PREPARING FOR EASTER

ACCORDING to the plan adopted by our church leaders, our pastors and people have been going through a period of preparation for pledges and contributions to the Benevolences and Kingdom Extension at Easter. Encouraging reports are constantly coming in. We believe that our pastors are reconsecrating themselves to their work, praying more, organizing better, and working harder than they have ever done. Our observation warrants the belief that financial conditions are improving and that in Arkansas we are much better off than in many other sections of our country. Our farmers had a good cotton crop, received a fair price for what they raised and also for that which they plowed under at the behest of the government. More and more they are producing things that are consumed at home. The winter has been unusually mild, and consequently expenses rather lighter than in many other parts of the land where it has been excessively cold. We have many reasons for thanksgiving, and should indicate our gratitude to God by a larger liberality and increased faithfulness. It is hoped that the ardent efforts and prayers of pastors and people will also result in a real spiritual revival. When we use our property honestly and religiously there is certain to be a genuine revival. When we waste God's good gifts in wantonness and riotous living, spiritual blessings will be withheld.

ARE THE CHURCHES INSOLVENT?

UNDER the caption above, Mr. Arnaud C. Martz, a leading financial adviser, in the Christian Century of February 21, discusses the financial condition of the churches and compares their condition with that of other organizations. He reaches the following conclusion: "The financial foundations of the churches are simple and plain, but evidently sound. A generation in the past called the church overrich and greedy; the present generation is pleased to call it bankrupt. But whether it be the one or the other or neither, it goes quietly on its way serving God and humanity according to its imperfect understanding, and contrives to survive most of its more prosperous and popular contemporaries."

While Mr. Martz admits that the churches have made mistakes and their income is reduced, his comparisons are favorable to the churches. He says: "The plain mathematics of the case reveals that our churches have come through the four depression years more nearly solvent than most of our secular enterprises. The churches have suffered severe losses of income, to be sure, and many of them are feeling the sharp pinch of new circumstances, but—are not we all? The church losses should be considered relatively. Our numerous social organizations, for instance, have suffered enormous losses in membership during the past four years. Golf clubs, patriotic societies, and certain fraternal groups have experienced a shrinkage in membership probably not less than 40 per cent. Yet, in this same period, our Protestant churches have added 1,250,000 members, net, to their rolls. Is that evidence of bankruptcy?"

He continues: "The national income for all the people of the United States shrank from 85 billions in 1929 to 40 billions in 1932, a deflation of 54 per cent. Expenditures for personal comforts

* AND GREAT MULTITUDES CAME *
* UNTO HIM, HAVING WITH THEM *
* THOSE THAT WERE LAME, BLIND, *
* DUMB, MAIMED, AND MANY OTHERS, *
* AND CAST THEM DOWN AT JESUS' *
* FEET; AND HE HEALED THEM; INSO- *
* MUCH THAT THE MULTITUDE WON- *
* DERED, WHEN THEY SAW THE DUMB *

and luxuries shrank from $9,972,000,000 in 1929 to $3,841,000,000 in 1932, a deflation of 61 per cent. Expenditures for recreation dropped from $4,987,000,000 in 1929 to $1,637,000,000 in 1932, a deflation of 72 per cent. Yet in this period of general deflation of income and selfish expenditure the total contributions to churches from living contributors shrank from $850,000,000 in 1929 to $510,000,000 in 1932, a deflation of only 40 per cent. The institution which maintained this relatively level degree of support from the masses of the people during the past difficult years cannot be utterly bankrupt. The pitiable consideration about these figures is not evidence of present bankruptcy, but is the contemplation of the paltry one per cent of national income which we gave our churches during our late prosperity."

A comparison of present and pre-war contributions to the churches is not discouraging. In 1916 the religious census showed contributions to all the churches that year of $329,000,000 an amount almost $200,000,000 less than the giving of 1932; and yet the national income was $5,000,000,000 greater in 1916 than in 1932. Figures for 1933 are not all available, but Mr. Martz estimates the total is $400,000,000, which is still $71,000,000 more than the churches received in 1916, although our national income was probably less by $9,000,000,000 than in 1916.

Of course, the heavy debts on some of our churches cause many of our people to think that we are about to lose the physical property of the church. It is shown that in 1926 while the debts on farms and homes was about 50 per cent of their value, the debts of churches were only 11.3 per cent of their value, and 78 per cent of the churches were wholly free of debt. It is probable that church debts increased considerably during the interval, but we may rest assured that church debts are relatively far less than those of secular property and the states and the nation.

