PUNGENT PARAGRAPHS

CONGRESS, called upon to counteract calamity, has built bulwarks around our banks.

THE Eighteenth Amendment outlawed liquor, and now liquor would like to outlaw the Eighteenth Amendment.

COURAGEOUS citizens who have coin, currency, or credit, are now directed to do their duty by faith, fairness, and fighting fear.

SEEKING to economize and balance the budget, our Legislature has practically thrown our public school system into the discard.

A generation ago it was Teddy the Terrible of the Tribe of Roosevelt, who was our progressive pilot; now it is Franklin the Frank of the same tribe who daringly directs our destinies.

THEY PUT US TO SHAME

THE Koreans are the poorest of the Orientals; but Christian Koreans are among the most zealous of Christians, and when it comes to giving they put us to shame.

Dr. George S. McCune, President of the Union Christian College of Korea, writes about the interest of his students in sending the gospel to the harassed and distracted Manchurians in this critical hour. He says: "The students of our College and Academy, of the Theological Seminary, the Soong In and the Girls' Academy, gave their pennies, dimes and dollars. Some are living on two meals a day; others are wearing patched clothes, some saved money by not going home for vacation, and others earned money by hard labor. But this great sacrifice has triumphed in the sending of a Korean missionary to Manchuria three weeks ago. It is God's call to the Korean Church."

If we, in proportion to our means, would contribute to our missionary work, we could soon pay the debt and finance our workers. We are now supposed to be making sacrifices of food and clothes and luxuries for this great cause. May we be really in earnest about it so that our contributions may in the aggregate be large. Let us all save and give something.

RATIFYING CONVENTION

OUR Legislature has, by law, provided for a Convention to ratify or reject the proposed 21st Amendment, which would repeal the 18th Amendment. It has fixed the date of the Convention on August 1, and the date for electing delegates July 18. The Convention is to consist of 75 delegates, one from each county. Candidates for delegates are to be nominated by petition of not less than 100, and only two candidates may run in each county, one standing for repeal and one against repeal. The ballots will indicate the position of each candidate, and the total vote in the State is to be counted, and if the majority is for repeal the delegates are obligated to vote for repeal, and if a majority is against repeal the delegates are obligated to vote against repeal. This is satisfactory, as it will give the people of the whole State an opportunity to have a real referendum on the Prohibition issue without regard to the personality of the candidates for delegate. It is very important, however, that in each county the dries get together at an early day and agree on the best possible candidate, as some voters might be influenced by the character of the candidate.

The date of the election is such that voters must have new poll-tax receipts; consequently it is highly important that all good people assess

LOOK NOT THOU UPON THE WINE WHEN IT IS RED, WHEN IT GIVETH HIS COLOR IN THE CUP, WHEN IT MOVETH ITSELF ARIGHT. AT THE LAST IT BITETH LIKE A SERPENT AND STINGETH LIKE AN ADDER.—Prov. 23:31-32.

KINGDOM Extensions is not a financial campaign, but a voluntary fellowship of cheerful givers—composed of those who take Jesus seriously.

Not counting the cost, these volunteers seek first the Kingdom of God. Their deepest passion is to be extenders of the Kingdom. They know well that this Kingdom can not be set up in the world's life without sacrifice, but they are not afraid of that. They have the mind of Christ.

Into this fellowship comes only the spiritually heroic, who will not admit that the ideals, which moved us to great undertakings in more prosperous days, were wrong. These are those who refuse to retreat spiritually because material things have receded; who deny that the sufferer's pain is any less an anguish because incomes have been reduced; who hold that ignorance damages human spirits in days of financial distress quite as much in seasons of prosperity; who do not believe that the pagan man's need of God is any less, now that our wealth is diminished.

These volunteer givers are those who see the world through the eyes of Jesus. They are the Christlike. They are the group who keep the breath of life in the Church. They are the salt of the earth. They are the friends of God. Are you in the fellowship?—Wesleyan Christian Advocate.

and get receipts, and that a careful scrutiny be made of receipts to avoid fraud. If citizens assess before April 10, there is no penalty; but if after that date, there is a penalty of $1. Assessment may be as late as June 30, if the penalty is paid; and the poll-tax must be paid by July 1.

Further information will be given from time to time; but we urge all who are interested to preserve this notice, and to get their poll-tax receipts early and to influence other good citizens to do the same. Good women should, by all means, get poll-tax receipts, because the issue will doubtless be settled by their vote. The other side is busy, and our friends should keep up with their activities and be on guard. Under the call found on page 4, good people in every county should immediately organize. We can defeat repeal if we do our civic duty.

OUR PRAYING PRESIDENT AND PIOUS SENATORS

IN a story of the days of the War between the States, two Quaker women were represented as discussing the probable outcome. One said: "I think the Confederates will win the war because Jefferson Davis is a praying man." The other countered with, "But Abraham Lincoln is also a praying man." To which the first replied, "Yes, but he is so given to jokes the Lord will not know whether he is in earnest when he prays."

