I. CONFERENCE HISTORY

During the past 200 years, the Methodist churches of Arkansas have been served by six different Annual Conferences: Arkansas, Little Rock, North Arkansas, Southwest, Ouachita, and White River.

From 1815 to 1835, the Arkansas Territory was served by pastors appointed by the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Joshua Soule presided in 1833 at the first annual conference that met in Arkansas Territory, Spring River.

In 1836 the "Arkansas Conference" of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in Batesville with Bishop Thomas Asbury Morris traveling on horseback to attend. The Conference also included the upper two-thirds of Louisiana and the Indian Territory. The Conference then had six districts.

The years leading up to and following Civil War, were tumultuous for the church in Arkansas, primarily over issues related to slavery. In 1844, Southern Methodists sent elected delegates to help develop a "Plan of Separation" from the Methodist Episcopal Church and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church South did indeed split from the mother church.

In 1865 the Negro Methodist Episcopal Church was formed along with the Freedmen's Aid Society, a mission to assist newly freed slaves, and in 1868 the African Methodist Episcopal Church was organized.

From 1854-70 Arkansas United Methodists were divided into two conferences. The Ouachita or "Wichita" Conference in the south became the second conference authorized by the Methodist Episcopal Church. It later became the Little Rock Conference. The other conference remained the Arkansas Conference.

A third conference, the White River Conference, was organized in 1870 in the northeast part of the state. This third conference continued until 1914 when it merged with the Arkansas Conference to form the North Arkansas Conference.

In 1879 many of the African-American congregations chose to join the conference of the Methodist Episcopal (North) Church within Arkansas. In 1929 the name changed to Southwest Conference and in 1972 the Southwest Conference merged with the North Arkansas and Little Rock Conference.

The Little Rock Conference and North Arkansas Conference merged in 2003 to form the Arkansas Conference. A reduction of districts from 12 to nine also occurred at the same time. The districts were once again reduced in 2012 from nine to five.

II. MINISTERS' SERVICE RECORDS

The service records which have historically been printed in the Journal were - as noted each year - not the "official service records" from which clergy pension information is drawn. Those official records are kept by the General Board of Pensions.

In 2014-15, the district administrators, conference secretary and conference statistician have been tasked with updating the service record information for the pastors in each district to provide a more accurate picture of each pastor's service years. The updated service records will be printed in the 2015 Journal.

Please contact Chief Benefits Officer Mona Williams at (501) 324-8000 with questions about pension eligible service years.

V. DIACONAL MINISTERS' SERVICE RECORDS

The service records which have historically been printed in the Journal were - as noted each year - not the “official service records” from which clergy pension information is drawn. Those official records are kept by the General Board of Pensions.

In 2014-15, the district administrators, conference secretary and conference statistician have been tasked with updating the service record information for the pastors in each district to provide a more accurate picture of each pastor’s service years. The updated service records will be printed in the 2015 Journal.

Please contact Chief Benefits Officer Mona Williams at (501) 324-8000 with questions about pension eligible service years.

Board of Pension and Benefits

Dennis Spence, chair of the Board of Pension and Benefits, presented the report (see REPORTS). He led the Conferees through the report that was included in the registration bags. The documents contain three proposals for changing the way the Conference provides insurance for active and retired clergy.

Proposal #1: Remove retired Medicare-eligible Clergy from the Conference plan by Dec. 31st, 2014.

This proposal would give eligible retirees a gift of a fixed dollar amount, determined by years of service, to purchase Medicare coverage. This would reduce the cost to the Conference, give the retirees coverage equal or better than their present coverage, and reduce their out of pocket expenses.

Proposal #1 was presented for approval. The proposal PASSED.

Proposal #2: Offer a dependent waiver effective July 1, 2014.

This proposal would allow spouses and dependents of active clergy who have access to employer provided coverage, or are Medicare eligible to opt out of the Conference insurance. This would keep active clergy in the system, but allow for spouses and dependents to find lower cost coverage.

Amendment: Jacob Lynn, Pulaski Heights UMC, moved: “To allow spouses and dependents to pursue other insurance options on the open market.” The amendment was seconded. It was accepted as a friendly amendment. Questions and discussion followed, including “just a speech” by C.E. McAdoo.

The Amendment PASSED.

Amendment: Clark Atkins, St. James UMC, Little Rock, moved: “Proposal #2, line 62 amended to read as follows: “spouse’s and dependent’s premium costs”.”

The Amendment PASSED.

Amendment: Bob Crossman, Retired, moved: “Page 3, Line 42 of the supplement; change line 42 to read: “...the spouse/dependent, the clergy, the SPR Chair, Treasurer, and Finance Chair. The letter should include any salary or compensation changes, and be mailed [to the District Superintendent and] to the Conference Benefit Office within 30 days of the requested change.” The amendment was Seconded. It was accepted as Friendly amendment. Susan Ledbetter moved to amend the amendment to include the wording in brackets above. Crossman accepted this change and added that language to the written form of the motion.

The Amendment, as amended, PASSED.

Proposal #2, as amended, PASSED

Rule of Law: David Orr requested in writing a ruling of church law on two issues:

- 1) Regarding the Arkansas Conference practice of non-district superintendents participating in the making of appointments.
- 2) On the matter of limitations on years of service for those serving in the Appointive Cabinet.

Bishop Mueller will respond to his questions within 30 days (see RESOLUTIONS-LEGISLATIVE ACTIONS)

Human Sexuality Taskforce

Bud Reeves, Chairman, asked all the members of the taskforce to join him on the stage. He then spoke to the work they have done in the last two years. They were tasked with writing a curriculum for a study on human sexuality, which was too large a task to accomplish in the time frame given. The result is a framework for a study employing Wesleyan Christian Conferencing. A portion of a video on conferencing by Andrew Thompson was shown.

The resource produced by the taskforce is available on-line on the Learning Management System (LMS) on the ARUMC web-site. Directions on how to access the resource are printed in the booklet that was included in the Registration bags.

Brooke Hobbs stated that the AAC Youth Ministries want to sponsor a listening session on this topic because it matters to them and bears conversation.

Petitions and Resolutions

Will Choate, Argenta UMC addressed the conference on controversy over petitions and resolutions. He urged the Conferees to consider how our differences are handled and to do so in a manner that does not hurt our brothers and sisters. The Bishop is establishing a taskforce to help the Conference learn to discern, confer, and mature in dealing with differences. The taskforce will report to the 2015 conference.

A Policy Statement for Governmental Landmarking of Church-Owned Property. The policy was ADOPTED.

Status Report on Relationship Statements: The report was ADOPTED.

STRUCTURE CHANGES

Mackey Yokem presented two proposed Structure changes:

Proposal #1 concerning the Executive Team of the Annual Conference

The Executive Team recommends the Executive Team be eliminated from the Conference Structure and their responsibilities be transferred to the Bishop's Office and the Council on Finance and Administration.

Cleifton Vaughan, Chair of the Conference Committee on Research and Review, stated: "The Committee carried on an email dialogue for one week from May 28 to June 4. After several comments, the proposed structural changes seem in order and do not conflict with The Book of Discipline 2012, or our Arkansas Conference policy."

Yokem moved adoption of the proposal. Proposal #1 was ADOPTED.

Proposal #2 concerning a new Structure for Outdoor Ministries

This proposal recommends a change in the membership of the Outdoor Ministries Committee to provide a framework for working collaboratively, while retaining autonomy for each site. This change was recommended by the Run River Consulting Firm. Cleifton Vaughn, Chair of the Conference Committee on Research and Review, stated the concurrence of the committee. Yokem moved adoption.

MOTION TO AMEND: Olen K. (Ken) Pearson, Lakewood UMC, moved: "that lines 105-106 on page 59 of the Pre-Conference Journal be amended to read: "The committee will be composed of fourteen (14) members. The fourteen members shall consist of the Chairpersons of the five (5) camps (Shoal Creek, Bear Creek, Wayland Springs, Mount Eagle, Tanako) plus nine (9) members of United Methodist congregations in Arkansas."

The motion was seconded but FAILED.

Some of the discussion concerning the Proposal centered on the effort to make the camps American Camping Association accredited and the expense and increased fees that would result from accreditation. The Director of Camp Tanako, Kim Carter, who is not a member of the Annual Conference, asked to address these concerns. Allowing her to speak required a suspension of the rules.

A motion to suspend PASSED.

Ms. Carter stated that the Run River report recommended that all camp sites in the Arkansas Conference be ACA accredited to be operational. The 2008 Arkansas Annual Conference voted that all sites become accredited, but there was currently only one accredited site. Accreditation is not expensive, but required a great deal of work. The United Methodist Camping and Retreat Ministry of the GBOD held ACA accreditation as standard for UMC camps nationwide. The higher fees at Tanako are the result of training and programming offered rather than ACA accreditation. The yearly membership fee is the only extra cost.

Motion to Amend: Roy Smith, First UMC, Russellville, moved: “on line 111, page 59, we add, “Directors of each facility would serve as advisors without vote.”

The amendment PASSED.

Proposal #2, as amended, PASSED.

Nominations Addendum

Beth Waldrup presented changes to the report (see REPORT). A correction was made from the floor to the United Methodist Historical Society: page 37, line 59, should read Ron Clark and the museum curator Linda Baker should be added.

Waldrup moved adoption of the report, with additions and corrections. The report as corrected was ADOPTED.

Retiree Videos

Jerry Eubanks, 5 years of service; Louise Finney, 21.25 years of service; Edna Morgan, 12 years of service.

Point of Privilege

Rodney Steele made the following statement: “As the Chair of the Arkansas Episcopacy Committee, there is quite a buzz where I am sitting that you are calling us by our names and we appreciate the spirit by which you are leading us and for all that you are doing to guide us into Spiritual Revival. I just want to encourage you by saying “Atta-boy” and God Bless You!” His statement was endorsed by the standing applause of the Conferees.

Prayer & Break

The conference was granted a recess at 2:53. Brenda Mize offered a prayer of dismissal.

Prayer & Reconvene

Council on Finance & Administration

Jim Polk perfected the report (see REPORTS). Apportionment payout for 2013 was 89 percent. There was surplus revenue of $201,000 which went into the reserve fund. The direct billing of pensions will move to 75 percent in 2015, thereby reducing the Pension & Benefits apportionment line. Because of the passage of the Insurance proposals this morning, the total budget for 2015 is reduced by $525,000, making the bottom line $1,000,253.

The Bishop asked that the remainder of the CFA report be given in the morning so that the scheduled Memorial Service could take place on time.

Les Oliver, 16 years of service; George Mitchell, 12.5 years of service; Deborah Perry, 7 years of service.

LA 3Bring process to the 2015 Annual Conference to discontinue Conference's compensation of the full-time clergy position. An adjustment which will allow clergy to purchase insurance;

(see AGENCY REPORTS for entire Pensions and Health Benefits Report)

This shall include:

- A clarification of what role, if any, the conference benefits office will play in assisting clergy to find an appropriate plan;
- A clear understanding of where leftover reserve funds, if any, will be directed after all claims against the self-insured plan have been paid.

The reasons the committee is not recommending that it be discontinued for active clergy immediately are:

- The lack of a track record with the new Exchange Program. While the committee was wrestling with the decision, the government plan was facing controversy and well publicized glitches. The extra year should allow more confidence that the proposal is a viable option for all involved.
- The need to determine an appropriate method for churches to transfer a portion from funds previously budgeted as conference premiums to compensation so clergy can purchase their own.

Rule of Law regarding the Conference practice of non-district superintendents participating in the making of appointments

From: Rev. David Orr, Searcy First UMC

Request for Ruling:

I request a ruling of church law regarding the Arkansas Conference practice of non-district superintendents participating in the making of appointments.

Specifically, does the Structure of the Arkansas Conference as found in the 2013 Conference Journal defining the Appointive Cabinet (page 445, "PURPOSE: Working with the Bishop, the appointive cabinet facilitates and administers the appointive process. STRUCTURE: The membership of the Appointive Cabinet shall be determined by the presiding Bishop to address the missional needs of the Annual Conference"); and, the Arkansas Conference's current practice of non-district superintendents participating in the making of clergy appointments comply with The 2012 Book of Discipline paragraphs 403.2, 424, 428, 419.2, and 608.6?

BISHOP'S RESPONSE (June 27, 2014):

It might be appropriate to declare this request for a ruling of law as inappropriately moot and hypothetical because it was not an item related to any business undertaken during the 2014 annual conference, but legislation addressed in a previous annual conference session. See Judicial Council decisions 1214, 1086, 799 and 33. Further, it might be inappropriate because it asks for a ruling of law about an entity, "the appointive cabinet," that does not exist in, and is not defined by, The Book of Discipline.

Nevertheless, I will address the request in a substantive manner. The Book of Discipline always takes precedence over annual conference standing rules. If there is a discrepancy between the two, annual conference standing rules must be changed. The bishop's authority to compose the cabinet resides in The Book of Discipline and not the Arkansas Conference Standing Rules. In this instance the Arkansas Conference Standing Rules concerning the composition of the "appointive cabinet" is consistent with the cited paragraphs in the request for the ruling of law. However, since The Discipline addresses this matter, this particular standing rule is redundant and unnecessary.

The question of whether the Arkansas Conference "current practice" of including persons who are not district superintendents in providing consultation to the bishop in the making of appointments is not a conference practice. It is an act undertaken by the bishop based on the responsibilities given him by The Book of Discipline.

¶54 Article X makes it clear that district superintendents serve in a consultative role to the bishop, "The bishops shall appoint, after consultation with the district superintendents, ministers to the charges...." ¶419 states that the district superintendent is "an extension of the office of bishop." See also ¶ 403.2. ¶425.1 states that it is the bishop who makes appointments: "Clergy shall be appointed by the bishop, who is empowered to make and fix all appointments in the episcopal area of which the annual conference is a part."

In sum, district superintendents do not make appointments but serve a consultative function to the bishop. As such, any actions they take concerning appointments while meeting as part of the cabinet are merely advisory in nature.

¶424 clearly indicates that all district superintendents are members of "the cabinet." ¶428 prescribes the role of the "cabinet as a whole" in considering all appointments, but it does not preclude the bishop from considering information obtained from other persons, including those with whom the bishop consults in determining the ministry settings that are most appropriate for particular clergy as a part of the bishop's exercise of his or her appointment authority. Likewise, while ¶419.2 provides that the district superintendent "...shall work with the bishop and cabinet in the process of appointment and assignment for ordained and licensed clergy," it does not preclude the bishop from consulting with others, including members of the extended cabinet.

¶619.2 mandates that the director of administrative services "...shall be present when the cabinet considers matters relating to conference administration related to the conference treasurer's or conference treasure/director of administrative service's responsibilities, or other matters as the cabinet and director may determine."

¶608b states that the director of connectional ministries (or designated person) "...shall serve as an officer of the conference and shall sit with the cabinet when the cabinet considers matters relating to coordination, implementation or administration of the conference program, and other matters as the cabinet and director may determine."

¶607.6 states, "The conference lay leader shall meet with the cabinet when matters relating to the coordination, implementation, or administration of the conference program, or other matters as the cabinet may determine are on the agenda."

¶619.2 explicitly states that the director of administrative services shall not meet with the cabinet when it is considering appointments. However, ¶607.6 and ¶608b do not have such a restriction.

While ¶424 is the section of The Discipline that addresses the role and function of the cabinet, it never defines its membership to exclude persons who are not district superintendents, particularly since the work of the cabinet is not limited to appointments. Further, the commonly used phrase "appointive cabinet" never appears in The Book of Discipline, and only ¶609b mentions the "extended cabinet" at all.

While the district superintendents are always part of the cabinet - and while it is mandated that certain persons be present at particular times - The Book of Discipline, with one limited exception involving the director of administrative services, never states that bishops may not invite others to participate in the cabinet either during the making of appointments or any of its other work.

In sum, the relevant sections of The Book of Discipline include the district superintendents as members of the cabinet and also describe the cabinet as a fluid entity purposely designed by The Discipline with maximum flexibility to help the bishop carry out her or his leadership duties in the annual conference, including appointments.

Therefore, I rule that, within the limitations explicitly outlined by The Book of Discipline, including the tenure of district superintendents, ¶¶403.2, 424, 428, 419.2, and 608.6 give the bishop the right to include those who are not superintendents in a consultative fashion in cabinet meetings that address the making of appointments. The standing rule addressing the composition of the “appointive cabinet”, while substantively in compliance with The Book of Discipline, is not binding on the bishop and is unnecessary since it is addressed by The Book of Discipline.

Rule of Law on the Matter of Limitations on Years of Service for Those Serving in the Appointive Cabinet

From: Rev. David Orr, Searcy First UMC

Request For Ruling:

I request a ruling of church law on the matter of limitations on years of service for those serving on the Appointive Cabinet. Specifically, does Par 418 of the 2012 Book of Discipline apply to non-district superintendents serving on the Appointive Cabinet?

BISHOP’S RESPONSE (June 27, 2014):

It might be appropriate to declare this request for a ruling of law as inappropriately moot and hypothetical because it relates to a term, “the Appointive Cabinet,” that does not exist in, and is not defined by, The Book of Discipline. Further, since the request relates to “non-district superintendents” and ¶418 applies only to district superintendents, it appears that the question does not concern an issue of law under The Book of Discipline and is therefore improper for that reason also. Finally, it might be inappropriate because it was not an item related to any business undertaken during the 2014 annual conference, but legislation addressed in a previous annual conference session. See Judicial Council decisions 1214, 1086, 799 and 33.

Nevertheless, I will address the request in a substantive manner.

¶418 limits the tenure of a district superintendent and, therefore, limits his or her membership in the cabinet as a district superintendent. Neither this, nor any other paragraph in The Book of Discipline, states that those who serve in the cabinet and are not district superintendents are bound by ¶418.

Therefore, I rule that ¶418 is not binding on non-district superintendents who serve in a consultative fashion in cabinet meetings that address the making of appointments.

Proposal to Eliminate the Executive Team

(see STANDING RULES, STRUCTURE AND POLICIES for complete report)

From: Executive Team

Rationale: There are three functions listed as responsibilities of the Executive Team:

1. Alignment of vision, mission and core measures with the doctrines, polity and mission of the United Methodist Church
2. Oversight and management of the Annual Conference
3. Responsibility for the Personnel Policy

All three of these functions now rest with established entities within the Annual Conference. The Office of the Bishop provides oversight for items 1 and 2. Personnel Policy matters are lodged with the Council of Finance and Administration in accordance with The 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, Paragraph 613.13.

The proposal PASSED.

Proposal to Restructure the Committee on Outdoor Ministries

(see STANDING RULES, STRUCTURE AND POLICIES for complete report)

From: Extended Cabinet

Rationale: A newly formed committee charged with developing a Conference-wide outdoor and camping ministries initiative (using all five sites strategically) and not connected to any particular site would greatly enhance the Conference's ability to follow its stated trajectory.

The proposal PASSED as amended: The committee will be composed of nine members of United Methodist congregations in Arkansas. These persons will represent a passion for outdoor and camping ministries. One member of the committee will be designated as Chairperson. The Chairperson and committee will be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. Directors of each facility will serve as advisors without vote.

MEMO OF UNDERSTANDING WESLEY FOUNDATION, UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS FAYETTEVILLE

From: Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries

Background:

Beginning July 1, 2014, the campus ministry of Central United Methodist Church in Fayetteville, Arkansas, and the Wesley Foundation of the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville will be unified into one campus ministry.

This reorganization simplifies and combines what were previously two campus ministries operating parallel to one another and it is proposed with the intent to strengthen campus ministry, engage the mission field more forcefully, and make disciples of Jesus Christ more effectively. The purpose is to continue and expand the ministry of Jesus Christ to the campus of the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Rev. Emily Burch will be appointed as the director of the campus ministry (or campus pastor). Central UMC has already been doing the bookkeeping for the Wesley Foundation. Moving forward, the Trustees of Central UMC will take responsibility for the building and grounds of the Wesley Foundation. In order to do that effectively, the property and assets of the Wesley Foundation will be transferred to Central UMC, held in trust for The United Methodist Church.

In the event that the Central UMC should decide to discontinue its campus ministry, the property and assets located at 520 and 528 N. Lindell Avenue in Fayetteville on the UA campus will revert to the ownership of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

Central UMC will be responsible for the compensation of the campus minister, and she will be considered a member of the Central UMC staff, amenable to its Staff-Parish Relations Committee.

The Wesley Foundation budget, provided by funding from the Annual Conference and donations from churches and individuals, will be used for programming and staffing for growth.

With the resources of Central, the Wesley House building project will be re-designed to accommodate a larger program. The project will be included in the fall capital campaign at Central UMC. While the building project is ongoing, Rev. Burch will continue to maintain an office on the Central UMC campus, and Central UMC will be used for some college programming. After the Wesley House is built, Rev. Burch will relocate to the Wesley House, and the house will be the primary location of the campus ministry.

The Wesley Board will become an advisory council with responsibility for programming, certain staffing decisions, and input on the building process. The advisory council will consist of members of Central UMC, including liaisons with the Staff-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees. The council will report to the Church Council of Central UMC. Half of the members of the advisory council will be members of other area United Methodist Churches.

Critical to the success of the new organization of the Fayetteville campus ministry is the inclusion of other churches, alumni, and supporters of the Wesley Foundation in its program and governance (to an even larger extent than previously). It needs to be more than a Central UMC campus ministry. Rev. Burch and the Central staff understand this goal and will work to see it accomplished.

The campus ministry at the University of Arkansas will also be related to the Arkansas Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry per the 2012 Book of Discipline, Paragraph 634.4.d.

Conference-wide Childhood Hunger InitiativeFrom: Arkansas Conference Extended Cabinet

Background: According to the No Kid Hungry website (www.nokidhungry.org), more than 200,000 children in Arkansas are at risk of hunger and not getting the food they need to lead healthy, active lives.

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church is involved in working to eradicate this through church-based feeding programs, food pantries and food co-ops; community gardens; financial and other support for relief agencies such as the Arkansas Hunger Relief Alliance, Arkansas Rice Depot and other agencies; through the work of the Conference Hunger Task Force; and, through public witness efforts at the state and national level.

The members of the Extended Cabinet were asked by Bishop Mueller to name a conference-wide mission project in which as many churches as possible could be involved. Kurt Boggan, J.J. Whitney and Martha Taylor conducted research on childhood hunger and the possible ways the church could be involved.

Therefore, the Extended Cabinet seeks approval to commence a three-year initiative that would address the issue of childhood hunger in Arkansas so as to engage every United Methodist Church in the Arkansas Conference in both immediate hunger relief and in long-term comprehensive efforts. The initiative would utilize current partnerships and develop new partnerships in order to: a) develop baseline statistics, b) develop measurable outcomes for the initiative (i.e., reduce childhood hunger by X percent; increase UMC local church involvement in hunger relief efforts by X percent; c) assessment of and dissemination of current local church hunger relief involvement; d) provide an online resource clearinghouse for information-sharing, ideas, stories of success and transformation through the Network for Discipleship and Mission; e) provide online, print and in-person resources to local churches that provide the opportunity to understand the issues surrounding childhood hunger, the Wesleyan understanding of works of mercy, how we respond as disciples of Christ, and engage the entire conference in a fund-raising effort to help end childhood hunger in Arkansas.

