"THE RENEWAL OF METHODISM"

UNDER the caption above, the editor of Zion's Herald, the most independent and aggressive of Methodist editors, commenting on the decline in denominational life, gives reasons, which are worthy of our consideration, because they apply to our branch of Methodism as well as to the Methodist Episcopal Church. Read what he says, ponder it, pray over it, and then determine to correct it:

"Methodism has a front that is quite impressive enough. In terms of organization and statistics we have plenty of which to boast, and we have been none too loath to avail ourselves of the opportunity. For all our spectacular appearance, however, no one who knows the inside facts can be complacent about the actual progress of our work.

"Our current decline in persuasive enthusiasm, both at home and abroad, is the result not of poor organization but of the dearth of that kind of genuine conviction that produces inner radiance of spirit and irresistible winsomeness of life. The church, as the organized body of those who are reproducing the life of Jesus in the world, should be nothing less than a league of radiant men and women victoriously overcoming the evil of the world through their glorious spiritual power. We certainly cannot describe ourselves this way in our contemporary world. Which means simply one thing—we have been thinking wrongly, living wrongly, loving wrongly. Something has died inside us, and nothing will happen to revitalize our work until we come to life within.

"Our fathers burned with a flame that consumed the dross of self-interest within themselves and illuminated the way of life for the men and women who shared the world with them. They had a passion for which to live, to work, to die. Their inner conviction gave them no rest. It swept them on like a tide. They made a difference in their world. Today we are lukewarm, indifferent, uncertain, and bewildered. Somewhere we have lost our first major premise. What conviction is left for us for which we would go to the stake with a song at our lips?

"The reason for our decline is not far to seek. We have made ourselves comfortable in an un-Christian world. We have compromised with an economic and social system that is essentially opposed to the way of Jesus. We have called ourselves servants of the Christ, but we have lived by self-interest, blessed the gathering of riches, honored the motive of avarice, courted the favors of the sleek and well-fed, and preached the hatreds of nationalism that bear fruit in the madness of war. What traffic can there be between a disciple of the penniless Prophet of Nazareth and the insolent gambler of Wall Street?

"The beginning of any renewal lies in our really deciding for ourselves whether the way of Jesus is valid for us or not. If it is, then we must find the courage to walk in it uncompromisingly. Nothing less than the heroic mood can even understand the way of Jesus, let alone walk in it. He came to establish in men's hearts and dealings the kingdom of God.

"The first thing, therefore, that we need to do is to discover what that kingdom is. Jesus Himself went off into the wilderness for forty days to commune with His own soul until He had defined His goal. He came out of that experience with an unwavering vision. Nothing much will happen to us until we take time to define for ourselves the vision by which we walk, and to become inflamed by it. Let Methodism decide what the kingdom of God is.

"Then we must proclaim it. This is not easy. When Jesus spoke out He knew what the end

* AND THE LORD WAS WITH JOSEPH. *
* AND HE WAS A PROSPEROUS MAN; *
* AND HE WAS IN THE HOUSE OF HIS *
* MASTER THE EGYPTIAN. AND HIS *
* MASTER SAW THAT THE LORD WAS *
* WITH HIM, AND THAT THE LORD *
* MADE ALL THAT HE DID TO PROSPER *
* IN HIS HAND.—Gen. 39:2-3. *

would be. We are something less than realistic if we do not recognize that the same powers that crucified Him are in control of our world, and will fight us to the death if we oppose them. Yet the way of Jesus means that love of money is evil, that a nationalism that divides men is sin, that imperialism is at enmity with the good life, and that all kinds of special privilege are abhorrent in the sight of God who is just. We have a new world to build, and it can never be built with the rotten timbers of lust, selfishness, pride, and militarism.

"Methodism can find its renewal by only one road. It must take Jesus seriously. It must follow Him utterly. It must ask nothing for itself, but lay down its own life, if necessary, to bring in the kingdom of God."

READERS, PLEASE READ AND REACT

WHILE many pastors are campaigning for the paper, it is true that others have not yet found it convenient or feasible so to do. However, we feel assured that there must be thousands of our readers who are ready to pay for their subscriptions. We beg of every reader, who is in arrears, immediately upon reading this, to take pen in hand and write a nice note requesting us to advance his subscription, and simply enclosing a one-dollar bill. This is the present price of the paper. It is insignificant, but if all will act promptly our present financial troubles will end. Regardless of the amount in arrears, if you will send one dollar with explanation, a satisfactory adjustment will be made. Dear readers, please do this, and save us the large expense of sending statements. If you appreciate your church paper, respond with a word of encouragement. If there are ample responses, the 16-page issue will be resumed.

AN OLD-TIME SALOON-KEEPER SPEAKS

AS everyone knows, Liberty is a magazine devoted to discrediting Prohibition; hence it is surprising that it would publish the following, which appeared in its issue of May 7, from a man named O. C. Gatrell, of Belle Plaine, Iowa. He undoubtedly tells the truth about the "Good old liquor of pre-prohibition days."

"You certainly hit the nail on the head in your editorial, 'Prohibition—A Great Campaign to Popularize Booze.' Advertising has become a business of monumental proportions. You have accomplished much through your wet sheet toward leading a multitude of people to believe that prohibition is a failure. Your tricky articles have fooled many, but there is still a multitude you have not fooled, and that is the old-time saloon keeper. I'm one of them.

"In the old days we had to pay a heavy tax on whiskey. To get by that we would take ten pounds of prunes, some strychnine, ether, logwood, and licorice, and make from five to six barrels from the one barrel purchased, bottle it, and sell it for good Old Crow at thirty-five cents per one-half pint and fifty cents per pint; and it killed just as quick as the rotgut you fellows drink today.

"In the good old days, if a man got rough and got bumped off in our saloon, we threw him in the alley, called the cops, to whom we whispered the sad story, after giving them a drink and probably a five-spot, and the cops would haul him away, and nothing more was ever heard about it. Today, if a baby is kidnaped or a man stubs his toe, it is blamed on prohibition.

"In the old days we had to slip the Liquor License Commissioner twenty-five dollars a month, and with 200 saloons in the same county doing the same thing, such a condition makes grafting today look like nothing but child's play.

"So keep up the good work of 'advertising.' The devil himself must laugh every time your editorial writer sits down at his desk. But we old-timers feel sorry for you, that you should be called an 'editor' and yet be so dumb."

STOP, THIEF!

