Do We Really Need a Savior?

As I've been thinking about the event that exists at the very heart of our identity as Christians, I've found my mind drifting to the current state of the Body of Christ. There's no way to gently put it, so I'll be blunt. I am deeply troubled, my heart is breaking and my soul is distressed. The reason is simple. I don't see much evidence that we really think we need a Savior.

Answering the Call Answers the Call

Carroll County Churches Come Together To Feed the Community

At the beginning of the 2020 coronavirus pandemic, jobs were lost, church ministries were temporarily shuttered, and for many people in rural Carroll County, they were now faced with the dilemma of figuring out how they were going to feed their families and take care of their most basic needs.

Determined to not let the people of Carroll County suffer alone and without aid, volunteers at Eureka Springs First United Methodist Church decided to do something to help their community and formed a volunteer ministry called Answering the Call.
