority to declare vacancies and nominate replacements for the remainder of the quadrennium. Vacancies during the year shall be reported by the Team Leader through the Vision Team to the Conference Nominating Committee.

6. TASK FORCE SERVICE:

a. Membership on Task Forces shall be inclusive of ethnic minorities and persons from small membership churches. A balance of laymen, laywomen, and clergy shall be the norm.

b. The norm of Task Force membership shall be a broad base of participation from throughout the Conference.

c. Persons are limited to membership on one Conference task force at a given time. Emphasis shall be given to non-consecutive membership from one conference task force to another conference task force.

7. FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

a. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be from January 1 to December 31.

b) APPORTIONMENT FORMULA AND PROCESS

There shall be two apportioned categories for the annual conference:

Ministries Beyond the Local Church (which includes World Service and Conference Benevolences, Administration categories, and all other apportioned items),

Ministerial Support (including Pension and Benefit, District Superintendents, Ministerial Education, Equitable Compensation, Episcopal Fund and Episcopal Residence).

Calculations for apportionments shall be based on the latest year's statistics on amounts spent by the local churches for "financial considerations", which includes a) health insurance paid to conference, b) pastor's salary, c) associate's salaries, d) utilities and allowances, e) accountable reimbursements paid to pastors, f) other cash allowances, g) Diaconal/Deacon Ministry compensation, h) other staff compensation, i) current program expenses, and j) current operating expenses.

The amount of money apportioned by the Annual Conference for Ministries Beyond the Local Church would be determined by a 10% tithe of the "financial considerations" spent by the churches of the annual conference. Changes in this total apportionment figure may not be accepted or approved, although the Annual Conference may adjust and re-prioritize funds within the total as desired.

The Annual Conference will determine the amount apportioned for the Ministerial Support section, upon recommendation of the Conference Council of Finance and Administration (Par. 614, Book of Discipline). Each local church's apportionment for the Ministerial Support section will be determined by their share of the conference total spent for "financial considerations".

c. FINANCIAL AND STATISTICAL

- Each pastor shall make an annual statistical and financial report to the District Superintendent who shall submit the reports to the Conference Statistician.
- All reporting of Conference funds shall be made in whole dollars.
- The number answering the question in the pastor's report to Annual Conference "Members reported last year" shall in every case be the number of members printed in the statistical tables of the Journal of the last Annual Conference (unless there was a typographical or printing error).
- The apportioned amounts arrived at by the use of the Conference decimal are to be accepted as the official apportionment.
- The apportionment for World Service and Conference Benevolences will be combined in the statistical report; and, the amount paid will be the amount reported by the Conference Treasurer.
- All statistical reports, after being checked for correctness by the District Superintendent and District Auditors, shall be delivered by one of them to the Conference Statistician, within 31 days after the receipt of the final print out from the Conference Treasurer for the year just ended.

d. ADMINISTRATIVE FUND

The Council on Finance and Administration shall recommend an apportionment for a Conference Administrative Fund. All clerical work of the Conference, the expense of publishing the pre-conference report, the expense of publishing the Journal and preserving the records of the Conference, the expense of preparing and printing the Worship Booklet for the Annual Conference, the expense of auditing the accounts of the several boards, the expenses of the Conference Secretary and Statistician, the expenses of committees raised by the Conference shall be paid from this Fund. The Conference Treasurer shall be the custodian of the Fund.

e. PROGRAM BUDGETS

Budgets for expenditures for program for the District and the Conference shall be coordinated by the Vision Team. The Vision Team shall make recommendations to the Council on Finance and Administration which shall make a final recommendation to the Annual Conference.

f. DISTRICT AUDITS

The financial records of each District shall be audited by a qualified person at the end of each calendar year. The audit report will be forwarded to the conference Council on Finance and Administration no later than May 1 of the following year.

