THE UNION OF BRITISH METHODISM
OUR space has been so occupied with matter that had to be used during the last two months that we have had no opportunity to comment on the notable event which occurred on September 20—the union or merger of the three branches of British Methodism. We quote from an excellent article in the Advocate of our sister Methodism, written by Dr. W. F. Howard, himself a British Methodist:

"When John Wesley died, Methodists in Great Britain formed one family, united in policy as in doctrine. Six years after his death came the first secession. In the next twenty years two evangelistic movements broke away from the Connexion without any quarrel or loss of mutual good will. But in the second quarter of the Nineteenth Century three schisms took place, of increasing size and accompanied by venomous controversy, which did untold harm to the cause of Christ in general, and to Methodism in particular. Within recent years men were still living who remembered the internecine strife of the years 1849-'52, and many of us who have not yet passed the middle zone of life were brought up in the memories left behind by that devastating ecclesiastical quarrel.

"Now the guiding hand of God has brought us to the temple of reconciliation, and all the scattered children of John Wesley within these realms have come together for a great act of thanksgiving and consecration, that henceforth under one name and as members of one society we may carry on the work bequeathed by that apostle of the English-speaking world to the people called Methodists.

"It was in Wesley's Chapel, City Road, London, close to the spot where John Wesley died, that the solemn service was held which led up to the legal enactment of union. That venerable sanctuary was packed from floor to ceiling when the three presidents of the uniting Conferences took their places beneath the famous pulpit. The Rev. W. C. Jackson, president of the United Methodist Conference, opened the service a most beautifully prepared order of devotions, in which ample room was provided for the exercise of free prayer by four ministers and laymen who were called upon to pray in the course of worship. The second part was read by the Rev. Maldwyn Hughes, the last of John Wesley's successors in the chair of that Conference which bore his name. The address was given from Wesley's pulpit by the Rev. William Younger, president of the Primitive Methodist Conference. It might have been thought that a brooding melancholy would rest upon the last service in which Wesleyans, Primitives, and United Methodists could take part.

"United Methodist Church members could not be expected to feel deep emotion, inasmuch as their Church was formed by another union only twenty-five years ago. But the Primitive Methodists were surrendering a denominational tradition which stretches back over a hundred and twenty years, whilst Wesleyan Methodism has an unbroken descent of almost two centuries. However, all such pensive memories must have been laid aside at the several Annual Conferences, for here was nothing but thanksgiving and hope. All were conscious of the amazing love of God that has melted our stubborn prejudices and brought our separate loyalties into harmonious allegiance to the Head of the Church."

If it is possible for our British brethren, after long years of separation and acrimonious discussion, to come together in what seems to be a perfect union, it should be possible for the different divisions of American Methodism also to unite. A plan that will, without humiliation to the Methodist Protestants, the United Brethren, and the Evangelicals, should be possible, as well as the union of the two major Methodisms. We need not a closely articulated ecclesiasticism, which might lead to a Protestant imitation of Romanism, but a federation into which all might enter and yet in some measure preserve their identity and points of value. Constructive minds should be at work on such a plan.

THE NATIONAL ELECTION

THE RESULT of the election was not a surprise, except in the overwhelming majority for the Democratic candidates, and the small vote for the Socialist candidates. It had been evident almost from the beginning of the campaign, that the depression would be the determining factor. When people are in trouble, they think that any change will improve conditions, and they do not always study candidates and party promises; but blindly vote for a change. It is our opinion that the President is a more capable man than Governor Roosevelt; but the latter has a persuasive manner and the faculty of making friends and composing differences, and it is to be hoped that he will be able to lead us out of the wilderness of business confusion and doubt.

The country is extremely fortunate that Mr. Hoover was elected four years ago, because we believe that he has been able to hold the financial situation rather better than Mr. Smith would have done. The Democrats should be devoutly thankful that they did not win in 1928, because the depression was impending and inevitable; and if it had come with a Democrat in the presidency the party would have had to bear the blame, and for years to come would have been looked upon with suspicion. Now, there is bound to come a period of improvement, and the Democrats will get credit for it. Then both the country and the Democratic party are to be congratulated that in the next president, who will take office in March, we shall have a polished and experienced man with a world outlook rather than the half educated and provincial politician who ran in 1928.