It is now related that President Roosevelt, early on the morning of his inauguration day, spent some time in prayer in St. John's Episcopal Church. Then he closed his inaugural address with this invocation: "In this dedication of a nation we humbly ask the blessing of God. May he and yet, and yet, we recall that President Roosevelt advocated the repeal of the 18th Amendment and the passage of a beer bill, both of which would undoubtedly result in the return of legalized liquor in many parts of the country, and we wonder if he would be willing to invoke the blessing of God upon that purpose, and would advise the people to go to their knees to implore God's guidance in bringing that eventuality to pass.

Then it is reported that Senators Robinson and Copeland, both Methodists, recently, in the Foundry Methodist Church, in Washington, testified and expressed the thought that "a revival of spiritual forces among citizens as individuals," is needed. Can they reconcile the need of a spiritual revival with their action in voting for a "spirituous" revival? We suggest that all of these distinguished public men, if they are sincere, make the repeal of the 18th Amendment and the return of beer a subject of special prayer. Those who oppose repeal feel fully justified in asking that God so guide that repeal may fail. If those who favor repeal cannot ask God's blessing on their efforts, we inquire, Why not?

ALL EVIL FORCES WILL REJOICE

EVANGELINE BOOTH, leader of the Salvation Army, who, because of her experience in dealing with victims of strong drink, is competent to speak, thus comments: "To repeal the 18th Amendment will be to fling again wide the gates of our country to an army of slaughter such as never trampled its relentless heels upon any blood-soaked fields of war, to give carte blanche to a monster of destruction which has strewn the shores of time with more mangled forms than any other instrument of death. There will not be a drinking den in the world, not a gambling hell in the remotest seaport, not a haunt of vice in the most pagan city, not a purveyor of opium and other drugs, not an organizer of the white-slave traffic, not an exploiter of the native races in Africa and Australia that will not raise a shout of joy and triumph over the foremost nation in the world, where the forces that retard human progress, destroy human happiness, and disfigure the image of God imprinted on the human face, would have vanquished that righteousness which exalteth a people."

OUR PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS

FOR their prompt and courageous action in trying to save the nation from financial disaster, President Roosevelt and Congress deserve full appreciation. Nothing finer has been done in the history of our Republic. The President has proved himself ready to attempt to do all that one in his position could be expected to do. He is entitled to the full backing of Congress and the people. We are willing to accept him as a dictator for the nonce. Unusual conditions require unusual exercise of power. Our only regret is that the President is calling for the legalization of beer, and by the time this reaches our readers it is probable that Congress will have acted on his suggestion. We earnestly pray that this evil may be constitutionally averted, and our country saved from the disgrace of repudiation of its high moral ideal. Beer will not save the nation; but its return will result in tragedy.

THE great danger of bad times is bad remedies.—Albert C. Ritchie.

Personal and Other Items

DR. W. C. WATSON, P. E. of Pine Bluff District announces the appointment of Rev. C. H. Farmer to Roe Circuit to take the place of the late Rev. L. T. Rogers.

SUPT. J. H. GLASS wishes friends of Prohibition to know that he is prepared to furnish good speakers to those who wish them in connection with the fight to retain the 18th Amendment. Address him at 202 Glover Building, Little Rock.

GOOD citizens are urged to read the announcement on page 4, for the organization of the Citizens' League Against Liquor, and to act promptly; also to inform themselves thoroughly concerning the proposed Ratifying Convention and secure poll-tax receipts.

DR. J. W. PERRY, Secretary of the Home Department of our General Board of Missions, announces that in 1932 our 30 general evangelists held 270 meetings, resulting in 14,425 conversions, and 6,142 additions to our own Church and 4,401 additions to other denominations.

THE editor holds himself in readiness to respond to all reasonable calls for speaking in meetings held to plan for defeating repeal of the 18th Amendment. He can usually respond to calls for service on Saturdays and Sundays, and is willing to speak as many times a day as can be arranged. Calls should be made two weeks in advance so that conflicts may be avoided.

THE Woman's Union for Political Action has been organized for Arkansas, with Miss Lurline Moody as president. This organization will render valuable service in protecting the ballot from fraud in the election for delegates for the Ratifying Convention. It is hoped that it may be organized in every county. Let those interested correspond with Miss Moody at Little Rock.

RESPONDING to an invitation to represent Anti-Repeal of the 18th Amendment, the editor spent last Saturday night and Sunday in Sevier County, delivering addresses on that subject. Saturday night he was with Bro. W. W. Christie at Horatio, and Sunday morning, he addressed the Horatio Sunday School and then spoke at the Walnut Springs Church. Sunday at 3:00 p. m., to a large crowd of all-day singers at Wright's Community Church south of Chapel Hill; at 6:15 in the Presbyterian Church in DeQueen to a fine group of young people; and at 7:30 in the Baptist Church of that place to a large union audience, he had the opportunity to explain the situation and encourage organization. ## A LIBERAL PROPOSITION

THE Prohibition fight is on in Arkansas. On July 18 the people will have opportunity to vote on repeal of the 18th Amendment. They will need all the information they can get to combat the attacks of the wets. Many of our good secular editors will help in this campaign; but to get all the information needed our people should immediately be supplied with the ARKANSAS METHODIST, which has been waging the fight against intoxicants for more than half a century. Pastors should immediately press the circulation campaign. To back them up, we offer to refund the subscription price to any one who will certify to his pastor next November that he has read the paper regularly, and wants his money back because he thinks that the paper is not worth the price.

