OUR GREAT KINGDOM EXTENSION RALLY

LAST Friday, Jan. 19, one of the most representative audiences of Methodists ever assembled in Arkansas, came together in the great auditorium of First Church, Little Rock. There were nearly 400 preachers and about twice that number of laymen and women, representing practically every community in the State. The weather was pleasant and nothing occurred to mar the perfection of the occasion. Bishop Dobbs presided with his usual grace and efficiency, felicitously introducing the several speakers and adding his own comment from time to time. Dr. W. F. Quillian, Secretary of our General Board of Education, spoke twice in his clear straight-forward manner, furnishing valuable information and helpful suggestions. Bishop H. A. Boaz, delivered two wonderfully inspiring and uplifting addresses. Rev. J. F. Rawls, Treasurer of our General Board of Missions, delivered one formal informing address and made several other short talks. Called to St. Louis to the funeral of Bishop McMurtry, Bishop S. R. Hay, who was on the program for two addresses, was not present. In our limited space it will be impossible to make a full report of the proceedings; but enough to indicate the spirit will be given.

Promptly at 10:00 a. m. Bishop Dobbs opened the meeting, reading from I Cor. 15, and Bishop Boaz lead in prayer. Bishop Dobbs briefly paid tribute to Bishop McMurtry, whose funeral was then in progress in St. Louis. Prayer was offered by Dr. James Thomas, especially remembering the family of Bishop McMurtry.

Dr. Quillian then spoke, mentioning the $500,000 debt that the Board of Missions had been compelled to create to maintain our missionary work. It can not be rapidly readjusted as can other work. It costs almost as much to recall a missionary as to keep him in the field for a year. Last year seven missionaries were recalled, the first time such a thing has happened in our history. The Board of Education had for its operations $180,000 less than had the three Boards that it succeeded. He hoped that the nadir, or lowest point in contributions, had been reached, as there was an increase of 2% in Benevolences last year. The critical situation was the result of the predominance of the material over the spiritual in our civilization. The things of the body had outrun the things of the soul. Just now there is a temptation to wait for the General Conference and let things ride. Certain things had been shaken: money values, military values, industrial values, moral values, the latter to the extent that we were witnessing a veritable orgy of crime costing the nation annually $13,000,000,000, or three times the cost of the Federal government. Certain things abide: the needs of mankind, adequacy of the gospel, the Cross of Christ, and the passion of Jesus to save the world. He closed with a strong exhortation to be of good cheer; for God lives, and, if we try to carry out His purpose, we shall win.

Bishop Boaz discussed "Our Task: The Bringing in of the Kingdom of God." That was the chief subject of the talk and teachings of Jesus. In the Gospels, The "Kingdom of God" is mentioned 112 times. Jesus prayed and worked

* AND WHATSOEVER YE DO, DO IT *
* HEARTILY, AS TO THE LORD, AND *
* NOT UNTO MEN; KNOWING THAT *
* OF THE LORD YE SHALL RECEIVE *
* THE REWARD OF THE INHERIT- *
* ANCE; FOR YE SERVE THE LORD *
* CHRIST.—Col 3:23-24. *

and sacrificed to promote the interests of the Kingdom. The Bishop gave a graphic picture of Christ teaching and a Roman officer refusing to arrest Him because there was nothing in the teaching that justified arrest. It is our primary and supreme business to help bring in the Kingdom. It is God's will, and it is our duty and privilege to carry out his purposes. It is a sublime ideal, worthy of all our time, talent, and resources. God is calling. Shall we respond?

Mr. Rawls explained that the object of these meetings is to mobilize our forces to go out and do their very best in this crisis. Bishop Dobbs indicated the need for funds for expenses, and a collection was taken. Dr. James Thomas spoke, as Bishop Hay was not present to speak, and presented the importance of building up the waste places in the rural neighborhoods that had of recent years been sadly neglected. He hoped for a great spiritual revival and exhorted the preachers to get close to Christ and the laymen to co-operate heartily with their pastors.