It is fortunate for the dry cause that the dry forces did not tie up with President Hoover. Without doubt, if he had come out as a champion of Prohibition, he would again have had the support of most of the dries; but other conditions would have contributed to his defeat, and his opponent's victory could have been regarded as a wet victory. It is better that the party that is for absolute repeal of the 18th Amendment was successful because we believe it will be harder to repeal than to modify. Then the Republican party needed the rebuke that it has received for compromising. Its leaders may yet learn that it does not pay them to pose as wets, for the Democrats under the leadership of alien and urban politicians can beat them at that game. We have it on fairly reliable information that the Democrats did not, before the Republican convention was held, intend to go any further than the Republicans; but emboldened by the position of the Republicans, they decided to stop at no half way measure; hence their plank for absolute repeal.

We are frank to say that dry Democrats who supported Mr. Hoover in 1928 feel now that they were betrayed. In his advisors he put himself in the hands of wets, and consequently his support of the dry cause has not been as vigorous as it should have been, and his failure to champion prohibition openly gave the wets the advantage. There is no question among honest and informed men that enforcement has improved, but not to the extent that was possible. Instead of going down as the hero and champion of Prohibition, President Hoover will go into history as one who won through the help of the dries and then failed to accept their advice and by temporizing lost the place of leadership of a great moral movement. It is always sad when a leader falls below the expectation of his followers.

However our cause is not lost. It has simply suffered a reverse because the politicians have been wiser in their generation than the advocates of Prohibition. Because we believe our cause is right, we have confidence in its ultimate triumph. It will now be necessary to renew the fight and press on to ultimate victory. When the people of America get over their confusion and financial plight, they will not be willing to take beer instead of bread, nor allow the government, either state or national, to become the vendor of that which destroys manhood, degrades womanhood, and crushes childhood. It is time for all good people to support the Anti-Saloon League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

THE annual drink bill of Great Britain (not counting the colonies) is $1,400,680,000 THIS WOULD HAVE PAID THE ENTIRE NATIONAL DEWICIT, making it unnecessary for Great Britain to borrow $400,000,000 from France and the United States and would have left a balance of over HALF A BILLION DOLLARS FOR THE RELIEF OF UNEMPLOYMENT. 79 1/2 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL BRITISH DRINK BILL IS FOR BEER. 40 PER CENT OF ALL BRITISH EXPENDITURES FOR FOOD AND DRINK IS FOR ALCOHOL.—Weekly World News, Santa Anna, (Calif.) July 1, 1932.

THERE is neither reason nor justice in requiring interest, debts, and taxes to be paid in a fixed unit when the return for produce fluctuates in value. Farmers cannot maintain a decent standard of living with rubber money and iron debts. A bushel of wheat does not vary materially from year to year in food value, nor does the capacity of soil and labor to produce. Yet it takes today 4,000 bushels of wheat to satisfy a debt which, when it was incurred, represented only 1,000 bushels of wheat.—Ex.

Personal and Other Items

THE accident policy is still offered with a year's subscription to the paper; but the price is 90 cents, $1.90 for both. Please remember this.

WHEN any of our readers come to the city to spend a night, it will pay them to come to the Methodist Building, 1018 Scott St., and get a room from Mrs. A. O. Evans, at 75c a night. Two in a room at a reduced rate.

REV. R. W. Groves, who as a local preacher has served Princeton Circuit for the last five years, is now in San Antonio, Texas, and his address is 137 Baily Avenue. He will be pleased to hear from Arkansas friends.

SUNDAY morning the editor heard Rev. E. T. Wayland preach a fine sermon to a fine congregation at First Church, N. Little Rock. He has been cordially received and is entering hopefully upon the new year.

REV. Sam M. Yancey, superintendent of the Western Methodist Assembly, is in a meeting this week with the Phoenix Park and Cleveland Avenue Churches, in Kansas City. He has some open dates for evangelistic meetings during the winter months.

REV. Geo. L. McGhehey writes from Leslie: "We are very happy in our new charge. The people have given us a splendid welcome. Thursday night they gave us a fine pounding. The future is bright for a good year. We have a fine people to work with."