Private Option Medicaid Expansion

From: Methodist Foundation for Social Action

Background: The church is in the business of healing, following the example of Jesus. In order to protect our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, the Arkansas Legislature enacted the “Private Option” expansion of Medicaid. Because of our commitment to healing, we encourage the Legislature to continue funding the “Private Option” in order to provide health care for to disabled and economically disadvantaged Arkansans.

Encourage for Just Resolution

From: Methodist Foundation for Social Action

Background: Church trials do not usually lead to God’s work of bringing justice, healing, and reconciliation in the body of Jesus Christ. However, that is the purpose of just resolution. The Book of Discipline calls for just resolution as an integral part of our judicial process. Therefore, we call on bishops and all those involved in the judicial process to seek intentional and good faith just resolution before calling for church trials, By intentionally seeking just resolution, out hope is that the harm to individuals and communities may be repaired and real accountability may be achieved.

Human Sexuality

From: Miller Wilbourn, Youth Delegate, Pulaski Heights UMC

Resolution: Encourage the youth of the Arkansas Annual Conference to present to the Global Young People Convocation and Legislative Assembly of 2014 the following amendment to the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church: Amend Para.161F as follows:

F) Human Sexuality - We affirm that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We call everyone to responsible stewardship of this sacred gift. Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage.

We deplore all forms of the commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence. The Church should support the family in providing age-appropriate education regarding sexuality to children, youth, and adults.

We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. ~~The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.~~ We affirm that God's grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons. The Resolution PASSED.

POLICY STATEMENTS

PARSONAGE STANDARDS

(Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004)

Philosophy For Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum.

The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2004 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e

The 2004 Book of Discipline also states that, "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶2532.4

The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

These Guidelines are for use in maintaining, remodeling, building, or buying a parsonage.

Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms: There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower

3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.
4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with a storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to insure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.
10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.
11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
 - a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
 - b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling systems shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to soundness of heat/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as to maximum /minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.

12. Insurance: The church is responsible for payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty per cent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain additional coverage to insure the pastor's family furnishings and belongings.
13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide 'adequate housing' shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required Items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential Items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.
14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility
 - (a) The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, If anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.

- (b) The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative In improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.
- (c) All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See Philosophy for Parsonage Standards, last sentence, p.1, above.)

15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities

The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who has pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out, including residual tobacco smoke and any odors from pets.

16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.

17. Mutual Responsibility Covenant: It is recommended that the Trustees and/or the Pastor Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original from any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.
18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient... weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.
19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.
20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one for each floor including the basement.

Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:

21. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.
22. All Substandard Parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later than January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the cabinet.
23. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor Parish Relations Committee In the implementation these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at large members elected to three year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.

24. When there is a Pastoral Change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.
25. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.
26. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and, chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committees. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.
27. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge

Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.

28. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommend: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

A SUGGESTED CHURCH/PASTOR PARSONAGE COVENANT

Church Responsibilities:

While other church officers and bodies have a role in the provision, inspection, and maintenance of the parsonage the local church Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility to insure the parsonage meets or exceeds the standards set by the Annual Conference and the local church. The Church Trustees will maintain the physical structure and keep it in good repair. This includes all exterior treatments such as paint, shingles, and siding; the basic interior structure of the home including carpet and other floor coverings, interior decorating, and drapes or curtains. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all equipment such as furnace, water heater, light fixtures, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer, and lawn mower. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all furnishings provided by the church including maintenance and timely replacement.

Clergy Responsibilities:

The pastor will properly care for the property, keeping it clean and attractive both inside and out. The Pastor will be responsible for light bulbs, furnace filters, lawn mowing and snow removal; for effecting minor repairs such as, but not limited to, tacking or nailing of molding or door tops that may loosen up, and repairing or replacing items damaged by pets, personal guests, or the pastor and his/her family. [This would be signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Pastor, and other appropriate local church officers.]

POLICY STATEMENT ON MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

(Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004, and revised June 14, 2005)

I. Statement of Policy

The _____ United Methodist church affirms the 2008 Book of Resolutions #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church as incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2008 Book of Discipline (§ 161.E) all human beings, both male and female created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his/her capacity as a minister.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission. The _____ United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

II. Procedures

- A. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person.

You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease.

If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation.

If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy).

If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

- B. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship.

If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting.

If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

- C. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventative action.

According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

Safe Sanctuary Policy Recommendation

(This recommendation was adopted by the Annual Conference, Sunday, June 22, 2014)

Whereas, Jesus said, “Whoever welcomes [a] child . . . welcomes me” (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God. God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (Adapted from The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2008.)

Therefore, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church hereby pledges to conduct the ministry of Jesus Christ in ways that promote the physical and emotional safety and spiritual growth of our children, youth and our workers with children and youth.

In all of our ministries with children and youth, this congregation is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each child and youth will be “surrounded by steadfast love . . . established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal. (Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 96)

Therefore, we will follow reasonable safety measures when selecting and recruiting workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all areas of programming and care; we will train our workers with children and youth on our procedures and policies; and we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting reasonably suspected incidents of child maltreatment that conforms to the requirements of Arkansas law.

Therefore, recognizing that the programs, needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ, when local churches are developing Safe Sanctuaries guidelines, it is recommended that they:

1. develop and implement an ongoing education plan for the congregation and its leaders on the reality of child abuse, risk factors leading to child abuse, and strategies for prevention;
2. adopt screening procedures (use of application forms, interviews, reference checks, background clearance, and so forth) for workers (paid and unpaid) directly or indirectly involved in the care of children and youth;
3. develop and implement safety procedures for church activities such as having two or more nonrelated adults present in classroom or activity; leaving doors open and installing half-doors or windows in doors or halls; providing hall monitors; instituting sign-in and sign-out procedures for children ages ten or younger; and so forth;
4. advise children and young persons of an agency or a person outside as well as within the local church whom they can contact for advice and help if they have suffered abuse;
5. carry liability insurance that includes sexual abuse coverage;
6. assist the development of awareness and self-protection skills for children and youth through special curriculum and activities; and
7. be familiar with annual conference and other church policies regarding clergy sexual misconduct.

SAMPLE SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

(This sample Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedure was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 11, 2013.)

This is a sample policy that is intended to serve as an aid to local congregations establishing or updating a Safe Sanctuary policy. It should be recognized that the needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ to some degree. This sample is intended as a resource only and is not as a substitute for reasoned decision making with the guidance of clergy and local legal counsel. Daycare facilities should also carefully comply with all applicable licensing requirements of the Arkansas Department of Human Services (ADHS) which are outside the scope of this sample.

Our Purpose

When a child is baptized or confirmed within our faith, we promise: “With God’s help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ, so that this child, surrounded by steadfast love, may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal” (Congregational Pledge 2, United Methodist Hymnal, p. 44.) The members of this church are committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment for staff, members and guests of all ages, to taking reasonable precautions to reduce the risk of child or adult maltreatment for all who participate in our programs or events, and to reducing the risk of false allegations or suspicions of the same. Anyone may, in good faith, make a hotline report of reasonably suspected child or adult maltreatment

Mandatory reporters must immediately report reasonably suspected maltreatment

- When child or adult maltreatment is reasonably suspected and a report is to be made:

Treat the allegation seriously and with respect for all persons involved

Immediately make the report, documenting the time and date of call and the name of the person taking the report, to the appropriate hotline:

Arkansas Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-482-5964

Refrain from any attempt to notify or confront the accused or to conduct a personal investigation of the alleged maltreatment, recognizing the capability and authority of the civil authorities to do so.

Maintain the confidentiality of information. All reporters will cooperate fully with all ADHS, OLTC and/or law enforcement investigations but will not share information with others except the SPRC chair or pastor or their designees as may be appropriate. All inquiries should be directed to the designated church spokesperson to ensure respect for the investigation process and privacy of those involved.

VACATION POLICY FOR APPOINTED PERSONNEL

(Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference in June 2010)

It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is "vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out, we recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

- 1) Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1 - June 30).
 - a) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).
 - b) Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).
 - c) Those having served full time in the United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).
2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.
3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conference, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.
- 4) Full time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
- 5) The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
- 6) In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full time service, including student pastors and part time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.

- 7) Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
- 8) The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
- 9) The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Outdoor Ministries Committee

STANDARDS FOR CAMPING AND RETREAT CENTERS

(The following motion was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference)

We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the “Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers” adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee.

We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.

Salary Arrearage Policy

This Salary Arrearage Policy was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 22, 2014 as presented by the Equitable Compensation Commission.

This applies to all churches and all clergy receiving a salary from a local church.

This also includes those receiving equitable compensation funds.

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, or to remit to the Conference Treasurer full payment for regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, the church treasurer shall notify within twenty-four hours the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and the Lay Member of the Annual Conference of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall within 3 days notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall within 24 hours convene a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and Lay Member to Annual Conference to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:
 - a. drawing from invested funds,
 - b. an emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation,
 - c. emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

According to the Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The District Superintendent may invite the Commission to send a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue, so that the pastor receives full compensation by the end of the conference year.
4. If it is determined that the church is not able to provide the compensation package as voted at Charge Conference, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent Arkansas Conference 2013 JOURNAL 482 and request a consultation. Options for addressing the arrearage might include:
 - a. develop a payment plan so that the pastor will receive full compensation by the end of the conference year or
 - b. a change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.
 - c. requesting an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant for the remainder of the appointive year.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:
 - a. determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
 - b. examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
 - c. require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines. (www.gcfa.org)

The District Superintendent shall be notified of its findings and recommendations in writing.

6. If a local church becomes delinquent in the payment of the pastor's direct billed pension, health care and benefits (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the Conference Treasurer shall notify the Conference Benefits Officer, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The Superintendent will work with the CEC and the local church to develop a written payment plan with the local church so that the Conference receives full payment of pension and benefits by the end of the conference year.
7. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing appropriate documentation.
8. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (§342.4).

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

This year sure is different from last year.

Last year I was a ‘rookie’ bishop and you extended amazing grace; this year I’m a grizzled old veteran. Last year I had Karon Mann, our outstanding conference lay leader, standing by me to make me look good; this year I’m up here by myself. Last year you were waiting to hear where you are heading; this year you’re trying to figure out where this thing called the “‘Next Steps’ Trajectory” is really taking us.

But one thing is exactly the same as last year. I’m still in love with you. I’m still in awe of your faith. I’m still amazed by your creativity. I’m still inspired by your commitment. I’m still challenged by how you’re sharing Jesus’ love. I’m still blessed to be your bishop. And I still believe that the local church is the most important place where disciples are made.

Which makes my task today really pretty simple: I want to get you ready to go back home.

I know. I know. Annual Conference has just begun and I’m already talking about what’s going to happen when it’s over. But that’s the point. I want you to be ready to move full speed ahead in making your church such a faithful, passionate, excited, growing congregation that the only thing you can do is make disciples of Jesus Christ, who in turn make disciples, who are equipped to go out into the mission field right outside your sanctuary doors to transform lives, communities and the world.

So I’m going to share four important things that every one of you can do – every one of you – so that we can be a church moving full speed ahead. Now I want to tell you up front that you can do them. You really can. You are capable. You really are. And the Holy Spirit is going to be with you enabling you to do it. So get ready, there will be a test after I’m done. And here is what will happen when you go home and when you do these four things: You will be amazed at how God enables you to move faster than you ever thought possible, to do greater things than you ever imagined and to be on fire for the Lord.

Get real

The first thing that you need to do when you get back home is get real.

That’s right. You need to begin by getting real about how tough it is right now. And let’s just be honest, it’s plenty tough.

It's tough in our world. It seems that we're closer and closer to that proverbial tipping point when everything could just spin out of control. And, at the very time our crisis-riddled world needs the Good News of the Gospel more than ever, it seems that world is less receptive to faith than ever.

It's tough to be part of a mainline denomination. We don't hold a position of prestige the way we used to. We're declining, growing older and smaller. And, if that isn't tough enough, there's no mainline denomination that has successfully reversed its decline.

It's tough to be a United Methodist. We're struggling to be relevant. There's a new set of rules, but we're not sure what they are. And one issue – homosexuality – seems to keep overriding every other issue, putting stress and strain on our connection in unimaginable ways.

It's tough for some of you in this room right now. You've been hurt by 'the system.' By pastors. By laity. And perhaps even by me. And I am sorry. So sorry. Especially if I am responsible for that pain.

Now, none of this is new to you. It's not news because you experience how tough the world is, how tough it is to be in ministry every single day. And that's why we need to be very, very careful. Because while it's important to get real about how tough it is, if we're not careful, we're going to end up going down a road that takes us where we just don't want to go. Here's how it works: you go from expressing how you feel to whining, to gritching (that is a theological term), to feeling powerless, to acting like a victim, to experiencing chronic anxiety, to wanting to give up. And then, before you know it, you'll be just like those Israelites following Moses who formed a "Let's go back to Egypt" Committee. And, suddenly, you're not going to be ready to follow God into the future anymore, and the thing that is so frustrating about that is you'll feel self-righteous doing it.

That's why you have to get real about something that's a whole lot more real than just how tough, and discouraging, and difficult it is. You have to get real about our incredible Wesleyan heritage. You have to get real about a Holy Spirit inspired vision. You have to get real about a biblically grounded mission. You have to get real about our transformative trajectory. You have to get real about the great lay leaders we have here in Arkansas. You have to get real about the outstanding pastors we have here in Arkansas. And you have to get real about the future that God has planned for us.

But, most of all, you have get real about the fact that we have Jesus. The one who is our Savior, Lord, brother and friend. The one who has come from God to give us what we absolutely need, but can never get on our own. The one who is ready to lead us where he wants us to go.

Now you know and I know that it's not going to be easy. Because Jesus is leading us away from the past into the future. And that always means hard choices. And change. And doing things you've never done before. And that's when we start talking about how tough it is, and whining and gritching and caucusing about forming that Back to Egypt committee.

But, remember, Jesus is leading us. And when Jesus is leading us, we don't need to know where he's taking us. We don't have to be comfortable. And we don't have to agree with everything he does. We just have to do it. So remember, let's get real.

Let's get real about how tough it is. But more than anything else, let's get real about Jesus, and the real difference he makes in our lives.

Be different

When you get back home, you've got to be different.

Can I just talk with you honestly now? I get the feeling sometimes that we're kind of embarrassed to be Christian. It may be because there are lots of Christians who do embarrassing things. Not you, of course – Methodists in other Annual Conferences, to be sure. Sometimes you're afraid of becoming one of those 'holier than thou' types. And sometimes you think you'd rather be in control of your life than following Jesus.

Now, I get that, okay? I feel that way sometimes, too. But remember – you can't experience the salvation Jesus offers you without becoming a new creation in Christ!

So go ahead and claim the fact that you are different. You're not different because you're perfect, better than anyone else and loved more by God than everyone else. You're different because you're so passionately in love with Jesus that you are ready to follow him, to choose to be his disciple, to follow him and choose to live the way he calls you to live.

Yes, you're going to be different. In a world filled with too much selfishness, too much crime, too much greed, too much terrorism, too much violence, too much poverty, too much hatred and too much despair, you are going to live the Jesus way, with love, compassion, generosity and hope. Lots and lots and lots of hope.

Look, this isn't just nice-sounding rhetoric. It also works with real life issues. Even the most challenging issues we're facing as a church right now.

There's lots of talk these days about what the United Methodist Church is going to do about the issue of homosexuality, particularly same gender marriages. There's name calling coming from both sides, all kinds of solutions being put forward and lots of options being offered.

I've got news for you. Sex is not the only thing we talk about in the United Methodist Church.

We begin with Jesus. We continue with Jesus. And it's in the spirit of Jesus that we deal with real life issues in real life ways. And if we begin with Jesus and continue with Jesus, let me tell you, we're not going to divide just because we disagree. If we begin with Jesus and continue with Jesus, we're not going to let identities of left or right, red or blue and progressive or traditional determine what we do. We're not going to have winners and losers.

Why? Because you're different. We're different. We're sisters and brothers in Christ. You're one in the Body of Christ. You're the heart of Methodism. And even though we may not agree on everything, we know whose we are. And we're going to act like it.

If we talk about difficult issues in ways filled with love and honesty and respect, and we will trust that if we make that the main thing, we will be about the main thing, which will enable us to deal with all things.

Move into the community

When you get back home, it's time to move into the community.

I recently read a study – it was a fascinating article – and it said that the main reason traditional mainline denominations – aka United Methodist Church – are declining is that we have made it all about us and forgotten that it's about Jesus who goes out into the community and expects us to follow him.

So can I be honest with you? Really honest? Yeah, you sure? Okay.

I hear far more talk from pastors about what they don't like about their churches, how the appointive system has done them wrong or how they are not getting paid adequately than I do about their call to ministry, their passion for following Jesus or their joy in serving the Lord.

Are you ready, laity? I hear a lot more from you about 'my' church, or how all they want to do is wait until the pastor moves, or even "I just want my church to stay open long enough for my funeral to be held here and then I don't care what happens." Okay, is every toe in this room broken by now? I mean really? Come on! No wonder we're stuck, no wonder we're declining, no wonder we're not sure who we are!

It doesn't matter who you are, whether you are lay or clergy – being a Christian is a privilege, being a disciple of Jesus Christ is a privilege and being in ministry is a privilege. And we need to start acting like it. We need to spend far less time on ourselves and far more time moving into the community to share Jesus.

That's the whole point of the Next Steps Trajectory. So when you hear about district mission plans, mission field appointments, congregations looking more like their neighborhoods, every congregation having at least one more profession of faith, equipping laity and pastors, building strong African-American congregations and reaching the nones – you're really hearing about how we United Methodists in Arkansas are going to be intentional about moving into the community.

Are you tired – I'll admit I am – are you tired of the United Methodist Church being stuck, stuffy and slowly dying? Are you ready for our beloved church to be a movement again? Well we can be. We really can. And we can start right now by being moved by Jesus. You can't be a movement unless something moves you. And if we are moved by Jesus and follow him into the community, we will be sharing his life, his love, his joy, his hope, and his transforming power that will make a difference for all eternity.

Experience revival now

When you get back home, it's time to experience revival now.

Bet you didn't see that coming – it's a brand new thought for me, I know.

I recently was meeting with Launch Team #1 – the group working on Step #1: experiencing spiritual revival. Someone commented, "Church is the last place that you feel comfortable talking about your relationship with God and what God is doing in your life!" Everyone in that room – including me – said, "My gosh. That's true. It's sad, it's heartbreaking, but it's true."

Well, that's why we need revival.

Revival is not a three-night hellfire and brimstone preaching event every summer where you go, you get religion, and you go home and do whatever you want. Revival is not about someone having an emotional experience that mirrors your experience so you can feel good about yourself. Revival is certainly not about hiding in some spiritual 'la-la' land so you don't have to deal with real life pain and social justice.

Revival is about us getting ourselves out of the way and allowing the Holy Spirit to re-awaken us, re-new us, re-fill us, re-form us, re-direct us and re-energize us for what ultimately matters: the love of God in Jesus Christ. It's what happened to those disciples who were hiding in that upper room in Jerusalem after Jesus' ascension. They were trying to figure out 'What do we do next?' They were trying to figure out how not to be in trouble with the authorities. They were trying to figure out what they were going to do. And suddenly, suddenly, the Holy Spirit came, And with the sound of a rushing wind and tongues like fire, they were filled, and they proclaimed the Gospel so it was understandable to all of those around them. They were able to go proclaim the good news of the Gospel and thousands were converted. They were able to create a church that grew and changed the world.

You need revival – we need revival. You need it now – we need it now. And you need a lot of it – we need a lot of it.

In a couple of days, you're going back home. When you get there, you have to make a choice.

You can choose to gripe about how bad things are. You can continue to be who you've always been. You can make it all about you and your church. And you can watch the people for whom Jesus died continue to struggle from a distance.

Or...or... or... you can choose to focus on the most real thing of all - Jesus. Or you can choose to claim your identity as his disciple and be different. Or you can choose to move into the community and make disciples who make disciples who get on board with God's work. Or you can choose to call upon the Holy Spirit to revive us.

I know whose you are. I know who you are. I know what's in your heart. I know your dreams. And I know the incredible faith in what you are going to do when you get back home.

You are going to choose to move full speed ahead. God bless you, and Amen.

LAITY ADDRESS

Good morning! This is an exciting time in the Arkansas Conference. Lately I've been thinking about the last few years in our conference, and the work we've done that brought us to this point today. A few years ago we put together the Imagine Ministry team, then we adopted the Imagine Ministry proposal, worked on difficult transition changes, and last year we received a new bishop who has provided us with a 10 step mission plan. I love this mission plan, because each step contains specific directions that move us forward in fulfilling our mission of creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. Each of us can find our place in this plan, the place we are called to use our spiritual gifts and serve God.

We've worked hard to get to this time and place, but I firmly believe that our hardest work, our biggest challenge, lies ahead. The hardest work is going to be the challenge of self-examination, the willingness to look honestly and truthfully at ourselves, and ask ourselves some hard questions about who we are as Christians, who we are as members of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas, and examine our expectations for the future. Are we open to change, or are we comfortable with things the way they are?

Today I want to talk to laity about 4 of the steps in this mission plan, and hopefully start us thinking together about some of the hard questions. Let's look at two of the steps together:

Both of these steps involve how we are connected to our community. If we are serious about looking like our neighborhood and reaching the un-churched, we will have to have to be willing to examine ourselves, and look at how we behave – inside and outside the church walls, and ask ourselves, “what kind of representative of Christ am I?”

In his May 5 blog, Bishop Mueller wrote, “More and more people seem to have less and less need for God. It may be because our culture has given people permission to stop believing in God. Or human beings can now do so much that God seems irrelevant. Or even – and this is painful to admit – people of faith make it hard for others to believe because of the way we behave.”

As laity, we are in our community, at work, in school, conducting the business of life. We are the link between our church and our community.

In his book The Rise of the Nones, author James Emery White challenges us to confront an uncomfortable truth. He says that almost everybody who follows Christ, and almost every gathering of those Christ followers constituting a church says the same thing: “We want to reach the world for Christ.” Yet most don't do it and he asks, “where's the breakdown?” According to this author, the problem isn't with our strategy or with our theology, but rather the problem is with long term insiders, those leaders and members who seem to have given in to Christian consumerism, where the needs of the believer have become the center of attention.

Laity, these are painful words to hear because he's talking to us. He asks us to prayerfully reflect on our expectations of church, and asks if we want its programs and worship to serve us, or rather to serve those who have yet to enter the doors. If we determine we are an inward focused church can we change? The author says yes, but only if we look in the mirror and own the truth about ourselves.

I've been reading recently about characteristics of laypersons in what one writer calls "breakout churches." A breakout church is a vital church, one that is growing, touching lives and making a difference in its community. We would call them vital congregations. Lay people in breakout or vital churches are willing to face painful realities. They:

- Insist on having a clear awareness of the state of their church
- Insist that ministries with the community be evaluated regularly
- Attempt to discern the spiritual growth of their members.
- Regularly evaluate their successes and failures in reaching the unchurched.

It is easiest to stay in the comfort of denial, but vital churches have lay leaders who are willing to face the facts, no matter how painful they may be.

Successfully working in steps 5 and 10 will require step 7: Laity will be coached and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence in faith sharing, servant ministry, stewardship and using their spiritual gifts.

We may be called to develop skills or practices that we've not used much, but right now launch teams are in place for this and all steps in the mission plan, discerning how we will best learn and work together.

