

Our Slogan: The Arkansas Methodist in every Methodist home in Arkansas

Volume LIII. LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1933 No. 23

LET US BE READY

OUR readers are urged to co-operate with the organizations in all counties to present the truth of the prohibition situation to the people. It is possible to show that the demand for repeal has been brought about by highly financed propaganda, largely false and misleading. The brewers and certain rich men who wish to avoid paying income taxes are trying to have beer legalized in order that the poor men who drink the beer may pay the taxes. The brewers have been law-breakers and are now demonstrating their spirit of defiance. If the voters know the facts they will defeat repeal. Let all who have not paid poll taxes, do so before June 15. If they failed to assess for poll tax, it is necessary to assess and pay the penalty; but real patriots will not hesitate to do that. The workers should watch for fraud in tax paying and voting and counting. It is understood that the wets are prepared to spend a vast amount of money to win. We must not lose. Let our speakers challenge speakers on the other side. By organizing singers and reciters to accompany speakers and announcing in time, large crowds may be had. The preachers of all denominations are expected to lead, as this is a moral and not primarily a political issue. When speakers and literature are wanted, write to Supt. J. H. Glass, 202 Glover Building, Little Rock. Wake up! Lose no time! Let all do their part and we can keep Arkansas dry. If the vote should be for repeal, it is practically certain that we shall have to fight to maintain our prohibition laws under which we have eliminated the legal liquor traffic.

THE CHURCH FACES A CRISIS POTENTIAL WITH OPPORTUNITY

FOR a decade or more, cynicism, suspicion, unbelief have run rampant throughout the world, poisoning the stream of life. Everything has been tainted. No institution has escaped, not even the Church, and the Church will not recover its rightful place until Christian people return to their former belief in the power of spiritual ideals. Not until the Church has "broken through into reality" not until in the name of Christ it chooses poverty instead of luxury, not so long as it seems to be indifferent to men who are in want, will it give effective proof that its source of power comes from its possession of a divine religion. Only through an obvious material sacrifice on the part of the great body of Christians will the sneer of the materialistic radical be silenced or the despair of the helpless souls, who are the innocent sufferers of a ruthless age, be turned into hope. ***

The Church of Christ is today facing to face with a dramatic opportunity. The disturbing questions are: Will it embrace it? Will it attempt once again to control the destinies of civilization and mold the moral life of the world? Will it choose wisely between the idealism of the gospel and the utilitarianism of modern life?

There are many Christian people who think that the Church has never wavered in its allegiance to its God. Whether it has wavered or not, it has nevertheless in the opinion of many set its heart at times on things that have proved to be heavy liabilities.

Not only is the Church today facing a dramatic opportunity. It is engaged in a struggle which involves its very life. If it wins—and who among us doubts the outcome?—it will emerge ennobled and purified. In our weaker moments we raise our questions, but does not the history of Christianity prove that when it has faced its severest tests it has risen to its greatest heights?

The test is here, now, before us. The world

IF A MAN WALKING IN THE SPIRIT AND FALSEHOOD DO LIE, SAYING, I WILL PROPHECY UNTO THEE OF WINE AND OF STRONG DRINK; HE SHALL EVEN BE THE PROPHET OF THESE PEOPLE.—MICAH 2:11.

A VITAL AND DISTINCTIVE AGENCY
Commenting on the problem of the Church Paper, the Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that manages their papers, makes the following significant pronouncement: "We believe the need was never greater. The lowering of Church loyalty, the slump in morals, and the surge of materialistic philosophy, make it absolutely necessary for the Churches to maintain a virile and progressive weekly press which stands for Christian morality and a divinely planned universe . . . You cannot, must not, handle The Advocate as a cold item of dollars and cents. You must think of the CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE as one of the most vital and distinctive features and agencies of our Methodism. Any action on your part affecting the existence of this paper will have serious repercussions from one end of the Connection to the other. For the ADVOCATE is the bond which is doing more to hold the Church together, maintain morale, and keep the people informed on denominational affairs than any other single institution of Methodism, excepting none."

is sick, and the cure must be militant. The Church, too, is sick; and until it grows strong again in its spiritual life no progress anywhere can be permanent. Science in itself offers no guaranty of a sound and enduring social order; politics have promised much and performed little; the law has been broken down at critical points, and finance is in a sorry plight. The way forward is through the spirit of Christ.

Is the Church ready to begin the long hard climb up the heights? There are many who believe that its faith is at a low ebb; all of us know that its treasures are depleted; its budgets have been reduced; retrenchments have been made in work considered essential; and want and distress exist among its members.

But when the low lights have been seen the picture is by no means complete. Despair and desolation lurk in the shadows, but our hope and confidence thrive in the lights. The high spots are what lure us and hold our attention. It is the good in life which builds our faith and steadies us in our high purposes. So we look to the Church—C. F. Ward in Presbyterian Banner.

A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT

ON MAY 3, at Jackson, Tenn., dedication services in connection with the opening of a new four-story building for the Publishing House of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, were held. This building, costing $100,000, and finished during this period of depression with practically no debt, is the best of its kind owned by any colored denomination, and is indeed a great achievement. The work was done under the leadership of Dr. H. P. Porter, the Publishing Agent, and the dedicatory sermon was preached by Bishop Phillips. This splendid denomination of 365,000 members, really the colored contingent of our own Church, is a virile and enterprising Church worthy of our warmest sympathy and he support. We congratulate them on this achievement, and bid them Godspeed in their career. This Church, although Southern in origin, has followed its migrating members and has a constituency in all parts of the United States.

LITTLE ROCK DISTRICT CONFERENCE

THE day was Wednesday of last week. The place was the historic Salem Campground about five miles north of Benton. The weather was perfect. The entertainment, by the whole Bryant Circuit, led by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Wyatt, was unsurpassed. Each one of 401 persons received a plate filled to overflowing with toothsome food. All the pastors were present, except Rev. S. K. Burnett, who was in Memphis attending his wife who was very ill in a hospital. Lay delegates were practically all present. Dr. James Thomas, P. E., in his characteristic way, had committees ready and had supplied all pastors with blanks for reports which were read and filed for the inspection of the Bishop. He had also prepared a list of laymen for the benefit of the lay delegates; hence, with Rev. Leland Clegg presiding over the lay group, there was no time lost in balloting. Following a systematic program, each cause was properly represented in a brief talk; the Missionary Societies reported; and committees read concise papers. Just before noon Rev. H. B. Vaught, pastor of Asbury Church, preached an impressive sermon. Under his leadership that church has made a truly remarkable record, paying pastor to date and all Benevolences in full, with a large numerical increase, and all departments functioning. The spirit of the Conference was fine. Practically no reference was made to the depression, and it seems probable that the finances will be much in advance of last year. The number of additions was large. Again, as often before, Dr. Thomas proved himself a past-master in holding a successful district conference in one day. He knew just what he wanted done, and everything was ready when expected. His comments on certain unforgivable delinquencies cut like a surgeon's knife and will doubtless result in curing conditions that ought not to prevail. He and Dr. Heath and others so ably represented the Arkansas Methodist that it was unnecessary for me to say much. It is believed that plans will yet be worked out to make the District 100 per cent on the paper. Rev. J. L. Tucker, pastor of Bauxite Church, told of the activities of the dry leaders in Saline County. There will be speaking in some thirty places, and there is much fine discussion in the county paper. The next conference will meet at historic Mt. Tabor Church—A. C. M.