REV. J. C. Glenn, pastor of First Church, Pine Bluff, during the session of Little Rock Conference, received a message that his sister, who lived at Mobile, Ala., had died. He left immediately for the funeral. He had the sympathy of the Conference.

THE Board of Stewards of First Church, Fort Smith, recently voted to attend the Sunday night services through the new Conference year, and on the next Sunday night 52 of the 57 stewards were present. That is a worthy example for others to follow.

REV. W. H. Hansford, formerly a member of the Little Rock Conference, now of the St. Louis Conference, writes: "Having served for the past quadrennium at New Haven, it was like leaving home to move from there; but we are glad to come to Bloomfield, the place of my first ministry in Missouri. We have a nice town, a nice people, and a very nice parsonage which is almost new."

THE Industrial News Review of October, published at Portland, Ore., has a very fine article on "Problems of Transportation," by Mr. Carl R. Gray, President of the Union Pacific System. Mr. Gray, the son of the late Prof. O. C. Gray, was born at Princeton, Ark., educated in the University of Arkansas, and is now one of the greatest living railroad officials. In this article he shows how the railroads have been and are hampered by all kinds of legislation and commission regulation, what a record they have in recent years made in efficiency, and how they need relief so that they may maintain themselves for the benefit of the public. This article should have a wide circulation.

All matter for publication should be addressed to the Editor, and should reach the office Monday, or earlier, to insure appearance in the next issue. Obituaries should be brief and carefully written, and five cents a copy should be enclosed if extra copies containing an obituary are desired.

PASTORS, MAKE US HAPPY

All our pastors know that January is to be circulation month for the ARKANSAS METHODIST; but some might prefer to do their work in advance, especially pastors who return. They can make us happy by sending in nice lists before Christmas. They can encourage many of their people to use the paper as a Christmas present to loved ones. Will you do this?

tion, and should be read by those who make our laws.

DR. Wm. H. Phelps, editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, one of the brightest denominational editors in America, writes: "Well, well! You certainly did it on October 27. It is a wonderful issue, and if I could get out an Advocate to correspond with it, I would be satisfied to die in peace."

BISHOP Ainsworth writes: "In view of the recent enlargement of my field of labor which added the Cuba and Holston Conferences to the area of my administration, thus taking me into Cuba and parts of Tennessee, Virginia, as well as Alabama and West Florida, I am returning to my old home in Georgia, it being as convenient to this extended territory as any place. Correspondents will please address me at 379 College Street, Macon, Georgia."

THE National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America will be held in Washington, D. C., December 9-12. Bishop E. G. Richardson, the new president, will make his first address. Dr. McBride, Dr. Cherrington, Dr. A. J. Barton, and Bishop E. H. Hughes will speak. It will be a great occasion. Arkansas should have representatives there. Rev. J. H. Glass, our state superintendent, is seeking to make up a party to go at a reduced cost. If you think of going, correspond with him. His address is 202 Glover building, Little Rock.

REV. E. A. Townsend, formerly a member of Little Rock Conference and a graduate of Hendrix College, now editor of the Poet's Scroll, a national journal of poetry, visited both of our Conferences and has been on the program of several clubs. He is now planning to move from Howe, Okla., to Mt. Sequoyah with his print shop, where, under more favorable auspices, he will continue publishing The Scroll and will establish a School of Poetry. It is hoped that he may have large support in this new enterprise. It is probable that some of the literary organizations of Missouri, Oklahoma, and Arkansas will unite to put on a program this coming summer.

REMEMBER THE ORPHANS

It has become a custom which should never be broken, to remember the children at our Methodist Orphanage on Christmas. Our Conferences are asking every Pastor and every Sunday School Superintendent to take an offering for the Orphans on Christmas Sunday. Make your plans for it. It is the Christ-like thing to do. Remember that it is more blessed to give than to receive, and especially to those whose only return can be love.

BOOK REVIEW.

Doran's Ministers Manual: A Study and Pulpit Guide for the Calendar Year 1933; compiled and edited by Rev. G. B. F. Hallock; published by Round Table Press, Inc., 354 Fourth Ave., New York; price $2.50.

