A BUSINESS MAN'S APPEAL TO THE CHURCHES

COMMENTING on propositions among church leaders to curtail church work on account of the depression, Roger W. Babson, economic statistician and advisor of business men, has said: "To me this seems like hospitals running on half time 'because of an epidemic.' It shows that the churches either fail to realize what the nation needs most today or else are lying down on their jobs from mere cowardice. The thought of curtailing church activities today and especially of curtailing gifts to churches seems preposterous. Yes, this is the first thing which has 'got my goat' since 1929. For whatever else we curtail upon, let it not be our support of churches, charities and other welfare work. . . . The ministers, priests, and rabbis are the ones who should lead in restoring that faith and confidence which comes only from a change in people's hearts and motives. Church leaders have the same responsibility, during a business depression, that doctors have during a rage of physical sickness. Faith, courage, wisdom, honesty and self-control are spiritual qualities, not matters of production, consumption, prices, interest rates, etc. I would even go so far as to propose that the administration of funds for public works and public relief be placed under the charge of the churches. . . . The ministers, priests, and rabbis should be the leaders in a better and more just economic system. The life and wages of men must be given greater consideration than the life and wages of money. The people are disillusioned and know not where to turn. They are sheep without a shepherd. It is up to the religious leaders to see that they are helped instead of sheared. What this world needs is a great religious revival. Prosperity will return only as righteousness and justice supplant unrighteousness and injustice. To accomplish this it is the duty of the churches to lead the way and help change the principles, motives, desires. To be of greater use, to deal fairly, and to follow the Golden Rule, is essential to the return of any sound and permanent prosperity throughout the world. I, as a business man and economist, appeal to the churches to arise to the present need and work harder than ever in this emergency. I also appeal to all readers to support the churches more than ever during this period by attendance, by contributions, and by good works and deeds. We all need to have more interest in the other fellow and more faith in the Eternal Spirit. The churches are the source of such enlightenment. Surely we have not much right to expect help in our difficulties unless we are willing to make a small sacrifice by attending and supporting the churches."

STATEMENT BY BISHOP JAMES CANNON, Jr.,

Chairman of Board of Temperance and Social Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, made before the Committee on Resolutions at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, June 25, 1932:

I appear before this committee as I did before the Committee on Resolutions of the Democratic conventions at San Francisco, New York, and Houston, as the chairman of the Board of Temperance and Social Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. I present to this committee extracts from the report of the Committee on Temperance and Social Service of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Dallas, adopted on May 23, 1930. The report of this committee, signed by Josephus Daniels, Chairman, and Albert D. Betts, Secretary, was unanimously adopted by that General Conference composed of an equal number of ministers and laymen representative of every section of that great church with nearly three million members and many million more adherents, the third largest Protestant denomination in the United States.

AND THE LORD SAID, I HAVE SURELY SEEN THE AFFLICTIONS OF MY PEOPLE WHICH ARE IN EGYPT, AND HAVE HEARD THEIR CRY BY REASON OF THEIR TASKMASTERS; FOR I KNOW THEIR SORROWS; AND I AM COME DOWN TO DELIVER THEM OUT OF THE HAND OF THE EGYPTIANS AND TO BRING THEM OUT OF THAT LAND UNTO A GOOD LAND AND LARGE, UNTO A LAND FLOWING WITH MILK AND HONEY.—Ex. 3:7-8.

"We firmly set our faces against any recession from the constitutional outlawry of the liquor traffic. We highly resolve to enlist our every power to maintain in full force the Eighteenth Amendment and all laws of State and Nation for its observance and enforcement. We will never surrender the advance made for national sobriety. No retreat shall be sounded. . . . We call upon all those who believe in sobriety and who respect the law and the Constitution to buckle on their armor. We hereby reaffirm the declarations of the General Conferences of 1918, 1922, and especially of 1926 on the attitude of our church toward prohibition and we record our approval and endorsement of the leadership and work of our Board of Temperance and Social Service to accomplish the purpose of those declarations.

