"EVANGELISM IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL"

"Evangelism in The Sunday School" is the title of a leaflet issued by the General Board of Christian Education of our Church. Bishop Dobbs, the presiding Bishop of our two Conferences, has written "An Introductory Statement" which is so important and pertinent at this time, that it is given in full below. It is hoped that our pastors and Sunday School officers will provide themselves with the literature on this subject and enter heartily into the work of evangelizing the children in our Church Schools.

A Message From Bishop Dobbs

As Chairman of the Local Church Committee of the General Board of Christian Education, I find it my duty as well as my privilege to write an introductory statement to this important message on evangelism.

I begin, therefore, by making the earnest request of every pastor and every local Church School superintendent in our Church to read carefully every paragraph of this communication at the earliest possible moment. I do this in order that we may proceed at once to meet the requirements of the Discipline as written by the General Conference assembled in the city of Dallas, Texas, during the month of May, 1930.

The General Conference wisely took this advanced step in order that the Local Congregation might "discharge its responsibility for the religious development of its entire constituency in accordance with the policies of the General Board of Christian Education, and with the concurrence of the Pastor in Charge."

The local Church School should be the total membership of the Church engaged earnestly and faithfully in the study of the Holy Scriptures, toward the end that every member of the School may be brought into vital touch with and personal relationship to Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Every activity of the Church must converge upon this major objective, if the Church is to succeed in the truest and noblest sense of the word.

The three agencies which can unitedly create character and develop personality are the Home, the Church, and the School. Ignorance, carelessness, or infidelity, in any one of these three institutions, may wreck the product of the other two. Realizing this in its full significance, the General Conference has spoken to the Church and to the world, that the time is at hand when these three time-honored institutions of society must be more perfectly coordinated and vitalized, if we are to cope with conditions which exist in the world of today.

Thirty-two millions of our national population to-day are engaged in the tasks of the School, the College, and the University. There are twenty-five millions in the Primary Schools. There are five millions in the Secondary Schools. There are one-million in College and University. And then there are, in addition to these, one-million teachers working with them.

Ten-million boys and girls under thirteen years of age are at present members of the Church in the United States of America. Of the fifty-six-million members of the Churches in this country, approximately three-fourths of them came into that membership through, and

* AGAIN I SAY UNTO YOU, THAT IF *
* TWO OF YOU SHALL AGREE ON * * EARTH AS TOUCHING ANYTHING *
* THAT THEY SHALL ASK, IT SHALL BE *
* DONE FOR THEM OF MY FATHER * * WHICH IS IN HEAVEN. FOR WHERE *

by means of the organized Sunday School, guarded on either side by the Home and the Day School, College, or University.

A group of educators of national renown recently defined the aim and purpose of the College of Liberal Arts to be that of discovering and achieving the significance and values of life. Had they been speaking for the Churches of America they could not have more perfectly voiced the historic aim and purpose of the Sunday School and of the Church. For more than a hundred years the Sunday Schools have been encircling the young people with affection and invitation, striving thereby to reveal to them the real significance of life itself, and to enable them to achieve the ultimate spiritual values resident within the redemptive energies of the Cross.

God sends the whole human race to school in the homes of men and women. If in those homes there be found love, reverence, worship, and service, in terms of the religion of Jesus Christ, the young lives from those homes will almost surely be responsive to the evangelistic message of the Church. But if in those homes these virtues be not found—if they are ignored, pushed aside, forgotten, or ridiculed, neither the Church nor the school can rectify the great wrong which has already warped the very fibre of the mind and the character of the child.

The dean of a great university writes that many men report through their wives to the university authorities that they are too busy to come and assist in getting their own boys out of serious trouble, even after having been advised by the college or university that they, as fathers, are needed on the campus. It is unnecessary to state that neither Church nor the college can redeem a situation of this tragic nature, where the home has so completely broken down.

We are happy in the knowledge that these conditions are not totally prevalent. But Dr. Schisler is making a noble plea on behalf of the General Conference and of the General Board that we as parents in the home, as teachers in the Sunday School, and as faculty members throughout America, unite with the high purpose to evangelize these noble young people, and thereby bring them to see the real significance of life and to achieve its ultimate spiritual values. This is the central motive of Christianity itself.

I earnestly hope that the messages contained in this booklet may have the widest possible circulation among all upon whom rests the responsibility of shaping the life and character of the Church of the future.

"THE BEST DAYS OF RELIGIOUS JOURNALISM"

DR. Edward Laird Mills, in a very discriminating chapter on "Religious Journalism: Today and Tomorrow" in Schofield's "The Church Looks Ahead," (Macmillan) after mercilessly describing the plight of the denominational paper and suggesting improvements necessary to save it, thus closes the discussion: "The Church must see to it that the spirit of true religion shall be injected into broadcasts, pictures, and the daily papers. But to do this it will first be necessary to build the pulpit back into a place of power and to make religious journalism once more an institution to be reckoned with. It should be remembered in this connection that there is a degree of permanence attached to preaching in print that sets it apart from the more ephemeral utterances of radio, talkie, and pulpit. It deepens the impressions they make. Moreover, the by-products arising from an ably edited and widely circulated religious press are of no small value. It helps to set high standards for its secular contemporaries and it furnishes them needed inspiration. Unquestionably the vast improvement of the daily press in its manners and tone as compared with past generations is due, in considerable part, to the influence of the Christian press. Speaking of the 'British Weekly' some years ago, a thoughtful writer remarks that 'it would be difficult to estimate the influence it has exercised upon its contemporaries'."

