The Regional AIDS Interfaith Network began in September, 1989, as a program of the Arkansas Interfaith Conference. It has been granted 501C(3) status.

The purpose of the Regional AIDS Interfaith Network (known as RAIN) is to develop and implement HIV/AIDS education programs in church and synagogue communities and to recruit, train, supervise and support volunteer congregation-based Care Teams. These teams provide direct support services and pastoral care for persons with HIV/AIDS, their families and caregivers. Activities inclu home and hospital visitation, transportation, housecleaning and laundry, shopping, food preparation, food serving, non-skilled nursing care, grief processing, referrals to health care and other resources.

In its 29-month ministry, RAIN has trained over 700 people who are now actively volunteering with 46 Care Teams from nine different denominations. They have served 105 persons living with AIDS.

In addition, RAIN has developed a program for reaching young people to teach about what HIV/AIDS is, how it is spread, and how to prevent contracting the disease by practicing abstinence and, failing that, how to take precautions against being infected. This program has been so successful that school after school eagerly solicit RAIN program presentations.

The demands upon RAIN for speakers, educational programs within and without the church, Care Team development and training together with continuing supervision and support is overwhelming the small staff. Contrast with the 46 Care Teams in operation with the projected need for at least 1,000 Care Teams in 5 years, and the need for financial and spiritual support becomes apparent!

RAIN is the outgrowth of a training seminar put on by the two Arkanss United Methodist Conferences in February, 1989. It is the response of the churches of Arkansas to a threat to our entire population of Arkansas, especially our young people.

The support of the Little Rock Conference was asked by designating the Regional AIDS Interfaith Network - Arkansas as a Conference Advance Special. Every local church was asked to include $.50 per member in their budget for 1993 to finance this program, to help match a grant of $496,000 over 3 years from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

VII. REPORTS

A. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORTS

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES INTRODUCTION

Dear friends and fellow-workers in Christ:

Your Conference Council on Ministries serves to coordinate and supervise the program activities of the Annual Conference. That function covers the Conference Priority project, the boards, commissions, and committees, special group programs such as youth, children, United Methodist Men, Teen Crisis, etc. District Councils on Ministries also come under the general administration of the Conference Council on Ministries. There are 58 members of the Conference Council and more than 100 others who serve committees, task forces, and work areas. Every District and age-group, and gender interest is represented. Ethnic representation is intentionally included at every level. The Conference Council on Ministries is the most representative and balanced body of the Annual Conference organization.

The work of your Council is to review all program recommendations, to analyze them as to need, costs, and staffing, then to recommend them to the Annual Conference, or refer them back to their origin for further study. When that work is done, the Council then drafts a budget proposal which is reviewed by the full Council, adopted or amended, then forwarded to the Council on Finance and Administration. The Council on Finance and Administration accepts or modifies the financial aspect of the Council's budget and, usually after some negotiation, the entire Council program and budget goes to the Annual Conference.

Without the Council on Ministries there would be an array of boards, and other groups, coming before the Annual Conference with separate programs, separate budgets, unrelated goals and philosophies, and conflicting appeals for funding. Annual Conferences used to operate that way and the result was confusion of purpose, duplication of effort, and waste of funds. There will always be some disappointments in the Council system because not everybody gets what they want from the process. However, the Annual Conference is well-served by the Council process which safeguards the stewardship of personnel, materials, and financial resources.

This year, as in most years, the Council has sought to cooperate with the Finance and Administration group. C.F.A. has recommended a cap of $963,287.00 for the C.C.O.M. budget of 1993. The Council budget committee has reviewed its work in the light of that cap and it has amended the C.C.O.M. budget proposal to meet C.F.A.'s challenge to hold the line on costs. That amending meant some painful decisions which affect the plans and hopes of almost every segment of the Council budget. The deepest cuts were in Wesley Foundation support, the Board of Education, Camp Tanako, and our colleges. And yet, each of those areas of ministry were kept at the 1992 level or given slight increases. The D.C.O.M.'s are fully funded, so are cooperative ministries with the North Arkansas Conference. The Annual Conference Priority, "Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples," is fully funded. It is the best budget for program that could be achieved under the financial constraints your Council must abide.

The Council is aware that per capita giving in the United Methodist Church is growing but still below the potential of its members as compared to other denominations. Our plea to the churches of the Annual Conference is that they recognize their potential and strive toward increasing their level of giving for support of the serving agencies. Some churches may feel that Conference Benevolences is an optional budget item, if that is ever the case we pray that those churches will see the mission of the Church in Arkansas as an extension of their own life in Christ and support it accordingly. With gratitude for the faithful support of most churches, and with hope for the full support of every church, your Council moves toward 1993 with confidence in its work, its mission, and its Lord.

Tom Abney, Chairman

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TASK FORCE

The Affirmative Action Task Force (AATF) of the Little Rock Annual Conference met on February 15, 1992 and reviewed the task assigned as a result of the adoption of item #4 in the 1989 Annual Conference Resolution (printed below) and the action in the Spring 1992 meeting of the Little Rock Conference Council on Ministries.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED DURING THE 1989 SESSION OF LITTLE ROCK ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. A Black Clergy person be appointed to the office of the Superintendency to serve in the Little Rock Annual Conference by 1992.
2. That an aggressive recruitment be undertaken by the Cabinet to fill pulpits for black churches with full-time ordained clergy persons, where feasible. This recruitment process shall be in consultation with existing Black lay and clergy leadership to insure persons will be retained once recruited.
3. That full open itinerancy be encouraged throughout the connectional system within the Little Rock Annual Conference. This should include encouragement by the Cabinet of pulpit exchanges; placement of Black Clergy as pastors; and encouragement to hire Black laity in professional staff positions within White United Methodist Churches.
4. The Little Rock Annual Conference shall adopt an Affirmative Action Policy with regard to Boards and Agencies.

Deciding that the Task Force would use the 1988 Book of Resolutions statement on Affirmative Action, pages 133-135 (see below) as the source document and mandate for implementation, the following short-term and long-term goals were adopted:

Short Terms Goals - 1992

1. Chairperson will write an article for publication in the Arkansas United Methodist reviewing the statement of Affirmative Action found in the Book of Resolutions. (Prior to 1992 Annual Conference)
2. Each entity within the Little Rock Annual Conference will be asked to review the Affirmative Action statement in the Book of Resolutions in order that there may be a recognition of the stance of the General Church.
3. All printed materials of the Annual Conference shall state "An Equal Opportunity Employer" or similar phrase indicating non-discriminatory policies. This would apply to items such as: letterheads, brochures, pamphlets, the Journal of the Annual Conference, etc.

Long Term Goals

1. To follow-up on short term goals and report to 1993 Annual Conference concerning the implementation of these goals.
2. To work with the Area Ethic Local Church Consultant (ELCC), both Little Rock and North Arkansas Annual Conference Commissions on Religion and Race (CCRR), and the Commissions on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) to fully implement items #8 and #9 as described on page 135 of the Book of Resolutions and report back with an Area Plan for implementation in 1993.

In addition to the goals adopted, the Task Force asks each person and local congregation to be in prayer with the Bishop and Little Rock Annual Conference Leadership in order that the covenant that was made in the 1972 Merger Agreement with the Southwest Annual Conference might be kept.

A Reprint of the 1989 Book of Resolutions Affirmative Action policy (SP 72.A), page 133-135.

"The concept of "affirmative action" emerged and developed during the period of the 1960's along with many other programs designed to address the inequalities and discriminatory practices within our society. It was defined as measurable efforts by employers and educational institutions to hire and admit those who had traditionally been excluded. While it has been actively resisted in many ways, especially where it has meant change from long existing patterns, significant though small gains for women, ethnic and racial minorities, and persons with handicapping conditions have been achieved, but much more needs to be done.

Cunnar Myrdal reminded us in his book, An American Dilemma (published in 1944), that the race problem in America is basically a moral dilemma, not a legal problem. The premise upon which affirmative action is built is essentially moral and spiritual in nature. Concern for the disadvantaged, the disinherited, and the oppressed is a major feature of both the Old Testament prophets and the message and ministry of Jesus. According to biblical teaching, what is required is a redress of grievances and a sincere effort to make amends. Strong leadership from the religious community is demanded when efforts to correct the injustices and evils of the past and present are under attack.

The characterization of affirmative action as "unfair" often appears to rest on the dubious assumption that conditions for women, racial and ethnic minorities and persons with handicapping conditions have improved so radically that further special efforts on their behalf are unnecessary. Unemployment of racial and ethnic minority persons remains much higher than the national average, and women workers continue to earn less than male workers. Affirmative action has been proven to have a significant impact in opening opportunities and increasing the participation of racial and ethnic minority persons, women, and persons with handicapping conditions in employment and educational settings.

Affirmative action recognizes the need to broaden the definition of compensatory, protective and preferential programs that now exist in our society and the traditional preferential treatment given to non-minority groups and males. Affirmative action is a management plan to achieve a more inclusive work-force or enrollment. Effective plans usually include:

a) A clear and forthright policy statement calling for non-discrimination and for the inclusion of ethnic minority persons, women, and persons with handicapping conditions;
b) An assignment of responsibility to achieve the policy by executive, managers, and supervisors;
c) An analysis of workforce patterns by race, sex, and job category compared to availability to determine the extent of inclusiveness;
d) Establishment of goals and objectives to achieve a representative inclusiveness;

e) Development of recruitment, selection, training, and other personnel of admissions practices to achieve the objectives and goals;

f) Procedures for monitoring personnel or admission practices and to measure results of the plan.

The discrimination of the past, which automatically excluded certain groups of people - by color, by sex, by age, and because of handicapping, condition - is being corrected with due regard for the compensation necessary for the disadvantages of the past to be transformed into equality of opportunity in the future. Affirmative action plays an important role in "releasing captives" and "setting the oppressed at Liberty." The Church has an important role to play in ministering which is designed to effect reconciliation and healing for those who suffer the pain caused by societal change, as well as in supporting the continuation of those changes.

We therefore call upon individuals and institutions, including United Methodists individually and as congregations, to:

1. Forthrightly and clearly affirm their support of affirmative action legislation and programs.
2. Reaffirm and increase their support of those effort that seek to insure effective representation of ethnic minority persons and women.
3. Continue to provide a much needed role model for others in society by affirming, strengthening, and practicing their own affirmative action policies.
4. Affirm and proclaim the judeo-Christian heritage of restitution, inclusiveness, justice, and grace as the best possible support for affirmative action.
5. Affirm the equal consideration of lay people in church-related positions where not prohibited by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
6. Seek to interpret the true purpose and meaning of affirmative action against claims of reverse discrimination.
7. Support actively church-related programs such as Project Equality which seek to support equal opportunity and to promote an inclusive society.
8. Be it resolved, that the 1988 General Conference mandate intentional implementation of affirmative action programs and procedures in general church boards and agencies, annual conferences, church-related institutions, districts, and local churches;
9. Be it further resolved, that the General Commissions on Religion and Race and Status and Role of Women and Project Equality continue to monitor and provide assistance to United Methodist agencies and institutions in affirmative action programs and processes in an effort to lead The United Methodist Church toward a more inclusive society."

ADOPTED 1988

Maxine Allen
Chairperson, AATF

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is charged with providing opportunities for Christian education beyond the local church and nurturing Christian education in local churches. These responsibilities are carried out in two major ways: the Conference Camping Program and Christian Education Training. The report of the Coordinating Committee on Camping is found as a separate report in this Journal. The Coordinating Committee provides invaluable support in planning and staffing the variety of camping opportunities we offer in our Conference. The enhanced facilities at Camp Tanako offer a place for year-round outdoor education opportunities. The Coordinating Committee is working hard to further develop a wider range of camping opportunities for additional age groups and at times other than summer. Our goal is to provide a year round program of outdoor Christian education for the Conference.

The other major emphasis of the Board of Education is Christian education training. In 1992 several significant training events have occurred; e.g., Young Adult Leadership Training with Karen Greenwaldt on February 9, Youth Leader Training with Tom Salsgiver on February 29, Children's Leader Training with Elaine Ward on March 21, and Older Adult Leadership Training with Richard Gentzler on May 2, 1992.

We look forward to other events of similar quality and scope in 1993. We also are seeking as a Board to encourage and enable Christian education training and leadership at the District level. We are pleased that each District will receive a grant from the Conference priority funds in 1992 for such training as part of Sunday School '92. Significant training at the District level remains a high priority for the Board.

During the summer of 1991 we had the largest involvement in Lab School from our Conference that we have had in a number of years. We hope this trend continues. To that end we have revised our policy for scholarships for Lab School for person who are willing to serve as resource leaders for our Conference following completion of their Lab training.

The revised policy is as follows:

APPLICATION FORM FOR SCHOLARSHIP AID FOR LABORATORY TRAINING (1992-1993)

Scholarship aid for laboratory training is made available to persons in the Little Rock Conference under the following guidelines:

1. Upon completion of this form within 30 days of the completion of a Laboratory Training Experience, we will reimburse a portion of the cost of attending the lab school as funds become available to us.

2. These funds will be distributed according the following schedule:
   A: First Lab School:Up to 50% of Registration. Up to 50% of Room and Board

   B. Second Lab School:Up to 75% of Registration. Up to 75% of Room and Board

   C. Third Lab School:Up to 100% of Registration and Seminar Up to 100% of Room and Board

   D. Recertification
      Up to 100% of Registration
      Up to 100% of Room and Board

3. Each person must seek additional help from his or her local church to cover the remainder of the expenses including travel costs.

4. The availability of funds for scholarship aid changes each year through the actions of the Annual Conference and through usage. Thus, scholarship aid may be provided only to the extend that funds are available at any particular time.

5. In order to be the best stewards of our scholarship funds, we ask that persons requesting scholarship aid covenant with us in the following manner:

A. I agree to complete my certification process in this field within one year of completing the Seminar experience.

B. Upon certification, I agree to make myself available to educate persons in this field for a period of at least five years.

C. I agree to continue my process of education in this field in order to stay abreast of current resources and techniques for at least five years following my certification.

The Board also has adopted policies for training events, including a list of recommendations for reimbursement for such training events in our Conference.

These recommendations are as follows:

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICIES FOR TRAINING EVENTS

1. All training events which are to be funded in whole or in part through CCOM or DCOM funding lines must be coordinated by the District COM or the Executive Committee of the DCOM prior to the event.

2. The Conference Council office shall keep a list of persons qualified to give leadership in training events.

3. The group planning an event may consult with the Council office staff concerning leadership, and have event leadership recruited by the Council staff person relating to Christian Education.

4. The Conference Council office can assist local churches, clusters, parishes, and districts in planning training events.

5. All district, sub-district, cluster, and parish training events funded by the DCOM or CCOM shall have the written approval of the District Superintendent or the Chairperson of the District Council on Ministries.

6. The Committee on Education recommends that travel expenses for one-day events be paid at twenty cents ($.20) per mile, one round-trip per event. For events of longer duration, the travel allowance should be negotiated with the leader. If leadership is coming from out of state, the lowest air-coach rate or car rental fee will be paid. Meals taken enroute shall be reimbursed at the rate of $5.00 per meal.

7. The Committee recommends the following honorarium schedule:

Two-hour Workshop:	$50.00
Four-hour Workshop:	$75.00
Six-hour Workshop:	$100.00
Teaching Clinic (10-hour Lab):	$150.00
Human Sexuality Lab School: (Usually Friday night, Saturday, Sunday)	$500.00++
Laboratory School (16-hour Lab):	$225.00
Bible Conference:	*
Celebrate Marriage Events:	*
Other training events:	*

++Or $300.00 plus expenses and travel at $.20 per mile.
Usually negotiated with leader separately or fees set by program.*

These are suggested honoraria. The actual amount paid for any one event may need to be negotiated in light of leadership qualifications, preparation requirements, travel time, and other considerations.

8. The District, sub-district, parish, or local church hosting the event shall bear the on-site cost of leader's room and board, expenses for leaders while traveling enroute, and supplies for the event.

9. The honorarium paid to an educational professional or other workshop leader should be clearly understood, in writing, prior to the training event. These charges may be significantly different from those suggested above.

SOME TYPES OF TRAINING FOR NURTURE AND MINISTRY

LABORATORY SCHOOL

The "Lab School" is a process of involving teachers in goal-setting, planning a teaching session, actually leading a teaching-session, and evaluating the effectiveness of the process. A lab is conducted under the direction of a certified lab leader. It is the finest type of teacher-training in the church.

TEACHING CLINICS

A "Teaching Clinic" may be conducted for a local church or a cluster of churches whose leaders desire to take a closer look at the teaching process. A typical pattern for a teaching clinic is for qualified leaders to meet with teacher and class leaders of a local church for several hours on Saturday and provide guidance in lesson planning and preparation, observe the classes in session on Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon is spent evaluating and discussing ways of improving teaching in the groups. Advance Planning time is four months.

WORKSHOPS

A "Workshop" usually is of two hours duration, and at best is primarily a "briefing" session in some field or area. It is for persons who are seeking to gain information and who are seeking help in regard to issues and resources. It has limitations because of a lack of time. The leader must be qualified and knowledgeable in the field about which the workshop is concerned. Advance Planning time is three months.

