ONE HUNDRED-SEVENTH SESSION OF THE NORTH ARKANSAS
ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

FIRST DAY

The One Hundred-Seventh Session of the North Arkansas Annual Conference of The Methodist Church met at the First Methodist Church in Batesville, Arkansas, at 8:00 p. m., November 4, 1942, with Bishop Charles C. Selecman presiding.

Using The Methodist Hymnal the Conference sang Hymn No. 402, "And Are We Yet Alive." Bishop Selecman led the Conference in the Responsive Reading "The Armor of God" and Dr. E. W. Potter led in prayer. Hymn No. 520, "Abide With Me," was sung. Bishop Selecman addressed the Conference concerning The Church in the Present Emergency.

Benjamin C. Few was elected Secretary.

On nomination by the Secretary, James S. Upton, Ewing T. Wayland and Mrs. Lamar C. Ratcliffe were elected Journal Secretaries and Earle Cravens was elected Personnel Secretary.

The Secretary nominated Joe A. Goetz as Statistician and he was elected, as were the following District Auditors: J. H. Hoggard, J. J. Clark, E. J. Holifield, H. J. Couchman, Luther K. Question No. 9 (1*) was called: What are the reports of the District Superintendents as to the status of the work within their Districts?

W. V. Womack, Secretary of the Cabinet read the following report:

Number in () indicates number of Question according to Discipline. First number given is that followed in Condensed Minutes.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Out of a year of many complications we bring the following report:

World conditions have made work very difficult in some directions. But in the midst of all the problems there has been the assurance that God has been in our lives as we have tried to go forward with his work. Our Conference has furnished two to the chaplaincy of the army and navy this year and others are getting ready for this work. Two of our active pastors have died during the year, Rev. F. E. Dodson and Rev. J. W. Johnston. Death has claimed the companions of two of our pastors—Mrs. Horace M. Lewis and Mrs. E. H. Hook.

There have been added to the membership of the Church 6,072 this year, 2,950 on profession of faith and 3,122 by certificate and otherwise.

There have been ten new churches built during the year. Twenty churches have been dedicated. They are at Hartman, Midland, Central Avenue in Batesville, Viola, Mt. Tabor, Cleveland, Gardner Memorial in North Little Rock, Beech Grove, Cache Lake, Elnora, Piggott Walnut Ridge, Bald Knob and Russell.

Church indebtedness has been reduced by the payment of $64,656. The payment on Benevolences has totaled $56,277, on District Superintendents' salary fund $37,391 and pastors' salaries $276,035.

The Church School enrollment this year is 63,655. The Conference has paid on Church School Rally Day fund $2,989, and there have been 5,996 enrolled in Vacation Bible Schools.

The Women have 266 Societies of Christian Service with a membership of 10,208.

Sam B. Wiggins, Superintendent of the Fayetteville District, stated that every church debt had been paid in the Fayetteville District this year except $100 on the Berryville church where plans had been disrupted by a tornado which had destroyed vast property, killed 28 people and injured a large number.

At the invitation of Bishop Selecman, H. A. Stroup, pastor at Berryville, told of the tragedy as it touched the Church in suffering and in the opportunity to serve the community.

At the suggestion of H. H. Griffin, an offering was made by the Conference to pay the debt of $100 on the Berryville church. On motion of Sewell B. Wilford the Conference voted to direct any part of the offering in excess of $100, to be paid to H. A. Stroup to be used in relief of distress among the victims of the storm. The offering amounted to $168.61.

Dr. F. W. Mueller, representing the General Board of Missions and Church Extension, was introduced and spoke in the interest of that cause.

As a matter of special privilege, Sewell B. Wilford called Dr. Eugene W. Potter to the chancel and on behalf of the Preachers in the Jonesboro District presented to Dr. and Mrs. Potter a war bond for $100 as a token of love and appreciation to mark the bond of their fellowship in the six-year tenure of Dr. Potter as Superintendent of the District. Dr. Potter spoke tenderly of the bonds of work in this association.

Sam M. Yancey, Superintendent of the Western Methodist Assembly at Mt. Sequoyah, spoke on the Assembly.

The following resolution was read by W. V. Womack, Secretary of the Cabinet and adopted by the Conference:

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the emergency of the war is calling a number of our pastors to the chaplaincy in both the Army and the Navy, thus necessitating filling ad-interim vacancies while at the same time giving us concern as to the ultimate problem of the re-appointment of chaplains when they return, therefore be it

Resolved, That we assure the men who are nobly volunteering their services for the chaplaincy that they go with our sincere approval and our earnest prayers to the vital task of giving spiritual service to the men in uniform; that we assure them that when they return we shall use every effort to place them in appointments in keeping with the type and grade of charges which they relinquished, it being understood, of course, that this assurance may be modified by the financial situation of the country at the close of the war. Be it further

Resolved, That we affirm it as our conviction that all our preachers should accept it as a duty which the claims of the historic brotherhood of our itinerant ministry impose upon us that we shall readily accept necessary adjustments in appointments so as not to penalize any man who has answered the call of duty and service with our men in uniform.

We further express the opinion that when unusual promotions may come to preachers because of vacancies due to the call to the chaplaincy that the men thus promoted should fully understand that at the end of the emergency, adjustments must be made which may mean a reduction for some in the grade of appointment held, and

Finally, we would point out that we can not make good on the assurance given those who enter the chaplaincy unless our churches loyally cooperate with the appointing power, and we therefore request our laity to give every assistance to our Bishop and District Superintendents to this end.

The following telegram was read by Bishop Selecman:

Bishop Charles C. Selecman
Methodist Church, Batesville, Ark.

Please remind North Arkansas Conference that the plan sponsored by the Council of Bishops for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service included not only Worldwide Communion Sunday but Sharing all Communion Offerings throughout the year. Needs of Overseas Relief and Camp Service both pressing. Also four hundred additional Methodist Chaplains called for by Army and Navy this year. Greetings.

Herbert Welch, A. W. Leonard

L. M. Starkey, Pharis Holifield, E. J. Holifield, A. N. Boyd, and O. E. Rice were introduced.

The Conference adjourned with the Benediction pronounced by Dr. Starkey.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION

The Conference met at 8:30 a. m. with Bishop Selecman presiding. The Hymn No. 245 "O Sometimes The Shadows Are Deep" was sung. Bishop Selecman led the Conference in the Responsive Reading "God Strengthens The Heart" after which J. M. Hughey led in prayer. The Hymn No. 268 "Are Ye Able" was sung.

The minutes of the previous session were read and after minor corrections were approved.

The Order of The Day for hearing the report of the Board of Education was changed from Thursday 10:30 a. m. until 11:00 a. m.

The Order of the Day for voting on two proposed Constitutional Amendments was set at 10:30 a. m. Thursday.

By vote of the Conference the District Superintendents were given the authority to grant leaves of absences to the men of their respective Districts.

Question No. 10 (2) was called: Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? The names of all the active preachers excepting H. J. Harger and W. B. Shultz, were called and their character passed.

Question No. 14 (6) was called: Who have withdrawn or been expelled?

H. Lynn Wade, District Superintendent of the Paragould District announced that Harold J. Harger had surrendered his credentials and had withdrawn from the ministry and membership in The Methodist Church under charges of unministerial and immoral conducts.

Question No. 12 (4) was called: Who are discontinued?

R. S. Hayden, District Superintendent of the Conway District, presented the name of Wilson B. Shultz, and announced that he had discontinued the work of a Preacher on trial in the traveling connection and that the case had been dealt with according to the requirements of the Discipline for a member on trial.

Dr. John Q. Schisler, representing The Methodist Publishing House, presented to the Board of Conference Claimants a check for $1,566.87 as the share of this Conference in an appropriation of $200,000 out of the profits of the Publishing House to the Retired Ministers.

Question No. 10 (2) was resumed.

The names of all the retired Preachers were called and their character passed.

A letter from E. K. Sewell and a telegram from James B. Evans were read by the Secretary.

The Conference voted to send a wire of affectionate greeting and sympathy to W. T. Martin who was reported to be in a hospital in a serious condition as a result of an accident. Dr. O. E. Goddard announced that the offering to be made at the evening service would be used to apply on hospital and other expense made necessary by the injury.

Sam Wiggins reported on the health of all the retired Preachers in the Fayetteville District who were not present at the session, and brought greetings from them.

Bishop Seleman led the Conference in singing "I Love to Tell The Story" and called on James W. Workman to lead a prayer of thanksgiving for the life and service of the retired Preachers and a petition for their well being.

W. V. Womack, Secretary of the Cabinet, nominated the following Committee on District Conference Journals which was elected: W. W. Allbright, Brady Cook, W. A. Downum, Hubert E. Pearce, John G. Gieck, Lloyd Conyers, J. Kenneth Shamblin and Jesse Lee Johnston.

J. W. Workman introduced Morris F. Dodson as the representative of The Methodist Publishing House.

The Order of the Day was to consider proposed Constitutional Amendments. Bishop Seleman asked the Secretary to read proposed Amendment No. 1. Dr. A. W. Martin, Dr. James A. Anderson, Dr. J. W. Workman, Paul V. Galloway, J. J. Galloway, and Dr. A. G. Henderson spoke concerning the proposed amendment.

The total vote cast was 149. Aye, 73; No, 76.

The Secretary read the proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 2. Bishop Seleman made a brief statement concerning the nature of the proposed amendment. The vote showed 148 affirmative votes and no negative votes were cast.

The Order of the Day having arrived for hearing the report of the Board of Education, Harry King read the report.

A. W. Martin was asked to assume the chair.

Dr. J. Q. Schisler, representing the General Board of Education, Division of The Local Church, and Ira Brumley, Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education spoke to the report. Earle Cravens, newly elected chairman of the Conference Board of Education, was introduced, and he spoke briefly concerning the future work of the Board. The report was adopted.

James T. Randle, one of the host pastors, introduced F. W. Langham, of the American Bible Society, and the following ministers of the city of Batesville: Dr. W. D. Edward of First Baptist Church, Dr. J. S. Sleeper of The Presbyterian Church; Rev. C. P. Lewis, St. Paul's Episcopal Church; and Rev. Clarence Cutral, West Batesville Baptist Church.

F. W. Langham spoke in the interest of the American Bible Society.

Bishop Selecman resumed the chair.

E. J. Reeves from the East Oklahoma Conference was introduced.

After various announcements were made, the time for adjournment was extended in order to hear Dr. H. W. McPherson, Secretary of Division of Educational Institutions, General Board of Education. Dr. McPherson was introduced and he addressed the Conference in the interest of the Educational program of the Church.

The Conference adjourned with singing of the doxology, and the benediction pronounced by Dr. McPherson.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION

The Conference met at 8:30 a. m. with Bishop Selecman presiding.

Hymns No. 245, "O Sometimes The Shadows Are Deep" and No. 533, "O, God, Our Help," were sung. Bishop Selecman led the Conference in two responsive readings, "The Way of Holiness" and "Prince of Peace." Dr. Charles Nixon, Superintendent of the Muskogee District of the East Oklahoma Conference, led in prayer. The Conference sang Hymn No. 514, "Lead Kindly Light."

Chaplain Lyman T. Barger of Camp Gruber, Oklahoma, was introduced by Bishop Selecman and he spoke to the Conference concerning his work as a chaplain.

The Minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

Question No. 19 (11) was called: Who are admitted on Trial?

