VI. REPORTS OF BOARDS, COMMITTEES, COMMISSIONS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Adopted May 27, 1968

Bishop Galloway and members of the 133rd session of the North Arkansas Annual Conference . . .

With grateful recognition of the abiding loyalty of the Methodist people within the bound of the North Arkansas Annual Conference, we report to you concerning the work of the church during the year now closing. In a very real sense this is not the report of the District Superintendents, but a statement of achievement that reflects the work of every pastor and congregation in the conference. The churches of our conference have added to our rolls 1,762 persons on profession of faith; 2,771 persons by transfer from other Methodist Churches and 602 persons from other denominations. Our present membership is 100,157.

The work of Christian Education in the conference is being carried out in an excellent manner. For the most part and in most churches the materials of the new curriculum have been received with commendation by the church school workers. Teachers, counselors and other workers with youth across the conference are eagerly looking forward to the literature for our young people. Thorough preparation is being made in all the Districts to acquaint responsible persons with the new materials and to properly train them in their use.

The vitality of the lay witness in our conference is demonstrated in the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Methodist Men's Clubs.

A look at the temporal concerns of the church shows that we have church properties at around $35,000,000. Parsonage properties valued at $3,500,000 and other assets valued at $9,000,000. A brief look at the work in each of the seven Districts of the conference gives an indication of the militant faith and fruitful service of the Methodist people—both laymen and pastors.

Batesville District

Extensive remodeling, expansions and renovations have been carried out on an effective scale in many of the churches.

New church buildings have been completed at Calico Rock and Bethesda. A new educational building has been erected at Onetman, building plans are now in progress for a new parsonage at Newark and new churches at Southside and Mountain View. Financial conditions in the District are considerably improved.

Conway District

Twenty-five churches in this District have been involved in building programs during this conference year. Ten other quarterly conferences have named building committees. Notable among these are the proposed $200,000 educational building at Conway First Church; parsonage at Jacksonville and addition to the educational building at Indian Hills and an entire new facility for worship and church school at Oppelo.

Seven young men have been recommended for licenses to preach by the Conway District Quarterly Conferences.

Several parsonages have been remodeled and repaired this year and several have added conveniences of central heat and air conditioning. The most notable accomplishment in this area is the construction of a new $30,000 edifice to house the Wesley Foundation Director at Arkansas Tech College.

Fayetteville District

During the year 793 new members have been received into the churches of this District, resulting in a net gain of 100. The 57 church schools in the District, staffed by 759 officers and teachers, enrolled 8,140 persons with an average attendance of 3,885 per Sunday. This is an increase of 298 over last year. The District reports an overpayment of nearly $1,000 on World Service.

During the year Siloam Springs has built a new parsonage. The Berryville Church has completed its new sanctuary and a portion of their educational plant. Central Church, Rogers has begun a $160,000 educational building and the first unit of the Sequoyah Church was opened May 26 at a cost of $60,000. A number of churches have been involved in remodeling church plants and parsonages.

Forrest City District

There has been considerable building during the year. New educational buildings have been erected at Parkin and Forrest Hills. The latter for the first unit of a new church plant. Rosewood Church in West Memphis has a new sanctuary under construction and it will be completed soon after conference. Colt has relocated its church and has a new building under construction date set for June 15. New parsonages have been constructed at Helena, Elaine and McCrory. A new parsonage has been purchased for Forrest Hills Church in Forrest City. With leadership from the secretaries of the Inter-board Council and various conference boards, area training schools have been conducted within reach of every church in the District.

Fort Smith District

In this District 869 new members were received, making a total membership of 18,218 and a net gain of 71. Three young men were licensed to preach. The District Board of Missions has a very active program and provides valuable assistance to four churches in the District. It is also making regular payments on a seven acre tract of land to be used for future construction. The Woman's Society of Christian Service has rendered great service.

The Fort Smith District has been very active in building this year. A new parsonage has been completed and occupied at Massard, and new parsonages are almost completed at Alma and Clarksville. A fire destroyed the City Heights sanctuary a few years ago and this has been replaced this year, in addition to a new sanctuary at Mulberry. During this effort, the educational needs of the churches have not been overlooked—new facilities to care for this need have been built at Wesley in Fort Smith, Cavanaugh in Fort Smith, Coles Chapel, and Dyer, in addition to extensive redecorating at First Church, Fort Smith, Ozark and Greenwood. The sanctuary at Alix was completely remodeled and redecorated with the addition of new pulpit furniture and aisle carpet.

Jonesboro District

Even though the District has a depressed economy, nearly all financial obligations have been paid in full. A new $45,000 parsonage has been constructed at Harrisburg and will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the new conference year. First Church Blytheville is making final preparation for an effective building program which will cost in excess of $300,000. During the year $159,000 has been paid on indebtedness and $50,000 has been expended on building improvements.

Paragould District

There has been a great deal of building activity. A new church building has been completed at Corning at a cost of $90,000. The sanctuary at Walnut Ridge has been completely remodeled. Hoxie is in the process of building a new parsonage. Major improvements have been made at First Church in Pigott and at Wright's Chapel. Building debts have been paid at Clover Bend, New Home and Tuckerman. All indebtedness has been paid on the Paragould District Parsonage.

We desire to express our deep appreciation to Dr. Alfred Knox for the splendid job he is doing as editor of the Arkansas Methodist; and to the thousands of Methodists throughout the state who helped make possible the very successful subscription campaign last January.

We wish to commend the Interboard Council leadership, Dr. Eggen-sperger and the Reverend Earl Carter for the fine way in which they have assumed the responsibilities of that office during the first year. Both clergy and laity appreciate their leadership in every phase of the conference program. All of us have relied heavily on the Council. Their devotion, loyalty, dedication and understanding have been a source of help, inspiration and encouragement throughout the conference.

We are grateful for the privilege of working with Bishop Paul V. Galloway. We appreciate his warm friendly spirit, his aggressive leadership and his genuine love for persons—both ministers and laymen. It has been a great joy to every member of the Cabinet to work with him this year. We want to express to both Bishop and Mrs. Galloway our gratitude for the contribution they have made to our fellowship and for their unfailing thoughtfulness and understanding spirit which has touched all our lives and every aspect of the life and work of this conference.

We call your special attention to the Hendrix College Capital Funds Campaign. It is imperative that each church meet its responsibility in full if we are to reach our goals. Response and support have been excellent and we urge that our efforts not be relaxed during this final year of the campaign.

Recommendations

1. We respectfully suggest and recommend to the conference that the next major financial program—excepting the quadrennial program—conducted for the North Arkansas Conference be in the area of pension improvement. There is great need here. We feel that we must turn our attention to this problem and develop plans which will provide an adequate solution.

2. We recommend that this conference make definite plans to achieve full and complete merger with the Southwest Conference no later than 1970.

3. We recommend that this conference appoint a committee to work with the Executive Committee of the Interboard Council and the Headquarters Building Committee for the purpose of developing a plan to house the Interboard Council of the two Arkansas Conferences at the same location, and that a suitable location be selected at the earliest possible date.

4. We recommend that this conference appoint a committee to cooperate with similar committees from other supporting conferences to explore the best way in which we can support Philander Smith College capital funds program.

Conclusion

To say that we have attained, that we have fulfilled God's purpose for us in any marked degree, would be presumptuous indeed; but we are obtaining, needs are being met, facilities for worship, education, fellowship and housing are being supplied; and programs designed to confront modern man with himself and his God are being carried out. We commend our conference and our work to your continued prayers and financial support.

With every ounce of strength at our disposal, we pray the people of the North Arkansas Conference to make the real the line chiseled in marble on the Archives Building in Washington, D. C., "The past is prologue."

REPORT OF INTERBOARD COUNCIL

Adopted May 29, 1968

The organization of the Interboard Council took place shortly after June 1, 1967. Bishop Paul V. Galloway is the Chairman; Dr. Joel Cooper, Vice Chairman; and the Reverend Floyd G. Villines, Jr., Secretary. There has been three meetings of the Council during the year; while the Executive Committee has met more frequently to give careful oversight and guidance to the work of this new venture in our Conference.

Shortly after organization, our Executive Secretaries, Dr. Harold O. Eggenberger and the Reverend Earl Carter determined they would try to do three things:

1. Learn all they can about their new responsibilities through attending special conferences and seminars designed by The Methodist Church to aid those assigned to Interboard responsibilities.
2. Seek to maintain the high level of leadership in the field of education as exemplified by previous leaders; and
3. As quickly as feasible, lift up and emphasize the interests of all other boards and agencies of the Conference.

The task of moving the records and furniture from Conway to North Little Rock, the purchasing of good office equipment for meeting the enlarged responsibilities of this new venture, the securing of competent secretarial help, and the attending of conferences in the interest of learning more about effective ways of meeting the new task, has taken much effort, time and patience on the part of our secretaries.

The purpose of the boards and commissions of our Conference is to plan effectively that the interests represented by our agencies might be brought to the attention of Methodists throughout the Conference. The purpose of the Interboard Council is to coordinate the work of the boards and assist in promoting and bringing to fruition the creative plans the Boards have developed.

The Interboard Council staff has therefore sought diligently:

1. To keep the lines of communication open between the agencies, the pastors and the laymen of the various churches of the Conference. The secretaries have endeavored to stand ready to come and discuss with District Superintendents and District Officers, as well as local church leaders, how the interests of Methodism can best be promoted within the Conference, District and local church. The staff is grateful for the wonderful cooperation given by the Bishop, District Superintendents, Area Director of Stewardship, pastors and laymen. Without such cooperation the Conference workshops, seminars, leadership schools and informal gatherings could not have been successful, and
2. To call attention to the plans of the agencies through the use of a special piece of promotional material known as the "Hot Line." With some exceptions this mailing has been monthly. It has always gone out with the hope that it would assist preachers and laymen in sensing the important mission of the church with reference to all phases of Methodism's great ministry on various levels, local, district, Conference, national and world.

The work of the secretaries and the effectiveness of their assistance can and will be reflected in the reports of the various Conference agencies. While the new year should bring an increased sense of mission on the part of the members of every board and commission, as well as more effective service, we are grateful for the work accomplished during the year which is drawing to a close. Under the leadership of God's Holy Spirit; and with the full cooperation of each Methodist, greater things can and will transpire within our Conference in the future to aid the coming of God's kingdom.

Respectfully submitted for the Interboard Council,

JOEL A. COOPER, Vice Chairman

FLOYD G. VILLINES, JR., Secretary

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Adopted May 28, 1968

Christian Social Concerns is the inevitable result of personal commitment and grateful response to the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is the expression of Christian love from the fixed point of our faith to the changing circumstances of the world. Seldom does it achieve all that it desires, but it continues to try. Seldom is it completely free from sinful elements. It is always handicapped by the limited vision of men. In spite of these limitations, we the members of this Board, seek with you to express our personal faith in the world which God loves and for the benefit of our neighbor, for whom Christ died.

Attention is called to these dates and the causes represented by them:

World Order Sunday, October 20. The need for peace and the place of the United Nations in maintaining world peace is the purpose of this Sunday.

Commitment Day, November 10, Congregations should be called to commit themselves to abstinence from alcoholic beverages.

Race Relations Day, February 9. The kinship of all men is the emphasis. An offering for Philander Smith College should also be taken.

Our nation, and indeed the world, continues to stagger under the increasing load of problems of human relations. Walls continue to divide men from each other—walls of nation, race, economy, church and culture. But we are still one in Christ. Where Christ has united us there is neither Jew nor Greek . . . slave nor free . . . male nor female. We call on the churches to make this description of God's Kingdom a reality in our communities.

A. We encourage full participation in the ecumenical movement and the efforts of churches to work closer together.

B. We rejoice in the progress being made to merge the Southwest Conference with the geographical conferences in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

C. We encourage the continuation of "know your neighbor" programs that acquaint pastors and laymen of white and Negro churches in our communities.

D. We desire the expansion of the idea of the North Arkansas Conference Boards, Commissions, agencies, institutions and groups working with their sister groups in the Southwest Conference in joint projects. We hope wherever possible they may meet jointly and plan one ministry for the churches of our area.

We join the Conference Board of Education in asking the Annual Conference to give increased financial support to Philander Smith College. This Methodist college continues to serve a great need in higher education in our state and deserves a larger support than Methodists have been giving. We encourage every Methodist Church in our Conference to increase its giving through Race Relations Day offerings for the operational budget of Philander Smith. We also encourage the Conference to adopt the capital funds campaign which will be recommended to the Annual Conference. Through this campaign, the College will be able to take advantage of land now made available through Urban Renewal and will be able to move in the direction of an expanded campus. Without these funds, the college will find its future in serious jeopardy. We further encourage churches to become better acquainted with Philander Smith by visits to the campus, invitations to its faculty and staff to visit the churches, and by invitations to its organizations to present programs in the local churches.

We propose an expanding program of Citizenship Seminars during the quadrennium. We propose that the U. N.—Washington Citizenship Seminars which have been jointly sponsored by the Woman's Society and the Board of Christian Social Concern be expanded from two to four per quadrennium. To make this possible, we invite other agencies to join in sponsoring these Seminars. We propose Youth Seminars in 1968 and 1970 and Adult Seminars in 1969 and 1971.

The Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns plans continuing efforts to have a Conference-wide Southeast Asia Seminar in which the issues of world peace in this area can be considered. We propose that such a conference be held as soon as the leadership can be obtained.

We recommend the District Directors' work with the District Superintendent in setting up training sessions for local church workers in "The Work of the Local Church in the United Methodist Church. That District Directors consider district or sub-district workshops on "The Cigarette Habit" in cooperation with the American Cancer Society. We encourage the local commissions to sponsor the organization of "Great Decisions" groups in those communities that do not presently have them. We further recommend that local churches share in the expenses of their Christian Social Concerns Chairman or other commission member to attend the Briefing Conference at Mt. Sequoyah, July 5-7.

We express our continuing concern for those persons who violated the law and call on the churches of our state to take advantage of the present climate of interest in penal reform. We encourage every Commission on Christian Social Concerns to explore the ways it can bring the Christian gospel to bear upon the lives of these persons. We suggest the following possibilities.

