HISTORY OF THE FORT SMITH-OKLAHOMA CONFERENCE

The Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference, as it has Christened itself, has had a varied history. The Ft. Smith part was organized into a separate conference out of the North Arkansas Conference in the year 1881. There had been Methodist Protestants in this section of Arkansas before the Civil War. The first president of the Ft. Smith District, Rev. Clark Mason, lies buried on the Fayetteville circuit. Some splendid work was done by such men as Mason, Stumbaugh, Bartholomew, Mackey, Wilson, Jacobs and a host of others. The only charter members now alive are Rev. R. R. Nichols, of Denning, Ark., and Rev. T. E. Lewis, of Ft. Smith, Ark.

The Oklahoma part of this new conference has had quite as varied a past. The first district of the present State of Oklahoma to be organized was the northeastern part, known as the Indian Mission Conference, which was organized about the year 1887. W. B. Tinsell was a leading man in this conference. Brother S. J. Shackelford is probably the only charter member alive. A little later the Oklahoma Conference, the Southern Oklahoma, the Chickasaw Mission, and later the Choctaw Mission, was organized. Among the leading men in these districts were B. L. Hancock, J. E. Bounds, B. J. Doughty and a host of others. These Oklahoma districts were merged by the General Conference in 1908.

The General Conference of 1916 recommended the merging of the Oklahoma and Ft. Smith districts, which was done in a splendid and harmonious session at Shiloh, near Mansfield, Ark., November 1-4, 1917.

There is a splendid outlook for this division of our Great Church. As I think of the apple-crowned hills of Arkansas, the prize fruit country of the Union, with the beautiful little city of Fayetteville setting like a pearl among the Ozarks, I say, "Lord, help us to measure up to the opportunity in this section."

Then I hie away to the westward across the great Arkansas River Valley, most fertile of the regions of the Southwest, with Ft. Smith, the giant young metropolis, setting midway between Kansas City and the Gulf, bidding fair to dispute with any the kingdom of the Southwest. I find also in this section gas, oil, coal, timber and cotton, the fleecy staple that has made man rich in a single year. In this section are Miami, the prince of mining towns, where we have a mission; Tulsa, the chief of oil towns, whose growth and wealth are marvelous; Oklahoma City lies just to the west of this region, and not even Kansas can rival the wheat fields and alfalfa meadows of Central Oklahoma. To the west are cattle-raising sections, with their fertile river valley; to the south is Lindsey, the greatest broomcorn market in the world, surrounded by fertile river valleys, with wealth of natural resources.

What is the spiritual outlook? We have some eleven or twelve young men just entering our ranks, and as I looked into their faces a few days ago I said, "The destiny of the Methodist Protestant Church is safe in your hands." We have in all some sixty ministers on our rolls, and I believe in them and they believe in the church of mutual rights.

Many splendid movements are being set on foot and you will hear ere long from the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference. People are beginning to demand a right to exercise their intelligence in church affairs as well as in other lines of human endeavor.

Rev. M. L. Mathews served as president of the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference from November, 1917, to November 1920. Under the wise and untiring efforts of President Mathews, the conference made great progress, as is shown by the annual reports of 1917-1920. Since the uniting of the conferences E. W. Mackey, Rev. J. A. Phipps and Rev. G. O. McMillan have served as secretaries, and Rev. John A. Moody and Rev. J. A. Phipps have served as conference stewards.

At the November, 1920, conference the following officers were elected: O. W. Milburn, president; M. L. Mathews, treasurer, and G. O. McMillan, secretary.

At the October, 1921, conference the following officers were elected: M. L. Mathews, president; G. O. McMillan, secretary, and R. Underwood, treasurer. This conference reported 1100 conversions and 750 additions to the church during the year just closed, with twenty students in Westminster College.

At the sixth annual session the following officers were elected: John W. Quaid, president; G. O. McMillan, secretary, and A. J. Rhoten, treasurer. Six young men and four young women volunteered for the ministry and other Christian service at this conference. Reports show over 900 conversions and 484 additions. A healthy increase on all lines is shown and no charge was left unsupplied.

LITERATURE AND PERIODICALS. B.

We, your Committee on Literature and Periodicals, recommend:

1. That we use our own Sunday School literature whenever possible.

2. That each pastor secure and read some good books, such as are recommended for the Conference Course of Study. The secretary suggests that you be sure to read Dr. Lyman E. Davis' Democratic Methodism in America as one of these books, and that some time each day be set apart for study in a systematic way.

