One Matters Award

Rev. LaNita Daniels and North Pulaski UMC were awarded the One Matters Award from Discipleship Ministries.

Discipleship Ministries of The United Methodist Church is urging each conference to use the award to recognize one church that is turning zeros into positive numbers with a renewed focus on discipleship.

“With the One Matters Discipleship Award, we want to lift up the importance of discipleship and help interpret across the connection what zeros in professions of faith and baptism mean and what moving away from the zeros means,” said Jeff Campbell, Director of Annual Conference Relationships at Discipleship Ministries. “Each “1” in those categories represents a transformed life – a life that matters to God, and a life that should matter to us.”

“Each conference can nominate a church and share that church’s story of how they are turning things around, making disciples of Jesus for the transformation of the world, Campbell said.

The award, which includes $1,000 and a One Matters Discipleship Award plaque, will be presented to the pastor and lay leaders of a congregation which has done significant work to make its zeros from previous years become positive numbers, Campbell said. “The monetary award is designed to encourage continued growth in the area of discipleship,” he said.

Conference Committees

Members of the Arkansas Annual Conference,
The Arkansas Conference Committee on Nominations presents its leadership report for 2019. Thank you to all the clergy and laity who have agreed to serve on conference committees, boards, and councils. In an effort to place the right people in the right positions, profile sheets have been included in this year's packet. Please submit a profile sheet, circulate these in your local churches, and encourage the laity in your church to turn in a sheet. These will help the Nominations Committee to match people to the best positions and to draw from the gifts, experience and knowledge of the people of the Arkansas Conference. Completed sheets may be emailed to katie.pearce@arumc.org

Every effort has been made to have correct name spelling and contact information. Any corrections may be sent to Rebecca Davis at rdavis@arumc.org.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Katie Goss Pearce, Chairperson

BUSINESS SESSION

Byron Mann, Conference Volunteer in Mission Coordinator, gave a report on disaster relief efforts in Arkansas, specifically concerning the current historic flooding in the state. Visit arumc.org to donate. Churches are asked to: please engage in the response; notify Janice Mann of any community meetings and send a representative from the local church; solicit volunteers and funding; have volunteers attend training; register to volunteer through the website; don't assemble buckets or kits (they are plentiful at this time) and don't gather in-kind donated items (Businesses have stepped in to donate bulk items; instead, donate funds to disaster relief fund); coordinate through the conference efforts so that services are not duplicated and services are not wasted. ERT training will begin the middle of June -- specifics on the training will be announced on the conference website. An UMCOR grant for relief funds has been requested by Bishop Mueller.

Rev. Nathan Kilbourne, Jacksonville United Methodist Church who formerly pastored Vilonia UMC through tornado recovery, offered a prayer for disaster relief efforts.

BREAK: The Conference was on a break for 20 minutes until 9:30 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY: Teaching Session

Bishop Mueller welcomed Dr. Greg Jones, dean of the Divinity School at Duke University, calling him “one of the leading thinkers in the United Methodist Church” for our first teaching session. In the Wilderness gets at the heart of our own predicament -- they are lost, bewildered, befuddled. The more intimate you are with God, the more likely you are to know that you are NOT God. Too many leaders in the church today are not intimate with God, which gives us a serious crisis in leadership. In the book of Numbers, the Israelites have a majority report and a minority report -- some of the Israelites wanted to go back to Egypt, to what was comfortable and known. God wants us to focus on His reign. Five important words for us to remember from Acts 2:43 are “and awesome came upon everyone.” God is active in the world and we should move from judgment to wonder that what God has done. Focus on the end - what is God calling us to do. Christ is the center of our faith, the resurrection brings us to this center. What does it mean to be human in Christianity? We bear witness to the Holy Spirit. in our work. It shapes our mission. God is at work in the world and we need to focus on that work for Him. Begin with the end and focus on what God wants us to do and become.

BUSINESS SESSION REPORTS

EPISCOPACY REPORT -- Karon Mann said the Episcopacy committee assists in determining the Episcopal needs in the area, keeps the Bishop informed, and engages in an annual evaluation with the Bishop. Bishop Mueller uses a variety of ways to keep the Arkansas Conference connected. His passion is evident in how he leads us to our trajectory to making disciples for Jesus Christ. Flowers were presented to Bishop's spouse Karen Mueller, who shared gracious remarks with the Annual Conference.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN REPORT AND 150TH ANNIVERSARY -- Cathy Blackwood reported on the celebration of the 150th anniversary of women in mission. The best way to honor women in mission is to make more women in mission. UMW is for you, and you are invited to join us! UMW is a 150 year story of global proportions. Organizations such as hospitals, schools, community centers have all been built by UMW members. UMW women serve on all levels in the United Methodist Church and also on boards and commissions in their individual communities.

DISABILITIES COMMITTEE -- Rev. Mark Lasater reported the committee is thankful to begin this work on the conference level. He said he is invested in this work because he has three family members with developmental disabilities. Responsibilities include being an advocate for those with disabilities in all areas of ministry, to be an advocate and help develop programs in Annual Conference to meet the needs of those with disabilities, to help sensitize persons in leadership on issues that affect disabilities, to be a resource for local churches attempting to develop ministries, and to promote full inclusion of people with disabilities in Annual Conference and local churches. The committee includes persons with physical and mental disabilities, parents of children with disabilities, and people in ministry with people with disabilities.

UNITED METHODIST MEN -- Clay McCastlain, president of UMM. The purpose of UMM is to help men grow in Christ so that others might grow in Christ.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES -- Rev. Angie Gage, chairperson of the committee, thanked the annual conference for the vote last year to create the committee. For the past year, it has worked hard to raise the awareness of the Native Americans in Arkansas. The committee is working on establishing two internships -- one at Hendrix College and one at Philander Smith, given every year. One student each semester will work on a variety of projects and research. In December, members of the committee are going to Oklahoma celebrating the first Cherokee Christmas in Oklahoma after the removal to Oklahoma. She thanked those who participated in the recent Native American Ministries Sunday -- half of these funds stay in Arkansas and the other half is used throughout the connection.

CENTER FOR VITALITY: Rev. Dede Roberts, director of the Center, said she has served for six years as the director, and the Center has focused their energy on creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples to change the world. Rev. DeeDee Autry talked about the Board of Discipleship. We are disciples not some of the time, but all of the time. This group is looking for ways to cultivate discipleship in the local church. The group hopes to celebrate our stories of discipleship to ignite in all of us a shift to encourage discipleship at all times. An initiative called Discipleship 365 will launch in the fall. Rev. Roberts talked about the Center's partnership with the United Methodist Foundation in supporting education. A five-day Academy for Spiritual Formation will be held Sept 8-13 in Canton, Mississippi. 1.) Disciples make disciples. You and Me make disciples. 2.) We have to know our "why". 3.) Teamwork makes the Dream Work. The most vital congregations are the ones led by devoted pastors and laity. Kay Kotan will be the new director. Cathy Hall discussed Leadership Unleashed! and other educational opportunities for laity and clergy. Rev. Dr. Michelle Morris discussed the amazing team and how they are only as amazing as their leader, Rev. Roberts. She said Dede's vision for the center has been transformative not only for them but for the conference. She was given a Bible to use in her new congregation and a pendant.

BREAK: The Conference was on a break for 15 minutes until 4:55 p.m.

BUSINESS SESSION REPORTS

UMFA: Rev. Wayne Clark, the new director of the Foundation, said the foundation is excited about being in the new building. He talked about the various ministries that have benefited from lifelong planning and giving by "just regular people" who planted mustard seeds and were good stewards of the resources that God had given them. Grants were issued to help with Dollars for Scholars, Mission U, Growing Disciples Summits, Camp Tanako and Ozark Mission Project scholarships, assistance at Hendrix College and Philander Smith College.

Greetings from Philander Smith College, presented by Dr. Roderick L. Smothers, president of Philander Smith College in Little Rock. At Philander Smith, we have decided to double down on missions. The Dollars for Scholars program is one of the largest in the country, and the Black College Fund match allowed some exciting things at Philander Smith, including extra housing opportunities. He thanked the UMC for their support. The school is building new housing for 250 students.

Greetings from Hendrix College, presented by Dr. Bill Tsutsui, president of Hendrix College in Conway. In the past year we have had discussions over barbecue at Paragould, Perryville, Bentonville, and Wynne. Two 2019 Hendrix graduates -- Sam Coker and Abbey Maynard -- are going to begin seminary in the fall. Millar Center students went to Uganda and to New York City to work with the homeless. UMYF scholars are serving as pastoral interns in several churches in Central Arkansas. Three new Hendrix board members, clergy of the conference, were approved. They are Rev. Stephen Coburn, Rev. Mark Norman, and Rev. Sara Pair.

Greetings from Methodist LeBonheur, presented by Albert Mosley, senior vice president for Methodist LeBonheur. The healthcare system represents what can be done when we reach across conference lines (Memphis, Mississippi and Arkansas conferences).

RECESS: Rev. Rashim Merriweather, Conference Developer of Ethnic Faith Communities, gave the prayer of dismissal and blessing for the evening. There are no formal activities scheduled for the evening.

FRIDAY MORNING

MAY 31, 2019

CALL TO ORDER: Morning worship music by Ken and Casey Weatherford and Trenton Teegarden began at 8:00 a.m.

“A PRAYER FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE”: Bishop Mueller called the Conference back to order. Rev. Angie Gage opened the session with the Cherokee Morning Song. Rev. Dan Reed gave a prayer that included the words of Black Elk, a Sioux holy man with Rev. George Odell offering accompanying music. Rev. Natasha Murray gave the opening prayer.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Youth Address: John Mark Mathis of Greenbrier United Methodist Church and president of the Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministries gave the Youth Address. He discussed how the numbers in CCYM are amazing. Refuge was held at Shepherd of the Ozarks, and 600 youth attended for the weekend. Youth spoke of their faith stories. This type of event shows that there is growth in worship experiences for Youth, “and I know the Holy Spirit is working in worship.” Refuge ended with youth and adults hand in hand in worship before General Conference 2019. Assembly is coming soon, and this is another event that moves the Holy Spirit in Youth. The Youth Media Team is the unsung hero at these events. God doesn’t call the qualified ... he qualifies the called. In response to General Conference decisions, the Youth are encouraged to defend the Methodist Church, because we love the Methodist Church. We must love others with differing opinions and try to understand their viewpoints. We must remember that decisions affect both current and future generations. We must continue to make the main thing the main thing ... making disciples of Jesus Christ.

METHODIST FAMILY HEALTH: Kelly Reep, member of Quapaw Quarter UMC in Little Rock and director of communications at Methodist Family Health, gave the report. She showed a video of where the organization began, where it has been and where it is going. Among the services are psychiatric, emotional, behavioral and spiritual. This year, the organization is celebrating 120 years of rebuilding lives of Arkansas children and families. Ways your church can help: prayer, hold a spiritual service at your church for the youngsters, participate in Bible Bounty, which gives Bibles and devotionals to children. More information can be found at methodistfamily.org 200,000 REASONS: Mary Lewis Dassinger, project coordinator for 200,000 Reasons, gave the report. Initiative began in 2014 when 200,000 children in Arkansas facing hunger. Over the past five years, $155,000 in grants have been given to organizations that have started or expanded feeding ministries. At this point, 515 churches are part of this initiative. Arkansas is still second in the nation for childhood hunger. Now is the time to seek to fill in the gaps for children who do not have food at different times. Three 2019-2020 next steps -- We must attack the poverty stricken areas by working together to move children toward food security -- have greater coordination among churches and with community leaders. Build relationships that empower and inform -- plan without fear, build relationships and empower. Share your story and give voice to the hungry on social media and with community leaders. Nov. 23 is Ingathering for relief supplies and holiday food. Bishop Mueller said that 100 percent of Arkansas United Methodist churches, no matter how small or large, can get involved in this initiative.

He introduced Melinda Shunk, Children's ministry coordinator, who introduced us to Eli from Hazen and John from Blytheville, a couple of very important young disciples who attended Quest at St. James UMC in Little Rock.

BREAK: The Conference was on a break for 15 minutes until 9:55 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY: Teaching Session

Bishop Mueller welcomed Dr. Greg Jones, dean of the Divinity School at Duke University, reminded us that we need to look to the future. We sometimes think life is like a deck of cards, some people get high cards and others get low. But, our story of scripture reminds us of a new heaven and earth in Revelation and we are witness to our new creation. We must lean into what is hurtful with faith to discover forgiveness in healing. Love is the fulfillment of God's creation. We must focus on God's will for us and we glimpse of new possibilities for us. We learn from traditions of our past to move to the promise of our future. Friends help us to dream dreams but have not yet been realized. We should not be an obstacle, but cultivate Christian friendship.

“A PRAYER FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE”: Bishop Mueller called the Conference back to order. Kyle Forehand led the body in the Annual Conference prayer.

BUSINESS SESSION REPORTS

GREETINGS FROM LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE: Richard Hearne, director of development at Lydia Patterson, gave the report. Nadine and Bob Miller, board of trustees of Lydia Patterson, were also recognized. In this unsettling situation at the US-Mexico border, Lydia Patterson Institute continues to flourish. Provide a safe educational and spiritual space for 300 students who cross the border every day. A total of 81 students graduated last week, and each is enrolled to go to college in the fall -- mostly to United Methodist colleges. One student will be attending Hendrix College in the fall. If the border is closed or if crossing the bridge becomes too time consuming, the teachers will continue teaching via Internet during a short interruption. A longer interruption would necessitate a different plan. What can you do to help? Continue to support the education of the 325 students now attending. Prayers and financial support is needed if the mission and ministry will continue. The institute has the capacity for another 75 to 100 students with adequate funding. Every family pays something to attend the school.

GREETINGS FROM PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY: Craig Hill, dean of Perkins, gave the report. Great things happening at Perkins School of Theology. He discussed ways that people from out of town can continue their education online. Scholarships are available. He elaborated that we are in the world of electronic media, constantly referring to data and advancing the hypersensitivity of our society. We have become more tribal, formed around fears and life in a comfortable environment.

That is a dangerous shift in our culture, moving us away from community to tribalism, commonality to threat. A wider separation is now also seen in the church.

HARRY DENMAN EVANGELISM AWARDS

Presented by Rev. DeeDee Autry and the Foundation for Evangelism. Recipients share Jesus in all aspects of their lives and are a catalyst for helping others hear the good news.

Outstanding Clergy: Rev. Casey Turner, pastor at Jonesboro FUMC. Launched a residential treatment center in his community for those with addictions, which led him to become a licensed pastor.

Outstanding Laity: Zach Schrick, First United Methodist Church, Conway. By creating an environment of evangelism. Serving youth, he has created ample opportunities for his church to associate with youth who have no relationship with the church, and offer tools. At this time, nine high school students are openly exploring their call to ministry. The simple theme of "I love you, God loves you, and there is nothing you can do about it" is heard repeatedly.

Outstanding Youth: Shannon Mecum, Arkadelphia FUMC. She is kind, compassionate and always attentive to others' needs. She is encouraging to her peers to step out and be involved. Discerning her college opportunities, she opted to stay close to home so she didn't leave her family and her church. Not even a wheelchair could keep her from Veritas!

Many of the courses can be used for Sunday school curriculum, and a wide variety of topics are covered. One interesting course is a Gospel Discipleship process.

CULTURE OF CALL: Michelle Moore, developer of Clergy Recruitment for the Conference, gave the report. She discussed her call to work in the church, having “fallen in love” with the United Methodist Church, and how her calling continues to be redefined throughout her faith journey. The encouragement she has received to keep moving forward in her relationship with God is what a Culture of Call really is. God calls each of us to be in a relationship with Christ and do ministry in a variety of ways -- ordained, laity, or in the secular world. We must work on creating a deeper Culture of Call right now, no matter how uncomfortable it might be. A Calling Summit will be held in October 2020. The number one way people discern their call is by hearing the call of others. God is calling all of us to create this deeper Culture of Call in the Arkansas Conference, and it’s time to answer the call.

REPORT FROM THE DEAN OF THE CABINET: Rev. Stephen Coburn. We are going to step inside the Cabinet room and experience the L3 structure -- love, learn, lead. The Cabinet always takes time to check in on each other, first of all. Then they learn about a few items, such as how we get more serious about intentional discipleship or increase the mission field. The Cabinet has also learned that we need pastors (ordained and local). Moving into “lead”, what are the next steps? What can lead us into this Culture of Call?

MOTION--Motion made by Rev. EXPLANATION OF LAND PURCHASE IN CENTERTON

Rev. Stephen Coburn, Rev. Jim Polk and Todd Burris, treasurer for Administrative Services in the Arkansas Conference, were present to explain this proposed purchase. Rev. This portion of the state in Northwest Arkansas is growing rapidly in population and has a changing demographic of younger people. Conversations in the Cabinet and with the Northwest District strategy team involved the questions, "What if we started a new ministry in Centerton? What is ministry going to look like in the Northwest part of the state as it continues to grow?" An expert was brought in to help officials look at how to expand ministry in this area. Properties and locations were visited. Lease options were found to be very expensive and elusive, therefore the group began looking at a 45-acre tract of land in the heart of Centerton. This land would be available for possibly creating a city "hub" and the church could be the center of this hub. Pieces of the land would be sold to other entities, which would repay parts of the purchase price. Todd Burris said the Cabinet came to the Trustees, asking to look into this property and wanting to spend $450,000 over the next three years. The owners initially said they would lease the property for $11,000 per month plus taxes, insurance and utilities, but the land would remain for sale. After negotiations with the owning family, the cost of $3.2 million was arrived at to actually purchase the property and be owned by the Conference itself. The current building and soccer field would be retained. Rev. Jim Polk discussed the portions of the Disciplines which directed these land discussions

MOTION--Rev. Rodney Steele moved that the Annual Conference direct the Annual Conference Board of Trustees to proceed on the closing of the contract to purchase the 45 acres of property in Centerton, Arkansas. The motion was seconded. Four speeches in favor. Four speeches against. Several questions and clarifications were heard. The motion PASSED.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES: Rev. Tony Griffin, First United Methodist Church, Russellville, gave the report. Thanks were given to the board who worked on various projects, and to Todd Burris for his hard work and diligence. The report was ACCEPTED.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Bill Wisener, president of the council, and Todd Burris gave the report. Questions related to the transition of covering district budgets with the tithe were discussed. No action is required on this. The report in full was ACCEPTED.

NOMINATIONS REPORT: Rev. Katie Pearce, chair of the Committee on Nominations, gave the report. The Nominations Report is always online at arumc.org under Forms, and will include a few corrections announced. A few highlights include a new committee, The Committee on Disabilities Concerns, chaired by Rev. Mark Lasater. Thank you to Rebecca Davis on her hard work preparing the report. The report was ACCEPTED.

MONITORING REPORT #3: Monitoring is by Rev. Sara Bayles Charlton on gender equity, and by Rev. George Odell from the Commission on Race and Religion. Rev. Odell said the guidelines for the age of young adults varies -- one says 40 and another says 35. Our Conference is to be commended for electing young people as representative to Conference.

COVERING MOTION: Rev. Jim Polk:

"I move that we receive all the reports that have been properly before this session of the Arkansas Annual Conference. I further move that the Cabinet and officers of the conference be empowered to perfect and edit the reports and minutes of this conference session."

The covering motion was seconded. The Motion PASSED.

A - Letter from the Group of 12 Pastors

To Our Arkansas Methodist Family:

Grace and peace in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

As we gather as an Annual Conference, we acknowledge that there is deep division in our denomination and that our disagreements have caused pain among us. We call first for repentance, and secondly to find ways to affirm one another as a big family in Arkansas Methodism. To this end, we want to lift up a few statements that bind us together as Methodist sisters and brothers in Jesus Christ. No matter what happens, we share more in common as Methodist brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ than what divides us.

1. We believe in the Triune God, salvation by faith in Jesus Christ, in the unconditional love of God, and in God’s grace sufficient for every need. We believe in the faith delivered to the church in the historic creeds.
2. We cling to our Wesleyan heritage as Christians of a Methodist tribe. This includes:
 - a. A Wesleyan understanding of grace—prevenient, justifying, and sanctifying.
 - b. Theological and social discourse grounded first in Scripture, informed by tradition, experienced in personal and corporate dimensions, and articulated with the best of human reason.
 - c. Christian discipleship consisting of both vital piety and social action.
 - d. Adherence to the General Rules given by John Wesley:
 - 1) Do no harm.
 - 2) Do good.
 - 3) Attend upon the ordinances of God.
3. We believe the mission of the church is making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We affirm the trajectory of the Arkansas Annual Conference “to make disciples who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities, and the world.”
4. We believe that whatever happens to the structure of the United Methodist Church, we will respect our fellow Methodists, and our interactions will be characterized by:
 - a. Listening well. We invite the members of Annual Conference to truly listen to one another as we share in conversation.
 - b. Loving well. As disciples of Jesus Christ, love is at the center of who we are and what we are about. Jesus tells us, “Love each other. Just as I have loved you, so you also must love each other. This is how everyone will know that you are my disciples, when you love each other.” (John 13:34-35)
5. We believe we are stronger and will accomplish more working together in our social witness. We commit to support our Annual Conference initiatives: 200,000 Reasons to stop childhood hunger in Arkansas, UMCOR, Volunteers in Mission, and disaster response initiatives.

We commit with you, our brothers and sisters in the Arkansas Annual Conference, to continue to pray for wisdom, guidance, and grace as we move forward. And in our Arkansas Methodist family, whatever structures may emerge, we will strive to “maintain the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.” (Ephesians 4:3)

Respectfully Yours,

Resolution Encouraging Churches to Provide 4 Weeks of Paid Vacation to Fulltime Clergy

Whereas, In the Gospel of Mark Jesus instructs the disciples to take time away from the crowds when, “He said to them, “Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.” For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.” Mark 6:31 (NRSV)

Whereas, throughout the Old and New Testaments we are instructed to take Sabbath rest. (Exodus 20:20, Hebrews 4:9, Hebrews 4:4).

Whereas, currently Arkansas clergy are only guaranteed two weeks of vacation during their first five years of fulltime ministry.

Whereas, having more vacation time would help encourage clergy to spend time with their families, set healthy boundaries, and avoid burnout especially in the first five years of ministry during which clergy are forming habits that will last throughout their careers.

Now, therefore be it resolved, we, the Arkansas Annual Conference call upon all Arkansas United Methodist churches to include four weeks paid vacation in the compensation package of all fulltime Ordained clergy and Licensed Local Pastors, regardless of their length of service in the Annual Conference.

Be it further resolved, continuing education will not be counted against vacation time.

Episcopal Address: “It’s Time to Double Down” May 29, 2019

Bishop Gary E. Mueller

The Hardest and the Easiest

This is the hardest Episcopal Address I’ve had to prepare.

It is the hardest because our beloved church is as polarized as our nation. And not just at General Conference, but also here in Arkansas. Our hearts are increasingly at war at the very time we need hearts of peace. Rhetoric is becoming increasingly strident, as more voices from both ends of the spectrum feel as if their only option is ‘fight-or-flight’. And perhaps most powerfully and painfully, The United Methodist Church is increasingly looking like every other denomination that already has traveled this road: the winners stay, the losers leave and the church becomes less vibrant.

It is the hardest because there is so much pain. LGBTQIA+ persons and allies are hurting because you believe the church has pushed you out. Supporters of the church’s disciplinary stance concerning human sexuality are hurting because you feel you have been labeled bigots. Almost everyone is hurting because you sense the church you love will dramatically change - yet you don’t know how.

It’s the hardest because of how sisters and brothers in Christ are treating each other. As my friend Greg Jones says, The United Methodist Church is acting more like a circular firing squad than the Body of Christ. Too often people are filled with contempt for those with whom they disagree. Too often they don’t consider the impact of their words on others. Too often, they don’t seem to care.

It’s the hardest because I have to stand up here in front of those of you whom I deeply love and confess something I don’t want to confess - I can’t take away your pain, I can’t change how people treat each other and I can’t fix The United Methodist Church - Lord knows, I’ve tried.

And yet. And yet. And yet I want you to know that even though this is the hardest Episcopal Address I’ve prepared, it’s also been the easiest.

It’s the easiest because I have personally experienced how our theme - “The Best of All, God is with Us” - is not just a catchy slogan, but a transforming reality more powerful than all the things that threaten to tear us apart.

It’s the easiest because I have seen how God is bringing hope into the midst of our mess to remind us that Arkansan United Methodists hang together far better than we fight with each other.

It’s the easiest because God has helped me pivot from focusing on all the problems, discord and uncertainty I cannot control to embracing what God is calling us to do here in Arkansas - double down boldly on our mission.

Yes, I know ‘double down’ is a gambling term. And, yes, I know what The Book of Discipline says about gambling. And, yes, I know that talking about mission may seem like I’m trying to minimize the severity of the differences that exist in this room. And, yes, I understand you may think I’m crazy to talk like this when we don’t know what’s going to happen in The United Methodist Church.

Yes - I get all of that.

And that’s exactly why I’m going to tell you why it’s time to double down boldly on our mission.

It’s time to double down to ensure that the events swirling in, around and through The United Methodist Church do not determine our destiny here in Arkansas.

It's time to double down because we do not have the luxury of waiting until The United Methodist Church sorts out things concerning human sexuality before we plunge into ministry in a broken world that desperately needs the hope only God can provide.

It's time to double down because it's when we truly trust God more than our circumstances God will use the church to do the most amazing things in the most difficult times.

It is time to double down. But not just any way, not foolishly, not merely by working harder, not by trying to convince ourselves how great we are but by doing it the Jesus way - which he outlines in three parables in Matthew 25. These parables make up his final teaching just before the events of his passion unfold. And while the original Greek doesn't exactly put it this way, it's as if Jesus is saying, "Hey, Arkansas, this is how I want you to double down!"

Double Down on Your Faith

Here's the first way Jesus tells us to double down in the parable about the bridesmaids and their lamps:

⁷ "Then all those bridesmaids got up and prepared their lamps. ⁸ But the foolish bridesmaids said to the wise ones, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps have gone out.'

⁹ "But the wise bridesmaids replied, 'No, because if we share with you, there won't be enough for our lamps and yours. We have a better idea. You go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.' ¹⁰ But while they were gone to buy oil, the groom came. Those who were ready went with him into the wedding. Then the door was shut.

¹¹ "Later the other bridesmaids came and said, 'Lord, lord, open the door for us.'

¹² "But he replied, 'I tell you the truth, I don't know you.'

¹³ "Therefore, keep alert, because you don't know the day or the hour." Matthew 25:7-13 (CEB)

The foolish people in this parable are so unserious about their faith they are unprepared at the very moment they most need to be prepared. The consequences are severe. The wise people, on the other hand, are so serious they are always prepared. They are rewarded.

Jesus' message to us through these words is clear. We're not just disciples when it's convenient. We're disciples all the time. Arkansas, it's time to double down on getting serious about our relationship with Jesus as Savior and Lord, double down on responding to his call to get involved in his ministry and double down about the importance of what's at stake for Jesus, for others and for us.

Listen to some of John Wesley's words,

My fear is not that our great movement, known as the Methodists, will eventually cease to exist one day or die from the earth. My fear is that our people will become content to live without the fire, the power, the excitement, the supernatural element that makes us great.

Double Down on Being Fruitful

Here's the second way Jesus tells us to double down in the parable of the talents:

²⁴ "Now the one who had received one valuable coin came and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man. You harvest grain where you haven't sown. You gather crops where you haven't spread seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid. And I hid my valuable coin in the ground. Here, you have what's yours.'

²⁶ "His master replied, 'You evil and lazy servant! You knew that I harvest grain where I haven't sown and that I gather crops where I haven't spread seed?' ²⁷ In that case, you should have turned my money over to the bankers so that when I returned, you could give me what belonged to me with interest.²⁸ Therefore, take from him the valuable coin and give it to the one who has ten coins.²⁹ Those who have much will receive more, and they will have more than they need. But as for those who don't have much, even the little bit they have will be taken away from them.³⁰ Now take the worthless servant and throw him out into the farthest darkness.'

"People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth."

Matthew 25:24-30 (CEB)

The one who 'plays it safe' with the talents she is given - and tries to justify it - is punished by Jesus. The one who gets a healthy return on investment with the talents she is given is rewarded.

Jesus is telling us we are to use the gifts, resources and people we have been given to get results that actually bring about God's transformation of lives, communities and the world. Arkansas, it's time to double down on being fruitful as we make disciples, grow disciples and send disciples to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with real people in the real world.

Our forebearers doubled down on being fruitful when they created Methodist-LeBonheur Hospital, Camp Aldersgate, Hendrix, Mount Eagle, Methodist Family Health, Campus Ministries, Camp Tanako, Philander Smith and the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas.

Think about that. Congregations are doubling down on being fruitful doing amazing things like the Genesis Campus of Central Fayetteville, Lucie's Place supported by five diverse churches in Little Rock, Breaking Bonds Ministries at First Jonesboro and ECHO Village supported by First Eureka Springs.

There's more! We are doubling down as the Arkansas Annual Conference. This is not just talk. We're doing it. We are going to start a new multicultural, multilingual work in Southwest Little Rock; we are beginning a new faith community in Northwest Arkansas in one of the fastest growing places in the Nation; we are bringing in an outstanding leader, Kay Kotan, to serve as Director for the Center for Vitality and New People; we are introducing a state of the art online Learning Management System called CouRSe (Congregational Resource System) that every Methodist in Arkansas can use; we are recommitting to 200,000 Reasons to wipe our childhood hunger in Arkansas; and we are developing a culture of call led by Michelle Moore to ensure we have outstanding leaders for decades to come here in Arkansas. We are doubling down in real time. As you know, our state is being inundated by flood. Our people who would be here who cannot be here because they are either flooded out or blocked or helping to serve. Our Disaster Response Team, our Volunteers in Mission, led by Janice and Byron Mann, is on top of it. They are organizing workers for the coming weeks; they are helping us respond. We have already received a grant from UMCOR and we are going to be taking up an offering starting tonight for Arkansas Disaster Relief. Give and give generously and if you don't have your checkbook because I want more than the cash in your wallet, you can go online and give. Our state is struggling and Methodist people are doubling down on acting compassionately.

Listen to what John Wesley says:

When a man becomes a Christian, he becomes industrious, trustworthy and prosperous. Now, if that man when he gets all he can and saves all he can does not give all he can, I have more hope for Judas Iscariot than for that man!

Double Down on Compassion

Finally, listen to the third way Jesus talks about doubling down in the parable about the sheep and the goats:

⁴¹ "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Get away from me, you who will receive terrible things. Go into the unending fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² I was hungry and you didn't give me food to eat. I was thirsty and you didn't give me anything to drink. ⁴³ I was a stranger and you didn't welcome me. I was naked and you didn't give me clothes to wear. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't visit

⁴⁴ "Then they will reply, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and didn't do anything to help you?' ⁴⁵ Then he will answer, 'I assure you that when you haven't done it for one of the least of these, you haven't done it for me.' ⁴⁶ And they will go away into eternal punishment. But the righteous ones will go into eternal life." Matthew 25:41-46 (CEB)

The goats fail to serve Jesus because they do not reach out compassionately to those who are struggling. They are harshly judged. The sheep serve Jesus without even being aware of it because they genuinely care for those who are hurting. They are rewarded.

Jesus makes it clear that if we only welcome those we deem worthy, feed only those we think have "earned it" and help only those we believe have the right attitude, then we are dead wrong. Arkansas, it's time to double down on acting compassionately by serving Jesus in families who are struggling with Opioid addiction, kids who have parents that don't care, single moms who need help and people who have not yet experienced Jesus' love.

I want to bring this close and personal. We have been engaged in 200,000 Reasons (our commitment to ending childhood hunger in Arkansas) for about four or five years. We have partnered with others and we have made a difference. I want to be as clear as I can. I pray daily that every church will get involved because every church can get involved, all 650 of you. I also pray daily that if you already are involved, you will get more involved and do more. This work matters. Not only because you are feeding those for whom Jesus died, but because it gives you the opportunity to encounter the living Christ. I want you to get a vision in your head of what can happen. We already have gone from 200,000 to 165,000 hungry children. That's 35,000 fewer! Now it's time go to 150,000 and then 100,000, and then 50,000 and then zero. We can do this together, regardless of whether we are liberal, conservative, in-between or confused - we can double down on acts of compassion.