- A. The establishment of jail ministries in the city or county jails.
- B. The financial support of the Arkansas Release Guidance Foundation. This Foundation, which was established at the initiative of Methodist people and directed by a Methodist staff, is presently operating two "New Life Houses" for men just released from state prisons. It plans further rehabilitation and prevention programs. We encourage every local church to make an annual contribution to this foundation. Contributions can be sent to Reverend Eugene Efrid, 2115 South Arch, Little Rock, Arkansas.
- C. Include the New Life Houses at 121 Arch Street, Little Rock in tours of Methodist Institutions.
- D. The establishment of "Project Misdemeanant" in connection with juvenile courts to bring the resources of a local community to the assistance of the courts and of persons convicted of minor crimes. Further information can be supplied by the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns.
- E. Local church investigation of conditions that may be contributing factors to juvenile delinquency.

Policy statement regarding Wesley Foundation Campus Ministers:

1. The appointment of a clerical member of an Annual Conference as a Wesley Foundation Campus Minister is the responsibility of the Bishop and his Cabinet in keeping with "principles inherent in the Methodist appointive system." (Judicial Decision 175(1)) The Personnel Committee of a local Wesley Foundation Board of Directors acts in the same capacity as a Pastoral Relations Committee of a Local Church.
2. A clerical member of an Annual Conference serving as a Campus Minister of a Wesley Foundation, under the appointment of the Bishop and his Cabinet, shall bear the same relationship to the District Superintendent, in whose District he serves, as any other pastor in the District. The Board of Directors of a Wesley Foundation with respect to the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister, shall function in the same capacity as an Official Board of a Local Church.
3. A clerical member of an Annual Conference serving as a Wesley Foundation Campus Minister, under appointment of the Bishop and his Cabinet, may teach in a related college or university, only at the discretion, and with the written consent of the District Superintendent, who shall have conferred with the Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundation, or its Personnel Committee; the President and/or the Dean of the institution; and with the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister. The District Superintendent's written consent is given preferably to meet an emergency and as a special favor to the institution. It is understood that any income the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister may derive from such teaching will in no way affect his income as a Wesley Foundation Campus Minister.
4. The District Superintendent, after conferring with the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister, the Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundation, or its Personnel Committee, and with the knowledge and consent of the Bishop, may appoint that Wesley Foundation Campus Minister as a part time pastor or a church or churches; or to do occasional interim or emergency preaching. It is understood that any income the Wesley Foundation Campus Minister may derive from such appointment will in no way affect his income as a Wesley Foundation Campus Minister.
5. The above may be amended from time to time to keep these procedures in harmony with the policies of the General Church.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Adopted May 29, 1968

TWO-STEP EVANGELISM TO WIN PERSONS TO CHRIST

WHEREAS statistics reveal that the Methodist Church has shown a decline in membership over the past few years, and

Whereas statistics show that a large number of the members of the Methodist Church are not actively related to the church, and

Whereas large numbers of the people who call themselves Methodist know very little about what the Methodist Church believes, and

Whereas the Methodist Church is failing to reach many of the unchurched by its present program, and

Whereas God has loved all men in Christ Jesus our Lord, and

Whereas it is imperative that all members of the Methodist Church be actively related to the Church and know what the Methodist Church believes, and

Whereas the Church has been called to reach the unchurched

Be It Therefore Resolved that we, the people who call ourselves Methodist in the North Arkansas Conference, adopt a program of evangelism for concerned laymen and equally concerned ministers for winning persons to Christ and His Church.

We feel that such a program as TWO-STEP EVANGELISM, outlined below, carried out in Christian love will produce the desired results.

Two-Step Evangelism

I. (ONE-STEP) MISSION TO MEMBERS

A. A deepening of the spiritual life of the members of the Methodist Church.

- (1) A coaching conference to be held in each district to certify each pastor in the district to teach the course "Major Methodist Beliefs." This course should be taught by the pastor to his local congregation. It is recommended that this program of study be carried out in cooperation with the Board of Education.
- (2) A recommended reading program to be promoted in each local Church.
 - (a) Set up small reading groups within the membership of the local church. Groups to have regular scheduled meetings.
 - (b) The pastor to be responsible for making up his list of recommended reading which can and should be both educational and inspirational
- (3) A four week program during Lent called "Labor of Love" in which the members are urged to show interest and concern for other members by:
 - (a) 1st. week . . . writing letters or notes of appreciation to people who mean much to you and your life.
 - (b) 2nd. week . . . calling people to express a personal concern in their lives for absence from church, illness, death, joys.
 - (c) 3rd. week . . . small gifts on such occasions as birthdays, anniversaries, etc. to strengthen relations between people.

- (d) 4th. week . . . persons to make prayer list and let those on their list know they are praying for them.
- (4) Involve every member of the church, as nearly as possible, in a responsible way in some activity in the church.
- B. Emphasis on activating the inactive.
 - (1) Introduce a revolving visitation program in each charge aimed toward the active.

Pass the name of the inactive member from one visitation team to another so it will be obvious that the total church is interested in him.
 - (2) The pastor to set up quest groups to answer questions and resolve problems that prevent members from being active, with the hope that this might reveal a deeper concern from the total church rather than from just a few.

Neighborhood discussion groups in the homes to be shared in by the active, inactive and non-members. These should be conducted with the assistance of the pastor or some responsible layman.
- C. We recommend an examination of new methods of proclamation and witness to meet the needs of a changing church in a changing world.

II. (TWO-STEP) MISSION-TO NON-MEMBERS

- A. A program of planned visitation to the non-members.
 - (1) Appoint a committee on prospects to seek out and list the names of non-members well in advance of the time for the planned visitation.

Find them through surveys, attendance registration, on family rolls, church related organizations and groups, and the many other ways we have used in the past to discover these people.
 - (2) Enlist and train your visitors.
 - (a) Secure visitors by personal contact. Avoid the temptation to rely on pulpit announcements, letters or telephone calls.
 - (b) Do your best to have enough visitors so as not to have to ask one team to be responsible for too many prospects.
 - (c) Be sure you give your visitors training so they will not feel lost in their efforts.
 - (d) Make the visitation an organized effort so the visitors will feel like a part of a team and not like a straggler.
- B. Plan Pastor's Membership Training classes for children, youth and adults in each church.
- C. Plan and have effective assimilation for every person who is received into membership.
- D. Preaching Missions.
 - (1) Have District Workshops in each district to instruct ministers and chairmen of local Commissions on Membership and Evangelism in techniques and procedures for planning and carrying out a successful revival meeting.
 - (2) Have district sharing sessions for ministers on how to . . .
 - (a) . . . make an appealing invitation for people to accept Christ and church membership.
 - (b) . . . deal with difficult situations or hard to reach persons.
 - (3) A preaching mission or revival to be conducted in each local church.
 - (4) Set a goal for an increase of not less than 500 new members for our conference in the year 1968-69.

Quotas toward this goal to be set up in each district by the district superintendent and these goals to be handed to the district directors of evangelism to be carried out.

III. We recommend that the Reverend W. Leonard Byers be appointed Secretary of Evangelism for the Conference year 1968-69.

FLOYD G. VILLINES, JR., Chairman
BOB ORR, Secretary

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Adopted May 28, 1968

The Board of Hospitals and Homes of the North Arkansas Conference makes the following report and recommendations for this fourth year of the current Quadrennium:

We recommend:

1. That the Commission on World Service and Finance appropriate for the work of our Board the amount of $13,500 for the indicated Conference year 1968-69, designated to be spent for these itemized causes:

(a) School of Nursing, Methodist Hospital, Memphis	$5,000.00
(b) Methodist Children's Home of Arkansas, Inc.	2,000.00
(c) Methodist Nursing Home, Inc., Ft. Smith	1,000.00
(d) Support of Chaplain, State Sanatorium, Booneville	4,557.00
Salary	$3,000.00
Travel	600.00
Rent	750.00
Insurance	27.00
Annuity	180.00
(e) Board Expense	793.00
(f) Contingencies	150.00
2. That a Golden Cross Offering be taken in each church within the Conference and divided on the following basis:
 - 85% Memphis Methodist Hospital
 - 15% Fort Smith Methodist Nursing Home and that the second Sunday in March be designated as Hospitals and Homes Day for receiving the Golden Cross Offering.
 We commend the work of Harvey Hazelwood as Golden Cross Director and recommend his reappointment to this office for the coming year.
3. That the North Arkansas Conference continue the authorization which allows the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Nursing Home at Fort Smith and pastors to solicit funds for the Nursing Home Development Program within the churches of the Conference. We further recommend that churches and individuals over the Conference visit the Nursing Home at Fort Smith or make other contact to become familiar with the outstanding and distinctive service this institution is rendering under the able leadership of Superintendent E. L. Smith. We note that there are 88 beds in use at the Home, with approximately 125 individuals on the waiting list, and that the present indebtedness of $30,000 is being retired at the rate of $1,000 per month.
4. That December 15 through December 22 be observed as Children's Home Emphasis period for the receiving of the Annual Christmas Children's Home Offering. We further urge that the District cultivation program for the Christmas offering be continued and that in each church a local Support Chairman be named to cooperate with the pastor in the District and Area program for the Home. We note with pride the many significant advances made by the Home, under the direction of the Superintendent, Reverend Edwin Keith, in caring for the children who become our responsibility. Again, we urge that members of our church visit the Home to encourage a more meaningful participation in the great work done by the Church through this institution.
5. We again recommend the desirability for the designation of a Special Committee or Commission within the Conference to study the future of child care by The Methodist Church in Arkansas, this group to work with similar personnel from the Little Rock Conference, should our Bishop see fit to designate such a Commission.
6. In accordance with the financial outline in Number 1 above, we recommend that the Chaplaincy at the State Sanatorium in Booneville be continued as during the previous years of this Quadrennium and recommend that Reverend Bates Sturdy be reappointed to this important ministry.
7. We reaffirm our approval of the current expansion program at the Memphis Methodist Hospital, including the construction of the new Nursing School at a cost of approximately $3,000,000 to be completed by September, 1969. We congratulate the Hospital Administration on their vision and definite plans for the construction of an Out-Patient Clinic and Emergency Room at an estimated cost of $7,500,000 and give our support to the project after the completion of the Hendrix College Campaign and the proposed Endowment Fund Program for retired ministers pensions. We recommend that the Hospital be advised that the earliest date for a Capital Funds drive for the Hospital in the North Arkansas Conference will be 1972.

8. We nominate to the Conference for election as Trustees for the designated institutions, with terms to expire in 1971, the following:

- (a) Memphis Methodist Hospital: Mrs. Tom Tucker, Hughes; Frank Fogleman, Marion.
- (b) Methodist Children's Home of Arkansas: Homes H. Fulbright, Searcy; James R. Chandler; Earl Hughes; Wiley Robbins, Heber Springs.

Respectfully submitted,

W. HENRY GOODLOE, Chairman
WINFRED D. POLK, Secretary

BOARD OF LAY LAY ACTIVITIES

Adopted May 29, 1968

Reports made at our Mid-Year Meeting by the District Lay Leaders and the District Superintendents indicate that there is some good progress in our program throughout the Conference. For this we give credit to the excellent leadership we have in each district and to the cooperation we have received from the ministers of the Conference. It is a pleasure to see the men assume the role of leadership and in cooperation with the ministers, really develop an inspired program in the local churches.

Our Annual Luncheon, held each year during Conference, was held at the Hendricks Hills Methodist Church in Fort Smith, Wednesday, May 31, 1967 and was attended by 104 laymen and guests.

Attendance at our Annual Assembly, held this year August 19 and 20, was good. Although registrations totaled only 170, there were 189 present for the afternoon session and there were 220 for the Saturday evening meal—so many did not register. There were upward of 150 who attended at least one of the services. The program was excellent—Dr. Thomas did a swell job; our panel Saturday afternoon was an enjoyable surprise to everyone; Coach Frank Broyles had a good message Sunday morning; Bishop Galloway, as always contributed much to the program. New last year was our early morning Communion Service. We will be returning to Mt. Sequoyah again this year—the date August 3 and 4. Bob Lay, one of this country's leading laymen, will be with us; Bill Kennedy of England, Arkansas, will lead the singing.

The Jurisdictional Lay Activities Workshop for District and Associate District Lay Leaders and other members of our Conference Board was held July 1 through July 3 with more than 30 attending from our Conference. Dr. Alsie Carleton delivered three lectures which have really inspired all who heard them and the challenge is still being discussed in various groups of Methodist Men. Bishop Paul Martin was excellent and R. H. "Red" Bond did the best he has ever done.

Laymen's Day, October 8, from all reports, was the best with an increase in percentage of pulpits filled by the laymen, working toward our goal of total participation. Suggestions have been made that we take on a Conference project for our Laymen's Day topic this year and this will be discussed at our Mid-Year Meeting.

As always, we are pleased with the excellent work that is being done in the various districts under the leadership of the District and Associate Dis-strict Lay Leaders. There continues to be a steady growth and for this we are grateful.

Replying to a request from our General Board of Lay Activities, we have selected George Riley, a member of the Lakewood Methodist Church, North Little Rock to be the Registrar and be in charge of promotion for the National Conference of United Methodist Men meeting at Purdue University, July 11-13, 1969.

At our Mid-Year Meeting, the Board unanimously approved the following nominations to be presented to the Annual Conference at its next session:

Conference Lay Leader E. Clay Bumpers

Associate Conference Lay Leaders Matt L. Ellis

John G. Moore, Joe S. Pierce

Conference Director of Lay Speaking Jim Wiseman

A budget of $2,100.00 was unanimously adopted by the Board and a request for $2,000.00 of this amount was to be presented to the Commission on World Service and Finance.

We are happy with the excellent cooperation we have received from Bishop Galloway and the Cabinet as well as the other ministers of the Conference. We solicit a continuation of this assistance to assure us an improved program of Lay Activities.