At noon a fine lunch was served in the basement by the women of Winfield Church. At 2:00 p. m., after devotional services, Mr. Rawls spoke. He argued that the Church was suffering from selfishness and human ambition, and gave eloquent figures to show how the Kingdom Extension and Benevolent Collections had fallen off in far larger proportion than the collections for local expenses. As it would be difficult to present these figures accurately, it will not here be attempted; but may be done later. It will be profitable to study the statistical tables in the Minutes of our Conferences. He urged that preachers should be paid in full, and local expenses cut down and the Benevolences and Kingdom Extension quotas paid in full. Our poverty should not register principally in our Benevolences. To reach the objective, the pastors must first sell the program to themselves, and then sell it to their people. Laymen were urged to do their part. Only about 30% of the church members are active in church work and giving. The whole membership should be aroused and enlisted. Plan for an Easter offering. About February 1 packages of envelopes will be sent to the pastors. They should be distributed some 30 days in advance so that the members may decide on their offerings early. The collection should be divided equally between the General and Conference Claims and Kingdom Extension, one half being sent promptly to the Treasurer at Nashville. The book, "The Sound of Trumpets," written by Bishop A. J. Moore and Dr. Stanley Jones, to be sold at 10 cents a copy, was presented. It should be in every Methodist home.

Bishop Dobbs introduced Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. McDermott, presidents of the Conference Missionary Societies. He then exhorted the preachers to live the life recommended by Jesus, preach the Word, accept the program and work it, and leave results with God. Presiding Elders, pastors, and laymen and women were asked to rise, in their respective groups, and they pledged themselves to undertake the task. Treasurer Guy Murphy of North Arkansas Conference then reported that the receipts to date were $8,462.59 as compared with $2,653.71 last year. At the close of the afternoon session, Mr. Rawls delivered books, and reported that 7,000 had been sold or ordered.

At the night session another large audience was present. Dr. Quillian spoke again, outlining definite principles for living a successful Christian life. Much thinking is in too general terms. It is proper to think of the church as a body, but each individual should think of his own particular duties and responsibilities. He should live with the feeling that God actually lives and reigns. He should be sincere, honest, and faithful, and practice the principles of stewardship and engage much in prayer. There is need for educated preachers, and especially for thoroughly consecrated preachers, willing to suffer for the cause of the Master. We are not responsible for the conditions of the world when we come into it; but are responsible for its conditions when we leave it.

Bishop Boaz indicated that the missionary motives were loyalty to the Church, need of the non-Christian world, the missionary commission of the Master, and the love of Christ. He then discussed three questions: (1) Do the non-Christian peoples need the gospel? (2) Do these people want us? (3) Are we doing any good? He pictured the awful condition of the majority of the people in non-Christian lands and compared it with ours. Then, through many actual occurrences in the Orient, of which he as Bishop had personal knowledge, he showed how great groups in Korea and Japan welcomed the representatives of Christ, and gave concrete cases of wonderful results. The Bishop's accounts were so full of the personal touch and sparkling wit that it would be impossible to reproduce them here. He closed with a strong appeal that we should carry on this great work. The non-missionary church will die. It must maintain its missions to keep alive. Let us publish the good tidings and meet the expectations of our Lord. Thus closed an historic meeting of the two Conferences in Arkansas, and it is believed that it will result in a great awakening of the whole Church in the State this year. It was announced at the close that Dr. J. W. Hunt, who was to be the visiting speaker for the North Arkansas Conference Institutes, could not come and that Dr. O. E. Goddard would take his place, also that, as Rev. J. W. Crichtow was no longer eligible to act as chairman of the Commission on Benevolences of that Conference, Rev. G. G. Davidson had been elected chairman.

ORGANIZED government and organized society will always be necessary, but without the inspiration of faith, without devotion to religion, they are inadequate to serve the needs of mankind. Seeking an increased material welfare will be in vain unless our nation as a whole continues in its devotion to religion. — Calvin Coolidge.

AS nothing but matters on the pre-arranged program could be considered by the two Conferences last week, a group of members, in view of the situation in the Legislature, adopted the protest on page 6.

MARRIED, in First Church, Texarkana, Rev.
A. W. Waddill, pastor of our church at De-Queen, and Mrs. Olive S. Higgins of Sweetwater, Texas, Rev. J. C. Glenn officiating, assisted by Rev. H. D. Sadler, P. E.

REV. W. C. LEWIS, pastor last year, writes:
"The Conference Minutes show nothing paid
by Arkansas City-Watson to Orphanage on Christmas 1932. The amount was $12, but I overlooked it in making my report."

REV. C. N. SMITH, the pastor of Eudora Church, came in last week with 18 subscribers, a 100% club for his fine little station. He is much pleased with his new appointment, and reports that his people are treating him royally.

DR. O. E. GODDARD, pastor of First Church, Batesville, has sent in 159 subscribers. This is not merely a 100% club, but a 150% one.
This puts the paper in every Methodist home in his splendid charge. This is like Dr. Goddard and Batesville. They always do what is expected and a little more.