liance of DeQueen had led and was requested to continue leading in effecting organization to oppose repeal and maintain prohibition in Arkansas. Led by Rev. J. D. Baker, the ministers of Sevier Co. are prepared to wage war for this righteous cause. Bros. Christie and Baker, our pastors at Horatio and DeQueen, are heroically holding the fort and in spite of depression are working for good reports. As director of Red Cross activities in his county Bro. Baker is kept busy. The hours spent in the two parsonages were delightful and helpful. Having had scores of students from Sevier County, the editor always feels at home among its fine people.

LAST Tuesday night the editor had the privilege of giving the final lecture to the class on "Christ and The Coming Kingdom" at Hunter Memorial Church. It was a pleasure to see the fine work that has recently been done on reconditioning the interior. With funds furnished from the bequest of the late Mrs. Anderson Mills a new roof and other improvements have been made. Under the leadership of Rev. I. A. Love this church is coming back. He is very hopeful of a good year. He plans later to have a tent meeting.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

OUR friends are requested to send currency or money orders when they remit, because the bank collection charges are so heavy that we cannot afford to accept checks. If checks are sent us, they will be returned. Naturally, in this money panic, our receipts have fallen off; hence we urge all who can to remit now. It will be highly appreciated.

OUR GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATURE

APPRECIATION is due Governor Futrell and our Legislature for their efforts to economize and put the State on a better financial basis. It would be too much to say that all of their acts were ideal. Indeed, we fear that their school legislation has been unfortunate, and leaves our public schools in a lamentable condition. Later we shall have some practical suggestions on this subject. The defeat of Race-Track Gambling and all bills to weaken prohibition entitles the Legislature to especial honor.

OUR SIX CONSISTENT CONGRESSMEN

WHEN the Beer Bill was passed in the House of Representatives last Tuesday, six of our Congressmen voted against it, Congressman Fuller being the only one who voted for it. Congressmen Cravens, Driver, Glover, Miller, Parks and Ragon, believing that such a measure would legalize that which the 18th Amendment was intended to outlaw and having regard for their oath of office, voted against the bill. All honor to these men. We are proud of their consistent record.

BOOK REVIEW

The Pursuit of Happiness; by Leonora Sill Ashton; published by Lathrop, Lee and Shephard Co., Boston; price $1.50.

To the heart of a real American boy or girl stories of the Revolution are always interesting, and I predict that they will find much in this story of New York young people in the time of the Revolution to charm and hold their attention. Nathan Hale, Alexander Hamilton and George Washington are brought into its pages as friends of the young hero, David Henry. Adventure, innocent amusements and grim war all play a part in the lives of the bright, attractive group of boys and girls who move with you through the pages of this story. Read it for yourself.

As bank checks are too expensive let all use money orders or currency.

SIGNIFICANT INAUGURAL FACTS

As the new Chief Executive closed his address he stated, "The people have registered a mandate that they want direct, vigorous action." To such action he dedicated himself, saying: "In this dedication of a nation we humbly ask the blessing of God. May He protect each and every one of us. May He guide in the days to come."

The President's address did not mark the close of the inaugural celebration. For a century and a half the installation of a new administration has been a major event in Washington. Parades, pageantry, and gayety, as well as dignified and formal ceremonies, characterize these events. With tens of thousands of visitors in the city the National Capitol becomes in fact a national center. Those who have watched the effects of prohibition throughout the Nation, especially during the more recent, disturbing months, were delighted to see evidenced the extent to which America has become a sober nation. Drunkenness and rowdiness such as marred the inaugurals and similar events until a decade and a half ago were notably absent on this occasion.

The inauguration Sabbath, while marked by much activity at the Executive Offices because of needed emergency action, was notable for the religious observances included as a part of the nationally significant events. Despite the great pressure of the public emergency the new President and his family attended a two-hour service at St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church. From nearly all the pulpits of the Capital city sounded calls for renewed spiritual efforts and prayers were offered for the Chief Executive and his associates in authority.

One of the services of particular significance was that held in Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, where six United States Senators counted among the chief lawmakers of the Nation pled for a spiritual undergirding of the country in this hour. When the invitation to speak was extended by the pastor, Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, these Senators readily responded to the opportunity offered to emphasize their conviction that neither legislative enactment nor executive decree could meet the need of this hour. That need, they declared, is a revival of spiritual forces among the citizens as individuals.

The first speaker was Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, who as leader of the Senate Majority, will have, in cooperating with President Roosevelt, a place second to none in developing the program of this administration. He started his remarks by confessing the unworthiness of himself and his colleagues to stand in the pulpit and exhort their fellow-citizens. But having made his confession, he left no doubt as to his conviction of the undeniable need for our spiritual renewing as a people. The other speakers who followed with messages of increasing fervor as one after the other gave his testimony following a brief introduction by the writer, were: Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, the only member of the group not a Methodist but one who is an ardent friend and backer of the fight which the Methodists of his State are making to keep Kansas forever dry; Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York; Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio; Senator Daniel O. Hastings of Delaware; and Senator Arthur R. Robinson of Indiana. Each one of these might be interestingly characterized for the part he has taken in Methodism, either nationally or in his own State, if space permitted. Their statements of experience, of faith, and of hope for a rekindling of our altar fires and a resurrection of our dominant Christian convictions would make worthy contributions to the patriotic and religious magazines of this country.