E. CLAY BUMPER, Conference Lay Leader

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

Adopted May 29, 1968

Recommendations and Requests

In recognition of the need to provide scholarship support for ministerial students and to strengthen our seminaries, we recommend the following:

1. That we insure the continuance of our present program by reserving each year an amount sufficient to cover operation of the Board and to care for scholarship commitments, estimating this years needs to be $15,600.00.
2. That any amount received annually above the needs of our Conference be directed to the jurisdictional program and that we continue to move toward the goal suggested by the jurisdiction in this field.
3. That the conference continue its basic support of this program through World Service and Conference Benevolences, contributing $7,000.00 each year to the Board of Ministerial Training from World Service and Conference Benevolences, and continue to promote the program also through increased emphasis on the November Special.
4. The observance of the November Special, an offering for Ministerial Training, to be received during the month of November each year, with each pastor preaching one sermon during the month of November designed to inform his congregation as to the needs, requirements and rewards of the ministry.
5. That with the increasing cost of education and with higher standards for admission into the ministry, responsibility of the Church to help provide for the training of her ministers be stressed, so that the November Special offering will be more in keeping with our needs of a bare minimum of $12,500.00 through this channel this year.
6. We request that District Superintendents, Pastors and local churches help young men to understand the great need for ministers and challenge them to hear and answer the call to the ministry.
7. We request those who enter the ministry under Paragraph 306 to enroll in the Studies for License to Preach with the Ministerial Courses of Study, Department of Ministerial Education, Board of Education of the Methodist Church, P. O. Box 871, Nashville, Tennessee 37202.
8. We request each pastor to have available to give to interested persons material on the ministry, especially copies of the folder, "Courses of Study for License to Preach."
9. We urge compliance with the requirement that all men in the courses of study take their work through the Courses of Study in Perkins or St. Paul.

Policy and Program

1. The Board will conduct its work in harmony with the Discipline of the Methodist Church.
2. The funds of the Board will be expended in the following ways:
 - A. For the normal work of the Board and its registrars in the operation of the Board and in the guidance of the men related to the Board in their training.
 - B. For financial assistance to college and seminary students enrolled in colleges, universities or seminaries approved by the University Senate or accepted by our Conference who meet the following requirements and in accordance with the following provisions:
 1. Provisions for Financial Aid:
 - a. The Board may allow basic fees and tuition.
 - b. In cases of exceptional need, as determined by the executive committee of the Board and upon recommendation of the District Superintendent of the student's home district, the student may receive up to $200 in aid per semester.

 - d. By the end of his undergraduate sophomore year, the student must have and maintain a grade point sufficient to ensure graduation from the institution in which he is enrolled.
 - e. Aid may be granted for not more than five undergraduate academic years and for not more than four seminary academic years.
 2. Requirements to be met by the students:
 - a. The students shall establish need for such aid by completing the forms required by the Board.
 - b. The student shall sign a promissory note made payable to this Board and carrying the following statement:

"I understand that this note represents a loan from the Board of Ministerial Training of the North Arkansas Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. It may be repaid in one of two ways:

 - (1) In service as a minister of the Methodist Church in the State of Arkansas, with the total loan being credited with an amount equal to the maximum annual loan amount allowed by the Board for each full conference year of service.
 - (2) In case I should decide not to enter the ministry of the Methodist Church or in case I do not serve as a minister of the Methodist Church in the State of Arkansas, this note will bear interest from the date of issue at the rate of 4% annually. Payments will begin within six months of my decision not to enter the ministry or within six months after I begin serving in a conference outside the State of Arkansas and are to be made at the minimum rate of $400 per year plus interest." (The loan officer of the Board is given the responsibility of the supervision of collection of these payments.)
 - c. The Board will carry $1,000 in life insurance for each Student on Trial. Students on Trial who desire this insurance shall inform Reverend Wayne Clark, Treasurer, of their desire.
3. Students are expected to provide information concerning their standings and changes of relationship to the North Arkansas Conference to the officers of the Board. The names of these officers will be included in the Annual Conference Journal.
4. The Course of Study Schools
 - A. The Board will pay $250 to support the St. Paul Course of Study School and $250 to support the Perkins Course of Study School.
 - B. Approved Supply men who attend either of these Course of Study Schools will receive room and board scholarships from the institution which they attend.
 - C. The Board will give $25 for the purchase of books to each man who attends either of these schools. The books must be paid for by the men themselves who, in turn, will send a list of purchased books to the treasurer, Reverend Wayne Clark, who will authorize check for reimbursement. Books are not to be charged to the treasurer nor the Board.

5. Correspondence Work
 - A. The Board will play fees for men in the course of study including:
 1. License to preach
 2. Introductory Studies
 3. The Course of Study
 - B. The expense of grading papers re-submitted for grading will be paid by the student.
6. Part-Time Approved Supplies

8. Arkansas Pastors' School

We will support the Arkansas Pastors' School by giving $500 per year to its budget.

J. C. WILCOX, Secretary

BOARD OF MISSIONS

Adopted May 29, 1968

This makes the last report that the present conference Board of Missions will make to the North Arkansas Conference and to the Methodist Church. From the coming year on it will be the United Methodist Church and a new board for the most part in a new quadrennium. Many have been the hours spent in study and planning during these four years. Many have been the accomplishments. The Board of Missions is the clearing house and companion in effort to the Cabinet, the Minister and the laity of the Conference. All of us have tried to give encouragement and cooperation to all who have come our way. We trust that this our final report of approval and recommendation will be acceptable to God and approved by the Conference itself. It has been a joy to serve our Lord in this great area of Christian service.

I. Promotion

A. Advance Specials

1. That we continue the progressive program of missionary education and giving with the Conference. That each district and each charge within the Conference develop a program of missions that will not only increase giving, but will bring to all a new understanding and a rededication to the total mission of the Church.
2. That the North Arkansas Conference accept the following Advance Special Goals for 1968-69:
 - a. National Division and Annual Conference Projects

Alaska Methodist University	$5,000
Oklahoma Indian Mission	7,000
Spanish-Speaking Work, Rio Grande Conference	7,000
Negro Work in South Central Jurisdiction	1,350
Lydia Patterson Institute, Operation, Maintenance	7,000
Aldersgate Methodist Camp (Con. Advance Special) ..	2,000
 - b. World Division Projects

National Rural Life Center, in the Philippines	$8,000

(This is an interdenominational effort to improve agricultural methods and will involve theological students of the Union Theological Seminary in that country.)

Scholarships in secondary schools in Southern Congo—these scholarships are $150 each per year.

Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief—Voluntary Amount (For listing of specific Advance Specials for MCOR, see PARTNERSHIP IN MISSIONS, 1966-67, pages 421-426, and in the 1967-68 Supplement, pages 7 to 10.)

3. We recommend the continuation of the "Bishop's Special Advance Fund" to which churches, organizations within the local church, or private individuals may contribute for Advance Special credit. The fund is administered by Bishop Paul V. Galloway and is used for such World Division Advance Special needs as he deems advisable in his missionary travels. The Bishop will notify such churches as to the project for which their Advance Special gifts have been used. This fund may be sent to Grafton Thomas, Treasurer, or directly to Bishop Galloway, and should be designated for "Bishop's Special Advance Fund."

B. Missionary Support

1. The cost of maintaining a single missionary overseas is now $6,000 per year and $12,000 per couple. Churches supporting missionaries should endeavor to raise their support proportionately. Churches not presently supporting a missionary overseas should consider accepting shares of not less than $750 toward the support of one. Some of the missionaries related to our conference, and the amounts of additional support needed for them are:
 McCain, Miss Pearl—Japan$3,000
 Schooler, Mr. W. Ronald—Southern Congo 3,250
 In addition to these who are related to our conference, Reverend A. W. Martin, Jr., a member of the North Arkansas Conference, and his wife, are serving in Mexico. This type of Advance Special support gives the local church a personal tie with a missionary and his work overseas. We note with appreciation that several churches in our conference are providing basic salary support for missionaries. A list of these missionaries may be found in the book, PARTNERSHIP IN MISSIONS 1966-67, on page 37.
2. We trust that churches in the North Arkansas Conference will be in earnest prayer for all our missionaries over the world. Churches are encouraged to have copies of "The Prayer Calendar" available for their members. These may be secured from the Service Center, 7820 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio.
3. Churches desiring to select Advance Specials in addition to those listed above will find a comprehensive listing of all approved Advance Specials in the book, PARTNERSHIP IN MISSIONS 1966-67, and in the Supplement, 1967-68. Pastors may order these books free of charge from the Methodist Board of Missions, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, New York 10027.

C. Other Aids to Missions

1. We urge every charge to conduct a church-wide School of Missions this year following the church-wide study theme for 1968-69. We recommend that January and February be designated "Church-wide School of Missions Months" and that special emphasis be given to the study during this period.
2. We hope that missionaries available in our area for 1968-69 will be invited to speak in our Conference and Districts for the purpose of missionary cultivation. We suggest that churches desiring a missionary speaker contact the District Missionary Secretary and/or the Conference Missionary Secretary and/or Miss Virginia S. Henry, Director, Department of Field Interpretation, 475 Riverside Drive, Room 1305, New York, New York 10027. (Two returned missionaries of our Conference, Miss Edith Martin of Harrison and Reverend Jon Guthrie, both of whom served in the Congo, may be invited to speak to church groups.)
3. We urge each charge to send one representative from the local Commission on Missions to the Missionary Weekend Workshop, June 21-23, 1968, at Mt. Sequoyah and that financial assistance be given by the Conference Board of Missions for one lay person from each church as follows:

Fayetteville District$ 5.00
All Other Districts 10.00

Persons attending the workshop are asked to send their name and address to the District Missionary Secretary who will then compile the list for his District and forward it to the Conference Treasurer for the financial supplement. All District Missionary Secretaries are called upon to attend the meeting of the South Central Jurisdiction summer Missionary Conference at Mt. Sequoyah June 24-27, 1968.

4. We are glad to report that our Conference is well represented on the General Board of Missions by Nels Barnett of First Church, Batesville. We also rejoice that one of our own number, Reverend William Cheyne is Director of the Advance for the South Central Jurisdiction.
5. Inasmuch as the Sub-Committee on Mission Studies for the Conference has met with such success during the past two years, your Board of Missions recommends its continuance. This Sub-Committee will be responsible for the Promotion and Preparation of the Mission Studies for the Conference, District and local churches. We sincerely urge the Conference Board of Education to join with us in this promotion, and feel that much of the success of the program during the past two Conference years was due to its cooperation.

D. Church Building Shares

1. We recognize that our Lord was concerned about the ever widening spread of the Gospel, and that this should be the concern of His Church in every generation. As our cities grow, there is a growing need for the establishment of new congregations. These new groups need the encouragement of our older congregations by means of financial help in building. This prompts us to recommend that we continue our program of Church Extension by raising the $20,000 in Special Extension Shares each year for the use of our North Arkansas Conference in assisting these congregations. We suggest that the amount be apportioned among the districts by the World Service and Finance Commission, and that each district be urged to develop its own program of Church Extension. We further suggest that the District Stewards of each district apportion to the local churches the amount apportioned to the district by the Commission on World Service and Finance. We ask that the Special Church Extension Shares raised in the Conference program, be handled through the Conference Board of Missions and that the promoting of the program be correlated through the Interboard Council of our Conference.
2. There shall be a Committee on Special Church Extension within the Board of Missions, and it shall have the following duties:
 - a. To assist the Executive Secretary of the Interboard Council, the District Superintendents and the District Missionary Societies in the planning and promotion of the following:
 - (1) Establishment of outpost Sunday Schools
 - (2) Purchasing new building sites
 - (3) Building new churches
 - (4) Merging of churches
 - (5) Setting up Mobile Units
 - b. The disbursing of Building Shares and other Conference funds allocated to Special Church Extension purposes. The disbursing of regular extension funds, and the handling of all Exploratory information sheets going to the National Division requesting loans or grants for building. Money shall be disbursed on the following basis:
 - (1) A properly completed application form must be submitted to the Committees before any funds can be granted. The application forms will be available from the Church Extension Secretary. Funds requested shall be approved by the District Missionary Society and the District Superintendent.
 - (2) The Committee has authority to suggest the adjustment, acceptance, or rejection of the application and to make recommendations to the Board of Missions.

- (3) The Executive Secretary of the Interboard Council shall be responsible for the Investigating of the requests and making recommendations to the Committees as to the merits of the requests.
 - (4) The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the priority of Extension Share Funds distribution, and they are asked to report their recommendations to the Board of Missions before the Mid-Year Meeting if possible.
 - (5) The following churches shall have priority on Special Extension Share Funds provided they are recommended by the Bishop's Cabinet and approved by the Conference Board of Missions on the basis of urgency of need, recognized potential growth, and resources in the community where the project is located:
 - a. Cherokee Village, Paragould District
 - b. South Side, Batesville District
3. Two Mobile Chapel Units in recent years were purchased by Special Extension Share Funds. These are being used effectively in our Conference—one at the Forrest Hills Church in Forrest City—and the other by the South Side congregation, Batesville. The Board of Missions shall determine the future placement of the two trailers after consultation with the Bishop and the Cabinet. A third Mobile Unit has been acquired from the Board of Evangelism and is in use in the Fort Smith District.

E. Larger Parish and Group Ministry Programs

That the Board of Missions and the Town and Country Commission cooperate in the policy of seeking to assist District Superintendents, Pastors and church members in establishing and maintaining the Larger Parishes and the Group Ministry. To this end, the Committee on Research and Survey of the Board of Missions is continuing a study to find the natural areas in which larger parish or group ministry needs to be established in those places where closer cooperation between pastors and churches will strengthen the ministry of the churches. Many open country churches cannot survive without this cooperative effort. The Research and Survey Chairman and his Committee are prepared to work with District Superintendents and Pastors in this important ministry.

F. Church Extension

We concur with the Town and Country Commission that a special committee within the Board of Missions be designated to work with the Town and Country Commission in setting up Guide-Lines for building programs where Loans and Gifts are requested.

G. At the Suggestion of the Bishop and the Cabinet

We recommend that the maximum donation from the Church Extension Fund be increased from $5,000 to $7,500. Those churches whose applications have been approved but have not received their donations are to receive the new amount—$7,500.

III. Policy for Mission Salary Aid

It should be kept in mind that Mission Salary Aid from our Conference Board of Missions is from a Mission Board. The primary purpose of our salary aid is (1) to help new church situations get established and self-supporting. (2) to aid in a continuing ministry to smaller churches and circuits (mostly rural), which are unable to pay a living wage to their pastor. With this purpose in mind the following points are established as qualifications governing the use of Mission Salary Aid.