3. That each pastor, under the stationing authority of the conference, be required to become a subscriber to one of the church papers not later than two months after his or her appointment to said charge.

4. That recommendation No. 3 be in force as soon as adopted.

5. That the first week of December be known as "Church Paper Week," and that each pastor seek to place one of our church papers in each home on his charge.

6. That the following number of subscribers be the goal for each charge in the conference:

Anna, 8; Beech Grove, 7; Boswell, 10; Brady, 10; Cedarville, 10; Cauthron, 10; Cement, 7; Comanchie, 10; Denning, 20; Dill, 10; Daylight, 6; Eagletown, 8; Ft. Smith, 10; Haworth, 10; Hugo, 20; Hope, 5; Idabel, 10; Strickler, 6; Mansfield, 5; Madden Grove, 5; Ozark, 8; Pleasant Hill, 8; Picher, 5; Prague, 10; Quinton, 8; Rock Hill, 5; Simpson, 6; St. Paul, 5; Shiloh, 8; Uncas, 5; Vally, 5. And that each family shall have the privilege of subscribing for either, or both, the Methodist Recorder or the Methodist Protestant, and that renewals count on goal as well as new subscribers.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK. A.

During the year the Young People's Work has gone forward in some places, while in others the work has failed to come up to the standard.

A number of new Sunday Schools have been organized, and some others have adopted progressive methods.

Several new C. E. Societies have been organized, and some of those already organized have disbanded for lack of interest and leadership.

Assisted by Dr. Grates S. Johnson and others, we held Young People's Conferences at Alex, Quinton, Tipton and Prague. These conferences were very well attended and did much good. Plans were made to visit Cauthron, Paw Paw, Dill and some other points, but conditions were such that we could not make these points. In August I visited Daylight and Brady and was met by a responsive people.

I attended the State Sunday School Convention at Tulsa, Okla.,

the State C. E. Convention at Ponca City, Okla., and the District C. E. Convention at Durant, Okla.

About twenty young people have volunteered for Life Service during the year, some of them for the ministry. Each pastor should look after and counsel with these young people and help them in any way needed.

I would suggest:

1. That we make more of our Young People's Day in the Annual Conference, and send one or more of our young people from each work to sit through conference at next session.

2. That we give more attention to the organized class of work, the departmental grouping of the Sunday School and graded Christian Endeavor.

3. That we plan to send a number of delegates from each work to the State Conference to be held in April or May by Dr. A. G. Dixon and his workers.

4. That each pastor hold decision services during the year, at which time he shall give the young people an opportunity to enlist for Christ and the Church in the ministry and mission fields.

In closing may I suggest that we pray constantly that the Lord of the Harvest will send more laborers into His harvest.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT. C.

To the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Annual Conference. I wish to submit my report for the conference year of 1921-22.

The year has been filled with its joys and sorrows, with its many hard-fought battles and its splendid victories.

During the year we have had more than 900 conversions, and a net increase in membership of nearly 500. Twelve new churches have been organized, and there are ten local preachers and two exhorters in the district.

The young people's work has grown and prospered, and I think a close analysis of the finances will show a gain for the year.

Personally I have preached 305 times during the year, engaged in six revival meetings, in which there were about 100 conversions, and I have traveled about 9,300 miles during the year. The total salary received from the conference was $1,069.

Two of our ministers have fallen before the great reaper, Death, during the year, Rev. M. D. Armstrong, of Cement, Okla., and Rev. W. A. Foster, of Crasses, Ark.

December 15 I appointed Rev. H. W. Kelly pastor of Idabel

Station; November 1, I appointed Rev. L. M. Curtner pastor of Lincoln; on March 15, I appointed Rev. A. E. Gammage pastor of Mansfield and two churches on Cauthron charge; December 1, I appointed J. A. Moody pastor of Mt. Hope Church; October of this year I gave J. E. Warren a transfer to the Texas Conference, and gave certificates of standing to J. A. Adams and T. Lawrence.

I desire to make the following recommendations to the conference:

1. That suitable memorial services be held for our deceased brethren.
2. That pastors' characters shall be subject to failure to pass in case they fail to collect their conference claims.
3. That the goals of 25 new churches and 2,000 conversions be our aim for this year.

Fraternally submitted;

M. L. MATHEWS, President.

Write to J. E. Butler, Tehuacana, Texas, about Westminster College.

EDUCATION. D.