Listen to John Wesley as he talks about doubling down on compassion:

One of the principal rules of religion is, to lose no occasion of serving God. And, since he is invisible to our eyes, we are to serve him in our neighbor; which he receives as if done to himself in person, standing visibly before us.

A Powerful Reminder

I am celebrating 40 years since my graduation from seminary - which is pretty amazing considering I'm only 39! Like you I have struggled to understand how The United Methodist Church has gotten to the place it has - even though I know exactly why The United Methodist Church has gotten to the place it has. Nonetheless, it breaks my heart.

Everyone of you here is a member of a denomination painfully divided by matters of human sexuality and they are beyond any individual's power to settle, and that's true regardless of your stance. But you also are a member of a local congregation, filled with diverse people, still called to make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped and sent to transform lives, communities and the world.

So where does this leave you? It leaves you choosing where you are going to start. And it leaves me with choosing with where I am going to start.

I choose to start by affirming with all my heart that because "God is with us," we already have a future with hope.

I choose to start by doing all I can to help us live as the Body of Christ that treats each other with respect and love, especially in the midst of significant disagreement.

I choose to start by embracing the holy opportunity God has given us to demonstrate how a relationship to each other through Christ can enable the church to transcend polarizing differences instead of being fractured by them.

I choose to start by doubling down on faith, doubling down on being fruitful in ministry, doubling down on acting compassionately and doubling down on making disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples.

I choose to start by investing in ministry through the congregations of the Arkansas Annual Conference.

I choose to start by trusting the people called Methodists in Arkansas to work together to find our way forward.

I hope, I pray that's where you choose to start, too.

Then - as we do these things together - then we will be better able to continue addressing the weighty and critically important matters we face as a United Methodist Church.

So let's get started right now. Let's choose to start by joining hands with Christ who joins our hands with each other. Let's choose to start by doubling down boldly on our mission. Let's choose to start by being like the early apostles described in the fifth chapter of Acts. They were brought before the Council and the whole body of the elders of Israel. There they were beaten, released and warned not to speak the name of Jesus. And look how they chose to respond:

⁴¹ The apostles left the council rejoicing because they had been regarded as worthy to suffer disgrace for the sake of the name. ⁴² Every day they continued to teach and proclaim the good news that Jesus is the Christ, both in the temple and in houses. Acts 5:41-42 (CEB)

Let's start, my sisters and brothers. Let's start. In Jesus' name, let's start.

Laity Address

Conference Lay Leader Karon Mann,

OPENING: Karon Mann

This year you are going to hear from members of your board of laity. At this time in our church life, it's important to see our connection with each other face to face. The Board of Laity is made up of your district lay leaders, the associate conference lay leader, the director and associate director of lay servant ministries, and other representative leaders invited to join. This year, I wanted you to hear from them, in their words, about the ministries happening in their areas. Please welcome first our Associate Conference Lay Leader, Kathy Conley.

Kathy Conley

As a Christian, there is no more satisfying feeling than knowing you are living into the life God has dreamed for you. As a Christian layperson, there is no more fulfilling witness to the Word of God moving in your life that comes from changing from just sitting in worship on Sunday to be fed, then returning home to life as usual . . . to experiencing the Holy Spirit energizing your life as you become moved by the words of the pastor to then take that Word and give it life in the community and world.

Quite simply, "empowered Laity, partnering with clergy offering Christ to the world." That is "Unleashing the Laity," the laity of the Arkansas Conference.

As Laity Unleashed, we are continually asking ourselves, what new things we are willing to create to increase discipleship movements in congregations, districts and our conference. We are about growing disciples, sharing Jesus and His message of acceptance and love, and seeking ways to be the body of Christ recognized in our given mission field as mercy minded and grace filled.

We have seen that when we serve, we are the most like Jesus. We have noticed that doing acts of kindness in the matchless and mighty name of Jesus changes the world. It brings a little spark of Heaven into someone's life, not to mention our own.

Our daily lives can be filled with so many distractions. As we practice finding the Holy among the ordinary our highest priority becomes to "seek ye first the Kingdom of God". We know we are already living in the Kingdom - Jesus said "the Kingdom of God is here." and it is woven into the realities of our daily life and life's experiences. Many can see it, can feel it but there are a large number of God's children who do not.

We as Christians know what the Lord's expectation of us is. Transformed lives - visible love - a gracious sharing of acceptance - a kind word of understanding - a heart for justice.

Cathy Blackwood, Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women President, from the NW district

The 34,208 lay men, women, youth and children of the Northwest District are alive, well and serving others in many different ministries throughout the district. We take seriously Jesus's command to love our neighbor as ourselves. A way in which many of our churches serve others is through the food pantries found in our local churches.

Approximately 89% of the churches in the Northwest District participate in fighting childhood food insecurity.

As the pictures behind me rotate, you will see the laity with the 2nd Street Pantry of Bentonville First UMC ready to serve despite the falling snow, laity from Alpena preparing for a food giveaway, and members of Central UMC in Rogers giving out free popsicles to the community. Laity find new and unique ways to reach out to the mission field.

Other photos show children and youth from St Paul UMC packing food items to be put in backpacks for school children to take home so they will have something to eat over the weekend.

Every Saturday, Ft. Smith Midland Heights UMC, with the help from other Methodist churches, have a free noon meal for anyone in their mission field. Often, more than 100 people gathering to eat and share fellowship.

Many churches like First UMC, Rogers have blessing boxes where members of the church bring food items to share with those in the community who are struggling to have a meal. One of my favorite photos is of the thank you note left in a blessing box.

Other photos show members packing for Sager Brown, making school kits for UMCOR, making repairs on a home, and hosting community events and attending spiritual develop events designed to equip laity.

Laity in the Northwest District are reaching out to a broken and hurting world. As you saw on a t-shirt in one of the photos, "what you do matters." The Northwest District takes this to heart, as Jesus said whenever you have done this for the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you have done it for Me.

The Laity in the Northeast District were awfully busy seeing the world through the lens of Jesus. Jesus brought out the good in people and we experienced that in the activities we participated in.

We came to recognize that the Laity are not just adults - it is any age - it is all ages. That brought many other mission outreach adventures into focus.

Our willingness to reflect the nature of Jesus was evident in a variety of places.

Amid the overwhelming number of articles and social media postings we receive about the difficulties in our church, it is nice – actually, very important - to occasionally excuse one's self from that dialogue and take an appreciative look at the continuing ministry in and by our local churches.

Even as many of us can seem to concentrate on little more than the turmoil, it is indeed encouraging to notice the good folks in our local churches who are striving to grow closer to God, to minister to those with spiritual and physical needs and to make disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The pictures being shown on the screen are just a few of the thousands of examples of our fellow church members in the Southwest District following through on their vows to serve God and support the church with their prayers, their presence, their gifts, their service and their witness.

The thousands of local ministry examples get very little press outside the local churches. Those involved neither want nor expect any. They do their work because of their love for others and their commitment to Jesus.

It is always a pleasure to visit with local church pastors and lay persons and to learn how truly pleased they are about their church's ministries and how those ministries help bring others – and themselves – closer to God.

As we monitor the current events in our church, we must also reflect on the all-important local church ministry – and give thanks to God for the good Christian people involved.

Carole Blanks, Incoming Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministries Director

Lay Servant Ministries offers laity two distinct discipleship growth paths with a focus on Leading, Caring and Communicating.

Most known is the Certified Lay Speaker program, in which we offer specific courses for laity feeling called to fill the pulpit. This can be to preach a different pulpit each week, fill in for a pastor on medical leave or vacation, or even a temporary assignment by the District Superintendent. (Temporary, you thought...) For those who are called to pulpit-fill, we want to give them an opportunity to initially train and learn in a safe environment with laity who love and encourage them. We have many clergy who began their trek with becoming a Lay Speaker.

Not everyone is called to pastor a church. For the rest of us, there is the Certified Lay Servant program. These are the laity that are committed to using their gifts in ministry and gaining the necessary knowledge and skills to do so more effectively. These laity can take the Lay Speaker courses, but also have many others to choose from for personal and discipleship growth; such as Accountable Discipleship, The Spirit and Art of Conflict Transformation, Embracing Personal Prayer, Becoming Spirited Stewards, and many others.

Both of these tracks require continued educational opportunities, as well as paperwork being filed with your charge conference yearly. This year there will be new forms coming out with the charge conference packets.

Last year alone, we held 32 classes across Arkansas with 212 laity attending. Even if you do not want to be part of another "program", if one of our courses looks like something you would enjoy, feel free to join us for just that class.

Lay Servant Ministries offers opportunities to experience the United Methodist Connation through fellowship and networking during courses and other trainings. You already see our faces everywhere. We are the committed, the worker bees, the teams and committees of your church, district and conference. We use our God-given gifts in His service through leading, caring, and communicating.

Karon Mann, Closing

You've just heard words and seen pictures that reflect how the laity of the Arkansas Conference take their discipleship seriously and fully participate in the mission and ministry of the Church.

And though there is no doubt that there is a great deal of uncertainty in the United Methodist Church right now, we remember that we are first Christians, first Disciples of Jesus Christ.

Yesterday in his Episcopal address, Bishop Mueller said, "If we trust God more than our own circumstance, God will do the most amazing things." God IS doing amazing things through the laity of the Arkansas Conference, even in the midst of uncertainty about our denomination's future. We have courage even when we may be filled with anxiety and fear.

Author Anne Lamott said, "Courage is just fear that has said its prayers."

So let's say our prayers right now. If you'll bow your head and join me:

Lord, in these coming days we are going to embark on your work, building the kingdom of God in our particular place and in our distinctly Wesleyan way. We will be in holy conference with friends, with colleagues, and with those we don't always agree with. In times of chaos and controversy, help us to stay focused on you. In times of fellowship and friendship, help us to stay focused on you. In times of true faithfulness, help us to stay focused on you. And when we are not so faithful, help us return to you.

Teach us to trust not in our own goodness, but in yours. Help us remember in these days that our work is your work, let our decisions reflect your desires, and let our actions reflect your own goodness, and kindness, and mercy toward all.

This we pray in the name of the name of the one who loves us all, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Youth Address

ACCYM President: John Mark Mathis

My name is John Mark Mathis from Greenbrier First United Methodist. I am the current Arkansas Conference Youth President. I have been blessed to grow up in the loving atmosphere of the Methodist church as my parents felt it was the best place to raise a family. The love that pastors brother John and brother Kevin has helped remind my family of the love Jesus has shown to us. As the face of the many Arkansas youth that learn, serve and grow in our Methodist churches, I am humbled to talk about all of the amazing things God is doing through the Arkansas youth.

The numbers alone of the work that the ACCYM does stick out.

In November, Refuge, an event for junior high youth, occurred at Shepherd of the Ozarks in Harriet. Over 600 youth and adults met in a weekend of fellowship, as a way to disconnect from the busy fall schedule. Both weekends were so powerful for the young youth and creating a great start in their spiritual journeys. At the end of the event, some youth spoke about their stories so the youth could see how God was working in the lives of others in many different ways.

This past year 1400 youth and young adults gathered to worship, and listen to speakers in February for Veritas 2019. The event symbolizes the unity of the youth and adults as so many gather. One of the coolest things about the event from a leadership standpoint is the prayer stations that the youth use to grow. This station is meant to let kids write their struggles down so they and others can pray over each other's needs while knowing they are not alone. This station is so moving as we have had responses on a broad scale from struggles including "A daughter just wanting to be loved by her mother" to "Someone who was dealing with addiction". (Pause) But what inspires me the most, is seeing how some of these kids meet God for the first time or find the comfort they need while connecting to other youth. It is life changing knowing that there are so many struggles in one room, but they all worship an almighty God that is bigger than all our struggles. Even our own Bishop participated in the event and also led the serving of communion on the final worship on Sunday Morning. The event was able to end in a different from previous years, but a very powerful way. 3 youth task force members shared their stories about their walk of faith to help connect with the many youth who face similar challenges in school, with friends, and at home. To end the event, all youth and adults joined together in hands and unity as we shared a word of prayer together before the long-awaited upcoming 2019 General conference decision.

Also, at our upcoming summer event Assembly, which takes place at the end of July, we are expecting to have in excess of 300 youth at the University of the Ozarks for a week of small groups, bonding, and moving worship. The event centers around fellowship and small groups while creating a safe environment of growth as they discuss lessons, their struggles, and how God is moving in their lives. I can remember long ago when I first went to Assembly, and was so moved by the fellowship in the event, while also learning so much from a goofy youth leader Matt Jenkins who was a last minute replacement small group leader. So I can personally vouch for how God moves in youths' lives through these events.

Our Media team always is such a blessing to every event. They help capture the moments that each event creates while running all the technical things behind the scenes. It is crazy to think about how before 2013, the CCYM could function without an organized media team because it has been so essential in our success as a whole.

The Youth Service Fund, or YSF, continues to help local churches, as well as the nation by providing grants to those in need. This year, YSF gave out $7800 in grants, for organizations and youth groups, such as Ozark Mission Project, West Memphis UMC, Arkadelphia FUMC, Highland Valley, FUMC and Sardis UMC, to update their youth rooms or to attend mission trips.

Over this past year, our youth have amazed me. The environment you as a Methodist church have created for the youth has helped create some of the most amazing leaders that are on fire for Christ. I remember before I entered this position of president and chair of Veritas, I felt unworthy of being a president because I felt I wasn't qualified enough for it. I was just a normal kid, no devastating hardships, no overcoming stories, and I was still trying to figure out my testimony. I was just a kid who didn't see how God was nudging him in a way to move to leadership. But one thing that kept me going into this was a statement our former president always reminded me. The statement "God doesn't call the qualified, he qualifies the called" was what reminded me that God will work in undescrivable ways in whatever area each and every one of us is called to. There are so many diverse and different ministry fields that current and future generations will use to spread the gospel. Since I began being president, I have seen so many of our youth step up into leadership roles and minister to others, while also growing themselves. I am proud seeing this youth leadership. Our very own CCYM members Phoebe and Shelby delivered a call for young people representation. Yesterday, former CCYMer Miller was elected to represent the Arkansas Lay members at the upcoming General Session.

However, General Conference 2019 is what has been dreaded by many. What I feel like is not talked about enough is how it doesn't affect just the current generation, BUT all generations. Speaking from a leader in my own church, they remind us "The easiest thing to do is leave. What is hard is sticking it out and loving others. We must have hope that the church will continue to grow and focus on the main thing, and that's making followers of Jesus Christ." So not only me but other youth are choosing to stay in our churches and lead by example. But this can be a hard thing at times. For example, Greenbrier FUMC is one of many churches in my hometown. Some of these churches are outraged that the issue of homosexuality is even debated. I have heard frustrating stories from my junior high kids, including my own two brothers, on how the debate from General Conference has led other kids to mistreat them for being affiliated with the United Methodist Church. This really hurt me. And as youth, we have to defend a viewpoint that very few under the age of 35 get to debate. Now as a kid, I was proud to be known as a United Methodist and the love that it symbolizes. The hate, the arguments, and the darkness may seem great at times, but I believe that light and love can still win. As the face and voice of our many youth, I encourage the older generations to change the culture that we have created. We as youth learn and look up to y'all. One day, I hope to be a leader in the United Methodist Church and continue to serve and love others as it has done for me. But to do that one day, someone must step down and let me and others lead. We need to love others with differing opinions and be able to listen to why they feel this way. Fellowship has never been built on people with the exact same viewpoints on every single thing. So as annual conference continues, I want to remind everyone that the decisions made for the United Methodist church not only affect the current, but the upcoming future generations.

Philippians 3: 13 & 14 says

"No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us."

As we as one church body, both youth, and adults, look forward to what lies ahead, we know that our focus needs to be on the end of the race. Not focusing on the bumps in the road or on the disagreements we may encounter, but staying true to the mission we hold dear, "to keep making the main thing, the main thing, to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." I am thankful for the leadership position I have served on and look forward to seeing how God will move in our local churches, our state, and our world.

God is good :

And all the time:

Thanks be to God.

Creating Budget Alignment and Focus in the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church

The trajectory of the Arkansas Annual Conference is to create vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ – who then make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world. The Cabinet and Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) are committed to making strategic financial decisions that create budget alignment to support the Bishop’s Mission Plan.

The following four priorities have guided the Cabinet and CFA in making these strategic stewardship decisions in order to shape the 2019-2020 Arkansas Conference Budget:

1. Develop local church vitality that leads to more fruitful disciple-making.
2. Resource local congregations and extension ministries that disciple children, youth and young adults (especially the “Nones”) in the mission field.
3. Strengthen support for the Center for Communications, Center for Reaching New People and the Center for Vitality as they carry out their work of revitalizing and reconnecting the Conference.
4. Refocus and reform budget allocations so they clearly support the Conference’s mission, vision and core values, and the Bishop’s Mission Plan.

Revenue-Based Budgeting

In preparation for the Arkansas Conference Tithe Initiative, CFA and the Cabinet have recommended a Conference budget based on the projected revenues of a tithe - 10% - of the aggregate income of our local congregations as reported on lines 62 and 64 of Table III. Churches will no longer receive an apportionment based on prior year statistics but rather will calculate their ministry share based on the plan adopted by Conference.

62. Total Income for annual budget (as of 1/31/2019).....	$99,125,867
64. Total Income from connectional/institutional sources outside the local church.....	$360,340
Total Revenue.....	$99,486,207
10% Budget Maximum.....	$9,948,621

You will see that our budget cap for 2019 was $9,948,621 based on a tithe of 2018 revenue figures. We have accomplished this with our 2019-2020 budget recommendation of $9,561,000. Furthermore, to ensure expenses do not exceed actual revenues, CFA has established two stabilization funds. These amounts are based primarily on historical payout calculations.

Effective July 1, 2019, the fiscal year of the Conference will end on June 30. Therefore, the budget being reviewed and approved is for the period July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020.

All churches shall report the following information to the Center for Administrative Services by the 10th of the month for the prior month either online or by mail.

- A. Total gross income for previous month including designated giving _____
- B. Less income for capital campaigns
- C. Less income for memorials and endowments
- D. Less income from sale of church-owned real estate
- E. Less income from tuition-based services
- F. Less direct costs of fund-raising
- G. Less income designated for pass-through/outreach ministries
- H. Adjusted gross income = Line A minus B,C,D,E,F,G
- I. Monthly ministry tithe = Line H X 10% = $ _____

III. Tithe Instructions

Line A—Total gross income for previous month (including designated giving and all other funds)

Enter the total amount of ALL revenue for the previous month. Total income includes ALL income received by the church (offerings, pledged giving, unpledged giving, donations, building use fees, income from fundraisers, designated giving, interest from investments, capital campaign income, preschool income, bequests, memorials, etc.)

Line B—Exclude income for capital campaigns (this does not include income for lines of credit (LOC) or mortgage payments)

Capital campaign income is money received from campaigns that are defined as significant, short-term fundraising efforts for a stated project, such as a building, debt retirement, or special project. The campaign usually lasts for a short time, generally less than a year; however, the donations to the campaign may span several years. Stated capital campaigns should not be confused with trustee account donations, building maintenance donations or other donations or capital needs. Income for regular monthly LOC or mortgage payment is not capital campaign income.

Line C—Exclude income for memorials and endowments

Gifts received to fund memorials and endowments should be excluded here. Income from endowment earnings should not be excluded.

Line D—Exclude income from sale of church-owned real estate (not used for operating expenses)

Income from the sale of church owned property (such as a parsonage) to be used for future capital expenses should be excluded here.

Line E—Exclude income from tuition-based services (preschool, daycare, etc.)

Tuition-based services income is any payment made to the church for services provided at the church such as preschool, childcare, elder care, or other similar services. Normally such services are budgeted separately, often by a non-profit organization affiliated with the church.

Line F—Exclude direct costs of fund-raising

Direct costs of fund-raising are those costs paid to raise funds for the church, but not the income raised. Typical examples include: 1) the discounted purchase price of gift cards for future resale, 2) the cost of food and supplies for a fund-raising dinner and 3) a consulting fee to direct a fund-raising activity.

Line G—Exclude income for pass-through/outreach ministries

Pass-through funds are monies received for projects or events outside the local church. From time to time churches will act as a collection agent for special events, such as disaster relief, community homeless shelters, food pantries, soup kitchens or mission trips. Monies are sometimes given for field missionary support or mission focused activities including materials and supplies for mission trips and mission outposts. Any donations given for outreach ministries or causes should be excluded.

- B. This figure shall include salary, utilities and appurtenances, and other professional reimbursable expenses.

Chairperson. Should the DS and the chairperson of the S/PRC determine that the parsonage will require cleaning and/or repair due to abuse and/or negligence on the part of the departing pastoral family the DS may direct that the pastor's moving reimbursement be reduced by the amount required for such cleaning/repair and that this amount be paid to the church. In no case shall the amount paid to the church be greater than the total to which the pastor would otherwise be entitled for moving expense reimbursement.

- K. All interest earnings on Conference monies shall be credited to the undesignated net assets.

- L. The Conference acknowledges the need for maintaining monies to be used as needed for the stabilization of the accounts of New Church Development Fund, General & Jurisdictional Conference Delegate Expense Fund, DS Funds, and the Equitable Compensation Support Fund.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2018

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

Arkansas Conference Council on Finance and Administration
Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.
Little Rock, Arkansas

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference), which comprise the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis as of December 31, 2018, and the related statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 1(b) to the financial statements; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to on the preceding page present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of the Conference as of December 31, 2018, and its revenue, expenses and changes in net assets for the year then ended, in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 1(b) to the financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter

As disclosed in Note 1(j) to the financial statements, management adopted the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Update No. 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities, during the year ended December 31, 2018.

As disclosed in Note 9 to the financial statements, management determined investments previously reported did not include additional investments under Conference control. In addition, during 2018, the Conference changed its method of accounting for their investments from the cost basis to fair value. Beginning net assets for 2018 have been restated to conform to these changes.

Our opinion is not modified with respect to these matters.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1(b) to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. These financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization

The Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a service organization for the United Methodist Church throughout the state of Arkansas. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping local churches for missions and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the congregation, all to the glory of God. The Conference receives apportionments from churches located in the state of Arkansas and distributes the apportionments in accordance with the approved budget set by the Arkansas Annual Conference.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only assets recognized are cash and cash equivalents, investments and local church apportionments in-transit, and the only liabilities that are recognized are apportioned and other funds payable. The modified cash basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because purchases of property and equipment are expensed as paid rather than recorded as assets and depreciated over the estimated useful lives. Non-cash transactions, excluding unrealized gains (losses) on investments, are not recorded in the financial statements.

Local church apportionments in-transit represent amounts that churches have budgeted to pay but have not yet been received by the Conference. Apportioned and other funds payable include amounts the Conference is budgeted to pay according to the budget approved by the churches at the Arkansas Annual Conference but are not yet disbursed by the Conference.

(c) Basis of Presentation

The Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets – net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions. The Conference only has net assets without donor restrictions at December 31, 2018.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference considers all deposits with financial institutions, as well as highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

(e) Investments

Investments include units of participation in separately pooled funds administered by the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas (the Foundation) and Wespeth Benefits and Investments (Wespeth). Note 2 provides more information about these pooled funds and policies for determining fair value. Dividends and interest, as well as realized and unrealized gains and losses, are reflected as net investment income (loss) in the statement of revenues, expenses and changes in net assets – modified cash basis.

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

(f) Cash Receipts

The Conference's cash receipts are restricted to fulfilling the purpose for which the donor remitted the funds. The Conference's goal is to distribute the funds received for the ultimate benefit of the third party donee in a timely and efficient manner.

The Conference classifies funds based on their funding source. The financial statements contain two types of funds: apportioned and other. Apportioned funds are budgeted by and allocated to the individual churches by the Arkansas Annual Conference. Other funds are obtained through the collection efforts of the committees established to oversee the individual funds. The Conference maintains and disburses these funds as requested by these committees.

(g) Income Taxes

The Conference is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is not a private foundation. Accounting standards require the Conference to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Conference has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Conference has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of December 31, 2018, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.

(h) Functional Expenses

The Conference considers all disbursements to be related to its programs and therefore does not allocate disbursements between program, general and administrative and fundraising for financial statement presentation. See Note 8 to the financial statements for disclosures related to disbursements by natural category.

(i) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(j) Recently Adopted Accounting Standards

In 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The purpose of ASU No. 2016-14 was to amend existing financial reporting standards applicable to not-for-profit entities to improve the usefulness, relevance and clarity of information presented in financial statements and to enhance the information presented in the notes thereto.

The Conference adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2016-14 during the year ended December 31, 2018. In addition to changes in terminology used to describe categories of net assets throughout the financial statements, new disclosures were added regarding liquidity and availability of resources and disbursements and transfers by natural category.

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

NOTE 2: DEPOSITS AND INVESTMENTS

(a) Cash and Cash Equivalents

At times during the year ended December 31, 2018, cash and cash equivalents balances exceeded the amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and were not collateralized. In the event of an institutional failure, the excess over FDIC insurance may not be recoverable. The Conference's total bank balance maintained at multiple financial institutions at December 31, 2018, was $5,226,829. Bank balances were fully insured or collateralized at December 31, 2018.

(b) Investments

The Conference invest its funds in separately pooled funds administered by the Foundation and Wespath. The Foundation and Wespath manages the assets, which are invested in equity and fixed-income securities, mutual funds, investment pools, partnership interest and notes receivable. Investments are available to be withdrawn upon written notice to the Foundation and Wespath. There are no restrictions on withdrawal amounts.

The fair value of amounts invested in pooled funds managed by the Foundation and Wespath is based on the Conference's interest in the pooled funds, which are evidenced by a unit. The value of a unit is calculated based on the fair value of the underlying assets, adjusted for the effects of such transactions as administrative fees and investment income that has not been reinvested in the underlying assets, as reported by the Foundation and Wespath, because there is no ready market for the assets.

At December 31, 2018, the Conference's fair value of the units of participation in the pooled funds at the Foundation and Wespath are as follows:

Foundation	$ 6,103,023
Wespath	2,148,629
Total investments	$ 8,251,652

NOTE 3: BOARD DESIGNATED NET ASSETS

During 2016, the Conference was the Plan Administrator of the Arkansas United Methodist Conferences Employee Benefit Plan (the Plan), which covered eligible employees of the Conference and churches located within the state of Arkansas. The funds included in the Plan were restricted for the payment of health insurance claims for participants. The Council on Finance and Administration (the Council) voted to terminate the Plan effective December 31, 2016, based on changes brought forth by the Affordable Care Act. The investments in the Plan were transferred to the Conference on January 1, 2017. These assets, which total $4,834,959 at December 31, 2018, are included in investments on the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis, and may be used at the discretion of the Council to pay for retiree benefits. These assets are not restricted by any donor.

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

Under the terms of the Book of Discipline, net residual assets are returned to the Conference upon termination of programs and activities or when no longer required to support the activities of a specific program. The Council recommended, and the Annual Conference approved, designating these residual assets for programming funds for the Center for Vitality. No amounts were returned to the Conference for the year ended December 31, 2018. These assets, which total $1,183,890 at December 31, 2018, are included in investments on the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis. These assets are not restricted by any donor.

NOTE 4: LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Conference monitors its liquidity so that it is able to meet its operating needs and other contractual commitments while maximizing the investment of its excess operating cash. The Conference has the following financial assets that could readily be made available within one year of the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis to fund expenses without limitations:

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 5,203,385
Investments	2,232,803
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 7,436,188

Although not expected to be needed, the Conference also has available for spending without limitation board designated net assets of $6,018,849. These resources are invested for long-term appreciation, but may be spent at the discretion of the Council. See Notes 2 and 3 for further information about the Conference's investments and board designated net assets, respectively.

NOTE 5: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PENSION PLANS

Eligible Conference and participating church employees are covered under one of two defined contribution pension plans as follows:

- a. Ministerial employees – Eligible ministerial employees are covered under a defined contribution pension whereby the participant contributes 3% of compensation and the church or Conference contributes 10% to 12% of the participant's annual contribution base (compensation) based on the Conference average compensation as calculated by the General Board of Pensions.
- b. Lay personnel – Eligible lay employees are covered under a defined contribution pension plan whereby the participant contributes at least 3% and the Conference contributes 9% of the participant's annual contribution base (compensation).

Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

NOTE 5: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION PENSION PLANS (Continued)

Both plans are multi-employer plans by which all contributed assets of participating employers and employees are commingled and are not segregated by employer.

Total contributions to both plans for Conference staff were approximately $97,000 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

NOTE 6: OTHER POSTRETIREMENT BENEFIT PLAN

The Conference provides a monthly healthcare reimbursement benefit to retired clergy and disabled clergy who are Medicare eligible, and their spouses. This benefit is not guaranteed and is reviewed annually. Clergy are eligible to receive this benefit if, after retiring from the Conference, they have served in the denomination for a minimum of ten years. The stipend is a fixed dollar amount based on eligible active years of services and the maximum monthly healthcare premium stipend.

The Conference engaged an independent actuary to value the postretirement benefit plan with a measurement date of December 31, 2018, which is as follows:

Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation	$ 12,676,039
Actuarial value of plan assets	$ -

The above information was based on participant data as of the census date at January 1, 2019:

Active participants:
Full eligible	12
Other	264
	276
Retirees, dependents and surviving spouses:
Retirees	189
Dependents	135
Surviving spouses	68
	392

Assumptions used in the actuary report consisted of the discount rate of 4.10% and the RP-2014 Generational White Collar Mortality Table for Annuitants and Non-Annuitants (male and female) with projected mortality improvements under Scale MP-2016.

Total contributions to the postemployment healthcare plan were approximately $704,000 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

Miscellaneous	218,638
Program disbursements	5,308,749
Total disbursements and transfers	$ 13,502,575

NOTE 9: PRIOR PERIOD RESTATEMENTS

During the year ended December 31, 2018, it was determined that investments as previously reported did not include additional investments under Conference control. As a result, an adjustment of $1,945,480 was made to increase investments, which resulted in an increase of the same amount for net assets at December 31, 2017.

In addition, during the year ended December 31, 2018, the Conference elected to change its method of accounting for investments from the cost basis to fair value to show the Council the actual amounts that are held by the Conference. Committee on Episcopacy Report

The Arkansas Conference Committee on Episcopacy is grateful for Bishop Mueller's leadership in our Annual Conference. His passion for spiritual revival and emphasis on vital congregations, equipping disciples and partnering with laity is leading our conference trajectory in "keeping the main thing the main thing" (quoting Bishop Mueller). But this past year he has provided the strong leadership we needed, and shared his pastoral skills with us, as we prepared for and experienced the 2019 Special Called Session of General Conference. We are thankful for the Bishop's communication with the Arkansas Conference through his daily devotionals, and the letters and videos he shares when we need them.

- conditions within the area as they affect relationships, and
- engage in annual consultation with the bishop.

We are honored to work with him, and express our deep appreciation for his work. Thank you, Bishop, for your service in the Arkansas Annual Conference.

Employee Assistance Program:

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits partnered with The Board of Ordained Ministry to bring clergy families the Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program. Since January 1, 2012, this program has provided free, confidential short-term counseling to all active, retired clergy and clergy households. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends continuing the program for 2020. The benefit is not guaranteed and will be reviewed annually. We are pleased to offer this service to our clergy and their households. EAP can help with many of life's challenges such as family issues, marital concerns, alcohol and drug abuse, anxiety, depression, major life events, grief, work concerns and managing the stress of everyday life. The program offers 6 counseling sessions to you and members of your household, free of charge. In most cases, short-term counseling is all the help you'll need. However, if a referral outside the EAP is necessary, the EAP counselor will seek the best resources for your situation. Counseling outside the EAP will require use of insurance or self-pay. Use of the EAP and issues discussed in all sessions are held in strict confidence. Rest assured that your private health information remains confidential and can only be released outside the EAP with your written consent or when required by law such as in life threatening situations or child/elder abuse. All Arkansas Conference staff members and clergy families; whether full time, part time, retired or disabled as well as members of your household are eligible to participate. Surviving spouses are also eligible for this benefit. For more information about the Methodist Healthcare EAP, please visit their website at www.methodistepcanhelp.org and review the brochure enclosed in this announcement. To access the program, simply call their toll free number 1-800-880-5658 to schedule an appointment.