Jesse Lee Johnson, recommended by the Batesville District Conference, James Ralph Hillis, Thomas C. Huff and Alfred A. Eason, recommended by the Conway District Conference, James Ransford Chandler, recommended by the Fort Smith District Conference, Harold D. Womack and Charles W. Lewis, recommended by the Jonesboro District Conference, and Byron C. Cravens, recommended by the Helena District Conference, and having the recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations and Ministerial Qualifications, were admitted on trial by vote of the Conference.

Question No. 25 (17) was called: Who are admitted into Full Connection?

Donaghey W. Duran, LeRoy Henry, and Ewing T. Wayland, having the recommendation of the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications and Ministerial Qualifications, and meeting all other disciplinary requirements, were called to the chancel and addressed by Bishop Selecman on the call and life of the Christian ministry. They were asked disciplinary questions which they answered satisfactorily and were admitted into Full Connection by vote of the Conference.

The order of the day was hearing the report of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. Jefferson Sherman read the report. Mrs. R. E. Connell was presented by Bishop Selecman and she gave a report as President of the Conference organization of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, stressing the relationship between the Board of Missions and Church Extension and the Woman's Society of Christian Service. A. W. Martin and W. P. Whaley spoke to the report. The report was adopted.

Mrs. Nell Naylor, Winslow, a returned missionary from India, was introduced, and she spoke of her work in India.

E. C. Nash, Business Manager of the "Christian Advocate," was introduced to the Conference, and he spoke in the interest of the "Christian Advocate."

The Hymn "Saviour More Than Life To Me" was sung.

The following resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Places of beginnings are always full of interest and inspiration and this has added much to our Conference meeting in Batesville. Here Methodism had one of her most interesting and inspiring beginnings and it was good to meet again in this fair city where the faith of so many is founded upon the Rock of Ages.

We find ourselves indebted to so many people in so many ways that it is difficult to find expression for them all. The host pastors, Brothers Lewis, Randle and Johnson, with the good committees helping them, have been more than gracious and we will feel indebted to them through the days to come.

The gracious organist, Miss Maxfield, and the choirs of First Church and the Central Avenue Church, with their music have been an inspiration to us. The goodly souls who sent beautiful flowers to the church have added a touch of brightness and life to our sessions.

What can we say of the wonderful homes and their delightful people where we have been entertained. Our every want has been met and our greatest thanks would hardly be enough. May the Lord bless you and give you peace in these difficult days is our prayer.

We wish to express our fullest thanks for the use of the Baptist church for the meetings of our committees and boards. The presence of the Lord will be upon us when his people dwell together in peace.

It has been a profitable pleasure to have Bishop Selecman as our presiding officer again, and we express appreciation to him for his kindly ministrations and to the brethren who brought us messages from time to time.

The press of the city has given extensive notices to all our meetings and the whole city of Batesville has looked to our comfort and pleasure. We can only say, "Thank you."

All good things must come to an end and as we take our leave it will be with the hope that we may come this way again and with the prayer that the Heavenly Father may give His benediction and grace to this fair city and its people in these days and in the days to come.

(Signed) H. C. Minnis, W. A. Patty, F. G. Villine, J. G. Moore, Rex B. Wilkes.

Question No. 43 (33) was called: Where are the Preachers stationed this year?

Bishop Selecman read the list of appointments to all Preachers. (See Appointments.)

The Conference adjourned with the benediction.

(1) That R. J. Rice be elected as a member of the Commission on World Service and Finance to take the place left vacant by the death of Joe M. Gray.

Part VIII

We recommend:

(1) That the Town and Country Commission work out a set of percentages for the Sustentation Fund which shall produce a sum not less than the amount paid this year for said Fund and that said percentages be in conformity with the provisions of Paragraph 559 of 1940 Discipline;

(2) And that the new percentages shall be reported to the 1943 session of our Conference and used thereafter as a basis for the payment of Sustentation Funds.

Part IX

We commend:

Our District Superintendents and Pastors and Officials and People for the excellent work they have done this year in taking care of the financial interests of Methodism in our Conference.

Allen D. Stewart, Chairman
H. M. Lewis, Secretary

TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION

The commission recommends the following:

1. That, for members of the Conference, the computing of the Sustentation Fund be made on a standard salary of $1,000.00 or less provided that no account be taken of deficits under $600.00.

That, for Accepted Supplies, the computing of the Sustentation Fund be made on a standard salary of $800.00 or less provided no account be taken of deficits under $400.00.

2. That ministerial students serving charges share in the Sustentation Fund in an amount equal to that of 50 per cent of that paid to a full time pastor.

3. That the names of all pastors receiving support from the Sustentation Fund be printed in the Minutes with the amounts each has received.

That all contributors to the Sustentation Fund be printed in the Minutes of the Journal with the amounts each has contributed.

4. That this Sustentation Fund be raised by apportioning to pastoral charges and effective members of the Conference the amounts equal to the following percentages of salaries paid to the pastors:

$1,000-$1,500	-----	½ per cent	-----	½ per cent
1,501- 2,000	-----	1 per cent	-----	1 per cent
2,001- 3,000	-----	1½ per cent	-----	1½ per cent
3,001- Up	-----	2 per cent	-----	2 per cent

5. That the cooperating boards continue their allotments to the Town and Country Commission on the same basis as last year.

6. That Glenn F. Sanford be reappointed as Secretary to the Town and Country Commission.

7. That the salary of the Executive Secretary of the Town and Country Commission be the same as last year.

8. That we express our sincere appreciation for the fine spirit of co-operation of the participating Boards and Agencies and the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the work of the Town and Country Commission.

9. That the Conference give careful consideration to the program and objectives of the Town and Country Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

R. S. Hayden, Chairman
Glenn F. Sanford, Secretary

BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Difficulties and crises confronting the Church both at home and abroad continue to increase with each passing day. The dislocation of large segments of our population by defense industries, the calling of millions of men from their homes into military service, the occupation of large areas of our Foreign Mission territory by the military forces of the enemy together with the necessary withdrawal of most if not all of our missionaries from Japan, Korea, occupied areas of China, Burma, Philippines, and Malay states, these factors and many others growing out of the war situation, combine to lay upon the heart and mind of the Methodist Church in America the heaviest responsibility it has ever faced.

Our prayer is that we as pastors and laymen may meet and carry these responsibilities as good soliders of him who said, "Go ye into all the world and make disciples of every nation."

We rejoice in the increased giving to world service. We sincerely hope that our people will respond generously and sacrificially to the week of Dedication offering.

We rejoice also in the large number of churches which have paid debts against property this year.

Dr. F. W. Mueller of the General Board met with our Conference Board and rendered invaluable assistance in our deliberations.

I. General Recommendations

1. That the present arrangement with the Commission on Town and Country work be continued and that Glenn F. Sanford be appointed Executive Secretary of Town and Country Commission.

2. That E. B. Williams be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary.

3. That W. J. Spicer and E. Wainright Martin serve as members of the Commission of Town and Country Work.

4. That we cooperate with the other Boards and agencies of the Conference in the District set up meetings for November 17 to 29.

5. That the Churches be asked to emphasize on one Sunday during the year, preferably, Pentecost Sunday, reverence and consideration for God's sanctuary, the Church.

6. That our Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension cooperate in every way possible with the General Board of Missions and Church Extension in a survey of the home field looking to more definite preparations for meeting the spiritual needs here at home both now and after the war.

Woman's Society of Christian Service

"Not what we give, but what we share," is the spirit behind the Woman's Society of Christian Service and its activities. In terms of dollars, the Conference society overpaid its increased pledge for the year (1941), with a total of $24,476 expended in its connectional work. Again this year the pledge was increased, and in addition an emergency gift of around $2,000 was made in September.

In terms of membership there has been an encouraging increase in the number of societies and members. At its spring meeting the Conference reported 293 societies with a membership of 11,734.

In terms of spiritual gains there has been the acceptance of responsibility as leaders, on the part of women of high ability in special fields; one congerence daughter entered Scarritt College for special training for missionary service, while another, having received training has gone to an appointment in Cuba. We cannot list by name all of those who are serving as special emissaries of the WSCS, but we can thank God and take courage that his spirit still moves the hearts of women to do service for him.

We recognize the fact that through the Woman's Society of Christian Service our church has given us a place to use our various gifts and abilities for God, and we rejoice in the opportunity to serve.

BOARD OF EDUCATIONReport No. 1

The Board of Education has met and received reports from the various agencies engaged in the work of Education, together with their requests and recommendations.

We recommend the following appointments:

Ira A. Brumley, Executive Secretary, Board of Education; J. Q. Schisler, Executive Secretary of the Local Church Division, General Board of Education; J. S. Seneker, Professor in Southern Methodist University; Nat R. Griswold, Educational Work, Jananese Relocation Center, Rohwer; S. M. Yancey, Superintendent of Western Methodist Assembly.

We make the following nominations:

Trustees for Hendrix College: For Little Rock Conference—J. J. Harrison and W. P. Gulley to succeed themselves, terms to expire 1948; For North Arkansas Conference—Rev. Ira A. Brumley to succeed Dr. Connor Morehead, term to expire in 1947; for trustee at large, Harvey C. Couch, Jr., to succeed himself, term to expire 1948.

Additional Members of Conference Board of Education: Mrs. John McClure to succeed Mrs. E. T. Wayland; Rev. L. M. Starkey instead of Dr. Connor Morehead; Mrs. W. F. Bates for Mrs. Alfred Knox.

To be staff members of the Conference Board of Education: Conference Office Secretary, Paul Bumpers; Director of Youth Work, James Upton; Director of Adult Work, Glenn F. Sanford; Director of Children's Work, to be supplied.

Districts Staff: Children's Division—Batesville, Mrs. M. E. Moore; Conway, Mrs. Audra Basham; Fayetteville, Mrs. Fay Reed; Ft. Smith, Mrs. Archey Boyd; Helena, Miss Mollye Weeden; Jonesboro, to be supplied; Paragould, to be supplied; Searcy, Miss Irene Forrest.

Young People's Division: Conference Officers—President Alvin Murray; Vice-President, Marjorie Holifield; Secretary, Bernadine Holland; Treasurer, Marie Stapleton; Assembly Dean, V. E. Chalfant.

District Directors: Batesville, Miss Clara McGill; Conway, E. J. Holifield; Fayetteville, Lloyd M. Conyers; Ft. Smith, Martin Bierbaum; Helena, Vernon Chalfant; Jonesboro, James Upton; Paragould, Raymond Franks; Searcy, LeRoy Henry.

Adult Division: District Directors—Batesville, H. W. Jinske; Conway, Joe Goetz; Fayetteville, G. G. Davidson; Fort Smith, I. L. Claud, Helena, Earl S. Walker; Jonesboro, J. P. Womack; Paragould, R. E. L. Bearden, Jr.; Searcy, S. O. Patty.

The Board rejoices in the success of the 1942 February Special for Hendrix College and Ministerial Education, which you have noted from our treasurer's report, exceeded its goal by approximately $3,000.00.

Since the financial needs of both Hendrix College and Ministerial Education will be as vital next year as they have been this year, we recommend that, in addition to the present Conference budget allocation by its commission on World Service and Finance, each of the two Conferences make provisions for the continuation of this Special in February, 1943, with a minimum goal of $8,000.00 per Conference, to be divided on the basis of $5,000.00 for the college and $3,000.00 for Ministerial Education.