BIBLE CONFERENCES

The "Bible Conference" is designed to provide help for persons who teach in the Church School as well as for those who wish an indepth study in the Bible. It is taught by a highly qualified Bible scholar and usually focuses on one particular book of the Bible or a particular subject in the Bible. It requires a minimum of six hours and is often held over the weekend. Advance Planning time is six months or longer.

OTHER TYPES OF WORKSHOPS

The DCOM or Board of Education may approve funding for other types of training events such as "My Job Workshops," workshops on Time-Conflict-Management, Evangelism, Stewardship, Worship, Missions, Church and Society, Religion and Race, Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations, Finance, Age-Level Ministries, Youth, Music, Skill training for pastors (i.e. Confirmation, Preaching, Visitation, etc.), and any other type of workshop or seminar it deems helpful. Contact the Little Rock Conference Council on Ministries office, 715 Center St., Little Rock, Arkansas 72201, 374-5027 for more information.

Christian Education Sunday is September 13, 1992 and will be September 12 in 1993. The Board recommends that a Christian Education Day offering be received in our Conference. Proceeds from the offering will be used for Lab School Scholarships and the funding of Christian Education Leadership Training in our Conference.

Our report concludes with the following outline for the implementation of a 1991 Annual Conference action:

The 1991 Little Rock Annual Conference approved Resolution #1-On Abortion. (1991 Little Rock Annual Conference Journal, page 97). The Board of Education was to implement point #5 in Resolution #1. Points #4 and #6 were also indirectly related to the work of the Board.

These points read as follows:

4. That each congregation shall offer educational opportunities using such curriculum (UM curriculum) at least every four years to all the various age groups within the worship family.

5. That the Little Rock Conference through the Boards of Education, Ordained Ministry, and Diaconal Ministry, shall provide and require continuing education opportunities in the area of sexuality by 1994 for all appointed ministers. And, that these education opportunities be offered to others serving in education/youth staff positions at nominal cost.

6. That all ordained clergy complete UM training in sexuality by 2000. That all diaconal ministers complete UM training in sexuality by 2000.

In order to begin implementing this resolution, the Board of Education appointed a subcommittee on Human Sexuality. David Deere serves as chairperson and subcommittee members are Mattie Mae Rice, Lu Harding, John Christie, Roger Armstrong, and Roy Smith. After lengthy discussion the group adopted this plan, which was approved by the Board of Education January 30, 1992 and the Little Rock Conference Council on Ministries on February 20, 1992. The plan is as follows:

February 1992 — Certified leaders in human sexuality on the committee will develop a curriculum for training clergy in better understanding human sexuality and resources and programs available in the United Methodist Church.

October 14, 1992 — Training for co-leaders for training clergy and later for local church workshops.

October 15, 1992 — A daylong session to introduce the program. This event will be in Malvern. (This training will be for the six district superintendents and an additional three ministers or diaconal ministers from the district.)

Jan.-June 1993 — Workshops in each district. The model provided can be either a daylong or overnight format. This event will be specifically designed for clergy and diaconal ministers. These events will be led by the certified leaders and co-leaders.

The workshops in each district will be scheduled at the convenience of the individual district. The district will be responsible for securing meals and a meeting place.

Roy P. Smith, Chairperson

CAMPING COORDINATING COMMITTEE

The camping ministry of the Little Rock Conference has had another great year, with 1,162 campers participating in events planned or coordinated through the Camping Coordinating Committee in 1991. This represents the largest number of campers in over twelve years, and is due in part to the expansion of both program and facilities.

With the six new cabins at Camp Tanako, four of them now fully equipped with new beds, we are able to comfortably care for our camper's needs. We are working to expand the nature trails and to provide more recreational activities. In addition, we hope to have a new pool ready for use at the beginning of the 1992 Summer camping season. The pool will be financed in part by a 1992 Fair Share apportionment, and we encourage each church's support.

Along with building expansion, we are also offering more camping opportunities. This summer we will be offering a canoe camp for grades 9-12, and a new Sr. High Service Camp, designed to give youth a chance to experience first-hand a variety of service oriented ministries.

A look at the 1992 summer schedule will show the variety of camps now offered:

DATE	CAMP	GRADE	COST	DEAN
April 3-5	Youth Leadership Weekend	7-12	$50	Wayne Clark
Apr 24-25	Confirmation Camp	5-9	$35	Jim Polk
May 15-16	Camp 101	1-3	$40	Cecilia Kelly
June 8-12	Sr. High Service Camp	9-12	$119	Britt Skarda
June 15-17	Children's Choir Camp I	4-6	$60	Karen Granderson
June 17-19	Children's Choir Camp II	4-6	$60	Karen Granderson
June 19-21	Singles Retreat	Adult	$40	Julie Owens

July 13-17	Junior High II	7-9	$125	Rock Jones
July 19-24	OMP Camp	7-12	$160	LaVerne Keahey
July 24-26	Middle Elementary II	3-4	$60	Alan White
July 27-31	Sr. High Conference Camp	9-12	$130	Wayne Clark

Of course, the ministry represented by these camps could not take place were it not for the almost 200 men and women who will volunteer their time to serve as deans and counselors for the camps of 1992. We would like to offer our thanks to each of them.

The camping program of our conference provides unique ministry opportunities for our children, youth and adults. Our strong commitment to it will insure its vitality well into the next century.

Jim Polk, Little Rock Conference Camping Coordinator

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

The Little Rock Conference Young Adult Mnistries (YAM) offes an invitation for all persons to become involved on some level within the local church. Young adults, as described in the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, includes persons "out of high school who are approximately nineteen through thirty years of age." We recognize that the word "approximately" is very crucial in comprehending the large population of people there are to reach in the name of Jesus Christ.

The invitation to all persons to get involved in the Young Adult Ministries in your local church is vital to the success of reaching this age group. Teaching a Sunday School Class for Young Adults; contacting potential young adults in recruitment for your church; offeing to help organize or sponsor some Young Adult fellowship or learning event for young adults in your church, are just a few of the ways that you can minister to this group.

On a Conference level, in February 1992, we held a training event for local church Young Adult Coordinators, in which valuable resources and sharing of ideas resulted. A quarterly YAM newsletter has just begun to be distributed to pastors, and local church young adult coordinators.

It is our hope that you local church will have or will continue to have an active young adult ministry. For constructive young adult ministry at its best, is the United Methodist Church of tomorrow!

Mary Susan Hilliard
Conference Coordinator, YAM

OLDER ADULT TASK FORCE

Earlier this year I received a "Perspective" by Ezra Earl Jones, General Secretary of the Conference Board of Discipleship, which is a commentary about the life and ministry of The United Methodist Church, which gave me thoughts about Older Adults and the Church. He said "earlier in 1991 Wal Mart became our nation's largest retailer. At about the same time, K-Mart became the second largest. Sears which had been the largest retail company for many years, is now third. All three of the combatants for the top retailing positions began operating in 1962. Institutions do not last forever. They rise in response to a need or an opportunity and may flourish for a time - maybe for a long time. Then the world changes, and other institutions are born."

The United Methodist Church has not created new groups, except spasmodically, for a third of a century. We have not adapted to a changing world.

Older adults are persons of great variety or diversity. They need to be valued as persons of distinctive and worthwhile significance. They need the church to listen. This makes it important that one know something about this age group if planning for them. It is possible to divide elders into two groups, those who are able to get out of their place of residence, and those who are housebound. With this division, differences are such that each needs to be assessed.

There are many myths which could put limits on many. There is as much difference among elders financially as in other places in their lives. Many are financially able. However, there are some very poor. Cedric Tilberg, in "Revolution Underway", says that 15% of elders live below the national poverty level. Many of those are people who have less than $800 - $1,000 a year. Many have multiple medical problems. The care of these persons costs more than for the average population.

What if we redesigned our churches to look to the now and the future - to focus on new ministries in new places, to reach out rather than to turn inward to prop up the past.

Our future is not uncertain. We know what we can do to continue the ministry.

Since the vitality of the church will be determined by the vitality of its graying membership, whatever the church does in ministering to the special needs of these members will make of the church's ministry a magnet to draw from its experienced Christians the wealth of knowledge, expertise, skills, behaviors, attitudes, values and beliefs which age has enabled them to accumulate, recycling the abundance of their enriching stores of religious experience. Failing to do this, the church will have a static quality that can put it on the sidelines.

Redesign your program to include older adults. Will we give up a system designed to preserve the past or redesign the system to build a new church for the future?

I believe sincerely, that we are here at this time in history of our church to bring a new vision into reality in the United Methodism, a planned ministry which unleashes the great human resources of its older members, a ministry which vitalizes the church through a new dimension.

SINGLES TASK FORCE

The Singles Ministry is extended to persons of all ages who are single, widowed, divorced, never-married, or married and spouse-absent. These persons share unique needs and life situations toward which the church can direct its support, love and Christian responsibility.

A cooperative approach to Single Adult Ministries with other churches, denominations, community organizations, and groups are encouraged as valid outreach ministry of the local United Methodist Church.

On behalf of our Little Rock Conference Task Force on Singles' Ministries, we want to share the following news.

A .The Task Force adopted a Singles' Ministry Statement of Purpose:

To provide a ministry of:
-education
-fellowship
-recreation
-service
-worship
-support
which promotes the spiritual and emotional growth of single adults.

B. The Little Rock Conference Cabinet approved the following request from the Singles Task Force during the fall retreat of the Area cabinets:

BE IT RESOLVED:

that the Singles Task Force, established by the Little Rock Conference Council on Ministries and approved by the Little Rock Annual Conference in 1989, asks that each District Superintendent strongly encourage each local church to include in its listing of officers as approved by the Charge Conference the name of an individual designated as Singles Coordinator. In those instances where one individual is designated in a dual capacity, i.e. Older Adult/Singles Ministry, we request that name also be placed on the line for Singles Coordinator so that a computer listing of local church singles coordinators may be generated.

C. The Little Rock Conference Task Force and representatives from the North Arkansas Conference Singles program voted to propose that the two conferences work together and form an Arkansas Area Singles Task Force. Appropriate action will be taken through each area office for this proposal. This is a great move for our singles ministry in Arkansas.

D. This will be the third year for two annual events: a weekend seminar in Little Rock and a weekend summer retreat at Camp Tanako.

E. The singles newsletter will be published quarterly and continue to be included in the conference mailings. Share with your local church leaders.

The Task Force consists of the following District Coordinators:
Julie Owens, Arkadelphia
Rev. Pam Estes, Camden
Rev. David Crooks, Hope
Barbara Tolman, Little Rock
Rev. David Kassos, Monticello
Robin Bolls, Pine Bluff
At-Large Members;
Rev. Bob Hollis, Pine Bluff; Barbara Lewis, Little Rock

There is a vision for ministry with single adults. We see real people with all their attending joys, pains, gifts and struggles being reached and welcomed by congregations.

Pat Reed, Conference Singles Coordinator

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

The Little Rock Conference Young Adult Ministries (YAM) offes an invitation for all persons to become involved on some level within the local church. Young adults, as described in the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, includes persons "out of high school who are approximately nineteen through thirty years of age." We recognize that the word "approximately" is very crucial in comprehending the large population of people there are to reach in the name of Jesus Christ.

The invitation to all persons to get involved in the Young Adult Ministries in your local church is vital to the success of reaching this age group. Teaching a Sunday School Class for Young Adults; contacting potential young adults in recruitment for your church; offeing to help organize or sponsor some Young Adult fellowship or learning event for young adults in your church, are just a few of the ways that you can minister to this group.

On a Conference level, in February 1992, we held a training event for local church Young Adult Coordinators, in which valuable resources and sharing of ideas resulted. A quarterly YAM newsletter has just begun to be distributed to pastors, and local church young adult coordinators.

It is our hope that you local church will have or will continue to have an active young adult ministry. For constructive young adult ministry at its best, is the United Methodist Church of tomorrow!

Conference Coordinator, YAM

WORK AREA ON CHURCH AND SOCIETY

In October of 1991 the Work Area on Church and Society met to set plans for 1992. Seven areas were proposed by the members for consideration: United Methodist beliefs, alcohol/drug pledge for youth, KKK opposition, health care expenses, help for the homeless and hungry, housing and care for the aging, and child abuse. It was decided that only one area should be selected because of time and money limitations. On December the 3rd, it was decided to pursue the area of child abuse and it was later expanded to included women and the elderly. Our goal is to raise the level of awareness across the Conference. We plan a series of educational programs in conjunction with UMW and UMM.

At the Bishop's request, the chairperson will participate in the Arkansas Interfaith Conference, area of social action.

Our participation in Rain will continue.

An enclosed petition to Annual Conference on pre-marital blood testing will be submitted for vote.

Rev. Monty L. Bell, Chairman
Work Area on Church and Society

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

COSROW in the next quadrennium shall be seeking to follow the Spirit's power in monitoring the participation in ministry across the whole church especially concentrating on women and youth in all places and in men in non-traditional roles; in advocating for the ministry of all persons regardless of age, gender, or race; in supporting information programs on the issues: sexual harassment, child abuse, sexual abuse, domestic violence.

Undergirding our work shall always be a reliance on the centering and empowering nature of God's grace. As we strive to live in Christ, we recognize that God calls us to justice and merciful love both in the church and in the world.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

For the last few years the focus of the Work Area on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has been directed toward understanding the various covenanting proposals of the Consultation on Church Union. We have made materials available to interested persons and groups as a means to fuller awareness of the content of the Consultation's proposals. These proposals have been considered at General Conference in May. Subsequent to the actions of the General Conference this work area will assess its continued work or response to this issue.

Furthermore, we affirm Christian unity as a vital matter for discussion and growth in the churches of the Little Rock Conference. In order to assist our churches to a greater understanding of Christian unity we propose the following:

1. Work Area will write a short-term Christian Unity study.
2. The study will be suitable for adults.
3. It will be designed for use as a 5 session Vacation Bible School course or for use in the Sunday School.
4. Student materials and Teacher helps will be included.
5. A bibliography will be provided.
6. Materials available in Spring of 1993 for use in Summer.
7. Churches will be able to copy materials for class members.
8. Work Area on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns will recruit involvement in each district.
9. Evaluation of study will be solicited.

ARKANSAS AREA DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

The purpose of the Committee is to assist and guide the local church and community in their response to disaster. This is done in consultation and conjunction with the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) which supports disaster response programs financially and serves as an advisor to the work of the Area Committee in its work with the local churches in initiating disaster response.

From May 1990 to March 1991, an Ecumenical Flood Relief response program, initiated by Grand Avenue United Methodist Church in Hot Springs in consultation with Area Committee coordinator, Wayne Jarvis, responded to the needs of 101 victims of the floods with spiritual, emotional, financial, disaster clean- up, and property replacement assistance. The major portion of monies for the program were received from UMCOR. The Arkansas Area Disaster Relief Fund, along with other denominations and local churches and civic organizations provided the remainder. Hands -on assistance with cleaning, moving, rebuilding and repair was provided through the Ozark Mission Project and the efforts of a work team from St. Andrews United Methodist Church in San Antonio, Texas. Carolyn Tyler-Benson was hired by the Ecumenical Flood Relief Committee of Hot Springs to coordinate the program, meet with victims, and deliver these disaster relief services.

The Arkansas Area Disaster Response Committee functions under the organizational structure and financial guidelines outlined in the 1990 Conference Journal. Each District Superintendent has appointed a District Disaster Response Coordinator to work with the Area Disaster Response Coordinator and the Council on Ministries director. Committee work involves disaster preparedness and response training for pastors and local churches, assistance to local churches in responding to disasters, development of policies and procedures for disaster relief and response programs, initiation, implementation and coordination of local church disaster responses needing relief appeals from UMCOR and the Bishop, coordination with other relief agencies (public and volunteer), and providing materials and publicity on the work of disaster response.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES
The Christian Race

The interesting thing about most races is that the starting line is also the finishing line. For some, the starting line will be just that - starting and moving nowhere. As we meet during this Annual Conference, we will give reports, check and review old goals to see how we started and finished those we made at the last Annual Conference. But as we have new opportunities for a new Conference year, we may want to focus on our growing need to meet the new challenges that God has for us. As a Conference, we are now challenged to be Stewards in the midst of great financial difficulties in our nation. As your Board of Global Ministries, we are called on in these difficult times to share resources that will help Missional Congregations, and address Ministry and Mission in their parish area. The Apostle Paul gave the Christian runner a great illustration to follow in running the Christian race. Thus to paraphrase Paul's advice in, (I Cor. 9:24-25) we in the Little Rock Conference must run in such a way that we start and finish all the games that we compete in that we may get the prize and crown that will last forever.

Therefore, on behalf of your Conference Board of Global Ministries, we want to share the following news about some Mission efforts we are involved in!