We have some large church debts in Arkansas, but they are almost wholly on a few large churches, perhaps twenty, while practically all the smaller churches are out of debt. We have had a few instances of reckless church financiering; but in comparison with those in the secular world our churches have been conservative. A few of our church buildings and some of our church institutions may be lost because of debt; but the losses will be almost insignificant as compared with losses in the secular world. The church is not a business institution, but it has managed its business far better than the business world has managed its affairs. It is time for the world to quit criticizing the church for poor management, and for church people to take new courage on account of the institution that has stood the storm so well, and show increased confidence in that which stands for eternity.

CREATING CUSTOMERS

EVERY legitimate business seeks to hold its customers and find others to take their place as the old ones drop out. If the business is honorable and the methods are legitimate, such efforts deserve commendation. The liquor business is now legal; consequently it has a legal right to take steps looking to its future support. What do our readers think of the methods that are being used? The following information comes from reliable sources.

Chocolate creams, unusually luscious and attractive, have been prepared. They are filled with liquor. A medical authority says: "There is 20.5% of alcohol in the liquor contained in the chocolate covered shell of the rum and 23.8% in the cogniac." The following advertisement has appeared in some of the papers: "Salesmen, distributors: Liquor - filled candy with real bourbon, brandy, etc., good profits; fast repeats; each piece a real mouthful."

This same medical authority says: "If you were to eat one-half dozen of either you would have taken into your system about as much alcohol as is contained in a good, stiff cocktail." Another statement is that six pieces of this candy would induce a visible state of intoxication upon a child. It is said that already there is a heavy demand for this candy, especially by children eight to fourteen years. It is known that this kind of candy is being sold in Philadelphia and other cities. This candy is usually offered for sale in shops near school houses where children may buy during the recess periods. In this way the liquor dealers are laying the foundation for future business among the 30,000,000 school children of today. Is this the way to promote temperance? If this traffic is permitted, will it not undoubtedly create customers for the liquor business?

IT is estimated that the total number of Scripture volumes issued by the Bible Societies and by commercial Bible publishers exceeds 27,000,000 volumes annually. The entire Bible has been translated into 175 languages and parts of it have been translated into 765 languages or dialects making a grand total of 940 languages and dialects. In Japan one Gospel given by a worker of the American Bible Society to a young man, a Christian, resulted in his teaching in Sunday School for two years and then establishing a church. Among foreign language Scriptures recently published by the American Bible Society is the Gospel of St. Matthew in a dialect spoken by the Romany Gypsies of Bulgaria, a people numbering about 100,000.

DR. CHRISTIAN F. REISNER, the widely known minister of Broadway Temple, New York City, says that the president of one of the largest business concerns in America wrote him: "I have recently seen a group of executives of the very highest type at a luncheon conference become so mentally fogged after drinking three steins of beer that the business meeting practically accomplished nothing."

Personal and Other Items

MRS. T. H. LIPSCOMB, daughter of the late Rev. D. H. Colquette, will have charge of the office of the American Bible Society until June, when it will be transferred to Dallas.

DR. W. C. WATSON, P. E. of Pine Bluff District, announces that his District Conference will meet at Roe the night of May 24 and continue through May 25. Rev. J. D. Baker will preach the opening sermon.

PRESIDING ELDER H. D. SADLER announces that Rev. W. H. Chambers, a local elder who has been serving Umpire Circuit, has given up his work, and Rev. Fay Sharp, a local preacher of Lockesburg, has been appointed to the charge.

REV. R. L. LONG, writing to change his address to 4111 W. 23d St., adds: "The work at Douglassville and Guyer Springs is progressing nicely. We are putting on the Kingdom Extension program at Douglassville and enjoy it thoroughly."

PASTORS who are sending in names of new subscribers, should not promise that the paper will be received the next week; because, with the large lists that are now coming in, it requires usually a week to get new names on our mailing lists. We appreciate the desire of pastors to get the paper promptly in the hands of their people, and we do our best to accomplish that purpose, but cannot always meet expectations awakened.