For the promotion of this Special we recommend:

1. That each annual Conference provide for a conference directing commission composed of the chairman and executive secretary of its board of education, together with a representative district superintendent, a representative pastor, a representative layman, a representative young person, and a representative member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service to be elected by the Conference upon nomination of the Board of Education.
2. That each annual Conference commission elect a director.
3. That the two commissions constitute a joint commission to coordinate the cultivation program throughout the state.
4. That this February Special be given large emphasis in such setup meetings or planning conferences, as may be held in each district, following the annual conferences.
5. That on the second Sunday in February the causes represented in this Special be presented to each charge, pastors exchanging pulpits when practicable and using alumni and lay speakers where needed; that collections be taken on the third Sunday; that the proceeds of the collection be reported to the treasurer of the fund in each conference not later than Monday following the fourth Sunday.

6. We wish to express sincere appreciation of the support which Bishop Selecman has given to this cause, and recommend that he be requested to again give us a portion of his time in February, 1943.

7. That the following be the Directing Committee chosen as members from the North Arkansas Conference: R. S. Hayden, W. Henry Goodloe, Earle Cravens, Ira A. Brumley, Mrs. R. E. Connell, J. G. Moore, and Alvin Murray.

We also recommend that a special effort be extended to secure a fine student body for the coming year as this is vital to the continuation of the good work of the College.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Q. Schisler, Chairman
Harry King, Secretary

Report No. 2

We make recommendations for the following appointments as students: To be students in Southern Methodist University—T. Poe Williams, T. C. Huff, James Chandler, Harold D. Womack, Earl DuBois; To be student in Duke University, Byron C. Cravens; To be student in Westminster University, W. H. Harrison.

Earle Cravens, Chairman
Harry King, Secretary

EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS

Filed by the Conference Board of Christian Education in answer to Minute Question 39, "What are the Educational Statistics"?, and handed to the Secretary of the Annual Conference, in session at Batesville, Ark., November, 1942.

Name of Institution—Hendrix College. Number of teachers last session, 40; Enrollment last session, 373; Value of Property, $864,914; Endowment, $1,033,428; Total Debt, None.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

Since the report of the Conference Board of Temperance last year gave the plan of the Genreal Board of Temperance of the entire Church for definite activities in legislation and education, we reaffirm that Conference report, and add:

We rejoice that Initiated Act No. 1 seems to have carried in Arkansas. This has been done through a continuous process through six years, thus indicating what education and work will do. Now since we may initiate a local option bill by securing only 15 per cent of the legal voters we should go forward and clean up a large part of Arkansas by voting out legalized intoxicants. To do this we would urge that each pastor, with the aid of his people observe World Temperance Sunday. That each church appoint a temperance ecommittee, observe regularly, quarterly temperance lessons and distribute temperance literature as much as possible. In this way we may use printed matter as an educational force, for temperance is promoted by education and understanding. We suggest that this is no time to rest on our oars or to sit at ease, but we should go forward against the sale and use of liquor, one of the worst enemies to the welfare of humanity.

Since we are advancing against the sale and use of strong drink let us also oppose its accompanying evils, namely: gambling, immorality as it concerns social purity. Especially is this now urgent in many communities where soldier camps and defense plants are located in our state. We should use every means possible to make the communities about these camps and defense plants clean. That we may thus save our men. Let us make a strong effort to suppress salacious literature, degrading amusements, lotteries, night clubs and other public evils.

We commend the Anti-Saloon League, The Women's Christian Temperance Union with many of our leading men and women throughout the state who have continuously placed their influence for temperance. We also commend The Arkansas Methodist, The Arkansas Baptist, The Arkansas Gazette and other periodicals for standing on the moral side of this issue.

J. J. Galloway, Chairman
J. M. Harrison, Secretary

LAY ACTIVITIES

We recommend that Layman's Day be held Sunday, February 21, 1943, and that it be made a special feature in the preparation for the Week of Dedication.

We heartily commend "The Methodist Layman" and recommend that the charge lay leader be designated as the person primarily responsible for its circulation in the charge. Subscription rates are: Single subscriptions, 50c a year; Clubs of 5 or more mailed to one address, 25c per year.

We recommend that each church follow its men who go into the Armed Services with letters, intercessory prayer and personal contact.

We further recommend that our Lay Leaders and lay speakers help fill the pulpits of churches made vacant as the result of preachers entering the chaplaincy of the armed forces of the nation.

We commend to every charge the thoughtful and prayerful consideration of the financial support of the ministry.

We urge that each charge lay leader and District Steward fully discharge his responsibility of seeing that the world service and benevolent program is thoroughly presented to the congregation before the quarterly conference which sets the acceptance for world service and conference benevolences. We recommend that each charge give prayerful consideration to the request of the commission on world service for a material increase in the acceptances.

We urge the laymen of this Conference to dedicate themselves in an unusual degree in the worship, educational and missionary programs of the Church, to the end that we may develop a major effort and a broad sweeping movement to make The Methodist Church genuinely and effectively:

A Worshiping Church
A Fellowship Church
An Evangelistic Church
A Stewardship Church
A Missionary Church

We recommend the appointment of Dr. James W. Workman as associate secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities.

We nominate E. Wainright Martin as Conference lay leader for next year.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Methodist Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee
November 1, 1942

Bishop C. C. Selecman and Brethren of the North Arkansas Conference:

During the conference year just closed your hospital at Memphis has experienced the greatest year in its history. More patients have been admitted and more work done than in any previous year. In common with all other institutions and enterprises, this work has been accomplished under increasingly difficult conditions. A large number of our best physicians and surgeons have gone into the Army and Navy and our nurses are with the Armed Forces wherever they serve in all quarters of the globe. Supplies are increasingly difficult to obtain and equipment practically impossible, but we were fortunate in having obtained as much new equipment as we did before shortages set in. It is not surprising in view of the great improvement in employment conditions, that the number of patients who have been cared for free of charge has decreased for the first time in the history of the hospital and the amount of free service furnished these patients decreased by $9,700.00.

Present conditions have increased greatly the interest, for example, in Nursing Education and there appears to be at present no shortage of desirable candidates for our Nursing School. However, we still ask all members of your conference to call to the attention of suitable young women the advantages of Nursing Education at Methodist Hospital. There is a growing shortage of technically trained graduates in all fields and we have lost a number of key employees. With the shortage of doctors, it is going to be necessary to confine medical service to the essentials.

Steady progress is being made in the retirement of the debt on the hospital, but a long way remains to go as the balance of the mortgage indebtedness at the time of writing this report stands at $555,000.00 and will be reduced to $540,000.00 on November 27th.

It will be noted there was an increase of 747 in the total number of admissions and an increase of 375 in the number of births occurring in the hospital. During the last three months this latter work has grown to unprecedented proportions and during the month of October, more than 200 births occurred.

Again the importance of the Golden Cross Enrollment is respectfully urged to your attention. The cultivation of the Golden Cross in this area is still being directed from your hospital in Memphis because no adequate provision is made in the General offices for the promotion of this work.

Again your attention is respectfully called to our Charter requirements that your Conference elect six Trustees this year, two of them should be ministers, one a woman, and three laymen.

The usual statistics of the hospital for the last two years are:

	1942	1941	Increase	Decrease
Admissions	10,435	9,686	747
Births	1,637	1,262	375
Free Patients	2,162	3,010		848

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

We make the following recommendations:

A. Hospitals:

1. That J. Frank Fogleman (Marion), Mrs. Tom Tucker (Hughes), J. H. Crain (Wilson), H. K. Barwick (Wynne), Rev. J. A. Womack and Rev.

Paul V. Galloway be Trustees for the North Arkansas Conference.

2. That the apportionment of $3,178.98 be given.

3. That Golden Cross Week start with the First Sunday and end with the Second Sunday in May, and that each District and Church elect Golden Cross Directors.

4. That Rev. J. T. Randle be made Conference Golden Cross Director with Rev. Earle Cravens and Rev. Rex Wilkes Associate Directors.

5. That 90 per cent Golden Cross Funds be directed to the Methodist Hospitals in Memphis and that the remaining 10 per cent be used by the Conference Board of Hospital and Homes and Golden Cross Director for Golden Cross expenses and a continuation of our hospital and orphanage situation. After these expenses are met the balance in this fund may be used for some special cause at the hospital.

6. That the Helena and Jonesboro Districts be asked to set as a minimum for the Golden Cross drive $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the preachers salary and that other districts set their goals at 1 per cent.

B. Homes:

1. That Rev. J. L. Dedman, Rev. Sam B. Wiggins, and Rev. Paul V. Galloway be continued as Trustees of our Children's Home.

2. That the apportionment of $2,119.32 be given.

3. That the Christmas offering be taken in all places and that our church schools and classes be asked to help sponsor this; that our Boards of Education—both conference and local—be directors of this campaign.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

Realizing the unusual situations now in existence we are more and more impressed that the hour has arrived for a more aggressive type of evangelism, and perhaps for additional approaches to the unconverted. It is a sad fact that comparatively few unconverted people attend our revival meetings. Neither good singing nor good preaching bring large numbers of unconverted people to the house of God. It is evident that if we are to "preach the gospel to every creature" we shall have to approach him in his home, office, or store. Therefore the Home Visitation plan offers us perhaps the best approach for such a time as this.

We are therefore planning to try to give every preacher and every member of our church a chance to get training and experience in Visitation Evangelism.

Dr. Guy Black will have a school on Visitation Evangelism in Little Rock on March 8 to 13. It has been agreed in the Cabinet that each District Superintendent will send to the Guy Black School at least four preachers who, on their return shall hold Visitation Evangelism Schools supposedly in reach of every pastor. Then each pastor is requested to hold a school of Visitation Evangelism immediately following the adjournment of the sub-district schools, thus each pastor and every layman and laywoman in the church will have the chance to attend a school of Visitation Evangelism.

We suggest the following allocation of Evangelistic responsibility for the ensuing year:

1. The Annual Conference Commission on Evangelism shall be recognized as the legal corpus to conserve, coordinate, promote, and supervise the Evangelistic work in the Conference.
2. The Board of Christian Education shall conduct the Pre-Easter Revival Campaign. The Executive Secretary shall make full reports of the campaign to the Commission on Evangelism, as soon as possible after Easter.
3. To the Board of Missions and Church Extension, to the District Superintendent and his District Organization shall be committed the Missionary and Evangelistic work of the District.

We suggest the following Evangelistic Goals for the year:

1. Immense increase at public worship services.
2. The Upper Room in every home and daily family worship.
3. That we endeavor to reach at least five thousand on profession of faith, or each Church add 8 per cent on profession of faith.
4. That special Evangelistic services be held in each church, in addition to the Pre-Easter Campaign.
5. That Evangelism be made the dominant note in our preaching and services.

Respectfully submitted,

O. E. Goddard, Chairman
James T. Randle, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON WORLD PEACE

We recommend an editorial in the Christian Advocate on October 8, 1942, which is as follows:

"If success in war depends upon careful and extensive preparation, so also does success in peace depend upon the peacemakers. The peace treaty will not bring peace, it will only bring opportunity to make peace. And yet, to have peace we must conquer economic trends as well as panzer units; we must overcome all animosities as well as evil governments. Laying down our arms will be a vastly easier matter than laying down our hatreds and prejudices. All such calls for the same serious preparation for peace that is made for preparation for war. In such preparation we know nothing more valuable than the great book of Herbert Hoover and Hugh Gibson, published by Doubleday Doran and Co., New York, entitled, 'The Problems of Lasting Peace.' With full recognition of the economic aspects of the world struggle it is also deeply concerned with the spiritual aspects and meets them with frankness and honesty."