Yesterday in our laity orientation we met as districts to begin the discussion about what unleashing lay leadership means to us and our congregations. Later this summer and fall we will have laity meetings in each of our districts designed to talk about all of the steps in the mission plan.

What is the most important role of laity in this room? To be willing to model the behavior needed from lay persons in the Arkansas Conference. We need to be engaged lay persons looking for ways to serve; seeking ways to use our gifts and talents; open to and looking for God's will in our lives, and always praying about which ministries God wants us to serve in, because it is the ministries that matter.

Last March, Bishop Robert Schnase was the speaker at the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders meeting in Kansas City. The very first sentence he spoke to us, conference lay leaders from across the nation and around the world was, “Don’t let being a lay leader keep you from your ministry.” Being a leader in a congregation is a valuable use of our gifts, and there are many ministries to participate in inside our churches, but the ministry of Jesus Christ is outside the walls of our church. He was cautioning us against thinking the business of the church was the purpose of the church.

The churches, laity and pastors of the Annual Conference must experience spiritual revival.

Step 1 is the key to success for all of the other steps in the plan. Spiritual revival will be the catalyst for change that will lead us forward. It doesn’t mean that change will be easy...we may feel personal discomfort in this process, but I am convinced that discomfort will be the surest sign that Jesus Christ is at work in us, calling us toward new life and growth in faith. Rabbi Albert Lewis said, “Faith is about doing. Faith is about how you act, not just about how you believe.”

Faith in action is what creates transformation in us personally and in our world. I believe the United Methodist Church in Arkansas is the perfect place to live out this faith. When I joined this church 34 years ago, I found a place that I could connect with something greater than myself. I found a connection that reached around the world. The United Methodist Church is rooted in tradition, yet we are here today inspired to change, to try new things, to branch out in new directions and make a difference in our world. Together we can do this.

You each have a small party favor at your seat, a tiny pink toy mirror that can be put in a pocket or bag as a reminder to honestly look at ourselves as we implement change.

My prayer for us today is that we open our hearts to the Holy Spirit, so that the Spirit prepares our hearts for change and prepares our mission field for transformation. When we open ourselves up to the Holy Spirit, I believe that God can change us, our church and our community in ways we cannot imagine. It is only through the power of God that real and lasting change can take place. It is through the power of God that we can be a great church. Isn’t it a sin to just be good when God has called us to be great?

We can do this. We will become vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. And in the words of Bishop Mueller, that’s keeping the main thing the main thing. Amen.

THE ARKANSAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
BISHOP'S MISSION PLAN - "NEXT STEPS"

The Imagine Ministry Journey

When the Arkansas Annual Conference began the Imagine Ministry journey, you were reacting to a projected future characterized by financial unsustainability, decreasing membership and more and more churches focused primarily on survival instead of faithfulness. Thankfully, Phase One was short-lived as Imagine Ministry quickly moved into its next two phases.

Phase Two involved the Annual Conference adopting a mission, vision, and core measures (since revised in response to feedback from local congregations) that articulate the future you believe God envisions for Arkansan United Methodists.

Vision:

Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate love of God and neighbor, holy living, and justice.

Mission:

To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

Core Measures used to evaluate the deep change necessary to make disciples of Jesus Christ and transform the world:

1. We will be enriched by our Wesleyan heritage of Scriptural holiness so that we are connected by our mission of making disciples instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
2. We will establish the mission field as the primary focus of our attention and resources instead of directing the majority of our attention and resources to mere maintenance of congregations and clergy.

3. We will equip laity and clergy to transform individuals, communities and the world instead of trying to satisfy personal preferences of current members and ensure congregational preservation.
4. We will address the unique context of each mission field instead of depending on standardized programs and structures.

Phase Three began when significant changes in Annual Conference structure, alignment, staffing and budgets were implemented in order to re-direct resources toward fostering greater vitality in local congregations. This work is now underway, and will continue to unfold in the next several years under the leadership of the Extended Cabinet and the Executive Director of Mission and Ministry.

Since being assigned as your bishop, I have spent a great deal of time observing, asking questions, learning, consulting, reflecting and praying in order to answer the question, “What’s next?” It is now clear to me that we are ready for Phase Four of our journey together: embarking passionately and intentionally on a trajectory that focuses fully on the only place that actually can do what God is calling us to do: the local church.

Our Trajectory for the coming years:

Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

I believe the churches, laity and pastors of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas need to embrace the 10 “Next Steps” in order for us to move ahead on this trajectory God has charted for us. However, there are two important things to remember about these next steps. First, they have been shaped by the previous phases of the Imagine Ministry journey. Second, we will only be able to see the fruit of these next steps as we fully utilize the resources provided through the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership, the Center for Technology, and the Network for Discipleship and Mission.

Next Steps for the Arkansas Annual Conference

1. Experience Spiritual Revival The churches, laity and pastors of the Annual Conference must experience spiritual revival. We need to experience in deeper ways how Jesus' love is so unconditional he accepts us just the way we are, so transforming he is unwilling to leave us the way we are and so powerful he gives us what we absolutely need but can never get on our own – reconciliation with God, healing and a new way of living that is eternal in every sense of the word. This revival is foundational for everything we do, because we can only passionately share Jesus' love that brings healing, hope, justice and transformation in lives, communities and the world when we first have been transformed ourselves.
2. Tell the Story The Annual Conference will tell Phase Four of the Imagine Ministry story as it communicates how the 10 "Next Steps" are bearing fruit in local congregations. The Annual Conference will communicate intentionally, consistently and in a variety of ways the story of how local congregations are becoming vital in order to make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

Next Steps for District Superintendents

3. Broaden Disciple-Making through District Mission Plans District Superintendents will become skilled in developing District Mission Plans that align with the Bishop's Mission Plan. This is a major new role for District Superintendents. Often it will involve working with existing churches to reach out in mission to their community in new ways. Sometimes it will mean finding new ways to reach new people. But the goal is always the same: to create and develop vital congregations who are ready and willing to make new disciples in new mission fields.
4. Make Mission-Field Appointments The Appointive Cabinet will become proficient in making mission-field appointments. This may be one of our most challenging undertakings, because we have spent so much energy over the years trying to keep churches and pastors content rather than focusing primarily on the people outside our doors in the mission field surrounding every congregation. The Appointive Cabinet will need to work harder, smarter and more prayerfully to match the right pastor with the right gifts in the right mission field at the right time, instead of paying primary attention to salary, tenure and age.

Next Steps for Congregations

5. Look Like the Neighborhood More congregations will increasingly begin to look like their neighborhoods. A church's neighborhood is the heart and soul of its mission field. A church that looks like its neighborhood has taken the time to develop relationships with the people there, reach out in ways that make a real difference in their lives and begin being in ministry with - and not just to - them.
6. Grow By "1" More churches will continue to grow every year by at least one new adult profession of faith, at least one more person in worship, at least one additional small group and at least one more ministry that reaches into the mission field. Only 310 of our 683 churches had a profession of faith in 2012. Sadly, this statistic indicates a lack of vitality and readiness to face the mission field of too many churches in the Annual Conference. Every single church—regardless of its size—can be vital and reach its mission field with excellence and passion.

Next Step for Laity

7. Unleash Lay Leadership Laity will be coached and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence in faith sharing, servant ministry, stewardship and using their spiritual gifts. Disciples make other disciples. Increasing the number of new disciples who are equipped to contribute to the vitality of their congregations so they can make disciples who make disciples will enable churches to reach their mission fields with excellence and passion.

Next Step for Pastors

8. Grow Excellent and Passionate Clergy Pastors will be coached and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence as spiritual leaders through personal discipleship, preaching, evangelism, mission-field engagement, stewardship and equipping laity for ministry. Our clergy leaders must demonstrate these basic competencies if they are going to lead vital churches that successfully engage the mission field.

Launch Team: Bishop, Board of Ordained Ministry, the Center for Technology and the Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence in Leadership.

Next Step for the Arkansas Context

9. Create Vital African –American Congregations The Arkansas Annual Conference will create vital, self-sustaining and growing African-American churches. There are nearly 450,000 African-Americans in Arkansas, and only a handful of vital, self-sustaining and growing African-American United Methodist congregations. Strong churches must be developed in order to reach the mission field for which God has given us responsibility. This is not just an issue for African-Americans; it is vitally important for the entire Arkansas Annual Conference.

Next Step for a Changing Culture

10. Reach the “Nones” The churches of the Arkansas Annual Conference will connect with the previously churchd, de-churched and never churchd, especially the “nones.” Twenty percent of adults in America—including more than one-third of those under 30—identify themselves as religiously unaffiliated. Many of these “nones” consider themselves spiritual in some way, but reject traditional congregational life. Laity are in positions to build relationships and share Jesus’ love through local churches. Clergy need to be committed to training, nurturing and supporting laity in this work.

Taking the Next Steps

These next steps will take time, involve ongoing adaptive learning and send us on some unexpected detours, because there is never an easy shortcut to deep and lasting change. The rigors of this journey over the next several years, however, are worth it because it is Jesus himself who is inviting us to join him.

How will we move from theory to these 10 “Next Steps” becoming realities that move us along God’s trajectory for our future? First, the Extended Cabinet and I have convened Launch Teams to begin the work of each initiative. These Launch Teams will be responsible for the creation, development, implementation, review and re-calibration of the team’s plans, including involving more people in their work. Second, Launch Teams will be accountable to the Extended Cabinet. Third, the Center for Technology will provide regular updates concerning the progress of the 10 “Next Steps” and seek appropriate feedback.

What You Can Do

You can play an essential role in these 10 next steps as you join in fervent, sustained and corporate prayer; focus more on the future than the past; challenge your local church to reach out into your mission field; share your joy at being part of Jesus’ mission; and long for our church to become a Spirit-led movement again!

DISTRICT MISSION PLANS

Introduction

The 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church tasks district superintendents to be “chief missional strategists” of their respective districts (§419). One of their responsibilities is to view the district as a part of the conference’s mission field and develop strategies to fulfill the conference’s trajectory in that district: “Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.”

To accomplish this task, a clearly defined process has been developed that is both transparent and measurable. Each superintendent has developed a District Mission Plan that has been carefully crafted for the context of each district, to address the challenges and opportunities of that particular region. These District Mission Plans find their roots in the Arkansas Conference Vision, Mission, Core Measures and the trajectory of the Bishop's Mission Plan.

What follows are the results of that work to date. Over the next several months, each plan will be discussed in its district as a way of connecting mission expectations and local settings.

It should be noted that these are "living documents" that may change as the mission field changes, as progress is noticed or new initiatives present themselves. They will live because the Holy Spirit will guide superintendents and leaders into fruitful endeavors.

With trust that God guides us in our discernment and actions, these District Mission Plans are offered with the prayer: God make it so.....Amen.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT MISSION PLAN

Executive Summary

Purpose Statement

The District Mission Plan sets a trajectory for the Northeast District to align with the Bishop’s Mission Plan for the Arkansas Conference and give a landscape and larger connectional church vision for the churches within the Northeast District. Its purpose is to provide a comprehensive plan for the function of district leadership and committees, point to emerging demographic and cultural realities, and set measurable goals to make a noticeable impact on the churches and ministry efforts of the district.

Alignment

The purpose of the District Mission Plan (DMP) is to localize parts of the Bishop's Mission Plan (BMP) within the district where readiness and opportunity exist. The overall goal is to strengthen congregations, empower the local church, unleash the laity for greater service to Christ and to live in to the trajectory of the Arkansas Conference which is "creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world."

By building on available data, congregational reporting and narratives of revival, the district will understand a starting point from which to enter and parallel the trajectory of the Conference. Better communication and networking, helpful storytelling and resource sharing, peer learning processes and mentoring will be amplified by readiness and receptivity of clergy and laity to lead our churches in new ways.

The repurposing of the District Leadership Team (DLT) and sub-teams is action paramount to greater district health. The DLT will empower leadership to take on greater roles and responsibilities ensuring the DS has ample opportunity to focus on district mission strategy. The DLT will also become a reliable instrument for promoting the BMP and training lay leadership.

The DMP will approach strategic work through multiple branches of leadership and lay support working together. By strengthening the DS supervisory role and support functions, developing lay and clergy leadership, enhancing the role of the Circuit Elder, capitalizing on lay servant ministry, and repurposing and restructuring the District Leadership Team, the increased workload and representation for the management of the district will be dispersed.

The DS as district mission strategist will lead the work of the laity and clergy to develop new and intentional faith communities, strategic congregational configurations, and exciting cooperative and regional ministry models. With the help of the DLT, the district will review current district resources for age-level, cross-cultural, ethnic and specialized district programming for alignment with the DMP and BMP.

Four Key Questions

What are outcomes expected for the next 4 years?

- 1) Widespread spiritual revival and renewed enthusiasm, commitment to service, increase professions of faith. Measureable increases in the “Grow-by-1” categories of the Bishop’s Mission Plan (BMP #1 & #6).
- 2) Realignment of district resources.
- 3) Realignment of district leadership and delegation of training and equipping efforts for local congregations.
- 4) Increase cooperative parish and multi-site ministry models.
- 5) Tell stories of disciple making and transformation (BMP #2).
- 6) Enhance lay leadership and clergy development strategies (BMP #7 & #8).
- 7) Generate clear understanding and engagement with mission field.
- 8) Strengthen youth, children and young adult (ministry with the “nones,” BMP #10).
- 9) Work with 3-5 strategic churches each year to increasingly look like their neighborhoods and mission fields (BMP #5).
- 10) Proficient at mission field appointments and realizing longer tenures (BMP #4).

What are the opportunities in the Mission Field?

- 1) The large churches currently have strong potential to grow, even modestly. Churches in areas of population growth, such as Searcy, Jonesboro, and Paragould will see opportunities to lead as teaching churches or enter into new regional ministry models. Churches large enough to consider cooperative parish or multi-campus ministry will be encouraged to do so.

- 2) Some medium size churches have the right leadership in place to work diligently toward growth and vitality. Some churches have been identified as strategic that will require leadership changes in time.
- 3) The Wayland Spring camp could prove to be a draw for specific use by out of state work groups if a new board or conference initiative is embraced. Mount Eagle Retreat Center will continue to expand opportunities within the conference and district for vital ministry experiences.
- 4) District Youth Ministry is currently motivated to bring district youth together in powerful ways. Effort to bridge the gap between youth and young adult ministry is a commonly referred to need, though few churches have direction or resources. This shall be an area of focus.
- 5) The District Leadership Team and Administrators are learning to see the future needs of the district. Reorganizing the DLT will undergird existing district functions as well as amplify and elevate lay training and church/ministry resource potential.

Where is there readiness in the clergy and congregations in 2014?

- 1) Jonesboro FUMC is quickly directing ministry to be inclusive, cross-cultural and laity led. They will need to become proficient at multi-site ministry and oversight.
- 2) Batesville FUMC is approaching a new vision and process to be a community center and open doors to non-profit agencies.
- 3) Heber Springs UMC is growing and leadership is looking to expand.
- 4) Mountain Home FUMC is growing and will be strategic for regional growth.
- 5) Paragould FUMC is regrouping and strengthening. Their leadership will be instrumental in revitalizing the connection in Greene County.
- 6) Smaller churches in the Paragould area will be asked to enter a cooperative parish ministry model unique to that context for strategic growth.
- 7) Hazel Edwards UMC in Newark is eager to use their endowment for new ministry and outreach in Newark. Unlimited potential exists to build on a thrift store funded food bank within their charge with Oil Trough UMC and throughout the region.

- 8) Hardy UMC is ready for strong leadership and to become a vital congregation again.
- 9) Several mid-size churches are doing their best to be in mission and embracing their neighborhood context, some have congregational coaches. Need to follow-up and grow from their learnings and experiences.
- 10) An increasing number of small membership churches are seeking conversation with a congregational coach. Small churches are making big differences in their neighborhoods and communities.

How will the story be communicated to the district and conference?

- 1) Train pastors and S/PRC committees to identify and share stories of transformation by asking the right questions and communicating internally in the congregation.
- 2) Promote involvement with the Network of Discipleship and Mission.
- 3) Create a dynamic and interactive district website through the conference.
- 4) Provide updated revised email newsletter with stories of transformation and descriptions of district mission plan.
- 5) Train the district leadership team to be advocates for the district, vital congregations and the district mission and Bishop's mission plans.

SOUTHEAST DISTRICT MISSION PLANExecutive Summary*Purpose Statement

The mission plan of the Southeast District is to assess, analyze, and plan the mission field focus of the churches in the district. This mission field focus is developed through dialogue, visioning, and intentional mission and ministry to diverse communities. Creating cooperation across county lines to make disciples of Jesus Christ in our corner of the world.

Alignment

The Southeast district is vital to work of developing congregations who make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples who transforms lives communities, and the world. The southeast district is in a unique context for ministry. The District Mission Plan is an extension of the Bishop's Mission Plan for southeast Arkansas. Our mission field is mostly rural, with population decline in many of our larger cities, and churches that are experiencing a decline in worship attendance as well. Instead of allowing these facts to look making the churches look inward. The purpose of the southeast district is to equip congregations to better understand and engage their communities.

With the mission field looking for different from the congregation, we must do ministry in such a way to bridge the gap. When we explore the context of southeast Arkansas, the churches in the district are placed in situation that their world looks different from their church. There are many differences in the community but a common need to overcome both spiritual and physical poverty.

In response to this poverty, the southeast district is committed to begin the process of mission field assessment in various key counties. We will explore the greatest needs of the community to greater see how congregations function in their mission field. We are already blessed to have some churches that are doing this work. This is a model for seeing what can be done in various contexts.

In addition, we have to address what it would look like if the congregations look more like their mission field. How do we help our churches look at their neighbors as fellow disciples? It begins with dialogue around the table, and then a clear concise plan of action to address the greatest needs. For example, a congregation sees the state of its youth as the greatest issue in their community. The district could assist them in working with the schools and other community organization to establish a ministry with those who need it the most.

The role is clergy leadership development is key to this process. All appointed clergy should see this work as vital and important. Clergy should see their work in partnership with the laity of their congregation. This is vital to DMP to create opportunities for the church partnership and not "turf" battles. Wesley foundations are key to being "mission hubs" for young adults to have a lived out discipleship that is vital to that generation. In addition, DMP explores possibilities for church for cross-racial appointments to better address their mission field. Lastly, this plan shall create dialogue about southeast Arkansas as an opportunity.

Four Key Questions

What are the opportunities in the Mission Field?

1. There are congregations in the district who already have created ecumenical partnerships in their particular county.
2. Some congregations in the Southeast District have large endowments and are using them to serve their mission field, e.g., First Pine Bluff's relationship with the Boys and Girls Club of Jackson County; Lakeside Pine Bluff with Mi Casa ministries; and West Memphis with the ministry at the Rosewood campus.
3. In the midst of a racially divided nation, we have a chance as the church to lead people in our district to greater engagement in diverse community.

Where is there readiness in the clergy and congregations?

1. In Forrest City, for example, there was a readiness for discussion with the regional mission coordinator. From this discussion has emerged a readiness to create a partnership in the former Victory church building. Rev. Bill Buchanan has already started the mission field discussion in this new appointment.
2. Rev. Cleifton Vaughn, Grand Avenue Stuttgart, has made it a goal to have one profession of faith every month this year. That is above the requirement for the Annual Conference. In addition, the ministry of both Stuttgart churches are shared and celebrated in both locations.
3. David Mosley and Michelle Morris, West Memphis- First, has created a mission center at their Rosewood UMC campus. They work with a local public school through their women's bible study lead by Michelle. David has been discussion of ministry to the larger community and improving facilities for community groups.

What are the outcomes for the next four years?

1. There are congregations in the district who already have created ecumenical partnerships in their particular county.
2. Some congregations in the Southeast District have large endowments and are using them to serve their mission field, e.g., First Pine Bluff's relationship with the Boys and Girls Club of Jackson County; Lakeside Pine Bluff with Mi Casa ministries; and West Memphis with the ministry at the Rosewood campus.

3. In the midst of a racially divided nation, we have a chance as the church to lead people in our district to greater engagement in diverse community.
4. All churches in the district have serious discussion about the ministry context. Particularly churches that are in charges explore how the churches
5. We have churches that are in partnership with surrounding communities to offer service to address the physical poverty of the mission field.
6. Churches are more welcoming and have an atmosphere of acceptance.
7. Wesley foundations, camps, and church community workers understand their connection to the work of the district.
8. Pastors intentionally participate in the work of the district with excellence and passion.
9. 12 churches within the Southeast district will increase by one person in worship attendance, professions of faith, mission to their mission field, and small group study.
10. We will spend some time during district events with full time and part time clergy to train and discuss plans to assist congregations with radical hospitality and various forms of mission field engagement in order to help congregation to look more like their mission field.

How will the story be communicated to the district and conference?

1. I will establish county-wide conversations about the Bishop's Mission Plan.
2. The district office will better use social media to communicate Conference activities.
3. The use of videos conference calls and video chat will connect circuit elders and district laity for further conversation.
4. The Network for Discipleship and Mission will be introduced to pastors as a resource for future ministry and connection.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The purpose of the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History is to promote and care for the historical interest of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas, as outlined in the Book of Discipline.

This commission coordinates and oversees the Archives of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, located on the Hendrix College campus; the United Methodist Historical Society of Arkansas; and the United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference, recently re-opened in First United Methodist Church, Little Rock. Our mission is "to make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion." We embrace the four core measures in our work and use them as reference points for ongoing evaluation.

Rooting all we do in our understanding of Scripture and personal and social holiness (the foundational principles of United Methodism) so that we revitalize our connection and our ministry...

We collect, preserve, maintain, and share historical and one-of-a-kind documents and memorabilia relating to what is now the United Methodist Church in Arkansas. Our files and displays about clergy, laity, local churches, institutions, committees, and ministries tell and retell the old, old story of Jesus and his love. This story is grounded in Scripture, is informed by Christian tradition, comes to life through personal experience, and is tested by reason.

Certainly, our ministry of memory revitalizes our connection and our ministry as illustrated by the following account. After doing research on church projects in Hawaii, an Arkansas family vacationed in Honolulu and attended a United Methodist church there.

They met the pastor, a gifted clergywoman, born in Japan and educated at Hiroshima Jogakuin University, a Methodist-related institution and one of the first to educate women in Japan. However, not only had the pastor graduated from this college, but the founder of this church in Honolulu had worked at this school years earlier. Immediately, there was a connection...across the miles and over many years. For, Hiroshima Jogakuin was a place the Arkansas family knew, too. They had heard stories about this college in Japan. They had read letters written by its faculty and friends. Their mother/grandmother had been a missionary teacher at Hiroshima Jogakuin shortly before World War II, with its terrible bombing of the city and the destruction of campus buildings. Now there in Hawaii, two families, living half way around the world from each other, recognized their shared heritage and that, indeed, they were sisters and brothers in Christ.

Establishing the mission field as the primary place for our attention and resources...

Our founder, John Wesley, said, "I look upon all the world as my parish... my bounden duty [is] to declare unto all that are willing to hear the glad tidings of salvation." Hence, anyone who is interested in the history of the United Methodist Church and its antecedents is welcome to participate in the activities of the UM Historical Society of Arkansas, visit the UM Museum of the Arkansas Conference, and use the resources at the Archives of the Arkansas Conference of the UMC. The services of the Archives are available free of charge to those who seek information pertaining to the people called Methodists in Arkansas. Some requests are simple, such as confirming for a genealogist that a family member was a pastor. Some require thirty or more hours of research, such as when a church is celebrating its 150th anniversary and wants a list and pictures of all its pastors and district superintendents over the years.