THE GENERAL MINUTES AND YEARBOOK of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, published by Whitmore and Smith, Agents, Nashville, Tenn., price 75 cents, has just been received. Edited by Dr. Curtis B. Haley, it is a compendium of indispensable information that every pastor and many laymen should have on their library tables. It contains the Minutes of the Annual Conferences for 1933, and, as this is General Conference year, it has much data concerning that important Conference. Our readers should immediately order it and inform themselves about the leading events of our Methodism.

REV. JOSEPH A. BAKER, aged 81, a local preacher, died at his home in Vandervoort on March 8. He had been a member of Little Rock Conference and served important charges; but located many years ago. He was a native of Alabama, but came to Arkansas in his youth, graduated from St. John's College, and practised law before he entered the ministry. He was the father of Rev. J. D. Baker, our pastor at DeWitt.

THE LITERARY DIGEST of Feb. 24 has a picture of a statue of Wm. A. Carr. The statue was made by Dr. Tait McKenzie, physical director of the University of Pennsylvania, and is now on exhibition in a gallery in New York City. Wm. A. Carr, who is the grandson of the late Rev. John F. Carr, one of the best loved members of Little Rock Conference, graduated at Pine Bluff High School and last year graduated at the U. of P. and now holds a responsible position in a Philadelphia banking house. A few years ago he was the Olympic champion and record holder in the 400-meter race. His mother and brother live with him in Philadelphia.

TWENTY-EIGHTH STREET CHURCH, in the southwestern part of this city, was organized twenty-five years ago on March 14, and, while it has never had a large membership, it has had fine pastors and has made a place for itself in the community. Rev. W. D. Mitchell, local preacher who was supplying Henderson Church, at the suggestion of the writer, who was then the presiding elder, effected the organization with 62 members, nine of whom are still on the roll together with seven others who joined during the year. Last Sunday morning this editor had the privilege of preaching an anniversary sermon to a fine congregation. The present membership is 277 and under the leadership of Rev. R. W. Menard is making fine progress. Soon an addition will be built to care for the growing Sunday School. The outlook for this year is very hopeful. Dinner in the parsonage home was thoroughly enjoyed.

BOOK REVIEWS

Mother's Story Box; by Mary Constance Du Bois; published by the Abingdon Press; New York City; price $1.00. In this series of stories the author relates the adventures of three little children as they study the habits of the birds and animals in their every-day world, and follows each adventure story with a Bible story about a similar bird or animal. The book is calculated to quicken the child's interest in and understanding of the beauties and wonders of nature and link it with the past in a way that will instill a love for the Bible and its wealth of truth and beauty. The author's many years of experience working with children in the field of Religious Education enables her to present Bible scenes and subjects in a way to make them very vivid and real to present-day little people.

Twelve Months of Drama for the Average Church; by Dorothy Clarke Wilson; published by Walter H. Baker Co.; Boston Mass.

In this book the average church will not only find an interesting collection of simple religious dramas, with full directions for their presentation, but also a beautiful and well arranged worship service to accompany each play. The material for the worship service has been selected with the view of strengthening the lesson presented by the play and increasing the spiritual value and beauty of the service. More and more each year our Churches are awakening to the value of the religious drama as a teaching force and will welcome this book which gives such definite and dependable help in solving the problem of what to present and how to present it.

Skipper, The Guide Dog, by Arthur C. Bartlett; published by W. A. Wilde Co.; Boston.

There's scarcely one among us who does not love a real dog. Then we can not fail to enjoy the story of "Skipper, the Guide Dog," and the loyal part she played in the adventures of her young master. The wonderful work that is being done for the help of the blind through the trained intelligence of these dogs is worthy of consideration by all, and anything that can be done to encourage or advance this work should be done. This is a wholesome adventure story where two fine boys and a fine dog share in the glory, and the reader gets the thrill and a more intimate knowledge of how these dogs are trained and how they serve the interests of their masters.

Mooring - Masts of Revelations; by Melvin Grove Kyle, D. D., LL.D.; published by Fleming H. Revell Company, New York; price $2.00.

This is an intimate study of great Bible personalities and sacred places connected with their lives; the author devoted a long and active life to close study of these and kindred subjects. His interpretations and opinions rightfully carry great weight. In a simple and popular style he shows how these towering personalities of the Bible received messages, great truths, and transmitted them to their lowlier fellowmen. It is an inspiring and informative book, and will be read with great profit.

REV. DRURY H. COLQUETTE DEAD.

