Bishop's Mission Plan

Spiritual Revival is a Movement, Not a Moment

Almost six years ago, the Arkansas Annual Conference began the Imagine Ministry journey as Phase One of understanding and adapting to a projected future characterized by financial unsustainability, decreasing membership and more and more churches focused primarily on survival instead of faithfulness. Thankfully, Phase One was short-lived as Imagine Ministry quickly moved into its next two phases.

Phase Two involved the Annual Conference adopting a mission, vision, and core measures (since revised in response to feedback from local congregations) that articulate the future you believe God envisions for Arkansas United Methodists.

Vision:

Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate love of God and neighbor, holy living, and justice.

Mission:

To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion.

Core Measures used to evaluate the deep change necessary to make disciples of Jesus Christ and transform the world:

1. We will be enriched by our Wesleyan heritage of scriptural holiness so that we are connected by our mission of making disciples instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
2. We will establish the mission field as the primary focus of our attention and resources instead of directing the majority of our attention and resources to mere maintenance of congregations and clergy.
3. We will equip laity and clergy to transform individuals, communities and the world instead of trying to satisfy personal preferences of current members and ensure congregational preservation.
4. We will address the unique context of each mission field instead of depending on standardized programs and structures.

Phase Three began when significant changes in Annual Conference structure, alignment, staffing and budgets were implemented in order to re-direct resources toward fostering greater vitality in local congregations. This work is now underway, and will continue to unfold in the next several years under the leadership of the Extended Cabinet and the Director of Connectional Ministry.

Over the last four years, I have spent a great deal of time observing, asking questions, learning, consulting, reflecting and praying in order to answer the question, "What's next?" Phase Four of our journey together involves embarking passionately and intentionally on a trajectory that focuses fully on the only place that actually can do what God is calling us to do: the local church.

Our Trajectory for the coming years:

Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

I believe the churches, laity and pastors of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas need to embrace these 10 "Next Steps" in order for us to move ahead on this trajectory God has charted for us. However, there are two important things to remember about these next steps. First, they have been shaped by the previous phases of the Imagine Ministry journey. Second, we will only be able to see the fruit of these next steps as we fully utilize the resources provided through the Center for Vitality and the Center for Technology.

Next Steps for the Arkansas Annual Conference

1. Experience Spiritual Revival The churches, laity and pastors of the Annual Conference must experience spiritual revival. We need to experience in deeper ways how Jesus' love is so unconditional he accepts us just the way we are, so transforming he is unwilling to leave us the way we are and so powerful he gives us what we absolutely need but can never get on our own – reconciliation with God, healing and a new way of living that is eternal in every sense of the word. This revival is foundational for everything we do, because we can only passionately share Jesus' love that brings healing, hope, justice and transformation in lives, communities and the world when we first have been transformed ourselves.

2. Tell the Story The Annual Conference will tell Phase Four of the Imagine Ministry story as it communicates how the 10 "Next Steps" are bearing fruit in local congregations. The Annual Conference will communicate intentionally, consistently and in a variety of ways the story of how local congregations are becoming vital in order to make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

Next Steps for District Superintendents

3. Broaden Disciple-Making through District Mission Plans District Superintendents will become skilled in developing District Mission Plans that align with the Bishop's Mission Plan. Often it will involve working with existing churches to reach out in mission to their community in new ways. Sometimes it will mean finding new ways to reach new people. But the goal is always the same: to create and develop vital congregations who are ready and willing to make new disciples in new mission fields.

4. Make Mission-Field Appointments The Cabinet will become proficient in making mission-field appointments. This may be one of our most challenging undertakings, because we have spent so much energy over the years trying to keep churches and pastors content rather than focusing primarily on the people outside our doors in the mission field surrounding every congregation. The Cabinet will need to work harder, smarter and more prayerfully to match the right pastor with the right gifts in the right mission field at the right time, instead of paying primary attention to salary, tenure and age.

Next Steps for Congregations

5. Look Like the Neighborhood More congregations will increasingly begin to look like their neighborhoods. A church's neighborhood is the heart and soul of its mission field. A church that looks like its neighborhood has taken the time to develop relationships with the people there, reach out in ways that make a real difference in their lives and begin being in ministry with - and not just to - them.

6. Grow By "1" More churches will continue to grow every year by at least one new adult profession of faith, at least one more person in worship, at least one additional small group and at least one more ministry that reaches into the mission field. Only 310 of our 683 churches had a profession of faith in 2012. Sadly, this statistic indicates a lack of vitality and readiness to face the mission field of too many churches in the Annual Conference. Every single church—regardless of its size—can be vital and reach its mission field with excellence and passion.

Next Step for Laity

7. Unleash Lay Leadership in Ministry Laity will be coaced and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence in faith sharing, servant ministry, stewardship and using their spiritual gifts. Disciples make other disciples. Increasing the number of new disciples who are equipped to contribute to the vitality of their congregations so they can make disciples who make disciples will enable churches to reach their mission fields with excellence and passion.

Next Step for Pastors

8. Grow Excellent and Passionate Clergy Pastors will be coached and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence as spiritual leaders through personal discipleship, preaching, evangelism, mission-field engagement, stewardship and equipping laity for ministry. Our clergy leaders must demonstrate these basic competencies if they are going to lead vital churches that successfully engage the mission field.

Next Step for the Arkansas Context

9. Create Vital African-American Congregations The Arkansas Annual Conference will create vital, self-sustaining and growing African-American churches. There are nearly 450,000 African-Americans in Arkansas, and only a handful of vital, self-sustaining and growing African-American United Methodist congregations. Strong churches must be developed in order to reach the mission field for which God has given us responsibility. This is not just an issue for African-Americans; it is vitally important for the entire Arkansas Annual Conference.

Next Step for a Changing Culture

10. Reach the "Nones" The churches of the Arkansas Annual Conference will connect with the previously churched, de-churched and never churched, especially the "nones." Twenty percent of adults in America—including more than one-third of those under 30—identify themselves as religiously unaffiliated. Many of these "nones" consider themselves spiritual in some way, but reject traditional congregational life. Laity are in positions to build relationships and share Jesus' love through local churches. Clergy need to be committed to training, nurturing and supporting laity in this work.

Taking the Next Steps

These next steps will take time, involve ongoing adaptive learning and send us on some unexpected detours, because there is never an easy shortcut to deep and lasting change. The rigors of this journey over the next several years, however, are worth it because it is Jesus himself who is inviting us to join him.

Various groups around the Conference are generating ministries and resources to equip laity and clergy for transformation. We have intentionally pursued spiritual revival by sharing together in prayer and spiritual disciplines, such as the Spiritual Revival Initiative earlier this year. The Cabinet has gained ground in processing vast amounts of data concerning our congregations in order to make better mission field appointments. The impact of spiritual revival is felt most tangibly through events such as Veritas and the Grow By One Summit. Transformation is one prayer, one plan, one life changed by the grace and love of Jesus—one step at a time.

What You Can Do

You can play an essential role in these 10 next steps as you join in fervent, sustained and corporate prayer; focus more on the future than the past; challenge your local church to reach out into your mission field; share your joy at being part of Jesus' mission; and long for our church to become a Spirit-led movement again!

Committees

Members of the Arkansas Annual Conference,
The Arkansas Conference Committee on Nominations presents its leadership report for 2017. Thank you to all the clergy and laity who have agreed to serve on conference committees, boards, and councils. In an effort to place the right people in the right positions, profile sheets have been included in this year's packet. Please submit a profile sheet, circulate these in your local churches, and encourage the laity in your church to turn in a sheet. These will help the Nominations Committee to match people to the best positions and to draw from the gifts, experience and knowledge of the people of the Arkansas Conference. Completed sheets may be emailed to katie.pearce@arumc.org

Every effort has been made to have correct name spelling and contact information. Any corrections may be sent to Rebecca Davis at rdavis@arumc.org.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Katie Goss Pearce, Chairperson

Proposed Constitutional Amendment -- I
On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland,Oregon,the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote. In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, add a new paragraph between current ¶¶ 5 and 6: As the Holy Scripture reveals, both men and women are made in the image of God and, therefore, men and women are of equal value in the eyes of God. The United Methodist Church recognizes it is contrary to Scripture and to logic to say that God is male or female, as maleness and femaleness are characteristics of human bodies and cultures, not characteristics of the divine. The United Methodist Church acknowledges the long history of discrimination against women and girls. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate discrimination against women and girls, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten the cause of women's and girls' equality and well-being. If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this would become the new ¶6, and the current ¶¶ 6-61 would be renumbered as ¶¶ 7-62

At the end of the paragraph, add "nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition." If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 4 would read: The United Methodist Church is part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In the United Methodist church, no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, ability, or economic condition, nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.

Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the jurisdictional or central conference, who, together with those first elected as above, shall be delegates in the jurisdictional or central conference. The additional delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The annual conference shall also elect reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference as it may deem desirable. MOTION: Reverend Rodney Steele said there has been some conversation about whether or not the Arkansas Conference should elect a new delegation for the 2019 called Session of the General Conference or should those elected for the 2016 General Conference be the ones to attend the 2019 called Session. His motion read:

I move that the Arkansas Conference not conduct delegate elections for the 2019 called session of General Conference and that the delegates elected for the 2016 General and Jurisdictional Conference continue in their capacity.

Rationale:

- Saves the approximate $20,000 expense of a new election.
- We have a very diverse delegation that served our Conference and the UMC well at the last GC.
- The current delegation's experience gained at the 2016 GC is valuable and beneficial for the work that needs to be done in 2019.

We're not in the money business, we're in the Jesus business. Pastors should preach on God vs. "Stuff". Jesus was pretty serious about accountability and commitment. BUSINESS SESSION

Black College Fund: Russell Williams III, Student Government President at Philander Smith College, brought the report. He said that without the Black College Fund and the support of the Annual Conference, Philander Smith College might not exist.

Hendrix College: Bill Tsutsui, President of Hendrix College, brought the report. One of Hendrix alums, Colin Bagby, will be ordained this evening. Miller Center-sponsored opportunities and mission trips are still going strong. Hendrix UMYF scholar Jessica Frazier-Emerson is interning with Annual Conference this year. If you haven't been on the Hendrix campus recently, Dr. Tsutsui invites you to drop by. (See REPORTS).

Philander Smith College: Dr. Roderick L. Smothers Sr., President of Philander Smith College, brought greetings from the College. (See REPORTS). A video was shown outlining the college's history and celebration of its 140th anniversary year in 2017. Dr. Smothers noted that Reverend Ronnie Miller-Yow is celebrating his 44th birthday today. On Sept. 29, Philander Smith College will have the 140th celebration in Little Rock, and all are invited. On Nov. 4, the college will unveil a brick walkway on the campus.

Bishop Mueller asked all those who are alumni or students at Philander Smith or Hendrix College to please stand, and they received a round of applause.

CENTER FOR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES: Todd Burris, Conference Secretary, brought the report. The year of 2017 has been a year of change in the center. The Tithe Initiative was completed. Diane Dennam retired, which led to a slight realigning of staff. Melissa Sanders, Wendy Brunson Daniels and Cat Cain all received new assignments. Todd Burris and Mona Williams took on additional duties.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY: Reverend John Fleming, Vice Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, offered the report (see REPORTS). Sunday night, the following were commissioned: Matthew Taylor Carter, Jody L. Farrell, Gary L. Maskell, Bradley Keith Moore, Blake Schrepfer and George Hull. The Tuesday night Ordinands are Zeke Ray Allen, Colin T. Bagby, Sara Darlene Bayles, Todd Martin Lovell, Eric Lee Meyer, John Franklin Michael III, Carissa Marie Rodgers, William James Sardin Jr., and Ann Michelle Whitfield. Bishop Mueller asked the Ordinands the Historical Questions. Those who have graduated from Course of Study were also congratulated and presented a book inscribed by the bishop, as were the ordinands. Full-time and part-time local pastors, those who serve as endorsed chaplains, and those who serve on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and District Committees on Ordained Ministry were listed and recognized by the body.

CENTER FOR FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Bill Wisener, chairman of the Council on Finance and Administration, brought the report. (See REPORTS.) The proposed budget was APPROVED as recommended.

FEASIBILITY RESOLUTION: Bill Wisener, chairman of the Council on Finance and Administration, and Reverend Tony Griffin presented this motion:

> I move that a task force be established for the express purpose of assessing the current and future facility needs of the Arkansas Conference Office. This task force shall be comprised of two members of CFA, two members of the Board of Trustees, and two members at large selected by Bishop Mueller. Rev. Jim Polk and Mr. Todd Burris will provide staff support to the task force as needed. The task force will report its findings to the 2018 Arkansas Annual Conference.

The Motion PASSED.

PETITION/RESOLUTION: Ken Minin of Mount Zion UMC in Lonoke, brought the motion titled Disaffiliation for Reasons of Conscience. Reverend John Embry rose to a point of order concerning the number of signatures on the proposed petition. Bishop Mueller ruled that the motion had sufficient signatures according to the standing rules when the proposed petition was submitted and accepted by the Conference Secretary. Reverend Ann Ferris rose to a point of order concerning the stated text of the proposed petition, in that the proposed petition did not request action by the Arkansas Annual Conference. Bishop Mueller ruled that the motion is out of order, as it does not ask the body to take action or state what it wants the body to do. The Bishop suggested that it be amended and brought before the 2018 Arkansas Annual Conference, allowing time to present it to General Conference in 2020.

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES: Jim Polk, assistant to the Bishop and Director of Connectional Ministries, brought the report. Connectional Ministries spans the gamut from age-level ministries to the board of discipleship. The following reports were presented by Connectional Ministries staff:

Children's Ministry: Pam Snider brought the report. The word "vital" will mean," We value children." Value, Inspire, Teach, Accept, Love.

Disaster Relief: Byron and Janice Mann, Disaster Relief co-coordinators, brought the report concerning Arkansas Conference disaster relief efforts. In conjunction with groups such as UMCOR and FEMA, conference efforts helped many affected by flooding, tornadoes and other storms. Volunteers in Mission activity has been seen at many churches throughout the conference. VIM work has included medical, construction, disaster, cleanup and repair, and spiritual work. Churches are invited to send mission work information to Byron Mann at VIM@arumc.org.

Youth and Young Adults. Camp and Retreat Ministries: Michelle Moore, director of Youth, Young Adult and Camp and Retreat Ministries, brought the report. She showed her jar of "pickled hineys," given to her from her MeeMaw. It has evolved over the years into a jar of pickled "buts" … the "buts" we create on our own, by our fellow staff members, our congregation, or our pastors. "But we don't have youth," or "But we don't have the adults to help with the youth." Fill in the blank. What would happen if we decided to "pickle all those buts" and just move on? There are a variety of Conference events available and applicable to all churches of all sizes. Michelle announced a new program being launched in August for Youth Workers called the Mentor Network. It's all free and through the network of connection in the Conference. The Young Adult ministry is also working on ways to help local churches. Camps have several opportunities, and there are still openings this summer. There are always scholarships available. More opportunities have also been created for Confirmation experiences.

Annual Conference Prayer

Living God, breathe your Holy Spirit into us, that your life may become our life.

Fill these days of conferencing with all that we need to become vital disciples.

We surrender this time to you and embrace the bold hope that your church can transform lives, communities, and the world.

We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, the one who lived,
the one who died,
and the one who rose,
all to enable us to experience the fullness of life in You.

Amen.

Annual Reports

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS
BISHOP GARY E. MUELLER
JUNE 19, 2017
"VITAL"

It is good to be back with you. I fell in love very quickly with the people of Arkansas and grew in my deep appreciation of the mission and ministry and vision you have and so it really is an honor and a joy this day to share my fifth episcopal address.

In the most recent issue of "Legacy" published by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, Jim Argue writes about why he so values this annual gathering, he said:

> "In a few weeks, many of us will come together at Annual Conference for holy conferencing, worship, and to conduct the business of the UMC in Arkansas. But that's not what makes it one of the best times of year for this PK (preacher's kid). I cherish Annual Conference as a time to catch up with my extended family, United Methodist family."

Jim is right. This is a family gathering. And what a family we are.

We are a family comprised of all kinds of people from all kinds of places with all kinds of experiences – including people with whom who you might not normally spend time, people who have a radically different way of understanding the Christian faith, and people whose life experiences could not be more dissimilar than yours.

We are family that intentionally, and I want to underscore that, intentionally, has entered into a covenant around the Wesleyan understanding of how we live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, a deep understanding of connectionalism, our shared doctrine and discipline and the sacred promises we make when we join the church or are ordained as clergy.

We are a family related by blood. Not in the sense that we are all cousins, although I discover more and more every day just how many of you are indeed cousins. But because we are related by Jesus' blood that has transformed us and saved us and called us to live together in his Body.

We are a family under a great deal of stress, let's just be honest about that. We live in a culture characterized by a hateful "us versus them" mentality, a world plagued by terrorism and a church rocked by issues growing out of significant differences concerning human sexuality. Not only that, we seem to have fewer and fewer answers because there are fewer and fewer basics upon which we can agree.

So here we are, Arkansas Conference, at our annual family reunion. And at this reunion one of the most important questions we must answer is, "What kind of family do we want to be?"

We can choose to be a cynical, fearful, paralyzed, dysfunctional and divided family. But I don't think that's the choice we are going to make; in fact I know it's not. And here's why: because of who we are. And that's what I want to talk about.

Remembering who we are.

We are a family rooted in the simple reality witnessed to in the third chapter of John's Gospel that changes everything about everything,

> [16] "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.[17] Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

Remember this, remember who we are, Arkansas Conference.

We are a family that claims our primary identity as disciples of Jesus Christ who understand that Jesus has made us part of His Body and this means, it is not an option for us to say that what matters to us as individuals is more important than what matters to Him.

Remember who we are, Arkansas Annual Conference.

We are a church that has experienced spiritual revival so powerful we are compelled, we have no choice, we want to gracefully, passionately and joyfully reach out to those around us.

Remember who we are, Arkansas Annual Conference.

We are a church absolutely overjoyed to be part of the Holy Spirit's work of creating vital congregations that are filled with passion, and energy, and joy.

Remember who we are, Arkansas Annual Conference.

And in case you need help remembering, this is what we look like!

(Video shown of several "glory sightings" around the Conference)

Do you remember now? Isn't it wonderful! We actually probably could have had a video that lasted not just a minute and a half but an hour and a half. That's just a little bit of who we are. We are a family of vital, living congregations making a real difference in the lives of members, but also increasingly in the community outside our church doors. Vital congregations fueled by the Holy Spirit so that people find themselves doing things they could never imagine doing on their own. Vital congregations that are vibrant, passionate, energetic, excited, enthusiastic, hopeful and fruitful in their unique context. Vital congregations clearly focused on our mission. Vital congregations that are aware of the issues and challenges facing them, but always, always, always choosing to make the main thing the main thing - and the main thing is making disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. Vital congregations and this is why we are at this Annual Conference. Vital congregations that want to create more congregations that are even more vital.

So how are we going to be that kind of conference that creates more congregations that are more vital? And how are we going to do it with a passion and a longing and a deep commitment.

I recently read a wonderful little book entitled, "How to Make Your Bed," by retired Admiral William H. McRaven. His premise is that there are 10-and these are his words-'little things that can change your life…and maybe change the world', and you start by making your bed every day. I'm glad this book wasn't around when I was a kid.

I've been thinking a lot about the Admiral's words and he is spot on. Taking care of the basics day-after-day, month-after-month and year-after-year is what we need to do if we're serious about creating more vital congregations that are more vital.

So here is Mueller's list of five things that will result in more congregations being more vital.

Start doing those things that bring about vitality: implement a discipleship formation process, know your community and reach out to it, grow in stewardship and equip laity. Vitality doesn't just happen. It takes prayer, intentionality and hard work. And while you are here at this Conference, you are going to be blessed by four amazing teachers who will help you know what to do to inspire you that you will be ready to hit the ground running when you get back home.

Value numbers: worship attendance, professions of faith, first-time visitors, people involved in discipleship formation groups, baptisms, participation of young adults and those involved in mission. Now I know all the problems with numbers and I know some of you just hate numbers. And I will be honest, there are times I hate them too. In fact there are times I hate them so much I try telling my cardiologist that my cholesterol numbers don't matter, but he knows they do and I know they do. And the same thing is true for us. Numbers tell us what we need to know, they help us know what questions to ask, they help us learn who we are so we can become who God's calling us to be.

Celebrate stories of transformation: stories involving real people in real life that range from the way someone's individual life has been changed to how a church has reduced childhood hunger in its neighborhood. You know what matters to God is how real people have been transformed in real ways through the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Ultimately, transformation is not an intent, a plan or even numbers – it's how Jesus' followers, and that's you, it's how Jesus' followers go all in so that God's will becomes just as real in the lives of individuals and communities and the world as it already is in heaven.

Innovate and experiment by trying new things in new ways. Sometimes I think the culture of the church is we want to be comfortable, we want to feel pious, we want other people to think we are holy and spiritual. Well look, it's not about how comfortable we are, it's not about how pious we are, it's not about how we fulfill others expectations of how good United Methodists do things. The world is dying. People are suffering. They don't know Jesus' love. It's time that we get over our comfort, over ourselves - and get about the work of reaching out beyond our comfort zone to go into the world. If you want to reach addicts, which we are called to do, then you've got to go where they are. If you want invite hurting people into the churches, you've got to know their pains and reach out to them not the way you want them to be, but the way they are. If you want to reach 'the nones, dones and never been theres', you've got to be willing to go where they are – and sometimes that means doing things that United Methodists don't normally do. Like being willing to experiment with new ideas like 'Beer and Hymns' or 'Tavern & Theology.' If we are so serious about Jesus' love that we believe he came to save the world and if we have experienced that ourselves we will let nothing be a barrier to sharing it, period. And if we fail to innovate and experiment, we may feel good but we will be good and dead.

Seek spiritual revival like you mean it. Couple of years ago we had a big emphasis on spiritual revival. That was not a program that was done when the year was done. Keep seeking spiritual revival, day in and day out, because you know in your soul that no congregation can be vital without the presence and power of the Holy Spirit unleashing you to do what you otherwise could never do on your own. Spiritual revival is not just something you seek because you know it's biblically, spiritually and religiously true. Spiritual revival is reality itself, ultimate reality. It is God's life and it is so real and it is so important, you've got to be willing to bet the future of your life and your congregation's on it.

Many of you are aware of my personal journey since becoming your bishop five years ago. For many of those years that journey involved a great deal of pain, struggle and heartbreak. You were with me every step of the way; and you were loving me through it even when you were not aware that was what you were doing. Then my dear Karen came into my life and blessed me, and we are experiencing a brand new life filled with joy and hope and a journey God's taking us on through grace and new life.

I know what it means to experience life moving from just surviving to thriving, and I want the congregations of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas to experience the very same thing.

Some people say – maybe even some of you – that the United Methodist Church is dying in small towns, can't reach out to people of color, is clueless when it comes to the young, has lost that Holy Spirit induced fire-in-the-belly and is about to implode over issues of human sexuality.

Well, I don't believe it. In fact, I believe from the bottom of my heart that more and more congregations can become more vital so that dying churches can come alive, fearful church members can become excited disciples and going-through-the-motions-congregations can experience new life, hope and joy.

So how is it going to happen?

Want to share a wonderful quote from a letter John Wesley wrote to Alexander Mather on August 6, 1777,

> Give me one hundred preachers who fear nothing but sin, and desire nothing but God, and I care not a straw, (I'm not sure if whether that was a curse word in Wesley's time) whether they be clergymen or laymen (clergywomen or laywomen); such alone will shake the gates of hell and set up the kingdom of heaven on Earth.

That's it. That's how we move to become more vital so there are more vital congregations becoming more vital. We need to believe Brother John. And what we need, what I need, what I long for is a group of vitalizers to step forward.

And, in case you haven't figured it out by now, I'm talking about you. You are that vitalizer! And I want to say when I walked in this room after taking a quick break just before we began, I looked down and most of the preachers and Annual Conference lay professionals who have been year after year were sitting in the back. You know who was sitting in the front…stand up front row, turn around! (Refers to the youth lay members.) I need vitalizers! The Arkansas Conference needs vitalizers! Jesus needs vitalzers! And, quite frankly, I don't give a straw if you are a saint, or someone still trying to figure out what this Christian thing is. I don't care if you are young or old. I don't care if you are lay or clergy. I don't care if you have sensed God calling you for a long time or are just this moment hearing it. All I care about is that you are passionate about the way God can use the people called Methodists to make an eternal difference for Jesus.

I am absolutely serious about this. More than you can ever know. And I think – no, that's not right, I know – that you are ready to step forward, not just 1, or 10, or 100 as Mr. Wesley talked about but 1000, and I know it because I know who we are, Arkansas Conference. We are a people deeply committed to creating more vital congregations that are even more vital so that we can make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

Come, Holy Spirit! Flow among your people here and in all the towns and cities of Arkansas! And fill us to overflowing with your vitality! Say it with me: Come, Holy Spirit! Flow among your people and in all the towns and cities in Arkansas! And fill us to overflowing with your vitality! Stand now and say it like you mean it: Come, Holy Spirit! Flow among your people and fill us to overflowing with your vitality! May it be so! Amen!

LAITY ADDRESS: CALLED EQUIPPED & SENT

Last fall I had the privilege of attending Bishop and Karen Mueller's wedding reception in Little Rock. It was a lovely event, and after I gathered a plate of food, I made my way outside to a sitting area and sat next to a woman from Karen's hometown of Clarksville, Texas. We chatted, and she asked me about some of the people present (there were a lot of clergy there), and I pointed out various groups: that table is the Bishop's cabinet, that group is part of the conference staff; and then she asked how I knew the Bishop. I explained that I was the Conference Lay Leader, and told her a little bit about that job, and then she looked at me and asked, "Are you called to the ministry?" I was a little surprised, and my first inclination was to say, "Oh, no, absolutely not." But then I paused and said, "Well, I'm not called to the ordained ministry."

I've thought a lot about that conversation in the following months, and am so glad she asked that question. If she asked me that same question today, I would answer a little more boldly and say that I was unquestionably called to the ministry, the ministry of the laity. We all are called, and we are not called to simply be a lay man or a lay woman in church membership. We are lay persons called to a specific function in the life of the church. I've long believed that we are called to ministry both inside and outside of our church walls. Inside the walls we might participate in music ministry, small group leadership, or lend our talents in an administrative way. But our true calling as Christians is always outside the walls of our church. In last year's laity address, I shared with you my favorite paragraph in the Book of Discipline. It was in the section on the Local Church, paragraph 220, The Call to Ministry of All the Baptized. It says, "All members of Christ's universal church are called to share in the ministry which is committed to the whole church of Jesus Christ. Therefore, each member of The United Methodist Church is to be a servant of Christ in mission in the local and worldwide community." Note that is says called to share in the ministry, not asked to share, or invited to share in the ministry. Called.