WE are all suffering losses on account of temporary depression; but in a few years these losses will be forgotten. But there is a thief that is continually robbing us and we take his theft as a matter of course and allow him to continue his depredations on our resources. This perpetual thief is "Erosion" which is day by day, year in and year out, stealing the soil from our fields. Many farms, once rich and productive, are now poor and unproductive, because erosion has been removing the soft fertile soil. Once highly valuable, many fields are now almost worthless. Then this thief, by rushing the water into the streams and filling their beds with silt, is increasing the floods and depriving the springs and wells of their needed supply. This perpetual thief should be stopped. A bill (H. R. 4608), which is intended to provide the necessary means with which to fight this thief by a better understanding of his habits and depredations, has been introduced in Congress by Hon. Scott Leavitt. In order to encourage members of Congress to support this important measure, we suggest that readers write to members of the Senate and House urging the adoption of this bill. If we have regard for the welfare of our children and children's children, we will do our part toward stopping this thief that is stealing their rich heritage of soil. It is said, on good authority, that soil erosion has reached the stage of a national emergency. The losses resulting from unrestrained erosion now amount to many millions of dollars annually. Forests are an important factor in the prevention of erosion, because the trees with their roots and leaves prevent erosion. Forest conservation means also soil conservation. We need both forests and soil. Let us do our part to preserve both.

THE English papers and public men are greatly concerned over the increase in crime, and yet England has the liquor traffic. How would Brisbane and Mencken account for it? The London Daily Telegraph says: "By far the larger number of crimes are committed by young people . . . A middle-aged criminal is rare. The official deduction is that the growth of crime is to be ascribed to two causes—first, the lawless and adventurous character of many of the generation who were without parental control in the war; second, the industrial depression, the severity of which in the north has tempted many very young people to the less serious forms of robbery." Sir Herbert Samuel, home secretary, says that crime is due partly to lack of control of youth during the war, partly to the spread of urban population, partly to unemployment, and partly to the use of motor-cars. Is it not probable that the increase in this country is due to similar causes?

Personal and Other Items

REV. J. W. GLOVER, our pastor at Central Avenue, Batesville, on May 22, at First Church, preached the sermon for the Batesville High School.

REV. J. E. COOPER, our pastor at Crossett, preached the sermon at the close of the Crossett Camp High School, May 8, and for the Crossett High School, May 22.

THROUGH a printer's error credit was not given to First Church, El Dorado, for its contribution of $250 on Kingdom Extension, in the report of Dr. James Thomas last week.

MARRIED at the residence of Rev. S. W. Rainey, 4600 West Twelfth Street, May 24, Mr. Kay Payne and Mrs. Myrtle Payne, both of this city, Rev. S. W. Rainey officiating.

DR. W. P. FEW, distinguished president of Duke University, one of the great educational leaders of the nation, delivered, last Sunday at Hendrix College commencement, a strong and thought-provoking address.

REV. J. L. LEONARD writes: "We are moving along splendidly on Washington-Ozan Charge. The parsonage has this year been reconditioned inside and out." He preached the closing sermon for the Fulton School, May 15.

REV. LAWRENCE K. BROWN, our pastor at Marshall, leaves this week to begin work at Utopia, Texas, in West Texas Conference. Friends in Arkansas will regret to lose this fine young preacher, but wish him well in his new field.

REV. S. K. BURNETT, pastor of Pullman Heights Church, Hot Springs, expects to have Evangelist Jas. V. Reid of Fort Worth to help in a protracted meeting June 26-July 10. He held a meeting there last year and his return is earnestly desired.

DR. AND MRS. J. J. STOWE attended the Hendrix commencement on account of the graduation of their son McFerrin. They were greeted by many old friends who regretted their return to Tennessee. Dr. Stowe is now P. E. of Fayetteville District, and lives at Winchester, Tenn.

REV. C. W. WINTER, of Brookland, who has been assisting Rev. C. L. Castleberry, has just closed a meeting at the schoolhouse at Davis Chapel, where no meeting has been held in six years, with three conversions, and organized a Sunday School. He is ready to help other pastors without agreement for compensation.

A COMMISSION representing the two Annual Conferences in Mississippi has just reported a plan for bringing all the Methodist colleges in that state into one system to be known as the Millsaps System of Colleges. Millsaps is to be a standard senior co-educational college, but will not admit non-resident women into the two lower classes. Grenada and Whitworth Colleges are to be junior colleges for women. The finances of the institutions are to be kept separate. In case the junior colleges should suspend, then their net assets are to be used for the benefit of women in Millsaps College.

ACCORDING to a report in the Bulletin of the Federal Council of Churches the decrease on Benevolences of our Church in 1930-31 as compared with the preceding year was 13.7 per cent, the greatest of the Protestant denominations in America, and the Southern Baptists come next with a decrease of 12.3. Some of the denominations lost less than one per cent. It is not only pitiful that we should fall so far behind, but it is positively disgraceful and inexcusable. The Northern Baptists gained 2.1 per cent.

IN the death of Dr. B. W. Torreyson, for many years president of State Teachers College, at Conway, and for two years president emeritus, Arkansas has lost one of its eminent educational leaders and great citizens. Wise, efficient, kindly, a real friend of youth, Dr. Torreyson, in the many honorable positions which he had held, always commanded confidence and hearty support. For forty years a personal friend of the writer, he is mourned as one whose friendship and co-operation were thoroughly appreciated.

"A PLEA to Make America Safe for Our Children" is the title of a tract, written by Fred Beighton, and published by our Publishing House. The price is 5 cents, or 10 for 30 cents, or 50 for $1. It describes the flood of vile, pernicious literature which is polluting the minds of our youth, and seeks to create sentiment to destroy it. Pastors would do well to get this tract and circulate it among their people. Undoubtedly, it is this vile reading matter upon which our youth are feeding that is the cause of most of the crime of which we read.

COMMENCEMENT AT HENDRIX

IT was the writer's privilege to witness part of the exercises Monday. The class program in the morning was well executed. The prophecy and speech presenting the 300 feet of campus stone wall and the acceptance by Dr. C. J. Greene were felicitous.

The dinner, in Tabor Hall, at which all guests were feasted, was a gastronomic success, as is always true when Mrs. Hulin directs.

At 4:30 p. m., on the campus north of the Administration Hall, the final exercises were witnessed by a large and interested audience. After appropriate vocal and instrumental music, Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, pastor of St. John's Church, St. Louis, spoke, discussing problems of youth and pointing out the methods of reconciling the attitudes of parents and modern youth. He has full confidence in the ability of our youth to find the right way if wisely and sympathetically guided and inspired. This is the third time Dr. Holt has addressed a Hendrix convocation, and he is always welcome and appreciated.