8. CONFERENCE PROCEDURE

a. RULES OF ORDER

"Roberts Rules of Order" and "Parliamentary Procedures at a Glance" by O. Garfield Jones shall be the procedural authority for the Annual Conference when not in conflict with The Discipline of the UMC.

b. PRE-CONFERENCE REPORTS

There shall be a Pre-Conference Journal which shall contain reports of all program agencies of the Conference. This Pre-Conference Journal shall be mailed to each member of the Arkansas Conference at least 30 days before the annual session. The Conference Secretary shall be the editor of this publication. The pre-conference reports submitted for inclusion in the Pre-Conference Journal shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by email, on computer disk or typewritten no later than March 15 of each year.

The part of the report of all councils, boards, commissions and other agencies of the conference which provides for changes in policy or makes recommendations, if not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal, shall be reproduced and distributed to the membership of the conference prior to the time scheduled for action in said report. Such items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

c. RESOLUTION FOOTNOTES

All resolutions, sponsored or non-sponsored, shall contain footnotes that clarify the source of any facts, quotes, or generalizations made within the proposed resolution. These footnotes shall include enough information to allow the conference some level of confidence that the content of the proposed resolution is accurate and reliable. These footnotes shall also include enough information to allow the content of the proposed resolution to be double checked for accuracy. All resolutions not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be accompanied by a rationale.

PRE-CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS

Non-sponsored resolutions or petitions, as well as those sponsored by any regular board or standing committee or task force of the Conference, may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal with the approval of the Vision Team. Non-sponsored resolutions must be signed by at least ten voting members of the Annual Conference before they may be considered by the Vision Team for publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.

FLOOR RESOLUTIONS

Any resolution or petition not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal must be signed by at least ~~two~~ ten voting members of the Annual Conference, and distributed in writing to the delegates and lay on the table for twenty-four hours before being debated and acted upon. Such items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

CONCURRENCE/NON-CONCURRENCE

All resolutions that call for a change in the structure or standing rules, must be submitted to a review by the Committee on Review and Research which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have financial implications, must be submitted to a review by the Council on Finance and Administration which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

All resolutions that have Social Principle implications, must be submitted to a review by the Board of Church and Society which will recommend concurrence or non-concurrence.

d. COPY FOR JOURNAL

All copy for the Journal shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary no later than the close of the Annual Conference session. All material to be published in the journal which does not meet this deadline shall be excluded unless specific permission for delay is granted by the Conference Secretary. The Conference Secretary, Dean of the Cabinet, and Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to edit all reports for printing in the Journal.

Addresses delivered to the Conference, except for the Episcopal Address and the Laity Address, shall not be printed in the journal.

All resolutions and reports not printed in the Pre-Conference Journal shall be legibly written in duplicate, and shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary and Presiding Officer before such can be considered by the Conference.

All items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.

e. MOTIONS AND DEBATES

All motions and resolutions made on the floor of Annual Conference shall be legibly written on forms supplied by the Conference Secretary and shall be in the hands of the Conference Secretary and Presiding Officer before any action or vote can be taken by the Conference. Debate on each motion or resolution shall be limited to three two-minute speeches for the motion or resolution and three two-minute speeches against the same (excluding persons rising to points of order, amendments or final summation). A timer shall be used to measure debate at the discretion of the Chair.

f. MOTIONS INVOLVING EXPENDITURES

When any proposal is submitted to the Annual Conference which involves the expenditure of funds not included in the Council on Finance and Administration report, such a proposal shall be referred for advice and recommendation to the Council on Finance and Administration and brought back to the same session of the Annual Conference for a vote to be taken by the Conference. The CFA will study the proposal and report back to the Annual Conference as to where the funding would have to come from, how the proposal would impact the overall conference budget, along with CFA's concurrence or non-concurrence. No new request for unbudgeted expenditures shall be submitted on the last day of a Conference Session.

g. LOCATION OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

Location of our Annual Conference regular sessions will be selected and fixed by the Annual Conference Planning Committee at least three years in advance, allowing the conference to confirm with potential hosts and make financial deposits on facility rentals. Their decision will be announced to the annual conference session three years in advance, allowing the conference members to secure housing arrangements in a timely manner.

