E. BISHOP'S ADDRESS & DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Bishop's Address

North Arkansas Conference

Monday, June 12, 1994

THE EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

After a decade of comments, you may hear me stepping on my own toes but I ought not, for our world is changing so fast, our church is changing so much, that much that was true yesterday is not true today. "New occasions teach new duties, time makes ancient good uncouth. We must onward still and upward who would keep abreast of the truth."

I want to talk about three things:

I. Our inter-relatedness as United Methodists. Call it "connectionalism", call it the "Methodist Way". What are the forces that hold us together? What are the forces that would tear us apart?

II. Theology. What is happening in Christian thought, especially in the United Methodist interpretations?

III. What is happening in Arkansas United Methodism?

I. Our inter-relatedness as United Methodists:

So — what about the United Methodist connection? Is it in danger of collapse? Are we becoming congregational? Is the apportionment system shot? Will the appointment system work? That we have been close knit, connectional for over 200 years, there can be no doubt.

The early conferences were all preachers. Soon, the laity demanded a voice. The Protestant Methodists split, only to reunite after a century when laity were involved in decision making up and down the line. Today the laity are flexing their spiritual muscles — and their power muscles as well. Today, we are a broader and more diverse connection.

It used to be that every institution, college, hospital, and camp, was headed by a preacher as administrator. Almost all now are laity with special skills and training. Are we less connectional? Not at all — in many cases we are more so, for most of these laity are heartbeat United Methodists. Plus our trustees — and our structures — are interwoven into the life of our church.

The apportionments support our great institutions. In spite of complaints occasionally, we have great ministries in Arkansas and around the world. A perfect example is the new African Methodist University — the first private, church-related university in Central Africa. It is pure and simply the result of a connection that involves Europe, Africa, North America and Asia.

In Arkansas, you can be proud of your institutions such as Philander Smith sustained by the Black College Fund with solvent a budget, new buildings, nearly 1000 students and ten pre-ministerial students. Julia and I heard their choir sing at the Presidential Inauguration, and I stood proud. Hendrix — close knit to the church, is beginning a special training program for Christian education, youth ministries and church musicians. It stands proud as one of America's great colleges. And we have a strong Wesley Foundation in every four-year state university in Arkansas.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Your support for the Ministerial Education Fund, year in and year out, sustains 13 seminaries like Perkins, St. Paul, Duke and Emory, United and Garrett. If some professor says something dumb like "God is dead" — in the 50's or "God's name is Sophia" in the 90's, the press covers it around the world. But week-in and week-out, faithful teachers of Bible and church history, preaching and pastoral care, Christian ethics and theology help us train as fine a set of Christian pastors as any denomination in the world.

Now it's true that our apportionments are strong, not because of our institutions, or even our general boards, but because of our care and concern for our pastors and our retired pastors. Pensions and health insurance for those who have served faithfully, moving at the Bishop's discretion, often without home or furniture has caused our connections to want to pay this bill. The explosion of health insurance costs is the engine driving this problem. Like the rest of the country, we will be thinking through the issue. But, while forty million Americans have no health insurance, a national disgrace, our connection undergirds everyone of us. In a day of leukemia, and open heart surgery, colon cancer and Lou Gerigh diseases, thank God for our corporate support and for our pastors and their families.

Not counting health insurance, our total apportionments run about $1.00 per member per week. Seen in that light, we're not exactly killing ourselves. Still, in aggregate, each of you know your church carries some financial pressure "to pay out". You will be pleased that the North Arkansas Conference usually is in the top one-third of the nation in paid apportionments, with 90% of our churches paying all "in full".

The connection must do two things financially.

a) We must tighten our belts at every point. You must study our general boards to see if they are too large, doing yesterday's tasks, or poorly located. Allow me the privilege of suggesting that the General Council on Ministries, established in 1968 as a compromise merger with the E.U.B.'s is no longer needed as a coordinating agency. In Arkansas, our conference staffs are bare bones. The only thing that would help us is one day merging conferences so we could afford a Christian educator and a worker with youth. We waste more time than money.

b) The second thing we must do financially is support much of our work with special directed gifts. There is plenty of money out there, and people will give if they can feel it with their hands and hearts. Our "Catch The Vision" program is an example of this. The Wesley Foundation must develop a "Friends of Wesley" to be a flying buttress, to strengthen what the conference is doing. The United Methodist Children's Home, Camp Tanako and Camp Aldersgate must have auxiliaries, two or three hundred friends or patrons who believe in that work immensely. The conference must not cut back. The work must continue to grow, but we can not lean totally on the conference budget.

The joy is that we sustain our small churches with equitable salary subsidies, sustain our retired ministers and our part-time local pastors. We never close a church, no matter how small, without the expressed wish of the congregation. Probably some tiny churches should merge for the Kingdom's sake, but your bishop will not push them. Often, our larger churches maintain our collegiate connection by providing mentor supervision for new pastors, sending lay speakers and part-time pastors, and by paying apportionments for district superintendents and conference staff. We start new congregations in this same way.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Take pride in the fact that your districts are tight, you have great Arkansas economies — one newspaper, one treasurer, one resource library, one foundation, one office complex (in a local church, yet) and a tight-run ship.

Frankly, folks, it's time to start bragging, start educating, remind your people and tell the world that we are a great connectional church. But much of our mission work now will have to be above and beyond. We have asked our Council on Finance and Administration to provide and explain all apportionments for every family in your church.

What about appointment making? Some severe pressures of pastors and their spouses are often tying strings on their appointments. Spouses have jobs which involve professional job security as well as salaries. Children and educational needs and health needs are factors. We try to be as human as possible, often leaning heavily on the compassion of a congregation to sustain a sick person or a person in school. For the itineracy to work, we still need our preachers to kneel before the cross with their families and agree to serve in the place where most needed. Our system is working because most of our pastors are like soldiers in the military, willing to serve where they are needed.

Lay people are consulting more and more intensely. That's good. They love the church and want it to prosper. Sometimes the requests are too secular. Some committees want a handsome young man with a lovely family who has lots of experience and will bring in the youth. We must watch carefully to avoid ageism. Some of our strongest churches, with the most dynamic Christian education or youth programs, have older pastors. We must, however, be honest. If a person is weary, or weakened by age or infirmity, we must clearly place them within a congregation with a lighter work load.

Sexism is waning. We have 40 women who are pastors in Arkansas United Methodism, and they strengthen the connection. We sometimes have a church who, out of pocket, resists a woman pastor's appointment. We almost never have a church request a change because they have a woman pastor.

Racism plagues us at every point in our connection and in our society. At the same time we need an open church, an open itineracy. While we have made some strides, an increase of minority participation is in all of our institutions — Black, Hispanic, and Korean bishops, district superintendents, and council directors, etc. Across the church, the ability of pastors to move from one church to another is in its infancy. We desperately need you folks to begin talking, praying, interfacing, loving and requesting a pastoral appointment that will cross racial lines.

What about the guaranteed appointment. Frankly, it doesn't exist now. Ministers, and they are far and few between, who are immoral and ineffective, must be excused from ministerial service. The process is slow. We must protect everyone's human rights, but we cannot permit ministers to serve who are an embarrassment to the church. Under the present Discipline, the bishop has powers to initiate taking a preacher out of the pulpit. The clergy have powers to exit a preacher by withdrawing credentials. We are tightening entrance procedures. We are increasing supervision and instruction. We are exiting some. I think we are doing a good job with personnel. When I read the appointments, there will not be a single minister appointed who I am ashamed to call my brother or sister in the United Methodist ministry.

Are we short of ministers? This year, yes. We are using some lay persons and some ministers from other denominations. Give them your prayers and your supervision. Help them learn our United Methodist ethos, participate in fellowship and pray for women and men to hear the call to preach. The great wave of ministers called to preach in the 50's is reaching retirement. We will need a fresh wave of new leadership.

II. What about theology?

The recent ecumenical conference of women in Minneapolis, the Re-Imagining Conference — though not a United Methodist gathering, caused quite a stir. I hope you realize the press does not sell newspapers, the television does not sell advertising, by reporting good news on the conversions in a Disciple Bible Study group, or the experience of the Holy Spirit in an Emmaus Walk, or even the establishment of a new university in Africa. But, let some junior professor say she doesn't like the blood on Calvary's cross or say that the word "wisdom" in Proverbs 1-9, is the Greek word Sophia, which gives us a feminine name for God, and lets us pray to the great goddess Sophia, cause emotions to go crazy.

The bishops dutifully announced that we still believe in Jesus Christ as our Savior, in the doctrines of faith as included in the Discipline for 200 years and in the scriptures as containing all things necessary for salvation.

The good news is this is a great time for everyone to do theology. George Gallup says only one-third of mainline Protestants read a Bible more than once a month. What an opportunity to get your people in stronger Sunday school classes, Disciple groups, Wesley class meetings, or covenant groups. Pastors, what a time in history to strengthen your doctrinal preaching. Frankly, it's been a long time since I've heard a good sermon on the powerful mystery of the Cross, or on the saving work of Christ in his atonement, or on God who is neither male nor female yet of whom we are made in God's image. I could use a good sermon on how to receive the Holy Spirit, who the Holy Spirit is, and what are the fruits and what are the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

I could use a good sermon on the Wesleyan understanding of the authority of Scripture — avoiding on one hand the inerrancy folks who leave their minds on the shelf when they open their Bibles — and on the others who think the Bible is a novel written by Louis Lamour. We owe the church our Wesley reverence for scripture, interpreted through reason, tradition and experience.

The bishops are asking themselves and each pastor to reclaim the apostolic ministry of teaching. I am going to reproduce this pleading with every pastor and every church. We must reclaim II Timothy 2:2 to teach godly people sound doctrine, so that they can teach still others. Perhaps the greatest task before us is to devise a plan of Christian training that will implicate and educate the whole church and be open to outsiders as well.

Sometimes I get a letter defending Jesus but the person is so angry they could kill. As Wesleyans, we have room in the fellowship for thoughtful discussion. We have room in the fellowship for love and difference of opinion.

III. What issues face us?

a) What about homosexuality? First, our Discipline is clear in our present position. It guides our policies and procedures. We do not have avowed practicing homosexuals in our ministry.

The discussion of root causes that make a woman lesbian or a man gay will continue. Good books are being written — an official study of homosexuality, as authorized by General Conference, is now available to use in your local churches. It is balanced, thoughtful, not judgemental. Use it.

Don't limit the love of God. Don't exclude from the blood of Christ people struggling with their sexuality. We have many gay and lesbian members in most of our churches. But, we have more members who are mishandling their heterosexuality.

I love an old hymn by Fannie Crosby. "There is room at the foot of the Cross". I believe that there is room for me. I believe there is room for you. I believe that many of us will go limping into the Kingdom of God, saved only and solely by the blood of the cross and of our beloved savior.

This leads me to my conclusion and to the great task before us. Our priority in the North Arkansas Conference is evangelism, outreach, and mission of your church — not cheap evangelism, not superficial or statistical evangelism — but real, soul-saving, life-changing, and disciple-making evangelism.

Starting with children, do you have an after-school children's ministry? Most of you should. Do you have a vigorous vacation Bible school, a children's choir, a pre-school, and a powerful Sunday school where you are calling on every child within a twenty minute drive to join your classes? What about youth? I'm weary with middle class adults drinking coffee and talking about all the youth going to hell on a bobsled.

We are asking each district to carefully organize a district lay leader, a district United Methodist Men president, a district scouting coordinator, a district youth coordinator and a district president of United Methodist Women to launch the heaviest emphasis on youth ministries we have had since the 1950's.

Camp Nawake stands ready to expand. The money is out there. It waits only for your will and your enthusiasm.

Professional scouters are ready to come to your church, Ozark Missions Project Volunteers in work camps are including scores of youth. The new confirmation materials are top flight, a number one plus, especially for junior highs. Youth music can vitalize worship. Youth singing are terrific. What a year to reach youth for Christ and the church when they are searching for life and so often finding death. And in ministry to adults — we know very closely what will work and what will not. We know adults want the full gospel, not a weak-kneed watered down version.

We have a great church, a great connection, We have a great open, loving grace-filled theology, and we have a huge task — to let God use us to reach out to a dying world with a savior who came to give us life, abundant and eternal.

H. GOALS, OBJECTIVES, COURSES OF ACTION

ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES - 1994

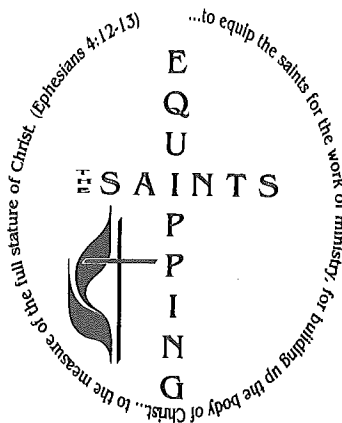

Goals, Objectives and Courses of Action

Done in 1993 --

1. Provided funding for significant youth ministry events including a jurisdictional event called SPI-LI-RA and a conference youth choir.
2. Observed the 25th Anniversary of the United Methodist Church.
3. Prepared and distributed a splendid video on campus ministry related to the North Arkansas Conference.
4. Developed a model for training District Boards of Church Location and Building.
5. Continued strong support of ethnic ministries through ECRT, student scholarships, Black Community Developers Program, Church and Community Worker and an ethnic church consultant.
6. Sponsored/participated in many Christian education events: training for VBS; Sunday School '93; "lab school" at Mt. Sequoyah; district, subdistrict, and local church training events; confirmation training.
7. Jointly sponsored a most successful worship workshop.
8. Sponsored six "Hospital Skills Training" events for certified lay speakers and other interested laity. Had 327 participants.
9. Participated in a Vision 2000 event at Harrison and voted to recommend our Conference as a Vision 2000 conference.
10. Saw good response to disaster appeal for "Mid-west Flooding" and to Festival of Sharing for world hunger.
11. Continued support for Arkansas Area School of Christian Mission.
12. Helped sponsor "Church Growth with Integrity" workshop.

1993 - 1996 THEME, LOGO, GOAL, AND OBJECTIVES

The CCOM, in November 1991, agreed to recommend as the theme for our Annual Conference, for the Quadrennium, "Equipping the Saints." Since that is a portion of the Scripture from Ephesians, Chapter 4, the following logo was also adopted.

North Arkansas Conference
1993 - 1996

The goal for 1993 - 1996 is to be: "Equipping the saints to claim, celebrate, and do the work of ministry as baptized disciples of Jesus Christ."

The CCOM has recommended and the Annual Conference has adopted the following five Objectives to support the Goal:

1. We will explore opportunities for spiritual formation and faith development in order to recognize and claim our spiritual gifts.
2. We will be enabled to feel a part of the connectional church.
3. We, laity and clergy, will be equipped to understand and share the ministry of the church.
4. We celebrate the diversity of gifts among members and our roles as servant members.
5. We, as United Methodists will study/learn the work of our calling and will have opportunity for doing that work, balancing outward service and inner spirituality.

With the goal and objectives approved, the CCOM will lead the Conference in enlisting "courses of action" to implement the Goal and Objectives in 1995. That will be done from June to October with final decisions being made in November, 1994.

TOTAL 1995 PROPOSED PROGRAM BUDGET: $101,455.00

THE FUTURE THAT CAN BE:

Vision 2000

*A vision statement of the North Arkansas
Conference of The United Methodist* Church.

Since our past, present and future are in God's hands, we move toward and enter the 21st Century, alive with confidence and hope, open to growth, changes and challenges.

As the body of Christ, we are always discovering new and effective ways of fulfilling our ministry under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Our focus is Jesus Christ, our concern is people, and our commitment is to respond to God's call to make a difference. In the name of Jesus Christ we receive and offer forgiveness. We help people grow as Christian disciples. We celebrate diversity by learning respect for all individuals. In our caring for all God's people and God's world, we represent God who through Jesus Christ shows The Way.

Committed to being peacemakers among individuals, families, communities and nations, we serve as agents of change in keeping with Biblical values and the Wesleyan tradition.

(Revised February 18, 1994)

The Revised Conference Vision Statement

The Annual Conference will be asked to adopt this revised vision statement. The revision came as a result of 1992 General Conference action directing the General Council on Ministries to lead the church in visioning. Annual Conferences were asked to prepare a vision statement if it did not have one. Conferences, like the North Arkansas Conference which had written vision statements, were asked to revisit their vision statement and, after a period of Bible study and reflection, see if the statement needed to be updated.

Our existing vision statement was adopted in 1992. The Conference Council on Ministries appointed an ad hoc committee to revisit the vision statement. The committee met on two occasions and did the 4-segment Bible study on the Gospel of Mark which had been prepared by the General Council on Ministries and suggested the revision presented here. The Bible study is a video tape, entitled "Faithful, Listening Disciples" and will be available for purchase at our Annual Conference for $5.00 per video tape.

ALDERSGATE CAMP - 1994

The theme of 1993 was "Camp Aldersgate . . . Making News!" The year began with the surprise gift from the Chinese Financial Development Education Foundation of Beijing, China and continued with news of the formation of Aldersgate Ambassadors, the adult volunteer auxiliary for the camp, with the first "Kids — 1993" Golf Tournament which raised $32,000 for the camp, and with the continuing development of the camp's financial base by the board of directors.

The programs of the camp were highlighted by the following news:

The 23rd year of the Med Camps program was marked with a total of 337 campers from 60 counties and 127 cities in Arkansas, along with 4 campers from out of state. Coming together for week-long camping experiences were children with various medical conditions such as spina bifida, cerebral palsy, hemophilia, oral hearing impairments, cancer, arthritis, muscular dystrophy, diabetes, kidney disorders, amputations, and asthma. The receipt of accreditation by the American Camping Association made Camp Aldersgate one of only 500 accredited camps nationwide who offer this variety of camping experiences for children with disabilities.

The year-round Respite Care weekend camping program provided a break for 12 to 15 families each weekend, while giving their children with disabilities a camping experience. The program, supported in large part by volunteers and youth counselors, provided approximately 20,000 hours of respite care to more than 60 families from a five-county area. In addition, a summer Saturday day camp for children with Down's Syndrome was added.

Redesigned as the Camp Aldersgate Mission Experience (C.A.M.E.) Program, the former work group program brought in youth groups from Louisiana, Texas, Wisconsin and Arkansas to complete work projects both at camp and for senior citizens in the community. C.A.M.E. participants numbered 214, an increase of 75 over the previous summer.

Seniors Day Out, the oldest program at camp, continued to bring in between 40-60 seniors each Thursday from September to May for Bible study, educational programs, a nutritious lunch, and recreation.

Year-round facilities were provided to the Woodlawn Therapeutic Children's Center, an agency of Centers for Youth and Families, and to the Westside Medical Clinic, a program of the facilities were also rented to more than 40 organizations, serving 1,777 persons in retreats, meetings, and seminars.

Volunteers again made news with significant contributions. Many churches provided volunteers who took on extensive projects. The Emmanuel Class from Asbury UMC in Little Rock adopted the Counselor's Lounge on a permanent basis. The Serendipity Class from the same church cleaned and painted the interior of the Hudson Library. The L.E.A.D.E.R.S. from Highland Valley UMC of Little Rock refurnished the Arts and Crafts Cabin. The Wilson Class of Asbury UMC repeated its annual care of the Infirmary and its grounds.

United Methodist Women from all over the state provided much help to the camp which they own. The UMW of St. James UMC in Little Rock once again held their successful Mission Madness silent auction which raised $14,000 for Aldersgate. The Malvern First UMC United Methodist Women contributed new planted areas for the camp. Other United Methodist Women groups provided program support to Seniors Day Out and throughout the special events of the camp.

Camp Aldersgate even attracted volunteers on a national basis. In the fall of 1993, the camp hosted the group called the NOMADS, four couples from four states who arrived in their recreational vehicles and spent three weeks at Aldersgate in extensive cleaning, office work and building renovations.

In one of the strongest youth volunteer programs in the region, approximately 130 youth provided more than 29,000 hours of service through the Respite and Med Camps programs.

Camp Aldersgate was chosen as a service site for two positions through the Delta Service Corps to assist the camp in its program outreach. The camp also began a partnership with the Little Rock Public School by serving as a site for the McClellan High School's Community Based Instructional Program.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Donations were received from churches, organizations, and individuals. From large donations, such as new playground equipment, golf carts, boats, dryers, and air conditioners, to small donations such as toiletries, washcloths and pennies from children in Vacation Bible Schools, every contribution was much appreciated by campers of Aldersgate.

The dedicated volunteer board of directors continued to work to provide quality programs at a quality site. In 1993, over $60,000 was spent in much-needed repairs and buildings improvements on the 120-acre site. Much news was made by Camp Aldersgate in 1993, but perhaps the most significant was the provision of the camp's services to new families who were previously unaware of what the camp offered. To quote one such family, "I just wanted to send a special thank you for having my child last weekend. I know he enjoyed himself (as we enjoyed our day). Someone at camp said, "Your son is a really neat kid." That really made ME feel good. Camp Aldersgate and its counselors are obviously very special and I'm very thankful our family has discovered it."

