A DASTARDLY DEED

THE attempt upon the life of President-elect Roosevelt, by a man whose motive was hate of those in high place and more fortunate than himself, was a dastardly deed. Fortunate are we that his aim was bad and his purpose thwarted. Regardless of party or faith, the people of the whole world would have been hurt by the death of the man who is expected soon to take charge of our government and try to improve the conditions in which the world finds itself today. Roosevelt is dead wrong on the question of Prohibition; but he is a man of courage and resourceful mind, and people of all parties are looking hopefully to his administration. Although there is danger in the concentration of power, still the movement to give him a free hand in reconstructing our federal organization and reducing expenses, meets our approval. To lose such a man at the very hour when he was preparing to undertake the largest task that has ever been given to one mere man would have been a world calamity of enormous magnitude. We cannot be too profoundly grateful that the assassin missed his mark, and that Roosevelt still lives. May he live long and lead us out of the slough of doubt and difficulty and despair into which we have fallen.

APPRECIATED ACTION OF OUR LEGISLATURE

LAST week, almost at the same hour that the United States Senate voted to end Prohibition, the two Houses of our State Legislature voted in such a way as to meet the approval of thousands of law-abiding citizens. The Senate, by the decisive vote of 28 to 5, refused to pass the Abingdon Bill to legalize wine and beer, and the House, by a vote of 62 to 30, adopted the Kelley Bill to repeal the objectionable 90-day divorce law enacted two years ago. It is to be hoped that the Senate will also approve the repeal bill. In behalf of the people who do not believe in commercializing the good name of our State, we express hearty appreciation of the action of the two Houses on these measures. After this demonstration of the moral tone of the Legislature, we shall expect the defeat of the Race-Track Gambling Bill if it comes up for passage.

PROHIBITION REPEAL

THE two Houses of Congress, by far more than the required two-thirds vote of each, have adopted a resolution providing for submission of repeal of the 18th Amendment to conventions for ratification. In this they have done what the party conventions demanded. Now there is talk of the passage by Congress of a law which would indicate how and when the state conventions should be called. As the Constitution of the United States does not prescribe any method and does not authorize Congress to do so, it would be an assault on the sovereignty of the States to undertake to force them in any way to act. When ratification was by Legislature, Congress did not attempt to dictate to the States. Now that ratification is to be by conventions there is less reason for Congress to undertake in any way whatever to control the votes of the States. Then it would be thoroughly inconsistent for the Democrats, who have been clamoring for a return of the question to the States, to use any influence to have the States to ratify. It would be a terrible precedent, because under the Constitution it was intended that the States should be absolutely free in their action. Congress now has done all that it has any right to do and the effort to give it not only power to submit an amend-

FOR THE WHICH CAUSE I ALSO SUFFER THESE THINGS; NEVERTHELESS I AM NOT ASHAMED; FOR I KNOW WHOM I HAVE BELIEVED, AND AM PERSUADED THAT HE IS ABLE TO KEEP THAT WHICH I HAVE COMMITTED UNTO HIM AGAINST THAT DAY. —I Tim. 1:12.

THE VALUE OF THE CHURCH PRESS

BISHOP F. J. McCONNELL, one of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church and one of the most profound thinkers of America, says: "Every day of my experience as a church administrator increases my sense of the value of religious journalism. Much well intentioned and serious-minded religious feeling is at the present time failing to make strong impact for good through sheer lack of religious information and education. The grossest misunderstanding abounds, the most inadequate conceptions prevail, simply because the people are depending upon the secular newspapers and magazines for information concerning religious matters. I would be the last to disparage the importance of such secular publications. They are doing an indispensable work, but their utterances are lamentably lacking in the realm of religious thought. Nothing has taken the place of the distinctively religious paper as a medium of imparting information and of creating sound religious understanding. If the religious press is not supported, we shall experience a lack in religious effort—a lack which nothing but the religious press can fill."

Even The New York World has said: "Where next is to be found the real force in America? I answer that it exists in the church membership and attendance which is large, liberal and progressive, and this great body of men and women is reached by the religious press. The religious press can do more to preserve liberty than any other factor in the land."

In view of these facts, shall we not fail to do our pressing duty if we neglect to circulate the religious paper? What do our pastors say?

ment, but virtually to force the States to act, and to act in any particular way, is a dangerous movement, and should be opposed even by conscientious and patriotic men who favor return of the liquor question to the States.

In voting on the repeal resolution, Senator Hattie W. Caraway and Congressman W. J. Driver are recorded against it, and we honor them for their determination to vote their convictions on this great moral issue. No party mandate should bind a representative of the people on any distinctively moral question. It is to be regretted that our senior Senator and five other Congressmen voted for repeal when it is well known that all of them were elected as drys, and that even President-elect Roosevelt would absolve members of Congress from voting against the wishes of their constituency, and that the State platform did not indorse the wet plank in the platform. We think that these members have made a fundamental mistake and will live to regret it.

If State Conventions are to ratify, there should be a method by which, in electing delegates, the people should vote on the question itself and that vote should be instruction to the Convention. That is the only way that a true referendum can be held. We hope our Legislature will adopt a law providing for such a method, and a method that will be so fair that it could be used in ratifying amendments when submitted. We believe our people should be permitted to pass on the question in a manner that will be non-partisan and free from liability to political tricks.

RACE-TRACK GAMBLING

IT is to be hoped that a Legislature that has set a high mark on moral questions can not pass a law now that would inevitably result in the debauching of thousands of our people. That the pari-mutuel system of betting on races would bring some revenue is admitted, but at terrible cost. In Maryland, in 1928, before the depression, the State received $803,042 from race-tracks, but, to get it, bets amounting to $60,000,000 passed through the machine. In Illinois, the same year, race-track betting brought $614,169, but the betting amounted to $50,000,000. It is well known that the operators of the tracks, by telephones, are connected with dives and pool-rooms in distant communities where this betting is carried on. Prof. Jerome Davis of Yale University has compiled statistics showing that in one year in Maryland, while $50,000,000 were bet in the legalized machines, $160,000,000 were wagered in the pool-halls and dives, and he estimated that the unlawful betting was carried on in about the same proportion in other States.

According to Professor Davis, after the Rothstein murder in New York, detectives looking for suspects in Miami, Fla., found in the shelter of the "honest" gambling institutions some 80 criminals wanted in New York.