Clergy Retirement Plans:

The Pre-1982 Pension Plan was replaced by the Ministerial Pension Plan effective January 1, 1982. Vested participants and their spouses receive lifetime benefits from the pre-82 plan. The 2020 monthly Past Service Rate (pre-1982) known as the PSR is $577.00.

The 2004 General Conference voted to end the MPP as of December 31, 2006. The replacement pension plan was the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) which began January 1, 2007. Less than full-time are ineligible effective 1/1/2013. The plan is made up of 2 components;

1. A Defined Benefit which provides monthly income at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church and a surviving spouse benefit payment of 75% for her/his lifetime. Clergy may also designate a disabled child as a
2. Secondary contingent annuitant. After the death of you and your spouse, your disabled child will receive a reduced benefit. As with spousal coverage, your initial benefits will be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.
3. And a Defined Contribution that provides a retirement account balance which was established and funded by the annual conference.

All eligible full-time clergy who are under Episcopal appointment in the conference shall enroll in the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP). Full-time clergy may make written request to waive out of the pension program CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014 clergy serving less than full-time are not eligible to participate in CRSP. We encourage the churches they serve to provide a retirement benefit by making contributions to the United Methodist Personal Pension Plan (UMPIP) on their behalf. Pension Plan enrollment is the responsibility of the participant and must be done no later than 30 days from the eligibility date. Information for enrollment must be provided to Conference Benefits Officer, Mona Williams, at the Conference Office of Finance and Administration.

Clergy pension is calculated on "Plan" compensation. Plan compensation as defined by Wesleypath includes a parsonage equivalent (25% of compensation) or housing allowance. The benefit multiplier for 2020 is 14% and is broken down in the following manner;

The monthly CRSP- DB benefit is 8% of eligible Plan compensation.

The CRSP-DC benefit is 2% non-matching contribution and 1% matching of eligible Plan compensation.

The premium for the Comprehensive Protection Death and Disability Plan is 3% of eligible Plan compensation up to 200% of the DAC for clergy appointed full-time.

Participants must contribute a minimum of 1% of eligible Plan compensation to their Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) in order to receive the full employer CRSP-DC contribution.

Retired Clergy:

Retired Clergy, their spouses and surviving spouses were removed from the Conference Healthcare Plan on Dec. 31st, 2014.

The Plan was replaced with a Healthcare Reimbursement Arrangement. The Retiree & Medicare eligible disabled clergy HRA is owned and funded by the Arkansas Conference and is managed by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Any un-used funds remain with the Conference. Surviving spouses who are not yet eligible for Medicare may be eligible for a taxable Healthcare premium stipend. See guidelines below.

2020 Retiree Healthcare Premium Stipend Allocation:

The Arkansas Conference provides a monthly healthcare reimbursement benefit to retired clergy and disabled clergy who are Medicare eligible. The benefit is not guaranteed and is reviewed annually. The benefit is non-taxable when used for eligible out-of-pocket medical expenses. In order to be eligible for a conference healthcare premium reimbursement Provisional Elders, Associate Members, Elders in Full Connection and Full-time Local Pastors retiring from the Arkansas Conference must have served full-time in the denomination for a minimum of 10 years. Only conference responsible* full-time appointment years are eligible and must have been served in an Arkansas Conference. If you are retired and not currently receiving a conference healthcare premium stipend you are not eligible to receive the stipend. If the Plan is terminated, all of the following is null & void.

The stipend is a fixed dollar amount based on eligible active years of service and the maximum healthcare premium stipend. Additional years of service above 40 have no effect on the healthcare premium stipend. The maximum healthcare stipend for 2020 is $204 for clergy and $153 for a spouse. Clergy who work or serve an appointment after retirement will not receive additional years of service or an additional benefit of any kind. Here is the base HRA benefit calculation guide -

- The first ten years of service will accrue at 2% of the maximum premium gift:

Clergy: 2% of $200 = $4.00 Spouse: 2% of $150 = $ 3.00

- The next 20 years of service will accrue at:

Clergy: 3.5% of = $7.00 Spouse: 3.5% of = $5.25

- The remaining ten years of service will accrue at:

Clergy: 1% of = $2.00 Spouse: 1% of = $1.50

*Conference responsible appointment years are defined as service in which the Arkansas conference or local church is responsible for contributions to clergy pension plans; Pre-1982, MPP or CRSP.

Effective January 1, 2016 the minimum healthcare stipend benefit is $50 per month. Clergy who are married at the time of retirement will receive a supplemental spousal gift. The spouse at retirement who outlives the clergy person will receive a stipend as a surviving spouse. If a retired clergy couple divorces, the clergy will receive the clergy benefit and that spouse will receive the spouse portion. Should the clergy remarry, the new spouse is not eligible for a stipend. As of July 1, 2016 a surviving spouse who remarries will continue to receive a healthcare stipend benefit.

Effective January 1, 2016 when a clergy dies while under an Active conference responsible appointment leaving behind a spouse (who is not eligible for Medicare) the conference will provide a healthcare premium stipend equal to $1000 per month for the first 5 years. This benefit is considered taxable income. After the earlier of year 5, or Medicare eligibility, the healthcare premium stipend will be based on clergy years of eligible service.

Pension earned during active service is vested for clergy members of the AC who surrender credentials after retirement. The HRA benefit is based on years of active conference responsible service and is vested.

Clergy on Medical Leave receiving CPP Disability Benefits:

Approved Medical Leave is an active Conference responsible appointment. Clergy appointed to Medical Leave who are not yet eligible for Medicare will receive a taxable Healthcare Premium Stipend in the amount of $1000 per month. Those who are eligible for Medicare must enroll in Medicare B, purchase a Medicare Supplement and a Drug Plan. Having met these guidelines you would be eligible to receive a Healthcare Premium Stipend using the years of service guidelines above through the non-taxable HRA.

Other Important Information:

1. Surviving spouses eligible for spousal pension benefits will receive benefits at 75% of the formula benefit rate for pre-1982 service.
2. Allowance grants and local expenses of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits are paid by Wespath or the Conference Treasurer must meet 2016 Book of Discipline guidelines and are subject to the approval by the Arkansas Conference.

- The board has approved a living grant for Rev. Lloyd Smith effective 7/1/2009 in the amount of $359.00 per month.
3. The institution, board or organization paying the salary of a minister on special appointment without annuity claim on the conference shall make provision for the pension of such person.
 4. Attention is called to ¶1506.5 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, regarding eligibility to participate in CRSP and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). In order to provide adequately for the active pension program (current and past funding), death & disability benefits, retiree healthcare support and well care in 2020 the conference has budgeted $1,130,000. That Total is broken down as:
 - Healthcare premium stipends for disabled clergy on approved medical leave shall be $25,000.
 - Healthcare premium stipends for retirees & spouses shall be $750,000.
 - Methodist Healthcare Employee Assistance Program apportionment shall be $15,000.
 - Virgin Pulse Fitness Program $80,000.
 - To provide for clergy under special conference responsible appointments shall be $150,000.
 - Administration $110,000.
 5. We remind all pastors and local churches of ¶639.4 in the 2016 Book of Discipline, which sets forth the requirement that payments on the pension and benefit program of the conference be in exact proportion to payments made on the salary or salaries, including housing of the ordained minister or clergy serving it. ¶638.4d requires the local church treasurer and/or pastor to adjust the cash salary and payment to be in the same proportion as the amount paid to the pension and benefit program of the conference. ¶639.4d adds that it shall not be permissible for a pastor to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.
 6. ¶639.4 of the 2016 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults by churches of the conference in paying clergy pension and benefits. The board is further required to render annually to each church that is in default a statement of the amounts in default for that and preceding years. The 2018 default total was $51,448.33. According to our Conference Treasurer, for 2018 the following churches were in default by greater than $250 on the direct billed Clergy Retirement Security Program & the CPP premiums by the following amounts:

8. In determining years of service, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall carefully examine and consider those years listed in the conference Journal prior to accepting them as valid years; and any years in question shall be subject to validation by the applicant and by approval of the Board of Pensions. We recommend that approval of pension credit outlined in ¶1506.2-5 of the 2016 Book of Discipline, be enforced.

record copies may be obtained from the Conference Benefits Office.

10. A Retired Minister’s Day is recommended to be the Third Sunday of May each year. The purpose of this day is to recognize the service of the retired servants and their families, and to involve the local churches in the recognition of the needs, both present and future.

If a retired minister does not reside within the bounds of a charge, but a member of a retired minister’s family does, they shall be invited to participate in the service (or observance); otherwise, recognition of these servants, and their service, should be observed appropriately. “Appropriately” should be determined by the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee of each local church. This committee shall have the responsibility of locating these people and relate the service of these persons to the local church and our Annual Conference. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will be responsible for providing promotional ideas and some materials (i.e., total years of service, percentage of retired ministers serving churches while in their retired status, etc.) when requested.

2019 Housing Allowances for the Arkansas Conference

The Arkansas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath during the period 1/1/2019-12/31/2019, by each active, retired, terminated, or clergyperson receiving disability benefits who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergy person’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergy person or former clergy person is urged to consult with his or her tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as housing allowance exclusion. A housing exclusion calculation worksheet may be requested from the Conference Benefits Office.

The 2020 Funding Plan is in process. When approved by Wespith it will be available on the ARUMC website.

Commission on Equitable Compensation

For 71 years, the Conference has provided financial support to churches allowing them to provide pastoral salaries suitable for their mission fields.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) of the Arkansas Annual Conference does this in four areas: recommending Minimum Compensation for all clergy under full-time appointment and providing Key Charge, Minimum Base Compensation, and emergency Salary Arrearage funding to churches identified by the Cabinet.

The mission of the CEC is to enable charges/churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ by providing appropriate compensation for effective pastoral leadership.

I. Minimum Full-Time Compensation

The CEC recommends that the 2020 Minimum Compensation Payment Schedule for full-time pastors under appointment remain as printed below. The guidelines remain unchanged. The payment schedule will increase for the first year since 2016.

Full Connection	Provisional/Associate Member	Local Pastor
$48,330	$47,280	$46,230

Appointed pastors serving a charge that provides a group health insurance plan shall be subject to the following minimum compensation support:

Full Connection	Provisional/Associate Member	Local Pastor
$36,330	$35,280	$34,230

A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage shall be provided in addition to the figures listed above.

II. Key Charge/Church Program for Base Compensation Support

The Key Charge/Church program provides Base Compensation Support to pastors who are appointed to charges/churches targeted for significant growth by the Conference or are in transition and require short-term support for effective pastoral leadership for various other reasons. Key Charges/Churches are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement. The covenant is negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge/church. The persons or their successors, shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures.

The covenant shall include:

1. The initial amount of the Base Compensation Support needed,
2. The duration of the covenant (normally five (5) years or less), and
3. The signatures of the persons negotiating the covenant.

The nature of the covenant is such that the amount of compensation support given shall decrease proportionately each year, while the compensation paid by the charge/church increases by at least the same amount, thus keeping the compensation at least stable over the covenant period. After the covenant has expired, no further compensation support will be granted to the charge/church. Under the Key Charge/Church arrangement, there shall be no required minimum or maximum levels of support by the charge/church. The only limitation will be the amount of funding budgeted for this program.

Each church receiving compensation shall report to the Commission each year at the consultation date with their district superintendent. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

III. Minimum Base Compensation Support

The Minimum Base Compensation program is intended to assist in providing compensation for capable, effective pastoral leadership to charges/churches which function in areas of extreme economic limitation and which are unable to provide a viable level of pastoral support. Where charges/churches are in need of additional compensation in order to meet the Minimum Compensation Base Support, this support is available to Elders in Full Connection, Provisional/Associate Members (not to be confused with associate pastors), and Full-Time Local Pastors who are not retired. The Minimum Base Compensation is set annually by the Bishop, Cabinet, and Annual Conference for Elders, Provisional/Associate Members, and Full-Time Local Pastors. (Minimum Full-Time Compensation has appeared previously in this report.)

Charges/churches receiving Minimum Compensation Support are related to the CEC by a covenant agreement negotiated by the chair of the Commission, the district superintendent, and representatives of the charge/church. The signors or their successors shall be the trustees of the covenant, having verified it with their signatures.

It is understood that:

1. A parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of the parsonage shall be provided in addition to the set compensation.
2. Associate pastors (not to be confused with Associate Members of the Annual Conference) are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid.

3. Retired pastors are not eligible for Minimum Compensation aid. See Paragraph 357.6 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
4. Each charge/church receiving Minimum Compensation Support shall provide to the Commission the amount(s) received from the Arkansas Conference for the past five (5) years. We further require that each local church describe how they will reduce this support through the local church's ministry plan. Each church receiving compensation shall report to the Commission each year at the consultation date with their district superintendent. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the Arkansas Annual Conference website at arumc.org.

IV. Emergency Salary Arrearage Support

Every clergy under appointment shall receive the full compensation set at Charge Conference. (See Paragraph 624 of the 2016 Discipline.) If a church is financially unable to provide the full compensation in a timely manner, the Annual Conference through the CEC may provide emergency funding to ensure the clergy is provided the compensation the church promised at the Charge Conference. The Arkansas Annual Conference Salary Arrearage Policy is found in Paragraph 103 of the Policy & Guidelines section of this Journal.

V. Equitable Compensation Covenant

When Equitable Compensation support has been granted to a charge/church, an acknowledgement of the conditions and amount of that funding shall be executed by the district superintendent, pastor, and leaders of the charge/church before any payment of funds shall be made. This acknowledgement shall be made on a form provided by the commission. No funds shall be disbursed until the agreement is signed and returned to the district superintendent. These forms are available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org.

The charge/church receiving financial support shall submit an annual report. The report form is available from the district superintendent and the conference website at arumc.org. Included in this report is the explanation of how these funds have aided the local charge/church. This report shall be returned at the scheduled annual assessment interview with the district superintendent.

VI. Additional Priorities

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation shall maintain adequate reserves to fund needs, which may emerge.
2. Each charge/church receiving equitable compensation in any of the above categories is expected to pay its conference tithe in full. If the charge/church is unable to accomplish this, they shall submit a written plan of action approved by their district superintendent, detailing the steps to be taken in order to achieve this goal. Notification of the plan will then be forwarded to the CEC.
3. All CEC funding is for pastoral support only. Using funds for any other purpose, such as program costs or other compensation violates the agreement.
4. Equitable Compensation funds are paid directly to the church/charge by the fifteenth (15th) of each month. The compensation shall be paid to the pastor as a supplement to funds budgeted by the charge/church. The calendar year of support is the same as the appointment year: from July 1 through June 30.

Future Facilities Task Force

At the 2017 Arkansas Annual Conference, a motion was approved to create a task force to study the current and future facility needs of the Arkansas Conference Office and to report the findings of the task force to the 2018 session of the Annual Conference. We began our work in September of 2018 by conducting a SWOT analysis of the current Conference Office facilities. A survey was sent to all conference staff and lay leadership to assess the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats of the current facility. Additionally, members of the task force conducted interviews with individuals of the conference staff and key lay leaders. Other task force members conducted site visits to the Central Texas and North Texas Conference facilities, while others completed phone interviews with other annual conferences.

In 2018, we requested more time for our work to be completed before moving forward with a resolution for the next steps. Given the current uncertainties we face as a denomination it is our recommendation that this matter no longer be pursued and the task force be dissolved. The conference may revisit this path if desired after the 2020 General Conference.

200,000 REASONS

to fight childhood hunger

Arkansas United Methodist Church united against childhood hunger

200,000 Reasons to Fight Childhood Hunger

Mission: 100% of Arkansas United Methodist churches will participate in an initiative to significantly reduce childhood hunger through feeding ministries, public witness, and education for long-term stability.

At the end of 2018, 78% of Arkansas United Methodist Churches have reported being involved throughout or at some point in the last 5 years in ministry or supportive of a ministry serving food insecure children and their families. This is up from 61% at the end of 2017. The goal is 100% by the end of the 6-year initiative.

When this initiative began in 2014, there were an estimated 200,000 children under the age of 18 who lived in food insecure households. In 2018, this number had fallen to 163,800 through the efforts of statewide partnerships including Arkansas Hunger Relief Alliance, regional food banks, food pantries, and other ministries that the ARUMC provides. Such ministries include Cooking Matters classes, school pantries, afterschool snacks, summer meals, community meals, mobile food pantries, blessing boxes, weekend backpacks of food, and community gardens.

Through financial gifts to the 200K Reasons Initiative from the Paysinger Endowment and Palmer Endowment at the United Methodist Foundation, UMWs, clergy, lay and congregations, $155,000 of competitive grant awards has been made throughout the initiative. An additional $25,000 from Wal-Mart in 2016 is being used to offer Cooking Matters classes around the state.

Even with this progress and commitment from the ARUMC and local congregations, some realities stay the same: 1 in 4 children in Arkansas face food insecurity; no community is without the food insecure; poverty is the main cause; obesity is linked to food insecurity; and children who go to school hungry cannot thrive academically.

The ARUMC is uniquely positioned to make a real difference in the lives of the food insecure around the state. With at least 1 Methodist church or organization in every county, our ministries can make access to food, meals, nutrition education and resources more available to those in need. Further, our expertise involves building relationships, making connections and offering a community to which to belong. Ministries that offer food can create these type of opportunities for disciple-making and community building.

Thus, the 200K Reasons staff will continue to invite and resource churches around the state to participate in ministries to serve hungry children. To get started or to expand local ministries to food insecure children and their families, ask "Where do children live, learn and play?" Look for partnerships with other congregations and community organizations such as a local food pantry, a ministerial alliance, or the Boys & Girls Clubs. Be willing to go where God is working and calling you to serve. Develop ministries that work within your context and maximize resources. Listen to the needs of those you serve and move from informing them how you will help them to standing alongside and empowering the ones you are inviting to be in community with through 200,000 Reasons.

ARCHIVES & HISTORY

General Commission on Archives and History

Commission on Archives and History

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that “in each annual conference there shall be a conference commission on archives and history.... It shall be the duty of the commission to collect, preserve, and make accessible the historically significant records of the annual conference and its agencies...; to encourage and assist the local churches in preserving their records, compiling their histories, and celebrating their heritage; to provide for the permanent safekeeping of the historical records of all abandoned or discontinued churches in the bounds of the annual conference and its antecedents; to maintain a fire-safe historical and archival depository and to see that all items that obviously will have value for future history are properly preserved therein; to provide for the ownership of real property and to receive gifts and requests; to nominate to the General Commission on Archives and History buildings, locations, or structures within the annual conference for designation as historic sites or heritage landmarks; to maintain contact with officially designated historic sites and heritage landmarks in their bounds; to assist the bishop or the appropriate conference committee in planning for...historical observances at annual conference sessions; to establish retention and disposition schedules for annual conference and local church records under standards and guidelines developed by the General Commission...; to cooperate with and report, when requested, to the general and jurisdictional commissions on archives and history; and to engage with other Wesleyan, Methodist, or Evangelical United Brethren-related denominations in lifting up our joint heritage...” (P641, 2016 edition). To accomplish these tasks, the Arkansas Conference Commission coordinates and oversees its three entities: (1) The Arkansas United Methodist Church Archives / Winfred D. Polk Methodist Archives; (2) The United Methodist Historical Society of Arkansas; and (3) The United Methodist Museum of the Arkansas Conference.

As a ministry of the United Methodist Church, the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History holds the vision that “vital disciples create vital congregations who make disciples of Jesus Christ who have a vital impact on their mission field” (cover, 2017 Journal of the Arkansas Annual Conference of the UMC). Its purpose is to collect and tell stories of the unfolding relationship between God and His creation. It assembles and shares written records, memorabilia, and digital documentation of clergy, lay persons, churches, and programs of the Conference. It focuses on stories of historical interest, but also collects stories about present-day issues and preserves them for future generations. As the General Commission on Archives and History states: “Our understanding of our past helps us envision the future.” For, since the time of cavemen around a campfire, stories have brought us together and have helped us discover who and whose we are. Sharing stories has inspired mankind to see things in different ways and to try doing things in new ways. Stories have encouraged us to persevere through hardships and disappointments, and they have revitalized us when we were burned out. Stories in the Old Testament sustained the Israelites in exile, and vivid parables by the greatest of teachers, Jesus, help us remember what is important in our lives. Today, more than ever, we need stories of faith and of God-moments to “help bring people to some kind of 'felt' experience which plummets them into the love of God" (Rev. Fred Day, General Secretary, General Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church).

Listed below are ways the Conference can measure the progress of its Commission on Archives and History, supported by apportioned funds:

❖ Provide quality facilities with trained and enthusiastic personnel

Open to the public on Thursday all day and by appointment, the Arkansas UMC Archives, located in the library at Hendrix College in Conway, are available without charge to anyone wishing to do research on topics related to the United Methodist Church and its predecessor organizations. Additionally, the archivists work independently and together from their own home computers and cell phones to assist researchers throughout the week and when preparing displays for annual conference or other events. Archivists Marcia Crossman and Carole Teague have prior experience as employees within the Arkansas Conference and are well-versed in the terminology and organizational connections of the United Methodist Church. The best way to contact the archivists is by e-mail at arkmethodist@hendrix.edu or by calling the archivists at their personal cell phone numbers listed in the current Journal of the Arkansas Annual Conference of the UMC.

Open for visits on Sunday morning and Wednesday morning, or by appointment, the UM Museum of the Arkansas Conference is located in First United Methodist Church, Little Rock. The curator, Shakeelah Rahmaam, uses the contemporary museum software PastPerfect to catalog items for the collection, and she works with museum committee members to plan special exhibits. From April through October 2018, the museum hosted an exhibit of memorabilia from Dr. Pearle McCain, an Arkansas native who served as a Methodist missionary to China and later to Japan. This exhibit was appropriately entitled "Faith in Action." Beginning in December 2018, the museum staff and volunteers, with research assistance from the archivists, presented a print and digital exhibit on Methodism's founder John Wesley and his brother Charles Wesley. Hopefully, confirmation classes, as well as other groups and individuals, will visit this exhibit.

❖ Serve the research needs of churches and individuals

In 2018 the archivists assisted 74 individuals or churches with their requests for information to plan programs; to prepare church anniversary celebrations; to provide photographs of pastors and churches; to write obituaries, family histories, and articles; to assist church personnel in district and conference offices; and to answer personal questions about churches, parsonages, pastors, and people of faith. This year requests have come from across the country, from California to New Jersey, as well as Arkansas churches, the conference treasurer, district superintendents, Methodist Family Health, the UM Foundation office, and writers at the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. The archivists respond to e-mails, phone calls, and personal visits to the archives, often working with a single researcher for several weeks. In addition, the archivists maintain a website, www.arkansasumcarchives.com, which makes available numerous resources to anyone anywhere with internet access, and it includes links with instructions for a historian developing local church archives. At the UM Museum this year 159 visitors signed the guest book. These guests, individuals and groups of visitors, enjoyed free, guided tours of the permanent collection and two special exhibits, as well as opening-day receptions for each exhibit. Recently, personnel distributed a newsletter for the museum, and they hope to develop lesson plans around exhibits for different age groups.

❖ Provide access 24/7 through a user-friendly website and a Facebook page

An attractive and easy-to-use resource, the website, www.arkansasumcarchives.com, reaches out 24/7 to all readers with internet access. It helps us share the good news of our people and our churches, past and present, anytime and anywhere. Maintained by the archivists, it contains information from the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History, the Archives, the Museum, and the Historical Society. To date, our archivists have scanned and posted issues of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper from 1884-1944. The website also contains nine full-text books on the history of Arkansas Methodism and the Evangelical United Brethren Church, and it offers journals from six conferences related to the Arkansas Conference and its predecessors, dating as far back as the 1850's. The site offers links to print and video resources on the Wesley family, the United Methodist Church and its antecedents, the archives of other United Methodist Annual Conferences, the General Commission on Archives and History, and the award-winning video entitled "Francis Asbury: The Flame Spirit," released in 2017. In addition to the website, museum personnel maintain an online presence using a Facebook page. It announces special exhibits and other information pertaining to the museum. Sometimes the curator posts photos of items in the museum and writes a short article on each posting. This Facebook page allows patrons to interact and leave their own comments about topics related to the museum.

❖ Utilize modern technology to facilitate delivery of information in a timely and professional manner

In addition to a website and a Facebook page, this ministry utilizes computer and scanner equipment, CDs, TV monitor, improved lighting capabilities, and other modern methods to efficiently deliver professional-looking documents and displays. With funding from a successful grant proposal to the United Methodist Foundation, the museum recently purchased and installed professional-quality tract lighting in two of the galleries. These high-efficiency lights are adjustable and provide perfect white light to illuminate various displays. Phase II of the project includes the purchase and installation of computer projection and display panels to provide multi-media exhibitions. Also using modern technology, the archivists photograph text and pictures with their iPhone or iPad, e-mail the requested information quickly and free to patrons, and incur no "shipping" costs to the archives. The archivists have compiled several CDs that patrons may purchase through the website at a nominal cost. One CD includes out-of-print books on Arkansas Methodist history. For another CD the archivists collected and compiled histories and photographs of clergywomen in Arkansas United Methodism to celebrate 60 years of ordaining women as elders in the UMC. These CDs are useful resources for those who cannot visit the archives.

❖ Engage in a major digitalization project

A significant measure of progress is the digitization of the Arkansas Methodist newspapers from 1884 to the present, an ongoing project that must be accomplished before the crumbling paper issues completely disintegrate. Using the state-of-the-art BookEye scanner, which was generously purchased through the Wilfred D. Polk Charitable Trust several years ago, issues of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper are now available from 1884 through 1944, as well as current issues, to anyone anywhere with internet access. This year Ms. Teague scanned every page between 1937 and 1944, or 15,300 pages of newsprint. Additionally, she took time to date each picture in the newspapers and to photograph it with her iPhone. Then using the Minolta color copier, she made a superior copy of each photograph on acid-free paper and placed it in the vertical files. Our archival files now contain many more photographs of pastors who have served Arkansas through the years. Also, this year a Hendrix student transferred the entries of a cumbersome, old computer file to a Microsoft Excel file and linked it to the web site for the archives. Now anyone with internet service can access the index of the Arkansas Methodist newspaper.

❖ Educate and inform the public

All three entities under the Commission work together to bring educational events and publications to the public. As the “Friends” group for Archives and History, the Historical Society will host a luncheon on April 27, 2019. For the program a panel of retired United Methodist ministers will share stories, both amusing and touching, about their years of ministry in Arkansas. Although extenuating circumstances prevented the Historical Society from having its annual luncheon in 2018, it held two special public events in 2017 to remember 200 years of Methodism in Arkansas. At the annual spring luncheon and program on April 8, 2017, the speaker, Josh Williams, Curator of Historic Washington State Park, gave a preview of the special event planned for the fall. Then on a beautiful October 14, 2017, over 140 faithful United Methodists gathered at the site of the first Methodist building—Henry’s Chapel on Mound Prairie near present-day Hope, AR—to celebrate the 200th anniversary of Methodism in Arkansas. In an old-fashioned camp meeting, with lots of singing and powerful preaching, Bishop Gary Mueller gave a sermon and led a meaningful worship service, which included a Celebration of the Lord’s Supper. Bishop Mueller challenged the congregation to be the Methodist movement to grow vital disciples for Jesus Christ rather than to simply make members of a particular church. After the service the attendees bussed back to Historic Washington State Park to view historical displays prepared by the archivists; to eat a delicious, free, hamburger lunch; and to take guided tours of the nearby historic Washington United Methodist Church. The event was financed through successful grants (at no cost to the Commission or the Arkansas Conference) and graciously hosted by the Washington UMC, under the leadership of Rev. Keenan Williams, the church’s pastor and the chairman of the Arkansas UM Historical Society.

Another outreach of the UM Historical Society has been its newsletter, Occasional Papers, published once or twice a year on some aspect of Arkansas Methodist history and distributed to 200 members across the state. However, with the untimely death of its capable editor, Virginia White of Benton, in November 2017, the newsletter has suspended publication until someone else steps forward to edit the newsletter and continue to share the history of Arkansas Methodism in this format.

To educate the public, museum personnel and volunteers give free, guided tours and, from time to time, offer special tours and receptions, centered on a particular topic or targeted to a particular group of people in the community. Special exhibits in 2018 included an exhibit of memorabilia from Methodist missionary and Arkansas native, Pearle McCain, and a print and digital presentation on John and Charles Wesley.

At Annual Conference in May 2019, volunteers, representing the archives, the museum, and the historical society, plan to be at the Commission on Archives and History booth to share information through displays and handouts, to answer questions about this ministry, and to take Historical Society memberships from interested conference attendees. Memberships are only $10 per person annually and proceeds help support the ministries of the archives and the museum. Additionally, CDs will be available for purchase, with proceeds going to benefit the work of the archives. Helpful for historians, seminary students, and clergy, one CD contains out-of-print books on Methodism and the other CD, “Called to Be Bold, Stepping Out in Faith,” has stories and photographs from eighty-one Arkansas women who share the unique challenges of their Calls to Ministry.

❖ Create an experience, not merely provide information

A visit to the museum is an ideal way to experience the past...observe the hard, wooden pews (no cushions); see vestments the pastors wore; touch the communion chalice used by faithful brothers and sisters of another era; and see photographs of faithful souls your pastor or your parents talked about when you were a child. Also, to help people experience their history; the museum board has presented several special exhibits and is planning more temporary exhibits in the future. For example, seeing objects used by missionary Pearle McCain gives us a peek into her daily life, far from family and friends. In a similar way, pages posted on the web from old Arkansas Methodist newspapers may help readers live a little in the lives of Arkansans of a hundred years ago and generate feelings that “plummet them into the love of God.” These newspapers were the CNN and the internet of another era, as they gave people information on local, state, and national news, especially for rural Arkansans. These papers were also the Facebook and Twitter of that time, revealing the lifestyle of pastors and their congregations and showing how our Methodist brethren grappled with the issues of their day—politics, prohibition, Indian affairs, race relations, women’s rights, etc. Even ads for products such as miracle medicinal cures give us a glimpse into the lives of our brothers and sisters in an era before antibiotics and modern medicine. But there are also stories in these pages about the ministry of women who saved nickels and dimes from their egg and garden produce sales to send missionaries to rural areas of our state and across the world. There are stories for children about “Father Wesley,” articles for young people who dreamed of attending Galloway or Hendrix College, and lengthy obituaries with inspiring language we could only hope someone might write about us when our time comes.

❖ Generate goodwill and spread the joy that comes from sharing the Story

Progress may also be measured in the mutual goodwill and the joy of sharing that collaboration on creative projects fosters among all participants. The following examples illustrate goodwill and sharing that has occurred at the archives and the museum this year. Several pastors and laity proudly gave the archives old Conference Journals, historical books, photographs, and other materials related to the Methodist church in Arkansas. Others have kindly donated treasured items to the museum from closed churches or from their attics. After the successful Pearle McCain exhibit at the museum, Dr. McCain’s family members were so pleased with the exhibit that they donated additional items that will enhance future displays. When a former pastor’s grandson in California requested information about a particular church, the administrator for that district offered to take a photograph of the church cornerstone and send it to him. A requester from Texas actually had more information on his subject than our archives had, so he allowed us to add his information to our files. After an archivist in Missouri noticed our website with Journals from antecedent conferences, he offered to send us digital copies of journals related to our conference that we were not aware even existed. Just as the popular proverb states: “It takes a village to raise a child,” so it takes the collaboration of many people to record and to tell the Story, and therein lies the joy of sharing the Story.