I love the way this calling of the laity is described in an article written by Father Donald Goergen: "We are individual persons, each pursuing his or her own path up the mountain or through the desert, or in the midst of urban life. Each Christian, every Disciple of Christ, every lay person, has a calling, and that calling implies mission. These are two sides of a coin: calling and mission, God-consciousness and world-consciousness, a man or woman of God, and a man or woman for others, like inhaling and exhaling, being called and being sent."

Our call and our mission should be as natural for us as inhaling and exhaling.
This sounds so beautiful, and like a place I want to be. "Yes, Lord, here am I, send me! Yes, Lord! You called and I answered."

But it's not always this easy for us to say yes. Things get in the way. We get in the way. Our busyness gets in the way. Yesterday Kay Kotan described baggage we carry. She said we may be fearful of sharing our faith or can't figure out how to share it. Sometimes that fear keeps us from saying yes to God.

As I look around this room, I imagine most of you have answered the call. After all, you are active enough in the life of your local church to be elected as a lay member of Annual Conference. But think about your congregation back home, the numbers you have on roll vs. the number who are actively involved in ministry both inside and outside of your church.

Yesterday Bishop Mueller said to value the numbers. I love numbers and want to share an illustration with you. Last week I contacted the conference office to ask just how many clergy and how many lay people we have in the Arkansas Conference. We have just over 700 clergy, and more than 128,000 professing members in our conference. I did a little math and those numbers show that 99.5% of the Arkansas Conference is laity, compared to 0.5% clergy. One half of one percent is clergy. Now, for the sake of rounding, let's assume that there are exactly 1,000 people in the arena this morning, and these 1,000 people represent the Arkansas Conference. (Ask six youth in the audience stand to represent the clergy among more than 1,000 Laity members). Look around the room. If our conference were distilled to 1,000 people, these are our clergy – the six standing here - the rest of you are the laity. With this many laity in our conference, can you imagine the power the Holy Spirit could unleash if every single layperson in the Arkansas Conference actively said yes to God's call and discerned where we were called to serve?

Christian discipleship means both being called and being sent. Being Vital! includes being called and being sent.

I titled this talk, "Called, Equipped, Sent," but last spring I was in a workshop where the presenter said, "Jesus always sends us before we feel equipped." So maybe the title should have been, "Called, Sent, Equipped."

We've heard a lot about resources at this Annual Conference. Yesterday we heard from the Center for Vitality and learned of the Leadership Unleashed workshops that have been held in some districts and are coming to others, the upcoming Know Your Neighborhood event next month, and next year's Academy for Spiritual Formation.

Kay Kotan lead us in a wonderful session on faith sharing yesterday, and the Center for Vitality is preparing faith sharing curriculum and video teachings for us.

I believe one of our most underutilized resouces is the Lay Servant Ministries program. This past February, the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders met with the Directors of Lay Servant Ministries at their convocation in Nashville, Tennessee. Kathy Conley, our Associate Conference Lay Leader, and I joined Jim Boyd at this meeting and came away with a wonderful perspective on how Lay Servant classes can equip laity to live out their call and become deeper disciples of Jesus Christ. These classes equip us to become better disciples, and show us opportunities to use our spiritual gifts for God's Kingdom. I am convinced that some stay away from Lay Servant Ministry classes because they are concerned they might be asked to fill a pulpit, when that is not their calling. A Certified Lay Servant is never obligated to preach, but rather is a person committed to using their spiritual gifts in their local church, their district, or the conference. Classes are offered in every district at least twice a year. Please prayerfully consider attending one. There are so many resources available to us in the Arkansas Conference.

When we do not feel equipped to answer God's call, our available resources can teach us to be comfortable in saying yes.

I want you to meet 3 of your peers who recently attended one of the Leadership Unleashed events. I have invited Teresa Bolin, from Wheatley-Salem United Methodist Church, Dan Rohrbaugh, from First United Methodist Church, Hope, and Melanie Churchill, from First United Methodist Church, Jacksonville to share with you about what saying yes to God's call means to them.

Teresa Bolin

Good Morning…. as honored as I am to be here this morning I must be completely transparent with you in confessing that my initial response to this invitation was an automatic NO…as I sat in the parking lot of Sam's I went through my list of usual excuses in declining the invitation – "I am really busy with my "real" job, I am terrified to speak in front of people and last but not least …I am just not qualified - what could I add that would be worthy of an audience such as this….and then something amazing happened – in the blink of any eye my year played out before me – All the challenges and all the joys, and in that instant I was given the courage to change my mind to say Yes.

I can share with you this morning that one of my greatest sources of courage this year has been working within the laity unleased program. From traveling to Ginghamsburg Ohio for the "Changing Our World' Conference, to a community outreach program at St. Andrews to visiting with local churches throughout our districts, I have over and over again received the same message – Be Courageous – I am convicted, that we as laity, are being called to face our challenges and our fears…Now is the time to support courageous appointments, now is the time to support courageous programming and without a doubt, now is the time to support courageous community outreach…….and the good news – we don't have to do it alone - we have the conference resources and leadership to help and they are all just an email or phone call away.

I share this with you this morning because I am reminded that for me (and possibly for you) there are two primary reactions to fear. Often, I can be paralyzed in my fear – I can find myself hiding my head in the sand or just laying low and hoping the problem or situation goes away. But sometimes, like today, I can let my fear motivate me to step out of my comfort zone to become a voice of encouragement or God willing, an agent of change.

Because one thing is for certain, no one knows to a detail what changes lie ahead for our denomination but we do know this – we cannot be paralyzed in our fear – and our automatic response cannot be NO - REGARDLESS of what our church looks like 5 years from now – our job as laity will never CHANGE in partnering with our clergy and leaders to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

Dan Rohrbaugh

I have found over the years that everyone is at a different place in their faith journey and also that everyone sees different opportunities to serve their church.

Until about 12 years ago, I attended church, taught Sunday School and even occasionally preached at some of our small local churches. But, I would also look for any excuse, such as golf games, to get out of "church stuff". Then I participated in the "Walk to Emmaus" weekend and my life changed dramatically!! I could no longer make excuses and I realized it wasn't all about my wants and needs.

Shortly after returning from the walk, I was asked to serve as lay leader to our church. In looking at the duties of a lay leader, one of the responsibilities is to assist and develop opportunities for the congregation to participate and grow spiritually thru Bible and book studies. At that time we were only holding 1 or 2 Bible/book studies a year generally lead by the Pastor with 10-15 people attending. Our church also struggled to find people willing to teach our Sunday school classes.

With the help of our Discipleship committee, our pastor and others, this past fall we had 4 or 5 studies with over 70 people attending. And we currently have over 30 willing to teach!

Our Emmaus group has grown from 6 to almost 40. I feel that this has had a very positive impact on our church's health, outreach, giving and caring.

Melanie Churchill

Recently, in a conversation with my pastor, he made a remark comparing me to a preacher's kid. Trust me when I tell you I AM NOT A PK. However, I suppose I could be described accurately as a Laity Kid. My parents, grandparents and even great grandparents are all laity who were quite active in every aspect of church membership.

Unlike Teresa, who you just heard, I'm that strange personality type who says yes, more often than not. I have always liked being involved in whatever was going on around me. Of course, this leads to a full and crowded calendar and I often feel overwhelmed. I know there are others like me, and more than likely many of you are attending here as your church's delegate because you, too, like being involved and say yes frequently.

It is much more common in our churches, though, to have members who understand Teresa's feelings more than ours. I'm so glad Teresa has been saying yes more often, even though it pushes her beyond her comfort zone. Otherwise, we wouldn't have met and I would have missed out on knowing this kind person.

In the last few years, I have grown to understand that when we, "the do-ers" in the church, say yes so often, (and trust me, I know, it's easier to do it ourselves than to ask someone else) we're actually cheating others from the blessings that are received by serving.

Answering God's call to serve either, inside or outside the walls of the church, is always a blessing. I'll bet you've had those times where you were doing something for another person and afterwards felt you got more out of it than the intended recipient. You understand that in serving others, WE are the ones who receive the blessing. And if those of us who just LOVE INVOLVEMENT, like I do, don't share the opportunities, we're not sharing the blessings.

It becomes our responsibility to help others stretch themselves outside of their comfort zones, so they get to experience the blessing of serving we are so familiar with.

So those others who like me, say yes all the time, I challenge you to begin encouraging one person to say yes. Start small and help them take the baby steps needed. You have be with them as they step out and you must reassure them and mentor them and actually become their comfort zone until they are ready to spread their wings.

And to those whose first instinct is to say no, try saying yes next time, and find out how God wants to use you in His Kingdom.

You've just heard from 3 lay people committed to making disciples who make disciples who change the world. Yesterday we heard powerful testimonies from 3 people who said yes to ministry with 200,000 Reasons.

As Carey Nieuwhof, pastor and church leadership coach, once said, "The goal of the Christian faith is not to know something, but to do something with what you know." I want Arkansas Conference laity to do something with what they know.

In the United Methodist Church, our clergy are commissioned and ordained, or licensed. After our confirmation, there's no formality for laity to enter the mission field, simply a willingness to say yes. The Board of Laity and I invite you to participate in a symbolic anointing service. We have pairs of laity and clergy who will be stationed around the room (you can take your places now), and we ask the laity of the Arkansas Conference – any layperson in the room, not just lay members of Annual Conference – to come forward and receive this symbolic sending into the mission field.
Conclusion:

I celebrate the commitment of laity in the Arkansas Conference, and celebrate that we are called by God to be in ministry together with our clergy, called to be the church together in a world so desperately in need of hope. Amen.

YOUTH ADDRESS

Hello. My name is Lauren Lovelady, and my church home is here in Hot Springs. I just finished up my freshman year of college studying finance, and I am now considered a young adult of the church. I proudly serve on the conference episcopacy committee and the nominations committee. Last year at conference, I had the opportunity to speak about the importance of youth and young adults being included. Not only do I think that young people need to feel needed by the church, but I also feel that it is SO important for us as youth and young adults to feel that WE need the church-- that we wouldn't dare to do it alone.

I would be here all day if I were going to tell you all of the ways that being a youth in the United Methodist church has shaped my life and my relationship with God, but I will share a couple today. I started attending Conference Council on Youth Ministries, also known as CCYM, events when I was in 6th grade, my first being Refuge. At the time, I was not very serious in my faith journey, so I was mainly attending for the social aspect. It wasn't until my second Veritas that it really clicked for me. I realized that the United Methodist church, specifically CCYM is where I wanted to invest my time for the rest of my high school career. The community and love that I saw was so evident, and I knew that these people were true disciples of Jesus Christ. I began going to every event that I could, eventually leading to me joining DCYM, and then later CCYM. Through these events, I met the most amazing friends and mentors that pushed me and challenged me in my faith journey like I had never been before.

My last year of CCYM was a very busy one, but it is definitely the one that shaped me the most. I was elected president, and began leading the most wonderful group of people. All in this year I attended Youth 2015 in Orlando, chaired Veritas, went to multiple events, and grew in my relationship with God the most I ever had, and the reason for that was the United Methodist church. It was my faith based friendships, my mentors, youth leaders, the bishop, and so many other people that pushed me in my faith and encouraged me to lean on God and the church.

This past July I was given the opportunity to attend Jurisdictional Conference as a youth observer, which was definitely an eye-opening experience for me. Our church is in a very broken and divided place right now, and I was able to see that firsthand. Some things were shocking to see, and some were very reassuring. This conference challenged me in what I believed, and pushed me to a point in my relationship with God and the church that I had never experienced before. I found myself doubting and questioning many things, but I also felt a love for this denomination that was overwhelming. Even though some things were hard at this conference, the thing I remember most about it was the hope I felt after leaving. I felt hope through the spiritual conversations that I had with other youth, hope in our church, that we could stay in Christian conferencing peacefully, and hope in the future, that the young people of the church will lead with open hearts and in the direction that God, and only God, is calling them to lead. I left with the feeling that I needed to lean on the church more than ever before and also that the voices of young people are more important than ever before. While being a youth in the United Methodist church during this time was not simple and still is not simple, it taught me the utmost importance of my spirituality. It taught me that I need to be firm in what I believe in, but also have an open heart and mind in difficult situations. It taught me that in all situations, prayer is the answer. We have to be vital, powerful, and active in our relationships, and the youth and young adult ministries of the Arkansas Conference has taught me and so many other people how to do that. The foundation that has been given by CCYM and our local ministries is one that will allow us to build up the kingdom of God in the way that we were called to do. I have had to accept that I will never have all of the answers in my spiritual journey, but there is one thing that I do know: we serve a powerful and faithful God, and we have been given a wonderful conference to serve through. Thank you.

Lauren Lovelady, Previous CCYM President

My youth experience has been all about building a temple. That's what I've been doing for 18 years. Sure, the foundation was laid for me, but this is a temple for God. 1 Chronicles 22:19 tells us to "devote our heart and soul to seeking the Lord". Our conferences youth understand that actively seeking Christ is in our identity as temple builders, and we know that creating lives that seek Christ is the meaning of spiritual vitality, that it is vital to know our Savior.

Our youth ministry has created a safe space for its youth to build a relationship with God. With the learning, serving, and fellowship opportunities it provides, it's no wonder our youth have such a deep love for Christ. When one is part of our conference's youth ministry and its programs and events, they are a part of a temple building process.

This process includes being a part of the local church. At my home church, mission has always been important to its youth. I've witnessed the importance of serving in communities that are two plane rides away, or a ten hour bus ride, or a walk across the street. My youth group has also taught me the power of worship, and praying together, and sharing scripture. Our local youth groups are a constant tool available to our conference's teenagers to learn and develop in God's grace.

Beyond our local churches, we have conference events, like Veritas and Assembly. As a junior high student I met my closest friends at CCYM events and they have been a part of every major event in my life since. They are ones I've created substantial memories with. At last year's Annual Conference I sat down with my two roommates and we wrote an entire sermon on The Bee Movie, a Dreamworks animated film pretty much just about bees. We thought it was awesome. We thought it was golden. We gave it to the Bishop and I'm 99% sure he's never used it. But these are the friends that grew with me throughout high school, and are the ones who I'm going to college with. They're a big reason as to why I chose a Methodist school. These are long term friendships rooted in Christ. These are the vital relationships and fellowship that our conference provides for its youth! If not for CCYM I would never have known these people.

Vitality is about being active and engaged. Vitality is about being energetic. God is at Veritas when our youth are shaking the room in worship and God is in our Assembly small groups when we meet our lifelong friends. CCYM events bring the youth of this state together to learn with and from each other and drastically change lives in our Church's favor and in God's favor. Then we take this out to our communities and share it with our brothers and sisters in Christ! This isn't happening anywhere else. Our conference's spiritual vitality brings excitement to our faith and our spirituality.

The best part of being involved in our youth program is the way CCYM and my local church has helped me foster a relationship between me and my Savior. I have many adult leaders and mentors, whether it be Clergy or volunteers, who are strong in their faith and passionate about young lives, who devote hours encouraging me, teaching me, and praying for me.

Can anyone who has once been a teenager please raise their hand? Many of you likely have memories about growing up in the Methodist Church and can tell stories of long term relationships you have because of those days.

I hope the friends I've made will be lifelong. I hope the Methodist Church benefits from these relationships as we take the next step as leaders. I hope our youth and conference as a whole moves forward together, as one, in creating more temple builders and in spreading the love God has for us all.

Our youth groups provide a fun, safe, accepting, and exciting place to seek the Lord and the Lord's grace. That is temple building. Being a part of our youth ministries has shaped every part of me. It has given me a heart for Christ and the United Methodist Church. It has given me the passion and relationships I need to dedicate my actions and my future to serving our Church and our God. That's seeking and serving. That's building a temple with vitality.

Lexie Burleson, Current CCYM President

My name is Rebekah Dodson from First United Methodist Church El Dorado and I am next years ACCYM President. CCYM had a really successful year and a multitude of successful events. Our final events this year are Jr. and Sr. High Assembly which will take place at Hendrix College at the end of July. The speakers, worship sessions, and small groups will give youth a unique opportunity to deepen their relationship with Christ and others.

When I was in eighth grade I attended my first CCYM event, Refuge. My eyes were opened to the fact that these events were made possible not only by other members of our conference, but by other youth. I remember the bus ride home was probably excruciating for my youth minister because I could not stop asking how I could become a part of such a meaningful organization. When I promised myself I would make it onto ACCYM I never knew that this is where I would meet my best friends, develop a stronger faith, or create such crazy memories.

ACCYM helped not only my mind, but my heart seek Christ more actively and it continues and will continue as we look into the future. What makes the Arkansas Conference and it's youth ministry so different is the opportunities we give our youth to assume positions with responsibilities and the number of them willing, and even excited, to take on these roles! One of the main reasons I love Arkansas so much is because I have so many opportunities to be involved and learn from more experienced adults and even my peers.

As youth, we begin new experiences and prepare for life beyond our homes and humble beginnings. Our minds are shaped the most during these years. Since our conference's council on youth ministries is so prevalent in our youth's lives, we have clear expectations to serve and love like Christ did, and we are surrounded by encouragement and love to grow in! Because of ACCYM we are molded into disciples. As disciples, we are called to create more disciples with our strong faith and spiritual vitality! As one famous person has said,we create "a disciples cycle".

How do we as a church body continue to help not only ACCYM, but the conference as a whole to maintain a safe, accepting, and welcoming environment for everyone, not just youth? I say "we" because it's not just me, or you, or our churches with a small attendance, or the ones with a large attendance. It's US, it's everyone in this room and everyone in our churches and communities who are being called to work with the most important team member: GOD!

WE strive to make relations with every age alike to give a better structure to everyone. WE choose to love, even when it's hard. WE accept all who are broken, just as God and Christ have done and as they have called us to do! And we do this for and with one another because together we all have the same dream- to see God's Kingdom grow and flourish through the spread of love and grace.

When we look to the future, it at times seems scary and uncertain. There are three VITAL things to do: pray about it, unify because of it, and change it. It is VITAL that we create intergenerational relationships starting right now and continuing as the years pass because I know you all have things to share with us to help our individual futures and the future of the United Methodist Church, but we, the youth in your churches have a vision to share with you all as well!

Thank you for the opportunities that you have given not only me, but every youth in our conference. I want to always be able to say I am proud to be from Arkansas: the place where we are revived and seek to deepen our faith. It's past time to take action! Martin Luther King Jr. said "if you can't fly, then run, if you can't run, then walk, if you can't walk, then crawl, but whatever you do, you have to keep moving forward" and in the same way WE must keep moving forward. Thank you.

Rebekah Dodson, Incoming CCYM President

The Center for Vitality

The Center for Vitality (CFV) continues to fulfill our purpose of providing resources for pastors, laity and congregations to experience spiritual revival and be vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. We lead the annual conference to take Next Steps 1, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of the Bishop's Mission Plan. Our work is focused on spiritual revival, churches looking like their neighborhoods, congregations growing by one in four key areas of vitality, unleashing lay leadership, and growing excellent and passionate clergy.

Since the last gathering of the Arkansas Annual Conference, the Center for Vitality (CFV) has offered resources to congregations, clergy, and lay leaders through a variety of equipping, consulting, and training initiatives to help congregations take the next steps as vital congregations making disciples of Jesus Christ.

EXPERIENCE SPIRITUAL REVIVAL

Spiritual revival is at the heart of everything the CFV offers, and it is the first Next Step of the Bishop's Mission Plan. The Arkansas Conference's working definition of spiritual revival is "a gift from the Holy Spirit that begins by prayerfully and passionately seeking God, results in deeper discipleship, binds Christians together into a movement, is the foundation of vitality and compels us to be part of Jesus' work in the world." All resources and services offered by the CFV are aimed at creating a pathway for the Holy Spirit to work in the lives of United Methodist disciples and congregations. After all, vitality is an outcome of revival. This is why the Center for Vitality was a leader in creating the tools for the 2016-17 REVIVAL emphasis. Congregations across Arkansas reported "glory sightings" and fresh enthusiasm after praying for revival, studying ReLent, and focusing worship on the work of the Holy Spirit. As the bishop continues to call us to seek spiritual revival, expect the Center for Vitality to offer resources that are centered in prayer, call for deepening discipleship, depend on disciples working together, and challenge both individuals and congregations to be in ministry in Jesus' name.

LOOK LIKE THE NEIGHBORHOOD

"More congregations will increasingly look like their neighborhoods." This is Step #5 of the Bishop's Mission Plan, and the CFV is committed to resourcing congregations to get beyond the church walls, bridge the gap between the church and the community, and be in ministry with our neighbors. Here are some of the ways the CFV is helping congregations take the next step toward looking like their neighborhoods.

- Developed and tested "Crossroads Conversation," a discovery and discernment process for any size congregation in any context to assess their potential to reach their neigh borhood. The Center Staff and Circuit Elders are trained and ready to facilitate these conversations with your congregation. Contact your District Superintendent for more information.
- Hosted 110 clergy and laity from 18 congregations in Arkansas at the Leadership Insti tute of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. This was made possible through a generous grant from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas.
- Trained and deployed clergy and lay coaches across the conference to work alongside clergy, lay leaders, and congregations who are reaching out into the mission field and doing ministry in new ways.
- Resourced congregational leaders seeking to engage their mission fields and grow in fruitfulness through the Vital Congregations. Process by offering training for setting strategic goals, hosting fruitful Bridge Events, creating effective hospitality and guest follow-up ministries,and living with "growing pains" of successful ministries.
- Co-hosted the Open to Your Neighbor workshop with St. Andrew UMC, helping leaders learn about community partnerships, assessing community assets, and imagining nontraditional ways to connect with underserved populations. This work began with the Grow By One Summit in April 2016.

GROW BY "1"

The Bishop's Mission Plan Next Step #6 calls for all churches to grow by one in four critical areas of vitality: worship attendance, professions of faith, new outreach ministries, and small groups that form disciples. The Grow By One Summit in April 2016 successfully launched our work to inspire, resource, equip, and challenge Arkansas churches to grow. We have continued to press on and take the next steps:

- Initiated an Advisory Team for developing a system of resourcing congregations in Arkansas that have an average worship attendance between 50 and 150 to grow by at least one in the four critical areas of vitality.
- Provided coaching for congregations that attended the Grow By One Summit and com mitted to a new ministry in at least one of the fourareas of emphasis.
- Hosted 20 lay and clergy leaders at the Change the World Conference at Ginghamsburg United Methodist Church to learn about growing through multiplication and ways churches with 50-150 in attendance can offer transformational ministries.

UNLEASH LAY LEADERSHIP

The Arkansas Conference is leading the denomination in a commitment to unleash lay leadership. Next Step #7 of the Bishop's Mission Plan says, "Laity will be coached and mentored so they increasingly demonstrate passion, boldness and excellence in faith sharing, servant ministry, stewardship and using their spiritual gifts." Cathy Hall, Lay Program Coordinator, is finishing her first year on the CFV staff. She has initiated Leadership Unleashed, a process aimed at connecting passionate laity with one another for sharing ideas, engaging in mutual learning and support, and challenging one another to attempt bold experiments with new ways of making disciples. Unleashing lay leadership is exciting, creative, adaptive work, and the CFV is committed to leading this innovative work. In addition to Leadership Unleashed, the Center has intentionally addressed lay leadership in these ways:

- Networked with Congregational Developers across the connection and key Arkansas Conference lay and clergy leaders to learn fresh approaches and new ideas for resourcing vital congregations.
- Collaborated with the bishop and conference leaders to provide follow-up resources for the 2017-2019 VITAL! Initiative, so that vital disciples can continue to create vital disciple-making congregations.

GROW EXCELLENT AND PASSIONATE CLERGY

The CFV is also deeply invested in the growth of excellent and passionate clergy, Bishop's Mission Plan Next Step #8. We are engaged in forming clergy leaders beginning with cultivating a culture of call, helping to shape the education and ordination process, and providing for lifelong learning. The Center for Vitality is committed to equipping clergy to be spiritual leaders in vital congregations. Some of our recent work in this area has included:

- Organized and led the Residency in Ministry retreat and residency process, trained candidacy and residency mentors, and assisted with curriculum for the Orientation for Ministry in collaboration with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.
- Provided coaching for clergy who wished to challenge themselves and grow their lead ership capacity.
- Assisted Hendrix College with the Hendrix Youth Institute aimed at identifying a new generation of clergy and lay leaders for United Methodist congregations.
- Sponsored a group of young leaders discerning a call to ministry to attend the Young Preachers Festival, a collaborative effort of Discipleship Ministries and the United Meth odist Methodist Church of the Resurrection. This was accomplished through a grant from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas.
- Organized the Pastors In Transition Workshop for clergy entering a new appointment.

CENTER FOR VITALITY NEXT STEPS

In the 2017-2018 conference year, the Center for Vitality will focus on four strategic goals and concentrate attention on the 300+ congregations in Arkansas that have an average worship attendance between 50 and 150. While several of the initiativesnamed above will continue, these goals will leverage our resources and focus our work toward specific outcomes. We are leading the conference to take the next steps, and we look forward to the journey with your congregation! Our goals include:

- Develop a "Grow by One" strategy for churches averaging under 25 and between 26 and 150 in worship

2017 Council on Finance & Administration Report

Creating Budget Alignment and Focus in the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church

The trajectory of the Arkansas Annual Conference is to create vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ – who then make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. The Extended Cabinet and Council on Finance and Administration are committed to making strategic financial decisions that create budget alignment to support the Bishop's Mission Plan.

The following four priorities have guided the Extended Cabinet and Council on Finance and Administration in making these strategic stewardship decisions in order to shape the 2018 Arkansas Conference Budget:

1. Develop local church vitality that leads to more fruitful disciple-making.
2. Resource local congregations and extension ministries that disciple children, youth and young adults (especially the "Nones") in the mission field.
3. Strengthen support for the Center for Technology and the Center for Vitality as they carry out their work of revitalizing and reconnecting the Conference.
4. Refocus and reform budget allocations so they clearly support the Conference's mission, vision and core values, and the Bishop's Mission Plan.

Revenue-Based Budgeting

In preparation for the Arkansas Conference Tithe Initiative CFA and the Extended Cabinet have recommended a conference budget based on the projected revenues of a tithe - 10% - of the aggregate income of our local congregations as reported on lines 62 and 64 of Table III. Churches will no longer receive an apportionment based on prior year statistics but rather will calculate their ministry share based on the plan adopted by Conference.

62. Total Income for annual budget (as of 1/31/2016)	$102,127,709.00
64. Total Income from connectional/institutional sources outside the local church	$509,810.00
Total Revenue	$102,637,519.00
10% Budget Maximum	$10,263,752.00
85% Spending Rate	$8,724,153.00

You will see that our budget cap for 2018 was $10,263,752 based on a tithe of 2015 revenue figures. We have accomplished this with our 2017 budget recommendation of $10,129,810.00. Furthermore, to ensure expenses do not exceed actual revenues, CFA has established a projected spending rate of 85%. This is based primarily on historical payout calculations. Other factors, including transition recommendations from other conferences, were also taken into consideration.