A great congregation which overflowed the large edifice waited with intense interest upon the word of spiritual testimony of these men of power and responsibility in the greatest legislative hall of the world. These lawmakers were like that ruler of old, Nicodemus, who had heard the Lord Christ say, "Ye must be born again." Helpful to the auditors as was their testimony, the speakers gave evidence that they were reaping the greater benefits as they gave public utterance to their inner convictions. These were benefits certain to register in the larger field of national service.

Thus as one Chief Executive departed, taking with him, because he had labored ably, effectively, and patriotically, the high esteem and love of those who know him and his services, a new hand took the helm of the Ship of State, assured of the best wishes, the cooperation and the prayers of his fellow citizens and back of him a Congress whose personnel is increasingly realizing that master statesmanship is knowing God's will for the Nation and preparing the way for its accomplishment.—Harry E. Woolever, Editor of the National Methodist Press.

At a meeting of the Headquarters Committee of the Anti-Saloon League of Arkansas, held in Little Rock, March 1, 1933, a motion was adopted to immediately began activity to resist repeal of the 18th Amendment. An outline plan for a state-wide organization was adopted. The plan is as follows:

ORGANIZATION—An organization to be set up in each county with the name and purpose thus stated. The organization shall be called, "The Citizens League Against Liquor."

PURPOSE—First, to protect society from the legal and illegal liquor traffic in any form. Second, to resist ratification of the repeal of the 18th Amendment. Third, to educate agitate and develop sentiment in favor of prohibition and observance and enforcement of laws against the liquor traffic. Fourth, that citizens Leagues against liquor be organized in every county in Arkansas and that mass meetings be held throughout each county.

OFFICERS—The officers of County Leagues to be as follows: Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary-Treasurer. These officers shall constitute an executive committee to have charge of whatever county campaigns may be found necessary.

REPORT ON LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE RURAL WORK

Dear Madam President and Auxiliary Members: We want to give you a brief report of the varied activities of your worker, Miss Willie May Porter, in some of the rural communities of Camden District and also what the pastors of the charges think of her work.

Rev. Mr. Teague's charge has the banner Epworth League of Union County. He says that he attributes much of its success to Miss Porter's tireless efforts for the past four years with the Epworth Juniors, now the boys' and girls' World Club. The leaders now were her Juniors four years ago.

Rev. Mr. Smith tells of the organization of a Missionary Society with 17 members doing fine work, in a community never having a society before. He has six churches in his charge with untold possibilities. In these places and wherever Miss Porter can assist, there is a Sunday School, a Bible Study Club or a Missionary Society, missionary work with the children and a great deal of visiting in the homes.

Our car is about worn out, in fact it was so far gone that we only realized $22.50 from the sale of it. Just as we were considering how we were to manage during this Council year, Miss Porter's mother gave us the use of an almost new Ford. So we are using this splendid gift for Miss Porter's transportation.

Last summer her vacation Bible Schools, seven in number, were not confined to Camden District, but other districts enjoyed her service also. The attendance at these schools was more than 500 and the letters of appreciation of her fine services, I have received, are convincing proof of the good accomplished.

For her winter's work she is opening some new fields, as several of her Sunday Schools and Bible Classes have secured capable local leadership, and she does not need to meet with them regularly. For the most part, her visits in the homes meet with a warm welcome, especially is this so where they know her. I quote from one of many letters I received regarding her work: "So with Missionary Societies or Bible Study Clubs, which include in their work Bible study, study of child psychology and health, a reading course, provided by library cards, and social contacts, Miss Porter has given these women a new lease on life." From a community, where not even a Sunday School had been, a lady took some little girls to another community to an Easter Service Miss Porter was giving by song, story picture slides. At the conclusion of the beautiful message, the lady turned to an eleven year old girl and said: "Of course you know about Jesus being crucified and how He rose from the dead." The child replied: "I never heard of it before." Now Miss Porter has an interested group of children and adults in this place in a Sunday School. "Her work with individuals has appealed to me especially," writes one woman—then she tells me of two little orphan girls. Miss Porter has been especially interested in their home life, in their apparel and their morals. She now has them in a Sunday School she organized, and visits them and talks with them in their home. These are just a few of the things I might tell you. Space will not permit or I would give you other instances, for I know you are interested in our Home Mission work of the Little Rock Conference and it is your prayers and money that are making it possible.

Sincerely yours, Mrs. L. K. McKinney, President, Camden District Rural Mission Board, 502 N. Washington Ave., El Dorado, Arkansas.