Reaching beyond this conference, the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History works with Commission personnel in other conferences, in the Jurisdiction, and with the General Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church as they mutually seek ways to continue this unique ministry of memory and to help bring about a spiritual revival in the United Methodist Church. The Arkansas Conference Commission chairman and the archivists have taken advantage of the resources and training opportunities offered by the staff of the General Commission, located at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey. They read Methodist History journals, current Methodist news articles, and documents sent from the General Secretary of the General Commission and his office. They attend conferences of the UMC, as well as training sessions and General Commission meetings led by the General Secretary and other members of the General Commission on Archives and History. Participation in these activities helps the Arkansas Conference Commission on Archives and History become more effective in its ministry.

In all their work, our archivists, curator, and volunteers take seriously their responsibility to decide what materials are history making and worthy to belong in the collections to tell the Story. They continue to collect documents, memorabilia, and photographs for long-term storage and quality preservation, especially materials about present-day clergy, ministries, local churches, and closed churches within our conference. Recent purchases, such as professional-quality lighting in museum galleries, the PastPerfect software, a Minolta color copier, and the BookEye book scanner, help us meet our goals and those of the Conference. They help extend our glimpse into the lives of the people of faith of our day and of those who came before us. In all we do, we seek to be good stewards of apportioned funds and other gifts and to maximize their usefulness. As we move into the future the ministry of memory helps us learn from our past as we anticipate our priorities for the future. Like our very own souls, the work of Archives and History will always be a work in progress.

Therefore, with hearts open to the Holy Spirit, we move ahead with our Mission: "To make disciples of Jesus Christ equipped to transform the world with excellence and passion." "Come, Holy Spirit, come."

Board of Discipleship

The Board of Discipleship in this past year has spent some time discerning our purpose and how best to support the work of the Center for Vitality. Many efforts have been made to give local congregations the tools needs to identify and implement intentional discipleship processes that will aid in creating a culture of disciples making disciples who make disciples.

With this in mind, the BOD has spent time defining our purpose. We feel that as a board we are are to work at "demystifying" discipleship and to embrace it as a lifestyle, a way of life for people who love Jesus and love others in Jesus' name. We believe that in doing so, we as United Methodist, will name, claim and live out our faith with that identity. It is our goal to offer tools for people to fall in love with a disciple's way of life and make the journey that will equip us to live out our faith in Jesus Christ.

We value that every congregation is gifted for ministry and mission. That discipleship is about relationship, and building those relationships is crucial. Discipleship is not a program that is implemented, but it requires consistent work over time. In this process, discipleship should be freeing and not overwhelming as it grows organically both in the individual and the corporate context.

All of our mission fields are diverse and complex. By offering tools of varying sorts, what is needed can be identified for its purpose. Making disciples is a journey with unpredictable outcomes and results and can become overwhelming with a sense of “requirements” of being a disciple. This is where seeing our discipleship, as a way of life becomes an important factor in our seeing vital congregations making disciples who make disciples.

It is our plan to unfold for the 2019 Annual Conference “Discipleship365”. By identifying and embracing various platforms where people are telling stories, we can begin to see the evidence of discipleship as a way of life. In the next year it is the desire of the Board of Discipleship to create a buzz of telling those stories of both lay and clergy, people of every age, big and small...the untold stories of discipleship being lived as a lifestyle. We want to empower local churches to tell those stories, facilitate the connection of people as we fulfill the trajectory of our Annual Conference, to build and restore the connection as United Methodist as we seek to live out the mission of the church in making disciples of Jesus Christ.

Conference Camp and Retreat Ministries

This has been a year of restructuring the Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry in line with decisions made last year. In this restructure we have focused on our purpose statement and organizational systems.

1. Arkansas Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry Purpose Statement - The purpose statement of Camp and Retreat Ministries in the Arkansas Conference shall be: The mission of the ARUMC Camp and Retreat Ministry is to enhance the trajectory of the Arkansas Conference through resourcing local churches in their disciple-making ministry by providing unique opportunities for the children, youth, and adults of local churches to seek God in places set apart from normal routines and the demands of the world. By bringing people together in new communities with opportunities for mission, service, intentional ethnic diversity, the practice of genuine discipleship through experiential faith formation, prayer, worship and spiritual renewal, Camp and Retreat Ministries help participants return to their congregations and communities with a renewed commitment to be a part of Jesus’ inclusive work in the world

2. Camp and Retreat Center Governance
 - a. All camps or retreat centers will be governed strictly by their individual boards. Each camp board will be responsible for its own operation and programming.
 - b. Relationship Statements between the Arkansas Conference and partner camps and retreat centers will be created to guide the relationship and will be reviewed every quadrennium or when either party desires to review the agreement.
 - c. As extension ministries of the Arkansas Conference, Camps and Retreat Centers with relationship statements will be given representation with voice on the Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry Committee and other conference structures as may be determined.

Bear Creek and Shoal Creek camps are not currently seeking accreditation. If the camps are not accredited by December 31, 2018 the Arkansas Conference will not renew relationship statements and will end support and funding of these camps effective January 1, 2019. d. The Arkansas Conference is willing to explore renewing relationship statements with Bear Creek and Shoal Creek if they become accredited by 2018 Arkansas Conference Journal 285 I ANNUAL REPORTS ACA, with the understanding that the process of accomplishing accreditation and maintaining the standards of the ACA is the sole responsibility of the boards of each camp or their designee.

5. Camp Tanako, Mount Eagle, and Shoal Creek are all ACA accredited at this time and are in full compliance with the Arkansas Conference. Bear Creek is working with ACA representatives to come under accreditation by the end of 2019, which is the deadline.

*ACA (American Camp Association) accreditation focuses primarily on the health, safety, and risk management aspects of a camp's operation. ACA collaborates with experts of national organizations serving children and youth to assure that current practices of the camp reflect the most up to date research and litigation-based standards in camp operation.

 Unless accredited, positions will end December 31, 2018. A motion was made and passed to extend the deadline to December 31, 2019. See Minutes section of 2018 Journal.

Conference Council on Children's Ministries

The Conference Council on Children's Ministries (CCCM) continues to maintain its focus to connecting/network people involved with children's ministry throughout the state of Arkansas and to equip those people for ministry in their local congregations. We exist to provide quality training, nurture, support, and resources for children's ministers, both paid and unpaid. We continue to sponsor social media pages and see broad geographical access to our sites, as leaders have learned to count on us for valuable and accurate information regarding their ministry needs.

You will notice some rebranding of the logos and changes to the role expectations of the Children's Council representatives. The Conference Communication team was asked to refresh our logo for children's ministry as well as our email signature and website layout. The Communication team went above and beyond expectations. They also created a new promotional brochure for clergy and children's ministers to explain how the Children's Council and the Children's Coordinator can help your church's ministry to children.

Children's Council representatives are now tasked with creating small group opportunities within their districts for those that work with children. We request that church leadership encourage your children's ministers to attend these small group opportunities within your district so that they may receive teaching techniques and create Covenant Groups as a way to give each other the pastoral care needed to sustain quality ministry. Our hope is to create an environment of encouragement so that they do not find themselves burned out and deserting their call to minister to children.

The Children's Ministry Council and coordinator are here to equip children's ministers and the children they serve. We have two formal ways to equip children's ministers. We hold a two-day conference every January called Beyond providing valuable training and connections for volunteers and staff working with children. Beyond 2019 brought us the most attendees to date. We had a grand total number of 70 registrations from all over the state of Arkansas and one from Oklahoma!

We also plan and hold District mini-worships throughout the year that focus on various training opportunities like recruiting volunteers, classroom management, VBS support and how to pick curriculum that teaches Methodist theology. Children's Council representatives will hold approximately six small group opportunities a year.

For children, Quest was held for the first time this September of 2018 for 3rd-6th graders. We had an outpouring of smaller churches make up a grand total of 150 children and adults. We felt that was a successful base for a first-time event that wasn't well known to church leadership. Quest was created to give children the opportunity to connect with other Arkansas UMC children, as well as learn about God's love and the call to be disciples. This one-day event provides lively worship, communion, educational small groups, service projects and of course FUN! Quest 2019 will be held September 28, 2019, and will feature Michelle Moore and her Culture of Call team teaching student lesson rotations written by Sean Dunbar and Tammy Felder.

Wonderfully Made is the new human sexuality curriculum endorsed by the United Methodist Church. Created by God has stopped publication. March 7 & 8, 2019 we held a train the trainer's workshop on the new curriculum and certification in order to provide trainers for churches in each district. Look at the Conference website under Children's Ministry to find a Wonderfully Made educator who can schedule to come to your church for the fall semester.

Our 2019 focus for our children's council will be as follows: Worship for all! When we say all, we want to make worship including accessibility for all ages, behaviors, abilities, and education. We hope to educate clergy and children's ministers on ways they can prepare a worship service that all feel comfortable and are able to take part in the worship. We know that by helping church leadership create worship for all that it directly correlates to furthering the outreach and growth of the church body. We will continue to work to build relationships and collaboration between churches and districts. Two examples of that would be District-sponsored Bible Boot Camps and Confirmation Retreats at camp Tanako.

This year your District Coordinators council are as follows:

- Central District: Tammy Felder, Little Rock, and Kayla Tullos, Maumelle
- Southeast District: Christie Park; Whitehall
- Southwest District: Michelle Wilkins, Hot Springs; Peaches Smith, Hot Springs
- Northeast District: Katie McLean, Batesville; Tiffany Jones, Beebe
- Northwest District: Sally Ware, Fort Smith; Sadie Stratton, Bentonville. Rachel Hogue, Russellville

Specialty Representatives:

- Karen Swales -Safe Sanctuaries and Curriculum
- Sadie Stratton - Wonderfully Made Trainer

Conference Coordinator of Children's Ministries

In October, the Board of Church and Society chairs from across the connection attended an event at Drew Seminary and discussed ways we could help each other be more informed, and also hear from the directors from GBCS about their ongoing work. We also crafted a statement opposing the gambling proposal on the November 2018 ballot.

In January, the Arkansas Annual Conference sent two young clergy to the Young Clergy Summit in Washington, D.C., sponsored by the GBCS. Rev. Lauren DeLano from FUMC Conway and Rev. Jennie Williams from Highland Valley UMC attended. The goals of this meeting are:

- Connect young clergy with the ministry of Church and Society.
- Provide a forum to share knowledge and experience.
- Create bridges for future ministry collaboration.

- Build relationships with other young clergy from across the United Methodist connection.

Rev. Steve Copley continues to serve as our Peace with Justice Coordinator:

The General Board of Church and Society website states about the need for peace with justice with the following statement. They write, "in a world plagued by war and terror, violence and destruction, people of faith have a clear call to build peace with justice. As your Arkansas Conference Coordinator of Peace with Justice, we have developed encouraged local congregations to take the Peace with Justice offering during the year. We have given three grants this year to work that we believe furthers the ideals of peace with justice. They are: a) Hiroshima Day event in Little Rock; b) Latino Crime Victims Assistance Center; and, c) Freedom School of Central Arkansas. – Rev. Steve Copley

Lastly, in the wake of the called session of the General Conference, and as your chair of our Board of Church and Society, I lift up the fact that we are a hurting denomination in the midst of a hurting society. We must reach out in love beyond ourselves and continue to have conversations with those who do not believe the same as we do. Continue to pray for the LGBTQIA community in the midst of the pain caused by our actions. We pray for the Holy Spirit to engulf us as resurrection people- that we may clearly see the paths to truly be the body of Christ to the world. Only this will help us to continue to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Continued thanks for those of you who feel a call to work for justice and mercy. Your help in your local church and community is appreciated very much. Continue to speak out when you see injustice. You may be the only voice, but your voice matters. Please join us for the Church and Society lunch. The lunch will be on Friday May 31, during the lunch break from conference business at Grand Avenue UMC (841 Quapaw Ave.). The cost is $10 and a reservation can be made through your registration for Annual Conference.

Peace be with you,

Rev. Jay Clark, Chair

Developer of Clergy Recruitment

In its first year, the work of the new position of Developer of Clergy Recruitment has been both productive and encouraging. I've worked to establish both short term and long term goals to both create a culture of calling in the ARUMC and to increase the number of clergy in the ARUMC.

A few accomplishments so far:

- The creation of a database of over 100 names of elementary to young adult age of those who might be exploring a calling to ministry of some type.
- Establishing a more intentional relationship between the ARUMC and current seminarians.
- Website for all information related to exploring a calling to ministry created.
- Continued collaboration with the Culture of Call Task Force created in 2017.
- Seminary visit scheduled to both check in and encourage current students from the ARUMC and to recruit students looking for a conference to serve in upon graduation.
- Working to create curriculum and online resources for children, youth and adults to discuss calling and vocation in the local church.

- Establishing a more permanent relationship with the Hendrix Youth Institute program in order to build relationships with youth exploring a calling to ministry early.

I continue to be encouraged and excited about the possibilities for the ARUMC members as we renew a commitment to help our congregation members find how God's calling them and to walk to the journey with those who answer a call to full time ordained or lay ministry.

Michelle Moore,

Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns shall collaborate with the existing structures of the annual Conference in order to implement, evaluate, and update the Annual Conference of its comprehensive plan as it relates to ethnic issues. The Committee will consult with and assist other conference entities in training and implementation of matters related to ethnic local churches. The committee shall maintain the connectional relations mandated by ¶632 and ¶ 654. Additionally, this committee shall be charged with implementing all General Conference emphases related to:

- National Hispanic Plan
- Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century
- National Korean Ministry Plan
- Native American Ministries (¶654)
- Other ethnic programs emanating from the General Conference.

The Ethnic and Language Concerns Committee works in three (3) areas to support local congregations in their efforts to make disciples by providing funding in the following areas:

- Leadership Development (both lay and clergy)
- Mission Field Outreach
- Internship Program (undergraduate students only)

We are fully aware that the majority of the ethnic churches in Arkansas are small, and have fewer resources outside of the annual conference; therefore, our goal is to assist them by providing these needed resources. The majority of these congregations are served by less-than-full-time non-ordained clergy. While bi-vocational clergy have long histories in our churches the lack of formal training creates contexts wherein both lay and clergy are in need of valuable context-based interactions and training. The goal of this committee is in line strategically with the Arkansas Conference as we always seek to empower our congregations to be self-sufficient.

Our newest initiative, the ELC Internship Program, is a faith discernment and gifts development cohort by which college students have opportunity to partner with an elder and serve in an ethnic church setting. This service is a means to try on ministry in the church and has development cohort by which college students have opportunity to partner with an elder in the area of the church agreed upon by the local church, supervising elder, and the intern. The interns serve for a full year. We are looking forward to sharing our results with each of you following the completion of this first cohort.

The Committee on Ethnic and Language Concerns will continue to be reflective, committed, and passionate in its effort to address/meet the concerns of the Ethnic Local Church, the strategic initiatives of The United Methodist Church in Arkansas, and responsive to the Bishop Mission's initiative in fulfilling the greater mission of spreading the good news of the gospel, making disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples throughout the world.

Grace and peace,

Ronnie L. Miller-Yow, Chair

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The United Methodist Church

Arkansas Conference Board of Global Ministries

The conference board of global ministries shall interpret the programs, plans and policies of the GBGM and promote the emphases on global ministries within the context of the annual conference (Book of Discipline 633.2). We are to connect the local church through mission opportunities and through mission initiatives

The Board of Global Ministries of the Arkansas Conference has determined that our mandate fits well under priorities listed as Next Steps in the Bishop's Mission Plan. These priorities guide us as we intentionally vision, plan and implement our work guided by these priorities.

The Committee's mandate is to connect with local churches through mission initiatives such as global health, disaster response, and missionary personnel opportunities for young adults. The list below explains some of the ways we are called to action:

The Advance for Christ and His Church (the Advance) is a ministry of Second Mile giving to support mission projects and Mission Personnel within the United States and other countries.

Christian Unity and Inter-religious Concerns – engages in promoting understanding, cooperation and peace through ecumenical and interfaith relationship.

Advocate for the Poor and Justice for our Neighbor –resources the local church in opportunities and means to give voice and visibility to all who may not be heard or seen.

Volunteers in Mission – hands on opportunities for local churches to engage in helping our neighbors during times of disaster and everyday need.

Mission Personnel - the Arkansas Conference currently has one (1) Church and Community Worker assigned to work with Inter-faith and Inter-religious Concerns, Advocate for the Poor and Justice for Our Neighbor. BOGM is currently working to assess mission personnel opportunities in the Southeast District. Each local church can support mission personnel within our state and in other places by participating in a "Covenant Relationship".

Disaster Response- coordinates and works with UMCOR to respond within our borders and beyond to assist with events and outreach needs. UMCOR is often the first in and last to leave. Each local church is encouraged to support the six special UMC Sundays, one of which is UMCOR Sunday (One Great Hour of Sharing).

Parish and Community Development – the general responsibility of PCD is to assist in research, planning, and implementation of programs connecting parish and community to local and national plans for PCD.

United Methodist Women -Global Ministries has a long history of cooperative ministry support and engagement with and through United Methodist Women and is a co-sponsor for Mission u. Our school of mission ranks among the best in the Country. Mission u provides an excellent learning experience for laity, clergy, children and youth.

Brenda Norwood Henson, Chairperson

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries shall work with the chairperson of the Conference Board of Global Ministries to the objectives and scope of work of the General Board of Global Ministries. A major responsibility of Global Ministries is to connect the various parts of the church as United Methodists engage in global mission. As a biblically rooted and historically informed organization, Global Ministries facilitates engagement in God's mission.

There were no missionaries that itinerated to the Arkansas Conference in 2018. I have been informed that our conference will have missionaries itinerating the last quarter of 2019.

I am excited to report that David and Elizabeth McCormick along with their two children have joined the Mission Advocate team and are serving the South Central Jurisdiction. They had been living and serving in Mozambique since 2016. They are now residing in North Little Rock, AR and we are fortunate and blessed to have them in our conference.

The Mission Ambassadors Summit was held in Atlanta, Georgia December 3-5, 2018. The purpose was to strengthen the connectional network of mission resources, general church agencies, missionaries, laity and clergy representatives for annual conferences and jurisdictions. In addition, the event highlighted Global Ministries' bicentennial celebration of mission. The event was well represented by the Arkansas Conference. The Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Connectional Ministries, Jim Polk, Conference Board of Global Ministries Chair Brenda Norwood, two District Secretaries, Mission Personnel Coordinator, South Central Jurisdiction Mission Advocates and I were in attendance. We engaged in workshops of our choosing. Each jurisdiction had a breakout session and several global ministry staff persons made brief appearances and explained their role and purpose. There was fellowship, praise and worship during our time there. It was a great time of strategy and educating those new to position on their role and responsibilities. There was a follow-up meeting that was very productive.

The SCJ have had several conference calls planning our fall Secretary Global Ministries Gathering. It will be held in Cornrow, Texas September 30th through October 3rd, 2019.

I look forward to the missionaries that are to itinerate the fourth quarter of the year, visiting local churches and telling their mission story.

We believe that the church, as the faithful community of Christ, moves in hope toward our United Methodist goal of making disciples for the transformation of the world. We look forward to this intention to the fulfillment, which is God's mission.

Marleene Calvin

HIGHER EDUCATION & MINISTRY

General Board of Higher Education and Ministry

Higher Education and Campus Ministry

As I prepared to write this report I reread and reviewed the reports from each of the United Methodist campus ministries in Arkansas. As I read the Charge Conference reports as well as director's annual reports and metrics report, I was excited to see the large number of students as well as the variety of ways we are involved in campus ministry through Wesley Foundations at ASU, ATU, HSUOBU, SAU, UA, UALR, UAM, UAPB and UCA. We are also in ministry at Hendrix College and Philander Smith College through the chaplain's offices on these two United Methodist college campuses. We continue a United Methodist ministry to students at Lyon College as well as UA Fort Smith. Through the Bread of Life mobile food pantry, stocked and staffed by the ASU Wesley Foundation, we have begun making contact with students at ASU Newport, ASU Marked Tree, ASU Jonesboro, as well as Black River Technical College and BRTC Paragould. Campus ministry at community colleges is an important mission field we want to address further. It will require building partnerships with local churches with a heart for these students. All of us on the Board and all of our campus ministers would love to visit with you about these opportunities.

We are deeply grateful for the financial support the Arkansas Conference provides. Your support is a key part of being able to have a campus minister at each of these locations. Lately some Annual Conferences around the country have looked at campus ministry as a place to trim their Conference budgets. We are grateful for the vision of the Arkansas Conference to continue funding campus ministries at current levels. Campuses are unique and critically important mission fields. Students arrive on campus at a variety of places on their journeys of faith. Some students arrive as wellformed disciples who have been blessed to have had strong discipleship experiences through youth groups, Bible study and mission trips. Other students come with a curiosity about having a deeper walk of faith as they are making significant decisions about vocation and their faith and values as adults. While some students are curious, others are deeply skeptical. This skepticism may come from the need to question and claim my faith as my own or it may be rooted in hurts, which stem from negative experiences with Christians or in judgmental churches. Our United Methodist campus ministries offer an experience in the Wesleyan way of faith.

Because students have such a variety of needs and because campuses have unique cultures, no two United Methodist campus ministries in Arkansas are alike. However, at each campus there are opportunities for worship, mission and service, learning, fellowship and outreach. These are the components necessary for students to become disciples and to grow as disciples. Another important experience for students is to be involved as student leaders in campus ministry.

These leadership positions are important as students are exploring their vocational direction. A very important part of campus ministry is helping students discover their gifts and how they can use them in career as well as living as a disciple of Jesus.

We are pleased to have been able to sponsor seven interns on six campuses (ASU, of $90,000 worth of work on the facilities. This year we particularly focused our work on security and safety upgrades. The money you share helped us fund leadership grants, including a coach for the campus ministry directors.

This allows us to stay aware of changes in and new understandings of ministry on campus.

Each week several hundred students gather in United Methodist campus ministries across our state. The directors and student leaders are ready. We need students to know we are here. Please encourage students from your local church or community to find us. Even better, let us know they are coming to campus. On the Conference website at www.arumc.org there is a campus ministry page. On this page you may share names and contact information of students attending these colleges. If you let us know they are coming, we will be in contact with them. You have nurtured many of these college students throughout their lives. We want to continue to be in ministry with them.

Thanks for your support.

Roy P. Smith, Chairperson

2019 Board of Laity Report

The Arkansas Conference Board of Laity is made up of the Conference Lay Leader, the district Lay Leaders and the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. The board's most important work includes fostering an awareness of the role of the laity within the local congregations, promoting and developing programs to cultivate an adequate understanding of the theological and biblical basis for lay life and work, and providing support and direction for the ministry of the laity on the local, district and annual conference level.

The Board of Laity's primary focus this year is in coordinating our work with the Center for Vitality, and being liaisons and communicators about the exciting opportunities in the Arkansas Conference. Your District Lay Leaders work hard to promote resources for local congregations, as those congregations work to fulfill the Bishop's Mission Plan and the mission and vision of the Arkansas Conference. We believe a key factor in this resourcing is in equipping and strengthening lay leadership in the Arkansas Conference. The Center for Vitality's Leadership Unleashed program provides an arena for laity to share in meaningful discussion around congregations growing by one in worship, small groups, missional outreach, and professions of faith. The Board of Laity works with the Center as they have designed strategic leader development to increase the capacity pool of laity, and utilize these leaders to impact the greater community and the world.

The Lay Servant Ministry program is active across the conference and provides classes that equip laity to live out their call and become deeper disciples of Jesus Christ. If you have not enrolled in a Lay Servant Ministry class because you are concerned you might be asked to fill a pulpit, don't worry! A Certified Lay Servant is never obligated to preach, but is a person committed to using their spiritual gifts in their local church, their district, or the conference. There are a variety of classes offered that can help you fulfill your call to lay ministry.

It is a privilege to serve as Arkansas Conference Lay Leader, and even more of a privilege to work with the wonderful laity in the Arkansas Annual Conference!

Karon Mann,

Arkansas Conference Lay Leader

Lay Servant Ministries

Please go to our arumc.org website , and select “Our Ministries” and then select Lay Servant Ministries, to access all Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministries information and downloadable forms. All District Director information is also listed there.

- The 2016 General Conference changed the way we have been doing things and removed one of our old time positions as Lay Servants – Local Lay Servant is no longer a position we support as a result. Their rationale (supported and introduced by the National Lay Servant program or ACDLSM and Discipleship Ministries) was that all Laity are Local Lay Servants and since we want to raise awareness of the training and dedication of those who choose to further their education in the Lay Servant Ministries Program, it is only fitting that we ask all Lay Servants to become Certified Lay Servants through regular advanced training.
- We have “Retired” the term “Local” Lay Servant : You must take a “Basic” and an Advanced course to be in LSM Program, and become a “Certified Lay Servant”.

Discipleship Ministries along with the Association of Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries Education Committee (of which I was asked to be a part of in 2017) is tasked with continuing to develop and print new materials all year long. As a result of this, we continue to have many new training materials coming out every year (it usually takes up to three years to bring a new course to printing).

The term “Lay Speaker” has been used for many years, and usually was thought of as “Pulpit Supply”. It has been said that there are a lot of United Methodists that will not take the training because they do not want to be in the Pulpit. General Conference made changes that will assist in getting those people into our training classes that want to be trained to serve in the many other functions of the church that do not involve preaching.

We now have the “Certified Lay Servant” (will be able to serve the local church and the rest of the Conference in whatever capacity available for them, including filling in for a Pastor). This position is usually not for extended assignments by the D.S. (must have taken the “Basic” course, take at least one Advanced Course every three years, and file the Annual Report of the Lay Servant / Speaker every year with the charge conference).

The Certified Lay Servant category, requires at least 10 hours of classroom time every three years or specific pre-approved (by District and Conference LSM Committees) alternate courses of equivalent service/training that may be used to stay in the program. Also you must file the Annual Report of the Lay Servant / Speaker every year with the charge conference.

If a person delays coming to class for three consecutive years, even if using an Alternate

Class, (see 2019 list) then they will be dropped from the program and will have to take the “Basic- Introduction to Lay Servant Ministry course” and then another Advanced class to be Certified again, if they return at a later date.

The Lay Speaker position, requires more initial training.

*We now have the “Certified Lay Speaker” position which is meant to be “Pulpit Supply” and for a possible longer term assignment (will be able to serve the local church and also the extended church in whatever capacity that is available for them, including filling in for local Pastors and other Pastors in the connection, week to week, as well as extended assignments by the District Superintendent). Must have taken “Basic” and five (5) specific advanced courses as required by the 2016 General Conference Legislation. Those course Categories are: Introduction to Lay Servant Ministry: Basic Course, Worship, Prayer, Spiritual Gifts, Preaching, UM Heritage and also UM Polity, and requires at least 10 hours in each of these classes. You must also take another “advanced” class at least every three years, submit to a review of your Service with the District Director of LSM, and be “ approved” every three years by the District and Conference Lay Servant Committees. Also you must file the Annual Report of the Lay Servant/ Speaker every year with the charge conference.

The Lay Servant /Lay Speaker will be recommended (Signature on form) by the Pastor of the local church where their membership is held and by a vote of the local charge conference, D.S. witness/ Signature on the Annual Lay Servant Report Charge Conference Form and by the District Lay Servant Ministry Director/Committee. Completing this form is required each year to stay in the LSM Program, but does not give you status as a Lay Servant unless you have completed the training classes. Please do not fill out this Charge Conference form if you have not attended classes in three years and do not intend to attend a class. Call your District LSM Director for info on how to return to the program.

Upon requesting to enter the new Lay Speaker Track (fill out the application and submit to the District Director); persons applying to become a “ Lay Speaker” will be examined (records/past service listed on application) by the District Committee on Lay Servant Ministries(DCLSM) or equivalent structure and be recommended to the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (CCLSM) or equivalent structure for “Approval”. The “Lay Speaker” must apply for Re-Approval” (fill out application for Renewal) and be approved by the District Committee on Lay Servant Ministries) every three years. They also must receive the endorsement of the local church charge conference every year by the Annual Lay Servant Report form.

List of 2018 “ Approved” Alternate Service/Training for Certified Lay Servants (must meet LSM requirements) at least 10 hour classes that confirm our LSM theme of “Leading, Caring and Communicating”).

1. All LSM Classes (including Online Classes) must be conducted and/or pre-approved through the District Director in order to get credit, but at this time on-line classes do not change requirement for a sit-down District class at least once each three years.
2. Be-A-Disciple and other online courses, to be considered on a case – by – case basis for 2019 (please contact your District or Conference Director before taking these to be able to get LSM approval for the course). These courses must conform to Discipleship Ministries/Conference LSM Program requirements, which is 10 hours or more in Leading, Caring, Communicating. (You must still attend one classroom type class once every 3 years regardless of how many Alternate classes taken to remain in the LSM Program.)

We do not give credit for attending Annual Conference, Jurisdictional Conference, General Conference or anything that does not consist of 10 hour class type training.

Mission U , Stephen Ministry, Disciple 1,2 or 3, or other events that are not listed in our Discipleship Ministries LSM Catalog, will only be considered if we pre-receive the Syllabus and it meets our requirements.

3. Certified Lay Minister is not a part of our program at this time and has to be initiated by the Cabinet and Board of Ministry.

4. The ACDLSM Organization is in "discovery" stage of adopting Prison ministries as part of LSM – future details will be announced.

- Anyone may come to our classes without committing to be a part of Lay Servant Ministries, will not have to fill out a Lay Servant Report, and will not be entered in our records unless desired. (We think you will want to be a part of our program once you come to a class though!)

Under the 2012/2016 General Conference Legislation, the Lay Servant Ministries Program is a Laity driven, Laity led program and the District and Conference Directors "shall" be Laity. We continue to look for competent Laity that will become Instructors/ Facilitators for our classes as well as Directors/Co-Directors of the LSM Program and we will continue to "partner" with our Clergy to strengthen the program. We certainly need the "buy-in of our Bishop, D.S.'s and our Clergy if we are to succeed. We would also invite Certified Lay Servants to become Co-Directors in each District for Continuity of the program.

2018 saw the Lay Servant Ministry Program continuing to grow all across the Conference. Some Districts enrolled more Lay Servants than others , but we all are dedicated to make our church stronger by our service.. We held even more classes across the Connection than we did in 2017, and will continue to do so in 2018. Check your District Offices/District Directors for class information and also the arumc.org Calendar.

2019 begins the sixth year that we have recognized the new position of "Lay Speaker". We now have 13 Certified Lay Speakers in the Arkansas Conference who have applied and completed the process for the Lay Speaker status.

Mt. Sequoyah in Fayetteville scheduled LSM classes for 2018. Be -A – Disciple also has online classes.

The Annual Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries (ACDLSM) met in January 2019, and our soon to be Arkansas Conference Director of LSM, Carole Blanks, attended the meeting in Nashville.

We also have the South Central Jurisdictional program for Lay Servant Ministries (SCJLSM) which is trying to spread the influence and organizational abilities of the Lay Servant Ministry across the South Central region.

We in the Lay Servant Ministry Program of Arkansas are still committed to being the Servants that God called us to be. Not just in our local churches, but wherever God calls us. We are positioned to fulfill Bishop Mueller's and the Arkansas Conference Mission of "making Disciples, who make disciples for the transformation of the world".

The following is the result of our 2018 ongoing efforts to hold classes and enlist Laity into our Lay Servant Ministry:

- Southeast District: 7 classes, 51 Laity attended classes

- Northeast District: 4 classes, 14 Laity attended classes
- Central District: 12 classes, 81 Laity attended classes
- Southwest District: 2 classes, 8 Laity attended classes
- Northwest District: 7 classes, 58 Laity attended classes

We welcome all Churches to hold LSM classes for us – contact your District Director/District Office for details. Come join us wherever you are in your walk in life and help us “Unleash the Laity”.

Final Note: As of January 1, 2016, I “retired” as the Southeast District Director of LSM position and now, as of May 29, 2019, I have ended my time as the Arkansas Conference Director of the Lay Servant Ministry Program. I have enjoyed the past 8 years as the Director. Carole Blanks, Central District Lay Servant Ministry Director, has been nominated to become the new Arkansas Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministry. Karen Anderson – Northwest District Director of Lay Servant Ministry has been nominated to be the new Associate Director of the Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministry Program.