"We approve and affirm the following declaration in the Episcopal address: 'The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, professes no political creed. It is not and can not be affiliated with any political party. It gladly embraces within its membership men and women of all political parties and of all political creeds. The church as such can have no alliance with partisan politics and politicians, and it has no advice to give its membership with reference to their party affiliation. All this is quite beyond the sphere of the church. But the church does stand as the eternal enemy of unrighteousness of every name and every form, and we should let it be everywhere known that whenever any institution or organization (which includes Democratic and Republican party organizations) becomes the friend and patron of the liquor traffic or encourages violation of the prohibition amendment, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be found in the future, as in the past, battling against iniquity and on the side of personal and public righteousness.'

"To this declaration of our episcopal leaders we would add our clear and definite affirmation of the clear and inalienable right of every member, whether minister or laymen, of our church to oppose and vote against any candidate from constable to President who fails to stand for the principles herein advocated and approved. We urge our people to select public officials who believe in enforcement not only because prohibition is the law but because it ought to be the law.

On May 4, 1932, the General Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Nashville, Tennessee, composed of all the Bishops and of representative men and women from every section of the church adopted resolutions unanimously, part of which I quote: "We declare our uncompromising opposition to any effort to remove the brand of the criminal from the liquor traffic which destroys the control of the physical, intellectual, and moral powers of citizens whether in the entire Nation or in even one State. We emphasize that this question is to be settled not by the clamor of wet newspapers, of organizations opposed to prohibition, not even when these organizations are composed of high society women, but that this question must be settled by the people themselves in the election of Senators and Congressmen and members of State Legislatures. In the strenuous efforts now being made to modify the prohibition law even to the extent of repealing the Eighteenth Amendment, we urge our pastors, teachers and people to stand for the election of Senators, Congressmen and members of State Legislatures who believe that prohibition ought to be the law and being elected on that platform will positively oppose, therefore, any effort to repeal or to submit again the Eighteenth Amendment. The fight on this question must be carried aggressively into the coming Senatorial and Congressional elections, just as in the years before the submission of the Eighteenth Amendment by Congress in 1917. In this coming conflict the awful facts concerning the liquor traffic as it existed in the so-called 'good old days' before prohibition, must once again be brought forcibly to the attention of our people and all the moral forces of the country must meet their responsibility against this rebellious renewal of the struggle with beverage alcohol, the age-long enemy of the human race. The conflict between the soul-destroying liquor traffic and the true Church of Christ is inevitable and irrepressible. There is no discharge in this war, no surrender, no retreat; no compromise whatever with the enemy is possible."

As the duly elected and authorized representative of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, whose course as Chairman of its Board of Temperance and Social Service has been fully approved and endorsed by that General Conference, I insisted at San Francisco that prohibition was a great, moral, social, non-partisan question and should not be the subject of action by partisan political conventions. I opposed equally the efforts of Mr. Bryan for a dry plank and of Tammany Hall for a wet plank, insisting upon a law enforcement plank. The San Francisco convention adopted that policy. I took exactly the same position at New York and at Houston, and both those conventions adopted law enforcement planks. Again today, as the authorized representative of a great body of Christian men and women, I insist that prohibition should not be made a partisan political issue or the subject of a plank in the Democratic platform.

I have just read you that our General Conference calls for the enlistment "of our every power to maintain in full force the Eighteenth Amendment." To recommend, therefore, that the question of prohibition as contained in the Eighteenth Amendment be again submitted to the people for repeal or modification will be resisted to the limit by those whom I represent. Note that we frankly and freely admit that the people have the right to determine this great question, but that it can be done in the way provided by the Constitution, and which has always been followed in connection with every amendment up to the present time. We are willing to go again to the people to insist that Senators and Congressmen be elected who, in turn, will stand for the retention of the Eighteenth Amendment, and will refuse to vote to submit any proposal for its repeal or modification. Such a procedure will give the voice of the people just as it has always been given in the past. We insist that it is not the province of the Democratic Party or the Republican Party to do anything more than to pledge the enforcement of the laws as they exist. To recommend the submission of the prohibition question again in any form, is, in our judgment, (Continued on page 2, Col. 3.)

Personal and Other Items

MARRIED at the parsonage at Wilmar, July 2, Mr. Ed Reynolds and Miss Norma Ramsey, both of Monticello, Rev. J. C. Williams officiating.

I DO NOT believe that secular motives are adequate either to propel or to restrain the children of our race.—William E. Gladstone.