Seven years of consistent service to the ministers of America, England, Canada, and Australia guarantee the quality and the success of the eighth issue of the Manual. Only the genius of the compiler, his restless quest for the best homiletic material available, and his ability to marshal his findings in an orderly array could accomplish the task which he has performed. Through this manual ministers are offered the expert research assistance which every busy and important church-worker needs. Really the book, with its 702 pages, is a veritable cyclopaedia. It contains: 106 sermon outlines, 53 sermons for children, 200 seed-thoughts for sermons, bulletin board slogans, talks on the Sunday School Lessons, 500 choice illustrations, 200 quotable poems, prayers and invocations, suggested hymns, and outlines of talks for midweek services. While no minister can afford to use ready-made sermons, still the best preachers need a book like this with its valuable suggestive and quotable material. By following the course indicated one may avoid getting into ruts.

Carbon Copies: by Octavus Roy Cohen; published by D. Appleton and Co., New York; price $2.

Octavus Roy Cohen needs no introduction to the reading public. For several years he has been entertaining his readers with his amusing short stories of Birmingham negroes, whose psychology he seems to understand. His characters are very much alive and the situations well developed, his dialect rich and colorful, but not always true to the negro dialect to which we have always been accustomed. This collection of short stories well-named "Carbon Copies," offers several hours of relaxation and entertainment and a number of hearty laughs.

Find the Motive; by Jack Woodford; published by Ray Long and Richard R. Smith, Inc., New York; price, $2.

This is a mystery tale with a slightly different flavor. You will, if you like playing the part of detective, enjoy trying to determine which of the several guests present at the time of the crime, actually committed the crime? You will be able to find a strong enough motive to throw suspicion on each one involved. The interest is cleverly sustained and the characters well drawn. The book will furnish some hours of relaxation and entertainment and drive home the truth that close investigation should precede fixing the crime where there is no direct evidence.

Red Shadow; by Patricia Wentworth; published by the J. S. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia; price $2.00.

This volume gives a very good idea of the possible dangers and horrors of a war in the future, when all the inventions and secrets of science might fall into the hands of wicked men ambitious for power. There is a plot, a love story, and adventure enough scattered through the pages to entertain and hold the readers interest until he reaches its happy ending.

PLAINVIEW AUXILIARY

The Plainview Woman's Missionary Society observed the Week of Prayer with the following program Sunday night, November 6th, which was well attended.

Song by choir: "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Prayer and Scripture. Matt. 7:7-14, Mrs. Holland.

Poem on Prayer, Mrs. Evans.

A talk concerning prayer, Mrs. Ben Hunt.

Prayer, C. C. Albright.

The Story of Sarah Esther Case, Mrs. Lena Ballenger.

Song, "The Sparrow," R. B. Chitwood.

Story of Ewha College, Seoul Korea, Mrs. Ben Hunt.

Piano Solo, Helen Burnett.

Talk on the French Mission School, Houma, La., Mrs. Evans.

A beautiful description of the place was given by Mrs. Fred Shelton.

Offering by Miss Velma Albright and Ruth Burnett. Closing song by choir.

"One More Day's Work for Jesus," with Miss Helen Burnett at the piano and Miss Madine Booker, cornet. Dismissed by prayer, by Mrs. Ballenger.—Reporter.

PINE BLUFF FIRST CHURCH AUXILIARY

The Society met Nov. 7 at 2:30 in the Prayer Meeting Room of the Church. Mrs. E. C. Cochran, president, presided. The meeting was opened with concert singing. Mrs. F. E. Renfrow at the piano. Mrs. J. B. Bassett gave the Devotional from the fifteenth Chapter of John. The Secretary's report was read by Mrs. H. F. Johnson. Mrs. W. J. Roland reported on the recent District meeting at Stuttgart. Mrs. V. D. Webb, our District Secretary in her own gracious manner expressed her appreciation to First Church Auxiliary for their splendid cooperation. Mrs. A. G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the following slate, all of whom were elected and will be installed in the December meeting: Mrs. E. C. Cochran, President, Mrs. A. R. Cooper, Vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Rec. Secretary, Mrs. W. D. Jones, Con. Treasurer, Mrs. Virgil Berry, Local Treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Johnson, Sup. of Pub., Mrs. J. R. Sanders, Mission and Bible Study, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Social Service, Mrs. Dave Chalmers, Supt. of Supplies.