Rev. Nan Nelson (formerly a Certified Lay Servant-now retired Clergy) is the Southeast District Lay Servant Ministry Director as “interim” District Director until a dedicated Certified Lay Servant steps forward and accepts the position. I appreciate Nan for helping us out in the meantime very much. Nan has been a great Director of LSM in S.E. District., and will hopefully continue until a Laity steps up. John Blanks is beginning as the Central DDLSM and Karen Anderson is continuing as the N.W. DDLSM, Karla Hefty Fleming is the S.W. DDLSM and LaDonna Busby is the N.E. DDLSM, as well as N.E. District Office Administrator.

Please support each of our Directors in their endeavor to provide leadership in the Arkansas Conference. Please come join us in service to our Lord and Saviour.

We will hold our 2nd Annual LSM Fellowship Meal this year at Grand Avenue UMC. Come enjoy a good meal and great fellowship.

Peace,

Jimmie Boyd,

Director of Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministries

Arkansas Conference Mission Personnel Coordinator

In 2018 churches (and individuals) in the Arkansas Conference contributed 756 gifts that total $481,126.00 through The Advance for Christ and His Church. This includes two “Covenant Relationships” between Elizabeth and Eric Soard (Tanzania) and Newport First United Methodist Church. There are 18 other churches in Arkansas providing some missionary support through The Advance. Currently there’s one church and community worker, Rev. Stephen Copley (Little Rock), and there are two Global Mission Fellows, short-term missionaries Bailey Martin (Southeast Asia) and Sarah Walker (Spain). Also, serving in Kenya are two individual volunteers with Arkansas connections, Jim Monroe and Sue Owen.

According to Conference records, there are 640 Individual churches (430 charges) in the Arkansas Annual Conference, yet, we have only one church who has established Covenant Relationships with Eric and Elizabeth Soard. Missionaries receive about 1/3 of their support through the World Service Fund and 2/3 of their funding comes from endowments and The Advance.

There are 18 other missionaries receiving some support from other churches. We affirm the churches who are engaged in supporting missionaries, and it is hoped that more of our churches will join in support of this mission imperative.

Support for missionaries and projects enables success and sustainability for the mission initiatives of The United Methodist Church. It is a critical component of our understanding of how we respond to global mission. The challenge in the Arkansas Conference is raising awareness of the need and increasing our support.

RELIGION & RACE

Commission on Religion and Race

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will continue to support the mission model that has been and will be the accepted model for our General Commission. GCORR's mission is building the capacity of The United Methodist Church to be contextually relevant and to reach more people, younger people, and more diverse people as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Our conference committee upholds the mission and mandates and will be a resource to help our conference committees, organizations and churches become a place where all will be welcomed as they seek where their place is in the kingdom of God. We monitor how diverse our committees at the district and conference levels reflect the culture around them and we will challenge those groups to become as culturally diverse as they can be.

Our mission is now more well defined at the conference level and we are compliant for the most part with what the 2016 Book of Discipline now requires us to do. Our committee is grateful for this conference in helping us face the future of being what God has called us to be. Facing the Future workshop was held this past year and we had ethnic pastors from our conference attend. We pray that the information and networking that took place at this event sponsored by GCORR was helpful in their present ministries. At present, all of these pastors are serving in cross racial appointments as directed by the Bishop. We have 56 ethnic pastors of which 28 of them are serving in cross cultural/cross racial appointments as directed by our Bishop and cabinet. We have 41 ethnic churches in our state. We also have 4 Caucasian pastors serving ethnic churches. We appreciate those churches who have received these pastors as the spiritual leaders of their congregations. We as a committee will continue to work on those areas that are not in compliance with the mandates that GCORR has asked all conference Commissions on Religion and Race to follow.

There are several great resources that General Commission has made available to all conference committees and churches. There are DVDs called Vital Conversations where members of the greater community called the United Methodist Church challenge us to grow in our faith and in our ministry to persons who are not like us. Most of the resources are available at the GCORR website or you can order them from the also. There is also a new book that is available for download from www.gcorr.org, Learning from Strangers. I encourage you to obtain a copy of these for your church's use and for your personal use as a leader in the church. We are here to be a resource to help our conference be a place where transformation happens.

Relationships matter more than numbers, if we seek the relationships the numbers will take care of themselves. It is about revival of our state, county, cities and towns where Christ is offered to all who seek Him.

Committee on the Status and Role of Women

It is a joy to share an update on the vital and vibrant work that the Arkansas Conference Committee on the Status and Role of Women has continued to do in the past year of ministry. The Arkansas Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women continues to support and further the mission of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women, which “advocates for full participation of women in the total life of the United Methodist Church through training, education, research and monitoring.” We have continued to advocate for and encourage all women in the life of the church, both clergy and laity, to be faithful and passionate leaders in their congregations and ministry contexts. COSROW continues to offer support for women in all aspects of the life of the church.

As part of our ministry in 2018 COSROW cosponsored the “Boundaries in Ministry” training that was required for all pastors under appointment in the Arkansas Annual Conference. This training was a joint effort with the BOM, Order of Elders, Order of Deacons, Association of Local Pastors, General Commission on Race and Religion, and Bishop’s Office. Arkansas welcomed Becky Posey Williams, Senior Director of Sexual Ethics at the General Commission on Status and Role of Women, to lead this training over three days across our Conference. We celebrate the great participation and commitment to continuing education on appropriate boundaries. Additionally, COSROW sent 4 individuals to the “Do No Harm” event by the General Commission to train on advocacy, response, and sexual misconduct policy. We continue to do this vital ministry and provide resources as needed. We support and encourage participation of all clergywomen in the Clergywomen’s luncheon and quarterly professional development gatherings through the Arkansas United Methodist Clergywomen connection. During Annual Conference, COSROW monitors for fairness in participation and diversity and is glad to provide this important work as a part of our ministry.

Rev. Sara Bayles Charlton

United Methodist Men

The mission of United Methodist Men is to help men grow in Christ so that others may know Christ. That simple but profound statement is what compelled me in late December to accept the position of Arkansas Conference President of United Methodist Men, and I am excited about the possibilities.

In March 2019 I attended both the National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) annual meeting in Nashville, Tennessee and a UMM- sponsored discipleship training workshop in Dallas, Texas called, "Get In the Game." At both, I met men from across our connection who are involved with men's ministries and who have promised to help if asked. They emphasized that I should never try to do this by myself, and I will be using that help.

In the meantime, much of my initial effort here in the Arkansas Conference has been to work to assemble a strong UMM Executive Committee, ideally consisting of a District President from each district and 1-5 at-large members. While that work is continuing, the goals of the committee are already clear:

- To form and lead a conference UMM Leadership Team to assist with setting goals and strategies for men's ministry throughout the Arkansas Conference.
- To develop and facilitate an effective UMM leadership structure at both the conference and district levels of the Arkansas Conference.
- To expand the number of chartered UMM Units in the Arkansas Conference.
- To design and offer leadership development opportunities for facilitators of local church men's ministries.
- To promote and strengthen the specific ministries supported by the General Commission on UMM (GCUMM), including support of Scouting and advocacy against gender-based violence.

I hope to soon establish a contact person in each district who can help me identify what groups are active in each district and what they are doing (training, service, fund raising, etc).

That is my mission for the Arkansas Conference United Methodist Men and I need your help and prayer as we can begin working on these goals.

Clay McCastlain,

Arkansas Conference President

United Methodist Women

This year the Arkansas Conference of United Methodist Women will be celebrating, with our Sisterhood of Grace around the world, the 150th Anniversary of women organizing themselves for mission with women, children and youth. On March 23, a Spiritual Growth Day Apart was held at Camp Aldersgate to remember the legacy of the women who met in Boston, MA, on March 23, 1869. We will continue with plans through the year to celebrate this anniversary in our districts and local churches. As we remember the legacy left to us, we also ponder what legacy we will leave. The Legacy Fund is an opportunity to put faith, hope and love into action. The Legacy Fund is an endowment to ensure the work of United Methodist Women continues for the next 150 years!

Eight United Methodist Women from Arkansas attended the Leadership Development Days sponsored by the National Organization in Tempe, AZ. Participants were reminded of the four Social Action Campaigns in which United Methodist Women are involved: 1) Just Energy for All 2) Interrupt the School-to-Prison Pipeline 3) A Living Wage for All and 4) End Maternal Mortality.

The Arkansas Conference Mission u will be held July 17-20 at the University of the Ozarks, in Clarksville. The studies this year will be: Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship; Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission; and the last year for What About Our Money? A Faith Response.

The United Methodist Women 16th Annual Meeting will be held November 2 at Pulaski Heights UMC, in Little Rock.

Local United Methodist Women units continue to be involved in many local community mission projects as well as supporting national and international mission needs.

The Arkansas Conference United Methodist Women continue to foster spiritual growth, develop leaders and advocate for justice on behalf of women, children and youth. They also work to support programs and activities that promote our purpose: United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Cathy Blackwood,
President

Center for Vitality

The purpose of the Center for Vitality is to “provide resources for pastors, laity and congregations to experience spiritual revival and be increasingly vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.” Our focus is on developing spiritual leaders, both lay and clergy, equipping them to lead in disciple making ministries and delivering tools to congregations so that they can engage their mission fields.

Since the last gathering of Annual Conference the Center for Vitality (CFV) has offered resources through a variety of equipping, consulting and training initiatives. Some of these have been offered in local churches, district gatherings and in one-on-one coaching conversations.

In August the CFV hosted the Growing Disciples Summit at St. James UMC in Little Rock. Over 400 lay and clergy leaders gathered to learn about Intentional Discipleship Systems and how to create and implement a system in their church. Over 40 churches requested to be part of an ongoing training process called, The XX (The Twenty). Rev. Dr. Michelle Morris, Lead Trainer for the CFV, is currently coaching these churches as they create their systems and prepare to share their work with sister congregations across the conference. We know that “if you try to build the church, you will rarely get disciples. But if you make disciples, you will always get the church.” (From Building a Discipleship Culture by Mike Breen) Additional resources can be found www.vitaldisciples.org.

In September, the CFV accompanied nearly 100 Arkansas clergy and laity to the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection for Leadership Institute. The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas has been supporting this effort since 2009! Following the event, every church’s team has received further training in strategic planning and implementation of new programs and ministries. Some of these include enhanced hospitality ministries, new worship experiences, new small groups for Mom-with-young-children, persons in recovery, and middle school youth. The CFV staff led these follow up equipping events.

Beginning in September, the Center launched an exciting experiment aimed at unleashing lay leadership. Six churches were nominated by Bishop Mueller to participate in an 8 month process of spiritual growth and equipping that includes 4 online video conference calls, 4 overnight retreats and 8 months of accountable discipleship conversations. Each church was asked to identify 2 lay persons who would join the pastor in this journey. The Community of Practice will conclude in May, and we will continue to gather information for the next year about how the experience impacted lay leaders in those congregations. However, we already know that the spiritual lives of laity and clergy are strengthened by being in a community where accountability to one another is expected and practiced. Laity in the community are expressing a renewed sense of purpose and commitment to being in ministry in their mission fields. And the partnerships being developed between clergy and laity are providing a rich seedbed for ministries to begin and bear fruit. The Center plans to continue and expand the experiment this coming year. If you are interested, please contact Cathy Hall, cathy.hall@arumc.org for information and an application.

This coming year we are excited to announce the inauguration of the Congregation Resource ing System (CouRSe). CouRSe gives us the capacity to deliver mission-critical content all across the state so that our vital congregations have the resources they need to make disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities, and the world.

At the end of 2018, the Arkansas Conference contracted with Absorb to host this online learning management system, our CouRSe. The first test course, Boundaries, was built around the training clergy and church staff received in healthy boundaries in ministry last fall. It was sent to the small test audience of those who had been unable to attend the live training. Our first major course, Orientation to Annual Conference, is set to release at the beginning of May, and members of the Annual Conference will be invited to take it. At Annual Conference we will kick off our initial wide-interest offerings. Through this system, we will be able to offer training on basic roles in the UMC (i.e. SPRC, Finance, Trustee committee members); centralize tracking of continuing education; empower people across the state through training in discipleship, communications, evangelism, etc.; double the impact of summits by providing follow-up content; and tracking effectiveness through timed surveys following courses. CouRSe should open up the possibilities of education all across the state. Rev. Dr. Michelle Morris will be administering CouRSe. She would be interested in receiving ideas for courses and instructors. You can reach Dr. Morris at michelle.morris@arumc.org.

It has been a joy to serve as the Director of the Center for Vitality for the past 6 years. Our efforts to “Grow By 1” and develop Intentional Discipleship Systems have been nationally recognized and copied by other conferences and organizations. The Community of Practice is an innovative model of unleashing spiritually grounded lay leaders and is attracting attention across the connection. The new CouRSe is one of only 3 in the connection. And our continuing commitment to build healthy leadership teams of clergy and lay partners is bearing fruit for our future. I am grateful to have served with gifted innovators like Cathy Hall, Rev. Dr. Blake Bradford, and Rev. Dr. Michelle Morris who have shared the vision with me of resourcing vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ who make disciples equipped to transform lives communities and the world.

Arkansas Conference Council on Youth Ministry

This past year, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries has had tremendous success in our goal to provide opportunities for United Methodist youth in the state of Arkansas to strengthen their faith in Christ by leading, fellowshiping, and serving. In July of 2019, our council, composed of over sixty youth and adults, planned out what it was we wanted to see happen through CCYM in the upcoming year. At this retreat, we gave our expectations of each other for the year, and also shared our goals for what we wanted to see CCYM become in the future.

Back in 2013-2014, the council voted to add a media task force to CCYM, in order to reach the people of this generation more effectively. Since then, the media task force has been so effective for our ministry to the state. Media task force attends every event, captures some of the powerful moments, and reaches youth through social media. Media always helps our events run smoothly and effectively.

The Youth Service Fund, or YSF, continues to help local churches, as well as the nation by providing grants to those in need. This year, YSF gave out $7800 in grants, for organizations and youth groups, such as Ozark Mission Project, West Memphis UMC, Arkadelphia FUMC, Highland Valley, FUMC and Sardis UMC, to update their youth rooms or to attend mission trips.

In November, Refuge, an event for junior high youth, occurred at Shepherd of the Ozarks in Harriet. Over 600 youth and adults met in a weekend of fellowship, as a way to disconnect from the busy fall schedule. Both weekends were so powerful for the young youth and creating a great start in their spiritual journeys. At the end of the event, some youth spoke about their stories so the youth could see how God was working in the lives of others in many different ways. Mitto was voted on by the council to be discontinued, and the logistics of the event have been passed down to each of the district councils of youth ministry.

CCYM's largest event, Veritas, took place in the Rogers Embassy convention center in February. This year's theme was "360: completely transformed", encouraging the more than 1400 youth and adults to really learn about how they can grow in their faith life and for some, completely transform into modern disciples. Our very own Bishop Mueller participated in the event and also led the serving of communion on the final worship on Sunday Morning. Veritas had a very successful year, and the holy spirit was definitely present through our speakers and talent.

As we approach the summer, CCYM events are still in full swing. The summer kicked off with Choir Tour, where almost 50 youth from around the state rehearse throughout the school year and meet for one week in June to bring worship services to the community. To conclude the year, Jr High and Sr High assembly will take place in July at the University of the Ozarks. Assembly will be JHA July 22-24, and SHA July 24-27. The event centers around fellowship and small groups while creating a safe environment of growth.

In closing, the 2018-2019 year was truly something amazing to be a part of. We continue to keep our focus on the goal of the United Methodist Church and put our faith in action by making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. This year has had such an impact on me, as I have been able to grow in leadership, listening, and my faith. Watching the youth at these events always amazes me. When the youth are the leaders of the church of today, it is incredible what can happen. I am so grateful for the opportunity to serve as President this past year. I want to thank all of the CCYM youth and adults for the dedication of their time and showing such a heart for this ministry, and for making it an incredible year that I will never forget.

ACCYM President & Senior at Greenbrier FUMC

Youth and Young Adult Ministries

Youth Ministries

The goal of the ARUMC Youth Ministry area is to provide a network of resources, support, and education in order to create stronger youth ministries within the local church. Currently, the ARUMC Youth Ministry Resource Team is working on a few programs and events to help further this goal.

- First, we are working on EQUIP 2019 which will be held on September 14. This year EQUIP will feature author, Rev. Matt Rawle and several workshops designed to give practical information to all those who work with youth.
- Second, we are hosting 4 Youth Mental Health First Aid trainings in 2019 in partnership with Amy Shores, Director of Pastoral Care at Methodist Family Health. These trainings will be March 9, April 4, September 26, and October 5.
- Third, The Mentor Network continues to be available as a free resource to any youth worker in the ARUMC. This system pairs youth workers with one another to provide short-term mentorships for youth workers who are new to youth ministry, looking to work through a particular issue, or just needing a sounding board for new ideas.
- Finally, the ARUMC Youth Ministries area works to continually provide support for local churches whether they are looking for a youth worker, need to train volunteers, need resources, etc.

Young Adult Ministries

- The Young Adult Ministries area is in the process of beginning a new season of ministry. The Young Adult Council has begun meeting again and will be working to define the best way for the Young Adult Ministries to move forward within the conference. We hope this will continue to provide leadership and discernment training for young adults in the ARUMC.

Respectfully Submitted,

Michelle Moore

INSTITUTION REPORTS

Africa University

Africa University thrives in ministry because of the steadfast support of local congregations of The United Methodist Church. Thank you to the leaders and members of the Arkansas Conference for prioritizing Africa University with the contribution of 85.38 percent of your asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2018.

Through its investment in the Africa University Fund, the Arkansas Conference continues to affirm the university's core mission of nurturing leaders who help people to know Jesus Christ and to experience peace, sustainable livelihoods, food security and abundant health. Thank you for your steadfast commitment and generosity.

Institutional Update:

- In 2018, Africa University enrolled more than 700 new students and maintained an overall enrollment of around 2,000 students. There were 25 African countries represented in the student body. Women made up 53 percent of the student population, which is almost twice the average for African higher education institutions.
- Throughout 2018, Africa University weathered the challenges of operating in Zimbabwe's depressed and uncertain socio-economic environment in Zimbabwe with creativity and prudence. The university delivered teaching, learning and community service activities of high-quality without interruption. Key enhancements in 2018 included the refurbishment of three residence halls for women students and the full implementation of an ERP software system to integrate and manage all facets of the university's operations.
- With conflict, poverty, and the impact of climate change persisting as the key drivers of food insecurity and the rise in internal displacement, migration, and refugeehood in Africa, the university consolidated its position as a trailblazer by offering new graduate training and research opportunities. Africa University has also continued to provide scholarships for refugee women so that their experiences, talents and ideas help to shape the solutions.
- Africa University delivered critical data for reducing malaria deaths in southern Africa and controlling the spread of insect-borne diseases world-wide. AU's insectary—a laboratory for rearing and studying live insects, such as mosquitos—shares its findings through the Southern Africa Centers of Excellence for Malaria Research. This data informs regional policies, practices and malaria control efforts.

The students, faculty, administrators and trustees of Africa University thank the members of the Arkansas Conference for their prayers and support, which continue to grow and sustain this ministry. Thank you, Arkansas United Methodists, for all that you have sown into Africa Uni versity over the past 27 years. As Africa University and the Arkansas Conference move forward together in missional engagement, we trust in God's unending grace for the increase.

Camp Tanako

Camp Tanako is a camp and retreat ministry of the Arkansas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Tanako provides a sacred place, set apart from the world. Persons of all ages are welcome to come rest, play, and experience God in new and often profound ways. While campers are at Tanako, they get to practice the concepts that they have learned in their families and local congregations....things like love, forgiveness, prayer, worship, and thanksgiving.

Campers are guided by young adult leaders who serve as mentors and foster community among their campers. Tanako is a place where life-long relationships are made. In this diverse community, campers recognize themselves and others as uniquely created in the image of God through affirmations of gifts and experiences that help them grow into the places God is leading them. Our goal is for campers to go home wanting to make a difference by serving others and working to recreate the community they experienced at camp, and to go home empowered to be the love of Jesus Christ to their neighbors.

In 2018, Camp Tanako received 1200 registrations for our overnight and day camp programs. Campers in both programs came together in community to practice living in Christian community while learning that God's love and creation are Beyond Belief. Campers came from 99 local churches across the ARUMC, 12 non-UMC congregations, and many campers listed no church affiliation. Camp Tanako hosted approximately 720 persons for retreat experiences for children, youth and adults in 2018. Retreat guest groups included, Noahs of Ark Walk to Emmaus, United Methodist Family Health, Western District AME Sunday School Convention, Confirmation Camp, Southwest District Bible Boot Camp, and many youth retreats.

Camp Tanako's board of trustees and leadership want to thank the many churches and individuals that support this extension ministry of the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church with their prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.

Camp Director

Candler School of Theology

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current uncertainty in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward from the Special Session of General Conference, we will continue to invite and welcome wholeheartedly those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

Candler is also privileged to be one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University in Atlanta. With the resources of a top-tier research institution and the reach of a global city, our students benefit from a rich academic and hands-on learning environment: The General Board of Global Ministries is in Atlanta, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Candler's intentional involvement with our surrounding community has contributed to our inclusion on a list of "Seminaries that Change the World" for six years running. In short, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they're enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 453, reflecting 51 percent women, 39 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 44 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $5.8 million in Candler scholarships, with 100 percent of MDiv students receiving aid. Plus, our comprehensive “Faith & Finance” program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DREW UNIVERSITY / MADISON NJ

Drew University Theological School

Drew University Theological School continued its multi-year self-transformation by launching its new curriculum for the Master of Divinity in the fall of 2018. This entirely reconceived degree seeks to form graduates that are rooted in the Christian story and traditions, capable of effective and creative leadership, and spiritually and socially resourceful for cultivating the transformative gospel of Jesus Christ in, with and for the church and the world. A new two-year degree, the Master of Arts in Theology and Ministry also launched, and offers students the opportunity to prepare for public leadership or a specialized vocation through deep theological and ethical reflection informed by biblical, historical, theological and practical sources. New pathways in the Master of Arts, the Master of Sacred Theology, and the Doctor of Ministry were also created as part of the curriculum transformation process which seeks to more intentionally focus the school’s service to the church, as well as to the academy and civil society. Drew welcomed 145 entering students this academic year, its largest entering class in over a decade, with an overall enrollment of 350 for the current academic year. In the coming year a new 5-year strategic plan will be developed, new degree delivery options that increase accessibility and affordability for prospective students, as well as new partnerships with annual conferences, other church bodies, and values-based organizations that share and strengthen Drew’s mission to advance peace, justice, love of God, neighbor, and the earth.

Gammon Theological Seminary

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision-making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Christian Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

The support of this Annual Conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Hendrix College

"In religious and vocational programs combined service learning Hendrix continues to develop clergy and lay leaders for faithful service inside the church and beyond...by helping students find meaningful vocations connected to who they are and how they want to serve in the world."

Hendrix College Statement on Church Relatedness, adopted by the faculty and board of trustees in Spring 2017

More than one hundred and thirty years ago, Methodists in Arkansas had a vision for a quality institution of higher education that would both challenge the minds of college students and instill the virtues of faith. Hendrix College's reputation continues to be recognized nationally for innovation and excellence, and for producing well rounded students who make a difference in the church and in the world. In recognition of our heritage as an Arkansas institution, the College financially supports students through the Arkansas Advantage Scholarship. Hendrix has also formed strategic partnerships with several schools and organizations, including KIPP Delta & KIPP Blytheville, Little Rock Central High, Mount St. Mary Academy, Little Rock Catholic High for Boys, Episcopal Collegiate School, Pulaski Academy, Arkansas Commitment, and League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), to better reflect the diversity of the state. Hendrix College is proud of its roots in Methodism and continues to strengthen that relationship by providing a robust religious life program, resources for students discerning a call to ordained or professional ministry, and service opportunities for students to engage the world as they continue to be nurtured in faith.

I have had the pleasure of meeting with laity and clergy in many churches across the annual conference while feasting on some fine Arkansas barbecue. Over the past five years, the Hendrix BBQ Tour has visited United Methodist Churches in 26 counties. What a warm welcome I have received in meeting many of you, and I look forward to more events in the future with more counties to visit and more smoked meat to sample.

Ministry Exploration

In 2018, the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership became a new program through the Office of the Chaplain and the Miller Center made possible through a grant awarded from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. Through identifying gifts or pastoral and lay leadership from age 12 through early career, the Center will be a place that provides programming to identify, enlist, and recruit youth and young adults that deepens a sense of God's purpose in their lives. From the theological understanding that all Christians are called to ministry at their baptisms, the Center will commit to helping young leaders identify which role of ministry best fits their sense of personal identity, their passions for making disciples and creating social change, and their natural proclivities and growing edges. Through shadowing, worship leadership, orientation to ministry, spiritual formation, peer support, internships, and service learning, the staff of the Center will mentor young persons from the beginnings of that call until brought to completion in leadership in the church.

Center Programming includes:

- Young Methodist Leaders Launch, for youth ages 12-13 years of age
- Hendrix Youth Institute, for high school juniors and seniors (supported by the Lilly Endowment)
- Peer Ministry Exploration Group for college students across the state
- Seminary Visits & UM Ministry Exploration events for college students
- Intentional Internships in churches and connectional ministries
- The Institute for Clergy and Civic Engagement for clergy 5-10 years out of seminary (supported by the Lilly Endowment)

2018 Ministry Exploration Programming:

- Since 2004, 55 Hendrix graduates have enrolled in seminary with 70% of these students attending UM seminaries.
- Seven recent Hendrix alumni are currently in seminary.
- In the next two years, we anticipate an additional 10 Hendrix graduates will enroll in seminary.
- Ten students who are discerning ministry meet each week in the Hendrix Exploring Ministry Together (EMT), a program through the Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics and Calling
- Through the Center's emphasis on seminary visits, 15 Arkansas college students went on seminary visits to Boston University, Garrett-Evangelical, and Perkins School of Theology.
- On the Arkansas Exploring Ministry mission trip, eight college students went to Epworth by the Sea for volunteer work and vocational exploration.
- With funding from the Center, 10 students from Hendrix and UCA attended a Ministry Exploration retreat with an Orientation to Ministry event in November 2018.

Memorandum of Understanding with Perkins School of Theology

On March 1, 2018, Hendrix College signed a MOU with Perkins School of Theology that deepened the natural relationship between Hendrix as a church-related college and a United Methodist seminary. The MOU asks both institutions to make yearly visits, develop visiting faculty opportunities, and provide a list of Hendrix prospective students in the summer prior to graduation. Perkins also agreed that Hendrix students would receive priority in the application process as well as advance standing in terms of coursework requirements.

Religious Life

- The UMYF Leadership Scholarship Program is completing its 24th year. Currently 35 students participate who will eventually join over 165 alumni from the program.
- More than 425 UM churches in all five districts have had Hendrix students as

- sist with worship services in the past 24 years.
- More than 150 students participate in weekly programming enhanced by funding from the Miller Center including weekly worship and communion, small groups for discipleship, Monday and Thursday fellowship dinners, and Bonhoeffer House, an intentional Christian community that lives in one of the residence halls on campus.
- This year, 40 students applied for two planned Miller Center Service Trips to Rwanda and New York City.

Church Relations

- United Methodist groups that the College hosts for no rental fee include the Arkansas Conference Course of Study, Arkansas United Methodist Conference Historical Society, Board of Higher Education & Ministry, and local UM church staff meetings.
- The College also dedicates a display case in the Student Life and Technology Building to Methodist artifacts to remind the students, faculty, and staff of the historic connection.
- In 2018, Hendrix hosted the Jr. and Sr. High Assemblies for the Conference Youth and the Order of Elders annual retreat.

Continuing Education

- This year on campus, the College hosted the Rev. Dr. Alyce McKenzie, professor of Homiletics at Perkins School of Theology, for the John and Marjem Gill Preaching Workshop. Next year, we will host Dr. Gregory Ellison, Associate Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling and founder of the Fearless Dialogues Project. He will teach a course on "Pastor as Prophet."

Funding Received from Outside Sources for Religious Life and Ministry Support

- An endowed gift from the John Workman family for a summer internship in churches, nonprofits, or journalism.
- An endowed gift from the Wilder family to establish an internship in churches and non-profit agencies.
- Grants from the Lilly Endowment (listed above) for United Methodist youth who are discerning a call to ministry and clergy who are 5-10 years out of seminary.
- A gift from the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas to create the Center for Calling and Christian Leadership.

Financial Aid/Enrollment

- For the 2018 calendar year, the College received $167,318.84 from the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church, with 100% of the church apportionment going toward student scholarships.
- Annually, the College provides more than $4.6 million in financial assistance to United Methodist students.
- Of the $4.6 million, the College annually provides more than $250,000 directly to three specific groups of Methodist students: 1) UMYF Leadership Scholars, 2) UM clergy dependents at a one-half tuition discount, and 3) UM students who are candidates for ordained ministry.

- Annually, the College provides financially for the Office of the Chaplain for religious life programming.
- The College sponsored a UMYF Prospective Student Day for the eighth consecutive year.
- For the past few years, Hendrix has enrolled an average of 670 Arkansas students each year. The number of students from Arkansas has increased over the past few years.
- In the fall of 2014, the College launched the Arkansas Advantage Scholarship, which guarantees to meet all of the demonstrated financial need of qualified Arkansas students.

Hendrix College remains committed to ensuring that all qualified students have access to a Hendrix education, regardless of their family's financial circumstances. The amount of money needed to fund scholarships and financial aid for our students continues to increase each year. This year, Hendrix is providing more than $37.2 million in student scholarships and financial aid. Our budget for student financial assistance has doubled in the past four years in response to the growing need of students and their families for assistance with financing a college education.

The relationship between Methodists and higher education is rooted in the historical teachings of John Wesley. Hendrix College cherishes its relationship with the Arkansas Conference of The United Methodist Church and the opportunity to fulfill Wesley's vision to bring together intellectual curiosity, spiritual formation, knowledge, and vital piety.

Our shared history has shaped many of the values that we celebrate as an institution today, including the ideals in our Statement of Purpose and our Statement on Diversity, which affirm our belief that "participating in a dynamically inclusive community provides a framework for successful leadership and engaged citizenship in the 21st century."

We are grateful for the many ways in which the United Methodist Churches of Arkansas support Hendrix. Your apportionment gifts go directly to students to provide financial assistance that ensures access to our strong academic programs, the Miller Center for Vocation, Ethics, and Calling, a wide range of religious life and spiritual formation opportunities, and the UMYF Leadership Scholars Program. Thank you for your continued support of Hendrix.

Lydia Patterson Institute

As the only institution related to the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church, it is my great honor to render this report to members of your conference. Lydia Patterson Institute prides itself in being the only institution of the United Methodist Church that sits right between three states bordering two countries and serving predominately Hispanics.

In 1913, when Lydia Patterson opened its doors to immigrants looking for a safe place for their families who settled in South El Paso, Mrs. Patterson would not know that more than 100 years later, La Lydia would still be serving in a like manner, but to a much larger degree. Today, students are sheltered from violence, drug wars, and economic distress with the most effective weapon, a superior education. Every year, hundreds of young men and women are led to higher education to change their lives and transform the world.

Lydia Patterson sits amidst the challenges of our times including immigration, walls and fences, and related border issues. Throughout the past century, Lydia Patterson has been that bridge which unites the two countries and brings hope to those in need. No walls or bridges have ever existed for La Lydia nor will they ever. As the church struggles with critical issues, Lydia Patterson remains that bridge among the denomination that honors the name of United Methodist Church.

This year has been one more year of dealing with the aforementioned challenges, but its mission moves forward and is stronger than ever. Students are getting an excellent education with the latest state-of-the-art technology, thanks to those of you who have supported and shared your resources in our Capital Campaign. Classrooms have been renovated with the latest computer and science labs. With the new changes, La Lydia has moved up to a level of competition with any other school and beyond. Students compete in Robotics, Chemistry Olympiad, Rotary Interact, Ethics Debate, STEAM, Chess, Mini Lyons Tech and many other academic activities. As a result, their academic scores are higher than ever. We have pride in that our students are well prepared and are all moving on to higher education.