Dr. E. F. Miller of Concord, N. H., visited a certain grammar school in a State where the pari-mutuel machines were operating, and found the children pooling their money and sending their representatives to bet on the races.

Can we in Arkansas afford to expose our children and youth to this infectious moral disease for the few thousand dollars it might bring?

HEROIC DAYS AND DEEDS

THE deeds of daring done in war are magnified and made to seem heroic when often they are performed under circumstances which make the reverse next to impossible. The really heroic deeds are those that are done when it would be easy and not dishonorable to yield and run away. We have come to days when real moral courage and high resolve are necessary. When one's income is reduced and all is needed to keep up with the style followed in prosperous days, it is far easier to withhold from church and school and various benevolences than it is to continue to contribute. A few dollars more or less is inconsequential in the period of prosperity. A few cents now may require real sacrifice. For many years many of us lived in semi-luxury, enjoying as daily benefits much that had been denied our fathers. Now comes the pinch. We must choose between these unnecessary, but pleasant and accustomed things and the things of the higher life. It takes more real courage for most men to wear a shabby garment and discard tobacco and fashionable functions than to face a battalion of soldiers. But these sacrifices of the unnecessary things for the sake of the Kingdom develop character and draw us nearer together and closer to our heavenly Father.

Our Church, with all of its uplifting institutions, should mean more to us than any of the fleshly pleasures which, however harmless in themselves, contribute nothing to individual or social

Personal and Other Items

PRESIDING ELDER J. M. HAMILTON announces that Monticello District Conference will meet at Warren, May 9-10.

REV. V. B. UTLEY, whose address has been Senath, Mo., wants his friends to know that he is now living at Cardwell, Mo.

ON invitation of Principal H. F. Dial of Pine Bluff High School, the editor, on Wednesday of last week, addressed the students on Forest Conservation. It is a fine body of young people. Pine Bluff has a splendid school system under excellent management.

RENEWING his subscription, Mr. W. H. Lark, a member of the well-known Lark family, who now lives in El Paso, Texas, says that he expects to take the paper as long as he lives and absence for 20 years has not lessened his interest in the paper and the Church in Arkansas.

REV. W. R. JORDAN is planning an automobile trip to Washington, D. C., leaving Pine Bluff March 1, and remaining over for the great Prohibition Conference. He wants one more in his party. The cost of transportation will be $20. Address him at 610 Dakota St., Pine Bluff.

OUR friends will greatly oblige us if they will promptly remit on subscription when their address label shows that their payment is due. Do not wait for other notice, as it is expensive and ought not to be expected. Please co-operate with your pastors in increasing our readers.

THE parsonage at Earle and all of its contents were destroyed by fire Sunday morning, Feb. 12, at 10:30 o'clock, while the pastor, Rev. M. N. Johnston, and family were at Sunday School. Nothing was saved except a few water-soaked books. The parsonage was insured, but there was no insurance on the furniture. Bro. Johnston had some insurance on his own household goods.

THE Association Against the Prohibition Amendment reported to Congress that it spent $364,544 in 1932, with receipts amounting to $360,757. Of this amount, Lamont du Pont, of Delaware, gave $55,000; Irene du Pont, $32,000, and Pierre S. du Pont, $57,000, or a total of $144,000, in addition to loans of $11,000, so that the wealthy du Ponts contributed between a third and a half of the whole amount raised to fight the prohibition law of the land. The National Prohibition Board of Strategy, on the other hand, collected $38,735, of which about $25,000 came from dime contributions.

THE General Minutes and Yearbook for 1932-33 for our Church is just out. It is edited by Curtis B. Haley, who has done this work efficiently for many years. It contains the Condensed Minutes of all the Annual Conferences, and a vast amount of interesting and useful information. Every preacher needs it on his desk for constant reference, and many laymen should have it, especially all lay-leaders. The price is 75 cents, and it may be ordered from Whitmore & Smith, Agents of our Publishing House, Nashville and Dallas.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

MARRIED, Feb. 1, in Raleigh, N. C., Rev. B. T. Williams, pastor of our church at Valley Springs, and Miss Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Randolph, of Raleigh.

THE task of bringing forth a Christian social order requires education as well as evangelization. A man needs not only to live the Christian life in his individual personal relationships, but in his corporate relations to society. He must be Christian in his political and economic attitudes and activities. His Christianity must touch redemptively and creatively every part of life.—Richard Roberts.

A few years ago while Mr. Edison was at his laboratory at Fort Myers, Fla., Roger Babson called on him. When asked what new radical invention he visualized as coming during the next few years, Mr. Edison replied: "Babson, I do not pose as a preacher; but let me tell you that if there is a God he will not let us advance much further materially until we catch up spiritually. A great fundamental law of science is that all forces must be kept in balance. When anybody or force goes off on a tangent there is a smash. This applies to America as it has to every nation before it."—The Watchman-Examiner.

WHEN we see the president of a great Eastern university, prominent church leaders in one or two great churches, along with distinguished jurists, statesmen, political leaders and popular writers, lending their genius and names to defend, directly or indirectly, the infamous liquor business, we feel that they have plainly read history in vain, or with perverted vision, if they cannot see that all their time, strength, and brains spent in the defense of rum with its "refuge of lies" will avail them nothing, except the contempt of the world in coming years. The States alone cannot settle this question.—Civic Bulletin.

LAST Sunday, after addressing the fine young Adult Class taught by Mrs. Reynolds, the editor had the privilege of preaching to a fair congregation of our church at Wynne, of which Rev. J. A. Reynolds is the capable and vigilant pastor. At 3:00 p. m., having been transported by Bro. Reynolds, he had the pleasure of preaching to a small but unusually fine congregation at Vann-dale, five miles north; and at night visited and briefly addressed the Wynne Epworth League. Being at his Q. C. at Cherry Valley, Rev. I. D. McClure, our vigorous pastor at Vann-dale, was not present, but his people spoke in complimentary terms of him and his work. Vann-dale, a small, but progressive village, with a splendid consolidated school and imposing building and pretty church, was, before the railroad arrived, the county seat of Cross County. It is still a good community in which to live. Wynne, the present county seat, is a strong commercial and railroad center, with impressive business houses and comfortable homes. It is vigorously resisting depression. Our church there is strong, aggressive, and hopeful. Its greatest handicap is a debt, hard to handle under present conditions. Succeeding that hard-working pastor, Rev. W. L. Oliver, Bro. Reynolds found a well-organized and loyal people, and he and they are planning for a good year. They are working for a nice list of subscribers. The editor had a thoroughly enjoyable day.

growth in spirituality. The time has come for discrimination, for reappraisal of the things which we use. In the era of luxury through which we have just passed spiritual life was toned down and material things bulked large. If we had used our material possessions for spiritual purposes, it is practically certain that our materialistic civilization would not now be breaking down. If we had recognized God and His cause more fully with our possessions, it is doubtful whether He would have permitted them to be swept away. If we had been good stewards, we could have been trusted to produce more and enjoy even greater benefits; but we used our material things selfishly, often swinishly, and now they are taking wings and leaving us in the wreck of the structure which we have been so recklessly building.