REV. WARREN JOHNSTON, our pastor at Searcy, writes: "Our work here goes well. We have received 65 members into our church since Conference."

GRIT is getting the brain and heart and soul of a man fused for a concerted white-hot attack on failure. Grit is what keeps a fighting man from going stale.—Geo. Matthew Adams.

REV. EDWARD FORREST, our Cabot pastor, has been ill and in the Baptist Hospital in this city for several weeks, but has sufficiently recovered to return to Cabot, and is thought to be on the way to full recovery.

THE annual home-coming of Sardis Church, near Bauxite, will be Sunday, July 10 and Rev. M. W. Miller, our pastor at Gillett, an old Sardis boy, will preach the sermon. All former Sardis people are cordially invited.

REV. JEFFERSON SHERMAN, presiding elder of Batesville District, recently submitted to a serious operation at the Baptist Hospital in Memphis. He is reported as recovering satisfactorily and soon expects to be at home to resume his work.

THE YEARBOOK of our General Board of Missions has just been received. As always, it is filled with interesting and valuable information. Our missionary work is prospering, although seriously handicapped by the decrease in collections. It is highly important that we do our best to improve our collections this year.

OZARK WESLEYAN, a junior college at Carthage, Mo., which took over the work of Missouri Wesleyan College, Cameron, Mo., and Marionville Collegiate Institute eight years ago, has succumbed to prevailing conditions and merged its educational work with Baker University, Baldwin, Kan. Baker will adopt its alumni.—Ex.

BISHOP W. F. ANDERSON, retiring under the age limit at the recent session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has helped to solve the problem of the occupation of a retired bishop. He has become professor of Religion in Carleton College, Northfield, Minn. He will also conduct a weekly seminar in Church History and lead one chapel exercise each week.

MRS. MARY DEAN GREATHOUSE, wife of Dr. B. H. Greathouse, died at their home at Prairie Grove, June 24, and was buried in the Prairie Grove Cemetery on the 25th, Rev. E. E. ARKANSAS METHODIST

All matter for publication should be addressed to the Editor, and should reach the office Monday, or earlier, to insure appearance in the next issue. Obituaries should be brief and carefully written, and five cents a copy should be enclosed if extra copies containing an obituary are desired.

ROGER BABSON, the distinguished financial adviser, says: "Every time a retailer marks down the price of any article he is bringing the next period of prosperity nearer." Having reduced the price of this paper, we trust that we are helping to bring prosperity a little nearer. If our pastors and subscribers will do their duty within the next thirty days, a considerable amount of money will be started on its beneficent journey.

A BUDDHIST chief of police in Korea, anxious about a group of people who had been driven out of their homes by devastating floods and had gone off into an unsettled mountainous section to start a new colony, asked a Methodist preacher to go and preach the gospel to these people, saying that the Christian message was the one thing that could hold these poor people together and keep up their hopes and spirits. What a testimony to Christianity!

ACCORDING to a report in the secular press, Dr. Alfred Worcester, professor of Hygiene, who supervises the health of students at Harvard University, there is less drinking among the students than ever, and during the last five years the decrease in drinking has been notable. A statement by a college authority is of much greater value than one by such a man as Arthur Brisbane, highly paid "wet" syndicate writer, who has been slandering students in his scurrilous paragraphs.

RAILROADS of the Middle West, under the leadership of the Rock Island, beginning June 30, are making another effort to bring back travel to the rails by offering a five-day sale of round-trip tickets at about one cent per mile in coaches and less than two cents per mile in sleeping and parlor cars. The rates, which are below pre-war rates, will apply to all points on the affected railroads. Some railway officials favor a permanent return to pre-war passenger rates and the forthcoming test may determine the future policy.

DR. W. C. WATSON, Presiding Elder of Texarkana District, makes the following interesting report: "Rev. J. W. Rushing, pastor of DeQueen Circuit, has had a revival at Chapel Hill with 42 conversions and 32 additions to our church, the others joining the Baptist Church. Rev. J. D. Baker, our pastor at DeQueen, did the preaching. Brother Baker has recently held two meetings in this District in which he had more than 100 conversions and additions. He is a great revival preacher. Brother Rushing is making a fine start on his new circuit and is loved by all."