1. We urge everyone to participate in the Arkansas Area School of Christian Mission. The dates are August 4-7, weekday and 7-9, weekend at Hendrix College in Conway.
2. As 1993 approaches we look forward to taking a bus load of participants to the 2nd Global Gathering event that will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana on March 25 -28, 1993.
3. On Sunday, March 29, we had a workshop on the work of U.M.C.O.R. (United Methodist Committee on Relief) with Dr. Lucy Gist from the General Board of Global Ministries.
4. We are happy to report that the McCauleys have returned to the Mission field in Kenya. The Whitfields are home on leave until July.
5. We have 18 churches in the Little Rock Conference that have Covenant relationships with Missionaries. A new program titled - "Global Mission Partners", has been launched to achieve more support. For more information call or write, Rev. Mike Mattox, First United Methodist Church, Arkadelphia, telephone: 501-246-2493.
6. We contributed $22,284.36 to "One Great Hour of Sharing" in 1991, a little more than in 1990 (approximately $700.00)
7. We had the privilege of meeting and hearing Rev. Ullas Tanker and his family from Parnu, Estonia, at a time when their country was on the way to becoming an independent and free nation. Our people have responded with gifts amounting to $5,591.76 to help build a new United Methodist Church there. We pray that more churches will respond to this Advance Special #15362A-N.
8. We gave $88,071.50 to the General Advance in 1991. (This was $7,105.33 less than we gave in 1990.
9. We contributed $24,716.26 toward the $50,000 Fair Share Goal for Camp Aldersgate. (A special gift of $544.25 was given, which put the amount "slightly" over 50%). Camp Aldersgate needs the full $50,000. With just a little effort we could have 100% participation. Let's do it in 1992!

10. Since taking Rio Grande Conference and the Oklahoma Indian Conference out of the apportionments, the giving has dropped drastically.

11. Bill Waddell, our Conference Volunteer in Mission Coordinator, has asked all districts and local churches in the Little Rock Conference to help support our Jurisdiction VIM projects. If you feel called to be a short-term volunteer in Mission participant, please contact Bill Waddell.

12. Arkansas Hunger Ingathering - the 1992 Arkansas Ingathering for World Hunger will be held on Saturday, October 17, 1992, at the State Capitol.

13. The Little Rock Conference Board of Global Ministries encourages your support for the following General Church approved Advance Specials:

Jurisdiction:

Rio Grande Conference - Advance #982589-0
Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference - S.C.J. Advance #583634-4
Volunteers In Mission - S.C.J. Advance #982871-2

Conference:

Aldersgate Camp Advance - #982149-3
The Arkansas Rice Depot

14. The following Churches were given help to strengthen their Mission? Ministries through regular/special church extension funding:

15. Recommend that RAIN be considered by CFA as an Advance Special .

Finally, remember that St. Paul said: "Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last forever." (I Cor. 9:24-25)

SUNDAY SCHOOL '92
Area Steering Committee

Committee members: Thomas E. Weir, Chairperson; Buddy Arnold, Vice Chairperson; Karen Fry, Secretary; Dr. J. W. Lofton, C.E. McAdoo, Roy Smith, Donna Goodner, Allan Bruner, Aaron Barling, Gerald Rainwater, and Marilynn Loyd.

The United Methodist Churches in Arkansas can be very proud of the success of the "Sunday School '91" emphasis. 349 churches in the state participated in the six-week Sunday School attendance campaign. 183 churches met or exceeded the 9.1% goal during the campaign.

Sunday School '92 is the continuation of that strong belief that the Little Rock and North Arkansas Annual Conferences can do great things together and that the Sunday School and Christian Education is a crucial area of ministry needing our immediate attention.
Elements of the Sunday School '92 Area Emphasis include:

Five Star Plan of Excellence - Again this year, the Five Star Plan of Excellence is totally devoted to the Sunday School.

Resource Manual - Each church received a resource manual which clearly gives information and opportunities for fulfilling the Five-Star requirements, as well as other material for strengthening your Christian Education program.

Attendance Campaign - This year's attendance campaign has been extended to ten weeks. The committee encourages your church to being the campaign on September 13th. The attendance campaign kit is adapted and expanded to help your church complete a successful attendance campaign.

What happens in Sunday School classes is important. The Sunday School is the source of 2 out of every 3 persons who profess their faith in Christ and unite with the United Methodist Church. As the Sunday School goes, so goes the church, "Invite A Friend to Sunday School."

Thomas E. Weir, Chairperson

TEEN CRISIS TASK FORCE

It is with great excitement that the Arkansas Area Teen Crisis Task Force reflects upon its accomplishments this past year. Since February 17, 1991 Teen Crisis Awareness Workshops have been hosted by the Pine Bluff District, Arkadelphia District, Jonesboro/Paragould District, Camden District, Fort Smith District, Batesville District, Little Rock District and Monticello District. Over 1,100 United Methodist youth, pastors and laity have been informed about the current epidemic of teen pregnancies, teen suicides and teens involved in substance abuse/chemical dependency. The workshops provided ways to address and intervene in these three crisis. Those attending have received an informational handbook that contains extensive information and resources regarding teen pregnancy, teen suicide, and substance abuse. Awareness workshops are being planned for the fall of 1992 in: Conway, Fayetteville, Forrest City and Hope Districts. It is the hope of the Task Force that every United Methodist Church in Arkansas will have had at least one member participate in a Teen Crisis Awareness Workshop by the end of 1992.

On January 2, 1992 the Arkansas Area Teen Crisis Task Force employed Donna Coburn on a part-time basis to coordinate the Arkansas United Methodist Church's overall response to the teen crisis. As Coordinator of Teen Crisis Ministries she will develop and implement training programs for the local church to prevent and reduce teen drug abuse, pregnancy and suicide attempts. Additional programs of the Teen Crisis Ministry for 1992 which the Coordinator will direct include: establishing and supporting Teen Care Teams in the local church, initiating a peer leadership program for Arkansas United Methodist Youth, establishing a Teen Crisis library for audio visuals and printed media for local church use, preparing a crisis resource directory for each local church, and the seeking of new funding sources for Teen Crisis Ministry programs. These activities are enabled in part by the office space donated by St. James United Methodist Church, 321 Pleasant Valley Dr., Little Rock, Arkansas 72212. Acquisition of the phone number 223-TEEN (223-8336) will be beneficial in remembering how to access the office.

The Little Rock and North Arkansas Annual Conferences made a courageous and most significant decision in June, 1991 to unanimously adopt the recommendation of the Area Teen Crisis Task Force and employ a Coordinator for the Arkansas Area Teen Crisis Ministries. This action is a declaration of the Arkansas United Methodist Church's belief that the Church is uniquely qualified to care about the needs of the whole person, not simply to treat immediate symptoms and needs. The Church is in the position to offer life changing possibilities. Unfortunately the part-time constraints of the coordinator's position limit the Arkansas Area's capability to fully address the tremendous scope of these crisis. It is expected that the coordinator may begin to devote full-time to a slate of programs and ministries in 1993 by obtaining grants to supplement the Area Conference's support.

Since April, 1991, the Area Teen Crisis Task Force has obtained grants for its work from: South Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Women, Little Rock Conference Youth Service Fund, North Arkansas Conference Youth Service Fund, National Youth Service Fund, Louisiana Conference Youth Service Fund, and the National Board of Global Ministries. These grants have underwritten specific programs and have provided tremendous assistance in furthering the work begun by our area.

The Arkansas Area Teen Crisis Task Force firmly believes that the United Methodist Church has a mandate from Jesus Christ to be His hands and His feet in this world. Through the Teen Crisis Ministries, Arkansas United Methodists can be His hands and His feet for all those hurting from suicidal thoughts, alcohol abuse, drug dependency, and teen sexual activity. Through the work of the Teen Crisis Ministries we will prepare our church to deal with these crisis and to assist in prevention of teen pregnancy, teen alcohol and drug usage, and suicide. Through this ministry our youth will know the love and grace of God and Christ through all the years of their life. The message of hope that the Church eternally offers will be shared.

Sandy Smith, Chair

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

A United Methodist Women unit is a visible and vital part of 168 congregations in our conference. The reported membership at the end of 1991 was 7,262. Each district has an active organization and the conference organization is functioning at all levels.

We were extremely pleased when this conference last year adopted the fourth Sunday in January as United Methodist Women Day to be celebrated annually in every congregation. Last fall we had printed a Resource Book for UMW Sunday and mailed copies to key officers in each unit. We have some additional copies available for sale at this time.

We used a five-star plan of giving to encourage local units to participate in all five channels of undesignated giving- pledge to Mission, gift to Mission cards, in remembrance, special mission recognition pins, and World Thank Offering. Many units received 5 star certificates at our annual meeting last fall.

We were delighted to have our Bishop and Julia Wilke participate so fully in our Annual Meeting last fall including hosting dinner for the Mission team the evening before and his installation of officers. Joycelyn Elders' address was well received and appreciated. We included excerpts from it in our Annual Report. If you missed it, ask your local UMW president to let you read those truths. Each one has much food for thought.

When we learned that the Laity Address at General Conference this year would be by a native of our conference, we invited her home to our Conference Annual Meeting. She has graciously accepted and plans to deliver the same address to us at Fordyce on October 10, 1992. We extend an invitation to all who wish to hear Ruby Galloway Farish.

Pat Litts, Jewel Williams and Elise Argue attended the National Seminar last August. This year they have been and are sharing in all districts what "Mirrors of the Spirit" means to them.

United Methodist Women are continuously being trained and training, learning and teaching, giving of time, talents, and energy both within the church and the community. We have had some very meaningful worship experiences at Conference and District "Day Apart". The conference mission team is truly a supportive community whose concepts of mission are expanding.

1993 COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES BUDGET REQUEST

There are conferences as large, as large can be, as far as the eyes of one can see---but that one dearest to you and me is the one where parliamentary procedures always rings, the Little Rock Conference, held in Hot Springs...

Members of this conference are a hearty bunch, they endure morning business sessions until its time for lunch,,,Some ponder the reasoning of it all, when it'll be business as usual comes this fall...

Presenting the council's budget is one of my chores,
Everyone should hear this,----- tellers-- to your posts,
block the doors....

You'll find our budget requests on pages sixty eight through seventy three, turn there now and accompany me.

We did our best to cut the fat, being accountable is where it's at,
Administrative Expenses are relatively lean,
they support a staff that is trim and clean,
Their work is outstanding and that's no pun
they get it done while having fun

Increases for insurance and the rent are items we don't control - and they couldn't be bent...
They're found on lines forty-nine and fifty-three,
If I'm going too fast, please excuse me..

Look at the top of page sixty-nine, there you will see the bottom line..
We request two two five, seven two two...
It's before you now for your review.

District Council on Ministries requests are about the same,
a dollar less, and that's a shame.
They're getting it done on the local scenes,
not much steak but a lot of beans.

The next request remains the same to fund our emphasis is the name of the game
We'll get it done with the same amount and it'll be first class without a doubt.

The remaining requests on page sixty-nine through the top of page seventy-two
I now offer for your review...
Cast your eyes on line seven of the latter page for a total of one two seven, three eight o...
reasoning for the increase is listed below.
From lines thirty four to forty two New Program Items now appear in our view...
Isn't it great, we're growing with minimal cost , without your support it would be lost.

The summary's next and you will see we've tried to act with responsibility...
Three six six, three eight seven for ninety three will fund all programs for you and me.
Your council worked hard to toe the line,

for your local church as well as mine.

Non-program requests caused a lot of pain, request on lines twenty five through twenty eight, I'll now explain,
The center columns reflect requests, column three you will see is for less
Three line items remain the same as ninety two a slight increase in one, we present to you.
Overall increases amount to twelve thousand dollars,
we'll go with that unless someone hollers

Fair share ministries are at the top of page seventy three It's second mile giving, don't you see.
Draw a line through the entry on line six for a request for ninety three that's over with now don't you see

The total request you now will see ----to fund the incoming year's ministry
We did our best, it's up to you, your support we'll cherish....
I'm through.

Bishop, I move these request for ninety three, you're the president of the conference, not me.

Jay Lofton, Director CCOM

Missionaries Jimmye and William Whitfield.

B. INSTITUTIONAL REPORTS

CAMP ALDERSGATE, INC.

Thanks to the support of Methodists throughout Arkansas, Camp Aldersgate, Inc. provided one of the state's finest examples of Methodist mission in action in 1991. The year was one of transition for the camp. Rev. John Blundell retired in January after ten years as the camp's director. Ms. Saville Henry served as the camp's interim director until the May arrival of the new director, Ms. Sarah M. Spencer.

Literally and figuratively, Camp Aldersgate remained a camp for all seasons as it provided programs for persons statewide, to people of all ages, and on a year-round basis.

Camp Aldersgate's eleven programs provided services to 2,457 individuals and an additional 162 families. The weekend respite care camp served 104 campers from several counties on 48 weekends of the year. The summer medical camps welcomed 346 campers from 67 counties and 6 children from 6 other states. Seven work groups from out of state worked in mission camps along with the summer campers, providing 10,202 hours in volunteer help.

The weekly Seniors Day Out program served 60 persons from 3 counties weekly, September through May, as well as three days in the summer. The Aldersgate emergency food pantry provided food to 27 families.

As always, the camp's volunteers were the mainstay of camp life. A total of 195 youth volunteers logged 30,238 hours of service to the camp. Saturday work groups gave over 200 hours of volunteer time in projects enhancing the camp.

Three grant programs dealt with respite (relief) and family support services to families with children with disabilities. The Family Support Program provided funding for special needs to 50 families in 5 counties. The Interagency Respite Program provided payments for caregivers to 85 families in 28 counties. The Respite Networking Grant will provide research and recommendations on respite care statewide to the Governor's Developmental Disabilities Planning Council.

As a supplement to its social programs, the camp rented its facilities to church and community groups, providing meals and lodging to 2,007 people. In addition to its own programs, Camp Aldersgate houses the Woodlawn Therapeutic Center, a daycare for children with special needs, (which is now a division of the Centers for Youth and Families), and the Westside Medical Clinic, a free clinic sponsored by the Catholic Social Services. With the provision of its own social service programs and the facilities for two others, Camp Aldersgate remains a truly unique place.

The camp has maintained its mission, but is now at a crossroads. After a complete restructuring of its finances, the board of directors is evaluating programs and its mission as part of a full development of the camp's potential. The board is moving quickly to develop a broader base of funding for basic camp operations and to develop mission programs that use the entire camp facility.

The board of directors is seeking assistance to help the camp maintain its basic level of programming through the transition. We earnestly encourage each church to be part of the restoration and rejuvenation of one of Arkansas' oldest and most outstanding Methodist missions.

UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

For almost a century the United Methodist Children's Home has touched the lives of thousands of Arkansas children. We have seen their needs change from the essentials of food, clothing and shelter to innovative child-care concepts necessary to untangle complex emotional and psychological problems.

Under the guidance of a forward-thinking Board of Trustees, the Home has evolved from a residential custodial care program to the present Teaching-Family group home concept. In March 1991, a contract was signed between Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina and the United Methodist Children's Home, Inc. of Arkansas. This is a three year contract. At the conclusion of the contract, United Methodist Children's Home will be a national certified Teaching-Family site.

Projected Income 1992-93

The Teaching-Family model of child care is a new, but proven, approach designed to more fully meet the diverse needs of today's hurting children and families. It is a therapeutic group home program designed to serve children within the community in which they live. The homes are located within residential neighborhoods.

In the eleven months since this contract became effective, UMCH has opened four Teaching Family Homes. They are located in Batesville, Searcy, and two homes in Magnolia. On April 1, we will open our fifth home which will be located on the Campus in Little Rock. Our occupancy rate to date is 92%.

We will also have in place by the end of this year a Foster Care Program to undergird our Teaching-Family Homes. This will provide care for children on an emergency basis as well as support for children who graduate out of the teaching-family home, but are not yet ready to return to their natural parents.

Our Vision For The Future

The United Methodist Children's Home today is a direct result of the plans, visions, determination, hard work, and dedication of yesterday. Tomorrow depends upon what we plan, dream, and do today.

We believe strongly in the worth of every individual and the validity of the family unit. We believe that every child has the right to be part of the community and to have a family of his or her own. We want every person with whom we work to know that he/she is special in the sight of God. Part of the healing process is understanding and experiencing words like grace and forgiveness.

This process, and emphasis on spiritual development, is one of the strengths of the Teaching-Family model of child care.

The emotional and psychological problems in many children's lives are grave. If restoration is not accomplished, it is likely that the same disturbing life patterns will be passed to their children. A Teaching-Family Home is our opportunity to save the next generation from a legacy of abuse and neglect.

Our goal is to establish a network of Teaching-Family Homes across the state of Arkansas so that every geographical area of the state has access to this program. The Homes will house up to six troubled youth ages 10-17 in a family setting. Each Home will be staffed by a professionally trained, married couple called Teaching-Parents and an Alternate Teaching-Parent.

To carry on this program our permanent endowment fund needs to be expanded and enlarged for three primary reasons:

•To provide an assured, dependable, predictable source of annual income to meet the needs of future generations of children and families;

•To make the Home increasingly independent of the uncertainties of governmental fees and grants;

•To serve those children and families who have no funding source behind them.

