HISTORY OF FORT SMITH-OKLAHOMA CONFERENCE

The Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference, as it has Christened itself, has had a varied history. The Ft. Smith part was organized into a separate Conference out of the North Arkansas Conference in the year of 1881. There had been Methodist Protestants in this section of Arkansas before the Civil War. The first president of the Ft. Smith district, Rev. Clark Mason, lies buried on the Fayetteville circuit. Some splendid work was done by such men as Mason, Stumbaugh, Bartholomew, Mackey, Wilson, Jacobs, and a host of others. The only charter members now alive are Rev. R. R. Nichols, of Denning, Ark., and Rev. T. E. Lewis, of Ft. Smith, Ark.

The Oklahoma part of this new Conference has had quite as varied a past. the first district of the present state of Oklahoma to be organized was the northeastern part, known as the Indian Mission Conference, which was organized about the year 1887. W. B. Tunstall was a leading man in this conference. A little later the Oklahoma Conference, the Southern Oklahoma Conference, the Chickasaw Mission and later the Choctaw Mission was organized. Among the leading men in these districts were B. L. Hancock, J. E.

Bounds, B. J. Doughty, and a host of others. These Oklahoma Districts were merged by the General Conference in 1908.

General Conference of 1916, recommended the merging of the Oklahoma and Ft. Smith districts which was done in a splendid and harmonious session at Shiloh, near Mansfield, Ark., Nov. 1-4, 1917.

There is a splendid outlook in this division of our great church. As I think of the apple crowned hills of Arkansas, the prize fruit country of the Union, with the beautiful little city of Fayetteville, sitting like a pearl among the Ozarks, I say, "Lord help us to measure up to the opportunity in this section." Then I hie away to the westward across the great Arkansas River valley, most fertile of the regions of the Southwest with Ft. Smith the giant young Metropolis sitting mid-way between Kansas City and the Gulf, bidding fair to dispute with any the kingdom of the Southwest. I find also in this section gas, oil, coal, timber, and cotton, the fleecy staple that has made man rich in a single year. In this section are Miami, the prince of mining towns; Tulsa, the chief of oil towns, whose growth and wealth are marvelous; Oklahoma City lies just to the west of this region, not even Kansas could rival the wheat fields of Central Oklahoma. To the west are cattle raising sections with their fertile river valleys. To the south is Lindsey, the greatest broom-corn market in the world, surrounded by fertile river valleys with wealth and natural resources.

What is the Spiritual outlook? We have some twenty young men entering the Ministry. We have in all some twenty-eight ministers on our rolls. We believe in them and they believe in the Church of Mutual Rights. Many splendid movements are being set on foot and you will hear ere long from the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference. People are beginning to demand a right to exercise their intelligence in Church affairs as well as in other lines of human endeavor.

Rev. M. L. Mathews served as President of the Ft. Smith-Oklahoma Conference from November, 1917, to November, 1920, Under the wise and untiring efforts of President Mathews, the Conference made great progress, as is shown by the Annual Reports of 1917 to 1920. Since the uniting of the Conference, Mr. E. W. Mackey, Rev. J. A. Phipps, and Rev. G. O. McMillan, have served as Conference Stewards.

At the November, 1920, Conference the following officers were elected: O. W. Milburn, President; M. L. Mathews, Treasurer, and G. O. McMillan, Secretary.

At the October, 1921, Conference, the following officers were elected: M. L. Mathews, President; G. O. McMillan, Secretary; R. Underwood, Treasurer. This Conference reported 110 conversions, and 750 additions to the Church during the year just closed with 20 students in Westminster College.

At the Sixth Annual Session, the following officers were elected: John W. Quaid, President; G. O. McMillan, Secretary; A. J. Rhoten, Treasurer. Six young men and four young women volunteered for the ministry and other christian service at this Conference. The reports show over 900 conversions, and 484 additions to the Church. A healthy increase in all lines is shown and no charge was left unsupplied.