Camp Aldersgate is, in turn, thankful for the great support of the United Methodist Churches of Arkansas who enable such news to be made.

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY COMMISSION

1. New Archives. Through a special gift to the New Hendrix Library, the Winfred D. Polk Archives was established, located in the library and owned by the United Methodist Church. The commissions of the two conferences have oversight of its policies, arrangements, volunteer staff and scheduling. Mrs. Mauzel Beal is the archivist. We welcome your visiting the archives while at conference and your researching projects related to the Methodist tradition in Arkansas.
2. Computer indexing of the Arkansas United Methodist. One of the ambitious projects taken by the Joint Commission (both of the conference commission) is to make available the information of our church paper in Arkansas through computerized indexing. When the desired subject is located in the index, micro-film of the "Methodist" is available on the reader for the researcher to read/copied by the push of a button. Personnel doing this indexing are supervised by the library and paid by the budgets of the two conferences.
3. Binding of Arkansas United Methodist. Part of the budget of the two commissions goes in assisting our paper to bind the issues that have been published or will be published.
4. Endowment Fund. We have established with the Foundation, 5905 Forrest Place, #210, Little Rock, 72203, telephone--324-8031. Special, memorial or honor gifts are welcomed. The interest is used for needed projects.
5. History 2000. This project was approved by the two conferences and progress is being made toward the completion of an updated history by the end of this century. An advisory group has been selected. Reverend Charles McDonald is Chair. And committees have been appointed: Research, Finance, Publicity, Writing, and Editing.

One of the features of this history is borrowed from the Pacific Northwest Conference history which includes a brief mini-history of each local church. Many histories have been submitted to the archives. If you haven't responded, mail your local church history to Mauzel Beal, 1811 Jefferson, Conway, AR 72032. We have a file for your church in the archives. Goal of 1856: Each local church have a church history. And a copy in the archives.

6. Historical Sites. This conference approved of establishing a site at Mt. Zion last Conference. Mt. Zion is in Cross County and is the place where the White River Conference was established in 1870, near Vann Dale. This year we are asking that the Old Philadelphia Church be approved as a historical site. We are researching the Methodist school at Quitman as a possible historical site.
7. Museum at Quapaw Quarters United Methodist Church, Little Rock, for the state., Rev. Jim Beal is Chair. If you have materials of an earlier period that you think should be in the museum, see Jim.
8. "See Archives and History display at Mills Center
9. Heritage Sunday is in April. Materials may be ordered from the General Commission on Archives and History, P.O. Box 127, Madison, N.J. 07940 See Conference mailing prior to April.

AREA COMMUNICATIONS - 1994

The Area Committee on Communications consists of the joint Committees on Communications of the two Annual Conferences. The Arkansas Area Communications program covers three main areas:

1. Arkansas United Methodist Newspaper
2. Arkansas Area Media Center
3. Arkansas Area Production Center

ARKANSAS AREA MEDIA CENTER:

Check It Out! The Area Media Center maintains a collection of videotapes, audio tapes, films, filmstrips, slides and other audio/visual materials and equipment. These resources are available to all United Methodists in Arkansas. There is a wide variety of topics to choose from: children, youth, missions, church history, Christmas, Easter, confirmation, family issues, special programs of the church (local, state, and national), and many more.

A Media Services Catalog describes the library's collection in detail. This catalog was distributed to each church and is available upon request. The latest additions and selected resources are featured each month in the Arkansas United Methodist newspaper column. The work of Area Media Center is an essential communications tool for United Methodist Churches across the state.

The Media Center is located at the United Methodist Center, 715 Center Street in Little Rock. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information call the Media Center Librarian, Gloria Caldwell, at 324-8011.

ARKANSAS AREA PRODUCTION CENTER:

The Area Production Center, an in-house facility, produces quality printed materials needed to accomplish adopted Council on Ministries programs of the Arkansas Area. The Production Center has proved to be an integral and economical production tool to United Methodist programs.

The Production Center produces materials for other agencies and local churches of the Annual Conference, as time allows.

Located in the United Methodist Church Center in Little Rock, the Production Center employs a full-time supervisor, and a permanent part-time production assistant. The Production Center is available for typesetting and layout, printing, bindery work, and distribution. Contact Laura Organ, supervisor, at 324-8006 for more details.

ARKANSAS UNITED METHODIST

United Methodists in Arkansas are a very fortunate bunch! They are able to stay "connected," informed and challenged as Christians in mission and in ministry through the pages of their very own locally produced denominational newspaper, the Arkansas United Methodist. Only a handful of United Methodist Conferences or Areas can say that. One only has to imagine all the information, ideas, celebrations and news that would be missed if the Arkansas United Methodist weren't there to deliver it right to your home and church. The two-person staff of the newspaper — Jane Dennis, editor, and Melissa Sanders, administrative assistant — is proud to bring this important news link and communication tool to you twice monthly. We consider it a ministry of the church in every sense of the work.

The 1994 promotion campaign for the Arkansas United Methodist was a solid success, thanks to the participation of local churches and the support of clergy and laity across Arkansas. We added 300 NEW subscribers and recorded the renewal of several thousand others. Current circulation figures exceed 11,500 — the highest number we've seen in more than 7 years.

Also in 1994, we instituted a new reduced subscription rate for retired clergy, surviving spouses and seminarians in the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences. We're making every attempt to insure that every local pastor receives the newspaper, as well as all active missionaries from Arkansas. Among other developments are our new Business and Professional Directory of services and businesses that serve many local churches. Cost-saving measures include a new bar-coding system to be used for first-class bulk mailings, and adding Zip+4 to all addresses on our mailing list.

But as our church leaders, there's more you need to know. The costs of continuing to produce an Area newspaper have climbed steadily, and our financial picture isn't as rosy as it may have seemed in recent years. Here's why:

- Postage costs have risen dramatically. From 1989 to 1993, our third-class postage mail costs have increased an astounding 88% — from $20,200 to more than $38,000 annually. We will also be greatly impacted by another rate increase later this year — an increase not anticipated when the 1994 budget was approved.

- Printing fees have gone up steadily — from $21,000 in 1989 to nearly $28,000 in 1993. Together, postage and printing costs constitute a whopping 58% of our total annual budget! And all the while we have worked to keep office costs and other expenses at their lowest levels. We continue to strive to increase income from additional advertising and individual paid subscriptions.

- Yet, conference apportionment support has not changed from its 1988 level. (And it should be noted that in 1988 the amount of support given the Arkansas United Methodist was actually reduced by $5,000 in each Conference, for a total budget reduction of $10,000.) For the past six years, the newspaper has been operating at approximately the same income level as in 1988, while costs for producing the newspaper in 1994 and 1995 are exceedingly higher than they were in 1988.

- Efforts each year to offset these rising costs and to make up for the lack of increase in apportionment and other income have whittled our reserves to a dangerously low level. So low, in fact, that the Arkansas United Methodist — after six years of running "in the black" — may well end up running "in the red" for 1994, not to mention 1995.

All this is a prelude to the Committee on Communication's request for an increase in apportionment support for the Arkansas United Methodist for 1995. Please thoughtfully and prayerfully consider this request, remaining mindful of the significant ministry and role the Arkansas United Methodist fulfills in the church. May it continue as a medium for sharing and celebrating news of our people and our local churches, providing insight and information about the direction of the denomination and the religious community at large, inspiring thought and reflection, and rejoicing in the many wonderful, innovative ways the kingdom of Jesus Christ is being furthered all across Arkansas.

Jane Dennis, editor

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY - 1994

Since its founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has helped to equip men and women to live out God's call to ministry. Candler graduates have distinguished themselves as bishops, preachers, pastors, teachers, scholars, chaplains, and church administrators, and as lay leaders in all walks of life. The largest seminary of the United Methodist Church, Candler has become known for its strong faculty, a curriculum combining theological study with the practice of ministry, and innovative joint-degree programs with other Emory schools and divisions.

Faculty at Candler continue to take an interdisciplinary approach to research and problem solving that helps move the church to new levels of understanding. For example, Dr. Nancy Ammerman, Associate Professor of the Sociology of Religion, is working on a research project titled "The Congregation in Changing Communities." Funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment, the project examines the dynamics of congregational and community change by studying how congregations make sense of new situations and how they develop new strategies for action.

In the classroom and through research like Dr. Ammerman's which benefits local congregations, the Candler faculty seek to educate creative and faithful leaders for the church's ministries. More than ten books were published by Candler faculty authors in 1993-1994. In fall 1993, we welcomed Dr. Belle Miller McMaster, former Director of the Social Justice and Peacemaking Unit of the Presbyterian Church (USA), as Acting Director of the Program for Women in Theology and Ministry. Bishop W. T. Handy, Jr., recently retired from the active episcopacy in the Missouri Area of the United Methodist Church, also joined the faculty as Visiting Arthur J. Moore, Visiting Professor of Evangelism.

Fifty-eight rising high school seniors from across the country gathered at Candler last summer to explore the meaning of religious faith and how that faith relates to the world around them in the first annual Youth Theology Institute. The month-long program was directed by Dr. Don Richter and funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment. Participants used Atlanta as their classroom. Guest speakers from a variety of theological backgrounds also enriched their study. Another session will begin in July 1994.

We continue to ask for support from local churches through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) and through prayers for our faculty, students, and staff. Increased support of the MEF will directly reduce student debt and assure that the church of the next millennium is served by pastors who are committed and effective. We are grateful for the trust that you have placed in Candler School of Theology at Emory University. As with you we share in the work of preparing creative and faithful leaders for the churches of this conference.

Council on Professional Ministry: SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY - 1994

I. INTRODUCTION

Because the church's mission relates to the call in Christ to be a church for all persons, a safe place where each can receive and give ministry with the gifts God freely bestows; because the will of the General Conference as recorded in the Discipline and the Resolutions is to be a church of justice and mercy; and because we trust that God's grace is at work;

THEREFORE, this policy of the Little Rock/North Arkansas Conference addresses the conduct of the clergy and church professionals (consecrated and certified) in order:

- 1) to provide for the safety of parishioners and clergy/church professionals,
- 2) to protect the unique relationships which clergy/church professionals have with peers and parishioners in all settings,
- 3) to ensure the health, authenticity, and integrity of the church.

This policy is submitted to the Annual Conference in faithfulness to the call to equality in Christ (Galatians 3:28) and to the mandate of the General Conference as recorded in the Social Principles and the 1992 General Conference Resolution, "Sexual Harassment in the United Methodist Church."

Sexual harassment is an unwanted behavior with a sexual connotation. It is any sexually related behavior that is unwelcome, offensive, depersonalizing, or which fails to respect the rights and feelings of others. It may be verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Such behaviors create an intimidating, hostile, and offensive environment.

This policy is based upon an understanding that protects all persons and which acknowledges the clergy/church professionals' inherent position of power and responsibility — moral, ethical, and professional — for maintaining conduct worthy of the sacred trust and power placed in them.

This policy is intended to provide an additional informal process for the resolution of grievances within the North Arkansas/Little Rock Annual Conference. It is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal grievance process and its attendant fair process protections in The Book of Discipline. It is intended to assist persons to reach resolution or reconciliation prior to moving into the formality of the Disciplinary grievances. Failure to utilize or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review, investigation, or trial process.

Local churches are encouraged to utilize this policy in the formulation of policies for all their employees.

II. PROCEDURES

A. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person.

You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease.

If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation.

If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy).

If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

B. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship.

If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting.

If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusations, and each supporting person.

C. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above.

If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventative action.

According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

III. IMPLEMENTATION

Following initial training for all clergy/church professionals in March 1994, they should receive training periodically, provided or approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry or Board of Diaconal Ministry. Training will be provided by the Board of Ordained Ministry/Board of Diaconal Ministry on a regular basis for persons being appointed for the first time in the Annual Conference.

Local churches are urged to participate in educational opportunities on sexual ethics and conduct. Agencies and affiliated institutions are strongly encouraged to provide educational opportunities on sexual ethics and conduct.

Council on Professional Ministry:

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY - 1994

The purpose of the Board of Ordained Ministry is to provide support and resources to those men and women whose vocation is lived out in covenant fellowship of the Ordained Ministry of the Annual Conference. The aim of our work therefore, is to fulfill faithfully our responsibilities to the persons entrusted to our care at every stage of the pilgrimage of their ministry as well as our responsibilities to the Church. This Board seeks, through the diversity of its members and its approach to its tasks, to reflect and affirm the pluralism which makes rich the weave of the tapestry which is United Methodism. We reaffirm our commitment to adhere faithfully to the requirements of the Discipline in all matters related to the Ministry.

I. POLICY AND PROGRAM

A. The financial resources of the Board will be disbursed in the following ways:

1. For the normal work of the Board and its officers in fulfilling our responsibilities to persons related to the Board in preparation and enhancement for ministry.
2. The financial assistance to students enrolled in the Master of Divinity program (or its equivalent) in seminaries listed by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church, and to candidates enrolled in basic degree programs for Diaconal Ministries. Depending on the availability of funds, interest free loans will be made, per semester, as follows:
 - $1,500 for students attending United Methodist Seminaries (full time)
 - $ 750 for students attending United Methodist Seminaries (part time)
 - $ 525 for students attending United Methodist Seminaries (summer)
 - $ 225 for students attending United Methodist Seminaries (mini-term)
 - $ 750 for students attending Non-United Methodist Seminaries (full time)
 - $ 375 for students attending Non-United Methodist Seminaries (part time)
 - $ 263 for students attending Non-United Methodist Seminaries (summer)
 - $ 113 for Students attending Non-United Methodist Seminaries (mini-term)

The above schedule is a guideline and the actual amount of loans may be increased with the availability of funds.

Loans for full-time seminary students will be granted for no more than four seminary years. Part-time students may receive loans for more than four years, but the total amount of loans shall not exceed the total amount granted to a full-time student in four years, i.e. $12,000 maximum grants. To be eligible for loans, students must have received the Certificate of Candidacy and be attending an approved institution and must not be receiving full scholarship aid from an approved institution. Students are expected to provide information concerning their academic standing and any circumstances relevant to their case to the Registrar of the Board. The Loan Officer for the Board is Tom Anderson. The loans are to be paid back at the rate of:

One service year per year of loan for full-time student.

One-half service year per year of loan for part-time student.

Service in any United Methodist Conference is payment

Service in any other denomination does not count

If persons leave the United Methodist ministry they will repay the loan at a rate of $700/year.

B. The Course of Studies Schools:

1. Local Pastors attending the Course of Study School at a United Methodist School of Theology will receive financial aid from the Board for room and board expenses, up to $570 for a four week school and up to $285 for a two week school. Students will bear all other expenses including registration, books and travel.
2. Loan money is available for students in Advance Studies at the same rate as part time students, not more than 4 semesters, after consultation with and the approval of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.
3. The Board will pay up to one-half of the cost of registration for the correspondence cost for the History, Polity, and Doctrine course and up to $300 for the residential program regardless of how long it may take.
4. The Board will pay one-half of the cost of registration fee for course of study by correspondence for one year.
5. The Board will not pay for the same course of study more than one time. If course is not "passed" the first time repeat of that course is the student's responsibility.

C. The Arkansas Area Local Pastor's License School:

The Board will give financial support to the Arkansas Local Pastor's License School up to $4,000.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

D. Professional Ministries School:

The Board will support the Arkansas Area Conference on Leadership in Ministry by providing funding up to $1,500.

E. Supervision of Resident Probationers:

The Board has adopted a process to insure supervision of post-seminary probationary members through the assignment by the Board of Ordained Ministry of a Counseling Elder, known as a Mentor, to each individual and/or joint assignment to a geographic cluster group.

F. Continuing Education:

1. The Board has adopted a Guideline for Continuing Education in conjunction with the Board of Diaconal Ministry which established an expectation of ten Continuing Education Units during a three-year period. (The Guidelines have been circulated and are available from the Chairperson of Continuing Education, Mackie Yocum.)
2. We recommend that each local church or charge allow continuing education leave time for their Pastor as provided in 445.2 and 445.5 of the 1992 Book of Discipline. This leave time should not be considered part of the pastor's annual vacation.
3. We recommend that each local church or charge provide in its budget a Continuing Education fund. This item should be separate from compensation, utilities, and other expense items and should not be counted therein. This fund should be a reimbursed expense to encourage professional and personal growth. We request that each District Superintendent make this an item of inquiry at each Charge Conference. The Board will continue to support the Clergy Professional Growth Training which is promoted by Bishop Richard B. Wilke and the Cabinet.

G. Testing and Evaluation:

1. In consideration of 407.5 of the 1992 Book of Discipline the Board will require physical and psychological evaluation when:
 - a. A Candidate seeks full-time appointment in the North Arkansas Conference and/or
 - b. A Candidate applies for probationary membership in the North Arkansas Conference.
 - c. At other times deemed helpful by the Board of Ordained Ministry.
2. Methodist Hospitals of Memphis will do all physical and psychological evaluation except with prior consent of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

H. Retirement:

1. The Board will recommend annually to the Annual Conference those persons to be granted the Retired Relationship.
2. The Board will provide a plaque to each retiring Pastor (full member, associate member, local pastor) showing his/her years of service to the church at the retirement celebration at Annual Conference.
3. The Board will work in cooperation with the Little Rock Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas to provide at least once each quadrennium a pre-retirement Seminar for pastors and other church professionals. Persons 55 years of age or older will be encouraged to attend these seminars.

I. The Board, through its Secretary on Memoirs Carolyn Park, will provide through its inclusion in the Annual Conference Journal a list of those ministers, widows of family members who have died since the last session of the Annual Conference.

J. Registrar Staff: Gary Goldman, Board Registrar; Lewis See, Asst. Registrar for Residency/Full Membership; Dennis Spence, Asst. Registrar for Seminary/Probationary Member Candidates; Marilyn Webb and Prior Cruce, Asst. Registrar for Local Pastors; Benny Harmon, Asst. Registrar for Candidacy.

II. RECOMMENDATIONS

- A. We recommend continued emphasis on the Ministerial Education program and our United Methodist Seminaries. We ask that each local church pay its full apportionment of the Ministerial Education Fund.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

The portion of this fund which is retained in the Annual Conference provides the Board's funds for continuing education, tuition loans, support of persons attending the Course of Study School, the Arkansas Area Local Pastor's License School, and the History, Polity and Doctrine Course.

- B. The Board continues to have a vital concern for candidates for Ordained Ministry who face the increasing costs of Theological Education. In the light of the increasing costs of Theological Education, we recommend that each District in the North Arkansas Conference establish at least one Ministerial Education Scholarship to be granted annually to a seminary student from the North Arkansas Conference. We further encourage District organizations (i.e. United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, etc.) and local churches to establish significant help to the education of our future pastors.
- C. The Board of Ordained Ministry seeks approval of the Annual Conference to identify partnership churches in the Annual Conference. Such churches would be asked to pay 1/2 of the costs of a persons theological education for services rendered to the Church by the student during their education time and to identify individual patrons. Such individuals will give special support to Candidates for Ordained and Diaconal Ministry during their educational pursuits.
- D. We recommend that those persons desiring to make inquiry concerning the Ordained Ministry as their vocation secure proper application forms for Candidacy from their District Superintendent or from the Assistant Registrar for Candidacy, Bennie Harmon.
- E. We recommend that each pastor become familiar with the Candidacy for Ministry process in order to give proper counsel to members of his/her congregation. Each individual entering the Ordained Ministry must complete the Candidacy program.
- F. We recommend that local church (and especially Committee on Staff/Parish or Pastor/Parish Relations) become familiar with the Disciplinary provisions which relate to Ordained and Diaconal Ministry. Local churches have an increasing role in the process through which a person enters the Ministry.
- G. We recommend that all pastors be encouraged to attend the Arkansas Area Conference on Leadership in Ministry to be held in January 10-12, 1995.
- H. We recommend that congregations in the North Arkansas Conference be encouraged to participate in the seminary intern program.
- I. We recommend and encourage the support of and participation in the Ministerial Assistance Fund by all Pastors of the North Arkansas Conference by contributing annually an amount equal to 1/4 of 1% of their base compensation to the fund. Any pastor may apply for emergency assistance with the understanding that this is a one time grant. The maximum grant is $500. Grant applications are processed through the office of the District Superintendent.
- J. We recommend that each local Staff/Parish or Pastor/Parish Relations Committee insure that the Pastor's compensation package be arranged in such a way as to be as tax efficient as possible.

The last item of the Board of Ordained Ministry report was the adoption of the official definitions of the terms "self-avowed practicing homosexual" and "status" for the North Arkansas Conference.

I. Self-Avowed Practicing Homosexual

"A self-avowed practicing homosexual is a person who engages in sexual acts with a person or persons of the same sex which are either witnessed or openly acknowledged."