9. Monthly Ministry Tithe = Line H X 10% = $_____

III. Tithe Instructions

Line A—Total Gross Income for previous month (including designated giving and all other funds)

Enter the total amount of ALL revenue for the previous month. Total income includes ALL income received by the church (offerings, pledged giving, unpledged giving, donations, building use fees, income from fundraisers, designated giving, interest from investments, capital campaign income, preschool income, bequests, memorials, etc.)

Line B—Exclude income for Capital Campaigns (this does not include income for lines of credit (LOC) or mortgage payments)

Capital Campaign Income is money received from campaigns that are defined as significant, short-term fundraising efforts for a stated project, such as a building, debt retirement, or special project. The campaign usually lasts for a short time, generally less than a year; however, the donations to the campaign may span several years. Stated Capital Campaigns should not be confused with trustee account donations, building maintenance donations or other donations or capital needs. Income for regular monthly LOC or mortgage payment is not Capital Campaign Income.

Line C—Exclude income for Memorials and Endowments

Gifts received to fund memorials and endowments should be excluded here. Income from endowment earnings should not be excluded.

Line D—Exclude income from sale of church-owned real estate (not used for operating expenses)

Income from the sale of church owned property (such as a parsonage) to be used for future capital expenses should be excluded here.

Line E—Exclude income from Tuition-Based Services (preschool, daycare, etc.)

Tuition-Based Services income is any payment made to the church for services provided at the church such as preschool, childcare, elder care, or other similar services. Normally such services are budgeted separately, often by a non-profit organization affiliated with the church.

Line F—Exclude Direct Costs of Fund-Raising

Direct Costs of Fundraising are those costs paid to raise funds for the church, but not the income raised. Typical examples include: 1) the discounted purchase price of gift cards for future resale, 2) the cost of food and supplies for a fundraising dinner and 3) a consulting fee to direct a fundraising activity.

Line G—Exclude income for Pass-Through/Outreach Ministries

Pass-Through Funds are monies received for projects or events outside the local church. From time to time churches will act as a collection agent for special events, such as disaster relief, community homeless shelters, food pantries, soup kitchens or mission trips. Monies are sometimes given for field missionary support or mission focused activities including materials and supplies for mission trips and mission outposts. Any donations given for outreach ministries or causes should be excluded.

IV. District Superintendents

A. Salary will be no more than $124,340.

B. This figure shall include salary, utilities and appurtenances, and other professional reimbursable expenses.

1. We recommend that business travel by the District Superintendents shall be reimbursed at the maximum IRS allowable rate. This will be funded by the District Superintendents vouchered travel expense fund of $90,000 for room, board and travel expense.

8. Any other person recommended by the Board of Ordained ministry

B. The following amounts shall be paid:

1. $1,000 per pastor
2. $1.00 per mile, measured from parsonage to parsonage

4. Monies shall be paid by the Conference Treasurer upon presentation of a voucher of mileage signed by the sending District Superintendent
5. The sending District Superintendent shall not submit a voucher for moving expenses unless the parsonage is left clean and meets the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Chairperson. Should the District Superintendent and the chairperson of the S/PRC determine that the parsonage will require cleaning and/or repair due to abuse and/or negligence on the part of the departing pastoral family the DS may direct that the pastor's moving reimbursement be reduced by the amount required for such cleaning/repair and that this amount be paid to the church. In no case shall the amount paid to the church be greater than the total to which the pastor would otherwise be entitled for moving expense reimbursement.
6. $1,000 additional moving expenses for seminarians receiving their first appointment in the annual conference.
7. On recommendation from the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration may disburse funds for pastors transitioning out of the ministry.

the agency or institution or organization and that audit has been found satisfactory by the Audit Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration.

G. ¶ 815.4 of the 2016 Book of Discipline states that an annual conference may only make direct gifts to historically black colleges after the Black College Fund apportionment is paid in full. Therefore the conference shall pay the Black College Fund at 100%. Any shortfall in the black college fund will be funded from the Philander Smith apportionment line.

H. Any balances in the Stabilization Fund shall be transferred to the Conference Reserve Fund at year-end.

I. The Conference Reserve Fund is not a budgeted item. This is used to maintain operating cash flow for the conference.

J. If the Conference Reserve Fund exceeds 10% of the Annual Conference Budget excluding Pension & Benefits, then The Council on Finance and Administration's Executive Committee shall have the authority to disburse those funds with first priority given to paying the Conference's General and Jurisdictional Apportionments.

K. All interest earnings on Conference monies shall be credited to the Conference Reserve Fund.

L. The Conference acknowledges the need for maintaining monies to be used as needed for the stabilization of the accounts of New Church Development Fund, General & Jurisdictional Conference Delegate Expense Fund, District Superintendents Funds, and the Equitable Compensation Support Fund.

M. That balances remaining in the Conference Benevolence Fund and the Conference Administration Fund at year-end shall be transferred to the conference reserve fund.

    c) Maximization of income – while simultaneously insuring preservation of capital and liquidity.
    d) Compliance with the Social Principles and the Discipline of the UMC.
3. To accomplish this objective:
    a) Funds should be deposited in AR institutions in good standing.
    b) Securities:

        (2) FDIC insured Certificate of Deposits, Time

Deposits, interest-bearing accounts

4. Funds should be deposited on a short-term basis, generally 60 or 90 days, but up to six months when all objectives can be satisfied.
5. This policy is intended to be flexible in its application in order to meet changing economic conditions. Investments made for longer than 90 days may be made after the approval of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. While income desirable, the primary emphasis is to be on the maintenance of adequate funds and the avoidance of speculativ investments
6. This policy may be amended to meet changing conditions and to fulfill the needs of the Annual Conference.

P. The Conference gives the Conference Council on Finance and Administration the authority to fund extraordinary needs relating to the life and ministry of the Arkansas Conference. These needs shall be funded from available unrestricted funds. This authority shall not be used to replace or circumvent normal funding procedures of the Arkansas Conference.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), which comprise the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 1(b) to the financial statements; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to on the preceding page present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of the Conference as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and its revenue, expenses and changes in net assets for the years then ended, in accordance with the basis of accounting as described in Note 1(b) to the financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1(b) to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. These financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2016 and 2015

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) is a service organization for the United Methodist Church throughout the state of Arkansas. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping local churches for missions and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the congregation, all to the glory of God. The Conference receives apportionments from churches located in the state of Arkansas and distributes the apportionments in accordance with the approved budget set by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and cash equivalents, investments and local church apportionments in-transit, and the only liabilities that are recognized are apportioned and other funds payable and prepaid apportionments. The modified cash basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because purchases of property and equipment are expensed as paid rather than recorded as an asset and depreciated over the estimated useful lives. Non-cash transactions are not recorded in the financial statements, therefore non-cash donations are not recorded as revenue when received.

Local church apportionments in-transit represent amounts that churches are budgeted to pay but are not yet received by the Conference. Apportioned and other funds payable include amounts the Conference is budgeted to pay according to the budget approved by the churches at the Arkansas Annual Conference but are not yet disbursed by the Conference.

(c) Basis of Presentation

The Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets – unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted, as applicable. The Conference only has unrestricted net assets at December 31, 2016 and 2015.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all deposits with financial institutions, as well as highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

At times during the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, cash and cash equivalents balances exceeded the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and were not collateralized. In the event of an institutional failure, the excess over FDIC insurance may not be recoverable. The Conference's total bank balance maintained at multiple financial institutions at December 31, 2016 and 2015, was $4,954,222 and $3,097,205, of which $71,724 and $48,346 was not insured or collateralized at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

(e) Investments
The Conference's investments are carried at cost and consist of ownership interests in an investment pool managed by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, a private non-profit organization associated with the United Methodist Church (the Foundation). At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the fair value of these investments were $1,167,033 and $1,132,140, respectively. The Foundation invests in equity and fixed-income securities, mutual funds, investment pools, partnership interests and notes receivable. While the Conference owns a participating interest in the pool, it does not own the underlying securities.

(f) Cash Receipts
The Conference's cash receipts are restricted to fulfilling the purpose for which the donor remitted the funds. The Conference's goal is to distribute the funds received for the ultimate benefit of the third party donee in a timely and efficient manner.

The Conference classifies funds based on their funding source. The financial statements contain two types of funds: apportioned and other. Apportioned funds are budgeted by and allocated to the individual churches by the Arkansas Annual Conference. Other funds are obtained through the collection efforts of the committees established to oversee the individual funds. The Conference maintains and disburses these funds as requested by these committees.

(g) Income Taxes
The Conference is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is not a private foundation. Accounting standards require the Conference to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Conference has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Conference has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.

(h) Functional Expenses
The Conference considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administrative and fundraising for financial statement presentation.

(i) Recently Issued Accounting Standards
In August 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. (i) Recently Issued Accounting Standards (Continued)

This new standard, which becomes effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, will require presentation of two classes of net assets (net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions). ASU 2016-14 will also require enhanced disclosures including, but not limited to, disclosures about governing board designations and other self-imposed limits on the use of resources as well as the composition of net assets with donor restrictions at the end of the period and how those restrictions affect the use of resources; qualitative information communicating how liquid resources are managed to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year of the financial reporting date; and quantitative information communicating the availability of resources to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year of the financial reporting date.

While this new standard will significantly impact the presentation of the financial statements and the content of disclosures in the notes to the financial statements, it is not expected to have a material impact on the recording or measurement of amounts presented therein.

Committee on Episcopacy

With this report and with the South Central Jurisdictional Conference meeting in July, we wrap up our first quadrennial with Bishop Gary Mueller. He was asked to work with our Imagine Ministry plans and trajectory as a starting point to move us forward in the fulfillment of those plans and dreams as he felt led by God. He has done exactly that.

- The bishop has established a process to guide the Cabinet and himself to make mission field appointments. This process gathers data from church and non-church resources, receives input from pastors and congregational leaders, develops strategic plans for churches and districts and involves lots of prayer and worship for spiritual discernment, before pairing pastors and congregations to specific mission fields to make disciples of Jesus Christ. One of the results of this process is an historic appointment of a female pastor to Arkansas' largest United Methodist congregation. Another result is an improvement in the metrics for vital congregations; some negative trends have slowed and some positive trends are emerging.

Alignment of resources towards the Conference trajectory of "Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world" has required hard work and soul searching. Through the constant monitoring of metrics, outcomes and a focus upon making disciples of Jesus Christ, Bishop Mueller constantly moves us closer to a more unified alignment of our resources to our purpose.

With an emphasis upon the mission field versus focusing upon ourselves, with constant movement towards alignment of resources with our mission and Conference trajectory, Bishop Mueller worked with the Conference CFA to move from an apportionment formula to an apportionment tithe. Reasserting the spiritual dimensions of stewardship into our conversations and plans regarding funding, apportionments will be based upon a tithe of local church finances. What is received from the local churches through the tithe will be the basis of the Conference budget. This is a big step of faith and spirit for all of us.

Sensing that the Holy Spirit has been working with and through all the changes that have taken place within mission field appointments, alignment of resources and the stewardship of the tithe, Bishop Mueller has lifted up spiritual revival as the biggest change that we need to fulfill our purpose, mission and trajectory. Spiritual revival has been the emphasis of our district and Charge Conferences, of district-wide meetings, of resources for local churches (especially for Lent) and every aspect of our ministries. If the increase of youth and Confirmation rallies and the high number of enrollment of our Grow by One Summit are any indication, then Spiritual Revival has begun.

We also know that we have just begun, four years is not enough. It will take years more of dedicated work in the same direction before the full affects of our changes and Spiritual Revival are realized. Therefore, we are asking the South Central Jurisdictional Committee on the Episcopacy to reassign Bishop Gary Mueller to the Arkansas Conference.

Karon Mann, Chair

Employee Assistance Program:

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits partnered with The Board of Ordained Ministry to bring clergy families the Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program. Since January 1, 2012, this program has provided free, confidential short-term counseling to all active, retired clergy and clergy households. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends continuing the program. The cost is minimal and the benefits are great. Beginning January 1, 2017 the program will be funded through apportionments. The benefit is not guaranteed and will be reviewed annually. The Methodist Healthcare EAP has been a leader in the Memphis community for over 25 years. We are pleased to offer this service to our clergy and their households. EAP can help with many of life's challenges such as family issues, marital concerns, alcohol and drug abuse, anxiety, depression, major life events, grief, work concerns and managing the stress of everyday life. The program offers 6 counseling sessions to you and members of your household, free of charge. In most cases, short-term counseling is all the help you'll need. However, if a referral outside the EAP is necessary, the EAP counselor will seek the best resources for your situation. Counseling outside the EAP will require use of insurance or self-pay. Use of the EAP and issues discussed in all sessions are held in strict confidence. Rest assured that your private health information remains confidential and can only be released outside the EAP with your written consent or when required by law such as in life threatening situations or child/elder abuse. All Arkansas Conference staff members and clergy families; whether full time, part time, retired or disabled as well as members of your household are eligible to participate. Surviving spouses are also eligible for this benefit. People who live within 50 miles of the two EAP offices in Memphis will use that resource. Clergy Retirement Plans:

The Pre-1982 Pension Plan was replaced by the Ministerial Pension Plan effective January 1, 1982. Vested participants and their spouses receive lifetime benefits from the pre-82 plan. The 2018 monthly Past Service Rate (pre-1982) known as the PSA is $577.00.

The 2004 General Conference voted to end the MPP as of December 31, 2006. The replacement pension plan was the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) which began January 1, 2007. The plan is made up of 2 components:

1. A Defined Benefit which provides monthly income at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church and a surviving spouse benefit payment of 75% for her/his lifetime. Clergy may also designate a disabled child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the death of you and your spouse, your disabled child will receive a reduced benefit. As with spousal coverage, your initial benefits will be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.
2. And a Defined Contribution that provides a retirement account balance which was established and funded by the annual conference.

All eligible full-time clergy who are under Episcopal appointment in the conference shall enroll in the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). Full-time clergy may make written request to waive out of the pension program CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014 clergy serving less than full-time are not eligible to participate in CRSP. We encourage the churches they serve to provide a retirement benefit by making contributions to the United Methodist Personal Pension Plan (UMPIP) on their behalf. Pension Plan enrollment is the responsibility of the participant and must be done no later than 30 days from the eligibility date. Information for enrollment must be provided to Conference Benefits Officer, Mona Williams, at the Conference Office of Finance and Administration.

Clergy pension is calculated on "Plan" compensation. Plan compensation as defined by Wespath includes a parsonage equivalent (25% of compensation) or housing allowance. The benefit multiplier for 2017 is 14% and is broken down in the following manner:

The monthly CRSP- DB benefit is 8% of eligible Plan compensation.

The CRSP-DC benefit is 2% non-matching contribution and 1% matching of eligible Plan compensation.

The premium for the Comprehensive Protection Death and Disability Plan is 3% of eligible Plan compensation up to 200% of the DAC for clergy appointed full-time.

Participants must contribute a minimum of 1% of eligible Plan compensation to their Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) in order to receive the full employer CRSP-DC contribution.

Retired Clergy:

Retired Clergy, their spouses and surviving spouses were removed from the Conference Healthcare Plan on Dec. 31st, 2014.

The Plan was replaced with a Healthcare Reimbursement Arrangement. The Retiree & Medicare eligible disabled clergy HRA is owned and funded by the Arkansas Conference and is managed by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Any unused funds remain with the Conference. Surviving spouses who are not yet eligible for Medicare may be eligible for a taxable Healthcare premium stipend. See guidelines below.

2017 Retiree Health Care Premium Stipend Allocation:

In order to be eligible for a conference healthcare premium stipend Provisional Elders, Associate Members, Elders in Full Connection and Full-time Local Pastors retiring from the Arkansas Conference must have served full-time in the denomination for a minimum of 10 years. Only conference responsible* full-time appointment years are eligible and must have been served in the former North Arkansas Conference, former Little Rock Conference or the Arkansas Conference. If you are retired and not currently receiving a conference healthcare premium stipend you are not eligible to receive the stipend.

The stipend will be a fixed dollar amount based on eligible active years of service and the maximum healthcare premium stipend. Additional years of service above 40 have no effect on the healthcare premium stipend. The maximum healthcare stipend is $204 for clergy and $153 for a spouse which included a 2% COLA increase. Clergy who work or serve an appointment after retirement will not receive additional years of service or an additional benefit of any kind. Here is the base HRA benefit calculation guide,-

- The first ten years of service will accrue at 2% of the maximum premium gift:
  Clergy: 2% of $200 = $4.00
  Spouse: 2% of $150 = $ $3.00
- The next 20 years of service will accrue at:
  Clergy: 3.5% of = $7.00
  Spouse: 3.5% of = $5.25
- The remaining ten years of service will accrue at:
  Clergy: 1% of = $2.00
  Spouse: 1% of = $1.50

*Conference responsible appointment years are defined as service in which the conference or local church is responsible for contributions to clergy pension plans; Pre-1982, MPP or CRSP.

Effective January 1, 2016 the board instituted a minimum healthcare stipend benefit of $50 per month who meet all other requirements. Clergy who are married at the time of retirement will receive a supplemental spousal gift. If clergy divorce while in retirement the spouse receiving a stipend at retirement will continue to receive it. Should the clergy remarry, the new spouse is not eligible for a stipend. If the spouse at retirement outlives the clergy participant, they will receive a stipend as a surviving spouse. As of July 1, 2016 a surviving spouse who remarries will not be penalized and will continue to receive a healthcare stipend benefit.

Effective January 1, 2016 when a clergy dies while under an Active conference responsible appointment leaving behind a spouse (who is not eligible for Medicare) the conference will provide a health care premium stipend equal to $1000 per month for the first 5 years. This benefit is considered taxable income. After the earlier of year 5, or Medicare eligibility, the health care premium stipend will be based on clergy years of active eligible service.

Clergy on Medical Leave receiving CPP Disability Benefits:

Approved Medical Leave is an active Conference responsible appointment. Clergy appointed to Medical Leave who are not yet eligible for Medicare will receive a taxable Healthcare Premium Stipend in the amount of $1000 per month. Those who are eligible for Medicare should enroll in Medicare B and purchase a Medicare Supplement and Drug Plan. Having met these guidelines you would be eligible to receive a Health Care Premium Stipend using the years of service guidelines

Other Important Information:

1. Surviving spouses eligible for spousal pension benefits will receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.
2. Allowance grants and local expenses of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits are paid by Wespath or the Conference Treasurer must meet 2016 Book of Discipline guidelines and are subject to the approval by the Arkansas Conference. The board has approved a living grant for Rev. Lloyd Smith effective 7/1/2009 in the amount of $359.00.
3. The institution, board or organization paying the salary of a minister on special appointment without annuity claim on the conference shall make provision for the pension of such person.
4. Attention is called to ¶ 1506.5 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, regarding eligibility to participate in CRSP and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). In order to provide adequately for the active pension program (current and past funding), death & disability benefits, retiree health care support and well care in 2018 the conference has budgeted $1,020,000. That total is broken down as:
    - Healthcare premium stipends for disabled clergy on approved medical leave shall be $5,000.
    - Healthcare premium stipends for retirees & spouses shall be $800,000.
    - Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program apportionment shall be $15,000.
    - To provide for clergy under special conference responsible appointments shall be $200,000.
5. We remind all pastors and local churches of ¶ 639.4 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, which sets forth the requirement that payments on the pension and benefit program of the conference be in exact proportion to payments made on the salary or salaries, including housing of the ordained minister or clergy serving it. ¶ 638.4d requires the local church treasurer and/or pastor to adjust the cash salary and payment to be in the same proportion as the amount paid to the pension and benefit program of the conference. ¶ 639.4d adds that it shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.
6. ¶ 639.4 of the 2016 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults by churches of the conference in paying clergy pension and benefits. The board is further required to render annually to each church that is in default a statement of the amounts in default for that and preceding years. According to our Conference Treasurer, for 2016 the following churches were in default for the direct billed Clergy Retirement Security Program & the CPP premiums by the following amounts:

If a retired minister does not reside within the bounds of a charge, but a member of a retired minister's family does, they shall be invited to participate in the service (or observance); otherwise, recognition of these servants, and their service, should be observed appropriately. "Appropriately" should be determined by the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee of each local church. This committee shall have the responsibility of locating these people and relate the service of these persons to the local church and our Annual Conference. 2017 Housing Allowances for the Arkansas Conference

The Arkansas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath during the period January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017, by each active, retired, terminated, or clergyperson receiving disability benefits who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as housing allowance exclusion. A housing exclusion calculation worksheet may be requested from the Conference Benefits Office.

Equitable Compensation Commission

For 70 years, the Conference has provided financial support to churches allowing them to provide pastoral salaries suitable for their mission fields.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) of the Arkansas Annual Conference does this in four areas: recommending Minimum Compensation for all clergy under full-time appointment and providing Key Charge, Minimum Base Compensation, and emergency Salary Arrearage funding to churches identified by the Cabinet.

In the Spring of 2017, the Conference supported seven charges through the Key Charge program and another two charges through Minimum Base Compensation Support:

The mission of the CEC is to enable charges/churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership. To fulfill this mission, the CEC is requesting $85,000 for the 2018 budget.

I. Minimum Full-Time Compensation

The CEC recommends that the 2017 Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule for full-time pastors under appointment remain as printed below. The payment schedule and guidelines remain the same as they were for 2016.

Full Connection	Provisional/Associate Member	Local Pastor
$46,920	$45,900	$44,880

Appointed pastors serving a charge that provides a group health insurance plan shall be subject to the following minimum compensation support:

Full Connection	Provisional/Associate Member	Local Pastor
$34,920	$33,900	$32,880

A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.

II. Key Charge/Church Program for Base Compensation Support

The Key Charge/Church program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges/churches targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons. Key Charges/Churches are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement. The covenant is negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge/church. The persons or their successors, shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures. The covenant shall include:

1. The initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,
2. The duration of the covenant (normally five (5) years or less), and
3. The signatures of the persons negotiating the covenant.

The nature of the covenant is such that the amount of compensation support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the charge/church increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the covenant period. After the covenant has expired, no further compensation support will be granted to the charge/church. Under the Key Charge/Church arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge/church. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

Each church receiving compensation shall report to the Commission each year at the consultation date with their district superintendent. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

III. Minimum Base Compensation Support

The Minimum Base Compensation program is intended to assist in providing compensation for capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges/churches which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support. Where charges/churches are in need of additional compensation in order to meet the Minimum Compensation Base Support, this support is available to Elders in Full Connection, Provisional/Associate Members (not to be confused with associate pastors), and Full-Time Local Pastors who are not retired. The Minimum Base Compensation is set annually by the Bishop, Cabinet, and Annual Conference for Elders, Provisional/Associate Members, and Full-Time Local Pastors. (Minimum Full-Time Compensation has appeared previously in this report.)

Charges/churches receiving Minimum Compensation Support are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge/church. The signers or their successors shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures.

It is understood that:

1. A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of the parsonage shall be provided in addition to the set compensation.
2. Associate pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Annual Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid.
3. Retired pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid. See ¶ 357.6 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
4. Each charge/church receiving Minimum Compensation Support shall provide to the Commission the amount(s) received from the Arkansas Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan. Each church receiving compensation shall report to the Commission each year at the consultation date with their district superintendent. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

IV. Emergency Salary Arrearage Support

Every clergy under appointment shall receive the full compensation set at Charge Conference. (See ¶ 624 of the 2016 Discipline.) If a church is financially unable to provide the full compensation in a timely manner, the Annual Conference through the CEC may provide emergency funding to ensure the clergy is provided the compensation the church promised at the Charge Conference. The Arkansas Annual Conference Salary Arrearage Policy is found in ¶ 103 of the Policy & Guidelines section of this Journal.

V. Equitable Compensation Covenant

When Equitable Compensation support has been granted to a charge/church, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the district superintendent, pastor, and leaders of the charge/church before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the commission. No funds shall be disbursed until the agreement is signed and returned to the district superintendent. These forms are available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org.

The charge/church receiving financial support shall submit an annual report. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org. Included in this report is the explanation of how these funds have aided the local charge/church. This report shall be returned at the scheduled annual assessment interview with the district superintendent.

VI. Additional Priorities

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation shall maintain adequate reserves to fund needs which may emerge.
2. Each charge/church receiving equitable compensation in any of the above categories is expected to pay its conference tithe in full. If the charge/church is unable to accomplish this, they shall submit a written plan of action approved by their district superintendent, detailing the steps to be taken in order to achieve this goal. Notification of the plan will then be forwarded to the CEC.

3. All CEC funding is for pastoral support only. Using funds for any other purpose, such as program costs or other compensation violates the agreement.
4. Equitable Compensation funds are paid directly to the church/charge by the fifteenth (15th) of each month. The compensation shall be paid to the pastor as a supplement to funds budgeted by the charge/church. The calendar year of support is from July 1 through June 30.

200,000 Reasons to Fight Childhood Hunger Initiative

100% of Arkansas United Methodist churches will participate in an initiative to significantly reduce childhood hunger through feeding ministries, public witness, and education for long-term stability.

- At the end of 2016, almost 40% of Arkansas United Methodist churches report being involved in a ministry that serves hungry children. The goal is 100%.
  - A "Hunger Initiative Ministry Profile" database is developed listing all Arkansas UMC congregations. The profiles are updated with specific ministries based on reporting through emails, phone calls, grant awards, and surveys.
  - The 2016 Paysinger Hunger Summit held in October featured seven workshops to educate United Methodists in effective ministries to the hungry such as Cooking Matters, Out-of-School Meals, and SNAP Enrollment Assistance.
  - To encourage every AR Methodist congregation to participate in this common mission to reduce childhood hunger in Arkansas,the 200,000 Reasons Initiative team:
    - Seeks to have reports of mission strategy on year-end forms.
    - Encourages participation through district and statewide events.
    - Has offered an annual competitive grant process. As of October 2016, 46 ministries around the state were granted a total of $81,000.
    - Will develop resources as part of the VITAL! ministry plan and will lead a plenary at Annual Conference.
    - Will continue to offer a comprehensive website with access to resources for developing and implementing a ministry to hungry children.
- In 2016, Feeding America reported that the number of children under age 18 living in food insecure households in Arkansas is down from 201,820 to 185,660. The Arkansas Conference is a part of this statewide effort. In 2017, the 200,000 Reasons team:
  - Needs local churches to report how many children are being served specifically through UMC ministries.
  - Will spend time inviting and resourcing churches around the state to participate in ministerial alliances to serve hungry children in targeted underserved areas.
  - Will coordinate with Ingathering to benefit hungrychildren.
  - Will continue to resource United Methodist congregation to meet the needs of hungry children in their communities through partnerships with non-profits such as the AR Food Bank and AR Hunger Relief Alliance.