- Aid to new churches will be on a year to year basis; however, it will be understood that when a new church receives aid it will be on a decreasing basis each year and all aid will cease completely at the end of the fourth year. Exceptions to this rule will be by 2/3 vote of the entire Board. We strongly recommend that all churches terminate their request within four years and not to expect any help beyond eight years.
- Salary Aid will not be given in any situation in which the pastor's total income exceeds $7,200.00 or above.
- Salary Aid will not be given to any church or charge which does not conduct an Every Member Visitation yearly and give evidence of such to the Board. It is extremely important for both pastor and District Superintendent to use all of their powers of persuasion to influence and educate the local churches or charges to move in the direction of an annual Every Member Visitation program.
- Salary Aid request from District Superintendents will be given consideration ONLY if the request has been made in writing on the proper form to the Chairman of the Committee on Salary Aid. Such requests are to be submitted by February 1 for Conference and by November 1 for General Board.
- In established churches or charges where continuing salary aid is necessary, the District Superintendent is requested to use every means at his disposal to merge or combine churches or circuits, to create interdenominational work and to promote inter-racial work in order to decrease Salary Aid.

- F. Priority will be given to newly established churches from available funds of the Salary Aid, with churches eight years old being re-classified as established, continuing, situations.
- G. The maximum amount of salary aid given in any situation for any one year shall be $1,200.00. Exceptions to this rule be by 2/3 vote of the entire Board.
- H. The Board of Missions will work in co-operation with the Commission on Minimum Salary when requests are made to both groups for Salary Aid.
- I. In case of an emergency request for salary aid, between meetings of the entire Board, the Executive Committee is empowered to act on such request in accordance with these rules.
- J. These rules may be rescinded, amended or changed in any way at any meeting of the entire Board by a 2/3 vote of the entire Board.

IV. Policy for Regular Church Extension Loans or Donations

- A. That all applications for Church Extension Loans and Donations be made on designated forms and be completed in detail, before action is taken with reference to them by the Board of Missions.
- B. That regular Extension Funds be approved by the Conference Board of Missions only for churches completing a project, whether the application be for a grant or loan. That such application forms, whether the request is to the Conference Board or to the General Board, be in the hands of the respective Section Leaders by February 1, 1969. This enables our leaders in these areas to effectively present the requests to the Conference Board at the Mid-Year Meeting.
- C. That all charges receiving Mission Aid be required to have an Every Member Canvass, and that the report of that canvass be certified by the District Superintendent in writing to the Board of Missions before any action is taken on the application.
- D. That there be a bonded contractor on any project in which a church requires assistance from the Board of Missions, where such project exceeds 15% of the total value of the church property.
- E. That all churches follow the requirements as set forth in the Methodist Discipline paragraph 723, sections 1 and 2. The Conference Board of Missions strongly recommends that an architect be employed for building and remodeling projects.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE OF NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE MAY 27-30, 1968

The past three years as Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service have been an enriching experience for me, and one of the most interesting parts has been representing the women of the church at Annual Conference. I have learned much and enjoyed every hour spent with you. You have made me feel at home among you. I have felt a real part of the Board of Missions, the Deaconess Board, TRAFICO, Town and Country Commission, and the Commission on Christian Vocations, having attended, with our Conference Secretary of Missionary Personnel, two of its retreats at Shoal Creek and its Guidance Consultation at Wesley Foundation, at the University of Arkansas where we learned how high-school counselors and ministers can work together so the counselors will not forget the church vocations and the ministers the other types, all of which may be Christian. I know Mrs. E. L. Hunt and Mrs. David Block have felt the same about the Board of Social Concerns and the Board of Evangelism of which they have been a part. We have been very glad to share in the expense of the youth and adult United Nations-Washington Tours with the Board of Social Concerns. Last fall I attended a meeting of the Interboard Council at Hendrix College and I have visited their offices and appreciated how the Woman's Society has always been included in their calendar and they have given us the publicity about our schools and one or the other of the directors get to our annual executive meetings. We've been happy to help financially with the film library.

There has been more cooperation between the Conferences in Arkansas. I've been pleased to be a part of the Area Council. This year our third Inter-conference School of Christian Mission will be at Hendrix College July 15-19. For two years we've had our mid-year executive committee meetings at the same time as those of Little Rock Conference at Aldersgate Camp so the school steering committee could meet and the fellowship and meals together have proved invaluable. And speaking of Aldersgate Camp, we have given $1,000 to it each year and individual camperships and we do appreciate all that is being done there. I've attended two of their annual dinners of the camp board and breakfasts for the speakers, Mrs. Laskey and Mary Lou Barnwell.

More cooperation has been evident between the Woman's Society and the Wesleyan Service Guild with week-end annual meetings the past two years so we could have a joint session on Saturday afternoon with joint pledge and communion services. An innovation both times has been interpretations in rhythm of the Guild Hymn and How Great Thou Art. The Theme of our annual meeting this year was "Modern Woman and Her Faith" with Mrs. Cecil Matthews, Jurisdiction Secretary of Spiritual Life Cultivation, one of our main speakers. Mrs. Hazel Dabney, Jurisdiction Secretary of the Wesleyan Service Guild, alerted us to changes in structure, one of which will be a joint membership committee on the local level, so new women will be informed about both organizations and be able to choose, and mutual benefit rather than rivalry will result. There will be more incentive for initiative on the local scene, with task groups planning tasks using the leaders of the whole community to meet needs. Our magazine, The Methodist Woman, may have a new name. And, as you have heard, we will be the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Two new Societies have been organized in the Conference this year, one in Christ United Church in Paragould and one in Sequoyah Church in Fayetteville. Also, there are two new Guilds, in Cavanaugh in Fort Smith and in Siloam Springs.

Our pledge to the Woman's Division this past year was $87,625, and it has been paid in full. World Banks keep bringing in more each year—this one $4,692.62 for the Woman's Society and the Guild. Special Memberships amounted to $6,005.00. We itinerated Pearle McCain in all the Districts and Corsages for Missions for her came to $1,713.00. We put out a newsheet to publicize the itinerary as well as to give a fall boost to Societies and Guilds after summer slumps or vacations.

Since supply askings will be no more but all included in the pledge now, we must give more undesignated and trust our leaders to use our money where it is needed most. This requires education, for people still like to know just where their money goes. We used to have the "Do You Know" booklets, but now we have a new one called Project Handbook of Home Fields, and soon one will be out for other parts of the world. Through these and our Prayer Calendar we can become acquainted with our workers and work.

Speaking of workers, we have one in our own Conference, Bernice Rogers, a rural church and community worker, who's changing districts from Fayetteville to Batesville, but she'll be a blessing wherever she goes. My husband and I visited her work camp last summer when youth from Helena were with her camping on an abandoned bridge on the edge of the Buffalo River. We got there in time to eat a delicious supper with them and then went to a youth rally. Next morning we went to a small church in a lovely little valley. The boys worked on the grounds while the girls taught vacation church school. We talked to them of their future plans. This summer one of the boys is coming back to work with Bernice. It is such experiences as these that recruit youth for church vocations.

We have moved ahead in race relations. Our interconference schools have been integrated with Southwest Conference with us. Their president has been in all three of the annual meetings when I have presided. Mrs. Edgar Dixon, President of Little Rock Conference, and I went to Southwest Conference annual meeting in Hot Springs last year and were a real part of it.

In ecumenicity we are not lagging, for we have cooperated with the Arkansas Council of Churches and the Arkansas Church Women United. When I could not go to the meetings we were represented by Mrs. John Workman. I led a city-wide and church-wide study of Japan in Fayetteville last October, meeting in a different church four Sunday nights beginning with supper serving Japanese food. Children's workers were trained two evenings, one by Bernice Rogers. Pearle McCain was here to open the study. It was lifted up at the state meeting of Church Women United as an example of what can be done when the churches of a city will work together. I have attended and urged our women to go to Southwest Conference on the Christian World Mission. It will be on the Mountain June 8-14.

I have been in every district at least twice and Fort Smith District six times. It was a joy to go with Edith Martin and Pearle McCain. I can still see the little churches bulging with people eager to hear of some of our work in far-away places first hand. We have had two World Understanding Workshops, and Edith Martin helped in the one in Fort Smith. The focus was on Africa, and Mrs. E. L. Hunt, Secretary of Christian Social Relations, planned these after going to one in Baton Rouge.

Last summer we had several college students lined up to attend the Jurisdictional Missionary Conference here on the Mountain, but at the last minute they got jobs till we only had one who was ready to enter college. It has been suggested that churches who hire students during the summer might release them to come. Please think of this if you have one in your church.

Mrs. Howard Johnson of Clinton is the new Conference President. She has been a very able Vice-President—always at my right hand to help. She will lead the women of North Arkansas to greater service. There are to be many changes—fewer officers. Let me close with a poem—"Change" by Mildred Hoyer:

How we rebel against it!
Give us what we know:
Familiar faces,
Familiar tunes,
Accented routine.
Let us be comfortable.

But life is change.
Change is the new,
Change is the catalyst,
Change is growth,
Change is more:
It is letting go
Of the past;
It is grasping the future
With firm hands of faith.

MRS. R. K. BENT, President

 - F. The charge paid the percentage items.
 - G. When the student was or is assigned as an associate or assistant and meets the above requirements then the charge must have paid or will pay percentage items on his income, too, since June 1955 when this became a standing rule, Conference Journal. (19)
 - H. Each student pastor or pastor who has student years of service must submit in writing his request for the years he was a student pastor and prove that he met the above requirements.
 - I. The above guidelines will become effective with the beginning of the 1968-69 Conference Year, and are not retroactive.
22. We feel that supply years have been denied some men by the action of the Annual Conference of 1967 in item 21 above. Therefore, we request the Conference to grant the year 1968-69 as a period in which men denied full time years may apply to the secretary of the Board for a study of those years in accord with item 21, A through H.

ARKANSAS/LOUISIANA METHODIST COMMISSION

Adopted May 29, 1968

Recommendations

The Arkansas/Louisiana Methodist Commission makes the following recommendations to the 1968 Annual Conference:

1. That the dates for the 1969 Circulation Campaign be January 5-12.
2. That the quotas for each local church be set as one subscriber for every seven members reported by that church to the 1968 Annual Conference.

3. That the subscription price be $2.50 per year. Churches can become eligible for a $2.00 subscription price when they send in a list of subscribers equal to one for every three members reported to the 1968 Annual Conference.
4. That we again challenge district superintendents and district directors to find one additional church that will include the paper in their budget and send it to every family on their mailing list. That each district be asked to face its quota for 1969 as one of its major emphases during the first year of the new quadrennium.
5. That the commission on World Service and Finance of the Louisiana, Little Rock and North Arkansas Annual Conferences be asked to continue their annual apportionment of $4,600 each for the support of the papers.
6. That the editor and either the chairman or secretary of the commission be authorized to sign notes at the Union National Bank, Little Rock, for money which might need to be borrowed for current operations.
7. That the executive committee be empowered to act for the commission in matters that require attention between meetings of the commission.
8. That we express appreciation to Bishop Paul V. Galloway and Bishop Aubrey G. Walton for the undergirding support which they give the commission and the papers.
9. That we express appreciation to the district superintendents, the district directors, the pastors and the laymen who worked so diligently to promote the publications.
10. We express gratitude to the hundreds of people who channel the news to us and furnish us with their reactions concerning the directions being followed by the papers and their staff.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION REPORT

Adopted May 29, 1968

The Historical Commission recommends that its project for the coming year be the obtaining of photographs of each member of the Annual Conference. With the cooperation of the Cabinet, it is hoped that these can be obtained at District Meetings; one copy to be sent to the Arkansas Methodist; one copy retained in the Commission's files; and one copy given to the Minister.

It is further hoped that in cooperation with the Historical Commission of the Little Rock Conference that a map can be designed which will show the Methodist historical sites and institutions of our State, and that this can be made available through the churches to laymen who may desire to visit these institutions while traveling in our State.

We urge every Charge to have a Historical Commission, and to write a local history of that particular church, obtain photographs of buildings that may become valuable as time goes by, and perhaps institute an effort to obtain photographs of all pastors who have served that particular charge throughout its history.

Respectfully submitted,

EUGENE H. HALL, Chairman

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

Adopted May 30, 1968

To live life under commitment to God in Jesus Christ includes consideration of the occupation of life. We fulfill our Christian commitment through the occupation we choose and live in from day to day. To answer the call of God that comes to every person is to make personal applications through areas, or roles, or responsibilities of life as is included in the life work. We as people in the church must assist our youth in consideration of choosing his life work in terms of a basic commitment as a Christian.

The needs for personnel in the occupational services of the church are great. Let us as churchmen keep the many opportunities before youth and adults that offer good choices for some youth and will share services in the mission of the church that are relevant.

I. Reports of 1967-1968

Special Quarterly Conference Report Forms. The commission has provided a copy for each local church to share full information about program and persons who have an interest in church related occupations now. This is the first time for such comprehensive reporting from the local church level.

1968 Methodist Related Occupations booklet was mailed by the commission to every local pastor and guidance counselor in each of the public schools in the bounds of the North Arkansas Conference.

Guidance Consultations. On May 3 the Guidance Consultation for church leaders and school guidance counselors was held at Jonesboro, Arkansas with the Rev. Mr. Arthur Hopkinson of the Interboard Committee, Nashville and Mr. Leroy Pennington, Director of the State Guidance Service Department of the Board of Education of Arkansas as leaders. We are projecting the possibility of having four of these consultations in four centers of the conference during the next conference year with one being sponsored jointly with the Little Rock Conference Commission on Christian Vocations in the greater Little Rock Area.

Two Workshops for District Committees. In Clarksville the three western districts of the conference and at Newport the four eastern districts of the conference met in one day workshops on the District Committee on Christian Vocations. In the districts there have been many area workshops on the Local Committee on Christian Vocations as a follow up program. There was full participation by members of the committees in each district.

Planning Session of the Conference Commission. In September a two day planning session was held at Shoal Creek Camp for the commission from which came many of the plans for this year and suggestions for the future.

Lab School-Coaching Conference, March 10-14, 1968, First Methodist Church, Conway. "You and Your Life Work: A Choice for Youth" was the course of study with Dr. Richard Bauer of the Interboard Committee, Nashville, Tennessee, as leader. This was a family unit approach in the lab school in five night sessions for three hours each with 22 10th and 11th graders, 39 parents (17 couples and 5 singles) and 11 Leaders in Training participating. Families and leaders in training both believe this approach to be most beneficial to all involved. The Coaching Conference on the same course was held in the days of the week and we expect eleven persons to be certified for this course which will only be used in family unit situations in schools of the future. The Interboard Council and the Board of Education cooperated in sharing the expense of this school and conference, which was a first timer for Arkansas Methodism.