Then this wise critic argues, as we have often done, that the preacher himself must co-operate in promoting the circulation of the religious paper. He says: "These alluring goals cannot be reached apart from the efforts put forth by Christian ministers. The parish preacher needs the religious weekly in the homes of his people to undergird the sermons he preaches to them on Sunday. His parishioners need the religious paper in order that their children may profit from the wholesome atmosphere consequent upon its presence in the home. Only so will they draw the conclusion that religion is a natural and necessary thing. The best days of religious journalism should lie ahead of it."

The latest attempts of the Nazis to tamper with Jewish and Christian sacred literature concerns an attempt to reduce the Psalms to a book of "God Songs," an "Aryan" version of the Psalms rewritten by Wilhelm Teudt for German citizens in the Third Reich. By industrious selection and omission Herr Teudt has reduced the 150 original Psalms to 75 "God Songs." The omitted Psalms include virtually all that contain references to Hebrew history or mention of the Hebrew people.—Ex.

An intensive nation-wide educational plan will be launched at once by the National Conference of Jews and Christians to eliminate the causes of misunderstandings which create friction among those of differing faiths. The program will attempt to meet conditions encountered on the recent pilgrimage of understanding during the course of which a Catholic priest, a rabbi and a Protestant minister, traveling under the auspices of the National Conference, visited 38 cities across the continent.—Ex.

Personal and Other Items

Mrs. McKay, wife of Rev. E. L. McKay of Arkansas City, last week underwent a major operation at the Mack Wilson Hospital in Monticello. She is reported as slowly recovering.

The Dixie Bookshop, 200 Rogers Ave., Ft. Smith buys and sell rare books. If you are looking for something unusual or have something unusual to sell, communicate with this book service.

Rev. H. B. Vaught, pastor of Asbury Church, is able to fill his pulpit after a ten days' stay in the hospital where he submitted to an operation. Brother Vaught is having a good year at this fine church.

Supt. S. M. Yancey, representing the Western Methodist Assembly, is now visiting in cities in Louisiana and Texas. A week ago he was with Rev. J. C. Glenn at Texarkana and then with Rev. Guy Hicks at Mansfield, La. He reports fine interest in the Assembly and is hopeful of a prosperous season.

Rev. J. W. Moore, Manila, who is honor roll secretary of North Arkansas Conference, needs all the White River Conference Journals back of 1904. He expects to put them in book form for future use. Any one who has any of these journals should communicate with Bro. Moore, who is willing to pay for them, if need be.

Suggestions for the Observance of Rural Life Sunday, which is the fifth Sunday after Easter or May 6, is a valuable six-page leaflet that our pastors should have. It may be ordered from the Home Missions Council, 105 E. 22nd St., New York City, at three cents for a single copy, and even less for a quantity.

Rev. Otto W. Teague, our pastor at Norphlet sends in 32 subscriptions which completes his 100% list. Brother Teague says this fine club was secured by Mrs. H. H. Hubbard and adds: "The work of the charge is moving off in a fine way this fifth year of our pastorate. We lack only $25.00 of having all of our Conference Claims in hand or subscribed."

Every preacher should read Schofield's "The Church Looks Ahead: American Protestant Christianity, an Analysis and a Forecast." It is published by The Macmillan Co., New York; price $3.00. It has a chapter on almost every subject that challenges the interest of the preacher of today, and every chapter is written by a different author. Get it and you will never regret it.

Dr. F. M. Tolleson, P. E., Booneville District, writes: "Began second round yesterday (Feb. 18.) A spirit of optimism prevails in the District. There is a determination on the part of preachers and people to put the program of the church over, and it is refreshing. Booneville just had a very fine week for better things under the leadership of Dr. J. M. Williams. The community is very much indebted to him for his searching messages. He registered big with the high school boys and girls."

The editor is this week in Philadelphia, Pa., attending a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Anti-Saloon League in conference, Feb. 28, with leaders of the churches of the United States to determine plans and policies for the future activities of the League. As a member of the Administrative Committee, the business committee, of the League, he stopped at Westerville, Ohio, to confer with the managers of The American Issue, the organ of the League, with reference to its policy. He expects to return about March 5, and hopes that, during his absence, fine circulation reports will have been made.

Rev. A. G. Walton, pastor of our church at Siloam Springs, sending in his 100% list of subscriptions writes: "The pastor and family have been received at Siloam Springs in a splendid manner, and the work goes forward along every line. We have disposed of fifty-three of the Kingdom Extension study books, 'The Sound of Trumpets,' and the pastor is teaching the book in our mid-week services with an average attendance of fifty. We have received sixteen in the church this Conference year and expect to receive quite a few more by Easter. The spiritual state of the church is an inspiration in itself. The attendance at public worship is encouraging. We are working for and expecting some great victories this year for the Kingdom."

The World Baptist Congress is planned to meet in Berlin, this summer, and a writer in The Christian Century comments on the dilemma in which its members will be placed, arguing that, if they criticize Nazi intolerance and unjust treatment of the Jews, they will be in danger of severe handling by Hitler; but, if they refrain from such criticism, they will lose the respect of the religious world. It is our opinion that these Baptist delegates will, in respectful but unequivocal language, express their opinion. Baptists have never been cowards. They have a glorious record of willingness to be "persecuted for righteousness' sake," and we shall be surprised and disappointed if they should allow themselves to be deterred, in this instance, from standing for what they believe to be right. Their defiance of "Hitlerism," at this critical time, would hearten genuine Christians throughout the world.

BOOK REVIEWS

Jeshua, by A. V. Pohlman published by Moyer and Lotter; Philadelphia, Pa., Price $2.50.