Our two archivists are paid for a few hours contract work per week, but they often give many more hours of their time helping people locate the information they need. This ministry gives the archivists opportunities to interact with lay and clergy leadership across the conference and to network with historians at Philander Smith College and Hendrix College around Arkansas, and across the United States and the world. It also fosters good will, and researchers frequently donate valuable documents and memorabilia to the Archives and to the Museum as an expression of their appreciation and out of their desire to be in ministry to others.

Equipping laity and clergy for shared outcomes of transformation with excellence...

Throughout the year activities of the Commission support laity and clergy in their efforts for shared outcomes of transformation with excellence. Some pastors bring their confirmation classes to visit the Museum to give confirmands a glimpse of their Methodist heritage. At sessions of Annual Conference attendees may view a display prepared by the archivists and the museum curator, and attendees may obtain information about resources at the Archives, the Museum, and the Society. Also, each year the Conference Journal includes a Historical Section dealing with some aspect of church history in Arkansas. These special articles have focused on such varied topics as clergywomen who served in Arkansas, annual conference sessions related to the Arkansas Territory and various Methodist groups in the state over two hundred years, recent photographs of United Methodist churches in a particular section of the state, and a pictorial display of important events in Arkansas Methodism.

The Commission also supports the efforts of the Archives to digitize the Arkansas Methodist/Arkansas United Methodist newspaper from 1884-2007, to complement the current issues now available on the Arkansas Conference website. This newspaper records a long and important history of the Lord's work among the people called Methodists in our state. Today the old print papers are yellow, fragile, and brittle, and there is only one nearly complete set available. This project to scan approximately 81,000 pages of this newspaper will help preserve this valuable resource for future generations, and it will make the contents readily accessible to any pastor, congregation, researcher, or archive with an internet connection anywhere in the world. Furthermore, the recent Arkansas Conference Initiative, to become the most technologically advanced conference in Methodism, inspires the Commission and the archivists to go forward with this project. In all our preservation efforts, we explore various technologies and try to be good stewards of God's gifts as we tell His story now and record it for future generations.

Organizing our ministry around the unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic context in our designated mission fields...

Our ministry of memory is organized around the unique geographic, cultural, demographic, and ethnic context of our mission fields, and we make every effort to be inclusive. For instance, in recent years the United Methodist Historical Society of Arkansas annual meeting program has featured the history of the United Methodist Social Creed, Philander Smith College, and Methodists in the Old Washington area of Arkansas.

Last spring the featured speaker, the Rev. George Hankins-Hull, Director of Chaplaincy at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences and a native of Northern Ireland, entertained his audience with his Irish wit and wisdom, and he challenged his fellow travelers to remember their history and heritage as they try to make life better for themselves and for others. For the annual meeting this spring, the Society has invited

Reverend Fred Day, Senior Pastor, and Ms. Donna Miller, Curator, from Philadelphia's Historic St. George United Methodist Church, housed in America's oldest Methodist church building in continuous service. Its museum contains the most extensive collection of Wesleyan artifacts in this country. But more than a shrine to the past, the mission and ministry of this church is part of the resurgent community life of its neighborhood in Old Philadelphia. In addition to speaking at the annual meeting, Rev. Day plans to visit our Archives and our Museum and provide consulting services toward improving our ministries in Arkansas.

Also, the Society newsletter, Occasional Papers, mailed twice a year to nearly two hundred members, has articles on various subjects by many different authors, and the editor welcomes suggestions for future articles. A single issue might include a brief history of a local church, an excerpt from a Wesley diary, a Mystery Church Identity feature, and announcements of events of the Society, the Museum, and the Archives.

On the 125th anniversary of Methodist deaconesses, a recent issue of the newsletter profiled the life of Iris Bell Hightower, a deaconess from Iowa who has now lived and served in Arkansas for over fifty years.

The ministry of the Commission not only focuses on stories of historical interest, but it also collects stories on present issues for future generations. It also collects and preserves records of abandoned and discontinued United Methodist churches. It strives to tell stories of faith and grace as one of God's witnesses among diverse communities across Arkansas and beyond.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS

HEALTH INSURANCE BENEFITS

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is a board consisting of 15 elected members, per the Book of Discipline structure for the required Board of Pensions (1/3 clergy, 1/3 lay women, 1/3 lay men). Members with expertise in pensions and insurance shall be included for membership. One purpose of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is to administer a Comprehensive Health Insurance Program, selected by the Annual Conference, for active and retired clergy of the Annual Conference, along with full-time lay employees of the UMC. All of the actions taken by the Board are subject to review and revision by the Annual Conference.

The Arkansas Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is also charged with the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of the clergy and their families, other church workers, and lay employees of the UMC, its institutions, organizations, and agencies within the Annual Conference, except as otherwise provided for by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The board works closely with the General Board of Pension of The UMC which provides excellent counsel, interpretation and guidance in our pension program.

The cost of health care is a troublesome issue for our conference. To do nothing is to risk our ability to deliver benefits in the future the committee is taking several pro-active measures to increase the health of our clergy families and slow down the increasing costs of our health care program.

We seek to:

- offer the best benefits to pastors and their families
- help our pastors and their families to optimize their health
- contain healthcare costs

In 2013 the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will contract with Stephens Insurance, an independent consulting firm, to review our current health insurance Plan for best practices and sustainability. The cost will be paid through a grant provided by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, and the board.

Insurance Proposals for 2014 Annual Conference

The Conference's self-insured insurance plan originated out of the necessity to provide health insurance for itinerate pastors and their families regardless of any pre-existing conditions. At that time it was the most inexpensive option with acceptable coverage.

Churches were allowed to lower the clergy salary by an amount equal to the church's portion of the premium. Today the premium cost for a clergy family is nearly $21,000. The downside of being self-insured is the overall liability it creates for the Conference and Churches, both now and into the future.

We hired an insurance consultant in 2012 with the help of the Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. They found that our current plan is unsustainable.

The Affordable Care Act prohibits insurance companies from denying health insurance coverage based on pre-existing conditions. The availability of the Health Insurance Exchanges means that most people will have access to health coverage at lower rates than our current group plan.

After much prayer and consultation 3 proposals were presented and approved by the 2014 annual conference.

Proposal # 1 Remove Retired Medicare-Eligible Clergy from the Conference Plan by Dec. 31st, 2014.

Options for Medicare eligible participants have a proven track record and we feel comfortable recommending a change in 2015.

Our Conference Benefits Office will assist them with making wise choices. Retired clergy and spouses not yet eligible for Medicare may remain in the Conference Plan while it exists or shop the market for a plan that best suits their circumstances. The same maximum premium gift as those with Medicare will be provided.

Premium Gifts Allocation under this Proposal:

- To be eligible to receive a premium gift, retiring clergy must have served in the denomination full time for at least 10 years. The five years prior to retirement must be served in the Arkansas Annual Conference and in our insurance plan.
- The gift will be a fixed dollar amount based on the maximum premium gift (MPG), no longer based on a percentage of the actual premium. Years of service will determine the amount of the gift.

- Clergy who are married at the time of retirement will be given a supplemental gift to assist that spouse while they are married. If clergy remarry while in retirement the spouse supplement does not continue nor transfer. If the spouse outlives the participant, the spouse supplement will continue unless remarried.

In 2015, the monthly maximum premium gift (MPG) will be:

- $200 for retired clergy.
 - $150 to cover an eligible spouse.
 - The first ten years of service will accrue at 2% of the MPG per year:
 - Clergy: 2% of $200 MPG = $4.00
 - Spouse: 2% of $150 MPG = $3.00
 - The next 20 years of service will accrue at
 - Clergy: 3.5% of MPG = $7.00
 - Spouse: 3.5% of MPG = $5.25
 - The remaining ten years of service will accrue at
 - Clergy: 1% of MPG = $2.00
 - Spouse: 1% of MPG = $1.50
- (Additional years of service above 40 will have no effect on the premium gift.)
- Each year the annual conference shall approve the Maximum Premium Gift amount for the coming year.

Rationale: Currently it costs $8,112 per year for a retired clergy couple on Medicare to participate in our conference plan. Our long time retiree couples with 40 years of service currently must pay 10% ($811) of the premium. Our more recent retirees must pay at least 20% ($1,622) of the premium. Those with few service years may pay up to the entire $8,112 premium!

We want the conference to consider a win-win-win for all involved. Medicare Plan F is ideal as a supplement for the medical portion of Medicare Part A&B. The premium for the same retiree couple under Medicare Plan F is less than $3,500. Plan F covers most, if not all, deductibles, co-payments and co-insurance. You have the freedom to choose any doctor who accepts Medicare; receive free membership in SilverSneakers Fitness Program, wellness benefits and vision care coverage. Plan F by itself does not cover prescription drugs. A good drug supplement costs on average around $960 per retiree couple per year. For around $4,500 per year, a retiree couple could have comparable or better benefits by using Medicare Part F and a drug supplement plan. This is compared to the conference plan of up to $8,112 per year. The difference in premium cost is over $3,500 per year with no known difference in quality.

The retiree will pay less out of pocket expenses with equal or better care, a win for the retiree. The conference will reduce its future liability by no longer having retirees in a conference plan, although still caring for them, a win for the conference. The conference budget will need fewer dollars to provide for the premium gifts to retirees. The shared ministry apportionment to the local churches will be reduced, a win for the local church!

* The actual cost of Medicare Plan F varies slightly from county to county.

Proposal #2: Offer a dependent waiver effective July 1, 2014

Spouses and dependents who have access to employer provided health insurance, are Medicare eligible, or wish to pursue other insurance options on the open market may make written request to opt out of conference insurance.

In order to receive a waiver the clergy must;

1. Submit a written request* to the church SPR committee for approval.
2. Send a copy of the written request which has been signed by the spouse/dependent, the clergy, and SPR chair, Treasurer and Finance Chair to the District Superintendent and to the conference benefit office within 30 days of the requested change date. The request should include any salary or compensation changes.

*Waiver of Spouse/Dependents Participation- Conference Healthcare Form will be available

Rationale: Spouses and children were originally in the plan for two reasons. First, we wanted to make sure the entire family was provided for, not just the pastor. Second, we needed to maintain a critical mass of participants to ensure the solvency of the conference plan. Spouses and dependents helped make this possible. Now that we are trying to move out of the health insurance business, we recommend easing the requirement during the interim for the inclusion of family.

It is not unusual for a spouse to have employment that also offers medical insurance for the employee and children. The insurance provided by the employer may be at a more desirable rate than our conference plan. While the conference must keep the clergy in our plan to remain solvent, there may be times when it is in the best interest of both the pastor's spouse and the local church to take advantage of the spouse's optional coverage. We recommend that the local church reimburse the clergy for the spouse's and dependent(s)' premium cost.

Proposal # 3 Have the Board of Pension and Health Benefits bring to the 2015 Annual Conference a process to discontinue the conference self-insured medical plan as of 12/31/2015.

This shall include:

- A provision requiring that churches make budget adjustments to move approximately $12,000, an amount subject to change depending on insurance marketplace rates, from the conference insurance premium line item to the compensation of the full-time clergy position. An adjustment which will allow clergy to purchase insurance;
- A clarification of what role, if any, the conference benefits office will play in assisting clergy to find an appropriate plan;
- A clear understanding of where leftover reserve funds, if any, will be directed after all claims against the self-insured plan have been paid.

The reasons the committee is not recommending that it be discontinued for active clergy immediately are:

- The lack of a track record with the new Exchange Program. While the committee was wrestling with the decision, the government plan was facing controversy and well publicized glitches. The extra year should allow more confidence that the proposal is a viable option for all involved.
- The need to determine an appropriate method for churches to transfer a portion from funds previously budgeted as conference premiums to compensation so clergy can purchase their own.
 1. Arkansas Churches served by full-time Elders in full Connection, Associate, Provisional Members, and Local Pastors of the Conference under regular Arkansas appointment are mandated to provide 100% of the Conference Employer Health Insurance Plan premium for the clergy, the exceptions are; clergy with military health insurance or seminary student insurance. All full-time employees of the Conference Office shall participate in the Health Benefits Program of the Arkansas Conference. Spouses and dependents who have access to employer provided health insurance, or are Medicare eligible may make written request to opt out of conference insurance.

- a. The Program is open for full-time lay staff (working at least 30 hrs. per week), Probationers, Student Local Pastors, Full Deacons, Diaconal Ministers, Full Members serving less than full-time appointment or employment and eligible dependents. Participation is optional. It is their responsibility to make necessary arrangements to enroll and will be responsible for the total premium.
- b. A participant must enroll in writing with the Office of Pension and Health Benefits within 30 days of the eligibility date. The eligibility date is the date of first appointment or employment, business date of Annual Conference, or the first day following an employee waiting period. Employees who do not enroll within the eligibility period must wait until Open Enrollment (October 1).
- c. Clergy on Incapacity Leave receiving CPP Disability benefits that become eligible for Medicare Disability are required to enroll in Medicare parts A & B at your own cost. The Arkansas Board of Pension and Health Benefits will provide the full cost of your conference health insurance premium while you are receiving CPP disability benefits. CoreSource, Little Rock remains the primary carrier. The Stop-Loss benefit will not apply so that Medicare pays a portion.
- d. The Conference Benefit Officer will verify clergy eligibility with the district office. The eligibility of any full-time lay employee of a church is verified with the senior pastor. The Church will be billed 100% of the premium, however they may require the lay employee to pay all or a portion of the premium. The church accepts responsibility for the premium and any unpaid premium is the responsibility of the church.
- e. In order to be in HIPPA compliance, there is a thirty (30) day OPEN ENROLLMENT period each September. Insurance benefits are effective OCTOBER 1ST.

The following procedure will continue to be used in conjunction with collecting premiums;

1. In 2015 insurance premiums will be billed quarterly to the lead church. The premium is due before the end of the quarter. All participants are responsible for seeing that the total premium is paid within the quarter. Please mail payments to the Health Trust lock-box at Simmons National Bank. Checks should be made out to: The Arkansas Conference, P.O. 9477 Pine Bluff 71611-9477.
2. The board shall use the following measures when premiums are not received on time:
 - a. A second notice is sent to the Church 14 days after the due date, with a copy sent to the district. A third notice will be sent to the Church and Cabinet Representative 7 days after the second notice with a possible termination date clearly stated.
 - b. After the third notice has been sent, and no response has been made, the participant may be terminated from the plan and the Cabinet Representative notified. [Note: No participant will ever be terminated from the plan until personal contact has been made from the board.] Premiums must be received before the termination date. Premiums received after termination will be returned to the church. If coverage is terminated, re-enrollment will not take place until open-enrollment.
3. Participants in the Insurance Plan whose appointment/employment is terminated may elect extension of coverage (COBRA) for up to eighteen months provided that:
 - a. The participant makes a written request to CoreSource, Inc. – Little Rock POB 8215-Little Rock. 72221
 - b. The participant makes total COBRA premiums in a timely fashion direct to CoreSource, Little Rock.

Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits partnered with The Board of Ordained Ministry to bring active clergy families the Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program. Beginning January 1, 2012, this program will provide free, confidential short-term counseling to clergy and all members of your clergy household.

The Methodist Healthcare EAP has been a leader in the Memphis community for over 25 years. We are pleased to offer this service now to our clergy and their families. EAP can help with many of life's challenges such as family issues, marital concerns, alcohol and drug abuse, anxiety, depression, major life events, grief, work concerns and managing the stress of everyday life. The program offers 6 counseling sessions to you and members of your household, free of charge. It is paid for by the Arkansas Conference. You will not need to pay co-pay.

In most cases, short-term counseling is all the help you'll need. However, if a referral outside the EAP is necessary, the EAP counselor will seek the best resources for your situation. Counseling outside the EAP will require use of insurance or self-pay. Use of the EAP and issues discussed in all sessions are held in strict confidence. Rest assured that your private health information remains confidential and can only be released outside the EAP with your written consent or when required by law such as in life threatening situations or child/elder abuse.

All Arkansas Conference clergy; whether full time, part time, retired or disabled as well as members of your household are eligible to participate. People who live within 50 miles of the two EAP offices in Memphis will use that resource. For all others, there are affiliate counselors throughout Arkansas to serve you and your family. For more information about the Methodist Healthcare EAP, please visit their website at www.methodist-teapcanhelp.org and review the brochure enclosed in this announcement. To access the program, simply call their toll free number 1-800-880-5658 to schedule an appointment. Look for more information from the Methodist Healthcare EAP throughout the year via a monthly newsletter and at Annual Conference.

PENSION BENEFITS

All eligible full-time clergy who are under Episcopal appointment in the conference shall enroll in the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). Members of another denomination may make written request to waive out of the pension program CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014 clergy serving less than full-time are not eligible to participate in the mandated pension program CRSP. The board of pension and health benefits recommends that churches may provide a pension contribution to the United Methodist Personal Pension Plan (UMPIP).

Beginning in January 2014, if you are a CRSP participant, you must contribute a minimum of 1% of your plan compensation which includes housing to UMPIP to prevent a reduction in contributions to your CRSP Defined Contribution (DC) account.

Enrollment is the responsibility of the participant and must be done no later than 30 days from the eligibility date. Enrollment forms must be sent to Conference Benefits Officer, Mona Williams, at the Office of Finance and Administration, P.O.B. 3611 Little Rock 72203-3611. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommend that:

1. PSR- 2015 Past Service Rate is $577.00.
2. The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) ended December 31, 2006. The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) began January 1, 2007 and is made up of

2 components, a defined benefit and defined contribution. The calculations under CRSP are:

- a. The monthly DB calculation is 9% of Plan compensation.
- b. The 2015 DC benefit is 2% non-matching contribution and 1% matching of actual plan compensation (includes housing).
3. The contributions to the death and disability plan Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) for eligible full-time appointed clergy is 3% of plan compensation up to 200% of the DAC.
4. Clergy retirement & welfare benefits are paid by a combination of direct bill and apportionments. The 2014 formula is 50%/50%. In 2015 the formula changes to 75% direct bill and 25% apportioned.
5. Surviving spouses eligible for spousal benefits will receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.
6. Allowance grants and local expenses of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits are paid by the Conference Treasurer, subject to the approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and the 2012 Book of Discipline.
7. The institution, board or organization paying the salary of a minister on special appointment without annuity claim on the conference shall make provision for the pension of such person. Attention is called to ¶1506.5 in the 2012 Book of Discipline, regarding eligibility to participate in CRSP and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). In order to provide adequately for the active pension program (current and past funding) the churches shall pay as apportioned for 2014 $2,548,572.50 and health insurance for disabled clergy receiving CPP benefits the churches shall pay as apportioned for 2014 an amount totaling $300,000.00. 2014 Health insurance premiums for retirees shall be apportioned for $1,449,000.00.
8. Each agency and institution served by a ministerial member under special appointment with annuity claim on the conference an amount equal to 16.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) and is included in the total apportionments.
9. We remind all pastors and local churches of ¶639.4 in the 2012 Book of Discipline, which sets forth the requirement that payments on the pension and benefit program of the conference be in exact proportion to payments made on the salary or salaries of the ordained minister or clergy serving it. ¶638.4d requires the local church treasurer and/or pastor to adjust the cash salary and payment to be in the same proportion as the amount paid to the pension and benefit program of the conference. ¶639.4d adds that it shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.

10. ¶639.4 of the 2012 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults of the churches of the conference in paying the pension and benefit apportionment in full. The board is further required to render annually to each church that is in default a statement of the amounts in default for that and preceding years. According to our Conference Treasurer, in 2013 the following churches were in default by the following amounts:

Arkansas Annual Conference Funding Plan for the Clergy Retirement Security Program as of January 2014

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to the General Board of Pension and Health benefits for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB). This summary document is only a portion of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan. As such, it might not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the benefit obligations of the conference. You may request the full contents of the 2015 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

Following is the summary of the Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (CBFP) that received a favorable written opinion from GBOPHB for the 2015 conference benefit obligations:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Benefit Contribution (DC)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement portfolio. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which replaced the Pre-82 for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by annual conferences. The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2013 is $923.7 million, while total plan assets are $978.5 million resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 106%.

The Arkansas Conference portion of the liability is 1.91% and the 2015 contribution is $1,617,339. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by: Both (DB & App'ts). Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three-quarter and/or half-time clergy. The Arkansas Annual Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 100% under CRSP effective January 1, 2015.

Effective January 1, 2014 CRSP-DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non-matching contribution. Clergy will have the opportunity to earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP, therefore if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3%, which is unchanged from 2013 and prior. The 2013 CRSP-DC contribution was $606,613 and was funded by: 75% Direct Bill, 25% Apportionment. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 4.00%, due to: 3% of actual plan compensation for clergy serving full-time.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Plan Overview: The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provides clergy with a pension for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. Effective January 1, 2014, exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when it is to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or IRA, or paid in a lump sum.

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2013 is $2.7 billion, while total plan assets are $3.0 billion resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 109% and no required contribution for 2015. The Arkansas Conference's portion of the total liability is 1.35%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.4 billion and the Arkansas Conference's portion of that balance is $67.98 million or 1.55% of the total.

Pre-1982 Plan

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. When participants enter a Retired relationship with your Conference, and does not terminate, the minimum benefit payable to them is based on two factors: 1) years of Service with pension credit and 2) Conference pension rate. Years of Service with pension credit are approved by each Conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline. The pension rate, also called the past service rate (PSR), is the dollar amount chosen by the Conference as the amount payable for each approved year of Service with pension credit.

Typically, the pension rate changes from year to year. The number of years of Service with pension credit is multiplied by the PSR, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan, may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit. At that point the participants benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. As the conference increases the PSR, the participants benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM based benefit does not change.

The 2015 Past Service Rate (PSR) recommended to the Arkansas Annual Conference will be $577.00 representing a .00% increase from the 2014 rate. The conference expects future increases to be approximately .00%, which is based on: The Conference intends to hold the PSR flat until Pre-82 plan is fully funded.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to (remain/increase/decrease) at the 75% level.

Based on the final actuarial valuations from the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits as of January 1, 2013 for 2015, the portion of the Pre-82 liability attributable to the Arkansas Conference and funded status is, as of 1/1/2013, as follows:

Funding Plan Liability	$27,025,191
Assets in the Plan	$22,376,441
Funded status represented by a 83% funded ratio	$(4,648,750)
Funded Status as of 12/31/2014	$(3,862,892)

The funded ratio is recalculated each year based on economic and demographic changes. This change creates the possibility that Pre-82 contributions may be required at a future date (even after 2021).

(If appropriate) In addition to the assets in the Plan it is anticipated that amount will be funded through the following funding sources:

Non plan assets designated for retiring Pre-82 obligations	$1,784,430
Present value of incoming new money	$3,862,892

Defined benefit plan liabilities (Pre-82, MPP and CRSP-DB) continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the conference still has a liability (obligation) with the plan.

Active Health Benefit Program

Plan Overview: The Arkansas Conference offers a Self-Insured program to the active participants.