REV. DRURY H. COLQUETTE, aged 65, after a very brief illness, passed away at his home in this city last Friday night. A native of Tennessee, he spent his youth at Walnut Ridge, and was educated in Mississippi College and Hendrix College. Licensed in 1890, he was a member of the old Arkansas Conference, North Arkansas Conference, and Little Rock Conference, and had served Star City, Rison, Atkins, Greenwood, Waldron, Huntington, Magazine, and Alma charges. He had been agent of the American Bible Society for many years and superintendent of Institutional Missions, and recently was appointed chaplain of the state penal institutions. In his early ministry he was chaplain of the House of Representatives. Passionately devoted to the saving of souls, Bro. Colquette took special delight in preaching to the inmates of prisons and institutions, and probably had to his credit more conversions among criminals and derelicts than had any minister in the state. Constantly promoting the distribution of Bibles, he became known as the "Man with the Bible." Sincere, courageous, self-sacrificing, faithful, he was pronounced a "real saint" by Dr. James Thomas, who with Rev. Neill Hart and Dr. C. M. Reves, conducted the funeral at First Church last Sunday in the presence of a large congregation. Bro. Colquette will be sadly missed. No one can do the kind of work he was doing. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Colquette; two sons, T. M. and H. E. both of this city and two daughters, Mrs. T. H. Lipscomb of this city, and Mrs. E. S. Smith of Salem, Ore., and two grandchildren.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF DENOMINATIONS IN CONFERENCE WITH THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

As members of the several church communions meeting in Philadelphia February 28-March 1, 1934, on the call of the Anti-Saloon League, we hereby offer the following suggestions as individuals, and, so far as we are qualified to do so, as the representatives of the church bodies.

First of all, we wish to commend the Anti-Saloon League for its expressed desire to ascertain the viewpoint of those who, though profoundly interested in the cause of temperance, are not so closely related to the organization and work of the League as are those to whom the organization looks for leadership and guidance.

We desire also to record our appreciation of the attitude and spirit of the members of the Executive Committee of the Anti-Saloon League during our deliberations. Their earnest insistence that we should speak with great frankness and their equal insistence that they be excused from participation in the formulation of reports and in the discussion of plans and suggestions is an indication of this spirit. They have always been willing to furnish information through their representatives who were named for that purpose when such information has been sought.

We believe it to be not only highly important, but utterly imperative, that the various temperance organizations in the United States be brought into the closest cooperative action and, as far as possible, into a working union. Looking toward the accomplishment of this end, we request the Church representatives here present to call an early meeting of the representatives of the Churches and of the representatives of the temperance organizations, and especially to counsel with any committee that is already appointed to work toward this purpose.

We recommend that the Board of Directors of the Anti-Saloon League study carefully, from the standpoint of efficiency, the services of the National, State and District leaders with a view to making such changes as will strengthen the personnel, organization and work.

We recommend that the Anti-Saloon League so amend its Constitution as to promise a larger degree of autonomy and responsibility in the several state organizations. We recommend the elimination of the provision in the Constitution whereby the State Superintendents are nominated by the General Superintendent.

We recommend that a careful study be made of the possibilities of enlisting youth to a larger degree in behalf of the temperance reform.—Findings Committee.

HENDRIX COLLEGE NEWS

In a non-decision debate, the Hendrix team, composed of Joe Evans, of Pine Bluff and Walter Laney of Little Rock, met Miss Fannie Sanders and Miss Mary Elizabeth Fite, representatives of Mississippi State Women's college at Columbus, in the Hendrix chapel, March 7. The question, "Resolved, that the powers of the president of the United States should be substantially increased as a settled policy," was discussed by the Hendrix team as the affirmative and the Mississippi visitors as the negative. At the conclusion, members of the audience were invited by Dr. O. T. Goodsen, sponsor of the debating activities at Hendrix and chairman of the contest, to ask questions of the debaters concerning any part of the argument. This unusual feature provided several minutes discussion between the listeners and the debaters and was a means of enabling the audience thoroughly to understand the principles upon which the debate was based.

The Y. W. C. A. program series for the remainder of March has been announced by Doris Rhodes, Stuttgart, chairman of the Program Committee. Beginning last week, the series includes talks on phases of home life by the wives of Hendrix faculty members. Musical selections have been added as feature numbers. Last week the program consisted of a talk, "Music in the Home," by Mrs. Clem A. Towner of the Department of Music, and a violin solo by Miss Elizabeth Rossington of Newport. March 14, Mrs. Ivan H. Grove

Do You Know As Much As Your Cat?