- In 2017, the 200,000 Reasons team wants to encourage more UM congregations to offer ministries to hungry children that offer long term stability and transform lives, an aspect related to the trajectory of the Arkansas Conference.
  - Ministries that help hungry children get by one more day, week or month are absolutely necessary. These backpack and other food distribution ministries are vital to the hungry but they may not help the families move out of food insecurity.
  - Such ministries as Cooking Matters, SNAP Enrollment Assistance, Friends & Neighbors Network (an alternative to the traditional food pantry), hot meal ministries and out-of school meals that engage members in a relationship with hungry children provide a sense of community and support. The 200,000 Reasons team hopes more United Methodists in Arkansas will:
    - o Engage hungry children in their mission field, with the hope of making their churches look like their neighborhood.
    - o Develop strategies and messaging that encourage different levels of engagement, understanding that many churches start with meeting immediate needs and can move toward deeper, relational ministries.
    - o Share stories of transformed lives, transformational ministries and transformed congregations.

Commission on Archives and History

The purpose of the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History is to promote and care for the historical interests of the United Methodist Church in Arkansas, as outlined in The Book of Discipline. The Commission coordinates and oversees its three entities: (1) The Arkansas United Methodist Church Archives/Winfred D. Polk Methodist Archives on the Hendrix College campus in Conway; (2) The United Methodist Historical Society of Arkansas; and (3) The United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference, located in the First United Methodist Church, Little Rock.

Authorized and established by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Commission on Archives and History, supported by Apportioned Funds, "shall promote and care for the historical interests of the United Methodist Church and its antecedents… [It] shall see that such holdings are available for responsible public and scholarly use… [It] promotes collection and dissemination of information and materials concerning the historic witness made individually and collectively by women, racial and ethnic peoples, and other constituencies" whose voices have been muted in the past. It also helps us maintain transparency and accountability across denominational agencies.

To make vital congregations in Arkansas, all three of the agencies under the umbrella of the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History—the UM Archives, the UM Museum, and the UM Historical Society—strive to recognize, record, and share stories of faith and grace. These agencies focus on stories of historical interest, but they also collect stories about present-day issues and preserve them for future generations. As the General Commission on Archives and History states: "Our understanding of our past helps us envision the future."

In other words, Archives and History is the Ministry of Memory--telling stories about people of faith and grace but also recognizing and collecting new stories so that all of us may re-tell them. Rev. Fred Day, General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church, reminds us that our archives and our museum are not mere collections of moldy, dusty old stuff. They are "living things, not coffins, which tell who we are and what we do. They shape the stories we have to tell." Stories, since the time of cave men around a campfire, have brought us together and have helped us discover who and whose we are. Sharing stories has inspired mankind to see things in different ways and to try doing things in new ways. Stories have encouraged us to persevere through hardships and disappointments, and they have revitalized us when we were burned out. Stories of the Old Testament sustained the Israelites in exile, and vivid parables by the greatest of teachers, Jesus, help us remember what is important in our lives. Today as never before, we need stories of faith and of God-moments to "help bring people to some kind of 'felt' experience which plummets them into the love of God" (Fred Day).

Listed below are some of the ways that the Conference can measure the progress of the three areas of ministry these apportioned funds support: *Provide quality facilities with trained and enthusiastic personnel

Open to the public every Thursday and by appointment, the resources of the UM Archives of the Arkansas Conference, located in the library at Hendrix College, are available without charge to anyone wishing to do research on topics related to the United Methodist Church and its predecessor organizations. Two archivists work independently and together to assist researchers, and both archivists are available by phone, e-mail, or appointment to help persons unable to come into the archives during regular hours. Both archivists have prior experience as employees within the Arkansas Conference and are well-versed in the terminology and organizational connections of the United Methodist Church. The UM Museum of Arkansas, located in First United Methodist Church, Little Rock, is open for walk-in visits each Wednesday and at other times by appointment. The Arkansas Conference is one of the few conferences that maintains a museum to preserve and display objects relating to our Methodist history. Recently, the museum board has been working with the University of Arkansas at Little Rock Public History Program to find graduate students who may intern at the museum and assist the curator with special projects and exhibits. These interns may add a vital component to our connection with the local university and help expand our outreach into the community. After the unexpected resignation of the museum curator in November, 2016, the museum board, with the oversight and approval of the Commission, advertised the open position, interviewed candidates, and selected one of these graduate students as curator in February, 2017. Using her skills and training, she plans to catalog and describe the articles in the museum collection on the Past Perfect database. To help her to become more familiar with the history of Methodism, an expert on Methodist history, especially in Arkansas, has volunteered to be a resource person for her as she gets oriented to her new position. Although our two archivists and our curator are compensated for part-time work by apportioned funds, these important ministries need additional funding and more volunteer support to continue the work.

*Serve the research needs of churches and individuals

In 2016, the Archives assisted 137 individuals and churches with their requests for information to plan programs; to prepare church anniversary celebrations; to write obituaries and family histories; to assist church personnel in district and conference offices and in other conference archives; and to answer personal questions about churches, parsonages, pastors, and people of faith. To help researchers, the archivists responded to e-mails, phone calls, and personal visits to the archives, often working with a single researcher for several weeks. In addition, the archivists maintain a website, www.arkansasumcarchivres.com, which makes available numerous resources to anyone with internet access ,and it includes links with instructions for a historian developing a local church archives. Throughout the year individuals, Sunday school classes, confirmation classes, and other groups of visitors toured the UM Museum to enjoy special exhibits as well as the permanent collection. At the museum a graduate student intern from the UALR public history program researched and designed a special display on Pearle McCain, Arkansas native and Methodist missionary who served in China and Japan for many years. For another exhibit, the museum staff invited art photographers to submit images of historic United Methodist church buildings in Arkansas. In addition to a printed photograph, each entrant submitted a short church history along with a digital copy of the photograph to be archived in the permanent collection of the museum. Winning photographs in the competition were showcased in an exhibit at the Museum in fall, 2016.

*Provide access 24/7 through user-friendly Websites and a Facebook page

An attractive and easy-to-use resource, the website, www.arkansasumcarchives.com, reaches out 24/7 to all readers with internet access and in 2016 recorded 15,794 visits. Maintained by the archivists, it contains information pertinent to the Conference Commission on Archives and History, the UM Archives, the UM Museum, and the UM Historical Society. To date, our archivists have scanned and posted to this website issues of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper from 1884-1921, several documents and books on the history of the Methodist church in Arkansas and on the Evangelical United Brethren Church, and more than 170 journals related to the Arkansas Conference and its predecessor conferences. In addition, the site offers links to print and video resources on the Wesley family, the United Methodist Church, the archives of other United Methodist Annual Conferences, the General Commission on Archives and History, and the recently released, award-winning video entitled "Francis Asbury: The Flame Spirit." The Museum has an online presence with both a Facebook page and a website. On Facebook the curator frequently posts photos of items in the museum and writes a short article on each posting. The museum board is working to make the Museum more user-friendly in every way possible, and it is looking at ways to reach out from the Museum to take our story into the community.

*Utilize up-to-date equipment to facilitate delivery of information in a timely and professional manner

Another measure of the progress of this ministry is the creative application of up-to-date computer and scanner equipment for rapid retrieval and delivery of professional-looking copies of documents. For example, using an iPhone or iPad, the archivists present requested material in a digital format and deliver it, via e-mail, quickly and at low cost to the Archives. The Archives purchased a Minolta color copier which is used to scan and reprint documents and pictures in color to make superior copies on acid-free paper for archival preservation.

*Engage in a major digitalization project

A significant measure of progress is the digitalization of the Arkansas Methodist newspapers from 1884 to the present, an ongoing project which must be accomplished before the crumbling paper issues completely disintegrate. Outsourcing the scanning of the newspapers was very slow and very costly. However, this project has gained momentum since the purchase of an "Image Access BookEye Profession" 4 VIA book scanner. Now the archivists themselves can scan these fragile, old papers, and the project can move along faster. To date, the archivists have scanned these newspapers through 1921. We are indebted to the Winfred D. Polk Charitable Trust through the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas for the gift of this state-of-the-art scanner. By owning the scanner in the Archives, rather than out-sourcing the newspaper job, the archivists can save the conference around $40,000 in scanning costs and use the new equipment for additional projects as well.

*Educate and inform the public

The three agencies under the Commission work together to bring educational events and publications to the public. One outreach of the Historical Society is its newsletter, Occasional Papers, published once or twice a year on some aspect of Arkansas Methodist history and distributed to 200 members across the state. Also, each spring the Historical Society holds a luncheon with an educational program on a topic related to Arkansas Methodism. In spring, 2016, the program, entitled "Historical Reflections on Arkansas Methodism," consisted of a panel of Arkansas ministers who discussed changes in attitudes and practices they have witnessed in our churches over the years of their ministries. At the annual meeting in spring 2017, the program will preview the celebration marking the 200th anniversary of Arkansas Methodism, slated for fall 2017, at the Mound Prairie/Henry's Chapel site near old Washington. It is hoped that such activities may help bring about revival in the Historical Society and in our churches. With the power of the Holy Spirit, we can create vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities, and the world. From time to time the museum offers special tours and receptions, centered on a particular topic or group of people in the church. For example, the museum has sponsored a reception which recognized African-Americans in our church's history. Also, the museum hosted a very successful loan exhibition, "Methodism on the American Frontier," featuring folk art paintings by Rev. John S. Polk, depicting old Methodist church structures. In 2016, the Museum, in cooperation with the Arkansas Women Photographers, hosted a competition and photographic exhibition of historic UM churches in Arkansas. Also to raise awareness of the museum, the organization joined several professional associations: (1) American Association for State and Local History, and (2) the Arkansas Museum Association. At the Arkansas Annual Conference each June, the Archives and the Museum have displays and handouts available as well as volunteers to answer questions about these ministries. Additionally, we offer, at a nominal charge, a CD which contains the texts of several out-of-print books on Arkansas Methodism and a CD celebrating the 60th anniversary of full-clergy rights for women in the United Methodist Church. On this latest CD, "Called to Be Bold, Stepping Out in Faith," eighty-one women across Arkansas shared their stories and photographs about their Calls to Ministry and the unique challenges they faced.

*Create an experience, not merely provide information

A visit to the museum is an ideal way to experience the past...see the hard, wooden pews (no cushions); touch the communion chalice used by faithful brothers and sisters of another era; and see photographs of faithful souls your pastor or your parents talked about when you were a child. In a similar way, we hope pages posted on the web from old Arkansas Methodist newspapers will help readers live a little in the lives of Arkansans of a hundred years ago and generate feelings that "plummet them into the love of God." These newspapers were the CNN and the internet of another era, as they gave people information on local, state, and national news, especially for rural Arkansans. But these were also the Facebook and Twitter of that time, revealing the lifestyle of pastors and their congregations and showing how our Methodist brethren grappled with the issues of their day--temperance, prohibition, politics, etc. Even ads for products such as miracle medicinal cures give us a glimpse into the lives of our brothers and sisters in an era before antibiotics and modern medicine. But there are also stories in these pages about the ministry of women who saved nickels and dimes from their egg and garden produce sales to send missionaries to rural areas of our state and around the world. There are stories for children about "Father Wesley," articles for young people who dreamed of attending Galloway or Hendrix College, and lengthy obituaries, often weeks after a death, with inspiring language we could only hope someone might say about us when our time comes. Also, to help people experience their history, the museum board plans to do more temporary exhibits. For example, in 2016 a photography competition, which involved a group of professional photographers, captured images of historic Methodist churches in Arkansas. We hope changing exhibits will keep people coming back to the museum as well as generate interest for first-time visitors.

*Generate goodwill and spread the joy that comes from sharing the Story

Progress may also be measured in the mutual goodwill and the joy of sharing that collaboration on creative projects fosters among all participants. This year several pastors and laity have given us old Conference Journals, historical books, photographs, and other materials related to the Methodist church in Arkansas. Similarly, pastors and laity have enjoyed sharing treasured memorabilia with the Museum. In addition, volunteers interviewed present-day saints and recorded oral histories which may inspire future generations. Clergy women across Arkansas shared their stories for the CD marking the 60th anniversary of full-clergy rights for women in the United Methodist Church. Reaching beyond the state and the conference, the Arkansas Commission on Archives and History has worked with Commission personnel in other conferences and in the General Commission as we mutually seek ways to continue the unique Ministry of Memory and to bring about a spiritual revival in the United Methodist Church. Our extensive online resources have drawn the attention of several other UM Archives, including the California-Pacific UM Conference Archives and the Missouri UM Conference Archives. While helping our archives with their website, Bob Crossman began networking with John D. Finley, the archivist at the Missouri UM archives located at Central Methodist University, in Fayette, MO. Finley wrote: "I am impressed with your web site. You are far ahead of us in terms of getting things digitized and available. I will continue to send these year by year." He was referring to the PDF files of the Missouri Methodist Episcopal Church which included the Arkansas District. To date we have received and made available on our website the handwritten journals for 1849-1853. Previously, we did not know that these records existed.

In all their work, our archivists, curator, and volunteers take seriously their responsibility to decide what materials are history-making and worthy to belong in the collections to tell the Story. They continue to collect documents, memorabilia, and photographs for long-term storage and quality preservation, especially materials about present-day clergy and ministries, local churches, and closed churches within our conference. Recent equipment purchases, such as the Minolta color copier and the BookEye book scanner, help us meet our goals and those of the Conference as they extend our glimpse into the lives of the people of faith of our day and of those who came before us. In all we do, we seek to be good stewards of apportioned funds and other gifts and to maximize their usefulness. As we move into the future the "Ministry of Memory" helps us learn from our past as we anticipate our priorities for the future. Like our very own souls, the work of Archives and History will always be a work in progress.

Therefore, with hearts open to the Holy Spirit, we move ahead with our Mission: "To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion." "Come, Holy Spirit, come."

Board of Discipleship

Your Board of Discipleship is working to build relationships within our Board, within our Conference and beyond so that we are as effective as possible. With representatives on the Board who are entrusted with the areas of Education, Stewardship, Spiritual Direction, Evangelism, Small Member Churches, and Worship, it is an understatement when I say we have a very broad area of responsibility. With most of our members being new to the Board, we chose this year to focus on Stewardship. Our plan is to learn to work together, one step at a time, and attempt additional areas for ministry planning next year.

We are enthusiastic about the opportunity to be involved with the stewardship component of this year's focus on creating Vital Disciples. Having Reverend Clif Christopher as a plenary speaker and getting to collaborate with him is a plus for Discipleship. Continued opportunities for personal and group studies in Stewardship will be provided by your Board. We believe that Christian Stewardship is the management of all of life with Jesus at the center.

Your Board of Discipleship welcomes your interest and ideas and we covet your prayers as we serve.

Grace to you,
David Orr, Chair

Camp Tanako

Camp Tanako is a camping and retreat ministry that has been a part of the United Methodist tradition in Arkansas since 1948. Camp Tanako serves persons of all ages from across Arkansas in traditional, programmed summer camps for children and youth, hosts retreat guest groups for all ages, such as Walk to Emmaus and ARUMC central district's annual Bible Boot camp. Our mission is to welcome children, youth, and adults to a place set apart where they can experience God through nature and community and respond to the call of the Holy Spirit. Camp Tanako offers unique opportunities for individuals to experience the means of grace in ways that are rarely available in our culture.

Last year, Camp Tanako had ten weeks of overnight summer programmed camps with 526s campers (up 17% from 2015). Overnight campers came from all areas of the state of Arkansas as well as Texas and Louisiana. Tanako Day Camp, which began in in 2013, served 614 campers in the first through sixth grades this past summer (up 29% over 2015). Camp Tanako's summer programmed camps served 1240 campers from 79 ARUMC congregations and 32 "other" congregations, with 10 campers citing that they had no church affiliation. Guest groups from across the state were hosted for weekend retreats that included 892 participants in 2016.

Apportioned funds received in 2016 were used to make disciples of Jesus Christ in several ways. The support of the ARUMC's apportioned funds allow Camp Tanako to provide various experiences that are unique to outdoor ministry settings. UMC.org discusses The Wesleyan Means of Grace in these words,

"Our vital work is a spiritual adventure based in John Wesley's means of grace. John Wesley taught that God's grace is unearned and that we were not to be idle waiting to experience grace but we are to engage in the means of grace. The means of grace are ways God works invisibly in disciples, hastening, strengthening; and confirming faith so that God's grace pervades in and through disciples."

This so perfectly captures the experiences available through outdoor ministries at Camp Tanako. Whether participants are here for a week during the summer or for weekend programming throughout the year, they come together as a diverse group from various ethnic, socioeconomic, and at different points in their journey to become more like Christ. A portion of those who come to Camp Tanako may be new to a faith journey with no experiences. Camp Tanako utilizes all of our resources, including the apportioned funds from the ARUMC to make disciples for the transformation of the world with excellence and passion.

Conference Commission on Religion and Race

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will continue to support the mission model that has been and will be the accepted model for our General Commission. GCORR's mission is building the capacity of The United Methodist Church to be contextually relevant and to reach more people, younger people, and more diverse people as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Our conference committee upholds the mission and will be a resource to help our conference committees, organizations and churches become a place where all will be welcomed as they seek where their place is in the kingdom of God. We monitor how diverse our committees at the district and conference levels reflect the culture around them and we will challenge those groups to become as culturally diverse as they can be.

This year some members of our conference have been to Milwaukee, WI to attend the Native American Comprehensive Plan's training on Discipleship in the Native American tradition and how we might be able to at least start a discussion of how we can start a church with a Native/Indigenous focus.

The team of three, Rev. George Odell, Rev. Angie Gage and Mr. Billy Britt, were truly enlightened by our brothers and sisters in Christ how they have ministered in a culture that has not always respected who they are as a people of God/Creator. We recommend that our conference starts an NAMAT (Native American Minister Action Team) as part of the Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee.

There are several great resources that General Commission has made available to all conferences and churches. There are DVDs called Vital Conversations where members of the greater community called the United Methodist Church challenge us to grow in our faith and in our ministry to persons who are not like us. If you would like to obtain a copy of them, please contact me or your district representative and we will assist you in attaining copies of the DVD. There is also a new book that is available for download from www.gcorr.org, Learning from Strangers. I encourage you to obtain a copy of these for your church's use and for your personal use as a leader in the church.

Relationships matter more than numbers; if we seek the relationships the numbers will take care of themselves. It is about the revival of our state, county, cities and towns where Christ is offered to all who seek Him.

Chair, Arkansas CORR

Commission on the Status and Role of Women

The Arkansas Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women continues to support and further the mission of the General Commission, which "advocates for full participation of women in the total life of the United Methodist Church through training, education, research and monitoring."

AR-COSROW sent two representatives to the Quadrennial Annual Conference Networking and Training event sponsored by the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in Nashville, Tennessee. Rev. Sara Bayles and Rev. Natasha Murray-Norman attended this event and met with other conference commissioners throughout the connection. During the training event, members of conference COSROWs were made aware of the importance of passing Amendment 4 which includes inclusive language of gender equality for persons in the Church. During this event, time was also set aside to create strategic plans of action for each jurisdiction and conference represented.

AR-COSROW continues to offer support for the Clergywomen's luncheon held during annual conference as well as monitoring for fairness in participation and diversity during Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Natasha Murray-Norman

Conference Council on Camp and Retreat Ministries

Many of our camps are in the full swing of preparing for the summer camping season. Be sure to see each camp's individual report to find out what they're doing and how your church can get involved!

From a conference level, confirmation camps have been running successfully for over a full year now with additional camps being added for the fall of 2017 and spring of 2018. In addition the Camp and Retreat Ministries committee will continue to work to develop ideas for programs to be offered through the ARUMC.

Confirmation Camps are perfect for churches of any size. If your church has a long-term confirmation program, Confirmation Camp can serve as your confirmation retreat. If your church has a smaller confirmation class, Confirmation Camp can serve as the bulk of the confirmation experience, with follow–up lessons designed to be done at the local church after the retreat. The curriculum includes 10 lessons, 6 of which will take place at camp and 4 of which will be provided for those churches who wish to use them to complete the confirmation experience after returning to their local churches. The next camp will be October 7-9 at Bear Creek Camp and there will be multiple camps offered in 2017.

Great things are happening and great things are yet to come in the world of Camp and Retreat Ministries!

Conference Council on Children's Ministries

The Conference Council on Children's Ministries (CCCM) has continued to maintain its focus in 2016 to connect/network people involved with children's ministry throughout the state of Arkansas and to equip those people for ministry in their local congregations. As the year came to an end, the Council began to expand and evolve with a new vision closely matched to the Bishop's trajectory of community involvement. In order to help our leaders take their churches out into the communities, a new goal to develop a statewide infrastructure that reaches all children's leaders in our state, no matter church size, paid or unpaid was defined. We agree to exist to offer quality training, nurture, support and resources in providing leaders with Christian Education knowledge based on current trends and sound United Methodist theology in order to make disciples of children.

In this endeavor, the Council continues to sponsor three social media sites and one web page targeted to children's leadership. We continue to see broad geographical access to our sites, as leaders have learned to count on us for valuable and accurate information regarding their ministry calling.

The following statistics are from February 14, 2017.

Average daily viewers 1,621, up from 334 last year, and average monthly viewers 38,240, up from 19,836 last year.

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/kidzarumc
Total number of people reached this week - 3,726. Total people engaged this week - 440

Webpage: https:www.kidz.arumc.org
Here CM leaders will find current trends, training opportunities, program ideas, UMC policies and guidelines for Safe Sanctuary, Created by God instructors, hot topics, VBS information, seasonal Family Faith Formation, classifieds, missions, curriculum and general assistance. If we do not know the answers, we find the answers.

Facebook for Destination Mission: https://www.facebook.com/Destination.Mission Destination Mission is entering its eighth year of operation and is an outreach of The Council (CCCM). This program, developed for 3rd - 6th graders, is coordinated by Denni Palmer (Fayetteville) and includes one mission trip during Spring Break and one or two mission trips during the summer. During this time span, hundreds of children have been touched by the hands-on mission field away from their local church home.

Our annual Beyond Leadership Conference for children's pastors, directors and laity was held in January of 2016 at Camp Tanako in Hot Springs. Tanya Eustace, Discipleship Ministries, was our Keynote and teacher. The Beyond conference is igniting a new spirit in our leaders. Many leaders did not realize this type training was within their reach, geographically or financially. Beyond has been offered across the state beginning in January 2014 and continues to this day at a low cost compared to other regional and national trainings. We have maintained an average annual attendance of 49 leaders out of an identified 126 leaders as of Nov. 2016. The local churches touched annually depends on which area of the state the event is hosted. We have been hosted in Hot Springs and Fayetteville. Our hope is to look to other districts for hosting in the future.

As our energy grows, so do our committed children's leaders. In order to better serve local churches in our large geographical districts, our District Coordinator number began to increase in the fall of 2016. Central District: Tammy Felder, Little Rock, Jessica Butler, Bauxite, Sean Dunbar, Little Rock; Southeast District: Jennifer Fox, Pine Bluff: Southwest District: Jeremy Carter, Magnolia, Michelle Wilkins, Hot Springs, and Rev. Dan Read, Magnolia (as of July 2017); Northeast District: Katie McClean, Batesville and Tiffany Jones, Beebe; Northwest District: Sally Ware, Fort Smith and Shelly Coggin, Rogers. This expansion will continue until we feel our geographical reach has been met.

Also now serving on our CCCM team as specific representatives of specialty ministry areas. Created by God: Karen Anderson, Rogers, Liz Wright, Little Rock; Destination Mission: Denni Palmer, Fayetteville; Sports Ministries: Sean Dunbar, Little Rock; Special Needs Ministries: Sadie Wolfhardt, Bentonville; Safe Sanctuaries: Karen Swales, Springdale.

In 2016, the following service or financial assistance was awarded by CCCM as follows:

- Beyond 2016 Leadership Conference awarded 7 full scholarships and gave away thousands of dollars of VBS and recycled curriculum to local church attendees.
- Vacation Bible School Mini-grants - Eleven $250 grants were awarded to local churches to purchase necessary materials for VBS in the local church. Faith stories from the leaders of these programs: http://kidz.arumc.org/vbs/vbs/-2016-faith-stories/
- One ARUMC Camping Scholarship of $500 was awarded to ARUMC Camping Ministries to assist with tuition for campers.
- Methodist Family Health was awarded $1500 for ten student scholarships for summer camp attendance.
- A Day with the Bishop was supported by CCCM staff to aid in the smooth transition of children into youth ministry. This year was the first year the event became a transitional event for upper elementary children moving into youth vs a Confirmation event. A new Confirmation Camp was created to provide a more comprehensive confirmation focus. The CCCM team worked with Michelle Moore, Conference Youth Ministries Coordinator to plan and lead the day long event in Little Rock.

In closing, I am very honored to have been chosen in late August 2016 to serve as your new Conference Children's Ministry Coordinator. Since that time, I felt it important to travel the state to meet each of our District Coordinators in person at their local church. They met me with warmth and enthusiasm and I look forward to serving alongside them in the years to come.

Respectfully submitted,
Pamela Snider, Conference Children's Coordinator

Board of Church and Society

Over the past year, your Board of Church & Society has been assessing who we are and if there are areas of Church & Society where we can focus our attention to make a difference. We have been in communication with other boards across the connection and with the General Board of Church & Society in Washington D.C. to look at possibilities of sharing petitions and resolutions of a national and world-wide nature across annual conferences.

Many faithful Arkansas United Methodists work tirelessly across the state in areas of justice and mercy. Thank you to those of you who hear the call to feed the sick, clothe the naked, visit those in prison, and build relationships with those considered to be "the least of these" in our society. Thank you for your work on abolishing the death penalty in Arkansas, on removing the ability to sentence juveniles to life in prison without parole, and on issues related to drug and alcohol abuse, civil and human rights, suicide prevention, systemic racism, immigration, making sure our children have food, interfaith dialogue - and maybe most importantly, for having open and honest conversations with someone you disagree with, building relationships and tearing down walls.

We appreciate the Arkansas Conference sending clergy to the Young Clergy Forum sponsored by the General Board of Church & Society each year. We are also grateful for the work Rev. Steve Copley does as our Peace with Justice Coordinator. The Peace with Justice Covenant Congregation Program aims to make shalom — a word of greeting or farewell meaning peace — visible and active in people's lives and communities. The General Conference assigned The General Board of Church & Society to put this program into action and called on the denomination to "strengthen its capacity to act as a public advocate" in communities and nations throughout the world.

This year, we depart from our Church & Society breakfast and offer a Church & Society "hunger lunch" in its place. The hunger lunch will be on Tuesday, June 20, during the lunch break from conference business at Grand Avenue UMC (841 Quapaw Ave.). There is no charge for this meal, however we do ask that you make a reservation on your Annual Conference registration and make a donation at the lunch to 200,000 Reasons (an initiative of the Arkansas Annual Conference to reduce child hunger in Arkansas).