Degrees were conferred by President Reynolds upon 69 graduates, and the degree of LL. D. was conferred upon Prof. W. E. Hogan, former professor of Mathematics and long associated with Dr. Stonewall Anderson and Dr. W. F. Quillian in connection with our General Board of Education; and upon Rev. J. Q. Schisler, an honored graduate and now one of the secretaries of the same Board. Prizes and special honors were then announced. Dr. Reynolds stated that in many ways this had been an unusually satisfactory year.

Interest was added to the occasion by the presence of the faculty of Galloway Woman's College and the white-robed senior class of that institution, 38 in number, who will receive their diplomas at Searcy next week.

The many friends of Galloway College are well pleased that a committee of the Trinity Board, controlling the merged institutions, has requested Dr. J. M. Williams, Vice President of the System, without giving up his other helpful activities, to devote a larger portion of his time to the administration of Galloway College. A dean of women will soon be elected.

When the program closed, all agreed that "it was the end of a perfect day."—A. C. M.

DEATH OF REV. M. B. UMSTED

THE following message has been received: "Our dear old friend and brother, Rev. M. B. Umsted, passed to his reward Tuesday evening, May 24, at the home of his son in Newport. His body was laid to rest Thursday after services conducted in our First Church by the pastor, assisted by Rev. W. M. Edwards of Umsted Memorial Church, Rev. W. W. Albright of Tuckerman, Rev. H. L. Wade of Jonesboro, Rev. Jefferson Sherman, Presiding Elder of the Batesville District, and Dr. Jas. A. Anderson, of the Jonesboro District. Brother Umsted was in his 85th year. Had been a pastor here first and last several years. Had been an itinerant preacher for nearly 60 years. He was a most beloved and honored man. A fuller account of his life and labors will be given later.—A. E. Holloway, Pastor."

The House That Took Root; by Virginia Greene Milliken; published by The Abingdon Press, New York; price $1.50.

This is a charming little story of some dear little children and their work, play, adventures, and ambitions. The activities and interests of the every-day life of normal children are pictured in a style to please and entertain the young readers. There is enough human interest and romance to hold the attention of the older readers. It is a good, wholesome book to put into the hands of your book-loving child.

CIRCULATION REPORT BY CHURCHES

ZONE MEETING AT HIGHLAND

A meeting of the Missionary women in Zone No. 2 was held at Highland Church, Tuesday, May 17, with Mrs. Cumnock presiding.

The meeting was called to order by piano prelude by Mrs. Hopkins of Highland. Mrs. Clarke, our District secretary, was unable to be present on account of the illness of her mother. Prayer was offered for Mrs. Clarke and her mother by Mrs. Street.

Mrs. L. J. Acklin welcomed the visitors and Mrs. Kilmer responded.

Mrs. J. C. Greene had charge of the morning devotional, the theme was "Praise."

Scripture reading was responsive, Psalms 107:1-20. Testimony praise service. Silent prayer, closing with "Doxology" sung softly.

Mrs. Steed gave the report from the Annual Conference very ably. A playlet entitled "Voice," was given by a group of young ladies from Asbury and was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Steed presented the members from the new Auxiliary at Roland. There were four present. This was their first Zone meeting. They were given a rousing cheer.

Mrs. Shockley, the president, responded telling of their organization and work. All visitors were introduced at this time and count of different churches was taken.

Mrs. Nelson read a Bulletin from Mrs. B. J. Reaves on the duties of Citizenship.

The meeting was adjourned for lunch and all present were invited to remain. The time from 12 until 1 o'clock was given over to "pot luck" lunch and a social good time.

Afternoon session was called to order by piano music by Mrs. Hopkins.

Mrs. Marshall Steel of Bauxite had charge of the afternoon devotional. Scriptures used I Cor. 12:31. Subject, "How the Best Things in Life May Become Ours."

A reading, "Crucifixion," by Mrs. Ruth Pritchard was favorably received.

Resolutions to the Disarmament Conference were circulated by Mrs. Nelson and signed by those present.

It was voted to send Mrs. Clarke a message of sympathy and love immediately after the adjournment of the meeting.

Interesting round table discussion was held by the presidents, "Is My Auxiliary a Growing Auxiliary?"

Churches represented were, Henderson, Highland, Twenty-eighth St., Capitol View, Forest Park, Primrose, Mabelvale, Bauxite, Roland.

It was suggested a free will offering be taken for the piano fund at Roland. Five dollars was the amount received.

Mrs. Nelson expressed thanks for the hospitality extended and the meeting adjourned.—Mrs. L. V. Frederick, Sec'y.

DISTRICT MEETING AT SEARCY

The District Conference of the W. M. S. of the Searcy District was held in Searcy at the First Methodist Church May 10. A large delegation from all over the District attended. A splendid all-day program was put on with Mrs. W. J. Spicer, our much appreciated District secretary, presiding.

We were fortunate in having with us three of our Conference officers, Mrs. B. E. Snetser of Newport, Miss Bell, our District Rural worker, and our beloved Mrs. Henry Hanesworth of Augusta.

This program was specially interesting, so much so that Bro. Dodson complimented it and said he'd like the talks repeated at his meeting in McCrory. The Searcy Auxiliary was represented by Mrs. S. J. Allbright, in a splendid talk on "The Rural Work." Mrs. Aubrey Foster in her delightful way welcomed the guests to Searcy. The Searcy Auxiliary served lunch to over one hundred guests at the church.—Reporter.

ZONE MEETING AT WEST HELENA

The second meeting of Zone No. 1 was held Tuesday, May 10, with West Helena as the gracious hostess. There was a good representation from each Auxiliary with the number enrolled 59, as follows: Aubrey 1, Elaine 4, Helena 6, Lexa 6, Marianna No. 1 5, Marianna No. 2 5, Marvell 14, and West Helena 18.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. A. H. Butler, chairman, Mrs. Anderson took charge of the program. The devotional was led by Miss Marie Holmstedt, District secretary, with responsive reading. Mrs. J. M. Hughey led in prayer.

Rev. Mr. Patchell gave the welcoming address. The response was given by Mrs. R. E. Wild.

Owing to the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Therese Caven, Miss Sarah Sutton acted in her place. A motion was made and carried that the secretary write a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Butler, who was unable to be with us due to a broken ankle.

A committee was appointed with Mrs. Clayworthy as chairman to nominate a chairman and secretary for the next meeting.

Reports for the quarter were read by the president of each Society and considerable increase was noticed in these reports in progress and interest.

A vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," was very pleasingly given by Mrs. J. W. Moore. A talk on "What Can I Do to Develop a Greater Spiritual Courage," by Mrs. Hugh Bowers, was followed by an informal round table discussion with everyone present taking part. It led on to what forms of recreation each town had for its young people. The meeting was adjourned for the noon hour.