This is a story of the life of Jesus and the author has done a notable piece of work in presenting Jesus and His teachings in a setting which gives the character and atmosphere of the country and age in which He lived. The subject is handled reverently and delicately and is calculated to inspire a deeper love and appreciation of Jesus and His work as He dwelt here among men. Only such characters are introduced as are needed to give life and color to the narrative. The preface states: "Jeshua has been written, not to add one more book about Him to the many now in print, but to give a harmonized and chronological story with only such characters and conversations, extraneous to the Gospel, as are necessary to show the social, intellectual, commercial, and religious conditions at the time of Jeshua's life on earth. This book is sent out with the hope that many will know Jeshua better and love Him more because of its contents." This interesting book may be ordered direct from Mrs. A. V. Pohlman, 5143 Race St., Philadelphia.

The Winning of Religious Liberty; by Joseph Henry Crooker, D.D., published by the Pilgrim Press, Boston and Chicago; price $1.50.

The author shows in an interesting manner the close relation of religious liberty and political liberty and gives a history of the steps leading to our present state of liberty. Many helpful suggestions are made for strengthening his liberty and drawing into a closer unity all who are striving to maintain the lofty ideals of religion, without which no nation can hope to preserve and advance its civilization.

God and My Garden; by Margaret E. Sangster; published by the Round Table Press, Inc., New York.

This is a dainty little volume containing a comforting bit of philosophy presented in a most pleasing style. It is dedicated "To all who have felt the shadow of pain or sadness; to all who have suffered the bitterness of loss; to all who have doubted, a moment, the utter wisdom that lies in the shade of a grim and blackened cross; to all who have felt that youth, itself, is pointless, that age comes swiftly and speaks with relentless tone; to all who have grieved for a dream or ideal broken and have realized, at last, that they do not grieve alone." Who among us has not at one time or another longed for a measure of assurance and comfort? This little volume brings us such message.

Stars, Atoms, And God; by Harris Elliott Kirk, D.D., LL.D., published by the University of North Carolina Press, Chapel Hill, N. C.; price $1.00.

This book is the substance of the McNair lectures given at the University of North Carolina in May, 1931. The lectures are couched in popular style, and, although they indicate an extensive and thorough knowledge of astronomy and physics, the two branches of science he uses in the discussion, they are singularly clear and free from technical terms. The author says: "Scientific conclusions have very little influence on the deeper aspects of human nature. Science appeals to reason, but does not affect the governing forces of personality; Reason cannot directly influence the will; until we feel the force of what we know, we will not act as though it were true." And again: "Religious faith is something more than assent to propositions, because it goes beyond rational conceptions to the heart of reality, and responds to it in the form of consent—An intimate surrender to what it believes to be the guiding and controlling power of the universe." Under the following subjects the author leads up to the climax, the necessity and reality of a personal God; I. "Stars to Atoms," II. "Atoms To Mind," III. "Mind To God." You will find the book both interesting and stimulating.

WHY I BELIEVE THE BIBLE

Jesus Christ, the Bible, and Christianity are inseparable. Jesus Christ is my Savior and Friend. The Bible is His Book and the book that introduces me to Him. Following the teachings of this Book and accepting Christ, makes us new creatures in Christ Jesus. The Superhuman and holy character of the Bible is unquestionable. The Ten Commandments, the Royal Law, the Golden Rule, the Sermon on the Mount, and the Lord's Prayer are the epitomized teachings of the Divine Code. These ethical standards are unique, and could not have emanated from any moral culture of those or any previous times; nor can they be improved upon today. The marvelous unity and perfect harmony, pervading the sixty-six books of this Divine-human Library, though the writers were distributed through 1600 years, and in different lands, prove its superhuman authorship. The unerring fulfillment of prophecy, though very improbable when predicted, is evidence of great weight. The invincible preservation of the Scriptures, through the ravages of time against the edicts of emperors, and the assaults of infidelity, bespeaks its Divine preservation.

Bad people could not have produced such a pure and holy Book, and would not if they could; and good men could not play the impostor. When governed by this Book people grow better, wiser and happier, both in the state, the home and the individual life. The remedy is perfect; try it. (John 13:17.)

Archaeology—All recent discoveries vindicate the claims of the Scriptures. Ethnology and all ancient history support their claims. Scientific research finds it nothing but truth. Christ's testimony is unchallengeable for five reasons: (1) His Divine life, (2) His Divine Words, (3) His Divine Works, (4) His Resurrection, (5) His miraculous influence over mankind.

Even devils and infidels quail before Him. His endorsement of the Pentateuch, and Moses as its author. Mark 7:10-13. But in John 5:46, Luke 24:27, and 24:44, He most emphatically places His seal of authority upon the whole Old Testament. Jesus Christ speaks of many different characters and writers of the Old Testament, always giving them unreserved confidence and approbation: As Noah and the flood, (Matt.

SILVER TEA AT PORTLAND

An attractive, silver-T-shaped invitation announced the delightful and entertaining Silver Tea which was held at the Methodist Church, February 20. On the back it stated that Mrs. Gus Gregory was hostess, with Mrs. Ed. Camack and Mrs. F. M. Sherrer assisting. Mrs. Jim Atkins was leader.

On a table, as you entered the door, was a box, representing a silver T, which was for the collection.

A very entertaining program presented by the children of the World Club and arranged by Mrs. Jim Atkins, was enjoyed by all. Alice Gregory played a lively selection on the piano, which was followed by the devotional given by John D. Thatch. He then introduced Jane Ann Pugh, who gave a prayer. After this there was a little playlet, a little girl's dream. She dreamed of her birthday party, where she had invited children of all the nations. They came and brought her presents representing their different countries.