Peace be with you,
Rev. Jay Clark, Chair

Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns works in partnership with the existing structures of the Arkansas Annual Conference in order to implement, evaluate, and update the Annual Conference of its comprehensive plan as it relates to ethnic issues. The Committee consults with and assists other conference entities in training and implementation of matters related to ethnic local churches. The committee maintains the connectional relations mandated by ¶632 and ¶ 654.

Additionally, this committee is charged with implementing all General Conference emphasis related to:

- National Hispanic Plan
- Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century
- National Korean Ministry Plan
- Native American Ministries (¶654)
- Other ethnic programs emanating from the General Conference.

The Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee works in three (3) areas to support local congregations in their efforts to make disciples by providing funding in the following areas:

a. Leadership Development (both lay and clergy)
b. Mission Field Outreach
c. Scholarships (need-based undergraduate students)

We are fully aware that the majority of the ethnic churches in Arkansas are small, and have fewer resources outside of the annual conference; therefore, our goal is to assist them by providing these needed resources. However, the goal of this committee is always to empower our congregations to be self-sufficient. Another initiative of the committee is to support innovative cutting-edge methods of ministry in its initial stages of implementation as we realize that sometimes it is not popular to try new things. We encourage local congregations not to be about their failures (if these new things do not produce the expected outcome), but to view these new attempts as learning experiences in attempting to attract new people in different/unexpected ways.

We believe the work of the Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee is in direct alignment with the Bishop's Mission Initiatives #5, #6, #7, #8; with a great percentage of what we do supporting #9.

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns will continue to be reflective, committed and passionate in its effort to address/meet the concerns of the Ethnic Local Church, the strategic initiatives of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas and responsive to the Bishop Mission's initiative in fulfilling the greater mission of spreading the good news of the gospel, making disciples of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

In closing, we are very grateful for our conference staff person, the Rev. Maxine Allen. Her gifts and graces are the driving force of our ministry within this committee.

Grace and peace,
Rev. Ronnie Miller-Yow, Chair

Conference Board of Global Ministries

The Board of Global Ministries is responsible for maintaining the connectional relationship and providing for global ministry responsibilities related to the objectives and scope of the General Board of Global Ministries.

Under the umbrella of this mandate, the Committee seeks to interpret, communicate, inform and connect local churches through the following ministry areas and partnership:

- Volunteers in Mission
- Justice for Our Neighbor
- Advocates for the Poor
- Disaster Response and United Methodist Committee on Relief
- Mission Personnel
- Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns
- Parish and Community Development
- United Methodist Women

The work of Global Ministries is grounded in the theology of mission, "making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world". We are called to be in mission with people around the world and next door. Presently, Global Ministries has missionaries from more than 60 different countries – engaged in healing ministries, teaching, training, advocacy and spreading the gospel. In Arkansas we have three active Church and Community Workers and one Lay Missioner in ministry.

We encourage local churches to host an itinerating missionary and provide partnership support. In giving we also receive.

Brenda Norwood
Chairperson

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries shall work with and through the Conference Board of Global Ministries to relate the work of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church to local congregations within the Conference. One aspect of being a vital congregation is to be engaged in support of mission personnel. We are called to be inspired, informed, and educated about the essential work of missionaries, therefore the global mission and ministry of the Arkansas Conference. The Conference Secretary Global Ministries also relates to the district secretaries of Global Ministries.

Missionary itineration is essential to connecting the local church with the face, name and work of the missionary. As missionaries itinerate, they tell their story by talking about the places where they live, the people with whom they live and serve, and what they are called to do. They share the work that God has called them to do.

District secretary job descriptions have been developed to better assist them in performing their responsibilities.

The Arkansas Conference welcomed Dr. Pierre Diamba Manya and his wife Pauline. Dr. Manya is currently serving as coordinator of health and medical services of the Central Congo Episcopal Area in the Democratic Republic of Congo. A gynecologist and surgeon, he has been in medical mission since 1984. His wife Pauline, is a nurse and secondary school English teacher. They visited several local churches in our conference.

The Secretary of Global Ministries South Central Jurisdiction meeting was held in New Orleans last October. There we discussed ways to better assist missionaries that itinerate to our conference and shared itineration experiences.

I am excited about missionaries that will be itinerating to our conference in the future and getting our district secretaries more involved in the process.

Respectfully submitted,
Marleene Calvin
Secretary Global Ministries

Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

It is always a challenge to write a brief report about a ministry in our Conference as dynamic as United Methodist Campus Ministry is.

A brief, accurate report is:

- United Methodist Campus Ministries are alive and well

- United Methodist Campus Ministries are making life changing transformations for students across our state.
- We are deeply grateful to the Annual Conference for its financial support of these ministries.
- Without the support of the Annual Conference, local United Methodist churches, dedicated campus ministry staff and boards along with generous friends of campus ministry, these life transforming ministries could not happen.

If you would like more details about campus ministries, keep reading.

United Methodist Campus Ministries in Arkansas are occurring at Wesley Foundations on nine college campuses, ASU, ATU, HSU/OBU, SAU, UA, UALR, UAM, UAPB and UCA. There are also active ministries on the campuses of Arkansas' two United Methodist Colleges, Hendrix College and Philander Smith College. There are also United Methodist ministries on the campus of UA Fort Smith (The Bridge) and Lyon College.

Campus ministry operates in the midst of the unique mission field that is a college campus. Students arrive at campuses in a wide variety of places on their journeys of faith. Some arrive with well-formed Christian identity and experience while others arrive having been turned off by faith and others have no concept of what the Gospel is about. A large group of students arrive with serious interest in life, faith, and vocation. There are many rich opportunities for engaging students. Each week on campuses there are worship services, small group study opportunities service opportunities and fellowship meals and gatherings. Through these experiences students engage faith and discipleship as they grow in a supportive Christian environment. Campus ministries also provide opportunities for students to gain experience in leadership. This is often an important ingredient in vocational discernment.

The support of the Annual Conference and local churches and individuals is critical to campus ministry. For the past two years (and again this year) the Annual Conference provided a $45,000 grant for maintenance matching grants. These funds have allowed $180,000 of maintenance work to be done on our nine Wesley Foundations. Each dollar of the Conference grant is matched by a dollar from local donors to the Wesley Foundations.

In January, we worked with Ozark Mission Project to co-sponsor their Winter Mission. This year over 60 college students spent the first week in January in Baton Rouge, helping repair damaged homes. This experience has been an excellent place for students across the state to meet and come to know each other. These connections have strengthened our individual ministries across the state.

In July 2016, we began sponsoring a coaching group for our campus ministers. Reverend DeeDee Autry is the coach for the group. This group is providing a support network for our campus ministers. It is also enhancing our ministry across the state through sharing ideas as well as our hopes and dreams for our future together making a difference on campuses. Our shared vision is stronger as a result.

In the fall of 2017 we will begin student intern positions on several of our campuses. At this point we have at least 4 fulltime interns. These interns will be recent graduates and leaders in our campus ministries. These interns will provide additional leadership to the ministers. This will also be a time of vocational discernment as interns discover calls to ordained or professional ministry as well as what it means to be a lay leader in ministry. The new money included in our 2017 budget is allowing us to create these internships. They will also be funded as dollar-to-dollar matching grants.

There are so many things going on in United Methodist Campus Ministry, that I could write for pages. We hope this gives you a taste of what is happening. We encourage you to contact the ministries in your area to learn more and find ways to be involved.

There are lots of ways to describe, measure and count ministry. One of the best ways to see the outcome of ministry is through testimony. May I close with a brief excerpt of an email sent to me by Reverend Kavan Dodson, director of the Wesley Foundation at UAM.

"I cannot begin to account all the ways that the Wesley Foundation has helped me during my time here at UAM. When I came to UAM I was not a Christian, and then I became involved with the Wesley Foundation. In the spring of 2014 I was introduced to the Wesley Foundation and by the end of that semester I had professed my faith in Jesus Christ as my Savior.

During my time with the Wesley my faith has only grown stronger and they have shown me what it means to not only claim Christianity, but to live in my faith and to exemplify what it means to truly be a Christian. During my time with the Wesley I have learned what a church family is supposed to be, and have found a place where I am accepted no matter my flaws. This is a place that I can come to no matter the day I am having and feel loved and wanted…"

Arkansas Conference Board of Laity Report

The Arkansas Conference Board of Laity is made up of the Conference Lay Leader, the district Lay Leaders and the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. The board's most important work includes fostering an awareness of the role of the laity within the local congregations, promoting and developing programs to cultivate an adequate understanding of the theological and biblical basis for lay life and work, and providing support and direction for the ministry of the laity on the local, district and annual conference level.

The Board of Laity's primary role continues to focus on how the conference and districts can best resource local congregations as they work to fulfill the Bishop's Mission Plan and the mission and vision of the Arkansas Conference. We believe a key factor in this resourcing is in equipping and strengthening lay leadership in the Arkansas Conference. This past year we elected an Associate Lay Leader and an Associate Director of Lay Servant Ministries, both of whom were added to the Board of Laity membership. These two associate positions work side by side with the Lay Leader and Director of Lay Servant Ministries, learning and participating in the life of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

This past February, the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders met with the Directors of Lay Servant Ministries at their convocation in Nashville, Tennessee. Kathy Conley, our Associate Conference Lay Leader, and I joined Jim Boyd at this meeting and came away with a wonderful perspective on how Lay Servant classes can equip laity to live out their call and become deeper disciples of Jesus Christ. I pray that more and more laity in our conference choose to participate in Lay Servant Ministry classes. These classes equip us to become better disciples, and show us opportunities to use our spiritual gifts for God's Kingdom. I am convinced that some stay away from Lay Servant Ministry classes because they are concerned they might be asked to fill a pulpit, when that is not their calling. A Certified Lay Servant is never obligated to preach, but is a person committed to using their spiritual gifts in their local church, their district, or the conference.

Consider signing up for the next preaching class that Lay Servant Ministries offers! I promise it will strengthen your witness and better enable you to tell your faith story. Isn't this what all Christians are called to do?

I am blessed to serve as Arkansas Conference Lay Leader!

Karon Mann
Arkansas Conference Lay Leader

Lay Servant Ministries Report

Please go to our arumc.org website, and select Resources/Lay Servant Ministries, to access all Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministries information and downloadable forms. All District Director information is listed there as well.

The 2016 General Conference once again, changed the way we have been doing things and removed one of our old-time positions as Lay Servants. Local Lay Servant is no longer a position we support as a result. Their rationale, as supported and introduced by the National Lay Servant program or ACDLSM and Discipleship Ministries, was that all laity are Local Lay Servants. Since we want to raise awareness of the training and dedication of those who choose to further their education in the Lay Servant Ministries Program, it is only fitting that we ask all current Lay Servants to become Certified Lay Servants through regular advanced training. Discipleship Ministries along with the National Lay Servant Education Committee (of which I was asked to be a part of this year and I accepted) is tasked with continuing to develop and print new materials all year long. As a result of this, we will have many new training materials coming out over the next several years. In the past it has taken up to three years to bring a new course to printing.

The term Lay Speaker has been used for many years, and usually was thought of as Pulpit Supply. It has been said that there are a lot of United Methodists that will not take the training because they do not want to be in the pulpit. General Conference made changes that will assist in getting those people into our training classes that want to be trained to serve in the many other functions of the church that do not involve preaching.

- We now have the Certified Lay Servant, which will be able to serve the local church and the rest of the Conference in whatever capacity needed, including filling in for their pastor . This position is usually not for extended assignments by the D.S. Requirements for this position include having taken the Basic Course, take at least one Advanced Course every three years, and file the Annual Report of the Lay Servant/Speaker every year with the charge conference.
- We also now have the Certified Lay Speaker position, which will be able to serve the local church and also the extended church in whatever capacity needed, including filling in for local Pastors and other Pastors in the connection, week to week, as well as extended assignments by the District Superintendent. Certified Lay Speakers must have taken Basic Course and five Advanced classes and take another Advanced class at least every three years , and file the Annual Report of the Lay Servant/Speaker every year with the charge conference and be reviewed and approved every three years by the District and Conference Lay Servant Committees.
- The new position of Lay Speaker, which is a new track inside the Lay Servant Ministries Program, requires the Basic and 5 specific Advanced Courses as required by 2016 General Conference Legislation. Required courses are The Basic Course and Advanced courses on Worship, Prayer, Spiritual Gifts, Preaching, and UM Heritage and Polity.

Each of these positions require at least 10 hours of classroom time every three years or specific approved by District and Conference LSM Committees. This includes alternate courses of equivalent service/training that can be used to stay in the program. If a person delays coming to class for three consecutive years, then they will be dropped from the program and will have to take the Basic Course and then another Advanced class to be certified again. The District Lay Servant Ministry Committee will recommend by the Pastor of the local church where their membership is held and by a vote of the local charge conference, along the D.S.'s signature on the Annual Lay Servant Report Charge Conference Form, and the Lay Servant/Lay Speaker Committee. Completing this form is required each year to stay in the LSM Program, but does not give you status as a Lay Servant unless you have completed the training classes. Please do not fill out this form if you have not attended classes in three years. Call your District LSM Director for information on how to return to the program.

To enter the new Lay Speaker Track, apply with District LSM Director. Persons applying to become a Lay Speaker will be examined by the District Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (DCLSM) or equivalent structure and be recommended to the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (CCLSM) or equivalent structure for approval. The Lay Speaker must apply for re-approval and appear before the DCLSM or equivalent structure at least every three years. They also must receive the endorsement of the local church charge conference every year by the Annual Lay Servant Report form.

2017 Approved Alternate Service/Training for Certified Lay Servants

- All LSM Classes must be conducted and/or approved through the District Director in order to get credit.
- Be-A-Disciple and other online courses, to be considered on a case-by-case basis for 2017. Please contact your District or Conference Director before taking these to be able to get credit for the course. These courses must conform to general LSM Program requirements.

You must still attend one classroom type class once every 3 years regardless of how many Alternate classes taken to remain in the LSM Program)

- You must apply to your District Director or Conference Director for any classes taken outside the normal classroom type classes in order to get the proper credit.

Please note that anyone may come to our classes without committing to be a part of Lay Servant Ministries. They will not have to fill out a Lay Servant Report , and will not be entered in our records unless desired. We think you will want to be a part of our program once you come to a class though!

Certified Lay Minister is not a part of our program at this time. The program has to be initiated by the Board of Ministry.

Under the 2012 General Conference Legislation, the Lay Servant Ministries Program is a laity-driven, laity-led program. The District and Conference Directors shall be laity. We continue to look for competent laity to become Instructors/Facilitators for our classes as well as Directors/ Co-Directors of the District Programs and we will continue to partner with our clergy to strengthen the program. We certainly need the buy-in of our Bishop, D.S.s and our clergy if we are to succeed.

2016 was another banner year for the Lay Servant Ministry Program. We held even more classes across the Connection than we did in 2015, and will continue to do so in 2017. We hope to have classes scheduled in each District. Mt. Sequoyah in Fayetteville has scheduled LSM classes for 2017 as well as Mt. Eagle Retreat Center in Shirley, Arkansas. Check your District Offices for class information and the arumc.org/Calendar.

2016 also began the third year that we recognized the new position of Lay Speaker. We have 8 Certified Lay Servants who have applied for the Lay Speaker status , and 7 have already completed all classes and requirements, with another just one class away from Lay Speaker status. The 7 are:

- Susan Jett - N.E. LSM District Director and Assistant Conference LSM Director
- John Harding - formerly N.E. District –now Southwest District
- Nancy Scott - Southwest District
- Permelia Huffman – Southeast District
- Matt Fox - Northwest District
- Regena Mason - Northwest District
- Ken Beard - Northwest District

The Annual Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries (ACDLSM) met in February in Nashville, TN and I attended new releases of LSM curriculum from Discipleship Ministries, and updates on pending General Conference Legislation.

We have re-organized the South Central Jurisdictional program for Lay Servant Ministries (SCJLSM) after a successful meeting at Mt. Sequoyah last year. We met in Fort Worth, TX this past summer for continuing education and organizational meetings .

We in the Lay Servant Ministry Program across Arkansas are committed to being the Servants that God called us to be. Not just in our local churches, but wherever God calls us. We are positioned to fulfill Bishop Mueller`s and the Arkansas Conference Mission of "making Disciples, who make disciples for the transformation of the world".

The following is the results of our 2016 ongoing efforts to hold classes and enlist laity into our Lay Servant Ministry :

- Southeast District: 2 events, 6 classes, 21 laity attended classes
- Northwest District: 11 classes held, 122 participants
- Central District: 8 events, 12 classes held , and 61 laity attended classes
- Southwest District: 1 events , 2 classes held, and 15 laity attended classes
- Northwest District: 11 events, 24 classes, and 87 laity attended classes (Mt. Sequoyah and several large churches contributed to these numbers in the N.W. District and we are truly grateful for them.)

We welcome all Churches to hold LSM classes. Contact your District Director for details. Come join us wherever you are in your walk in life and help us " Unleash the Laity."

Final Note : As of January 1, 2017, I have retired as the Director of the Southeast District Lay Servant Ministry Program. I have enjoyed the past 20 years as their director but it is time to move on and let someone else use their skills to take the Southeast District LSM program to new heights. Rev. Nan Nelson (formerly a Certified Lay Servant now clergy) has taken over the program as Interim District Director until a dedicated Certified Lay Servant steps forward and accepts the position. I appreciate Nan for helping us out in the meantime very much. Susan Kramer is the NW DDLSM, as well as serving an assignment as a Lay Speaker to a charge, Carole Blanks is the Central DDLSM , Karla Hefty is the SW DDLSM and Susan Jett is the Ne DDLSM as well as Assistant Conference DDLSM, and serving a charge as Lay Speaker Pulpit Supply. Please support each of them in their endeavor to provide leadership in the Arkansas Conference. Come join us in service to our Lord and Savior.

Churches and individuals are encouraged to become "co-missionaries" by supporting a missionary commissioned by GBGM (missionaries with a United Methodist Advance missionary support code). This partnership is much more than a financial commitment. It is a dynamic relationship where a church or individual and the missionary pray for one another and communicate regularly. Visit www.umcmission.org to find out more.

Mount Eagle Christian Center, Inc.

Greetings from Mount Eagle, a retreat center of the Arkansas Annual Conference located near Shirley, AR. It is here that approximately 2167 people came in 2016 to relax, renew and be refreshed for ministry as disciples of Jesus Christ. 1823 United Methodist users, 114 UM groups and 34 other groups and 711 other users. Our mission is to provide Christian hospitality and opportunities for holy listening for all. The year round programs here are focused on adults, youth, and families.

In 2016 we provided sacred space for local church leadership retreats, Sunday school classes, youth groups, men's and women's groups, confirmation classes, Local Pastor Licensing School, Residence in Ministry, Conference Staff Retreat, conference events, quilting groups, scrapbooking, Emmaus Leadership Retreat, family reunions, personnel retreats, pastoral retreat and many mission teams from many states and many different countries. People worshipped, walked the meditation trail, labyrinth, hiked to Bear Cave, Turkey Cave, visited Boat Chapel, walked to the Little Red River, shared meals and fellowshipped together. Some just took that time to be alone with God and allow his voice to resonate in their whole being.

Thanks go out to all those that have provided mission and service to Mount Eagle in 2016. Whether you were here on a retreat or just came to help with a project, provided financial support, you have been a vital part of the ministry of Mount Eagle. This is a list of some projects: repair and paint decks, make new signage throughout, pressure washed decks, cut and split firewood, mulch tree limbs, mulch paths, built raised vegetable beds for our garden, picked and ate the produces from that garden, and many other numerous projects. Your willingness to serve has been greatly appreciated.

Partnerships are a very important part of the ministry of Mount Eagle. Thanks to the NOMADS organization and our Arkansas NOMADS, a group of retired United Methodists with RVs, for providing invaluable service and skilled labor. We received a grant from the NOMADS organization to purchase building materials for their 3 week Spring project. That project was the building of our new Hermitage Cabin that we are building overlooking the pond by the Allen Bruner Campground. Upon completion, the foundation, water lines, and septic system will be all the paid contract labor provided to complete this project. Volunteers from many churches came to help out and give of their time and talents to complete the project. The project is scheduled for completion March 31, 2017.

We received a grant in 2016 from the Conference Camping and Retreat Ministry and those funds were used for two purposes. Part of it went to help with the cost of the Hermitage cabin and the rest went to fund a retreat for Serenity Ridge, our Celebrate Recovery weekend for men in recovery from different addictions. There were 40 men participating or in a support role for those attending. Men from Clinton, Hot Springs Village, Donaldson, and Sheridan, AR. were a part of this retreat. Men from Clinton UMC and Holiday Hill UMC were part of this amazing weekend. Plans are already being made for the same retreat for 2017, anticipating 60 men this year.

In 2016 we hosted a retreat for The CALL of several neighboring counties. This is a Christian foster parent organization that works with the Arkansas DCFS office to provide care for children are placed in foster care in the state of Arkansas. 8 families from Cleburne County The CALL have attended this retreat over the last two years. Van Buren and Stone County have been unable to attend but through new partnerships, several families are planning to attend the 2017 retreat. This is a great opportunity for Mount Eagle to partner in ministry together with these great folks of The CALL as they minister to the children in DCFS in Arkansas

New to Mount Eagle in 2017 will be the addition of the Hermitage Cabin. This is a small secluded cabin that sits in a very serene location overlooking a small pond where deer, turkey, wood ducks, and other animals come to water. The view of the valley will be amazing. It is designed for 1-2 people to disconnect from the stresses of life and reconnect with God. It has a kitchen, small dining table, recliner chairs, full bathroom, bedroom with queen bed, and a 160 square foot screened in back deck with rocking chairs. Take advantage of this and get your time away scheduled for the new cabin.

We are thankful for the blessing of 2016 and look with anticipation for new opportunities in 2017. New programming for 2017 will be our Women's Retreat called "Sweet Life Café" to be held October6-8. We are looking forward to having our Silent Centering Prayer Retreat May 7-10 and Oct. 22-25. Pastor Golf Retreat is April 30 – May 1, The CALL in August, and through a joint effort of Clinton UMC, Holiday Hills UMC, Mount Eagle, and the Church of Christ Clinton, we will again host Serenity House Celebrate Recovery Retreat for men with plans to minister to 60 men this year.

We look forward to partnering in 2017 with our greatest partner, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Mike "Sarge" Leonard, Director

United Methodist Men

The 2017 Arkansas Annual Conference marked the start to the revitalization of United Methodist Men as a whole in the state of Arkansas. I have been allowed the opportunity to lead the charge in bringing UMM back to the forefront. As I stated in my presentation during conference, we are forming a partnership with Project L.O.V.E to help mentor children who lack parental influence. When I was first approached with this idea, I knew right out of the gate that this was something that men from all over the state could be a part of. My hope is that through the participation in this program, churches will begin to form UMM groups or strengthen current groups. This partnership with Project L.O.V.E is just the beginning. I along with others in the conference hope to come up with more ideas to bring fresh new faces to UMM groups all over the state. I had the opportunity to attend the 12th National Gathering of UMM in Indianapolis, Indiana. The gathering was at St. Luke's UMC. The event was a wonderful experience and gave me the chance to be with men that were truly filled with the Holy Spirit. We are called to be the hands and feet of Christ. We as men are called to be the leaders of not only our communities but also of our families. We as men grow stronger in life and faith when we are around each other. We feed off each other, lean on each other, and become one with each other. I know that this is the first step into a lifelong journey together in the faith. Please join me and let's go out into the world and make disciples for Jesus Christ. Thanks Be to God,

Will Faulkner, President,
Arkansas Conference of UMM

This legacy was passed on to us from the organizers and every generation that followed them. As our 150th anniversary approaches on March 23, 2019, we ponder the legacy we will leave. The Legacy Fund is an opportunity to put faith, hope and love into action. The Legacy Fund is an endowment to ensure the work of United Methodist Women for the next 150 years.

- The Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women have pledged $215,000 to United Methodist Women for national and international mission work in 2017.
- Seven United Methodist Women from Arkansas attended Leadership Development Days sponsored by the National Organization in Tempe, Arizona in November. This event was excellent training in developing leadership skills.
- Local United Methodist Women units continue to be involved in numerous local community mission projects as well as supporting national and international mission needs.
- The five districts are involved in establishing communication with each local unit. The United Methodist Women would love to have a unit in every church in the conference.

Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministry

Our Conference Council on Youth Ministry has had a very successful year. Our events have encouraged our youth to develop stronger relationships with each other and with Christ through the leadership, fellowship, and service opportunities these events have provided.

This year, our media task force has utilized social media to increase attendance and excitement for our events, as well as provide highlights for people who did not attend. A large part of Veritas was livestreamed, and all of our events were documented and shared on Instagram and Facebook. Our media task force displays many leadership skills as they communicate with the other task forces to meet their needs as well as problem solve any issues at our events.

The Youth Service Fund, or YSF, continues to help churches and organizations locally and globally. This year it raised $6,150. Grants were made to our Mitto task force, Asbury UMC, Hope UMC, Greenbrier FUMC, Methodist Family Health, and Ozark Mission Project.

Over the past several years, our junior high event, Refuge has been held at Shepherd of the Ozarks and has swelled in attendance. Last year, we decided to host the same event with the same talent, speaker, and location on two weekends back to back. We had nearly all spots filled both weekends. Refuge was a huge success!

Shortly after Refuge, CCYM put on Mitto, hosted at St. James in Little Rock. Mitto gave smaller youth groups an opportunity to have a weekend of mission and learn about service so they can take it back to their local communities and churches. In the past, Mitto has struggled in attendance but this year we are brought the numbers up and had a successful and powerful weekend.

After Mitto, CCYM hosted its largest event, Veritas. It was held at the John Q. Hammons Convention Center in Rogers. This event had over 1,300 attendees. It was a huge success. This year's theme was "Move" encouraging youth to remove negativity from their lives, learn to move with God, and eventually move out of their comfort zones and into the world. Our task force discovered our speaker, Samuel Yuen at last year's Annual Conference, where we also discovered Hannah Foust. Hannah lead a workshop on Saturday afternoon and ended the event with a convicting call to action for the youth of the Arkansas Conference.

As we move into summer, CCYM still has big plans. Choir Tour lead a series of amazing worship services throughout the state, after spending months rehearsing. Now, Assembly is coming up. This year it will be July 24-28 at Hendrix College. Assembly is an event for 7-12 graders and provides a great opportunity to be in fellowship with youth from across the state, create new friendships, and grow closer to God in worship and small groups.

In closing, CCYM had an amazing year filled with blessings that have been amazing to watch. God is surely providing for the United Methodist youth of Arkansas. As 2017 President, I am filled with gratitude to God and this Conference for its focus on young people and the opportunities given to them. I'd like to thank every CCYM youth and adult for making this year possible and answering their call to serve Christ.