After enjoying a most delicious luncheon beautifully served and a pleasant social hour, the afternoon session was called to order by Mrs. Anderson at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Wahl led the devotional with "Wisdom" as her subject. Mrs. Harris led in prayer.

Mrs. J. M. Hughey gave a talk on "Interesting News of Our Missionaries." This led to open discussion and Mrs. Decker, a personal friend of Miss Edith Martin, missionary in Africa, told what a wonderful young character she was.

"Finding God in Daily Life" was the subject of a most inspirational talk by Mrs. J. J. Decker.

"Going Through the Missionary Clinic," an interesting playlet, was splendidly given by the Marvell Auxiliary. It was concluded with a musical reading by Mrs. Baer of Marvell. A paper on "What I Have Done to Develop Spiritual Courage During the Past Year" was made very interesting by Mrs. Muscolino. This brought on open discussion about how hard it is to talk to our personal friends about soul winning and spirituality. Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Holmstedt and others took part in this.

A report of the nominating committee was called for. Mrs. A. H. Butler was renominated as chairman for the next meeting and Mrs. J. W. Moore as secretary. The motion was made and carried that they be elected.

Elaine cordially invited all the Auxiliaries to hold the next meeting there. The motion was made and carried that the next meeting be held at Elaine the second Tuesday in July.

Mrs. Anderson asked Miss Holmstedt to say a few words about the Annual Conference meeting.

We all left West Helena with a feeling of spiritual uplift and friendliness to everyone. This meeting was the most inspiring of any yet held. We only hope that every meeting will be as beneficial.—Sarah Sutton, Secretary.

FINDS NEW PILE RELIEF

After months of experimenting, Dr. J. L. Kronthal, Ph. ARKANSAS PASTORS' SCHOOL BEGINS NEXT MONDAY

The Pastors' School opens at Conway next Monday night and continues through Friday night, June 17. All those planning to attend are urged to arrive in Conway in time to register and get located in their rooms before supper.

The school will be organized Monday night. Class work will start early Tuesday morning. The inspirational speaker for the first week is Dr. James I. Vance. His first lecture will be at noon Tuesday. Our own Bishop Dobbs will be the inspirational speaker over the week-end. Dr. A. W. Beavan of Rochester, New York, who won such a big place in the hearts of Arkansas people at Mt. Sequoyah last summer, will be the speaker for the second week.

Everything looks good for a great school this year. There will be eleven courses given and all instructors will be on hand Monday night.

We are happy to note the enrollment of a goodly number of preacher's wives.—Clem Baker.

GALLOWAY COLLEGE NEWS

Rev. J. C. Glenn, pastor of First Church, Pine Bluff, addressed the students and faculty at chapel, May 18. He has been selected by the Trustees of the Trinity System to head a campaign for students at Galloway. All Methodist ministers are to cooperate in this campaign and an extensive program has been planned.

Mr. Glenn stated: "It is within the power of the present student body to help attain the goal of 200 students."

for Galloway next fall. There is enough material in the high schools of the state from which Galloway may get the type of girls desired."

Special meetings of the Senior, Junior, and Academy Classes were called, at which Mr. Glenn presented his plans.

The Senior Class will leave 38 vacancies, but Mr. Glenn hopes that each Senior will send two girls for her place.

To the Juniors came the challenge for every girl to use her influence to bring back a new student.

The Academy Class will endeavor to increase the number in their class.

"We are for Galloway for Women" is the slogan to be featured throughout the campaign.

Student government officials for 1932-33 were elected at a meeting of the Freshman Class, May 16, as follows: Rayda Wallace of Wynne, president; Mary Herget of Paragould, vice-president; Bera Crosby of Rison, secretary; and Elizabeth Penix of Tuckerman, treasurer.

The new officers were installed Thursday night and have assumed the responsibility of student government for the remainder of the school year.

During the past year student government officials were: Margaret Wenzel of Helena, president; Kathryn Greer of Blytheville, vice-president; La Verne Dawson of Fort Smith, secretary; and Nelle Hicks of Lonoke, treasurer.

HENDRIX COLLEGE NEWS

Dr. C. J. Greene will be director of the Hendrix Summer School this year, from June 7 to July 23. Instructors will be: Religion, Dr. Greene; Education, Dr. Roy C. Holl; English, Dr. Robert L. Campbell; History, Professor William C. Buthman; Music, Professor Clem A. Townner; Science, Dr. M. J. McHenry; and Latin, Dr. H. W. Kamp. Courses for both upper classmen and freshmen are included in the schedule.

Dr. Earle A. Spessard, head of the Department of Biology, is planning a Summer School which will be held north of Dover, Arkansas, at the U. S. Forestry Test Site. About twenty regular students at Hendrix and perhaps others will make a seven-weeks' trip there, working for the government and studying part of this time the botanical layout of that section. Work under Dr. Spessard will carry with it credit at Hendrix in the Department of Biology.

Sixty-one titles of books made up the second shipment from the Carnegie Foundation to the Hendrix library. Many religious books, histories, and so-called classics formed the list. Orders have been placed to take care of all the first year's gift to the library, so that in a short time $2,000 worth of new books will be available to Hendrix students. More than 450 titles, will constitute the initial third of the Carnegie donation.

The Carnegie gift is $6,000, which is to be spent over three years' time.

Leslie Hale of Hot Springs, and Sam Richmond, Russellville, president of the Chemistry Club, spoke at a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. this week on "Chemical Warfare." Together they presented a history of "Chemical Warfare" of present day developments, and of the probabilities and possibilities of its use in the future.

The Physics class made a motor trip to Rammel and Carpenter Dams near Hot Springs recently.

Development of a scientific museum has been begun. There is at present a small collection of interesting specimens of marble, from Belgium, Italy, Vermont, and Tennessee. Dr. A. C. Millar has given a miscellaneous collection of minerals gathered by his father, while Roy Greenfield, '31, has presented an assortment of Indian relics. Plant and animal fossils from Sebastian and Cleburne counties will serve as a beginning for geological cases. Butterflies form another phase of the collection.

At the beginning the materials are to be exhibited on the second and third floor landings in the new science building; they will be located on the fifth floor when the assortment outgrows the present space. There ample room will be available for a large museum.

Women's Athletic Association officers for next year: Retha Jones, Sheridan, president; Ruth Browning, Conway, vice-president; Ruth Steed, Little Rock, recording secretary; and Virginia Grinstead, Conway, corresponding secretary.