Job Data Book-Occupations in the Methodist Church. This new compilation in further detail about occupations currently open in the Methodist Church with personnel listings added every two months is being provided to each Wesley Foundation Director and possibly each placement office on the college campuses within our conference.

II. Recommendations for Future

1. Internship-observation experiences. Pastor can give interested Senior High youth opportunities in local churches during the summer months to see the church in action in terms of daily program, activities, pastor, Christian Education workers, leaders in music, teaching, etc., through personal experiences and observation and evaluations through conversations with said pastors.

2. Pastor's Conversation Groups. We encourage conversations of pastors with fellow pastors about current ministry in the church (implications, needs, etc.); conversations with youth who are interested in the ministry; with youth who do not know what they are interested in; with youth who are in college and seminary study who have decided for the ministry. These could be informal small group conversations or even one to one.

3. Continue and enlarge relationships with church leaders and public school guidance counselors with the purpose of working together in mutual service to the same youth in the given town, as they move through the process of occupational decision.

4. Keep parents alert to the significant role they have in assisting helpfully their youth in all aspects of occupational choice. Local Churches should have families enroll in the "You and Your Life Work" course.

5. Provide real opportunity for children, youth, adults in membership training classes or otherwise to seriously think through the meaning and implications of Christian Vocation or God's call to every man. Theological, Biblical backgrounds of understanding are needed and practical applications in the world of today are encouraged.

6. Confront every youth in 10, 11, 12 grades in local churches with opportunities in occupations related to the Methodist church in mission across the world with the wide variety of interest and deep challenge to service, that is based on current information.

7. Provide orientation workshops for conference and district members with responsibilities for the work of education and enlistment in Christian vocations soon after June 1, 1968.

8. Plan for Senior High to participate in a tour of the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, for observation, study, interpretation of opportunities through the Methodist Church in the healing ministry. Contact George Stewart, Chaplain.

9. Schedule for interested youth a team of courses from the Methodist Hospital in Memphis, for a visit to local high school and churches to discuss with students and parents careers in nursing available in the Methodist Church. Contact George Stewart, Chaplain.

10. Creative planning for observance of Ministry Sunday in May in every local Church.

11. Have a Local Committee on Christian Vocations organized and functioning with real service to youth in the process of life work choice; to parents and leaders who want to be helpful in assistance.

12. Inform adults who may be interested in second careers about the vast opportunities in church related careers.

May we as churchmen—leaders, parents—desire to be helpful counselors with youth as they make vital choices regarding their life work. May we improve our effectiveness through preparations of study, experiences, observations, evaluations and conversations with youth today so that we are relevant in language, aspects of challenge, sense of values. May we love youth enough to so prepare for service that counts.

We as a commission in this year are grateful for every evidence of cooperation, suggestions that you of the conference have shared with us as we have tried to fulfill the tasks given to this commission in the conference.

Let us never waiver in our concern to challenge youth and adults to be Christian in life and to consider church related occupations as live options of life work.

Respectfully submitted,

ARKANSAS AREA TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION 1968-1969

Adopted May 30, 1968

- I. Special emphasis will be given during the coming Conference Year in providing assistance to Town and Country Churches who are considering a building program.
The Area Director will be available for guidance and counsel, during the earlier stages of planning, to any church, pastor, or District Superintendent. The purpose of his services in this area of work will be to help improve the looks, quality and functionality of the church building that is to be built.
He will provide information concerning the guidelines required by the General and Conference Boards of Missions to churches that expect to ask for grants or loans to assist them in building. He will present to proper local church boards, committees and congregations many architect plans for sanctuaries and educational buildings. These plans will reflect the outside appearances and floor space arrangements. They will vary in size, appearance, and arrangement of rooms, quality of construction. Construction costs will vary from $10,000 to $100,000. These are only preliminary plans, and are not for use in the actual construction. Rather, they are to give the congregation ideas of basic design, appearance and arrangement of floor space. Once a plan is chosen, it can be laid before a certified architect or qualified draftsman or engineer for complete drawing of plans.
The Area Director will attempt to create a consciousness on the part of the local church regarding the Stewardship of Building. This emphasis will include programs of sound finance in building and paying for church construction. He will point out many economy measures in construction which will enable a church to obtain a better quality building, or more building for the money. In addition, he will point out tax saving incentives offered by the Federal Government which enable some donors to make larger gifts at a smaller "out of the pocket" cost.

- II. We recommend to the incoming Town and Country Commission that they adopt the above-mentioned Building Program for its "special emphasis" during the new quadrennium.
- III. We recommend that the Conference Board of Missions set up a special committee to work with the Area Director of Town and Country work in establishing some guidelines and procedures regarding building programs by local churches who plan to ask for grants or loans to assist them in their building.
- IV. The Area Town and Country Workshop will be held on Monday of the same week designated for the Annual Mid-Year Meetings of the two Conferences in 1969.
- V. The Area Town and Country Workshop will feature "The Objectives and Ideas in Church Construction" as its program next year.
- VI. We recommend the holding of divine worship services in each church every week, wherever practical or possible.
- VII. We recommend that every Methodist Church in Arkansas have an appropriate sign designating it as a Methodist Church. We also recommend churches putting up new signs to designate the building as "The United Methodist Church."
- VIII. We shall continue to promote interest in holding worship services in the recreational areas of our State.
- IX. When requested by the District Superintendent, the Commission will be willing to assist him in a study regarding the Larger Parish Programs, new church locations and the abandonment of church properties.
- X. We shall cooperate with the University of Arkansas and the Council of Churches in the Town and Country Church Seminar, which is held annually on the campus of the University. The Seminar program this year will deal with cooperative ideas and procedures between churches of all denominations in the small towns and rural areas which may strengthen the influence and activity of such church communities.
- XI. The Executive Director, in cooperation with the Executive Committee, select one rural minister in each Conference to attend the Seminar on Church and Community Life, which is held at Emory University in the summer. We will pay up to $100.00 on the expenses of those attending this Seminar.
- XII. We request the Commission on Minimum Salary to allow up to $500 for expenses of pastors on minimum salary to attend the Town and Country Church Seminar.
- XIII. The Commission shall be responsible for promoting stewardship through the Every Member Visit, Tithing, Wills, Legacies, The Methodist Foundation of Arkansas and the Lord's Acre-Lord's Hour Plan.
- XIV. We will also inform all Methodist Churches in Arkansas of the "Financial Crusades," a service made available by the General Board of Missions through the Department of Finance and Field Services. Their Directors are ordained Methodist ministers who have been highly successful in church fund-raising and offer their services at a fraction of the cost of secular professional stewardship directors.
- XV. We will request and try to make use of the Lay Speaking Program of the Conference Board of Lay Activities. To further develop the goal, we will prepare and recommend to those conducting worship services a uniform Methodist Order of Worship. We urge that everyone conducting such services give an invitation to Christian Discipleship at the close of the service.

- XVI. The Enlarge Charge Program shall be continued with a goal of at least 300-400 members for every full-time pastor.
- XVII. We shall work with TRAFICO in offering to make available films and filmstrips to be used by the Districts and local churches.
- XVIII. A District Director of Town and Country Work may be elected for each district by the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work on nomination by the District Superintendent after consultation with the executive committee of the commission. He shall work in close cooperation with the Executive Director of the Commission in all phases of the town and country program. His chief functions shall be to expedite all program aspects in his district, to assist the district superintendent in implementing the program, and to serve as liaison between the district and conference programs.
- XIX. The Rural Church of the Year Awards shall be promoted according to the guidelines developed by the special committee on the Rural Church of the Year.
- XX. We shall seek to develop cooperative procedures between the church and governmental agencies, the Arkansas Council of Churches and other denominations.
- XXI. We shall cooperate with the Cabinet, the Boards of Missions, Evangelism, and Education in establishing new congregations and outpost Sunday Schools.
- XXII. The Town and Country Commission is of the conviction that there is a direct relationship between the general interest in a local church and the financial strength of a local church as compared with the existence and systematic activity of the following church groups: The Methodist Men, the Women's Society of Christian Service, The Methodist Youth Fellowship and the Official Board. Therefore, our program this year will include the working out of a plan that will encourage the organization and activity of a Methodist Youth Fellowship, a Women's Society of Christian Service, a Methodist Men's Club and an Official Board in every local church. When this plan has been conceived the Area Director will be available to assist any pastor and local church requesting his services to organize and set in motion any one of these, or all of these, important local church organizations.
- XXIII. All of the ministers belonging to the Southwest Conference and serving in the Arkansas Area will be informed as to the above-mentioned program of the Area Town and Country Commission. They will be offered the services of its Area Director and invited to participate in its program.
- XXIV. We ask that $9,000.00 be granted by the Commission on World Service and Finance for the Town and Country Work and Stewardship Promotion for this next Conference Year.
- XXV. We recommend Reverend W. O. Scroggin, Jr., for the work he has done the past three years as the Area Director of Town and Country Work and Stewardship, and request the Bishop and the Cabinet to reappoint him as the Area Director of Town and Country Work and Stewardship, representing the North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences for the coming year.

Report No. 2

The Annual Town and Country Area Workshop was held January 15, 1968 at Aldersgate Methodist Camp, with fifty-four in attendance. Its purpose was providing information that would improve the look, quality, and function of church construction throughout the State.

The Area Town and Country office has supplied large amounts of printed material to churches throughout the Area, some without charge, such as "What Tithing Means To Me" by Coach Frank Broyles. We have printed and sold about ten thousand pledge cards and placed about twenty metal church signs. We also keep a large supply of catalogs listing the EMV material and costs.

The Commission sponsored an "Area Stewardship Workshop" last fall, attended by one hundred fifty-four persons.

The Area Director attended six District Conferences. The Town and Country work and stewardship programs were presented at each, and he spoke at five of these conferences. He assisted in three district stewardship workshops, and conducted eight sub-district stewardship workshops in which thirty-six churches participated. He preached in seventy-one different churches, often as many as two or three times a Sunday, has been preacher in two revival meetings, one in a small-town church, the other in an open-country church, has spoken at two district preachers' meetings, two Fifth Sunday rallies, one civic club, and two "Methodist Men" meetings.

The Area Director was among twenty-two ministers, office, and church and community workers attending the quadrennial meeting of Town and Country Work in Columbus, Ohio, in November.

The past year the Area Director served on the Program Committee of the Town and Country Seminar, and presided over one section. This Committee met four times this Conference Year, all meetings attended by the Director. The annual meeting of the Town and Country Seminar was attended by fifty-eight ministers and their wives, thirty-three of whom were Methodist. Five other denominations were represented.

We call your attention to the large film library available in the Area Town and Country office, available to every church without cost, except return postage. Our working arrangement with Little Rock Conference TRAFCO has been most satisfactory. They have been sharing in cost of rent, use of office equipment, and office secretary's salary. Our office secretary mails out films daily. She has prepared a new listing and worked out a practical system of scheduling and mailing films. Our major problem has been that often films are not returned promptly after showing, and we ask for cooperation on the part of those who may have been negligent in this matter.

The most significant, worthwhile service we have rendered this year has been the giving of guidance in building programs. Coming to the sudden realization that something definite was needed in this area, the Area Director has equipped himself to offer practical guidance in this field, securing much technical information and numerous architectural plans for church facilities. To date he has met with fourteen local church building committees, some as often as three times, encouraging them to build better-quality buildings more in accord with their needs, and more attractive. He has presented plans for fund raising, and has estimated costs with some degree of accuracy. He has been, and will be of invaluable service to any local church considering a building program. It is important that he be called in during the earliest possible stage of planning. He will go anywhere in the State, sharing materials and information, upon request of the local church, at no cost to the local church whatsoever.

The Commission announces that the winners in the Church of the Year Program are: The Small Town Church of the Year Award, The Calico Rock United Methodist Church, Reverend Burl Long, pastor; The Open Country Church of the Year Award, The Holiday Hills United Methodist Church, Reverend Tom Cowan, pastor. Both of these churches are in the Batesville District. Certificates of Recognition were given to: Graham Chapel and Perry churches, Conway District; and Brightwater and Gentry Churches, Fayetteville District; and Cole's Chapel and Mulberry churches, Fort Smith District; The Lexa United Methodist Church, Forrest City District; and The Mt. Carmel and Hickory Ridge churches, Jonesboro District.

| (1) Salary | $9,600.00 |
| (2) Travel and Expense | 2,400.00 |
| (Except for the Batesville District Superintendent who will be allowed $3,000.00 because of the increased travel demand in this District.) | |
| (3) Utility Allowance | 800.00 |
| (4) Secretarial Help | 600.00 |
| (5) We recommend to the District Stewards of the 7 Districts of the Annual Conference that they give special consideration to the providing of office equipment and supplies, a business telephone, postage and stationery for the District Superintendent's office, from the District Administration Fund. | |
13. We recommend that the North Arkansas Conference continue to recognize the Disciplinary rights of the pastoral Charge to pay the Pastor's expense incurred in his work. No percentage is to be charged against this Travel and Utility expense. A salary may not be lowered to initiate an expense fund or to increase an expense fund. Exceptions can be made only with the permission of the Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Commission on World Service and Finance.
14. We recommend that the Quarterly Conference of each pastoral charge declare all ministerial support. The report must state remuneration for salary, travel and utility expense, life insurance, social security and all compensation paid to pastor or in behalf of pastor.

15. We recommend that during the month of November a special offering be taken in each church for Ministerial Training and the offering designated "The November Special for Ministerial Training." We suggest that the offering be preceded by a period of promotion and that during this time the program of the Board of Ministerial Training be explained. Since the General Conference has approved an apportionment of 2% of the local Church budget less monies spent for capital investment and for World Service and Advance Specials for Ministerial Training for 1970, we recommend that local churches strive for 1% of the local Church budget less monies spent for capital investment and for World Service and Advance Specials during the years 1968 and 1969.
16. We recommend that the Annual Conference support the plan of the Board of Missions for raising $20,000 each year in the Quadrennium for use by the Board of Missions in Conference Church Extension. We recommend that this amount, $20,000, be apportioned to the Districts as follows:

District	Amount	Percentage
Batesville	$ 2,200	11
Conway	3,000	15
Fayetteville	3,000	15
Forrest City	3,100	15.5
Fort Smith	3,200	16
Jonesboro	3,300	16.5
Paragould	2,200	11
TOTALS	$20,000	100.0

We endorse the Board of Missions recommendations that each District be encouraged to develop its own program of church extension and that such program be presented to the Conference Board of Missions prior to the next Session of the Annual Conference.