It is time for rethinking our personal programs and pursuits. It is time to get God's view of life, time to think of soul-saving and soul-building instead of eating and drinking and rich raiment and fine furnishings. Unless there are daring deeds in the realm of spirit, unless men are willing to sacrifice luxury for the sake of the Kingdom, still more perilous days are ahead. Congress and Legislature. President and Governor, cannot restore prosperity unless we as a people repent of our folly and turn from our foolish ways, promising our Lord more faithful service and making richer sacrifices for his cause. Let us go to our knees before God and not attempt to go longer unguided by spiritual light.

THE VALUE OF THE CHURCH.

It ever is true, what we've given we have,
That giving to God is the real way to save,
That treasures on earth either rust or destroy,
While investments with God we forever enjoy.
The Church's importance can ne'er be expressed.
Come forward, ye people, and in her invest.
She increases merit and amplifies worth,
And values eternal does ever unearth.
—D. H. Keyes in Michigan Christian Monitor.

A NICKEL TO THE LORD

(Dedicated to the Critics)

He sat with reverential head
And listened to the sermon strong;
He heard the Holy Scriptures read,
His voice joined in the closing song;
The service touched a tender cord—
He gave a nickel to the Lord.

The day before he dined in style,
He ate and drank the very best;
The bill he paid and gave a smile,
Life he enjoyed with hearty zest;
Cheapness he bitterly abhorred—
He gave a nickel to the Lord.
The Lord had given him the life
That he so thoroughly enjoyed;
Had led him far from toil and strife;
His hours with profits were employed
And, yet with all this great reward,
He gave a nickel to the Lord.

REPORT OF FINDINGS COMMITTEE OF THE MISSIONARY COUNCIL.

We have reached the most significant hour of the modern missionary movement. The efficiency of the Christian message to meet the need of men and nations has been demonstrated and the era of missionary apologetics is therefore passed. At the same time the non-Christian world has been shaken from its old foundations and is being beset by Communism, Materialism and other philosophies which offer themselves as new foundations.

We believe that in this day the Church must not only attempt but must achieve the impossible. To this end we must strive for a revival of faith in the Gospel itself and in the agency which promotes it to the ends of the earth. It is no time for analysis of our difficulties or for criticism of the Church for its faults and failures. We must hold in view the unfinished task and we must put into the missionary appeal the passion of our Lord.

We recognize that if the church is to become truly missionary it must be by a process of missionary education. We rejoice in the closer cooperation which now prevails between the Board of Missions, Board of Christian Education and other agencies; and we urge that this co-operation be intensified and extended wherever possible.

It has been brought to our attention that the income from the Church for the support of our missionary work, has been cut in half during the past three years. This sudden and unprecedented decrease in income, has already wrought havoc in many directions and if not immediately halted will result in positive disaster. At whatever cost to ourselves, we must provide the finances imperatively demanded by our missionary operations at home and abroad. We commend the campaign of self-denial now being conducted under the auspices of the General Commission on Benevolences and we most earnestly urge that every congregation participate therein to the fullest degree.

This gathering has been thrilled by the wonderful story of Paine College, which this year celebrates its 50th anniversary. We congratulate this unique and historic institution and pledge to it our loyalty and support. We commend to all Methodists of the South, both white and colored, the campaign now under way to raise much needed funds for the college, and urge the people to contribute thereto in a spirit of brotherhood and sacrifice, and we further urge that in every local community our white and colored brethren co-operate in every possible manner in the development of cordial racial relations, the solution of mutual problems, and the promotion of the general welfare.

REASONS FOR CHANGING DATE OF LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE.

As many of the brethren know, I have been advocating a change in the time of holding our Annual Conference. The more the years roll along the more convinced I am that a change should be made. There are many persistent reasons for the change. Like the ghost of Banquo these reasons will not down in the face of opposition. Let me bring them before you again.

First, November and December, the months our Conference usually meets, are two of the best months in the year for church work. Most of the churches are just getting under way from the summer slump, especially in stations. Church activities are at their best. All the organizations are going at full blast. Then, too, in those months come two pivotal days in our national and church calendars—Thanksgiving and Christmas. We get to make very little use of these two important days because of the time our Conference meets. Also, right in the midst of things at their best we have to stop the machinery and go to Conference. No business enterprise would be guilty of stopping the machinery when it is running at its highest efficiency to change managers. The time from September to June should be considered as a unit in church work. It is so regarded in almost all other business and educational institutions. Why should the church be bound to tradition and custom when it is weakened thereby?

Second, December is not a good month for a preacher to enter a new charge. It is a rush time of the year for all business enterprises. People are preparing for the Christmas holidays. Parents are looking and planning with much concern for their children to return from college, or the married son or daughter to make a visit home, or some old friend is going to make a visit. Such things make the Christmas holidays a very inappropriate time for a new preacher to get started in his new charge.

Third, To move in November or December is certainly not treating the preachers' children with due consideration as regards their school work. If a preacher, who has children of school age, is moved two years in succession, his children will be students in three different schools in less than two years. There is a saying that a rolling stone gathers no moss, but we dispute this when it comes to educating our children. All children who are in high school usually have to purchase a new set of books on changing schools. This is an expense that ought not to be, and when a child is in three high schools in two years it is no small item. Then, too, many high schools have elective courses. They are not the same in each school. A pupil that has started in a certain course and has to change his schools more than likely will not find the elective course given in the new school. This may cause the child not only to lose this course but possibly set the child back a whole year.