TRIBUTE BY SUSANNAH WESLEY BIBLE CLASS

The Susannah Wesley Bible Class of the Sunday School of First Church, Texarkana, adopted a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Chas. W. Mullin, who passed away on May 11. She was a member of that class and is tenderly remembered as one by her perpetual inspiration to those left behind. Resolutions of love and sympathy for the husband and children were adopted and were signed by Mrs. Cora Ingram Waters, Mrs. W. N. White and Mrs. W. A. Cato.

HELPING OUR COUNTRY PEOPLE IN THE PINE BLUFF DISTRICT

There has been a growing conviction for some months that we must go to our people in the local church in order to render them the service they need. Most of our fine workers in the local church are busy people and if we reach them we must go to their church and work with them, though in most cases it will be a small group.

Previously arranging the dates and places, Dr. James Thomas, P. E., and the writer held six local church institutes in three circuits on May 23 and 24.

The first was at Prosperity, on Rowell Circuit, where we had 18 present. It was 10 a. m., the 23rd. That afternoon we were at Mt. Olivet. That night at Good Faith on the Pine Bluff Circuit. Tuesday morning we were at Mt. Carmel; at 2:00 p. m. at Wofford's Chapel and at night at Bethel. The last place is on the Sheridan Circuit.

With the pastor, we undertook to help each group face some of their problems. We asked them to name the hindrances in their community. We listed these and talked about them, trying to ascertain why such conditions prevail, and the causes underlying them. Then we sought to help the local group see how they can overcome most of their difficulties. We did that in the following way.

We quoted the oft-stated words of Dr. Wilbur Chapman: "The redemptive forces of any community are the resident forces." Stated in other words, the people to do the religious work in any community are the people who live there. Then we faced frankly the matter of interesting mature people in attending Sunday School. Then we asked, "If we get them in Sunday School can the teachers hold them?" Isn't it necessary that all our teachers study more and better ways of presenting the Lesson? Then we faced the fact that children must be grouped in classes according to ages to use the literature to best advantage.

We talked over the matter of repairing and repainting our church buildings, making church and grounds the beauty spot of the community. Photographs were exhibited showing beautiful churches in the Conference, the new church building at Hickory Plains, built this winter and spring and paid for.

Dr. Thomas and I came away from these six institutes feeling that they were well worth the time and effort put into them. Our people told us they were greatly encouraged, that the meeting had been a great help to them, and that they were going to put forth more effort to do better work in their local churches.

Plans are being made for such institutes in every District in the Conference just as rapidly as we can get to them.—S. T. Baugh, Ext. Sec.

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it as any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

BOY'S CAMP AT MT. SEQUOYAH

Rev. S. M. Yancey, Superintendent of Mt. Sequoyah, announces that there will be a Boy's Camp at Mt. Sequoyah this summer, and he has asked Rev. C. D. Meux, who has had experience in boy's work, to get together a group from the southern and central parts of the state and accompany them to the camp. If you have boys you would like to have go, get in touch with Rev. C. D. Meux, 1221 W. 3rd, Little Rock.

Boys between 10 and 17 can go. The periods are June 14 to 23 and June 23 to July 2.

BOOST MT. SEQUOYAH

Your Western Methodist Assembly will open June 14 and close Sept. 1. The grounds may remain open until Sept. 15.

At the request of many pastors and laymen, I am putting on a Boy's Club Meet. Remember the dates, June 14 to 23 and from the 23 to July 2. We will have a splendid Scout program, with four paid instructors who know Scout work from start to finish. The Scout boys will all receive their credits, when their work is done.

We extend an invitation to all boys. You do not have to be a Scout. Ten dollars for ten days with free ticket to city swimming pool. All kinds of good games and plenty to eat. A good time assures every boy who comes.

I am quite anxious to make this a great success, but cannot do it unless you send your boys. It will take boys and plenty of them to make it a success.

Bro. Pastor, have you ever announced your Assembly program from your pulpit? Are you going to do it? The pastors of Arkansas, with but little effort, can send 500 BOYS TO SEQUOYAH, if they will. You can do it by presenting our program to your people in person and through your Church bulletin.

Read the following and go on like-wise. Boost your Assembly.

First Methodist Church Bulletin, Texarkana, Ark.

"There is no more desirable place to spend a few days' or a few weeks' vacation than our own Western Methodist Assembly on Mt. Sequoyah, at Fayetteville, Ark. If any of our people are anticipating a trip during the summer, and want to spend a few days of great pleasure and profit, at small cost, Mt. Sequoyah will meet all your expectations. The season opens June 14 and closes Aug. 31. Unexcelled programs, and the very best recreational facilities make it specially attractive throughout the season."

Centenary Methodist Church Bulletin, Nevada, Missouri.

"Mt. Sequoyah at Fayetteville, Ark., is Sequoyah school and recreation for the summer months. Let many plan to go there from this church this summer. It will prove a mount of inspiration and high fellowship. If interested speak, to the pastor about the time to go."

Please advertise your Assembly. Ask your people to come, and enjoy the program put on by their Church. —S. M. Yancey, Supt.

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Most people realize how serious is the liquor situation, both in Arkansas and in the nation, at the present time.

The forces of the Anti-Saloon League are hard at work day and night. The pastors of the state are opening their pulpits to the superintendent, where he is putting in a full day speaking each Sunday.

Motion Pictures.

On week nights, we are putting on the motion picture, "Lest We Forget." This is a standard-size film in five reels (silent). It is pronounced to be better than "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." The effect is wonderful. The people are enthusiastic over it. Pastors who have seen it say it ought to be shown in every schoolhouse and church in Arkansas. It is a high-class picture without a single objection. It portrays the evils of the open saloon.

A Drama.

We are also putting on a dramatic court trial called "Protection." This is a law enforcement play, to be put on in the larger towns. The cast consists of thirty people, selected from the churches of the town. It is easy to be put on and takes very little time for rehearsal.

We are arranging dates as fast as possible. If interested in the fight against liquor, write for a date.—John H. Glass, Supt., 202 Glover Bldg., Little Rock, Arkansas.

DILLARD, OKLA.

We are getting along pretty well considering the general situation. Closed a meeting here last Sunday night with thirty-seven conversions.

Recently I did the preaching in a revival at Healdton, Okla., in which A. M. Hutton of Clarksville, Ark., directed the music and young people's work. We had a good revival so far as the church was concerned. Had several conversions and no doubt would have had more if the unconverted folk had attended. This was my first time to be associated with Brother Hutton in a meeting. I cannot be too loud in my praise of him. He is a good all-around worker who is religious and will do good work anywhere.—Roy M. Black.