After the program a delicious plate was served, on the side of which was a little red hatchet, with the words, "I cannot tell a lie." There was chicken salad with all the things that go with it.

Everyone present enjoyed the entire affair, which lasted from three until a little after five.—Mrs. Felix Pugh, Supt. Pub.

27:36-39), Jonah the prophet, (Matt. 12:39-42), Daniel. Never does He raise a question against authorship or the truth of their statements.

Jesus was not a destructive critic. See how the Spirit revealed to the Apostles. (Eph. 3:3-5). I could give many other citations, but the following pointers will clear away the mist. Dr. Tischendorf, a German scholar, on a search for old manuscripts at Mt. Sinai, in the year 1859, found an ancient Greek Bible written about 321-350 A. D. The Christian leaders of 200 A. D., to 325 A. D., wrote so much in defense of Christianity and quoted so much of the New Testament that all was quoted but eleven verses. The Syrian or Peshito, and the Old Latin, or Coptic, translations both of which agree with our text, prove the integrity of our text at about 100 A. D., when those New Testament translations were made. For these translations were made from the original manuscripts. The Syrian is used in Armenia today, and the Old Latin was the text used by Jerome in translating the Latin Vulgate later, in 405 A. D.—M. V. Fitz-Water, Hot Springs, Ark.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT
INSTITUTE

In spite of one of the coldest days of the winter the missionary institute of the Fayetteville District which was held here January 28 and 29th at the Central Church was well attended by representatives of almost all of the twenty charges which composed the district.

Rev. Dawson Bryan of Owensboro, Ky., pastor of the Settle Memorial Methodist Church, opened the session Sunday night, with a sermon, using as his subject: "I have Found a Horseshoe."

Monday morning the gathering was called to order by Rev. Mr. Davidson, chairman of the Conference Benevolent committee, and Rev. Mr. Morehead of Rogers church conducted the devotional service which was followed by another masterful sermon by Rev. Mr. Bryan. His subject for this hour was "The Ball and Bat." Rev. F. R. Hamilton, of Fayetteville, our presiding elder, assisted in the morning session.

A good old fashioned cold-day dinner was served by the women of the church to 5 visitors including the ministers, many of their wives and a large group of laymen and the knowledge that it touched the right spot was shown by the speeches and humor demonstrated at the table.

Owing to the fact that the weather was very disagreeable and many of the visitors had to make long drives there was no service in the afternoon.—Mrs. Philip Iden.

W. M. S. ZONE MEETING AT DES ARC

Zone One of the Little Rock District convened February 20, at Des Arc in an all day meeting with Mrs. Ed C. W. Wilken of Hazen, zone chairman, presiding.

The morning devotional was given by Mrs. L. E. Hinson of Des Arc. Using a portion of the second chapter of Acts as a Scripture lesson, Mrs. Hinson described the characteristics of the members of the first church: "Continuing steadfast, fellowship with others; praying; sharing and following the command. 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart . . . thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' Shall we not emulate these early Christians and make our Missionary Societies and our Churches truly missionary in spirit? After silent prayer for those who are sick, Rev. Chas. Giessen, Pastor at Des Arc led in prayer.

Welcome was given by Mrs. W. K. Bacon of Des Arc.

Officers school of instruction was conducted by Mrs. W. O. Clark, District Secretary and Mrs. C. B. Nelson, District Superintendent of Mission Study. A pot luck luncheon was served at the Masonic Temple.

The afternoon devotional was given by Mrs. Earl Perkins of Carlisle, who read the 'love chapter'—13th chapter of 1st Cor. as a basis for a beautiful explanation of God's love exemplified in our lives. She told of "Jo Nobi" that wonderful Japanese woman who has been instrumental in saving so many lives as an illustration. Mrs. R. L. Young Jr., of Lonoke, played a lovely original arrangement of "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise."

Mrs. John Winchester of Des Arc introduced the following members of Des Arc W. M. S. who splendidly gave the playlet, "Forget-me - not-Magic." Mrs. McIver Reed, Mrs. B. E. Wray, Mrs. J. E. Berry, Mrs. Orville Griggs and Miss Opal Wray. A most helpful talk was given by Miss Sue Fawcett of Lonoke on "What Wilt Thou, My Lord and Master, Have Me Do?"

Next on the program was a beautifully rendered vocal solo—"Jesus Savior Pilot Me" by Mrs. Linville R. Brown with Mrs. Albert Erwin, Jr., as accompanist, both from Des Arc. Mrs. Ed Wilken, in her own gracious way, expressed her appreciation of the hospitality of Des Arc W. M. S. and a rising vote of thanks was given by the visitors.

Mrs. Clark announced our Annual meeting at Hope, April 3-5. Carlisle W. M. S. will be host for our next Zone Meeting.

We were dismissed with prayer by Rev. W. R. Boyd, Pastor of Carlisle Methodist church.—Mrs. W. I. Booe, Secretary Zone 1.

ZONE MEETING AT ROGERS

A very interesting meeting of zone No. 2 was called to order February 8th at Rogers Central church by Mrs. O'Daniel of Gravette, president, assisted by Mrs. Furry of Bentonville, secretary.

The roster showed the following attendants: Bentonville, 16; Berryville, 8; Centerton, 4; Eureka Springs, 6;ENTRY 5; Gravette, 8; Oakley Chapel, 4; Rogers, 2; Siloam Springs, 6; Springtown, 2; and if Pea Ridge had had a representative this meeting would have gone on record as having 100% attendance. ## The Best GRAY HAIR REMEDY IS MADE AT HOME

You can now make at home a better gray hair remedy than you can buy, by following this simple recipe: To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it yourself at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained.