II. Status

"Status" is defined as : " A legal relationship or legal condition of a group of persons based on race, gender, or national origin,"

Church. Diaconal Ministers are professional lay persons trained to focus their service through a variety of ministries such as community development, social services, health ministries, missions, peace-making, education, counseling, evangelism, youth, administration, and music. Diaconal Ministers function as assistants in worship, partners in governance, leadership in mission, ministers of pastoral care, and teaching, and as agents of Christian unity. The Diaconal Ministry involves interpreting to the church the needs, concerns and hopes of the world, serving and nurturing persons within the household of faith, responding to the needs of the corporate body, thus enabling the church to be in ministry in the world. Diaconal Ministers are consecrated by the church. They are appointed by the Bishop to serve time-honored functions and offer flexibility for expressing ministry in new ways responsive to contemporary needs. We affirm our commitment to adhere faithfully to the requirements of the Discipline in all matters related to the ministry. The Board of Diaconal Ministry has responsibility for inquiring candidates, certified candidates, diaconal ministers, persons holding professional certifications and assistants in various program areas.

I. POLICY AND PROGRAM

A. Candidacy

1. When a person hears and heeds the call to serve as a Diaconal Minister his/her first formal step is to qualify as a candidate for Diaconal Ministry.
2. During the time of searching and defining their call, the Board of Diaconal Ministry assigns the pilgrim a Mentor. The Mentor is a guide and resource person who has been selected and trained to help the pilgrim in their search.
3. Candidacy for Diaconal Ministry occurs in two stages. The inquiring candidate is anyone who has made a written inquiry to the Board and has been assigned a mentor. The inquiring candidate works with their mentor through Chapter 3 in their Candidacy Journal. A person can be an inquiring candidate for an indefinite period of time. The progress of each inquiring candidate (pilgrim) will be reported to the Board by their mentor at the Annual Retreat.
4. Certified Candidacy begins after the person has completed Chapter 3 in the Candidacy Journal, has answered the Doctrinal Questions on page 102 of the Candidacy Journal and has been interviewed by the Board of Diaconal Ministry and approved by the Annual Conference. The person has a maximum of eight years to complete the candidacy process. Leaves of absence of up to three years may be granted by the Board in special cases. The status of each candidate is evaluated annually at the retreat sponsored by the Board of Diaconal Ministry. Candidates failing to renew their candidacy at the retreat may be put on leave by the Board. Certified candidates are eligible for scholarship grants from the Ministerial Education Fund. When the candidate completes the process, they may apply for consecration. The candidate will submit in writing answers to the doctrinal questions on page 102 of the Candidacy Journal a second time. The candidate will also have successfully completed the physical and psychological evaluation through Methodist Hospital in Memphis. After approval by the Board of Diaconal Ministry, the candidate is presented to the Annual Conference for Consecration.
5. We continue to support the mentor program as the point of entry into the formal candidacy process and encourage persons to be trained as mentors so as to provide direction and support to persons exploring the diaconal ministry.
6. Certified Candidates must complete the Certification and Foundation Courses or have an advanced degree which includes these courses from a school approved by the University Senate.

B. Continuation in the Office of Diaconal Minister or as a Certified Professional

1. All Diaconal Ministers will complete the annual review forms, charge conference report, and service appointment forms.
2. Each Diaconal Minister will be reviewed by the Board of Diaconal Ministry once each quadrennium at the first retreat following General Conference each quadrennium.
3. All Certified Professionals will complete the Annual Renewal Forms.

 2. These persons will be included in those remembered at the opening worship service of Annual Conference.
- E. Financial Resources of the Board
1. The financial resources of the Board of Diaconal Ministry will be distributed in the following ways:

 - b. To provide the required physical and psychological testing service through Methodist Hospital required of the candidates for consecration
 - c. To publicize and raise the public awareness of the existence of Diaconal Ministry as a viable form of representative ministry.
 - d. The Board of Diaconal Ministry will provide informational meetings and retreat settings to supply information about actions of General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
- F. Continuing Education
1. We endorse the Professional Ministries School as an option for continuing education and continue to work toward the goal of offering courses that would be designed for diaconal ministers and certified professionals also.
 2. We continue to use the guideline of four Continuing Education Units during a quadrennium period as a standard expectation of diaconal ministers.
 3. We recommend that each local church employing a diaconal minister, certified professional or candidate provide continuing education time as provided for in the Book of Discipline. This leave should not be part of the person's annual vacation time.

4. We recommend that each local church employing a diaconal minister, certified candidate or person holding professional certification provide in its budget a continuing education line item. This item should be separate from salary and other expense items and should not be counted therein.
5. We encourage Diaconal ministers, certified candidates and those holding professional certifications to attend the Professional Ministries School.

G. Conference Connections

1. The ministerial support package of consecrated diaconal ministers will be listed in the Conference Journal as a part of the Statistical Table.
2. A representative of each consecration class will be given an opportunity to address the Annual Conference body when the candidates are presented.
3. Consecration Candidates will be voted on at the beginning of Annual Conference and will be full voting participants of the conference in which they are approved for consecration.
4. Consecration Candidates will be presented to the Lay Briefing Session each year for recognition.
5. The service records of consecrated Diaconal Ministers will be recorded along with the ordained ministers in the Conference Journal.
6. The Board of Diaconal Ministry will be an advocate for dependents of Diaconal Ministers as they are eligible for scholarship assistance at United Methodist colleges and universities as children of ministers.
7. The Board of Diaconal Ministry will be included on the agendas of My Job Workshops, District Conferences and Council Meetings. The Board will provide a Speakers Bureau list in the conference mailing each year. Local churches are encouraged to invite these persons to address their gatherings.
8. Ministry Sunday will be observed on the last Sunday of September each year and will be planned jointly by the Diaconal and Ordained Ministry Boards.
9. Diaconal Ministry will be included as a career choice on the agenda of convocations and seminars on the ministry.
10. Dependents of Diaconal Ministers are eligible for the tuition benefit program at Hendrix.

H. Ministerial Education Fund

1. We continue to work with the Board of Ordained Ministry in providing scholarship assistance through Ministerial Education Funds for our students enrolled in the Foundation or Certification Courses of Study or persons in our program who are enrolled in a Masters degree program in a school listed by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church.
2. Diaconal Candidates or Certification Candidates are to be included as choices for Ministerial Education Fund scholarships offered in the various districts of the North Arkansas Conference.
3. We continue to emphasize the Ministerial Education program and our United Methodist Seminaries. We ask that each local church pay its full apportionment of the Ministerial Education Fund.

I. Local Church Records

1. Local churches will recognize Diaconal ministers that have been appointed to their charge in the same way that ordained leadership is recognized in local church history collections.
2. Local church historians will keep the same records of persons going into Diaconal Ministry from their church as they do for persons who begin candidacy for ordained ministry in their congregation.

Council on Professional Ministry: BOARD OF PENSIONS - 1994

The North Arkansas Conference Board of Pensions is charged with the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of the ministers and their families of The United Methodist Church. The board works closely with the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church which has provided excellent counsel, interpretation and guidance in our pension program.

All eligible clergy must be enrolled in the pension program (MPP). Enrollment is the responsibility of the participant. Enrollment blanks may be obtained from Mrs. Faye Douglas Watson, Administrative Secretary, P.O. Box 119, Marion, Arkansas 72364.

The Board of Pensions recommends that:

- 1. The 1995 annuity rate for service completed prior to 1982 be $284.
- 2. The North Arkansas Conference continue participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) of the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church as follows:
 - a. That the contribution rate for Ministerial Pension Plan be 12% of the plan compensation of the participant up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan Compensation includes cash salary plus 25% for parsonage or cash amount for housing, plus any tax-deferred annuity program, plus any amount paid to participant as a reimbursement for Social Security taxes.
 - b. That each minister contributes 3% of his/her Plan Contribution, up to the DAC, to his/her personal account with the General Board of Pensions.
 - c. That the contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) be 4.4% of which 1%, shall be contributed by the participating minister.
 - d. That current service be paid by apportionment by the churches of the conference.
 - e. That we include any ministers in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) who are eligible for the Special Arrangement feature.
- 3. Past Service funding be paid by apportionment income, interest income, and depletion of pension resources as indicated below.
 - a. At the 1993 session of the North Arkansas Annual Conference the Conference Board of Pensions, Council on Finance and Administration, and the Board of Ordained Ministry were charged with compiling and accounting "those projected to retire by 2000, estimated funds needed, and a proposed financial plan to meet those needs". This group has met and made an extensive study of several alternative ways of meeting our needs, including the possibility of another capital funds campaign to fund past service obligations. We understand that a major concern of the Conference is the continued rate of increase in the pension budget each year. The recommendation of this study group and the Board of Pensions is that we establish our yearly past service funding deposit at $780,000, and then use interest income from pension funds on deposit, and an actual depletion of those pension fund deposits, to cover the increases that are expected in that past service funding requirement in the future. In order to do this, a $200,000 increase in our annual apportionment would be required, beginning in 1995. If interest earnings and apportionment income stay high, and retirement projections hold true, this plan would fund our past service funding portion of the pensions budget for the next ten years, and possibly until that obligation becomes fully funded. Due to the unpredictability of the number of retirements in the future, the level of unfunding related to those retirements, the longevity of retirees and spouses, and the investment rate of return, it is impossible to make any realistic projection beyond the year 2000/2004. It is our hope to continue to use the Deposit Account funds as long as possible to supplement the required past service payment in excess of $780,000. How long this method can continue will be determined by the factors described above. It is important to remember that these factors are beyond our control. We will continue to give you a yearly update on how well this procedure is actually working, and to suggest any alterations that seem advisable or needed. Since the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits produces five year projections on the annual past service payments, we will know at least five years in advance of the total liquidation of the Deposit Account, which maintains the conference's pension funds, and the need to end or alter this funding plan. It should also be pointed out that past service funding represents only one component of the entire pension's budget. Past service funding relates to retirement years accumulated prior to 1982. Pensions has two additional major areas of responsibility however: 1) current active pastor's pension funding, and 2) health insurance coverage for retired pastors. This area of health insurance coverage is another volatile area which is largely beyond our control and has been a source of concern for several years. All this should remind us of the impossibility of holding the entire pensions apportionment to a zero increase in any one year; however, by better managing this area of past service funding, increases will be held to a minimum. The Board of Pensions is very sensitive to the situation of our local churches and pledges to you to do the very best we can in our fiscal management to hold down unnecessary increases in the apportionment, while at the same time remaining faithful to our obligations to those who have served our Lord so faithfully.

- b. That our unfunded obligation be amortized over a forty (40) year period beginning January 1, 1982.
- c. That the surviving spouse continue to receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.
4. That the Death Benefit Program (DBP and DBP+) be available to participants who are currently enrolled, for the plan year 1995 and beyond, at the participants own expense.
5. That the North Arkansas Conference adopt the Basic Protection Plan (BPP) for any and all new participants enrolled as of January 1, 1995, at the participants own expense.
6. In order to provide adequately for the pension program (current and past funding) the churches shall pay an apportioned amount totaling $1,640,304.
7. Health insurance premiums for retirees shall be apportioned in the amount of $605,000.
8. Allowance grants, retirement love offerings and local expenses of the Board of Pensions is paid by the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Pensions, subject to the approval of the Conference Board of Pensions and the 1992 Book of Discipline.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

10. There shall be apportioned to each agency and institution served by a ministerial member under special appointment with annuity claim on the conference an amount equal to 15.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC).

12. Notice for claims for pension credit shall be made in writing to the Administrative Secretary, NAC Board of Pensions.
13. In determining years of service, the Board of Pensions shall carefully examine and consider those years listed in the conference journal prior to accepting them as valid years; and any years in question shall be subject to validation by the applicant and by approval of the Board of Pensions.
14. Copies of individual service records may be obtained from the General Board of Pensions, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, IL. 60201.
15. The Board recommends that annuity credit for past service be given to the following: none.
16. Eligible claimants who have been retired by the North Arkansas Conference with pension benefit will have their death benefit coverage provided through the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The benefit is 20% of the Denominational Average Compensation. Retirees may purchase additional benefits (BPP) at their own expense.
17. We recommend that all retired ministers, widows, and dependent children, who are the responsibility of the conference, be covered by the conference health insurance program. As approved by the 1993 Annual Conference and effective January 1, 1994, The Annual Conference will pay 100 percent of health care cost of retirees and surviving spouses within the following guidelines:
 - a) A retiree must serve 40 years within the United Methodist church to receive 100 percent payment. Less than 40 years service are credited with 2 1/2 percent funding per year of service.

- b) Premiums paid by the Conference for a surviving spouse's insurance coverage is determined by the number of years of service of their deceased ministerial spouse, and their own particular age (see below).
 - c) Retired ministers and their spouses receive funding only up to the maximum of Medicare supplement insurance cost. Persons under 65 years of age must pay the difference between Medicare and active insurance cost themselves.
 - d) Retired individuals, eligible for Medicare, shall personally pay Medicare premiums.
 - e) When a surviving spouse of a retired clergy person remarries that surviving spouse will be responsible for 100 percent of the insurance premium.
 - f) Spouses and dependent children of an active clergy person who died will have 80 percent of their insurance paid by the Conference, until that spouse remarries, or until that spouse reaches age 65, at which time the above guidelines go into effect.
18. Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowance for Retired or Disabled Ministers of this Conference:

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and
Whereas, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers, and

Whereas, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous active service and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service, and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that The North Arkansas Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of the Conference; and

Whereas, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to the Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/allowance for disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved:

- a) An amount equal to 100% of the pensions payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year 1995 be and is hereby designated as a rental/allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of The North Arkansas Annual Conference at the time of his/her retirement or disability.
- b) The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

Note: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a "rental allowance" is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

The above exclusion applies to clergy only. Upon the death of a clergyperson, assuming the filing of a joint tax return, the surviving spouse may exclude housing costs which were paid for during the life of the clergyperson, but may not exclude those costs which were paid for after the death of the clergyperson. This ruling comes from the Internal Revenue Service.

Important notice about rollovers and the housing allowance exclusion. If you choose to roll over your distribution to an IRA or another section 403(b) annuity, you may not claim the rental allowance exclusion against any of the payments you later receive from that IRA or section 403(b) annuity.

19. Each minister at the time of full retirement and drawing annuity from The General Board of Pensions will be given a love offering with the following formula being used: a maximum of $1,000 which will be figured at $25.00 per service year in The North Arkansas Conference up to a maximum of 40 years.
20. Retired Minister's Day: Recommended to be the Third Sunday of May each year. The purpose of this day is to recognize the service of the retired servants and their families, and to involve the local churches in the recognition of the needs, both present and future, of The North Arkansas Conference Pension Fund. If a retired minister does not reside within the bounds of a charge, but a member of a retired minister's family does, they shall be invited to participate in the service (or observance); otherwise, recognition of these servants, and their service, should be observed appropriately. "Appropriately" should be determined by the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee of each local church. This committee shall have the responsibility of locating these people and relate the service of these persons to the local church and our Annual Conference. The Conference Board of Pensions will be responsible for providing promotional ideas and some materials (i.e., total years of service, percentage of retired ministers serving churches while in their retired status, etc.).
21. We recommend that a special grant be made to Donna McCammon, dependent child.
22. Ministers desiring to participate in the tax-deferred program of The General Board of Pensions should write Reverend Peter Ferguson, Assistant General Secretary, General Board of Pension, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201.
23. As of January 1, 1982, ¶ 1606.4a(2), 1992 Book of Discipline, be enforced.
24. Participants in our pension programs should notify the Administrative Secretary, Faye Douglas Watson, P.O. Box 119, Marion, Arkansas, Phone #501-739-3185, when:
 - a. a death in the immediate family occurs;
 - b. any change in address or income occurs;
 - c. a change of beneficiary is desired;
 - d. information relative to pensions matters is needed;
 - e. to enroll in our pensions program;
 - f. retirement is intended (90 days prior to the session of the annual conference at which retirement is contemplated).
 - g. you have a question of annuity credit for past service.

Council on Professional Ministry:

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION - 1994

I. MINIMUM SALARY PROGRAM

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the 1995 Minimum Salary Schedule and Guidelines be established as follows:

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

A. MINIMUM SALARY SCHEDULE:

	Full Connection	Probationer or Associate	Local Pastor
Minimum Salary (1)	18,000	17,000	16,000

B. Category Guidelines:

	Base Salary (Min.) (2)	Travel Utilities (Max.) (4)	Conference Salary Aid (Max.) (3)	Minimum Total Comp.	Maximum Total Comp.
Full Connection	10,800	4,500	7,200	18,000	22,500
Probationary Mem.	10,200	4,500	6,800	17,000	21,500
Associate Mem.	10,200	4,500	6,800	17,000	21,500
Local Pastor	9,600	4,500	6,400	16,000	20,500

1. The 1994 MINIMUM SALARY for a Full-time Local Pastor is approximately equal to the Base Plan Compensation for the Board of Pensions Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) coverage for all persons in full-time ministry. The additional increments of $1,000 and $2,000 are designed to recognize the levels of experience, ordination and conference relationship.
2. The CHARGE is required to provide at least 60% of the Minimum Salary as a BASE SALARY for the category in which its minister falls. When no parsonage is provided, the Charge must provide a Housing Allowance equal to 20% of the Minimum Salary for its pastor IN ADDITION TO THE BASE SALARY ALREADY STATED.
3. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will provide Salary Aid up to 40% of the Minimum Salary for pastors in the various categories. Our first priority is to bring all pastors up to Minimum Salary, and then, AS FUNDS ALLOW, to give aid up to the Maximum Total Compensation.
4. The CHARGE is required to provide adequate TRAVEL AND UTILITIES ALLOWANCES as routine obligations of having a full-time pastor. After a CHARGE has met the BASE SALARY requirement, it may then allocate an additional amount on the salary package UP TO $4,500 AS TRAVEL AND UTILITIES ALLOWANCES.
5. No pastor on Minimum Salary Aid may earn more than the MAXIMUM TOTAL COMPENSATION amount for the category in which he/she falls.

C. Requirements for Qualification

1. The CHARGE must meet the required BASE SALARY (including HOUSING ALLOWANCE, when applicable) before qualifying for Minimum Salary Aid. If there is a great disparity between the Minimum Salary Guidelines and the CHARGE'S ability to provide for them, it is suggested that Charge be either realigned to strengthen its financial state, or considered as a part-time charge.
2. The CHARGE shall pay at least 60% of its APPORTIONMENTS for Pension and Benefits Fund, Episcopal Fund, District Superintendent's Fund, and the Equitable Compensation Fund, as per paragraph 925, 1992 Book of Discipline).
3. Part-time Pastors are not eligible for Minimum Salary Aid. See Paragraph 437, 1992 Book of Discipline, for the definition of "Full-Time Ministry."
4. Associate Pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Salary Aid.
5. RETIRED PASTORS are not eligible for Minimum Salary Aid. See paragraph 451.6 of the 1992 Book of Discipline.
6. See the section on APPLICATIONS FOR SALARY AID.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends approval of the following Charges for Minimum Salary Aid, at the stated annual totals:

Mammoth Spring	686
Quitman	2,344

II. KEY CHARGE PROGRAM

The Key Charge Program provides Salary Aid to pastors who are appointed to charges which are targeted for significant growth by the Conference, or which require short-term support for pastoral leadership for various other reasons, beyond the Minimum Salary Level.

Key Charges are related to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by a contractual agreement. The contract is negotiated by representatives of the Commission, the District Superintendent, and representatives appointed by the charge. The persons, or their successors, shall be the trustees of the contract, having verified it with their signatures.

The contract shall include: (a) the initial amount of Salary Aid needed, (b) the duration of the contract (up to 5 years), and (c) the signatures of the persons negotiating the contract. The nature of the contract is such that the amount of Salary Aid given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the base salary paid by the charge increases by the same amount, thus keeping the salary at least stable over the contract period. After the contract has expired, no further Salary Aid will be granted to the Charge.

Under the Key Charge arrangement, there will be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the Charge. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

Charges to receive Salary Aid under Key Charge Agreements:

Grace, Conway	17,600
North Pulaski	2,602
St. James, Fayetteville	4,100
Faith, Fort Smith	4,200
Kibler	4,647

III. E.L.C. SALARY SUPPORT

We recommend that the North Arkansas Annual Conference undergird its mission through its Ethnic Local Churches by providing, in addition to opportunity for participating in the Minimum Salary Program, a new special Ethnic Local Church Salary Support Program: intended to help provide capable pastoral leadership to charges which function in areas of extreme economic limitation, and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support without mission aid.

The level of salary support in each case shall be negotiated by the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the District Superintendent, in consultation with the pastor and officials of the charge.

A new application shall be submitted for each year for which Salary Aid is requested. See APPLICATIONS FOR SALARY AID.

Priority shall be given to charges which show potential for growth, for increased effectiveness in ministry, and for advance toward self-support.