Mrs. Cochran will serve her second year as President of the Auxiliary. Under the splendid leadership of this consecrated and deeply spiritual woman First Church Auxiliary looks forward to the best year of its history. Looking back over the years work, which has been a year of pleasant association and helpful cooperation from all the Circles, under the guiding and encouraging influence of this truly Christian woman the Society had made a splendid showing in local and connectional work. Some of the outstanding things:

Twice hostess to the brotherhood, sponsored relief work for Bro. Musser, who lost his house and everything in a fire, was hostess to the Woman's District Missionary Institute, sent a large group of representatives from First Church to the Pastor's District Conference at Sheridan, was hostess to the High School graduates and returning college students of First Church at a beautiful banquet given on the sixth of June at the home of Mrs. W. E. Burnham, was hostess to all the Circles and the various clubs of the Church at a Spring Tea given in the home of Mrs. John C. Glenn, has rendered helpful service at the Community House. In June the Society sent Miss Sarah Yarbrough to the Young Peoples' Institute at Monticello for four days, shared the expense of sending Mrs. W. F. Woodward to Mt. Sequoyah for two weeks to the Mission and Bible Training School, sponsored the sending of Miss Hallie Gertrude Oates to the Young Peoples' Leadership Training School at Mt. Sequoyah for two weeks, has raised $30 for the Kingdom Extension, sent more than $700 to the Conference, paid $25 on Superannuated Pastor's home, has paid out through the local treasurer more than $200, sent a large representation and assisted in the recent District meeting at Stuttgart, served a banquet to the delegates of the recent W. C. T. U., observed the week of Prayer and completed the mission study book, and observed Harvest Day program directed by Mrs. J. B. Talbot.—Mrs. H. F. Johnson.

DANVILLE AUXILIARIES OBSERVE WEEK OF PRAYER

A large crowd enjoyed a joint meeting of the Woman's Missionary Societies' which was held at the Methodist Church, Sunday evening Nov. 6, in observance of "The Week of Prayer."

The following interesting program was given:

Scripture Reading—91 Psalm, Mrs. Buford Compton.

Special Music—Miss Hazel Lewis.

"The Story of Miss Esther Case."

—Mrs. Baxter Gatlin.

Special Music—Mrs. Sam Morse.

"Week of Prayer"—Mrs. Eric Caviness.

"The McDonald French Mission School"—Mrs. D. F. Webb.

Quartet—"Tell Mother I'll Be There"—Messrs. R. F. Waters, N. G. Hunnicutt, Lynn Wilson and J. I. Cowger.

"The New Ewna College"—Mrs. Grady Hudson.

Offering—Misses Willo Gatlin and Faye Sharpe.

Special Music—Mrs. R. P. Lewis.

"A Thought for the Week"—Mrs. Buford Compton.

Benediction—Mrs. A. Keathley.—Mrs. Grady Hudson, Reporter.

ZONE MEETING AT MONTICELLO

The Zone meeting was held in Monticello Oct. 7 with visitors from Warren and Wilmar.

The devotional was led by Dr. Rex Wilkes. Mrs. W. H. Finn, president of the Monticello Auxiliary was leader of the program sponsored by the Monticello society. Mrs. W. S. Anderson president of Zone Number 1 presided over a brief business session. After the roll call and minutes of preceding meeting was read she appointed a nominating committee to nominate officers for 1933. The program that followed was much enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour.

The nominating committee reported and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. S. Anderson; Secretary, Mrs. H. D. Wharton. The next Zone meeting will be held at Wilmar in January.—Lillian B. Hogue, Secretary.

AN APPRECIATION OF MRS. F. H. BOND

God in his providence has removed from our midst Mrs. Fred H. Bond, long a loved, honored, and useful member of our Stephens Auxiliary.

In the going away of this sister beloved our society has suffered a loss which is costly and which by us is keenly felt.

Our whole church suffers also a serious loss in the death of this useful and conscientious Christian woman.

We wish to express our admiration of those gifts of mind which marked her for leadership among us and for those elements of charm which made her little short of the ideal friend and companion.