She's a knowing cat:

She asks for little—just her meals, a saucer of milk and a place in the sun. She gets plenty of sleep and exercise. She never worries, never frets. What is the result? Such vitality and resilience that we say, "Cats have nine lives."

What does your cat do when she is not well? She eats catnip, if she can find it. She eats grass and certain green plants to which her instinct leads her.

Your cat takes herbs for a tonic. Did you ever stop to think that Old Mother Nature, who supplies the herbs necessary to your cat's health, has also provided the herbs necessary to your own well-being?

You don't have to hunt for them as the cat does. The herbs you need are skillfully blended and compounded in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, an old fashioned tonic that will help to restore your strength and energy.

spoke on "Beauty in the Home." The following week, a lecture on the "Homemaker" will be given by Mrs. L. O. Leach. Special numbers included a piano solo by Mary Glenn Ellis of Wynne March 14, and a violin solo by Edna Louise Jones of Little Rock on March 21.

LOCKESBURG CIRCUIT

Sunday, March , I drove to Lockesburg and heard Mrs. J. L. Tatum lead one of the most worshipful devotional services I have heard this year. She followed the program found in the back of The Church School Magazine. Mr. A. B. Gilliam is superintendent.

Rev. H. D. Sadler, P. E., preached a helpful sermon at 11:00. In the afternoon he held the second Quarterly Conference at Rock Hill Church.

Rev. E. W. Harris, the popular pastor, reported the work in good condition; some items excellent; one received on profession of faith, and ten by certificate. Since beginning the survey at Lockesburg the Junior Department of the Sunday School has grown from five to twenty-seven in four Sundays. Finances are in good condition.

At night we put on the pictures at Lockesburg to a packed house of appreciative people.—S. T. Baugh.

ARKADELPHIA DISTRICT

Monday morning, March 5, I stopped at Malvern and attended the Arkadelphia District Brotherhood meeting. Brother Henderson, the love! Presiding Elder, led in a helpful service. Rev. A. C. Carraway of Benton preached a helpful sermon. Reports of the pastors indicate that the District is in fine condition and will have a great year. It was a pleasure to talk with brethren, and make plans with several relative to their work.—S. T. Baugh.

JUNALUSKA SUMMER SCHOOL

Beginning June 8th and continuing through July 23, 1934, the Junaluska School of Religion, affiliated with Duke University and the General Board of Christian Education, will conduct their regular summer courses at Lake Junaluska, N. C. These are both accredited schools and under the leadership of Dr. Paul N. Garber of Duke University, assisted by a staff of outstanding teachers, offer an unusual opportunity for summer study. The reduction in expenses for these schools, made possible by economic conditions, should enable everyone desiring additional study to take advantage of these summer courses. Further information will be furnished by Dr. Paul N. Garber, Duke University, Durham, N. C., or James Atkins, Jr., Lake Junaluska, N. C.

WE MUST REACH THEM

The number of families not attending church in your community will surprise you when you know the facts. Make a complete house-to-house survey of your community. Find the facts. Have your church officials bravely face these facts and organize to bring these unreached people into your church.

Pastors leading their people in thus going after the unreached, are getting results far beyond their expectations.—S. T. Baugh.

Church News

LAMAR-KNOXVILLE

The Knoxville and Lamar churches have enjoyed a great outpouring of blessings this winter. They say we cannot have winter meetings in Arkansas, but the last week in January, Rev. W. V. Walls, a Baptist minister of Strong, who is a brother of this Methodist Pastor's mother, came to Knoxville where we labored together for over two weeks with the result of 20 conversions and a good revival. The Baptist Church there was invited to co-operate, and did in a beautiful spirit, in spite of a few who objected. The Baptist Church received the greatest benefit, as two entire families entered their membership and we rejoiced at their lining up for God.