During the 2013 year, the total cost of the program was $5,586,261 and was funded by Direct Billed to Churches, Apportionments and Reserve Funding. The projected average increase for future years is expected to be 4%, due to: Medical inflation.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefit Program (PRM)

Plan Overview: The Arkansas Conference post-retiree medical plan currently offered is a Self-Funded plan made available to The Conference Board of Pensions is recommending to the Annual Conference that we end our current PRM plan. We will setup HRA accounts with a maximum of $200 per month for the retiree and $150 per month for an eligible spouse.

The current annual cost is anticipated to be $1,107,530 with the funding sources to be: Apportionments. The Arkansas Conference is currently working with Stephen’s Inc. on a new valuation report based on expected changes to our plan.

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 12/8/2011, following is the funded position of the post-retiree medical benefits:

Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) or net conference cost	$37,270,550
Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) or net conference cost	$49,620,487
Service Cost (SC) or net conference cost	$1,696,367
Assets designated for PRM	$1,493,014

These values are based on 5.50% long term discount rate and a current increase trend of 10.00% decreasing to 5.00% by 2021.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

Plan Overview: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families and is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) “church plan” funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, you are eligible to participate in CPP if your conference or salary-paying unit sponsors the plan and you satisfy the eligibility requirements which include full-time episcopal appointment and plan compensation equal to or greater than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation or the Conference Average Compensation whichever is less. The Arkansas Annual Conference has elected to make CPP-eligible clergy, who are appointed at least %, have mandatory participation, while % appointed clergy have optional participation under special arrangements.

Currently (for 2013) the Arkansas Conference has a required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $575,970, which is anticipated to be funded by 75% Direct Bill and 25% Apportioned. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 4.00% per year due to: Salary increases.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) for Lay and Clergy

Plan Overview: The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, contributions your plan sponsor may make on the participants behalf and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Conference office lay employees working an average of 30 hours per week are eligible for a pension contribution of 12% of salary. Lay employees are required to contribute a minimum of 3% of personal funds toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The estimated contribution for the Arkansas Conference is anticipated to be $121,175 and funded through the Apportionments.

Other Conference Defined Contribution Type Obligations

Plan Overview: The Arkansas Conference currently offers a Death & Disability plan made available to full-time Conference lay employees. The contribution for 2013 was $6,220 with the funding sources to be: Apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 2.00% per year due to: Benefits are age & compensation based

Conclusion:

The 2015 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and the above outlined Summary document incorporates to the best of our understanding, the Arkansas Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the Clergy and Laity of the Arkansas Conference.

Section VIII: Financial Aid

- A. Local Pastor's Licensing School: The cost to Arkansas students attending the Arkansas Local Pastor License School (LPLS) is currently $350. Some funds may be available for students attending other schools outside of our conference boundaries.

Approval for these funds must come from the Dean of the Arkansas Conference Local Pastor License School prior to class participation.

- B. Course of Study: Financial assistance, based on need and the availability of funds, will be 50% of tuition, normal fees, room and board for full- or part-time students in the basic Course of Study; 100% reimbursement of tuition for courses taken in the Arkansas Course of Study School available for part-time local pastors and 50% reimbursement of tuition for those who successfully complete correspondence courses (not to exceed 4 courses). The Board provides assistance only once for each of the 20 courses required in the Basic Course of Study Program.
- C. Seminary Financial Aid: Through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) apportionment, the BOM is able to provide loans to certified candidates who are attending University Senate approved seminaries. The Arkansas Annual Conference retains one fourth of the monies paid for the MEF apportionment for this fund. This is the only source of funds for service loans, and disbursements cannot exceed income in any fiscal year. Funds will be budgeted equally for the fall and spring semesters. The loan amount is determined after the application deadline. Loans will not exceed 40% of tuition per semester unless there is a surplus in the fall semester. The seminarian registrar shall have the discretion to disburse any surplus funds at an equal percentage for all semester applicants. Students attending United Methodist seminaries can receive a maximum of $10,000 per year in loans. Students at other University Senate approved seminaries can receive a maximum of $7,000 per year in loans.

Students will not receive funds to repeat a failed, dropped or incomplete course.

Students who apply will sign a promissory note. Loans will be forgiven for service at the rate of one year for two semesters of aid. In other words, a student who borrows from the fund for six semesters would complete the service obligation by three years of service under episcopal appointment.

For the 2014-2015 academic year, the following policy will be followed for disbursing funds.

Eligibility:

- Certified Candidate for ordination

 - a. A survey of the boundaries and location of any improvements within the boundaries shall be provided by the Grantee (person/entity receiving title) and the costs of the survey paid by the Grantee; (IF CONVEYANCE IS BY SPECIAL WARRANTY DEED OR QUIT CLAIM DEED, THE BOARD IS NOT WARRANTING TITLE AND WE MAY NOT NEED THIS REQUIREMENT. IT IS RECOMMENDED CONVEYANCE ALWAYS BE BY SPECIAL WARRANTY DEED)
 - b. A commitment for Owner's Title Insurance shall be provided by the Grantee at Grantee's expense;
 - c. If the conveyance is to a United Methodist Church, District, or agency appropriate Trust Clauses shall be contained in the instrument of conveyance;

- C. Use of the Proceeds Generated by a Sale of Property: All proceeds generated from the sale of property by the Board of Trustees shall first be used to pay the costs of securing, storing, insuring, and disposition of property deemed abandoned by the Annual Conference. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The Conference Council on Children's Ministries' (CCCM) two main ministry goals continue to be to connect/network people involved with children's ministry throughout the state and to equip those people for ministry in their local congregations.

Through connecting and equipping children's ministry leaders, we are able to provide a wide base of support, accountability and information to more people. The more knowledgeable leaders are about available resources and current educational methods, materials and programs available for children, the more effective they will be in their ability to reach children and families for Jesus Christ.

During this past year, the Council has updated and expanded its website to become a portal for children's ministry resources. Updated safe sanctuary information, camping schedules, information about national training opportunities and information about ministries to people with disabilities are just a few examples of new information provided on www.kidz.arumc.org. Also, to help facilitate the sharing of Christian Education materials among churches and to further assist smaller membership churches with limited financial resources obtain quality curriculum and supplies, CCCM has provided through their website a VBS Curriculum Exchange and an Online Lending Library.

Destination: Mission, a four day service, fellowship and spiritual formation experience for children in grades 3-6 that was started in 2008 in the Northwest District, was officially adopted by the CCCM as one of their outreach programs this year. This program is coordinated by Denni Palmer (Fayetteville) and includes one trip during Spring Break and two trips during the summer.

As part of the continuing effort to make our local churches safe for children with a variety of health concerns, a sample allergy awareness policy and action plan was developed in conjunction with our Conference chancellor in December, 2013.

One of the CCCM's five year goals is to conduct an annual state-wide retreat and training for children's ministry leaders. In January, 2014, the Council sponsored the Beyond! conference. This event featured a retreat conducted by Mary Jane Pierce Norton from GBOD in Nashville, mini workshops lead by local children's ministry leaders and worship coordinated by Jeremy Carter and Bill Skaggs. Overall evaluations of the event were positive with many new, small membership churches in attendance.

CCCM continued to offer VBS mini-grants for small membership churches to conduct summer VBS outreach programs. Twenty $200 grants (2/district) were awarded in 2014.

The Conference Council on Children's Ministry meets monthly during the school year via web conference. For more information about how to connect to these meetings or how to receive the latest updates about children's ministry in Arkansas, contact Karen Swales at karen.swales@arumc.org.

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

The Arkansas Episcopacy Committee has worked to support Bishop Mueller in his ministry. We have met with him to provide feedback and evaluation of his ministry plan and its fulfillment. He has incorporated the Imagine Ministry objectives with his own and has helped to change and adapt the Imagine Ministry plan as we live into making disciples of Jesus Christ in a new way in Arkansas. Members of our committee also work with him between our meetings to provide support, encouragement and feedback in the day to day life of ministry. Our committee also works in concert with the South Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy as it seeks to make the best assignment of bishops to episcopal areas. Currently, that has focused upon the best way to be supportive of our bishops while also providing meaningful evaluation of their ministry. We believe we are blessed to be in ministry with Bishop Mueller and look forward to many years of ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Rodney Steele, chair

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Mission Statement:

The Mission of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to enable local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership.

Recognizing the present needs of our churches, The Commission on Equitable Compensation budget request for 2015 is $170,000. To meet the current needs we are pulling from the reserve fund and anticipate having to grant additional financial support this year.

I. Minimum Compensation Base Support:

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the 2015 Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule remain at the 2014 level and are printed below. The Guidelines having been established and proving to be effective will remain the same as printed in this report.

Full	Provisional--	Local
Connection	Associate Member	Pastor
$ 32,800	$ 31,700	$ 30,500

1. A parsonage or a housing allowance shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.
2. Associate Pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation Aid.
3. Retired Pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation Aid. See ¶ 358.6, 2012 Book of Discipline.
4. Each church receiving Minimum Base Compensation Support shall provide the amount(s) received from the Arkansas Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan. Each church receiving compensation shall report to the commission each year at the consultation date with their district superintendent. The report form is available on the Arkansas Conference website at arumc.org and from each district superintendent.

II. Key Charge Program For Base Compensation Support:

The Key Charge Program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons. Key Charges are related to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by a contractual agreement. The contract is negotiated by the Chair of the Commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge. The persons, or their successors, shall be the trustees of the contract, having verified it with their signatures.

The contract shall include:

- (a) The initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,
- (b) The duration of the contract (normally 5 years or less), and
- (c) The signatures of the persons negotiating the contract.

The nature of the contract is such that the amount of compensation support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the charge increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the contract period. After the contract has expired, no further compensation support will be granted to the charge. Under the Key Charge arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

III. Missional Local Church Compensation Support:

We recommend that the Arkansas Conference undergird its mission by providing a Missional Local Church Compensation Support Program. This program is intended to help provide capable, effective, pastoral leadership to charges which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support without mission aid. In each case, the level of base compensation support shall be negotiated by the Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent in consultation with the pastor and officials of the charge. Priority shall be given to charges that show potential for growth, for increased effectiveness in ministry and for advance toward self-support. Consequently, when a charge has received Missional Local Church Support for four years, the commission will assess the charge's growth during the period before continued funding is approved. Considerations will include:

- 1. Membership
- 2. Worship attendance

3. Percentage of apportionments paid
4. The charge's share of the pastor's compensation
5. The charge's stewardship ("total amount paid" divided by worship attendance)

If a charge declines in more than two of these categories over the four-year period, Missional Local Church Support shall be reduced by ten percent the following year, and it shall be reduced by one third over each of the succeeding three years. The district superintendent may appear before the commission to request an exception to this process.

IV. Minimum Base Compensation Support:

The minimum base compensation program is intended to help provide compensation for capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support. The minimum base compensation is set annually by the Bishop, Cabinet and Annual Conference for Elders, Provisional/Associate Members and Full Time Local Pastors. It is understood that:

1. A parsonage or a housing allowance shall be provided in addition to the set salary.
2. Associate Pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members) are not eligible for minimum compensation aid.
3. Retired Pastors are not eligible for minimum compensation aid. ¶ 358.6, 2012 Book of Discipline.
4. Each church receiving minimum base compensation support shall report annually the amount(s) received from the conference for the past 5 years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan.

V. Equitable Compensation Agreement:

When Equitable Compensation support has been granted to a church/charge, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the district superintendent, pastor, and leaders of the church/charge before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the commission. No funds shall be disbursed until the agreement is signed and returned to the district superintendent. These forms are available on the conference website at arumc.org.

The church/charge receiving financial support shall submit an annual report. The report form is available from the district superintendent or the conference website at arumc.org. Included in this report is the explanation of how these funds have aided the local church/charge. This report shall be returned at the scheduled assessment interview with the district superintendent.

ETHNIC AND LANGUAGE CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns collaborates with the existing structures of the Arkansas Annual Conference in order to implement, evaluate, and update the Annual Conference of its comprehensive plan as it relates to ethnic issues. The Committee consults with and assists other conference entities in training and implementation of matters related to ethnic local churches. The committee maintains the connectional relations mandated by ¶632 and ¶654.

Additionally, this committee is charged with implementing all General Conference emphasis related to:

- National Hispanic Plan
- Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century
- National Korean Ministry Plan
- Native American Ministries (¶654)
- Other ethnic programs emanating from the General Conference.

Furthermore, we work with Crossing Jordan (targeted at the Black Church in Arkansas) as well as Pan Methodist groups (AME, CME, and AMEZ) to achieve our goals.

The Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee works in three (3) areas to support local congregations in their efforts to make disciples by providing funding in the following areas:

- a. Leadership Development (both lay and clergy)
- b. Mission Field Outreach
- c. Scholarships (need-based undergraduate students)

We are fully aware that the majority of the ethnic churches in Arkansas are small, and have fewer resources outside of the annual conference; therefore, our goal is to assist them by providing these needed resources. However, the goal of this committee is always to empower our congregations to be self-sufficient. Another initiative of the committee is to support innovative cutting-edge methods of ministry in its initial stages of implementation as we realize that sometimes it is not popular to try new things. We encourage local congregations not to be about their failures (if these new things do not produce the expected outcome), but to view these new attempts as learning experiences in attempting to attract new people in different/unexpected ways.

We believe the work of the Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee is in direct alignment with the Bishop's Mission Initiatives #5, #6, #7, #8; with a great percentage of what we do supporting #9.

To this end, the highlights of our work include but are not limited to:

Hosted 2nd Annual Ethnic Summit which featured the Rev. Dr. Cedric Bridgeforth of the Cal Pac Annual Conference

Provided laptops and printers to small ethnic congregations as a means to provide technology support

Hosted SBC21 Training Event for Laity, Clergy, Extended Cabinet and Cabinet

Hosted in concert with District Superintendents Training Events to address Mission Field Context

Provided 5 Undergraduate Ethnic Scholarships of $2000 each (Awarded to two African American females, two Hispanic Females, and one Hispanic Male)

Provided support for Hispanic Ministry Training

Provided support Native American Ministry Training for youth and Adults

Co-Sponsor for Annual Negail Riley Banquet

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns will continue to be reflective, committed and passionate in its effort to address/meet the concerns of the Ethnic Local Church, the strategic initiatives of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas and responsive to the Bishop's Mission initiative in fulfilling the greater mission of spreading the good news of the gospel, making disciples of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

In closing, we are very grateful for our conference staff person, the Rev. Maxine Allen. Her gifts and graces are the driving force of our ministry within this committee.

Grace and peace,

Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, Chair

Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

“The world is my parish”...John Wesley

The Conference Board of Global Ministries is responsible for interpreting the programs, plans and policies of the General Board of Global Ministries and for informing, encouraging, partnering with and engaging local churches in support of global mission. Global Ministries will assist in coordination, evaluation and implementation of mission through partnerships and collaboration with the following ministry areas:

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

District Secretaries of Global Ministries

Mission Coordinator of Education and Interpretation of Conference

Coordinator of Volunteers in Mission

Coordinator of Disaster Response

Coordinator of Missionary Personnel

Coordinator of Parish and Community Development

Global Ministries seeks to actively engage our churches in support of those who have suffered disaster, enduring hunger and are in need of other human necessities. One significant example of this effort is demonstrated each year. In 2013, on the Saturday before Thanksgiving, United Methodist Congregations across the state supported “Ingathering”. Despite the effects of a “downturn” in the economy, our congregations gave $2,886,105 to mission. This amount represents an increase of more than $342,000 above the 2012 total. These gifts are distributed throughout the world and in Arkansas. This is generosity and love in action.

Global Ministries will be intentional in promoting the work of training and recruiting volunteers for mission and disaster response. We will provide opportunities and encouragement for those seeking to serve the church through the lay ministry of mission personnel. We will assist each district through it District Secretaries to share their mission stories and BOGM will continue to work cooperatively with United Methodist Women to interpret, educate and support the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas.

Brenda Norwood
Chairperson

CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries shall work with the Chairperson of the Conference Board of Global Ministries to the objectives and scope of work of the General Board of Global Ministries.

My first year serving as the Conference Secretary Global Ministries (CSGM) has been exciting, challenging and a learning experience on the itineration process.

The South Central Jurisdiction (SCJ) CSGM Fall Meeting was held October 3-5, 2012 in Oklahoma City. There we met the General Board Global Ministries' staff, had round table discussion and met missionaries in the area.

On May 1-5, 2013, the CSGM Summit Gathering was held in New York City at 475 Riverside Drive. There was training on CSGM guidelines and best practices. The session also included Bible study, Global Ministry departmental presentations, Tech sessions, Jurisdiction small group discussions and heard from Storyteller David Wildman.

We had several missionaries itinerate to our conference. Drs. Pierre Many and Simenon Kashala from DRC, graced us with their presence July 28-August 7, 2013. Hoover UMC hosted by Rev. William Robinson, Lutheran church in Hot Springs hosted by Rev. Clyde Hughley, Mission u hosted by Mission u Planning Team, First UMC El Dorado hosted by Amy Machen and St. Paul UMC Maumelle, hosted by Brenda Norwood, were gracious hosts to our guests during their itineration. Rev. Marsha Alexander, Missionary serving as President of Asbury College in the Philippines, came to us September 23-30, 2013. During her visit she visited Heifer International. The Central District United Methodist Women invited her to speak on September 28th at the fall meeting. Many were inspired by her emotional story. On September 30th she traveled to Lockesburg UMC before returning to the Philippines.

The SCJ CSGM Fall Meeting was held October 15-18, 2013 in San Antonio at the Southwest Texas Conference Office where we were visited and introduced to Bishop Jim Dorff. We heard Global Ministry reports and a report from our Mission Interpreter, Governor Mays. We also met and heard the story of Dr. Tendai Manyeza, a missionary from Zimbabwe. We heard and discussed conference reports and shared how we can assist each other with itineration issues.

This has been a very busy year, as well as exciting, meeting the missionaries that itinerated in our conference and getting to know them on a personal level. With the training I received I hope to better serve future missionaries that will itinerate to our conference.

Shalom,
Marleene Calvin
Secretary Global Ministries

CONFERENCE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The ministry of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry (BHECM) is to support and coordinate United Methodist Campus ministry in Arkansas.

- I. United Methodist campus ministry in Arkansas is carried out through
 1. 9 Wesley Foundations at
 - Arkansas State University
 - Arkansas Tech University
 - Henderson State University/Ouachita Baptist University
 - Southern Arkansas University
 - University of Arkansas at Fayetteville
 - University of Arkansas at Little Rock
 - University of Arkansas at Monticello
 - University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff
 - University of Central Arkansas
 2. A chaplain and campus ministry at The United Methodist related colleges in Arkansas
 - Hendrix College
 - Philander Smith College

3. United Methodist Campus ministries at
 - University of Arkansas at Fort Smith
 - Lyon College
 - University of the Ozarks

II. Other work of the BHECM is:

1. To identify and begin new United Methodist campus ministries, particularly on the campuses of community colleges
2. To strengthen and develop leadership for United Methodist campus ministry in Arkansas in order to be stronger strategic partners in the ministries
3. To discover pastors with gifts and calls to campus ministry, and to offer training and mentoring to them.
4. To provide training opportunities and resources to keep our current campus ministers and staff sharp
5. To develop resources and opportunities to train student leaders.

The current model for campus ministry at the 9 Wesley Foundations assumes the norm to be that the director of each foundation is an elder, who is appointed fulltime to the Wesley Foundation as their sole appointment. There are currently three exceptions to this. Of these exceptions, one director has a part-time position at the Annual Conference office. In the other two exceptions the director also serves as the pastor in charge of a local church or local church two-point charge.

The BHECM has spent considerable energy naming the assumptions about campus ministry in Arkansas. Many of these assumptions simply developed over the years. This clarity along with considerable work describing measures for the ministry has constituted the BHECM's primary work.

The BHECM has come to describe the Wesley Foundation Directors' appointments as conference missionaries. These conference missionaries are appointed directly to the mission field on the state university campuses in Arkansas. The Conference has provided a place for this missionary to go be in ministry to the campus and its mission field.

The BHECM is working to allow campus ministry to fully embrace and fulfill the trajectory of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

"Our trajectory for the coming years: Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world."

In paragraph 201 of the 2012 Book of Discipline a local church is defined as follows:

The local church provides the most significant arena through which disciple-making occurs. It is a community of true believers under the Lordship of Christ. It is the redemptive fellowship in which the Word of God is preached by persons divinely called and the sacraments are duly administered according to Christ's own appointment. Under the discipline of the Holy Spirit, the church exists for the maintenance of worship, the edification of believers, and the redemption of the world.

Campus ministries are not local congregations per se. However, a campus ministry is a community in which these essential "actions of a "congregation" are present. Therefore a campus ministry is also a key place where persons can begin a life of discipleship, grow as disciples and go forward with a life of discipleship that can be shared in churches and communities after graduation. Campus ministry is situated at a strategic place in seeking to do ministry in a new way. The mission field on the campus is filled with young adults making life decisions and coming to a place of claiming their own values as well as making vocational decisions. The campus is a ripe environment for person seeking to become disciples or grow as disciples. Such disciples go forth to be involved in churches and communities throughout the state and region.

College students in our campus ministries arrive in campus ministry in a variety of places in their journey of faith. Some students come with a well-formed sense of discipleship from a church background, whether UMC or otherwise. However, in all of our campus ministries the majority of students have not been even nominally affiliated with The UMC. Many of these students with a strong faith background will confront with a new honesty and seriousness about their beliefs they have brought with them. Numerous students arrive with some background in the faith. As they are leaving home and moving to adulthood in college they begin to take seriously their faith for themselves. Others arrive from church experiences that have been painful or have not connected to the reality of their spiritual journey. Some of these students are skeptical and searching. They are often "not yet nones" but rapidly on the way. Other students come as "nones". They may have never been exposed to faith or they may have rejected it or moved away from it. Campus ministry is engaged on the frontline of working with young adults in these experiences. To help students embrace or grow in a life of discipleship is the mission of campus ministry. As students go forth they will be those who help lead in churches and ministry, UMC and other.

Campus ministry is addressing the Bishop's Mission Plan in this way.

Campus ministry in Arkansas addresses most specifically point 10, "The churches of the Arkansas Annual Conference will connect with the previously churchd, dechurchd and never churchd, especially the "nones", and point 7, "Laity will be coached, and mentored, so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence in faith sharing, servant ministry, stewardship and utilizing their spiritual gifts."

As previously stated in the answer to question 2, campus ministry is uniquely situated to minister to previously churchd, dechurchd and never churchd. Campuses are full of these persons. Also at the life stage of many college students, deep decisions are being made about faith, values, vocation and life plan.

Campus ministry is an excellent place for training and mentoring laity. Campus ministry provides a matrix of experiences to help make and develop disciples. Included in this are worship, sharing the sacrament of Holy Communion, hands on mission, Bible study, small group experiences and Christian fellowship. Also there is a powerful opportunity for peer engagement and accountability. Leadership development happens as students are allowed to plan and lead ministry experiences. Directors of campus ministries also do a tremendous amount of one on one mentoring, coaching and counseling of students as they wrestle with vocation and life decisions.

Campus ministry also embraces point #5, "More congregations will increasingly begin to look like their neighborhoods." In conjunction with core value #4, which calls for discovering, appreciating and engaging the uniqueness of each particular mission field, our campus ministry are seeking to better understand who they are, who the campus is and how to engage the particularity of their campus mission field.

Point 6 calls churches to "Continue to grow each year by at least one new profession of faith, at least one more person in worship, at least one additional small group and at least one more ministry that reaches into the mission field."