We desire to testify as to the great value of her life and work. It is in the treasury where God keeps his jewels and will appear in all its glory at that day when we stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

We would remember the lessons of the good life which our departed sister led before us, lessons of good cheer and sunny heartedness in life's shadows, of diligence in duty, of fidelity to conviction, of joyous and zestful living heartily as unto God and steady growth in grace; and we would recommend her loved ones to the rich and sweet consolation of our gospel.—Mrs. J. T. Rogers, Mrs. Emma Brooks, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Committee.

LITTLE ROCK, ASBURY AUXILIARY OBSERVES WEEK OF PRAYER

The Woman's Missionary Society of Asbury Methodist Church held their Week of Prayer service on Thursday, November 10. The morning service opened at ten o'clock, with Mrs. R. M. Shelton leader. During the few minutes of silent meditation preceding the service, appropriate music was played softly by Mrs. James Allen. A beautiful and inspiring devotional was given by Mrs. Leonard Foutch; using Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, followed by prayer offered by Mrs. C. E. Gray. After a special vocal number by Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Shelton led the season of prayer. Mrs. Louis Sanders brought the story of the McDonnell School at Houma, La., and was aided in the presentation of the story by a beautiful poster designed by Miss Mildred Haynes. Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. Frank Simmons for the deaconesses serving our mission schools in the United States, and the missionaries abroad. The Week of Prayer offering was made at this time and the service closed with prayer by Mrs. J. G. Bowman.

Following luncheon the afternoon session opened with Mrs. H. L. Lambert leader. The 91st Psalm, said to have been the favorite of Miss Esther Case, missionary, was read. The story of her life was given by Mrs. P. K. Rice, with Mrs. J. R. Fair, a guest and first cousin of Miss Case, adding some interesting personal experiences in her life. Mrs. W. E. Robey read a beautiful prayer and Mrs. Dewey Glasscock told a story of an answer to prayer. Mrs. Lambert presented Mrs. Wm. Carmichael and Mrs. J. E. Hopson in a vocal duet accompanied on the piano by Mrs. M. W. Marshall. Mrs. Fred Strickland gave a very interesting account of Ewha College, located in Korea. Mrs. Lambert concluded the service with prayer, after which Mrs. E. P. Ingram, president, gave those in attendance an opportunity to make their gifts to the Week of Prayer specials. Guests of the afternoon included Mrs. Byron Goodson of DeQueen and Mrs. C. E. Bennett. The benediction was pronounced by Mrs. D. T. Cheairs.—Mrs. O. V. Ortmeier, Pub. Chairman, Asbury Miss. Society.

SILOAM SPRINGS AUXILIARY

Mesdames Addie Smiley and C. J. L. Beesley were co-hostesses Friday afternoon at the business and social meeting of the Missionary Society held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Smith, East Jefferson Street. Mrs. E. F. Smith led the devotional from Psalm 24.

The society voted to observe a Day of Prayer on Nov. 11 in an all-day meeting.

During the social hour a handkerchief shower was presented to Mrs. C. E. Bennett, president, who is leaving this week for Little Rock. Each of the twenty members present and the guest, Mrs. F. R. Hamilton, wrote President Reynolds left Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Western Division of the Liberal Arts College Movement in Omaha, Nebraska. He is chairman of the findings committee, whose duty it is to classify all the financial information brought out by the research of all college presidents west of the Mississippi.

The string ensemble has been re-organized and new members added, according to Miss Katherine Lincoln, instructor in violin and violoncello. A bass and violoncello have just been purchased by the college and by their addition a full string choir is now made possible.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO STUDY HOME AND FOREIGN MISSION ENTERPRISE DECEMBER 11

The Young People of the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conference are directing all their mission pledges to the Home and Foreign Mission Enterprise. Forty and one-half percent of this goes to support the fine work being done for our country churches under the direction of Brother Baugh and Brother Sanford. The remainder goes to support the foreign missionary work of our Church. Our young people have been loyal and sacrificial in their giving to this cause. They are entitled to know all the facts about the work they are supporting. Hence they will be happy to know that the Epworth League program for December 11, appearing in the December issue of the Highroad, is given over to a study of this enterprise. Miss Sadie Mai Wilson has prepared the program and this guarantees that it will be interesting and full of facts. Miss Wilson has had personal contacts with the foreign work. In order to make the program complete our young people should read the thrilling story of our country work by our Extension Secretaries appearing in next week's issue of the Arkansas Methodist. Miss Wilson gives most of her space to the foreign side of the program. Let's all pull together and make Sunday evening, December 11, a red-letter occasion in our League services.—Clem Baker.