Barbo imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair, makes it soft and glossy and takes years off your looks. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. Do not be handicapped by gray hair now when it is so economical and easy to get rid of it in your own home.

Maturity... Maternity... Middle Age

At these three trying periods a woman needs Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Give it to your daughter when she comes to womanhood. Take it for strength before and after childbirth. Take it to tide you over Change of Life. Take it whenever you are nervous, weak and rundown.

A medicine which has the written endorsement of nearly 800,000 women must be good. Give it a chance to help you, too. Take it regularly for best results.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

98 out of 100 women report benefit

No. 1 from Fayetteville: Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Trent and Mrs. Thomas and their presence was warmly welcomed.

The meeting was scheduled for 10 o'clock and the day was full to the brim of discussions and talks pertaining to the needs and requirements of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. After the cooperative dinner the pastor of the Siloam Springs Church, Rev. A. G. Walton preached a splendid sermon on "Why I Believe in Missions."

Committees to further the work for this year were appointed and the following officers will be in charge: Mrs. E. L. Shaw, of Rogers, president; Mrs. Hugh Britt of Oakley Chapel, secretary.—Mrs. Philip Idem.

HEBER SPRINGS AUXILIARY

The Woman's Missionary Society met at the church February 14 in a short business session followed by a Valentines' Birthday social.

At the business meeting with the president, Mrs. I. T. Matthews, in the chair, the pledge for the year was made.

Mrs. J. L. Mullens reported that $6.50 had been realized from McCall magazine subscriptions.

Mrs. J. L. Edie, superintendent of Children's work presented a skit in the form of a round table discussion with Mrs. R. W. Olmstead, acting as conference superintendent of children's work, answering all questions asked about that department.

Following this playlet Valentine games were played in the League room which was decorated with hearts and cupids.

A special feature was the ripping off of patches on an old shirt by members of Circle 2 of which. Mrs. E. T. King is Captain. The shirt had been passed to each member who in turn sewed a patch over a coin and passed the shirt to a nearby member. The coins amounted to $8.00. Circle 1, of which Mrs. J. L. Mullens is chairman, is also passing a shirt among it's members but the rounds have not been completed.

During the social hours refreshments carrying out the Valentine Motif were served.—Mrs. John Miller, Superintendent of Publicity.

Christian Education

A NEW ELECTIVE COURSE

The popularity of the Adult Elective Courses appearing in the Adult Student, is rapidly increasing throughout the Church, judging from reports received from a large number of our pastors.

The new Elective Course, which will be published during April, May, and June, 1934, in the Adult Student, is "Christian Ideas and Practices in Business." Rev. O. L. Simpson, the writer of this material, is a member of the Staff of the Editorial Department of the General Board of Christian Education. His fine training in the field of Social Science and his successful experience as a pastor in industrial situations, fit him remarkably for the preparation of this material. The use of this excellent course throughout the Church should be of great spiritual value to adult classes. Advance copies of the April Adult Student containing the first four lessons may be secured from the Editorial Department on request.—C. A. Bowen, Secretary.

NEW SCHOOLS SUPPORTING SPECIAL

The following Sunday Schools made a contribution toward the Home & Foreign Missionary Enterprise the fourth Sunday in January: Rockport, Butterfield, DeValls Bluff, Wilmar, Pleasant Hill and Wade's Chapel.

These schools formerly supported this Special, but during the depression dropped out. They have again lined up with us, because they want to have a part in one of the greatest undertakings of modern times, the saving of our own country churches, and also helping in worldwide Methodist Missions.

In January 101 schools in the Little Rock Conference made a contribution as against 78 in December. The interest in our own country work is growing where it has been properly presented. The offerings of many schools have increased in the last two or three months. We thank God and take courage.—S. T. Baugh.

PICTURES AT FORDYCE

Accepting the invitation of Dr. J. M. Workman, pastor, I presented the pictures, "The Romance of the Country Church," at Fordyce, Sunday night, February 18. One of the largest crowds I have spoken to this winter filled the auditorium. Dr. Workman had advertised the service extensively and the people responded. The pastor of the Nazarene Church dismissed his evening service and he and many of his people were present.

I spent a most delightful night in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Workman. They are having a splendid year at Fordyce, and this splendid church is moving forward.

I met many friends whom I have known and loved for years.—S. T. Baugh.

7 Reasons Why Capudine is Best For Aches and Pains

1. A well balanced prescription.
2. Liquid—already dissolved.
3. Therefore quicker acting.
4. Non-narcotic—Non-habit forming.
5. Agreeable to the taste.
6. Speedy elimination from system.
7. Easy on the stomach.

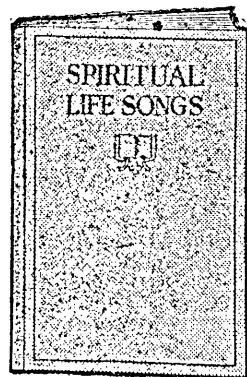

Take Capudine for headaches, periodic pains, muscular aches and pains—10c-30c-60c bottles.

Why
Liquid Laxatives
Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward. The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a prescription. It is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they may do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

Church News

ANNUAL MEETING OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in the chapel of the Board of Church Extension Building, 1115 Fourth Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky, beginning Tuesday, April 17, 1934, 9:00 A. M. All applications to be considered by the Board at its Annual Meeting must be in the hands of the Secretary on or before March 31.—T. D. Ellis, Secretary.

