Q&A w/ Kelly Murray-Norman

Summer Intern with the Center for Communication

May 19, 2021 | Arkansas United Methodist

The Center for Communication at the Arkansas Conference is happy to announce our communications intern for summer 2021. Kelly Murray-Norman is currently a student at Hendrix College studying psychology and plans on graduating in 2022. She is from White Hall, Arkansas, and is the daughter of the Rev. Mark Norman and the Rev. Natasha Murray.

Check out her responses below and learn a little bit more about Kelly. Be sure to say hi to Kelly as well if you see her at Annual Conference!

What motivated you to come work at the conference office as an intern?

I was motivated to work for the conference office when I received an email about the internship opportunity. I have attended Annual Conference many times and thought it would be enthralling to work for the event rather than just being in attendance.

What are you most looking forward to working on this summer?

I am most looking forward to working on Annual Conference.

What are your plans for after you graduate?

After I graduate from Hendrix, I plan to take a gap year before attending grad school.

What do you like to do when you're not working?

When I am not working I like to nap or spend time with my family and friends.

Who is someone that inspires you in your daily life and why?

A person who inspires me in my daily life is Michelle Obama because of her impactful initiatives and how she carries herself as a woman.