Education is the means for achieving professionalism, but core values complete the whole body for spiritual and socio-economic success. Through our Student Lay Ministry Program, students are serving churches throughout the jurisdiction and beyond. Many are following their call to ordained ministry. This is Lydia Patterson Institute's mission—to prepare bilingual leaders for our society and form Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

As I write, we are preparing to celebrate the designation of Lydia Patterson Institute as a Historical Site by the General Commission on Archives and History. This is a very deserving honor for over 100 years of service. Thank you for being a part of this God-given ministry.

Socorro da Anda, President

Memphis Theological Seminary

For nearly four decades, Memphis Theological Seminary has been a leading institution in the Mid-South for producing graduates who are commissioned as elders or deacons in The United Methodist Church. MTS also has the largest Master of Arts in Youth Ministry program in the country. The majority of the students enrolled in that program are UMC. United Methodist students continue to be the largest denomination represented at our school and approximately 50% of our full-time faculty are from a Pan-Methodist tradition.

It has been an eventful and exciting year at the Seminary. In August 2018, Rev. Dr. Susan Parker became the Interim President. Dr. Parker, who is ordained in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, served in two elected offices for the state of Alabama, Stated Auditor and Public Service Commissioner. She also worked as the Vice President for Advancement for Athens State University. Dr. Parker replaced Dr. Jay Earheart-Brown, who left the Seminary in July to become the lead pastor at Faith Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Bartlett, Tennessee.

Thanks to a generous donation by Mrs. Barbara Hamilton and her late husband, Dr. Ralph Hamilton, MTS is in the process of expanding and renovating the existing chapel. Her gift to the Seminary is also helping endow the Methodist House of Studies Chair. The Seminary family is very grateful to the Hamiltons and all the other supporters who have made this possible.

With the help of a $1 million grant from the Lilly Endowment's Thriving in Ministry program, the Center for Faith and Imagination at MTS was launched in August 2018, and will offer a variety of resources and opportunities to help faith leaders live and lead with vitality and imagination. Martha Lyle Ford and Billy Vaughan are co-directors of the Center, with Martha Park serving as Program Coordinator. At the end of April, CFI will hold its first leader training for leaders of both Formation for Ministry groups within the seminary and Faith Formation groups outside the seminary. By the fall of 2019, CFI's first five Faith Formation groups will begin meeting across the Mid-South.

Wesleyan Studies continues to be a strength of the Seminary. Dr. Michael Turner, Associate Professor of the History of Christianity and Wesleyan Studies, teaches the required classes in UMC history, doctrine, and polity each academic year. Dr. Turner, along with his colleagues Dr. Lee Ramsey, Dr. Carmichael Crutchfield, and Rev. Billy Vaughan also offer a number of electives in the field of Wesleyan Studies. Students that take a minimum of five courses in Wesleyan studies electives have the opportunity to earn the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies.

One of the most dynamic programs at MTS is our Methodist House of Studies. It serves as a community within a community for students from Methodist backgrounds. Recent student gatherings have focused on topics that include General Conference 2019, rural ministry, and hospital chaplaincy. We also co-sponsored a lecture from the well-known UMC Civil Rights leader, Rev. James Lawson.

The MHOS has also been active in providing continuing education events for clergy and lay people. Recently, we led a workshop for local pastor in the Metro District of the Memphis Annual Conference. Dr. Turner regularly leads workshops on Wesleyan theology and heritage at congregations in the greater Memphis area. In partnership with the Turner Center for Church Leadership and the Center for Faith and Imagination, the Methodist House of Studies recently hosted three retreats called At Table: United Methodists Seeking a Way Forward. The goal of these retreats was to prepare United Methodist pastors and lay people for difficult conversations around human sexuality and the work of the Commission on a Way Forward in anticipation of the 2019 General Conference. At these retreats, we provided models for conversations that engage in difference without resorting to argument. Participants practiced engaging in these conversation models with the guidance of trained facilitators. As part of the work of these retreats, Dr. Turner gave presentations on the various ways that our Wesleyan theological heritage can serve as a guide to these types of conversation.

Looking toward the next academic year, the MHOS plans to offer retreats focusing on creating a shared vision among young people for the future of Methodism in the Mid-South, navigating conversations about divisive topics in church settings, and finding tools for spiritual and ecclesial renewal in our shared Wesleyan heritage

We are grateful for the support of the Arkansas Annual Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Arkansas over the years. We appreciate the confidence the Conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for the Seminary. For ongoing information about the Methodist House of Studies, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org

Methodist Family Health

Since 1899, Methodist Family Health has helped rebuild the lives of Arkansas children who are abandoned, abused, neglected and dealing with psychiatric, behavioral, emotional and spiritual issues. As we celebrate our 120th year of giving the best possible care to those who may need our help, we look to our future where the state's children and families can find peace, stability and hope in their homes and communities.

The Methodist Family Health story begins in 1897 when the honorable George Thornburgh began a campaign to build a new home for the Methodist Orphanage. The Little Rock Conference appointed a committee that same year, which Thornburgh lead, to provide short-term care for orphaned children and help them find homes. Thornburgh also acted as superintendent of the home, tirelessly working for the orphanage and its children for the next 14 years.

In 1899, the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage was incorporated, officially as The Arkansas Methodist Orphanage of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in a two-story framed house on three lots at 15th and Commerce Streets in downtown Little Rock. The house, which was formerly the Women's Industrial Home, was donated by Mrs. L.W. Tabor to serve as the orphanage. In 1902, the orphanage opens, and the first child in the home was Jessie Miller, who was brought in February of that year by Pastor F.E. Taylor of the McCrory Circuit of the White River Conference.

Eight years later, the second location of the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage opened at 16th and Elm Streets in Little Rock. Its mission was to seek homeless orphans, find loving homes for them and make it possible for families to adopt a child who would be a blessing to their home. George Thornburgh almost single-handedly raised more than $20,000 (more than half a million dollars at today's purchasing power) for the construction of the home, which was financially supported by church conference claims, Christmas offerings, memorials and the generous support of Little Rock's church women. This home employed a full-time matron as well as a physician, and anywhere from 30 to 60 kids were in residence of the home at a time.

By 1925, the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage had placed 440 children in permanent homes, and in 1949, the home moved to an 84-acre area at 20th, 28th, Hayes (now University Avenue) and Fillmore Streets in what was then the westernmost edge of Little Rock. In 1952, the name changed to the Methodist Children's Home, which is still in operation today and is the oldest campus within Methodist Family Health. In the years that followed, St. James United Methodist Church in Little Rock held worship services in our chapel and established themselves as a church before moving to their permanent location in west Little Rock.

In 1970, Methodist Family Health established our first group home outside of Little Rock. The Magale Youth Home in Magnolia was followed by other group homes in our continuum care, spanning from Arkadelphia, Fort Smith, Marked Tree and Searcy. As we moved into the last decade of the 20th century, Methodist Family Health became a certified Teaching-Family Sponsor site, more group homes were established in Batesville, Searcy, Fayetteville and Springdale; we became accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations, and we celebrated our 100th anniversary in 1999.

Today, Methodist Family Health serves thousands of children and families throughout Arkansas. We offer 24-hour, confidential, no-charge assessments for children and adolescents in crisis, accepting Medicaid and most private insurance. Methodist Family Health also is the only behavioral health care system in Arkansas to utilize the Teaching-Family Model, a highly-structured treatment approach proven to be effective with troubled children. The model uses positive, non-punitive interactions to encourage behavior change and achieve positive outcomes. Our complete breadth of services includes:

- Methodist Behavioral Hospital - a 60-bed hospital in Maumelle, which offers in-patient acute (short-term) care to children ages 3 to 17 and sub-acute (longer-term) care for children ages 6 to 11. If a child is a danger to himself, someone else or both, admission to the behavioral hospital can stabilize behavior so he can return home or to a less-restrictive environment.
- Psychiatric Residential Treatment Centers - for children ages 6-17, residential treatment centers offer 24-hour therapeutic, planned, group living in a learning environment. Treatment plans include individualized psychotherapeutic intervention for each child in a less restrictive environment allowing for normalization of a child's surroundings.
- Therapeutic Group Homes – provide a family-like setting in the child's community by teaching-parents who are both foster parents and trained treatment professionals. Children ages 12 to 18 in our group homes receive necessary emotional and behavioral treatment so they can develop trusting relationships
- Emergency Shelter – the Arkansas Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) can utilize the emergency shelter at Methodist Family Health in Little Rock for temporary placement of children ages 6 to 12. Staffed 24-hours a day by trained behavioral instructors, the emergency shelter is a safe and structured home for children in danger of abuse, neglect, abandonment and exploitation. Children in the emergency shelter attend public school and participate in group home activities such as creating menus for the week, grocery shopping, preparing meals, tidying their rooms, etc.
- Day Treatment Programs - according to the Arkansas Department of Education, school-based day treatment is the most intensive, nonresidential program that can be provided over an extended period. It permits students and families access to community-based mental health services in conjunction with and integrated into a student's educational program. Methodist Family Health's Day Treatment Programs bring together at one site, and in a coordinated manner, a broad range of services designed to strengthen individual and family functioning, and prevent students from requiring more restrictive services.
- Outpatient, School- and Community-Based Counseling Clinics – provides convenient, comprehensive assessment and treatment services for behavioral, emotional, learning and adjustment issues. Includes holistic, trauma-informed, team approach to treatment, incorporates client and family participation, which is vital to the best outcome of treatment process, and resources include individual, family and group counseling; registered play therapists; grief and trauma specialists; psychologic testing including Autism Spectrum Disorders; medication consultation and management, board-certified psychiatrists and child psychiatrists; case management; behavior management planning and techniques; parent support and education; school-based counseling; and access to other outpatient, inpatient and residential treatment programs within Methodist Family Health.

- Arkansas Centers for Addictions Research, Education and Services (Arkansas CARES) – the only program Methodist Family Health offers to adults, Arkansas CARES is available to mothers of children up to 12 years old. Arkansas CARES is a prevention and treatment program for pregnant women and mothers who have a dual diagnosis of substance abuse and a mental health issue, and it provides an intensive, inpatient, three-month program to help mothers overcome addictions, become better parents and learn life skills. Those enrolled in the program can keep their children with them while they go through treatment.
- Kaleidoscope Grief Center - losing a loved one has a profound and lasting impact. The Kaleidoscope Grief Center serves grieving children, teens and their families and promotes healing through education, therapeutic and recreational services, support programs and counseling.

None of the services, resources and care we have provided throughout our 120 years of service were possible without the support of the United Methodists in Arkansas. Your prayers, service and financial contributions made it possible then and make it possible now for us to help children and families know peace and stability. As Methodist Family Health receives no apportioned funds from the Arkansas Conference, the support of United Methodist congregations and individuals within our state is crucial to our mission. The Arkansas Conference has designated Methodist Family Health as a “supported organization” of the conference and allows us to tell the story of Methodist Family Health and collect a special offering in churches each December, which helps us continue our mission throughout the year.

Here are some ways churches, small groups and individuals can make a positive difference in the lives of children and families in our communities:

- Pray for the children, families, staff, volunteers and leaders of Methodist Family Health.
- Give funds via text at 501-254-6048, online at MethodistFamily.org, over the phone at 501-906-4209 or through the mail at P.O. Box 56050, Little Rock, Arkansas 72215
- Contribute to Methodist Family Health through the annual Christmas Appeal and special offerings in December or by making an annual contribution.
- Invite Methodist Family Health to speak to your congregation, small group, Sunday School or church gathering. To arrange for a guest to visit your church, contact Denise Luft, church relations coordinator, at 501-960-4209 or dluft@methodistfamily.org.

- Participate in our fundraising events, such as Southern Silks in May and Bright Night in August. Cathey Henry at chenry@methodistfamily.org or 501-906-4201 has details on both.
- Volunteer to help Methodist Family Health meet the needs of our clients throughout the state. For specific ways to help, contact Jamie Griffith at jgriffith@methodistfamily.org or call 501-906-4209.

Methodist Family Health is proud of our heritage of caring for Arkansas's children and families and carrying on the tradition of service the United Methodists of Arkansas began in 1899. Our hope is that United Methodists across the state consider Methodist Family Health a valuable resource, partner in our ministry and consider us an extension of your church's outreach to children and families right here in Arkansas.

Methodist Family Health

At Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare (MLH), our mission is to collaborate with patients and their families to be the leader in providing high quality, cost-effective patient and family-centered care. Services are provided in a manner which supports the health ministries and Social Principles of the United Methodist Church to benefit the communities we serve.

MLH continues to make an impact on the health of the Mid-South, both inside and outside of hospital walls. Leading MLH in that effort is our President and Chief Executive Officer Michael Ugwueke, who is driving the organization to new heights, clinically, financially, and faithfully. As part of that work in 2018, Michael appointed Rev. Dr. Albert Mosley to be the new Senior Vice President of Faith and Health, which oversees all of our clinical chaplaincy work, Volunteer Services, the Employee Assistance Program and Dennis H. Jones Living Well Network, the Clergy Coaching Network, Clinical Pastoral Education, the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health, the Humanitarian Fund, United Methodist Annual Conference connections, and many other initiatives and projects. That body of work is already growing, as Dr. Mosley announced early in 2019 that the Faith and Health Division will be renamed the Office of Mission Integration, and Dr. Mosley will assume the title of Chief Mission Integration Officer. These new emphases for the division and its leadership represent an exciting innovation in all facets of MLH's work, its clinical excellence, its community engagement, and its faith-based foundations. Mission Integration will offer guidance and direction for the integration of MLH's mission, vision, values and guiding behaviors, especially from the perspective of the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. Additionally, Mission Integration will ensure that the relationship with the United Methodist Church, and relevant social, ethical, and pastoral teachings, are understood and integrated appropriately and consistently across the entire system.

Last year, MLH celebrated its Centennial, having first opened its doors to patients in 1918. We recognized the Centennial in many ways, including with our first ever “MLH Sunday”! In honor of the 100 years since the United Methodist Church started a healthcare organization in Memphis, we joined congregations all throughout the area to worship, pray, and give thanks together, remembering all that God is doing through MLH. We are continuing that practice with MLH Sunday 2019, which we want to celebrate with you on Sunday, June 23, 2019, coinciding with our system’s birthday. We will also be visiting and speaking to congregations on other dates throughout the year. Additionally, our associates also connect with the UMC through connectional boards and agencies, campus ministry work at the UT Health Science Center, and through free health screenings that we offer throughout the year to conferences, congregations, and community events.

We also have pursued several grants to expand our work in the community, partnering with the Urban Child Institute, the Christian Community Foundation, CIGNA, the Tennessee Department of Health, and others. As a result, MLH launched “My Sister’s Keeper” in 2018 as a way of expanding the capacity of identified and designated black women leaders and increasing knowledge of accessible health services that positively impact health outcomes for black women in the Mid-South region.

MLH also established a partnership with BookNook Learning in 2018 in order to provide literacy education to 800 at-risk and underserved students in Shelby County, leveraging existing partnerships with local faith communities to implement the literacy program. One of the founding partner congregational sites for that program is Longstreet UMC in south Memphis, also a partner site for Project Transformation Tennessee. Further, understanding the important role of faith leaders in spiritual, mental, and physical health of our communities, MLH recently launched its first community-based Clinical Pastoral Education program for 13 pastors serving congregations in our most low-income communities.

We are deeply appreciative of the support of the three annual conferences who birthed us and continue to be vital partners. The healing ministry of Christ continues to be at our center.

Mount Eagle Retreat Center

Greetings from Mount Eagle, a retreat center of the Arkansas Annual Conference located near Shirley, AR. It is here that approximately 1828 people came in 2018 to relax, renew, and be refreshed for ministry as disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. 1036 United Methodist users, 92 United Methodist groups, 31 other faith groups, 404 users, and 20 other non-profit groups, and 355 other users. Our mission is to provide Christian hospitality and opportunities for holy listening for all. The year-round programs here are focused on adults, youth, and families.

In 2018 we provided sacred space and time for reflection, quiet time with God, study, contemplation, fellowship, planning, hikes along the trails in the gorgeous Ozark Mountains, exploration of the beauty of the forest as it blooms in Spring, and fun activities as a group or family. A variety of groups: local church leadership retreats, Sunday school classes, youth groups, men's and women's groups, confirmation classes, Local Pastor Licensing School, conference events, quilting groups, scrapbooking, Emmaus Leadership Retreat, Kairos Training Retreats, family reunions, personnel retreats, pastoral retreat, women's retreats, and nature groups studying the great Ozark outdoors that God has created here on the mountain and along the river. People worshipped, walked the meditation trail and labyrinth, hiked to Bear Cave, Sunrise Point, Turkey Cave, visited Boat Chapel, and walked to the Little Red River, shared meals and fellowshiped together. Some just took that time to be alone with God and allow his voice to resonate in their whole being. Mission teams from Arkansas and Mississippi, NOMADS (Nomads on a Mission Active in Divine Service) from Arkansas, Texas, Kentucky, Iowa, and Louisiana volunteered their time and talents to provide service to Mount Eagle in 2018. Sozo Men's Recovery helped out cutting and splitting wood for all the fireplaces and fire pits. Many volunteers from area churches have also assisted us in 2018.

Thanks go out to all those that have provided service, whether financial or missional, to Mount Eagle in 2018. You have been a vital part of the ministry of Mount Eagle. If your church, or youth group are looking for projects, call us. We would love to talk with you about the possibilities of partnering for 2019. Everyone that contributes is providing valuable service and skills we might not ever have if not for your generosity of time and talents. In 2018 a total of 2,309 total hours were volunteered.

We received grants in 2018 from the Conference Camping and Retreat Ministry. Those were used for programming funds for our Men's Recovery Retreat and our retreat for The Call for foster parents of Cleburne, Stone, and Van Buren Counties of Arkansas.

40 men participated in the Men's Recovery Retreat and were blessed. They enjoyed fellowship, small group studies, guest speakers, exploring Mount Eagle, and great food. Men were here from Clinton, Hot Springs, Jonesboro, and Denard, AR as a part of this retreat. We also could not have done it without the help and loving support of Clinton First UMC and Holiday Hills UMC. Plans are already being made for the same retreat for 2019 and anticipating 60 men this year.

We enjoyed the opportunity to serve the people of The Call of Arkansas. The Call is a Christian foster parent organization that works with the Arkansas DCFS office to provide care for children who are placed in foster care in the state of Arkansas. The Call uses this time away to refresh and renew and to fellowship and support one another. They use some of this time in classes for continuing education credits needed each year. There is also time alone and together in individual prayer and corporate prayer, and time outside in God's amazing creation.

A recent change to Beal Lodge is the installation of DSL internet services through Artelco. We are hopeful that we can get it to Kaetzel Lodge soon.

We are thankful for the blessings of 2018 and look with anticipation for new opportunities in 2019. We will once again have our Pastor's Golf Retreat May 5-7 where we play at Tannunbaum and Mountain Ranch Golf Courses. Our annual fishing retreat date is still to be determined. Plans are also moving forward to have another Grief Support Training Retreat in the fall of 2019. Check out our website for events and dates at www.mounteagle.org.

We look forward to 2019 with our greatest partner, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church. "SEE YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN"

Respectfully submitted,

Mike "Sarge" Leonard

Ozark Mission Project

This year Ozark Mission Project (OMP) celebrates the 33rd year of its multifaceted purpose:

- To enhance the daily lives of our neighbors and inspire hope by attending to not only their physical needs such as house painting, wheelchair ramp construction, or yard work, but also by establishing a relationship with them through talking, praying, and sharing a noon meal and devotional with them. This benefits not only the Neigh

- bor, but the campers as well. This is where their young hearts become open to individuals and cultures that previously may have been unknown to them. God's presence is powerful in these moments and are what the campers want most to share when they return to camp and are asked, "Where did you see God today?"
- To develop leadership skills – OMP is proud of its heritage of training young adults to become leaders. This year we have hired 17 college-aged students who will lead our 13 camps along with the volunteer camp directors. The students put in incredibly long hours of preliminary training, then hit the ground running the week before camp starts. We feel that it is extremely important for the campers to see these leaders as role models for life, therefore emphasizing the importance of the behavior and the modeling of Christian values by the college staff. We are very proud of the fact that many of the Arkansas United Methodist clergy have roots in OMP, having received their call to ministry while or soon after working on college staff.
- To establish lasting friendships and memories – Nothing creates memories like working side by side with one's peers under extreme weather conditions or worshipping our God after a long day of work and fun. Friendships are established through OMP and often carried for life. A bond is created that is unlike any other.

Middle School and Senior High Camps – In 2018 OMP hosted 12 summer camps around the state of Arkansas. The areas served were Benton, Fayetteville, Hot Springs, Jonesboro, Little Rock, Magnolia, Marianna, North Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Rogers, Texarkana, and West Memphis. This year we have added El Dorado and Malvern to the list.

OMP 101 – We are thrilled with the success of our program for elementary students who have completed the 4th and 5th grades. This is a day camp, held for 3 days at St. Paul UMC in Little Rock. At camp, they experience hands-on mission education to learn to be a good neighbor through a mission theme and concluding with worship each day. Their excitement begins to build for when they are old enough to participate in the middle school OMP summer camp experience. We now host 2 sessions of OMP 101 immediately following the conclusion of our regular middle school and senior high camp seasons.

College Winter Break Mission Trip – OMP has been partnering with Arkansas United Methodist Wesley Foundations and other colleges for several years to organize and carry out a mission trip during the students' winter break. This year's trip was to Port Arthur, TX, to help rebuild homes which had been destroyed by Hurricane Harvey. The students and other volunteers mainly hung sheet rock, installed doors, and laid new flooring in the homes.

OMP 2018 Statistics – We are proud to report that our 2018 numbers from all of our ministries combined were as follows:

- 889 Campers
- 140 Volunteers
- 580 Projects
- 267 Neighbors Served
- 27,666 Volunteer Hours

We are always looking for church partners and volunteers for cooking, construction, music, worship, design, programming, and prayer teams. If you are interested in becoming a part of OMP, please visit our website at www.ozarkmissionproject.org or call 501-664-3232.

In the midst of his third year as Dean and Professor of New Testament at Perkins School of Theology, Dr. Craig C. Hill, a number of his early initiatives are bearing fruit, including deeper and more fruitful relationships with feeder colleges, new co-curricular initiatives, revamped D.Min. and Houston-Galveston Programs, additional staffing in critical areas, and additional financial aid. Enrollment, giving, impact, and overall momentum continue to surge under his leadership with deep appreciation for those who make up and support the school.

- Fall 2018 admissions increased by 14.1 percent over the previous year with an incoming class of 89 students (including D.Min. but excluding Ph.D. students). Six new international students enrolled. An additional 28 students were added for the Spring 2019 semester. Over half of the entering class have average undergraduate GPA's above a 3.2.
- Perkins School of Theology is the recipient of a five-year, $1 million grant from Lilly Endowment, Inc., for an initiative designed to strengthen congregational ministry with youth. Co-directors of the grant are the Rev. Bart Patton, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry Education, and Dr. Priscilla Pope-Levison, Associate Dean, Office of External Programs.
- Perkins received a $931,000 estate gift specifically designated for the upkeep and maintenance of Perkins Chapel which allows us to move ahead with the planned phase 2 remodeling. A total goal of $630,000 in funding will provide for 10 additional scholarships for fall 2019. Next fall there will be a total of 30 Perkins Scholars in the student body. Combined with additional financial aid, this program provides nearly full scholarships for these highly skilled servant leaders.
- The Fall 2018 Convocation, drew clergy, laity and prospective students to the SMU campus Nov. 12-13, to explore worship through the lenses of social justice and reconciliation with internationally acclaimed author, theologian and pastor Brian McLaren and Chicago-based preacher, liturgist and activist Sandra Maria Van Opstal.

- Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University has announced the appointment of Hugo Magallanes as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, effective June 2019. Currently, Magallanes serves as director of Perkins' Houston-Galveston Extension Program and is Associate Professor of Christianity and Cultures. In his new role, he will manage the curriculum of academic programs, support faculty development and provide for academic advising to students.

was interviewed by Peggy Wehmeyer, former religion correspondent for ABC World News Tonight, on the topic of personal faith in the public square.

- In an effort to deepen relationships between Perkins and undergraduate college and universities, new partnerships in the form of Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) have been launched in 2018. Formal agreements have been signed with historically United Methodist institutions including Huston-Tillotson University in Austin, Texas; Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Arkansas; Texas Wesleyan University in Fort Worth, Texas; and Wylie College in Marshall, Texas. These are in addition to those previously noted: Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana; Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas; McMurry University in Abilene, Texas; Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas; and Presbyterian-related Austin College in Sherman, Texas. These MOUs establish a preferred pathway for graduates of the institutions interested in pursuing ministerial vocations at the graduate level, granting preferred consideration and early acceptance to Perkins School of Theology for students pursuing ministerial vocations. The agreement also states that the undergraduate institutions and Perkins will encourage new opportunities for future cooperation.
- The Perkins School of Theology Global Theological Education Program has launched a major program to create and distribute teaching and learning resources for Seminaries, Course of Study Schools, and other United Methodist educational institutions world-wide. We are drawing on resource scholars from Asia, Africa, and Latin America to create video-based class modules that can be incorporated into a variety of educational programs; from seminary and COSS courses to Sunday Schools and other training events. Our goal is to make the best of UM scholarship from around the globe available for a global church. With generous funding from the Woodworth Estates, In-Trust Foundation, and The Grimes Center, and Southern Methodist University we are working in cooperation with the GBHEM, the Endowment fund for Theological Education in the Central Conferences, and members of the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities to create an ongoing program to insure that United Methodists and others world-wide have access to the resources they need to offer a quality theological education.
- Anthony Elia has been named J.S. Bridwell Foundation Endowed Librarian and Director of Bridwell Library effective June 1. He succeeds retiring Director Robert Schaafsma, who served in that role since April 2007.
- Rev. Dr. William J. Abraham, Albert Cook Outler Professor of Wesley Studies was the recipient of the 2018 SMU Faculty Career Achievement Award for his extensive work and dedication to Perkins and Southern Methodist University.
- Rev. Andrew Keck has been named Executive Director of Strategic Initiatives and Special Assistant to the Dean. In the newly created position, Keck will work closely with Dean Craig C. Hill to provide leadership and management for school-wide projects and priorities.
- Marcell Silva Steuernagel, an internationally acclaimed musician and scholar, is the new director of the Master of Sacred Music (M.S.M) Degree Program. Steuernagel succeeds Dr. C. Michael Hawn, University Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Church Music, who retired as director of the Master of Sacred Music Program in 2017.

- In 2017, SMU launched a three-year current-use giving campaign called Pony Power, with a goal of raising $150 million over three years for the University in current-use giving. The University's goal for 2018-19 is $45 million. Perkins' goal for this fiscal year, which ends May 31, 2019, is $2.5 million. Perkins donors are asked to consider making a three-year pledge to a current-use project at Perkins. The areas of greatest need are 1.) the SMU Fund for Perkins, which is used by Dean Hill at his discretion, and 2.) Perkins student financial aid.

Perkins School of Theology is committed to those called to serve so that they might be empowered to lead. We thank our many colleagues, friends and alumni/ae across the connection for generous their support, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and peace,

Craig C. Hill

Dean and Professor of New Testament

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff and students of Philander Smith College (PSC), I greet each of you as you gather for the 2019 Arkansas Annual Conference. I also wish to offer my sincerest appreciation for your consistent support in our quest "to graduate academically accomplished students, grounded as advocates for social justice, determined to change the world for the better."

Introduction

At a time when the national narrative around Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) projects skepticism, imperilment and possibly extinction, Philander Smith College continues to show steady growth, faithful leadership, and a progressive outlook in moving the institution forward. To provide a frame for inspiration and motivation to encase the 2018-2019 Academic Year, the PSC Leadership Team adopted a mindful approach toward being Student-Centered and Mission-Focused in all our guided pathways.

Over the past four years of the Philander Forward Era, we have been determined to dream wildly, set an ambitious agenda, and work to devise strategies in which to execute upon our vision. We have done so by being transparent, accountable, proximate, strategic, data-driven and action-oriented. As we look ahead into Year 5 of the Philander Forward Administration, I am reminded of the need for us to continue to dream big and share our bold aspirations for Dear PSC. From advancing the HBCU Competitiveness Agenda to building and sustaining a strong senior leadership team at the College, there is an unquestionable need for us to plant intentional seeds that will inevitably grow to unveil the future.

Despite the negative rhetoric that swirls and makes waves, HBCUs unequivocally make America strong and positively impact the communities and the regions in which they serve. As we give preeminent attention to being Student-Centered and Mission-Focused, we seek to continually prove the notion of HBCU Competitiveness, which asserts that our institution is doing critical work in providing the best education to the next generation of leaders who are expected to make meaningful contributions to our society. With each scholarship dollar raised and each enrollment exception granted, I am assured that our mission is more important today than ever before.

While each day has not been easy, I am persistently encouraged by our community's deep belief in the declaration that "With God, all things are possible!"

As I continually draw inspiration from the demonstrated commitment of our village of supporters - including our Board of Trustees, the United Methodist Church, alumni, students, faculty and staff, and donors – I count it all joy to be appointed for service in this season of moving Philander Forward!

Priorities for United Methodist Conference Funding

Financial support from the United Methodist Church continues to positively impact the College's activities and programs offered through the Office of Religious Life and Campus Culture (ORLCC). The ORLCC offers a wide variety of programs and services to engage the entire PSC Community of Scholars, including students, faculty and staff. 2018 marked the third year of the College's Campus Culture Transformation Initiative (CCTI). In year three of this Initiative, the College continued to address toxic cultural elements, improving customer service, and advancing the College Community's full integration of the Seven Timeless Human Values (Respect for Self; Respect for Others; Respect for Philander Smith College; Leadership; Scholarship; Spirituality; Service). The Campus Culture Transformation Initiative also supports professional development, scholarships, and special programs focused on faith and justice.

Continuing its long-standing tradition, the Office of Religious Life and Campus Culture hosted the Annual Religious Emphasis Week (REW) as the College's week-long spiritual revival. This year's REW, themed The Micah Mandate, focused on justice, kindness and humility. Activities during the 2019 REW included a gospel concert, a special Christian Ministerial Alliance Social Justice Luncheon, the Annual Clergy Empowerment Luncheon, and a variety of special workshops to stimulate thinking on faith and justice. The week-long celebration concluded with its signature event, the 12th Annual Living Legends Banquet. The 2019 Living Legends Banquet, which welcomed a sold-out audience, honored nine (9) outstanding individuals for their work and service in impacting the Greater Little Rock and Philander Smith College Communities.

1. Philander Smith College Campus Culture Transformative Initiative (CCTI)

Launched in 2016, the Philander Smith College Campus Culture Initiative seeks to address the College's culture by addressing the attitudes, decisions, practices, behaviors and standards of alumni, faculty, staff, administrators and students that, taken together, constitute the learning, living and working environment of Philander Smith College. The CCTI focuses on the following:

- Modeling Christ-Like Values and Principles

- The Evolution of the Philander Man and the Philander Woman
- Creating a Servant Leadership and Discipleship Model
- The Urbanization of Spirituality in a 21st Century Liberal Arts Environment
- Developing a PSC Ambassadors Program

In 2018, the College continued its commitment to advancing the CCTI through intentional programs designed to address the College's most urgent needs as it relates to the day-to-day community culture. During both the 2018 Fall Semester and 2019 Spring Semester Faculty and Staff Institutes, customer service training was a priority. Through this training, both faculty and staff engaged in intentional dialogue and reflective activities to identify challenges and address current needs as it relates to improving customer service at the College. Using the Seven Timeless Human Values and the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as our guides, the College aspires to create a customer service culture that is professional, inviting, and reflective of the experience we desire for all who engage with members of the PSC Community of Scholars.

1. Scholarships for Students

Through this funding, PSC strives to create a diverse pool of scholarship opportunities that will not only be awarded to students based on academic merit and need, but also on "potential" for civic and community leadership and engagement, as well as the potential of one's interest in entering the Christian Ministry. In the 2018-2019 Academic Year, the number of Christian Scholars enrolled in the S.T.A.R.T. Summer Bridge Program increased significantly, serving as a dedicated pipeline to engage students who are interested in further developing their spiritual gifts and expanding individual understanding of one's vocation as ministry.