Fourth, In many charges December is a financial loss under our present time of holding the Conference. Especially is this true when the Conference comes the first of the month as it has often done. December would be a fine month to give the proper emphasis on stewardship if it were not hampered, as it now is, in shifting gear while the machine is running in high. It is no month to start new financial policies. It is the month to capitalize on old policies and plans. It is a time to reach a mid-year church climax. Do you know of any business enterprise that begins its year with December? It is not a beginning month; it is an ending month. In fact many charges do not get started in their finances until January. And yet December is a good month for finances if it had its proper and natural place in our church calendar.

Fifth, Often the condition of the weather is very unfavorable for moving when we hold our Conference. I know that with good roads this is not so important as it once was. But who wants to move when it is cold and raining or possibly snowing, especially when there are other seasons that are so much more favorable for such an event?

As to the best time for holding our Conference, I would suggest the first week in June or the last week in August to the first week in September.—J. Frank Simmons.

A GRAMMATICAL ERROR

In the August number of The Pulpit, published by the Christian Century Press, I read a sermon on the text, "But whom say ye that I am?" The sermon was good, but what about the grammatical construction of the text? In the same connection is this question, "Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?" I was all the more surprised when he says that a father might say to his son, "Whom say ye that I am?" thus compounding an error by referring to his son in the plural.

More than once I have heard preachers quote the text in the same way. It is frequently seen in books and magazine articles thus written. Can it be that preachers are not conscious of the error contained in the text? It is true that it is good Scripture as found in the King James Version. But every modern version of the Bible writes it as follows, "But who say ye that I am?", using the nominative "who" instead of the objective "whom."

Just how the King James translators of the Bible could make this mistake is a mystery. They may have been misled by the Greek idiom which reads, "But whom say ye me to be?", and "Whom say men the Son of man to be?" This is correct Greek idiom, but literally translated it is not correct English idiom. It had to be changed from the objective to the nominative case. Thus "me to be" becomes "I am." But they neglected or forgot to change "whom" to "who," and so it stands in the Bible as incorrect English. All revised versions correct this mistake, and this is but one illustration of our need of a revised version.

And so I ask why our preachers, when quoting this text either in sermons or in written articles, should not quote it in correct English? Let us not assume that, because it is in the Bible, its English is as inspired as its substance. The most important question ever asked ought not to be constantly marred by a grammatical error.—Chas. Franklin.

WOMEN REJOICE.

Women of America will rejoice that America's first woman senator elected to that office today voted sentiments of the majority of women of the nation in opposition to liquor.

Many Democrats who voted for their party and for an economic change in national government from the present centralization and supercapitalization, did not feel bound by the repeal plank in the Democratic platform.

It is likely that prohibition may be repealed. It is likely that something even better after repeal may be substituted than the kind of prohibition enforcement this country has seen during the past eight years since racketeering has grown up over the land.

Nevertheless women, in the main, never will vote for liquor. They are glad that the only woman in the Senate feels that they prefer that she be recorded as a dry and not as a wet.

We are grateful, Mrs. Caraway.—Fayetteville Daily Democrat.

ASBURY AUXILIARY

The monthly program meeting was held February 13 at the church, with Mrs. R. M. Shelton, program chairman as leader. The meeting opened with silent meditation. Music by Mrs. Stoddard. Mrs. Murrie led in prayer and Mrs. James Allen sang hymn No. 264. Mrs. D. T. Cheairs gave the devotional using Scripture reading Phil. 3:7-14. The story of Scarritt College was beautifully told by Miss Ruth Sneed, and the college song was sung by Mrs. Allen. An inspirational talk was given by a former student of Scarritt, Miss Martha Allis, who spoke of her appreciation of some of the outstanding characters, at that time connected with the college. They were Miss Belle Bennett, Miss Gibson and Miss Mabel Catherine Flowell. Every one present was deeply touched by her message. The song, "Face to Face" was beautifully sung by Mrs. Stoddard and Mrs. Allen. Mrs. S. S. Pettus gave the closing prayer. Every body went home feeling better for having been there.—Mrs. P. C. Peterson, Superintendent of Publicity.

SILAM SPRINGS AUXILIARY

Mrs. Ralph Pyeatte was hostess to the Society on Friday afternoon at her home. Mrs. C. G. Chandler presented the "World Outlook" program for February. She gave for her worship service the theme "Life's Supreme Objective," using Philippians 3:7-14 as the scripture outline.

The topic from the magazine, "Life at Scarritt College" was very ably given by Mrs. Chandler. This was concluded with a playlette, "Mary Porter Home from College," with the following cast: Mary Porter, Mrs. Chandler; Mrs. Porter, Mrs. A. L. Smith; Rev. Mr. Wright, Rev. A. L. Cline; Deaconess Judson, Mrs. Ben Garst; two friends, Davida Thompson and Orville Cline.—Supt. Pub.

NEWPORT SOCIETY HAS INTERESTING MEETING.

The Society of the First Methodist church held the February meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. G. Anderson on Hazel street with Mrs. A. E. Holloway and Mrs. W. L. Reed assistant hostesses.

Spring flowers were used in decorating the rooms and Mrs. B. W. Jamison gave the opening prayer. Mrs. S. R. Phillips, president, presided over the business session.

The bulletin was presented in a unique way by the publicity chairman, attractive little valentines disclosed, when opened, the items to be given. One of particular interest to the local society was a communication from Miss Edith Martin, who is the latest Methodist missionary to go to Africa. She went last year and is stationed at Wembo Nyama. She is an Arkansas girl and is being supported by the North Arkansas Conference.

Miss Martin speaks of the crying need for workers who can aid in translation and calling attention to the wonderful progress that has been made along these lines, she writes that "our grade Sunday school lessons are being used in classes."

Miss Mabel Stayton made an earnest appeal for more interest in the spiritual life group. This is pledge month and at the close of the program Mrs. Holloway explained just how our offering for the year would be used and distributed pledge cards to the 22 members present.

During the social hour refreshments were served in the dining room with Mrs. C. M. Erwin presiding over a prettily appointed tea table centered with a bowl of jonquils and white spirea.—Reporter.

MISSION STUDY CLASS AT LAGRANGE.

Rev. C. H. Harvison, pastor at La Grange, conducted a class in Mission Study, January 30, Feb. 2, with an average attendance of fifteen.

Much inspiration as well as information was derived from the study of "Christ and the Coming Kingdom."—Reporter.