Let us pray for this spirit of peace in our own hearts, homes, schools, churches, business places and communities.

1. We commend the elective course in our church school magazine on peace.

2. We would encourage our people to read such reports as the Delaware Conference submitted as a basis for a just and durable peace, and others of like import.

3. Let us cooperate with our Commission on World Peace, in supporting the peace efforts of our church throughout the connection.

COMMITTEE ON THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

We, your Committee on the American Bible Society, beg leave to make the following report:

It has been said that the Bible Society is never without a war or a revolution somewhere in its work. But never before has it faced so many affected areas, that are in a condition of chaos.

At home and abroad the call for Scriptures has recently exceeded the ability of the Society to supply. In China, the Philippines, Africa, Europe, Latin America, the Near East, our own America—everywhere the Scriptures were known at all, the cry for them has arisen. The terrible peril of the hour is that, just when this sense of need is so acute and so universal, the very processes whereby men can get the Bible—inadequate even in normal times—are now breaking down. American Christians do not generally realize it, but all Asia, Africa, and Latin America are dependent on the Bible societies for the Bible, and within Europe and North America there are millions of people who will not have the Bible unless it is brought to them by the Bible Societies. This must be done by the Societies as a missionary duty, because millions of people have no facilities for getting books, millions more cannot pay the full costs, so low is their living scale. Still more are unaware that there is this answer to their hunger.

Conscious of humanity's deepened sense of need for secure spiritual foundations, believing that the Bible contains the one sufficient answer to the world's distress, and convinced that it must now be far more widely spread throughout the world by our American churches in view of the limitations of the war upon the Bible-loving people of other nations, the Committee of the American Bible Society urges the North Arkansas Conference to recommend to all its churches and people:

1. That they remind themselves anew of the precious and indispensable character of the Word of God;

2. That they seek afresh the guidance which it provides;
3. That they pray for its spread throughout the world and for open hearts in all men to receive it;
4. That they join heartily in the support of the American Bible Society and the observance of Universal Bible Sunday, December 13;
5. That in each church the people be informed of their participation in the support of the Society through World Service and through the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

The Board of Conference Claimants apportioned to the Claimants the funds available on the basis of eight dollars per service year to the superannuates, and an equal amount on adjusted service years to widows; with some additional amounts and adjustments paid to certain ones of the superannuates and widows from the emergency fund.

We recommend that the Conference appropriate for the next conference year for the claimants fund an amount equal to seven per cent of the amount paid for pastor's salaries.

We further recommend that the funds collected be divided as one-half of one per cent for repairs and upkeep of superannuate homes, and that five per cent of the balance be set up for superannuate and burial fund, and that the balance of the remaining part be apportioned to the claimants on the basis of 80 per cent for service years and 20 per cent for emergency.

A complete report of the amount paid each claimant is attached to and filed as a part of this report.

We also offer the following resolution to be acted upon by the Conference:

Having been advised by the Board of Trustees of the Permanent Fund of the St. Louis Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a Corporation, that it was their desire to transfer to the Missouri Conference, the St. Louis Conference, the Southwest Missouri Conference, the North Arkansas Conference and the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Church, such funds as might be in their possession, for the benefit of the conference claimants of these various conferences;

And since the Uniting Conference made provisions for a committee to make the adjustment of all matters concerning conference claimants, where changes of conference boundaries were involved; and since such a committee was set up and did divide the claimants, according to service years and the number of active men going to each conference, among the above named conferences:

Therefore, be it resolved by the North Arkansas Conference that we do hereby request the Distributing Committee to make this division of funds, as above mentioned, on the same percentage basis as was used in the division of conference claimants.

We further resolve that this Conference request the Distributing Committee to place such portion of these funds, as would be the rightful share of this Conference, with the Missouri Corporation of the Board of Pensions of the Methodist Church; these funds to be held in trust by the General Board, the income from the same to be turned to this Conference each year for the sustenance of the conference claimants of this Conference.

MEMOIRS

REV. JAMES F. JERNIGAN

Rev. James F. Jernigan, son of Rev. W. H. and Dicey Jernigan, was born in Henry County, Tenn., May 18, 1851, and died December 6, 1941, having passed his 90th birthday. When a mere lad, his parents moved with him to Arkansas and settled in Independence County, where he grew to manhood. At the age of 17 he was converted and joined the church at old Walnut Grove Church, near Sulphur Rock.

In his 24th year, he was licensed to preach, and the same year joined old White River Conference, which met that year at Searcy. He spent 49 years of active service, traveling hard circuits and missions, preaching and organizing and building churches, during the pioneer days of Methodism in Northeast Arkansas.

He also filled some of what are now considered the best stations in the North Arkansas Conference. Six years he was presiding elder, four on the Batesville District, and two on the Jonesboro District.

Brother Jernigan's style of preaching was that of the old time evangelistic zeal, and hundreds were converted under his ministry. An untiring song leader, and knowing most of the old hymns "by heart," his services were much sought in revivals.

On August 15, 1895, he was married to Miss Fannie Irene Rosa, of Mountain View, Arkansas. She died six years later, leaving a son and daughter, who still survive their parents. They are Paul D. Jernigan of Little Rock, and Mrs. Fannie McKennon of Scranton.

Funeral service was held at Sulphur Rock, December 8. At Brother Jernigan's request before he died, Rev. H. Lynn Wade conducted the funeral, assisted by Rev. E. H. Hook and the writer. A host of relatives and friends mourn his death. Burial was at Moorefield, Ark.

REV. FRANCIS EARLY DODSON

Francis Early Dodson was born in Randolph County, near Pocahontas, Arkansas, February 24, 1876, and died December 31, 1941, at Searcy, Arkansas.

He was admitted to the Little Rock Conference in 1898 and served the following charges: Maumelle Circuit, Oak Hill Circuit, Henderson Church, Little Rock, Oaklawn Church, Hot Springs, Camden Circuit, Mabelvale Circuit and Junction City. He transferred to the North Arkansas Conference in 1910, and served charges at Booneville, Rogers, Greenwood, Cabot, Cotton Plant, Augusta, Harrison, Marianna and Walnut Ridge. He served as Presiding Elder of the Booneville and Searcy Districts.

Brother Dodson was married to Miss Mary Selestia Bland of Pulaski County on January 12, 1899.

Brother Dodson had a rich ministry. The people served by him as pastor loved him with a singular devotion. He did not make his ministry a profession but went at it as a preacher of the word of God and one saved and his passion was to lead other to Christ. He possessed a personality that drew people to him though he was quiet, tender, and loved the brethren. He inspired a following.

Brother Dodson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Francis Early Dodson, five sons: Hendrix Dodson, of Cabot; Morris Dodson, of Nashville, Tenn; Frank Dodson, of Conway; Eugene Dodson, of Searcy; Edwin Dodson, of Hendrix College, Conway, and a daughter, Mrs. Clyde Paulk, of Conway, and a brother, the Rev. K. W. Dodson of Ruston, Louisiana.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, January 1, 1942, in the Methodist Church in Searcy, conducted by the Rev. R. E. Connell, of Searcy;

Dr. James Thomas, of Little Rock; the Rev. H. Lynn Wade, of Paragould; the Rev. Cecil R. Culver, of Conway; the Rev. S. O. Patty, of Augusta, and the Rev. J. F. Glover, of Cabot. Burial was in the Oak Grove Cemetery.

A good man and a true minister of the gospel has entered into his eternal home where he awaits the coming of all those who love and serve.

James Thomas, J. W. Moore

REV. W. C. DAVIDSON

Fifty years as a Methodist preacher in Arkansas and seventy-four years of life ended for William Chapman Davidson before the dawn of January 11, 1942, in Arkadelphia, where it had begun, and where his years of retirement had been spent. He was born of pioneer Methodist parents who had come from Tennessee before the Civil War. His father, William Franklin Davidson, had been a gunner in the artillery of the Confederate Army, and had married Mary Emmaline Williams after the war and raised his family on a farm in Bethlehem community east of Arkadelphia. He worked his way into and through two years at Altus Institute, later Hendrix College, after which in 1889 he went to Wheatley to teach school. Here he met and married Joanna Hall, the companion of his entire ministry and the mother of their four children.

In December, 1892, at Batesville, where his father had joined the army, he joined the White River Conference and began his career as an itinerant Methodist preacher. He served one year at LaGrange and Spring Creek; four years at Beebe; one year as presiding elder of the Jonesboro District; three years at Forrest City; four years as presiding elder of the Helena District, living at Forrest City; four years at First Church, Jonesboro; transferred to the Little Rock Conference in 1909, he served three years at First Church, Pine Bluff; two years at Crossett; four years as presiding elder of the Monticello District; four years at Asbury Memorial Church, Little Rock; four years at First Church, Hope; transferred to the North Arkansas Conference in 1926, he served First Church, Batesville, three years; First Church, Paragould, four years; First Church, Searcy, two years, after which he voluntarily ended his active ministry and retired, in 1935.

The next few years were divided between his farm on the Ouachita river, near Arkadelphia, regular duties as a teacher of the Arkadelphia Men's Bible Class of his church, and occasional visits to his children. He was very lonely. Late in August, 1941, he married Mrs. Alma Fiemster.

On December 23, 1941, he became ill and died January 11, 1942. Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church, Arkadelphia, on the following afternoon, by the pastor and presiding elder. Later in the afternoon he was laid to rest in Rose Hill Cemetery. He was survived by four children: William Paul Davidson and Mrs. Warren H. Hull, of San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. John P. Vesey, of Hope, Arkansas; and Chapman Hall Davidson, of Hugo, Oklahoma. Six grandchildren and one great-grand child survived him also, as did his wife of four months.

W. C. Davidson was, first of all, a dutiful pastor to his congregation, and was invariably the highest contributor to its support. He was at all times a leading figure in the long fight against the liquor traffic in his state, and against other forms of evil and vice. He was deeply concerned for Christian education, and was a trustee of Hendrix College and of Henderson-Brown College.

My father loved a good joke, and a comedy that would make him laugh. In his later years he enjoyed the circus. He liked fried chicken and watermelon, and a walk through the woods. He was deeply attached to the community where he was born and spent his youth, and was ever thoughtful of his many relatives who lived there. He was orderly in his habits. He was serious in mind and never read fiction. It did not occur to him to escape from life vicariously, even for a moment. Like a true Christian, he did not fear death and passed away in quiet and peace.

William Paul Davidson

JAMES WALTER JOHNSTON

The Reverend James Walter Johnston was born at Ponder, Missouri, July 23, 1886, and died in a Batesville hospital, Sunday, March 1, 1942. He had undergone a minor operation and was believed on the road to recovery until Sunday morning when he suffered a heart attack from which he never rallied.

Brother Johnston was converted and joined the Methodist Church early in life. In 1908 at Morehouse, Missouri, he was licensed to preach as a local minister, and from that time until the North Arkansas Conference met at Batesville in 1914 he taught school, and attended Marvin College at Fredericktown, Missouri. In 1914 he was admitted on trial to the North Arkansas Conference and ordained deacon in 1915, and elder in 1918. During his twenty-eight years in the ministry he spent twenty-seven of them in the Batesville District as follows: Evening Shade, eight years; Mountain View, five years; Bexar, four years; Melbourne, three years; Bethesda and Cushman, two years; Sulphur Rock, one year; Swifton and Alicia, one year. He was one year at Hackett, in the Fort Smith District, and was in his third year at Calico Rock and Norfork Charge at his death.

