

Reverend Leanne Hadley believes that she was created to work with children. She has spent her entire life and career spending time with and learning from kids. She is an expert on the spiritual lives of children and writes, consults, mentors and teaches groups organizations how to meet the needs of the children they minister.

She graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio where she received her B.A. and earned both her M.Div. and D.Min. degrees from United Theological Seminary. She is an elder in the UMC Rocky Mountain Conference. Her doctoral work focused on designing a model of healing for children.

Rev. Hadley is the author of Touching Heaven and most recently the book Blessed to be a Blessing.