We recommend that the following churches be approved for Salary Aid at the stated annual rates under the E.L.C. SALARY SUPPORT PROGRAM:

Northwest Arkansas Hispanic Ministry	13,000
Ebenezer	3,000
Jacksonville Korean	6,000
McCabe Chapel	12,400
New Zion	3,500
Hanmaum Korean	2,480
Cornerstone	1,000
Kynette/Scruggs	6,348
Wesley/Taylor	5,860

Council on Professional Ministry GROUP INSURANCE - 1994

Report #1: Program

1. At the called session of our Annual Conference on November 4, 1989, the Conference approved the insurance committee's recommendation that our health insurance program be placed with the General Board of Pensions. We recommend the continuation of our health insurance program with the General Board of Pensions.
2. All full, associate, and probationary members and full time local pastors of the North Arkansas Conference under appointment (except students serving in or those employed by other conferences or agencies which have compulsory programs, members under special appointment outside the Conference, or retired military personnel serving in the Conference), and every full time employee of the Conference, shall participate in the Health Benefits Program of the North Arkansas Conference.
 - A. The Health Benefits Program will be open for Probationers, Student Local Pastors, Diaconal Ministers, Full Members serving less than full time appointment or employment. This is optional for the eligible participant and the participant must make their necessary arrangements and be responsible for the total premium.
 - B. No evidence of insurability will be required if a participant enrolls self and dependents within 90 days after the eligibility date. Eligibility date shall be date of appointment or employment.
 - C. The Insurance Treasurer will check with the District Superintendent concerned in the case of a pastor applying for enrollment for the first time. The eligibility of any full time lay employee of a church will be checked with the pastor concerned. In either case, the first premium payment must accompany the application for enrollment before the application can be processed.
3. The Charge (church) shall pay at least 80% of the premium, and the participant shall pay not more than 20%. We suggest that local churches consider paying 100% of the pastor's health insurance premium and reducing the pastor's salary compensation by the amount of the pastor's 20%.
 - A. 1% is added to the premiums to cover administrative costs of the committee.
 - B. The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that all retired clergy, surviving spouses, and dependent children, who are the responsibility of the conference, be covered by the conference health insurance program. As approved by the 1993 Annual Conference and effective January 1, 1994, the Annual Conference will pay 100% of health care cost of retirees and surviving spouses within the following guidelines:
 - a) A retiree must serve 40 years within the United Methodist Church to receive 100% payment. Less than 40 years service are credited with 2 1/2% funding per year of service.
 - b) Premiums paid by the Conference for a surviving spouse's insurance coverage is determined by the number of years of service of their deceased ministerial spouse, and their own particular age (see below).

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

- c) retired ministers and their spouses receive funding only up to the maximum of Medicare supplement insurance costs. Persons under 65 years of age must pay the difference between the Medicare and active insurance cost themselves.
- d) Retired individuals, eligible for Medicare, shall personally pay Medicare premiums.
- e) When a surviving spouse of a retired clergy person remarries that surviving spouse will be responsible for 100 percent of the insurance premium, effective January 1, 1995.
- f) Spouses and dependent children of an active clergy person who dies will have 80 percent of their insurance paid by the Conference until that spouse remarries, or until that spouse reaches age 65, at which time the above guidelines go into effect.
- E. We recommend that the NAC Committee on Group Insurance be empowered to raise the life time limit from one million to two million dollars per individual as approved by the 1992 Annual Conference.
- 4. The Health Benefit program premiums are due quarterly on the date shown on the statement sent from the Treasurer. All participants are responsible for seeing that the total premium due is sent to: Mrs. Faye Watson, P.O. Box 119, Marion, AR 72364, no later than the date due.
- 5. The Committee shall use the following measures when premiums are not received on time:
 - A. A second notice will be sent to the Participant 14 days after the due date. A copy of the second notice will be sent to the District Superintendent concerned. A late charge of $20.00 will be paid by the participant after this second notice is sent.
 - B. A third notice will be sent to the participant and Cabinet Representative 7 days after the second notice with termination date clearly stated.
 - C. Seven (7) days after the third notice has been sent, and no response made, the participant will be deleted from the Program and the Cabinet Representative notified. Premiums must be received before the termination date and not just post marked. Premiums received after the termination date will be returned.
 - D. When coverage is terminated, reinstatement requires proof of Insurability for you and your dependents.
- 6. Participants in the Health Benefits Program whose appointment/employment is terminated will be granted an extension of coverage of up to nine months provided:
 - (A) The Participant makes a written request to the Insurance Committee;
 - (B) The Participant is responsible for payment of the total premium.
- 7. The premium rates for 1995 will be determined by the General Board of Pensions based on the claims experience of the group for 12 months prior to 7/1/94. Anticipated date for receiving the rates for the calendar year 1995 is October 1, 1994.
- 8. We recommend the health benefits for all Active participants and Retirees under 65 years of age be changed, effective July 1, 1992, to the following:
 - A. The deductible be set at $300 per person / $600 per family per calendar year of the eligible, reasonable and customary charges.
 - B. After payment of the deductible the participants would pay 20%, up to a maximum of $1500 per person / $3000 per family per calendar year of the eligible, reasonable and customary charges.
 - C. Delete the current provision which pays 100% of the first $2500 of covered hospital charges.
- 9. We recommend the health benefits for all retirees under the Conference Medicare plan effective July 1, 1992, be changed as follows:
 - A. 80% of the reasonable covered charges which remain after the $250.00 calendar year deductible has been satisfied and after the Medicare payment has been made, with an out of pocket maximum of $1250.00. (No change in the types of medical expenses covered.)

Report #2: Administrative Matters

- 1. Conference Insurance Committee, on behalf of the members of our Conference, wishes to commend Mrs. Faye Watson for the superior work she does as the Insurance Treasurer.
- 2. We recommend Mrs. Faye Watson be continued as the Insurance Treasurer.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

3. We recommend the estimated budget for July 1, 1994 - June 30, 1995 be:

a. Treasurer's Salary	$12,500.00
b. Treasurer's Pension	1,000.00
c. Administrative Costs	7,500.00
Total	$21,000.00
4. We shall continue to work with the District Superintendents to see that all persons who come under the guidelines for enrollment in the program are enrolled promptly.
5. Persons coming into the Conference during this session may obtain enrollment forms from Mrs. Faye Watson, Treasurer.

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

The Committee on Episcopacy is grateful for the leadership Bishop Wilke is giving to Methodism in Arkansas. We await with eager anticipation the publication of "Disciple III" on which Bishop and Mrs. Wilke have been working.

Bishop Wilke again visited each of the districts. The committee received reports that his visits with the clergy members was one of the most helpful and meaningful visits by the bishop. The committee has requested Bishop Wilke to continue the practice of visiting each of the districts. It has been suggested that the district superintendent, the district lay leader, and the bishop design and plan an event most helpful to each particular district.

The Sub-Committee on the Episcopal Residence has reported that an evaluation of the episcopal residence has been completed. There are several questions about the long term desirability of retaining the residence or whether to significantly renovating the residence. The Episcopal Committee plans to meet in the fall of 1994 to receive a detailed report and recommendations from the Sub-Committee.

The Episcopal Committee has authorized the formation of a Task Force to design the process and instruments for developing an Area and Episcopal Profile. These profiles must be prepared for the Jurisdictional Episcopal Committee in February or March, 1996. The Task Force will develop these profiles from as broad a cross section of the conference as possible.

The committee has also received a report from its Task Force created to study the advantages and disadvantages of merger. The following report was received.

In light of the Task Force findings, the Committee on Episcopacy recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

In view of the research and study done on the advantages and disadvantages of merging the two conferences, several matters surfaced which convinced the committee that long range planning should be done regarding the future of United Methodism in the Arkansas Area.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that an Arkansas Area Long Range Planning Committee to study ways to strengthen Arkansas United Methodist mission and ministry in the twenty-first century be elected by the two annual conferences in accordance with their procedures for nominating and electing. Each annual conference shall elect three lay and three clergy persons to serve. Each annual conference committee shall elect from their membership a Co-Chair. The Committee shall elect other officers as it deems necessary.

The Area Long Range Planning Committee shall be convened by the bishop and shall report annually to their respective annual conferences.

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE MERGER STUDY TASK FORCE THEOLOGICAL RATIONALE FOR STUDYING MERGER

We are one in Christ, committed to the mission and ministry of His Church. We are United Methodists. In the past our United Methodist commitment to Christ's Church has been lived out in two separate communities known as the Little Rock Conference and the North Arkansas Conference. Structural, financial, and political differences between these two conferences have maintained our Area's historic separation. From time to time, by the grace of God and through study and prayer, it becomes clear that the maintenance of this separation has been at the expense of effectiveness in mission and ministry. We are in such a time. So we study merger in response to the call of God in Christ to be one in our commitment and effective in our witness.

Advantages and Disadvantages of Merger

ACCOUNTABILITY

There are things that we do well together in our present structures: the Arkansas United Methodist newspaper, our Resource and Library Center, our United Methodist Center [headquarters], one Episcopal Office with both Council Offices located in the same facility, one Office of Finance and Administration, one United Methodist Foundation, one computer system for district and council offices, one Children's Home, one Cokesbury bookstore, and two United Methodist colleges supported by both conferences.

The greatest advantage to merger would be the ability to more closely supervise the area staff with clear, direct lines of accountability.

EPISCOPAL OFFICE

A large number of episcopal responsibilities are duplicated when there are two conferences in one Area. The optimum fulfillment of these responsibilities is complicated and frustrated by the structural differences between the two conferences. Separate needs and program emphases require attention and time that might otherwise be devoted to a unified program development effort. One conference would allow the bishop a more workable focus for his/her episcopal duties.

APPOINTMENTS

The advantage for merging would be the creation of a larger personnel pool for the appointive process. Today's appointment pool is too small. There would be greater potential for matching talent with needs in local churches. The image that "crossing lines" leads to forfeiture to leadership, currently a "health hazard" for both conferences, would be removed.

The disadvantage would be the time required for cabinet members to become acquainted with the entire state. A subjective disadvantage would be the emotional ties to geographic areas, historic roots and traditions.

ECONOMICS

No one can accurately predict what the future will bring in terms of monetary budgeting and expenditures. Upon merger, in all possibility, spending would continue to increase. Conversations with other areas who have recently merged have indicated that merger did not save money. Many times it increased funding due to special considerations required to effect merger and also because of the larger size of boards and agencies and travel distance for meetings. Predicating merger on the premise that it will save the church money cannot be justified. We see no economic advantage to merger.

LEADERSHIP

Based on the 1992 Discipline, the number of delegates to Jurisdictional and General Conference would be the same for the Area as existing now.

But, in general, one conference would place fewer people in roles of leadership and decision making. This would be true not only in the annual conference but also in the jurisdictional and general agencies of the church. Elected representation on general church agencies would be reduced by half. This may not be true in the future as the general agencies are reorganized. Should merger occur, bringing together the leadership on the two conferences would insure a strong base of leadership at the inception of merger.

STRUCTURE

The two structures are significantly different. Present efforts to cooperate are hindered by the respective structures. People have difficulty understanding that merger is a slow process. The vast differences between our two conferences and the way they engage in mission and ministry would be difficult to resolve.

A merger of the two conferences would allow opportunity to design a structure for more effective ministry and mission into the twenty-first century.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

COMMUNICATIONS

A larger Area with new relationships would cause considerable communication problems. People are resistant to change. New structures and ways of operating would take time and momentous effort.

We currently communicate through two different structures. It appears that one structure would greatly facilitate our ministry.

PENSIONS, INSURANCE, APPORTIONMENTS AND COMPENSATION

There is great disparity between the two annual conferences on pensions, unfunded liability, benevolent support, staff compensations, equitable salary guidelines, apportionment formulas, etc. Each of these would require careful analysis and detail planning. Significant history, tradition, and emotion are wrapped around these issues and would make merger difficult.

MIND-SET OF THE TWO CONFERENCES

We are aware of sixty two (62) years of history regarding the two conferences voting on merger. Throughout this period studies indicate that the two conferences see themselves as being vastly different. Those differences are as marked today as anytime since 1932. Any attempt to merge the conferences without intentional long range planning would set merger back even further.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH COMMITTEE

"The Comprehensive Plan for the Ethnic Local Church, 1994"

BIBLICAL, THEOLOGICAL AND TRADITIONAL FOUNDATIONS

We celebrate that we in the North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church are a community of faith, journeying in covenant, and valuing all persons by virtue of their creation and re-creation (redemption) through the God who is "with us" in Jesus Christ.

In Genesis 1:26a, 27 God creates a single human family whose diversity, procreativity and complementariness are expressed in maleness and femaleness. The diversity of female and male suggest from creation the possibility of unity in diversity since both comprise the "image of God" in which all are created.

Our worth and oneness are also rooted in God's re-creative (redemptive) activity in Jesus. God's re-creative activity is "for all" (Romans 5:18), and the worth of each is measured by the cost to God of our re-creation. "God shows no partiality" in redemption (Acts 10:34), rather God's intent in re-creation is to break "the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us... that he might create in himself one new humanity..." (Ephesians 3:14-15).

The United Methodist Church in its BOOK OF DISCIPLINE 1992 echoes and embraces this valuing and oneness of all in God's human family.

In the SOCIAL PRINCIPLES we affirm that "Primary for us is the gospel understanding that all persons are important - because they are human beings created by God and loved through and by Jesus Christ and not because they have merited significance". (§71) "We affirm all persons are equally valuable in the sight of God. We therefore work toward societies in which each person's value is recognized, maintained and strengthened." (§72) "We rejoice in the gifts which particular ethnic histories and cultures bring to our total life. (§72.A)

In The Journey of a Connectional People we remind ourselves "Ever since John Wesley began to refer to the scattered Methodist classes, bands and societies throughout eighteenth-century England as "the connection", Methodists everywhere have embraced the idea that as a people of faith we journey together in connection and covenant with one another." (§112.1) "This acceptance of strong covenantal bonds among Methodists is no accident. There were deep theological roots, including the concept and experience of covenant and the resulting emphasis on faith journeying in covenant with God and one another." (§112.2) "There were deep biblical roots as well. Images of the Church, especially in the New Testament--... the household or commonwealth of God, the new humanity with cosmic and kingdom dimensions. . . the Body of Christ, and a host of others--supplemented the concept. . . the United Methodist connectional principle, born out of our historical tradition, many biblical roots, and accepted theological ideas, is... the way we carry out God's mission as a people. . . It declares that our identity is in our wholeness together in Christ (and) that each part is vital to the whole." (§112.3)

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Our biblical, theological and historical traditions call us to oneness as we fulfill the mandate of the conference, "equipping the saints", for the remainder of this century.

OBJECTIVES, STRATEGIES, RESOURCES

The seven (7) objectives listed are adapted from a publication of the General Council On Ministries, in September 1993, which addressed the commitment of the United Methodist Church to incorporate ethnic local church concerns at every level of the church.

From 1981 to 1988, the United Methodist Church focused on developing and strengthening the Ethnic Local Church as its number one priority! Toward that goal, programs were developed, staff employed, church organizations reordered, and a separate apportionment instituted.

The vision was that local congregations, conferences, and general agencies would incorporate the contributions and concerns of Asians, Blacks, Hispanics and Pacific Islanders, within their on-going programs and budgets.

The commitment of the North Arkansas Conference is that ethnic local church concerns be incorporated into the total life of the Annual Conference. The reason that so few "Strategies" are listed with the "Objectives" is that each agency of the Annual Conference will be asked to develop strategies for "incorporation" consistent with that agency's assigned function.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 1--Work, Program and Activity related to the ethnic local church shall become a part of the on-going life of the North Arkansas Conference.

Strategy A--Work with Conference Nominating Committee to encourage ethnic inclusiveness in membership of conference boards and agencies.

Strategy B-- Work with CCOM to make sure boards and agencies are including ethnic concerns in their programs and budgets.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 2--Ethnic local churches and their constituencies will experience being an integral part of the mission of the church as partners, not objects, of mission.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 3--Ministry will continue to be developed to respond to the concerns, cries, hurts and needs of the ethnic community.

Strategy A--Target an ethnic community where the issues of hunger, slum housing, inadequate medical care, drug abuse, teen pregnancy and other social ills are prevalent, and address these issues.

(The first project to be targeted involves McCabe Chapel United Methodist Church in the East gate Terrace Community in North Little Rock. This will be the target for money and resources relating to ethnic church concerns of the agencies of the North Arkansas Conference beginning in 1994.)

Strategy B--$7,000.00 will be allocated annually, from the CCOM Program Budget, for ethnic local church program concerns.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 4--Adequate resources--fiscal, human, programmatic--will be utilized to support the ministries implied in Objective Number 3.

Strategy A--The Conference will retain the services of a person to coordinate the consulting needs of the ethnic local churches in the North Arkansas Conference.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 5--The North Arkansas Conference will continue to develop and strengthen its ethnic local churches through continued monitoring, advocacy and sensitivity.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 6--Since the reality of the 21st century is that our church/our conference will have to link more closely together as a global community, multi-cultural and multi-racial awareness, communication and sensitivity will be needed/addressed for the church to witness to the world.

OBJECTIVE NUMBER 7--The incorporation of ethnic local church concerns into the whole life of the Annual Conference is seen as an expression of our journey to racial inclusiveness and to help make the church one in Christ.

YESTERDAY, TODAY, TOMORROW

In 1968 the United Methodist Church became a reality. In 1972 the Southwest Conference of the former Central Jurisdiction merged with the various geographic conferences of The United Methodist Church. Since then, members of the North Arkansas Conference have sought to define and to live the "united" part of our name.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

In 1977, "Empowering Ethnic Minorities for Christian Mission/Ministry" was one of three missional priorities. Throughout the two following quadrennia (1980-1988), "Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church for Witness and Mission" was the one missional priority of The United Methodist Church. Progress was made during those twelve years, some examples of which follow:

*sensitizing of the conference nominating committee, one result of which is that 9% of the persons on conference boards and agencies are non-white;

*A Black DS was appointed for the Conway District;

*two Korean United Methodist Churches have been established;

*three Ethnic Resource Training events have been held;

*an Ethnic Local Church Consultant has been hired;

*inclusiveness training has been conducted by CORR;

*the Commission for Native American Ministries and the Hispanic Task Force have been formed;

*a Black Church and Community worker was assigned to the Marianna Parish in the Forrest City District;

*training, programming, pastoral support and education for members of ethnic local churches were initially funded from the Missional Priority budget but have now been incorporated into the budgets of Equitable Compensation, BOGM, CCOM, and other boards and agencies;

*an ongoing process of incorporation has been established.

Through all those years we struggled to understand and be understood by each other. We have sought to give life to the Body of Christ, to work together at the Conference, District, and Local Congregation levels. It is by the grace of our Savior and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit that we have come this far by faith.

But we must not rest in the glow of what has been accomplished; there are new bridges to cross and roads to travel. Itineracy that is open to clergy of all races must be brought to fruition. New congregations must be founded in inner-city neighborhoods. Additional seminary educated clergy must be put in place to lead congregations seeking to provide young people with alternatives to gang violence, drug culture, and economic despair.

To quote from a document created in 1991 by the General Council on Ministries: "The vision [is] that local congregations, conferences, and general agencies [will] incorporate the contributions and concerns of Asian/Pacific Islanders, Blacks, Hispanics and Native Americans within their on-going programs and budgets."

What is meant by the term "incorporation"? Simply put, it is the owning (by all agencies, boards, and commissions of the church), of the concerns, crises, hurts and needs of the ethnic community. It is the Ethnic Local Church as partner and integral partner and integral part of the mission of the church, not as an object of mission.

The General Council on Ministries document says: "The reality of the new century is that United Methodists will be linked more closely together as a global community. More than ever, multi-cultural and multi-racial awareness, communication, and sensitivity will be needed for the church to witness to the world."

How can the North Arkansas Conference practice incorporation? We can:

(1) Be certain that all training events for church officers (at all levels) include education on incorporating ethnic local church concerns.

(2) Encourage and plan for events and themes with multi-racial and multi-cultural opportunities.

(3) Make possible the sharing of success stories as they come out of churches, districts, and the North Arkansas Conference.

(4) Commit ourselves as individuals and as a church to follow Jesus Christ in word and in deed and to struggle for the rights and the self-determination of every persons and group of persons.

A PLAN FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE COMPREHENSION PLAN

A. The Committee for the Coordination of Ethnic Local Church Concerns will serve as the necessary structure to implement the Plan. The following Boards and Agencies will have representation on the Committee: Church and Society, Parish and Community Dev., Discipleship, Status and Role of

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Women, Global Ministries, Higher Education, Finance and Administration, Lay Life and Work, Equitable Compensation, Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Religion and Race, United Methodist Women, At-Large Members, United Methodist Men.

Proposed additional members for 1993-1996:

Ethnic United Methodist Youth, Native American Ministry, and Hispanic Task Force.

B. Conference Relationships/Linkage

Primary responsibility lodged in CCOM

C. Training and Leadership Development Necessary at all levels

Training for the ELCC, appropriate annual conference boards and agencies, district boards and agencies, and all local churches, concerning the implementation of the Plan should be handled through the Conference Consultant. The Consultant will also help with resourcing.