17. We recommend that the honorarium for the Conference Preacher be decided upon by the Presiding Bishop and the Commission on World Service and Finance and that this amount be paid from the Conference Administration Fund or the Contingency Fund.
18. We recommend that the Annual Conference continue to recognize the great value of having the Western Methodist Assembly (Mt. Sequoyah) located within the bounds of the Annual Conference and that our appreciation for this great asset be shown by the contribution of a minimum of $10.00 from every pastoral charge, and that additional gifts be encouraged.
19. We recommend that the various Boards and Agencies of the North Arkansas Conference submit names and addresses of laymen serving on these Boards and Agencies to the Conference Secretary in order that he might mail the Conference Journal to these laymen.
20. We recommend that the special offerings be taken in Vacation Church School this summer and that these offerings be designated to the Children's Television Series, BREAKTHRU.
21. We recommend that the Board of Managers of Aldersgate Methodist Camp be given permission to solicit funds from local churches as a part of their Capital Improvement Fund Campaign.
22. We recommend a goal of $10,000 for offerings to be received on Christian Education Sunday.
23. We recommend that the Annual Conference accept the askings for the Temporary General Aid Fund, as follows:

District	Amount	Percentage
Batesville	$1,419	11
Conway	1,934	15
Fayetteville	1,934	15
Forrest City	1,999	15.5

District	Amount	Percentage
Fort Smith	2,064	16
Jonesboro	2,128	16.5
Paragould	1,419	11

24. We recommend that $1,500 be transferred out of the balance in Area Council Funds to the Contingency Fund of the Interboard Council.
25. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve in principle the voluntary offering for the Bishops Fund for Reconciliation, as authorized by the Uniting Conference. We further recommend that the Bishop be authorized to constitute, not later than September 1, 1968, the Area Committee specified by Uniting Conference action, which shall be fairly representative of both Annual Conferences and with particular regard for equitable distribution of members among clergy and laity and the several districts of both Conferences. We further recommend that the Annual Conference authorize the solicitation of these funds in each local church and at such time or times determined by the Committee planning jointly with the two Cabinets, with due regard for procedures recommended by the Committee, but only after the Committee has made public a list of uses to which these monies shall be put. A local church may, if it so desires, direct all of its offering to one specific approved project.
26. All apportionments (in this Report) to Districts and to local churches shall be for a twelve month period. Seven-twelfths of each apportionment is due to be paid by December 31, 1968. Thereafter, the full apportionment is to be paid not later than the same date each calendar year.
27. We recommend that each pastor report to the District Conference the resident membership of each church in his charge. Resident members shall be those who live near enough to attend services regularly, unmarried college students, and men and women in the Armed Services whose residence is within the bounds of the parish.

Report No. 2

Group Hospitalization Insurance

I. We make the following recommendations:

1. All members of the North Arkansas Conference except those eligible for "Medicare," except students serving appointments in or those employed in conferences which have compulsory insurance programs, every approved supply pastor receiving a full-time appointment, and every full-time lay employee of the North Arkansas Conference, except those eligible for Medicare, shall participate in the North Arkansas Conference Group Hospitalization Insurance Plan subject to its laws and regulations.
2. All active members of the Conference and approved supplies 65 years of age and over shall be encouraged to participate in Medicare, the government medical insurance program. (When the Medicare plan went into effect July 1, 1966, all major insurance companies adjusted their programs to comply with it. This is true of Blue Cross-Blue Shield with whom we have our hospitalization insurance. They offer coverage above and beyond that offered by Medicare but will not pay for coverage that is available through Medicare.) If this supplementary coverage is chosen we recommend that the churches involved assume an amount equal to no more than 50% of the appropriate premium listed in the conference policy.

3. All retired personnel of the conference 65 years of age or older (conference members, approved supplies, the wives or widows of either group who are 65 or older) shall be encouraged to participate in Medicare, the government medical insurance program. Those retiring from the North Arkansas Conference shall have the monthly premium for part B of Medicare paid for them by the North Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions, except those who continue to serve as supplies earning $1,000.00 or more and these shall pay their own premium. The supplementary coverage mentioned in 2 above is highly recommended in all instances. When a retired man continues to serve and chooses the supplementary coverage, we recommend that the church he serves participate on the same basis as recommended in 2 above.
4. All retired personnel under 65 (members of the conference, approved supplies, wives, widows, or dependents of the same) who retired at the 1958 session of the North Arkansas Annual Conference or thereafter shall have the conference hospitalization policy carried for them with the premium paid by the North Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions.
5. We further recommend that Blue Cross-Blue Shield be continued as the Group Hospitalization Insurance carrier for our Conference.
6. That the room rent allowance be continued at $18.00 per day and that we continue the $300 surgical schedule.
7. The premium will remain the same as last year. Individual $24.21 per quarter. Family $52.44 per quarter. C. I. E. coverage is optional. Its cost per quarter is: Individual 60 cents; Family $1.50. The premiums are to be shared equally by the ministers and the churches.
8. That hospitalization premiums be continued on a quarterly basis, with due dates of June 10, September 10, and March 10. All insured persons shall send the premiums to the District Treasurer of Group Insurance.
9. All enrollment shall be handled through the office of the Chairman of the Committee on Group Insurance.
10. Some employees now hold a Blue Cross-Blue Shield policy with other groups. Since they have an option to continue under their present coverage, we recommend that the churches involved assume an amount equal to no more than 50% of the appropriate premium listed in the conference policy.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Adopted May 29, 1968

We, your Committee on Publishing Interests desire to make the following report:

First, we would express our appreciation to the Methodist Publishing House for the effective way in which they carry on their work and for the wisdom and foresight they use in planning for the future in a rapidly changing day. It is beyond the ability of most of us to be able to see the enormous amount of planning and preparation that goes into new publications and the new curricula material, for the church school.

Yet, in the face of all of this the Publishing House continues to operate with a very good profit, all of which is divided among the various Annual Conferences for the support of the retired minister, as a supplement to his income from the conferences. A check for $8,940.46 has been presented to this conference.

Since our Publishing House does operate in such a way, and because the profits are returned to the conferences to be used in support of the retired minister, it would seem that each of us would turn first to the Cokesbury Book Stores, for our every need within the church. There may be some of us who would be very pleasantly surprised to learn how completely the needs of any Methodist Church can be met by the Publishing House.

Again, we would express our appreciation to those who have the responsibility of publishing the Together Magazine and the Christian Advocate. These publications are a credit to the church and are a great source of help in the field for which each is intended. We urge the support of these fine papers from every minister and layman of our conference.

We feel that any church that is not taking advantage of the Church Plan for the distribution of the Together Magazine is missing a great opportunity to have a much better informed church at a very low cost. Through this Church Plan, any person can subscribe to this fine magazine for the price of $3.00 per year. There are no requirements placed on the number of subscribers in this plan. It is suggested that a gift subscription be given each new member coming into the church. The publication furnishes a very attractive Gift certificate to be used for this.

We cannot urge too strongly that Methodist Literature be used in each class of our Church School, and that both teacher and pupil be supplied with sufficient literature for carrying on a successful class. Surely, we have been keeping abreast of the changes that have been coming in our Church school literature, and those changes which are just ahead for us for the Youth Division. Let us keep abreast of the times with this new literature.

Surely, every church will make an effort to establish and maintain a Church Library for the good of our people. The Publishing House has a very attractive plan to help you stock such a library at an advantage in price of the books.

We commend our churches for the way in which so many have provided their pews with copies of the Methodist Hymnal in its new form, and with the matching Books of Worship in many churches.

In such changing time it is not always possible to meet every need at just the time it arises, yet the Publishing Interests of the Methodist Church pledges to make every effort and exert its every energy in the supplying of worthwhile materials to every member and friend of the Methodist Church. We ask for your prayers and your support, and we welcome every suggestion or constructive criticism as to the way in which we may better serve you.

Respectfully Submitted

RUFUS F. SORRELLS, Chairman

AUDIT REPORT

Year Ended May 31, 1968

Grafton Thomas, Treasurer

World Service and Finance Commission
North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church
1723 Broadway
Little Rock, Arkansas 72202

We have examined the attached statement of fund balances of the North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church as of May 31, 1967, and May 31, 1968, and the statement of fund transactions for the period June 1, 1967 to May 31, 1968, the funds of which are in the custody of Mr. Grafton Thomas, treasurer. Our examination also included the statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the Board of Pensions of the North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church for the period June 1, 1967 to May 31, 1968, the funds of which are in the custody of Rev. Allan E. Hilliard, treasurer.

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

During the current and prior years funds invested by the Board of Pensions of the North Arkansas Conference in the Stabilization Fund of the Board of Pensions at Evanston, Illinois have been classified as disbursements rather than as an investment. Accordingly, any funds which may be held to the credit of the North Arkansas Conference by the Board of Pensions at Evanston, Illinois are not reflected in these financial statements.

In our opinion the attached statement of fund balances at June 1, 1967, and May 31, 1968, and the statement of fund transactions and cash receipts and disbursements of the Board of Pensions for the period June 1, 1967 to May 31, 1968 (except for funds held to the credit of the North Arkansas Conference by the Board of Pensions at Evanston, Illinois) present fairly the financial position of the North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Church at May 31, 1968, and a proper accounting of fund transactions for the period June 1, 1967 through May 31, 1968.

VII. MEMOIRS

Reverend James O. Davis, a retired Methodist minister, was born near Loudon, Tennessee, May 14, 1874, and died of a heart attack August 3, 1967, at Lawman Home in White Rock, South Carolina, after spending more than ninety-two years in the vineyard of the Lord. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. . . . Enter into the joy of thy Lord."

Brother Davis completed the public schools near his home, and graduated from Hiwassee College in Madisonville, Tennessee, and was licensed to preach in 1896 by the Holston Conference in east Tennessee. Later, he moved to Gainesville, Texas, where he met Miss Annie Lenora Rousseau, and they were married September 20, 1896.

The record shows that Brother Davis began his active ministry in the bounds of the West Oklahoma Conference, and served the following charges: LaKamp and Goodwell Station. He did full time evangelistic work for several years, and served as Registrar of the Panhandle Agriculture Institute, later called the Panhandle A.M. College at Goodwell, Oklahoma. In 1938, he was appointed to West Plains Circuit in Missouri, where he served six years in the bounds of the Saint Louis Conference. He came to the North Arkansas Conference in 1945 and served the following charges: Alix-Altus; Branch Circuit; Evening Shade; Gosnell, and Haynes-LaGrange.

Brother Davis was a licensed minister for more than sixty-eight years. He was forced to retire in 1952 because of blindness and served two years after this. Even though blind for seventeen years, he continued his search for knowledge, making full use of the library service for the blind.

Besides his widow of Route 2, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Brother Davis is survived by two sons: Dr. H. M. Davis, with whom Mrs. Davis is living, and Ivan Davis, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend J. Kenneth Webb, pastor and Superintendent of the Lawman Home, White Rock, North Carolina. His body was cremated.

—J. W. MOORE, Retired Minister

1882-1968

Mrs. Irene Bumpers Gage, the widow of the late Reverend Carlos H. Bumpers, who died March, 1957, at Pampa, Texas, was born at Cecil (Franklin County), Arkansas, January 12, 1882, and passed on to her reward February 17, 1968, at Hillhaven Convalescent Home, Amarillo, Texas.

Sister Bumpers Gage was converted and joined the Methodist Church early in life. She attended the Franklin County public schools.

February 8, 1899, she was married to the Reverend Carlos H. Bumpers, and to this union three children were born. They are: E. Clay Bumpers, Conference Lay Leader of the North Arkansas Conference, Wabash, Arkansas; Mrs. H. H. Boynton and William L. Bumpers, both of Pampa, Texas, all of whom survive.

Sister Bumpers Gage gave more than thirty-two years of her life serving in the ministry with her husband. She and her husband retired from active ministry in 1941, and after retirement, they lived in Russellville, Fort Smith, Wabash, and Pampa, Texas.

The writer has known Sister Bumpers Gage for more than fifty years, and found her to be a good Christian woman. She was devoted to her family, friends and her church. The writer and his wife made her a visit three years ago while she was living in Hereford, Texas, and her heart seemed to be running over with the love of God, and we felt that we were in the very presence of one of God's saints here on earth.

Funeral services were held February 20, 1968, in Carmichael-Whitley Colonial Chapel, the Reverend DeWitt Seago, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Pampa, Texas, officiating. She was buried beside her husband in the Fairview Cemetery, Pampa, Texas.

"The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms."—And when all the days have been translated into the tomorrows and the tomorrows have merged into the eternities of God, we will meet and greet you on the other side.

"With her passing, an era has finished—a chapter forever more.

But before us is a new beginning—a wide open door,
Calling us on to better service for God's world and His way.

Because of your thoughtfulness—your kind expressions of love,
We hope to be better, more pleasing to you as well as to God above."

REVEREND JAMES MONROE HUGHEY

1869-1967

Reverend James Monroe Hughey was born April 20, 1869, near Russellville, Arkansas. His parents were John Hughey and Mary Ann (Bradley) Hughey. He died August 4, 1967, in the Cage Nursing Home at Memphis, Tennessee. Funeral services were held in the Gregg Funeral Home, Jonesboro, Arkansas, on August 6, 1967, by Dr. J. Ralph Clayton, pastor of First Methodist Church, Jonesboro, assisted by Reverend J. Albert Gatlin, pastor of Huntington Avenue Methodist Church, Jonesboro. Burial was in Oaklawn Cemetery, Jonesboro.

Brother Hughey received his A.B. degree from Hendrix College in 1895 and his M.A. degree from Vanderbilt University in 1898. He received a D.D. degree from College of the Ozarks in 1915.