DR. MERTON S. RICE, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Detroit, has been appointed fraternal messenger to our General Conference. He is a distinguished preacher and his church has the largest white membership of any Methodist Church in the world. Twice he declined to allow himself to be voted for bishop.

MRS. REBECCA GRAVES, who died Jan. 18, a Christian of the highest type, was 93 years old and had been a member of the Methodist Church 80 years and of Green's chapel over 50 years. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Louis Averitt, assisted by Rev. J. F.

Taylor, a former pastor, who gives this interesting information.

IT is commonly believed that the "wets" in the State are delaying legislation in order to force Governor Futrell to call another special session to legalize race-track gambling and hard liquor. Our people should let their representatives know that the Governor should be supported in his demand for bond legislation and in opposition to pernicious laws.

REV. ALFRED DOSS called last week while attending the Kingdom Extension Rally. He has Magnolia Circuit and is also taking half work in the A. and M. College at Magnolia. His charge has bought a school house and four acres of land at a bargain price, and they are remodeling it into a fine parsonage. He thoroughly appreciates the reception which has been accorded him and believes that he will have a happy year.
He expects soon to have a 100% club for his charge.

THE CIRCULATION CAMPAIGN is progressing splendidly. Many pastors are reporting 100% Clubs and others are promising them soon.
Under our own special Club Proposition there is no good reason why every pastor in Arkansas should not have the paper going into approximately every Methodist home. If any pastor finds difficulties, let him report to his P. E.
or to this office so that helpful suggestions may be made. Let us make this campaign unanimous and with the paper in the homes of all our people make this the best year in the history of Arkansas Methodism.

REV. C. R. ROY, pastor of Buckner Charge on page 6, gives an account of a very practical plan for meeting the quota of Bene-volences for his charge. Every rural charge should adopt a similar plan, and show the urban charges what the country people can do in the depression period. Let us hear from others as they make their plans. Let there be a consecrated rivalry among the circuits this year to see which can make the best showing. All will want to see these reports; hence the Arkansas Methodist is needed in every home.

BISHOP McMURRY DEAD

THE forms were closed last Wednesday when the evening paper came with the announcement of the death of Bishop William Fletcher McMurry in a St. Louis hospital that morning.
It hardly seems possible. Only a little over a week earlier, at Dr. Hutchinson's home in Washington, the writer had been a fellow guest. To be sure, the Bishop was not well that day, but there was nothing to presage his early demise.
His death comes as a severe and sudden shock
to the Church. Born in Shelby County, Mo., June 29, 1864, in a community famous for its Methodist preachers, he was the son of Rev. W.
W. McMurry, one of the leading men of the Missouri Conference. Entering Central College during the writer's senior year, he was converted and the next year joined the Missouri Conference. After several successful pastorates, he became Presiding Elder of the Saint Joseph District, where he made a record for bringing up all the collections for his District. He was transferred in 1901 and made Presiding Elder of St. Louis District, and at the end of a year was appointed pastor of Centenary Church. He had made such a reputation as a financier that, in 1906, he was elected secretary of the Board of Church Extension. In this relation he maintained his record as a financier, and, becoming known over the whole Church, was elected Bishop in 1918. As Bishop of Conferences in Brazil and the Orient, as president of the Board of Finance, and as a member of many commissions, he rendered conspicuous service; but perhaps his greatest work was done as president of Central College from 1924 to 1930. Being at the same time the presiding Bishop of the Missouri Conferences, he was able so to handle the situation that the educational institutions of our Church in Missouri were merged and Central College became the sole college of the three Missouri Conferences and the leading denominational college in that State. During the last quadrennium he devoted himself to the Conferences in Kentucky and West Virginia, and recently in addition, had the Baltimore Conference and was giving it extra time just before his untimely death. A great organizer and leader, he always had a definite objective and drove relentlessly toward the end desired. Big of body and strong of mind and will, he had made his impression as a great administrator through the bounds of our denomination and leaves a place that no other man can fill. Married, Oct. 9, 1888, to Miss Frances Boyd Davis of St. Joseph, Mo., he leaves his wife, a son, and two daughters. The funeral was held last Friday in Centenary Church St. Louis, and burial was in the cemetery of his boyhood church at Shelbyville, Missouri.

BOOK REVIEWS

The Secret of The Saints; by Sir Henry S. Lunn; published by the Macmillan Co., New York;
price $1.00.

Dr. Lunn is the author of several widely used devotional books and was for many years Editor of the Review of the Churches. In 1927 he delivered lectures at Harvard, Yale, Princeton, and many other universities. His genuine reverence, sincerity and deep insight into the things of the spirit, linked with his extensive reading and culture and his editorial experience, eminently fit him to present us with this most helpful and inspiring volume of studies in Prayer, Meditation and Self-Discipline.