At Lamar we labored two weeks, with Brother A. M. Hutton, our appreciated evangelist singer, coming Monday of the last week, and rendering splendid aid, both in song and in the high school. During these services 36 were converted or reclaimed, among whom were several Baptists and Presbyterians. These came by the oldtime altar and mourner's bench route, and great was the rejoicing as shouts went up to God's throne when souls, dead in sin, were born into the Kingdom. Yes, brethren, Arkansas Methodists can and do shout in this modern year of 1934, and so will Christians everywhere if you can only get them to open their hearts and let in God's Spirit until it overflows. Yes, it was a great awakening that shook the old craft of the Devil from stem to stem. Sure, it caused some yelling on the part of the Devil and his deputies, as criticism was poured out upon the preachers, the singer, and the hypocritical church, (and we literally experienced this), but how we loved to hear the yells! Lamar is a good town, as small towns go, and all former pastors will confirm this statement, for we have some of God's best people here. But (and its our regret) we are afflicted with some very sinful influences, such as dances, beer dive, etc., which stand out glaringly at the helplessness of our citizenship since they have been

REVIVAL AT McGEHEE

On February 5 Rev. Leland Clegg came to McGehee where he preached for ten days to the delight of the pastor and large congregations. Though we were handicapped by a siege of measles and some bad weather, many of the people of our church and of surrounding towns came and enjoyed these services.

It is our belief that a church with a membership of 500 people should be a great, strong institution capable of anything in God's hands. With this basis we asked Brother Clegg to quicken, inspire, and lead us into the type of membership we should be. His sermons, fellowship, and his whole thoughts were turned toward this purpose. He helped our people to rid themselves of that impossible burden of "defeatism," preaching a victorious Christ, and gave us a new appreciation of the power and purposes of God in his church.

Out of this series of services we are experiencing a real revival in this church, which we hope will direct us into a finer and more noble group of Christians working together in His kingdom.

Personally, I have never known a sweeter, more noble, more helpful preacher of the Gospel than Brother Clegg, and I shall always be indebted to him for his helpfulness in our church here, in our town, and in my home.—Robert Moore, P. C.

CAMDEN DISTRICT BROTHERHOOD

On February 28, the preachers of Camden District and their wives were the guests of Presiding Elder Dedman and Mrs. Dedman, this being Brother Dedman's birthday. The dinner was preceded by a brief Brotherhood meeting, in which Brother D. T. Rowe, of Vantrease Memorial, gave a devotional address on "The Minister as Envoy," and prayers were offered by Brothers Whitten and Clegg. Financial and Arkansas Methodist reports showed the District far ahead of the same time last year. Five of the 23 charges have raised half their Benevolences for the year, and seven have turned in 100% lists for the Arkansas Methodist.

In the serving of the birthday dinner Mrs. Dedman was assisted by ladies of the Wesley Bible Class of the Camden First Church, as a birthday cake with a tall single candle was presented to Brother Dedman by Mrs. E. W. Copeland, president of the Class. The table was beautifully decorated with jonquils and ferns. Mrs. D. A. Weems of Louann gave a piano solo; Mrs. Copeland of Camden, a vocal solo; Miss Eloise White of Camden, a reading; and Miss Elizabeth Copeland of Camden, a piano solo. Mrs. Dedman had provided a guessing contest which tested one's knowledge of the Bible. Brother Clegg presented Brother Dedman with a hat in ed brother of the preachers, and speeches of appreciation of him and Mrs. Dedman were made by Brothers Andrew Christie of Smackover, J. T. Rogers of Stephens and Otto Teague of Norphlet. Brother J. W. Harrell asked the blessing and Brother Doss gave the benediction.

It was agreed all around that the Camden District was making great progress and that the spirit of the preachers and people had never been better in its history.—Secretary.

AUSTIN CIRCUIT NEWS

The Stewards held their monthly meeting at Mt. Zion Church Friday evening, February 23. Twelve officials and fifty members of Mt. Zion community were present. The devotional service was conducted by the chairman, Mr. A. B. Cross. The subject was "What have we a right to expect of our Pastor?" Interesting talks were made by Albert Glover and Elmer Hale. Special music rendered by Marvin Glover, Calvin Glover, Mrs. Charlie Glover, and Miss Mattie Bell Wilson. Our pastor, Bro. Wilcox, gave a beneficial lecture on the topic. Questions were asked by him and commented on by the congregation. Some of the questions were: "Do you expect your Pastor to visit the sick?" "Do you expect your pastor to visit only Methodist Homes?" "Do you have a right to expect your pastor to hold prayer in every home he visits?" "How much time do you expect your pastor to study and read good books?" "Which is the most important, pastoral visiting or preaching?" "What do you expect of your pastor in regards to social activities?"