2. Ongoing Support of Religious Life Activities

- The Office of Religious Life
 - Salaries & Benefits
 - Weekly Chapel Services
 - Student Participation in United Methodist Church Conferences
 - Religious Emphasis Week Activities
 - Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week
- Health Services / Community Outreach
 - Community Health Fairs
 - Domestic Violence Seminars

Philander FORWARD >>>Key Institutional Successes:

January 1, 2019 marked the commencement of the fifth year of my tenure as President and CEO of Philander Smith College. In the first four years, we have achieved several notable milestones, including a dramatic increase and stabilization of the College's enrollment, expansion of the College's academic offerings, the launching of several new initiatives and partnerships, and strengthening the College's long-term financial stability. While there is still much work ahead, I am confident that the seeds we've planted thus far will yield a fruitful harvest for generations to come. For more than 141 years, Philander Smith College has been home to opportunity, to access, and to achieving dreams. Today's Philander Smith is not very different from its early days as Walden Seminary. Philander Smith continues to believe in the students we serve, the communities the students represent, and the hopes and dreams of a generation recently freed from bondage.

This report represents our continued efforts in Moving Philander Forward. We continue to dream big and reach new heights in realizing our bold vision. I am pleased to share the following "Points of Pride" related to our Forward Movement beginning January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018:

- As the College continues its commitment to spiritual development and meeting the spiritual needs of our students, we are pleased to report new funding from the United Methodist Church to support an intern in the Office of Religious Life. This intern will engage in wide-ranging projects, including targeted programming and support for student ministry activities and campus-wide programs to increase opportunities for both formal and informal worship experiences.
- The 4th Annual President's Scholarship Gala was a tremendous success. Through these efforts, the College raised more than $550,000 in financial support that will be dedicated to student scholarships. This year's Gala also included the introduction of a Silent Auction as part of the evening's fundraising efforts.
- The Office of Religious Life and Campus Culture hosted the Annual Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week in the 2018 Fall Semester. During the week-long awareness program, the PSC Community of Scholars collected more than 100 Thanksgiving Baskets to support local families in the City of Little Rock during the Thanksgiving Holiday. In addition, more than 10,000 meals were packed through the Pack Shack Program to address food insecurity throughout the world.
- The 24th Annual Elijah Pitts Memorial Golf Tournament, hosted at the Country Club of Arkansas in Maumelle, AR, served as host to 21 teams and raised more than $30,000 in support for the College. Notable guests included Arkansas Razorbacks Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Anderson and Former Razorback/NBA Veteran Lee Mayberry. A host of PSC faculty, staff, alumni and community supporters also joined to make the Tournament a successful event.
- Focusing on our goal of returning Philander Smith College to national prominence and international acclaim, we are pleased to report that PSC Scholars Peter Joseph and Michael Smith were selected for international study abroad in Peru and India, respectively. Also, PSC Scholar Klaudette Spencer was selected for a coveted internship in the United States Senate Congressional Internship Program. Working in U.S. Senator Kamala Harris' Washington, D.C. Office, Klaudette will engage in the experience of a lifetime while garnering new attention and support for Philander Smith College.
- The College expanded its 'South Campus' footprint, as six additional units were added to Panther Village at South Campus to accommodate the recent enrollment growth. Serving as primary housing for students enrolled in the College's McKinley Newton Honors Academy, Panther Village at South Campus provides a much-needed temporary solution to the College's housing shortage. Plans for a new, 250-bed residential facility on the Main Campus are currently being reviewed by the Board of Trustees.
- Philander Smith College is pleased to share news of a formal Memorandum of Understanding between the College and the William H. Bowen School of Law to admit PSC graduates who meet the School's LSAT and grade-point-average requirements. Students admitted to the School will also be eligible for scholarship funds through a new program established to support under-served populations.

- Through a dedicated grant under the Project Success Initiative launched by Great Lakes, PSC established an Emergency Aid Program to respond to the financial needs for students related to eligible emergency situations. In the first year of the Program, PSC awarded more than $80,000, which covered emergencies related to risks for homelessness, food insecurity, vehicle repairs, utility payments, clothing, and transportation needs.
- The College's Paid Internship Program, which was designed and implemented by the Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Manage (SAEM) and is funded through a dedicated grant sponsored under the Project Success Initiative through Great Lakes, continues to have wide-ranging impacts. In the 2018 Fall Semester, the College recorded a total of seventeen (17) paid internships, resulting in more than $57,000 earned by students through the Program. Internships opportunities included placements in health and wellness fields, education, social services, banking and finance, as well as emerging careers in Science, Technology, Mathematics, and Engineering (STEM).
- The National Park Service awarded Philander Smith College a historic preservation grant in the amount of $304,258 in support of the College's efforts to restore the James Monroe Cox Administration Building. Funds will be used to continue with Phase II of the Cox Building's Renovation Project, which will include restoration of the upper level of the Building.
- Philander Smith College's Social Justice Institute hosted the inaugural Justice-Con Social Justice Conference in June 2018. JusticeCon 2018, which served as host to over 150 students, faculty, staff, and community members, was a key activity in implementing the Think Justice 2.0: A Global Perspective Blueprint approved by the SJ Steering Committee.
- The Philander Smith College Workforce Innovation and Strategic Public-Private Partnerships (WISE-P3) Initiative was awarded its continuation grant from the State of Arkansas in the amount of $474,384. The grant will allow the College to continue its impact on training individuals to address workforce shortages throughout the State of Arkansas.
- The Arkansas Department of Workforce Services awarded Philander Smith College a $250,000 grant to support scholarships for students in the Nursing Program. This partnership will provide funding to enhance the recruitment efforts for prospective students as we seek to address critical shortages in Nursing as well as Allied and Public Health professions in Central Arkansas and beyond.
- The College was pleased to launch the inaugural edition of the Dr. Joycelyn Elders Distinguished Lecture Series in 2018. The inaugural speaker, Dr. James Hildreth, is President and CEO of Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee, as well as a nationally renowned researcher. The Elders Lecture Series will focus on topics to address minority health issues and challenges related to equitable healthcare access for minority populations.
- The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas committed to providing a Capacity Building Grant in support of the College's fundraising efforts. Through this partnership, the College's staff in the Office of Institutional Advancement will participate in a series of training and learning events to advance the College's ability to develop and executive a strategic planned giving campaign.

Conclusion

In reflecting on the College's journey over the past four years, I consider us blessed beyond measure. Our work has been guided by a true spirit of collaboration, a sense of patient and deliberate planning, and a deep belief in the future of Philander Smith College. While there is still much ahead for us to tackle, a review of our progress thus far reveals the fruits of our collective labor. In January 2015, we vowed to Move Philander Forward. Four years later, we confidently embrace each success and every challenge we've experienced – knowing that each has shaped our present day reality.

The United Methodist Church's continued support is inextricably linked to the strength of the College and to its success. The successes articulated throughout this document are a direct result of our collective faith and our commitment to the belief that there are still many generations to be served at Philander Smith College. In the heights of divisiveness and discord in our country and the world, Philander Smith College stands more committed than ever to promote an inclusive and aggressive agenda that embraces a Community of Scholars where all persons are valued. We remained committed to returning Philander Smith College to its rightful place as a local community leader, a regional center for social justice, and an internationally-acclaimed center of excellence for higher education. Our collective efforts and dedication to this wonderful ministry will certainly provide all that we need to reach our goals. It is my hope that you, too, will join me in celebrating our progress and renewing ourselves to a vision and mission that will set Philander Smith on a course for a brighter and more purposeful future. Together, we are Philander Forward.

Saint Paul School of Theology

Saint Paul School of Theology, a seminary of the United Methodist Church, is committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. We are one institution with campuses in Kansas and Oklahoma. During the 2018-2019 academic year, the seminary enrolled 99 students in master and doctoral degree programs.

Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2018-2019 academic year moving its Kansas staff and faculty offices to the Kansas Campus where classes are held. This move was the final step in the process of renovating classrooms with larger spaces as well as bringing Kansas faculty, staff, and students together. A new Common Room equipped with refrigerator, microwave, and snacks was added to give students a place to gather for community meals, student forums, and study. Enhanced technology upgrades were made on both campuses with the launch of the new FLEX schedule and FOCUS week. We received a $5,000 grant from the Missouri United Methodist Foundation to support our technology program for students. In an ever-increasing digital world, Saint Paul is constantly working to reach beyond its walls.

A new Doctor of Ministry (DMin) focus, Spiritual Leadership in Unsettled Times, was announced with courses beginning Fall 2019. The new DMin focus is offered in partnership with Church of the Resurrection, Gamaliel Network, and the Metro Organization for Racial and Economic Equity. Students can take a mixture of online and hybrid (blended online and on-campus) courses to complete the required curriculum.

This year marks the celebration of over 10 years in Oklahoma. Since 2008, Saint Paul has prepared Oklahoma- area leaders for ministries that meet the needs of today's churches and society. In collaboration with Oklahoma City University, students enjoy access to all the resources of a vibrant university, as well as the hospitality and support of a close-knit seminary community.

For Fall 2019, The Oklahoma Foundation, in partnership with Saint Paul School of Theology, is offering a three- year scholarship to educate future church leaders. An Oklahoma Foundation Fellow will receive 3 years of full- tuition and fees (covering 79 credit hours toward the Master of Divinity degree). Foundation Fellows will learn multiple ministry skills in areas such as worship, pastoral care, evangelism, and discipleship.

Saint Paul's faculty continue to contribute to the academy, church, and society. Dr. Elaine Robinson, Professor of Methodist Studies and Christian Theology, worked along with co-editor Amos Nascimento to solicit chapters from United Methodist scholars around the globe who could present an indigenous account of the history of Methodism in their own context. These authors include: Fulgence Nyengele (Congo), Julio Vilanculos (Mozambique), Ulrike Schuler (Western Europe), Sergei Nikolaev (Russia), and Luther Oconer (Philippines). The manuscript is now finished and in the process of being published by GBHEM's Foundry Books under the title, Global United Methodism: Telling the Stories, Living the Realities.

Dr. Jim Brandt, Professor of Historical Theology and Director of Contextual Education, wrote the lead article in the recently published book, Schleiermacher and Sustainability: A Theology for Ecological Living. As part of the Columbia Series in Reformed Theology, each chapter deals with a particular locus in Schleiermacher's systematic theology, focusing on its implications for sustainable living. Saint Paul's 2018-2019 Lecture Series boasted several exciting key note speakers from across the United States to speak on a myriad of topics such as "10 Steps on the Path of Moral Leadership" and "Speaking of Jesus: Early Methodist Principles for Bearing Witness to the Christian Story in a Multi-Religious World". In October, Dr. Luke Bretherton of Duke University was the speaker for the Wayne E. Drake Peace Lecture. In February, the Foundation for Evangelism sponsored Rev. Dr. Jack Jackson of Claremont School of Theology to present this year's Wallace Chappell Lecture. In March, Rev. Dr. David Gushee of Mercer University was the keynote speaker for the Slater-Wilson Lectureship on Spiritual and Intellectual Life.

For 2018, Saint Paul received a grant from Kansas Leadership Center (KLC) in Wichita, KS that allowed 20 people to experience KLC programs. Several faculty, staff, and alumni were able to practice KLC's approach to leadership. Those participants have reported being enriched and inspired by the program. For 2019, Saint Paul received 40 slots for community leaders to attend KLC programs.

Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 299 students in Leawood, KS; Hays, KS; Oklahoma City, OK; Columbia, MO; and Springfield, MO. Saint Paul launched a part-time, accelerated COS satellite program in Columbia, MO this year. Comprised of 9 courses in practical theology, this COS option is designed specifically for part-time local pastors or certified lay ministers entering ministry following completion of the Missouri Conference Licensing School. Like any other COS Satellite, the Columbia satellite is a pilot and collaborative program of Saint Paul Course of Study Regional School in collaboration with the Missouri Conference. Since September 2018, COS has offered two courses and enrolled and registered 23 students in the satellite program.

Saint Paul School of Theology is pleased to report that the Higher Learning Commission has changed the seminary's status from "Accredited - Probation" to "Accredited". For 60 years, Saint Paul has supplied excellence in theological education and our previous challenges have inspired us to strive beyond excellence. We are excited about our future and furthering the mission of Saint Paul.

2018 Highlights

Perkins School of Theology Received $1 Million Grant from Lilly Endowment

In December, SMU received a $1 million grant from the Lilly Endowment Inc. to Perkins School of Theology to fund a new initiative designed to help ministries rethink and reconfigure strategies to strengthen youth participation in their congregations. Entitled "Reboot: The Congregation as Youth Worker," the project will identify a cohort of 18 congregations without paid full-time youth workers within a 300-mile radius of Dallas. The program will help the selected congregations assess the viability of youth ministries in their communities and introduce the innovative models for engaging youth.

Toyota USA Foundation Granted $2 Million to Simmons School of Education for STEM Model School

The Dallas Independent School District (Dallas ISD), Toyota USA Foundation and SMU are collaborating to create an innovative model for STEM education for kindergarten through eighth-grade students in West Dallas. Toyota USA Foundation granted $2 million to the Simmons School of Education and Human Development to develop a business-aligned curriculum, provide professional development for teachers, and coordinate with nonprofits implementing supportive community programming. Longtime SMU supporters Rich and Mary Templeton committed $5 million for research at SMU's Lyle School of Engineering. Their generous gift provides a major boost to the University's externally sponsored research, which is critical to the University's global academic influence. Designed to provide the flexibility necessary to respond to the Lyle School's most pressing and important research needs, the Templeton Endowed Research Excellence Fund includes $4 million for an endowment and $1 million for operations. It covers a range of project essentials, including postdoctoral researchers, doctoral and graduate student stipends, equipment and supplies.

Center for Business Law and Leadership Named for Robert B. Rowling through $4 Million Gift Consortium A $4 million gift consortium created the Robert B. Rowling Center for Business Law and Leadership in SMU's Dedman School of Law. “Sea Monsters Unearthed” Opened at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C.

In November, “Sea Monsters Unearthed” opened at the Smithsonian’s National Museum of Natural History. This groundbreaking exhibition brought together an international team of researchers with more than 100 undergraduate SMU students representing diverse majors, including Myria Perez ’18, who is now working at the Perot Museum of Nature and Science in Dallas. Nazi Hunters Beate and Serge Klarsfeld Receive 2018 Triumph of the Spirit Award

In November, world-renowned Nazi hunters Beate and Serge Klarsfeld visited SMU and were honored by the Embrey Human Rights Program in SMU Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences with the 2018 Triumph of the Spirit Award. As dedicated docents of the Dallas Holocaust Museum/Center for Education and Tolerance, they received the award for their tireless efforts to educate our world about the history of the Holocaust, as well as for advancing human rights to fight prejudice, hatred and indifference. At the ages of 79 and 82, Beate and Serge Klarsfeld have earned prestigious international awards for their activism, such as the French Legion of Honor and German Federal Order of Merit, but they paid the price – with beatings, prison time and attempts on their lives. They describe their experiences in the memoir Hunting the Truth: Memoirs of Beate and Serge Klarsfeld, published in English in March 2018. While on campus, they met with human rights students in a special seminar class.

Empowering Cultural Intelligence (CIQ) as a Core Value

SMU is leading the way for other universities nationwide in the realm of cultural intelligence. CIQ is a revolutionary approach in higher education to ensure that every member of the SMU community is equipped with the skills and the knowledge to manage and communicate effectively in complex cultural contexts. “If you are going to be a world changer, you need to know how to talk to the world,” says Maria Dixon Hall, senior advisor to the Provost for Campus Cultural Initiatives and associate professor of Corporate Communication and Public Affairs. Changing the world requires being able to learn, teach, mentor, collaborate, and work with people of a myriad of cultural identities, including race, ethnicity, political ideology, gender, sexual orientation and religion. The goal of CIQ is for SMU community members to move beyond appreciating diversity to being able to effectively and authentically communicate respectfully with anyone, anywhere.

SMU is a grateful member of the Methodist family, and we request your continued prayers and support as we endeavor to make a meaningful difference in the lives of all those we serve.

Warm regards,

R. Gerald Turner,

President

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas

United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas

The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas experienced significant changes during 2018. From the loss of President and CEO Jim Argue and the search to fill his leadership position to completing the move into a new facility, 2018 was a time of transition. Our staff and board of directors continue to fulfill our mission of creating and administering permanent charitable endowments to strengthen and expand the United Methodist ministry in Arkansas.

New Headquarters Named for James B. Argue, Jr.

The Board of Directors of The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas voted to name the new headquarters building in honor of the President who served the organization for more than 35 years. The James B. Argue, Jr. Stewardship Center was formally dedicated in early 2019.

The 10,000-square-foot building on Wellington Village Road in Little Rock houses offices for the Foundation staff and is also the home of the Lusk Training Center, named for John and Becki Lusk of El Dorado who made a $1 million gift to fund the portion of the building that will be used for clergy and lay development and to enhance ministries in Arkansas Methodism.

CEO Search

After an extensive search by the Foundation Board of Directors, Rev. J. Wayne Clark, former Associate Vice President for Development and Dean of the Chapel at Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas was named President and CEO. Clark began his new role in January 2019.

Assets Under Management

After a nine-year trend of consistent growth, UMFA assets under management decreased somewhat in 2018 due to the fourth quarter market downturn. At $153.4 million, UMFA remains the sixth largest UM Foundation in the nation thanks to the generous spirit of Arkansas United Methodists.

Grants

UMFA continued to make a dramatic impact on the United Methodist Church in Arkansas. Over $1.1 million in grants were made at the discretion of the Foundation's board to high priority areas including leadership development, human welfare, and Conference institutions.

- We have now provided 36 scholarships to Arkansas students attending a United Methodist seminary. There are four more students currently attending seminaries, and we hope to approve four more scholarship recipients this spring.
- We made the final installment on our $200,000 grant in support of the new student center at Philander Smith College.
- We made the final installment on our $150,000 grant to Hendrix College to underwrite their new Welcome Center.
- A major contribution, $21,000, has been made to provide certification and training for Youth Pastors and Directors of Youth in partnership with Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University.
- UMFA's grant of $83,000 enabled 100 clergy and lay leaders from the ARUMC to attend the Leadership Institute at the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas.
- Through the UMC's Dollars for Scholars program, the Foundation provided fifty, $1,000 scholarships to United Methodist students attending United Methodist colleges and universities.
- The Center for Calling and Christian Leadership continues to develop as it challenges and prepares young people for future leadership in the church. A significant grant of $137,500 will bring talented and gifted lay and clergy leaders to our congregations.

Endowments Created by Local Churches and Individuals

An endowment is an investment fund where the principal amount invested remains intact, and the earned income is used according to the instructions created by the local church or donor. The income can be designated for a specific purpose or undesignated.

- A church in east Arkansas had a donor leave a gift to the church. The church has created an endowment fund at the Foundation. The income from the endowment will generate funds in perpetuity to the church providing yearly support for their children's ministry programs.
- The Foundation sends another church who has an endowment fund under management, a check every year to benefit their food pantry. Ensuring the church will always be able to help those in need in their local community.
- Another church receives interest from an endowment that allows them to award yearly college scholarships.
- A wife created an endowment with the Foundation upon the death of her husband to benefit their local church's mission ministry. The endowment will continue to grow, she plans to make additional contributions to the fund, and upon her death, a portion of the estate will also go into the endowment.

UMFA Events & Activities of 2018

- February 15: UMFA hosted our Investment Forum which featured presentations from our investment experts at Wespath Investment Management, the Foundation's investment manager and the UMC agency responsible for $21 billion in UMC pension assets.
- February 21-23: UMFA hosted a visit to Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, Texas to explore ways we can support their capital campaign. LPI is an educational institution of the South-Central Jurisdiction of the UMC.
- May 18: UMFA Board Meeting
- September 19: UMFA hosted the United Methodist Lawyers Conference, the annual presentation of legal education topics relevant to United Methodist attorneys.
- November 16: UMFA Board Meeting and 33rd Annual Bishops' Club Luncheon; Pleasant Valley Country Club, Little Rock.

I am very proud and honored to work with The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, which has deep roots in Arkansas helping Methodism expand in its ministries across the state for five decades. Being in partnership with the Annual Conference to provide leadership opportunities to people of all ages, both clergy and laity, has been a cornerstone of UMFA. I am beginning to hear the exciting ministries happening in the local church provided by estate gifts which are managed by UMFA. These funds are helping the local church make disciples for Jesus Christ. I am excited about the future of UMFA and Arkansas Methodism as we continue to transform lives.

E. Mazie Chesser

May 19, 1935 – Sept. 26, 2018

From William Chesser: I'm going to tell a few stories about my mother.

Mazie Chesser is my mom and people just loved her. She was a teacher for 40 years. Over the years, on several occasions, when I would state my name to total strangers they would say something like, "Are you related to Mazie Chesser?" to which I would say, "Yes, I am her son." Then they would say some variation of, "She was my favorite teacher I ever had." These people ranged in age from their 20s to their 50s, but my mom was an elementary school teacher. Many people remembered her and the impact she had on their lives.

She taught at an all-black girls' school in North Carolina during segregation. She was the only white teacher (I imagine the only white person) there. She couldn't sit with her fellow teachers when they went to the movies because they were forced to sit in the balcony. When my mother asked if she could sit with them up there, she was not allowed to do so. She remained furious about this her entire life, I think. When the girls at the school wanted to go to the store, they had to get a teacher to take them. They knew my mother to be a soft touch, so they would often talk her into taking them. The first time she took them, as mom tells it, they were all waiting in line. The white cashier looked over all the heads of the girls in line and asked my mother, "Can I help you, ma'am?" My mother replied, indignantly, "THEY are all in line. You can help THEM."

My mother was the truest Christian I ever expect to meet. She was the person against whom I always compare every other person who claims to be Christian. She was caring, kind, loving, accepting and forgiving. I have to admit that I infrequently find people who measure up to her (at least, in my mind), and I live in a family full of ministers.

When my mother taught in Waldron in the 1980s, she had a sink in her room. One of the students was absolutely fascinated with the sink. Eventually she found out that the student didn't have running water at home. "You just go use that sink whenever you want," she told the student. "You don't even have to ask me. Just get up and use it." That's the way my mother handled things. She saw something that wasn't working and, scarcely without thought, she would just correct the problem. It wasn't even second nature to her. It was her first nature. She was kind and caring without even thinking about it. She was grace personified.

I wouldn't be here and who I am without her in several real senses. She had always wanted more children than my father (she wanted six) but they had stopped having children after the first two. A decade later, she insisted that she wanted another. So it was that I was born when she was a month shy of 40, in 1975. She (and dad) always claimed that I kept them young. Well I may have kept her young, but she made me the person I am.

If I am a good teacher, it is because of her. If I am patient when I otherwise wouldn't be, it's because of her. If you ever catch me in a moment of grace, it's because of her. Don't get me wrong, I love dad too, but mom is the person that softened all my otherwise hard edges (and, for those who know me, imagine what I would be like had she not).

I love my mother, Mazie Chesser. I am happy to say that many other people do too. She passed from this earth on the morning of Sept. 26, peacefully in her sleep at the age of 83. I will miss her terribly.

Mazie was preceded in death by her parents, Ross and Clara Louthan.

She is survived by her husband Lewis; her daughter, Dawn Chesser and husband Scot Danforth of Knoxville, Tenn.; two sons, Wilburn Chesser and his wife Frances of Washington, D.C., and William Chesser and his wife Alison of Fayetteville; her sister, Annie Isreal and her husband Bud of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; and her brother, William Louthan and his wife Laveda of Aurora, Colorado. Special Recognition

Euba Harris-Winton

June 1923 – March 11, 2019

Euba was born in June 1923 and died Monday, March 11, 2019. Ms. Euba's achievements and activism are too many to share in one post but here are a few of the many things she accomplished within her community and the United Methodist Church.

From 1970 to 1997, Harris-Winton supervised the Mallalieu Community Development Center, which was part of the Mallalieu Methodist Church. The church's history stretches back to 1886, and Harris-Winton's father pastored at that church for several years in the early 1900s. Euba served on numerous conference and district committees throughout her lifetime. At the time of her death, Euba was a member of Mission UMC and participated in St. Paul UMC's United Methodist Women.

The Lincoln Echo, May 2001 Edition wrote the following:

Her achievements, recognition, and awards could fill a book and would make for some very inspiring reading. In fact, the book entitled, Two Centuries of Methodism in Arkansas 1800-2000 by Nancy Britton, makes reference to Euba numerous times, as following:

- Daughter of Rev. D.H.E. Harris [Rev. Harris was pastor of Mallalieu Methodist Church, Fort Smith, Arkansas, from 1900 to 1907, a District Superintendent and the first Black minister to serve on the Board of Trustees of Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ar.]
- The first Black delegate elected from the North Arkansas conference to attend the General conference in 1980.
- Appeared on the United Methodist produced television series, in 1985, "Catch the Spirit" [that episode featured the programs and work of the Mallalieu Community Center*].
- President of the North Arkansas Conference, United Methodist Women, 1986-89. Recipient of the 1987-88 Ethel K. Millar Award [Millar was designer of the library at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, in 1927, and supervised the library until her death in 1960.]

And the book "Our Father: Where Are the Fathers?" wrote this about Euba: Because of her ministry to all God's children in the city of FS AR, in particular, and the state of Arkansas in general, Euba Mae Harris-Winton, a Black Community developer with the General Board of Global Ministries of the UMC, was named one of the 10 matriarchs of Arkansas in 1989.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Euba Mae Harris-Winton were Tuesday, March 19, 2019, at First United Methodist Church, 200 N. 15th Street, Fort Smith, Arkansas 72901. Visitation was Monday, March 18, 2019, from 5-6 p.m. at the mortuary.

Par. 302. Vision Congregations and surrounding communities transformed by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate love of God and neighbor, holy living, and justice.

Par. 303. Core Measures

1. We will be enriched by our Wesleyan heritage of scriptural holiness so that we are connected by our mission of making disciples instead of being connected by our apportionments, appointments and benefits.
2. We will establish the mission field as the primary focus of our attention and resources instead of directing the majority of our attention and resources to mere maintenance of congregations and clergy.
3. We will equip laity and clergy to transform individuals, communities and the world instead of trying to satisfy personal preferences of current members and ensure congregational preservation.
4. We will address the unique context of each mission field instead of depending on standardized programs and structures.

Par. 304. Arkansas Conference Trajectory Creating vital congregations that make disciples of Jesus Christ, who make disciples equipped to transform lives, communities and the world.

Section II. Structure

Par. 305. Establishment The Arkansas Annual Conference establishes the following Structure under the authority of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, which permits the Annual Conference to structure its own ministries and administrative procedures in order to accomplish its purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ. ¶610

Nothing in this procedure shall keep any eligible person from being named on any ballot.

2. Clergy may nominate (including self-nomination) only those candidates for election as clergy delegates who meet the qualifications established by the General Conference and printed in the Discipline, and who indicate their willingness to serve if elected by signing a Conference-provided nomination form. POLICIES GOVERNING LOCAL CHURCHES

Par. 1000 Policy Statement on Misconduct of a Sexual Nature (Adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004, and revised June 14, 2005)

1. Statement of Policy. The _____ United Methodist church affirms the 2008 Book of Resolutions #2044, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with the 2008 Book of Discipline (§ 161.E), all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ, we support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual conduct or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, volunteer, person being counseled or any other person to whom the minister relates in his/her capacity as a minister. Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Similarly, sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the church interferes with its moral mission. The _____ United Methodist Church stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large and commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of sexual misconduct within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, the United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

2. Procedures

- a. If you experience what you consider to be inappropriate behavior, keep a written record of your experiences including dates, times, places, and witnesses. Keep any written material you may have received from the person. You may wish to confront the person with the inappropriate behavior and demand that it cease. If you choose not to confront the person alone, you may choose to ask someone to accompany you to confront the person and seek reconciliation. If you choose not to confront the person, or if the behavior continues, report the incident to the chair of the person's appropriate evaluating committee (e.g., a pastor or church staff member would be reported to the chair of the staff/parish relations committee; a district superintendent to the chair of the committee on superintendency; a bishop to the chair of the committee on episcopacy). If the conflict is not resolved to your satisfaction, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing accusations, and each supporting person. If the situation is not resolved to your satisfaction following these efforts, then follow the Discipline's procedures for grievances, complaints, and charges.

- b. If you are confronted by someone who has experienced or observed inappropriate behavior on your part, listen to the accusation and agree to change the behavior or otherwise resolve the situation and reconcile the relationship. If you are unable to resolve the situation with your accuser, contact the chair of your appropriate evaluating committee. Ask to meet with your accuser and committee chair to resolve the conflict. The accused and the person bringing the accusation each has the right to bring a supportive person to this meeting. If the conflict remains unresolved, the committee chair shall convene the entire committee to meet with the accused, the person bringing the accusation, and each supporting person.
- c. If you receive a report of inappropriate behavior, listen seriously and objectively. Help the person follow the steps outlined above. If you are a clergy/church profession in a paid supervisory position in the local church or a conference agency, and an employee is being harassed, you should immediately take corrective or preventive action. According to Arkansas law, any person receiving a report from a child under age 18, indicating sexual abuse of that child, is required to report the abuse to the proper authorities.

Par. 1001 Vacation Policy for Appointed Personnel (Presented by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and adopted by the Annual Conference in June 2010.) It is The United Methodist Church’s view that good vacation time benefits ministry. Since pastors are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, time away (when the parish is “vacated”) can bring renewal and refreshment for the tasks at hand and help prevent burn-out. We recommend the following minimum vacation standards:

1. Each clergy person under appointment by the Bishop of the Arkansas Conference shall be entitled to receive the following minimum vacation time during the course of the Annual Conference year (July 1 – June 30).
 - a. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from the time first appointed to five years: two weeks vacation (2 Sundays).
 - b. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church from six years to ten years: three weeks vacation (3 Sundays).
 - c. Those having served full time in The United Methodist Church for eleven or more years: four weeks vacation (4 Sundays).
2. Vacation time shall be based on the number of years of service under full-time appointment in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (including previous service in diaconal ministry) and not on the number of years of service in a given appointment.

3. Time away from the appointment for participating in continuing education events and experiences shall not be counted as vacation time (see ¶1351.2), nor time away from the appointment to attend Annual Conference or other conference, district, or general church events which the appointee is expected to attend shall be counted as vacation time.
4. Full-time clergy are to receive a minimum of two weeks for continuing education. All part-time clergy are to receive a minimum of one week for continuing education. (This continuing education policy does not apply to pastors who have not completed Course of Study.)
5. The Committee on Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations should also arrange for the clergy person to have one day off each week and to be away from the appointment occasionally for a day or two.
6. In those charges where local pastors have not completed the Course of Study and where clergy are appointed to less than full-time service, including student pastors and part-time local pastors, the minimum vacation time shall be two weeks.
7. Clergy should refrain from taking vacation during the first month of a new appointment. It is also recommended that the first-year vacation be distributed across the year, not taken all at once.
8. The clergy person shall consult with the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in obtaining vacation supply coverage.
9. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

Par. 1002 Camping and Retreat Ministries Committee – Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers (This was passed at the 2009 session of the Arkansas Annual Conference.)

We recommend that the Arkansas Annual Conference rescind the “Standards for Camping and Retreat Centers” adopted in June 2006 and all previous recommendations of camping standards presented to the conference by this committee. We further recommend that all camps and retreat centers within the Arkansas Annual Conference move toward accreditation through the American Camp Association.

Par. 1003 Salary Arrearage Policy (This Salary Arrearage Policy was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 22, 2014 as presented by the Equitable Compensation Commission.)

This applies to all churches and all clergy receiving a salary from a local church. This also includes those receiving equitable compensation funds.