He was married to Miss Hattie May Stanley on August 25, 1897. They had three daughters, Dr. Ruth Hughey, Professor of English at Ohio State University; Mrs. Thomas M. Laney of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mrs. W. J. Britton of Wichita, Kansas; and a son, James Stanley Hughey, who died in childhood.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Nola Henry of Russellville and Mrs. Frances Wilson of Portland, Oregon. Other survivors include Dr. Thomas T. Laney, who followed his grandfather into the Methodist ministry and now holds the Methodist Chair at Vanderbilt Divinity School; a granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Moats of Overland Park, Kansas, and eight great-grandchildren.

Brother Hughey was admitted On Trial into the former Arkansas Conference at its meeting at Morrilton in 1898. That year, he was appointed to teach in the Hendrix Academy near the present town of Gentry. In 1899, he was admitted into the Class of the Second Year and appointed to Hendrix Academy as Principal. When the Conference met at Harrison in 1900, he was admitted into Full Connection and was appointed to First Methodist Church, Fort Smith.

After being received into Full Connection, he held the following appointments: Fort Smith 1900-1903; Conway 1904; Presiding Elder Dardanelle

District 1905; Morrilton 1906-1907; Presiding Elder, Fayetteville District 1908-1909; Presiding Elder, Fort Smith District 1910-1913; Central Church, Fort Smith, 1914-1915; Presiding Elder, Paragould District 1916-1919; First Church, Jonesboro, 1920-1923; Blytheville 1924; Presiding Elder, Conway District, 1925-1928; Marianna 1929-1932; Wynne 1933-1936; Earle 1937-1940.

He retired in 1941 when the Annual Conference met at Harrison, the same church where he had been admitted into Full Connection.

In addition to his pastoral appointments, Brother Hughey held a number of Conference positions, among them being Trustee of Hendrix College, 1902-1913; member of Conference Committee on Church Extension, 1902-1918; delegate to General Conference 1912; and Trustee of Henderson-Brown 1920-1925.

It was my privilege to have Brother Hughey as pastor for the four years that he served First Church, Jonesboro. In those years, the church was wrestling with the challenge of beginning construction on the present building. He gave it wise and strong leadership.

He was respected and loved as a kindly pastor, a dear friend, an excellent preacher and a superior administrator. But one does not need to eulogize him. His long, fruitful record attests eloquently to his love and dedication to his church and to our Lord.

Reverend Richard Alexander Bevis, the son of John Owen and Margrette Taylor Bevis, was born August 13, 1886, at Waterloo (Lauderdale County), Alabama, and died at the Baptist Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee, September 25, 1967, after several weeks of illness.

In the fall of 1914, Brother Bevis was admitted On Trial into the North Arkansas Conference at Batesville. He was admitted into Full Connection and ordained Deacon in 1916, and was ordained Elder in 1918. In 1935, he retired after giving more than twenty-one years of active service to the Church he loved so much. After retirement, he did supply work for several years.

During his ministerial life, he served the following charges: Salado-Oil Trough; Floral Circuit; Bellefonte; Cato; Wyeville-Revels; Kanyon; Mintage; Waldron Circuit; Branch; Hunter-Hickory Ridge; Jelks; McCrory Circuit; and Hunter Circuit. It was said of him that he did more preaching in Woodruff County than any other minister in the history of the County.

He wrote a large number of poems, some entitled: "Dream Land," "The Mountain Maid," "The Way of Love," "I Did My Best," and others.

Brother Bevis was very orthodox in his Methodist Theology. He wrote many tracts and booklets, such as, "Infant Baptism," "Methodism of the Bible," "Relation of Infants to the Church," "The Possibility of Apostacy," "The Mode of Water Baptism," and others. He was indeed a Biblical Scholar.

Brother Bevis was married twice. His first marriage was to Miss Ethel Darrett, who died in the Methodist Hospital, August 3, 1958. His second marriage was to Mrs. Ladia Holland who died at her home in Patterson, Arkansas, June 14, 1966.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and a Royal Arch Mason for fifty years. He was active in both lodges, and they gave him a life membership for which he was very grateful.

Survivors include two brothers: John E. E. Bevis, Shreveport, Louisiana, and T. W. Bexis, Alexandria, Virginia.

The writer met Brother Bevis in 1914 and our friendship began to grow, with ties more binding as the years went by. We shared our experiences and held revivals together, all of which enriched our hearts and lives. He was a man after God's own heart. In his poem "I Did My Best," he expresses his humility and his great faith in the love of God. The last verse reads:

"When the saints of all the ages,
Go marching home to rest,
In a feeble, trembling voice
I will plead my last request.
'Shall mercy be extended, Lord,
For one that did his best?'"

Funeral services were held September 27, in the Thompson-Wilson Funeral Chapel in McCrory, with the Reverend Harold Wilson, H. Lynn Wade, and H. J. Couchman officiating. Burial was in the Woodman Cemetery, south of McCrory.

MRS. MINNIE MACK LINDSEY

Death has moved into our Fellowship of Retired Servants and taken Mrs. Minnie Mack Lindsey, the widow of the late Reverend William Arthur Lindsey, who departed this life June 10, 1964. She was born March 27, 1877, at Batesville, Arkansas, and died January 1, 1968, in a hospital in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, at the age of 90.

Sister Lindsey was converted and joined the Methodist Church early in life, and was a loyal member until God called her home. She was a life member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild. The Wesleyan Service Guild at Centerton was named in her honor. She was a graduate of the high school at Batesville and studied in a private school of her day in Batesville.

On January 8, 1901, she was married to Reverend William Arthur Lindsey, and to this union four children were born. The parsonage home of the Lindseys was always a noble example of family devotion and high Christian character. Every member of the family took part in the devotionals every morning.

True-hearted and whole-hearted, Sister Lindsey dedicated her life to being a minister's wife and, along with her husband, served the following charges: Cushman-Bethesda, Haynes-Madison, LaGrange-Aubrey, Holly Grove-Marvell, Cotton Plant-Howell, McCrory-Fake's Chapel, Wynne, Harrison, Waldon, Trumann, Harrisburg, Osceola, Siloam Springs, Dardanelle, Prairie Grove, Altus, and Parkin. At one time, they served the Batesville District. They retired in 1948, but served Leslie and Centerton as Supply pastor. When they closed out their ministry, they moved to Siloam Springs, where they made their home until death. Then, they moved to heaven, where they joined that "Glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish."

The Lindseys inspired and enriched the life of the writer from the time of the first meeting in 1911, and as the years went by, our friendship and love continued to grow until they went to their reward. Truly, they were persons who walked, talked and lived with God.

Sister Lindsey is survived by one son, B. Mack Lindsey of Little Rock; two daughters, Mrs. Maud Marvin Tims of Harrison, and Mrs. Minnie Lou Chandler of Siloam Springs; a brother, Jefferson D. Mack of Mack, and a sister, Mrs. L. E. Massey of Batesville.

Brannon, pastor of Central Methodist Church, and the Reverend Myers B. Curtis, District Superintendent of the Fayetteville District. Her body was laid beside that of her husband in the beautiful cemetery at Siloam Springs.

No greater tribute can be paid them than the following lines:

"With Heavenly weapons they fought
The battles of the Lord.
Finished their course, and kept the faith,
And gained the great reward."

MRS. JAMES LUTHER SHELBY

1887-1967

Mrs. Willie Morgan Shelby was born March 19, 1887, in Webb City, Arkansas, daughter of George Morgan and his wife, Mary Ann Roberts Morgan. She grew up and attended the public schools in Webb City and at the early age of fifteen, was married to Reverend James Luther Shelby, April 19, 1902, so that literally most of her life of eighty years was spent as the wife or widow of an itinerant preacher.

Her husband became a licensed Local Preacher in The Methodist Episcopal Church, South through the Fort Smith District Conference meeting at Charleston, in the year 1915, and that same year was admitted On Trial to the North Arkansas Conference. She worked faithfully with him during his twenty-nine years as an effective minister in the Methodist connection, serving Ozark Circuit, Rose Bud, Hartman, Vilonia, Piggott, East Paragould, Harrisburg, Midland Heights at Fort Smith, Plainview, Ola, Kibler, Branch, Mountain View, Bald Knob, Kaiser, Monette and Lincoln.

Through these years, since they had no children, husband and wife were inseparable fellow workers in the Vineyard of the Lord. After Brother Shelby's retirement in 1946 and his death in 1947, she made her home in Fort Smith, where she was a member of First Methodist Church and a diligent participant in all available church activities. Of a contagiously buoyant and joyous nature, her word and work and influence were effective witnesses for her Lord.

MRS. PEARL SPRINGER LANGSTON

1901-1967

Not long ago, death again came into our Fellowship of Retired Servants, and took Sister Pearl Springer Langston, the widow of the late Reverend Lancelot Lee Langston, who died July 25, 1961. She was born in Boone County, Missouri, and died May 22, 1967, at her home in Calico Rock, at the age of 66.

Sister Langston was converted and joined the Methodist Church early in life, and was a loyal and faithful member until her death.

She received her education in the public schools of Fulton County, Arkansas. On September 20, 1925, she was married to the Reverend L. L. Langston, and to this union a daughter was born. In every parsonage where they moved, they carried with them sunshine and love to share with those whom they were to serve. They served small charges, but the Heavenly Father smiled upon them and blessed them.

With a great Christian experience, Sister Langston dedicated her life to that of being a minister's wife. With her husband, she served in the following pastoral charges: Fontaine, Iuka, Ash Flat, Calico Rock, Rose Bud, Oil Trough, Pleasant Plains, St. Francis, Lorado, Rector, Beech Grove, Hunter, Colt, St. Paul, Maynard, and Mountain Home Parish, thus completing forty years of service for the Church and the Kingdom of God.

After the death of her husband, she made her home in Calico Rock, where she lived until God called her home. The writer is sure Sister Langston could join in with St. Paul when he said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them that love His appearing."

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Beulah Jane Thompson of Saint Louis, Missouri, and a sister, Mrs. Nettie Chism of Calico Rock, Arkansas, and a number of nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were held Friday, May 26, 1967, in the Calico Rock Methodist Church. The Reverend Graham Sellars, her pastor, was in charge, assisted by the Reverend Brady Cook, pastor of the Griffin Memorial Methodist Church, Paragould. Miss Irene Cook of Paragould sang two specials at the funeral: "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "How Great Thou Art."

Her body was laid beside that of her husband in Spring Creek Cemetery, near Calico Rock, Arkansas. May God continue to bless her memory to all who are left behind.

—J. W. MOORE

A brief Memoir appearing in the Arkansas Methodist early this year said of Mrs. Martin, "She was abundantly blessed with the Christian graces and gave strength and gladness to those about her." This is an apt description of a truly outstanding person.

Born Charlotte Eugenia Crisler on November 27, 1872, at Crown Point, Indiana, the daughter of James M. and his wife Ellen Marie Holton Crisler, when but an infant she was brought by her parents to Stephens Creek near Searcy in White County, Arkansas. The family later moved to Vilonia in Faulkner County.

After finishing in the public schools of Arkansas, she attended Hendrix College at Conway where she met her husband, the Reverend William Tell Martin. They were married June 17, 1896, the day he graduated from Hendrix College. The young couple taught school together briefly, served a short pastorate in Oklahoma at Adair, and returned to Arkansas to join the Arkansas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1900. In 1904, they came back to Hendrix College where Mr. Martin taught mathematics for a period, but soon went back to the regular itineracy, serving at Coal Hill-Altus, Lamar-London, Mountain Home, Leslie, Harrison, Van Buren, Booneville, Osceola, Hartford and Lincoln, and serving also as presiding Elder of the Harrison District.

Mrs. Martin's unfailing good humor, gallant spirit and friendly smile were expressions of a wonderful philosophy of life and a deep Christian faith tested and developed through ninety-five years of meeting, knowing and loving people and helping them to meet the vicissitudes of life with something of her own courage and patience.

Mrs. Martin died in a Garden City, New York hospital on February 24, 1968. She had been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Martin Kehart and Rear Admiral Kehart in Garden City.

Memorial services were conducted at Batesville, her former home, with the Reverend Warren D. Golden, Pastor of First Methodist Church, Batesville, and the Reverend J. Albert Gatlin, former pastor, now serving Huntington Avenue Church in Jonesboro. Burial was in the Oak Grove Cemetery at Conway, where her husband was buried in 1943.

She is survived by two sons, William T. Martin of Richardson, Texas, and Dennis T. Martin of Merritt Island, Florida; three daughters, Mrs. O. W. Petway of Batesville, Mrs. Martin W. Kehart of Garden City, New York, and Miss Ruth Martin of Arlington, Virginia; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

"Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her works praise her in the gates."

The Reverend Charles Wages was born January 20, 1898, in Newton County, Arkansas. He died March 12, 1968, while serving as pastor of the Madison County Parish, residing at Huntsville. His survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ama Cowan Wages, of the home; five sons, Dairl Ray Wages of Springdale, Jerry R. Wages of San Rafael, California, Joseph J. Wages of Tulsa, John P. Wages of Huntsville, Clifton D. Wages of Viet Nam; two daughters, Mrs. Annetta F. Treat of Branch, Arkansas, Mrs. Patrecia Ann Taul of Columbia, South Carolina; three brothers, John Wages of Yuma, Arizona, Britt Wages of Catalpa, Arkansas, Albert Wages of Pinesdale, California; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Lyons of Turley, Oklahoma and Mrs. Manerva Mooney of Ozone, Arkansas; and twenty grandchildren.

Brother Wages did his first preaching in the Methodist Protestant Church in Oklahoma. His first and second pastorates were at Ozark and Cauthron. His appointments included Lavaca, Kibler, Alpena, Elm Springs, Centerton, Sulphur Springs, Widener and Roundpond, Marshall, Waldron Circuit, Huntington, Magazine, and Mansfield. In 1957, he transferred to the Nebraska Conference where he served churches at Brady and Rushville. In 1960, he transferred back to the North Arkansas Conference to serve at Clinton and Branch. In 1963, he retired at Branch. In the fall of 1966, he came out of retirement to serve the Madison County Parish. He was doing an outstanding job in this work when suddenly he was called above to serve.

For more than forty years as a Methodist preacher, through poverty and prosperity, pain and pleasure, tragedy and triumph, Charles Wages' greatest delight was preaching the gospel. With eloquent zeal, he faithfully brought the Good News of God's redeeming Grace to his people. His dedicated life as well as his dedicated preaching won for him the unfailing respect of the community where he lived and served.