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Mt. Zion community. Every meeting is getting better and more people are becoming interested in the work of the church and we believe that great things are going to happen on Austin Circuit this year. The Ladies' Club at Mt. Tabor church has made it possible for the church to be painted and papered on the inside, and the men have trimmed the trees and beautified the church grounds.

The people of the Mt. Zion community have also beautified their church grounds.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

SUNDAY SERVICES

11:00 A. M. "As I See Christian Missions"

7:30 P. M. "Getting Along With Other People"

PASTOR'S LETTER

TO THE MEMBERS OF WINFIELD CHURCH

Dear Friends:

I want to tell you about Winfield's plans for the celebration of Easter. The plans have been talked over and approved by your representatives on the Board of Stewards and the Local Board of Christian Education, and we present to you plans which we think are worthy of your support.

Palm Sunday will be dedicated to the interest of our children. At the eleven o'clock service the Juniors will be in the service and their choir will render special music. In that service we will receive our class into the church from the Junior and Junior High Departments of the Church School. At the evening service we will begin the series of sermons which will be delivered during the special Holy Week services.

The Women of Winfield will sponsor the service Monday night of Holy Week. Our women will be working to get our people to the service and they will have complete charge of the music.

The Men of Winfield will sponsor the Tuesday evening service. Their special contribution to the service will be the music led by a male chorus with Mr. T. S. Buzbee at the organ.

The Church School will sponsor the Wednesday evening service. The music will be led by the Junior and the Young People's choirs from the Church School. Classes in the School will try to be represented 100 per cent in the service.

On Thursday evening we will have a communion service which we hope our families will attend as units. The music will be in charge of the regular choir. At this service we will receive our class of adults into the church. We will have no special services on Friday or Saturday, but hope our people will attend the city-wide Good Friday Services held at Christ Episcopal Church at 5th & Scott Streets.

In keeping with a long standing custom, and as a proper celebration of the day, we will have a sunrise service at the church on Easter Sunday at 6:30 a. m. At the eleven o'clock service we will baptize any infants whose parents so desire.

The day will come to a close with the presentation of an Easter drama, "Simon the Leper," by the Winfield Curtain Club, at the evening service. The drama will be given under the direction of Mrs. Dell Park McDermott.

These services will mean nothing to you unless you enter into them. In planning them we have worked diligently to make them both attractive and helpful. I hope and trust that I will have your fullest cooperation in all of the services. With that cooperation the approaching Easter season should be a real benediction to our church and to our individual members.

Sincerely your pastor,
MARSHALL T. STEELCHRISTIAN

Church Membership Class

Members of the Junior and Junior High Department who wish to be received into the church on Palm Sunday are invited to come to the church at four o'clock Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, March 19, 20, 22. Bro. Steel will lead the class in discussion on the meaning of church membership. Other features of the program have been provided. Forty persons have expressed their desire to become members of this group. Parents and teachers are asked to call these meetings to the attention of these persons.

Easter Attendance

The general secretary and the general superintendent of our Church School are predicting a large attendance on Easter Sunday. In working toward this, they have devised the plan whereby each department is made responsible for an additional number of persons to those present on Sunday, March 4. The following is the plan to which each department has agreed:

Department	Increase	Present
Nursery	15	40
Beginner	13	50
Primary	24	90
Junior	14	110
Junior High	10	100
Senior High	21	80
Young People	27	80
Young Adult	20	80
Adult	60	200
	204	830

The purpose is not simply to have large numbers but that we may work toward acquainting persons with our program in order that they may realize the importance of the Church School attendance.

Senior High

Members of the Senior High Department and their counselors and teachers will meet at the church March 18, at three o'clock. They will take lunches to Pinnacle where the evening meeting of the department will be held. Marguerite Clark is in charge of the program.

Three One-Act Play March 23

The Curtain Club will present three one-act plays, March 23, at 7:30 o'clock, in the recreation room. The plays are as follows:

A minstrel show, given by Senior boys of Mr. Durham's class assisted by other members of the Senior department.

"Breakfast For Two," a farce, directed by Miss Mary Ethel Smyers; characters, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Price.

"The Turn of the Road," directed by Mr. F. A. Buxton; characters: Lou, Marguerite Gordon; Jake, Fred Giles; Dr. Lynn, Walter St. John; Mrs. Fields, Mrs. R. M. McKinney; the sheriff, Dewey Thompson; deputy sheriff, Donald Lenhardt.

Between plays, a quartet will give a musical program.