AGAIN IN THREE COUNTIES.

THIS time the counties were Independence, Jackson and Lawrence. On Friday and Saturday morning of last week I attended at Batesville the meeting of the Arkansas Press Association, of which I have been a member for nearly thirty years. It is a fine body of clear-headed, patriotic men and women. This was demonstrated when a resolution which would have committed the Association to support of the movement for repeal of the 18th Amendment, was promptly and by almost unanimous vote, laid on the table. This did not mean that all the editors are opposed to repeal, but that they thought the several editors should be left free to espouse either side as conscience might dictate. This editor was elected historian, a fact which was overlooked by the wet

METHODIST CALENDAR

Adult Assembly, Hendrix College, June 13-17.
Arkadelphia Dist. Conference at Magnet June 30.

Personal and Other Items

EVANGELIST H. C. HANKINS has two open dates this summer for tabernacle meetings. Address him at Springdale.

PASTORS are urged to send in lists of subscribers under our recent offer. It is highly important. Delay is dangerous.

SUPT. J. H. GLASS of the Arkansas Anti-Saloon League is this week in consultation with the national leaders at Birmingham, Ala.

REV. F. C. CANNON, our pastor at Lake Village, calls attention to an error in a recent report of his charge. The amount sent in was $25.00.

REV. H. M. LEWIS, our pastor at Wilson, preached the sermon for Wilson High School the morning of May 21, and for the Blytheville High School at 4:30 p. m. the same day.

MRS. CHAS. GOODWIN, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Lewis of Arkansas City, underwent a major operation at Lake Village on May 15, and is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

PRESIDING ELDER J. A. HENDERSON announces that the Arkadelphia District Conference will convene at Magnet, a country church midway between Malvern and Hot Springs, on June 30, at 8:30 a. m. It will be a one-day session.

REV. WM. SHERMAN, as was noted some weeks ago, was holding a meeting assisted by Evangelistic Singer Johnson. It resulted in 50 conversions and 28 additions to our Searcy Church with the other churches strengthened. Bro. Sherman did the preaching. It is considered by many as the best revival that has been held in Searcy in years.

WE place beautifully designed crosses on our communion tables or lift them on church spires, but we do not make the Cross the central fact of our ministry. We somehow shrink from it and shun it. . . . Something will happen to this world when the Church preaches again the message of the Cross—J. R. Sizoo in Presbyterian Banner.

THE editor will be at Walnut Ridge on Saturday, June 17, where Rev. H. O. Bolin, the pastor, has arranged for a debate on the question of Repeal. He will be at Mt. Carmel Church, near Jonesboro, at 11:00 a. m., Sunday, June 20, at a county-wide meeting in the interest of retention of the 18th Amendment. It is probable that he will be in several debates at later dates.

DR. J. D. HAMMONS, pastor of First Church, Hot Springs, leaves next week for a vacation at Duke University. Rev. J. H. Cummins, pastor of Grand Ave. Church, will preach in First Church the morning of June 18, over radio Station KTHS, and Dr. James Thomas, P. E., of Little Rock District, will preach over the radio the morning of June 25.

ARTHUR BRISBANE and his like, who are trying diligently to discredit the 18th Amendment, and who are exceedingly careless with their facts and impressive with their fiction, have been claiming that there were 40,000 or 50,000 speak-easies in New York City, and only a few before prohibition. The N. Y. police, now zealous to protect the vendors of 3.2 beer, have recently made a census of the city and found only 9,000.

REPRESENTATIVES of all the prohibition organizations, at a meeting in this city last Tuesday, agreed on a thoroughly co-operative plan for the United Forces to Oppose Repeal of the 18th Amendment. Miss Eleanor Neill of Batesville was elected executive secretary and will have offices in the Wallace Building in this city. All requests for literature, speakers, and information should now be addressed to Miss Neill.

GREAT BRITAIN, during the past two years, has been in great financial distress, with more than 3,000,000 persons unemployed, but twelve British brewery companies netted a profit of $50,000,000 in 1931, and $40,000,000 in 1932. During 1932 over $1,000,000,000 was spent on alcoholic liquors. If our people were drinking and spending in like proportion it would mean that we were spending about $3,000,000,000 for such drink.

THE straw vote taken by an evening paper of this city shows a large majority for repeal of the 18th Amendment, also for passage of a beer bill. This may be a correct expression of those who voted; but we think it can easily be shown that the conditions surrounding the voters are essentially unfair, and that the paper deserves censure for its activities. It is probable that we shall have something further to say on this subject when the vote is all in.

THE Vermont Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its recent session adopted a resolution that no candidates be received on trial this year, that only those in the class on trial be received into full membership, and that vacancies be first offered to members of the Conference before they were to be filled by supplies. This Conference has only one district with 94 appointments. One preacher sits with the Bishop and the single district superintendent (equivalent to presiding elder with us.) to assist in making the appointments.

press of the State. I have been greatly honored by the Association, having been orator four times, chaplain times without number, and historian several times. Governor Futrell made a very sensible address, recommending economy and honest government and urging the editors to work for the good of the State. D. V. Haddock, secretary of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, spoke on "State Problems and the Responsibility of the Press," and revealed conduct of officials thoroughly reprehensible and deserving rebuke, and advocated that the papers should lead in demanding in the several counties the use of the County Initiative to correct these abuses.

After adjournment I had the privilege of speaking to a group at the courthouse on "Repeal." The ministers and other good citizens of Independence Co. are thoroughly aroused and organized to fight.

Finding that we were going the same way,

Rev. Jefferson Sherman, P. E., offered to convey me to Swifton in his car. I was glad of the opportunity to travel the highway south of White River to Newport, as I had never seen much of that country. Oil Trough Bottom is a wonderful farming section where thousands of acres were in wheat, much of which was injured by recent floods. After supper at the hospitable home of Mrs. Graham at Tuckerman, Bro. Faust carried me to Swifton. On the way we passed Cook School, and, finding a community singing-school willing to listen, I spoke on the prohibition situation and was encouraged. Sunday morning I spoke at Swifton, which is in Jackson County. At 3:00 p. m. I again spoke to a fine crowd at Strangers' Home, five miles west of Alicia. At night I addressed the Young People at 7:00 and preached at 8:00 at Alicia, which is in Lawrence County. Then Bro. Sherman, who had held a quarterly conference at Lauratown at 3:00, held the Q. C. for Swifton and Alicia. The reports by Rev. W. J. Faust, pastor, and his officials were good and the outlook encouraging. Bro. Faust and his wife are leading their people in all good things and expect to close a happy and successful year on this interesting charge.