1. In the event that the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, or to remit to the Conference Treasurer full payment for regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, the church treasurer shall notify within twenty-four hours the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and the Lay Member of the Annual Conference of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall within 3 days notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage. It is the pastor’s responsibility to keep copies of all such written notification and to provide additional written confirmation to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefits arrearage may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall within 24 hours convene a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council and Lay Member to Annual Conference to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:
 - a. Drawing from invested funds,
 - b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation,
 - c. Emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The District Superintendent may invite the Commission to send a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue, so that the pastor receives full compensation by the end of the conference year.
4. If it is determined that the church is not able to provide the compensation package as voted at Charge Conference, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent (Arkansas Conference 2013 Journal 482) and request a consultation. Options for addressing the arrearage might include:
 - a. Develop a payment plan so that the pastor will receive full compensation by the end of the conference year or
 - b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.
 - c. Requesting an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant for the remainder of the appointive year.
5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:
 - a. Determine if all subsidy grant funds allocated to the church were used to pay the pastor's salary.
 - b. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced.
 - c. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org). The District Superintendent shall be notified of its findings and recommendations in writing.

6. If a local church becomes delinquent in the payment of the pastor's direct billed pension, health care and benefits (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), the Conference Treasurer shall notify the Conference Benefits Officer, the District Superintendent, and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The Superintendent will work with the CEC and the local church to develop a written payment plan with the local church so that the Conference receives full payment of pension and benefits by the end of the conference year.
7. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing appropriate documentation.
8. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (§342.4).

Chapter Two

GUIDELINES ESTABLISHED BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Par. 1100 Parsonage Standards (Presented by the Conference Trustees, and adopted by the Annual Conference on June 10, 2004)

Philosophy for Parsonage Standards: The Conference affirms the policy of church-owned parsonages as the way to serve the churches in our Conference as it greatly facilitates the itinerant system of clergy appointment. Any exceptions to this policy must have the approval of the bishop and cabinet. Therefore, it is important that local church parsonages across the Conference meet certain standards so that differences in quality, size, and equipment are kept to a minimum. The Discipline is clear concerning the Annual Conference's role in setting parsonage standards and how the parsonage is to be understood by the local church and the clergy and his/her family. The 2004 Book of Discipline states that the Church Council shall "Review the recommendation of the committee on pastor parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s); and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." ¶252.4e The 2004 Book of Discipline also states that "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." ¶2532.4 The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. Guidelines:

1. Bedrooms: There should be at least three bedrooms of standard size with ample closet space in each. It is recommended that one room on the main floor be adaptable to use as a bedroom.
2. Bathrooms: A parsonage should have at least two bathrooms. One could be with shower only, and the one on the main floor should be a combination tub and shower.
3. Kitchen: The minimum kitchen should include: adequate built in cabinets, sink, stove, automatic refrigerator with frozen storage, garbage disposal (where sewer lines or septic tanks do not make this impossible), dishwasher, good light, and adequate electrical outlets. A breakfast area is desirable. Other appliances shall include a washing machine and clothes dryer (not necessarily in the kitchen area itself). An adequate supply of hot water shall be provided.

4. Living/Dining Areas: Adequate living area for family life and entertaining guests must be provided. Depending upon the needs of the setting this could be a combination of the following rooms/areas: living room, family room, dining room, or a great room.
5. Study: It is preferable for the pastor's office to be in the church buildings. However, the parsonage may be equipped with space for a study. Every parsonage should have adequate bookshelves.
6. Closets: Adequate closet and storage space shall be provided throughout the house.
7. Garage: Two-car garage or carport with storage room for tools and yard equipment shall be provided.
8. Energy Efficiency: It is recommended that conservation of energy be considered when purchasing appliances, when remodeling, and when purchasing a new parsonage.
9. Heating/Cooling: A central heating/cooling system with the capacity to properly heat/cool the entire habitable part of the house and the proper thermostatic controls should be provided. The pastor shall be responsible for changing furnace filters to ensure the safe and efficient operation of the system. The church shall provide all other maintenance of the heating and cooling system.
10. Window Coverings: Appropriate and tasteful curtains, drapes, shades, or other window coverings shall be provided for all rooms of the parsonage. Safe storage of unused window coverings shall be provided by the pastor.
11. Utilities: All utilities shall be provided in the name of the church.
 - a. Telephone: At least two phone outlets shall be provided.
 - b. Heating/Cooling: Adequate heating/cooling shall be provided. The heating/cooling system shall be maintained by the church and shall be inspected annually with regard to soundness of heating/cooling exchanger, flue pipes, and chimney condition. If a wood stove and/or fireplace is in use, it too should be checked yearly. An instruction sheet should be posted near the furnace, or in a convenient place, to instruct on the maintenance and care of the furnace. The name of a reputable furnace company to be used should be specified. Suggestion should be made as the maximum/minimum temperatures and to the desirability of closing off unneeded rooms during the heating/cooling season. The pastor is responsible for the furnace filters to be changed at least three times yearly.
12. Insurance: The church is responsible for payment of insurance for the property. It should include homeowner coverage and shall cover at least eighty percent of the replacement cost of the parsonage and related structures and church-owned furnishings. It is recommended that the pastor obtain coverage to insure pastor's family furnishings and belongings.

13. Parsonage Furnishings and Equipment: The responsibility of the local church to provide "adequate housing" shall be interpreted by the Arkansas Annual Conference to include furnishings and other equipment. However, it is suggested that one bedroom be left unfurnished in all parsonages. The required items shall include an automatic washer, dryer, refrigerator, cooking stove, dishwasher, garbage disposal (unless septic tanks/inadequate sewer line make this impossible), and lawn mower. As applicable, the local church shall furnish a breakfast table, formal living room furniture, den/family room furniture, bedroom furniture (except as noted above), adequate lamps and lighting, and floor coverings. It is expected that the minister shall provide nonessential items such as a microwave oven, pictures, and accessories. It is permissible, and even encouraged, for the pastor and family to provide personal furnishings, as this is their home. The Pastor shall work with the Parsonage Committee and/or Trustees to provide for safe storage of unused local church-owned furniture.

14. Parsonage Maintenance: Local Church Responsibility

- a. The local church board of trustees or elected parsonage committee shall properly maintain an adequate and comfortable home in good condition for the pastor and his/her family. At the convenience of the parsonage family, the chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect the home to see what needs to be done, if anything, to meet these standards and to take necessary steps to accomplish these improvements. It is recommended that the maintenance of the parsonage should include provision for pest/termite control.
- b. The chairperson of the Trustees, the chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall inspect, at least annually, the parsonage and grounds to be familiar with said properties. They shall keep a record of their inspection so that they can take initiative in improving the parsonage and grounds. Each year every local church budget shall include money for maintenance, redecoration, and landscaping of the parsonage.
- c. All instruction books and warranties should be kept and the location of the books made known to an incoming pastor. The location of all cutoff valves, meters, water and sewer lines and similar items should be kept on file and should also be made known to an incoming minister. The local church shall inform the pastor of who has keys to the parsonage. These keys are for emergency use only by anyone other than the pastor and his/her family. (See above Philosophy for Parsonage Standards)

15. Parsonage Maintenance: Pastor's Responsibilities: The pastor should care for the parsonage as a good steward of the property, avoiding undue wear and tear. Pets sometimes present special problems. It is the responsibility of the clergy who have pets to inform the appropriate local church officers when moving into the parsonage. Pastors with pets should exercise care so that the parsonage is not abused, including professional pest control for parasites from pets. The pastor is responsible for any damage caused by pets, personal guests, or family members. The pastor's family is responsible for cleaning the parsonage when they move out,

16. Parsonage Grounds: The grounds around the house shall be well drained. The grounds shall be cared for by the parsonage family. If the lawn is unusually large, contains many shrubs, or requires a great deal of time to maintain in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, the church should consider assisting the pastor with additional help or service. Landscaping and exterior care of the parsonage shall be the responsibility of the local church and shall be such as to be a credit to the church in the community.
17. Mutual responsibility Covenant: it is recommended that the Trustees and/or Pastor Parish Relations Committee create a written covenant with the pastor, spelling out each party's responsibilities. The Covenant should be reviewed and updated annually. The covenant should include provisions for restoration to original form any personalized decorating on the part of the pastoral family. Redecorating should be done regularly with full consultation with the pastor.
18. Energy Conservation: It is recommended that all parsonages have an energy audit as soon as possible to determine what might be done to make them more energy efficient...weather seals, storm windows and doors, insulation, etc. Many areas have utility companies that will do this for free or for a small fee.
19. Barrier Free Concerns: It is recommended that all parsonages built, or remodeled in the future, consider needs of the physically challenged such as tub bath, at least one bedroom, and preferably laundry be on the main floor, and a limited number of, if any, entry steps.
20. Safety: The parsonage shall contain certain safeguards for the parsonage family's safety. At least two fire extinguishers, one in the house (kitchen?) and one in the garage or utility area, shall be kept in working condition and shall be checked at the annual inspections. Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors shall be provided, at least one on each floor including the basement.
21. Implementation of these Parsonage Standards:
 - a. Time: These parsonage standards, to go into effect immediately, are adopted for the pastor, local church board of Trustees, Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and/or Parsonage Committee.
 - b. All substandard parsonages shall be considered for renovation to conform as nearly as possible to the above standards as soon as possible, but no later than January 1, 2006. District Superintendents shall keep a record of parsonages that are not meeting these guidelines and report annually to the Cabinet.
 - c. A local church may appoint a Parsonage Committee to work with the Board of Trustees and Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in the implementation of these standards and ongoing oversight and maintenance of the parsonage. The Parsonage Committee membership shall include the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, a minimum of three at-large members elected to three-year terms in classes (with the initial election to be for terms of 1 year, 2 years, and 3 years to establish the classes), and the minister or minister's spouse. The at-large members may not succeed themselves and at least two of the elected members of the committee shall be women.

- d. When there is a pastoral change, the house shall be inspected by the Chairpersons of the Trustees and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, one other member of the Parsonage Committee, if formed, and the Pastor before the Pastor leaves for his/her new situation, to make a list of needed repairs. These repairs shall be accomplished prior to the arrival of the succeeding pastor. When moving day arrives, a final "walk through" conducted by the pastor with the above persons shall occur for a final assessment. Before a move, the departing pastor shall invite the incoming pastor to see the parsonage. Any redecorating should include consultation with the incoming pastoral family.
- e. Housing Allowance/Parsonage: The Annual Conference has confirmed the Parsonage System as the most efficient and effective way of serving the local churches in our Arkansas Conference. In certain special and limited situations a housing allowance or use of rental property is permissible. A decision to exercise this option shall be made with the approval of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, the District Superintendent, the Trustees, and the Pastor. The resulting decision shall then be recommended to the Charge Conference for approval. The decision must also have the approval of the Bishop and cabinet. In order to maintain an open itinerancy system, churches which do not own a parsonage should make provision for a rental deposit/purchase down payment and initial furnishing purchases for any person moved into the appointment.
- f. Publicity of Guidelines: Upon adoption, these parsonage standards shall be distributed to all pastors, Chairpersons of local church Board of Trustees, and, chairpersons of Pastor Parish Relations Committee. The then current parsonage standards will be printed in the Conference Journal once each quadriennium. These standards shall be given to all new pastors and families coming into the conference by the Board of Ordained Ministry.
- g. Compliance: The District Superintendent shall ask questions concerning the parsonage and its compliance with the parsonage standards annually at the Charge Conference. If a dispute arises in a local church or between a local church and the pastor, the District Superintendent should be contacted to mediate the issue.
- h. Church/Pastor Parsonage Covenant recommendation: The Administrative Board of the Church has the responsibility to provide adequate housing for the Pastor (Discipline ¶251.4e). The Parsonage is to be mutually respected by the Pastor as the property of the Church and by the Church as a place of privacy for the Pastor's family. To facilitate this mutual responsibility we recommend that the Church and the Pastor enter into the following covenant. Both Parties should feel free to perfect this Covenant to meet any other desired or special circumstances. It is important that both parties feel satisfied with and responsible for the Covenant.

(A SUGGESTED CHURCH/PASTOR PARSONAGE COVENANT)

Church Responsibilities:

While other church officers and bodies have a role in the provision, inspection, and maintenance of the parsonage, the local church Board of Trustees shall have the responsibility to ensure the parsonage meets or exceeds the standards set by the Annual Conference and the local church.

The Church Trustees will maintain the physical structure and keep it in good repair. This includes all exterior treatments such as paint, shingles, and siding; the basic interior structure of the home including carpet and other floor coverings, interior decorating, and drapes or curtains. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all equipment such as furnace, water heater, light fixtures, stove, refrigerator, washer, dryer, and lawn mower. The Trustees assume the responsibility for all furnishings provided by the church including maintenance and timely replacement.

Clergy Responsibilities:

The pastor will properly care for the property, keeping it clean and attractive both inside and out. The pastor will be responsible for light bulbs, furnace filters, lawn mowing and snow removal; for effecting minor repairs such as, but not limited to, tacking or nailing of molding or door tops that may loosen up, and repairing or replacing items damaged by pets, personal guests, or the pastor and his/her family. [This covenant would be signed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Pastor, and other appropriate local church officers.]

Par. 1101 Safe Sanctuary Policy Recommendation. (This recommendation was adopted by the Annual Conference, Sunday, June 22, 2014).

Whereas, Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes [a] child... welcomes me" (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God. God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (Adapted from The Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, 2008.)

Therefore, the Arkansas Conference of the United Methodist Church hereby pledges to conduct the ministry of Jesus Christ in ways that promote the physical and emotional safety and spiritual growth of our children, youth and our workers with children and youth. In all of our ministries with children and youth, this congregation is committed to demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ so that each child and youth will be "surrounded by steadfast love... established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal." (Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Book of Worship, p. 96).

Therefore, we will follow reasonable safety measures when selecting and recruiting workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all areas of programming and care; we will train our workers with children and youth on our procedures and policies; and we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting reasonably suspected incidents of child maltreatment that conforms to the requirements of Arkansas law.

Therefore, recognizing that the programs, needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ, when local churches are developing Safe Sanctuaries guidelines, it is recommended that they:

1. develop and implement an ongoing education plan for the congregation and its leaders on the reality of child abuse, risk factors leading to child abuse, and strategies for prevention;
2. adopt screening procedures (use of application forms, interviews, reference checks, background clearance, and so forth) for workers (paid and unpaid) directly or indirectly involved in the care of children and youth;
3. develop and implement safety procedures for church activities such as having two or more non-related adults present in classroom or activity; leaving doors open and installing half-doors or windows in doors or halls; providing hall monitors; instituting

- sign-in and sign-out procedures for children ages ten or younger; and so forth;
4. advise children and young persons of an agency or a person outside as well as within the local church whom they can contact for advice and help if they have suffered abuse;
 5. carry liability insurance that includes sexual abuse coverage;
 6. assist the development of awareness and self-protection skills for children and youth through special curriculum and activities; and
 7. be familiar with annual conference and other church policies regarding clergy sexual misconduct.

SAMPLE SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

(This sample Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedure was adopted by the Annual Conference on June 11, 2013.)

This is a sample policy that is intended to serve as an aid to local congregations establishing or updating a Safe Sanctuary policy. It should be recognized that the needs and resources of local congregations vary significantly and therefore local policies and procedures will and should differ to some degree. This sample is intended as a resource only and is not as a substitute for reasoned decision making with the guidance of clergy and local legal counsel. Daycare facilities should also carefully comply with all applicable licensing requirements of the Arkansas Department of Human Services (ADHS) which are outside the scope of this sample.

Our Purpose

When a child is baptized or confirmed within our faith, we promise: "With God's help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ, so that this child, surrounded by steadfast love, may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal..." (Congregational Pledge 2, United Methodist Hymnal, p. 44.) The members of this church are committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment for staff, members and guests of all ages, to taking reasonable precautions to reduce the risk of child or adult maltreatment for all who participate in our programs or events, and to reducing the risk of false allegations or suspicions of the same. These guidelines are intended to reflect our congregation's commitment to preserving the church as a holy place where all people can experience the love of God through relationships with others. This policy applies to all church-sponsored events or programs, whether on or off the church premises.

1. Selection and Training of Staff and Volunteers

c. Insurance: The church will maintain adequate insurance to cover the scope of its ministries.

4. Responding to Suspected Maltreatment

- a. This congregation will not ignore or tolerate suspected child or adult maltreatment.
- b. This congregation will not require anyone to obtain permission, or to notify anyone at the church before making a child or adult maltreatment report, nor will it prohibit anyone from making a maltreatment report.
- c. This congregation will not retaliate against anyone who makes a maltreatment report. Anyone may, in good faith, make a hotline report of reasonably suspected child or adult maltreatment. Mandatory reporters must immediately report reasonably suspected maltreatment.
- d. When child or adult maltreatment is reasonably suspected and a report is to be made: Treat the allegation seriously and with respect for all persons involved. Immediately make the report, documenting the time and date of call and the name of the person taking the report, to the appropriate hotline:

Arkansas Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-482-5964
Arkansas Adult Abuse Hotline: 1-800-482-8049

If the report involves an allegation against staff or a volunteer, or is alleged to have occurred during any church-sponsored event or on church premises, immediately notify the Senior Pastor. If the suspected maltreatment involves the Senior Pastor, the reporter may instead inform the SPRC chairperson. Refrain from any attempt to notify or confront the accused or to conduct a personal investigation of the alleged maltreatment, recognizing the capability and authority of the civil authorities to do so.

Maintain the confidentiality of information. All reporters will cooperate fully with all ADHS, OLTC and/or law enforcement investigations but will not share information with others except the SPRC chair or pastor or their designees as may be appropriate. All inquiries should be directed to the designated church spokesperson to ensure respect for the investigation process and privacy of those involved.

5. Church Participation by Registered Sex Offenders

- a. This congregation recognizes that abuse in all of its forms is detrimental. We will provide a safe environment, counsel, and support for the abused. While we deplore the actions of abusers, we affirm that all persons are in need of God's redeeming love.
- b. Where a person is known to have previously committed a violent or sexual offense such that he or she is listed on the ACIC Sexual Offender Registry or similar registry maintained by any jurisdiction, he or she will not be permitted to work in direct contact with children, youth or impaired adults.
- c. The following precautions, in addition to any others deemed necessary by the church and the person previously identified as an offender, will be confidentially maintained for as long as the individual is associated with this congregation:
 - 1) The Senior Pastor and/or his or her designee will meet with the individual and will openly discuss the conditions of his or her participation.
 - 2) The conditions of participation will be in writing and signed by the Senior Pastor and the chairperson of the Church Council.
 - 3) If an individual is on probation or parole, the specific restrictions of probation or parole may be made part of the written conditions of participation.
 - 4) The individual may be accompanied by a "Buddy," designated by the church, while the individual is present on church property or is attending any church-sponsored event. The Buddy must agree to remain in the direct visual presence of the individual at all times.

6. Review

This policy will be reviewed and revised if necessary, at least annually, by the Senior Pastor and designated members of the SPRC, Board of Trustees and any others deemed necessary.

7. Adopted

This policy was adopted/approved at Charge Conference on this _____ day of _____, 20____.

Par.1102 Copyright Guidelines for Churches

Disclaimer: The information provided in these guidelines is for information purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. In the development of the guidelines, certain assumptions have been made about underlying practices and uses of intellectual property. Any change in those assumptions could affect the application of a particular guideline or recommended best practice. Therefore, while the information provided may assist a local church, it is not a substitute either for legal advice by an attorney with knowledge of copyright law or the written approval of specific copyright holders. If there is any doubt as to whether a specific use or practice violates copyright laws, the local church should seek the written advice of a lawyer or specific written approval of the particular use by the copyright holder or licensing agent. Further, the local church should maintain a copyright file that contains all written advice obtained from an attorney(s), all licenses/permissions for use of works, and records of any payments made to licensors or owners of copyrighted works.

Overview of United States Copyright Law:

Copyright protection extends to “original works of authorship fixed in any tangible medium of expression, now known or later developed, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device.” 17 U.S.C. § 102(a). A copyright does not require registration. A copyright in a work arises from the moment an original work of authorship is fixed in the tangible medium (e.g., when pencil touches paper). Section 102 further provides that “[w]orks of authorship include the following categories:

- (1) literary works;
- (2) musical works, including any accompanying words;
- (3) dramatic works, including any accompanying music;
- (4) pantomimes and choreographic works;
- (5) pictorial, graphic and sculptural works;
- (6) motion pictures and other audiovisual works;
- (7) sound recordings; and
- (8) architectural works.”

Copyright protection may extend to compilations and derivative works that are lawfully created. 17 U.S.C. § 106. The owner of a copyright “has the exclusive rights to do and to authorize any of the following:

- (1) to reproduce the copyrighted work in copies or phonorecords;
- (2) to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted work;
- (3) to distribute copies or phonorecords of the copyrighted work to the public by sale or other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending;
- (4) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and motion pictures and other audiovisual works, to perform the copyrighted work publicly;
- (5) in the case of literary, musical, dramatic, and choreographic works, pantomimes, and pictorial, graphic, or sculptural works, including the individual images of a motion picture or other audiovisual work, to display the copyrighted work publicly; and
- (6) in the case of sound recordings, to perform the copyrighted work publicly by means of a digital audio transmission.”

Infringement occurs when you violate one or more of the exclusive rights of a copyright owner. Infringement is a serious matter that may result in a claim of copyright infringement against the person who violates the exclusive rights, as well as against the local church. Remedies for infringement include actual damages, profits of the infringer, or, alternatively, statutory damages. 17 U.S.C. § 504. With certain caveats or exceptions, a copyright owner may elect statutory damages instead of actual damages or profits of the infringer (which is especially applicable in cases where there is no actual damage or profit from the infringement) in a range of not less than $750 to no more than $30,000 per work “as the court considers just.” 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1). Statutory damages may be increased to no more than $150,000 per work if the infringer’s conduct was willful. 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(2).

When in doubt about whether a work is copyrighted or whether a particular use would constitute infringement, the church should always seek appropriate advice.

Licenses:

One means to comply with federal law and avoid a claim for copyright infringement is to obtain a license from the owner, or from a representative of the owner, of the work you want to use. This is the best practice and is strongly recommended. Although there are a variety of representatives of copyright owners, well-known licensing companies include, but are not limited to, CCLI (Christian Copyright Licensing, Inc.), CVLI (Christian Video Licensing International), ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, WorshipCast, OneLicense, Christian Copyright Solutions, and LicenSing. There are basic licenses that fit most churches’ use of copyrighted materials, and there are a number of supplemental licenses for particular uses such as rehearsal licensing, live streaming, podcasts, videos, and use of video clips. For musical works, it is important to remember that you will need a license to both the musical composition (the notes on page) and the lyrics. You also should confirm that the songs or videos are within the catalog of works covered by each license. If they are not, then the church should obtain written permission from the copyright holder. Churches should consult with licensing companies concerning the scope of use covered by various licenses and concerning particular practices and uses of copyrighted materials to avoid inadvertent copyright infringement.

Pricing for licenses varies by work. For example, the cost of a license from OneLicense is based upon average weekly attendance of the church. One-time use, weekly use, and annual licenses are available. Reporting usage of a song to the licensing company is required in accordance with the requirements of the license. It is important to keep good records of the use of the works in order to be accurate in your licensing payments and minimize any claims by the copyright holder or its representatives that you have not paid sufficient amounts.

Written Permission:

Written permission from a copyright holder gives a local church protection. This is particularly helpful when the intended use of copyrighted material is not clearly within the scope of a license. As indicated above, any written permission obtained from a copyright holder should be maintained in a copyright folder by the church.

Public Domain:

Intellectual property that is in the public domain is not subject to copyright infringement. Public domain status is usually indicated on the face of sheet music or on a CD jacket. A church should not assume that intellectual property is in the public domain simply because copyright information is not on the face of the work. In addition, the fact that one version of a work is in the public domain does not mean that a new copyrighted arrangement of the work can be used without a license or written permission from the copyright holder.

Fair Use:

Although rarely available in a church setting, the fair use exception found in 17 U.S.C. § 107 may be available when a church, including a Sunday school class, uses a copyrighted work or a part thereof for teaching or comment, including in a documentary. The teaching exception in 17 U.S.C. § 110(2) may also be helpful to Sunday school classes. In the educational context, the U.S. Copyright Office has published an advisory circular containing guidelines for fair uses of copyrighted works in educational settings. It is available at <http://www.copyright.gov/circs/circ21.pdf>. A group cannot use the fair use doctrine to edit or redact copyrighted materials to remove portions to which it objects even if it sells the edited version with the original version. Fair use is a factual determination that includes, but is not limited to, the following factors:

- (1) the purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes;
- (2) the nature of the copyrighted work;
- (3) the amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole; and
- (4) the effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

It is important to recognize that a work is not freely available for copying simply because it is out of print. The same factors for fair use apply to determine whether such work may be copied and the amount of the portion copied.

Religious Worship Service Exemption:

17 U.S.C. § 110(3) provides a limited exemption for the “performance of a nondramatic literary or musical work or of a dramatico-musical work of a religious nature, or display of a work, in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly.” This exception does not extend to broadcasting (by radio or television), webcasting, live-streaming, podcasting, or recording of the parts of worship services that include copyrighted works, all of which require a license or the written permission of the copyright holder. For this reason, some churches limit their broadcasts of worship services to those parts of the service that do not contain copyrighted works.

Hymnals:

Hymnals are also copyrighted, and there are limitations on how the copyrighted information may be used, even if your church has purchased the hymnals. Hymns that are listed in the hymnal as being in the public domain may be reproduced without permission. Lyrics from copyrighted hymns may be reproduced in the worship bulletin as long as the church has published hymnals for the congregation and as long as the reprinting is done in accordance with the requirements of the copyright in the hymnal. One typical requirement is to properly note the copyright information in the bulletin. Consult the hymnal and any related license for proper use of the copyrighted songs in a hymnal.

Worship:

A. Music performed by choir

A choir may only use legal copies of copyrighted music. The music may not be copied to make additional copies for practice or teaching by staff or members of the choir.

One exception is that musicians are allowed to make copies of pages of music to avoid page turning.

If a publisher lists a copyrighted work as “out of print,” the publisher should be contacted for permission to make copies and to possibly negotiate a reduced fee.

If a choir director or musician desires to create a different arrangement of copyrighted music, written permission should be obtained from the copyright holder.

B. Music performed by organist

The requirements in Part A of this section apply. One possible exception is that an organist or other musician may make copies of a legally purchased work to avoid having to turn pages during a performance.

C. Music performed by guest performers or musicians

The requirements in Parts A and B of this section apply.

D. Lyrics projected on screen during worship

Section 110(3) of the Copyright Act permits the display of a literary or musical work in the course of services at a place of worship or other religious assembly. This display does not include the right to record (via cell phone, video, or otherwise) the projection of the literary or musical work.

Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

E. Lyrics printed in bulletin

See the discussion above regarding the use of songs that appear in hymnals purchased by the church. Lyrics that appear in hymnals or other works legally purchased may be used in accordance with the requirements and conditions set out in the works.

Typically, a specified copyright reference is required. If other lyrics are used in a bulletin, they may only be printed with written permission of the copyright holder or a license.

F. Live streaming of worship music

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. The same is true for podcasting. Otherwise, these uses constitute copyright infringement.

Christian Copyright Solutions offers a WORSHIPcase license that applies to every song that is licensed by ASCAP, BMI or SESAC. CCLI also offers a streaming/podcasting license.

G. Recording of music in worship for later video broadcast

H. Recording of performances in worship on CDs or DVDs

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. There may be additional restrictions if the CDs or DVDs are sold to raise funds, unless the proceeds are used solely for the church’s ministry. The church should contact its license provider for guidance.

I. Recording children’s choir performances and uploading the recordings to Facebook, YouTube, or similar social media

Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. If the person making this recording is not an employee or staff member of the church, then any infringement is arguably the individual liability of the person making the recording and not the church, although there may be an argument that the person was acting on behalf of the church. To avoid any liability, the church should not make use of unauthorized recordings and should communicate to the church membership that the church is not authorizing the recordings.

- J. Use of copyrighted art, graphics, or written works in bulletin
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.
- K. Use of video clips
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, the use constitutes copyright infringement. CCLI has a specific license known as ScreenVue for this use.
- L. Pastor's use of copyrighted material in sermon
Reading a copyrighted poem, an excerpt from a copyrighted book, or a copyrighted quotation as a part of a sermon in a worship space for a worshipping congregation may be permitted under the religious service exemption. However, it appears to be clear that printing or recording a sermon that contains such copyrighted materials is a violation of the copyright laws unless the use meets the fair use exception discussed above.
Best Practice: Obtain a license that permits such use or obtain written permission from the copyright holder.

Sunday School:

- A. Use of music
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Sunday school class is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.
- B. Use of videos
The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even in Sunday school classes, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.
- C. Use of articles or pictures as teaching aids
There should be no copyright infringement if the articles or pictures used are legally purchased and are not reproduced.

Youth Activities:

- A. Use of music
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. Simply playing legally purchased CDs or other recordings in a Youth Activity is likely authorized by the copyright permissions provided in the CD case, but the church should comply with any limitations or conditions set forth in the case.
- B. Use of videos
The requirements of Part A of this section apply. However, if a video is labeled "For In-Home Viewing" or some similar warning, public showing of the video, even at a youth activity, is not permitted. Carefully read the copyright information on the video case or at the beginning of the video to ascertain the permitted uses.

- C. Syncing songs to youth videos
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required. Permission to synchronize copyrighted music is difficult to secure. Copyrighted music may have already been licensed for this use or may be available for license on the internet, and that option should be explored. Open Sound Resource and Magna Tune may be helpful resources for this purpose. Syncing of songs to videos is common on YouTube and Vimeo (see, e.g., <http://ultimateclassicrock.com/peanuts-classic-rock/>), but youth groups should exercise caution and seek permission before using a copyrighted work.
- D. Use of copyrighted works in social media
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required.

Choir:

- A. Photocopying of copyrighted work
This is prohibited without written permission by the copyright holder. As noted above in Worship, Part A, however, there is a procedure for obtaining permission for reproducing copies of copyrighted works that are “out of print.”
- B. Performing music outside of worship services, including recitals and concerts
Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. However, limited permission may already be granted in the copyright information on the face of legally purchased copies of the music. In such cases, the terms of the pre-approval should be followed, which will likely include printing or displaying the appropriate copyright information concerning the work.
- C. Recording choir performances
Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, the recording constitutes copyright infringement.
- D. Making CDs or DVDs of performances
Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement.
- E. Making rehearsal tape
Either a license or written permission from the copyright holder is required. Otherwise, this practice constitutes copyright infringement. However, some choral works come with optional rehearsal recordings that can be used as provided in the copyright provisions. However, additional copies cannot be made.

Other Issues:

- A. Movie Nights
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required, regardless of whether there is a charge for viewing the movie. In addition to the licensing companies noted above in the section on Licenses, a license to show a motion picture can be obtained from the Motion Picture Licensing Corporation (www.mplc.com).
- B. Dinner Theaters
Either written permission from the copyright holder or a license is required, regardless of whether there is a charge for the dinner theater.
- C. Church websites

Any use of copyrighted material on a church website requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

D. Conferences/Seminars/Retreats

E. Funerals

F. Weddings

G. Newsletters

Any use of copyrighted material in a newsletter requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

H. Church signs containing copyrighted statements, quotations, or photos

Any use of copyrighted material on church signage requires either written permission from the copyright holder or a license.

I. Artwork

A copyrighted image should not be used without permission from the copyright holder or a license.

J. Telephone recordings

Pre-programmed telephone recordings that include copyrighted work but which are part of the telephone voice-mail system are assumed to be authorized for use by the purchaser. However, it is prudent to read the information provided by the seller of the voice-mail system to confirm that authorization and to ensure that the agreement with the seller includes an indemnification clause to cover any infringement that may occur via the telephone system. Copying a song to create a ringtone does constitute copyright infringement. However, playing a ringtone in public - i.e., its normal function - has been found to be excepted from copyright infringement and no public performance license is required.

K. Zumba, Exercise Classes, Etc.

A performance license is required, usually from ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, or from an agent for those companies (such as CCS's PERFORMmusic). However, a license may not be required for Zumba original music if the church or an authorized staff person is a part of the Zumba Instructor Network.

We are grateful for the insights and drafting assistance from the Arkansas Annual Conference.