A basic permanent endowment fund of $42 million is the minimum needed to underwrite the three purposes listed above. The fund is now worth approximately $2 million. (This represents invested funds from Estate Gifts and the sale of 56 acres to the University of Arkansas at Little Rock some 21 years ago.) The Board of Trustees of the Home will be addressing this issue in the near future.

The success of the United Methodist Children's Home in remaining a vital ministry to children and families depends upon the continuing support of churches, church members, and other friends in each community across the State of Arkansas. We covet your prayers and your support for the children in our care and the children yet to come our way. Lives are being changed!

FLORENCE CRITTENTON HOME SERVICES, INC.

In June 1991, both Arkansas conferences of the United Methodist Church named the Florence Crittenton Home Services, Inc. to advance special status.

Since that time forty-four United Methodist churches contributed some $10,000 worth of non-perishable food to help meet the nutritional needs of the adolescent girls and gestating infants resident in the Home. This resulted in birth of no baby who needed placement in the "step-up" or "intensive care" nursery to gain to satisfactory birth weight.

During 1991, one hundred nine pregnant girls received residential services. Eight hundred eighty three others received information, crisis counseling and referral.

Ninety-three girls continued accredited grade, junior and senior high school in the Home's campus school. Eleven attended GED and 4 received their General Education Diploma while in residence. One hundred nine residents received vocational counseling, orientation and skill training while in the Home. One girl of each six was 14 or younger; 82% were under 18. Fifty-eight percent were white, forty-one percent black, and one percent had a spanish surname. They came from 38 Arkansas counties.

An outpouring of direct volunteer service from lay members of the church resulted, among other things, in renovation and redecoration of the girls' Honor Dorm.

Three hundred eighty seven additional hours valued at $1,935 from 21 volunteers of First United Methodist Church in Jacksonville helped toward restoration of the House of Hope. This facility is to assist homeless post-partum residents achieve self-sufficiency and independence under gradually diminishing watch-care and guidance of the Home's residential staff. The transitional housing and guidance will in addition remove the "need" to engage in sexual activity in exchange for food and lodging.

Members of First Methodist Church, Jacksonville also collected $2,155 to purchase thermal aluminum windows and insulation for the House of Hope. The Pairs & Spares Sunday School Class of the same church sponsored with $300 a Florence Crittenton Home resident.

In addition, cash contributions from 15 United Methodist Women and Methodist Church groups across totaled an additional $1,741 between June 1991 and March 1, 1992.
Unmeasured and immeasurable is the influence and encouragement to the girls in the love demonstrated through the selfless outpourings from such caring members from Methodist groups. Our hearts join yours in rejoicing in being instruments of our Lord's love in the world.

HENDRIX COLLEGE
(The President's Report)

Academic year 1991-92 was a year of transition and excitement. Dr. Joe B. Hatcher, who had provided exceptional leadership for ten years, left the college at mid-year to enter a career in banking. During his tenure the college made significant strides: our reclassification as a Liberal Arts I college by the Carnegie Foundation, the growth in the endowment amounting to a tripling of market value, the adding of faculty members to improve the academic program, the construction of Fausett Hall, the renovation of many campus buildings, and entry into new alliances for academic cooperation and athletic competition. The college wishes Dr. Hatcher well, and looks forward to the new president who will lead the college toward the beginning of a new century.

The presidential search was important in itself, but this year we also had many other exciting developments. A student-faculty group has become active in volunteer service projects. Facilitated by Counselor and Chaplain Jon Guthrie, this group participated with First Methodist, Little Rock in a Habitat for Humanity project in December and undertook other projects over the spring break, including a project at Menifee, Arkansas.

In fact, volunteerism on campus seems to be at an all-time high. A Big Brother/Big Sister program has continued and work projects were anticipated at Camp Nawake, Meadowcreek, and other sites. In addition members of our Students for Black Culture were active in a tutoring program for neighborhood children at Ebenezer United Methodist Church, very near campus. The education department has helped in this effort, and we hope to see a tutoring program there, and possibly an extension of our existing summer recreation program involving children from Menifee. This is a heartening trend. The enthusiasm and sense of purpose these groups have displayed are strong evidence of the sense of service and social concern that the college draws from the United Methodist tradition. The Church has always displayed a profound social conscience from the time of John Wesley. This spirit enlivens the contemporary Church, and is increasingly evident in the eagerness of students at Hendrix to reach out beyond themselves and this campus in service.

These service activities also provide early evidence that one of the college's chief aims is being fulfilled: the preparation of young adults for lives of meaning and quality, and of contribution to the betterment of the world. We believe that Hendrix, like any college, should be judged by its results. In that our alumni body is distinguished in its role of service through volunteerism and through leadership in church, education, public affairs, and the professions, we look to them with pride as an indication of the college's success.

Part of that success lies in establishing the relatedness of college years with the broader life. Through our fellowship teams we linked church and college in worship. Dana Thomason, also of the office of counselor and chaplain, led eight groups during 1991-92 on Sunday-morning visits to United Methodist Churches around the state. Teams visited Bentonville, Bison, Augusta, Clarksville, Warren, Paragould, Murfreesboro, and Norphlet. They brought the full service, including music, liturgist, and sermon. Of course we hope that these visits were good occasions for the local congregations. We also work hard to make sure that they are learning experiences for the students, helping them to come to fuller understanding about all that goes into making a complex project work, and enriching their sense of the work of the church. Needless to say, the warm greetings our students have met in these visits have created lasting relationships and memories.

Also in the interest of strengthening the ties between the college and the church, administrative staff from the campus spoke to district pastor's meetings on several occasions. In the Camden district, the Hope and Arkadelphia districts, the Pine Bluff district, and the Little Rock district, senior Hendrix staff members were in dialogue with local pastors, seeking to improve the flow of understanding and to hear concerns. We intend to continue this process, and would welcome inquiries for similar visits from local churches.

One inquiry we have often heard concerns the status of preparation for religious education at Hendrix. In 1990-91 we adopted a new format that formalizes in the catalog our approach to this area. Students interested in exploring such a vocation are now guided by stated recommendations as to selection of major, supplemental coursework and the internship experience. There is no major religious education, as there is no major in computer studies, pre-law, or pre-med. The position of the college is that the best undergraduate preparation for this vocation involves a broad liberal arts education with a major in an academic discipline offered by the college. The really essential ingredient is firmly in place: good counsel from faculty and staff who are themselves committed to and active in the work of the church both on-campus and off.

Among the on-campus activities that deserve mention are the Sunday evening "Epilogue" services in Greene Chapel, the various scripture study groups, and the Hendrix Christian Movement, which as always functions for us as an ecumenical association inviting students into reflection and dialogue on their journeys of faith.

A highlight of the year in terms of college-church relations was the preaching workshop held on campus April 27-8. This joint venture of Hendrix's Steel Center and of Bishop Wilke was led by Dr. John Holbert of Perkins Seminary. The Steel Center also again sponsored the Mary and Ira A. Brumley Awards for Religious Education, which went to John Christie and Kathryn Rice; and the Ethel K. Millar Awards for Religion and Social Awareness, which went to Ron Lanoue and Barbara Netherton. The Brumley and Millar awards exist because of the college's commitment to lift up and honor those who have exemplified the purposes of the Church. These awards were bestowed on campus in a ceremony January 16 that also included a lecture by Dr. Betty DeBerg of Valparaiso University. The Steel Center also contributed to the religious life of the campus through its speaker series, offering a broad spectrum of educational experiences to our students.

The college has also made preparations for entry into our new, nonscholarship athletic conference, the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference, which brings many more sports opportunities to our students. That begins next academic year with new programs in basketball for women and baseball for men. Both men's and women's soccer were added last year. We have also begun participation in the Associated Colleges of the South, an alliance that offers our students broader educational opportunities. The faculty, exercising its responsibility for curriculum, has wrestled with proposals to reshape the core of the curriculum and to strengthen the writing requirement. A big project of the year, never far from our awareness, was the campaign to fund construction of the new library. This project is the largest academic project the college has ever undertaken, and at $10 million (including both construction costs and operating endowment), has involved a very broad range of the college's constituencies in its support. In addition to more room for books, the new library will provide contemporary learning technologies for student use, study space, and a variety of other functions needed for the educational program. It will also include dedicated space for the materials of the Joint Commission on Archives of the two conferences. This space was a part of our library planning from the beginning and through a generous gift from the estate of Winfred Polk, facilitated by the Arkansas United Methodist Foundation, it was possible to include archival storage space, work space, and access to a fine reading room for United Methodist archival purposes. This will be a vastly more satisfactory arrangement than we were able to provide earlier. As the chief repository for the history of United Methodism in Arkansas, the college remains vitally interested in providing facilities and services for the archives, and we are all delighted to have the prospect of such a dramatic improvement in the archival facility.

In this and other areas Hendrix continues to do well. The level of support-- both tangible and intangible-- we receive from the church and from individual United Methodists makes it possible for us to offer educational opportunities at national standards of excellence at a cost that is, by national standards, moderate. The college's fiscal posture remains extremely sound, and by offering financial aid to about 70% of our students, we will strive to insure that economic considerations play as small a role as possible in students' decisions about Hendrix. The college supplies about $1,500,000 in grants to students annually. This is funding from the college's resources, in addition to federal and state grants and loans. With reference to our support for the Church, we continue to offer 50% tuition benefit to the dependents of ordained United Methodist clergy (including diaconal ministers) as well as a benefit to the dependents of ministers regardless of denomination. Preministerial students who go on into full-time ministry also receive a 50% tuition benefit. Enrollment, which dipped slightly last year, promises to rebound in 1992-93. We believe this is due to our increasing success in gaining wider recognition of the college's quality.

There are many things happening at Hendrix that we would delight in talking about--the new baseball field, the new faculty member next year who adds to our African-American representation, the progress of the undergraduate research program, the success of the student/alumni phonathon, the students' winning campaign to get the faculty to rescind pluses and minuses in the grading scale, and more. But space is limited, and so we have to close with a invitation for inquiries. Just ask us about Hendrix. We want to tell you more, and you will be proud of what you hear.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH

Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center located at Fayetteville, Arkansas serving South Central Jurisdictional United Methodists is celebrating our 70th year. The theme for 1992 is "Mount Sequoyah - The Story." Our story is that we have served Christ and the thousands that have journeyed to the Mountain for these seven decades, and now we prepare for an even more glorious future.

To meet the challenge of the future we have organized as a Team. Our Team is "Team Sequoyah - Meeting the Challenge of the Future." We want you and others like you in this conference to join our team so we can adequately meet that challenge. We desire to:

(1) have cutting edge programs that fulfill our mission statement,
(2) present capable and quality leadership and facility staff,
(3) offer good clean first class accessible facilities, and
(4) serve tasty, nutritious, healthy food.

In this way we can help all that come here FIND FULFILLNESS, PROVIDE OPPORTUNITIES, EXPERIENCE TRAINING, so that they may better SERVE GOD. We are in the second phase of a two million dollar capital funds campaign. "Resource Service, Incorporated," a professional fund raising company, is assisting us. Our Board of Trustees and the College of Bishops have affirmed us in the first phase of our carnpaign.

We now go to special "Lead Churches" in the jurisdiction to help us launch the campaign forward; then to our 'alumni' and Fayetteville friends; and to rnembers of local churches. In this way, every person in the Jurisdiction will have an opportunity to join our team and help us meet the future challenge.

Some events held at Mount Sequoyah which we want to lift up include: the Jurisdictional Retiree events continue to be very popular; Volunteers for the Mountain continues to be special; the 2nd Annual Golf event attendance increased by about 300%; and the Youth Respite Care from Benton County is a blessing to us all. 1992 shows a significant effort towards youth and family groups. We look forward to continuation of Jurisdiction Youth Ministry Organization (JYMO); Junior High Assembly; Senior High Assembly; Arkansas Chrysalis Youth Event; National Native Arnerican Family Camp; Walk to Emmaus being planned for 1992 and/or 1993; and many others.

The "Team Sequoyah- -Meeting the Challenge of the Future" campaign will allow us to build a new first class housing facility attached to a common meeting room on the Galloway Cafeteria; establish a sports complex and remodel forth floor Wesley Hall for inexpensive youth housing so that we may better serve youth and families; build a New Mount Sequoyah House for staff and administration; and establish a permanent endowment fund.

Our Board of Trustees designated a new Committee for Programming and changed the task of the Promotion and Publicity Committee to that of Advertising and Marketing.

Trustees from the Little Rock Conference are Bishop Richard B. Wilke, W. E. "Ned" Hastings, and dr. Ed Matthews. Bishop Wilke is on the Campaign Cabinet, Executive Committee, and Building and Grounds Cornmittee. Ned Hastings is on the Finance Committee Dr. Matthews is Chairman of the Development and Endowment Committee, and member of the Executive Committee and Campaign Cabinet.

Ambassadors from the Little Rock Conference are Reverend and Mrs. Mike Mattox.
Because of the quadrennial change of Ex -Officio Trustees, some loyal trustees will rotate off our board. However, we desire that all will remain on the team.. .Team Sequoyah, to help us meet the challenge of the future.

This is our story. Katherine Hanker said, "I love to tell the story, for those who know it best, seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest. And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song, 'twill be the old, old story, that I have loved so long ."

UNITED METHODIST CAMPUS MINISTRY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

The United Methodist Campus Ministry at Southern Methodist University is in it's infant stages, having been re-established after more than 25 years with no full time director of United Methodist Campus Ministry. It seems hard to believe that the second year of work on the campus of Southern Methodist University is approaching its completion. The struggles have been those common to the establishment of a new church. There have been times of anxiety, wondering if anyone would be present for a program. There have been hours and hours of "laying groundwork" when it was easy to lose sight of the vision of reaching students for Christ. However, the struggles have been by far overshadowed by the joy of making great strides in the ministry.

Involvement in the ministry has grown to involve approximately 137 persons on a weekly basis (Hardcore Bible Study: 40; Cross-Training: 14; Small Group Bible Studies: 35; Disciple Bible Study : 10; Dorm Days: 12; Leadership Team: 14; Voice of Hope Outreach: 6; Wesley Rankin Outreach: 6.) This translates into a core group of about 45-50 students. In addition to this core group of students there are numerous students with whom the interns have regular contact but may not be plugged into the weekly program.

In addition to weekly programming, UMCM has an active involvement in various campus activities including intramurals, homecoming, and community service day. "60 Minutes" is another program offered to address various issues that students face. Programs have focused on relationships, understanding the new age movement, eating disorders, evangelism and this spring, alcoholism.

The students involved in UMCM are a diverse group representing various segments of the student body. Some are involved in student activities including the Greek System. Others are more focused on their academic work. There is a representative ethnic diversity represented as well with the involvement of several Hispanic and Asian students.

In addition to our regular programming, the director has been an active part of the Student Affairs staff. Working closely with Dr. Jim Caswell, the Vice President of Student Affairs, there have been numerous attempts to enhance the relationship between the church and the university. Included among these efforts are annual luncheons for United Methodist Scholars and Youth Professionals and the annual UMYF Football Day. This year's event was entitled "Go for the Goal." UMCM-SMU hosted over 1800 United Methodist youth from around the S. C. Jurisdiction for a day full of activities including campus tours, a college fair, seminars concerning the call to ministry, the football game and a closing concert.

UMCM is currently officing in the Hughes-Trigg student center and the extra bedroom of the director's home located adjacent to campus. The ministry is staffed by the director, Rev. Greg Ligon and a part-time secretary, Roxie Kitchen. In addition 2 interns have raised financial support and are working with the program.

The staff, the board of directors and the students would like to thank you for your commitment,

Greg Ligon
Director

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

This fall we began a schedule of night classes to enable persons unable to enroll during our regular hours to complete the first two years of an M. Div. degree. Although we have taught elective courses in the evening for a number of years, this is the first time we have scheduled required introductory M.Div course in the evening. The initial response was impressive as twenty -seven persons enrolled in the evening only classes. With these courses and those offered during the interterm and through the summer, we are now teaching year around in a variety of schedules.

Dr. Patricia Howery Davis joined the faculty this fall as Assistant Professor of Pastoral Care. She has just completed her Ph.D degree at Princeton Theological Seminary. Next September Dr. Ellen Charry will join us in the theology faculty. We began our search for a replacement for Roger Deschner shortly after his death last fall and expect to make the appointment by September 1. He is greatly missed in our community. We have also begun the initial steps to fill a position in Christian Education. Dr. Victor Furnish, Professor of New Testament is the President- elect of the prestigious Society of Biblical Literature. Dr. Joe Allen has just completed his term as President of the Society of Christian Ethics. Dr. Jouette Bassler has been named Editor of the new Harper's one volume bible commentary. A grant from the Lilly Endowment enabled us to do some extensive planning to prepare our response to the needs of Hispanic persons in the area we serve.

Our enrollment has increased in both the fall and spring semesters and now stands at 345. The larger entering class is likely due to the decrease in our tuition, a more flexible approach to the intern program and the new schedule of right classes. The age of our students has also increased; the number of ethnic persons and women in our various programs remains about the same. It was our privilege in the spring to host the national meeting of the Association of Black Seminarians on our campus.