THE LUCY WADE CIRCLE OF LONOKE.

The Lucy Wade Circle of Lonoke met February 7th in the annex of the church.

A delicious supper was served by Miss Eugenia Beard and Frances Chaney, after which the meeting was called to order by the President, Miss Mildred Stastney. The leader for the program was Mr. Carl Benton, assisted by Misses Mary Church and Mildred Stastney and Messrs. Burney Olinghouse and Preston Vaden. This program was a very interesting one on "Friendship" and everyone is ever grateful for a real friend.

This circle has been organized only a short time and we were very proud of our attendance at this meeting, at which we had twenty-five (25) members present with one new member, and three visitors. Miss Mary Grubbs, Messrs. Henry Schneider, and Ben Clements.—Ruby F. Patton, Reporter.

WESLEY CHAPEL AUXILIARY

Women of the Wesley Chapel community met March 2, 1932 at the home of Mrs. Chas. Ripley and organized the Wesley Chapel Missionary Society.

Beginning with thirteen members we have met regularly every two weeks.

The only place of interest to this small community being the church, our first thoughts were to beautify it. Beginning on the outside, flowers were planted and premises were cleaned.

Our next plan was to paint the inside of the church, the benches and get a new stand for the pastor.

The Society began at once searching for means of raising funds to do this work.

A chicken supper was given, and we received thirteen dollars and seventy-five cents, including a free will offering. This paid for the first coat of paint. The men of the community did the work on the walls, while the ladies painted the floors and benches. A candy sale provided means whereby we might get the second coat of paint, and new shades.

Our pledge to conference of fifteen dollars, has been paid and a dollar has been sent to pay on the parsonage at Camden.

We finished the Book of Genesis, and "Living Issues of China," before the close of the year.

Flowers and trays have been sent to the sick of our community. At the close of the year, we have twenty-two members, and are looking forward to an increase next year.—Mrs. Calvin Elmore, Publicity Reporter.

Best Remedy is Made At Home

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

You can depend upon a medicine which is endorsed by half a million American women.

When Your Daughter Comes to Womanhood

MOST GIRLS in their teens need a tonic and regulator. Give your daughter Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the next few months. Teach her how to guard her health at this critical time. When she is a happy healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

"My daughter Virginia was troubled with painful periods. A friend of ours told us what a good medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was for girls and women so I got some for Virginia. It has relieved all her troubles. She has good color, good appetite, sleeps well and is able to attend school every day now."

Christian Education

GROUP MEETING OF CHILDREN'S WORKERS

Mrs. Ethan Dodgen, director of Children's Work in the Helena District, presided at a meeting January 29 at Forrest City, where leaders from Forrest City, Tuni, Wheatley and Widener, came together for fellowship, worship and discussion of the Points of Emphases for the Children's Division.

Each church represented contributed to the discussion of problems and plans, in an enthusiastic way. Mrs. E. J. Kyle of Forrest City discussed in an interesting manner the "Vacation School."

This group represented a portion of the Central Zone of Helena District, and the meeting held is the first of a series of meetings to be held for Children's Workers throughout Helena District this year.—Mrs. Ira A. Brumley, Conf. Dir.

BOONEVILLE STANDARD CLASS.

The Booneville Church is conducting a Standard Training Class this week using the course on "Organizing for Christian Education in the local Church."

At the end of this week every District in the Conference will have had one or more Standard Training Classes or a Standard Training School.—Ira A. Brumley, Exec. Sec.

NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY

Another date for our Young People to remember is June 26-July 1, for this is the date of Young People's Assembly. We are to have a five-day program this year. The program will start on Monday afternoon and close at noon Saturday. The first class sessions will be held Monday night, June 26th. This promises to be the best Assembly ever held by North Arkansas Conference Young People. Begin now to make your plans to attend. Two Districts are already planning to have, at least, fifty each in the Assembly.—Ira A. Brumley, Exec. Sec.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DAY IN NORTH ARKANSAS CONFERENCE.

Young People's Day will be observed in North Arkansas Conference on March 26. A number of churches have already made plans for this special service.

Arrangements have been made for securing the special programs, "World Builders," from the District Director of Young People's Work or from the Conference office at Conway. These materials may be had for 5c per copy; if ordered from Nashville, the cost would be greater.

Each church is asked to co-operate with its Young People by giving them the evening service on March 26, and by helping the Young People to make this a great service for the local Young People and for the Conference program. Every church in the Conference has a group of young people. This program for Young People's Day is not for a group that has an evening meeting and for them only, but for all Young people in the church. No church can afford to miss the opportunity which this day presents.

Remember that the date is March 26. Begin making plans; write your District Director for programs; and work to make March 26 a great day for your church.—Ira A. Brumley, Exec. Sec.

PRESCOTT DISTRICT SETS GOALS FOR YEAR.

Presiding Elder Hundley entertained the Conference and District officers in a District Set-up Meeting Tuesday. Officers for the District are: Rev. L. E. N. Hundley, Chairman; Ramy Garland, Director of Young People's Work; Professor J. I. McClerkin, Director of Adult Work. Director of Children's Work is yet to be selected.

The District was organized according to the new Manual on District Work. Outstanding features for the program of the year include: 1—Allocation of all territory and Methodist people to some pastoral charge with maps showing boundaries of same; 2—A leadership training program to reach all churches; 3—Organization of Boards of Christian Education with the three age group divisions in same; 4—One hundred per cent observance of Young People's Anniversary, Sunday School Day and Fourth Sunday for Missions; 5—An effort to have all charges represented at the Young People's Assembly and all pastors to attend the Pastors' School; 6—Plans for District country preachers meeting.

Unique features of this District Program include a District Conference for Young People at Glenwood, June 1, a District-wide Conference for Adults at Prescott in the summer, and Christian Culture Institute for Young People for the Union centering at Glenwood.—Clem Baker.

MONTICELLO AND PINE BLUFF DISTRICTS IN JOINT MEETING

Presiding Elders Hamilton and Watson held their organization meetings in a joint session at First Church, Pine Bluff, last Saturday. Present from the Monticello District: Rev. J. M. Hamilton, Chairman; Mrs. F. C. Cannon, Director of Children's Work; Don Marlan, Director of Young People's Work; Neill Hart, Associate Director of Adult Work.