9. CONFERENCE EXPENSE FUND

Registration fees and offerings taken at the Annual Conference shall be administered by the Conference Treasurer and shall be used to defray expenses of the session.

a. CONFERENCE EXPENSES

Expenses of the Annual Conference session shall be paid by funds received from:

i. Registration fees, which shall be set by the Conference Session Planning Committee.
ii. Offerings, other than special designated offerings; and
iii. If necessary, the Conference Administration Fund.

b. RETIRED CLERGY'S EXPENSES

No registration fee shall be required for retired clergy, their spouses or surviving spouses. The expense of retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses shall be paid in keeping with the guidelines of the Council on Finance and Administration when the proper vouchers are presented.

c. STUDENTS

No registration fee shall be required for Student Local Pastors or Seminary Students.

10. MEMOIRS PUBLISHED IN THE JOURNAL

The Board of Ordained Ministry shall provide the Conference Secretary with a memoir (and photograph if available) for each clergy, clergy spouse, diaconal minister, or diaconal minister spouse. {Clergy members include: Elders in Full Connection, Deacons in Full Connection, Probationary Members, Associate Members, and Local Pastors.}

11. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

The Library at Hendrix College shall be the depository for all historical documents and artifacts of the Arkansas Conference. The Arkansas Conference Joint Commission on Archives and History shall administer the United Methodist (and its predecessor bodies) Archives in the Arkansas Room of the Hendrix College Library.

12. CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

a. At the beginning of each quadrennium the Conference Structure shall be reviewed.
b. The Conference Structure shall be reprinted each year in the Conference Journal with any changes made during the preceding Annual Conference.

13. DISTRIBUTION OF CONFERENCE JOURNALS

The Conference secretary shall ~~mail~~ distribute a copy of the Conference Journal to active and retired clergy, seminarians, all probationary members, lay members of the Annual Conference, and chairpersons of conference boards, committees, and agencies. The labels will be printed from the Conference database.

14. TELLERS

a. Floor Tellers for each Annual Conference shall be nominated by the District Superintendents, one from each district. Each must be a member of the Annual Conference. The Head Floor Teller shall be nominated by the Conference Secretary.
b. IN GENERAL CONFERENCE BALLOTING YEARS:

The Annual Conference host District Superintendent shall nominate laity from the host district who shall not be members of the Annual Conference to serve as Laity Election Tellers. The cabinet shall be responsible to nominate local pastors from the Annual Conference to serve as Clergy election tellers. The head laity election teller and head clergy election teller shall be nominated by the cabinet.

c. All tellers shall be presented for election during the opening of the Annual Conference by the Conference Secretary.

15. RULES OR POLICIES ABOUT ELECTION OF LAY DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE

Rules and policies of candidates for delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall include a form, provided by the Board of Laity, that would give pertinent information for persons offering themselves for consideration as a delegate to General or Jurisdictional Conference. In addition to present information, this form will include a space for persons who wish to include viewpoints, biographical or other pertinent information. The blank form shall be provided to each church at Charge Conference in the fall preceding the election. Candidates shall return the completed form to the Conference Secretary by a set date for inclusion in the Pre-Conference material. Along with the form, candidates shall provide a recent photograph.

Article V, Paragraph 36, Section VI, Annual Conferences, current Book of Discipline, shall be printed on the form.

The completed form is a requirement for inclusion in the Pre-Conference Journal. It is not required for candidacy.

16. THE ISSUANCE OF MAILING LABELS AND MAILING LISTS OF MEMBERS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

a. The issuance of mailing lists of members of the Annual Conference by the Area and District offices shall be limited to Officers of the Annual conference and to Boards, Committees, Councils, Commissions, Institutions, and Organizations of the Annual Conference as listed in the current Conference Journal, with the understanding that such mailing lists or labels shall not be used by persons receiving them to solicit votes for election as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conference.

b. Mailing labels of said lists shall not be provided to any individuals or groups, other than those named in (a) above.

17. JOURNAL CORRECTIONS

Persons discovering possible errors in the minutes of the Annual Conference as printed in the Conference Journal shall report them in writing to the Conference Secretary. If the error concerns a substantial difference of opinion concerning the official action of the Annual Conference, the person may request that The Conference Secretary, Dean of the Cabinet, and the Minutes Auditor/Editor will meet with that person, within a period of thirty days after receipt of the complaint, to hear his or her concern and to take appropriate action.