Measuring the effectiveness of campus ministry has been an important goal of the BHECM.

During the past year the BHECM has spent a considerable amount of time on the subject of developing tools for measurement and accountability in campus ministry. Following a study of Good to Great and the Social Sectors by Jim Collins, we have adopted the nomenclature of measuring inputs, outputs and outcomes. Through Imagine Ministry we have become aware, through the tutelage of Gil Rendle, of the nomenclature which Edwards Deming described as inputs, throughputs and outputs. This is a fairly mechanistic set of descriptors. We find Collins' language more effective in describing the organic ministry that is campus ministry.

Inputs describe the resources, which go into a ministry, including financial and people resources. Part of input measure is also the kind of measures included in Charge Conference reporting forms such as the Trustee and Pastor's Compensation. The BHECM wants to work with the Cabinet to develop a consistent set of reports that would be required from each Wesley Foundation.

These outputs will measure particular activities and number of persons involved. This is an important, but not the only measure. The aforementioned matrix of experiences for building discipleship will be used.

The final set of measures and evaluations are the outcomes. These measures are obviously the most difficult, yet are the most important. The outcome measures will consist of a series of strategic evaluation questions of the ministry itself. Also we will begin conducting interviews with persons who are part of the program and graduating. These questions will seek to discover ways of describing transformations that occurred across the experience of the student in the ministry. A longer term measure is to continue strengthening ties with alumni of campus ministry and discovering ways they are living out their lives as disciples.

Finally, we have found a list of benchmarks for campus ministry developed in the Texas Conference. We will be working with this list and creating a list of benchmarks, tailored for campus ministry in Arkansas.

We are pleased to be involved in offering leadership to this important ministry. We are grateful for the support of the Conference and local churches and individuals, who help make campus ministries in Arkansas possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Roy P. Smith, Chairperson

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE HUNGER TASK FORCE

In 2002, the then Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences adopted a resolution that created the Conference Hunger Task Force with the purpose of eradicating hunger in Arkansas and to report annually to the Annual Conference. The Board of Church and Society was charged with that task.

The following report is offered to meet the intent of the original resolution.

We continue to work on relief, education and advocacy around hunger. We want to highlight the CFA approved special offering on the fourth Sunday of June (June 22, 2014) as Hunger Awareness Sunday. We challenge churches to collect money for the Change for Change program which helps assist hunger projects in the conference.

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE BOARD OF LAITY REPORT

The Arkansas Conference Board of Laity is made up of the Conference Lay Leader, the district Lay Leaders and the Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries. The board's most important work includes fostering an awareness of the role of the laity within the local congregations, promoting and developing programs to cultivate an adequate understanding of the theological and biblical basis for lay life and work, and providing support and direction for the ministry of the laity on the local, district and annual conference level.

In 2014 the Board of Laity will meet with leadership in each district to be in conversation about how the conference and districts can best resource local congregations as they work to fulfill the Bishop's Mission Plan and the mission and vision of the Arkansas Conference. Together we want to strengthen the connection in the Arkansas Conference.

Please be in prayer for how God is calling you to action in the mission field. Pray for our conference to experience spiritual revival, and for all laity to discern how God can best use them in the coming months and years as we focus on our future and seek lasting change. This is an exciting time in the Arkansas Conference!

All Christians are called by God, and our board wants to emphasize partnership in ministry so we work as a team, clergy and laity together, leading the church in the ministry we are called to share. A team approach can form a motivating, vital vision for ministry and enable congregations to effectively perform the work of the Gospel in their community.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES REPORT

The 2012 General Conference changed the way we have been doing things and gave us a new name and position. Change is sometimes met with suspicion and confusion, so I would like to share as much information here as I can.

The term “Lay Speaker” has been used for many years, and usually was thought of as “pulpit supply.” It has been said that many United Methodists would not take the training because they did not want to be in the pulpit. General Conference made changes to assist in getting those people into our training classes to serve in the many other functions of the church.

We now have the “Local Lay Servant” position instead of Local Lay Speaker (will be able to serve the local church in whatever capacity available for them, including filling in for their pastor). Local Lay Servants must have taken the “Basic” course, and at least a 4-hour refresher class every three years.

We now have the “Certified Lay Servant” position instead of the Certified Lay Speaker (serves the local church and also the extended church in whatever capacity that is available for them, including filling in for local pastors and other pastors in the connection (must have taken Basic and one Advanced class, and take another advanced class at least every three years)).

The position of “Lay Speaker” is now a new track inside the Lay Servant Ministries (LSM) Program that requires one basic and five specific advanced courses as required by General Conference legislation. Course categories are: Basic, Worship, Prayer, Spiritual Gifts, Preaching, UM Heritage and Polity.

Each of these positions requires at least 10 hours of classroom time every three years (Lay Speaker requires more) or specific alternate courses of equivalent service to be used only once every three years, to stay in the program. If a person delays coming to class for three consecutive years, and does not use one of the Alternates (one year only), they will be dropped from the program, and will have to retake the Basic and another Advanced class to be Certified. The Lay Servant/Lay Speaker will be recommended by the Pastor of the local church where their membership is held and by a vote of the local charge conference. Completing the Annual Lay Servant Report Charge Conference Form is required each year to stay in the LSM Program, but does not give you status as a Lay Servant unless you have completed the training classes.

Those entering the new Lay Speaker Track will be examined by the District Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (DCLSM) or equivalent structure and be recommended to the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (CCLSM) or equivalent structure for approval. The “Lay Speaker” must apply for Re-Approval and appear before the DCLSM or equivalent structure at least every three years. They also must receive the endorsement of their charge conference every year via the Annual Lay Servant Report Form.

Anyone may attend classes without committing to be a part of LSM. You will not have to fill out a Lay Servant Report, and will not be entered in our records unless desired. (We think you will want to be a part of our program once you come to a class, though!)

Under the 2012 General Conference Legislation, the LSM Program is a laity-driven, laity-led program and the District and Conference Directors “shall” be laity. We have several clergy helping and directing the program now, and I hope that we can find competent laity to become directors of the District Program. Our clergy will continue to partner with them and strengthen the program. We certainly need the buy-in of our Bishop, DSs, and all clergy if we are to succeed.

The District Directors and I have several goals for 2014:

Update/refine our LSM database in each District and the Conference (an ongoing process).

Provide training that advances the training requirements set out in the 2012 GC Legislation (held training in all districts in 2013).

Establish our own page on the arumc.org site (completed in February 2014 – check it out under Resources).

Add all of our LSM Forms to the website in 2014.

Add photos of LSM classes held in each District by the end of 2014.

As we plan our classes this year and beyond, be aware of the needs of any who would continue on to be “Lay Speakers” in this new legislation, as well as those who might just want training for local church service.

We need to inform our laity that they may come to our classes even if they do not want to be certified – we love the fellowship of all.

We also need to strive to include all of our ethnic brothers and sisters in our training. We do have several courses that are written in ethnic languages, we just need to schedule classes for them.

The Directors of the LSM Program have realized the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead of us, and ask that the laity and clergy of the Arkansas Conference support us in doing what the Church calls us to do. I know each of you will assist our District LSM Directors in doing that.

Due to the requirement of 10 hours of one-on-one classroom type training, and outside reading assignments as needed, we have re-visited our approved list of Alternate classes/events, and we now have a new list for 2014 as follows.

2014 Approved list of Alternate Service for Certified Lay Servants only (to be used only once in three years): Walk to Emmaus, Mission u, Disciple Bible Studies, Stephen Ministry, Hendrix College Religious Education Programs, and our new Center for Clergy and Laity Excellence courses. We may add other Alternate Service options at a later date, as long as they meet the LSM requirements.

Who are Lay Servants?

We are a people who have a desire to serve the Lord and his church.

We are a people who have many different talents.

We are a people who come from all walks of life.

We are a people who just cannot say a when it is time to serve others in the name of Jesus. We are United Methodists who love God, love our church faithful to our calling and believe that we can make a difference in the lives of the people around us through our service to the Lord.

We are people who sing, teach, preach, listen, pray, visit the sick, provide shelter, love, share our stories, witness to others and – well, you get the picture.

We are just like you! That's right, we are no different from others who serve the church, except we commit some of our time to personal instruction at least once every three years. (Some of us return every year for the classes, because we love fellowshiping and learning with others.)

We used to be considered just “pulpit supply” for the pastor whenever the pastor was out, but now we are recognized for our other talents as well.

Come and join us – take the “basic” lay servant course and find out what we are about. (Teens have their own “basic” class). It is only 10 hours of basic classroom instruction and will allow you to gain the status of a “Local Lay Servant” (serve in your local church).

After the basic class, when you take an advanced course (within three years – preferably the next class offered), you will receive the Certified Lay Servant certificate (to serve in your local church and other avenues of service in the UM connection).

To serve as a Lay Speaker, you will need to take additional courses approved by the Conference LSM Committee. There are 5 additional specific courses/categories to take at this level. This also signals the district superintendent that you would possibly be willing to take a short appointment for a pastor who has to leave their pulpit for an extended time, or where a church does not have a current pastor available. These courses could be taken while serving in this capacity as well.

If you do not want to be recorded in the LSM program but would like to take some of the classes, that is OK. Contact your district LSM director or district office and join us.

We have over 500 lay servants in the LSM program; that number varies as we sometimes have to remove persons from our rolls. This saddens us, but because we require a training class at least every three years, we have to remove those who do not attend. If you do let your three-year period lapse, you must take the “basic” class again and start over. Please do not let that happen - we want and need each and every one who has the calling to be a Lay Servant!

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE COORDINATOR OF MISSION PERSONNEL

The Coordinator of Mission Personnel (formerly Committee on Missionary Personnel) reports a total of 7 missionary personnel from the Arkansas Conference.

Evelyn Banks-Shackelford serves five churches in the Arkansas Delta communities around Marianna. Evelyn's responsibilities include overseeing a ministry feeding the hungry by operating an area food bank which disburses food to the local food pantries and churches, supplying children with backpacks of food on the weekends and coordinating a community garden.

Deborah Bell serves at Better Community Development in Little Rock. BCD serves the disadvantaged through building affordable housing and running a state-licensed treatment program for substance abuse.

Deaconess Colleen Caldwell is appointed to Christ Church in Cabot in community outreach and mission. Colleen's outreach activities include chairing the Cabot Community Coalition, operating the Cabot Resource Center, publishing the Cabot Resource Guide, and acting as a voice for children who have been removed from their homes due to abuse or neglect as a CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate).

Rev. Steve Copley is a Church & Community Worker (CCW). Steve acts as the Executive Director of both the Arkansas Interfaith Conference and the Arkansas Interfaith Alliance. He is also the Director of Arkansas Justice For Our Neighbors. His ministries include issues of concern to the interfaith community, poverty, the environment and immigration.

Cathy Larson is a Lay Missioner at Open Door Ministry in Jones Mill. Open Door serves hot meals and provides many other services for children and families.

Deaconess Kandi Mount is appointed to Mercy Health Systems in Rogers in the capacity of Chaplain. Kandi works to meet the needs of her patients, build relationships, and embed spiritual care in all she does.

Elizabeth Soard is assigned to the Mara region of Tanzania as a church planter and discipleship trainer, along with her husband, Eric Soard. Elizabeth feels especially called "to the people of Africa, to help develop programs for women and children, to be an example that women can be strong and respected as equals to men." You can follow Elizabeth's ministry through her blog: ingodslife.blogspot.com

Churches and individuals are encouraged to become "co-missionaries" by entering into a Covenant Relationship with a Global Ministries missionary. This partnership is much more than a financial commitment. It is a dynamic relationship where a church or individual and the missionary pray for one another and communicate regularly. When you Covenant with one missionary, you are supporting the entire United Methodist missionary community on their behalf and in their name. Arkansas has three Global Ministries missionaries with whom you can form a Covenant Relationship: Evelyn Banks-Shackelford (Support Code # 982939), Rev. Steve Copley (Support Code # 982019), and Elizabeth Soard (Support Code # 3021467). The form for Covenant Relationships can be found at:

MOUNT EAGLE CHRISTIAN CENTER, INC.

In conversation with conference leadership the Board of Directors of Mount Eagle looks to the future in helping create vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. We are energized by the work of Run River Enterprises and the potential for new emphasis on Outdoor Ministries and intend to work alongside the Conference and local congregations in whatever ways are most appropriate for ministry partnerships. In this spirit, we present a revised statement of Covenant Relationship to be accepted by the 2014 Annual Conference.

Statement of Covenant of Relationship Between The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church And Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc.

The United Methodist Church has long had an appreciation for God's world and a commitment to providing opportunities and facilities for camping and other ministries in the out-of-doors. The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church believes that outdoor ministry programs and facilities help demonstrate our dependence on Almighty God, give expression to our Christian faith, and provide arenas where we may witness to that faith.

To further demonstrate that commitment, the former North Arkansas Conference, now a part of the Arkansas Conference, officially acquired a site of approximately 1,000 acres in southwest Stone County, Arkansas, in 1970 to be developed as a conference and retreat center. It is known as Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc. Prior to that purchase, outdoor ministry facilities were owned and operated by various districts in the Conference.

The North Arkansas Conference took a major step in June 1990 by authorizing the formation, election, and chartering of a Board of Trustees for Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc. Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc. is an incorporated entity in the State of Arkansas. Mount Eagle affirms its commitment to provide conference, retreat and outdoor ministry facilities and services to persons without regard to their race, gender, age, religion, economic, or social condition. Mount Eagle acknowledges its historical relationship with the United Methodists of Arkansas, with whom it considers itself to be in a cooperative ministry on behalf of persons involved in these ministries.

In recognition of this historical relationship and shared purposes, the Arkansas Conference and Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc. affirm their mutual support and cooperation and do covenant together as follows:

The conference shall provide the origination of governance for Mount Eagle through the election of its Trustees/members. These trustees/members elected by the Conference serve as the corporate membership of Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc. These Trustees/members of Mount Eagle act independently to elect the Directors of Mount Eagle who provide such organizational structures, policies, and programs as they deem appropriate to effectively carry out the ministry of Mount Eagle.

Mount Eagle shall provide information concerning its activities and plans to the Conference at such times and in such forms as the conference may request.

The Conference shall encourage local churches and individuals to give financial support to the ministries of Mount Eagle in the manner the Conference may deem appropriate from time to time.

Mount Eagle shall be responsive to the needs of the districts and the Conference in creating opportunities for local congregations to grow in discipleship with excellence and passion that produces disciples. Mount Eagle shall provide laity, clergy and local congregations with opportunities for holy listening and to experience Christian hospitality that nurtures spiritual revival and maturity.

Mount Eagle shall at all times maintain appropriate Safe Sanctuary policies for groups using the facilities in accordance with the Conference recommendations. Mount Eagle shall ensure that its facilities meet the appropriate building codes and safety regulations for the intended and anticipated uses of its facilities. Mount Eagle shall maintain appropriate insurance policies to cover risks associated with use of the facilities and replacement of facilities damaged by reasonably anticipated causes (wind, rain, fire, accident and vandals, earthquake if deemed appropriate by the Mount Eagle Board).

The Conference does not guarantee, nor does it assume, any responsibility for the obligations of Mount Eagle or any of its related corporations.

Although the Conference and Mount Eagle share mission purposes and goals in addressing the needs for conference, retreat and outdoor ministries, and although each of them supports conformity with the highest standards of these ministries and operational integrity, it is understood that each of these parties is a separate entity making its own decisions in these areas of mutual interest.

This relationship statement shall be reviewed jointly at least every four years, (or more often if requested by any of the agreeing parties), and shall be revised or renewed at the beginning of each quadrennium.

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Arkansas Area United Methodist Church Conference Commission on Religion and Race will institute this new ministry model at the end of this year Annual Conference. Our model of ministry we will be the same at the General Commission on Religion and Race. The goal is to create and sustain vital congregations. The model is focused around three areas.

Institutional Equity

We will help to root out institutional racial/cultural bias wherever it exists in The United Methodist Church and in the Arkansas Area of Methodism. CCORR will set goals for overcoming institutional bias, measures and report on the denomination's and conference progress on eradicating injustice, and offers resources and training. We will collaborate with GCORR and our Conference, District, and Local Church leaders to evaluate program, mission, staffing, budgetary priorities and leadership pipelines to insure that the church is reaching, serving and bringing into full participation membership younger people and more diverse people.

Developing Intercultural Competency

We will work with our clergy and laity who are already proficient in effective ministries across lines “of race, ethnicity, nationality, class, gender, identity, status, age and ability. Many of our leaders lay and clergy have already recognized and respected cultural differences, and have find common grounds with others from different cultures. We will ask GCORR staff to come to our Annual Conference to train, resource and connect leaders in order to sharpen their intercultural skills, which allow them to establish relevant ministries in a Christian movement that reflect the diversity around us.

Facilitating Essential and Vital Conversations

We know that GCORR sponsors and encourages frank, respectful and holy conversation on how the church can better challenge racial/ethnic and cultural bias and institutional injustice. GCORR believes we must talk about what divides us and how people of Christian faith can build bridges based on the uniting Love of Jesus and a commitment to institutional equity. So, GCORR creates an arena and a framework for these important conversations and shares what is learned, so that United Methodist are tenaciously engaged in transforming the church and the world. Our Conference Commission on Religion and Race also wants to be a part of this conversation.

In reviewing the Bishop’s Mission Plan “Next Steps,” the Commission will support the Imagine Ministry journey. At this point in the journey we are engaged in phases two and three. It is very important that the Commission monitor the progress very closely see if these steps are relating to the three areas of our ministry model. To date the two Monitoring Commissions of the Annual Conference are not listed as members of any of the Launch Teams.

To get a head start on our ministry model, the Commission membership was assigned to two boards, agencies, committees, commissions, and other related groups to do an Internal Monitoring Report. Each member was asked to attend at least one group meeting and call the Chairperson and do a telephone monitoring session. After that was completed a report was sent to the Commission Chairperson. The collected data will be report at the Annual Conference session. This data will show the number of our Ethnic membership listed within these groups. At the same time we hope that we can show the number of Whites serving as members in groups that are ethnic related ministries in the Annual Conference.

The Commission has collected the following data that we think is important to the ministry of the Annual Conference.

Apportionment by Ethnic Local Congregations

WOMEN

The Arkansas Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women seeks to support and further the mission of the General Commission which “advocates for full participation of women in the total life of the The United Methodist Church through training, education, research and monitoring.”

To that end the Commission will sponsor two persons to attend the “Do No Harm” Conference in 2015 as part of our commitment to sexual ethics in the Church. Additionally, Listening Sessions will be planned for each district. These sessions are designed to collect information about the experiences of women with regard to local congregations, appointments, and connection to annual conference.

A 2011 study by the General Commission called “Women by the Numbers” recently looked at racial/ethnic diversity nationally and found that the number of United Methodist clergy of color increased by 7.6% in the US in a 5 year period.

COSROW will continue to monitor for participation and diversity during the meeting in Rogers, June 2014.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women continue to foster spiritual growth, develop leaders and advocate for justice on behalf of women, children and youth. They strive to demonstrate their faith, hope and love in action.

The Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women support programs and activities that promote our purpose:

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Sixty-three women from Arkansas traveled to Louisville, Kentucky for the United Methodist Women Assembly April 24-27. This was the 19th quadrennial Assembly of United Methodist Women from around the country and mission partners from across the globe.

The Arkansas Conference Mission U will be July 23 - 26 at Hendrix College in Conway. The studies this year will be How Is It With Your Soul?; The Roma of Europe; and The Church and People With Disabilities. The mission outreach program will again be the Arkansas Rice Depot’s Food for Kids Program.

The United Methodist Women Annual Meeting will be Saturday, November 10 at First United Methodist Church in Hot Springs.

The Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women have pledged $250,000 to Women's Division for national and international mission work in 2014. A total of $257,739 was given in 2013.

Seven United Methodist Women from Arkansas attended Leadership Development Days sponsored by the National Organization in St. Louis in November. This event was excellent laity training in developing leadership skills.

Local United Methodist Women units continue to be involved in numerous local community mission projects as well as supporting national mission needs.

The five districts are involved in establishing communication with each local unit. The United Methodist Women want to have a unit in every church in the conference. In the past year four new UMW Units have been organized and efforts are also being made to organize younger members' circles.

ARKANSAS CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

This year, CCYM has continued to provide ministry and discipleship training for youth throughout the Arkansas Conference. Actually, even a few Kansas youth came to Veritas, our largest event, this Spring. We have rededicated ourselves to our goal of leading other youth to follow Christ together and connecting them into the network of disciples within the United Methodist Church.

In addition to our usual activities, CCYM has undertaken a few goals: first, to expand diversity within our events, and second, to improve our communication abilities in order to reach out to all parts of the church.

Looking around, it is apparent that our events are overwhelmingly populated with the same demographic year in and year out. We know that Christ loves all of us, "red, yellow, black, and white" and therefore wish for our events to reflect the rainbow of God's creation more accurately. So we have begun reaching out more and more intentionally to churches that contain United Methodists of increased diversity, through more personal invitations. Also, we are planning events with the mind that our talent should appeal to a wider range of demographic groups. The realization of a truly colorful CCYM is a long way off, but we are working hard to reach it.

Going along with this type of outreach, CCYM has undertaken this year to create a Media Task Force along with all of our event task forces and the Youth Service Fund task force. The task force's duties will include the creating promotional materials for events, maintenance of CCYM social media accounts, inter-task force communication, and outreach on several levels. The youth appointed to this task force will be selected at the district level to provide a wide geographic range of contact bases. We are confident in this concrete strategy for the improvement of our outreach and communication abilities, and we hope that it will enable us to reach Christ's church more effectively.

Last, this year the council has created a scholarship in honor of the late Jason Molitor, a dear friend of CCYM. The scholarship's purpose is to allow his two daughters, Abigail and Olivia, to attend any and all CCYM events at no cost.

To conclude, it has been another year of growth and discipleship for the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. We strive harder than ever to take up our place as leaders in the church of today, not tomorrow. This year has been so inspirational for me, seeing fellow youth who are rising up in the church, bringing fresh light and love to help us to truly obey the command of Christ to love each other. Thank you, and it has been an honor to serve as president this year.

Miller Wilbourn, President

CONNECTIONAL REPORTS

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Thank you, Arkansas Conference, for your generous support for teaching, learning and the nurture of global leaders at Africa University. The university's ministry, which emphasizes impactful witness and service, is shaped and sustained by your generosity and prayers.

In 2013, local church giving to the Africa University Fund (AUF) in the Arkansas Conference increased by 3.8% over the previous year.

The conference invested 80.8% of its asking in 2013, compared to 77% in 2012. The resulting shortfall in giving to the AUF for 2013 was $7,628. Regretfully, when there is a shortfall, the university is forced to utilize undesignated funds that would otherwise be used for student scholarships and financial aid to support operations.

As a community—students, faculty, staff and trustees—we thank you for giving sacrificially to close to gap and move closer to your goal of investing 100% of your asking to all of the connectional funds of the church, including Africa University. Increasing your investment in the AUF to 100% or higher will allow the university to meet its operational expenses without uncertainty and channel more support to orphans, refugees and other students with limited financial means.