Desiring to reach Newport in time for an early train, Bro. Sherman and I left Swifton about 4:30 Monday morning. As it was too early to disturb keepers of filling stations, Bro. Sherman took chances on having enough gasoline. To our dismay it suddenly gave out six miles from our destination. Bro. Sherman walked back to a station, but found it out of commission, and I walked a quarter of a mile the other way and found an obliging man who "robbed" a car of enough "gas" to empower our car to proceed. However, the delay caused me to miss my train by three seconds. It started just as we drove up. I thoroughly enjoyed my association with Bros. Sherman and Faust and friends, and found many lamenting the fact that Bro. Sherman, on account of the four-year limit, could not continue on the District. He is a genuinely popular P. E., and his District is going to make a good showing this year. I discovered prohibition sentiment strong among those with whom I circulated, but apprehension because so few had poll tax receipts.—A. C. M.

"THE PASTOR'S LITTLE BOOK"

DAILY VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL BEGINS MONDAY,
JUNE 11.

Beginning next Monday, June 11, our two weeks' Daily Vacation Church School session will begin, under the supervision of Miss Ola Ford, Children's Division Superintendent. Hours for the school will be from 8 to 10 a. m. Three departments, the Beginners, ages 4-6; Primary, ages 6-8, and the Juniors, ages 9-11, will be cared for in the school. Mrs. Fred Kinder is in charge of the Beginners, Miss Beatrice Robins and Miss Eunice Jones, the Primary, and Mrs. Ira A. Brumley, the Juniors. A staff of fifty possible workers has been set up. Enrollment for the school will be made next Sunday at the regular Sunday session of the church. Parents desiring to take courses in the Assembly at Hendrix, may leave their children at the church throughout the entire session, as teachers will be on duty till the last class session at Hendrix is adjourned. There is no expense attached to the school except that cared for in the budget, and the free will offering taken at the close of the school.

ADULT ASSEMBLY AT HENDRIX

Beginning next Monday with a banquet at Tabor Hall, at 7:30, when Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs will be our guest, the First Adult Assembly in our Church will be held. Classes will meet in two sessions, from 8:45 to 9:40, and 9:50 to 10:40. Transportation is furnished by our committee, and the expense of the school, except texts, will be cared for by the Church. We are hoping for a large enrollment from our congregation.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX.

Through June 15 Poll Tax can be paid without penalty. Your paying this will help our VOTE DRY July 18.

A letter from Rev. David and Mrs. Helen Weems has just been received from 812 Second St., Durham, N. C., where Mrs. Weems is recuperating from a temporary nervous breakdown. They will remain in North Carolina until November. Our members will remember these ministers, who have represented our church in the Orient for the past three years, in prayer that their return to the mission field may be made at an early date. Brother Weems sends greeting to our congregation in the following lines:

"As I have indicated in letters from Korea to the Conway Church before, it has been a great source of encouragement to us to be the Conway Church's representatives in the mission field of Korea. Therefore, it has been a great disappointment to us that the unexpected necessity came about for us to return on sick leave, within our regular term of service.

"Express to the people of the congregation in our behalf, when opportunity arises, our love and appreciation of their support, moral and spiritual as well as financial, and our desire for their prayers in this period of recuperation and adjustment.

"My wife and daughter Nancy join me in sending to you and to Mrs. Workman our greeting and warmest personal regards, and through you to the good people of your congregation."—David Weems.

WISE WORDS

In one of his syndicated sayings, Will Rogers, the witty wise-cracker, says:

"Beer is supposed to be coming. From what I can read from all the states, nobody knows who is going to sell it, where you are supposed to get it, what it will cost, or what it will taste like. The whole thing came up so quick that the boys can't hardly arrange how the graft will be distributed, all but New York. Tammany Hall, of course, got the privilege there. I tell you what I will lay you a little bet on. I bet they mess this thing up so that it will do away with the passing of the real Prohibition Amendment. The whole country is buying a blind horse. Suppose this stuff don't taste like we think it will."

A MESSAGE FROM SUPERIN- TENDENT OF CHILDREN'S DI- VISION OF LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE

Dear Friends:

I desire to use this opportunity through the Arkansas Methodist to get a message to each Auxiliary of Children's Work in case some name may have been lost in the shift of offices from Little Rock to Camden.

I urge you to put emphasis on the Vacation School of Missions this summer.

We do not furnish material for the summer quarter but recommend Mission study texts.

In the magazine, "World Friends," are found supplemental material for the class sessions and worship programs. In many places due to financial pressure, public schools have closed unusually early this spring. Longer vacation months offer an opportunity and present a challenge to the church to use this greater leisure to make its contribution to the development of the child. With the school year shortened, children will need the supervision the church can give. Vacation schools will help fill in the breach and not only tide the children over this period of economy, but be a means of enriching and broadening their lives. Let us give our children as much of our time as possible this summer, working, studying and playing with them in World Friendship courses and projects.

Topics especially recommended for this summer are China and the American Indian.

China—Juniors: "New Joy," by Caroline Sewall and Charlotte Chambers Jones. Price, paper, 75 cents.

Primaries—Off to China, by Helen Furman Sweet and Mabel Garrett Wagner, 75 cents.

The American Indian—Juniors: Many Moons Ago and Now, by Katherine Gladfetter, price 75 cents.

Primaries—Children of the Great Spirit, by Florence C. Means and Frances Somers Riggs, price 60 cents.

Any of the above mentioned books and helps may be ordered from the Methodist Publishing House, 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

Please, if you have not heard from me since last Conference, get in touch with me immediately and if you would like to ask definite questions concerning children's work, I would be glad to try to answer them. I solicit your co-operation. I am at

ZONE MEETING AT CAPITOL VIEW

Zone No. 2 of the Little Rock District met at Capitol View Church Thursday, May 25, with sixty-five ladies present representing ten churches in this zone. Mrs. W. O. Clark, District Secretary, presided.

Mrs. Arthur Reed gave the morning devotional and Mrs. Bedwell extended greetings to the Auxiliaries, Mrs. Clark responding.

A report from the annual meeting held at Hot Springs urged each auxiliary to organize young women's circles and the children's work. The New Standard of Excellence was read and each auxiliary urged to strive to attain this standard.

Oral reports were given by the various auxiliary presidents. All reporting an increase in attendance at their meetings. Mrs. Nelson gave the report on the annual meeting at Hot Springs. After singing the World Outlook song composed by the ladies of Capitol View Church the morning session was adjourned with prayer by Rev. C. D. Meux, pastor of Capitol View.