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

APPRECIATION

I desire to give public expression to my very deep appreciation of the kindnesses of my friends during my recent great grief. The many telegrams, letters, personal words of sympathy, and lovely floral offerings help me bear the sorrow.—John C. Glenn.

BANQUET AT MIDLAND HEIGHTS CHURCH, FT. SMITH

On Thursday evening, November 3, the Midland Heights Methodist Church was the scene of a most happy gathering, the occasion being that of a banquet given in honor of all the former pastors, presiding elders and their wives.

Covers were laid for one hundred guests.

The banquet tables were most beautiful in a profusion of autumn flowers and soft colored lights. A color note of green and yellow predominated. The menu was elaborate wholesome, and satisfying, prepared and served by the ladies of the Midland Heights Church.

Prof. C. E. Beard presided as toastmaster and an impromptu program was presented in which a number of former pastors and presiding elders related happy experiences of their associations with the people of this church in former years.

It was with sadness that the church noted the absence of two of their most beloved pastors, Rev. Mr. Martin and Rev. Mr. Hively, these two members having passed to their eternal reward.

The whole affair was declared by all present to be an outstanding success.

The following ministers and wives, with a number of additional friends, were present: Rev. W. T. Thompson (first pastor), Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Faust, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Cline, H. H. Griffin, Rev. and Mrs. M. F. Johnson, Floyd Villines, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, Rev. and Mrs. H. O. Bolin, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Shelby.

The Midland Heights Church was organized in 1901 with a charter membership of ninety members growing out of a great revival held by Rev. W. T. Thompson. It is today one of the leading Methodist Churches of Ft. Smith.—Reporter.

"THE ANGEL" OF THE CONFERENCE

Known as "The Angel of the Conference" and "The Man With the Bible," Rev. D. H. Colquette, superintendent of Institutional Mission Work of the Little Rock Conference of Methodist Churches, has been one of the outstanding figures at the church session here this week.

During the last year, Mr. Colquette has visited every jail in the state, many of them several times. His full report shows 115 towns visited, and visits to 275 institutions mainly jails. He held 261 services, donated 1859 Scriptures, 1506 books, 6591 papers, and 4682 magazines. During the year he traveled 12,542 miles, obtained 58 members, 77 professions and baptized 24 adults and 13 children.—Texarkana Gazette.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH MAKES NOTABLE STRIDES UNDER SLOANE'S LEADERSHIP

During the five and one-half years that Bentley Sloane has been director of religious education at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the church school has undergone expansion in all of its departments, and its program of achievement has attracted the interest of other church schools in the South.

Mr. Sloane has resigned to enter Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Tex., to complete work for an M. A. Degree. He came to the church in 1925 after graduating from Centenary College at Shreveport, La. He served the Epworth League Union of Greater Little Rock as president one year and since has aided that organization in an advisory capacity. The young people of the First Methodist Church will entertain at a reception in his honor Thursday at 8 p. m. at the church.

A board of Christian education was organized by Mr. Sloane soon after he assumed the duties of director of religious education. Following the suggestion of the board, the Epworth League and the young people's department were united under one counselor and one administration, which has resulted in a better age grouping and in the organization of two classes for young adults. The combined membership of the two classes is 163.

In 1928, the Intermediate-Senior Department was organized into Junior High and Senior High Departments to make possible better grading in study and worship. The departments have increased their efficiency and membership almost 100 per cent within the last three years and a plan has been worked out whereby more college students are kept within the program of the church.

In the Children's Division, the work of the Sunday School Missionary Society and certain Boys' and Girls' Clubs have been built into one program, which ministers to the whole needs of the growing child. The organization of a mothercraft class was the first step taken in inaugurating a program of parent-training and home co-operation. Later a Parent-Teacher Association was organized. This proved to be a pioneer piece of work and received recognition of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The Board of Christian Education, after two years of experimentation, has evolved a plan to enlist the interest of more parents through a parent Club in each of the seven departments, which meets when the occasion arises and handles the problems of that department. The chairman is a member of the department staff and of the Parent Council, which serves as a general committee on home co-operation.