2013 Highlights:

- Enrollment: Africa University's enrollment grew to 1480 full-time students from 25 African countries in 2013. Female students now account for 53% of that total enrollment.
- Scholarships: Second mile giving by individuals and churches enabled Africa University to distribute more than $1.8 million in scholarships and financial aid to its students. Africa University also launched the Girl Child Scholarship Fund in order to provide more African women with access to higher education.
- Through new initiatives that include a "$50 million Campaign for Endowment" and outreach to increase financial contributions from its alumni and others in Africa, the institution is working towards greater sustainability.
- Graduates: 450 students were awarded degree certificates in June 2013, growing the number of Africa University graduates currently at work in communities to around 5,000. Every day, these graduates manifest the promise and power of the Gospel to bring light and hope to a troubled world.
- Discipleship: In August, three 2013 graduates were commissioned as young adult missionaries by the General Board of Global Ministries, pushing the total number of Africa University alumni serving internationally as mission interns to seven in just two years.

Africa University is grateful to the local congregations of the Arkansas Conference for their contributions to a wonderful investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2013! Overall giving to the AUF reached 91.7% last year, the highest level of any of the general church funds; and a total of 25 annual conferences invested in the AUF at 100% or higher.

Your gifts are an investment in changing lives for the better. Thank you for helping to make Africa University a place where young people discern their call and gifts, and become effective global leaders!

The support of every local congregation matters greatly, so please:

- Encourage your church to invest at 100% or higher in the Africa University Fund in 2014.
- Talk to your congregation about a second-mile gift to support one student each year.
- Consider leading an effort to have your district invest in an endowed scholarship which can support one student a year in perpetuity.
- Take advantage of our new Dream Insurance program and donate all or a portion of the proceeds of an affordable Term Life Insurance plan to Africa University.
- Include Africa University in your will when you make your estate plans.
- Pray for the ongoing success of this important effort to equip disciples who will shape the future of their nations and of our global church.

Thank you and God bless you.

CAMP ALDERSGATE

www.campaldersgate.net

Camp is where I get to play... not where I watch from the sidelines.

Camp is where I try... not where I give up.

Camp is where my peers see ME... not my diagnosis.

Camp is where there are possibilities... not where there are limitations.

Camp is where I'm surrounded by friends... not where I'm the only one.

2013 has been an extraordinary year on the grounds of Camp Aldersgate! Throughout this year, we have made some major shifts in our staffing arrangements, programming and thought processes. Change is so very difficult and often a scary time of the unknown. However, as I mentioned in last year's report, we had created a new Strategic Plan.

This three to five year plan has been one of the best energizers for deliberate and thoughtful planning I have ever been a part of. Over the last year, we made significant changes to our traditional staffing plan. We began to take a look at what our staff was passionate about, what they were good at doing and what benefitted both the Camp and the individual. We also tasked ourselves with a major focus of intentional programming in all things we do – perhaps not just “doing the way we do things, because that is the way we have always done them” – isn’t this a common theme in organizations? Changing that philosophy is challenging; however, rewarding at the same time.

Since its founding, Camp Aldersgate has embodied the love of Christ through unconditional acceptance. We have powerfully transformed lives through hope, love, fun, joy and peace. This frame of mind has guided our development from the beginning and compels us to continually improve. We are proud of what we have done, thankful for the experiences we have been given, and dedicated to not becoming complacent.

One example of the “intentional” programming and improvements we have made will be seen in our 2014 Weekend Camps, once called “Respite.” While we will continue to provide a well-deserved break from caregiving duties for our families, our mission is to “create life-changing experiences for individuals with special needs, enabling them to expand their worlds and express their unique voices,” a goal well beyond the definition of the term “respite.” Weekend Camps do provide respite but they are more than respite, they are opportunities to create fun, engaging, and beneficial experiences in a camp setting.

Camp Aldersgate’s Weekend Camps provide developmentally appropriate opportunities for our campers to participate in and experience activities that promote cognitive, physical, social and emotional growth in a positive and encouraging environment. Through successful experiences, campers are able to learn skills that can translate into productive, healthy and satisfying lives. Activity planning for each weekend includes a mix of physical activities, outdoor activities, structured and free play. Program quality assurance is maintained through the use of intentional camper placement and consistent review. This process ensures that each camper is on the most appropriate track and that activities remain beneficial and engaging.

We have worked to expand the eligibility of our participants that will include a wider range of special needs and diagnoses to accommodate campers who have previously been excluded. We have focused our approach to identifying the individual camper’s strengths and needs through the use of a “Trail Guide” and placement on one of three “Trails” intentionally designed to meet those needs. We have transitioned from character-based themes to special interest and skill-based themes that more closely align with the camp setting.

Again, what an exciting time for our campers and their families. Our programming does not just include our year-round weekend camps. Camp Aldersgate also provides week-long summer camps for kids 6-18 who have medical and physical disabilities (even some for siblings and friends!), a youth volunteer program which provides for personal growth through volunteer experiences with campers with special needs, a program for senior adults that provides educational and recreational activities, social interaction, fellowship, and a nutritious lunch once a week from August through May, and the Camp partners with other organizations throughout the year for various specialty camps.

In 2013, Camp Aldersgate served 1,247 individuals from 115 cities and 55 counties throughout Arkansas, as well as six other states. Employed more than 60 counselors from 30 cities across Arkansas and from three states. 938 volunteers contributed an amazing 34,028 hours of service to the Camp.

As we look back on all the wonderful happenings at Camp Aldersgate, I can't help but to be reminded of the vision of the United Methodist Women, and their hard work in those early days. I appreciate the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church through which your apportionment funding continues Camp Aldersgate's significant programs. The quote below embodies not only the work of the United Methodists, but the continued mission of Camp Aldersgate.

"Camp is where I discover what we have in common... not how we are different."

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the metropolitan area of Atlanta, Candler offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler celebrates its Centennial in 2014, marking our 100th anniversary with commemorative events that reflect on our past and a conference on theology and the church that envisions the future. The yearlong celebration begins in August with the opening of the second phase of Candler's new 128,600-square-foot, LEED-certified building, seven years in the making.

Not only is Candler expanding its physical space this year—it is expanding degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler is introducing five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees pairing divinity and social work and divinity and development practice. With these newest additions to our degree programs, Candler graduates truly will be ready to lead wherever God calls.

Candler's student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 441, with 340 seeking the Master of Divinity, 47 the Master of Theological Studies, 21 the Master of Theology, 15 the Doctor of Theology, and 18 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student population is 32 percent U.S. ethnic minority, 49 percent women, and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 39 denominations, with half identifying as United Methodist.

We continue to emphasize preparing our students for leadership in an increasingly global context, and now offer 14 academic exchanges with theology schools in 12 countries across five continents. In addition, Candler has an ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, and participates each year in travel seminars to the Middle East and in World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars, traveling in 2014 to Nigeria, Costa Rica, and Brazil.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.edu.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religious Education, the Master of Arts in Church Music, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) in Pastoral Counseling, and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). There are also a number of dual degree programs offered in cooperation with seminaries and schools in the Atlanta Theological Association. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus.

Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. Included below are just a few of the examples of how this great historic institution of the church has lived out its mission and furthered its vision:

- 1) In previous reports to this Annual Conference, we shared the great news of Gammon enrolling some of its largest entering classes on record. Gammon continues to shatter previously set enrollment records as it welcomes new cohorts of called and principled young leaders who are excited about the claim of God upon their lives. Under the current President-Dean (Dr. Albert D. Mosley), the institution has developed and implemented an Enrollment Enhancement and Retention Plan that has led to an increase in enrollment by over 50%, and an increase in the retention rate from a decade-long low of 60% to 85%.
- 2) In October of 2013, Gammon held its second annual Trailblazers Justice Conference, in conjunction with the institution's 130th Founders' Day Celebration. Former United States Ambassador & Presidential Medal of Freedom Recipient Andrew Young delivered the keynote address to a standing-room only crowd in attendance at this phenomenal event. Ambassador Young reflected upon the church's role in encouraging and pushing him to become involved in the civil rights movement. Additionally, he implored the audience to continue their work towards justice and equality for all of God's children. As the "school of the prophets," Gammon has a unique and rich history of involvement in many civil and social rights issues, including serving as the founding place for the Atlanta Student Movement (an entity that would later become the core of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee – SNCC).
- 3) "Voices of Prophets: Speaking to Public Policy, Ethics, and Justice" was the theme of the institution's 130th Founders' Day Celebration. A panel featuring several area judges and elected officials delved into an intense conversation about the mass incarceration of young African American men, and the impact this mass incarceration has upon the black community. This panel event, which also took place before a standing-room only audience, explored the black church's historic role as social agitator and advocate for justice, and offered suggestions for how the black church can continue to honor its historic legacy of justice. This particular event, as well as most of the other public events sponsored by Gammon during the past academic year, was aimed at equipping our students to become public theologians who are fully capable of addressing modern day issues that impact the black church and beyond.

Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

HENDRIX COLLEGE

"The place God calls you to is where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet." Frederick Buechner

Providing quality education and helping individuals find their calling was the vision of Hendrix College founder, the Reverend Isham Burrow, and continues to be a part of our ongoing mission. Throughout the history of Methodism, more than 1,200 Methodist colleges were established. Today, 123 United Methodist institutions of higher education remain in the United States, and Hendrix College is proud to be one of them. Recognized widely as one of the best liberal arts colleges in the country, Hendrix continues to commit to excellence and to changing lives. We express our appreciation to the Arkansas Conference for the support it gives to the programs and mission of this institution. As a United Methodist-related college, Hendrix embraces the freedom of the academy where students and faculty explore the boundaries of knowledge while setting a context for that exploration in an ethos that values cultivation of both the mind and the spirit. In this way we fulfill our mission to cultivate whole persons and to prepare our graduates for lives of service and fulfillment in their communities and in the world. We are pleased to share some of the highlights and ways Hendrix is changing lives.

Ministry / Seminary Exploration

- Since 2004, 40 Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary, with 50% of these students attending UM seminaries.
- Nine students are currently in seminary.

- Next year, we anticipate 4 students will enroll in seminary. These are students from this year's graduating class and the previous two graduating classes.
- In the next four years, we anticipate 15 students will enroll in seminary.
- Approximately 8-12 students who are discerning ministry meet each week.
- The College annually provides up to $500 per student in travel funds to visit a seminary. Approximately 6-10 students take advantage of this program each year.

UMYF Scholars / Religious Life / Mission Trips

- The UMYF Leadership Scholarship Program is completing its 19th year. Currently 28 students participate in the program and there are more than 150 alumni from the program.
- More than 400 UM churches in all five districts have had Hendrix students assist with worship services in the past 19 years.
- More than 150 students participate in weekly programming including chapel, communion, Bible studies, a youth group-style program called "Fellowship," or Tuesday Talks, a discussion of vocation and calling conducted by a faculty or staff member.
- This year, 120 students applied for 30 planned mission trip positions to Dominican Republic; Seattle, Washington; and Kosovo.

Use of Hendrix Space/Church Relations

- Methodist groups that the College hosts for no rental fee include the Arkansas Conference Course of Studies, Arkansas United Methodist Conference Historical Society, and local UM church staff meetings.
- The College also dedicates a display case in the Student Life and Technology Building to Methodist artifacts to remind the students, faculty and staff of the historic connection.
- Methodist groups the College hosts for a 25% reduction in rental fees are: Arkansas School of Christian Mission.
- Hendrix provides space at no rental fee to the Arkansas Methodist Archives.

Continuing Education / Lectures

- This year on campus, the College hosted the following speakers/preachers: Rev. Will Choate, Dr. Walter Brueggemann, Rev. Mark Norman, and Bishop Gary Mueller.

Financial Aid/Enrollment

- For the 2013 calendar year, the College received $296,058 from the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, with 100% of the church apportionment going toward student scholarships.
- Annually, the College provides more than $4.6 million in financial assistance to United Methodist students.
- Of the $4.6 million, the College annually provides more than $150,000 directly to the three specific groups of Methodist students: 1) UMYF Leadership Scholars, 2) UM clergy dependents at a one-half tuition discount, 3) UM students who are candidates for ordained ministry.
- Annually, the College provides funding for two full-time ordained chaplains and programming at a cost of over $300,000.
- The College sponsored a UMYF Visit Day for the third consecutive year.
- For the past few years, Hendrix has enrolled an average of 650 Arkansas students each year. The number of students from Arkansas has increased over the past few years.

Hendrix College remains committed to ensuring that all qualified students have access to a Hendrix education, regardless of their family's financial circumstances. The amount of money needed to fund scholarships and financial aid for our students continues to increase each year. This year, Hendrix is providing more than $34 million in student scholarships and financial aid. This represents approximately 46% of our total budget. Our budget for student financial assistance has doubled in the past four years in response to the growing need of students and their families for assistance with financing a college education.

The relationship between Methodists and higher education is rooted in the historical teachings of John Wesley. Hendrix College cherishes its relationship with the United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Wesley's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity, spiritual formation, knowledge, and vital piety. We are grateful for the many ways in which United Methodist Churches of Arkansas support Hendrix, including your apportionment gifts that go directly to students to provide financial assistance that ensure access to our strong academic program, the Miller Center, a wide range of religious life and spiritual formation opportunities, and the UMYF Leadership Scholars Program. Thank you for your continuing support of Hendrix.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

Lydia Patterson Institute opened its doors for the first time to the school year 1913-14, making 2013-14, the 100th session. We celebrate the time passed, and with it we celebrate the thousands of young men and women that have walked our halls. We celebrate the hundreds of young men who began their journey in ministry here and have dedicated their lives to the church. We celebrate the teachers, nurses, engineers, doctors and lawyers and many other professionals whose seeds were planted here.

Most importantly, we celebrate Mrs. Lydia Patterson. Unfortunately, Mrs. Patterson lived a rather short life. In that life, she accepted her calling to ministry with the children of South El Paso, and her legacy lives on. Her love and inspiration for the welfare of those in need has lived for 100 years. This is made evident today in the number of teachers, staff members, and administrators who have dedicated their lives to changing those of the students. The incredible dedication of the staff is manifested in their years of service; 12 over 10 years; 5 over 20 years; 6 over 30 years; and Miss Cristina Woo who has served for 42 years. Mrs. Patterson did not know at the time, but her calling made for the calling of thousands of others who followed. She placed the first stone and, in the last one hundred years, a temple was built. In this temple, thousands have worshiped, thousands have been educated, and thousands have made a better life.

Today, the Student Lay Ministry Program is placing interns throughout the country. Some are in seminary and others are already leading churches. Ninety-seven percent of graduates are going to college. The 2013 graduating class received $1.6 million in scholarships from United Methodist colleges and universities alone. Every student, past and present, begins to change his or her life the moment they step inside the walls of this temple.

The spiritual temple at Lydia Patterson remains intact, but the physical buildings have worn and tired. In preparation for the next 100 years, a capital campaign for renovation and a strategic plan for the latest state of the art technology in the classroom, labs, media and research and spiritual development centers is in place. The new chapel will provide the place where all the students, faculty and staff can worship together, and as a multi-purpose facility, will be shared with our community.

The cities of El Paso and Juarez have joined us in this venture, and have committed to a large portion of this capital campaign. The board of trustees, faculty, and staff has pledged 100%, and the students and alumni are equally dedicated to the success of this campaign.

Lastly, we celebrate those who have made and continue to make this ministry, our friends and supporters. They are the foundation of our work. They are our leaders, mentors and inspiration. We have seen their commitment once more as we prepare for the next 100 years. We wish to thank those who have already stepped up and joined us by giving or pledging to the capital campaign. With the love of God, the love and prayers of those in ministry with us, and in memory of Mrs. Lydia Patterson, we will reach our goal and be prepared to carry her legacy for another 100 years.

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) is an ecumenical graduate school of religion that provides theological education for 300+ students each semester, representing close to 30 denominations. The seminary is accredited by SACS and ATS and is approved by the University Senate to prepare ordained leaders for the United Methodist Church. In any given semester, total enrollment includes 25-35% Methodist students, by far the largest denominational percentage.

Curriculum for United Methodist Students

In addition to the seminary's core curriculum, many courses are offered specifically for Methodist students. Some of those that have either been taught recently or are planned for upcoming semesters include:

- Early Methodism: History, Doctrine, & Polity
- American Methodism: History, Doctrine, & Polity
- The Means of Grace in the Wesleyan Tradition
- Evangelism and Discipleship in the Wesleyan Tradition
- Models of Wesleyan Pastoral Leadership
- Women in Methodist History
- Pastoral Care in the Wesleyan Tradition
- The Practical Theology of John Wesley

MTS also offers these and all of our courses to auditors, which is a convenient and relevant way for United Methodist clergy to earn CEUs and lay people to enhance their skills and knowledge.

New Initiative: The Methodist House of Studies

At MTS, we have begun to envision a new possibility that will greatly expand our work with the United Methodist Church. Traditionally, many people have perceived a gap between “the academy” and “the church.” We have become convinced that such a binary way of thinking is deeply flawed. The relationship between seminary and church ought to be marked by an organic, mutually beneficial partnership. Within that partnership, it is the seminary’s calling to be in service to the church—preparing women and men for pastoral leadership and resourcing the current ministry needs of pastors and congregations. In other words, we believe that there is a point of intersection between the mission of the seminary and the mission of the church. Our commitment is to focus our resources and attention at that point of intersection.

Our answer to the challenge of focusing our work at the intersection of seminary and church comes in the form of a major new initiative in the life of MTS—the Methodist House of Studies. Under the direction of Dr. Andrew C. Thompson, the Methodist House of Studies will serve as a “community within a community” where our Methodist students can take advantage of the best in Wesleyan theological formation within MTS’ richly ecumenical context. The House of Studies will also serve as a vehicle for connecting the resources of MTS with the needs of the wider church, which will bear fruit by offering pastors and congregations new avenues and contexts for mission and ministry.

Part of our reflection on how to better serve the church has included an examination of what it is that both seminary and church are called to do at this present time in history. We believe that a seminary is called to the work of theological formation. We use that term “formation” because we think it is broader than the conventional term “education.” Theological formation involves preparing women and men for ministry in holistic ways—by shaping their minds, hearts, hands, and feet through an immersion in the texts, habits, and practices of the Christian tradition.

At the same time, we believe that the church is called to be engaged in missional evangelism. That’s a term meant to capture what it means to share the good news (evangelism) through a set of practices guided by God and focused on the calling of all followers of Jesus Christ to go out into the world to make disciples (mission). Missional evangelism has been described in this way: “Empowered by the Holy Spirit, the Church proclaims and embodies God’s reconciling work in Jesus Christ for the salvation of a broken and alienated world” (Dietterich & Warner). By thinking of the church’s calling as a calling to missional evangelism, we can embrace a vision of the church as continually pursuing the charge given to us in Matthew 28:18-20.

So a seminary is called to the work of theological formation, and the church is called to the work of missional evangelism. What does this mean for the seminary's posture toward the church if the seminary's relationship to the church ought to be defined by service in supplying the church with what she needs to flourish? What does it look like for a seminary to commit its work to the intersection point of theological formation and missional evangelism? These are the questions that will guide the direction of the Methodist House of Studies in the coming years.

New Initiative: Certificate in Wesleyan Studies

We are also happy to report one initial fruit of this work: Our first concrete outcome is the creation of a Certificate in Wesleyan Studies available to any student who successfully completes a prescribed curriculum within one of our master's-level degree programs geared toward Wesleyan theology, history, and pastoral ministry. This certificate program has been approved by the MTS faculty and is now available to any enrolled student.

Our ecumenical partnership with the United Methodist Church goes back for decades—and from a strong foundation we believe a vital future can be cultivated and grown. At this crucial juncture in the life of both seminary and church, we are excited to anticipate advancing the relationship between the two by the coming growth and development of the Methodist House of Studies.

On-going partnership with the United Methodist Church

Each quarter, MTS welcomes the UM Council to a luncheon, were in addition to food and fellowship, clergy experience a classroom-style presentation by a faculty member. This gathering is open to any United Methodist clergy, whether or not they graduated from MTS.

Of the full-time teaching faculty of 13, four are United Methodist: Dr. Lee Ramsey, Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics; Dr. Andrew C. Thompson, Assistant Professor of Historical Theology and Wesleyan Studies; Dr. John Kilzer, Director of the Theology & Arts program; and Rev. Billy Vaughan, Director of the Formation for Ministry program.

United Methodist adjunct faculty include Dr. David Bush, Dr. Bradley Gabriel, Dr. Jonathan Jeffords, Dr. Herbert Lester, Dr. Scott Morris and Dr. Stephen Shapard.

Our board of trustees has 24 members, four of whom are United Methodist, representing the four Annual Conferences we primarily serve.

- Rev. Rick Kirchoff, retired as senior pastor from Germantown United Methodist Church, serving now with The Clergy Coaching Network through the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health at Methodist Healthcare in Memphis;
- Rev. Tom Bell, retired District Superintendent of the North Alabama Conference, also retired from the Alabama Army National Guard as a Colonel;
- Rev. Robert Marble (M.Div. '96), pastor of Mabelvale UMC in Little Rock, who serves on the Central District of Arkansas Conference Board of Trustees;
- Mr. Johnnie Coombs, businessman, attends Blue Mountain UMC in Blue Mountain, MS, where he is Chairman of the Board, Alternate to Annual Conference, and member of the Pastor Relations and Grounds & Maintenance committees

In addition, two District Superintendents in the Memphis Annual Conference are MTS alumni: Rev. Sandra Leatherwood Clay (Asbury) and Rev. Steve Cavitt (Dyersburg).

Jesus taught us the importance of a solid foundation for any building. Here at MTS, we are building faith and skills for ministry in the men and women God is calling to serve the church. It is my prayer and my commitment that we build on the solid foundation of the gospel, staying grounded in tradition and open to the Spirit. We are grateful for your partnership and support in this essential work.

METHODIST FAMILY HEALTH

Established in 1899 as the Methodist Orphanage and later known widely as the Methodist Children's Home, today's Methodist Family Health provides comprehensive behavioral and mental health care services to children, adolescents and families in Arkansas.

Methodist Family Health is a caring and effective provider of behavioral and mental health care services that all United Methodists in Arkansas are encouraged to know about, to utilize, to support and to celebrate. We are proud to be part of the United Methodist Connection!

The mission at Methodist Family Health is to give the best possible care to those who may need our help and to treat the whole person: behaviorally, emotionally and spiritually. Methodist Family Health currently has more than 500 full- and part-time employees and serves more than 1,400 clients daily. Programs and services are located in 20 cities across the state.

Methodist Family Health is staffed by highly skilled individuals who function within a Continuum of Care that offers levels of care ranging from the most restrictive (acute psychiatric hospital care) to the least restrictive (outpatient counseling), while also providing all levels of intermediate care. We believe in a team approach to treatment that includes both client and family participation.