FORT SMITH DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The sixty-fourth session of the Fort Smith District Conference met at Clarksville May 2. This was one of the best Conferences the writer has ever attended. The presiding officer, Rev. W. C. House, presided with ease and efficiency. He was brotherly and kind, not for one moment did he ever seem to be in a hurry, yet every phase of interest that should come before a District Conference was cared for. The attendance was large from the first devotional service and remained such until the last benediction. Not a single delegate asked leave of absence. The reports of pastors were exceptionally good. Nearly every charge reported something on every phase of Church work. The writer has been a member of the Fort Smith District for nine years. The reports made on Conference Claims were the best of any of these years. The preaching by Rev. J. A. Womack, Rev. C. C. Burton and Rev. J. L. Shelby was of a high type. Brother Womack talked on "The Gospel of the Cross," Brother Burton on "The Abundant Life," and Brother Shelby on "The Fruits of the Spirit." All present were lifted toward God by these good messages.

The following connectional men were present: Dr. J. H. Reynolds, Rev. Ira A. Brumley, Rev. D. H. Colquette, and Rev. R. C. Morehead; and each one represented his causes in the most effective and brotherly manner. The people of Clarksville were abundantly blessed because of the fine Christian atmosphere created by the preachers, delegates, and visitors. Clarksville's citizenship enjoyed to the fullest the privilege and opportunity of entertaining this District Conference. It was a most interesting resolution was adopted by a rising vote: "RESOLVED, That this Conference is profoundly grateful to our presiding elder, Rev. W. C. House, for the ease and grace and good humor in conducting the business of the Conference; to our host, the affable Brother Hook, the pastor, and his able corps of assistants who

Many expressed themselves that this was the best District Conference they had ever attended. The next Conference goes to Alma.—Reporter.

WILSON VISITS JOINER

The Joiner Church was host to the Wilson Church Sunday night, May 1. For two months each church kept account of the number attending the services and since Joiner had the most the Wilson church came down to visit us.

Brother Blevins is well loved by his people and is doing a wonderful work in spite of the severe wage and salary reductions at Wilson. Many have been forced to leave because of the drastic reductions. But Brother Blevins is pushing on with his spirit and fine family.

The Joiner Church was beautifully decorated with ferns and blooming flowers and white crosses. The choir marched in during the procession. They were vested. Their anthem, "Sing Unto the Lord," was beautifully given. Our pastor, Bro. Paul Galloway, preached a sermon on "The Closed Diary," using for his text the words of Pilate, "What I have written, I have written." He brought out the fact that every person writes life's diary by his thoughts and acts. It was clear, practical, and purposeful.

We surely enjoyed having the Wilson congregation with us and are looking forward when we will visit them. We people of the south end of Mississippi County want to link ourselves together in a church way. We know each other in business and now we want to unite spiritually. Our preachers are friends and are working together fine.—Reporter.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT DELEGATES

At the recent session of the Fayetteville District Conference the following were elected delegates and alternates to the Annual Conference: Delegates—Irl Bridenthal, Beverly Raikes, A. S. Buell, Rev. J. H. Ruble, Mrs. F. R. Hamilton, E. E. Guinnup, Mrs. T. Harding, J. K. Frazier. Alternates—C. M. Sisco, Dr. G. W. Droke, Dr. David, C. W. Harrington.

At the request of the pastor, Rev. J. H. Webb, it was voted that the next session of the District Conference would be held in Berryville. Several charges were eager to entertain the Conference, but it was decided to let the Conference go to that section of the District.—W. A. Downum, Secretary, O. M. Campbell, Assistant.

VINEY GROVE

We arrived on Thursday following the Conference and were cordially received. We had a large "pounding" from the Viney Grove Church on the following Monday and some of the Rhea folk came by and invited us to come over there Wednesday night. We went and they loaded our car with good eats.

At Viney Grove our work is moving along nicely. We have the church organized according to the new plan. We have done over $65.00 worth of repairing on the church and parsonage, for which the Women's Missionary Society deserves the most credit. The Society was organized the first of the year and is doing fine work. We have mid-week prayer service with a large attendance made up principally of our splendid young people.

Illinois Chapel is a church which we have taken up since the first of February. There is a good Church School going on there now and they have singing every Sunday night. I have a good attendance at the preaching service and I feel that Illinois Chapel is going to make a good rural point.

There is a lively church at New Sulphur schoolhouse, although the membership is small. They have a union Sunday School, but the young people have a good League. They are getting acquainted with the work and are putting on some good programs.

Rhea is coming to the front. They have a good Sunday School and the church services are well attended. They have raised funds to paint their church. When this is done, they will have a beautiful building, both inside and out. They are well equipped for a one-room plant.

We have enjoyed our work here, and am sure we will enjoy it as long as we stay. The people are ready to help anywhere they can.

We are not going to be satisfied with anything short of 100% on all Benevolences.—M. L. Kaylor.

PLAINVIEW

On April 10, I preached the closing sermon for Havana High School. On May 1, I preached the sermon for the Plainview High School. On Mar. 26, I preached to the colored people at the close of their school here, and I was deeply impressed with the entirely religious nature of their program. It seemed to me that they might have a better appreciation of the source of all true knowledge than some of us white school enthusiasts have.

The work at Plainview is getting along well. It really is doing unusally well if it is compared with the other enterprises of the community. The church is in the best condition of any institution in this section. It meets most of its obligations rather promptly, it has an increasing number who came regularly to the services; it holds the expected means of escape from the worries of everyday burdens that have been heavy for some time, and all through the year affords a place for social contact and religious development that many are using regularly. The two major interests of this town and community seem to be the church and the school. The superintendent of the High School is the superintendent of our S. S. The teachers of the literary school have contributed largely to the church school since I have been here. I have not been any place where the relationship between the two institutions was more harmonious.

In addition to my regular work here as pastor I have organized two Young People's Unions in this District and have revived one that had gone into winter quarters. I have met with the leaders of the Young People's Work in almost half the churches in the District. In addition to the work as District Secretary of Y. P. Work I preach on three Sunday's P. M. per month to outlying rural communities. For instance, on May 5 I am to preach our Mother's Day sermon at 9:45 A. M. and then drive seven miles to a rural community to preach at a Decoration service at 11. At 3:00 p. m. I will preach again at another rural community 10 miles from the first and at night preach again at our regular service in Plainview. (The rest of the day I will spend in study.) The field is white unto harvest.—J. L. Rowland.

HELENA DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Helena District Conference met at Holly Grove May 19. Rev. G. G. Davidson, Presiding Elder, in the chair.