God's Answer; edited by Millard Fillmore Binney; published by The Bert Rose Co. Los Angeles, Calif.; Price $1.75.

Although this book of devotional selections was arranged for the home altar in an effort to re-dedicate the American home to God it is admirably adapted to individual use. The three hundred and seventy prominent Protestant ministers who shared the labor of its preparation have given the matter much prayerful consideration, and from their varied experiences answer many of the questions that trouble the human heart. The "Dedication" gives clearly the nature and purpose of the volume. It is as follows: "There are age-old questionings of the human mind and heart, questionings as to God and life and that which lies beyond this life; as to duty and joy and peace and the possible attainment to the fullness of the life of the Spirit. What are God's Answers? The writers of the messages of this volume, from out of their varied experiences, have endeavored to help us to discover. To all who seek to know the way, to find the deeper meaning and satisfactions of life, to meet life's relationships well and to have a reason for the faith that is in them, is this volume dedicated.

IN THE CAMDEN DISTRICT

Fairview. Filling an engagement of some weeks, I was with Rev. James R. Sewell, pastor, at Fairview, the Paper Mill Church, Camden. Preached at 11 a. m. to a fine group. Preached at Two Bayou Church 2:30 to a small group. Put on the pictures, "The Romance of the Country Church," at Fairview Sunday night to a large congregation.

Vantrease Memorial. Monday morning, Rev. J. L. Dedman, presiding elder, and I had a conference with Rev. D. T. Rowe, the pastor, and Mr. Fay Burgess, superintendent, and made plans looking to increasing the membership of the Sunday School and reaching more people for Christ and the Church.

Junction City-El Dorado Ct. We had a conference with Rev. G. L.

Cagle, pastor of Junction City Charge, Rev. G. W. Warren, pastor El Dorado Ct., Mrs. McKinnon and Miss Porter. Plans were made looking to a survey and reaching more people for the Sunday School and Church. They are planning to build a new beautiful log church at Quinn, on El Dorado Circuit.

Magnolia Ct., and Taylor Ct. Tuesday morning a joint meeting of Rev. J. F. Walker, pastor of Taylor Ct., Rev. Alfred Doss, pastor of Magnolia Ct., Mrs. Doss and Mrs. Nora Emerson, was held in the parsonage at Magnolia with Rev. Leland Clegg, pastor. Plans were made looking to increasing the Sunday School membership and reaching people for Christ and the Church.

Buckner Ct. Tuesday afternoon we met with Rev. Claude R. Roy, pastor and several of his fine people and plans were made for increasing the Sunday School enrollment and reaching people for Christ. In this meeting were Mr. George Hutchenson, and his daughter, Miss Ruth of Mt. Ida Church, whom I have known and loved since my first pastorate.

Social Features. I spent two delightful nights in the home of Rev. J. L. Dedman. The people of this District are to be congratulated in following their presiding elder in the matter of providing a District parsonage. Bro. Dedman is loved and trusted by his people.

We had a noon meal in the home of Rev. D. T. Rowe and enjoyed the fellowship. He has made a fine beginning at Vantrease Memorial. We had a delightful visit with Rev. J. L. Hoover, pastor of First Church, El Dorado, when we met in his study. Bro. Hoover is having a wonderful pastorate.

Also had a fine visit with Rev. W. C. House, popular pastor of First Church, Camden.

Rev. and Mrs. Leland Clegg invited us to hold our Magnolia meeting in their home, and then gave us a delicious noon meal. Bro. Clegg is the Bishop of Columbia County. He has made a wonderful beginning.

Going to Buckner we stopped at Waldo where Rev. T. M. Armstrong joined us, and we had a delightful visit with this popular pastor.

Church work, Christian fellowship, and a happy spirit prevail throughout the Camden District. This is to be a great year.—S. T. Baugh.

FRIENDSHIP EXCELS

Rev. O. C. Robison, pastor of Friendship Ct., asked me to be with him in a circuit-wide officials' meeting to be held at Friendship, January 18. I was glad to attend. The meeting began at 10:00 a. m., and lasted two hours. Every church was represented by one or more persons. There were nearly forty present.

Brother Robison presided and led in a devotional service. He called for reports from the two Woman's Missionary Societies, which showed they had been doing good work, and have good plans for the future. At Magnet Cove and Friendship they have lined up nearly every family to give the eggs laid on Sunday for Conference Claims. One church reported over $3.00 raised that way in December.