Brother Johnston was universally popular and enjoyed the utmost esteem and confidence of all who knew him. He never was found lagging in his life's work, and was ever ready to minister to those in every walk of life. He loved the church, its services and fellowship. He loved its hymns and its worship. He loved to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ which was the power of God unto salvation.

Brother Johnston is survived by his widow, Mrs. J. W. Johnston of Batesville; four daughters, Mrs. Fred Dobbs of Mount Pleasant, Mrs. Lyndell Norton and Miss Ruth Johnston both of Mountain Home, and Miss Lillian Johnston of Batesville; three sons, Carl Johnston of Batesville, Paul Johnston of Mountain View, and William Johnston of Detroit, Michigan; his father, J. P. Johnston of Doniphan, Missouri, and several half-brothers and sisters.

The funeral services were held Tuesday morning, March 3, in the First Methodist Church in Batesville, with the Rev. Grover C. Johnson, the district superintendent, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Horace M. Lewis, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Jefferson Sherman, pastor of the Methodist Church at Newport. Interment was in Oaklawn Cemetery, Batesville.

"Servant of God, well done." "The battle's fought, the victory's won." "Thy soul is found in peace."

MRS. MARY BELL WALLIS

Mrs. Mary Bell (Starks) Wallis, was born December 18, 1859, in Hickman, Kentucky, and died at her home in Searcy, March 12, 1941, at the ripe old age of 83. She came to Arkansas early in life, and on December 28, 1876, was happily married to the late Rev. Prentiss B. Wallis, who passed to his reward in 1909. To this union were born eleven children, nine of whom survive.

She labored for more than twenty-two years with her husband in the ministry. She was a faithful and consecrated worker in the cause of Christ, and was quite an unassuming, faithful and sincere in her life. Her faith was strong in the Lord, and her hopes bright for the home beyond the skies. She died, as she lived, trusting in the Lord, leaving a rich heritage to her children.

She left surviving her, eleven children and they are: Mrs. L. A. Wallis, Los Angeles; S. D. Wallis, Pasadena, Calif; Mrs. J. H. Ellege, Searcy; Mrs. E. J. Baker, San Antonio, Tex.; Marvin Wallis, Searcy; Mrs. E. G. Apellman, and E. H. Wallis, San Antonio, Tex; Clifton Wallis, Albuquerque, New Mexico; P. B. Wallis, Broken Bow, Okla., and one sister, Mrs. Ellen Callahan, Wolf Bayou.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning in the chapel of the J. Rudolph Chandler Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. R. E. Connell, her pastor, assisted by the Rev. G. W. Pyles, district superintendent. Burial was in the Gum Springs Cemetery, out from Searcy.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints."

MRS. BIRDIE BLACKWELL

Sister Birdie Blackwell, daughter of Thomas M. and Angus Blackwell, was born in Houston, Mississippi, December 2, 1862. Her father was an outstanding physician and surgeon during the Civil War, and was a great Christian character throughout his life. Sister Blackwell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frances C. Penninger, 1225 Poplar Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, December 16, 1941, after an illness of more than fifteen years, and for the last six years had been bedridden.

Sister Blackwell was left an orphan at an early age, and then went to live with her brother, the Rev. R. Y. Blackwell, who was a member of the Memphis Conference. She was married to the late Rev. Samuel H. Blackwell, December 26, 1888, at Ripley, Tennessee, by Dr. Warner Moore, A. M., D. D., Ph. D., and pastor of the First Methodist Church of Ripley.

Being brought up in a Methodist Minister's home, Sister Blackwell united with the Methodist Church at an early age and was an active and faithful worker until she failed in health. She was a devoted Christian during her long and useful life. For a number of years she was not able to attend church but she kept the faith. To say she was a good woman would not do her justice for a better woman never lived, purely unselfish, self-sacrificing, and loyal to her family, kindred, and friends, and was always looking for an opportunity to help those in distress. She had trials, and sorrows, but always kept faith, and "pressed toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

The example she left will be an inspiration for her loved ones to emulate and live in such a way that they too, may join her again when life's journey may end, and may her beautiful example lead her loved ones to that blessed home, which she now enjoys.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by her brother, H. E. Blackwell, who is 87 years of age, and living at Whitehaven, Tennessee.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Lud H. Estes, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, in the National Funeral Home, Memphis, Tenn., with burial in the Memphis Memorial Park Cemetery by the side of her husband who died March 1, 1937.

"For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

—J. W. Moore

MRS. JOHN P. WHEELER

Mrs. John P. Wheeler, whose name was Frances M. Hudgins, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Hudgins of Grape Vine, Texas, was born August 29, 1862. She was converted early in life and joined the Methodist Church, and remained a faithful member until her death, which took place February 26, 1942. She was a member of the Women's Bible Class and one of the outstanding Bible students in that class.

She was married to the late Rev. John P. Wheeler, who died at the home of their daughter April 18, 1932, at Memphis, Texas. To this union ten children were born. To her husband and children she was devoted and gladly made any kind of sacrifice for their comfort and welfare. On February 26, 1942, she died at the home of her daughter in Memphis, Texas. Her passing brought a painful sense of personal loss the children, sisters, and many others, but the memory of her clean, brave and true life will abide as a joy and a blessing through the years.

Sister Wheeler is survived by four sons: The Rev. H. L. Wheeler of Grenville, New Mexico; Frank Wheeler of Memphis, Texas; Carl Wheeler of Caraway, Arkansas, and Earl Wheeler of Sedalia, Missouri; and six daughters: Mrs. Roy Webster of Memphis, Texas; Mrs. O. K. Stevens of Roswell, New Mexico; Mrs. H. T. Journes of Houston, Texas; Mrs. J. L. Brackeen of Dalhart, Texas; Mrs. Jim Webster of Memphis, Texas; and Mrs. T. L. Bryant of Oxnard, California; thirty-one grandchildren, thirty-three great grandchildren and five sisters.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. L. Yeats, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Memphis, Texas. Burial was in the Memphis Cemetery by the side of her husband.

She has served her mission in life; she served her time well. Her influence for good only eternity will tell.

—J. W. Moore

ALICE ELEANOR DIXON NOE

Alice Eleanor Dixon was born November 14, 1854, in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee. Her parents were Lemuel Montague Dixon and Eliza Catherine Harrell Dixon. Her father was an "old time" Methodist class leader. Her mother was a quiet, unassuming Christian. Her home was one where peace and love dwelled.

In keeping with this background, Alice Eleanor was baptized when a baby, and joined the church when a mere girl.

During the war between the States, she moved with her parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hester, to their plantation at Cuba, Tennessee, near Memphis. While her family owned many slaves, she came to inherit her father's belief that, "it was not right for one man to own another," and never forgot that we have a duty to the American Negro.

As a young lady of twenty-two years, she moved in December, 1876, with her parents and grandparents to Maxwell, Sharp County, Arkansas, traveling to Batesville by boat. Her oldest brother died, and the boat was stopped long enough for his burial at Augusta, Arkansas.

Arriving among the quiet hills of this Sharp County village, Miss Alice, as she was long and affectionately remembered, nursed her invalid grandmother, and taught school. Her students later became teachers, doctors, farmers, and a Congressman—citizens all.

It was here that on October 18, 1883, she married Reverend Franklin Randolph Noe of the White River Conference. Her husband preceded her in death on October 19, 1906, while serving the Auvergne and Weldon charge.

Among Mother's papers is the following notation: "I was a charter member of the first Missionary Society organized in the White River Conference, I think, in 1884, and was elected its corresponding secretary. I, also, helped to organize and was a charter member of the first Missionary Society at Salem, Arkansas."

The family moved to Conway in 1905, to place the children in public school and Hendrix College.

In 1913, Mother moved with her two sons, Paul and Palmore, to Seminole, Oklahoma, where they lived until the first World War in 1917. Then she lived, alternately, with her son, Paul, and her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Barton.

During the past ten years she made her home with her son in Seminole, Oklahoma

She greatly rejoiced when our churches united, and was happy to be a charter member, with her daughters and granddaughter, of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, of The Methodist Church of Seminole, Okla.

She had been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. (Neill) Barton, and her family in Portland, Oregon, for several months, and was planning her trip home, when on January 22, she fell and sustained serious injury.

After her long hard fight, she was tired, and on March 18, 1942, Mother just closed her eyes, and went to be with loved ones waiting to welcome her to her Heavenly Home. Truly, God has taken the completed Temple for His Own.

Surviving her are four sons, Thomas David, Weleetka, Oklahoma; Rev. Fizer M., formerly of the Arkansas Conference, now, at Houston, Texas; Paul O., Seminole, Oklahoma; C. Palmore, Denison, Texas; three daughters, Mrs. Cora Maud Chase, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Minnie L. Owens, Seminole, Oklahoma; and Mrs. J. R. Barton, Portland, Oregon, and one brother, L. F. Dixon, Gruver, Texas; and one sister, Mrs. Fannie L. Oliver of Plain View, Texas.

We brought her back to Seminole, Oklahoma, where services were conducted on March 23, 1942, by her former pastors, Rev. Forney Hutchison, Rev. B. L. Williams, and Rev. J. C. Curry, and we laid her to rest in Maple Grove Cemetery of Seminole.

Brother Hutchison said in part, "Speaking of Sister Noe, I have made no prepared sermon, and only speak of her as I have known her as her friend and pastor over a period of 35 years. She was a loyal and devoted mother, a well read and informed, refined citizen, and one of the most earnest and sincere members of her church, and a devout Christian."

"Folded they lie upon her tranquil breast,
My mother's tired hands, their labor done.
Knotted and scarred in battles they have won,
Worn to the quick by love's unkind behest.
Pulseless they lie, while from the crimson west
A flood of glory from the setting sun
Shines on her face; I hear the deep "Well done"
God's angelus that calls her soul to rest.
Found is the Holy Grail of knightly quest,
Here in her home, where such brave deeds were done
As knight ne'r saw since chivalry begun.
She suffered, toiled, and died; God knows the rest
And if Christ's crown shines not above her cross
Then all is loss, immeasurable loss."

Paul O. Noe, her son, Seminole, Okla.

MRS. F. S. H. JOHNSTON

Mrs. Katherine Benbrook Johnston, daughter of the late J. Q. Benbrook, and his wife, Mrs. Mary Campbell Benbrook, was born in Fayetteville, Arkansas, July 20, 1862.

She was married to Rev. F. S. H. Johnston, who was just finishing his quadrennium as Presiding Elder of the Fayetteville District, on December 8, 1892, Rev. Stonewall Anderson, pastor of the Methodist Church at Fayetteville, officiating.

To this union five children were born: Howard C. now of Little Rock, Arkansas; Rev. Warren, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Fort Worth, Texas; Allen, deceased; Miss Catherine, deceased; and Edwin Johnston of Waco, Texas.

She also leaves one sister, Mrs. V. G. Craig of Conway, Arkansas, one brother, Clyde Benbrook, now living in Idaho, and two grandchildren, Charles and Jolyon Johnston, of Little Rock, Arkansas.

During her life, both as a young woman and her married life, she was an active worker in the church. She served in the capacity of an itinerant preacher's wife for 34 years, at Morrilton, Fort Smith, Conway and Bentonville, where Brother Johnston was pastor, Presiding Elder, Financial Agent for Hendrix College or Conference Missionary Secretary, and then after his death in 1927, as a member of the local church at Conway where she and her sister, Mrs. Craig, made their home together until her death.