At the seventh Annual Session the following officers were elected: John W. Quaid, President; J. W. Browsers, Secretary; A. J. Rhoten, Treasurer. Seven fine young men and women volunteered for life service at the Conference. Reports show——conversions and——additions. No Charge was left unsupplied.

Let this be our slogan: "Everything over the top this year in a financial way." Don't forget the four days during the year for the General Church offering. Do your best to put on a programme for each of these days.

At the eighth Annual Session the following officers were elected: President, Rev. G. O. McMillan; Secretary, Rev. J. W. Browsers; Treasurer, Rev. J. W. Quaid. A number of young people volunteered for life Service at this Conference. Our Class of young preachers consists of twenty young men. Reports show nearly one thousand conversions this year. With some five hundred additions to the church.

At the ninth annual session the following were re-elected to office: Rev. G. O. McMillan, President; Rev. J. W. Browsers, Secretary; Rev. J. W. Quaid, Treasurer; and Rev. V. L. McDonald, President of Young People's Work. About fifteen young men and women volunteered for Life Service in this Conference. Our class of young preachers now studying for the ministry consists of twenty-one fine young men. Reports show a slight decrease in conversions and additions but the future outlook for the Church is encouraging.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Ninth session of the Fort Smith-Oklahoma Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Dear Brethren: Once again we are called from our fields of labor, to meet and greet each other again, to recount the blessings of the past, to forget our past failures if such has been our record, and to plan for the future of our beloved church.

The loving Father has been very kind to us during the past. Only one of our number has been claimed by death. Rev. J. L. Overby, our beloved fellow-laborer, has been called to the great conference above, to receive his final reward. We shall not soon forget his faithful life and work.

At the last Conference, as your newly elected President, I offered a program, or rather some goals that seemed to be in reach of our constituency. The Conference gladly adopted these plans. As to the success we have had in carrying out these plans, our reports will show. I am sure, however, that very few, if any, of these goals have been fully reached, but an effort has been made, and I believe some progress has developed from our efforts.

I appreciate very much the co-operation given by the pastors in most instances, who have worked under many difficulties, but to the point suggested. Especially do I want to thank each of you for being so prompt in sending in your monthly reports. I believe this a step forward, that will mean success if kept up.

Many good revivals have been held during the year, but the pastors reports will probably show a decrease in membership rather than an increase. This will be accounted for for the reason that church registers have been corrected up to date and many who have been gone from the churches for years have been dropped or discontinued as members of the church.

We have not succeeded in getting the number of Recorders in our Church homes that our goal called for but we are far in the lead of any year in the history of the Conference. I believe reports will show almost twice as many subscribers over any previous year.

Reports show that more Missionary societies have been organized than ever before. We have also organized some new Christian Endeavor societies.

Our greatest weakness seems to be in reaching our financial goals. There are several reasons for this. The dry weather in the spring and summer did much damage to crops, and this caused some to fail. A few pastors did not enter heartily into the financial program, as did also a number of our lay leaders. This of course will always be the case, for no great heights are attained by sudden flight, but step by step, slowly at first, then finally the goal is reached.

One thing that has been of grave concern with me, and which I have tried in some way to correct, is the very meager salaries paid pastors. Our pastors are not receiving enough salary to enable them to live comfortably, and render to the churches the service that they need. I have done my best in talking to the members when present, and writing to the Treasurers about this matter. In some cases we have succeeded in getting pastors' salaries raised for the ensuing year.

We have succeeded in getting most of the churches well organized by electing new officers for another year, and getting pastors' salaries assessed, so there will be very little for the new pastors to do except to go to his field and start to work.

I believe in the possibilities of this Conference. I believe we will succeed. Some of our pastors, especially among our young men, are making great sacrifice to push the cause. With an unshaken faith in Jesus Christ, and a determination to succeed in spite of adverse conditions, we shall conquer.

Being new on the field, I have made many mistakes. I have profited by some of them.

My official acts have been as follows:

October 30, 1924, Appointed J. B. Price to Boswell charge.