REV. W. HARDY NEAL, general evangelist, has just visited the Western Methodist Assembly at Mt. Sequoyah, and is enthusiastic in his praise. He thus expresses himself concerning the need of such an institution: "With road houses and dance pavilions and swimming pools running day and night, whisky-soaked and vice-damned as they are, we need the Assembly with its beauty, its quiet, and its morals and religion for our young people. The whole Ozark region is rapidly becoming the world's most attractive playground. The days for the Ozarks are here. The Lord give us vision to see it and get ready for it."

This book we reviewed some months ago, when Cokesbury Press brought it out as a higher priced book. It was well worth the former price, as it gave in a forceful and no uncertain way the beliefs of many of our leading laymen on questions of vital interest to us all. Now we are glad to call attention to it again as it is a book which cannot lose its timeliness and is an excellent example of the great service the Cokesbury Press is doing in offering so many worthwhile books at prices within the reach of a large number of the reading public.

WILL YOU DO IT?

WE have more than 10,000 subscribers, and think most of them are interested in their paper, or they would have ordered it stopped. We need $2,500 immediately, and if 2,500 subscribers, when they read this, will just send us a dollar bill each, we shall be greatly relieved. If you are in arrears and think we ought to cancel any part of what is due, and will send the dollar and request us to set your subscription up one year from date, we shall gladly do it. Will not 2,500 of our good friends immediately respond? Do not wait for pastor or any one else to call on you, just sit down and send a dollar bill. Will you do it? Please do this, and save us the extra expense of sending out statements.

WHAT ABOUT PROHIBITION?

THE Democratic Convention treated the 18th Amendment even worse than did the Republican Convention. We think both parties have done wrong in making this a political issue; but since they have, we must face it. Until the Board of Strategy has decided what is the proper course for friends of the Amendment to do, we shall make no announcement of policy, except to say that we must not give up the cause of prohibition, and we should concentrate our efforts to elect members of Congress and Legislature who will stand for the dry cause. Let every good Methodist read what Bishop Cannon said to the Democrats, and then prepare to act.

BISHOP CANNON'S STATEMENT

to aid and abet the present-day whiskey rebellion against the existing Constitution. If the people want the Eighteenth Amendment changed, let them speak through their Congressmen and Senators as they have always done in the past. Certainly party conventions should not at this late day attempt to make a partisan issue of prohibition or attempt to bind any member of the party to support any specific action on this great moral, social issue.

The people whom I represent did not hesitate to put moral principles above party loyalty in 1928, as was shown by the electoral votes of Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Florida, Texas, Oklahoma, and we believe of Alabama also, if fairly counted in 1928. These same people will register their conscientious convictions without hesitation, if confronted by a similar issue in 1932.

A telegram just received from Dr. A. J. Barton, Chairman of the Committee on Temperance of the Southern Baptist Convention, which Convention represents nearly four million members (the second largest Protestant denomination in the country) states that at St. Petersburg, Florida, in May a sweeping resolution was adopted calling for the defeat of all candidates for public office who are opposed to the Eighteenth Amendment.

ZONE MEETINGS

We have had two Zone meetings this year. The first one was held in Warren with Mrs. W. O. Pontius as leader. The attendance was small as the river was swollen and some of us drove through running water to get there. The last was held in Wilmar in April, with myself as leader. Had a larger number as the day was fine. Our presiding elder, Rev. J. M. Hamilton, also Rev. Wayne Mann, and our pastor, Rev. J. C. Williams, attended both meetings. Rev. Mr. Bone of Hermitage was at the first.

We plan to meet again in July at Hermitage.—Mrs. W. S. Anderson.

The Okolona Auxiliary observed "Guest Day" by inviting all the ladies of the church to be their guests on the afternoon of June 4. A large number of visitors were present.

Mrs. B. O. Phelps, president of the Auxiliary, welcomed the visitors and explained to them the work of the Society.

The members of the Auxiliary rendered the program as given in the June Bulletin after which Miss Lina Boyce of Dobyville, who has been in the States about a month after a stay of five years in Pernambuco, Brazil, gave a very interesting lecture on the condition of Brazil today. Miss Boyce is a missionary in the Presbyterian Church, but very graciously gave us an afternoon from her work with her people, for which we sincerely thank her.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed by everyone present.—Mrs. J. M. Grier, Cor. Sec.