She was a devout Christian from her girlhood days, a devoted pastor's wife, and a faithful Christian mother as evidenced by the fact that two of her sons are Christian business men and the other pastor of one of our great churches.

On the morning of April 20, 1942, in a hospital in Little Rock, Arkansas, she slipped away from us to join the husband and children of the other side.

Wednesday, April 22, 1942, the funeral was held in the Methodist church at Conway, conducted by Revs. C. M. Reves, Cecil R. Culver, and E. T. Wayland, at the grave Dr. James A. Anderson, a life long friend, led in prayer, and the body was placed beside her husband in Oak Grove Cemetery to await the resurrection morning.

MRS. ANNA MARTIN LEWIS

Mrs. Anna Martin Lewis was born October 3, 1901, at Coal Hill, Ark. She grew up in the parsonage home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Martin. That atmosphere equipped her to do the very excellent work for which she was noted in later life. She attended school wherever her father was located, then went to Galloway College, finishing the work for A. B. Degree in 1921, and for her degree in speech in 1922.

On June 17, 1923, she was married to Rev. H. M. Lewis, with whom she shared the joys and sorrows of another parsonage home for 19 years. To this union was born one child, a daughter, who proudly bears her mother's name of Anna Martin Lewis. In addition to her husband and daughter, her father and mother, three sisters, and two brothers also survive.

Mrs. Lewis was a faithful, conscientious, loyal, and exceedingly helpful pastor's wife. Her interests included the whole range of church activities but she was especially gifted in the field of dramatics and therefore enjoyed the universal respect and love of young people. Her brilliant mind and constructive spirit made her a welcome addition to any civic or church group. She loved her home and family. Her wise counsel and sympathetic understanding of the affairs of the church enabled her to wield a powerful influence for good wherever she happened to be located.

Since we cannot fathom the mystery, we must wait the working out of our Father's will, in happy reunion, before we can understand her sudden going on May 4, 1942.

—H. M. Lewis, her husband

MRS. E. H. HOOK

For twenty-eight years Mrs. Izora Eugenia (Cox) Hook shared the joys and sorrows in the life of a Methodist preacher. Beginning with her devoted husband on the Cave City Circuit in 1914, and serving with him also at Mt. View; Central Avenue, Batesville; Dodson Ave., Fort Smith; Booneville; Dodson Ave. again; Clarksville; Springdale; Searcy District; First Church North Little Rock; and First Church, Paragould.

She was the daughter of Rufus B. and Harriet E. Cox. She was born at Floral in Independence County, Arkansas, March 7, 1887. She was converted at a tender age and joined the Methodist Church as a child at Cedar Grove. She and Brother Hook were married February 26, 1909. Blessed by a rich life of service and loving devotion, her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Ben Watkins and Mrs. Everett Stewart, remain to mourn an irreplaceable loss and to bless a fadeless, sweet memory. Also, a brother, Dr. S. L. Cox of Water Valley, Miss., and scores of relations and friends survive never to forget her sweet ministries.

It was said that she was an ideal minister's wife. Never seeking honors or praise, content always to serve others, she never failed to endear herself to every congregation where she with her husband served. With a cheerful smile and a sympathetic interest in all classes of people, she found entrance into the lives of the needy and was ready to render Christian service.

As a mother, she measured up to the highest standard. How she loved and admired her fine daughters! They were her joy and pride—her rarest jewels—her crown—and they shall ever rise up "to call her blessed."

For some years her health had not been good, but her sudden serious illness and death on the night of September 18 was a terrific shock to her loved ones and the hundreds of friends over the Conference. The funeral was held in First Church, Paragould, at ten o'clock Saturday, September 19, by the writer, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. Aubrey Walton. Burial was at Clarksville the same day, where Rev. Guy Ames and Rev. C. N. Guice were in charge.

A beautiful and victorious life has vanished from mortal view, but in a triumphant faith that there is "A Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." And we believe that beautiful home is where Jesus is, for He has said: "Where I am there ye shall be also." Yet, we are saying:

"I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away.
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since she lingers there."

JAMES CALVIN WEAVER

James Calvin Weaver, was born near Scottsboro, Jackson County, Alabama, April 9, 1851, and died in Waldron, Arkansas, April 16, 1941. He was ninety years old. He came to Arkansas with his father and other members of the family. The steamboat landed at Ozark, on February 5, 1869, when the family and goods were unloaded and taken to a farm about five miles north of Ozark. James Calvin was the oldest of the children, he being eighteen at this time. He was married three times; first to Susan Gartrell. Three children, Elizabeth, Samuel, and Atosa, were born to them. Second, to Mrs. Mollie Essington. Twins came but lived only a few months. Third, marriage was to Miss Maud Fair. One child, Virginia, was born to them.

In a Quarterly Conference, held on the Hacket Circuit, Rev. T. M. C. Birmingham, Presiding Elder, he was licensed to preach. In November following, he was Admitted on Trial in the old Arkansas Annual Conference, in session in Fayetteville, Bishop Charles B. Galloway, presiding. His first appointment was Waldron Circuit, including the town of Waldron.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia, and Samuel, and several grandchildren, nephews, and nieces, and three brothers: the Rev. D. N. Weaver, of Fort Smith, a retired Methodist preacher; Dr. E. R. Weaver, of Bristow, Oklahoma; and John R. Weaver, of Vesta, Arkansas.

The fact has been emphasized that God needs a man, first, out of which to make a preacher. He had this in James Calvin Weaver. He had a fine mind. He was logical and convincing in his preaching. He was one of the best theologians in the Conference. He had a clear conception of the fundamentals of our religion, and preached them with power. He loved God, the church, the preachers, and the lost. Preaching to him was a luxury. He had convictions deep as his soul and the courage of a lion. He loved children, and they loved him. He served many charges after his admission into the Conference in 1887, retiring in 1917.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Waldron, by Dr. F. M. Tolleson, who promised years before to do this, and the Rev. W. V. Womack, District Superintendent, Dr. W. P. Whaley, and other pastors of Waldron. His body was laid to rest in the Waldron Cemetery.

"Servant of God, well done." "The Battle's fought, the victory's won." "Thy soul is found in peace."

—F. M. Tolleson.

MEMOIRS

REV. GEORGE WENDELL PYLES

Our Conference suffered an inexpressable loss at the passing of our friend and brother, George Pyles, who died at the District Parsonage in Searcy on Monday, October 5th, 1941, after an illness of a month.

George Wendell Pyles was born July 12, 1886, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Pyles of Troy, Tennessee. He was educated in the schools of Obion County Tennessee, and attended Obion College. His family later moved to Gravette, Arkansas, and he entered the grocery business in Blytheville. Here he was married to Ida Mae Cross. It was in Blytheville in 1916 that he heeded the call to the Christian ministry and was licensed to preach. He was admitted on trial into the North Arkansas Conference at the session of 1916 meeting at Searcy.

For twenty-five years in the Methodist ministry he was a brave soldier, his was a courageous soul. During his ministry he forged his way through Hendrix College where his scholastic record has been seldom equalled and rarely excelled. He received the Bachelor of Divinity degree from Emory University. His pastorates included Lake City, Crawfordsville, Plummerville, Parkin, Clarendon, Dodson Ave., Ft. Smith, Paragould, and Clarksville. At his death he was closing his third successful year as District Superintendent of the Searcy District. He was looking forward to serving as host District Superintendent for this session of the Annual Conference.

In his early ministry he showed his true spirit when the floods came to Clarendon. Property was destroyed, people were homeless, disease was widespread, but George Pyles poured out his life for his friends—and greater love hath no man than this. During his ministry at Dodson Avenue, that magnificent church building was planned and erected as the depression came and brought heart-breaking financial burdens and worries. Next, while at Paragould, a debt of $60,000 was retired. For the final three years of his ministry he served in the Cabinet with an unbroken record of leadership and usefulness.

He served his church in many ways. For a number of years he was chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Hospital in Memphis. He served as a reserve delegate to the 1940 General Conference in Atlantic City, and was a member of the Jurisdictional Conference of 1940 in Oklahoma City.

As I have thought of George Pyles and have tried to find a few words which would sum up briefly my estimate of his life and friendship, these expressions have been constantly in my mind: a compassionate heart, a courageous soul, a faithful devotion. I have never known a man more genuinely interested in helping the underpaid brethren of the ministry, and his interest was not mere talk. He delighted in their fellowship. He was the charming guest of their humble homes. He was the champion of their rights.

He was always thinking of others, and through the years, his devotion to his wife, his thoughtfulness, his graciousness have been one of the rare attainments of domestic felicity—so rare as to become almost ideal.

There was about the life of this man the power of a great devotion. He was motivated by an unswerving and faithful devotion to Christ and His Church. A faithful devotion—faithful through temptations; faithful through successes; faithful to the very end.

His favorite hymn, sung so beautifully at the funeral by Mrs. Ray Meriweather of Paragould, was:

"One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er
Nearer my home today am I
Than e'er I've been before.

Nearer My Father's house
Where many mansions be;
Nearer today the Great White Throne
Nearer the crystal sea.

Nearer the bound of life
Where burdens are laid down
Nearer to leave the heavy cross
Nearer to gain the Crown.

Father perfect my trust
Strengthen my power of faith
Nor let me stand at last alone
Upon the shore of death."

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist Church, Searcy, in the presence of more than one hundred fellow ministers, by Rev. Warren Johnston, Rev. Connor Morehead and Rev. R. E. Connell. Burial was in Blytheville.

REV. BEDFORD LEE HARRIS

Rev. Bedford Lee Harris was born in Madison County, Tennessee, March 10, 1864, and died at his home in Conway, Arkansas, February 23, 1941. His father, Jesse W. Harris was a confederate soldier, and named him for Bedford Forrest and Robert E. Lee.

At the age of nine years he was converted and joined the Methodist Church in which church he lived and labored for sixty years.

His first marriage was to Miss Sallie Ball, and to this union three children, J. W. Harris, Mrs. Lola Cheatham, and Mrs. Willie Braley survive. He, Rogers, Paris, North Little Rock, Forrest City, and Osceola, from which place he retired from the active ministry. He had been successful in his calling, and had a multitude of friends.

On November 26, 1885, Brother Myers was married to Miss Jessie K. Kimmel, who for fifty-six years shared his fortunes as he worked, and watched, and waited for the coming of the Kingdom of God.

In 1933, Brother Byers retired from the active ministry, and he and Sister Myers went to Monticello, Indiana, where they built their present attractive and comfortable lake home, at Tioga Park, on Lake Freeman, where they have lived since they retired. He was active in the Monticello church ever since his retirement from active preaching, and enjoyed the peace and quiet of his lake home.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, September 30, for Brother Myers, 82, Methodist minister for almost half a century, in the Powell Memorial Chapel, at Oak Hill Cemetery in Lebanon. The Rev. Jasper H. Cox officiated, assisted by the Rev. O. P. Manker, Lebanon. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jessie K. Myers, of Monticello; one daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Perkins of Lebanon; one grandson, Walter E. Perkins, Jr., Lebanon; one sister, Mrs. Emma Beagle, and a brother, Seth Myers, both of Hancock county, Ohio, as well as many nieces and nephews.

His long life was a masterpiece of grace.

—J. W. Moore

MRS. MARY ALICE KEY EDWARDS

Mrs. Mary Alice Edwards, was born at St. Joe, Searcy, County, Arkansas, September 22, 1868, and died early Friday morning, February 14, 1941, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Doss Denny, of Wichita, Kansas.

Mrs. Edwards was converted and joined the Methodist Church at an early age. She loved her Lord, and served Him well in the Church.