Present from the Pine Bluff District were: Rev. W. C. Watson, chairman; Miss Mary Turner, Director of Young People's Work; Rev. E. C. Rule, Associate Chairman; A. R. Cooper, Associate Director of Adult Work; Miss Hallie Oates, Associate Director of Young People's Work, and Rev. J. C. Glenn.

Officers not present from the Monticello District: O. C. Landers, Director of Adult Work; and J. E. Cooper, Associate Chairman for the District; and from the Pine Bluff District, R. C. Carnical, Director Adult Work.

Plans for both Districts include: Christian Culture Institutes for all Unions; all charges reached by either Standard Schools, Standard Classes or Cokesbury Schools; Boards of Christian Education and age-group divisions organized in all churches; one hundred per cent observance of Young People's Anniversary, Sunday School Day and Fourth Sunday for Missions; a representative from each charge at the Young People's Assembly, and all pastors attending the Pastor's School.

Both Districts plan a District-wide Adult Conference the first afternoon and night of the District Conference and a great District-wide Young People's Rally the closing night of the District Conference. Both Districts plan a careful survey of the District, including a map of same and the al-

HERE'S THAT QUICK WAY TO STOP A COLD

Take Bayer Aspirin according to directions in package.

Drink Full Glass of Water.

If throat is sore, crush and dissolve 3 Bayer Aspirin Tablets in a half glass of warm water and gargle according to directions.

Almost Instant Relief In This Way

The simple method pictured above is the way doctors throughout the world now treat colds.

It is recognized as the QUICK-EST, safest, surest way. For it will check an ordinary cold almost as fast as you caught it.

Ask your doctor about this. And when you buy, see that you get the real BAYER Aspirin Tablets. They dissolve almost instantly. And thus work almost instantly when you take them. And for a gargle, Genuine Bayer Aspirin Tablets dissolve with speed and completeness, leaving no irritating particles or grittiness. Get a box of 12 or bottle of 24 or 100 at any drug store.

Ask your druggist about the recent price reduction on the 100 tablet size Bayer Aspirin.

lotment of all members, prospective members and territory to some pastoral charge and church. Both Districts plan Country Preacher's meetings for all country preachers in the District.—Clem Baker.

CHRISTIAN CULTURE INSTITUTE AT BEARDEN THIS WEEK.

Under the leadership of Presiding Elder Dedman and District Director of Young People's work, Ralph Sewell, a Christian Culture Institute for a number of charges will be held at Bearden, beginning Friday night of this week and close Sunday afternoon. The Instructors include Rev. Van Harrell, Rev. S. T. Baugh, and Clem Baker.—Clem Baker.

LITTLE ROCK AND CAMDEN DISTRICTS TO ORGANIZE THIS WEEK.

Dr. Thomas is calling the District officers to meet with the Conference Staff Tuesday afternoon of this week, at which time the program for the District will be organized and goals set up.

On Saturday of this week, at Bearden, Rev. J. L. Dedman is calling his District staff to meet with the Conference officers for the same purpose.

Rev. H. D. Sadler will get his District organized in the near future.—Clem Baker.

ARKADELPHIA DISTRICT ORGANIZES

On Thursday of last week presiding Elder Henderson met with his District officers and the Conference staff at Malvern. His staff includes: Rev. J. A. Henderson, Chairman; Rev. Fred R. Harrison, Director of Young People's Work; Mrs. J. M. Lea, Director of Children's Work; Professor J. P. Womack, Director of Adult Work.

Plans for the District include: (1) Standard Training Schools to be held at Malvern and Hot Springs; (2) Christian Culture Institutes for each of the two unions; (3) Cokesbury Schools and Training Classes for charges not otherwise reached; (4) The organization of Boards of Christian Education for the three age-groups for all churches in the District; (5) An effort to assign all territory and all prospective Methodist members to some pastoral charge and church (6) A map of the District; (7) One hundred per cent observance of Young People's Anniversary, Sunday School Day and Fourth Sunday for Missions; (8) A great District Conference at Magnet Cove the last days of June, featuring a District-wide Adult Conference the first afternoon and night and a District-wide Young People's Rally the last night. (9) An effort to secure a Young People's representative from every charge at the Young People's Assembly and the attendance of every pastor at the Pastor's School in June; (10) County preacher's meeting for all country preachers in the District.—Clem Baker.

Women Who Are Rundown

WHEN women are highly nervous, suffer from periodic pains, backache, or catarrhal drains ("whites"), or "heat flashes," they should take that womanly tonic and nerve, so favorably known for sixty years — namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is the experience of Mrs. Martha McLasky of 928 Spring St., Shreveport, La., who says: "Some years ago when I was in need of a tonic and nerve I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and I can still vividly remember the wonderful benefit I received from it. I can cheerfully recommend this tonic to any woman needing a medicine of this kind."

A medicine that brightens people's lives

Fortunately for most of us, a state of happy health does not depend on strength. But like any other piece of machinery, the human machine must be properly regulated to run right.

There is a simple means of regulating the system. It makes an amazing difference in the way your organs function and the way you feel.

It pays most men and women to try this regulation. You may consider yourself in fairly good health today, and after only two weeks' regulating realize you were only half alive.

This means of stimulating the system to new life is a prescription, and it is known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It's derived from fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Every druggist keeps it on hand. Get some today, and take some tonight. One spoonful drives away a bilious headache. A larger dose relieves any constipated condition. A little now and then keeps an older person protected from auto-intoxication. And it may be given any time to sluggish children.

Whole households have blessed this family doctor's prescription. It has saved old and young from sluggish spells—and from downright sickness. It's the only tonic you may need; the only laxative you need. It is the most likeable and remarkable medicine you ever tasted.

Try one bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and compare your condition with how you felt before!

JUNIOR CHURCH AT CAPITOL VIEW.

William Allen (Billy) Stewart, Jr., aged 16, a junior at Little Rock High School, has been elected pastor of the junior church which is to be organized at Capitol View Methodist church, Third and Pulaski streets, Sunday morning, under the leadership of Mrs. W. R. Rice. He will preach his first sermon to the junior congregation at the organization meeting, speaking on "The Great Doctor."

Young Stewart was licensed to exhort last fall at a quarterly conference at Capitol View Church. On several occasions he has preached from the pulpit of Capitol View and Asbury churches and the Methodist Church at Des Arc. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stewart, 1213 West Third street. He is active in Epworth League work.