The Sunday School superintendents next reported. They expect to increase the enrollment and do better work in their schools. Rockport expects to repair and repaint their church. Magnet Cove church will be further beautified.

It was brought out that the Sunday School enrollment of each church is more than the church membership. This is wonderful.

The climax was reached when the stewards reported. At Friendship, they combined the salary and claims into one budget, and resolved to secure sufficient pledges to cover it, and to pay monthly. They assessed themselves first, then canvassed the membership and before they had gone around had secured around $35.00 more pledged than the budget. They will see the remaining few members and make it one hundred

Because of a unique process in manufacture, Genuine Bayer Aspirin Tablets are made to disintegrate—or dissolve—INSTANTLY you take them. Thus they start to work instantly. Start "taking hold" of even a severe headache; neuralgia, neuritis or rheumatic pain a few minutes after taking.

And they provide SAFE relief—for Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN

per cent pledged. They have already made a substantial payment on this budget. This plan will be worked at the other churches, and with the enthusiasm they have, I am confident they will have a wonderful year. Bro. Robison then asked me to suggest plans for making the circuit a greater circuit. I was glad to make some small contribution to the meeting.

Rev. J. A. Henderson, presiding elder of the Arkadelphia District, was present, and made wise and helpful suggestions. He was to preach at 1:00 p. m.

This circuit has sent about $50 worth of produce, canned goods, and some money to the Orphanage. Three of the Sunday Schools have a fourth Sunday missionary program and send in their offering for Missions, and the other superintendents promised to do so. This was a wonderful meeting for the circuit. The next meeting is to be held at Magnet Cove, February 14.—S. T. Baugh.

MISS SPRATT IN HELENA DISTRICT JANUARY 29—FEB. 2

Miss Barnett Spratt is to be in the Helena District during Training Week and will teach the courses, "Children in the Small Church," at Colt. We are anxious that all pastors, and workers with children, including the general S. S. Supts. be present at the Institute that is most convenient for you. This is also a very valuable meeting for parents and they too are invited.—Mrs. Ethan Dodgen, Director of Children's Work, Helena District.

Nearly 100 credits have been earned in Batesville this month.—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Sec.

CONWAY DISTRICT TRAINING WEEK SUCCESSFUL

The seven classes announced for the past week were held with good results. The Levy Church reports the largest class, having 22 credits. The Cabot charge will probably have the largest number of credits as a charge since there were two classes in the charge. More than 100 credits have already been reported for this District.—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Secretary.

JONESBORO DISTRICT TRAINING WEEK

The Jonesboro District Training week will begin Feb. 4. The following classes have been planned: Dell, "Worship," Rev. Glenn F. Sanford; Luxora, "The Educational Work of the Small Church," Rev. W. V. Womack; Brookland, "Life of Christ" Mr. John Patton; "The Educational Work of the Small Church," Rev. Sam B. Wiggins; Lake City, "The Educational Work of the Small Church," Rev. Porter Weaver; Joiner "Christian Stewardship," Executive Sec.

The course on Evangelism is being taken in classes at Jonesboro Montette and Macey. These classes are to extended over a period of time.—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Secretary.

OTHER TRAINING CLASSES

A large number of churches are having local training classes. The Bald Knob Church under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Vernon Chalfant, has just completed the course on "The Teachings of Jesus."

Dr. O. E. Goddard is conducting a class in his church on "The Meaning of Methodism."

Rev. Earle Cravens and Rev. E. B. Williams are conducting classes in their churches on the course in "Christian Stewardship."

Rev. Allen D. Stewart is planning for a class at Clarksville. Rev. Ray McLester is planning for a class at Knoxville. "The Life of Jesus" is to be taught in each of these classes.

Rev. Ben Williams is conducting a class at Vandalia in the study of "The Life of Christ."—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Sec.

NEW RECORD IN STANDARD CLASSES

Bentonville and Springdale have been setting new records for Standard Training Class credits. During November a Standard Training Class was conducted at Bentonville in which 40 credits were granted. Springdale has recently broken that record by having a class with 54 credits.

Rev. F. R. Hamilton, presiding elder of Fayetteville District taught each of these classes. The course was "Christian Stewardship." The attendance on these classes was even much larger than the number of credits.

Rev. R. S. Hayden, pastor at Bentonville, and Rev. E. H. Hook, pastor at Springdale, had made careful preparation for the work before the opening of the class.

These pastors and the elders are to be congratulated on this fine work.—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Sec.

