From Pastoral Charges.

Searcy Station.

Last week I was the grateful guest of Galloway College and also spent a few days and nights in the home of Bro. Jeffett, the efficient pastor of our Church at Searcy.

The outaneous excretions of aqueous essences, vulgarly called sweat, gave unmistakable evidence that, in one sense, at least, we were in the midst of a hot meeting.

WHEATLEY CIRCUIT.

Yesterday marked the close of a meeting of two weeks' duration at Plain Chapel. I preached 24 times. Had no help save that lent by the Lord and a loving, loyal laity of all Denominations.

Aug. 13.

MT. NEW CIRCUIT.

Our District meeting was a success. Bro. Jernigan joined with me until Monday night, preaching, praying and singing in the night to the delight of my people.

NEURALGIA.

Is it the "Seven Devils" of Scripture?

A New Theory Successfully Tried in Dunkirk and Carefully Investigated by a Blade Reporter for the Benefit of the Medical Fraternity.

From the Toledo Blade.

The physicians and inhabitants of Dunkirk, Hardin county, O., are astonished at a recent happening in that usually quiet hamlet.

Dunkirk is a little village, half way between Toledo and Columbus, on the Pennsylvania and Ohio Central roads, and Mr. C. F. Broseke, a leading German citizen, keeps the city flour mills.

Learning that Miss Broseke was at present in Toledo, and boarding at 823 Mulberry St., a representative of the Blade called on her.

"I am glad that you have called, and am willing my name should be made public, as good cannot help but result to some other poor sufferer.

"I began to suffer from neuralgia in the head. The pain nearly killed me. The neuralgia then scattered all over my system, but was worse in the stomach. Six physicians at Falmouth and vicinity treated me for several years.

"Two years ago we moved to Dunkirk, Ohio. The four physicians there were called, one after another. One called it was acute dyspepsia. Instead of improving I continued to grow worse.

"I attended the musical department at the Ursuline Convent. I dislike newspaper notoriety and only consent to this interview to let the world know my experience and faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the hope of saving the life of some other poor sufferer whose case has been pronounced hopeless."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves, two fruitful causes of most every ill that flesh is heir to.

Do you have headache, dizziness, drowsiness, loss of appetite and other symptoms of biliousness? Hood's Sarsaparilla will cure you.

Christian Life.

We Arraign Alcohol.

That the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage is an evil, only an evil and that continually, will not be called in question by any well informed man or woman, not already a slave to its use.

The appearance of cholera or yellow fever near our coasts in any direction produces the wildest panic all over the land, calling forth the quarantine forces of the government at once.

But here is a foe already colonized in our midst, more fatal, more universal and more to be dreaded than both of these and a dozen others.

Alcohol did it all. Shall we banish it from the land? W. H. BROWNING. Pine Bluff, Aug. 9.

company in the U. S. when such is known.

2. It is a mental evil. I have already intimated this in part, but only in part. A certain quantity of alcohol taken into the system immediately produces the most direful results.

But there is a third stage. The brain once soft and pliable is hard and cheesy. His flesh is soft and flabby. The blood-shot eye and scarlet nose are his insignia.

W. H. BROWNING. Pine Bluff, Aug. 9.

The Christian's Binnacle-Light.

A sea voyage is a symbol of the voyage of life. When I have crossed the Atlantic I have loved to go out on the deck at night, and standing by the binnacle, to watch the steersman at the wheel.

But all the time the pilot was at the helm. He looked steadfastly down at the binnacle light, which shone on the face of the compass.

"We hear the bell struck in the night. We hear the crows about the keel. We see the compass glimmering bright. We know the pilot's at the wheel."

And so the ship-master "cracks on" the canvas, and pushes trustfully through the dark and over the billows.

In the same manner every child of God is to sail his way toward eternity. The future is all a mystery. No one knows what the next hour may bring forth.

fruits of righteousness." Wait and see, my brother! Sorrow-stricken sister, wait and see! Look, too, at this glowing verse that flashes out in thy darkness: "What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter." The end of the voyage is not far off to some of us.

Our Pilot's at the helm! "Steer clear of the highland. At inlet or island. Straight by the compass steer straight for the highland."

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity.

Our Young Folks.

Working For A Soul.

Not for souls. But for a soul. Only one. One at a time. Not by wholesale, but individually. Not indefinite souls in Africa or New Zealand, but one soul in your own family, in your own circle, in your own community.

Oh, worker in the cause of the unsaved, pick out your own soul; then devote yourself wholly to your task. Do not be diverted from your royal purpose.

All May Help. [Sent for the Children's Corner by a little girl. Editor.]

My dear little schoolmates, teachers and friends: I greet you cheerfully this morning and hope we will all be enlightened by this occasion. I will try to say something in favor of temperance which should be to the glory of God.