We, your Committee on Education, wish to report as follows:

1. That all pastors begin as soon as they have entered upon their charges to prepare for the Christmas Educational Program.
2. That the conference adopt the Forward Movement Program, as outlined by Dr. Crates S. Johnson.
3. That we adopt the "Tag Day" for raising funds for Westminster College, as outlined by Dr. J. E. Butler.
4. That we endeavor to keep before the minds of our people the need of a prepared ministry.
5. That we lend our help and encouragement to our young ministers to remain in school until they have finished their course, and that we respectfully ask that our young people studying for mission work be given free tuition by Westminster College.
6. That the conference shall not issue a certificate of standing to any beneficiary until they have paid in full the amount due the Board of Education.
7. That this conference elect five trustees for Yale Academy. Also, that this conference authorize Rev. M. L. Mathews to put on a campaign for students and funds in the Methodist Protestant Churches north of the Arkansas River, said funds to be used for the erection of dormitories for Yale Academy, and at such time as the trustees deem proper.

W. N. KIMES,

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK. E.

Your Committee on Young People's Work recommend as follows:

1. That a graded Sunday School and C. E. Societies be retained or organized in every church in the conference.
2. That Decision Day Services be held in all churches, when the young people shall have an opportunity to not only accept Christ, but also enlist in life service for Him.
3. That we observe the four special days, namely: Easter, Educational Day, Rally Day and Children's Day, and that an offering be taken for the several boards represented on those days.
4. That the young people be represented on the official boards of the church wherever possible.
5. That pastors organize their works into local unions, have them meet from time to time, and that we send delegates to the Young People's Program during the Annual Conference sessions.

MISSIONS. G.

Your Committee on Missions submits the following report:

God in His infinite wisdom has given to the Methodist Protestant Church the responsibility of carrying the Gospel to the thousands of men and women in the home and foreign fields. He has also blessed our efforts in this line of work, and our responsibilities are increasing year by year.

Therefore, it is necessary that we bring before the people of our church the great opportunity before them. The door is open to us in the home land. This is shown by the earnest call of the people for our ministers to bring the message and to organize churches in unoccupied territory. Not less than twelve new churches have been organized this year. Many more in the western and southern part of Oklahoma, also in the mountain sections of Western Arkansas are sending forth the Macedonian call.

The Home Missionary efforts at Hugo, Idabel, Haworth, Eagletown, Camanchie and Quinton are already bringing forth fruit.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of our conference are in their infancy, but are doing splendid work at Hugo and Idabel. We recommend that efforts be made to organize other societies, and that a branch be organized as soon as possible. We further recommend that each pastor preach at least one sermon during the year on Home and Foreign Missions.

MINUTES. H.

Your Committee on Printing and Distribution of Minutes, report as follows:

We have apportioned according to the statistical tables from each charge and have apportioned one copy to about each six members on the charge.

The price for printing 500 copies, the mailing of same, and the secretary's salary will make them cost about 25 cents each.

We recommend that the pastors collect this amount at once and send to the conference treasurer.

We apportion to each charge as follows:

Strickler, 20; Cedarville, 19; Anna, 25; Brady, 15; Boswell, 10; Cauthron, 10; Comanchie, 10; Cement, 10; Dill, 20; Daylight, 10; Enterprise, 15; Ft. TEMPERANCE. N.

Brethren of the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Annual Conference:

Prohibition is under a heavy fire from the enemy. Every method possible is being brought to bear to annul the Volstead Act. The brewers, moonshiners, bootleggers and enemies of prohibition are always on the job. They are trying to elect officers of State and Nation with a wet platform. It is high time for us to rise up as a united body and declare ourselves against the giant demon drink, as well as many other kinds of intemperance.

Many of the newspapers have sold out to the whisky element, and many of our church people have sold themselves as slaves to the movies and other worldly amusements that are questionable.

Therefore, let us speak out boldly against immorality, obscene pictures, newspaper slurs, lecturers' wet jokes and any other forms of indecency and methods used to lower the standard of morals and temperance in this our America. Our boys and girls are to be the future citizens of America. Therefore, we should lay a good foundation for their future training. They cannot get this training from the intemperate. We must place over our children in the day school as well as the church school teachers who will give moral training as well as intellectual training. Insist, then, that the trustees of your school employ teachers of good moral character, and if unable to employ Christian teachers, which is preferable, see to it that no teacher is employed that is a frequent visitor to the dance hall or to the movies.