After a delicious pot-luck luncheon the ladies re-assembled for the afternoon session which was in charge of Highland Church, Mrs. T. L. Adkins, chairman. Mrs. Edwards gave the devotional. Mrs. E. C. Farabee sang a solo, "Take Time to Be Holy," and Mrs. S. J. Steed spoke on the World Outlook and Missionary Education, stressing the necessity of keeping the missionary spirit foremost. The program was closed with a duet by Mrs. Hendon and Mrs. Farabee.

Officers were elected for the ensuing two years. Mrs. Sullivan of Capitol View was elected chairman, Mrs. Kilmer, of Highland, secretary. Mrs. Lyle extended thanks to the hostess auxiliary for their hospitality and meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Clark.—Mrs. Pierce Osborne, Reporter.

Christian Citizenship, Mrs. Ethel Cole Cunningham.

Vocal Duet, Mrs. Eric Caviness, Miss Hazel Lewis.

A basket of beautiful red roses was given to the Paris Auxiliary, which led the District.

A very helpful and enjoyable meeting was well attended, about 150 being present and thirteen auxiliaries represented.—Mrs. B. C. Reed, Sec.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

We, the Courtesy Committee of the quarterly meeting of Zone No. 1, Helena District, want to extend our thanks and appreciation to the Helena Auxiliary for their cordial welcome and hospitality.

To Mrs. J. J. Decker of Aubrey, China, who presided so efficiently and to Mrs. Gregory of Lexa for the opening devotional. To Miss Marie Holmstedt, district secretary, for her splendid report of the Annual Conference at Paris, April 11-14.

To Mrs. Warnken of West Helena for her inspirational talk on Spiritual Life and how we may form Spiritual Life Groups. To Mrs. Little of Forrest City, district chairman of Mission and Bible Study, for her helpful discussion on how to conduct the study class of our auxiliaries. To Mrs. C. W. Lester, Helena, and Mrs. Horace Bonner, Marianna, for the interesting debate on the subject, "Resolved, that License to Preach shall be granted to women of the M. E. C. S." To those who rendered beautiful and soul-inspiring music, both vocal and instrumental. To Bro. Lester for the earnest message on Prohibition.

And last, to all who in any way contributed to the success of the meeting and especially to those who prepared the appetizing and bountiful lunch for the noon hour.—Mrs. Warnken, Mrs. Muscolina, Mrs. J. M. Hughey.

NEWARK AUXILIARY

The Society met at the home of Mrs. Dan Moore, Jr., May 23, at 2:30 p. m. in their regular monthly literary and social meeting, with Mrs. Dan Moore, Jr., as hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. G. Magness.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Eleven members and two visitors, Mrs. O. F. Craig of Newark, and Mrs. Dave Bunn of Los Angeles, California, were present.

A very interesting program was rendered as follows with Mrs. O. L. Bone, as leader:

Discussion topic, "The Deaconess, a Church Worker."

Worship theme, "The Unity of the Church," I Cor. 12:12-18, 27.

Leader talk, Mrs. Bone.

Christ for the World, Mrs. Galloway.

Discussion (1) A Church Deaconess Conference, Mrs. Rawlings, Mrs. Freeze, Mrs. Williams. (2) The Deaconess and the Community Church, Mrs. Walden.

Prayer, Mrs. Magness.

Report on District meeting, very ably given by Mrs. Rawlings.

Social hour. Delicious refreshments were served which everyone enjoyed.—Mrs. Williams, Reporter.

A RETREAT IN THE NORTH CAR- OLINA MOUNTAINS

A retreat this year will be held at Brevard Institute, Brevard, North Carolina. The date is July 14-16th. The invitation is general and limited to one hundred. Price of entertainment at Brevard will be three dollars per person if as many as fifty attend. If less than fifty attend, fifty cents a day will be added. Each guest is asked to bring sheets for single beds, other linens furnished. There will be a registration fee of one dollar. The reservation and registration fee should be sent as soon as possible to Miss Daisy Davies, 1066 Spring St., N. W., Atlanta, Ga.

Let this announcement of the retreat be a call to prayer. These are days when the spiritual note, the note of life in Christ should be sounded everywhere with special clearness and charm; where men and women everywhere should be helped to see the meaning of God in their lives and the power of God for their lives.

For all who are privileged to attend the retreat "May there be a new complete commitment to Jesus Christ, the Redeemer, a new and clear trust in and use of the gospel of the salvation of life and in Jesus Christ as Savior."

Brevard is a beautiful spot, an ideal place for a vacation. Fill your car and come.—Mrs. Seth A. Craig.

SPECIAL PICTURE SERVICE AT YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY.

A new and unannounced feature of the program at North Arkansas Conference Young People's Assembly, is the stereopticon lecture on the Missionary Work of the Young People. This has just been released from Nashville and we have every assurance from Miss Ina C. Brown that it is a "Cracker." You know we can trust Miss Brown. This is to be given the night of June 27. Pastors and church leaders will do well to make the effort necessary to see and hear this.—Nat R. Griswold.

SHERIDAN

Sunday morning, May 28, I had the pleasure of attending Sunday School, and preaching at Sheridan for Rev. W. L. Arnold. The Sunday School is supervised by Mr. J. K. Sorrells, and is in fine condition.

Bro. Arnold had been given a trip to Washington, D. C., by a friend, and was away. He is doing a fine piece of work at Sheridan. His people love him and follow his leadership. I thoroughly enjoyed the brief visit.—S. T. Baugh.

PICTURES AT 28TH STREET

Filling a long standing engagement, I delivered the illustrated lecture on "The Romance of the Country Church," at 28th Street Church, Sunday night, May 28, to a fine congregation.

Rev. E. T. Miller is the popular pastor. He is doing well in his fifth year. After the service they had a Church Conference and made plans to put a new roof on the church.—S. T. Baugh.

HOW WILCOX LED THE CHURCH

Rev. Doyle L. Wilcox, pastor of the Swan Lake Circuit, has the distinction of having received more people into the church on profession of faith last year than any other pastor in the entire Church. He has led his brethren of the Little Rock Conference the past two years in the number of accessions on profession of faith.

It is interesting to know how he did it. First, this pastor is genuinely religious. He knows Jesus, who has meant so much to him that he has dedicated all his powers to introducing people to the Master.

Second, he sought out the people. All the people were visited and cared for. He made a map of his entire circuit, locating all the homes, secured the information about the members of the family, urged them to attend Sunday School, prayed with them, begged them to accept Jesus, if they were not already Christians.

Some of the most cultured families in Arkansas live within the bounds of the Swan Lake Circuit. They love Bro. Wilcox and follow his leadership. The people of limited advantages also love and follow him.