Lexie Burleson, President

Council on Youth & Young Adult Ministries

Youth Ministries

The goal of the ARUMC Youth Ministry area is to provide a network of resources, support, and education in order to create stronger youth ministries within the local church. Currently, the ARUMC Youth Ministry Resource Team is working on a few programs and events to help further this goal.

First, we are working on EQUIP 2017 which will be held at Pulaski Heights UMC on August 26. Our keynote speaker will be Rod Hocott who will be entering his 50th year in ministry in 2018. He will be sharing his experience and advice about longevity in ministry and avoiding burnout.

Second, our team will be launching The Mentor Network. This will be a system to pair youth workers with one another to provide short term mentorships for youth workers who are new to youth ministry, looking to work through a particular issue, or just needs a sounding board for new ideas.

Finally, the ARUMC Youth Ministries area works to continually provide support for local churches whether they are looking for a youth worker, need to train volunteers, need resources, etc.

Young Adult Ministries

The Young Adult Ministries area is in the process of beginning a new season of ministry. The Young Adult Council has begun meeting again and will be working to define the best way for the Young Adult Ministries to move forward within the conference.

The Young Adult Ministries, along with support from the UMFA, the Board of Higher Education, the Board of Discipleship, and MFSA will be sending 20 young adults to Washington DC to participate in the Global Board of Church and Society UM Seminar program in May 2017. They will spend the first 2 days of their trip learning about poverty, hunger and homelessness in the state of Arkansas and on a national level. They will learn about advocacy as a form of working for social justice. On the 3rd day they will use the skills learned in the seminar to visit with Arkansas congressmen and their staffs about these issues. The skills being taught in this seminar will be able to be used in a variety of settings once the young adults return to their local campuses and local churches. The trip will help them develop leadership skills, both specifically for social justice issues in their communities and more general skills that can be applied in any situation. In addition, the 200K Reasons Initiative will be involved in providing a liaison before, during and after the trip to help the young adults find ways to implement ideas and tools they learn in the seminar back in their local church and/or school. We look forward to offering similar opportunities for young adults in the future.

Connectional Reports

Africa University

Africa University ended 2016 poised to celebrate its Silver Jubilee and eager to embrace new opportunities for transformative ministry over the next 25 years.

The university community acknowledges, with heartfelt gratitude, the faithfulness and generosity of the Arkansas Conference in helping Africa University to realize its mission. We thank the congregations of the Arkansas Conference for investing 91.05 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2016.

Overall, the AUF achieved a high level of support within The United Methodist Church in 2016. Last year, the participation of local churches in connectional giving enabled 34 of the 56 United Methodist annual conferences in the United States to invest 100 percent or more of their asking to the AUF. In the Arkansas Conference, giving to the AUF increased by almost seven percent in 2016.

The ongoing support of the Arkansas Conference is vital and very meaningful to Africa University. Through Africa University, United Methodist congregations help young people to discover and sharpen their gifts for leadership. Students are equipped and they respond to the call to transform the world. Thanks to your generosity, the disciple-making mission of the global United Methodist Church is alive in the contributions of the university's 7,000+ graduates. More than 90 percent of these graduates are still in Africa, serving communities in 32 countries. Currently, more than two dozen Africa University graduates are missionaries in Africa, Latin America, Asia and Europe, under the auspices of the General Board of Global Ministries.

Great things are on the horizon for Africa University in the next quarter century. Your Africa University is continuing to evolve and serve by:

- Restructuring its academic units in order to remain relevant and provide a broader-based education to meet new demands in the African workforce.
- Providing leadership formation experiences and learning for more than 1,400 students from 26 African countries. Contrary to the norm for African higher education institutions, women represented more than half of the student body.
- Generating new knowledge and capacity to support peacebuilding and to improve food security, human rights, and leadership for the African continent.

As part of the observance of the 25th anniversary, we invite the individual members, congregations and districts of the Arkansas Conference to take time out in 2017 to celebrate their journey with Africa University. After all, this ministry draws its mandate, energy and capacity to transform from The United Methodist Church. Regardless of the challenges that arise, Arkansas United Methodists have been steadfast in their support for Africa University. United Methodists sustain this ministry together — praying, loving and sharing our blessings — and there is no other way that we could do it!

Please encourage your congregation to invest 100 percent of its asking to the AUF and other general church funds. Engage in a season of daily prayer for Africa University. Join Africa University's honorary alumni association. Consider hosting a special "AU@25" event or an Africa University Sunday in your local church or area. Use your event to increase awareness of Africa University's ministry and invite attendees to each give $25 each in honor of the 25th anniversary. Let these celebrations affirm and re-energize the longstanding partnership between the Arkansas Conference and Africa University.

Thank you for your unwavering response to the call to faith, hope, and transformation in the world.

We pray that blessings continue to abound for all who lead and serve in the Arkansas Conference.

EMORY | CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, over 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in Atlanta provides a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century. Simply put, there is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 17 degrees: seven single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and apply what they learn in real time. We've also partnered with the University of Georgia's School of Social Work to create an MDiv/MSW where students learn to maximize their effectiveness by combining pastoral skills such as spiritual counseling with social work practices such as family therapy and community assessment.

Our student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. 475 students are enrolled, with 51 percent women, 34 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. 83 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2016-2017, we awarded nearly $5.75 million in Candler scholarships, with 95 percent of MDiv students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 73 percent of tuition. Plus, our comprehensive "Faith & Finance" program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

In fall of 2016, Candler welcomed to the faculty Larry Goodpaster as Bishop-in-Residence, and Kendall Soulen as Professor of Systematic Theology. Also this fall, three Candler alumni began their terms as newly elected bishops in the Southeastern Jurisdiction: David Graves 90T in Alabama-West Florida, R. Lawson Bryan 75T 85T in South Georgia, and Sue Haupert-Johnson 95T in North Georgia.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Hendrix College

The place God calls you is where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet.
-Frederick Buechner

The vision of Hendrix College founder, Reverend Isham Burrow, in providing quality higher education for students as they discern where God is calling them to work and serve in the world continues to be a vital part of our ongoing mission. Throughout the history of Methodism, more than 1,200 Methodist colleges were established. Today, 119 United Methodist institutions of higher education remain in the United States, and Hendrix College is proud to be one of them. Recognized widely as one of the best liberal arts colleges in the country, we are grateful for the support of the Arkansas Annual Conference and its continued relationship with Hendrix. We remain committed to educating the "whole person," enabling our students to lead lives of fulfillment, joy, and service to the church and beyond. We aim to create a space where future lay and clergy leaders may enjoy academic freedom among a diverse student body as well as deepen discipleship through our religious life programs. And, we are privileged to share the journey with students as they discover their gifts and uncover their passions to best serve God's world.

I have enjoyed the finest barbeque that Arkansas has to offer as I continue the tour through Arkansas United Methodist Churches that began in 2014. Thank you for allowing me to share with you what I love about Hendrix and to catch a glimpse of the gracious hospitality of Arkansas United Methodists.

Ministry / Seminary Exploration

- Since 2004, 46 Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary with 60% of these students attending UM seminaries.
- Eleven recent alumni are currently in seminary.
- In the next two years, we anticipate nine students will enroll in seminary. These are students from the next two year's graduating classes.
- In the next four years, we anticipate fifteen students will enroll in seminary.
- Approximately twelve students who are discerning ministry meet each week in Exploring Ministry Together (EMT), a program through the Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling
- The Miller Center provides travel funds to visit a seminary. Approximately twelve students take advantage of this program each year.

Through generous grants from the Eli Lilly Foundation and because of the college's commitment to young adults discerning vocation, Hendrix has been awarded two grants to foster young people in ministry. The "Hendrix Youth Institute" will have its second year this summer with 25 youth from the South Central Jurisdiction attending a week of religious study, shadowing local clergy, engaging in worship, small group bible study, service work, and ending with a mission trip to Eleuthera Island in the Bahamas. The "Institute for Clergy and Civic Engagement" hosts 8 clergy who are Hendrix College alumni, 5 -10 years out of seminary, to engage with church leaders across the United States who are meeting the needs of the mission field and are public theologians in their communities. We are excited that Hendrix can be a part of a minister's journey, from the formation of that call until its completion in a local church.

Religious Life

- The UMYF Leadership Scholarship Program is completing its 22nd year. Currently 33 students participate who will eventually join over 160 alumni from the program.
- More than 425 UM churches in all five districts have had Hendrix students assist with worship services in the past 22 years.
- More than 150 students participate in weekly programming enhanced by funding from the Miller Center including weekly worship and communion, small groups for discipleship, Thursday fellowship dinners, and Bonhoeffer House, an intentional Christian community that lives in one of the residence halls on campus.
- This year, 45 Students applied for 3 planned Miller Center Service Trips to Eleuthera Island in the Bahamas, Washington, DC, and Birmingham, AL.

Use of Hendrix Space/Church Relations

- United Methodist groups that the College hosts for no rental fee include the Arkansas Conference Course of Studies, Arkansas United Methodist Conference Historical Society, Board of Higher Education & Ministry, and local UM church staff meetings.
- The College also dedicates a display case in the Student Life and Technology Building to Methodist artifacts to remind the students, faculty and staff of the historic connection.
- In 2017, Hendrix will continue to host the Jr. & Sr. High Assemblies for the Conference Youth.

Continuing Education / Lectures

- This year on campus, the College hosted Dr. Amy-Jill Levine, professor of New Testament Studies of Vanderbilt Divinity School for the annual John and Marjem Gill Preaching Workshop.

Funding Received from Outside sources for religious life and ministry support

- An endowed gift from the John Workman family for a summer internship in churches, non-profits, or journalism.
- An endowed gift from the Wilder family to establish an internship in churches and non-profit agencies.
- Grants from the Lilly Foundation (listed above) for United Methodist youth who are discerning a call to ministry and clergy who are 5-10 years out of seminary.
- A gift from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas to support students in discerning a call into ordained ministry. UMFA's gift is used to reimburse students for travel costs to visit a United Methodist seminary, have a retreat for ministry discernment, and a service trip.

Financial Aid/Enrollment

- For the 2016 calendar year, the College received $272,707.00 from the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, with 100% of the church apportionment going toward student scholarships.

- Annually, the College provides more than $4.6 million in financial assistance to United Methodist students.
- Of the $4.6 million dollars, the College annually provides more than $144,000 directly to the three specific groups of Methodist students:
  1) UMYF Leadership Scholars, 2) UM clergy dependents at a one half tuition discount, 3) UM students who are candidates for ordained ministry.
- Annually, the College provides financially for the Office of the Chaplain for religious life programming.
- The College sponsored a UMYF Prospective Student Day for the seventh consecutive year.
- For the past few years, Hendrix has enrolled an average of 670 Arkansas students each year. The number of students from Arkansas has increased over the past few years.
- In the fall of 2014, the College launched the Arkansas Advantage Scholarship, which guarantees to meet all of the demonstrated financial need of qualified Arkansas Students.

Hendrix College remains committed to ensuring that all qualified students have access to a Hendrix education, regardless of their family's financial circumstances. The amount of money needed to fund scholarships and financial aid for our students continues to increase each year. This year, Hendrix is providing more than $38 million in student scholarships and financial aid. Our budget for student financial assistance has doubled in the past four years in response to the growing need of students and their families for assistance with financing a college education.

The College deeply appreciates its relationship with the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Rev. Burrow's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity, spiritual formation, and vocational discernment. We are grateful for the many ways in which the United Methodist Churches of Arkansas support Hendrix, including your apportionment gifts that go directly to students to provide financial assistance that ensures access to our strong academic program, the Miller Center, a wide range of religious life and spiritual formation opportunities, and the UMYF Leadership Scholars Program. Thank you for your continued support of Hendrix.

Sincerely,

William Tsutsui

Lydia Patterson Institute

Every year, Lydia Patterson institute (LPI) becomes a stronger ministry of the United Methodist Church with its eternal mission of changing lives and serving as a catalyst from despair to optimism through knowledge and faith. At least 400 lives are being touched daily. Students are prepared for a life of higher education, and many are brought to Jesus Christ with a promise to Christian service.

Three years ago, LPI added a middle school to its already highly successful high school program.

With `the addition of the 7th and 8th grades came the integration of the latest state-of-the-art technology available for the classroom. The 9th and 10th grades were upgraded last year, and the 11th and 12th grades were completed this school year. This makes our school the only one in the El Paso area totally technologically operated with Smartboards and E-Pads in every classroom and ebooks in every subject.

The mission of Lydia Patterson is to form bilingual leaders for both church and society, and to provide them with the tools to break the cycle of poverty and make a better life for themselves and their families. This past school year, we graduated 83 seniors. All are in college today. On graduation night, we announced a total of $1.6 million in scholarships from United Methodists colleges and universities alone. Our connection with other United Methodist institutions merits mention as to the success of our ministry.

Our job is to help students and their families move forward towards a higher socio-economic level. The challenges are plentiful, but we meet them with faith and optimism. Economic conditions across the border hinder the economic abilities of our parents. This year, the price of gasoline was doubled, and the Mexican peso is in a constant state of devaluation. The effect of the downturn is a need for more scholarships to support our students.

Lydia Patterson Institute, your mission on the U. S. –Mexico border is a promise of hope to those fearing the uncertainties of border issues and the threats of deportation. At a time where politicians and government officials talk about building fences or higher walls, Lydia Patterson is building taller bridges between the two countries to bring families to more equitable means of living, and preparing its students to serve both sides of the border with dignity and integrity in a bi-national setting. We strive to form the bilingual leaders of tomorrow and our next generation of disciples for the transformation of a world of peace and harmony on our U. S. – Mexico borders and beyond.

Thank you for being a part of this redemptive ministry and for joining us in making it a vital one for the next 100 years. Our appreciation goes out to the Bishop and every United Methodist church in this conference and all those who support us with their dollars and their prayers. We extend a warm invitation to visit our campus, whether in a mission tour, work team, or personal stopover, and experience firsthand the life of one of the greatest ministries of the United Methodist Church.

Respectfully,
Socorro de Anda, President

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Memphis Theological Seminary

Memphis Theological Seminary is pleased to report that theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward looking. Beginning in the Fall Semester of 2016, Dr. Michael Turner began his appointment as Associate Professor of Wesleyan Studies. Dr. Turner holds the Ph.D. degree from Vanderbilt University in Church History with a focus upon nineteenth century American Methodism. He teaches all the required UMC courses for ordination (Elder and Deacon) in Methodist History, Doctrine, and Polity in addition to a variety of electives in the field of Wesleyan Studies. He has already made a significant contribution to the Seminary and to United Methodist students in particular, teaching and advising UMC students and extending the reach of the Seminary and of Methodism into area churches, districts, and Annual Conferences through short-term courses and seminars.

The Methodist House of Studies at MTS is giving new focus to Wesleyan studies at the Seminary and within the surrounding Annual Conferences that we serve. Six graduating students in 2016 earned the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies, which requires a minimum of five courses focused upon Wesleyan related history, theology, and practice. The Methodist House provides support for all of our UMC students at MTS by regular gatherings for fellowship and mutual learning. Additionally, the Methodist House has sponsored training for clergy covenant group leaders in the Tennessee and Memphis Annual Conferences during the past year. Currently we are developing a Continuing Education Certificate in Wesleyan Studies in partnership with the Mississippi Annual Conference. Dr. Lee Ramsey (Memphis Annual Conference), Dr. Michael Turner (Western North Carolina Annual Conference), and Rev. Billy Vaughan (Memphis Annual Conference) serve as the Directors and Associate Directors of the Methodist House of Studies. We are pleased that one of the pastoral leaders from the Arkansas Annual Conference, Rev. Aubrietta Jones, is serving on the Advisory Board of the Methodist House.

Enrollment among United Methodist students at MTS has levelled out and is beginning to increase since 2008. Currently, there are 60 United Methodist Students enrolled at MTS with the majority of those students concentrated in our Masters of Divinity Degree and our Masters of Arts in Youth Ministry. An additional 14 students are enrolled at MTS from the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, with whom we maintain close, supportive relations through the Methodist House of Studies.

We are grateful for the support of the Arkansas Annual Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Arkansas over the years. We appreciate the confidence that the Conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for Wesleyan studies at Memphis Theological Seminary. For ongoing information about the Methodist House of Studies, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. G. Lee Ramsey, Jr.
Methodist House of Studies, Director
Foster Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics

Methodist Family Health

Methodist Family Health is proud to be part of the United Methodist connectional system. Our roots are deep, going back to 1899 when the Methodists of Arkansas established the Methodist Orphanage to address the pressing needs of orphaned children. As society changed and the needs of children evolved, the orphanage became the Methodist Children's Home, which still operates today within the structure of Methodist Family Health.

Today's Methodist Family Health is a caring and effective provider of comprehensive behavioral and mental health care services to children, adolescents and families in Arkansas. Methodist Family Health is not only a healthcare organization but a mission that all United Methodists in Arkansas are encouraged to know about, to utilize, to support and to celebrate.

The mission of Methodist Family Health is to give the best possible care to those who may need our help and to treat the whole person: behaviorally, emotionally and spiritually. Methodist Family Health currently has more than 530 full- and part-time employees and serves thousands of clients daily. Programs and services are located in 21 cities across the state.

Methodist Family Health is staffed by highly trained individuals who function within a Continuum of Care that offers levels of care ranging from the most restrictive (acute psychiatric hospital care) to the least restrictive (outpatient counseling), while also providing all levels of intermediate care. We believe in a team approach to treatment that includes both client and family participation.

Methodist Family Health's nonprofit organizations currently provide care via a statewide network of therapeutic group homes, a behavioral hospital, residential treatment centers, emergency shelter, day treatment programs and counseling clinics.

- Therapeutic group homes provide a family-like setting in the community while, at the same time, offering necessary emotional and behavioral treatment. Each home provides care for up to 8 youth, ages 12 to 18. There are separate homes for boys and girls. Homes are located in Fayetteville, Heber Springs, Little Rock, Helena-West Helena, Magnolia, Searcy and Springdale.
- The 60-bed Methodist Behavioral Hospital in Maumelle serves children and adolescents ages 3 to 17 who are in need of highly coordinated care.
- Residential Treatment Centers are designed for children and adolescents ages 6 to 17 who are struggling with chronic issues. The goal of the centers, located in Little Rock and Bono, is to stabilize behavior and return the client to a less-restrictive environment. The two RTCs are equipped to care for a total of 65 boys and girls.
- The Emergency Shelter offers a nurturing environment for up to 5 children ages 6 to 18 who are in the custody of the state Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) and have nowhere else to go. The shelter is located in Little Rock and can also serve as a temporary placement for DCFS youth who are awaiting a more permanent placement.
- Therapeutic Day Treatment programs are located in Benton and Little Rock. Each of the schools within this program serve up to 60 children, from kindergarten to 12th grade, who are unable to perform in a regular academic setting and are in need of additional educational, behavioral and emotional support to be successful.
- Methodist Counseling Clinic is an outpatient program that offers individual, group and family counseling services, psychological testing, psychiatric assessments, medication management and other therapeutic services. Clinics are located in Alma, Batesville, Cherokee Village, Fayetteville, Heber Springs, Hot Springs, Jonesboro, Little Rock and Magnolia. School-based counseling services are located in Harrisburg, Hot Springs, Jonesboro, Lincoln, Nettleton, Van Buren County, Vilonia and White County.
- Additional specialized programs within the Methodist Family Health Continuum of Care include: Arkansas CARES (Center for Addictions, Research, Education and Service), which offers treatment for women with mental health and substance abuse disorders and their children under age 12; and Kaleidoscope Grief Center, which offers therapy, education and activities for grieving children, teens and their families. Both are located in Little Rock.

All programs use the Teaching-Family Model, a highly structured treatment approach proven to be effective with troubled children. The model uses positive, non-punitive interactions to encourage behavior change and achieve positive outcomes. Methodist Family Health is the only behavioral healthcare system in the state that uses the Teaching-Family Model.

Pastoral care is an important aspect of the care we offer. Methodist Family Health offers Bible studies, spirituality services, devotionals and many special events. Our Bible Fund makes a Bible available to every client who wishes to receive one. We are blessed by the pastoral leadership of Rev. Scott Moore, chaplain, and Bishop Kenneth W. Hicks, director of ministries, and the ongoing support of United Methodist clergy and laity all across the state. We are very grateful that congregations throughout Arkansas continue to be welcoming and nurturing friends to the young clients in our many programs.

Methodist Family Health receives no apportioned funds from the Arkansas Conference, thus the direct support of United Methodist congregations and individuals is crucial. We deeply appreciate the support congregations around the state have shown, through gifts (both in-kind and monetary), volunteerism, and caring for and nurturing children in our care. We appreciate the Arkansas Conference for designating Methodist Family Health as a "supported organization" of the conference and allowing us to tell the story of Methodist Family Health and collect a special offering in churches each December.

Generous donors made the following activities possible for our children and youth last year:

For those churches, church groups and individuals interested in learning more about how they can partner with us and support our efforts to make a difference in the lives of children and families in Arkansas, consider these opportunities:

- Encourage your church's participation in the annual Christmas Campaign and special offering in December and make an annual contribution.
- Be an Ambassador for Methodist Family Health in your church and community. We need local representatives to make sure parishioners know about Methodist Family Health, our programs, services and special events. For more about the Ambassador program, contact Maggie Beeler at mbeeler@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4220.
- Invite a representative of Methodist Family Health to speak to your congregation, class or church gathering. Maggie Beeler can help with that also.
- Give to the Rev. Robert Regnier Memorial Camp Fund that allows children in our care to enjoy a summer camp experience and the beauty of Camp Tanako. Support the MFH Bible Fund that makes a Bible available to every child, teen and mother who enters a Methodist Family Health residential program. Contact Carolyn McCone at cmccone@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4202, or give online at www.methodistfamily.org.
- Join the Get Up & Give collection drive during Lent and collect necessity, recreational and activity items for our children and youth. Contact Jane Dennis for details at jdennis@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4210.
- Take part in the newest event of 2017: Bright Night, coming up August 4. This exciting new event at Little Rock's Big Rock Fun Park will offer a variety of fun games and activities for youth groups, church groups and the whole family. It will be a celebration of Methodist Family Health and our many amazing supporters. Denise Luft is the contact at dluft@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4201.
- To learn more about volunteer opportunities, immediate needs and ways to support Methodist Family Health, ask Jamie Griffith at jgriffith@methodistfamily.org or 501.906.4209.

We are extremely proud to be caring for Arkansas' children and families and carrying on the tradition that Methodists of Arkansas began more than 118 years ago. Our hope is that United Methodists across the state consider Methodist Family Health a valuable resource, partner in ministry and extension of their local church outreach to children and families.

Andy Altom, President & CEO

Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare

At Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare, our mission is this: in partnership with our medical staffs, to collaborate with patients and their families to be the leader in providing high quality, cost-effective patient-and-family-centered care. Services will be provided in a manner which supports the health ministries and Social Principles of the United Methodist Church to benefit the communities we serve.

With 1,650 licensed beds and 63,655 inpatient discharges in 2016, we provided care for 386,217 emergency department visits. MLH is the second largest private employer in our community, employing nearly 14,000 associates, including 3,500 nurses. Our clinical areas of focus include cardiology, oncology, neurosciences, women's services, pediatrics, and transplant services. Our work is grounded in our mission. As a faith-based institution, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church challenge us to establish an environment where the community provides potential for nurturing human beings into the fullness of their humanity and faith. We believe we have a responsibility to innovate, sponsor and evaluate new forms of community that will encourage development of the fullest potential in individuals.

Leading MLH in this mission is our President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Ugwueke, who assumed his current role in January 2017. Michael takes over for Gary Shorb, who retired from MLH in December 2016. Michael assumed the role of president and chief operating officer of Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare in May 2014. For the year prior, he served as COO of Methodist. As COO, he provided strategic and operational leadership for the system's five adult inpatient hospitals and affiliated companies. Ugwueke previously served as senior vice president for Methodist North and South Hospitals. Michael's leadership of two hospitals allowed a more rapid transfer of best practices and an increase in system-wide standardization. Prior to assuming this role, he served as administrator/CEO of Methodist South Hospital.

MLH celebrates many recent accomplishments, including recognition by Fortune magazine as one of the 100 best companies to work for in the nation. MLH was again recognized by U.S. News & World Report as a "Best Regional Hospital", while Le Bonheur Children's Hospital was named a "Best Children's Hospital." Also, Le Bonheur Children's has officially been designated as a Magnet hospital by the American Nursing Credentialing Center. The Magnet designation is a distinction that only 7% of hospitals in the country have earned, and this achievement is a testament to the exceptional care that distinguishes Le Bonheur and Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare.

Our Faith & Health Division continues to provide significant and innovative service and programming. Our Congregational Health Network works with nearly 700 congregations in a covenant relationship to educate, serve, and minister to congregants and their communities, promoting better health outcomes. Our Faith and Health team is addressing disparities of care in many areas. In collaboration with partners like West Cancer Center, Church Health, and others, we are serving the underserved and offering healing and hope to those who need it most. We have made particular strides in the fight against cancer and in addressing the health and community needs of citizens who live in the 38109 zip code. We continue our work with the Emory Center for Ethics Consortium as we pay attention to the vital role of ethics in healthcare decision-making. Also, providing skilled and compassionate spiritual care is still central to our mission. Throughout MLH, our team of chaplains cares for patients, families, and associates, and we also operate a fully accredited Clinical Pastoral Education Center. We continue to provide counseling and care through our Employee Assistance Program, and we connect with students and professionals at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center through the work of the Faith Health Collaborative.

We are deeply appreciative of the support of the Church and the three annual conferences who birthed us and continue to be vital partners. The healing ministry of Christ continues to be at our center.

- Both facilities have charitable contribution accounts as follows:
    1. Methodist Village and Methodist Health & Rehab each has one account which is set up for general contributions used for the purchase of needed equipment and general needs of the facility.
    2. Methodist Health & Rehab has four accounts:
       (a) Endowment Account used for improv-

Ozark Mission Project

Ozark Mission Project (OMP) is committed to a student leadership model, where young adults in college and graduate school lead our summer programs. We believe in this leadership model because it is powerful for campers to see and interact with Christian role models who are close to their own age. Over our 31 years of ministry, we've had many of our college leaders receive a calling to go into full-time ministry because of the experience they had at Ozark Mission Project. Our past and present college leaders have helped transform lives through sharing the love of Jesus with our campers and neighbors.

At OMP campers have the opportunity to do construction, painting, minor repair, yard work or partner with a local nonprofit in their community. We try to help our students understand that camp isn't about the project or for our own glory, but about building relationships with our neighbors through service, while spreading God's love. This past summer, we hosted 41 mission teams, which represented groups from Arkansas and Colorado.