STANDARD CLASS AT GENTRY

The course on "Christian Stewardship" is being taught at Gentry. Rev. F. R. Hamilton is leading the class.—Ira A. Brumley, Exc. Sec.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S DAY

Sunday, April 22, has been selected as the day for observing Sunday School Day and Young People's Day this year. We are planning to have these two local Church Days combined into one for this year. Where possible both programs should be used. Write the Board of Christian Education, Conway, Arkansas, for information about programs.

Each church is being given a quota for Christian Education which will cover what has been Sunday School Day offering and Young People's Day offering.

Three Churches have already paid part of their quota:

AMICITIA UNION MEETING

The Amicitia Union, composed of the young people of Lewisville, Stamps, Buckner, and Mt. Ida Church met for their January meeting in the Church at Buckner on January 4 at 7:30 p. m., with Miss Snow Watley of Lewisville presiding.

After the business session, the Lewisville division conducted a splendid devotional program centering around the "New Year" as a theme. Rev. B. F. Musser, Mr. W. R. Boney, and Rev. C. R. Roy made remarks complimenting the Y. P. on the splendid program and the efficient and effective manner in which it was rendered. Jack Riggins assisted by his sister, Miss Francine Riggins, led several group games and then all went over to the parsonage where delicious refreshments of sandwiches, hot chocolate and cake were served by Misses Ruth Hutcheson, Mary Helen Nabors, Rubye Burke, Odessa Osborn, Frank Ruggin and Mrs. C. R. Roy. This was one of the most constructive and efficient Y. P. Union Meetings that I have ever attended.—C. R. Roy, P. C.

UNION RALLY IN MONTICELLO DISTRICT

Seventy-one members of the Leagues from Tillar, Dumas, Newton Chapel, McGehee, and Winchester attended the monthly Union rally at the Methodist church in Winchester Monday evening, January 15. Miss Eunice Hyde, of Tillar, President of the Union, presided over the business session. The Tillar League won the banner for making the highest percentage in the monthly report. Miss June Morris, president of the Winchester League, presented the following program: Prelude—June Morris; Hymn—"Work For the Night is Coming"; Prayer—Brother Burks, Scripture Lesson—Mary Murphy; "Importance of Attending League"—Carmen Cooper of Tillar. Special number—Tillar Girls Glee Club; Reading—Miss Mary Haynes; Hymn—"Oh Happy Day."

Don Marlan, of Dermott, director of Young People's Work for this District, was the principal speaker for the evening.

During the social hour games were enjoyed and delightful refreshments served by members of the Winchester League.—Carmen Cooper, League Reporter.

Do You Cough?

Mrs. F. H. McGaha of 201 Parker St., North Little Rock, Ark., said: "When I needed a tonic to build me up after a bad cold my father gave me Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The cold weakened my bronchials and I coughed quite a bit. I lost weight, coughing tired me out and I felt so weak. After taking the 'Discovery' a short time I grew stronger and it was not long until I was back to normal health." All druggists.

PRACTICAL PLANS FOR BUCKNER CHARGE.

The Buckner Charge is in the midst of their campaign to enlist the entire membership in a "Consecrated Activity" program whereby every man will cultivate an acre of land, every woman set a hen, every boy raise a pig and every girl raise a calf or some other activity, and when everything has been marketed the proceeds are expected to cover all claims for the current year. This plan was launched Sunday, Jan. 14th at Mt. Ida and Sardis and will be put on at Buckner and Kilgore in the next two weeks.—C. R. Roy, P. C.

ENGLAND.

We have been graciously received by the Methodists of England. All kinds of favors have been extended us by these people, from a new bedroom suite to a Christmas turkey and a 75-pound dressed hog. In between there were many other things.

The year's work begins in an optimistic way. The entire section of country is manifesting that spirit, too. We confidently believe that in 1934 England will recover from the depression; the church also will recover. I have found the people here the most liberal in our church; in 1932 when the per capita average for our entire church was $9.00 every England Methodist gave $15.86, and last year when the average was $7.93 they contributed $8.16. The year 1933 was the worst year of the depression for these folks; but they will stage a marvellous recovery.

The work of the church is also encouraging. We have paid our quota $75, to the Orphanage, sent in 96 subscriptions to the Methodist; have a very fine Wednesday evening service; and so far (until the new wears off) good congregations at each preaching service.

We rejoice in the opportunity of serving these people, and trust our sojourn among them will be mutually helpful.—R. E. Simpson, P. C.