STUTTGART AUXILIARY GUEST DAY

Stuttgart Auxiliary had a most enjoyable and well attended guest day party at the church June 23, with Mrs. Fred Mahle, president, in charge of committees and leading.

Elms, Mrs. Guy Rowland, Miss Louise Buerkle, Mrs. William Hampton, Miss Virginia Lovell and Mrs. Leonard Blackman. Miss Mildred Moran gave two solos.

After a hymn, Mrs. A. F. Knoll gave the invocation and Mrs. Fred Stephenson and Mrs. Neel the devotional reading. Mrs. W. B. Wall extended a welcome, followed by Mrs. R. P. Menees, who introduced all the past presidents of the Society and presented them with a corsage. In her response Mrs. J. W. Searan gave reminiscences of the early days of the Society and of the first woman's organization which was the Ladies' Aid of the Church started in 1880. Other presidents in the city were Mrs. Paul Daniels, Mrs. R. E. John, and Mrs. Mahle, now in the chair for the third term.

Bits of history taken from the minutes were responses to roll call.

Mrs. Floyd Crouse from a neighboring church and a missionary returned from Chili, was the honor guest speaker. While a dainty plate of salad and punch was passed a printed invitation to join was distributed and several new members signified their interest in membership.

The hostesses were Mrs. Frank Holder, Mrs. W. D. Petty and Mrs. V. Tindal.—Mrs. A. F. Knoll, Reporter.

DR. HELEN S. STAFFORD ACCEPTS POSITION AT GALLOWAY

The friends of Galloway College will be delighted to learn that the aggressive policy of strengthening Galloway College is meeting with such success that a woman of the distinguished scholarship and academic history of Dr. Helen S. Stafford has been secured to head the Department of Foreign Language at Galloway. Dr. Stafford holds the A. B., the A. M., and the Ph. D. degrees from the University of Chicago, and has a distinguished career as a teacher of Modern Language. She has traveled extensively in Europe, has taught in Huron College, South Dakota, at the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, and other places.

DR. EDITH MANGE BECOMES DEAN OF WOMEN AT GALLOWAY

Dr. Mange, a distinguished scholar in History and Social Science, a Ph. D. of the University of Illinois, has just accepted the Deanship of Women at Galloway. Miss Mange lives at Sikeston, Missouri, and last week met the Committee of the Board of Trustees of Galloway at Conway. President Reynolds has just received notice of her acceptance of the position tendered her. President Reynolds is gratified with the acceptance of positions at Galloway of two such distinguished scholars as Dr. Helen S. Stafford and Dr. Edith Mange.

NORTH ARKANSAS TRAINING CONFERENCE

The first Conference-Wide Training Conference of the North Arkansas Young People's Division was held at Searcy, June 20-24, and 150 enrolled of which number 132 received standard training credit.

The following instructors taught in the school: Mrs. C. C. Burton, Miss Sadie Mae Wilson, Sam B. Wiggins, Warren Johnston, Henry Goodloe, H. M. Lewis, and Ira A. Brumley.

While the work of the Assembly was much heavier than that of our former Assemblies, our young people appreciated the fineness of the program and voted to follow the Training Conference plan for next year. Those who looked in upon the Assembly were unanimous in their praise and pronounced it as being by far the best Assembly they had seen.

The following officers were elected to direct the program for the next twelve months: President, Robert Hayes Williams of Danville; Vice-President, Miss Ruth Allison of Alicia; Secretary, Miss Opal Huddleston of North Little Rock; Treasurer, W. D. Murphy, Jr. of Batesville; Publicity Agent, William Wyatt of Jonesboro; Dean of the As-

IN THE PRESCOTT DISTRICT

Continuing the work of Church Institutes, I had the pleasure of working in the Prescott District last week.

Prescott Circuit.—Institutes were held at Carolina, Holly Springs and New Salem on Monday. At Pleasant Ridge, Moscow and Fairview Tuesday. Rev. F. L. Arnold is the pastor and he is in high favor with his people. He had arranged the itinerary and we reached every place where a meeting was planned. Rev. L. E. N. Hundley, the popular Presiding Elder, was with us and made a distinct contribution to each meeting held. Our country people appreciate the fact that their Presiding Elder takes an interest in their welfare.