18. CLERGY APPOINTMENT CHANGES

a. The Annual Conference session shall designate a moving date. Any exceptions to the designed date shall be agreed upon by the District Superintendent and the pastors involved.

b. Clergy who are to move following appointment changes at the Annual Conference shall receive the June compensation from the charge they are leaving; thus the conference appointive year and pay period shall be July 1 through June 30.

{Note: This change shall take effect at the Annual Conference session in June, 2007.}

19. CHANGES TO STANDING RULES

Any proposal to change the Standing Rules shall lay on the table overnight, and then its passage shall require a 3/4 vote of those present and voting.

POLICY STATEMENTS

PARSONAGE STANDARDS

{Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004}

Philosophy For Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum.

The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2004 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e

The 2004 Book of Discipline also states that, "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶ 2532.4

The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

These Guidelines are for use in maintaining, remodeling, building, or buying a parsonage.

Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms: There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower
3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.
4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with a storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to insure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.

10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.
11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
    a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
    b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling systems shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to soundness of heat/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as to maximum /minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.
12. Insurance: The church is responsible for payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty per cent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain additional coverage to insure the pastor's family furnishings and belongings.
13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide 'adequate housing' shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required Items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential Items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.
14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility
    (a) The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, If anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.
    (b) The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative In improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.
    (c) All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See Philosophy for Parsonage Standards, last sentence, p.1, above.)
15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities

The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who has pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out, including residual tobacco smoke and any odors from pets.

16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.
17. Mutual Responsibility Covenant: It is recommended that the Trustees and/or the Pastor Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original from any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.
18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient... weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.
19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.
20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one for each floor including the basement.

Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:

21. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately, are adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.
22. All Substandard Parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later that January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the cabinet.
23. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor Parish Relations Committee In the implementation these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at large members elected to three year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.
24. When there is a Pastoral Change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.
25. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/ purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.
26. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and, chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committees. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

27. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.
28. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommend: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

A SUGGESTED CHURCH/PASTOR PARSONAGE COVENANT

Church Responsibilities:

While other church officers and bodies have a role in the provision, inspection, and maintenance of the parsonage the local church Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility to insure the parsonage meets or exceeds the standards set by the Annual Conference and the local church. The Church Trustees will maintain the physical structure and keep it in good repair. This includes all exterior treatments such as paint, shingles, and siding; the basic interior structure of the home including carpet and other floor coverings, interior decorating, and drapes or curtains. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all equipment such as furnace, water heater, light fixtures, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer, and lawn mower. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all furnishings provided by the church including maintenance and timely replacement.

Clergy Responsibilities:

The pastor will properly care for the property, keeping it clean and attractive both inside and out. The Pastor will be responsible for light bulbs, furnace filters, lawn mowing and snow removal; for effecting minor repairs such as, but not limited to, tacking or nailing of molding or door tops that may loosen up, and repairing or replacing items damaged by pets, personal guests, or the pastor and his/her family. [This would be signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Pastor, and other appropriate local church officers.]

Respectfully submitted, Regina Haralson, Secretary and Ronald B. Clark, President

POLICY STATEMENT ON MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

{Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004, and revised June 14, 2005}

I. Statement of Policy

The _____United Methodist church affirms the 2008 Book of Resolutions #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church as incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2008 Book of Discipline (¶ 161.E) all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his/her capacity as a minister.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission. The _____ United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

II. Procedures

A. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person.

You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease.

If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation.

If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy).

If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

B. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship.

If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting.

If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

C. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventative action.

According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

LOCAL CHURCH SAFE SANCTUARY

{Resolution adopted by the Annual Conference, June 2006.}

WHEREAS, The General Conference of The United Methodist Church, in April 2004, adopted a resolution aimed at eliminating any potential for child sexual abuse in the church. The adopted resolution includes the following statement:

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes a child welcomes me." (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6) Our Christian faith calls us to offer both hospitality and protection to the little ones, the children. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that "...children must be protected from economic, physical and sexual exploitation and abuse."