During the year we have benefited greatly from the' generosity of many individuals and groups within the church. We are grateful to all of you for what you have done to enable us to fulfill our mission of educating leaders to serve into the next millennium.

James E. Kirby, Dean, Perkins School of Theology

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

During the past year, Southern Methodist University's Accreditation Self -Study Report has been wholly endorsed by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and SMU is fully accredited for the next 10 years. SMU has also been approved by the Senate of the United Methodist Church. As the report notes, "Southern Methodist University is to be highly commended in the philosophy, vision, conceptualization, variety, and overall quality of its educational programs and processes."

One important factor in the Association's evacuation of the University was SMU's financial stability. I am pleased to report that, for the first time in several years, SMU achieved a balanced budget in 1991. This achievement was made possible, in part, by a 9 percent reduction in staff, from about 1,362 to 1,256 positions. As you know, administrative streamlining in higher education has become the norm in these days of limited resources. The reductions have not affected the quality of SMU's programs and services, and they did not include faculty positions.

At the same time, the University was able to move forward with implementation of curricular changes intended to educate students for life in a global society. These include:

*New cross-disciplinary majors in ethnic studies and international studies;
*A required course in race, ethnicity, or gender, plus one focusing on non -Western civilization:
*Strengthening of foreign language offerings, including the addition of Japanese to the curriculum.
*A new Ph-D. program in psychology.

*A reinstituted Ph.D. program in physics, taking full advantage of the educational opportunities afforded by the Superconducting Super Collider being built near Dallas.
*A new undergraduate evening program leading to a Bachelor of Humanities or a bachelor of Social Sciences degree.
*A new Master's degree program in hazardous and waste materials management.
*A two-year MBA program and a new undergraduate business minor
*An expanded schedule of evening classes in the Perkins School of Theology, along with a three-year Master of Divinity program.

The environment for learning has been enhanced with the opening of the Jake and Nancy Hamon Arts Library. In addition, the University wide Library Automation Project is nearing completion.

I am especially pleased to report that the United Methodist Campus Ministry Program under the leadership of Rev. Greg Ligon, has significantly enriched the lives of our students, particularly our United Methodist students. New activities have included retreats, seminars, and evening Bible study. The Jurisdictional commitment to this Ministry is vital to our mission in serving SMU's United Methodist students.

I am also pleased to announce that the Association of Governing Boards has selected Ruth Sharp Altshuler as the Private University Trustee of the Year. Ruth Altshuler continues to be one of the finest United Methodist faces in our Board of Trustees.

Under Athletic Director Forrest Gregg, SMU's teams continue to make progress, both on the fields and courts and in the classroom. Several SMU athletes recently earned recognition for academic achievements, among them Gory Brabham, who was named first team Academic All-American by the College Football Association. The College Swimming Coaches Association honored the SMU men's and women's teams in 1991 for achieving grade point averages that racked among the top 14 Division I schools. As SMU's president, as a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, and as new president of the Southwest Conference Presidents' Council, I remain committed to our collective efforts to improve the level of integrity in intercollegiate athletics nationwide.

We deeply appreciate your interest, gifts, prayers and leadership all of which strengthen our progress toward fulfilling SMU's founding vision, which we reaffirm through our efforts today.

Ken Pye, President SMU

PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE

The college enrolled 776 students in Fall of 1991 which is a 3% increase over the 1990 Fall enrollment and one of the highest in the college's history. The audit for fiscal year ending June 30, 1990 shows that the college operated in the "black". The Commission on Black Colleges reviewed the college in September, 1991. The Commission reported that the college is meeting its standards, and it approved the college for continuing funding from the Black College Fund.

The faculty has been strengthened by the addition of new members especially, with regard to national accreditation for teacher education. Administrative management has been improved by purchasing and putting into use a Digital VAX 3400 computer and POISE Software which integrates registration, fiscal and financial aid operations.

The $3 million Capital Campaign continues, and the college appreciates the support for the campaign from the laity and the clergy of the United Methodist Church.

A Management Institute featuring a degree complete prograxn for the adult learner to earn the bachelor degree on a non- traditional schedule was initiated in the Fall of 1991 and is continuing. The President's 1991 Fall Convocation for faculty, staff and students focused on values, emphasizing their importance in teaching and learning as well as in every facet of college's life.

Through the United State Department of Interior, we established a model project, "Take Pride in America". Also, we planted 60 trees on campus in February, 1992, in coopemtion with the Little Rock Downtown Neighborhood Association.

The college choir continues to be a viable organization on campus and in the local and national communities. The choir did a concert at Yale University in January, 1992 and has been invited to sing at the General Conference of the United Methodist Church May 11, 1992 in Louisville, Kentucky.

We are indeed grateful to the laity and the clergy of the United Methodist Church for supporting our Christian ministry for 115 years. Your loyalty and gifts are a source of inspimtion and hope.

Myer L. Titus, President
Philander Smith College

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology serves the Little Rock Annual Conference by preparing effective and respected leaders for the church.

A Town and Country Chair has been established at Saint Paul. Buildinq upon the historic commitment of Saint Paul to rural and small membership churches, the Town and Country Chair will greatly enhance current teaching and programs related to the rural church. The Reverend EdwardA. Kail, former superintendent of the Ottumwa District of the Iowa Conference, has joined the faculty in the Town and Country Chair, bringing demonstrated commitment and experience in town and country ministries. As a pastor and superintendent, he received significant recognition for his creative response to the needs of the church and society in rural settings.

Other new faculty appointments include James M. Brandt as Assistant Professor of Historical Theology, and the Reverend Nancy June Johnston as Director of the Poppele Program in Health and Welfare Ministries. In addition to their impressive academic credentials, the three new faculty at Saint Paul bring over twenty-five years of experience as local church pastors.

Saint Paul's reputation as a "school of leaders" for church and society has been highlighted recently with the selection of Saint Paul graduates for several very significant posts: dean of a United Methodist seminary, head of a major denominational agency, and Mayor of Kansas City, Missouri. Also in recent months seven of our graduates have been elected as clergy leaders of their delegations to General Conference and/or been nominated for the episcopacy. In each case, he or she represented the kind of commitment and competence which we so seak in our graduates.

Saint Paul maintains its unequivocal commitment to the local church. Of all the United Methodist seminaries, Saint Paul has the highest percentage of its graduates serving as local church pastors. A student recently said, "I was drawn to Saint Paul's commitment to the local church and ministry in Jesus Christ. Saint Paul seeks to be in continuous conversation with the local church to better understand its needs. It seeks to work with the church and its ministry, and not against it. The program is wholistic in its emphases, seeking to prepare the student academically, spiritually, and personally."

Saint Paul's equally uncompromising commitment to academic excellence was highlighted this year during the regular ten-year review by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Saint Paul received a splendid report from the visitation team and recommendation for reaccreditation.

Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

CAMP TANAKO

The momentum of Camp Tanako is growing. Last year we had another increase in camper attendance. A new 30' x 60' swimming pool with a pool house will be ready for this camping season. We ask for your help reaching this year's "Fair Share" goal to help pay for it.

The Board's proposal for the at least one million dollar anonymous gift to Camp Tanako will be presented at Annual Conference. The gift will be presented in February, 2000.

The recommended operational apportionment for Camp Tanako for 1993 is $69,000, the same as 1985. An electric bill during the summer months in 1985 was less than $500. Now it is over $5,000. With any conversation of raising camper fees drawing a negative response, we need a larger apportionment to break even.

Please remember what Camp Tanako means to the Little Rock Conference and our young people. The population of the United Methodist Church is dwindling every year. A large number of those leaving are our youth and young adults. The ministry of Tanako helps us keep our youth. Keeping Tanako growing strong is important to all of us.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS

The accompanying chart, "UMFA Growth in Assets," displays your Foundation's continuing growth. As the Chinese proverb teaches, "One picture is worth a thousand words."

We've also included a second chart, "Who Benefits From UMFA Accounts," describing the various UMC recipients of our 1991 investment income which totaled $812,154. That's a mighty fine return for your annual conference 's yearly investment of $20,000.

As we've explained many times before, we're here to help you support whatever part of the Church is closest to your heart. Call on us to assist you or your local church.

What does the future hold for the Foundation? We couldn't be more optimistic, but in the final analysis, it depends on you and other Arkansas United Methodists.

You are the folks who've caused the Foundation's success to date, and the future is in your hands. That's why we're so optimistic.

UNITED METHODIST SENIOR SERVICES OF ARKANSAS, INC.

The church's commitment to serving seniors through a ministry such as this is a strong one. UMSSA can really reach out to touch individuals and groups from the smaller rural church to the large urban church. Whether the need is in assessing a problem, accessing existing local churches, curriculum and program development, housing or healthcare needs, the UMSSA will be available to work with the local church or district. This relationship is designed to be supportive - not to take over the responsibilities of the local church. Through a joint effort UMSSA and the local pastorate will enhance the lives of all concerned - the caregivers, the seniors, the volunteers, and the staff. It's a great dream and we're making it come true.

United Methodist Senior Services of Arkansas is very eager to help in any way possible in developing a ministry for the elderly, appropriate to your church or community. For UMSSA to be helpful in the development of new retirement facilities, we refer you to our Annual Report of last year, which is included in the Journal of the Little Rock Annual Conference. The award-winning publication is produced entirely from offices at the United Methodist Center in Little Rock and printed in North Little Rock. The bimonthly newspaper is read by approximately 20,000 persons. Jane Dennis is in her fifth year as editor.

Local church pastors and laypersons in churches throughout Arkansas are to be congratulated for the role they play in conducting the annual promotion campaign for the Arkansas United Methodist. As spokespersons for the newspaper, they have done a splendid job in spreading the word about the Arkansas United Methodist and giving church members the chance to subscribe to the newspaper and become better informed United Methodists. This assistance has been invaluable. Thank you!

News and information from local churches and other United Methodist-affiliated groups and organizations is always welcome. The Area Resource Library maintains a collection of videotapes, audio tapes, films, filmstrips, slides and other audio/visual materials and equipment. The library loans these resources to United Methodists in Arkansas at no charge. There is a wide variety of topics to choose from; children, youth, missions, church history, Christmas, Easter, confirmation, family issues, special programs of the church (local, state, and national), and many more. A new Resource Catalog is being produced which describes the library's collection in detail. This catalog will be available upon request. The latest additions and selected resources are featured each month in the Arkansas United Methodist newspaper column.

The Area Resource Library is an essential communications tool for United Methodist Churches across the state.

Library hours are 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information call the Resource Librarian, Gloria Caldwell, at 370-4011.

The Production Center produces materials for other agencies and local churches of the Annual Conference, as time allows.

Located in the United Methodist Church Center in Little Rock, the Production Center employs a full-time supervisor, and a permanent part-time production assistant. The Production Center is available for typesetting and layout, printing, bindery work, and distribution. Contact Laura Organ, supervisor, at 370-4006 for more details.

VI. APPORTIONMENTS AND ASKINGS:

A. World Service and Conference Benevolences: We recommend that the General Conference apportionments of $456,036 for World Service be accepted and that an amount of $980,887 be apportioned for Conference Benevolences for 1993 for a total apportionment of $1,436,923. Further, we recommend that the monies received for World Service and Conference Benevolences be distributed on a basis of 31.74% for World Service and 68.26% for Conference Benevolences.

B. Ministerial Support: We recommend that the Ministerial Support apportionment of $2,050,324 be accepted in full by the Annual Conference and that it be apportioned to the local churches.

C. Other Apportioned Funds: We recommend that the Annual Conference accept in full the askings listed below and they be apportioned to the local churches.

General and Jurisdictional and Area Benevolences $143,051
Administration 225,500
Contingency 30,000
TOTAL $398,551

VII. Apportionment Formula

We recommend that the formula used by the Conference be a two year average of the most recent years' statistics: 1/3 based on Church Membership and 2/3 based on Church Financial Data

Financial date includes the following items:

1. Current program expense
2. Current operating expense
3. Pastors salary
4. Associate salary
5. Utilities and allowances

6. Travel Allowances
7. Diaconal Ministry compensation
8. Other staff compensation
9. Apportionment assigned

The 1993 decimal is calculated using the average of years 1990 and 1991. All data is taken from the statistical tables in the Conference Journals.

VIII. Salary and Expenses of District Superintendents' total compensation package for 1993 will be $60,750. This figure shall include salary, utilities and appurtenances, and travel expense. The Little Rock Conference Cabinet requested that their 1993 compensation remain the same as in 1992. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration would like to commend the cabinet for this action.

We recommend a vouchered expense pool for the District Superintendents in the amount of $21,000.00 for meetings (Cabinet, CCOM, and out of state) with the stipulation that no district, board, or agency make any payment for the purpose indicated above.

We recommend that $57,062 be used to pay the six District Superintendents Health Insurance premiums for 1993.

IX. Advance Specials

We recommend General Advance Specials to local churches for firsthand relationships with mission projects and involvement in mission.

Conference Advance Specials

1. Regional Aids Interfaith Network (R.A.I.N.)
2. Area Teen Crisis Ministry

X. Special Days

We recommend these Special Days with offerings:

* Human Relations Day - During Epiphany on the Sunday before the observance of Martin Luther King's birthday.
* One Great Hour of Sharing - Fourth Sunday in Lent
* United Methodist Student Day - Sunday after Thanksgiving.
* World Communion Sunday - First Sunday in October
* Peace with Justice - Second Sunday after Pentecost
* United Methodist Children's Home - Second and Third Sundays in December
* Native American Awareness Sunday - May 2
* Christian Education Sunday - September 12
* Golden Cross Sunday - First Sunday in May

XI. "Fair Share"* Goals:

A. Aldersgate Camp - We recommend $50,000 be requested from the churches in "Fair Share goals for core costs" at Aldersgate, and that "programmatic costs" be continued as a Conference Advance Special

B. Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference - We recommend that $7,500 be requested from the local churches in "Fair Share" goals for the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference in 1993.

C. Rio Grande Conference - We recommend that $6,500 be requested from the local churches in "Fair Share" goals for the Rio Grande Conference in 1993.

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE
COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION REPORT
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

I. Pastor's Utilities and Appurtenances: If no utility allowance is made, we recommend that the local churches designate a part of the compensation as parsonage utilities and appurtenances to exempt those costs from incomes taxes.

II. The travel allowance remain at $.20 per mile plus $.02 per mile for each additional person, to encourage car pooling.

III. Retired ministers be paid $35 per diem for days they attend Annual Conference.

IV. Pastors' moving expense be paid at the rate of $400 plus $.75 per mile. The mileage is to be paid from parsonage to parsonage, with one exception. When transferring from another conference, the rate will apply from parsonage to the Little Rock Conference boundary. The policies for application for Pastors' Moving Expenses Funds are listed in the 1982 JOURNAL, page 127, section 1211(F).

V. All unrestricted benevolence funds be placed in a central operating balance.

VI. Balances remaining in the Conference Benevolence Fund and the Conference Administration Fund at year end be transferred to the Contingency Fund.

VII. Any Conference employee who has, or who desires a tax sheltered annuity, may direct the Director of Finance and Management to pay his annuity from his regular income following proper guidelines.

VIII. Housing allowances (for persons receiving such funds) be set at the estimated actual expense as reported to the conference or local church. This information should be reported at the beginning of each calendar year. This will result in reallocation in funds paid to such persons and will not increase the total amount paid.

IX. Each board, commission, committee or agency not be allowed to change a line item in its approved budget which would exceed 10% of the amount without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.

X. All agencies receiving conference funds shall submit their latest independent audits to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

XI. Wesley Foundations may solicit funds within their supporting districts after approval is given by the District Council on Ministries.

XII. Local church administrative boards consider paying all conference life and health insurance (DBP & HMEP) premiums directly (above salary) in order to provide tax savings for pastors and other church employees. If necessary or desirable, the salary may be reduced by the same amount. This policy must be consistently applied to all employees.

XIII. Participation by the conference in Area programs must not exceed 50% of the cost of that program, with the exceptions approved by the Council on Finance and Administration.

XIV. The management and investment of all the monies of/from all those boards and agencies which receive monies from the Conference or line item apportionments must be handled by the area treasurer's office.

XV. Any capital lease or purchase over $1500 must be approved by the Council on Finance and Administration prior to lease or purchase, even if that budget has been previously approved.

XVI. Permission be granted to the area treasurer to borrow funds (on a short-term basis) from the Arkansas Area account if Little Rock Conference funds are not sufficient to meet current needs. Both Council on Finance and Administration presidents must approve the loan before it is transacted. Interest on such loan will be paid at the current money market rate.

XVII. The Conference provide fidelity bonding insurance for all local churches in compliance with Paragraph 714.1.

XVIII. A uniform percentage of 5% will be added to all 1993 apportionments.

XIX. The following be adopted, as a guide for the investment and care of all Conference Funds:

The Area Treasurer is charged with the responsibility, for managing all Conference funds in a manner that will provide :

A. The maximum income from the investment of all funds, while simultaneously insuring
B. Adequate liquidity to meet the day-to-day operational needs of the Treasurer's Office and
C. The safety and soundness of all funds. To accomplish this, all funds should be
   (1) deposited in Arkansas institutions in a fully insured status on a short-term basis, generally ninety days, but up to six months with the approval of the Investment Committee or CFA, or
   (2) invested in direct U.S. Government obligations for terms up to six months, or
   (3) invested with the General Board of Pension of the United Methodist Church.