SEARCY DISTRICT BROTHERHOOD

The Searcy District Brotherhood met at Searcy, First Church, Feb. 19, at 9:30 A. M. Rev. S. O. Patty led in a very helpful devotion and discussion, on "On Church Attendance, Young People's Work and Finances."

After these discussions we decided to call our meeting the "Searcy District Brotherhood," and it will meet on Monday after the first Sunday in each month at 9:30 a.m. Our next meeting will be March 5, at Searcy, First Church. We would like for as many of the Pastors in this District to attend as feel that they can afford to come.

Rev. V. E. Chalfant will lead in the next meeting on the subject, "Reaching the Unreached." W. E. Benbrook was elected secretary. Those present were, F. E. Dodson, Presiding Elder, W. C. Davidson, J. J. Webb, S. O. Patty, V. E. Chalfant, J. M. Talkington, B. E. Robertson, Paul Bennett, Local Preacher, and W. E. Benbrook.—W. E. Benbrook, Sec.

PINE BLUFF CIRCUIT

Monday and Tuesday, February 19th and 20th, were given to Rev. John G. Gieck, and his people of Pine Bluff Circuit.

We visited each church, Mt Carmel, Wofford's Chapel, Good Faith, Faith and Sulphur Springs where we met a group of workers and planned for an extensive program of reaching people for Christ and the Church.

Bro. Gieck has already won a place in the hearts of his people, and they are responding to his leadership in a nice way. He is one of the most tireless and energetic workers I have ever known.

The Pine Bluff Circuit is growing. With certain needed improvements in church buildings at each place except Good Faith, this charge should go forward rapidly. Good Faith church is a beautiful brick, well located in a growing community, soon to have a paved road into Pine Bluff. It has some substantial families in its membership, and will have more as the years pass. Mrs. L. T. Rogers makes her home there, and is a wonderful help to that community.—S. T. Baugh.

ANTI-TOBACCO MEETINGS

As Superintendent of the Awaken No-Tobacco League I have arranged for twelve meetings in March for lectures and addresses on the cigarette evil, by Superintendent F. W. Lough and wife of Indianapolis. Superintendent Lough has been at the head of the No-Tobacco League of America for a number of years, and he and his wife have a wide reputation as speakers in the tobacco evil.

The meetings are to be at Little Rock, Thursday, March 1; Brinkley, Friday, March 2; Harrisburg, Sunday, March 4; Jonesboro, Monday, March 5; Walnut Ridge, Tuesday, March 6; Batesville, Wednesday, March 7; Newport, Thursday, March 8; Searcy, Friday, March 9; McRae, Saturday, March 10; Beebe, Sunday, March 11; Russellville, Monday, March 12; Hot Springs, Tuesday, March 13. At all the places there will be afternoon discussions and evening illustrated lectures and at most of them lectures at schools in the forenoon.—S. C. Parish, Superintendent.

DR. WILLIAMS AT NEWARK

Too much cannot be said in appreciation of the splendid work in Newark by Dr. J. M. Williams. Our people are so pleased that they want to have him come once a year to give us all a toning up.

The week of Feb. 4, was a wonderful week in every way. The churches of the community were drawn very close together as the result of sharing in bringing Dr. Williams here. The P. T. A. and public school co-operated wholeheartedly.

The writer still hears praise of Dr. Williams and visible results are manifesting themselves. One of the so-called "problem" boys in the high school joined the Christian Church as definite result of the morning talks at the High School. One of the teachers reported that five of her boys came to her announcing that they were "quitting smoking." Several of the homes are inquiring into how best to conduct family worship and a new spirit of Christian fellowship seems to be permeating the community.

Dr. Williams' informing condemnation of the low standards of moving picture producers, the tobacco and liquor interests, and the willingness of the secular press to permit these harmful influences to use them as a means for carrying on their business, should be broadcast in every home and community in our nation. He gets his message over to the young people in a most convincing manner.

We, of Newark, appreciate Hendrix College for making it possible to have Dr. Williams with us. We trust that as he may go about our state that the Spirit of the Living God may go with him, that hearts and homes and communities may be stirred, that the dangers that are threatening and sapping the lives of our youth and our homes may be overthrown, and that the kingdom of God may enter in and abide in the hearts of men and women, and boys and girls, and that the rich reward of the Father's "well done" may be his.—A. Edwin Grimes, P. C.

FRIENDSHIP CIRCUIT

Brother Robison of Friendship held a Group Meeting of the church officials and others who wished to attend, Wednesday, February 14, at Magnet. This was the second meeting of its kind for the Friendship Circuit. The first was held at Friendship.

Friendship, Rockport, Butterfield, and Magnet were represented.

The meeting was opened with a song, "The Old Rugged Cross," following a prayer by Mr. Dale Haltom.

How Black-Draught Stops Bad Feeling

"I have taken Thedford's Black-Draught for about twelve years, when needed, for dizziness, and it is a wonderful medicine," writes Mrs. Elmer Leverett, of Carrier Mills, Ill. "I can usually tell when a headache is coming on by the bad taste in my mouth and a dull feeling. If I begin taking Black-Draught then, I can keep off the headache."

of Rockport. Brother Robison then delivered a wonderful message on "Faith," based on Matthew 6:1-12.

Reports were made of the work at different points on the circuit. Mrs. Duncan of Friendship told of the splendid work done in the Missionary Society at that place. The Society made a quilt to help in their finance problems. They also have a Sunday egg project which helps wonderfully. They have a splendid Sunday School and a Young People's Society.