The Continuum of Care at Methodist Family Health includes:

- Methodist Behavioral Hospital — a 60-bed hospital that is home to Acute (short-term) and Sub-Acute (long-term) inpatient programs for children and adolescents up to age 18. The goal is to stabilize behavior and return the client to a less-restrictive environment. (Maumelle)
- Residential Treatment Centers — care for children and adolescents who are struggling with chronic issues. Again, the goal is to stabilize behavior and return the client to a less-restrictive environment. (Little Rock and Bono)
- Therapeutic Group Homes — a family-like setting of care led by Teaching Parents who offer emotional and behavioral guidance and support. (Eight homes located in Heber Springs, Helena-West Helena, Little Rock, Magnolia (2), Mulberry (2) and Searcy)
- Therapeutic Foster Care — care for children who are in the custody of the state Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS). Children are matched with trained therapeutic foster parents who can provide for their needs. (Multiple locations statewide).
- Emergency Shelter — a nurturing environment for children who are in the custody of DCFS and have nowhere else to go. (Little Rock)
- Therapeutic Day Treatment Programs — specialized schools (K-12) that serve children and youth who can no longer function in a regular academic setting. The educational, behavioral, emotional and social needs of students are addressed. (Little Rock and Benton)
- Outpatient Counseling Clinics — an array of counseling services are offered, including individual, family and group therapy, behavior management, medication management, parent support and education. (Eight locations: Batesville, Heber Springs, Little Rock, Hot Springs, Fayetteville, Jonesboro, Magnolia and Cherokee Village)

- School-based Counseling – outpatient mental health services offered in local school settings. (Eight locations: Harrisburg School District, Jonesboro School District, Lincoln Consolidated School District, Nettleton Public Schools, Vilonia School District and White County Central School District, as well as Success Achievement Academy in Jonesboro and Crossroads Learning Center in Quitman.)
- Arkansas CARES (Centers for Addictions Research, Education and Services) – focuses on breaking the cycle of maternal addiction; includes a residential substance abuse treatment center, mental health services for mothers and their young children, and early intervention services. (Little Rock)
- Kaleidoscope Grief Center – grieving children, teens and their families receive help dealing with loss and bereavement through education, therapeutic and recreational services, grief support programs, an annual grief camp and traditional counseling. (Little Rock)

All programs use the Teaching-Family Model, a highly structured treatment approach proven to be effective with troubled children. The model uses positive, non-punitive interactions to encourage behavior change and achieve positive outcomes. Methodist Family Health is the only behavioral healthcare system in the state that uses the Teaching-Family Model.

Pastoral care is an important aspect of the care we offer. Methodist Family Health offers Bible studies, spirituality services, devotionals and many special events. Our Children's Bible Fund makes a Bible available to every client who wishes to receive one. We are blessed by the pastoral leadership of Rev. Scott Moore, chaplain, and Bishop Kenneth W. Hicks, director of ministries, and the ongoing support of United Methodist clergy and laity all across the state. Churches throughout Arkansas continue to be welcoming and nurturing friends to the young clients in our many programs.

Methodist Family Health receives no apportioned funds from the Arkansas Conference, thus the support of United Methodist congregations and individuals is crucial. We deeply appreciate the support congregations around the state have shown, through gifts (both in-kind and monetary), volunteerism, and caring for and nurturing children in our care. We appreciate the Arkansas Conference for designating Methodist Family Health as a “supported organization” of the conference and allowing us to tell the story of Methodist Family Health and collect a special offering in churches each December.

For those churches, church groups and individuals interested in learning more about how they can partner with us and support our efforts to make a difference in the lives of children and families in Arkansas, consider these opportunities:

- Encourage your church’s participation in the annual Christmas Campaign and special offering in December and make an annual contribution.
- Be an ambassador for Methodist Family Health in your church and community. We need local representatives to make sure parishioners know about Methodist Family Health, our programs, services and special events. For more about the Ambassador program, contact Maggie Beeler at mbeeler@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4220.
- Invite a representative of Methodist Family Health to speak to your congregation, class or church gathering. Maggie Beeler can help with that, also.
- Give to the Rev. Regnier Memorial Camp Fund that allows children in our care to enjoy a summer camp experience and the beauty of Camp Tanako. Support the MFH Bible Fund that makes a Bible available to every child, teen and mother who enters a Methodist Family Health program. Contact Jamie Griffith at jgriffith@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4209, or give online at www.methodistfamily.org.
- Join the Get Up & Give collection drive during Lent and collect necessity items for our children and youth. Contact Jane Dennis for details at jdennis@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4210.
- Take part in the annual Walk for Children and Families over the Arkansas River’s Big Dam Bridge, coming up on Aug. 1. This is a favorite of church youth groups! Annie Davis is the contact at adavis@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4201.
- To learn more about volunteer opportunities, immediate needs and ways to support Methodist Family Health, ask Jamie Griffith at jgriffith@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4209.

We are proud to be caring for children and carrying on the tradition that Methodists of Arkansas began more than 115 years ago. We want United Methodists across the state consider Methodist Family Health a valuable resource and extension of their local church ministries to children and families.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CENTER

The Mountain ministry is alive and growing! The renewal of our beloved Mountain is well underway and the results are amazing! In 2013 we welcomed almost 20,000 guests from every walk of life to our United Methodist Mountain and provided the radical Christian Hospitality we are known for. We ministered to young and old, believers and non-believers alike, in an environment where the presence of the Holy Spirit is so real it is almost tangible.

Our outreach ministry grew in the summer of 2013 when we launched the only “Christian” swim team in Northwest Arkansas. We are the Mount Sequoyah Marlins and our T-shirts (donated by Rev. Pearce of Wichita Falls, TX) declare our mantra, “be strong and courageous” Joshua 1:9. Last year our Marlins learned about being good stewards of the resources God provides us as they swam their way to the regional championship under the coaching of Anita Parisi (former All-American swimmer for Rice University). As their season ended, they planted a tree on the Mountain as a reminder that we steward all that God gives us with love and adoration for Him.

In addition to our swim team, Mount Sequoyah Center partnered with Central United Methodist Church to host the Mountain’s first ever Kanakuk Day Kamp. Over 100 children attended the week-long Christian day camp and we were able to provide more than 25 scholarships for under-represented children to attend the camp as well. The camp was an amazing success and we are scheduled to host two weeks of day camp this year.

The Mountain has always ministered to United Methodists across the jurisdiction and in 2013 we launched our “At The Cross” program series with a Senior Adult Fall Retreat in October. Participants from seven different conferences came together for fun and fellowship with daily devotionals, music and entertainment, and a couple of excursions featuring a train ride through the beautiful Boston mountain range and a trip to the premier American Art Museum, Crystal Bridges.

As the occupancy on the Mountain grows, so grows our ability to support United Methodist Missions and events with discounted lodging and meeting facilities. In 2013, Mount Sequoyah Center extended $30,000 in discounts to United Methodist groups who came to the Mountain for educational events, group retreats, and personal retreats. As we grow we will continue to support our missions with our goal being to one day operate in a way that allows us to provide grants to United Methodist Missions across the jurisdiction.

We want to thank all the United Methodists, Jurisdictional Conferences, and Foundations who are so generously supporting our efforts to remodel the Center. Your contributions have allowed us to remodel the New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Oaks cottages, as well as the Sunset house and the Bailey Center. In 2014 we will remodel the Louisiana, Fayetteville, and Missouri cottages and we hope to also prepare Galloway House to provide a contemplative setting for pastors who need to rest and relax. Thank you again for your prayers and support and we look forward to seeing you on the Mountain soon.

Kindest Regards,
Abby G. Foster, CEO

OZARK MISSION PROJECT

Over 700 youth and adults will attend Ozark Mission Project camps during the summer of 2013, serving more than 300 families in need throughout the state of Arkansas. Twelve camps will be held, ten being hosted by the following churches: Maumelle, West Memphis, Lakewood, Winfield, Grand Avenue (Hot Springs) El Dorado, Camden, Cornerstone, and Siloam Springs.

2014 will mark the 28th year that Ozark Mission Project has sponsored mission opportunities in Arkansas. Not only has OMP made it possible for thousands of youth and adults to serve and grow as Christian Disciples, but it has provided an opportunity for college age young adults to grow as Christian leaders through their experience as OMP Summer Staff. Many of these former college staff members now serve as Pastors, Youth Directors, and Missionaries in Arkansas and as far away as Iraq.

In January of 2014, OMP sponsored a college mission trip to Moore, Oklahoma. Fifty students made the trip and helped with the tornado relief efforts.

The mission of Ozark Mission Project is Transforming Lives through Worship, Fellowship, and Hands-on-Mission. To that end every Ozark Mission Project experience not only gives participants an opportunity to serve others in the name of Jesus Christ, but also provides daily worship, sharing, and recreational activities for youth and adults to grow in their relationship with Christ and to develop supportive community.

Over the past year Ozark Mission Project has welcomed Rev. Carness Vaughan, Nancy Mulhearn, Sarah Argue, Patty Sims, Greg Gibson, Jeremy Bruner and Andy Cameron to its Board of Directors. We have also hired a part time mission coordinator, Catherine Gatlin, who handles registration and volunteers.

Ozark Mission Project depends on over 150 people who serve as volunteer directors, drivers, cooks, tool coordinators, and volunteer staff that ensure camp operates smoothly. If you'd like to learn more about how you can become more involved with Ozark Mission Project, please email info@ozarkmissionproject.org.

Since March 2013, I have served as Executive Director of OMP. During this past year, I have enjoyed traveling our state speaking to churches, youth groups, United Methodist Women groups and being a part of mission programs. If your church would like for me to come speak, or is interested in becoming a "camp" location, please email me at director@ozarkmissionproject.org.

Thank you to the 47 churches that sent youth to camp last summer and the 37 that have already committed to sending youth this summer. We appreciate your support of Ozark Mission Project.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Perkins celebrates our vital connections with the Arkansas Annual Conference in several significant ways.

- Eight Arkansas Conference students are enrolled at Perkins, including five M.Div., one Ph.D., one D.Min., and one non-degree student.
- In October 2014, we anticipate that seventeen persons will graduate from the Perkins' Certification in Spiritual Direction program held each year at Mount Eagle Retreat Center. 18 students completed the program in July 2012.
- Perkins celebrates the distinguished accomplishments and service of many alumni/ae in Arkansas, including Arkansas Area Bishop Gary Mueller (M.Div.'79).

Perkins celebrated a record spring 2014 enrollment of 24 new students, in addition to 81 new students who enrolled in fall 2013. Among all Perkins students, approximately two-thirds are United Methodist and more than one-third are ethnic minority students. Our gender balance between male and female students in Master's degree programs remains almost exactly 50%. The Doctor of Ministry program continues to grow with students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and Dallas. Our Ph.D. program includes two Latino Ph.D. students supported through a grant from the Luce Foundation to Perkins' Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions.

Rev. Jeannie Treviño-Teddlie was honored for faithful service as director of the Mexican American Program and UM Regional Course of Study School from 2002 until her retirement in 2013. Dr. Philip Wingeier-Rayo, currently professor of Religion at Pfeiffer University in North Carolina, has been named new director of the Mexican American and Hispanic-Latino/a Church Ministries Program, effective June 1, 2014. Dr. Wingeier-Rayo also will be nominated to serve as director of the regional Course of Study School, and will hold the title “Professor of Christian Mission and Intercultural Studies.”

Perkins was excited to welcome two new faculty members in fall 2013: Tamara Lewis (Ph.D., Vanderbilt, 2014), instructor, History of Christianity; and Natalia Marandiu (Ph.D., Yale, 2013), assistant professor of Christian Theology.

Perkins recently received two significant grants from the Lilly Endowment. A $500,000 grant will support our newly established Center for Preaching Excellence, with Alyce McKenzie, Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship, serving as director. A second grant of $249,981 will support research to study the indebtedness of theological students and help improve the economic well-being of future ministers.

Perkins is blessed with gifted faculty and staff members, inspiring students, beautiful facilities, and vibrant ministries. We thank our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for continuing generous support, including referrals of prospective students.

Perkins appreciates our relationship with the Arkansas Conference. We ask for your continued prayers and support as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and Peace,

William B. Lawrence

Dean and Professor of American Church History

As we move forward as an institution, we are especially excited to witness the construction of the PSC Student Center. The building of this structure would not have been possible without the assistance of our friends from the United Methodist Church.

Also, through the Office of Religious Life at PSC, we take seriously our role at the college to prepare leaders to serve the church and the world. We hope to further expand the opportunities given to our students as they seek to discern the call of God upon their lives. Our chaplain, Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, through the Office of Religious Life, coordinated efforts to provide opportunities for our students to serve the church through a plethora of ways and serve the world by involvement in mission. This office serves as a meaningful way to engage our students with the church through worship, mission, study and service. The relationship between Philander Smith and the United Methodist Church is pivotal in our success. As a college, we cherish the many ways Methodists, both locally and nationally, support us and we pray that you will continue to assist us in reaching our goals.

Philander Smith College treasures the Methodist heritage and we ask for your continued prayers and support. Please be assured that the sacrificial gifts of the Arkansas Annual Conference to our college through apportionment dollars are seeds planted on fertile ground.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of The United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, in Oklahoma City and the Greater Kansas City area.

During the 2013-2014 academic year, 201 students from 23 annual conferences and 4 countries were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology on both campuses. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 216 students the Overland Park, Kansas, Springfield, Missouri, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma locations.

Twenty master's degree students and twenty-three doctoral students graduated from the Kansas City campus in May 2013. Six master of divinity students graduated at the 3rd Commencement Convocation in Oklahoma in August 2013. Laity from the Seminary Lite program in Oklahoma also received certificates.

Saint Paul at Oklahoma City University (OCU) began its 6th year in September. Dr. Amy Oden came to the Oklahoma City campus as Professor of Early Church History and Spirituality. The Association of Theological Schools authorized the campus to offer all courses leading to the Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Ministry, Master of Arts (Theological Studies), and Doctor of Ministry Degrees. They also lifted the residency requirement to complete one-third of the courses on the Kansas City campus. This is a major step in the development of Saint Paul at OCU. The success of Saint Paul in Oklahoma City has been a collaborative effort, strengthened by the support of the Oklahoma Conference of The United Methodist Church and United Methodist-related Oklahoma City University.

The seminary sold its Truman Road campus in Kansas City, Missouri to Guadalupe Centers, Inc. Guadalupe Centers, Inc. is the longest continuously operating organization serving Latinos in the United States. They provide early childhood, secondary, preparatory and adult educational programs; facilitate access to health and social services for all ages; promote and provide Latino cultural enrichment events; and sponsor social activities for diverse communities.

Students and faculty began classes on the Greater Kansas City (GKC) campus located in the East Wing of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection, Leawood, Kansas, in September. Classes continue to be video-linked with the Oklahoma City campus. The seminary's staff and faculty offices are located under a mile away from the classroom location.

Saint Paul will launch three new masters' curricula in the fall of 2014. For the MDiv students, the new curriculum marks a return to a more praxis-based, integrated curriculum. The curriculum is grounded in spiritual formation with numerous practicums and faculty-led small groups to integrate seminary studies with vocational formation. Students will reflect upon their work during two intentional assessments mid-way through the degree and near the end of their studies.

The degree programs will require fewer hours which will mean less debt for Saint Paul graduates. The MDiv will require 79 credit hours for the degree rather than the 90 credit hours now required. The Masters of Arts in Christian Ministry and Masters of Arts (Theological Studies) will also be completed in fewer hours--54 credit hours for the MACM vs. 60 now and 49 for the MA(TS) vs. 60 now.

The trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Saint Paul thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Plans are well underway for the 2016 Jurisdictional Conference to held July 13-16, 2016 in Wichita, Kansas. The newly formed Great Plains Annual Conference will be our host, under the leadership of Bishop Scott Jones.

Delegates to this conference will be elected as early as this spring in some Conferences, and by all the Annual Conferences by spring of 2015. The delegate count to the Jurisdictional Conference will be 216, half lay, half clergy. This is forty fewer delegates than we had in 2012 when the Conference met in Oklahoma City. The reduction is due to two reasons: 1.) The total number of delegates to General Conference was reduced, to keep costs down. 2.) The rapid growth of the church in Africa has produced more Annual Conferences there and each, though some are small, get at least one lay and one clergy delegate to the General Conference. So when the cap is reduced and the new Annual Conferences are accounted for, it required a sharp reduction in delegates apportioned to the US Annual Conferences.

The expenses to hold the Jurisdictional Conference come from the apportionment for the SCJ Administration Fund. Out of that annual apportionment of $323,163, each year $98,000 is held in reserve to fund the quadrennial meeting.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

SMU is commemorating a major milestone as the University celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915.

SMU's total fall 2013 enrollment was 10,929, including 6,357 undergraduates and 4,572 graduate students. Enrollment continues to increase in ethnic, socio-economic and geographic diversity. Ethnic minority students made up 25 percent of total enrollment in fall 2013. A record international enrollment of 1,445 students represented 97 foreign countries, with the largest numbers coming from China, India and Saudi Arabia.

SMU consistently ranks in the top one-fourth of "best national universities" in U.S. News & World Report. In 2014, SMU ranks 60th among 281 national universities.

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies SMU as a "high research activity" university. During 2012-13, SMU received $19.9 million in external funding for research and sponsored projects worldwide. Current research subjects include natural hazards, water quality, cyber security and treatments for cancer and diabetes.

Because of the early success of SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, the campaign goal was raised from $750 million to $1 billion. To date, SMU has received more than $844 million in gifts and pledges for scholarships, academic programs, endowed faculty positions and campus improvements and facilities.

Campaign gifts are helping to fund renovations of existing facilities and new construction. Moody Coliseum reopened in December 2013 after extensive renovation and expansion.

SMU's new Residential Commons complex, to open in fall 2014, consists of five new residence halls and a dining facility. The complex will enable SMU to implement a residency requirement for sophomores along with first-year students. The new halls will include classrooms and accommodations for live-in faculty. Six other SMU residence halls are being modified as Residential Commons.

The year 2013 was designated the Year of the Library, marking the 100th anniversary of the beginning of SMU's library collections, which recently passed the four-million-volume mark. Major renovations are planned for Fondren Library Center and Bridwell Library of Perkins School of Theology.

The George W. Bush Presidential Center, consisting of Library, Museum and independent Institute, was dedicated at SMU in April 2013, with all five living U.S. presidents participating. Under sponsorship of the Bush Institute, symposia have been conducted on subjects that promote economic growth, education reform, global health and human freedom. Dr. Eric Bing, a renowned expert on global health issues, is the first to hold concurrent appointments as a new SMU faculty member and senior fellow of the Bush Institute.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS

Grants Help Develop Clergy and Lay Leaders

Discretionary grants from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas surpassed $1 million for the first time in 2013 as we celebrated our 50th year of service. The Foundation Board decided to focus this significant grant-making on leadership development for both clergy and laity that makes the Arkansas Conference better able to carry out its mission of making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

To that end, 2013 grants underwrote clergy participation in the Advanced Pastoral Leadership program in Houston and the Perkins/Cox program at SMU in Dallas. We continued to fund the spiritual direction training at Mt. Eagle for both clergy and laity and many of those who attended in the past are at work providing spiritual direction throughout the state.

UMFA grants enabled groups of laity and clergy to attend the UMC Large Church Initiative conference helping larger churches find new ideas to strengthen their ministries. Fifty-four Arkansas lay and clergy leaders attended the Leadership Institute at the Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City to find ways to energize and grow their congregations through UMFA grants.

In 2013 there were 17 United Methodist Foundation Seminary Scholars who attended United Methodist seminaries and made a commitment to return to Arkansas serving our Conference. Ten more students were on seminary campuses preparing for future service. Because costs of a seminary education continued to rise, the Grants Committee of the Board voted to increase the annual seminary scholarship award to $19,000 in 2014.

UMFA also underwrote the engagement of professionals to assist the annual conference in its revitalization efforts, including a study on outdoor ministry, a communications audit, and a consultation involving the conference health insurance program. We expect the Arkansas Conference UMC Imagine No Malaria initiative to surpass its goal, and the entire $333,000 commitment from the Foundation to be matched.

Total assets of the Foundation surpassed $128 million at the end of 2013, an all-time record. This is due in part to the excellent performance of all three UMFA investment pools. Our two-year relationship with Wespath Investment Management, a subsidiary of the UMC Board of Pensions, has worked well, with all three investment pools ahead of their performance benchmarks for 2013. Below is a table showing stellar investment performance for the past year.

Investment Pool	Pool Size (millions)	2013 Total Return	Lipper Median Benchmark	Difference
Blended
Investment Pool	91.01	16.34	15.18	+1.16
Growth
Investment Pool	1.31	29.76	23.41	+6.35

The Foundation entered into 10 new gift annuity agreements that will eventually support UMC ministries. It established 15 new endowment funds and agency accounts. New endowments included the new Jack Hill Moscow Seminary Scholarship Endowment, the Matthew 25 Endowment Fund to support prison ministries at Asbury UMC in Little Rock, and the ARUMC Campus Ministry Endowment. Some of the larger agency accounts were placed at UMFA for management by First UMC in Batesville, First UMC in Benton, First UMC in El Dorado, First UMC in Magnolia, Mt. Carmel UMC, Oaklawn UMC, and First UMC in Springdale.

We conducted seven Provide and Protect Seminars in local churches and offer web-based support for will planning through our umfa.org website. The Foundation publishes Finance E-tips and Gift Law which are electronic newsletters packed with information on family finances and planned giving. They are received by more than 12,000 United Methodists in Arkansas.

At the end of 2013, UMFA managed more than 650 accounts representing about 150 local United Methodist churches and institutions throughout the state of Arkansas, and we continued to be one of the largest United Methodist Foundations in the nation.

We recognize that with great resources comes great responsibility. God's blessings were many in 2013 – generous donors, a strong board of directors, and a talented and committed staff. Looking forward, I see a very fertile future with boundless possibilities to be faithful servants to God's church.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Is God calling you or someone you know to the ministry of Jesus Christ? If so, we invite you to explore how United can assist you in fulfilling God's purposes for your life and how you can help others in this journey. Come and check us out in person or online at www.united.edu!

United is one of the fastest growing, accredited seminaries in North America. Why are Christian disciples and leaders signing up for our traditional and online programs? They are doing so because United is committed to teaching the Bible and the historic Christian faith, cultivating spiritual formation for personal and social holiness, and renewing the Church for the mission of Jesus Christ in the world. What could be more important or exciting?

In addition to expanding our service in the Midwestern US, United will continue to enhance its use of technology to deliver theological education in underserved regions in North America and beyond. United's hybrid/online UMC FLEX Master of Divinity degree was designed specifically to meet the requirements of the UMC for ordination and it is accessible anywhere with good Internet service. Our hybrid/online UM Course of Study is expanding each semester, along with UM Certification offerings.

What's new at United? Three new professors joined our excellent team of faculty in 2012 and a search is underway for yet another. United and Aldersgate Renewal Ministries have developed a new partnership, and we have piloted a new certification program focused upon ministries with persons with disabilities. Each year, United's doctoral program adds new mentors and focus groups for advanced ministry study.

Please let us know if you have questions about how we can best assist you or, if you would like to help make it possible for an American or international student to study at United.

Enrollment at United continues to grow, and we invite you to call or visit soon! For more information, please contact admissions@united.edu.

Thank you for your prayers, partnership, service and support in the ministry of Jesus Christ!

- Wesley was named to Faith3.org's list, Seminaries that Change the World. This list was announced in the Huffington Post on November 12, 2013. One of the several reasons for the attribute was Wesley's Center for the Missional Church, which is headquartered at Wesley Downtown, in the heart of Washington, D.C.

Please be in prayer for Wesley Theological Seminary. We cannot do our ministry alone, and your participation with us in the greater mission of God enhances us mightily. We are striving to provide you with the kinds of educational opportunities that will take your ministry to the next level. In turn, we depend upon your participation in and contribution to our ministry as well. So, pray for us often, avail yourself of the school's offerings, give to Wesley, and identify and send us persons who are called and who have a high capacity for fruitful ministry.