Longer term investments may be made from time to time, but these are generally discouraged, because of the uncertainty of the need for funds and the volatility of interest rates. The Area Treasurer is encouraged to consult with a majority of the Investment Committee or the CFA, when he is uncertain about an investment. This policy is intended to be flexible in its application, in order to meet rapidly changing economic conditions. While income is desirable, the primary emphasis should continue to be the maintenance of adequate funds and the avoidance of speculative investments.

This policy may be amended from time to time to meet changing conditions and to enhance the income of the Conference.

XX. That the South Central Jurisdiction VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION be given authority to solicit "volunteer" contributions from individuals, districts, and the Annual Conference for the purpose of funding the administrative work of this program. That these contributions be kept as a line item in reporting to the Jurisdiction Council on Finance and Administration and that such be a part of the audit report of the jurisdictional budget.

All contributions to this fund must go directly to the Little Rock Conference Treasurer's Office.

XXI. The Conference gives the Conference Council on Finance and Administration the authority to fund extraordinary needs relating to the life and ministry of the Annual Conference. These needs shall be funded from unrestricted funds and contingency funds. This authority shall not be used, nor is it intended, to replace or circumvent normal funding procedures of the Little Rock Annual Conference. Actions on such requests shall be reported to the next regular session the Annual Conference. (This recommendation is in reference to paragraph 709.6 of the 1988 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE.

XXII. The Conference CFA recommends that Joe Eason be elected to the Office of Conference Treasurer for the 1993-1996 quadrennium.

XXIII. We express our appreciation to Joe Eason and his staff, Barbara Skiles, Cheryl Beck, Alvin Burks, and Mary Lois Stanfield, for the excellent service they perform for the Conference.

Respectfully submitted, John Robert Graves, President
Mary Davis, Secretary

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry is to study the needs and resources of the Conference, relative to professional careers and to interpret Diaconal Ministry throughout the conference, to seek to enlist persons of all races and ethnic origins; to guide persons interested in these careers through the process of training, certification, and consecration. The Board shall also assist in the personal/professional growth of certified and consecrated professionals in the church.

GOALS

The goals of the Board in the 1988-92 quadrennium have been to administer records and maintain standards, interpret Diaconal Ministry and the certification process, to expand Arkansas' settings for lay professional ministry, and to improve support systems for persons in forms of diaconal ministry.

RECORDS AND STANDARDS

The Board reviews annually the professional activities and continuing education of each certified and consecrated person under our jurisdiction. A Psychological evaluation and medical examination are required of all candidates for diaconal ministry.

INTERPRETATION AND RECRUITMENT

We developed curriculum about Christian vocations for use in youth camps this summer at Tanako. We placed a copy of a new video about Christian Vocations in the Conference Media Center. The video is slanted towards youth and college students. We also invited inquirers to a get-acquainted session at our January 30th retreat.

We secured the second year of a grant from the Division of Higher Education and Ministry. The grant, which is designed to strengthen ethnic ministries, funds a project by Josephine Bell at New Haven church. In the next year a task force will be formed to investigate ways to widen the outreach of the project and provide on-going support when the Division grant expires.

SUPPORT SYSTEMS

We have worked with the Board of Pensions to try to communicate to local churches that retirement benefits for diaconal ministers are mandated by the Discipline. We have worked with the district superintendents to provide local churches with charge conference report forms for diaconal ministers. These forms set forth the support package of the diaconal minister similar to the way other ministers' support is detailed at charge conference.

We hosted a retreat for diaconal ministers, candidates, inquirers, and persons in full-time Christian vocation. The retreat built support by including times for spiritual renewal, times for re-creation, and times for getting back in touch with each other.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Board of Diaconal Ministry maintains a scholarship fund for persons in certification and candidacy studies and for continuing education for diaconal ministers. Applicants may receive up to $300 a year, granted on the basis of need and availability of funds. Applications for aid shall be sent to the Vice Chair of the Board.

FUTURE

We will be incorporating changes from General Conference over the next quadrennium and will be changing officers. Laverne Keahey will be the new chairperson. The new board will be trained in the next months.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

As I make this last report to you as chair of the Conference Committee on Episcopacy, I refer you to the report in your Pre-Conference Journal, pages 28-29.

In compliance with disciplinary requirements and following guidelines developed by the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, I'm very satisfied with the work of the committee this quadrennium. I believe we have been faithful to the task assigned to us and have worked with integrity and compassion.

That task calls for us to:

-Support the bishop in the oversight of spiritual and temporal affairs of the church.
-Be available for council.
-Assist in determining needs and make recommendations to appropriate bodies.
-Keep the bishop advised about conditions that affect relationships between him and the conference agencies.

-Interpret to the people and agencies the nature and function of the Episcopal agencies.
-Have annual consultations and appraisals of the bishop's work with respect to inclusiveness of all persons and understanding and implementing the consultation process in appointment making.
-Report needs for Episcopal leadership to Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy.

The committee has worked closely with the North Arkansas Committee on Episcopacy to fulfill these requirements by making suggestions and recommendations to the bishop for ways to address the concerns of the area.

In April, 1989, at the first working meeting together, the committee used the guideline questions developed by the Jurisdictional Committee to dialogue around the strengths and weaknesses of the Episcopacy. This prepared us to come to a combined meeting with the North Arkansas Committee in May where the suggestion was made for the bishop to call together laity and clergy from both conferences to do visioning for the present and future of the area. Out of the two-day retreat, affirmation for a state-wide emphases on Sunday Schools and a Five-Star Plan for mission and ministry emerged. A lengthy discussion on whether to combine the conferences resulted in the recommendation that this not be done at this time, but a decision was made to recommend that the two conferences through their respective agencies work closer together in planning meeting that brought national leadership tot he area. This was shared with the two Conference Council on Ministries. This has been accomplished in some areas of work.

In order for the bishop to become better acquainted with clergy and laity, suggestions were made for him to have district meetings with these groups and these have been so successful the past two years that recommendations to continue these sessions have been called for. Evaluations of these meeting have for different ways of doing this such as:

*No clergy attend laity meetings.
*The agenda to allow one half of the time for bishop's remarks and one half for questions and answers from clergy and laity. Invitations to be sent directly to the persons to attend from local churches.
*To schedule, if possible, a session for clergy spouses and families with the bishop and his wife, a request for child care was made.

In the report to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy attended by 7 of the 15 members on the committee the recommendation that the bishop be returned to the Arkansas Area was requested. As recommended by the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, the bishop was not present for this meeting. A very open and honest discussion about the leadership/administrative needs of the conference,t he program and planning needs, appointive consultations, apportionments, involvement of the bishop in area and general church responsibilities, his spiritual leadership, his leadership in open itinemacy and laity empowerment, his social witness, his actions to stimulate church growth and his support in areas of stewardship, apportionments, and conference budgets revealed a need to share these evaluations with the bishop. A committee was appointed. Doris Fish, Nettie Jane Goss, Buddy Arnold, Max Whitfield, Marilynn Loyd and John Miles met with the bishop May 20, 1992 in a very honest, forthright discussion that will be helpful for the bishop and the conference next quadrennium.

I want to express my appreciation for those faithful members who attended and gave leadership and support as we worked together these four years and to the bishop for his leadership and response to the recommendations made by the committee.

I leave this responsibility with the knowledge that the Holy Spirit has been with us and the satisfaction that we have allowed the Spirit to guide us as we've worked together.

Doris Fish, Chair

1992 EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Members and Friends of the Annual Conference:

Let me begin on a personal note: During this past year Julia and I have continually allowed our spiritual and emotional roots to deepen in the soil of Arkansas Methodism. Friendships grow increasingly stronger as we work side by side with you in the Church and her institutions. Sunday after Sunday we enjoy worship in small churches and large, from one corner of the state to the other.

Last October, Julia's mother, Mrs. C. E. Kitchens who was introduced to this conference a number of times, passed away and was buried in Arkansas at Texarkana. This morning, our oldest son, Dr. Steve Wilke, Dean of Students at our United Methodist College, Southwestern College in Winfield, Kansas, is here with his wife Beth, his four children (and our grandchildren) Krista, Katie, Joel, and Julie. They came to watch their Grandpa preside over an annual conference.

I want to talk about three things this morning: First — Changes taking place in the itinerant ministry; Second — changes taking place in the corporate life of our United Methodist Church; and, third, issues of import in the world which are squarely on the Church's agenda.

I. First: the ministry. I do not need to remind you that our early preachers rode hard and fast across the prairies, leaving lay leaders, class meetings, and small fellowship groups. Nor do I need to remind you that the educated, with families, began to settle down, yet still carrying in their spiritual bloodstream the idea of moving often, always at the bishop's discretion.

The evolution of our itinerant ministry continues. We're no longer young men on horseback; we're now men and women of all ages and of different races, often with families. It is normative today for the spouses of pastors to have their own professional work. It is normative for families to have health, educational, professional and extended family responsibilities in addition to their love and loyalty for the Church. It is also true that our society is so disrupted, so lonely and confused, that many pastors need to stay a long time in order to give security and encouragement to people who are alone and broken.

Therefore, I have tried to extend the length of tenure in place after place. We have increased the average tenure in Arkansas from about 2.7 years a few years ago to somewhere between 3.7 and 4 years average tenure today. I know that the bishop and the cabinet give a mixed signal on this matter, because sometimes we have to ask a minister to leave a church before his or her work is really completed there. But on the whole, I want to express appreciation for the fine lay people and the splendid pastors who are saying over and over again, "Let us have enough time to really put our roots down and do a good pastoral job." More and more, a four to eight year ministry is becoming normative, especially in the towns and the cities of our state. Pastors who want to move every year or two in order to "advance" should be encouraged to stay longer and do better work. Congregations that have historically had a new pastor every year or two should be encouraged to accept their pastor as a part of the community and build deeper relationships and a stronger sense of mission to the unchurched.

For the first time this year I ran into serious, even severe, ageism feelings on the part of Pastor Parish Committees. Perhaps they were reacting to an old ladder system — long since abandoned — that the older you get in the United Methodist ministry, the bigger the church to which you are appointed. That is no longer the case, if it ever was. But to have ministers refused out of pocket because they are 55 or 60 or 63 years of age is not fair. It is fair to ask for effectiveness. But God clearly says in the Holy Book that God pours out His Spirit on all flesh, both "young men shall see visions and old men will dream dreams". Just as pastors should not expect larger churches just because they are getting older, so congregations should not refuse the young or the old, but should expect high levels of Christian ministry, regardless of age.

More and more women are entering the ministry of the United Methodist Church. Because we are a holiness church, we've always had women in ministry and we've always believed that the Holy Spirit pours out the Gifts on men and women alike. Again the prophet Joel said when the Holy Spirit is poured out all flesh, "Your sons and your daughters will prophesy." Today we have 40 women ministers in the United Methodist Church in Arkansas. This year we received 5 women into the North Arkansas Conference, fresh back from seminary, and our only seminarian to return to the Little Rock Conference is a woman. Within the Jurisdiction, five of our annual conference delegations are being led by women pastors, and it will come as no surprise if we have a woman bishop in our Jurisdiction, just as we currently do in several jurisdictions throughout the country. We, of course, anticipate a woman district superintendent soon in the state of Arkansas. Let me encourage churches to have exchanges of pulpits, visiting women pastors as evangelists and special occasion preachers in an effort to overcome the remaining residual stereotype. We are the whole body of Christ and we must anticipate that God's Gifts are poured out on all God's people. We now assume that a woman pastor can serve at any level in the life of the Church.

With regard to racial inclusiveness and ethnic leadership, we have made significant strides in Arkansas Methodism. Both conferences lead the way in more than 100% support to the Black College Fund. An award will be received during Conference. Your encouragement as individual churches to the Philander Smith Capitol Funds campaign is essential to receive matching grants, building a new multi purpose building plus endowment for scholarship and teachers' salaries. Hendrix College continues to open up its Board of Trustees, its faculty, its student body to people of different ethnic background.

We have been building up the ministry among the African American community. We have reached into Kansas for Richard Preston, into the General Board for Chester Jones, into New York and Oklahoma for Bennie and Anna Warner, to Wesley Seminary in Washington, D.C. for Vincent Harris; we have held on to our own in C. E. McAdoo from Philander Smith and St. Paul's, Bill Thompson, James Scruggs and Bill Robinson. We have helped launch Maxwell Jones into ministry in New Jersey, Tyrone Gordon into leadership in Wichita, Kansas, and Lawrence Dowdy into Kentucky.

For the first time in memory, we have African American pastor asking to come to Arkansas - currently from three different states — and we have strong students of our own in colleges and seminaries. For the first time we have personal resources to contemplate starting new primarily African American congregations, for providing leadership to institutions and college campuses, and for further administrative leadership. I was pleased to appoint the first black member of the Bishop's Cabinet, Reverend J. Lofton as Council Director. And I have been endeavoring for two years to appoint the first black district superintendent.

You will recall, in 1989, a motion was made and adopted that Little Rock Conference have a black district superintendent by 1992. Other timetables I've kept, or even exceeded. This was one I have been unable to keep because for the past two years I have not had a vacancy on the cabinet. I am sorry. It has caused me more moral anguish than it has caused most of you. I am determined to do it as you have requested. I am determined to do it at the first opportunity. I am determined to do it by Conference 1993, because I am certain the door will open in the next nine months. It is the best that I can do and I ask the Conference to give me that period of grace in which to do it.

Just as in the case of women, so with ethnic pastors; we must have a wave of exchanges, pulpit exchanges, visiting evangelists, music and worship, joint work projects, leadership in our camping program and on our boards of trustees of institutions to the point where people are no longer categorized by race or sex but are human beings with names and faces and personalities, able to be a friend to others and a pastor to any congregation. Pray for this and help me make advances.

An additional word about ministers: many of our small rural areas are losing population so fast that we cannot maintain a resident ministry. I am a product of rural America, coming from the wheat fields and grasslands of Kansas. It breaks my heart to see the demise of the family farm and the flood of children and young people who leave the villages and rural areas to flock to the cities. But it is bigger than I am and bigger than you are.

In an effort to provide strong ministries to churches that do not have a viable economic base for a full-time resident pastor, we will be working very hard in the future, as we have in the past, to provide qualified, dedicated part-time local pastors. I urge the Board of Ordained Ministry to prepare ways of in-service training where professors from the seminaries are brought to Arkansas on a week-end basis so that a Course of Study can be provided for men and women who earn their livelihood in a profession and serve a church in addition. And I urge churches to work with us to keep configuration of ministry and cooperation strong as long as possible to maintain resident pastors, but to rejoice when a lay woman or a lay man in a nearby town will give a portion of their lives to pastoral ministry without requiring the church provide for their full livelihood. I believe that this is a necessary adjustment for the future of our small country churches. Health insurance, pension costs, the financial needs of a family are becoming too heavy for some congregations to bear. We must not abandon them. I think God for the retired ministers, the pastors in training, and the part-time local pastors who make hundreds of United Methodist Churches in Arkansas viable and vital congregations.

II. The second thing I want to talk about is changing things in the life of the Church. We have emerging leadership of the laity. Notice in our conference and in our area. No longer do we have a minister as conference treasurer or as editor of the newspaper or as chairman of the Board of Pension or as chairperson of the Insurance Committee or chair of the Equitable Salary Fund or as president of our colleges and our institutions, such as Aldersgate Camp. Professional skills are needed in a sophisticated society. Men and women with expertise in finance and business and administration and journalism are needed to run the business side of the church and it is happening, and we are blessed by it.

We are also developing stronger lay leaders in the life of the annual conference. Little Rock Conference is blessed to have its first woman lay leader. She now will serve on the General Commission of Finance and Administration of the church at large. Tonight we will have our first Laity banquet. Before long, the district lay leaders will have increasing responsibilities to assist the district superintendent. Our United Methodist Men are growing and our United Methodist Women remain strong. I am proud of the fact that we are developing some of the strongest lay leadership in the country right here in Arkansas.

Laity are emerging as a part of the appointment process. The day of the bishop snapping his fingers and the preachers going hither and yon is over. Personnel decisions are now a corporate responsibility and the laity are intimately involved. Some people resist this change. As the bishop, I myself would have an easier life, I suppose, if I could rule the Church from Mount Olympus. Old time district superintendents used to take some pride in unilaterally assigning pastors. But now we continually discuss matters with the Pastor Parish Committee. Long and intimate conversations are held by the district superintendent with the committee in every charge. Profiles are developed and requests are made. That doesn't mean that the bishop and the cabinet are obligated, but it does mean that the consultation is made in good faith and must be respected as such. The committees must be fair, but the pastors must produce. A committee is obligated to work with the minister to develop good lines of communication, but a minister is also expected to do her or his work for Christ and the Church with intensity and integrity.