D. Interpretation--The Consultant and members of ELCC will be the primary interpreters of the Plan. They will use various communication techniques in their interpretation.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES BOARD--1994

The first of 1994; we printed a brochure to tell basically what we are doing as well as opportunities for each of you. Please use this item for names, addresses, and telephone numbers of persons who will help you carry out the Mission Program of each local church.

Part of our projects and events are supported by Conference Benevolence Apportionments through the Conference Council on Ministries.

The Board of Global Ministries promotes the use of: the prayer calendar, alternate Christmas Celebrations, Youth Volunteer Program at Camp Aldersgate, Golden Cross Sunday, United Methodist Children's Home, and the Methodist health Systems of Memphis.

We encourage participation in Advance Specials by suggesting projects in the World and National Division, UMCOR, Covenant Relationship with a Missionary as well as Global Mission Partners, and the Florence Crittenton Home.

These are beyond the six special days with offerings.

Each year our Board of Global Ministries evaluates continuing projects and events of our conference. One of the most important event is our Arkansas Area School of Christian Mission. You have a brochure in your packet and we hope to see you there. Our Board is a part of planning this event and each District has scholarships available. Check with your District Superintendent or the District Office for the applications. Continuing Education Credits are available for those attending; if requested.

Evelyn Banks, Church and Community Worker, continues to be very important to the ministry of the Marianna Larger Parish. The parish Council acts as the Board with four representatives from each church as well as the pastors from the churches and the District Superintendent. The Forrest City District assists with the housing costs through the General Board. The local churches help with projects and the district, also supplements the Community Worker's salary.

Evelyn does need the support of the Conference as she ministers to the Marianna Larger parish on a limited budget. She is very knowledgeable, efficient, cooperative and a pleasure to be around., I am sure Evelyn would share this ministry with you; if you would ask her.

The Board continues to support the Black Community Developer, Euba Harris Winton, as she serves the Mallalieu Community Center in Fort Smith. At this time Mallalieu Community Center is serving more than youth. It ministers to the homeless, to persons of all ages, and of different cultural backgrounds. The board is composed of persons in the community, and they take an active part in the center. A new program, which Euba shared with us last year, "Lead/High Expectations" is proving to be very helpful for the youth and parents. It is giving them hands on curricular and positive role models.

The MIWatch Program was started by the North Arkansas United Methodist Women several years ago. The program which provides for children to visit their mothers in prison is very important. The funds we give are designated for expenses in transporting the children to see their mothers. It also pays for meals, postage and telephone expense. The children and mothers are delighted to be able to have a short visit and the volunteers are blessed by being a part of the program.

We covet your continued support of the Mission Program.

HENDRIX COLLEGE PRESIDENT'S REPORT - 1994

Hendrix College is grateful to the North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church for its sustaining interest and supportiveness. The relationship which the college enjoys with the church is essential in our efforts to provide a top-quality, value-laden education. The church's financial support carries a special importance this year because it and all other contributions to the college's Annual Fund have now been designated exclusively for student scholarships and financial aid.

The past year has been marked by several exciting developments. The new Bailey Library, which opened in January, doubles the amount of space for our library holdings and also incorporates a computer lab, instructional technology and audio-visual facilities, a 24-hour study space, group study rooms, and faculty carrels. We are especially proud of the distinctive space provided for the United Methodist Archives made possible by the Winfred Polk Trust through the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. In addition to the archives room, which is supervised by members of the Arkansas Area Joint Commission on Archives and History, there is a well-appointed, large reading room which is shared with the college's own historical collection.

This fall the college inaugurated a course called Western Intellectual Traditions, which will be required of all first-year students. This course focuses on four pinnacle periods in the history of the west: Classical Greece, the High Middle Ages and the influence of Christendom on Society, Europe in the 17th Century, and Europe at the Close of the 19th Century. Students are reading from original texts and are taught by a dozen faculty members from all disciplines of the campus.

The college's Religious Education Program is set to be inaugurated in the fall of 1994. This program is designed to prepare students and other interested individuals for service to the church in religious education, church music, and/or youth ministry. The program consists of two tracks: The Hendrix student track and the non-Hendrix student track. Interested individuals will be able to explore their vocational interests and further their education through this series of workshops and supervised work experiences. Successful completion of the program will result in recognition by the Council Offices of the two Annual Conferences.

Numerous opportunities for religious growth and development continue to be available at Hendrix. A weekly communion service is held on Wednesdays; three Covenant Discipleship groups meet; several Bible studies meet weekly at various places around the campus; two theological discussion groups meet regularly; Fellowship Teams lead worship services in United Methodist Churches around the state; students, faculty, and staff are involved in various service projects such as Habitat for Humanity, mission trips to Haiti and to Africa, and work teams. In fact, all of the orientation trips required for freshmen now include volunteer service components.

The Steel Center for Religion and Philosophy, established to enhance the academic growth of Hendrix students, also provides several lectures each year that appeal to many clergy. The 1993-94 Steel-Hendrix Lecture was delivered by Dr. David Petersen from the Iliff School of Theology who spoke on "Reading, Hearing, and Seeing the Book of Job." Allan Bruner received the Mary and Ira Brumley Award for Religious Education, and Trudy James received the Ethel K. Millar Award for Religion and Social Awareness. This year's Wilson Lecture was given by Dr. William Abraham from Perkins School of Theology. His topic was "Whatever Happened to Evangelism in the United Methodist Church?" The Steel Center also provides a clergy workshop, a preaching workshop, and a philosophy of religion workshop each year for the continuing education of clergy and interested laity.

In January the college received the announcement of Reverend Jon Guthie's retirement as college chaplain and counselor with great affection and appreciation for his years of service. Jon will retire on July 31 of this year. During his 24 years of ministry and leadership to the college, Hendrix has been deeply and uniquely touched and shaped. The college is a more caring and concerned community because of Jon's pastoral presence.

Hendrix's strength and its commitment to its United Methodist heritage is reflected in the most recent report of the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. In its statement, the church's accrediting body reported that "the overall impression of the Committee is that Hendrix College is a first-rate, well-administered United Methodist liberal arts college, with highly competent faculty, staff, and students. Indeed Hendrix may well be the preeminent liberal arts institution within its general region. . . . The United Methodist Church can be proud of how this fine institution both reflects and promotes its high moral values." The college is proud of its ties with the United Methodist Church. We are proud of the 13 United Methodist clergy and 17 United Methodist laypersons who provide vital leadership to the college as members of our Board of Trustees, as well as the large number of our alumni who provide leadership and service to the church, as clergy and laity, and throughout society.

Again, thank you for your support,

Ann H. Die, President

LAY LIFE AND WORK COUNCIL - 1994

The primary task of the Church is to reach out to people where they are, relate them to God, nourish them in the faith, train them in discipleship and send them out to ministry and mission.

The primary task of your Council on Lay Life and Work is to interpret and spread throughout the conference all the rich meanings of the universal priesthood of all believers, of Christian vocation, and the ministry of the laity. We are to be enablers, within the Annual Conference, of programs that aim to recruit, train and equip the laity to live out their discipleship as they implement and fulfill the primary task of the Church in their community.

Your Council has 20 lay members consisting the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministry, the six District Lay Leaders, the Conference President of United Methodist Women, the Conference President of United Methodist Men, four youth from the Council on Youth Ministries, four at-large members elected by the Annual Conference, and the currently elected lay-delegates to the General Conference.

In 1993 the North Arkansas conference won a competitive Seed Money Grant from the National Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders. The grant was to be used to "equip laity to visit in hospitals and homes". In our application we indicated that it was our expectation that we would train 210 lay persons to visit in hospitals, other health care institutions, nursing homes and in homes of shut-ins. We held six workshops, one in each District of the North Arkansas Conference. Three workshops were conducted on October 30 and three more were conducted on November 20 (1993). Methodist Health Systems of Memphis was our partner in presenting the workshops. Rev. Dr. Robert B. Howerton, Jr., Senior Vice President, Methodist Health Systems, and a staff of 11 other United Methodist Hospital Chaplains, did a tremendous job in preparing for and conducting the workshops. We exceeded our goal by 1/3 by training a total of 327 lay visitors! We received very favorable comments from the participants who now proudly wear their approved lay visitor badges indicating to the institutions they visit that they have received training for their ministry.

All of our plans and programs, and those of the groups represented on our Council, support and undergird our Conference theme — "Equipping the Saints."

James W. (Jim) Lane, Conference Lay Leader

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE - 1994

Eighty years of ministry entered the pages of history in the life of Lydia Patterson Institute in 1993. Throughout 80 years Lydia Patterson, an institution of the South Central Jurisdiction, has been responsible for touching thousands of lives which have come to form a significant part of our society, our country, and the entire church. Its mission of educating youth and forming strong advocates of the Christian faith continues to be a vibrant force in the El Paso-Juarez community and as far out where boundaries and borders become non-existent in the love of God.

In a spirit of thankfulness, first to God and then to our fellow Methodists, I am privileged to bring you this report after my first complete year of serving as President of Lydia Patterson Institute. On behalf of our faculty, staff and student body, I wish to express appreciation for you apportionments paid in 1993 and gratefully report to you a 10% increase over 1992.

During the 1992-1993 school year, Lydia Patterson Institute lived the joy of its "80th" Anniversary, the pain and the loss of a President, the changes in administration, and the continuing demand for its services and opportunities for growing ministry. In the midst of emotional and financial demands, and under the care of God's loving hand and commitment of our United Methodist friends of the South Central Jurisdiction, we managed to widen our outreach ministry, develop new educational programs, kick-off a $6 million campaign for Endowment and close the fiscal year in the black. The summer Spanish Language Program for adults was successfully carried out one more time, and of the 51 graduating seniors at the end of the 1992-93 school year, 47 are now enrolled in a college or university.

During the 1993-94 school year, we have enrolled 305 students in both the High School and the English-As-A-Second-Language Program. Our students continue to come from financially deprived homes with a dream for a better life in Christ and in a bi-lingual, bi-cultural society.

After-school classes and summer-school classes have been added to our program. English classes for adults during the evening is another new program begun in the 1993-94 school year with a total of 157 adult students.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

The religious life on campus is vibrant and growing under the leadership of our Chaplain, Rev. Edgar Avitia. The students continue to participate in weekly chapel services, spiritual retreats, and outreach programs. Our students serve as tutors in the neighboring elementary schools and, for the first time, our own students will be doing ministry outside the school through work groups traveling to other parts of the Jurisdiction.

The three-year, $6 million Endowment Campaign is well on its way. All seventeen conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction have, in some way, accepted responsibility to help us raise $2 million within the local churches of the Jurisdiction. The additional $4 million goal is being raised outside the boundaries of the church through other constituencies. A partnership is being formed between Lydia Patterson and the conference foundations so that funds raised in a conference be invested in their own foundation.

The proceeds from this Endowment Fund will be used to fund three major needs. Most importantly, and at the top of our priorities, is our concern for teachers salaries. The success of the endowment campaign will enable us to bring teachers salaries in line with state minimums, and it will provide for enhancement of our programs and care of our physical plant.

Lydia Patterson Institute has come to take a very important place on the border in its ministry with Hispanics. Although its financial demands and limitations continue to infringe on its operation and its growth, its potential is without limits. In today's age of open borders and free trade between two countries, Lydia Patterson Institute sits between the two, impacting both sides and touching and preparing lives to deal with these demands.

I thank you for being a part of this moment in history and for sharing our vision of turning Lydia Patterson Institute into one of the finest institutions of the United Methodist Church in the 21st century. Lydia Patterson has known no boundaries. Its doors remain open, and we invite you to join with us and to lead this institution and the youth depending on us to a better life as God intended 80 years ago.

METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEMS - 1994

The Christian values of United Methodism are highly visible as volunteers, physicians and staff persons cooperate to fulfill our Christian mission to bring healing and wholeness to all persons we encounter.

The highest governing boards of Methodist Health Systems are closely related to The United Methodist Church. The Board of Trustees is composed 100 percent of active United Methodist clergy and laity. The three Bishops of the related Conferences sit ex-officio, with vote, on the Board of Trustees.

More than twelve years ago the Board created the position of Senior Vice President, Health and Welfare Ministries. This position was filled by a United Methodist minister who works cooperatively with other senior administrators, to insure that the Wesleyan ethos is foundational in all decision making.

Methodist Health Systems has an excellent group of ecumenical clergy and continuing Pastoral Education students. The director of Pastoral Ministry works with, and in the interest of, physicians, nurses, social workers and all other staff members to deliver person-centered, compassionate care. Furthermore, an Employee Assistance Program is available to intervene when personal problems overwhelm employees.

Chapel services are offered several times a week for patients, their families, employees and others. Chapels remain open for meditation and prayer. A prayer request book is available so persons who wish may have a tangible way to communicate with God and ask others to pray for them.

To signify our Christian heritage further and to serve as a constant reminder, a Cross and Bible are available in each patient's room and at various other places in the hospitals. The flag of The United Methodist Church and the Golden Cross are displayed on the outside of the Central Complex:

Hematology. Through coordinated shipments of drugs, computers, supplies and equipment, the survival rate of leukemia patients has improved from 10% in 1991 to over 70% in 1994.

The Auxiliary, composed of over 4,500 United Methodist Women and Men has been in existence for over 60 years. This organization renders volunteer services emanating from Christian commitment. The Auxiliary supports and inspires staff members and funds many programs.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH - 1994

Mount Sequoyah, United Methodism's Conference and Retreat Center for the South Central Jurisdiction, serves 17 of the annual conferences and other interfaith, community, regional, professional, fraternal, educational, and non-profit groups. Our mission is to enable persons to experience training in leadership development, Christian discipleship, inspiration and worship, to the end that they may better serve God in the church and in the world.

The past year recorded more than 26,000 people day/nights on the mountain. It was the largest attendance year in activities here since we began in 1922. We talked about our future last year and the 1994 theme is "Sequoyah—The Hope!" After more than seven decades of service, the Cross, the Mountain, and the Spirit still give us great hope for unlimited service through Christ to the church and the world.

We moved from primarily a "hosting center" into the "programming center" mode with the addition of Ms. Judy Stafford to our staff. This was, in part, made possible by a grant that also enabled us to build our recreational facilities. Programs with a Jurisdictional-wide interest were Summer Vespers, Easter Sunrise Service, Golf and Family Leisure Event, South Central Jurisdictional Work-Camp, Bishops' Week, six Retiree events, Outreach Week-ends, Sizzle in your Stewardship, Journey to Excellence, Jurisdictional Singles, SCJYMO, and many others.

Our building and upgrading program continues. We have completed the swimming pool, tennis courts, children's play area, volleyball and basketball areas. Architects and engineers are developing plans for remodeling of the Wesley Hall building to include a youth hostel on the fourth floor and an elevator accessible to all floors. The long awaited Mount Sequoyah House for administration will be completed by this annual conference.

Our story has been told to all of the annual conferences through our trustees, ambassadors, regular newsletters and our video. Also, many of the major foundations have been invited to join us in "Team Sequoyah—Meeting the Challenge of the Future." We are grateful to all of the annual conferences and area United Methodist Foundations that have given so generously.

Trustees from the North Arkansas Annual Conference are: Bishop Richard B. Wilke, Rev. Aaron Barling, Rev. Wendell Dorman, Bill Hutcheson, and Jack Meadows. Dr. Earl Carter is an Honorary Trustee. The Ambassador from the North Arkansas Annual Conference is Dr. Earl Carter.

Each of you in this annual conference is invited to join "Team Sequoyah" so that we might meet the challenge of the future. We feel that Mount Sequoyah has served faithfully for seventy-one years and to use the term that one of the Fall Retiree Retreats use, "The Best Is Yet To Be!" Come join us in this hope that we will be faithful to Christ and the Church for decades to come.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, SMU -1994

I would be remiss if I did not take notice in my last year of service as Dean of Perkins School of Theology, of the encouragement and support which I and others at Perkins have received from you through the years. Many of you have provided financial support, encouraged students to attend, welcomed them as interns into your congregations, utilized our resources for continuing education, and experienced the leadership of members of our faculty in programs like the Disciple Bible Study. We are pleased and anxious to be of service, and we are grateful to you for your interest.

This year we have conducted searches for two persons in the field of theology, and for one in Christian Education. All of these individuals are expected to be in place at the beginning of the 1994-1995 academic year next September. It is our expectation that a new dean will be named by that time, too. Dean James F. Jones, Jr. of Dedman College has chaired the Search Committee. Professors Clifton Black and Danna Nolan Fewell were awarded tenure and promoted to the rank of associate professors last May.

The year has seen a number of new books by faculty authors. Included among them are Danna Nolan Fewell's Narrative in the Hebrew Bible and Gender, Power, and Promise: The Subject of the Bible's First Story both of which she co-authored with David Gunn. Jouette Bassler was associate editor for New Testament of The Harper Collins Study Bible, Ruben L.F. Habito published Healing Breath, John Holbert joined S.T. Kimbrough and Carlton R. Young in Psalms for Praise and Worship, W.J.A. Power published Once Upon a Time: A Humorous Retelling of the Genesis Stories, and a second edition of Charles Wood's The Formation of Christian Understanding: Theological Hermeneutics was published. In addition, numerous articles by Perkins faculty appeared in a variety of journals and church publications.

We enrolled a total of 391 students last September, 247 of whom were M.Div. students. 206 (83.1%) of our M.Div. students are United Methodists, 97 (39.1%) students are women, 24 are African Americans and 13 are Hispanics. 31.4% of our M.Div. students are not Caucasians. The Perkins community is a diverse and lively environment for learning.

The second group of lay persons to be honored with the Woodrow Seals Award included Elizabeth Johannaber of Dallas and Earl R. and Martha Lee Wyles Wilson of Jackson, Mississippi. Dr. Robert C. Harder (1954), secretary of the Department of Health and Environment for the State of Kansas, was named Distinguished Alumnus.

We are grateful to all of you for your continued interest and support as Perkins seeks to carry out its mission of behalf of the Church.

PHILANDER SMITH COLLEGE - 1994

In 1993, the college continued its outstanding progress and growth. The academic divisions continued to improve their status by reporting to the North Central Association and receiving a clear record as to their status until the next visit in 1997.

Construction on the $2.7 million Multi-Purpose Complex to house the Health and Physical Education, Business, and Economics Departments is about 75% completed. The brick column wrought iron fence around the 22 acre campus is finished.

Enrollment was maintained at over 900 students; the faculty was strengthened with the addition of persons with the doctor's degree; faculty and staff salaries were increased, and the residents halls were air-conditioned. The Student Christian Association, directed by the college minister, continued to promote viable religious activities on-campus and at Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church which is adjacent to the campus.

The financial condition of the college is sound and external auditors underscore the fact that it has operated in the "black" for the last several years.

The President has been recently elected to be the President of the Council of President's, which is the organization of the eleven college President's of the Historical Black Colleges and Universities associated with The United Methodist Church.

We are grateful to you for your support in helping us to carry out our mission in the tradition of the United Methodist Church.

PLANNING AND RESEARCH, COMMITTEE - 1994

(All references in this report to The Journal and The Discipline refer to the 1993 Journal of the North Arkansas Conference and The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1992.)

1. Conference Committee on Nominations

The section on Responsibilities, found on page 227 of The Journal is recommended to be amended as follows:

The Conference Nominating Committee will nominate the Conference Secretary and the Conference Statistician; the Conference Lay Leader; and 2 persons under 25 years of age from each District; and the Chairpersons and all members of the Conference agencies (unless otherwise specified in the discipline or herein). In ~~July~~ January of the third year of each quadrennium the Nominating Committee shall publish a list of all offices which will be vacant at the beginning of the next quadrennium. This listing will be sent to all local churches requesting them to nominate members who meet the requirements and have the desire to serve on an Annual Conference agency. This listing will then be sent to the District Nominating Committee. The District Nominating Committee will compile a listing of District nominees for all vacancies and forward that listing to the Chairperson of the Conference Nominating Committee, along with a copy of each of the individual nomination forms that were forwarded from the local churches. Prior to Annual Conference

The change from July to January will allow the Conference Nominating Committee to begin their work earlier in the third year of the quadrennium. Having all names of persons nominated will also assist with more choices when they are needed.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

2. Conference Council on Ministries

An Older Adult Coordinator is recommended as an additional member of the CCOM. The section of structure document in The Journal on page 228 should be amended to read as follows:

... coordinators of age level and family departments (Children, Youth, Young Adult, Adult, Older Adult, Singles and Family life) . . .

3. Coordinators of Volunteers in Mission

The Committee on Planning and Research was asked to provide for rotation between the two Arkansas conferences in the election of a Coordinator of Volunteers in Missions who would serve the Arkansas Area. After a thorough review of The Journal and Discipline it was felt that no change is needed in the Structure for this to be accomplished.