Only the local Church workers and interested persons were invited. We did not want a crowd. We wanted to talk over the local problems with the workers of that community. This can be done in a small group much better than in a crowd.

We had some fine meetings on this circuit. We arranged to organize a Sunday School at Carolina where no Sunday School has been carried on for several years. At the other places we were able to help our people in matters of better organization, the proper use of the proper literature, in matters of attendance and interest.

Spring Hill Circuit.—Institutes were held at Bethlehem, Hinton and Spring Hill on Wednesday. At Fairview and Rocky Mound on Thursday. Rev. W. F. Campbell is the pastor of this circuit, and he had done some hard work visiting his people and getting ready for the Institutes. Mr. Tommie Lee Brint is the superintendent at Spring Hill. He is the youngest superintendent in the District. Since his election and the reorganization of the Sunday School the attendance has more than doubled, and interest is fine.

One of the best Institutes of the week was held at Fairview, four miles west of Spring Hill. They have the making of a strong country church. With the proper leadership and encouragement and lots of hard work it can be made such.—S. T. Baugh, Ext. Sec.

IN THE CAMDEN DISTRICT

Each Saturday and Sunday during June and July I am with Rev. J. L. Dedman, the Presiding Elder of the Camden District, in a Quarterly Conference on some charge.

Reports of our survey of the charge are made with suggestions which are calculated to encourage our people and lead them to repair, repaint and beautify our country churches, making the church and grounds the beauty spot of the community. Then the matter of church institutes, where we have time enough to talk out the problems of the local community are recommended. Such other suggestions are offered as may encourage and help our fine people in the open country.

It is a source of gratitude to see how our people respond to these suggestions. They want to make the country church stronger and more useful. With encouragement and help they will do it.

One of the most pleasant parts connected with this work is the personal fellowship I have with Brother Dedman and the preachers of the Camden District.—S. T. Baugh, Extension Secretary.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I am only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore, I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

Church News

HOXIE

I spent a Sunday recently with Bro. E. B. Williams and his Spartan-like bunch of men and women, who do not know how to say "We can't," but do know to say "We can." When the Missouri Pacific Railroad moved its shops from Hoxie, it seemed like a death blow, but not so. Hoxie is on the map yet, and there to stay.

Bro. Williams is a strong gospel preacher, in good favor with his people, and they with him. I was entertained by my ardent friend, Hon. Roy Richardson, who is a prominent candidate for prosecuting attorney.

I am at home now, doing as near nothing as any old superannuate ever did. But I am happy in the way, on the way, and all the way. Bless God. I get hungry for souls. Here and here alone is real progress. All growth is from the bottom to the top. Don't get topheavy with dignity, as we old superannuates did in our day.—Jas. F. Jernigan.

WILMAR CHARGE

Our third Quarterly Conference was held at Rock Springs, June 19. Bro. Hamilton, our well beloved presiding elder, came with a good spirit expressing brotherly love and kindness. He brought a helpful message at the morning hour. A fine congregation expressed themselves as enjoying the message. If the writer is any judge of preaching, it was a real message, filled with the Holy Spirit. The Conference was called for 2 p. m. At this hour a small congregation assembled, together with eight members of the Quarterly Conference. Again we were greatly benefited by a message from the P. E.

The superintendent of Sunday Schools made encouraging reports. All schools are progressing nicely. Three of the four are observing the Fourth Sunday Mission Offering. An increase in enrollment and attendance.

Mrs. W. S. Anderson, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, rendered a fine report for the Society; also a good report for the two Leagues. Pastor's report was brief, but helpful in some ways. Congregations have more than doubled in attendance for the present quarter. Spiritual state good; 87 per cent take the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The pastor and people are planning for great revivals at every church. Finances are short. No one seems to have any money, yet we all have plenty to eat. We are all striving to do the best possible. We have many things to be thankful for. Health in general is good and most of our crops are looking well. We all cheer to stand agreed to "be of good cheer, for we believe in God."

After the Conference the pastor and family and P. E. motored to Mt. Tabor, where the elder delivered another fine message to a large congregation.