A LETTER FROM MISS PORTER

Dear Co-Workers of the Little Rock Conference Missionary Society: Since "The Deaconess" is the subject for our March program, I have been asked: "What is our deaconess doing?" Instead of giving this information in person or by letter, as the requests have indicated, I am responding with this open letter through the medium of our Arkansas Methodist.

Doubtless you know the duties of the deaconess as given in our Church Discipline. I sum this up and take as my guide: "Any good that I can do," which is determined through prayer, study, meditation and the advice of those with whom I work, especially Mrs. L. K. McKinney, president of the Camden District Rural Mission Board. Mrs. McKinney told you of some of the things I do in the letter which each auxiliary received in December and later letters in the Arkansas Methodist. In this letter I shall tell of other duties.

I have much social case work. We are working with a case now on which deaconesses in three cities in different states are gathering evidence for us, which other people have failed to get through other agencies. I believe in recreation and miss no opportunity to help in this capacity. During recent months I have given eight Chinese Teas in my home to missionary societies and Bible Clubs within my territory, two parties to young people's groups and several picnics to children. There have been more calls for clothing and shoes than we have been able to supply. The women of El Dorado First Church and the people in the communities, where the needs are greatest, have gladly responded to these calls. Through the use of old Sunday School literature given me by several schools, we have been able to carry on without debt. Two schools are buying all of their literature now and one is buying part. We also help isolated homes to have Sunday School within the home. The mothers say they have a hard time keeping papers so there will be new ones each Sunday, for the children want all of each supply as it is given them. We push the temperance cause at every opportunity. This year we have had three medal contests, sponsored by the El Dorado W. C. T. U. and am now planning for other temperance programs. At our last annual Missionary Conference my services were offered to all districts for Daily Vacation Bible Schools. We held seven last summer. Plans are already under way for five during this year's vacation, which is starting so early with many. If I can assist any of you in having a school please write me.

I came to you the last day of August, 1928. These have been joyous years. I am so thankful for them and grateful to you for your part in making them possible. Let me close with an outline of the history of one project, part of which many of you know. In a camp a Sunday School was needed. The only help I could get was the use of a woman's kitchen. In time we could not use that. Another woman let us use her living room. After a time we gave up altogether. But, the need was so great. In the mean-

MRS. ALBERT MUNNINGHOFF
122 E. Ninth St., Newport, Kentucky

"Both my grandmother and my mother always took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother has six daughters and we all use it too. If I ever have a daughter I shall certainly give it to her. I never felt better in my life."—MRS. ALBERT MUNNINGHOFF.

Perhaps your mother or your grandmother depended upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, too. Thousands of women do. They give it to their daughters as they come to womanhood—they take it before and after childbirth—they rely upon it at middle age. It must be good when 98 out of 100 women say, "It helps me."

"MY MOTHER TOOK THIS MEDICINE TOO"

"My mother took your medicine the greater part of her life, especially at the Change. She is now 63 and in good health. I took it for weakness when I was single. I also took it before childbirth and I have two lovely girls. I highly recommend the Vegetable Compound especially during pregnancy. It makes childbirth very easy."—MRS. MARIE LUBECK, 1024 Boston Road, Bronx, New York.

time a restaurant had been abandoned and left without doors, windows or heat. We secured the use of it. With boards on tin buckets, apple, orange and other crates, an old auto seat and other such for seats, as our only equipment, we had Sunday School. In time three or four adults came from time to time and helped; then others came and we had an adult class. The men built 21 chairs of different heights, using strips and twelve inch planks. When the number was larger, we placed boards between the chairs. Last October I left the school. There are now 50 on roll. In January they lost the use of the restaurant and were given the use of a negro house until it could be fixed up to rent. The first of February they came to me saying they would have to give up for there was no place to go. This is the third attempt I have made to build. All are working now. The lot has been donated and cleared. Plans for building and landscaping are made. All of the labor, some of the material and $78.00 in cash have been given. The weather is our only hindrance at present. In a few weeks we hope to dedicate the Kenova Social-Religious Center.

May the Lord have further use for this work for you and me.

Sincerely, Willie May Porter, 121 Grove Street, El Dorado, Arkansas.

Christian Education

HENDRIX COLLEGE NEWS

A chapel choir composed of fourteen members was organized last Thursday. The group is under the direction of Prof. Clem A. Towner, head of the music department, and it will be presented each Thursday morning on religious chapel programs.

Dean T. S. Staples talked to the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday night on "Is This Depression Unusual?" He stated that it was in that all countries were affected by it. The largest number of students to attend a meeting this year heard the talk.

Prof. Nat R. Griswold, associate Professor of Religion at Hendrix, taught a course in the Standard Training School at Ft. Smith this week.

PLEASE SEND MONEY ORDERS

On account of the heavy charges for clearing checks in Little Rock banks, due to the present uncertain conditions, our friends throughout the Conference will save us a great deal of money if they will send money orders for Fourth Sunday Offerings, Young People's Anniversary, or any other funds coming to this office. Our banks are our friends and we have confidence that this situation will soon clear up.—Clem Baker.