She was married to the Rev. Charles Edwards, February 10, 1898. To this union two children were born, twin girls, Velma, and Vivian. She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Velma Denny, of Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. Vivian Steel, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, five grand-children, and one sister, Mrs. Minnie Trotter, of Rogers, Arkansas.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in Elm Springs, Arkansas, by the Rev. J. D. Roberts, and burial was in the Elm Springs Cemetery.

"The grave itself is but a covered bridge, Leading from light to light through a brief darkness."

—J. W. Moore

REV. WILLIAM E. BENBROOK.

In the death of the Rev. William E. Benbrook of Centerton, Arkansas, Methodism lost one of its truest men. He was born in Izard county, on March 19, 1898, the son of H. B. and Priscilla Benbrook, and on August 30, 1925, he was married to Miss Ethel Speaks. After being licensed to preach in 1924, he served the Ravenden Springs Circuit two years before being admitted into the Conference in 1926, and then served the charge the following year. In succeeding pastorates, he served Hartman-Altus, Sulphur Rock-Moorefield, Judsonia, Bradford, Knobel and Peach Orchard, Paragould Circuit, and at the time of his death was serving his second year on the Centerton Circuit.

He had served in the Conference 17 years, and during this time, had received over 500 into the church, two-thirds of them on profession of faith. He was a hard-working preacher, and one of the best circuit men in the Conference. He was always brotherly and ethical. The atmosphere of his home indicated constant fellowship with God. In his charge he was universally loved and respected. Out of their love for him, the Charge has done the magnanimous thing in making provision for his loved ones. His relationships to his district superintendents were always harmonious and co-operative.

He was rushed to the hospital in Fayetteville, on Thursday, January 9, and died the next evening at 6:20 o'clock. Funeral services were held at Centerton by the Rev. Sam B. Wiggins, the Rev. Clarence Wienand, and the Rev. W. F. Cooley, and interment was made at Centerton Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, his father and mother, one sister and two brothers.

—Sam B. Wiggins..

REV. JOHN THOMAS HOOD.

Rev. John Thomas Hood, son of William Sterling and Mary Angeline Hood, was born September 17, 1863, in Weakley County, Tennessee. He was called to his heavenly home September 3, 1941, from his home in Blytheville where he had lived since his superannuation in 1931.

As an expression of their devotion to Bro. Hood, a large congregation gathered the next day at the Lake Street Church for the funeral services. Those taking part in the services were: E. B. Williams of First Church, Blytheville; F. M. Sweet, former pastor of Lake Street; Dr. E. W. Potter, District Superintendent; and E. K. Sewell, Pastor. Fourteen other pastors of the district were present.

The body was carried to Forrest City for interment beside the grave of his wife, who died several years ago. Rev. Paul Galloway of Forrest City and Rev. F. E. Dodson of Marianna met the family and friends at the cemetery and took part in the service at the grave.

Brother Hood was licensed to preach in 1899 and the same year was After the death of this wife, he was married to Miss Mamie Blackman, who lived only about one year. Then in 1900 he was married to Miss Sallie Lee Crichlow of Bells, Tennessee, who together with their two children, Mrs. W. E. Sharp, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Ed L. McShane of Conway, Arkansas, survives him.

In 1886 he was licensed to preach. Admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference in 1888, ordained Deacon 1890 and Elder in 1892.

After serving charges in the Memphis Conference for seventeen years, he transferred to the old White River Conference in 1905 and was appointed to the Crawfordsville-Marion Circuit, which covered almost the whole of Crittenden County, and which he traveled by foot, on train and with horse and buggy.

While here he organized and built the Church at Earle, and at the close of three years, three separate charges: Crawfordsville, Earle, and Marion were made. He was then sent to Wynne where he built the present church building, and then went to Newport where he completed and dedicated the church.

He then served the following charges in succession: McCrory, Cotton Plant, Eureka Springs, Gentry, Leachville, Jonesboro, Fisher Street, Lamar and Plummerville. In some of these places he stayed for four years. At Eureka Springs, five.

At the Conference held at Batesville, in 1936, he asked for and was granted the Superannuate relation, having given forty-eight years to the itinerate ministry never having missed a roll call.

Brother Harris was good, safe and sound gospel preacher, very able in prayer, loved children and was loved by them, had a deep understanding of young people and was revered by them, sympathetic with the problems of the middle aged class and tender with the old people.

He loved his church, gave liberally of his means to promote its interests.

He was a great lover of flowers, they seemed to bloom in profusion in his garden. He would frequently sit with the flowers and robins about him and make his sermons.

He lived well, grew sweeter as age and infirmity came on and at last went home to the Father's house at 5 p. m., Sunday, February 23, 1941, and on Tuesday the 25th the funeral was held in the Methodist Church in Conway, by Rev. R. S. Hayden, Rev. E. T. Wayland, Rev. Guy Murphy and the writer, and his body was laid to rest in the Conway Cemetery.

—William Sherman

REV. ALBERT T. GALLOWAY

Rev. Albert T. Galloway was born July 15, 1857, at Odessa, Missouri. The Galloway family was a staunch Methodist family and from childhood he was closely associated with the Methodist Church.

In 1879 he joined the Louisiana Conference. He served in Louisiana, Oklahoma, West Texas, Florida, Little Rock, and North Arkansas Conference. In this Conference he served Wynne, Newport, Searcy District, Batesville District, Augusta, Brinkley, Pocahontas, McCrory, Heber Springs, Kensett, and Marshall. He spent more than fifty years in the active ministry of the Methodist Church.

He then spent ten years as an honored Superannuate of this Conference, living first at Searcy then at Augusta, where he lived until the summons came. Brother Galloway was loved as a pastor and presiding elder and as a superannuate he was a benediction to the community. He was loved and revered by people of all churches and those of no church.

He was married to Miss Catherine Laney, November 20, 1883, and to this union was born Ed L. now of Searcy, Lee, later Mrs. Harry Woods, Albert C. and Harold.

Brother Galloway was a preacher of unusual ability and one of the choice spirits among us. He developed the Christian graces and so lived as to make them attractive to all who knew him. He was radiant with hope and cheerfulness and was blest with a fine sense of humor. He had an understanding of all the frailties of human nature. Tolerance and forgiveness were characteristic of him. He had a Christian philosophy of life that sustained him in every situation. His was a fruitful ministry.

As a Superannuate he was keenly interested in all the work of the Church and always appreciative of the work of his younger brethren.

On April 23, 1941, he slipped away. The funeral was held in the Methodist Church at Augusta by his pastor, Rev. A. N. Storey, assisted by Rev. George W. Pyles, Rev. William Sherman, Rev. F. E. Dodson, and Rev. J. F. Glover. A number of his ministerial brethren were present. We laid him to rest in the Augusta cemetery.

A noble Christian gentleman, a servant of God, who had served long and well had entered into his reward.

—His Pastor, A. N. Storey

REV. ELI MYERS

Rev. Eli Myers, son of the late Thompson and Nancy Myers, was born April 11, 1859, in Hancock county, Ohio, and died Sunday, September 28, at the St. Elizabeth hospital at Lafayette.

Brother Myers, spent his youth in Ohio, and attended high school at Findlay, studying for the ministry at Ohio Wesleyan University, where he graduated in 1885. He never ceased to be a student, and studied even until the end in order to enrich his mind and broaden his outlook.

Brother Myers joined the Central Ohio Methodist Church, and served charges there for six years; then transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1892, serving charges at Williamsport, for four years; Argos, three years; and Oxford, for two years. In 1915, he transferred to the North Arkansas Conference where he served the following churches: Dardadmitted to the Memphis Conference. After serving in Tennessee, Missouri, and Colorado, he was transferred to the White River Conference in 1908 where he served the following charges: Colt, Bono, Luxora, Nettleton, a second term at Bono, Vannsdale, Wheatley, Widner, Haynes, Paragould Circuit and Gainesville.

He was married January 25, 1900, to Miss Martha Emma Yancey to whom were born three daughters and one son: Mary Emma, Angie, Laverne, and Robert, all of whom survive. He is survived also by a sister, Mrs. Jennie Malone.

During his recent illness he received loving care for five weeks at the Memphis Methodist Hospital.

Brother Hood was much loved by the people whom he served. His release after several months' illness was a great triumph. We believe he deserves the plaudit: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of thy Lord."

—E. K. Sewell.

MRS. F. G. VILLINES.

Mrs. F. G. Villines of East Van Buren, New Hope Charge, Fort Smith, District, died at her home in Van Buren, March 14, 1941, after five weeks illness. Mrs. Villines was born September 3, 1888. She was married to Floyd G. Villines November 9, 1904, at her home in Cleveland, Arkansas.

Five children were born to this union, viz: George N. Villines, Henrietta Sarah Horner, William McCoy Villines, Floyd C. Villines, Jr., and Ruth Myrtel Hiner. These all survive.

Funeral services were conducted in East Van Buren Church, Sunday afternoon, March 16, 1941, by Rev. W. V. Womack, District Superintendent, assisted by Rev. W. W. Albright and Rev. J. J. Galloway, who paid a very high tribute to Mrs. Villines. The large attendance at the funeral attested the very high esteem in which Mrs. Villines was held. Mrs. Villines has been an unusual church worker, always considerate, pleasing in personality and effective in service. She thoroughly and continuously helped her husband in his work as pastor. Their home life was sweet and the children loved home better than any other place in the world. We may always thank God for mothers like Mrs. Villines. The writer can testify to the beauty and attractiveness of their home lives and of their devotion to the church, having been often in their home. He has known them rather intimately for thirty-six years.

Her children are honoring her memory in being true and faithful to their church and to the community in which they live. Two of the boys, George N. and Floyd G., are ministers.

—J. J. Galloway.

REV. J. M. HONEY.

The Rev. J. M. Honey was born in Ozark, Arkansas, February 8, 1852, and died on Friday, February 23, 1940, at Altus, Arkansas. Funeral services were held at Mt. Bethel Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. T. L. Dickerson, assisted by the Rev. William Sherman, both of Ozark. Burial was in the Blansett Cemetery, near Ozark.

Brother Honey joined the Methodist Protestant Church, Ft. Smith Conference in 1883, and was ordained in 1886, under the pastorate of the Rev. William Patton. He was a pioneer minister in the Ozark Mountains in Franklin County for more than thirty years.

On February 3, 1870, Brother Honey was married to Miss Eliza Jane Blansett, who died October 26, 1921, at Ozark. To this union eleven children were born, only four survive: Mrs. Jary J. Carter of Ozark, Steve Honey, John Honey of Ozark, Casper Honey of Hickory Ridge. Brother Honey is also survived by forty-four grandchildren.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

—J. W. Moore.

MRS. FANNIE LOCKE.

Mrs. Fannie Locke, age 78 years, who had been ill for the past several years, died late Wednesday afternoon, March 19, 1941, at the home of her son-in-law, G. Carey. A service was held at the home Thursday at 9 o'clock, with Rev. James T. Wilcoxon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating.

The body was taken to Batesville, where a second service was held at the cemetery with Rev. E. W. Faulkner, pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was beside her husband, the late Rev. W. T. Locke, formerly pastor of the Batesville Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. Locke was an active church worker until ill health forced her to retire several years ago.

Surviving relatives are: One sister, Mrs. Lucy Rhodes of Whiteville, Tenn., one son, Frank Locke of Memphis, Tenn., two brothers, Austin and Edmond Mitchell, both of Whiteville, Tenn., and four grandchildren: Miss Elizabeth Carey of Ward Belmont School, Nashville, Tenn., Sigler and Bill Carey of Paris and Harvey Carey of Shreveport, La.