The meeting at the Mt. Pleasant Camp-ground will commence the last Sunday in August. We hope that preachers from various parts of the Conference will attend and we promise every one an hour to deliver a message. The pastor will be delighted if there are enough preachers to fill the pulpit with a fresh man at every service. Come, Brothers, be on time and stay till the battle is over.—J. Cyclone Williams, P. C.

ELM SPRINGS CHURCH

In studying the source of church leadership in the North Arkansas Conference I find that the Elm Springs Church has an outstanding record.

The following Methodist ministers came directly out of this small church: B. H. Greathouse, P. B. Hopkins, J. R. Hardcastle, J. H. Sturdy, H. K. Braswell, Marion N. Waldrip, W. K. Sherman, J. D. Wasson, T. A. Martin, Thomas Wasson, C. H. Sherman, Jefferson Sherman, and James Ennis.

There are four other preachers coming from the Elm Springs Charge, which is much the same today as it was many years ago: Harvey S. Anglin, Oscar Anglin, D. H. Holland, Alfred W. Wasson.

At least seventeen Methodist ministers came from this one charge.

HOLLY GROVE

The corner stone of the new Methodist Church at Holly Grove was laid with impressive services at a recent date under the direction of the Rev. J. W. Moore, pastor of the church. An impressive address was delivered by the Rev. G. G. Davidson, presiding elder of the Helena District. His subject was, "The Four Corner Stones of Civilization," and he named them: The Home, the Church, the School, and the Law.

Some of the articles that were deposited therein were: The Bible, the Methodist Hymn Book, Discipline, several church periodicals, a short history of the church which was organized in the early sixties, the Arkansas Democrat, the Commercial Appeal, a chip of granite chiseled from the nose of the statute of General Robert E. Lee, now being carved on Stone Mountain near Atlanta, Ga.

Rev. J. W. Moore, pastor of the church placed the stone, then asked Rev. G. G. Davidson, and Rev. Geo. Mason, pastor of the Holly Grove Presbyterian Church, and Mr. E. W. McCollum, the contractor, to place their hand on the stone with the pastor, and he said, "We lay this corner stone of a house to be built and set apart, from all worldly uses, for divine worship, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

The church when completed will cost approximately $10,000, and will be one of the most complete and beautiful churches in this section of the state.—J. W. Moore, P. C.

to her. Next she was married to Thomas Robert Hively. To this union three children were born. Fifteen years ago, Grandfather left his earthly abode and moved to his Mansion in Heaven. Early in life, Grandmother was converted and united with the Methodist Church. She lived a devoted Christian life, which was always a source of inspiration to those with whom she came in contact. Her second husband, being an old-time Circuit rider, she was called upon to experience many trying moments, but, as I have often heard her say, "The harder the cross the brighter the crown." She was willing to give her life a living sacrifice in order that the lost might hear the gospel. Her last years were spent in the home of her youngest son and their loving hands ministered to her every want. She leaves to mourn her loss ten children and a number of grandchildren. She also leaves one step-daughter, Mrs. Nancy Lackey, who was as dear to her as an own daughter. Two step-sons, Rev. John Hively and Rev. Charlie Hively, went on to be with God less than a year ago. For years we looked forward to her visits, but now she is looking forward to our coming and what a happy day that will be.—A Granddaughter, Everne Hunter.

Munn.—The officers and members of the Faulkner County Medical Society adopted the following paper touching the death of Dr. Jesse B. Munn, who died suddenly at his home in Vilonia, May 5, 1932. His health had not been good for some time, but he was up and about and was able to attend to some business up to the time of his sudden heart failure. Dr. Munn was born in Tennessee, March 28, 1854; came to Arkansas at the age of about seven. He was one of the most widely known and highly respected citizens of the county. He served continually for nearly forty years on the school board in the Vilonia District, and gave much of his time and efforts to the development of education in his community. He was a member of the Methodist Church and was always active in its proceedings. He was a member of Green Grove Lodge, F. and A. M., and was buried with Masonic honors. He was present and participated in the organizing of Faulkner County Medical Society on March 24, 1902, and was elected president in 1905. He graduated from the Medical Department of the University of Arkansas in 1899 and continued in practice at Vilonia up to a short time before his death. Dr. Munn represented a class of citizenry well worthy of imitation. Always modest and unassuming in his demeanor, yet true to his friends and just toward his fellowmen, he enjoyed the confidence and respect of those who knew him best, and he was a force for good in his community. In token of our past esteem, we join in sympathy and sorrow with the bereaved family and his many friends.—N. E. Evans, M. T. Smith, J. S. Westerfield, Committee.