The junior church will be organized after the order of the senior church, the boys and girls filling the positions of stewards, usher, choir and pianist. Services will be held each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the basement at the same time that the senior congregation is worshipping in the auditorium.

Children who are members of the church by baptism and vows will be active members of the junior congregation, and other children will be associate members. A charter will be opened Sunday, January 22, and will be kept open until Sunday, February 5. Both active and associate members who enroll during that period will be known as charter members.

The Rev. C. D. Meux, pastor of Capitol View Church, said the organization of a junior congregation will solve the problem of many parents who wish to attend church, but who have been prevented from doing so because their boys and girls do not stay for church after the Sunday school hours and they do not want them to be alone at home. He said it also will provide a service that will be interesting to boys and girls.

While assistant to the late Rev. P. C. Fletcher at the First Methodist Church, Eighth and Center streets, in 1922, the Rev. Mr. Meux organized a junior church, which ran successfully for several years. He has been trying to take care of this problem at Capitol View by giving a short sermon for children at services on Sunday. He will continue his talks to boys and girls at the evening services for the senior congregation.

THE SEVEN BEST HABITS.

The Seven Best Habits—Methodist Handbook—just issued by the Methodist Benevolent Association of Nashville, Tenn., is packed full of inspiring facts and well worth reading and preserving by every family. Its words will charm our children and bless our homes. It is a real contribution to the public welfare. The Seven Best Habits start with the habit of regular daily prayer, and are the seven habits that would make every home a heaven and every nation a paradise. It tells the thrilling story of Bishop Asbury. (Continued on Page 7.)

Do this for Your Child in

TWO WEEKS

How to rid any boy or girl of sluggishness or constipation and build a big appetite.

The trouble with children who will not eat is usually stasis. The symptoms are a tongue that's always coated, bad breath, poor color, dull eyes that are often a bilious yellow. No appetite, no ambition—even for play. Hard to get to sleep, hard to wake in the morning.

There's an absolute remedy for this condition. It gives listless youngsters the appetite and energies of a young animal! They eat! They gain! They keep well!

It's not the stomach, but the bowel condition that keeps children from eating. But the trouble is in the lower bowel—the colon. California syrup of figs is the only "medicine" that is needed to stimulate the colon muscles. The very next day, your child is eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the syrup of figs a few days and you will see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight and spirits.

Any drug store has the real California syrup of figs, all bottled, with directions. Nature never made a nicer acting or nicer tasting laxative. (It is purely vegetable.) Remember California syrup of figs when sickness, a cold or any upset has clogged a child's bowels.

WARNING: Even when it's something to give children, some stores will try to substitute. So be sure the bottle says CALIFORNIA Syrup of Figs.

shows that America is spending only about $35.00 per family per year for religious purposes; while spending at the same time $270.00 per year per family for taxes; $112.50 for war purposes; $50.00 for tobacco; $40.00 for shows and movies; $91.25 for public schools; and $40.00 for liquor. These figures show why America is suffering for its sins, and why we should all adopt the Seven Best Habits.

THE ONE GREAT NECESSITY

If Malachi came to this modern world, he would have something to say about the continual pleadings we have to make in order to support the work of God's church. He would have something forceful to say about the bridge parties, stunt nights, and other pitiable schemes we have adopted to gain a few dollars in order to declare the unsearchable riches of Christ. But it is certain that he would reiterate his challenge, in the name of the Highest, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse . . . and prove Me herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."—J. W. G. Ward, in Church Management.

MOVIE GUIDE FOR THE WEEK.

Of the pictures to be shown in Little Rock during the week beginning Friday, February 24, the following are recommended for children or adolescents. These reports are reprinted with permission from the "Family Movie Guide of the Parent's Magazine" and the "Educational Screen" Film Estimate Service.

"If I Had a Million"—For C—No; For A—Possible.

"You Said a Mouthful"—For C—Probably funny; For A—Harmless.

"Little Orphan Annie"—For C—very good; For A—Good.

"Six Hours to Live"—For C—too mature; For A—Good.

"Horsefeathers"—For C and A—Funny.

C—Children. A—Adolescents.

Due to the erratic policy that the industry has of releasing pictures, Little Rock frequently receives films earlier than New York and Chicago. Consequently, estimates are not available for the following pictures:

"Blondie Johnson."

"Clear All Wires."

"What No Beer?"

LUNCHEON FOR FACULTY.

The workers in the Beginner Department held their regular faculty meeting last week in the department room at noon. Luncheon was served and the main discussion was the Handbook. Mrs. F. B. Thacker, superintendent of the department, presided and the group made plans for their section in the book.

So Tired and Nervous She Couldn't Sleep Well

"I was in a very nervous condition," writes Mrs. J. S. Odom, of Waycross, Ga. "I did not sleep well at night. I would get up in the mornings feeling all tired and worn out. My appetite was poor. My mother-in-law thought Cardui would help me. After I began taking it my appetite increased. I rested better at night. I kept taking Cardui until I felt well and strong. I know it did me a lot of good. It is splendid for nervousness and other troubles that young women have."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

PULPIT AND PEW

PULPIT AND PEW is the official publication of Winfield Memorial Church. It is edited every Monday by Dr. E. O. Heath at the church office, Sixteenth and Louisiana streets.

Through an arrangement between the Board of Stewards and the editor of the Arkansas Methodist, each Winfield family will receive the Methodist without charge so long as Pulpit and Pew is published as a part of the church paper.

SERMON TOPICS

MORNING—11:00 o'clock—"Is Anything Too Hard for the Lord?" You will be interested in this subject. We urge all our young people to take their places in the balcony by 10:55.

EVENING—7:30 o'clock—"The First Commandment." This will be the first of a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments. It seems to us that a re-statement of the Ten Commandments is timely and their application urgently necessary. You will enjoy excellent music at both services, given by our great chorus choir.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Young People and Senior groups will have their devotional meetings Sunday evening at 6:30.

Fellowship supper will be served Wednesday evening, March 1st, at 6:30, followed by the devotional hour. Dr. Heath will speak on the parable of "The Merchantman."

Circle No. 3 will serve a chicken pie lunch at the church next Tuesday, February 28th, from 12 to 2 o'clock. Bring your friends.

NEW MEMBERS—Mr. Curtis Ridgeway, of Paris, Tenn., who is now making his home in Little Rock, at 215 East 10th street, has transferred his membership to Winfield church. Mr. Ridgeway works at the Hegarty Drug Co.