His funeral was conducted at Huntsville with the Reverend Myers Curtis, District Superintendent, in charge and the Reverend Frank Clemmons preaching the message. His body was laid to rest in the Garden of Memories at Charleston, Arkansas.

—FRANK R. CLEMMONS

REVEREND H. LYNN WADE

1883-1968

Sunday, April 21, 1968, Reverend H. Lynn Wade died at Augusta, Arkansas. His sixty years of service to Arkansas churches as pastor, Presiding Elder and Superannuate Supply were climaxed by the funeral service which he had prearranged with his brother ministers and family members. Services were held in First Methodist Church in Augusta, led by Reverend Harold Wilson, assisted by Reverend Gaither McKelvey, Dr. James W. Workman and Reverend Victor Nixon. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Conway, Arkansas, with graveside service by Reverend Harold Wilson and Reverend O. D. Peters.

Brother Wade was born in Yellville, Arkansas, August 1, 1883, the son of George H. and Louisa Adams Wade. He attended public schools in Arkansas and received his A.B. Degree from Hendrix College in 1909.

On July 31, 1908, he married Sallie Tyler Clifton, who died in 1952. Four children were born of this union. He later married Mary Wynn Miller, who survives him.

Brother Wade was admitted On Trial in the Arkansas Annual Conference in 1911, at which time he was ordained Deacon. He came into Full Connection in 1913, and was ordained Elder in 1915. Pastorates he served included: Gentry-Gravette, Bigelow, Clarksville, Fayetteville, Jonesboro, Blytheville, Batesville, Augusta, Charleston, Lavaca and Wilson, as well as serving as Presiding Elder of the Batesville District and Fort Smith District, and Superintendent of the Paragould District. He was a member of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1922, 1926 and 1930.

Two unique ministries mark Brother Wades' traveling experience. While at Fayetteville, he was the first pastor to inaugurate the Wesley Foundation by that name in the Southern Methodist Church. A second abiding fruit of his ministry was the personal contact with men in his association in school, in state and in church. Dr. E. T. Wayland and Reverend R. H. "Bob" Cannon were fellow students at Hendrix College who felt his influence to become extraordinarily dedicated spiritual adventurers. The writer also was among the hundreds whose ministries were influence by Brother Wade. At Fayetteville at one time, he had a life service group of more than thirty volunteers.

One of the high points in his life and that of his family came on August 4, 1963, when he preached on the 60th Anniversary of his ministry in the Cedar Grove Church in Marion County, in the same church where both he and his father, Reverend George Henry Wade, preached their first sermons, and which was organized by his grandfather, Reverend J. H. Wade.

Another highlight in his later years was the celebration of his fiftieth year in the Masonic Lodge, when he was presented with a 50-year pin.

Finally, the long and far-reaching ministry of Brother Wade was evidenced by the Arkansas Legislative Council spreading upon its permanent minutes a tribute to him as an outstanding citizen, minister, and Christian gentleman, and which was signed personally by the twenty-four members of the Arkansas Legislative Council.

In addition to his wife, survivors include one son, George Clifton Wade of Fayetteville; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Louise Thomas of Jonesboro, and Mrs. Hope Slayden of Fort Worth, Texas; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

His was an abiding ministry in the finest tradition of John and Charles Wesley.

—JAMES W. WORKMAN

MRS. EARLE CRAVENS

1892-1968

Mrs. Earle Cravens was born Delia Gladys Cummins on September 27, 1892, at Prairie View, Logan County, Arkansas. She was the fourth of six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Nehemiah Sidney Cummins, lifelong members of The Methodist Church. She attended the public schools in Logan County and later taught in the same schools.

She was married January 29, 1918, to Earle Cravens, son of a neighboring farm family, who had served in the infantry during World War I.

Pursuant to his decision to enter the ministry, her husband entered Hendrix College in the fall of 1923, where he completed work for his B.A. degree in three years. After the completion of his academic training for a ministerial career, he was appointed to the East Van Buren Church (now St. John's in Van Buren). Mrs. Cravens also served with her husband these additional charges: Plainview, Greenwood, Central Avenue at Batesville, Piggott, Walnut Ridge, Marianna, Osceola, Russellville, Harrison, Washington Avenue at North Little Rock, Paris and Wilson.

Retirement came for them at the 1959 Annual Conference, after which they built their home in Paris where Mr. Cravens was in business for the next several years, and Mrs. Cravens was an active member of the Paris Methodist Church and of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Preceded by her husband in death in June, 1965, Mrs. Cravens continued to live in the home in Paris until just prior to her death on January 11, 1968, at Fayetteville, Arkansas. Funeral services were conducted in the Paris Church by Dr. Joel Cooper, Pastor of Central Methodist Church in Fayetteville. Her remains laid to rest beside her husband in the Prairie View Cemetery, less than one mile from where both were born.

IX. HISTORICAL

SESSIONS OF THE CONFERENCE

The "Arkansas Conference" and the "White River Conference" were united in 1914 to form the present "North Arkansas Conference."

The Conference determined that its annual notation should date from the time of the organization of the Arkansas Conference in 1836, instead of following the date fixed by the consolidation of the Arkansas and White River Conferences, when the name was changed to North Arkansas Conference in 1914.

The Conference session of 1939 voted to maintain the numerical notation of the Conference in The Methodist Church.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Adopted May 30, 1968

WHEREAS we came to this 133rd session of the North Arkansas Conference somewhat benumbed by agitation and unrest on national and international fronts and by too much rain at planting time in our home or local areas;

Whereas our Conference Preacher, Bishop Arthur James Moore, taking cognizance of our probable spiritual and mental conditions saw fit to draw our attention to the experience of a man, physically blind, being healed by acknowledgement of the fact that "Jesus of Nazareth was passing by" and further reminding us that "the Church has an authentic leadership and an adequate message for a critical and fateful season of this world's life, such as we are in today";

Whereas the appearance of Bishop Moore as our Conference Preacher was not a coincidence, but a timely and studied selection on the part of our presiding Bishop Paul V. Calloway who continually leads us with his knowledge, patience and dedication and who, in turn, enjoys the companionship of a wife who is mutually concerned;

Whereas the composite report of the Cabinet read by Dr. Marshall H. Bridwell, depicted definite progress in the several fields of endeavor embodied in our church program and the commendable functioning of the member churches;

Whereas all reports dealing with activities, findings, and proposals showed devoted study, forethought and reasoning by committees, commissions and agencies;

Whereas our meeting place, the Western Methodist Assembly and its most capable superintendent, the Reverend E. G. Kaetzell, have truly reflected the Jurisdictional scope of Methodism;

Whereas the host District Superintendent, Dr. Myers B. Curtis, has shown specific concern for our coming;

Whereas Dr. Joel Cooper, pastor, Mr. George Frey, Director of Music and other members of the staff and congregation of Central Methodist Church have made available their church building and themselves for the general welfare of the conference;

Whereas the Reverend Aaron F. Barling, pastor and the members of Wiggins Memorial Church have substantially aided in the handling of extra-curricular functions such as luncheons and dinners; and

Whereas we have been saddened by the deaths of our fellow workers, touched by the departure of others from active ranks and inspired and heartened by those coming into the service of the church;

Therefore, be it resolved that we give thanks to all who have contributed in any way or manner to the success of this conference.

Further, that we return to our homes determined to remind ourselves and all others, wherein it is possible, that Christ is not only passing by but is constantly with us to lift us out of a defensive attitude into positive witnessing.

Sincerely submitted,

H. L. ROBISON, Chairman

RESOLUTION

Under the present regulation of private clubs, the proposed mixed drink bill is very inadequate.

We make the following three observations:

1. Concerning revenue: the promise of increased revenue is an insult to intelligence.
2. Concerning law enforcement: sober people more readily obey the law than intoxicated ones.

3. Concerning less drinking: more—not less—alcohol is consumed when liquor laws are liberalized.

We call on our legislators to be firm in opposition to the proposed mixed-drink bill.

FISCAL YEAR STUDY

The North Arkansas Conference Journal, 1966, has this suggestion on page 71: "We recommend the appointment of a Conference Committee to study the possibility of changing the Fiscal Year." This is recommendation No. 21 from the report of the Board of Pensions. In the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance (page 92, recommendation No. 23 of the 1966 Journal) there is this suggestion: "We join with the Board of Pensions in recommending that a committee be appointed to make a study of changing the Fiscal Year."

We were appointed by the Bishop to make this study. It was the opinion of the committee that the 1967 session of the Annual Conference was not the appropriate time to make recommendations, but we asked the Conference to continue this committee with the understanding that the committee would make a report of its findings, and also its recommendations, to the 1968 session of the Annual Conference. Permission was granted by the Annual Conference.

We, your committee, recommend that the Fiscal Year of the North Arkansas Annual Conference be changed from June 1-May 31 to a calendar year, January 1-December 31. It should be understood that we, as your committee, are concerned only with the Fiscal Year, and not with the Annual Conference Year.

While the actions taken by our North Arkansas Annual Conference need not be determined by what other conferences are doing, we have learned from our study that some annual conferences have already adopted the Calendar Year as their Fiscal Year, and that several others within our Jurisdiction have this in their plans for the 1969 Calendar Year. Furthermore, it is the understanding of this committee that the "United Methodist Church" will use the calendar year as its Fiscal Year.

The following are the advantages that we see in adopting the Calendar Year (January 1-December 31) as our Fiscal Year:

1. It would help the Conference Board of Pensions in their relation to the General Board of Pensions' Fiscal Year, which is May 1-April 30.
2. It would allow the local churches a full year (52 weeks) to meet their financial budgets.
3. It would afford the Area Treasurer's office ample time to compile a complete financial report to the Annual Conference.
4. It would allow local churches sufficient time to incorporate, into their annual budgets, the recommendations of the Annual Conference and the decisions of the District Stewards. (This is predicated on our thinking that the financial decisions of an Annual Conference would take effect on January 1 of the following calendar year.)
5. Finances of the Annual Conference would be more stable because we would be paying into the various agencies for five months prior to the Annual Conference session. We believe that this would eliminate the "lean summer months" within the total program.
6. This would help our people to have the record of their financial giving to the church to correspond with the Federal and State Tax years. We believe that it would increase giving from businesses and individuals, who are on the Calendar Year, as they would increase giving at the end of the year which would be deductible gifts.

We see no serious objections to changing the Fiscal Year and we see no great difficulty in implementing the changes should the Annual Conference adopt this recommendation.

We recommend that the Annual Conference request the Bishop to appoint a committee to effect this change by January 1, 1969. We further recommend that these persons be included on this committee: the Chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Pensions, the Cabinet representative to the Commission on World Service and Finance, the Conference Treasurer, the Chairman of the Fiscal Year Study Committee and such other Clerical and Lay members of the Annual Conference as the Bishop may deem necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD L. WILLIAMS, Chairman
JIM BEAL, Secretary

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS

Report of The Executive Director

Adopted May 28, 1968

The most challenging, thrilling and satisfying years of my ministry have been the past three, in which I have had the privilege to be Executive Director of The Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. More and more people are catching the vision and responding to the challenge of this area of Stewardship. This year I have had the joy of helping people plan their estates in greater number than in the two previous years. All have included the church as beneficiary of at least part of their estates.

We suggest that each minister and layman make a study of the Stewardship of Accumulated Possessions. Every sermon on stewardship must be built upon the fundamental truth that everything belongs to God, even the possessions God allows man to accumulate in a lifetime. Stewardship is more than pledging, systematic giving, tithing or proportionate giving; it is the rightful use of all a man has, even the accumulations of a lifetime. No one can make a just and Christian distribution of his accumulated possessions unless careful and wise plans are made while he is alive. This requires estate planning, then the services of a competent attorney, enabling one to clearly express that plan in a legally-drawn will. Let's make the people called Methodist aware of a basic, Christian truth: Good Christian Stewardship means the rightful use of everything, be it the goose quill and vial of ink made available to Paul, a little boy's lunch of loaves and fishes, an alabaster box of precious ointment, the purple dye works operated by Lydia, Peter's fishing boat, or the proceeds from sale of Barnabas' large farm. God has perpetuated these gifts because they were rightfully used, —they were used for the Kingdom.

The Foundation does not exist to raise funds for itself. Its purposes are fourfold: First, we try to help people to a better understanding of the Stewardship of Accumulated Possessions. Second, we offer members and friends of Methodism a perpetual legal agency to serve in their behalf, carrying out their expressed desires, helping make it possible to perpetuate their stewardship. Third, we offer counsel in estate planning to those making the church a beneficiary of any or all of their estate, and fourth, we seek to provide every local church, institution, board, agency and cause of Methodism with a fund-raising agency by being sufficiently informed to work with donors choosing to give in special ways above and beyond the routine giving of the past.

We now have two Deferred Gifts which we hold in trust, and which are invested, the donors receiving incomes from these investments during their lifetimes. The total in our Gift Fund at present is $36,234.13. In the past twelve months we have paid one donor $1,381.60. The other, a recent annuitant, is to receive her payments quarterly, rather than monthly, and has received to date one payment of $80.65.

A Memorials Altar is being set up in the Headquarters Building, the altar itself given by Mr. Bob Rosamond, President of the R&W Construction Company of North Little Rock, and having a fair market value of at least $400.00. Mr. Carl E. Hall, owner of Standard Furniture Company in Little Rock, has given the Foundation the beautiful hand-tooled leather Book of Remembrance to be placed on the Altar, costing $154.00. Mr. Richard C. Butler, President of The Commercial National Bank, Little Rock, has given for the altar two satin-finish brass vases, at a cost of $110.00. James Brothers Office Supply, North Little Rock, has given the beautiful wooden cross for the background of the altar. Memorial gifts of $5.00 will go into a permanent investment fund, the annual income of which is to be given to a worthy cause of the church. At present we are seeking the cause to feature as the specific beneficiary of this Memorial Fund.

The Federal Government encourages giving to causes such as ours by offering tax savings for such donors. Proper understanding of these incentives removes our program of the taint of tax-dodging schemes, placing such gifts in the realm of the sacred and the patriotic.

I covet from every preacher an invitation to present the Foundation program in his local church. Your people are looking for something like we offer, and only need the information, the challenge, and the opportunity. Once these are presented, after a little time and some thought and prayer, they will respond.

At this time we are setting up our state-wide organization, and will present our recommendations to the Board of Directors for your approval.