The Conference Board of Global Ministries is encouraged to cooperate with the Little Rock Conference Board of Global Ministries to develop a written agreement as to how one Coordinator of Volunteers in Missions could serve the total Arkansas Area and how the person could serve terms rotated between the two conferences. No additional authority is needed by the Board of Global Ministries to accomplish this agreement.

4. Executive Committee of the CCOM

In order to make the Secretary of the Annual Conference a voting member of the CCOM Executive Committee the section on page 228 of The Journal is recommended to be amended as follows:

There shall be an Executive Committee composed of persons holding the following offices: Chairperson; Vice-Chairperson; Secretary; the Bishop; a Cabinet representative; the Conference Lay Leader; Chairpersons of the Boards of Church and Society, Discipleship, Global Ministries, and Higher Education and Campus Ministry; and one representative from each of the DCOM Teams on the CCOM (this person is to be chosen by the DCOM); the Secretary of the Annual Conference; and the Conference representative to the General Council on Ministries. The following will serve as members of the Executive Committee without vote: Executive Director and the Associate Directors of the CCOM and Chairperson of CFA.

5. Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

The Discipline states in paragraph 731.3 that the Secretary of Global Ministries is a member of the Conference Council on Ministries. The Structure for the NAC needs to be amended to add this person as a member of the CCOM. The following amendment is recommended on page 228 of The Journal.

... The Conference Statistician; the Chairpersons of the Boards of Discipleship, Church and Society, Global Ministries, and Higher Education and Campus Ministry. The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries shall be a member. The Chairpersons of the following Committees of the Annual Conference and the Conference Council on Ministries (Committee on Communications and Publishing Interests . . .

6. Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns

The present Conference Structure refers to the Area Consultant for the Ethnic Minority Church. On page 230 of The Journal in the section dealing with membership of the committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns the sentence dealing with the consultant should be changed to read as follows:

The Area Consultant for the Ethnic Minority Church shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

7. A discussion of certain Standing Rules was held by the Committee on Planning and Research.

Also, the Committee reviewed its total responsibilities as outlined in the Structures section of The Journal.

A portion of this responsibility is quoted as follows: "The Committee shall have the authority and responsibility to examine the policies and administrative practices of the agencies of the Annual Conference and make recommendations to them of ways and means by which work of the church might be more effectively performed or the cause of the church more adequately promoted. To annually review the Conference Standing Rules for adequacy and accuracy and to recommend changes thereto the Annual Conference."

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

8. Section IV, item 7, 9d), Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns is recommended to be amended. This item is on page 230 of the 1993 Journal of The North Arkansas Conference. Amendments are as follows:

1. The phrase "The Committee may have up to 15 members. . ." is recommended to be changed to read "The Committee should have at least 15 members and. . ."
2. Add the "United Methodist Men" to committee membership immediately after United Methodist Women.
3. Immediately after the Commission on Status and Role of Women add "one at-large United Methodist Ethnic Youth."

These changes were recommended by the Consultant to the Ethnic Church and Chairperson of the Comprehensive Plan writing Team.

9. The Standing Rules of the North Arkansas Conference are reported on pages 66-68 of the 1994 Pre-Conference Journal. Planning and Research is planning a review of all these Standing Rules prior to the 1995 Annual Conference. Please use the space below (or added sheet if needed) to give the committee feedback on any of the Standing Rules by December 1, 1994. Mail your written comments to M. Olin Cook, Chair of Planning and Research, 266 South Enid Avenue, Russellville, AR, 72801. The Committee plans to complete a review of the Standing Rules which will be reported to the 1995 Annual Conference. A form will be provided to members of the Annual Conference for their suggestions related to existing Standing Rules.

RELIGION AND RACE COMMISSION

Since the 1993 North Arkansas Annual Conference, the Commission has met twice and submits the following report in accordance with its mandate, ¶740.1 and ¶740.4 of the 1988 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church wherein it calls for and describes the monitoring, evaluating, advocating and empowering roles and functions of the Commission. The report is divided into two main sections--section one dealing with accomplishments, and section two dealing with proposed activities. The last part lists causes for celebration and also points out some concerns.

The Commission is reporting three activities.

I. Last year the Commission proposed conducting two BIG EVENTS that would be in response to the conference mandate to conduct workshops on racism in rural Arkansas. We are happy to report the successful planning and conduction of two events. Counsel and assistance with the planning came from Esdras Rodriguez-Diaz, the Associate General Secretary from the GCORR for our jurisdiction, who met with the Commission on August 24 in Russellville. The first event was held on January 22 in Newport at the First United Methodist Church. It was conducted by Associate General Secretary James Taylor of the General Commission on Religion and Race. The second one had to be rescheduled from its original planned date of January 29 to April 9. It was held at the First United Methodist Church in Clarksville and was conducted by Associate General Secretary Elaine Jenkins of the GCORR. Twenty-seven persons attended the first one, and 13 were at the second. The theme for the workshops was "Building and Affirming the Inclusive Church." The Commission expresses its gratitude to both Rev. Bill Williams and Rev. Dennis Spence for their cooperation and hospitality. The Commission provided a delicious lunch for the participants from the famous Ozark Mountain Smokehouse (made famous by a visit from President Clinton)--including smoked meats, cheeses, and desserts.

According to the evaluations of the workshops, the participants were generally pleased; those in Newport gave an overall rating of 1.6 with 1 being excellent; those in Clarksville rated the workshop between excellent and good, with the majority rating it excellent. The workshops were vehicles for the promotion of awareness, sensitization, and education, not only on the nature and manifestations of racism--attitudinal, behavioral and institutional--but also for the provision of suggestions and strategies for combating racism. There is now a corps of trained workshop conductors and leaders who are equipped to assist local churches and districts with the replication of workshops on building and affirming the inclusive church., (Will those who have been trained please stand.) There are also materials available to be loaned and /or given to those churches planning workshops. Additionally, the CCORR has now established good working relations with the GCORR by having had three of the associate general secretaries to come down to Arkansas to help us with the planning and execution of the two big workshops. All of them now stand ready to respond to any calls from us for assistance.

II. Second, the Commission has been informed of two successful follow-up activities, the first was the conduction of a workshop by the Batesville DCOM and the second was a workshop conducted at the United Methodist Church in Imboden by Ann Carroll and Viola Meadows, both members of the CCORR. They reported that it was well received and that there were 17 in attendance at their luncheon workshop.

III. Third, as a fundraising activity, the Commission's chair ordered 50 Combating Racism pins from the GCORR pins and began selling them for $6.00 each at the two big events. They were also available at the dinner ticket sales desk during registration. The Commission intends to use the funds to give partial assistance toward the purchase of a video, "The Tale of O," which was used during the workshops, and which would be available to be borrowed by local churches. The trained corps of workshop conductors can send in orders for pins to the CCORR's secretary, Ann Carroll.

The Commission is proposing the following ten actions for the upcoming year.

I. Every local church is expected to make use of the trained corps members that are in their respective districts in order to replicate a workshop on inclusiveness, either individually or as part of a cluster of two or more small churches. District-level workshops could also be planned. Forms for reporting these workshops have been designed by the CCORR and will be sent in the next bimonthly resource packet mailing to every pastor.

II. Each district superintendent is encouraged to solicit a plan from each local church relative to compliance with this proposed action. Additionally, the District Superintendent's should send to the local churches a list of the names of the trained corps members that are in their respective districts.

III. Each District Council On Ministries is encouraged to sponsor a multicultural, multiracial, multi-ethnic, multilingual, district-wide event, preferably during Brotherhood Week, whereby both participants and those in attendance would reflect the diversity of God's World.

IV. Again, it is being proposed that the FIVE STAR PLAN include a multicultural strand as one of its five components, one reflecting a social principle regarding inclusiveness. Members of the CCORR are ready to provide assistance with ideas and suggestions.

V. The Commission is also sending the resource packet a copy of the Inventory of Racial Pluralism and Inclusiveness in the Local Church to every minister. The forms are to be returned to the CCORR for compilation, analysis, and reporting at the 1995 Annual Conference.

VI. Chairs of the work areas on Religion and Race are solicited to assist with the sale of the Combating Racism pins. We would like for every member of the conference to be committed to eradicating racism; the wearing of the pin would be a symbol of that commitment.

VII. Each minister is encouraged to invite and to encourage his or her church members to invite other racial minorities to all church services and church sponsored events and activities; each is also encouraged to plan a multicultural, multiracial, multi-ethnic event at the local church level.

VIII. The Commission proposes that it meet with the Board of Ordained ministry and Cabinet in order to ascertain what procedures are being used and/or planned for recruitment and itineracy of racial and ethnic ordained ministers.

IX. The Commission plans to follow through with the compilation of a list of ethnic minorities in the conference that could serve on conference boards, commissions, and agencies after it receives the list of vacancies along with the descriptions of the duties of the members.

X. The Commission proposes that efforts be made to cooperate and collaborate with other racial and ethnic Methodist denominations by including them in some of the district-wide multicultural events.

In its monitoring and reporting function, the CCORR has taken note of several items for celebration.

1. Between 8-9% of the total membership of all the conference boards, commissions, and agencies comes from ethnic minorities even though the total membership of ethnic minorities represents only 1%.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

2. The Commission salutes and celebrates the appointments of Bill Thompson, an African American as the Associate Director of the Conference's Council on Ministries.
3. Another salute goes out for the recent appointment of Ramior Lizcano, an Hispanic, to the Northwest Arkansas Hispanic Ministries.
4. We celebrate, too, the election of Janet Lane, an Asian American to the Conference's United Methodist Women's Missionary team.
5. The Commission joins with the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference in the celebration of their sesquicentennial in October of this year (1994).
6. It also notes the success of the project in our conference that was funded by the GCORR, the Black Community Development: Rites of Passage Project at the Mallalieu church under the direction of Euba Harris Winton whereby approximately 50 people benefited from the community bases option established to solve family problems affecting American youth in the community.

In Conclusion, the commission offers the following observations. Whether it be in the local churches, at the district or conference levels, or at the national level, the United Methodist Church is lauded for its humanitarianism. It's time that it collect praises and laurels for its model of inclusiveness, its recognition of the diversity in God's community. Recognizing that there are churches and districts that do not have any or have very few ethnic racial minorities, taking into consideration that the residents of the state are very mobile, and being cognizant of the recent reassignment of a young African American United Methodist minister who had been in a predominantly white church in another state to a predominantly African American church in our sister Arkansas Conference, the Commission seeks to have the North Arkansas Conference become a model of inclusiveness, one which can be described to others who seek to build and affirm God's inclusive church, a model that includes those representing all ethnic, cultural, linguistic, cultural, racial, socio-economic, gender, age, and exceptionality groups. It would be wonderful to be able to report great strides in this direction at the General Conference in 1996. A French philosopher used Descartes' "I think; therefore, I am" as the basis of his "I rebel; therefore, we are." Given the fact that there are some who will say, "I'm not a racist," and granted that this may be true, it is still necessary for each United Methodist member to take a proactive role in the eradication of racism--that is if we are ever to have a true and real inclusive church. Even though several of the members of the Commission were not able to attend the conference for a variety of reasons, as chair of the Conference's Commission on Religion and Race, I would like to ask the members of the Commission that are present to stand in order that you can acknowledge the work that has been done.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, KANSAS CITY - 1994

In the last five years applications for admission to Saint Paul have increased by 84%! This dramatic increase has permitted increased enrollment and an increase in quality to take place simultaneously. The current enrollment reflects more students from the immediate region and more from beyond the region. Thirty states and five countries are represented in our three degree programs this year.

Saint Paul's clear commitment to the local church was revealed in a recent survey of the faculty. The seventeen faculty members have had a total of 161 years of local church ministry. Most of that time served was as pastor of a local church. As important as these years of local church experience are, there exists an even larger and more pervasive commitment of our entire faculty to ensure vigorous integration of their disciplines with the actual practice of ministry.

Our faculty are also productive scholars. Faculty books published in 1993 include: The God We Worship by Sondra Matthaei, Hard Living People and Mainstream Christians by Tex Sample, A Troubling in My Soul edited by Emilie M. Townes, Womanist Justice, Womanist Hope by Emilie M. Townes, and Church Leadership by Lovett H. Weems, Jr.

Dr. Henry H. (Hal) Knight III has joined the faculty in the E. Stanley Jones Chair of Evangelism made possible by the Foundation for Evangelism. Funds for a permanent endowment for the position are currently being raised by Missouri United Methodists. We look forward to what Dr. Knight will contribute to our already strong and diverse faculty. The first task for John Wesley was always evangelism. It is in this spirit that we emphasize evangelism at Saint Paul and are seeking ways to strengthen our work in evangelism.

Saint Paul and the General Council on Ministries joined together to survey what laity most seek in their pastors. The values most admired by laity in their pastors turned out to be caring, followed by being cooperative and honest. The skills most sought are preaching, management/administration, and pastoral care.

Last November, eighty young persons from nine annual conferences participated in "Knowing God's Call" held on the Saint Paul campus. This event was designed for persons to explore their call to ordained, consecrated, or lay ministry. It was a regional follow up to the national Lilly Enlistment Project. This was a cooperative effort sponsored by the Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry in the six annual conferences of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska.

Saint Paul received a $500,000 Challenge Grant from the Kresge Foundation. The grant goes toward renovation of the library building including an elevator to make the entire building accessible and a climate controlled system to preserve the book collection. Also included is the construction of an enclosed passageway which will link the library and the primary classroom building.

Saint Paul School of Theology is preparing a new generation of leaders for the church in the Wesleyan tradition. There is no more worthy endeavor to which any of us could give our energies and resources. We thank you for being partners with us in this mission.

SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION- 1994

5646 Milton, Suite 240, Dallas, Texas 75206

Volunteers In Mission continued to grow in the Jurisdiction. The three largest projects were: Hurricane Andrew Response in South Louisiana (four thousand persons), Midwest Flood Response (projected to be ten thousand persons), and Operacion Hogar — a project to build forty homes in Juarez, Mexico for the working poor (six hundred registered). Operacion Hogar is jointly sponsored by the South Central Jurisdiction, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and the North Central Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico. The Executive Director led a group to Cuba to explore new Volunteers In Mission projects. South Central Jurisdiction Volunteers In Mission News' circulation was expanded to more than 7,500 copies when the recent edition was mailed to every pastor in the Jurisdiction. The Jurisdiction provided seed money and encouraged for a regional Volunteers In Mission rally in Clovis, New Mexico. The Jurisdiction office maintains an up-to-date list of mission projects in the United States and a list of contact persons for Volunteers In Mission work in foreign countries. This information is available upon request.

Korean Ministries continued in the Jurisdiction under the leadership of Dr. Won Kie Kim and the Executive Director. Dr. Kim led Jurisdictional gatherings for pastors newly arrived from Korea and for college students of Korean descent. Dr. Kim also provided consultative services upon request for Bishops and District Superintendents in their work with Korean churches.

The Jurisdictional Youth Team sponsored SpiLiRa (Spiritual Life Rally) at Fayetteville, Arkansas. More than 600 youth attended. Many persons made commitments to Christ and/or commitments to full time church-related service. The Jurisdictional Lab School at Mount Sequoyah became "Journey to Excellence", with an expanded format that included both laboratory classes and numerous short courses on subjects of interest.

Twenty networks exist in the Jurisdiction to assemble persons across Annual Conference lines for training, support and inspiration. Two new networks began in the last year: A network for District Superintendents began with the first District Superintendent Day on Monday prior to Bishops Week at Mount Sequoyah. A New Church Pastors Network began with its first meeting at Albuquerque, New Mexico in October.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY - 1994

I am pleased to comply with the 1988 Resolution from the Jurisdictional Conference requesting an

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Annual Report to each Annual Conference in the South Central Jurisdiction.

I am also pleased to report on several new initiatives for 1993-94 that have strengthened our educational mission. Among them:

- One of the newest leaders in our academic community brings to us a unique understanding of the diversity of human culture. After a nationwide search, I appointed Anya Peterson Royce as SMU's newest provost, vice president for academic affairs, and professor of anthropology and dance. Provost Royce was formerly vice chancellor for academic affairs and dean of the faculties at Indiana University in Bloomington. An anthropologist who is an expert on the cultures of Mexico, she is fluent in eight languages.

- Reflecting the diversity of our global society, SMU's first-year class in 1993-94 is the most diverse in our history — minority students represent 22.3 percent of the first-year enrollment. Total minority enrollment has increased from 830 students or 9.4 percent in 1987 to an all-time high of 1,403 this fall, 15.7 percent of SMU's student body. In spite of the decreased numbers of college-age students, SMU also has been able to maintain the academic quality of the first-year class.

- Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences has added two new international programs of language study: in Xalapa, Mexico, and Boulouris, France. In addition, the college has initiated more intensive first-year courses in languages ranging from French to Japanese.

- The School of Engineering and Applied Science introduced two new Master of Science Programs in 1992-93. The Manufacturing Systems Management Program aims to help professionals to integrate the entire product commercialization process — from concept to production — with national and global issues driving the marketplace. The Software Engineering Program is designed to offer a balance of management and technical expertise necessary to succeed in this rapidly evolving field.

- Recognizing the growing role of technology in music composition and production, SEAS and Meadows School of the Arts instituted a joint Bachelor's Program in computer science and music.

- The School of Law initiated a new curriculum with a greater emphasis on public law and statutory material and an innovative, required course on "Lawyering" to help students develop skills essential in the practice of law.

- The DeGolyer Library has established the Center for Notable Women in the Southwest and has acquired the Horton Foote Archive, a J. Frank Dobie Collection, and the Stanley Marcus Archive.

We continue to operate with a balanced budget, but we continue to be more enrollment driven than we would like to be. We need your support in sending your outstanding United Methodist scholars to SMU.

We are very appreciative of the support from the Jurisdiction of the SMU United Campus Ministry Program, under the able leadership of Reverend Greg Ligon. Through your support and Reverend Ligon's direction, the ministry continues to grow.

By late Spring, we hope to have appointed a new Dean for Perkins School of Theology. We have been blessed to have had the leadership of Dean James Kirby for the past 13 years.

We are deeply appreciative of your interest, prayers, gifts, and leadership — all of which strengthens our vision for SMU.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY - 1994 UNITED METHODIST CAMPUS MINISTRY REPORT

"Take The Next Step"

"Take the Next Step" has been the United Methodist Campus Ministry's theme for the 1993-94 school year. UCMCM at Southern Methodist University is committed to helping students take the next step in their relationship with Christ.

This year many steps have been taken . . .

- over 125 students have been involved in the ministry through hard-core Bible study, small groups, local church outreach, urban ministry, retreats, Vision '94, Love, Sex & Dating Weekend, Resurrection Week, and Student Forum . . .

- 25 students make up the core leadership through involvement in either Freshman Council or Ministry

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Team . .

- nine students have taken steps toward exploring a call to ministry
- students and staff hosted over 2200 United Methodist Youth from across the South Central Jurisdiction for the third annual, "Go for the Goal, UMYF Day at SMU"
- numerous students have and will participate in mission trips to Appalachia (Spring Break '94) and Malaysia (Summer '94).

In the midst of BIG crowds and great programs some individual steps have been taken . . .

- Bob . . . reconciled to God and his family after stepping out of an impure dating relationship
- Jo Anna . . . finding hope in Christ in the midst of a battle with an eating disorder
- Michael . . . taking a stand for Christ through his leadership in the freshman class.

Significant steps are being taken!

The staff, board of directors, and students are also mindful of the steps you have taken. As local churches, you have sacrificed time, energy and financial resources to be a part of the continuing work God has begun through UCMC - SMU. Thanks for your past, present and future support.

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION - 1994

As we continue our work on the quadrennial goals, we encountered new and challenging happenings. A major accomplishment this year is the policy statement developed by Bishop Wilke's area task force on Sexual Harassment. That policy will be presented for your approval by the Board of Professional Ministry.

A major concern developed with the reactionary backlash to an ecumenical event in Minnesota. Our conference commission acknowledges the concerns. Yet we firmly support participation in such inter-religious events. In the last issue of the The Yellow Ribbon, there is an excellent series of articles on the Re-Imaging Conference. There is a copy in the CSRW display.

After evaluating the work of the Commission in 1993, the following areas will be emphasized: 1. Training/Polices Regarding Sexual Ethics/Harassment; 2. Networking among lay/clergy/diaconal women; 3. Monitoring the structures of the North Arkansas Conference; 4. Developing resources/people for inclusion in the conference/area events.

This morning we recognize Mildred Chapman Alston whose life and faith reflect God's power and mission. We thought about the many women who work and witness to their faith, yet whose names we never know. Today we wish to name one of those women who work faithfully behind the scenes. Her family and friends wish to share more about her life and work.

"In our world where nothing seems to be truly predictable and nothing is commonplace, each of us encounters new and unexpected opportunities, filled with a fresh and life-enriching spirit. Our honoree, Mildred Chapman Alston (Milli), has met new and unexpected opportunities that have been anything but predictable and commonplace. She has viewed each of these as a fresh and new moment for listening to God's spirit and finding areas of service.