Let the laity of this Conference go back home and explain the growing influence of the laity in the life of the Church. But let them also explain who we are, a holiness people where all of the people of God have gifts and graces and where men, women, young, old, people of different ethnic background and race, are all eligible to serve in the ministry of the United Methodist Church. It is imperative also that we remember we still are a connectional episcopal denomination, even though the pastors are urged to express their feelings, and the laity are urged to express their views. Our pastors are still assigned by the bishop and our churches still receive the assignment gladly and with great prayer for Christian work and witness. Since we have many new members who are former Baptist and Presbyterians and Assembly of God and Catholic, since we have many new members who are unchurched, who know little of the scriptures and even less of United Methodist ethos and tradition, it is incumbent on all in this room to teach and teach and teach again the various responsibilities that make our church work the way it does. As I recently wrote in the Arkansas United Methodist, we are a people of the Book. That book is written by a delegation of half lay and half clergy, and we all live under it.

Some people are afraid we are becoming congregational — that is, every church running its own affairs, deciding who its minister will be, deciding whether or not it wants to help with the apportionments and General Church obligations. We're not a congregational church and we never will be. We work together, we struggle together, we make decisions in our conferences and councils; we do not run rough shod over each other, and together we will keep Methodism alive and well. The Discipline will help us spell out when we have authority and when we do not. Our world is getting smaller, and so the United Methodist Church is changing as we realize we are a part of a great global community. We have United Methodist churches in Poland and Estonia, Czechoslovakia and Hungary, as well as throughout other parts of Europe, nearly the whole of Central and Southern Africa, and in the Philippines as well. Of course we have many Methodist Churches that are autonomous or affiliate churches that are the product of our missionaries across the last two centuries.

In the coming years, I suspect there will be a loosening of the bonds so that different areas will have different styles of Methodism. But I suspect that an increasing sense of fellowship and connectional work will take place with the World Methodist Council and other fellowship organizations.

Here in Arkansas we are working together as two annual conferences as never before. We have one newspaper, one Foundation that is exploding in its ministry, one treasurer, and our conference offices are in the same building. Often the two conferences work hand in glove as, for example, in the great Sunday School Emphasis of last year and this year. Incidentally, we had 4,000 more people in Sunday School last fall than we did the previous fall. I am excited about the new Sunday School effort to be made statewide this coming autumn. As you know we make appointments across conference lines. Usually about four to ten a year. With longer tenures, with families that are limited geographically for many reasons, our state is too small to be limited to conference appointments. For the first time this year, our combined cabinet met almost always together because we needed the total pool of personnel to be matched against a rather small checker board of churches in order to make intelligent and prayerful appointments. The day must come when Arkansas Methodism is one — so that it can work even more forcefully for the Lord.

Another change in our church life is a different way of doing missions and missionary activity. Years ago we saved money and gave it to send a missionary to Africa or South America. Today we are more intimately involved. It is not unusual for a layman to tell me that he is healing the sick in Honduras or drilling a water well in Haiti. Exciting new covenant relationships are being created by local congregations, tying themselves in friendship and love to a church in Poland or a church in Estonia or a church in Latin America. Volunteers in Mission is growing. Covenant relationships are being extended. Mission tours, such as the Ozark Mission Project, are prevalent. Hands-on missionary work, by both the laity and the pastors, are thriving.

Next fall the General Church is asking Julia and me to go to the countries of Central Europe, specifically Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and perhaps Romania. We will be gone about 18 days in the middle of September. Part of my dream is that I can work with Heifer Project International and with the World Methodist Council to create working relationships between Sunday School classes and churches here in Arkansas and congregations in what once was the Iron Curtain area of Central Europe. Already there are Methodist people there, small congregations who have survived unbelievable persecution. It is not so much that we need to send missionaries, although we probably need to do that, but that we need to work cooperatively, to strengthen their arm in mission and evangelism work, and for them to strengthen us in faith and fortitude. It is a new day in church strategy.

A word about helping people become stronger Christians right in your own local congregation. Julia and I will be devoting great energies to Disciple Bible Study. Not because we have been involved in it from the beginning, but because it is showing signs of helping people rediscover the scriptures and be energized to live out the Christian life. We are thrilled to see whole congregations re-energized, re-motivated, spiritually thrust forward. We also know that newcomers in the United Methodist Church, especially younger adults, often do not know the scriptures and do not know the teachings of our Lord. We encourage every pastor to become a teacher and to train teachers and to train teachers who will in turn teach others. Never have we needed local congregations to be in teaching ministries so badly as we do today.

III. Finally the Church and the World:

Racial prejudices, racial injustices and inequities are still a part of our social fabric. The recent riots in Los Angeles were vivid reminders. The City of the Angels became the center of terror . General Conference condemned both the trial and the aftermath, but more importantly urged the governments to take seriously the plight of the urban centers, and urged the Church to minister more effectively in the inner city.

General Conference, not only asked us all to fast and pray and to give an offering to build Shalom zones in Los Angeles, but asked each congregation to do the same. Pentecost Sunday, next Sunday, was set as the day for special prayers, special gifts. As your bishop, therefore, I ask you to do whatever you can next Sunday to assist in this effort. A special fund is established in our treasurer's office, and it will be forwarded to UMCOR to provide food, clothing, medical attention and other forms of ministry through our churches in Los Angeles.

Now a quick word about a death scene. Drugs, alcohol and tobacco are part of our scandalous health problem in the United States. General Conference declared war on drugs and alcohol with a new and vigorous initiative, putting several million dollars into the fray. Several churches are including A.A., addiction groups in their ministries. Reverend Bill Robinson of Hoover Church is a nationally known leader in the effort. Our revitalized youth ministries are a powerful opponent to the drug world.

We seldom talk about tobacco — but key United Methodist physicians and health authorities in Arkansas as well as in other states are proposing a 25 cent per pack tax on cigarettes as a way of reducing children and youth smoking. Their statistics show that such a tax will cut the numbers of youth by 8 to 10% — literally thousands of youth — who will otherwise be on their way to lung cancer, heart disease and emphysema. The issue can be put on the ballot by your signature. A petition can be picked up in the display room that you can take to your church or Sunday School class. For 200 years we have fought drugs, we will not stop now.

Let me close as I began — on a personal note.

I love the United Methodist Church. I know most of her warts and wrinkles, but she is my mother, my home, my life.

I love the Arkansas United Methodist Church and the Little Rock Conference from Eudora to Mena, from Welcome-New Era to Bayou Meto and back to Little Rock.

Our lives are short on this planet — we have several critically ill pastors and spouses even as we speak — Julia and I serve at the pleasure of the Church — and we will praise our Maker as long as we have breath.

But as long as the Good Lord and the United Methodist Church will allow us to serve the Arkansas Area, we will be honored and pleased to do so.

Thank you.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances - cash basis of The Little Rock Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1991 and 1990, and the related statement of changes in fund balances - cash basis for the year ended December 31, 1991. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the Conference's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Consequently, certain receipts and the related assets were recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain disbursements were recognized when paid rather than when the obligation was incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to be presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In addition, the Conference has not capitalized its fixed assets and recorded the related depreciation as required by the Financial Accounting Standards Board effective for years beginning on or after January 1, 1990. The effect of noncompliance with this requirement has not been determined.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording fixed assets and the related depreciation as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and fund balances of The Little Rock Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1991 and 1990, and changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1991, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 1990 AND 1989

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting - The financial statements of The Little Rock Conference of The United Methodist Church have been prepared on the cash basis. The records are held open for approximately two weeks after year-end in order to include the remittances from the churches in the conference for the last few weeks of the year. This policy is consistent with prior years.

2. Income Taxes

The conference meets the requirements of Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code and is therefore exempt from federal income taxes.

3. Cash Investments

All cash investments are recorded at cost plus interest income as received in the account. These balances approximate current market value of the particular investments. Due to the current nature of some of these investments, market quotations are not available.

Interest on the savings accounts is received quarterly. Interest on Dean Witter Intercapital Liquid Asset Fund and Fidelity Cash Reserves are received monthly. Interest on all other cash investments is not recognized until maturity.

Interest earned on investments during 1991 and 1990 was $64,308 and $86,764, respectively.

The aggregate market value of short term cash investments was $212,756 at December 31, 1991 and $206,669 at December 31, 1990. Net unrealized losses amounted to $2,892 in 1991 and $8,200 in 1990 which are considered immaterial and temporary in nature and will be reflected when realized.

4. Pension Plans

Substantially all conference employees are covered under one of the two defined contribution pension plans.

a. Ministerial employees - All ministerial employees, including the Bishop, are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes 3% and the church or conference contributes 10% to 12% of the participants' annual contribution base (compensation) based on the conference average compensation as computed by the General Board of Pensions.

b. Lay personnel - All lay employees are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes 3% and the conference contributes 6% of the participants' annual contribution base (compensation).

Both of the aforementioned plans provide benefits upon retirement based on converting accumulated contributions for that participant to an annuity or an actuarily equivalent basis.

Both plans are multi-employer plans by which all contributed assets of participating employers are commingled and are not segregated by employer. This commingling of assets prevents a matching of individual employer's plan assets to plan liabilities.

Total pension cost for the years ended December 31, 1991 and 1990 were $683,213 and $653,723 respectively.

5. Contingencies

At December 31, 1991, the Little Rock Conference is contingently liable for mortgage obligations of $104,311 in connection with the construction of new cabins at Camp Tanako.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING MEDICARE ENROLLMENT

Any minister who will reach his/her 65th birthday when he/she is still serving in a full time capacity and not drawing Social Security, should apply three months before his/her 65th birthday at the local Social Security office for Medicare. Any minister who has passed his/her 65th birthday and has not applied for Medicare, should contact the Social Security office immediately. This applies to those who are eligible and wish to participate in Medicare.

Should a minister's spouse reach age 65 before the minister, he/she should apply for Medicare at the local Social Security office.

It is each person's responsibility to secure his or her own Medicare coverage. For most persons age 65 or over, HMEP coverage complements Medicare.

Because of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act, a minister or lay employee who is age 65, but under age 70 and is still serving in an active status, is required to pay the HMEP premium of a person under age 65. For a person in this situation, Travelers is the primary payor and Medicare is the secondary payor.

THE DEATH BENEFIT PROGRAM

The Death Benefit Program is in three parts. Part I is included in the Ministerial Pension Plan/ Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP). Part II is an elective additional coverage called DBP-PLUS. Part III is a carry over from the past, available to clergy not covered by CPP.

Patient Advocate

Your Guide to the Medical Care System

Containing today's rising health care costs is important to all of us, but Patient Advocate is much more than an ordinary cost containment strategy. It's a program that gives you increased involvement in exploring treatment alternatives and determining how your health care needs will be met while providing you with guidance that will help you to get the most out of your benefit plan.

Medical advances in recent years have meant that many services traditionally provided in hospitals can be provided in less costly but equally beneficial settings. Even when hospital confinement is necessary, the length of stay can often be shortened substantially by taking advantage of a variety of community based services that facilitate an earlier discharge.

Patient Advocate has been added to your benefit plan to help you to use all available treatment alternatives effectively, so you can avoid the inconvenience of a hospital stay entirely or send more time recovering comfortably in a less restrictive setting or even in your own home.

How Patient Advocate Helps You Get Appropriate Care

The primary function of Patient Advocate is Preadmission and Concurrent Review of hospital care. Under this program, all days of inpatient care are reviewed before they are provided.

To initiate the review process, you must contact Patient Advocate at 1-800-231-9636, Monday through Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Pacific Time. Throughout the review initiated by your call, a registered nurse - your "Patient Advocate" will discuss available treatment alternatives and community resources with you and your physician and will make sure that hospitalization is the best option for you.

When admission to a hospital is necessary, your Patient Advocate will also help to determine an appropriate length of stay and will work throughout your confinement to see that your continuing care needs are met in the most effective way possible.

In many instances, review of the need for hospitalization and exploration of available alternatives will indicate that admission to the hospital can be avoided and that quality treatment can better be provided in a less stressful environment.

In either case, Patient Advocate will help you deal effectively with what can be a confusing health care system. Your participation in the review process will help to make you an informed user of medical services so that you and your family can consistently receive the highest quality and most appropriate care when faced hospitalization.

Because your cooperation is so essential to the success of the program, if you don't participate in the review process when a physician recommends hospitalization for you or a covered family member, reduced benefit payments may apply. Participating in the process isn't difficult - by simply calling Patient Advocate when hospitalization is proposed you will help to protect your family's health and ensuring that you receive the maximum benefit payment possible under your group health plan.

How Patient Advocate Helps You Make Choices

Because Patient Advocate enables you to play an integral role in determining how your health care needs will be met, we think it's vital that answers to your health care questions and concerns be readily available. You can call Patient Advocate whenever you want to learn more about health care alternatives or resources available in your community. The counseling function will give you the

KOREAN MISSION, SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The ministries of South Central Jurisdiction Korean Mission has been developed as listed below:

1. NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT - During the 1991-92 SCJ Korean Mission developed one mission congregation in Lake Charles, LA under the ministry of Leesville Korean United Methodist Church, and also surveyed three sites for future mission congregation development: 1) Dallas-South, Texas, 2) Topeka, Kansas, and 3) Waynesville, Missouri. Along with these mission projects I maintained three revitalization projects: 1) Alamogoldo, New Mexico, 2) Enid, Oklahoma, and 3) Bedford, Texas. Now we have 33 Korean churches and mission congregations in the Jurisdiction.

2. STRENGTHENING OF EXISTING CHURCHES: CONSULTATION, COORDINATION, and FACILITATION are one of the major roles of Korean Mission Director enabling the ministries to maintain the growing Korean churches among the Korean communities in South Central Jurisdiction. During the 1991-92 one mission congregation was officially chartered as Copperas Cove Korean United Methodist Church in Central Texas Conference.

3. TRAINING AND PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT: The Korean language ministers training is a continuously required field of new Korean missional congregation development to improve their effective commitment into the new situation of ministries. "Training for New Mission Developers and Spouses" is the meaningful and successful program for new missional congregation developer during April 29-May 3, 1991, at Stony Point, NY, and "UM Polity" course at Perkins Seminary and several other training events are very much successful year around jurisdictional training programs for Korean language ministers, youth, young adult and laity. Many participants are requesting these programs to continue annually for their spiritual growth and the strengthening and improving of their commitment for the mission and ministries.

I hope your continuing prayer and support for the ministries of Korean Mission in the South Central Jurisdiction. Thank you.

TASK FORCE TO STUDY MINISTERIAL COMPENSATION

The 1991 Session of The Little Rock Annual Conference authorized Bishop Wilke to appoint a Task Force to study ways to bring about pastoral equity and report back to the 1992 session of the Annual Conference.

The Task Force began their work with the understanding that the DISCIPLINE in paragraph 269 states very clearly the process by which local church establish their pastoral compensation packages. We acknowledged that we could not supersede the disciplinary procedure.

However, the Task Force does submit to the Annual Conference the following recommendations in an attempt to provide for greater equity among pastoral support packages.

1. Pastoral Compensation
   - A. All pastoral compensation shall be uniformly reported.
   - B. The report shall include the following categories: base salary, professional expense (travel and related expenses), housing expense (utilities and appurtenances), tax deferred annuity, Continuing Education paid monthly and other income (specify).
   - C. Recognize that the following can't be monitored but may be a part of pastoral compensation in some charges: free medical and dental care, health club memberships, country club memberships, administrative fees for grant supervision and free automobile.
   - D. Urge all charges to be aware that the total pastoral compensation is established annually for the position, not the pastor.
2. Commission on Equitable Salaries
   - A. We express our great concern for pastors trying to live and minister on minimum salary packages. We request that this concern be referred to the Commission on Equitable Salaries for further study and that recommendations for methods to improve compensation packages and thus eliminate salary inequities be found, corrective actions taken and such actions be reported back to the 1993 annual conference.
3. Covenanting
   - A. We recommend that pastors serving appointments with compensation of $50,000 and above enter into a covenant agreement with their brothers and sisters in the annual conference to not increase their compensation packages for a period of two years and that all pastors serving appointments who do not pay 100% of their apportionments not accept a compensation increase for the next conference year.
4. Health Care
   - A. We acknowledge that Health Care is not now considered a part of the total compensation package for the pastor. At the same time we recognize there will never be equity in ministerial compensation until some solution is found to the raging escalating cost of medical insurance. Our pastors, serving small and economically depressed congregations, are deprived of salary raises each year due to the high increases in health insurance premiums. All available funds are being applied to the health insurance cost and none is procurable for cost of living increments for the clergy.

Thus the Task Force to study Ministerial Salaries urges the Conference to take immediate proceeding to reverse this trend that is pricing us out of ministry in many churches throughout the Conference.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Since 1982 the Board of Pensions has been able to raise the rate for past service from $118.00 to $286.00 (1992). At the same time, the period of years projected to pay the unfunded liability has decreased from 40 to 17 years. This has been possible by the rate of apportionment received from the local churches and the good investment yields at the General Board of Pensions.