—J. T. Willcoxon.

SESSIONS OF THE CONFERENCE

The "Arkansas Conference" and the "White River Conference" were united in 1914 to form the present "North Arkansas Conference."

The Conference determined that its annual notation should date from the time of the organization of the Arkansas Conference in 1836, instead of following the date fixed by the consolidation of the Arkansas and White River Conferences, when the name was changed to North Arkansas Conference in 1914.

The Conference session of 1939 voted to maintain the numerical notation of the Conference in The Methodist Church.

STANDING RULES OF THE NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE

(1) That all undergraduates be required to report according to the call of the several committees before the opening of the Conference and that no one be allowed to take examination after Conference opening unless providentially hindered.

(2) That the Conference Treasurer be paid a salary of $70.00 per month and allowed necessary office expenses with the provision that $100.00 of this salary be paid out of funds raised for support of District Superintendents.

(3) That the lay members of the District Conference, in addition to the lay members provided for by the Discipline, shall consist of one delegate from each Church in each Pastoral Charge; and, provided further, that when the membership of any church reaches three hundred, it shall be entitled to an additional delegate for each additional three hundred members or major fraction thereof, said delegates to be elected by the Quarterly Conference; provided, further, that no charge shall have fewer than three delegates elected.

(4) That figures answering the question: "Members reported last year," be the figure printed in the Journal of the last Annual Conference.

(5) That the District Superintendents' figures of all apportionments be accepted as the official figures.

(6) That the apportionments for Conference and General Work be combined in the statistical report; and, that the amount paid be the figures of the Conference Treasurer.

(7) That all Statistical Reports be turned in to the Statistical Secretary by the hour of the first session; and that all settlements shall be made with the Conference Treasurer not later than 2:00 p. m., on Thursday of the Conference session; and that the names of all delinquents shall be reported to the Conference.

(8) When a member of this Conference becomes a member of the Bishop's cabinet he shall automatically become ineligible to serve on any quadrennial board, committee, commission, or an officer in the Conference administration.

(9) That the Secretary of the Bishop's cabinet be instructed to provide the Secretary of the Annual Conference a record of any changes in Boundaries of Pastoral Charges or District Superintendent's Districts for insertion in the Conference Journal.

(10) That all members of our Annual Conference who attend its annual sessions, except superannuated and supernumerary preachers, be required to pay the church entertaining the Conference one dollar registration fee.

(11) That at all future sessions of the Conference entertainment be provided on the Harvard plan (bed and breakfast) except for superannuated ministers and pastors whose salaries are less than $1,200.00, for whom full entertainment shall be furnished.

(12) All Boards that receive money from the Annual Conference shall make a detailed report of all expenditures to that Conference, and said reports shall be reported in the Conference minutes.

(13) The list of Lay Delegates elected by the quarterly conferences shall be completed and their names given to the host church thirty days before the date of the Annual Conference.

(14) That the District Stewards' meetings shall apportion the askings for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and for General Administration Fund, and for Jurisdictional Expense, to the several Charges in each District on an equitable basis, having regard to the number of members in each Pastoral Charge, as the first factor, and the amounts paid to the Pastors as salaries, as the second factor. The median of the two fractions thus attained for any Pastoral Charge shall constitute the fractional part of each of these several askings to be apportioned to it.

SESSIONS OF THE CONFERENCE

The "Arkansas Conference" and the "White River Conference" were united in 1914 to form the present "North Arkansas Conference."

The Conference determined that its annual notation should date from the time of the organization of the Arkansas Conference in 1836, instead of following the date fixed by the consolidation of the Arkansas and White River Conferences, when the name was changed to North Arkansas Conference in 1914.

The Conference session of 1939 voted to maintain the numerical notation of the Conference in The Methodist Church.

WAR WORK No. 1

That the Methodist Church may serve as adequately as possible our men who are in the armed service of our country, their families, and the civilians connected with the war work program we recommend the following:

1. That each Church in the Conference prepare and keep up to date a Service Roll of all men from the Church and Church School Membership who are in the armed service of our country.
2. That a secretary for this Service Men's Roll be elected in every Church by the first Quarterly Conference.
3. That the local churches give each man entering the service a Bible, or New Testament.
4. That Church Bulletins and such devotional booklets as the "Upper Room" and "Service" be forwarded to the men regularly.
5. That definite plans be worked out in each Church for writing the men frequently—at least once a quarter.
6. That especially in larger churches informal groups of "Army Wives and Parents" be organized.
7. That our Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension be requested to assist the local community in the Jacksonville Defense Area to provide a full time pastor.
8. That our Churches in War Work Areas join in local community efforts to provide nursery facilities for the children of war plant workers.
9. That pastors of all churches losing members to the war industries seek to keep in contact with these members in somewhat the same manner as with men in the armed forces, requesting them to become "affiliate members" of the church in the war plant area.

EDUCATION Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 8

We recommend:

1. That the United Christian Education Advance be promoted through the following activities: Careful study of the community to find persons to be reached; develop nursery departments; develop home departments, organize extension classes and schools; follow-up absentees, keep accurate records, and train present leadership and persons to be future leaders.
2. That ministers and laymen cooperate with other agencies in an effort to provide Bible study and other forms of Christian Education in the public school.
3. That youth work be promoted through the organization of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in each local church; through area meetings for youth with special emphasis on Christian Adventure Institutes, Epworth Training Conference, summer assemblies and camps. That the Caravan and like activities be promoted throughout the Conference.
4. That local churches cooperate with churches of college centers in the development of Wesley Foundation Work.
5. That all agencies in the Conference cooperate in promoting effective education in the evil effects of alcohol.
6. That Christian literature, and how to use it as well as secure it, be made a primary consideration of our Conference.
7. That missionary mindedness be developed through a better promotion of missionary education for children and youth and through the Fourth Sunday Church School World Service programs.
8. That Christian workers be developed through the following agencies: Arkansas Pastors' School; youth assemblies, camps, institutes, youth week caravan activities, and area meetings; Christian workers' training schools, classes and home study courses; Leadership Schools; sub-district and local church institutes; and vacation church schools.
9. That evangelism be strengthened through preparation of leaders of church schools and the careful planning and carrying out of a special period of evangelism in each church school during January, February, and March.
10. That the "February Special Cultivation" program for Ministerial Education and Hendrix College be given chief place in February of 1943. That pastors and local churches cooperate with Hendrix College in securing students.

FINANCE No. 3

We recommend:

1. That every pastor in our Conference secure from the Joint Division of Education and Cultivation, Board of Missions and Church Extension, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, definite information about the causes to which we contribute under the head of World Service; that they study this information until they are thoroughly familiar with the urgent needs in the different departments and fields of service; that they first give to their official members this information which they have acquired; and that the pastor and the officials undertake to inform the entire membership about these needs in such a way that their people shall be inspired and moved to increase their acceptance and payments on World Service and Benevolences to the end that the urgent needs of the cause of Christ throughout the world may be adequately provided for.

2. That the pastors and officials endeavor to cultivate every member of every Church and manifest such a genuine interest in each one that his heart will be strangely warmed and he will have a desire to share in the largest possible way in all of the work of our Lord Jesus Christ.

3. That every department in every Church School be urged to make the fourth Sunday in each month as vitally interesting and as definitely helpful as possible; that they use the fourth Sunday materials provided by the General and Conference Boards of Education; and that every child, every young person and every adult be so thoroughly informed in these services that they shall with great joy make liberal contributions, all of which shall be applied to the payment of World Service and Conference Benevolences.

EVANGELISM No. 6

We recommend:

1. That the Annual Conference Commission on Evangelism shall be recognized as the legal corpus to conserve, coordinate, promote, and supervise the evangelistic program of the Conference.

2. That the Board of Christian Education direct the pre-Easter revival campaign. The Executive Secretary is requested to make reports of the campaign to the Commission on Evangelism as soon as possible.

3. That to the Board of Missions and Church Extension, and to the District Superintendent, and his District organization shall be committed the missionary and evangelistic work of the District. It is suggested that when it seems advisable, a district missionary be employed.

4. That following the Guy Black school in Little Rock, March 7-13, it is recommended that the Superintendents arrange to hold immediately as many sub-district schools as will be necessary for each pastor to be within easy reach of a school.

4. (cont.) That each pastor should hold a school for his church or churches so that each lay man and woman shall have a chance to attend a school on "visitation evangelism." It is suggested that these schools run for four days, beginning Sunday afternoon and closing Wednesday.

Evangelistic Goals:

1. Immense increase at public worship services.
2. That we endeavor to reach at least 5,000 on profession of faith, or each church add 8 per cent increase on profession of faith.
3. That the Upper Room be placed in every home and every home have daily family worship.
4. That each church have special revival services in addition to the pre-Easter campaign.
5. That evangelism be the dominant note in our ministry during this year.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION No. 7

1. Cooperation with the War Work emphasis as outlined under Point No. 1.
2. Cooperation with the other Boards and agencies of the Conference thru the Commission on Town and Country in a constructive program of strengthening the total life of the rural church.

3. Mission study groups in every local church.
4. Every pastor and pastoral charge assuming responsibility for at least one extension Church School and preaching appointment.
5. Each District with a definite program for establishing a Methodist Church in new territory.
6. Appropriations limited as nearly as possible to opening up new situations.

TOWN AND COUNTRY

We recommend:

1. That the Conference through its several Agencies, continue the work of the Town and Country Commission by providing the necessary funds for the employment of a conference secretary.
2. That the "Group Ministry Plan" of work be promoted in each "Natural Area" in the conference where interest and cooperation can be secured. The secretary should give full cooperation to the work of this council.
3. That the church be called upon to put forth a special effort to discover and use local preachers.
4. That the Commission cooperate with all the agencies of the church in reaching and building the church in rural areas.
5. That the commission cooperate with all other agencies working in the rural areas of the conference which have as their purpose the building of a better life.
6. That the district as a whole be used as a unit to meet situations too large for any single local church or area council. That the conference as a whole be used as a unit in meeting situations too large for the district. That the General Boards be informed of needs too large to be met by the conference.
7. That we urge Hendrix College to give every possible effort in the training of young ministers and all other young men and women for work in the rural areas.
8. That we express our appreciation for the state and federal agencies which have given full cooperation to our work. That we give full recognition and approval to the work of the W. S. C. S. for the work which is being done by Mrs. Vioa Beadles in Yell County and by Miss Estelle McIntosh in Scott County.

LOCAL CHURCH ORGANIZATION No. 9

We call upon our District Superintendents and Pastors to press to completion all the organization within the local church which will contribute to more effective work within and by our Church. Especially do we urge that the following local church organization be perfected: the Official Board, the Church Board of Education, the Church Board of Missions and Church Extension, a Committee on Hospitals and Homes, an active Layman's organization, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. These organizations, if they are at all active, will increase the effectiveness of all our efforts at promoting the work of the Kingdom of God.

PUBLICITY AND PROMOTION

That each Conference give careful attention to plans for publicity and promotion including the use of the radio, Conference and National Organs, the publicity of our Boards, posters and bulletins, and audio-visual education.

R. S. HAYDEN, Chairman
GLENN SANFORD, Secretary

Your Secretary begs your indulgence in submitting this vital report in this form and hopes it may serve to emphasize and make even more usable this determining guidance of The Conference.—Benj. C. Few.