Rev. M. N. Johnston called the roll and was elected Secretary. The hours of meeting and adjournment were fixed, various committees were named, and the Lord's Supper was administered. At eleven o'clock G. L. Morelock, Secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities, brought a great message on the "Stewardship of the Gospel."

At 1:30 the Conference met on the lot where a new building was being started. A service was held, and Judge T. G. Trice, the oldest member of the Trustees and Board turned a few shovels of dirt, starting this enterprise. The building committee expect the building to be finished within ninety days and dedicated without debt.

Most of the pastors reported, answering questionnaires sent out by the Presiding Elder.

A report on "Spiritual Life, Reaching the Unreached both in the Church and Out, and Stewardship," was read by Rev. J. T. Wilcoxon and ably discussed by J. M. Hughey, J. J. Decker, G. G. Davidson, Chas. Franklin and J. J. Galloway. This paper was the theme of the afternoon's discussion and many helpful suggestions were made.

Rev. Glen Sanford and Rev. D. H. Colquette spoke on their work. An

4c electricity

Those of our residential customers who are taking advantage of our combination lighting, cooking and refrigerating rate pay an average of ONLY 4c PER KILOWATT HOUR for electric service!

If your home is one which continues to use electricity only for lighting, you are missing the major convenience, comfort and economy which electric service offers. At a very slight increase in your electric service bill, electricity will provide refrigeration, wash and iron your clothes, clean your rugs, cook your food, and do scores of other household tasks!

fine message on the work of our schools.

Rev. J. H. Glass, Supt. of Ark. Anti-Saloon League was a visitor.

The following were elected delegates to the Annual Conference; R. A. Scott, W. B. Mann, Miss Marie Holmstedt, Mrs. J. W. Moore, R. C. G. Davidson, C. R. Garrison, Mrs. McNeil, J. T. Bateman and E. M. Pipkin.

The outstanding feature was the four addresses delivered by G. L. Morelock on "Stewardship." They were inspiring, up-lifting, heart-searching, soul-stirring, messages and sent both preacher and laymen back determined to be better stewards for our Christ and His Kingdom.

Bro. J. W. Moore and his people royally entertained the Conference, and we all left feeling that it had been one of the best District Conferences that we had ever attended. —M. N. Johnston, Sec.

CONWAY DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Conway District Conference met at Pottsville May 17-18, with Presiding Elder J. Wilson Crichlow in the chair. We were royally entertained. Brother Wilson and his fine people have learned to perfection the fine art of entertaining.

The preachers reported 400 conversions, $3,510 on Conference Claims, a gain of 80% over last year, 245 family altars, 501 church papers, 222 training credits, and 166 tithe. On a chart showing 19 columns there were very few blanks. Six charges were hitting on all 19 cylinders. Atkins and Washington Avenue tied for first place, Levy took second, and Gardner Memorial third. Conway and First Church, North Little Rock received favorable mention. All reports were good.

Macedonia, Plant's Chapel and Rosebud received certificates of honor, showing Conference Claims paid in full for the year. Rev. H. J. Harger is pastor.

Every interest was presented.

Revs. C. N. Guice, J. W. Workman, F. R. Hamilton, W. C. House, A. W. Russell, E. W. Faulkner, and Geo. A. Freeman brought unusually helpful and inspiring messages.

Rev. Glen F. Sanford showed on the screen the monumental work being done today and in the past by the one-room Church in the open country.

Brother Crichlow found time for every superannuate and local preacher to address the Conference. This was a high point spiritually.

The Conference was outstanding in the number of laymen present. Probably the interest in the Church was greater than ever before. Mason E. Mitchell of Conway was elected District Lay Leader and B. M. Huddleston and O. H. Davis associates.

Three were licensed to preach: Ardis Huddleston of North Little Rock, Henry H. Weidemeyer of Conway and Enod O. Hardy of Greenbrier.

Delegates elected to the Annual Conference were: Rev. G. A. Freeman, Miss Elberta Baker, B. M. Huddleston, Joe A. Goetz, A. W. Wilson, L. G. Moore, O. H. Davis, Mrs. C. L. Gardner, Mrs. Edward Forrest, Mason E. Mitchell; Alternate delegates: E. M. Merritt, G. N. Douglass, J. W. McNutt, Mrs. H. J. Harger and E. E. Jones.

The Conference ended with an earnest appeal by Rev. W. C. House that we spend more time in intercessory prayer for the Kingdom and for one another.

Brother Crichlow was in his usual fine trim and continuously inspired the Conference with his magnetic devotion to the Church. Under his type of leadership Conway District will add "plus" to its reports this fall. —Sam B. Wiggins, Sec.

FISHER STREET CHURCH, JONESBORO

Fisher Street Church is a small suburban church, having a membership previous to May 7, of about 180. I know of no church that has suffered more because of the depression. And yet I know of none more loyal and courageous. These people are not only loyal to their pastor, but to the entire program of the church. This is evidenced by the fact that by January 1, in my first two years as pastor, every dollar of our benevolent apportionment was paid. And the same was true this year, with the exception of about $12. This, in spite of the fact that Jonesboro's last bank closed just as we began on our pay-up campaign. We have never failed to pay a substantial sum on Kingdom Extension and to all the other claims of the church.

A church so loyal and heroic in things material, cannot long be content with those distinctions alone.

For months our prayer had been: "Lord send a revival, and let it begin in me." So it being left with the pastor to secure a helper, he got in touch with Rev. H. C. Hankins, of Springdale, Ark., one of our Conference evangelists, who came and continued till May 15. Some of the results are: 50 to 60 conversions and reclamations; 35 additions, and the whole church wonderfully toned up. It was one of the most satisfactory revivals I have ever had in my service of 24 years. The Lord was with us in mighty power, and no small share of the credit should go to Bro. Hankins, who preached and worked with unction from on high.

I have heard many of the great evangelists, and I know of none who surpasses our own H. C. Hankins of Springdale. He succeeds everywhere, whether in the small church or in the great city church, and I am anxious that we use him more. Why allow Missouri and other states to take so much of his time, when he could become such a blessing to his home state?

Don't hesitate to call on him.—J. E. Lark, P. C.

LITTLE ROCK DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The sixty-fourth Session of Little Rock District Conference met at 28th St. Church, Little Rock, May 20, at 8:30 a. m. with Presiding Elder J. A. Henderson in the chair.

Dr. Paul W. Quillian gave the devotional address. After roll call, C. D. Meux was elected secretary, with J. B. Hefley as assistant.

There was a hundred per cent attendance of pastors and lay delegates. The pastors made good reports. A total of 555 members have been received.