Report No. 1

1. We recommend that the Little Rock Conference participate in the Ministerial Pension (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) of the General Board of Pensions during 1993 on the following basis:

a. Contribution base shall be limited to each minister's plan compensation not to exceed the denominational average compensation.

b. Contribution rate shall be MPP, 12% of each minister's contribution base, and CPP, 4.4% of each minister's contribution base.

c. Annuity rate for pre-January 1, 1982 service shall be raised from $286 to $300 Per service year.

d. Surviving spouse percentage of the formula benefit rate shall be 70%.

e. A 17 year amortization period shall be used to pay the unfunded past service liability.

f. Monthly contributions to MPP/CPP shall be made through the apportionment system.

g. CPP benefits shall be supplemented with Death Benefit Plan-Plus (DBP-Plus) to 300% DAC up to age 45 (then a declining balance).

h. Active participants will contribute to the Death Benefit Program Plus with the church paying 100% of premium.

i. Every Conference member earning less than 60% of DAC from his/her primary salary paying unit may be included in CPP at the rate of 4.4% of his/her contribution base.

j. Probationers at seminary may participate in CPP at 4.4% - participant will pay.

k. Those on leave of absence may participate in CPP at the rate of 4.4%. The participant will pay the full 4.4%.

2. We recommend that in keeping with Par. 1606, Section 12e of the 1988 Discipline that the Sunday following Easter be observed as Retired Minister's Day. Each Pastor is urged to acquaint his or her congregation with the pension program of the Conference as part of the observation, and if possible to use a retired minister in the Worship Service.

3. We recommend in keeping with Par. 1606, Section 4h of the 1988 Discipline line, the approval of the Annual Conference that Special appointments shall be listed in the Conference Journal as follows: (1) with Annuity claim, (a) upon the Annual Conference, or (b) upon a General Board, an Institution, or an Agency of the United Methodist Church; (2) without Annuity claim upon this Annual Conference.

4. We recommend the following pertaining to the health insurance program of the Conference:

a. Board of Pensions pay 100% of the premium for our eligible retirees, surviving spouses, and ministers on disability for the Hospital and Medical Expense Program.

b. Conference Claimants: If a retired minister and/or spouse desires to have the premium for their Conference Hospitalization and Medical Insurance Program paid by the Board of Pensions, the minister must have been enrolled in the program prior to his/her 65th birthday. Likewise, if the spouse is to have the premium for the Program paid by the Conference, he/she must have been enrolled in the program for a minimum of one year prior to his/her 65th birthday or one year prior to the minister's retirement. If a minister's spouse is under the age of 65 at the time of that minister's retirement, the Board of Pensions will pay for that spouse an amount equal to the premium for a spouse over 65, plus 3% of the premium per each year of service by the said spouse in the Arkansas area, up to a total of 80% of the spouse's premium. (The words 'spouse' always refers to the same person.)

c. Spouses of Deceased Ministers: In the case of a deceased minister whose spouse is under the age of 65, the Board of Pensions will pay the dependent's insurance premium for five (5) years following the death of the minister. In the event of extenuating circumstances, an extension of payments may be requested by the dependent. Payment automatically ends with the remarriage of the dependent. Each case will be reviewed annually.

5. We recommend that an annual amount equal to 100% of the pension and disability payment of each minister of the Little Rock Conference be designated as housing allowance.

6. We recommend that in keeping with Par. 737, Section 4 of the 1988 Discipline that there shall be organized from the membership of the Board of Pensions of the Little Rock Conference a committee to compare the records of the amount paid by each pastoral charge for support of pastors: and for pension benefit purposes computing the proportional distribution thereof and keeping a permanent record of defaults of the ministers in the Conference who have failed to observe the provision in Par. 737, Section 4 pertaining to proportional payment, and shall render annually to each minister and charge in default a statement of amounts in default for the current year and preceding years. In event of default by any pastoral charge the amount in default for the current year only may be printed in the Conference Journal.

7. We request the Secretary of the Annual Conference to print in the Minister's Service Record in the Journal, one column stating "Years of Pensions Claim on the Little Rock Conference, "and another stating "Total Service Years in the Ministry."

8. A list of annuitants and pensions payments for the year 1991 is available in the Conference Treasurer's Office from Mary Stanfield.

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances For Retired or Disabled Ministers of This Conference

Whereas, the religious denomination known as the United Methodist Church has functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

Whereas, the practice of the United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers, and

Whereas, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Little Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of the Conference; and

Whereas, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to the Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this conference;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pensions payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year 1993 be and is hereby designated as a rental/allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Little Rock Annual Conference at the time of his/her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of the United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of the United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of the United Methodist Church for such retired minister's Pension or disabled minister's benefits.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107 (2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore the full amount disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

The Jurisdictional Council on Ministries has sought to fulfill its mission particularly in the area of leadership development, giving attention to program concerns identified by the Councils on Ministries of the various Annual Conferences. Early in the quadrennium the Council made the decision that its primary function is to sponsor and fund programs rather than meetings. Priority is given to those programs that can be done more efficiently and effectively on a jurisdictional level. Proposals that could be done better on an Annual Conference level are referred back to the respective Annual Conference for their action.

During 1991 there were 24 leadership training and inspirational event approved by the Council. Four of these were cancelled through lack of registrations. In the 20 events that were held there was a total attendance of 3,031.

Included in these activities were: a Jurisdictional Work Camp, six retiree retreats, Ecumenical School of Missions, Jurisdictional Youth Ministry Organization, Bishop's Week, Superserve (Volunteers in Mission), Single Adult Ministries Consultation, Fellowship of United Methodist Communicators, Town & Country Ministries Consultation at St. Paul Seminary, Conversational Spanish Workshop, Senior Minister's Seminar, Black Clergy Pastor's School, Summer Children's Camp (Rio Grande Conference), Training for New Church Developers (Korean Pastors), Mount Sequoyah Lab Seminar, and Jurisdiction United Methodist Men's Congress.

During the year 23 ethnic minority Seminarians were granted a total of $11,500 in scholarship aid. In addition, two Seminarians - one at St. Paul and one at Perkins - were awarded $1,000 each in scholarship aid through the Lillian Thompson Memorial Fund.

We express our gratitude to Dr. J. Walter Lofton and Ms. Marilyn Loyd who have served on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries; to Rev. David Prothro, Jurisdictional Finance and Administration; and to many other persons from this Conference who have brought vision and leadership to the Jurisdiction.

Executive Director

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Conference Board of Trustees recommends:

That the District Superintendent of the Hope District be authorized to negotiate the sale of the Old Liberty Methodist Church property situated in Hempstead County, the proceeds to go to the Hope District Board of Missions.

That contingent upon a survey of the property and a professional appraisal, the District Superintendent of the Monticello District be authorized to negotiate the sale of the Bethlehem Church property in Cleveland County. The cost of the survey and appraisal is to be borne by the prospective buyer. The proceeds of the sale is to go to the Monticello District Board of Missions.

That the Camp Springs Methodist Church property in Cleveland County be conveyed to the Camp Springs Methodist Church Cemetery Association by quit claim deed.

VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION, SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION

Responding to urgent appeals for volunteers is what we do best. When there's a combination of urgency and need, there is never a shortage of volunteers. United Methodists respond.

The 91 year got off to a good start when, within a three week period, nine VIM teams responded to the Board of Global Ministries' appeal for the need to build homes in Panama for those who had lost them in the previous year's invasion. Then two teams responded to an appeal from the World Division to build homes for a housing coop in Nicaragua, and four teams checked in responding to an appeal from the Louisiana Conference for flood relief work. In addition, several teams in various parts of the Jurisdiction were on hand to start rebuilding after tornados ripped through parts of Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri.

With little effort a team leader was recruited and a team put together to head out to Zimbabwe to repair buildings for the new African University there in time for their first class sessions. Later in the year an appeal came from missionaries in Chile for volunteers to complete school buildings in time for the March 1, 1992, opening of the first agricultural school located in Northern Chile, in the world's driest desert. Three teams quickly prepared for departure early in the new year and other teams will continue the work after classes have begun.

During 1991 the South Central Jurisdiction VIM Office assisted hundreds of youth teams as they prepared for their Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring break, and Summer volunteers in mission projects. Conference coordinators from across the jurisdiction have reported over 150 international teams. SCJ Volunteers in Mission serve throughout the United States as individuals, as couples, and as team members. This is ongoing activity. It goes on all the time, a steady expression of our church's interest in and care for others. But, in addition to that steady effort, when the word of an urgent need is released, United Methodist Volunteers lay aside other activities and respond. Sometimes their help is visible to the larger world; sometimes it isn't. But it's the experience of the South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers in Mission program that they're there. When need is felt, United Methodists respond. You can count on it.

HERSTON R. HOLLAND

Herston R. Holland was born in Akersville, Kentucky, September 14, 1905. He died January 25, 1992. Funeral services were held at the Hazen United Methodist Church on January 27 by the Rev. David Hankins and the Rev. Daniel Kirkpatrick. Burial was in the Hazen Cemetery.

During the 35 years of his active ministry, Herston Holland pastored several churches in the Little Rock Conference. He began preaching while teaching school in Prairie County. He soon gave up teaching and began full-time as a pastor. His first appointment was the Carlisle Circuit which consisted of five rural churches. From Carlisle he went to Carthage and then to Jackson Street Methodist church in Magnolia. Herston was appointed to Stephens Methodist Church and served there five years. He then served six years at Hot Springs Pullman Heights before going to Henderson in Little Rock. It was a Henderson that he had his largest growth in membership, a total of over 500 members. It was at Henderson that he married Clarice Jennings of Hazen. (His first wife, Marie Beth Holland, died while he was pastor at Pullman Heights.)

Rev. Holland held many revivals while in active ministry. He was a member of the Board of Evangelism and traveled with the Board to Washington, D.C. and Minneapolis, Minnesota, for meetings and preaching. After leaving Henderson, Herston was assigned to McGehee for four years, and for three of those years also served Arkansas City. He moved from there to Oaklawn in Hat Springs for three years before going to Stuttgart Grand Avenue for four years. He served Hazen for three years before retiring and moving to Beebe. In the retired relationship, he served the Woodlawn Charge (Bethlehem, Providence, and Smyrna) in Lonoke County, and for a brief time, he also served Old Austin United Methodist Church.

Herston was from a family of ten children, seven of whom survived him. He is also survived by his wife, Clarice; and three children, Sharon Inman of Arkansas City, AR; Bob Holland of Shepherdsville, KY; and Kenneth Holland of Florida. He also has five grandchildren.

In death we know he has gone to be with our Lord, and many of us who were influenced by him will miss Herston Holland very deeply.

GEORGE GORDON KERR

George Kerr

George Gordon Kerr died August 28, 1991. He was born January 27, 1913, in Collinsville, TX, to Reverend Ralph S. Kerr and Serena Edna Maxon Kerr. The son of a Methodist pastor, George was reared in parsonages in the North Texas Conference. The paternal grandfather was a Presbyterian minister.

March 23, 1939, George and Margaret Elizabeth (Betsy) Leach were married. They were blessed a son, George Edward. Betsy died in 1983, and in 1988 George married Mildred Downs King. Mildred, George Edward and wife Jody, grandchildren Karrie and Edward, and a sister Margaret Ellis of Austin, TX, survive.

In 1936 George graduated from Southern Methodist University with a degree in philosophy. He attended Perkins School of Theology and was ordained an elder in the North Texas Conference in 1940. He served in that conference from 1936 until 1945 when he transferred to the Little Rock Conference. Though he retired in 1977, he continued to serve small membership churches until 1990. As an active and retired pastor, he served churches 53 ½ years.

Funeral services were conducted August 30 in First United Methodist church, Nashville, AR, by the Reverends Henry Ratliff, Robert E. Langley, and William Emberton. Interment was at the Maud Cemetery, Maud, TX.

George was blessed with gifts and graces for ministry. He loved people and they loved him. He had a good mind and a witty spirit. In 1986 he published his collection of humorous stories, 50 Years of Pun and Pleasure.

In the closing pages of his good, George stated. "All I can say this evening is that during the years I have been privileged to serve the Lord I have had a heap of fun. You see, there are many sides to this business of religion. Religion is not something that should hang upon us like a burden. Someone has asked the question: 'Is your religion something you have to carry or does your religion carry you?' I believe I can say today that my religion carries me and I sincerely hope that is something you can day. I believe that there is nothing in all this world that can so enhance one's personality and bring beauty and poise into life as a deep and abiding faith in God and a deep sense of spiritual things." In that spirit and with that attitude George faced death courageously and victoriously.

GEORGE GARDENER MEYER

George Meyer

The Reverend George Gardener Meyer was born in Princeton, Indiana on May 25, 1910, the son of Chrism Henry and Lilly Gardener Meter. The family moved to Helena, AR and then to Dumas, AR where George grew up and received his public school education. He graduated from Hendrix College in Conway and Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He was admitted on Trial to the Little Rock Annual Conference in 1934 and into Full Connection in 1936. He was ordained Deacon in 1936 and was ordained an Elder in 1938. He took the retired relation in 1980, after 46 years of devoted service.

George Meyer served the following charges during his ministry: Douglasville-Geyer Springs in Little Rock, 1934-35; College Hill, Texarkana, 1935-37; Vantrease, El Dorado, 1937-39; England, 1939-44; Fordyce, 1944-47; Nashville, 1947-52; Oak Forest, Little Rock, 1952-57; First Church Russellville (North Arkansas Conference), 1957-63; First Church, Magnolia, 1963-67; First Church, Benton, 1967-70; Warren, 1970-73; Grand Avenue, Stuttgart, 1973-76; Associate Pastor, First Church, Pine Bluff; 1976-80; Humphrey-Humnoke, 1980-84.

George Meyer was a Conference man through his ministry. He served as a teacher and counselor for District and Conference camps and assemblies for many years. He rendered service on the Board of Education, the Board of Ministries Training and Qualifications, the Board of Missions and served for eight years as Chairman of the Board of Pensions.

He was a brotherly person, always concerned about the welfare of his brothers in the ministry. Whatever program the Annual Conference adopted, George Meyer gave his complete cooperation and dedication to carrying it out in his local church. He was supportive of his District Superintendent and his Bishop. Throughout his ministry George built the children's work, youth fellowship, adult ministry, and the whole educational program including missionary education.

George's sermons were thoroughly developed, well prepared and delivered. His preaching reflected much time spent in Bible study, meditation and prayer. One of his strong traits was his caring ministry to the bereaved. When any one of his parishioners called he was always available to meet the need. George was a dedicated minister, a forthright person and a steadfast friend who will be greatly missed.

George Meyer was a deeply religious man, a humble and consecrated servant of God. As an administrator in church affairs he was fair and just, listening to all issues, then abiding by the decision of the Administrative Board and working to achieve the goals set forth. When he believed in something he stood firmly in support of his principles, yet he could see and understand the other person's viewpoint. He did not compromise his convictions on Christian principles. George lived out his life and ministry on the principle of Jesus' summary of the Law: to love God with all your being and your neighbor as yourself, and in the spirit of Micah's words:

"He has showed you, O Man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God."

A memorial service was held for George Gardener Meyer at Mabelvale United Methodist Church in Little Rock, on December 17, 1991, by Daniel George, Michael Morey and Clint D. Burleson. He was strong because of his dependence upon God. His faith and influence will continue to be felt in the United Methodist Church and in the Little Rock Conference because of his commitment to Christ and his closeness to our Lord through prayer.

JAMES ROBERT SCUDDER

James Scudder

James Robert Scudder, United Methodist pastor and a writer/editor for both the Arkansas Democrat and the Arkansas Gazette, died of cancer on November 26, 1991 at the age of 53. James was a graduate of Hendrix College, Perkins School of Theology at SMU, and was a Nieman Fellow in Journalism at Harvard University. He served as associate pastor at Winfield United Methodist Church (now Quapaw United Methodist Church) and as a pastor of churches in Humphrey, Hot Springs, and Redfield. During his pastorate at Redfield, he helped to revitalize the congregation and was instrumental in leading the congregation in building the James Robert Scott Educational Building and remodeling the sanctuary building.

James Scudder's journalistic achievements are well documented and his creative writing skills are evident in such articles as "Back to Beulah Land" which was presented in a special section of the Arkansas Gazette in 1988 and told of his being born and growing up in Carthage, AR. His achievements as a pastor may be less obvious. However, in eloquent tribute, a member of the Redfield congregation, Art Norris, has written the following statement entitled "James".

> When I think of James, I think of warmth. I think of caring, peace and love. See, James led me to Christ. James was not a typical pastor. He was kind, of course, but in a rough sort of way. He was real. He was fallible. He was human. he didn't always have a smile. He didn't always say just the thing to make us feel good. But neither did Christ . . .
>
> James loved the young people and taught them of life. He taught them with love. He chided us often. He challenged us hard. He showed us Christ's way. How many people are no longer the same? How many people did James lead to Christ? Now James has fallen. He suffered with pain and now is rewarded. We prayed for him daily. We think of him now. We hurt as we miss him. What gift can we give? What words can we say? The wonderful truth . . . "He led us to Christ."