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children. Child sexual abuse, exploitation and ritual abuse (ritual abuse refers to abusive acts committed as part of ceremonies or rites; ritual abusers are often related to cults, or pretend to be) occur in churches, both large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation in their churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma.

Such incidents are devastating to all who are involved: the child, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by the legal, emotional, and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (From The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church. P. 201 - 202)

Therefore, the Arkansas Conference, United Methodist Church, hereby pledges to conduct the ministry of Jesus Christ in ways that assure the physical and emotional safety and spiritual growth of all of our children and youth as well as all of our workers with children and youth. We will follow reasonable safety measures when selecting and recruiting workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all areas of programming and care; we will train our workers with children and youth on our procedures and policies; and we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of Arkansas law.

Therefore, in all of our ministries with children and youth, this congregation is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each child and youth will be "surrounded by steadfast love… established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal." (Baptismal Covenant II,"United Methodist Book of Worship, p.96).

Therefore, when our Local Churches are developing Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures, it is recommended they include the following:

PAID OR VOLUNTEER STAFF SELECTION GUIDELINES

1. Age
   - 18 years old
   - 4-5 years older than the oldest child/youth they will be supervising
2. Application
   - complete and sign an application and the related waivers giving permission to check references and background information.
3. Reference Checks
   - 2-3 references
4. Background Checks
   - Criminal background checks for all clergy, paid staff, and volunteers who have supervisory program responsibility for children/youth
5. Prior Convictions
   - Individuals who have been convicted of physical or sexual abuse or neglect may not work in any church-sponsored activity or program for preschoolers, children or youth.

PAID OR VOLUNTEER STAFF SUPERVISION GUIDELINES

1. Two adult rule
   - Two non-related adults present at all times
   - If a co-ed group, need both male and female sponsors
   - If it's simply not feasible for 2 adults to be present, can have "floater" monitor frequently
2. Check-in/out Procedure
   - Need a check-in/checkout procedure
   - Only release children/youth to people authorized by parent/legal guardian. Parents should notify the one in charge when their youth begins to drive him/herself to youth group and give permission for said youth to transport other youth to and from the meeting. This permission must be reciprocal from other parents who give permission for their youth to ride with other youth age drivers.

3. Open Door Policy
   - Parents and other relatives have the right to visit and observe the children's/youth activity, classroom, or church-sponsored program at any time, unannounced. Other visitors must be accompanied by a church staff person or the lead pastor.
4. Outside Access
   - Access to a phone, cell phone or pager when groups are at or away from the church facility
5. Doors and Windows:
   - All classroom and office doors will have a window or visibility from hallway or remain open while occupied.
   - Windows kept free from adornment
6. Individual Counseling:
   - One-on-one interactions with children and youth should be with open door and visibility to all
7. Outside Groups
   - Outside groups using the church facility need to follow the church's Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures
8. Training
   - Staff need to be educated in Safe Sanctuary policies, procedures and child abuse issues
   - CPR/First Aid certification
9. Transportation
   - No youth should drive to/from event
   - Adults should never transport child/youth alone.
   - Approved and covered by church's insurance company
   - Drivers should go through same screening process as all other paid/volunteer staff

{Note: These guidelines concern recommendations for the Local Church. A more comprehensive Safe Sanctuary Policy for Conference and District events is currently under review by the Vision Team, Cabinet, COSROW, and the Conference Board of Trustees. A new Conference and District Event policy should be ready for presentation to the 2007 Annual Conference session.}

VACATION POLICY FOR APPOINTED PERSONNEL

{Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference 1n June 2010}

It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is "vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out, we recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1) Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1 - June 30).
   a) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).
   b) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).
   c) Those having served full time in the United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).

2) Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.
3) Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conference, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.
4) Full time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
5) The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
6) In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full time service, including student pastors and part time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.
7) Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
8) The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
9) The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

STANDARDS FOR CAMPING AND RETREAT CENTERS

{The following motion was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference}

We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the "Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers" adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee.

We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.