RESOLUTIONS PROTESTING LIQUOR LEGISLATION

We, a group of members of the Little Rock and North Arkansas Conferences of the Methodist Church, South, in Arkansas, regret and deeply deplore the enactment by our Legislature of laws legalizing beer and wine, and the possible enactment of a law legalizing brandy; because, in spite of argument to the contrary, these liquors are known to be intoxicating; and as beer is sold in hotels, cafes, and stores and attractively advertised, it becomes more alluring to youth and will inevitably tempt many to drink who would not drink in the ordinary saloon; and, as the wine and brandy may be used in the family and given to guests, it will turn many homes into the equivalent of saloons and create centers of debauchery in many communities.

We appreciate the fact that Governor Futrell refused to include modification of our liquor laws in his call for the special session of the Legislature, and we urge him to maintain that position, if he should call another special session, and to use his veto power if necessary to prevent improper liquor legislation. We also appeal to the members of the Legislature to refrain from enacting laws that would legalize hard liquors.

Anticipating the initiation of a liquor law of some kind by the enemies of prohibition, we pledge ourselves to co-operate in every reasonable way with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League, and other friends of prohibition, to fight the adoption of such a measure, and, when ever opportunity is given, to support laws to prohibit the traffic in intoxicants. Before the adoption of the 18th Amendment, Arkansas had state-wide prohibition, and there is now no good reason why prohibition, which was a good thing then, should not still be worth having.

We believe that the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage is wrong, eternally wrong, and should be prohibited; and we urge our people to organize in every county to elect to the Legislature and Congress men who will oppose the legalization of the traffic. In this day of rapid transit and high-powered machinery, as never before, it is necessary to keep men sober; and we believe the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicants is one of the best ways to get the safety demanded by the public.

We appeal to the President and Congress to keep the pledges of the parties to prevent the return of the saloon and the guarantee of the 21st Amendment to protect dry States against the traffic in wet States; and to that end advertising by newspapers, radio, and cinema should be prohibited by Congress in order that the people in the dry territory may not be subjected to the solicitation to buy from dealers in the wet States.

In this day when our people are confused on many moral issues, the pulpits and our religious periodicals should present the highest moral standards and plead for the maintenance of all that is best in our civilization, and Christian people of all denominations should unite to preserve our worthy institutions and to promote righteousness in both private and public life.

FOUKE CIRCUIT TO HAVE NEW PARSONAGE

The Quarterly Conference of Fouke Circuit met at Few Memorial Church January 15, and the trustees were authorized to sell the parsonage at Fouke. A. L. Meador, R. R. Woolard and C. L. Phelps have been working to that end for several years. The Quarterly Conference commended them and appointed them as the building committee for the new parsonage, which will be erected at the Few Memorial Church in the Mount Pleasant Community. It is five miles from Texarkana on Highway No. 71. We have two and a half acres of land. The church is a $5,000 brick building.

Fouke is on the south end of the Circuit, 16 miles from Texarkana. With the parsonage at Few the pastor will dwell eleven miles nearer town. The new parsonage will be nearly in the center of the Circuit.

Twelve dollars were sent as the Christmas Offering from the Fouke Circuit.

We are now working to place the Arkansas Methodist in the homes of our people. You will hear from us in two weeks.—Robert Beasley, P. C.

BLEVINS CHARGE.

On the evening of Jan. 4, the Stewards, Sunday School superintendents, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, and superintendent of Young People met at the home of Rev. J. T. Thompson, pastor, in the interest of the work of the three churches of the Blevins Charge.

Devotional was led by Bro. Thompson. In the absence of the Charge Lay Leader, Dr. Gentry was appointed chairman of the meeting, Bro. Thompson gave interesting facts on the organization of the new Board of Christian Education which will be organized in the churches at once.

The new plan of the Arkansas Methodist to put the paper in every Methodist home was put before the board by the pastor. A combined board of stewards for the three churches was organized with Cleve Hamilton, president, and Carl Brown, Secretary. Meetings are to be held once each month.

After adjournment delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.—Carl Brown, Sec.

DO YOU KNOW THIS MAN?

He has lost his money and his job. He cannot send his mother as much money for her support as he formerly did. Therefore, he has told her that on that account he will not come to see her or write to her any more. It is breaking her heart. Is he not very unwise and unkind? Do you know him?

There are persons today who tell us they have "quit the church," because they are not able to contribute as much to its financial support as formerly. They love the church; they want to see it grow and prosper; they will return to its services and work when they have more money. Do you know these people? Is not their logic very strange? They withdraw financial support of necessity, and then deliberately and voluntarily withdraw their presence and support from the services of the church. Curious twists there are in our minds. The church needs more than financial

Best Remedy for Cough Is Easily Mixed at Home
No Cooking! No Work! Real Saving!