PARAGOULD DISTRICT MEETING

Young People and Young People's workers and Children's workers of the Paragould District met at Paragould First Church Saturday, March 4, in a District-wide meeting under the direction of Miss Letha Phillips, District Director of Young People's Work, and Mrs. Otto Nesler, District Director of Children's work. The following churches were represented: Paragould First Church, Paragould East Side, Mammoth Spring, Gainsville, Biggers, Rector, Walnut Ridge, Black Rock, Piggott, Lefe, Marmaduke, Beach Grove, Hoxie, Knobel, Peach Orchard, and Paragould Circuit. One hundred and twenty-five people were in attendance and most of the pastors of the above named churches.

The entire group met in a joint session at 10 a. m. Rev. W. C. Davidson, pastor of First Church, Paragould, conducted the devotional service. Dr. James A. Anderson, presiding elder of the Paragould District, addressed the group. After the address of Dr. Anderson the Children's Workers and the Young People's Workers met in separate groups, the District Directors taking charge of these groups. Interesting and profitable institute programs were carried out under the direction of these leaders.—Ira A. Brumley, Executive Sec.

HENDERSON YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION

Henderson Young People's Union of Little Rock District will hold its monthly meeting at Mt. Carmel Church, at 7:30 p. m., Friday, Mar. 17.

At the council meeting, held Mar. 5, it was decided that we would use the program that appears in the March issue of the Epworth Highway. This program was made out by the Mt. Carmel League group and given to members of different Leagues in the Union. In addition to this program we will have a speaker to speak to us about the possibilities of a training course in our union.

We are urging all members of the Union to be present, because of the good program, the title of which is "Alcohol and Ourselves!" the purpose of the program is (a) To awaken young people to the importance of whole-hearted opposition to making alcohol available for human beverage consumption, and make them enthusiastic over doing something about it; (b) To demonstrate as an aid to local church groups, how they may join effectively in the process of educating folks as to what alcohol really does to them; (c) To gather materials on the subject and make them available to local groups, or inform them as to their source. Other than for the program we want all members present because we have a large amount of business, and want you so you can help plan our work this year.

Before the program we are going to have a social hour.—Eula Bee McDonald, Publicity Supt.

CONWAY DISTRICT CHILDREN'S WORKERS TO MEET

Miss Lula Doyle Baird, director of the Children's Work in the Conway District, will meet the workers with children in the local churches of the northern zone of the District next Sunday afternoon, March 19, at 2:30 in the Pottsville church. It is hoped that all Nursery, Beginner, Primary and Junior workers with children in the local churches will be there with their problems and ideas.—Mrs. Ira A. Brumley.

PARAGOULD DISTRICT CHILDREN'S WORKERS PLAN VOCATIONAL CHURCH SCHOOLS

Mrs. Otto Nesler, director of the Children's Work in the Paragould District, opened the meeting last Saturday, March 4, in the First Methodist Church, Paragould, with a question box and discussion of problems confronting workers in the Children's Division. Plans were made for Childhood and Youth Week, and a special address on "The Vacation Schools" was given and followed by some definite planning for them by the 52 children's workers present.—Mrs. Ira A. Brumley, N. Ark. Conf. Dir.

INTO the great unknown they pass, through the gates of everlasting mystery. And the blue bird sings for happiness that memory remains to link them with the living. Forever gone are the days when memory need whisper suggestions of neglect or torture with reminders of things undone to honor and protect the mortal part. Within the reach of every family there is now the means of certain, positive, lasting protection for casket and contents.

GALION CRYPTORIUM

THE UNDER-GROUND MAUSOLEUM

Unlike all temporary receptacles for interment, the Cryptorium is a permanent structure of rust-resisting metal. No porous, absorbent materials enter into its construction. The weight of covering earth cannot cause it to crumble. Pressure of surrounding water cannot force entrance to its inner sanctuary. Its protection extends beyond the memory of those who provide it.

Not only because of its protection but also by virtue of its beauty the Cryptorium satisfies a universal human craving. It imparts the beatitude of dignity and loveliness to the rites of interment and paints a memory picture in tints of un fading harmony. Yet it adds but little to the expense of mortuary service. Some models are priced as low as $100, f.o.b., Galion, Ohio.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Saves $2. No Cooking! So Easy!

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It takes but a moment to prepare, and costs very little, but it positively has no equal for quick, lasting relief.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's so easy! Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and children love its taste.

This simple mixture soothes and heals the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable healing agent for severe coughs. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

To make Children

EAT

Don't force children to eat! The girl or boy who has no appetite has stasis—which means the child is sluggish. But cathartics have caused more constipation than they ever cured! The "California treatment" is best—just pure syrup of figs. Try this for a few days, then see how eagerly your youngster will eat.

Stimulate the colon and that child with a finicky appetite will devour everything set before him. Here's the simple treatment that does more for babies or older children than all the diets, fad foods, or tonics.

Nature has provided the "medicine" you'll need to stir your child's colon muscles into proper action. California syrup of figs. Pure, delicious, harmless. It acts on the lower colon—where the trouble is. It has no ill effects on the intestines.

