OFES LETTERS.

Rev. George B. Howard, D. D., President of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Little Rock, Ark.

DEAR DOCTOR:—Your letter received. I acknowledge feeling very much obliged to you for your offer of a position, your school. I wish I could say "completely," surely, without any adverse qualification. I recognize a certain advantage in point of position to be gained by an institution so widely known as the Metropolitan College, and I am sure it is concerned in the general public interest.

"I am not," you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability."

Since I am not personally acquainted with your teachers, I shall not venture to say anything about them. Since I am not personally acquainted with your teachers, I shall not venture to say anything about them. Since I am not personally acquainted with your teachers, I shall not venture to say anything about them.

It is not to be denied that the history of our country is not so well known to our countrymen as it should be. It is not to be denied that the history of our country is not so well known to our countrymen as it should be. It is not to be denied that the history of our country is not so well known to our countrymen as it should be.

LITTLE ROCK ARKANSAS FEB. 21, 1905.

As several features connected with this institution which I cannot speak of perfectly, I trust you will excuse me the exercise of the pen in this connection. I am not, you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability." I am not, you say, "a person of great ability."

As you say, you again, you do hold other views. As you say, you again, you do hold other views. As you say, you again, you do hold other views. As you say, you again, you do hold other views. As you say, you again, you do hold other views.

Again, doctor, some of those feelings of indignation and indignation, which you speak of, are not to be denied. Again, doctor, some of those feelings of indignation and indignation, which you speak of, are not to be denied. Again, doctor, some of those feelings of indignation and indignation, which you speak of, are not to be denied.