"Her life and faith journey began in Louisiana, where she graduated from Centenary College in Shreveport, and then attended graduate school at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

"Moving to Arkansas as the young bride of Methodist minister John O. Alston, Milli willingly and eagerly undertook the role of a clergy wife. As a homemaker, she provided with faithful commitment the best possible for her family, participating fully in the life and mission of the local churches to which her husband was appointed. In each new setting of her life she responded with enthusiasm and sought always to "bloom where she was planted" as her parsonage family was transplanted from place to place. Her talent and love for music have often found expression through organ, piano and church choirs.

"Milli and John are the parents of three children--Ellen, Gayle, and John. Nurtured in the faith, each became active in the life of the church and fulfilled youth leadership roles within the local church and beyond.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

"A faithful disciple in Bible study and prayer, Milli maintains a quiet, reassuring steadfastness that serves as a tower of strength for her and those associated with her. She has a skill of problem-solving and finding a graceful way forward from almost any situation. Maintaining calmness under pressure, Milli often provides leadership in crucial times and situations that prompts and promotes a sense of wholeness and healing for all persons involved.

"Her entry into the work place outside the home brought her into contact with the legal profession in various areas of Arkansas. When her husband's appointment took them to Little Rock, Milli accepted the new and unexpected invitation to be secretary to Hillary Rodham Clinton, where she served for four years before Bill Clinton was elected President of the United States. When the new and unexpected opportunity was extended to her, Milli prayerfully considered and accepted the position of Special Assistant to The First Lady, moved to Washington, D.C., and began her duties in the East Wing of The White House early in 1993, leaving John to complete his appointment for that conference year in Arkansas.

"This unpredictable and not commonplace opportunity enables Milli to continue to exercise her rare combination of executive ability, professionalism, common sense trustworthiness, integrity and cooperative spirit of working with others. Her devotion to her family and home, to God and her church enables her to serve with a sense of grace and dignity. She is respectful of all persons, whatever their station in life, and calls forth that same respect from others.

"A verse from Romans 8 is evident in Milli's life: "We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose". Having received a United Methodist Women life membership, she understands well the statement of purpose of the UMW, which includes ". . . to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ". Milli has experienced and continues to experience that freedom as a wife and mother, in the church and in the workplace, finding the fresh, new and unexpected in her very unpredictable and uncommonplace happenings and surroundings."

TEEN CRISIS TASK FORCE - 1994

Teen Crisis Ministries, an Arkansas Area Office of the United Methodist Church, offers educational and referral support to clergy, youth and families who are experiencing needs or crisis related to teen suicide, substance abuse or sexual decision making.

During 1992-93, Teen Crisis Intervention Workshops were held in all twelve districts of the state, reaching over two thousand people. Participants learned how to recognize and intervene in crisis situations. These workshops helped to inform and raise consciousness to the epidemic of teen related crisis.

With this as a foundation, Teen Crisis Ministries moved forward in 1993-94 with programming aimed at prevention of crisis. Not satisfied with merely bemoaning the "condition of today's youth," this ministry works to address the causes of crisis. It is believed that crisis prevention includes concentration on the building of assets and healthy conditions in addition to the eliminating of deficits or unhealthy influences. For example, an Auburn University study shows that a 1% increase in church attendance by youth would result in a 1.4% decrease in teen suicide rates. The point being that the traditional values tend to disarm deficits that can lead to depression, hopelessness, isolation and perhaps suicide.

Prevention programming to promote youth values clarification and decision making skills is available through Teen Crisis Ministries. A fast paced, discussion starter video series, "Power Surge: Hot Topics for Teens." Includes fifteen different topics of concern to youth. It is suitable for use by local churches in Sunday Schools, United Methodist Youth Fellowships, retreats, lock-ins, camps, or wherever youth are gathered. The program package includes the video, leader's guides, scripture cards, discussion questions, prayers and meditations, and references from The Social Principles that relate to the topic. Two thousand, one hundred and eighty-four youths have viewed the tapes to date.

In the continued attitude toward prevention, plans are being formed for a statewide event, "Celebrating Youth '95." The purpose is: "To provide the opportunity for large numbers of youth to experience in word, music, and the arts the hope of United Methodist Christians." It is hoped that a cooperative effort from the youth and adult leadership of both the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences can shape an event for youth that will highlight Christian role models and celebrate a life of faith.

A unique plan of inter-conference youth group exchanges will increase involvement in the planning and attendance of the event. Youth groups from the North Arkansas Conference will be paired with a "sister" youth group in the Little Rock Conference. During the time prior the "Celebrating Youth," the groups will spend time in each other's church and in cooperative activities as a way to know and grow together. Activities will emphasize the theme of hope and Christian life styles.

In 1995, this ministry plans to maintain the "Power Surge" program, continue as an educational and referral source for teen suicide, substance abuse, and sexual decision making, and co-sponsor "Celebrating Youth" with the Conference Councils on Youth Ministries. The Arkansas Area Teen Crisis Ministry requests the continued financial support of both the Little Rock and North Arkansas Councils on Ministries. Since 1992, the funding has been at the rate of $13,000.00 per conference, for a total budget of $26,000.00. Grants from Youth Service Funds, The National Youth Ministry Organization, and the General Board of Global Ministries have allowed the ministry to offer a broader scope of programming than would have been possible with the $26,000.00 area budget alone.

Teen Crisis Ministries respectfully requests $15,500.00 per conference for 1995. This amount will maintain the ministry at its current level as the Coordinator continues to seek grants to supplement programming.

An additional one time request of $10,000.00 per conference is being asked to fund the "Celebrating Youth '95." The North Arkansas Conference Council on Ministries has recommended $7,500.00 be budgeted for this event. This money will be used to secure a facility, speakers, entertainers, and in the promotion of this statewide focus on youth.

As decisions are made regarding ministry to teens in crisis, it is important to listen to the messages teens are sending through their situations. Through their dilemma of substance abuse, suicide, risky sex, violence and gang involvement, are they saying, "I want to escape. I have no hope. I need love. Does anyone care?"

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

The United Methodist Church and Teen Crisis Ministries has something more than words and programs to offer to teens who are looking for an anchor. The Church can offer love and caring and a place to belong. But the greatest gift to be given is the hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME, INC. - 1994

From an Orphanage to Community based Treatment Homes

Trying to tell the story of The United Methodist Children's Home in Arkansas within the limits of a report to the Annual Conference is like trying to describe any one of the young people in our care within the limits of a single sentence; it can't be done. We can make generalizations, but an accurate picture requires a closer look.

Contrary to what many still think, we are no longer an "orphanage," although we trace our roots back 95 years to our beginning as a Home for children seeking shelter and refuge. Then, most of our residents were orphans in the literal sense.

Today, the children we serve are not orphans. They are emotionally troubled youth, suffering a variety of problems from the confusion and turmoil caused by today's social environment.

Today we meet many needs, which include physically and sexually abused, neglected, mistreated, delinquent-prone or behaviorally disruptive children and teens. These are youth who are having difficulty living with their families and in their communities. In time, with therapy and intervention, even the most rebellious, unhappy youth come to thrive in an environment which is highly structured, supportive, and spiritual.

To begin to meet the needs of such youth and their families a network of Teaching-Family Treatment Homes has been established across Arkansas in Batesville, Searcy, Little Rock, and Magnolia.

It is a very dramatic and often traumatic experience for children to be separated from their family for whatever reason. From the youth's first day in the program until the last, family reunification is our primary goal.

Staffed by a professionally trained married couple called Teaching-Parents and an Alternate Teaching-Parent, each child's treatment program is tailored to meet his or her individual need. There are generally six youth, ages 10-17, served in each home.

Social, academic, maintenance, and self-help skills are actively taught in a family-style, supportive environment. Underlying all aspects of our program is the teaching of strong central values, morals and ethics.

Although the work of the Teaching-Parents is difficult and sometimes progress is slow, the youth's successful return to his or her natural or foster home and successful adjustment in the community are our greatest reward.

The successful transition to the Teaching-Family Treatment Home model of child care has enabled us to meet the needs of today's children and families. Our hope is to enlarge the network of Teaching-Family Treatment Homes to areas not presently served. United Methodist Children's Home has the ability to provide these additional services. All that is needed are the dependable annual funds to underwrite the costs. We have been sustained for the last eight decades by the commitment of so many people in Arkansas. We know that as our needs are known the people called Methodists will indeed rise to the occasion and support our efforts of helping youth and families who are troubled.

The world of children and families will continue to be in transition here at UMCH. The one thing that will never change is the love, respect, and esteem that we hold for children and families. We pray that God will grant us the ability to grow in even greater love for these young people and their families by helping us all to learn more effective ways to heal them by committing ourselves more enthusiastically to their care.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF ARKANSAS - 1994

Growth Continues for UMFA

Your Foundation enjoyed another great year in 1993 with assets climbing above $17 million. This growth is possible because United Methodist are doing exciting things:

- Creating a permanent endowment fund (whereby only the annual income is used) to provide perpetual support for some part of the Church. Foundation endowment funds can benefit a United Methodist local church, institution, or special program.
- Making life income gifts. The donor can improve personal income, can avoid capital gains taxes, receives a charitable income tax deduction, and provide for a future gift to some part of United Methodism.
- Including a bequest to the Church in a Last Will and Testament.

Types of Funds

The accompanying chart, "Types of Funds Managed By UMFA", describes the various types of funds under UMFA management:

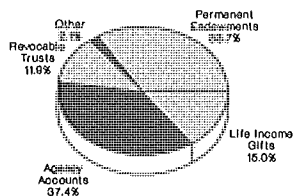

Permanent Endowment — The income is distributed to some part of the Church each year; the principal remains invested.

Agency Accounts — These are accounts we manage for institutions and local churches. UMFA improves their investment performance and reduces their administrative expenses.

Revocable Trusts — Accounts that have not been given irrevocably. The funds are managed by UMFA in behalf of individuals, and at their deaths, a significant portion of the trusts will be given to the Church.

Life Income Gifts — Funds have been given irrevocably, but the donor has retained the income for his or her lifetime. At death, the income begins to benefit the Church.

TYPES OF FUNDS Managed by UMFA

Who Benefits?

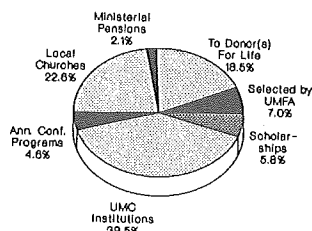

The accompanying chart, "Who Benefits From UMFA Accounts?", describes the kinds of institutions and ministries served by UMFA accounts. Almost always this decision is made by the donor at the time the gift is made:

To Donors For Life — Made under a variety of trust arrangements. At the donor's death, funds will then benefit some part of the Church.

UMC Institutions — Includes all of the Arkansas Area and Conference institutions: colleges, children's home, camps.

Local Churches — An important part of UMFA's work is to encourage local churches to establish planned gift programs.

Selected by UMFA — These are funds that were not narrowly directed by the donor. These funds provide annual support for many conference programs, such as ministerial education and church extension.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Annual Conferences — These funds provide annual support for many conference programs, such as ministerial education and church extension.

Scholarships — United Methodists have a long tradition of supporting students. Recipients of these scholarships are selected by a college or university, or by a local church committee, depending on the terms of the gift.

Summary

The Foundation's ministry is made possible by many dedicated leaders from across the state, and your Annual Conference. In 1993, your conference contributed $20,000 for the operation of the Foundation . . . We produced $1,113,000 in investment income. We hope you agree the return is well worth the investment!

It's exciting to celebrate the Foundation's success and to imagine what the future holds. If we can ever serve you or your local church, please call us.

Jim Argue, Jr. Executive Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN - 1994

The current North Arkansas Conference United Methodist Men officers were elected on August 1, 1992. We were faced with some tough decisions: 1. How to overcome an existing financial deficit and avoid future ones; 2. How to minister to the men in our Conference in a positive and all inclusive manner.

The first goal was achieved by changing our way of doing the Annual UMM Retreats, which had been poorly attended and we ended up paying for more meals and rooms than were utilized. The 1993 Retreat was held at the Ozark Folk Center at Mt. View (near the center of our Conference). The wives were invited to attend. Each person paid for their own lodge and their own meals in the full service restaurant on site. We requested that each person attending pay us $5 to cover the cost of the program.

We had a well attended (103 persons) retreat and the small fee covered our expenses. The 1994 NACUMM Retreat will be held at the same location on August 26 and 27, 1994.

During the business session of the 1993 Retreat, the North Arkansas Conference United Methodist Men voted to sponsor the purchase of gravel and culverts for the county road leading from state highway 101 to Nawake, the NAC 1,000 acre conference and retreat center. This project has been enthusiastically subscribed to by most of the United Methodist Men's units and several individuals (including several United Methodist Women). On behalf of your Conference United Methodist Men, THANK YOU VERY MUCH! This was the first project that we attempted at the Conference level. I predict it will not be the last. The NACUMM at the 1993 Retreat also voted to sponsor the Lydia Patterson Institute in its upcoming 3 year endowment campaign. We prayerfully hope that this will be a success.

Bishop Wilke, through Conference Lay Leader Jim Lane, charged us with the responsibility of making the arrangements for a conference-wide United Methodist Men/Scouting Training Event. Working closely with the Bishop and the Conference Lay Leader, the date of Saturday February 12, 1994 was agreed to with Wesley United Methodist Church as the site. Jim Snead, Associate General Secretary GBOD, United Methodist Men's Division and Byron White, Director of Scouting, United Methodist Men's Division committed to conduct the training. Invited were: The District Superintendents, District Lay Leaders, District (and Subdistrict) United Methodist Men Presidents, District Scouting Coordinators, Professional Scouters from the four Boy Scouts of America Councils in our Conference, local church United Methodist Men Presidents, and Scouting leaders meeting in United Methodist churches. We also invited the Little Rock Conference Lay Leader and United Methodist Men's President. The purpose of this training was to equip District Teams to go into each church in our Conference that did not have a UMM unit and assist them in organizing and chartering one and to offer to assist in starting or restarting a Boy Scout unit in those churches that did not have one.

This is the year for the election of North Arkansas Conference United Methodist Men Officers. The offices of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer will be elected and installed at the NACUMM Retreat August 26-27, 1994.

Respectfully submitted,

John B. Hale, President NACUMM

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN-1994

United Methodist Women are moving ahead with great vigor. The theme for our 3 day annual meeting last fall at Mt. Sequoyah was "A Fresh New Wind". Two hundred eighty-one persons attended. The theme we've chosen for this year's meeting is "UNITED METHODIST WOMEN--THE WAVE OF THE FUTURE."

We see this decade at the end of the century as a period of great challenge. We are taking inventory, assessing our position in each area of work, and planning strategies for future years. These are times of rapid change, but to use a cliché, United Methodist Women are on the "cutting edge" of what's happening in the church and in the society as a whole. Whether you are talking about Spiritual Growth, Social Issues, Being Politically Aware or Ministering to God's People, the Women's Division of the Board of Global Ministries is on top of it. United Methodist Women are exploring, creating, publishing materials and reaching out around the world to find new ways to meet the needs of tomorrow.

The last week in April close to 12,000 United Methodist Women gathered in Cincinnati for a National Assembly. One hundred six women from our conference attended. Ten of these women were on full scholarships; six of the ten were ethnic women. The Assembly Theme was "COUNT ME IN". The persons you see wearing red "Count Me In" buttons attended the United Methodist Women's "Count Me In" Breakfast this morning. The blue T-shirts which say "Count Me In" were the official garb of the 106 North Arkansas Conference women at Assembly.

The Cincinnati Assembly was a memorable event. It thrilled and inspired us--as we heard from speakers who are known world-wide, as we worshiped together and shared faith experiences. We also had opportunities to attend small focus groups, study issues and ponder solutions. It was a chance to educate ourselves about what's happening with women around the globe. For many it was a life-changing experience.

United Methodist Women are passionate seekers and doers. They are advocates for all women and children who live in fear, pain, sickness or poverty. United Methodist Women celebrate the multicultural society we live in. They work to promote justice here and in every corner of the world. On a personal level they reach out to women who are lonely, hurting or seeking a stable influence for their lives.

You know well the three parts of our officially adopted Purpose. As a reminder we are giving each of you a copy of the purpose on a beautiful bookmark for your bible. (Those are being distributed at this time.) The three parts of the purpose are dear to the hearts of our members:

1. To know God and find freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ.
2. To create a loving, supportive community of women.
3. To study and participate in global ministries.

All three parts of the Purpose are important, but we know that our reason for being is mission. We were organized to meet mission needs--foreign, national and local needs.

Last year Women's Division allocated over 20 million dollars to Global Mission. A part of this amount went to developing countries for schools, churches, medical clinics and human rights projects. Another part of the 20 million plus went to ministries in the 50 states. Over the years Arkansas has received its share. Our conference giving in 1993 both designated and undesignated totaled $181,064.65. We think that is outstanding. In addition each unit is involved in local mission.

United Methodist Women is the largest women's organization in the world with over a million members. The membership in our conference now stands at 9612 in 204 units. We had a first this year. We received a membership report from every unit. One had disbanded, but we organized five new units. Ft. Smith and Paragould-Jonesboro Districts each have one, and Batesville District has three new units. Conway District has a gain of 58 members over last year. Our total membership is down slightly. This seems to reflect what is happening in the general church, but we do not accept this as a permanent pattern. We are holding membership workshops in each district to improve our recruitment skills. In an effort to accommodate working women and young mothers, we are experimenting with some new models of organization. One group meets for early morning aerobics and bible study. Another group formed a circle of mothers that meets while the children's choir rehearses. We know that we must redesign United Methodist Women if it is to survive into the next century. We'll always be committed to mission and to loving and serving the Lord, but our structure and our ways of work must change.

In any organization communication is the key to successful, integrated action. One of our goals has been to place emphasis on communication skills at every level of the conference. We have a conference newsletter, and each district now has a newsletter, but in addition, we are seeking ways for units to feel a closer relationship to the district and conference officer.

During the past year we have held a Racial Justice workshop in each district. We still have a long way to go in making inclusiveness a reality. This will continue to be one of our priorities. Other social issues we've addressed this year are AIDS education, safeguarding the environment and health care options. Our Coordinator for Christian Social Concerns recently attended an Interfaith Briefing on Social Issues in Washington, D.C. She predicts that our future emphases will be on Education in the schools, child labor, violence in the media, gun control, trade agreements and welfare reform.

Study for United Methodist Women takes many forms. One of the most important is the School of Mission and the studies that are taken back to the local churches. Attendance at the School of Mission is growing--especially among young families and in the children and youth sections. Studies this summer will be

1. Families from Scripture to Today
2. Making the World Safe for Children
3. African Churches Speak out

The dates are August 2-5 for the week day school, and 5-7 for the weekend. There are scholarships still available.

Another opportunity for study is the Reading Program. The Conference United Methodist Women have launched a new project whereby we will purchase all the books on the approved list and make them available through the mail to those unit members who do not have access to these books in a church library.

This is the sixth year of our Campaign for Children and Youth. Most of the units have impressive projects in place. There are tutoring programs, day care centers, after school supervision and special programs for children at risk.

A new project this year is the making of crib quilts for AIDS babies. We expect to have dozens of lovely baby quilts on display at our annual meeting in Batesville, October 8. They will then be taken to hospitals and care centers where babies with AIDS are being treated.

We are delighted with the success of our Ministry to Incarcerated Women and their Children. This is the program we call MIWATCH. In the Women's Prison at Tucker we are currently serving 28 women with a total of 75 children. This is 75 children who see their mothers once a month because our volunteers pick them up and take them to the prison. Forty-two additional women and their children have been helped this way in the past. There are 21 mothers who have been approved and are now waiting to become part of the program. I ask each of you to consider bringing a volunteer to transport these children to the prison. Fort Smith, West Memphis, Jonesboro and Earle are specific places that are in need of volunteer drivers, and there are many others. The plan works best when two adults go together.

The women who have permission to see their children are not hardened criminals. They are like us in many respects, and they are very appreciative. Can you imagine not seeing your young children for a year or two. The children are sweet and are so excited about seeing their mothers. Finding more volunteers is an immediate priority for us. Please see me if you can help.

On the stage with me are most of the members of our Executive Committee and our Nominating Committee. They are highly capable, hard working team players, and there is a spirit of love and cooperation among them that is a great blessing. We attain our goals by helping each other.

United Methodist Women of North Arkansas Conference is a highly successful organization because we have had excellent leadership in the past and because we have a strong belief in what we do.

As we approach the 21st Century we will have to redouble our efforts. We have to initiate change. We must find new ways to attract new members. We must create new patterns of organization. We must increase our level of global mission giving. We must press for racial justice in every community in Arkansas. We must provide even more compassionate outreach to families, women, children, and youth in the local setting. We pray for the wisdom to know what each one of us can do and for the courage to do it.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH - 1994

1993 was another exciting and successful year for the North Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries. Jr. and Sr. High Assemblies were held at Mt. Sequoyah with record attendances. Youth Tour for 1993 consisted of visiting Washington D.C. and New York City. Some of the highlights were touring the floor of the House of Representatives, several national monuments, the Empire State Building, and the Statue of Liberty. Attending church at Washington National Cathedral was also a spiritually enriching experience.