Mr. Dale Haltom, of Rockport, reported a splendid Sunday School and much interesting work in the church. They went over the top in pledges on the preacher's salary. They are planning to overhaul their church soon and organize a Woman's Missionary Society.

Mr. H. R. Lawrence, of Butterfield, reported a splendid Sunday School that is growing all the time. They are paying their Conference Claims with Sunday eggs and plan to pass the 100% mark in everything this year. They have painted the inside of their church and hope soon to paint the outside, also, to put a new roof on the building. The Arkansas Methodist goes into more homes than is required to make their church 100%.

Brother Robison reported much good work at Midway and Social Hill. Mr. Jewell Sorrells and Mrs. Grace Whitman reported on the work at Magnet since the last meeting. Prospects are good to pay our pastor's salary in full. We believe our Sunday egg project will more than pay our Conference Claims. Our Sunday School is doing nicely, but we expect it to increase in interest and membership.

The Missionary Society made a quilt and sent it to the Orphan's Home. The quilt top was donated to the Society by Mrs. Frances Overton, secretary of the Society. We are piecing a quilt now, with which we expect to secure funds to buy lights for our church. Several members of our church secured teams, slips, and a grader, and spent two days in improving the grounds in front of the church. This project was sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society. We hope to do more on the grounds soon.

At the close of this meeting we had a half-hour social meeting during which time cake was served with cocoa.

The Magnet Missionary Society then held their monthly meeting with a goodly number present and a very interesting meeting.

The next group meeting will be at Social Hill on March 11. We hope that every church on the Circuit will be represented with a large group from each place. The meetings are very interesting and helpful, and those who do not attend are missing something very much worth while. Come once and you will wish to come again. Make new acquaintances, add new friends to your list, and learn what other

VICIOUS AND UNDESERVED

The vicious and unwarranted attack made by Congressman John Rankin on Harvey Couch, director of the RFC, demanding his resignation from that organization, is merely the mouthing of a blatant demagogue.

Rankin is all hot and bothered because Mr. Couch has been receiving about $70,000 per year for serving as president of the Mississippi Power & Light Company, the Louisiana Power and Light Company, and the Arkansas Power and Light Company.

A sufficient reply to the ranting of Rankin is that the services of Harvey Couch have been worth fully five times that amount to the three corporations named during each year of his service.

He has accomplished more for the industrial growth and development of the three states named than any man within their borders.

He is honest, clean, right-minded, capable, patriotic, imbued with intense civic pride, and no responsible person has ever brought a serious charge against his private life or public service.

Rankin's frantic mouthing merely furnishes another bit of substantial proof that the first District of Mississippi needs a new Congressman.

The work of Harvey Couch as director of the RFC has been of inestimable value to the South, and especially Mississippi.

Had it not been for Harvey Couch in this position of power and prestige, it would not have been possible to save more than one-half the banks that were operating in this state at the time President Roosevelt ordered a bank holiday. By reason of the active support and influence of Mr. Couch, it was made possible to reopen nearly every bank in the commonwealth.

More than that, Harvey Couch was our trusted friend at court and made it possible to change the status of at least 150 Mississippi banks from weak financial position to strong institutions.

The RFC has poured more than six million dollars of new banking capital into this State, and it was Harvey Couch who was "Johnny-on-the-spot" in every instance, while John Rankin and others of his ilk were tearing their hair to get on the pension rolls men who never saw a firing line, and who are not afflicted with any form of physical disability as the result of military service—a sorry bunch of treasury raiders and public till-tappers.

Harvey Couch has rendered a similar service to Louisiana, Arkansas and other Southern states. He is one of the big men of the nation, and when John Rankin says derogatory things concerning him, it is akin to throwing mud at Washington's monument.—Jackson (Miss.) Daily News.

A country doctor tells this story on himself. After writing a prescription for a patient, the physician told him that the druggist would probably charge him sixty cents for filling it. Then the patient asked the physician to lend him the money. The physician scratched out a part of the prescription and handed it back with ten cents, remarking: "You can have that filled for a dime. What I scratched out was for your nerves."

Mothers, Mix This at Home for a Bad Cough

Saves $2. So Easy! No Cooking!

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough. It's no trouble to mix, and costs but a trifle, yet it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, put it into a pint bottle, and fill up with your sugar syrup. The pint thus made costs no more than a small bottle of ready-made medicine, yet it is the most effective remedy that money can buy. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes, loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and clears the air passages. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep.

Never let a cold go 24 hours untreated. At the first sign of a cold, take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. This famous tablet stops a cold quickly because it is expressly a cold remedy and because it does the four things necessary.

These Four Effects

First, Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine opens the bowels, gently but effectively. This is the first step in expelling a cold. Second, it combats the cold germs in the system and reduces the fever. Third, it relieves the headache and that grippy feeling. Fourth, it tones the entire system and helps fortify against further attack.

This is the treatment a cold requires and anything less is taking chances.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is utterly harmless and perfectly safe to take. It is, and has been for years, the leading cold and gripe tablet of the world.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine comes in two sizes—30c and 50c—and is sold by every drugstore in America. Buy the 50c size as it gives you 20% more for your money. ### OBITUARY

JACKSON—Bro. C. O. Jackson of New Salem Church on Hot Springs Circuit, was called to his eternal reward on January 26. He was born October 5, 1873, in Illinois, and came with his parents to Arkansas when eight years old. To this union eight children were born, four boys and four girls, five of which, with the wife, still live.