NEW BABY—Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Stafford, of 5209 J Street, are happy over the birth of a baby daughter, Dorothy Jean, who was born February 10th.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. Frank Bird is seriously ill with typhoid fever, at Baptist State hospital.

Mr. E. C. Reed, 2705 State Street, has been ill.

Mrs. J. P. Lunn, 1418 Hanger, has been very ill with the flu but is much better.

Miss Mary Frances Clifford has accepted a position in the schools of Hulbert, Ark., as teacher of the 6th grade and supervisor of music. She has left for her work.

PROSPECT CARDS.

Next Sunday cards on which to list prospective members will be handed out to every class. These persons listed should be prospects for our church school or for membership in the church. For the next six weeks we are going to have an intensive campaign to reach those whom our church can help.

We want the name, address, and approximate age of the prospects so that lists can be made out and given to different classes and departments for them to work. If you do not know all this information, please try to get it before Sunday so we may have the correct address and name of our prospects.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

This week, for the first time you will receive your Pulpit and Pew printed on the back page of the Arkansas Methodist. We hope you are going to like it. It will go into every home in our great church and it will give to you, in addition to the Pulpit and Pew, the Conference Organ at no additional cost. I urge each of you to read this week's paper from front to back; give it a trial and see if it does not help you in your thinking and living. We have altogether too many Methodists who do not expose themselves to the contagion of the Christian way of thinking.

We read the secular press and I am glad we do, but from the secular press we cannot be informed upon the ideals, the program and the progress of religion in the life of the world. In the very nature of things, our great dailies cannot discuss the problems of religion, morals and industry. The religious paper is the only source from which we can get this kind of information. Here you will find the truth about Prohibition, which you do not find in many of your secular papers, and as the states are going to have to pass on this question again it is of vital importance that you be informed on the subject. You will also find a discussion of moral, social and economic problems from the viewpoint of the church which is of vital importance to all growing Christians.

Our church, this week, is increasing its subscription list to the Methodist, from 35 to 781. We are expecting other churches to follow Winfield's lead. In the meantime, we believe the clouds of the religious depression which have been hovering over us, will vanish like mists before the ascending sun.

Christian Education

THE DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

(This is the third of a series on the educational program of our Church.)

The Board of Christian Education in every church oversees the educational work of the church, but no one on the Board has the time to give to see that all the work is done. Therefore, the Director of Christian Education, a person who is employed full time, assumes the responsibility of supervising and directing the educational program.

The Director must be a person who has the spirit of Christ in his life and heart, who believes that men can be remade by the principles of Christ, who is willing to work for years laying a foundation of Christian education so that children may grow naturally into Christian characters, and he must understand and love people. The Director must also be a person who has been trained for this type of work and knows how to carry out his ideas and ideals. He must keep up with the best of educational methods and practices and try to keep the church in the front rank educationally. He must never stop studying and learning himself and must avail himself of every opportunity to make himself more useful to his church.

The Director must attend many meetings every month in order to know what is being done in every phase of church work and in order to help different groups. The Director holds many meetings for different groups so that he may give them certain necessary information and so that there may be discussions of the work and plans made. The Director must see that the material used for study in every group is of the very best, that it is being used to advantage, that young people and adults are being trained for leadership, and that proper teachers are provided for every class and age group.

The Director should see that opportunities are provided for all ages in the church to have fellowship and recreation, to have study material suited to their needs, and to have time for worship in a group. These three types of service may assume many different forms and it is the work of the Director of Christian Education to keep in touch with them and see that they are carried out. The Director is not to do all this himself, but to try and develop others to carry out the work. There are many other things which the Director must do, but these are suggestive of the extent of his opportunities.

Next week the discussion will be on the organization of the church for its educational work.

JUNIOR HIGH.

Next Sunday the Junior High Department will have their regular monthly program from 11 to 12 in their room. This program will be in charge of the committee on Missions and World Friendship and a special number on the program will be a talk by Mrs. Earl Rogers who was born in China and spent a number of years teaching in that country. She will have many interesting experiences to tell and will answer any questions that the pupils will want to ask her about China.

SENIOR DEPARTMENT

The evening programs of the Senior Department have been much better attended during the last month and the programs have been very interesting. The ones who have led the programs have been Eugenia Florian, Nellie Fae Lawrence and Josephine Rose. Next Sunday night Harold Baird will lead.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S NEWS

Young People's Choir will sing at the evening service next Sunday night. The choir has been practicing every Sunday night before League and has been working on an anthem. Mrs. I. J. Steed is directing the choir.

Last Sunday night the Young People of Asbury Church were the guests of our department at the evening service. Miss Elizabeth Seay was the leader of the program on "Understanding Ourselves." A special number on the program was a mixed quartette.

Indoor baseball begins soon and our department is going to enter the games at the Y. Both boys and girls may play and we hope to have a good team this year. Last year we had a very good team. Our basketball team has done some good work this year and we are proud of them.

GIRL SCOUTS' DINNER

Our Girl Scout Troop No. 4 had a lovely dinner at the church last Friday night. The decorations were all in keeping with the celebration of George Washington's birthday and at each place there were little nut cups filled with candy hatchets and each person had a place card.

Special guests for the occasion were: Mrs. K. P. Driver, Mrs. Arnn, Mrs. H. A. Newman, Miss Elliot, Miss Clemmy Faris, Miss Dorothy Cooper, and Miss Frances Bowers, the new Scout Executive. Talks were made by Helen Newman and Betty Sue Thomas. Miss Dorothy Harpington presided.

JUNIOR DEPARTMENT.

The second year classes of the Junior Department have just completed a most interesting project. Our lessons have been about the work of Jesus and his healing of the blind man. So far the past month we have all been working together on this subject. Mrs. Henry's class, Mrs. Cope's class and Mr. Moreland's class have met in one room and studied and discussed the lesson and what we can do today to be like Jesus. We decided to see what we could learn from the children at the Blind School. Last Sunday we went over there and took them some fruit and they took us all over their school and showed us how they learn. We found out that they are very, very bright and can do many things that we can't do and we can see.

Next Sunday the Junior Department will attend the congregational worship services at 11 o'clock.

The Junior Department faculty met Monday night in the Educational Office and worked out their plans for the Handbook.