January brought about a new year as well as Kairos, a new conference youth event. Beverly Bryan and Sara Cole, along with their task force, led the event which attracted 125 participants to Camp Tanako in Hot Springs. The theme was "Pillars to Lean On" and Rev. David Deere was the featured speaker. Veritas was held at the Hillhigh Resort in Horseshoe Bend. Blair Ernst and his task force planned the event which was attended by approximately 250 youth. John and Susan Miles were featured speakers and "The Band" provided the music.

The Conference Youth Choir will hit the road in June for their second choir tour. Led by Jeff Quick and his task force, the choir tour will consist of 42 youth and 6 adults. This year's choir will be performing "The Witness," a musical about the passion and death of the Lord. The Youth Service Fund: Youth in Ministry . . . Making a Difference Today. YSF is the United Methodist mission fund that is raised by youth to minister to other youth in the United States and around the world. Michelle Pierce and her task force have been working hard to make a difference in our conference.

The assemblies will once again be held at Mount Sequoyah. Jay Clark and his task force are busy finalizing the details for Jr. High Assembly. The theme will be "Sit Down You're Rockin the Boat." Pat Hurley is the speaker and "The Band" will lead the music. Sr. High Assembly is being coordinated by Terry Gregory and her task force. This year's theme is "Shield of Faith." Duffy Robins is the featured speaker and "The Band" will also lead music for this event.

As a final note, I would like to thank Kevin Lyon, Terry Gregory, and the entire Conference Council on Youth Ministries for their dedication and untiring efforts to the North Arkansas Conference Youth Ministries Program.

In His Service,

Jonathan Rhodes, Youth Chairperson

Independent Auditor's Report

Council on Finance and Administration
North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances - cash basis of the North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the related statement of changes in fund balances - cash basis for the year ended December 31, 1993. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the Conference's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Consequently, certain receipts and the related assets were recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain disbursements were recognized when paid rather than when the obligation was incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to be presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In addition, the Conference has not capitalized its fixed assets and recorded the related depreciation as required by generally accepted accounting principles. The effect of noncompliance with this requirement has not been determined.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording fixed assets and the related depreciation as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and fund balances of the North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the changes in fund balances for the year ended December 31, 1992, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 1993 AND 1992

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

- a. Basis of accounting - The financial statements of the North Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church have been prepared on the cash basis. The records are held open for approximately two weeks after year-end in order to include the remittances from the churches in the Conference for the last few weeks of the year. This policy is consistent with the prior years.
- b. In June 1993, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement on Financial Accounting Standards No. 117, ("Financial Statements of No-for-Profit Organizations"). This statement requires that all not-for-profit organizations provide a statement of financial position, a statement of activities, and a statement of cash flows. This statement also requires classification of an organization's net assets and its revenues, expenses, gains and losses based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1994. The Conferences have not determined how it will adopt this pronouncement for these financial statements.

2. Income Taxes

The Conference meets the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is therefore exempt from federal income taxes.

3. Cash Investments

All cash investments are recorded at cost plus interest income as received in the account. These balances approximate current market value of the particular investments.

Interest on savings accounts is received quarterly. Interest on all other cash investments is not recognized until maturity. Interest earned on investments during 1993 and 1992 was $12,282 and $13,331, respectively.

The aggregate market value of investments was $100,000 and $200,000 at December 31, 1993 and 1992, respectively.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 1993 AND 1992

4. Pension Plans

Substantially all conference employees are covered under one of two defined contribution pension plans.

- a. Ministerial employees - All ministerial employees, including the Bishop, are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes 3% and the church or conference contributes 10% to 12% of the participants' annual contribution base (compensation) based on the conference average compensation as computed by the General Board of Pensions.
- b. Lay personnel - All lay employees are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes 3% and the conference contributes 6% of the participants' annual contribution base (compensation).

Both of the aforementioned plans provide benefits upon retirement based on converting accumulated contributions for that participant to an annuity or an actuarially equivalent basis. Both plans are multi-employer plans by which all contributed assets of participating employers and employees are commingled and are not segregated by employer. This commingling of assets prevents a matching of individual employer's plan assets to plan liabilities.

Total pension cost for the years ended December 31, 1993 and 1992 was $860,078 and $825,401, respectively.

5. Contingencies

- a. The Conference receives remittances from churches located within the State of Arkansas and is dependent on these contributions for its operations.
- b. The Conference maintains, at various financial institutions, cash and cash equivalents which may exceed the federally insured amounts at times during the year.

J. RESOLUTIONS & PETITIONS

RESOLUTION #1

Approved by the North Arkansas Conference

Proposed Gambling in Arkansas from the Conference Board of Church and Society to The 1994 North Arkansas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

Whereas, proposals to expand legalized gambling operations in the State of Arkansas may be on the ballot in November 1994 as amendments to our State Constitution; and,

Whereas, our "Social Principles" in the 1992 Discipline clearly states that "gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, exonomic, and spiritual life, and destructive of good government";and

Whereas, proponents of gambling will surely present the alleged advantages but will cite none of its disadvantages;

Therefore, be it resolved that the North Arkansas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church:

(1) Declare the Sunday, June 26 as "Anti-Gambling Sunday" during which time the Lay Member to Annual Conference will read this Resolution in the Worship service and share facts from "The Case Against Legalized Gambling."

(2) Encourage all United Methodists to become better informed about the real costs of gambling and that they become actively involved in defeating any proposals to expand gambling that might appear on the November ballot.

(3) Use its influence and resources, in keeping with our "Social Principles", to work with other faith groups in deafeating this effort.

O. Phillip May, Chairperson
Conference Board of Church and Society

Approved by the North Arkansas Conference

Theological Integrity

Recognizing that not all agree theologically, we affirm the theological diversity within the body of Christ and within United Methodism insofar as it is in keeping with Holy Scripture which is the "unique and authoritative standard for the church's faith and life."

In keeping with Holy Scripture and with the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, we affirm the inclusivity of the whole body of Christ. Further, recognizing our own short-sighted sinfulness, we rejoice that there is room in God's kingdom for all who, in the words of John Wesley, "repent of their sins and seek to flee the wrath to come."

Humbling confessing the brokenness of our own human institutions, we recognize that the power of God is continually at wok among faithful women and men, calling us to the repentance, reconciliatilon, and healing of the broken body of Christ.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

BE IT RESOLVED:

That the members of The North Arkansas Annual Conference and members of local churches join together in praying for each other and for the leaders of The United Methodist Church.

That members of The North Arkansas Annual Conference and members of local churches study Parts II, III, and IV of the 1992 Book of Discipline [Doctrinal Standards and Our Theological Task, Social Principles, The Ministry of All Christians], in addition to, and in dialogue with the regular study of Holy Scripture.

That the theological agenda of The North Arkansas Annual Conference and local churches within the Conference grow out of the creative tension between who we are as defined by the Discipline, and who we are called to be as envisioned in Scripture.

That the North Arkansas Annual Conference and The United Methodist Church, at every level, continue to evidence integrity in word and in deed as set forth in the teachings of Holy Scripture and reflected in the Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Presented by,
C. Norman Carter
Roger Glover

PROPOSED RESOLUTION #3

This resolution was referred to a task force that Council on Finance and Administration requested on Monday of Annual Conference. This Task Force is to be appointed by the Bishop. No action was taken on this resolution other than referral.

WHEREAS, the most effective level of government is that which is closest to the people and provides them a greater degree of involvement, and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has a connectional form of Government composed of local churches, charges, districts, annual conferences, Jurisdictional Conferences and the General Conference, and

WHEREAS, not all programs, appeals, causes, and mandates imposed from higher levels have the same value, appreciation, or urgency to every local congregation and its individual members as they do for others, and

WHEREAS, the North Arkansas Annual Conference Apportionments are categorized under six headings: World Service and Conference Benevolences, ministerial support, Higher Education and Campus Ministries, General and Jurisdictional Benevolences, Administration, and Pension and Benefit Fund, and

WHEREAS, These six categories designate that all apportionments are of equal value, while most thinking people would not agree. They feel that the strong ones should not be penalized by grouping them with the weak ones, thus enervating both, and

WHEREAS, the connectionalism of the United Methodist Church can best be served by permitting the local church members to know what each line item within each of the six categories is without imposing blindly the blanket categories, thereby stifling the emotional involvement by the membership of each local congregation, and

WHEREAS, the method of grouping apportionments narrows the accountability of the apportioned funds,

Now, therefore the Administrative Board of the Mulberry United Methodist Church of Mulberry, Arkansas moves:

That line item apportionments be restored to the budget process of the North Arkansas Annual Conference.

That when apportionments are given to local churches within the North Arkansas Annual Conference they be in specific dollar amounts for the various concerns within each of the six categories.

That a greater degree of flexibility be granted the local congregations to express their support of special interests that weigh more heavily on their understanding and responsiveness.

Presented by
Administrative Board
Mulberry United Methodist Church

Gail Gourley Anderson

Gail Anderson, a retired clergy member of the North Arkansas Conference, died August 4, 1993 of a heart attack in Swifton, Arkansas, where he lived. He had continued to serve churches part-time and at the time of his death was pastor at Union Grove near Bono. He was sixty-eight years old.

He had served in the North Arkansas Conference for forty-two full service years and four and one-half as a retired minister. Among the churches he served were McCormick, Black Oak, Lake City, Black Rock, Wheatley, Cabot, Cotton Plant, Trumann, Parkin, Bald Knob, Harrisburg, Brinkley, Gardner Memorial in North Little Rock, Osceola, Griffin Memorial in Paragould, and Tuckerman.

He attended Arkansas State University, receiving a Bachelors Degree in Music Education, both instrumental and vocal, of which he used in his ministry, especially in leading songs at Revival time. He was also Chairman of Insurance for the Conference for six years.

Gail was preceded in death by his father, Rev. Albert Lee Anderson.

Survivors include his wife, Eloise Anderson of Swifton, one daughter, Janis Gail Hill of Jonesboro, two granddaughters Jessica Gail Hill and Courtney Hill of Jonesboro and his mother Rev. Mary Ella Anderson of Bay.

Services were held at Swifton United Methodist Church with Rev. Wayne Clark, Rev. Jerry Pulliam, and Rev. Norris Steele. Burial was in the Swifton Cemetery.

Mary Ella Anderson

A pioneer clergywoman in the North Arkansas Conference, the Rev. Mary Ella Anderson died at the age of 90, November 15, 1993 in Jonesboro. She had lived in Bay, Arkansas for twenty years.

She was raised in a strong Methodist family in the Leachville area. Mary Ella's grandfather was a Methodist circuit-riding pastor. She displayed an early affinity for music and played the organ and piano for services at the Leachville church at the age of seven. Her musical talents were later central to her ministry with youth and youth revivals.

Mary Ella married Albert Lee Anderson, a Methodist pastor also active in youth work. She took on a "housemother" role as she accompanied numerous youth groups on summer tours and revivals. It was during this time that she was nicknamed "Mother A."

After residing for some years in the St. Louis area, the Andersons came to Arkansas in 1945 and began serving churches together. Traveling across the state to lead revivals and youth meetings, they formed a musical trio along with their son, Gail, who also entered the ministry.

After completing the Course of Study, the Andersons were both ordained deacons and later elders in the North Arkansas Conference in the early 1950's.

Mary Ella and Lee Anderson were one of the earliest "clergy couples" in the conference. However, at the time, that fact was not always appreciated.

"Yes, it was difficult for her," said her daughter-in-law, Eloise Anderson of Swifton. "She was not always recognized and accepted as a preacher. She felt keenly the hurts of being a woman pastor in her day.

But she was "a very determined lady and a very dedicated Christian and pastor," said her daughter-in-law. "She never quit being a pastor."

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

Among the churches she served were McCormick, Weona, St. John, Mountain Home Parish, Macedonia, Hardy, Marvell, Calico Rock, Judsonia and Pleasant Valley. She retired in 1974.

He led numerous summer youth camps and spent many off-season hours renovating and improving camping facilities, particularly the old Shores Lake Camp north of Mulberry.

Wood working was one of his hobbies, and he especially enjoyed making turned items on his lathe. In addition to the many cherished items which he made for family and friends, several of the churches where he served received offering plates or other items which he made.

Clark. Funeral services were held in Ft. Smith at Cavanaugh United Methodist Church on July 19, 1993, with Rev. Charles Cooper and Rev. Norman Carter officiating. He loved the Church and continued to take an interest in its ministry as long as he lived. His call to be an itinerant pastor was strong. This surfaced in a moving way when less than a month before his death out of a very confused mental state he asked Alma, "Have you heard where we are going?" and "Do you think we can get what we have into our car?"

"David was a person with a great many facets," said Carlos Summers, a fellow pastor who described Driver as his "closest friend in the world." "Everything he did, everything he thought about, the relationships he formed -- and these were formidable because he had friends and knew people of great importance all over the world -- all had to do with his commitment to Christ and his church," Summers said.

I Have Just Gone Home

To you my family and my friends,
I know you are feeling very sad,
But just let me say this to you,
It really isn't so bad!

Although my eyes are closed in death
And I won't be with you on earth any more,
God has so many future blessings for me
Over there on the beautiful green shore!

You see he loves me so dearly
In spite of all my ugly sins
Since I have turned my life over to him
He opened heaven's door and invited me in!

He is a wonderful God of love and mercy

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE 1994 JOURNAL

And He gives us such amazing grace!
He has cleansed my heart and purified my soul
Now I am going home to meet him face to face!

Although I have gone through death's
Dark and lonesome valley I did not go alone!
My Lord and Saviour walked through with me!
And now he is taking me home.

It will be lonely there without you,
But we will be together by and by.
I will be expecting to see you there
In our home beyond the sky!

Do not think of me as dead
For I will be living on!
No more pain nor illness for me
For I have just gone home!

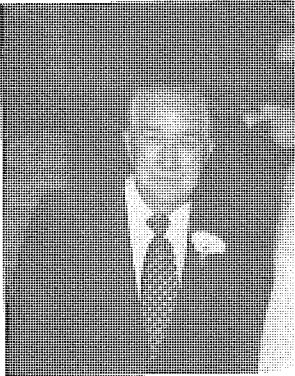

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." John 11:25-6

Harry Wayne Price

Harry Wayne Price was born in Indianapolis, Ind. May 7th, 1904. He did not get into full time ministry until 1962, but gave a lot of service to a school house church. He was their pastor for three years. He had never taken any pay, and they wanted to give him something, so they bought him a corn cob pipe and a sack of R.J.R. smoking tobacco, and that pleased him just fine, for he wasn't preaching for money. Harry gave the pipe to his older son just before he died for a keepsake. Harry died Nov. 23, 1993 at the age of 90 years. He leaves his wife Marie, 12 children, 60 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives. The funeral was held at Hoggard and Sons in Piggott, Ark. Interment was in Cunning Chapel Cemetery in Pollard Ark. Nov. 26.

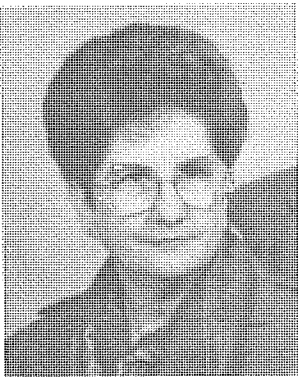

You are gone but not forgotten, dear, nor will you ever be
As long as life memories last, I will remember thee
We all miss you now, hearts are sore.
And as time goes by, we miss you more and more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face.
No one can ever fill your vacant place.

Reverend Stallcup never thought of life in terms of entitlement, but thought of it in terms of a great gift. He was so grateful to be at the table that he was not bothered by life's disappointments or difficulties. He was so grateful to be in the ministry of the gracious other that had given him life that he considered it a great privilege always to witness to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Martha Pearl Turner

Martha Pearl Turner, widow of Luther Lloyd Turner, went home for eternity on December 25, 1993. Mrs. Turner was born to Ollie D. and Nancy Autry in Van Buren County on March 19, 1910.

The beginning of World War II saw Mrs. Turner with two young sons, and a husband going to the war with thoughts of duty and loyalty to his country heavy on his mind. She kept home and hearth together, as did so many others, while the men were away.

When husband, Lloyd Turner, returned from World War II with a call on his life to become a minister, her whole life changed. The family promptly moved to Conway when Lloyd enrolled at Hendrix College and accepted an appointment with a nearby charge. She started a new life as the wife of a minister and a full-time student at one time.

Mrs. Turner and her husband served Greenbrier Charge, Rosebud Charge, Stanford Charge, Maynard Charge and Gravette Charge in the North Arkansas Conference before his death in March of 1958. Shortly thereafter, she moved back to Clinton, Arkansas, where she lived until April of last year.

Mrs. Turner was active in her circle of Clinton UMW and the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW for several years, but she began to feel the need to curtail some of her activities. She continued as Devotional Chairman of her Circle until she moved in 1993. She is remembered by her Circle as one who was faithful to bring words of inspiration and beauty for all the years she served in that capacity.

In April of 1993, deteriorating health necessitated a move to Oklahoma Methodist Manor, Tulsa, Oklahoma, in order to be near family. She was a resident there until Christmas Day. On that day, after ushering in Christmas from her chair, she gladly went to her home in Heaven.

Her family remembers her as the virtuous woman of Proverbs 31. Her two sons, Dewell E. Turner of Tulsa and O.D. of El Dorado, two grandsons, four granddaughters, three granddaughters and three great-grandsons look toward the day when they will be rejoined there.

Catherine June Watkins Walker

Catherine Walker, wife of Rev. Willie Lilburn Walker, was born to Hazel and Edgar Watkins. She was born at Harrisburg, Arkansas December 19, 1926 and finished high school in Jonesboro. She had four brothers: Rex, Jerry, Gary and Larry. Larry and parents preceded her in death.

She married the Reverend W.L. Walker at the First Methodist Church in Jonesboro. Dr. W. Henry Goodloe, pastor, officiated. To them were born two lovely children: Warren Walker and Melody Walker McLarty.

One of their first homes was on the campus of Hendrix College in 1949. He was a ministerial student and served two student appointments before his graduation in 1952: Perry County Circuit and Plumerville Methodist Churches.

Anna, Texas became their next home for three years. They served the Anna Charge, and he attended Perkins School of Theology, S.M.U., at Dallas, Texas, graduating in 1955.

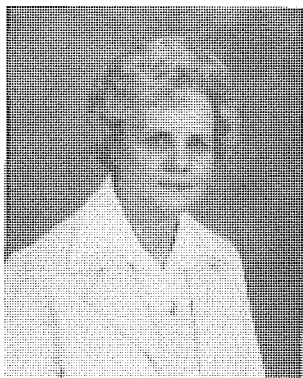

Catherine traveled with her husband in three appointments in Arkansas and Texas, but later came to understand more fully what the itinerate ministry meant. After his degree at S.M.U., W.L. was commissioned as a chaplain in the United States Air Force, serving both in and out of the states. Catherine supported his ministry wherever he was sent, and was fully dedicated to the "call" as if she had been ordained and commissioned. Whether it was a circuit, a station or assignment in the Air Force, she, too, was in ministry.

The family was together in most of the appointments in the Air Force: Alaska, Japan and United States. They served stateside in North Carolina, Alabama, Michigan and Louisiana. After the Air Force career, they served: Bradford, Bay and Charleston, building a new church at the latter place.

While her husband was Chaplain of the Methodist Hospital in Jonesboro and affiliate member of Jonesboro's First United Methodist Church, Catherine was an active member of the Methodist Hospital Auxiliary. She was a member of the First Church, member of the Dorcas Circle, United Methodist Women.

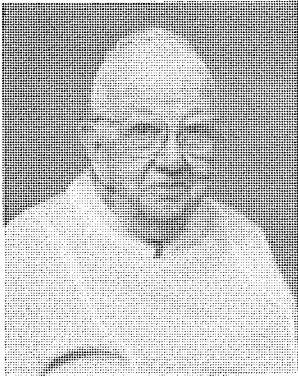

The were living in Jonesboro at the time of her death. The interment was at Memorial Park Cemetery in Jonesboro and the memorial service was in the First United Methodist Church, Jonesboro, July 23, 1993.

The Rev. Fred Haustein, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Randy Nix, directed the services: "A Service of Worship, giving thanks to God for the life of Catherine Walker." He said, "Just as the aroma of the expensive perfume used by the woman who anointed Jesus' feet permeated the room, the outpourings of love we have seen in Catherine's life has filled our lives with sweetness and praise. We praise God for her deep sensitivity to people and their needs, to honor all those around her, and her desire to worship and serve the Lord in all she did. She was a profound expression of caring and love that is significant enough to merit Jesus' praise and our thanksgiving."
