

Select Page

Mount Eagle Retreat Center Announces Katelyn Hiatt as New Executive Director

Jan 5, 2021 | Headlines

Katelyn Hiatt, Executive Director of Mount Eagle Retreat Center

The Mount Eagle Board of Directors is pleased to announce Katelyn Hiatt as our new Executive Director to the Mount Eagle Retreat Center.

Kaitlyn and her family come to us from Waco, Texas. She is currently working on her Spiritual Direction Certification, has a Master of Arts in Higher Education and Student Development, and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology. She has experience writing and facilitating large federal grants, being responsible for large groups of high-risk students and their programming including their spiritual life through McLennan Community College, and directing all aspects of Residence Hall life. She has experience through professional presentations and course work in Autism Spectrum Disorder, Economic Sustainability, and Multicultural, Career, and Group Counseling.

We believe that Katelyn has the basic skill set to manage and grow Mount Eagle. She is a very deep thinker who considers all sides before making a decision. Katelyn is well organized, detail-oriented, and God-Centered.

Katelyn's husband, Dan, is a mission-minded horse wrangler and organic farmer with a passion for creation care and networking with churches. He has an M. Div. in Biblical Studies and Theology, and a B.A. in Religion/ Philosophy and Biblical Literature. The Hiatt's have a young family, 6-year-old Dirk and 9-year-old Asher.

The Hiatts are all very excited to be moving to Mount Eagle in March. Please join us in welcoming them to the Arkansas Conference.

Hiatt Family