Bro. Jackson professed faith in Christ and joined the church at New Salem when a young man, and always lived in the community, and was considered one of our best men. He will be much missed. His remains were laid to rest in the New Salem cemetery in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor assisted by the Rev. Mr. Huling, a former pastor.

CULLINS—Mrs. Annie Josephine Cullins was born in Union County, Arkansas, May 23, 1848, and died May 1, 1933, at her home in Caledonia, Union County. She was married twice. By her first marriage to W. H. Beard two sons were born, William Wooley and James Clarence. The elder son preceded her to the better world. By her second marriage to G. T. Cullins five children were born, Mrs. S. A. Hale, Mrs. J. A. Cobb, Mrs. J. M. Meek, Robert Lee Cullins and Elmer Vivien Cullins. Mrs. Cullins joined the Methodist Church in her childhood and lived a consistent member until death. Her sterling character and happy spirit won for her friends of all who touched her life, and her sweet mother-love and neighborliness were shared by many around her. Her family and her friends will carry forever in their hearts the memory of her loveliness.

CORRECTIONS ON SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT REPORTS

Owing to the fact that the Conference Journal for 1933 unhappily got the headings in Tables No. 4 jumbled, we take this method of correcting them so that each charge in the Conference can see how they stand on Superannuate Endowment. These tables are corrected and represent the payments made since the adjustment of the quotas two years ago.

In this connection our attention is called to the fact that March is Superannuate Month and that a special effort should be made during the month of March culminating on Easter Sunday to raise something on this adjusted quota.

—H. Lynn Wade, Conference Director Superannuate Endowment.

SUNDAY SERVICES

11:00 A. M. — Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs will preach.
7:30 P. M. — Communion Service.

PASTOR'S LETTER

TO MEMBERS OF
WINFIELD METHODIST CHURCH

DEAR FRIENDS:

If I could visit in your homes this week, there are three things about which I'd like to talk with you.

The first is that next Sunday morning Winfield is to be honored with the presence of our Bishop. I am sure Bishop Dobbs will have a great message for us. He is a profound thinker, he is deeply religious, and in the use of language, he is an artist. You certainly don't want to miss this fine opportunity to hear him.

The second thing is that on Sunday evening we are going to have a Communion service. Some of our people who can't come to the morning services, but do some in the evening, never have a chance to receive the Sacrament. I am thinking of our Church School teachers in the lower departments of the School; and of the families where the husbands have to work on Sunday morning. We are hoping that this service will minister to a good group of our people; and, if it does, we shall be happy to give it a regular place in our program.

The third thing is about our finances. To date, we have raised only about 80% of our goal for the quarter. However, many of our members have promised to bring their extra contribution after the first of the month. So, we are confident that a good sum will be brought in next Sunday. To those of you who have already made a special offering, I am very grateful. If you have not, let me urge you to make a special effort, at this time, to help your church.

Sincerely, your pastor,

MARSHALL T. STEEL.

The Church Weathers the Depression

The following sentences are taken from an article in the February 21st issue of the Christian Century, written by Mr. A. C. Marts, who is a prominent layman in New York City. "The national income for all the people of the United States shrank from 85 billions in 1929 to 40 billions in 1932, a deflation of 54 per cent. Expenditures for personal comforts and luxuries shrank from $9,972,000,000 in 1929 to $3,841,000,000 in 1932, a deflation of 61 per cent. Expenditures for recreation dropped from $4,987,000,000 in 1929 to $1,637,000,000 in 1932 a deflation of 72 per cent. Yet in this period of general deflation of income and selfish expenditure the total contributions to churches from living contributors shrank from $850,000,000 in 1929 to $510,000,000 in 1932, a deflation of only 40 per cent. The institution which maintained this relatively level degree of support from the masses of the people during the past difficult years cannot be utterly bankrupt. The pitiable consideration about these figures is not evidence of present bankruptcy, but is the contemplation of the paltry 1 per cent of national income which we gave our churches during our late prosperity.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

March 11-16

One hundred persons from Winfield Church are expected to attend the March Training School at First Church. Less than half that number have signed cards. Let us not fail to make this opportunity count. Turn in your enrollment card.

Primary and Junior Teachers

Tuesday, March 6, the Primary and Junior Councils meet. General plans are discussed by departments. Specific lesson plans are made by the teachers of the separate year groups.

Fellowship Day

March 11, opportunity will be given for members of the various departments of the Church School to express their decision to serve Christ as members of the church. Those who express this desire will form the Easter class.

Senior Department

Charles Langhammer has been elected musical director of the Senior Department.

Programs for the month were planned at a committee meeting last week.

Attendance

The Forum Class, taught by Mr. J. R. Bullington, was the largest class last Sunday. For the past six months this honor has gone either to the Couples' Class or to the Mothers' Class.

I BELIEVE IN THE CHURCH

An Article from the Creed of a Christian Educator.

I believe in the Church.

The Church has been my spiritual home.

I have memorized its Scriptures. Its hymns have nourished me in defeat and fortified me in temptation.

Its history has thrilled me as I have followed its fortunes down the centuries.

Its persistence and its power, in spite of so much folly and wrong in its human leadership, make me believe that God believes in it too, and has yet some great work for it in the world.

I know well the mistakes and weaknesses of the Church. I am saddened by its pursuit of foolish whims, distressed by its fatal divisions, discouraged by its absorption in materialistic ideals that it is set to oppose.

But, also, I know well the latent idealism of its members.

I am aware of the vision and courage of its wisest leadership.

I am conscious of its unused powers of costly plants and working membership and growing persons.

I see what it can become in transforming the world if it ceases to serve itself and once becomes enamored of its power as a servant of human good.