Wilcox has demonstrated what a man can do who loves God and his people and who is not afraid of hard work. May the Lord richly bless him and lead him on to even greater things in the building of the Kingdom of righteousness on earth.—S. T. Baugh.

ALL ABOARD FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY

Everything is in readiness for the Little Rock Conference Young People's Assembly which begins with the annual banquet Monday night, June 19, and closes with the consecration address by Bishop Dobbs on Friday night, June 23. Every hour, from banquet to benediction, will be crowded with something interesting. Friday will be "Presiding Elders" Day. All the Elders will be there. From over the Conferences come the good news that our young people will be there in full force. Many preachers are coming with their young people. There will be a special class for adult leaders this year. The cost is only $6.00, including room, board, banquet and registration. This is the big week of all the year for our young people. Let's all be on hand.—Clem Baker.

CHRISTIAN ADVENTURE ASSEMBLY AT MONTICELLO THIS WEEK.

The third annual session of the Christian Adventure Assembly for Monticello and Pine Bluff Districts, is in session at Monticello A. and M. College this week. Our district directors say it is going to be the best yet. A fine faculty is in charge. Neil Hart is the Dean, assisted by Mrs. Frank Musser and Don Marlan. Claud Roy is in charge of recreation. Watch for the report next week.—Clem Baker.

CHRISTIAN CULTURE INSTITUTE AT BAUXITE.

The Henderson Union of Little Rock District is having its first Christian Culture Institute at Bauxite this week end. The charges co-operating are: Bauxite, Bryant Ct., Mabelvale - Primrose, Douglassville - Guyer Springs, and the Maumelle Ct. The instructors are: Roy Fawcett, Alfene Blakeley and Clem Baker. Tucker is the pastor host.—Clem Baker.

PLEASE SEND YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY OFFERING.

We sincerely thank all who have sent in Sunday School Day offerings; but we have heard of a number of schools that have taken the offering and have not sent it in. Brethren, please send this in as soon as possible. This is the only money we have to operate on from last November till next Conference. We are confident that every school in the Conference is going to help us with some kind of an offering this year and we would rather starve to death than to complain at our friends who, we know, are doing their best. But if you have taken the offering please send it in. If you have not taken the offering we would appreciate it if you could get to it before July.—Clem Baker.

CHILDREN'S WORKERS MEET

The Children's Workers in the Sunday Schools of the southeastern part of the Camden District met at Norphlet last Thursday, with Miss Willie Mae Porter, District secretary, in charge. The following program was given:

Devotional, Rev. Otto Teague. Admonition to take care of our children religiously was the theme of this splendid talk.

The relationship of the Children's Division to the Board of Religious Education was explained by Mrs. E. D. Galloway.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor taught the group a number of songs to be used in the Beginner Department. She also spoke of the program material available for use in this group.

Mrs. Leo Baxley taught a group of Primary songs, and gave the afternoon devotional as a Primary group might have it.

A lovely luncheon was served in the social room of the church.

A round-table discussion reflecting Miss Skinner's message, was conducted by Miss Porter. "Trends" was the basis of this discussion.

The story of a "Lesson" was read by Miss Lillian Taylor.

About twenty people attended this meeting, which was most profitable to all.—Mrs. E. D. Galloway, Sec.

HENDRIX COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

The 49th annual commencement exercises of Hendrix College were held on the campus this morning, May 30. A class of 64 young men and women received degrees.

The program opened with the academic procession of the class, faculty and trustees, as the Hendrix ensemble played the march from Mendelssohn's "Athalia." Following an invocation by Dr. James Thomas of Little Rock, a vocal solo, "Dio Possente," from Gounod's Faust, was given by Robert W. Evans.

President Reynolds introduced J. N. Heiskell, the commencement speaker and editor of the Arkansas Gazette, which he said was one of the leading agencies of education in the state. Mr. Heiskell spoke of the practical value of the fine arts and the necessity of their cultivation for the well rounded development of Arkansas's economic life. He paid tribute to Conway for its achievement in the cultural fields.

Following Mr. Heiskell's address Miss Josephine Cole, accompanied at the piano by R. N. Hill, played as a violin solo, "On Wings of Song," by Mendelssohn-Achorn.

The exercises were concluded with the conferring of degrees and awarding of honors by President Reynolds. A brief statement by George W. Donaghey, chairman of the Building Committee, that the new women's building would be completed by September, was applauded. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Thomas. Prizes were awarded as follows: M.

L. Schisler, History Prize, for the best work done in six hours of History, offered by Dr. J. Q. Schisler, awarded to Miss Kathleen Jaynes of Conway.

Philip Cone Fletcher, Debators' Medal, for the best individual debater, awarded to Miss Marjorie Whidden of Pine Bluff.

Essay Prize, offered by the Department of English for the best essay, awarded to William A. Dean of Cabot.

Hugh W. Robertson Athletic Medal, awarded to Carroll Bird of Crossett.

The Scholarship Prize, the W. E. Hogan Mathematics Prize and the McCuiston English Prize will not be awarded until after examinations for underclassmen have been completed this week.

High scholastic seniors in the 1933 class were Samuel I. Bratton of Conway and Miss Bobbie Hughes Forster of Little Rock. Miss Forster is a transfer student from Radcliffe College, women's department of Harvard University.

Seniors graduating with honors were: Misses Leah Rose Hicks, Kathleen Jaynes and Evelyn Peninger and Robert N. Hill.

MORRILTON, PLUMERVILLE AND CONWAY MEETING

Miss Lula Doyle Baird, director of Children's Work in the Conway District, led an interesting all-day meeting at Morrilton May 26.

Rev. E. W. Faulkner led the devotional service, emphasizing the religious education of children.

Mrs. Smokey sang a solo, "I Think When I Read that Sweet Story," after which the group learned "God Is Near," a song all children can enjoy singing all summer.

The Conference Director of Children's Work discussed "The Missionary Development of Children," after which a lively discussion ensued, and the group laid plans for a traveling Friendship Box in the Central Zone.

During a quiet hour before lunch, Mrs. Tom Massey played pipe-organ numbers, providing suitable background for meditation.

Sandwiches, iced-tea and luscious cakes were enjoyed during the conversation of the noon hour, and Miss Baird demonstrated to the group the process of making leaf-prints.

After lunch, the group profited by a discussion on: (1) What I Like

LITTLE ROCK DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The 65th session of Little Rock District Conference met at historic Salem Camp Ground, on Bryant Charge, with Dr. James Thomas, presiding elder, in the chair. Rev. C. D. Meux was elected secretary and Rev. Leland Clegg was elected laymen's secretary. All the pastors were present except Rev. S. K. Burnett, who was at the bedside of his wife, who is ill in a hospital at Memphis.