Begin tonight, with this marvelous "California treatment." Any druggist has California syrup of figs, all bottled, with directions. Use enough the first time to cleanse the clogged colon of every bit of poison and hard waste. Then just a little twice a week until the child's appetite, color, weight and spirits tell you the stasis is gone. Whenever a cold or other upset clogs the system again, use this natural vegetable laxative instead of drastic drugs.

WARNING: There are dealers who practice substitution. Be sure to protect your child by looking for the name CALIFORNIA on the bottle.

Renew Your Health By Purification

Any physician will tell you that "Perfect Purification of the System Is Nature's Foundation of Perfect Health." Why not rid yourself of chronic ailments that are undermining your vitality? Purify your entire system by taking a thorough course of Calotabs—once or twice a week for several weeks—and see how Nature rewards you with health.

Calotabs purify the blood by activating the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels. Trial package, 10 cents. Family package, 35 cents. All dealers.

AFTER 40 BOWEL TROUBLE IS MOST DANGEROUS

Constipation may easily become chronic after forty. Continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. When they need help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh, laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot gripe; will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, gassy condition warns of constipation.

Next time just take a spoonful of this family doctor's laxative. See how good it tastes; how gently and thoroughly it acts. Then you will know why it has become the world's most popular laxative. Big bottles—all drugstores.

BAYER SAFE! BAYER

The popularity of Bayer Aspirin is due in large measure to its speed. There is no quicker form of relief for a bad headache, neuralgia, neuritis, or other severe pain. But even more important is its safety. Anyone can take Bayer Aspirin. It does not depress the heart. It does not upset the stomach.

No one need ever hesitate to take Bayer Aspirin because of its speedy action. Its rapid relief is due to the rapidity with which tablets of Bayer manufacture dissolve. You could take them every day in the year without any ill effects.

For your pocket, buy the tin of 12 tablets. For economy, bottles of 100 at the new reduced price.

CAPITOL VIEW CHURCH

Beginning Sunday, March 19, the Capitol View Methodist Church will have the morning worship service, including the sermon, at 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. and the Church School session from 10:30 to 11:15 a. m. This plan will give a definite and worth-while worship service for the Church School pupils and will effect a saving of 45 minutes and will enable the parents to attend both services and get home in time to have the noon meal on time.

The Junior Congregation, which has been recently organized, will enable the children to have a worship service adapted to their ages. Rev. W. A. Stewart, Jr., is the junior pastor.

Rev. C. D. Meux, pastor of this church, was junior pastor under the late Dr. P. C. Fletcher, at First Church, where he organized a junior congregation.

Mr. Eugene A. Marlar, Jr., a young man of the church, will give a short talk or story each morning in the senior congregation.

BOY SCOUTS

Our Boy Scout troop is growing so rapidly that we have more than a full troop now. 37 boys were present at the last meeting and 32 boys make a troop. We will soon have enough for another patrol, according to Mr. Weidemeyer, Scout Master.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts celebrated their 21st anniversary as an organization this past week and last Sunday our troop at Winfield sat in a body in the congregational worship service and were given special recognition.

A particular honor has come to our church and our troop in the honor that has been conferred upon Betty Sue Thomas. She was awarded the Golden Eaglet emblem. There are only two of these in Arkansas and we congratulate Betty Sue on being one of them.

"Swimming" of the Head From Constipation

"I used to suffer from spells of swimming in the head," writes Mrs. Carrie Brown, of Meridian, Miss. "Everything would go 'round and 'round. When I stood upon my feet, I would be almost blind with dizziness. My stomach was upset. These spells, I believe, came from constipation. I suffered torture from the effects.

"My mother had taken Thedford's Black-Draught for a long time, and she suggested to me that I try it. While I was feeling so bad, I took half a teaspoonful, put it in some water and took it. I found it was just the thing to relieve the suffering from constipation. Now I always keep it in my house. I take it whenever I need a laxative.

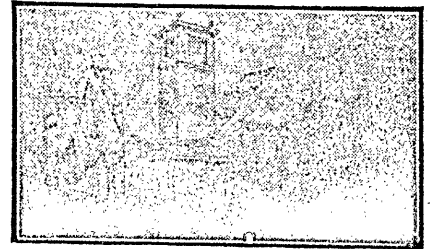

"I have used Black-Draught in my home now for twelve years, and feel it is a great help in keeping my family in a healthy condition."

Gray Hair

Best Remedy is Made At Home

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

MAKES WOMEN LOSE FAT

Miss Rea M. Haines of Dayton, Ohio, writes: "I weighed 180 so started to take Kruschen. I never was so surprised as when I weighed myself the first week—I lost 7 pounds. I just bought my 3rd jar and am down to 145—am still taking them and never felt better in my life." (June 17, 1932).

To take off fat—take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a few cents—get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.

PLAY ENJOYED

Over 200 people laughed heartily and enjoyed thoroughly the three-act play, "The Tightwad," presented by the Curtain Club last week. Mrs. Dell Park McDermott, who directed the play, has received many compliments on her fine work in producing this comedy and all who attended have spoken of the entertaining evening they had.