November 13, Released T. D. Ayers from Cove Creek charge and appointed him to Mansfield charge on same date.

January 24, 1925, Appointed T. L. Dickerson as supply for Cove Creek charge.

March 12, Appointed G. W. Galloway to Beach Grove charge.

March 26, Released J. L. Land from Shady Grove church on Prague charge and on same date appointed W. R. McElvany to same as pastor.

March 15, Appointed T. J. Hobbs to Valley charge.

March 15, Appointed J. Z. Rainwater as supply for Mt. Hope church.

July 8, Released A. J. Rhoten from Marshall Hill church and on same date appointed J. G. Whitten as pastor of same.

August 1, Released J. B. Price from Boswell charge.

August 20, having word that G. W. Galloway had gone from Beach Grove, and was unable to continue the pastorate, through the recommendation of M. L. Mathews I appointed G. A. Davis as pastor of Beach Grove, but he returned the appointment.

September 16, I gave J. W. Copeland a letter of standing.

October 1, I gave R. W. Bounds a transfer to the Texas Annual Conference, this being his request.

October 15, I granted a certificate of standing to Rev. C. T. Simmons, and a certificate to Leroy Simmons October 28.

During the year, I have preached 255 sermons and traveled on official duties, more than 14,800 miles, and held seven revivals having about 75 conversions.

I have visited most every church in the conference district from one to four times, in an official way. I have attended three Fifth Sunday Rallies in McCurtain County, which were very helpful to all who attended. I attended the State Christian Endeavor Convention at Ardmore, and held Denominational Conferences. I attended the Presidents' Council meeting at Indianapolis, Indiana, in May. To say that this council meeting was inspiring, is but to express its greatness in a small way.

I have endeavored to create an enlarged vision of our opportunities and usefulness as a denomination in this District. I am glad that some have caught the vision that will bear fruit for the coming years.

I believe that to adhere to the program, in a general way, that we have tried to follow the past year, will bring to us victory during the coming years. I do not know the wishes of this body about the Executive for the coming year, therefore I leave the future program to my successor, whoever he may be.

I assure the brethren of this Conference that mid the toils and hardships, the joys and comforts, of the past year, no one more fully appreciates the splendid fellowship with the brethren than your humble servant. Each of you have added to my happiness and comfort. Therefore, I pray God's richest blessing upon each of you, and upon the action of this Conference.

Our Conference Programme

Dear Brethren: I am again indebted to you for the honor you have bestowed upon me, by electing me as your executive. It is a great responsibility. I shall need the co-operation of every Minister and layman in the Conference, to make this year successful for our Lord and the church we love. As a kind of working programme, I suggest the following:

1. Pastors giving more of their time to a less number of churches wherever possible.
2. Pastors' salaries increased so that they may be able to do more for the church.
3. Churches well organized in each department. The proper officers in the proper places, and beginning their work at the first of the year in a systematic way.
4. Each church with a denominational budget that is reasonable, according to membership, ability, and willingness to pay. This budget properly apportioned, assessed, and paid in full regularly, and in a systematic way.
5. Church houses built wherever possible, and a moving out from the school houses into our own homes.
6. Discontinuing Union Sunday Schools wherever possible, and our own literature used. We are Methodist Protestants. In this we are not opposed to other denominations, but no one can build up the Methodist Protestant Church if we do not.

7. More people reading the church papers. My suggestion would be a properly apportioned subscription list for each church.
8. More preparation for the work of the ministry by the young men who are entering the work, by securing books, joining reading circles, attending State and District Conventions and Associations, and attending our Schools.
9. Prayer, co-operation, evangelism, organization, and work that the ideals of a Methodist Protestant Quadrilateral as suggested by our General Conference President, Dr. T. H. Lewis, may be realized in this Conference.
100. More tithers enrolled in the Church.

To this end I commit all I am, and have, praying the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

Yours for Christ and the M. P. Church,

G. O. McMILLAN, President.