Among the visitors were: Rev. J. L. Dedman, P. E. Camden District; Rev. J. M. Hamilton, P. E. Monticello District; Rev. J. A. Henderson, P. E. Arkadelphia District; Rev. H. D. Sadler, P. E. Texarkana District; Rev. J. W. Mann of Warren, Rev. O. C. Birdwell, and Rev. J. H. Cummins of Hot Springs, Rev. Fred R. Harrison of Malvern, Rev. Robt. S. Beasley of Traskwood, Rev. R. E. Simpson of Hamburg, Rev. J. L. Hoover of El Dorado and Rev. H. H. Griffin of Camden.

The various interests of the church were ably represented by speakers.

The reports of the pastors were encouraging, showing that conditions are improving along many lines. At 11 o'clock Rev. H. B. Vaught of Asbury Church preached a helpful sermon. Delegates to the Annual Conference were elected as follows: Principals, J. S. M. Cannon, S. B. Lasister, J. W. Lewellen, Mrs. B. J. Reaves, J. E. Berry, E. A. Carl-Lee, T. P. Atkins, G. H. Burden, Mrs. S. J. Steed, Mrs. H. L. Galusha, A. D. May, W. S. Perry, E. V. Markham, T. S. Buzbee, C. G. Miller and Ed W. Dixon; alternates, Mrs. D. B. Perkins, N. D. Couch, J. M. Jackson, Mrs. D. G. Baker, H. A. Coleman, Andrew Cook, A. H. Tillery, Mrs. J. W. Douglas, and A. J. Wilson.

There were twelve presidents of Woman's Missionary Societies and all made interesting reports.

Robert Walker Core, Thomas Erwin Sandlin and William Allen Stewart, Jr., were licensed to preach, and Sandlin was recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial.

The District Conference will be held at Mt. Tabor Church on the Austin Charge next year.

The ad-interim licensing committee was named as follows: Presiding Elder James Thomas, Revs. R. E. Fawcett, E. O. Heath, W. C. Hilliard and C. D. Meux.

It was the largest attended District Conference of recent years. A bountiful dinner was served by the combined churches of the Bryant Charge, the pastor, the Rev. C. B. Wyatt, being the host.—C. D. Meux, Secretary.

WASHINGTON COUNTY ORGANIZES

The dry organization or The Citizens' League Against the Repeal of the 18th Amendment of Washington County, held a mass meeting at the Court House in Fayetteville May 27 to select a delegate to represent it at the State Convention.

The Rev. Sam M. Yancey gave a rousing prohibition address and was enthusiastically endorsed as the delegate. Petitions were circulated to have his name on the ballot to be voted on July 18th. Already several hundred names are attached. Other petitions have been sent to outlying precincts for more names.

Sunday morning, in the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Warren Johnston, who was preaching the commencement sermon for Galloway, at Searcy, Bro. Yancey filled the pulpit at Central Methodist Church, Fayetteville, both morning and evening. At the 11 o'clock hour he lifted his voice in a powerful appeal to the Christian manhood and womanhood of our county for the retention of the 18th Amendment. His address was replete with examples of economy and welfare measures that it has helped; what it has meant in law observance to the youth of the land, and he conclusively showed that tearing the 18th Amendment from the Constitution would weaken the whole structure. Shall we turn over this nation to the beer-boozers, wine-bibbers, gambling-sinners and law-breakers to reform it? he asked. "No! No! No!" he answered.

A large and attentive audience listened as the broadcasting message went forth to the shut-ins.

The Workers Union, a group of earnest, law-abiding citizens of Fayetteville, have pledged the membership 100 per cent for the support of the 18th Amendment.—Mrs. Lucy Critz-Trent, Pres. Local W. C. T. U., Fayetteville, Sec.-Treas., Citizens League Against Repeal of 18th Amendment, Washington Co.

BRO. JERNIGAN AT JONESBORO

On invitation of Rev. H. Lynn Wade, the wide-awake pastor who is in good favor with his noble people, I spent the fourth Sunday in May at Jonesboro. Rev. C. O. Hall, the energetic and well beloved pastor of Huntington Avenue Church, asked me to preach for him at 11:00 a. m., which I did, to a good congregation.

For dinner, Bro. Wade and I went to Trinity, ten miles out, to a Memorial Day service. Met a large crowd of old cross-roads people. Bro. Wade was on the program, and delivered a beautiful, strong address, suitable to the occasion. The crowd was estimated at 1,000 or more. I was called on for a talk and made a few scattered remarks, largely reminiscences.

Returned to Jonesboro and preached at night to a very good congregation. At the close, Bro. Wade asked for a hand-shake of appreciation. and how they came! Methodists can shake hands yet, if they can't shout.

Methodism in Jonesboro is strong. It began in "A Livery Stable" back in the 50's. Rev. W. R. Foster preached the first sermon ever preached in Jonesboro, in a livery stable, about 1854.

So you might say that all the Protestant Churches in Jonesboro, and especially the Methodist, were once a "livery stable."

Personally, I missed many familiar faces. Most of them are gone to their reward; others linger, but are aged and feeble. Among them, who is sorely ill, is Bro. A. L. Malone. But "Bob" is ready to live or die, and that is the best of all.

All in all, my visit was delightful and brotherly. I am willing at a convenient season to repeat it.—Jas. F. Jernigan.

THE VALLEY SPRINGS TRAINING SCHOOL

The Valley Springs Training School has just closed one of its most successful years. In point of number the enrollment was not quite equal to what it has been one or two other years, but the class of students attending was of the highest type and the graduating class of fifteen girls and twelve boys was one of the largest in the history of the school.

Rev. W. L. Oliver, pastor of our Church at Harrison, preached the closing sermon to the class, and Rev. F. J. Stowe, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Harrison, delivered the address. Each speaker gave one of the strongest and most interesting addresses we have ever had here.

Besides the regular class-work many activities worthy of mention have been carried on this year.

The senior class, sponsored by Miss Mac Wess Bell, netted $44.00 from its play with which it laid a beautiful concrete walk extending from the driveway to the front steps of the Girls' Dormitory. Mr. G. J. Greene, teacher of the Smith-Hughes class of the public school here, supervised this project, and his class in vocational agriculture with the seniors did the work.

Mr. Greene has also landscaped the grounds around the building, and the plants, most of which were furnished by our friends of Conway, have been set out and are growing nicely.

Besides the benefit the Smith-Hughes work here has been to the

Says Her Husband Lost 16 Pounds In 4 Weeks

"I have never found a medicine that 'peps' you up like Kruschen Salts and better still, leaves you 'pepped up.' I take it two or three times a week—not to reduce but merely to feel good and clean. My husband took it to reduce, he lost 16 pounds in 4 weeks." Mrs. E. A. Ferris, Washington, D. C. (December 29, 1932.)