The first vacation church school for children was promoted in 1928. Since 1929 First Church has combined with Winfield Church in holding the annual vacation school. The five schools that have been held show an average enrollment of 175 with a teaching staff of 25, Mr. Sloane said.

First Church has made a start toward church dramatics and pageantry in a small way, and the annual Christmas pageants have become an effective part of the church program. Dramatizations also are given at other times of the year. The Church Board of Christian Education has appointed a church director of pageantry, who works in connection with the young people's department. Staging equipment has been bought for the presentation of plays.

The educational building was remodeled in 1929 to meet the requirements of an A grade of work and to care for eight departments. The remodeled building provided room for three new departments and 12 new classrooms. Four departments in the Children's Division have expanded to the maximum of their rooms.

From two mixed teams of First Church playing indoor baseball at the L. M. C. A. five years ago has grown a city-wide church recreation program using the facilities of the Y. M. C. A. and embracing 24 churches of seven denominations. The program extends throughout the year and includes basket ball, baseball, volley ball and tennis.

Four hundred members of First Methodist Church have taken training for leadership in religious work through training classes and general training schools and almost 100 young people have taken advanced study for leadership in the church.

The present staff of church school workers includes 90 teachers, superintendents and officers, who are trained to carry on the religious education program of the modern church.—Arkansas Democrat.

OBITUARY

Chenault.—Mrs. Mollie D. Chenault, wife of the late E. N. Chenault of Fourche Dam, was born in McLemoresville, Tenn., February 18, 1848, the daughter of Dr. Micajah Fly, and Mrs. Lizzie Smith Fly. She passed to her reward from Granite Mountain Hospital, March 16, 1932.

She was converted in early childhood and joined the Presbyterian Church and later the Methodist Church.

She was always faithful to her church, family and home. The long years of her widowhood she leaned on Christ and the Bible.

She was strictly a woman of the old school. She never voted, and belonged to but one club. Her community club, was organized in her home, and was one of the first in Pulaski County. Her funeral was preached from Hunter Memorial Church, where she had been a member 34 years by Rev. J. A. Henderson and Rev. W. W. Nelson.

She is survived by three children, Mrs. S. P. Junkin, Gay N. Chenault, and Don. J. Chenault, and by twelve grandchildren and two great grandchildren.—Her Daughter.

NOW! EASE A SORE THROAT INSTANTLY

Feel Rawness, Irritation, Go At Once

These Pictures Tell You What To Do

Crush and Dissolve 3 Bayer Aspirin Tablets in Half a Glass of Water.

2

GARGLE Thoroughly—Throw Your Head Way Back, Allowing a Little to Trickle Down Your Throat.

3

Repeat Gargle and Do Not Rinse Mouth, Allow Gargle to Remain on Membranes of the Throat for Prolonged Effect.

Remember Only Medicine Helps A Sore Throat

Modern medical science now throws an entirely new light on sore throat. A way that eases the pain, rawness and irritation in as little as two or three minutes.

Results are among the most extraordinary in medical science. On doctors' advice, millions are following this way . . . discarding old-time "washes" and "antiseptics." For it has been found that only medicine can help a sore throat.

Simple To Do. All you do is crush and dissolve three BAYER Aspirin Tablets in half a glass of water. Gargle with it twice—as pictured above. If you have any indication of a cold—before gargling take 2 Bayer Aspirin Tablets with a full glass of water. This is to combat any signs of cold that have gone into your system. Keep on taking if cold has a "hold." For Genuine Bayer Aspirin will not harm you. Your doctor will tell you, it does not depress the heart. Get a box of 12 or a bottle of 100 at any drug store.

Reduces Infection, Eases Pain Instantly. Gargling with Bayer Aspirin will do three things: Relieve soreness at once. Allay inflammation. AND—reduce infection; which is the important thing in fighting a sore throat.

It requires medicine—like BAYER ASPIRIN—to do these things! That is why throat specialists throughout America are prescribing this BAYER gargle in place of old-time ways. Results are quick and amazing.

Be careful, however, that you get real BAYER Aspirin Tablets for this purpose. For they dissolve completely enough to gargle without leaving irritating particles. Watch this when you buy.