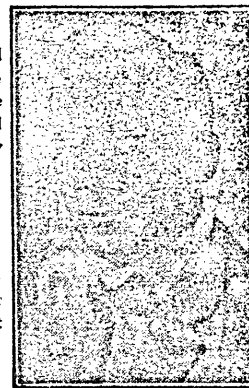

The ad interim committee was appointed as follows: C. M. Reves, P. W. Quillian, R. E. Fawcett, J. F. Simmons, and Leland Clegg. Salem Camp Ground, on the Bryant Circuit, was selected for the meeting next year.

The following were elected delegates to Annual Conference: J. B. Duncan, S. B. Laseter, J. W. Lewellen, Miss Josie Ellingsworth, C. H. Goodlett, J. A. Hale, Mrs. S. J. (Continued on page 8.)

Dr. James Thomas preached at 11:30 a. m., and Rev. Leland Clegg at 3:30 p. m. Rev. S. M. Yancey, Supt. of Mt. Sequoyah, spoke of the Assembly program.

The various interests of the District were well presented by the several representatives.

A resolution commending our Presiding Elder, Rev. J. A. Henderson, for his great leadership, and requesting that Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs return him as Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District next year, was adopted.

A resolution commending Bishop Dobbs for his great leadership, and requesting the College of Bishops to continue him as our Bishop for next year, was adopted.

Robert D. Lee was elected District Director of the Golden Cross.

Owen Haskell Daugherty was licensed to preach. James Anderson Simpson and Cleveland Howard Gilliam were recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial. John B. Hefley was recommended for Local Deacon's Orders. James Leonard Bowden was recommended for Local Deacon's orders when he finishes the course.

The Young People's Conference at the evening hour was a fitting climax for a great District Conference. Rev. M. T. Steel gave the principal address, followed by Dr. C. M. Reves and Dr. P. W. Quillian.

The pastor-host, Rev. E. T. Miller, and his people provided for every need. The luncheons on the ground were delicious and bountiful, and the music by the choir was well rendered.—C. D. Meux, Sec.

DR. J. E. GODBEY: AN APPRECIATION

I wish in a few lines to express my appreciation of the man whose life and ministry were such a help to me. When I was a boy, Rev. John Emory Godbey was sent to the Merrimac Circuit, and boarded in the community where my father lived. In the summer he held a meeting at Glencoe, Mo., where I professed conversion and united with the church. The next year, in addition to his pastoral work, he taught the community school where I was a pupil. At the close of this year he married my sister, Mary, and they were sent to the Labadie Circuit, Franklin county. A few years later, while stationed at Washington, Mo., he was both principal and a teacher in the Washington high school. During this time I lived in his home and attended this school, in which he did a splendid work.

It was at this time that I was licensed to preach the gospel. This intimacy of association for several years caused him to seem more like a brother than a brother-in-law, and I have always held him in high esteem. He was kind and friendly, and having made friends, he seemed to hold them as with "hooks of steel." His sound judgment and integrity of character made him a safe and wise counselor in matters temporal and spiritual.

A great student, he was very diligent in the pursuit of knowledge. Good books were his loved companions, and his wonderful memory enabled him to conserve the fruits of his extensive reading.

Dr. Godbey was a fine preacher, thoughtful and instructive, appealing to the intelligence of his hearers and giving them good food for reflection. While his preaching covered a wide range, he gave emphasis to the essential doctrines of Christianity.

A devoted husband, an affectionate father, he loved to be in the midst of his family, over which the dark shadows of sorrow fell again and again, as one after another, his four children, and then his faithful companion passed away. In all this sorrow his faith was strong and he realized the comforting influence of the Holy Spirit.

For years I have been denied the pleasure and benefit of his association, but have greatly enjoyed his letters. In one of these, referring to his experience, he wrote: "As for myself, I have long felt that I have found the way, both of faith and life. I would live as I do if I knew there were neither heaven nor hell, save in the inevitable accretions whereby one is advanced in his own self-consciousness into a being in harmony with the eternal mind and scheme of nature, or in conscious inharmony with that scheme."

Just before a serious operation he wrote, "An operation will be performed with very doubtful results. I can scarcely feel concerned as to how it will turn out. Anyway, I am near the crossing of the river, and I fear that I am keeping the boatman waiting. I am ready to leave my record to the world, and lay it before the Lord." One is reminded of St. Paul's statement, "I am ready to be offered." Later he wrote: "With me, life has not been a joy ride, leaving no result but fading memory pictures, it has been a purposeful quest for a goal worthy of striving for. That still seems to me to be the best ideal to follow as a beacon light, and it still remains the common judgment of mankind that they are happiest who follow it. I am not troubled about the future, never was. There is a right way. If we keep in it we will be in harmony with the Divine plan."

Having "served his generation, by the will of God," this good man has gone to his reward. "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."—R. A. Holloway, Austin, Texas.

OBITUARY

Lyons.—William Tinker Lyons was born in Union County, Tenn., February, 1842. He has been a member of the Methodist Church for twenty-five years and passed away on April 7, a believer in God and having lived a fruitful life. The home in which he died was the place of his residence for more than sixty-four years. His wife passed before him twenty-seven years and of her it is said that there lived no one in her community who was more devoted to the Christian life than she, and this we know of his life because he prepared himself for the time that he has now come to. Three of the nine children have also joined their mother. All save one of the children, a daughter, Mrs. Hattie Tiffin, were at his bedside at his going, but sickness detained her. The children are: Mrs. Lilly Burke, Miss Maggie Whitten, Carrie Lyons, (Miss), Mrs. William Thornton and a son, Harmon Lyons. These children and seven grandchildren are left to meet him in the great beyond. A good pattern for life to follow.—E. L. McKay, Pastor.

Ford.—April 11, Mrs. Kate Ford, widow of M. H. Ford, aged over 71 years, died at her home three miles south of Lewisville, following an illness which had kept her confined to her bed continuously for almost nine weeks. She was born in Louisiana, but removed to Lafayette County, Arkansas, when quite young and when 19 years of age, she was married to M. H. Ford (who died February 14, 1916), and established the home where she spent the remainder of her long, active Christian life. In childhood, she became a member of the Methodist Church and retained her membership in the church at Bethel, a few miles from her old home, until her death. Her former pastor, Rev. T. M. Armstrong, now stationed at Waldo, conducted her funeral services at Wilson Cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends. She is survived by three children, Frank Ford, Fannie Ford Olive, wife of Hilliard Olive, Julia Ford Attaway, wife of Joe Attaway, and 11 grandchildren, besides ten great-grandchildren.—A Friend.