This January, we had 90 college students travel to Baton Rouge to help with flood relief. These students from Wesley Foundations across our state experienced ministry with Revive 225, a ministry of First United Methodist Church of Baton Rouge. The group worked at 11 different homes, serving a total of 40 individual neighbors.

Because of the impact missions has made on our middle school, high school and college age volunteers, we decided to launch OMP 101. Through our partnership with St. Paul UMC in Little Rock, this camp will be 3 days for children that have completed the 4th and 5th grade. At our children's camp, we use hands-on mission education to show them that no matter their age, they too can be a part of God's amazing work. Each year's mission theme educates children about new places and people groups, with a focus on how to be a good neighbor.

In Matthew 25:40, Jesus calls us to serve the least of these. Many times the families our campers serve don't have the physical or financial resources to do the projects themselves. Thankfully, because of our volunteer camp directors, college staff and volunteer staff, we are able to visit each neighbor and offer assistance.

If your church partners with us, THANK YOU. We hope to add more partners every year and expand our volunteer teams. We have a place for you at Ozark Mission Project. Some of our volunteer opportunities include cooking, construction, music, worship, design, programing and serving on our prayer teams.

For more information about becoming a host church, volunteering or sending a group to OMP, visit our website at ozarkmissionproject.org or call 501-664-3232.

Perkins School of Theology

Perkins celebrates our vital connections with the Arkansas Annual Conference:

- Two students affiliated with the Arkansas Conference are enrolled at Perkins, including: two Master of Divinity students.
- Qualifying students can receive $6,000 each in need-based aid.

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2016-17 academic year totals 342 students, of which more than two-thirds are United Methodist and more than 45 percent are ethnic minority students. Master's degree programs comprise approximately 51 percent male and 49 percent female students. The D.Min. program includes students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and Dallas. Our Ph.D. program has 32 students.

2016 HIGHLIGHTS

- Perkins welcomed the appointment of Dr. Craig C. Hill as Dean and Professor of New Testament. Dean Hill most recently served as Executive Director of the Doctor of Ministry and Master of Christian Practice programs at Duke, as well as Research Professor of Theological Pedagogy. Additionally, he served at, among other institutions, Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., Yale Divinity School, the University of Cambridge, England, and at seminaries in Moscow, Russia, and Seoul, South Korea.
- In looking ahead to its exciting and vibrant future, Perkins instituted the first formal market/marketing study undertaken by school in a decade. Working in conjunction with an external consulting group, the study is an effort to gauge feedback from Perkins alumni, students, faculty, staff and other key constituencies on how best to guide the school during its next phase forward. One essential component of that study was the creation of the Perkins Engagement Team, a group of key staff and faculty who meet every other week to generate ideas, formulate strategy and review progress related to Perkins' admissions, recruiting and marketing functions.
- Renowned biblical scholar N.T. Wright was the featured lecturer as Perkins hosted "Simply Wright: N.T. Wright at Perkins | SMU" on Nov. 15-17, 2016. Wright gave three nightly lectures, which were free to the public and drew more than 3,000 attendees, and directed workshops for the 120 conference attendees during the day. To date, videos of the three lectures have garnered more than 35,000 views on the Perkins YouTube channel.
- Dr. Carlos F. Cardoza-Orlandi, Professor of World Christianities and Mission Studies at Perkins, was appointed to serve as the director for the Doctor of Ministry Program at Perkins. He joined the Perkins faculty in July 2010, having previously served as Professor of World Christianity at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia,

- Bart Patton, who has nearly 20 years of experience in ministry, joined Perkins as its Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry Education. He provides oversight and strategic planning for Perkins' programs for high school youth and their families, young adults, and practitioners who work with these constituencies. Additionally, Patton will be the point person for connecting Perkins and SMU to church and community organizations that work with youth and their families and with young adults.
- Perkins, in conjunction with the Houston Methodist Hospital system, began offering seminars and courses to educate hospital staff and personnel on the role of theology and healing.

Perkins thanks our many colleagues, friends and alumni/ae across the connection for generous support in many ways, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and Peace,
Craig C. Hill
Dean and Professor of New Testament

Philander Smith College

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and students of Philander Smith College (PSC), I greet each of you as you gather for the Arkansas Annual Conference. Furthermore, we thank you for all you've done to aid us in our quest - to graduate academically accomplished students grounded as advocates for social justice determined to change the world for the better.

I am pleased to submit this report to the Arkansas United Methodist Annual Conference as an accounting of my stewardship as President and Chief Executive Officer of Philander Smith College. While this report will focus on the last twelve months specifically, it cannot be done without acknowledging that January 1, 2017 marked the start of my third year as the 14th President of Philander Smith College. In reflecting on my journey, I remain committed to the personal and professional ministry with which God has blessed me. As we move into the 140th Anniversary of our Dear PSC, I know that the mission of this great institution is more important now than ever. Our commitments to taking students from where they are, introducing them to our cultural norms (which include Respect for Self; Respect for Others; Respect for PSC; Leadership; Scholarship; Spirituality; and Service), and sending them out to be dynamic leaders and scholars remain our primary focus.

Priorities for United Methodist Conference Funding

The funds received by Philander Smith College were used to support the Office of Religious Life and Weekly Chapel Services. Philander Smith College is moving forward with a Campus Culture Transformative Initiative. The College budgeted $75,000 this past year for the Initiative. The budget included scholarships, programs and seminars. The College continues to use funds from the Conference to implement community health fairs and domestic violence seminars in the Philander Smith College Community.

1. Philander Smith College Campus Culture Transformative Initiative (CCTI): The Philander Smith College Campus Culture Initiative creates a culture of high performance and high expectations with a campus wide persistence of spiritual values, mutual respect, and appreciation of differences. The CCTI facilitates campus-wide assessment of perceptions, morals, values and willingness to change and focuses on the following:

- Modeling Christ-Like Values and Principles
- The Evolution of the Philander Man and the Philander Woman
- Creating a Servant Leadership and Discipleship Model
- The Urbanization of Spirituality in a 21st Century Liberal Arts Environment
- Developing a PSC Ambassadors Program

PSC is committed to providing a broader foundation for its students to meet the challenges of the 21st Century. Through the CCTI, PSC redresses the imbalances in our society caused by a growing individualism, mistrust, failure to collaborate, fear of differences, and the absence of spiritual connections. Philander Smith College has adopted Seven Timeless Human Values which the students, faculty, staff, administration, and Board of Trustees strive to live by. These values are:

- Respect for Self
- Respect for Others
- Respect for PSC
- Scholarship
- Service
- Spirituality
- Leadership.

2. Scholarships for Students: Through this funding, PSC strives to create a diverse pool of scholarship funding that will not only be awarded to students based on academic merit and need, but also on potential for civic and community leadership and engagement, and entry into the Christian Ministry.

3. Ongoing Support of Religious Life Activities

- The Office of Religious Life
  - (a) Salaries & Benefits
  - (b) Weekly Chapel Services
  - (c) Sending Students to United Methodist Church Conferences
  - (d) Religious Emphasis Week
- Health Services/ Community Outreach
  - (a) Intramural Sports
  - (b) Community Health Fairs
  - (c) Domestic Violence Seminars
- Other
  - (a) Dollars for Scholars Program
  - (b) In-Kind Facility Usage
  - (c) Bless the Mic Lecture Series

Baccalaureate Services

Through the works of the Office of Religious Life, Philander Smith College exposes students, faculty, staff and the community to the teachings and unconditional love of Jesus Christ and the United Methodist Church. Weekly Chapel Services, community outreach (Hunger and Homelessness Awareness), and sending students on Seminary visits are just a few experiences our students are provided which strengthen their spiritual awareness. Currently, there are ten (10) Philander Smith College graduates who are African American Clergy.

Seventy-five (75) percent of students attending Philander Smith College are PELL Grant eligible. The average gross family income is less than $25,000. Philander Smith College gives students an opportunity. The strong religious emphasis and the nurturing care the students receive from the College build relationships which help the students to grow spiritually. Some students come to Philander without ever having attended church. Philander provides that opportunity for young adults to experience Jesus Christ for the first time. Philander welcomes students into a family and helps to build a foundation that young adults need.

Philander FORWARD:

Key Institutional Successes: The second year of my tenure as President of Philander Smith College has allowed us to focus broadly on what it will take to move Philander Forward. In accordance with our collective agreement to dream big for PSC, we set ambitious goals and achieve some amazing, even historic, milestones for the College. We have done so in the midst of unrelenting pressures and continual assaults against American higher education, Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), in particular. However, we are assured that God has placed us together for this appointed season and time under Heaven to do all the good we can through His power and might. We are moving Philander Forward, and I am pleased to share the following examples of how our Forward Movement continued to evolve during the period of January 1, 2016 – January 1, 2017:

• We successfully planned and implemented the first two Campus Culture Transformation Trainings for Faculty and Staff in partnership with the Auburn Theological Seminary.

• The College hosted a successful Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week in November 2016, which included the PSC Community packing over 5,000 meals through the Pack Shack Program and providing 148 food baskets to local families during the Thanksgiving Holiday.

• We accompanied a delegation of male students to the Arkansas Summit on the African American Male in October 2016, which engaged Black male students from Shorter College, University of Central Arkansas, University of Arkansas – Pine Bluff, Arkansas Baptist College, and Philander Smith College.

• We established the Office of Sponsored Programs and Undergraduate Research (S.P.U.R.), and appointed dedicated personnel to address PSC's efforts in these areas.

• The College hosted a successful Alumni Connection Event in the Dallas/Fort Worth Area in October 2016, which included a special performance by the Philander Smith Collegiate Choir at St. Andrews United Methodist Church and Hamilton Park United Methodist Church.

• The 2nd Annual President's Scholarship Gala was a tremendous success. Through these efforts, we raised $320,000 that will be earmarked for student scholarships.

• PSC received final approval and authorization from the Higher Learning Commission to officially launch our Online Criminal Justice Degree Program in partnership with Savant Learning Systems.

• We strengthened the Division of Education by taking action on several key items, which included:

1. filled key personnel vacancies
2. implemented a specialized program to support student success on the PRAXIS I Examination
3. increased the number of majors from four to twenty-one.

• The College secured nearly $30,000 in grant funding from the Roy and Christine Sturgis Charitable and Educational Trust.

• Philander is proud to have two students named Lina H. McCord Summer Interns for 2017. PSC Sophomore Russell Williams, III and PSC Junior Tiaara Anderson are among the eight student cohort for the 2017 Summer Intern Program.

• Over thirty student-athletes were recognized at the Athletic Academic Recognition Ceremony for achieving a grade point average of 3.0 or higher during the Fall 2016 Semester. Each student-athlete was recognized during a special ceremony held during the halftime of the January 23, 2017 Panther Basketball Games.

• Under the direction of Dr. Deidra A. Coleman, students RaQuedra Lee, a sophomore Biology major at PSC, and Craig Steele, Jr., a junior Mathematics major at PSC, had poster presentations accepted and will be presented at the 2017 Joint Mathematics Meetings in Atlanta, Georgia.

• Under the direction of Dr. Jocelyn Moore and Dr. Deidra A. Coleman, freshman Biology and Mathematics major Dustin Ford had poster presentations accepted at several national conferences. Dustin presented at the 2016 North Carolina at Greensboro Regional Mathematic and Statistic Conference, the 2017 Joint Mathematics Meetings in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Eighth Annual Undergraduate Research Conference at the Interface of Biology and Mathematics held at the National Institute for Mathematical and Biological Synthesis in Knoxville, Tennessee.

• PSC launched a new philander.edu website that offers an enhanced virtual experience for Philander Smith College.

• Hosted the 2nd Annual Legislative Reception with more than 25 Arkansas Legislators in attendance.

• Homecoming 2016 was one of the most successful PSC Homecomings in recent years! With a record number of alumni visiting throughout the week, game wins for both our Women's and Men's Teams, and over $50,000 in fundraising activity (as compared to approximately $27,000 in 2015), the week-long celebration was well received by current students and alumni.

• In our efforts to increase fundraising and friend-raising, we hosted a Donor Appreciation Reception at the home of Kaki Hockersmith in November 2016 with several key donors in attendance.

• Through our efforts in establishing Panther Village at South Campus, we successfully transitioned 56 students from the La Quinta Inn and Conference Center before the close of the Fall 2016 Semester.

• In working through a partnership with the Little Rock Police Department to provide a safer and more secure community around the campus perimeter, Philander Smith College is now the owner of one security vehicle that was graciously donated to us by the Little Rock Police Department.

• The College officially launched the first courses offered through our WISE-P3 Initiative on the main campus in Fall 2016.

• In the spirit of celebration and appreciation, for the first year in several years, we were able to issue a special Christmas gift to all faculty and staff. In addition, we issued special stipends to employees with 15 or more years of service.

• The Men's and Women's Basketball Teams dedicated one of our home basketball games to the Nehemiah House. Through these efforts, we collected and donated 11 bags of paper products for use by its residents.

• We implemented a formal mid-year budget review process to strengthen our accountability and responsibility in financial management.

• We received and accepted an invitation to speak at the annual Bishop's Club Luncheon and established membership.

• We witnessed the culmination of our 10-Year Long-Range Plan process, which received Board of Trustees Approval at the February 2017 Board Meeting.

• The College successfully hosted the Beta Class of the S.T.A.R.T. Summer Bridge Program in summer 2016. In its second year, the Program almost doubled in size with over 135 students participating (compared to 75 in the first year), with notable growth and the strongest success with students participating in the Christian Scholars Track.

• We are nearing the completion our work in Re-Imagining the Social Justice Institute at Philander Smith College. Using the mantra Social Justice 2.0, the re-imagined work is deeply rooted in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.

The educational mission of the UMC continues to be one of the most amazing aspects of the Church's Doctrine to learn and understand. My journey as a new President who leads a UMC Affiliated College has taken on new meaning. Over the last two years, I have learned at least four unique aspects of UMC Education and its commitment to HBCUs.

Fact 1 – It was during the 1866 Council of Bishops Meeting, one year after the passage of the Freedman's Act of 1865, that the Bishops passed legislation that promoted the establishment of institutions to educate newly freed slaves and their children.

Fact 2 – The passage of the Freedman's Aid Act resulted in the proliferation of 12 educational institutions to serve freedmen and their children. This ultimately led to the establishment of 12 Historically Black Colleges of the United Methodist Church (then the Methodist Church). Although there are only 11 remaining HBCUs affiliated with the UMC, this still represents the largest number of institutions of their type affiliated with any large organized church body.

Fact 3 – The Accreditation Process established by the United Methodist Church (The University Senate) served as the foundation for all regional accreditation agencies in the United States.

Fact 4 – The United Methodist Church is the only church body with a fund specifically designated to assist its HBCUs. This fund is titled —The Black College Fund which provides unrestricted support for the 11 UMC HBCUs. What amazing knowledge and information. The meeting also reaffirmed a number of salient issues facing the UMC today as it prepares for the upcoming General Conference.

There is truly a symbiotic relationship between the United Methodist Churches and Church-Related United Methodist Colleges and Universities. I have been honored, during my tenure as President, to experience the interconnectedness in a number of ways.

In this third year of leadership, I am pleased to report that Philander Smith College is, without doubt, Moving Forward. As an institution of higher education, our greatest assets are our students, faculty, staff and, ultimately, our alumni. The engine that will propel our journey FORWARD will be our imagination, innovation, ingenuity, creativity, and hard work, coupled with an entrepreneurial spirit, all hallmarks of PSC's 140 year history.

The path FORWARD calls for us to recruit and support the strongest student population possible. We will also need to make sure that we have, and adequately undergird, a world-class faculty. However, these elements alone will not ensure that our overall goals are achieved. Our desire to move FORWARD has led to the formulation of a comprehensive long-range strategic plan. This plan details precisely how we will achieve the heightened greatness to which we aspire. Additionally, it displays the roadmap that will ensure that we are moving with intention toward achieving our goals.

Saint Paul School of Theology

Saint Paul School of Theology

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. We are one institution with two campuses, in Kansas and Oklahoma.

This past 2015-2016 academic year, Saint Paul enrolled 168 students from 15 annual conferences and 5 countries on both campuses. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 194 students in three midwest locations. Course of Study will expand course offerings to Hays, Kansas beginning Fall 2017.

Rev. Neil B. Blair became president of the seminary July 2016. Blair is a 1980 Master of Divinity graduate of Saint Paul and an ordained elder. He most recently served as the Executive Director for Institutional Advancement for the UM General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

Saint Paul School of Theology and Oklahoma City University partnered to offer a 3+3 accelerated degree program. Under this arrangement, OCU students will complete 3 years of undergraduate studies in the pre-seminary track and begin their 4th year as an MDiv student at Saint Paul School of Theology. Students prepare for ordination/entry into ministry in six years instead of the usual seven, while earning both B.A. and M.Div. degrees. The accelerated program saves students time and money.

Saint Paul and The Academy for Spiritual Formation have partnered to offer a Doctor of Ministry (DMin) in Prophetic Witness and Service with an emphasis in Spiritual Formation. This is the first time a seminary has worked with The Academy for Spiritual Formation, a ministry of The Upper Room, to co-develop an advanced degree.

Saint Paul is also partnering with the Academy to host a 5-Day spiritual formation retreat with the theme "Draw the Circle Wide". The summer retreat includes community and individual reflection about how spiritual disciplines help develop our listening and global language of love. Dr. Amy Oden, Professor of Early Church History and Spirituality, is a lead organizer.

Rev. Casey Sigmon served as a visiting professor in a year-long professorship as part of the Vanderbilt program in Theology and Practice. Sigmon co-taught a preaching class with Dr. Mike Graves this fall and a course entitled, "Preaching in the Digital Age" based on her dissertation research this spring.

Saint Paul now offers a Certificate in Theological Formation. The certificate is 24 credit hours of courses all taught by Saint Paul faculty. Classes may be completed entirely online or through a combination of online and on-campus offerings.

Dr. Angela Sims' work in oral history preserves the memory of elder African Americans in her recently published book, Lynched: The Power of Memory in a Culture of Terror. Collaborative faculty books include Transforming Community: The Wesleyan Way to Missional Congregations by Saint Paul professor Dr. Hal Knight and Dr. F. Douglas Powe, Jr. and Coming Full Circle: Constructing Native Christian Theology by Saint Paul professor Dr. Elaine Robinson and Rev. Steven Charleston.

Saint Paul trustees, faculty, staff, and students thank you for your interest, prayers and support.

Southern Methodist University

More than 100 years ago the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, had the foresight to understand what a great institution of higher education could mean for the ambitious young city of Dallas. Southern Methodist University continues to mark exciting developments as students and faculty pursue opportunities that provide a platform for making global impact. Recent highlights include:

In fall 2016 SMU's total enrollment of 11,739 included 6,521 undergraduates and 5,218 graduate students. Ethnic minority students made up 26 percent of total enrollment. An international enrollment of 1,719 (more than 14 percent of total enrollment) represented 124 foreign countries.

SMU ranks among the nation's top universities. In the 2017 U.S. News & World Report listings, SMU ranks 56th among 310 of the "best national universities." Several individual schools and academic programs also earned national rankings.

SMU received $26 million in external funding during 2015-16 for research in the U.S. and worldwide. Current research subjects include water quality, natural hazards, cyber security and treatments for cancer and other diseases.

In January, SMU received a $2 million gift from SMU Trustee emeritus and longtime benefactor Cary M. Maguire to endow the directorship of SMU's Cary M. Maguire Center for Ethics and Public Responsibility. The Maguire Center supports ethics-related education and activities for students and faculty, as well as outreach to community, private and public institutions. Also in January, SMU received a $2.5 million gift from AT&T to endow the AT&T Center for Virtualization to fund its research to support the fast, reliable cloud-based telecommunications necessary for global connectivity. Announced in October, a $1.7 million grant from the Texas Instruments (TI) Foundation will help fund the STEM Teacher Academy at SMU's Simmons School of Education and Human Development to help Dallas ISD teachers develop methods for engaging students in science.

In July, Craig C. Hill became the new dean at SMU's Perkins School of Theology, after the former Dean William B. Lawrence retired in May. Hill came to SMU from Duke University, where he had served as executive director of the Doctor of Ministry and Master of Christian Practice programs and as research professor of theological pedagogy. Also in July, Maria Dixon Hall, associate professor of organizational communication and director of corporate communication and public affairs, was named as the provost's senior advisor for campus cultural intelligence initiatives. Hall leads the initiative to cultivate a campus culture that equips faculty, staff and students to engage with today's culturally complex world.

Frederick R. Chang, director of SMU's Darwin Deason Institute for Cyber Security in the Bobby B. Lyle School of Engineering, was elected to the National Academy of Engineering and inducted into the Academy of Medicine, Engineering and Science of Texas.

Sabri Ates, associate professor in SMU's Clements Department of History in Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, and Zachary Wallmark, assistant professor and chair of music history at SMU Meadows School of the Arts, received fellowship grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities – the only two recipients in North Texas from the current funding cycle.

In fall, SMU opened its new Dr. Bob Smith Health Center, which provides comprehensive medical care to students. The two-story building houses medical and counseling programs, a full-service pharmacy and SMU's health education program. Students returning to campus also celebrated a transformed Fondren Library, which includes new common spaces, study zones and a Starbucks.

SMU hosted inspirational speakers at its 2016 Commencement ceremonies. In May, Richard Templeton, SMU Board of Trustee member, and Texas Instruments CEO, with his wife, Mary Templeton, philanthropist and community volunteer, shared lessons learned from a swimming accident two and a half years ago that left Mrs. Templeton paralyzed. Mr. Templeton touted resiliency as a critical personal characteristic, and Mrs. Templeton challenged the graduates to jump into opportunities to make a difference as they begin their next life phase. In December, retired Dallas Police Chief David O. Brown, who gained national attention for his handling of a gunman's July 2016 ambush of five police officers, told the graduates, "you may be the next greatest generation of heroes in this country."

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas has a history of supporting events that enhance Conference ministries, from sponsorship of the Vernon and Eva Lee Paysinger Hunger Summit to leadership development scholarships for the Young Preachers Festival.

In addition to making grants to existing events, UMFA has begun to initiate its own events that add value to Arkansas Conference ministries. Rev. Mackey Yokem joined the UMFA staff as Grants Administrator to oversee and monitor Foundation grants and help coordinate sponsored events. New UMFA sponsored events include:

- Deciphering Discernment – A small group of clergy and lay leaders met last October to discuss how the Arkansas Conference can identify, recruit, and nurture new pastors through a coordinated effort so that UMFA can utilize its resources to aid that process in a wise and effective manner.
- Lydia Patterson Institute Tour – UMFA hosted a visit to Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, Texas, in February to explore ways to support the LPI capital campaign. The Institute is an educational organization of the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church.
- Clergy Pre-retirement Seminar – Arkansas pastors approaching the completion of their active ministry met April 3-4 to hear Dr. Keith Lawrence, author of Your Retirement Quest: 10 Secrets for Creating and Living a Fulfilling Retirement and representatives from WesPath who shared information on clergy retirement benefits and offered private consultation on retirement accounts.
- NAUMF Communications Conference – The UMFA will host communicators from United Methodist Foundations across the country in Little Rock on Sept. 14-15 to hear experts on public relations topics and share information on successful communications programs.
- A Conversation with Young Pastors – Rev. Adam Hamilton of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection (COR) in Leawood, Kansas, will hold a dialogue with young pastors from the Arkansas Conference in November.

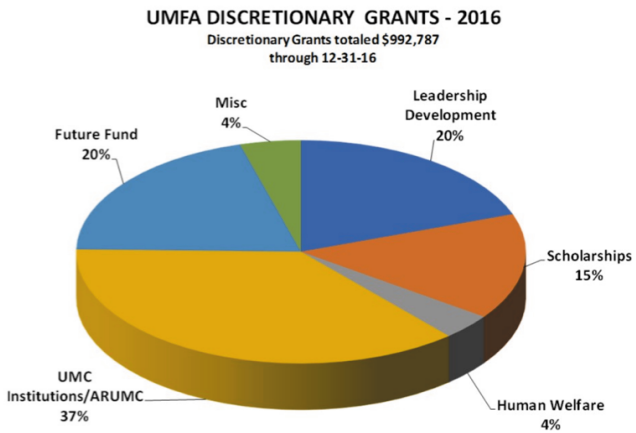
Continuing events led by UMFA include:

- Local Church Endowment Seminar – "Grow Your Endowment 101" was a UMFA-led meeting that helped local church leaders begin and enhance their endowment funds. The seminar was held April 27 in Little Rock.
- The UMFA Lawyers Conference –Little Rock attorney Bill Waddell leads a group of United Methodist attorneys who will gather for professional development that helps them provide guidance to their local congregations on legal matters on Sept. 21.
- Bishops' Club Luncheon – Keynote speaker for the Bishops' Club Luncheon, Nov. 17, will be Rev. Adam Hamilton. In addition to being senior pastor at COR, he is an author and nationally acclaimed speaker.

In addition, UMFA continues to fund Conference participation in key regional and national events like:

- Academy of Faith and Money – Last April eight clergy members attended the four-day event to enhance skills in managing church finances, raising capital funds, and leading church stewardship campaigns.
- UM Clergywomen Global Gathering – Clergywomen of the Arkansas United Methodist Conference attended the UM Clergywomen Global Gathering in Houston last August.
- COR Leadership Institute – For the fifth year, UMFA will provide funds for more than 100 clergy and lay members to attend the COR Leadership Institute to help jump-start local church ministries. This year's event is Sept. 27-29.

These events represent a small portion of the grants made by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. A total of $5.6 million in grants made during 2016 enhanced the ministries of the Arkansas Conference. Of this, $4.6 million was directed by donors to their specified United Methodist causes, and almost $1 million in discretionary grants was awarded by the UMFA Board.



The Foundation continues to conduct Provide and Protect seminars on estate planning, provide training on developing local church endowment funds, and visit local churches regarding investment management services. More than 15,000 United Methodists throughout the state receive the News You Can Use or GiftLaw e-newsletter and more that 16,000 receive the Legacies newsletter.

The assets entrusted to the Foundation by donors and clients are under the direction of the UMFA Board Financial Administration Committee. Experts at Wespath Investment Management, formerly named the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, have been engaged for the past five years to help guide investment activities. The year 2016 ended with more than $141 million in assets, up 6.4 percent from the past year, making us the nation's sixth largest United Methodist foundation.

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas is pleased to partner with individuals and institutions that have entrusted us with their funds and their faith in the future. Together we are enhancing United Methodist ministries in the Arkansas Conference through the enduring power of endowments.

United Theological Seminary

Where Dreams Take Flight

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, was founded in 1871 by Milton Wright, a Bishop in The Church of the United Brethren in Christ and father of aviation pioneers Wilbur and Orville Wright. The Wright brothers had a passionate dream of developing the first successful "flying machine." They experienced great difficulties, hardships and setbacks in achieving their dream. Through their determination and commitment, however, their dream eventually was fulfilled, and they were the first human beings to achieve sustained flight.