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at any drugstore in the world but be sure and get Kruschen Salts, the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.

pupils in their class work and projects. It has been of very great material help to us. When teachers, like the ones we have always had in this department, take an interest in the community and the whole school and enter into their work with this spirit the assistance they render is invaluable.

The class in home economics, taught by Miss Nannie Lou Dennison of Conway, made rapid progress in both sewing and cooking. Miss Dennison also supervised the work in the diningroom and kitchen of the dormitory and the girls who boarded in the dormitory did the work. In this way many of the members of her home economics class had practice in good every-day cooking.

Mr. Erby Jones, of North Little Rock, had charge of the glee club, and the orchestra. He built up an orchestra of sixteen pieces, hardly a member of which had ever played a musical instrument before and none had ever had any experience in playing in an orchestra, yet it was playing in a very creditable manner at the close of school and furnished much of the music for the programs of the closing exercises.

Mrs. Russell's class in piano has been very good throughout the year. She and her class assisted at the piano with the glee club and orchestra. One of the practical features of the class this year was that each girl took her turn of a week in playing the hymns for chapel. It was surprising to know how soon many of the beginners could do this.

All the arrangements for continuing the school for another year have not been completed, but the members of the Board who were present at a meeting held in April voted very decidedly that the school should continue. Announcements will be made later when all plans have been fully made.—M. J. Russell.

AN ECHO FROM OLD EMORY

Those of us who had the privilege of visiting Emory College, when it was located at Oxford, Georgia, will undoubtedly get a thrill from this little item of news.

At the time of the death of Dr. H. H. Stone, one of Emory's beloved professors, it was decided to restore the old church at Oxford, as a sort of memorial to him. Our beloved Bishop Candler undertook the task and accomplished it.

On last Sunday, June 4, Bishop Candler preached the Junior Emory Commencement Sermon in the old church. Thousands of good Methodists and old "Emory-at-Oxford graduates" will exclaim with us, "Think of sitting in the old pew, in that old church at Oxford and listening to Dr. Candler preach."—Mrs. H. W. Means.

REPORT OF LITTLE ROCK DISTRICT BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Major Task.—The major task of the Church is to bring the world to Christ. Whatever may be our activities as laymen, our aim and efforts must be directed to the full accomplishment of this supreme purpose of the Church. Each layman has a personal responsibility in carrying the gospel message to all the world. "Freely ye have received, freely give," is but another way of saying that the acceptance of the message of Christ carries with it the responsibility of sharing it with others. The task of sharing the gospel with others is not the minister's task alone, but it is a glorious opportunity in which every layman can have a part.

Jesus was our greatest teacher. He knew the value of special training and education. It is the chief means of carrying the gospel to every creature. Therefore, Christian Education must be carried on. It is the second major task of the Church.

In this task the layman has a very definite opportunity and responsibility. He should study the program of the church and its organization; he should study the needs of his local church and the program necessary to meet the local needs. He should recognize that the call to a place of responsible leadership should be a call to qualify himself definitely to render a specific and acceptable service.

The selection of a layman for the position of a steward in any church is an important matter. It should be treated in a more significant manner than we are in the habit of treating it. Only such laymen as are willing to work and be loyal to the total program of the Church should be asked to qualify for this important position. This is vital, if we would lead and develop our people as we should as laymen.

To give the best service in any position in the Church, we believe the layman should read our Church papers, including the new Church School literature, and be familiar with our total program at home and abroad. It is, also, important that he attend regularly the Church School on Sunday morning and remain for the preaching services. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

The financial interests of the church are peculiarly within the range of the layman's activities. No other activity demands greater loyalty. Here the layman can be of great service to his Church this year. In the payment of our pastor's and presiding elders' salaries we should always take into account the fact that much of the salary is spent in paying the costs of the services they render. They must have cars to answer the calls we make upon them, and to travel the District they serve. As laymen we must give better financial support to our preachers, if we are to reap the full benefit of the services which they are prepared to give us. In planning our budgets, we dare not take the selfish view of providing for self to the exclusion of our benevolent interests.

Since it is the law of the Church, we recommend that Layman's Day be observed and that major emphasis be given to the education of our laymen along all lines of their opportunities and responsibilities as laymen of the Church of Christ.

We nominate for District Lay Leader, C. K. Wilkerson, and for Associates, Robt. D. Lee and E. V. Markham.—C. K. Wilkerson, E. R. Robinson, W. S. Perry, Com.

LAMAR — KNOXVILLE MADDEN

This Column Will Carry Items
From These Churches Each Week.

Rev. Ray L. McLester, Pastor

Our Church at Lamar has just closed a small but very interesting "Standard Training Class" on the subject of "Evangelism in the S. S." The discussion was led by our beloved Brother, Rev. Allen D. Stewart of the Clarksville Methodist Church. We regretted that every member of our Board of Stewards, teaching staff and adult group could not enjoy and profit from this study and the very vital messages of Bro. Stewart, they were so rich in the spiritual truths of Christ. There will probably come a time when the Board of Christian Education in every church will expect every person who accepts a position of responsibility either as a teacher or official of the Church in any capacity to be interested enough in such courses to attend the sessions or not remain on the staff. Could every member of the adult group of our church have attended these studies we would now be in fine spiritual condition to begin our revival.

Our meeting at Madden Chapel will begin July 9 with God, the people, and the pastor on one team, and the Devil and all who will help him on the other. Christian fellow-laborers, as we fight the grass and are about our secular tasks, let us be praying, planning, and fighting for a great victory in Christ.

We expect to spend the latter part of July in a meeting with Rev. V. L. Harris, the young servant of our Lord, on the Dardenelle Circuit and cannot be on the job here for preparation for the Lamar meeting, but that work is entrusted to Brother H. B. Moore and the Worker's Council.

We are exceedingly rejoiced to learn that our esteemed and life-long friend, Prof. Frank S. McAnear of the College of the Ozarks, has accepted the nomination by friends of our youth, morals and higher ideals, as their candidate for anti-repeal ticket of Johnson County. Prof. McAnear will do to tie to and he has tied to the Lord's cause.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Young People and Seniors will have their devotional services from 7 to 8 o'clock Sunday evening.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30 led by Dr. Heath.

On Friday evening, June 9, the piano pupils of Miss Marguerite Brickhouse will give a recital at Winfield Church, in the assembly room. The public is invited.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

A beautiful wedding at Winfield Church, Tuesday, June 6, at noon, was that of Miss Dorothy Cooper and Mr. Dewey Price. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Paul W. Quillan, assisted by Dr. E. O. Heath. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Price will return to Little Rock to make their home.

We are happy to report that Miss Mildred Cannon, who is in Colonial Hospital, Rochester, Minn., is much better and hopes to be out in the next few days.

Miss Mary Alice Darr is visiting Miss Florence Falls, in Milwaukee, Wis. During July she expects to attend the Teacher Training School in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mrs. E. L. Darr is leaving Friday for Eagle Rock, California, to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. F. W. Miller.