If there is any one institution in the world that must be kept going it is the Church of the Living God. Banks may fail us and other organizations close their doors, but the Church must keep her doors wide open and minister to the needs of our weary people. We must keep the fires of hope burning on the altars of the Church and our people should come in increasing numbers and kneel before her altars with humility of heart and pray for forgiveness of sins and the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

God has never failed His people. He was with the Church in the Fiery Furnace and in the Den of Lions and He will not forsake her today. All He asks is that we be true to Him in our hearts, though the heavens fall and ancient foundations crumble.

We are learning today that our real possessions are beyond the computation of the mathematicians and that an adding machine cannot give their total value. Suffering, sacrifice, faith, hope, prayer, love in the heart of a Lazarus, outshine all the gold in the Federal Reserve and in the end are worth more. A man's life does not consist in the abundance of plunder on his back, but in the inner possessions of his heart. If your riches are the riches of character the nightingales of hope will sing in your heart even though you are walking in the dark. So carry on, Christian! Carry on!

LOOKING FORWARD

We are anxious to have a great class of children to receive into the Church at Sunrise service Easter morning and we invite all children who are thinking of joining the Church to meet with us during Holy Week for pastoral instruction. Those who can come in the afternoon will meet the pastor at 3:30 and those who cannot come at this hour will meet at 10:45 each morning.

We shall have Pre-Easter services each morning during Holy Week from 10 to 10:45. The important event in the life of Jesus on that particular day will be briefly discussed. We urge all of our people, who can do so, to make their plans to attend these services. These will not be high pressure meetings but seasons for quiet meditation and prayer.

Brother C. E. Hayes, our General Superintendent, and those associated with him in the direction of our Church School are working hard to have 1,000 in attendance on Easter Sunday. Won't you help these faithful workers to achieve this worthy goal by bringing in new members? We can do it and it ought to be done.

Christian Education

OUR TWO HOUR PROGRAM

(This is the sixth in a series of articles on the educational work of Winfield Church).

To quote from an article in The Church School Magazine on our program at Winfield:

"Like most churches, we had two congregations. One came at nine-thirty and stayed until ten-forty-five. Practically all the children and young people and a large percentage of the adults then went home.

'As these retired, others came forward.' The eleven o'clock congregation was made up in large measure of people who had not attended the teaching service."

This condition led to the promotion of a plan under the leadership of Brother Quillian known as our "Two-Hour Program" on Sunday Morning. In this program we have attempted to provide each individual from little children up through adulthood with religious training and worship suitable to their years and interests.

To do this, we have given to the departments in the Children's Division (the Nursery, Beginner, Primary, and Junior or the children from birth to 12 years) the responsibility of formulating a program for two hours on Sunday morning which will provide for teaching and study, then for some means of expressing this learning through activity for others, and also expressing the religious feelings through worship. The entire school takes up at 10 o'clock and continues until 12 o'clock with a carefully worked out program which will meet the religious needs of all who attend. The Primary pupils (from 6 to 9 years of age) do not go into the congregational worship at any regular time, but sometimes a teacher will take her class to the service and let them all sit with her. The Junior children (boys and girls 9, 10, and 11 years of age) come into the congregational worship the last Sunday of every month. At this time there is a hymn used that they are especially familiar with, a Psalm read that they know, and Dr. Heath tries in every way to make the service mean something to this group of children. They have a reserved section in the center of the church where they always sit on their Sundays in the congregational worship.

Through an arrangement between the Board of Stewards and the editor of the Arkansas Methodist, each Winfield family will receive the Methodist without charge so long as Pulpit and Pew is published as a part of the church paper.

The pupils over 12 years of age spend the first hour in their departments and classes in a teaching period. They do not have a worship service, but only a period of brief announcements and then go to their classes for the study period. At the close of the study period at 10:50 they adjourn to the congregational worship service in the auditorium. The Junior High Department has the north side of the balcony for the teachers to sit with their classes, the Senior department has the south side of the balcony and the Young People have the center section of the balcony. Their activities and opportunities for fellowship and recreation and service come during the week and on Sunday evening. The Junior High has a special program from 11 to 12 the last Sunday in every month in their department room. This provides them with an opportunity for self expression and worship under their own leadership.

This two hour program has been worked out with the needs of our people in mind. Those who only come at 11 o'clock for the congregational worship service are not taking advantage of what the church is offering for their spiritual nourishment. Any who take children or young people from the service before 12 o'clock are robbing them of the religious nurture and training that has been prayerfully prepared for them. It is a continuous and connected service and cannot be broken into without the individual being the loser.

CHILDREN'S WORKERS TO MEET

A meeting of all the teachers and workers in the Nursery, Beginner, Primary and Junior departments of all the Methodist Churches in Little Rock, will be held at First Methodist Church, Tuesday, March 21, at 7:30 o'clock. This group has many interests in common and the interchange of ideas and the joint discussion of problems will prove very helpful. Miss Fay McRae of our church, and Conference Children's Worker, and Mrs. W. G. Woodward, District Children's Worker, are preparing this interesting meeting.

CITY LEAGUE UNION

The monthly meeting of the City League Union will be held at Highland Methodist Church next Monday night at 7:45. All our young people are invited to attend this city meeting and the Young People's Department will make special arrangements about transportation.