God often plants a vision or dream in someone's heart to become a full-time servant of Jesus Christ. In St. Peter's sermon on Pentecost, Peter quotes the prophet Joel who said, "God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams" (Acts 2:17). When God pours out the Spirit on someone and calls them into ministry, United seeks to partner with that person in helping them to grow spiritually and intellectually in achieving their God-given call and dream.

In the fall of 2016, 418 students enrolled at United to answer God's call and vision for their lives.[1] Our prayer is that God will use United to prepare these students to become faithful, fruitful and effective pastors and church leaders who make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. According to a recent survey, 86% of our graduates are either currently serving in local congregations or are retired from serving in local congregations.[2] United alumni/ae are making an impact.

On January 1, 2017, United celebrated the beginning of a new partnership in ministry with Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO). United has become an extension site for the Course of Study School of Ohio located at MTSO, providing a convenient hybrid program for part-time pastors pursuing a local pastor's license. Through United's Course of Study, pastors experience a Friday-Saturday weekend on campus and finish coursework online over the weeks that follow. Courses are offered four times per year.

If you feel God calling you to serve in any form of Christian ministry, we encourage you to go online to united.edu to discover the option that fits your ministry and calling. May God bless you as you respond to God's dream for your life to serve in either the ordained, commissioned or lay ministry.

1 Fall 2016 headcount of masters' and doctoral students enrolled in courses.

Memorials

Bryce Armstrong, 1927-2017

The Rev. Bryce Glen Armstrong, 89, passed away in Austin, Texas, on Jan. 13, 2017.

He was born June 11, 1927, on the family farm in Turtle Lake, Wisconsin, the son of Gus and Agnes Armstrong. Plowing and farm chores developed his strong work ethic and an ability to fix and build using whatever was available. Lifelong fun and brotherly banter with five sisters gave him plenty of reasons to travel "home" as often as he could. He was known for the warm interactions he brought to relationships, his radiant smile, a rich baritone voice, and his storytelling. Road trips around the country with long hours behind the wheel brought him joy—especially if he broke a gas mileage record! A delightful conversation with him almost always included weather updates and car tips.

God's call to the ordained ministry brought him to Indiana Central College and United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. His servant heart led, whether he was in a sanctuary or at a church camp. He grew disciples in Christ through his work in evangelism and pastoral care. His vibrant ministry served churches in Indiana (Montmorenci), Ohio (Yankeetown), and Wisconsin (Clintonville-New London, Neenah, Madison, Wauwatosa Avenue, Viroqua-Liberty Pole, Green Bay and Greenfield). His ministry actively lived on in retirement (Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin; Mammoth Springs and Hardy, Arkansas; and Austin, Texas). He was a member of the Saint John UMC Austin chancel choir, enjoyed tai chi at the church, the men's group and was active in the WOW Sunday school class. He fully retired at the age of 85, but most will say that his ministry ended as he drew his last breath.

Bryce is survived by wife, the Rev. Betty M. Armstrong, who served as a local pastor in the North Arkansas Conference at Mammoth Spring UMC; stepchildren Glenn (Nicole) McCulloch and Karen (John) Chilstrom; his children, Steven (Karen) Armstrong, Rebecca (Don) Zawadiwsky, Paul (Cynthia) Armstrong, Kevin (Rebecca) Armstrong and Brian (Elizabeth) Armstrong; 13 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. He also is survived by three sisters: Phyllis Yelle, Gloria Soldner and Joyce Nelson. Preceding him in death were his parents, his sisters Isabelle and Bernice, and stepson John.

Memorial services were held at St. John's UMC Austin, Texas, on Jan. 22, and at Cargill UMC Janesville, Wisconsin, on Jan. 28.

Charles Ashcraft, 1929-2016

The Rev. Charles Gary Ashcraft, 87, of Springdale passed away Nov. 21, 2016. He was BORN Jan. 10, 1929, in Stuttgart, Arkansas, the son of Walker Thomas and Frances Lee Gunnell Ashcraft.

He had also served in the United States Marine Corps.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Rosalie Hinshaw Ashcraft; and by his brother, Dr. Thomas Lee Ashcraft.

Ashcraft is survived by two sons, Charles "Gary" Ashcraft II and his wife, Deedra, of Springdale, and grandchildren Sarah and Walker; and Thomas "Mark" Ashcraft and his wife, Tammy, of Maricopa, Arizona, and grandchildren Salane, Staci and Sam.

A celebration of the Rev. Ashcraft's life was held Jan. 10, 2017, at the England United Methodist Church in England, Arkansas.

Merline is preceded in death by her husbands, Cornelius James Roberts and the Rev. William Harry Bass Sr., an ordained United Methodist elder who served in both the Little Rock, Wisconsin and North Arkansas Conferences; her parents, Porter Woodbury Sr. and Ida Lee Woodbury; and a brother, Porter Woodbury Jr.

He is survived by his loving wife, Gertrude; sons Paul (Martha McAfee), John (Mary Johnson) and Mark (whose live-in support was of immeasurable help); and daughter Pam (Cliff Obertuck), along with many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

San Diego, California, and North Brookfield, Massachusetts.

Melvin had a great love for the outdoors, especially enjoying water sports, sailing, motorcycling through the countryside, horseback riding and camping with Gertrude and the family. In his later years, he enjoyed gardening and making walking sticks, which have found their way into the hands of walkers and hikers from North Carolina to Texas.

Melvin began each day with early morning Bible reading and prayer, and attempted however imperfectly to respond to God's call in every aspect of his life. He treasured meeting people and will be greatly missed by his family and many friends who were blessed by his "one of a kind" personality, sense of humor, and devotion to the wellbeing and faith journeys of others.

Bob attended high school in Wood River, graduating in 1970. He subsequently attended Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri, on an R.O.T.C scholarship. While at Westminster, he met his wife of over 40 years, Mary Spencer Depper. They were married in 1975. Following college he served four years in the United States Army at Fort Knox, Kentucky. He began his career in the law in 1978, attending the University of Arkansas School of Law, Fayetteville, Arkansas. Following graduation in 1981, he joined the law firm of his late father-in-law, James V. Spencer, Jr., in El Dorado, Arkansas.

Faith and family were the foundation of Bob's life. He watched his wife, children and grandchildren grow in their personal lives and careers with such pride and excitement. He could be counted on for wisdom, courage and kindness in any situation. His family was not limited by blood. He welcomed friends with open arms to Depper family Christmases, Thanksgivings and beach vacations. He was known lovingly by those who knew him as Bobby D.

Bob's passion was the law. Above everything else, he sought justice for his clients. There was never a fight too difficult or legal issue too complicated. If someone was in need, Bob was more than willing to take on their case. He advocated for them zealously, while always maintaining his integrity as an officer of the court.

Even while focusing on his clients, Bob took time to work in his community. He coached many high school mock trial teams, taking joy in seeing young people learn and practice the law. He took on many cases pro bono and was active with the Arkansas Volunteer Lawyers for the Elderly. As a member of First United Methodist Church, he worked with the youth. They referred to him as B-O-B. He was on several committees, and enjoyed reprising his role as "Andrew" in the yearly Easter play.

Policies and Guidelines

Chapter One POLICIES GOVERNING LOCAL CHURCHES

Par. 1000 Policy Statement on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature (Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004, and revised June 14, 2005)

1. Statement of Policy. The _____United Methodist church affirms the 2008 Book of Resolutions #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2008 Book of Discipline (¶ 161.E) all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual conduct or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his her capacity as a minister.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission. The _____ United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

2. Procedures

a. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person. You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease. If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation. If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy). If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing accusations, and each supporting person. If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

b. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship. If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting. If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusation, and each supporting person.

c. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above. If you are a clergy/church professional in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventive action. According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

Par. 1001 Vacation Policy for Appointed Personnel (Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference in June 2010.) It is The United Methodist Church's view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is "vacated") can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out. We recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1. Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1 – June 30).
   a. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).
   b. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).
   c. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).
2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.
3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conference, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.
4. Full-time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part-time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education. (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
5. The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
6. In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full-time service, including student pastors and part-time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.
7. Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
8. The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
9. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Par. 1002 Outdoor Ministries Committee – Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers (This was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference.) We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the "Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers" adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee.

We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.

Par. 1003 Salary Arrearage Policy (This Salary Arrearage Policy was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 22, 2014 as presented by the Equitable Compensation Commission.) This applies to all churches and all clergy receiving a salary from a local church. This also includes those receiving equitable compensation funds.

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, or to remit to the Conference Treasurer full payment for regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, the church treasurer shall notify within twenty-four hours the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and the Lay Member of the Annual Conference of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall within 3 days notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefits arrearage may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.
2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall within 24 hours convene a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and Lay Member to Annual Conference to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:
   a. Drawing from invested funds,
   b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation,
   c. Emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The District Superintendent may invite the Commission to send a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue, so that the pastor receives full compensation by the end of the conference year.
4. If it is determined that the church is not able to provide the compensation package as voted at Charge Conference, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent (Arkansas Conference 2013 Journal 482) and request a consultation. Options for addressing the arrearage might include:
   a. Develop a payment plan so that the pastor will receive full compensation by the end of the conference year or
   b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.
   c. Requesting an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant for the remainder of the appointive year.
5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:
   a. Determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
   b. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced.
   c. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org). The District Superintendent shall be notified of its findings and recommendations in writing.
6. If a local church becomes delinquent in the payment of the pastor's direct billed pension, health care and benefits (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the Conference Treasurer shall notify the Conference Benefits Officer, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The Superintendent will work with the CEC and the local church to develop a written payment plan with the local church so that the Conference receives full payment of pension and benefits by the end of the conference year.
7. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing appropriate documentation.
8. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

GUIDELINES ESTABLISHED BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Par. 1100 Parsonage Standards (Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004)

Philosophy for Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum.

The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2004 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e The 2004 Book of Discipline also states that "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶2532.4 The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms. There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower.
3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.
4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to ensure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.
10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.
11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
    a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
    b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to soundness of heating/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as to maximum/minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.

12. Insurance: The church is responsible for payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty percent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain coverage to insure pastor's family furnishings and belongings.

13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide "adequate housing" shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.

14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility

a. The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, if anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.

b. The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative in improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.

c. All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See above Philosophy for Parsonage Standards)

15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities

The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who has pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out, including residual tobacco smoke and any odors from pets.

16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.

17. Mutual responsibility Covenant: it is recommended that the Trustees and/or Pastor Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original form any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.

18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient…weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.

19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future, consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.
20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one on each floor including the basement.
21. Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:
a. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately, are adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.
b. All substandard parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later than January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the Cabinet.
c. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in the implementation of these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at-large members elected to three-year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.
d. When there is a pastoral change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.
e. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.
f. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and, chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committee. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.
g. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.
h. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommendation: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

(A SUGGESTED CHURCH/PASTOR PARSONAGE COVENANT)

Church Responsibilities:

While other church officers and bodies have a role in the provision, inspection, and maintenance of the parsonage, the local church Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility to ensure the parsonage meets or exceeds the standards set by the Annual Conference and the local church. The Church Trustees will maintain the physical structure and keep it in good repair. This includes all exterior treatments such as paint, shingles, and siding; the basic interior structure of the home including carpet and other floor coverings, interior decorating, and drapes or curtains. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all equipment such as furnace, water heater, light fixtures, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer, and lawn mower. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all furnishings provided by the church including maintenance and timely replacement.

Clergy Responsibilities:

The pastor will properly care for the property, keeping it clean and attractive both inside and out. The pastor will be responsible for light bulbs, furnace filters, lawn mowing and snow removal; for effecting minor repairs such as, but not limited to, tacking or nailing of molding or door tops that may loosen up, and repairing or replacing items damaged by pets, personal guests, or the pastor and his/her family. [This covenant would be signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Pastor, and other appropriate local church officers.]

Par. 1001 Safe Sanctuary Policy Recommendation. (This recommendation was adopted by the Annual Conference, Sunday, June 22, 2014). Whereas, Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child… welcomes me" (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God. God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (Adapted from The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2008.)

Therefore, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church hereby pledges to conduct the ministry of Jesus Christ in ways that promote the physical and emotional safety and spiritual growth of our children, youth and our workers with children and youth. In all of our ministries with children and youth, this congregation is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each child and youth will be "surrounded by steadfast love… established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal." (Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 96).

Therefore, we will follow reasonable safety measures when selecting and recruiting workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all areas of programming and care; we will train our workers with children and youth on our procedures and policies; and we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting reasonably suspected incidents of child maltreatment that conforms to the requirements of Arkansas law. Therefore, recognizing that the programs, needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ, when local churches are developing Safe Sanctuaries guidelines, it is recommended that they:

1. develop and implement an ongoing education plan for the congregation and its leaders on the reality of child abuse, risk factors leading to child abuse, and strategies for prevention;
2. adopt screening procedures (use of application forms, interviews, reference checks, background clearance, and so forth) for workers (paid and unpaid) directly or indirectly involved in the care of children and youth;
3. develop and implement safety procedures for church activities such as having two or more non-related adults present in classroom or activity; leaving doors open and installing half-doors or windows in doors or halls; providing hall monitors; instituting sign-in and sign-out procedures for children ages ten or younger; and so forth;
4. advise children and young persons of an agency or a person outside as well as within the local church whom they can contact for advice and help if they have suffered abuse;
5. carry liability insurance that includes sexual abuse coverage;
6. assist the development of awareness and self-protection skills for children and youth through special curriculum and activities; and
7. be familiar with annual conference and other church policies regarding clergy sexual misconduct.

SAMPLE SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

(This sample Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedure was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 11, 2013.)

This is a sample policy that is intended to serve as an aid to local congregations establishing or updating a Safe Sanctuary policy. It should be recognized that the needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ to some degree. This sample is intended as a resource only and is not as a substitute for reasoned decision making with the guidance of clergy and local legal counsel. Daycare facilities should also carefully comply with all applicable licensing requirements of the Arkansas Department of Human Services (ADHS) which are outside the scope of this sample.

Our Purpose

When a child is baptized or confirmed within our faith, we promise: "With God's help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ, so that this child, surrounded by steadfast love, may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal…" (Congregational Pledge 2, United Methodist Hymnal, p. 44.) The members of this church are committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment for staff, members and guests of all ages, to taking reasonable precautions to reduce the risk of child or adult maltreatment for all who participate in our programs or events, and to reducing the risk of false allegations or suspicions of the same. These guidelines are intended to reflect our congregation's commitment to preserving the church as a holy place where all people can experience the love of God through relationships with others. Par.1102 Copyright Guidelines for Churches

Disclaimer: The information provided in these guidelines is for information purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. In the development of the guidelines, certain assumptions have been made about underlying practices and uses of intellectual property. Any change in those assumptions could affect the application of a particular guideline or recommended best practice. Therefore, while the information provided may assist a local church, it is not a substitute either for legal advice by an attorney with knowledge of copyright law or the written approval of specific copyright holders. If there is any doubt as to whether a specific use or practice violates copyright laws, the local church should seek the written advice of a lawyer or specific written approval of the particular use by the copyright holder or licensing agent. Further, the local church should maintain a copyright file that contains all written advice obtained from an attorney(s), all licenses/permissions for use of works, and records of any payments made to licensors or owners of copyrighted works.

Overview of United States Copyright Law:

Copyright protection extends to "original works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression, now known or later developed, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device." 17 U.S.C. § 102(a). A copyright does not require registration. A copyright in a work arises from the moment an original work of authorship is fixed in the tangible medium (e.g., when pencil touches paper). Section 102 further provides that "[w]orks of authorship include the following categories:

(1) literary works;
(2) musical works, including any accompanying words;
(3) dramatic works, including any accompanying music;
(4) pantomimes and choreographic works;
(5) pictorial, graphic and sculptural works;
(6) motion pictures and other audiovisual works;
(7) sound recordings; and
(8) architectural works."

Copyright protection may extend to compilations and derivative works that are lawfully created. 17 U.S.C. § 106. The owner of a copyright "has the exclusive rights to do and to authorize any of the following:

(1) to reproduce the copyrighted work in copies or phonorecords;
(2) to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted work;
(3) to distribute copies or phonorecords of the copyrighted work to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending;
(4) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and motion pictures and other audiovisual works, to perform the copyrighted work publicly;
(5) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and pictorial, graphic, or sculptural works, including the individual images of a motion picture or other audiovisual work, to display the copyrighted work publicly; and
(6) in the case of sound recordings, to perform the copyrighted work publicly by means of a digital audio transmission."

Infringement occurs when you violate one or more of the exclusive rights of a copyright owner. Infringement is a serious matter that may result in a claim of copyright infringement against the person who violates the exclusive rights, as well as against the local church. Remedies for infringement include actual damages, profits of the infringer, or, alternatively, statutory damages. 17 U.S.C. § 504. With certain caveats or exceptions, a copyright owner may elect statutory damages instead of actual damages or profits of the infringer (which is especially applicable in cases where there is no actual damage or profit from the infringement) in a range of not less than $750 to no more than $30,000 per work "as the court considers just." 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1). Statutory damages may be increased to no more than $150,000 per work if the infringer's conduct was willful. 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2).

When in doubt about whether a work is copyrighted or whether a particular use would constitute infringement, the church should always seek appropriate advice.

Licenses:

One means to comply with federal law and avoid a claim for copyright infringement is to obtain a license from the owner, or from a representative of the owner, of the work you want to use. This is the best practice and is strongly recommended. Although there are a variety of representatives of copyright owners, well-known licensing companies include, but are not limited to, CCLI (Christian Copyright Licensing, Inc.), CVLI (Christian Video Licensing International), ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, WorshipCast, OneLicense, Christian Copyright Solutions, and LicenSing. There are basic licenses that fit most churches' use of copyrighted materials, and there are a number of supplemental licenses for particular uses such as rehearsal licensing, live streaming, podcasts, videos, and use of video clips. For musical works, it is important to remember that you will need a license to both the musical composition (the notes on page) and the lyrics. You also should confirm that the songs or videos are within the catalog of works covered by each license. If they are not, then the church should obtain written permission from the copyright holder. Churches should consult with licensing companies concerning the scope of use covered by various licenses and concerning particular practices and uses of copyrighted materials to avoid inadvertent copyright infringement.

Pricing for licenses varies by work. For example, the cost of a license from OneLicense is based upon average weekly attendance of the church. One-time use, weekly use, and annual licenses are available. Reporting usage of a song to the licensing company is required in accordance with the requirements of the license. It is important to keep good records of the use of the works in order to be accurate in your licensing payments and minimize any claims by the copyright holder or its representatives that you have not paid sufficient amounts.

Written Permission:

Written permission from a copyright holder gives a local church protection. This is particularly helpful when the intended use of copyrighted material is not clearly within the scope of a license. As indicated above, any written permission obtained from a copyright holder should be maintained in a copyright folder by the church.

Public Domain:

Intellectual property that is in the public domain is not subject to copyright infringement. Public domain status is usually indicated on the face of sheet music or on a CD jacket. A church should not assume that intellectual property is in the public domain simply because copyright information is not on the face of the work. In addition, the fact that one version of a work is in the public domain does not mean that a new copyrighted arrangement of the work can be used without a license or written permission from the copyright holder.

Fair Use:

Although rarely available in a church setting, the fair use exception found in 17 U.S.C. § 107 may be available when a church, including a Sunday school class, uses a copyrighted work or a part thereof for teaching or comment, including in a documentary. The teaching exception in 17 U.S.C. § 110(2) may also be helpful to Sunday school classes. In the educational context, the U.S. Copyright Office has published an advisory circular containing guidelines for fair uses of copyrighted works in educational settings. It is available at http://www.copyright.gov/circs/circ21.pdf. A group cannot use the fair use doctrine to edit or redact copyrighted materials to remove portions to which it objects even if it sells the edited version with the original version. Fair use is a factual determination that includes, but is not limited to, the following factors:

(1) the purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes;

(2) the nature of the copyrighted work;

(3) the amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole; and

(4) the effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

It is important to recognize that a work is not freely available for copying simply because it is out of print. The same factors for fair use apply to determine whether such work may be copied and the amount of the portion copied.

Religious Worship Service Exemption:

17 U.S.C. § 110(3) provides a limited exemption for the "performance of a nondramatic literary or musical work or of a dramatico-musical work of a religious nature, or display of a work, in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly." This exception does not extend to broadcasting (by radio or television), webcasting, live-streaming, podcasting, or recording of the parts of worship services that include copyrighted works, all of which require a license or the written permission of the copyright holder. For this reason, some churches limit their broadcasts of worship services to those parts of the service that do not contain copyrighted works.

Hymnals:

Hymnals are also copyrighted, and there are limitations on how the copyrighted information may be used, even if your church has purchased the hymnals. Hymns that are listed in the hymnal as being in the public domain may be reproduced without permission. Lyrics from copyrighted hymns may be reproduced in the worship bulletin as long as the church has published hymnals for the congregation and as long as the reprinting is done in accordance with the requirements of the copyright in the hymnal. One typical requirement is to properly note the copyright information in the bulletin. Consult the hymnal and any related license for proper use of the copyrighted songs in a hymnal.

Worship:

A. Music performed by choir

A choir may only use legal copies of copyrighted music. The music may not be copied to make additional copies for practice or teaching by staff or members of the choir. One exception is that musicians are allowed to make copies of pages of music to avoid page turning.

If a publisher lists a copyrighted work as "out of print," the publisher should be contacted for permission to make copies and to possibly negotiate a reduced fee.

If a choir director or musician desires to create a different arrangement of copyrighted music, written permission should be obtained from the copyright holder.

B. Music performed by organist

The requirements in Part A of this section apply. One possible exception is that an organist or other musician may make copies of a legally purchased work to avoid having to turn pages during a performance.

C. Music performed by guest performers or musicians

The requirements in Parts A and B of this section apply.

D. Lyrics projected on screen during worship

Section 110(3) of the Copyright Act permits the display of a literary or musical work in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly. This display does not include the right to record (via cell phone, video, or otherwise) the projection of the literary or musical work.

Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

E. Lyrics printed in bulletin

See the discussion above regarding the use of songs that appear in hymnals purchased by the church. Lyrics that appear in hymnals or other works legally purchased may be used in accordance with the requirements and conditions set out in the works. Typically, a specified copyright reference is required. If other lyrics are used in a bulletin, they may only be printed with written permission of the copyright holder or a license.

F. Live streaming of worship music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The same is true for podcasting. Otherwise, these uses constitute copyright infringement. Christian Copyright Solutions offers a WORSHIPcase license that applies to every song that is licensed by ASCAP, BMI or SESAC. CCLI also offers a streaming/podcasting license.

G. Recording of music in worship for later video broadcast

H. Recording of performances in worship on CDs or DVDs

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. There may be additional restrictions if the CDs or DVDs are sold to raise funds, unless the proceeds are used solely for the church's ministry. The church should contact its license provider for guidance.

I. Recording children's choir performances and uploading the recordings to Facebook, You Tube, or similar social media

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. If the person making this recording is not an employee or staff member of the church, then any infringement is arguably the individual liability of the person making the recording and not the church, although there may be an argument that the person was acting on behalf of the church. To avoid any liability, the church should not make use of unauthorized recordings and should communicate to the church membership that the church is not authorizing the recordings.

J. Use of copyrighted art, graphics, or written works in bulletin

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.

K. Use of video clips

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, the use constitutes copyright infringement. CCLI has a specific license known as ScreenVue for this use.

L. Pastor's use of copyrighted material in sermon

Reading a copyrighted poem, an excerpt from a copyrighted book, or a copyrighted quotation as a part of a sermon in a worship space for a worshiping congregation may be permitted under the religious service exemption. However, it appears to be clear that printing or recording a sermon that contains such copyrighted materials is a violation of the copyright laws unless the use meets the fair use exception discussed above.

Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

Sunday School:

A. Use of music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Sunday school class is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.

B. Use of videos

The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even in Sunday school classes, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.

C. Use of articles or pictures as teaching aids

There should be no copyright infringement if the articles or pictures used are legally purchased and are not reproduced.

Youth Activities:

A. Use of music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Youth Activity is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.

B. Use of videos

The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even at a youth activity, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.

C. Syncing songs to youth videos

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Permission to synchronize copyrighted music is difficult to secure. Copyrighted music may have already been licensed for this use or may be available for license on the internet, and that option should be explored. Open Sound Resource and Magna Tune may be helpful resources for this purpose. Syncing of songs to videos is common on You Tube and Vimeo (see, e.g., http://ultimateclassicrock.com/peanuts-classic-rock/), but youth groups should exercise caution and seek permission before using a copyrighted work.

D. Use of copyrighted works in social media

Choir:

A. Photocopying of copyrighted work

This is prohibited without written permission by the copyright holder. As noted above in Worship, Part A, however, there is a procedure for obtaining permission for reproducing copies of copyrighted works that are "out of print."

B. Performing music outside of worship services, including recitals and concerts

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. However, limited permission may already be granted in the copyright information on the face of legally purchased copies of the music. In such cases, the terms of the pre-approval should be followed, which will likely include printing or displaying the appropriate copyright information concerning the work.

C. Recording choir performances

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, the recording constitutes copyright infringement.

D. Making CDs or DVDs of performances

E. Making rehearsal tape

Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. However, some choral works come with optional rehearsal recordings that can be used as provided in the copyright provisions. However, additional copies cannot be made.

Other Issues:

A. Movie Nights

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required, regardless of whether there is a charge for viewing the movie. In addition to the licensing companies noted above in the section on Licenses, a license to show a motion picture can be obtained from the Motion Picture Licensing Corporation (www.mplc.com).

B. Dinner Theaters

C. Church websites

Any use of copyrighted material on a church website requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

D. Conferences/Seminars/Retreats

E. Funerals

F. Weddings

G. Newsletters

Any use of copyrighted material in a newsletter requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

H. Church signs containing copyrighted statements, quotations, or photos

Any use of copyrighted material on church signage requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

I. Artwork

A copyrighted image should not be used without permission from the copyright holder or a license.

J. Telephone recordings

Pre-programmed telephone recordings that include copyrighted work but which are part of the telephone voice-mail system are assumed to be authorized for use by the purchaser. However, it is prudent to read the information provided by the seller of the voice-mail system to confirm that authorization and to ensure that the agreement with the seller includes an indemnification clause to cover any infringement that may occur via the telephone system.

Copying a song to create a ringtone does constitute copyright infringement. However, playing a ring tone in public - i.e., its normal function - has been found to be excepted from copyright infringement and no public performance license is required.

K. Zumba, Exercise Classes, Etc.

A performance license is required, usually from ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, or from an agent for those companies (such as CCS's PERFORMmusic). However, a license may not be required for Zumba original music if the church or an authorized staff person is a part of the Zumba Instructor Network.