Wright.—Miss Florence Stanley was born July 26, 1867 and departed this life May 28, 1932. March 19, 1882 she was united in marriage to Mr. Alex Wright. To this union were born three children, two dying in infancy. Sister Wright was loved and respected by all who knew her. They showed it by their kindness in her last illness. For six weeks she suffered, and for three months her suffering confined her to bed. She never complained, but near the end tried to make life pleasant for those who ministered to her needs. When twelve years of age she was converted and joined the Old Post Oak church on Pea Ridge Circuit, and from that time she taught a class in Sunday School. People who knew her said they never knew her to speak an unkind word of anyone, and never was anything spoken against her. A great character she was. The home of Brother and Sister Wright was the preacher's home. She knew God and loved to be in His service. She was not much in public, but in a quiet way she loved and served God daily. Her membership was at New Home, on the Bentonville Circuit. Her last sufferings were ministered to by loving hands, and she was made as comfortable as possible. She breathed her last on May 28, and her sweet spirit took its flight to be with God. She leaves behind: Her husband, Brother Alex Wright; a daughter, Mrs. Alta Henry of Bentonville; three sisters, Mrs. Belle McCollough, Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Delia Hiner, Bentonville, and Mrs. Hattie Dean, Miami, Okla. Funeral services were conducted in the same building where she was converted, now Valley School, with her pastor, Rev. W. C. Hutton, and Rev. Sam Marrs of Cane Hill, who was a relative of the family. She was laid to rest in the little cemetery on her husband's farm.—A Friend.

FAYETTEVILLE AND THE OZARKS

AN EVENING JAUNT

AMONG THE GARDENS AND FIELDS AND THE BIRDS

When you are in Fayetteville in the Ozarks during the next few weeks we suggest that you take this short trip, west and south of town. Start about an hour before "sun down" and a few minutes will bring you to Farmington from which seventy-three car loads of strawberries were shipped this dry year. Continue five miles farther, make some "S" turns in the highway and stop in that bunch of trees and for a few moments glance around. Yonder is a cabin, picturesque in its make up because logs were used in the original part of the house.

Near the house to the left is a well of the old oaken bucket type. There it is with its windlass and rope with bucket attached, all in perfect working order and if you must you may take a drink of this spring like, sparkling good water, so cool and refreshing.

Leave the car and walk a few rods to the back of the farm, you will pass the orchards, gardens and fields all doing their best to provide food for man and beast. By going through yonder ravine you will observe at a distance a rather dense woods or forest and it will appear more dense for night is rapidly coming on as the sun has already gone behind the Western hill. All is still except an occasional sound of a quail, a robin or other birds that are playfully getting themselves ready for the night. By this time you will sort of feel that the pace of the hustle and bustle of city life is turned, you and your friends are alone with nature. The evening dew is falling and you feel a slightly damp coolness as you walk toward the barn yard where the cows are still standing, having "given up" the milk to the master who has just latched the gate for the night and now is on his way to the house with his pails of treasure.

Would you like to live this kind of a satisfactory contented useful life?

Note—Mr. Winchester, Dixon St. grocer has a farm for sale. Arrange with him to show it to you.

A Child Shall Lead Them

Once upon a time, as the story goes, a man who has traveled extensively in the United States and has lived in Cuba as well, finally settled in Texas. He and wife and their little boy decided to spend a few days of their vacation in Fayetteville in the Ozarks.

One day as they traveled along enjoying the wonderful scenery as they viewed it from the road that is now Highway 71, the little chap looked up and said, "Daddy! let's live here!"

Mr. McIntosh went home, sold out at once, and returned to Fayetteville. He smiles and there is a twinkle in his eye when he says he likes it better every day.

Pack all your troubles in your old kit bag, tie the pucker string tight and come over to the Ozarks.

Note.—Mr. McIntosh is still a photographer. Yes, sir, and he will make for you six small photos for fifty cents and can finish your kodak films, too.