You'll never know how quickly a stubborn cough can be conquered, until you try this famous recipe. It is used in more homes than any other cough remedy, because it gives more prompt, positive relief. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Syrup is easily made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. This gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money, and it's a purer, better remedy. It never spoils, and tastes fine.

Instantly you feel its penetrating effect. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm, clears the air passages, and soothes and heals the inflamed membranes. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief in severe coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its healing effect on throat membranes. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

SUNDAY SERVICES

11:00 A. M.—Dr. James Thomas Will Preach.
7:30 P. M.—"What Can One Expect From Prayer?"

PASTOR'S COLUMN

SUNDAY MORNING

We welcome to our pulpit Sunday morning Dr. James Thomas, our Presiding Elder. Dr. Thomas is one of the best friends Winfield Church ever had. We shall forever be indebted to him for his remarkable ministry as a pastor and as a Presiding Elder. He is one of the most loved former pastors of Winfield; and we are happy to have him preach to us again.

SUNDAY EVENING

We continue the Sunday evening series of sermons on "Questions Men Are Asking About Religion," dealing this Sunday evening with a question raised since the series began by one in the evening congregation. The question asked is: "What Can Modern Christians Expect From Prayer?" I am especially happy to speak to the question because I feel there is widespread misunderstanding of the meaning of prayer and consequently, prayer has been left out of the life of many of our people and has been abused by many others.

To you who have not been in these services we extend a cordial invitation to join us in the Sunday evening hour of worship.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Our mid-week studies in "The Meaning of Methodism" have brought out many expressions of interest and appreciation. There are several of our members who say that these are the best services we have in the Church. The last two weeks have witnessed a considerable increase in attendance.

Come to the fellowship supper next Wednesday evening at 6:30. You will find a fine supper for twenty-five cents, and enjoy a good visit with your friends in the Church. At 7:15 the service will begin and we'll spend forty-five minutes getting better acquainted with Methodism. I believe you'll find the evening helpful and enjoyable.

TWO THOUSAND BOSSES

A preacher can get along fairly well with two thousand bosses because he has been tarained to, but it is really too many for a church janitor. Therefore, we are making this request. When you want the church for any special meeting—class parties, suppers, play rehearsals, or what-not—you are to register that desire at the church office—not with the janitor. This is necessary for two reasons. First, the office can keep a record and will avoid the confusion that would arise when two groups want to use the building at the same time. Second, only when the office knows of your desire can it check up and be sure that the church is open and prepared for you.

If you have complaints or suggestions concerning the care of the building, they, too, are to be registered at the church office, not with the janitor. We make these requests, on the one hand to protect the janitor, and on the other, to assure you of better service from him.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Wednesday Evenings

Are you attending the Fellowship Dinner at 6:30 each Wednesday? It almost seems that the Circles are competing with one another on the quality of food served. They are being rewarded by an increasing number of persons attending.

At 7:15, the pastor speaks in the recreation room. The director leads a discussion group in the religious education office. The teachers in the Church School are especially urged to attend the discussion group even though regular attendance is impossible.

Officers and Teachers

Friday, February 16, is an important date for the officers and teachers of Winfield Church School. A committee (Mrs. Dewey Price, Miss Fay McRae, and Miss Margaret Paynter) is planning a most worthwhile evening for the ninety officers and teachers. The Women of Winfield will also share in the provision of entertainment for our workers.

New Teachers

Teachers recently added to the Junior Department faculty are: Mr. Fletcher Lord, Mr. Caldwell Adkins, and Mrs. K. P. Driver. Miss LeMary Hogan, Mrs. Henry Severson, and Mr. R. F. Whiddon are teaching in the Junior High Department.

Junior High

The ninth grade girls, under the leadership of their teacher, Miss Helen Dillahunt, have planned and prepared the expressional program to be given at the second period next Sunday World Friendship is the theme.

This department is growing rapidly. The counselor, Mr. J. A. Clifford, has returned after several weeks absence from the city.

Book Club

Within the Young People's Department a book club has been organized. The meetings are scheduled to be held once each month during the Thursday evening open-house. This is one of the activities which our young people have planned as a means of providing for the varied interests of persons. They desire to stimulate interest in wide reading.

Juniors

Our Juniors will attend the congregational worship service next Sunday and participate in it.

Plays

Casts were this week selected for three one-act plays to be given as the second entertainment of the season by the Curtain Club. The directors and plays are: Miss Mary Ethel Smyers, "Breakfast for Two"; Mr. F. A. Buxton, "The Turn of the Road"; Miss Annalee Bradford, "On Second Thought." These will be presented during February. The exact date will be announced later.