Miss Mary Frances Clifford is leaving this week to attend Peabody College.

Miss Olive Smith is attending the University this summer.

Miss Fentem Utley is attending Hendrix.

Mrs. Mary Martin has been ill at her home, 2006 Rock street.

Mr. J. L. Verhoeff is ill at his home, 1116 N. Tyler.

Miss Evelyn Jean Whitsell has been ill with chicken-pox, but is better.

Mrs. J. W. Anderson was hostess to the Mothers' Bible Class on Thursday, May 1, at her home on South Ringo, with Mrs. F. S. Overton, Mrs. Emma Maddox, Mrs. W. Pyburn, Mrs. R. L. Rutherford and Miss Mamie Krohn as co-hostesses. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. R. W. McWhirter presided over the business session. Mrs. Naylor was in charge of the devotional. It was reported that a visit to the County Hospital had been made recently and fruits distributed to all. There were 33 members and four guests present.

Miss Maxine Dowdy is leaving this week for Paris, Tenn., where she will spend part of the summer.

We express our sincere sympathy to Mrs. J. D. Covey, Mr. D. Fin Covey, and other members of the family of Mr. J. D. Covey, who passed away at his home last week, after a long illness.

SERMON SUBJECTS.

11 A. M.—BACCALAUREATE SERMON TO ARKANSAS LAW SCHOOL.
8 P. M.—"THE FIVE BROTHERS OF DIVES."

Pastor's Column

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Winfield Church is happy to have as its guests Sunday morning the members of the graduating class of The Arkansas Law School. No finer group of young men and women can be found in our country than these young people who have come down to their graduation despite the difficulties that beset them. They have met each evening for the past two years in the Law Library of the County Court House where they have received instruction from some of the ablest lawyers in the State. We congratulate students and professors and welcome them to Winfield Sunday morning.

LAYMEN'S DAY.

The second Sunday in June has been set aside by our Board of Lay Activities as Laymen's Day and it will be observed throughout our Connection. It is our plan to observe the day at a later date and we are expecting a great program from our laymen at that time. We have some of the outstanding laymen of Methodism in Winfield Church and we are happy to have them plan a program in which laymen alone will participate. Mr. E. V. Markham is our efficient lay-leader and we are expecting great things of him on that day.

BLOOD AND LIFE FOR MONEY.

The enemies of our 18th Amendment are proposing to exchange blood and life for money and they have hung the sword of Damocles over our heads with the threat that it will fall if we refuse to fall in with their plans for repeal. We are told that extra taxes will be laid upon us if we vote against repeal. Isn't it strange that at this particular time one of the greatest banking institutions in the world is under senatorial investigation in Washington and its leaders have openly admitted that they did not pay income tax last year? The whole repeal movement was instigated by a few rich men who wanted to be relieved of income tax payments and they hope to shift their load of taxes to the shoulders of the poor. I would be opposed to doing this under any circumstances, but when they propose to exchange the life and the blood of our people for gold it is time for the sober, God-fearing man of this Nation to be aroused. It is the most brazen example of putting gold above God in the history of this Nation, and I for one will never be a party to it.

Two Seas

There are two seas in Palestine. One is fresh, and fish are in it. Splashes of green adorn its banks. Trees spread their branches over it, and stretch out their thirsty roots to sip of its healing waters. Along its shores the children play, as children played when the Master was there. He loved it. He could look across its silver surface when he spoke his parables. And on the rolling plain not far away He fed 5,000 people.

The River Jordan makes this sea with sparkling water from the hills. So it laughs in the sunshine. And men build their houses near it, and birds their nests; and every kind of life is happier because it is there.

The River Jordan flows on south into another sea. Here is no splash of fish, no fluttering leaf, no song of birds, no children's laughter. Travelers choose another route, unless on urgent business. The air hangs above its waters, and neither man nor beast nor fowl will drink.

What makes this mighty difference in these neighbor seas? Not the River Jordan. It empties the same good water into both. Not the soil in which they lie; not the country round about.

This is the difference: The Sea of Galilee receives, but does not keep the Jordan. For every drop that flows into it another drop flows out. The giving and receiving go on in equal measure. The other sea is shrewder, hoarding its income jealously. It will not be tempted into any generous impulse. Every drop it gets its keeps.

The Sea of Galilee gives and lives. This other sea gives nothing. It is named the Dead.

There are two kinds of people in the world.

There are two seas in Palestine.

—Bruce Barton in the Watchman Examiner.

willingness to make sacrifices and suffer reproach for the name of Christ, eagerness to glorify at all times Christian aims and ideals; third wholehearted service manifested in a constant response to the will of Jesus.

In insisting on this unwavering loyalty, Jesus was not demanding a barren life of joyless asceticism. He assured his disciples that he was calling them to a joyous radiant life of expanding happiness. It was the only type of life worthy of a child of God. Materialism and selfishness can result only in a living death.—Presbyterian Banner.

OUT OF THE BOG

The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. (Golden Text.)

In the bogs of Ireland people find now and then a golden ornament that fell there centuries ago from the mantle of some Celtic chieftain. It is found green and disfigured, so coated over that it has lost all beauty and appears wholly worthless. But when it is carefully cleaned, it is beautiful and valuable. The man who cleans it does so, not because he would destroy it, but because he would restore it.

With the act of such a man we may compare Jesus' treatment of the Sabbath. Jesus found the Sabbath so buried under many rules which man had made in regard to the way in which it should be kept that its true, meaning and spirit had been hidden. With a firm but kindly hand he removed these burdensome rules so that it might shine again in its own luster for the joy and blessings of the world.—Doran's Minister's Manual.

There are numerous people who have not yet realized the chasm that exists between the spirit of Christ and the traditions of commerce. A minister would face swift repudiation if he should seek to make a profit off his church. Why? Because such conduct would be un-Christlike. But should not laymen also be Christlike? A minister, we say, has dedicated himself to human welfare, but would anyone suggest that laymen should not do the same thing?—Wesleyan Christian Advocate.

WEEK'S BEST POEM

Sometime I wish that I might do
Just one grand deed and die,
And by that one grand deed reach up
To meet God in the sky
But such is not Thy way, O God,
Nor such is Thy decree,
But deed by deed, and tear by tear,
Our souls must climb to Thee,
As climbed the only son of God
From manger unto Cross,
Who learned through tears and bloody sweat,
To count this world but loss;
When left the Virgin Mother's arms
To seek those arms of shame,
Outstretched upon a lonely hill
To which the darkness came.
As deed by deed, and tear by tear,
He climbed up to the height,
Each deed a splendid deed, each tear
A jewel shining bright,
So grant us, Lord, the patient heart,
To climb the upward way,
Until we stand upon the height,
And see the perfect day.
